A week coven paid member Corey Goode, Robert David Steele's boy puppet Jordan Sather, and the man who steal others material, ideas, intel and website Dr. Michael E. Salla now support Earth planetary pole shift that drives dimensional consciousness shift, predicted in 1974 by futurist and Carter govt secret agent Alfred Lambremont Webre oh dear in his book THE AGE OF CATAclysm, a case of where all going to die again. A week also revealed that Alt media outlet NewsInsideOut.com in their own words, "consistently serves news and information to over two dozen departments and agencies of the U.S. government alone" A week where Newsguard (fact checker similar to Langley agent Snopes) crosses the pond to the UK and appoints a NATO general to run it. And a week where the Citadel group owned NY police bravely tackled crime in the area by? arresting cyclists for having no bell on their bikes, they should have put the cops on the bikes and said look there is a bell on the bike, a bellend. Arrest Clinton and Huma for skinning a child's face oh no, just people on cycles with no bells, find out who these cops are and lets put their names out and shame them. I have a feeling it won't be the last we hear about New York this evening, enjoy the show. The gift that keeps giving that is Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez makes news again for her stupidity, this time not knowing the difference between a Republican or Democrat senator, paid actor needs more training me thinks. As Verizon announces plans for latest financial harvesting plan it said customers can now preorder the new Samsung Galaxy S10 5G -- the phone maker's only 5G-ready phone -- starting at $1300.

In March, the Mayor hastily proposed a 225-bed homeless shelter on The Embarcadero in the middle of a densely-populated diverse family neighborhood (read rich area). We all want to help the homeless and fully support efforts to eliminate the causes of homelessness, but the Mayor has put expediency over safety in choosing this location for the city's largest-ever Navigation Center. The community is fully supportive of efforts to end homelessness. South Beach is home to the Delancey Street Foundation, a residential facility helping former drug users recover from their addictions and others facing difficult situations, including the formerly homeless. The East Cut is home to Rene Cazenave, which provides housing for the formerly homeless, as well as most of the new affordable housing in the City. The rushed process the Mayor is following to build the homeless shelter by the end of the summer is concerning to the community. We are worried that the rushed process puts the political goal of building a large Navigation Center ahead of legitimate concerns about public safety, drug use, and other problems that a large shelter may bring to the community. In my opinion these facilities should be put into all the rich neighborhoods as a reminder of their own selfish ways of operating, these are the type of vacuous cretins who will ignore a human being on the street, but funds fake churches and cults. To the residents of South Beach, San Francisco who have raised $102K to date in one month you people disgust me, can raise $102K to protect your privileged zone, but not support anyone inside of it? perhaps karma will apply one day, given you are in a quake zone maybe a good rattle there might re-ignite your few human caring brain cells, like Manhattan, this is another place to boycott, selfish shallow bastards.

Some of the reasoning behind Assange removal from Ecuador embassy. Former and much loved Ecuadorian President Rafael Correa has accused Ecuadorean President Lenin Moreno of suspending the asylum of cyber-activist Julian Assange in order to obtain a loan from the International Monetary Fund (IMF). Correa said that there is evidence of the agreement and that Moreno, who Correa selected as his successor, has promised to “hand over” Assange in a 2017 meeting with Paul Manafort, former US campaign chief to Donald Trump. Former President Correa, who broke with Moreno, also commented on visits to Ecuador by US Vice President Mike Pence. At these times, Moreno would have promised to “help isolate Venezuela, leave the Chevron oil corporation, a company that destroyed half of the Amazon rainforest, unpunished, and to deliver Assange.” Last month, the IMF announced approval of a $4.2 billion loan to Ecuador. The first installment, of $652 million, has already been paid. I guarantee they won't see the rest.

Monday everyone is screaming at the Munchkin, the Treasury is now figuring out that they were lied to also, yes you have all been lied to, every single govt and non government departments, including all agencies and all branches of Military, time to correct it.

