

THI-SHOW TRANSCRIPT 2019-06-27

Well it's been a busy week again for me on many fronts, of course we had the two shows over the weekend, clowns in panic and crypto nonsense, but also Holly and an AEWT which is proving to be popular, next up on that list this Sunday is Michael Jaquin webmaster extraordinaire. I have been invited on the Richard Hoagland show July 13th at midnight EST to discuss FRWL series only. I have been busy with the continuation of that series and wrote 90% of part 6 this week, Part 5 is just getting finishing touches also, so look forward to them. Also this coming Sunday I will be on Circle of White Light show with Alan and Randy which is always interesting, so as you can see I have been busy and why ridiculous comments on social media helps absolutely no one.

With black reparation money and continuing Jewish reparation money this week in Holland, plus they are trying to force the Poland government into paying $300B, the Israel Cohen plan from early 1900's is still all playing out. The money is one aspect, the divide and conquer is another. These same two groups have both had high profile staged attack events that were both faked, Smollet despite police evidence still walks free, designed to denigrate one group of people, and yet so few see it. Both of these are programs, neither are designed for the benefit of black or Jewish people, only to create a race war, and I am appealing to both communities to not buy into it.

I see the paid actor who looks eerily similar to Huma Abedin, Alexandre Ocasio Cortez or AOC which stands for agency operated clown, did her latest acting role of crying into an empty parking lot on camera, the parking lot is symbolic of the number of brain cells she has to me, like I have said politics which means many parasites is all theater.

Deutsche Bank's death spiral as the share price has dropped by over 90 percent since the 2008 financial crisis.

House in Malta is not being sold by the Queen the Crown is selling it. They claimed ownership of over all assets of the Queen, They do not own Buckingham palace either, They give them 2m per year to keep the place running plus expenses for travel etc Library of Alexandria is underneath that house.

We received another confirmation this week via the media of the existence and proof of funds from the Manna World Holding Trust, predictably the media and alt media clowns are trying to spin it. Anyone involved with getting funding is immediately accused of being rogue or a rogue organization is modus operandi of clowns currently. A group in a messaging application came to be formed to organize the implementation of the so-called "safe room" in the city of Florianópolis. This and other information is in the 156-page police inquiry conducted by the Federal Police detailing the alleged crimes committed by the criminal organization investigated in Operation Chabu and accused of obtaining and passing on sensitive information from police operations. The police investigation of the PF resulted in the decree of temporary detention for five days of seven people, among them the mayor of Florianópolis, Gean Loureiro, and 23 search warrants and seizure, in a decision of federal judge Leandro Paulsen, TRF4 (Regional Federal Court d 4th Region).

The document is based mainly on information collected from the mobile phones of the businessman José Augusto Alves and the Federal Police delegate, Fernando Amaro de Moraes Caieron, two of the seven defendants who had been temporarily detained. Alves is still in prison, while Caieron was released on Wednesday night, almost 48 hours after he was arrested in Porto Alegre (RS). The "Safe Room" group was created in a messaging application to deal with the implementation of the information leakage-proofed space that was supposed to be installed in Florianópolis prefecture. On April 27, 2018, Luciano Cunha Teixeira, commercial manager of Suntechs, announces that he will go to Paraguay to obtain the necessary equipment for the assembly of the room.

The group continues to discuss what would be the best equipment to set up the "safe room" of Florianopolis city hall. Teixeira even lists equipment that will be purchased, among them, audio recorders, spy cameras, and jammers, which emit signals with the same frequency used in the GSM network causing interference. By audio, Alves explains to the members of the group the necessary characteristics of the equipment and indicates that the intention is to sell to public agencies.

The participation of Caieron is highlighted by a "technical consulting" in the construction of safe environments to test police investigations and so that Teixeira can enter the country with the equipment acquired in Paraguay. To that end, Alves also tries to help a federal highway police officer from Foz do Iguacu, but is unsuccessful because he is far from the activity. However, on May 2, Teixeira informs that he was able to bring the equipment of Paraguay, a fact that is celebrated by the delegate through message icons.

In testimony given to the Federal Police, Mayor Gean Loureiro denied participation in the criminal organization and the existence of the so-called "safe room". Also according to Loureiro, agents of the Federal Police were in the city hall and did not find the equipment. The lawyers for Caieron, Teixeira and Alves were not located by the report of the ND.