As of Monday you now have congress and the appropriations committee calling for Mnuchin's retirement, spelt F I R E D Perhaps there was more than meets the eye in exchange between Maxine Waters and Mnuchin last week or so.

More transfers were done and it was found 3 people inside The Treasury affiliated to the entity known as Hillary Clinton, were calling all banks and blocking all transfers to The Pentagon and MWHT funds. Treasury secretary Mnuchin has appeared to go into hiding over the last few days, which may or may not be significant at this stage. What this signifies is, Kim and the team are very close to delivering the funds, that doesn't mean it is tomorrow, this week or next week, it happens when it happens, but the fact it is now down to just human level blocking shows that progress has been made on the overhaul of the banking system level, eventually, there will be no need for human interaction, the funds will go direct from point A to point B, regardless of their input.

The ongoing work, which is a daily event to correct, modify or delete aspects of the old banking system continues, they are throwing all kinds of resources at us to prevent that, and we are doing our part to not only prevent them doing their part, but push forward with ultimate goals, of making all banks and banking transparent, fair and a whole heap cleaner. This work will be ongoing like a game of chess, but like the Head of The Fed said to The Treasury back in February meeting, "you do know we are fucked", people in general have no idea of the works that goes into and has been done to fix this problem, that lays the foundation for a better financial system, it is not a case of push this button and just do this and that as some assume, far from it, and Kim and the team are going as fast as we can, under are very testing conditions.

Two satellites were caught interfering with the Quantum system was destroyed in the past week, we warned you of the consequences of interfering with our system, and the actions that would follow.

The reasons for the reporting of internet outages globally is as follows, certain servers get fried for interfering in due process, they then use other servers designated for different specific purposes to stay ahead of the game, hence outages.

Rothschild's organizing another fire sale at Christie's this week is another sign of their struggle, and another sign of their collapsing empire

Banks are coming under fire from all sides now, due blocking funds from the Trust, but also any loans to other groups or depts. Why? because there is not a lot to lend is why, they are strangling everything currently, and things are in motion to correct that as I understand, that move can or will change everything.

This and the next two intel items are all tied together, Trump mentioned British Intelligence rogue involvement this week, the connections to that is, the Blue Dragon group ran by Hillary Clinton in the UK.

A video was released in intel that was known to us, but as this was operational we kept quiet, Q anons released a video of Fox news and at around 11 minutes Joe DeGenova spoke of forward implications of Mueller investigations, before and during the investigation of widespread skullduggery, take note of it.

Now tie this in with last weeks intel, picture becomes much clearer, Trump via an executive order has transferred all security clearance work to the Pentagon, it potentially sets the stage for the renamed Defense Security Service to takeover the background investigations for the entire federal community, with a specific timeline given to implement it. This is potentially bigger than you may think at this stage.

MachsomWatch is a volunteer organization of Israeli women who are peace activists from all sectors of society. We oppose the Israeli occupation in the area known as the West Bank, we oppose the appropriation of Palestinian land and the denial of Palestinian human rights. We support the right of Palestinians to move freely in their land and oppose the checkpoints which severely restrict Palestinian daily life. Since 2001 we have been observing and reporting on the Occupation. On a daily basis, we monitor the West Bank checkpoints, the separation fences, the agricultural gates, (Gates Because the 'separation fence' follows such an absurd route, it has been necessary to install a number of gates that let children go to their schools and permit farmers access to their fields (q.v. 'seam area'). In actual practice, it is the army that controls these gates and opens and closes them as it sees fit. Thus, for example, during the olive harvest, it is the army which determines the hours when the gates will open and close and thus exactly how long the olive-harvest season can last. In many areas, the Palestinians have simply been forbidden to work their lands at any point in the year, a prohibition whose effect is already visible in the run-down state of the olive groves.) the military courts and Palestinian villages. We document what we see and what is reported to us by local Palestinians. Through our observations, reports, films, photographs and tours we aim to influence public opinion in Israel and throughout the world by recording and authenticating the impossible conditions faced by the Palestinians under Israeli occupation; conditions which also corrode the fabric of Israeli society and the values of democracy. We attempt to ease the frustrations and hardships of Palestinians by offering formal assistance wherever we can.

Greta Thunberg, activist suddenly on a world stage pushing for climate change, but this is no ordinary child, her mother is an international opera singer and father an actor. On 20 August 2018, Thunberg, who had just started ninth grade, decided to not attend school until the 2018 Sweden general election on 9 September. and she protested by sitting outside the Riksdag every day during school hours with the sign (school strike for the climate). From October 2018 onwards, Thunberg's activism evolved from solitary protesting to taking part in demonstrations throughout Europe. UN General Secretary António Guterres has endorsed the school strikes initiated by Thunberg. Thunberg and her family drove in an electric car to London, where she addressed the 'Declaration of Rebellion' organized by Extinction Rebellion opposite the Houses of Parliament. On 24 November 2018, she spoke at TEDxStockholm. Thunberg addressed the COP24 United Nations climate change summit on 4 December 2018. and also spoke before the plenary assembly on 12 December 2018. On 23 January 2019, Thunberg arrived in Davos after a 32-hour train journey, On 21 February 2019, she spoke at a conference of the European Economic and Social Committee and to European Commission chief Jean-Claude Juncker, where she demanded that to still meet the climate goals the EU must reduce their CO 2 emissions by at least 80% until 2030. Later, she joined the climate protests in Brussels. Like that happens in real life? child decides to not go to school and gets away with it, what happens is CPS steps in removes the child and sends it to foster parents without recourse from parents or lawyers. These people think we are stupid, where is the child prodigy on child sex trafficking, child sacrifices or organ harvesting? not part of the program you see, climate change is another way old system claims resources of each country, now they dont have access to the Trust funds, and why with our notification

Trump pulled out of Paris climate agreement, it has little to do with climate and everything to do with claiming 2% of every countries GDP to keep their system of harvesting going.

* FinCEN's director expressed its mission in November 2013 as "to safeguard the financial system from illicit use, combat money laundering and promote national security."(national security means helping the clowns cover up their own crimes) FinCEN serves as the U.S. Financial Intelligence Unit (FIU) and is one of 147 FIUs making up the Egmont Group of Financial Intelligence Units. FinCEN's self-described motto is "follow the money."(yes you did then funneled it all to Clinton Foundation!) The website states: "The primary motive of criminals is financial gain, and they leave financial trails as they try to launder the proceeds of crimes or attempt to spend their ill-gotten profits." It is a network bringing people and information together, by coordinating information sharing with law enforcement agencies, regulators and other partners in the financial industry. FinCEN was established by order of the Secretary of the Treasury (Treasury Order Numbered 105-08) on April 25, 1990. In May 1994, its mission was broadened to include regulatory responsibilities, and in October 1994 the Treasury Department's precursor of FinCEN, the Office of Financial Enforcement was merged with FinCEN. On September 26, 2002, after Title III of the PATRIOT Act was passed, Treasury Order 180-01 made it an official bureau in the Department of the Treasury. In September 2012, The 2001 USA PATRIOT Act required the Secretary of the Treasury to create a secure network for the transmission of information to enforce the relevant regulations. FinCEN's regulations under Section 314(a) enable federal law enforcement agencies, through FinCEN, to reach out to more than 45,000 points of contact at more than 27,000 financial institutions to locate accounts and transactions of persons that may be involved in terrorist financing and/or money laundering. (Under the banner of national security it allowed them access to all banks and accounts without warrant, this then allowed clowns to steal from accounts with impunity and no oversight) In July 2011, FinCEN added "other value that substitutes for currency" to its definition of money services businesses in preparation to adapt the respective rule to virtual currencies. (proving they were linked with CIA and NSA who created crypto) On March 18, 2013 FinCEN issued a guidance regarding virtual currencies, according to which, exchangers and administrators, but not users of convertible virtual currency are considered money transmitters, and must comply with rules to prevent money laundering/terrorist financing ("AML/CFT") and other forms of financial crime, by record-keeping, reporting and registering with FinCEN. (So to the people who still think crypto is getting around the system, there is where it fails in that line) FinCEN's value is hard to gauge without publication of evidence. It does not disclose how many 'Suspicious Activity Reports' result in investigations, indictments or convictions, and no studies exist to tally how many reports are filed on innocent people.(as said earlier, no oversight) FinCEN and money laundering laws have been criticized for being expensive and relatively ineffective, while violating Fourth Amendment rights as an investigator may use FinCEN's government database system to investigate people instead of crimes. (no shit sherlock) In February 2019, it is reported, Mary Daly, William Barr's oldest daughter, is to leave her position at the United States Deputy Attorney General's office for a FinCEN position. Did you know William Barr the new attorney general was born in New York, born to a Jewish parent.