Billion dollar investment

The federal police investigation also highlights that the businessman José Augusto Alves and the delegate of PF Fernando Caieron had "very large" business activities. One of them would be the intermediation to implant a project of $ 10 billion, the "Technological City", in the South of the Island of Santa Catarina.

For this, Alves and Caieron sought the mayor Gean Loureiro, who even sent office to Institute Meta 21 to present formal support to the project. Developed by Instituto Meta 21, the project would receive a US $ 10 billion contribution from an international fund, the Manna World Holding Trust.

However, in order for the Meta 21 Institute to receive the resources, Alves and Caieron tried to obtain the Central Bank's seal on the origin of the resources. To this end, they scheduled a meeting with the oversight of Banco do Brasil in Florianópolis. On the agenda, presentation of a letter of donation to the Central Bank, donation contract of the Meta 21 Institute for construction of the technological city, verification of the Central Bank of proof and origin of funds and government assistance in the release of the Central Bank.

However, Alves and Caieron were unable to obtain economic advantages from the negotiation because the commercial proposal of exchange operation was not supported by the COAF (Council for Financial Activities), that is, the bank refused to open a current account that would be used for the receipt of US $ 10 billion. (this after clown intervention)

During his testimony to the PF, Mayor Gean Loureiro confirmed that he had participated in a meeting to participate in the project, but stated that the work plan needed to raise funds from the international fund was never prepared due to lack of credibility after research on the international fund and that there was no requirement of counterpart of the city hall in the project.

In the police investigation, Caieron states that "he is not a partner, even if informal, occasional or sporadic José Augusto Alves in any commercial activity" and that he would have been invited, as well as Alves, to "integrate future project to be developed in the capital, which aims to develop technologies for humanitarian purposes.

Yes...the guy claudio which is that guys partner is a doctor who is using holistic and conventional medicine. He has cured several heads of state of cancer, That is who wants to build medical center.

By the way, the central bank of Brazil, intelligence agency and new president all verified the funds, then the Chinese promised the central bank governor 1 billion personally, if he would not let any funding into the country. From anyone including us. He still has not been paid and the country is going more broke by the day.

The Netherlands guy knows nothing as he was not involved much in the work in Brazil. This is what the clowns do, take an innocent transaction and then trump up bogus charges on people connected to or engaged with MWHT and present it to the public, these people are rogue on both sides. In essence this article is nothing to do with MWHT, but they are using media to write slightly misdirected articles, to do anything to discredit the Trust and the people wishing to do projects, with trumped up charges, they have tried everything to rake mud up on Kim, I and the team, all failed, so now they are reduced to portal people misdirection, oops. So to sum up this story, The Trust was giving $10B to support the work and build an advanced hospital for people who were vetted, and who have proven to cure cancer, and the clowns blocked it. To those in the alt media who choose to spin it for an agenda against me and Kim, neither of us care if you don't like us personally, as we both know it is your own reflections you don't like, but you all need to take a step back in your thinking process, supporting a cause that stops people being funded for a cancer cure hospital? is that your level of thinking? is that you and what you stand for? all love and light but supporting the clowns in the blocking of a cure for cancer. oh my the darkness not only prevails, but is spreading within you, with that much darkness the irony is some of you in that group, one day may need that hospital. Once again we would like to thank Bubba and his team for highlighting our cause, our goal of expanding the truth to the reality of MWHT is expanding, thanks to people like Bubba.

A few weeks ago Australians were sent letters advising that bank transactions can now be made with ALL banks at post offices. As well as that, when we deposit a cheque via a bank directly it clears immediately. Whereas if we deposit cheques via a post office it now takes 9 days, where a year ago it used to take 3-4 days.

As forecasted in this show last year Zimbabwe was going with their own currencies and not participating in the Zims nonsense of the RV. Expect an announcement of the RV being scrapped if Libra gets any leverage. Finance Minister of Zimbabwe Mthuli Ncube said on Monday, 24 June that foreign currency is no longer acceptable for local transactions; the Zimbabwean dollar is now the only accepted form of currency. Previously Zimbabwe used a multiple currency regime. The sole legal tender in all transactions is the Zimbabwean dollar as of 24 June 2019. According to fin24, a statement made in a Statutory Instrument on Monday said that the US Dollar, South African Rand, British Pound, the Botswana Pula and 'any other foreign currency will no longer be legal tender alongside the Zimbabwean dollar in any transactions in Zimbabwe.'

Earlier this month, in one devastating algorithmic stroke, Google removed many of the top natural health and health freedom websites from their organic search results -- some losing as much as 99% of their traffic. British pharmaceutical giant GlaxoSmithKline and Google's parent company Alphabet have announced they're creating a new company to develop bioelectronic medicines. The joint venture will be named Galvani Bioelectronics and will be headquartered in the UK, with 55 percent of equity interest owned by GSK and 45 percent owned by Alphabet's Verily Life Sciences division (formerly known as Google Life Sciences). Galvani will initially be funded with £540 million over the next seven years ($712 million), and plans to have treatments ready for regulatory approval by 2023. Bioelectronics is a relatively new branch of health care, which as the name suggests, focuses on bringing together electronics and biological research. The term can cover a number of different therapies, but GSK plans to concentrate on creating electrical implants that can be used to treat diseases. This overall concept is similar to a pacemaker, which uses electrical pulses to prompt the beating of the heart. Scientists believe similar devices could be used to treat a wide range of chronic conditions — including arthritis, diabetes, and asthma — by stimulating specific parts of the body. Researchers say workable implants would be no larger than a grain of rice. oh dear that is your microchip download program I warned about in Clowns in panic show, ya see future is the past.

Shitty decided to restrict access to account, blocks placed on them, may see that bank go down, they are negative 600% currently

Banks were found to be giving out credit lines to keep clowns going, all banks now stopped from issuing credit lines whilst in negative equity, no more credit lines allowed until they bring it up to zero, which if they continue with their current mode of operation, is impossible. Banks situation will now get ugly.

Financial issues escalating credit cards failing, ATM's also, watch for double charging scandal ongoing, check your statements regularly please, keep cash it is your lifeline. If all crashes your cards, credit or debit will be useless, your banks being inaccessible is also a possibility at this point as well.

Due to substantial threats and actions currently ongoing that has escalated things drastically behind the scenes, it has been decided things will go dark for a while until things settle down. I don't think this is a long term thing, and certainly not the end of anything, but the safety of Kim and the team must be the primary concern at this point. To that end Kim has decided to go dark for an undetermined amount of time, which means she will not be contacting anyone or making herself available for any calls, regardless of who that is, whether connections close or otherwise, and I ask those close to honor that decision, there will be no what, when, where or why questions answered within this period. We will not be talking to further to any banks, governments, agencies or other financial services who promised us everything and delivered nothing, in the way of services or support. Much progress has been made on many fronts, and that work must be locked down at this point, as the backlash to that work is getting real ugly. Intel may also go dark at this point on as well. Please respect our decisions, we know what we are doing, but have to protect ourselves and our work at this point in time.

Investigators on Canada's west coast have uncovered the suspected mass graves of indigenous women, and children at three Separate locations. This announcement came today after months of independent investigations conducted by the ITDC that have relied on police, media and aboriginal sources.