The topic of IQ came up and it is funny how some people perceive by country, that automatically they will be higher or lower in the IQ scale of countries, depending on their world view and economic status. Well the country with highest IQ is Japan, followed by Taiwan, USA is 30th behind countries that should alarm you, of the scale of the taught stupidity here. Tyler Durden did a good piece on it on Zerohedge, using the old term retard resides at an IQ of 89 and below, the new term simple or incapable renders it no better in terms of the impact. The impact on a social level is enormous, the impact on an economic level is worse, this is why America has outsourced everything, we have not trained sufficient people in the higher IQ skillset jobs, and haven't done since the 1920's, since the Ford group demanded Carnegie's to dumb down their teachings, as they were producing too many Teslas, it was so successful they rolled it into the public schools, with damaging consequences. I am going to read out the top end IQ countries in reverse and it should be seen as a national embarrassment, of how are so called leaders have allowed things to get this far, nobody expects us to be number one in everything but should we be this far behind? In the second part I will read out countries with the lowest IQ, there is a common denominator in many of them, they have been invaded by the US

Military, co-incidence? you decide.

The U.S asked all countries to follow the example of Malta, which did not allow two Russian planes to cross their airspace that were bound for Venezuela, said on Friday the official representative of the State Department, Morgan Ortagus. Morgan Ortagus greatly appreciated the Maltese government's decision on April 4 who refused without explanation permission to cross Maltese airspace of two airplanes carrying goods and passengers to Venezuela from Russia. Malta would, as the whole island is owned by the knights. The year 1530 is when the Knights' chapter in Malta starts. Charles V of Spain (then ruler of Malta as King of Sicily) gave the Knights the islands of Malta and Gozo, as well as the city of Tripoli (present-day capital of Libya). Before becoming known as Knights of Malta they were called Knights Hospitaller and the Order of St. John who received their own papal charter in 11th century. Patron saint Jean Baptiste not John the Baptist, kind of fits the French connection given Mary fled to the Montsegur region. St. John also has links to Red Cross group, who were established also by 5 french people, remember in 1100 French were the dominant country back then, and it was them in 1215 who established Magna Carta, which was for elite landowner benefits, not we the people.

*did you know construction of the pentagram better known as the pentagon which started in 1941 began on September 11th? 50 years to the day GHW Bush did his when we are successful with the NWO speech, 10 years later on same date was twin towers.

*did you know the business model of a co-operative has a survival rate of 80% compared to 44% and falling of cor-pirate model.

*did you know Robert David Steele apparently has added 247 twitter users as co-conspirators to his case? Robert David Steele on November 8, 2017 did a piece called #GoogleGestapo -Censorship and Crowdstaking Made Easy: How The Deep State Controls Social Media and Digitally Assassinates Critics. hmm Mr. Steele, the same Robert David Steele who stated publically his claim to having once headed up a CIA false flag operation in South America. I wonder whether the people of South America should consider suing for an event that possibly killed people (disclaimer: although there is no concrete proof of that) is a more valid reason for suing people, than someone typing a few words on the internet.

*Clowns still putting it all in our face via Sri Lanka that will allow for massive transfers of laundered money for the carnage there, and also pull at heart strings of people globally to pay into, what is a slush fund for the elites to keep going, and float some banks, but also the other harvesting of funds off people called Notre Dame fire. Where a so called dignitary just happened to be there at the exact same time, and also wearing a necklace that said the word "burning" on it, you can't make this shit up. But there is another more serious connotation to that necklace worn by a black 1/2 woman 1/2 man entity, there is an old term called necklacing, whereby a tyre was forced around a black persons neck and set on fire, the burning necklace eh Mrs Obama, me thinks you have some explaining to do, sometimes they went further and chopped off the victims hands to stop them removing the tyre, surely Michael Obama is aware of that heinous practice, not done by white fascist KKK members in the deep south of America, no, that practice like the slavery trade originated from Africa, this is what black South Africans did to their own people they considered to be traitors to their community, yet again I am calling for the black communities to call these traitors to humanity out, like Justin Smollet, Michael or Michelle is an utter disgrace to the people of their color.

*Following the awful ordeal of Nusrat Jahan Rafi was doused with kerosene and set on fire at her school in Bangladesh. It is time to highlight plight of women middle east, Asia and SE Asia, According to women's rights group Bangladesh Mahila Parishad, there were 940 incidents of rape in Bangladesh in 2018. But researchers say the real number is likely to be much higher. The second hand citizen level is improving in Middle East and Asia, but not quick enough. Women told they can't drive, must cover up on beaches and elsewhere even in the summer heat, whilst Ahmed walks around in shorts and flip flops, women having to walk yards behind their husbands, women being stoned for reporting rapes for becoming unclean, women must stay virgin before marriage or again face being stoned or burnt to death, all very Vatican, cult of RA and Kali Ma that to me. These practices are barbaric, and archaic, the days of the hunter gatherers dragging women around by the hair is long gone chaps, time to develop into a proper race and culture that values all, as equals. Yes I am aware of the dangers of the excess displayed by far too many woman in the West, but there needs to be some balance here, like the 21-year-old Shaimaa Ahmed from Egypt was jailed along with her producer for two years for singing in her underwear and eating a banana seductively on a YT video. Two years for doing a video albeit one that is distasteful to some, and yet Jeffrey Epstein rapes and abuses 10's if not 100's of underage girls and gets 13 months jail, it is beyond comprehension. It is time we had a proper global human rights organization that went into these countries and imposed human basic laws, seen as these communities are incapable of it. Sovereignty can't come quick enough as that puts us all as equals, but a change of mindset is the greater goal, and all are responsible themselves for doing that, you don't need rules and laws to behave in a responsible manner.

Mitt Romney. Everyone knows that he is fantastically rich, having scored great success, as the legend goes, as a “turnaround specialist,” a shrewd (has a different connotation now than original, shrewd meant wicked evil man) a financial operator (read snake oil) who revived struggling companies, as a high-priced consultant for a storied Wall Street private equity firm. But what most voters don't know is the way Mitt Romney actually made his fortune: by borrowing vast sums of money that other people were forced to pay back. This is the plain, stark reality that has somehow eluded America's top political journalists for two consecutive presidential campaigns: Mitt Romney is one of the greatest and most irresponsible debt creators of all time. In the past few decades, in fact, Romney has piled more debt onto more unsuspecting companies, written more gigantic checks that other people have to cover, than perhaps all but a handful of people on planet Earth. Talking about debt as a focal point of his campaign, is staggering hypocrisy of the highest levels by Romney, but then he like many other politicians have free reign to say what they like, with no comebacks, unless you happen to be named Donald Trump, then it becomes a free for all. A man makes a $250 million fortune loading up companies with debt, and then extracting million-dollar fees from those same companies, in exchange for the generous service of telling them who needs to be fired, in order to finance the debt payments he saddled them with in the first place. This was all with Bain capital which SEC documents prove he was still a part of it, whilst he went off making another money harvesting escapade known as The Olympics in Salt Lake, and another of these rich elite family politicians who managed to sidestep military service, like Bush Jnr. Venture capitalism a business model that involved borrowing huge sums of money to take over existing firms, then extracting value from them by force, this form of financial piracy became known as a leveraged buyout. A private equity firm like Bain typically seeks out floundering businesses with good cash flows. It then puts down a relatively small amount of its own money, and runs to a big bank like Goldman Sachs or Citigroup for the rest of the financing. (Most leveraged buyouts are financed with 60 to 90 percent borrowed cash.) The takeover firm then uses that borrowed money to buy a controlling stake in the target company, either with or without its consent. When an LBO is done without the consent of the target, it's called a hostile takeover; such thrilling acts of corporate piracy were made legend in the Eighties. Romney and Bain avoided the hostile approach, preferring to secure the cooperation of their takeover targets by buying off a company's management with lucrative bonuses. Once management is on board, the rest is just math. So if the target company is worth $500 million, Bain might put down $20 million of its own cash, then borrow $350 million from an investment bank to take over a controlling stake. But here's the catch. When Bain borrows all of that money from the bank, it's the target company that ends up on the hook for all of the debt. Now your troubled firm, has been taken over by a bunch of slick Wall Street dudes who kicked in as little as five percent as a down payment, now owes Goldman or Citigroup $350 million. With all that new debt service to pay, the company's bottom line is suddenly untenable, You have to start firing people immediately just to get your costs down to a manageable level, takeover complete, and Romney has the audacity to question anyone else ethics and business practices, he is the embodiment of where he came from and the church he represents, seedy, snake oil, fake and corrupt, add in child molestation and your set is complete Mr. Romney.

The medias attempts (3 different groups to date) to blame terrorist organizations for the Sri Lanka bombings, which was far too sophisticated and organized for a rag tag army, this was agency level planning in my opinion. Name thrown up was a new one so did some research on them, and something real interesting popped up for those that remember From Russia with love series. The Baluch is a Muslim community found in the state of Uttar Pradesh, India. They are descended from Baloch tribesmen who settled in this region of North India in the late Middle Ages. The community use the surname Khan, and are often known as Khan Baloch. The three Baloch adventurers Ismail Khan, Fattah Khan, and Ghazi Khan, founded the three Dehras (encampments) that bear their names, and established themselves as independent rulers of the Lower Derajat and Muzaffargarh, which they and their descendants held for nearly 300 years. The three brothers founded the settlements of Dera Ghazi Khan, Dera Ismail Khan and Darya Khan. Thence the southern Balochis gradually spread into the valleys of the Indus, Chenab, and Sutlej, and in 1555 a large body of Balochis, under their great leader Mir Chakar, accompanied the Emperor Humayun into India. These Baloch are descendants of mercenaries brought by the Nawabs of Awadh. Nawabs of Awadh were descendants from which place? Nishapur Iran, which was ransacked by Ghengis Khan. They marry with other Muslim communities and some members are endogamous (the practice of marrying within a specific social group, caste or ethnic group, rejecting those from others as unsuitable for marriage or other close personal relationships), marrying within close kin, and like other North Indian Muslim communities. The Baloch practice both cross cousin and parallel cousin marriages, all very Kali Ma/Khazarian/Cult of RA that to me.

Those linked with Sri Lankan bombing somehow I think that is a ruse, based on ancient principles, when you hear this narrative of how that island was built up and on whose principles. Anagarika Dharmapala was one of the leading contributors to the Buddhist revival of the 19th century that led to the creation of Buddhist institutions and Buddhist schools to match those of the Christian missionaries, and to the independence movement of the 20th century. He illustrated the first three points in a public speech: "This bright, beautiful island was made into a Paradise by the Aryan Sinhalese before its destruction was brought about by the barbaric vandals. Its people did not know none religion... Christianity and polytheism are responsible for the vulgar practices of killing animals, stealing, prostitution, licentiousness, lying and drunkenness... The ancient, historic, refined people, under the diabolism of vicious paganism, introduced by the British administrators, are now declining slowly away.

Shedim (Hebrew: שְׁדִיִּים) are spirits or demons in early Jewish mythology. However, they are not necessarily equivalent to the modern connotation of demons as evil entities. Evil spirits were thought as the cause of maladies; conceptual differing from the shedim, who are not evil demigods, but the foreign gods themselves. Shedim are just evil in the sense that they are not God. They appear only twice (always plural) in the Tanakh, at Psalm 106:37 and Deuteronomy 32:17 both times, it deals with child or animal sacrifices. Although the word is traditionally derived from the root ŠWD (Hebrew: שׁוּד shûd) that conveys the meaning of "acting with violence" or "laying waste" it was possibly a loanword from Akkadian in which the word shedu referred to a protective, benevolent spirit. The word may also derive from the "Sedim, Assyrian guard spirits" as referenced according to lore "Azazel slept with Naamah and spawned Assyrian guard spirits known as sedim". With the translation of Hebrew texts into Greek, under influence of Zoroastrian dualism, shedim were translated into daimonia with implicit negativity. Otherwise, later in Judeo-Islamic culture, shedim became the Hebrew word for Jinn with a morally ambivalent attitude. According to one legend, the shedim are descendants of serpents, or of demons in the form of serpents, alluding to the serpent in Eden as related in Genesis. To others they are descendants of Adam and Lilith. Another legend said that God had started making them, intending for them to be humans, but did not complete their creation because He was resting during the Sabbath. Even after the Sabbath, He left them how they were to show that when the Sabbath comes, all work must be viewed as complete. Shedim are said to have had the feet and claws of a rooster and share some characteristics both of humans and angels. Like angels, they know the future and have wings, but like humans they eat, drink, procreate and die. They can also cause sickness and misfortune. Supposedly, sinful people sacrificed their daughters to the shedim, but it is unclear if the sacrifice consisted in the murdering of the victims or in the sexual satisfaction of the demons. To see if the shedim were present in some place, ashes were thrown to the ground or floor, and then their footsteps became visible. The shedim are supposed to follow the dead or fly around graves. There are many things that one is admonished not to do in order to avoid invoking shedim, such as whistling or even saying the word "shedim". Judah ben Samuel of Regensburg wrote in his will and testament that one should not seal up windows completely because it traps shedim in the house.

A conversation piece came up in response to a guest Alan had on Circle of White Light show this week, it was a yoga expert and she is a good one from all accounts, but a question was raised on the subject about shielding before participating in that practice, and predictably with any expert on any subject, if that information is not in their field, they go defensive on it, like it is their fault for not knowing, this is a common theme for some in the alt media, they react badly to the information, and yet why is it a reflection of them or you, if you don't know things? It's not, nobody can possibly know everything on any single subject, the system made sure of that, so lets try and be less harsh on ourselves for not knowing things. Yoga involves pulling in energy streams from the field all around us, the great unseen energy, we can't see, smell, hear or touch, but with frequencies heightened you can sense and eventually feel the field, which is a compressed version of the energy around you.

Agent Orange used by the US military in Vietnam, Laos and Cambodia was developed by Arthur W. Galston, did you know Arthur was born in New York and born to Jewish parents. In 1951, biological warfare scientists at Fort Detrick, Maryland began investigating defoliants based upon Galston's Ph.D. discoveries with TIBA. They eventually produced the toxic defoliant Agent Orange used by the British Air Force during the Malayan Emergency and the U.S. Air Force during the Vietnam War. However after the horse had bolted, Galston was deeply affected by this development of his research. While the United States government argued that herbicides like Agent Orange did not qualify as chemical weapons, Galston asserted that their use was a violation of the United Nations Resolution of December 5, 1966 against the wartime use of "asphyxiating, poisonous or other gases" and "analogous liquids, materials or devices" Dow Chemical and Monsanto were the two largest producers of Agent Orange for the U.S. military.

Mike Pompeo "What's the cadet motto at West Point? You will not lie, cheat, or steal, or tolerate those who do. I was the CIA director. We lied, we cheated, we stole. It's — it was like — we had entire training courses. It reminds you of the glory of the American experiment." yes Mr. Pompeo a tragic experiment played out on the American people primarily and many others peoples around the world, with their fake wars, resources stealing, election meddling and assassination squads, an experiment indeed.

I sign of the times some always look for but at times can't see, we have been warning their funds and numbers are starting to dwindle, maybe this gives a pointer, bearing in mind it has escalated this year as well. Capitalism is taking some lumps—and not just in the headlines. For only the second year in a decade, both the number of billionaires and their total wealth shrank, proving that even the wealthiest are not immune to economic forces and weak stock markets. By our latest count there are 2,153 billionaires, 55 fewer than a year ago. Of those, a record 994, or 46%, are poorer (relatively speaking) than they were last year. In total, the ultra-rich are worth $8.7 trillion, down $400 billion from 2018. Altogether 11% of last year's list members, or 247 people, dropped out of the ranks, the most since 2009 at the height of the global financial crisis. Asia-Pacific was hardest hit, with 60 fewer 10-figure fortunes. That dip was led by China, which has 49 fewer billionaires than a year ago. Europe, the Middle East and Africa also lost ground. The Americas, driven by a resurgent Brazil, and the U.S. are the only two regions that have more billionaires than they did a year ago. There are now a record 607 in the U.S. That includes 14 of the world's 20 richest. Jeff Bezos is again number 1 in the world, followed by Bill Gates at number 2.

Not surprise to me but yet again we get idiocy, bizarre, fascist rhetoric coming out of New York, not content with their lets vaccinate everyone in the state, but now a New York State Assemblyman has introduced a bill that automatically selects people over 18 as organ donors. This means adults in New York would need to opt out of the registry as opposed to opt-in, as things currently stand. Pat Burke (D-Buffalo) said that "I'm introducing this legislation because I want to start a conversation about how we can get more people on the organ donation registry, and ultimately save more lives." If the bill passes, people over 18-years of age will need to opt out of donor registry on their drivers license applications. New York has the highest need for organ donations in the country, according to a press release by Burke, yes because it has the most elitist, satanic, billionaire parasites the world over is why Mr Burke, Burke by name and Burke by nature. Burke also says that the intention of the bill is not "harvesting organs." interesting terminology Mr. Burke. These psychopaths in Gotham have no idea when to stop, does anyone question whether they do any bills for and by the people? or just for and against people and their free will? forced vaccines and now potentially forced donors? Think long and hard about this scenario, they have database of all donors and dna or blood types, so one of their so called elites requires an organ, they run the database, find a match and target that individual, either by coercion or deadly force to acquire said organ, no Thomas they don't go that far, actually yes they do 100% I heard several conversations confirming this. This has been going on globally for a number of decades, I remember in the 1990's in my hometown people waking up in the street with no recollection of how they got there, only to find someone had done surgery on them and they were missing a kidney. Remember these organs are worth $90-225K on the market, it's big money, and remember the Wisconsin doctor telling 2-3000 patients they had cancer to issue treatment at exorbitant costs, when they had no cancer, so there is precedent. Remove yourself and ask all of your circle to get off their harvesting organs donor lists. #nondonor and given its that place again #walkawayfromNY

Regulation by combination means that railroad managers are feudal lords and you are their serfs. It means that every car load of grain, or other produce of your fields or shops that passes over the New York Central shall pay toll for the right to transit to Vanderbilt, the robber baron of our modern feudalism, who dominates that way. (stated in Congress 1874) This is how these Dutch, British, German, Jewish and House families created their monopoly here, we the people still pay for their greed today, but not content with cornering of the markets, these same groups went on to monopolize the whole country, with the Federal Reserve banking system. Where they use our money for their credit, they cream off the profits and roll the debt over to us. Change has been perceived to be slow and painful, it hasn't really it has been swift, brutal at times and self fulfilling for those who seek internal truths and proof, the external is largely remained hidden to date, but recent intel including tonight's suggests, we are on the brink of making that river flow of energy, reverse the opposite way.