According to the report of the ITDC investigators,

"The grave sites are found on the coast and in the interior. According to sources and our initial surveys, these sites contain the remains of many hundreds, perhaps thousands of aboriginal people, including many women and children. One of these sites contains very recent burials laid atop an older mass grave of Indian residential school children. These sites have been known to local aboriginals but the latter have been threatened and silenced by the RCMP and tribal council officials. Local residents claim that RCMP officers and private 'hit squads' are responsible for the killings and burials. One witness observed an RCMP tactical unit burying bodies as recently as late March, 2019." In response to this discovery, at 10:00 am eastern time today a formal request was issued to the United Nations Security Council and to the UN Peacekeepers Office by the ITDC. That request asked for UN Peacekeepers and Forensic Specialists to be immediately dispatched to British Columbia to assist this investigation and to be present at an International Genocide Tribunal convened under ITDC auspices in Vancouver on September 16, 2019. Prime Minister Trudeau and twenty other high officials of church, state and business have been publicly summoned to appear before this Tribunal to answer charges of complicity in Genocide. The September 16 Tribunal was prompted by Prime Minister Trudeau's public admission on June 3 that genocide has occurred within Canada, and by the corollary obligation imposed on UN member states by the Genocide Convention to "prosecute and punish" that crime. "Our request for UN Peacekeepers and Forensic Specialists is not made lightly, especially in the light of the discovery of these mass graves. They need to be disinterred and examined and charges brought against those responsible, like at any suspected crime scene" said ITDC Field Secretary Kevin Annett today. "This is a dangerous effort. Seven of our aboriginal eyewitnesses and activists have died of foul play in the course of our investigations of the disappearance of aboriginal families on Canada's west coast. As Human Rights Watch has shown, the RCMP are directly implicated in these assaults and disappearances. Our naming of top Canadian officials as possible co-conspirators in an ongoing genocide makes this danger all the more real." Further evidence of the recently discovered mass graves will be revealed at a special press conference and gathering on Parliament Hill in Ottawa, Canada on Monday, July 8 at 10 am. The ITDC has asked that UN Peacekeepers be present at this event to protect its public spokespeople, including ITDC Field Secretary Kevin Annett. Annett has recently faced illegal arrest and detention, and other harassment, at the hands of the RCMP and Canadian Border Services Agency. The ITDC considers these attacks as further attempts by Canada to obstruct justice and derail an international human rights inquiry into its crimes.

According to a study published in Current Biology in 2015, children raised without religion tend to be kinder than children brought up in very religious households. The study was a collaborative effort between numerous academics from seven different universities that are spread out all over the world. The team studied children from a variety of different background, including Christian, Muslim and non-religious, and found that among other things, children from religious households were more judgmental. The study was titled, The Negative Association Between Religiousness and Children's Altruism Across the World. Overall, our findings ... contradict the commonsense and popular assumption that children from religious households are more altruistic and kind towards others. More generally, they call into question whether religion is vital for moral development, supporting the idea that secularisation of moral discourse will not reduce human kindness – in fact, it will do just the opposite,” the researchers said in the study. The research involved nearly 1,200 children between the ages of 5 and 12. The children were from a variety of different cultures, including children from the US, Canada, China, Jordan, Turkey, and South Africa. Of those who participated in the experiment, nearly 24% were Christian, 43% Muslim, and 27.6% non-religious. Children who were Jewish, Buddhist, Hindu, agnostic or other less ubiquitous religions were not statistically significant enough to have their results included. In the study, the children put in situations where they would have an opportunity to share with others. They were also shown video footage of children fighting and pushing each other while researchers gauged their reactions. The results of the study “robustly demonstrate that children from households identifying as either of the two major world religions (Christianity and Islam) were less altruistic than children from non-religious households,” according to the researchers. The researchers also noted that older children who have been more indoctrinated into a particular religion “exhibit[ed] the greatest negative relations”. The study also found that religious children are more likely to be judgmental and punitive towards other children. “Religiousness was inversely predictive of children's altruism and positively correlated with their punitive tendencies. Together these results reveal the similarity across countries in how religion negatively influences children's altruism, challenging the view that religiosity facilitates prosocial behavior,” the study said. “While it is generally accepted that religion contours people's moral judgments and pro-social behaviour, the relation between religion and morality is a contentious one,” the study continued. One aspect that was not covered in the study is that religious parents are often punitive (inflicting or intended as punishment) with their children, and things like spanking are considered socially acceptable. There is a very good chance that this is the actual reason why children of religious parents have a harder time getting along with others. Numerous studies have now shown the harmful effects of spanking and similar parenting strategies. The United Nations Committee on the Rights of the Child issued a directive in 2006 calling physical punishment “legalized violence against children” that should be eliminated in all settings through “legislative, administrative, social and educational measures.” The treaty that established the committee has been supported by 192 countries, with only the United States and Somalia failing to ratify it. Spanking has been banned in 53 countries and states globally. It is also important to point out that there are mountains of scientific evidence proving that spanking is bad for the mental health and development of children, with absolutely no studies showing that it does any good. So, that ends the myth that religion makes a child more whole, moral or aware of their own responsibilities does it not? Yet why do we impose it on them?

In 2015 there were an estimated 935 million people (12.7% of the world’s population) living below the extreme poverty line of $1.90/day. In 2005, according to poverty facts currently roughly 50% of the world’s people (over 3.2 billion) live on $2.50/day while 80% (5.15 billion) live on $10/day or less. The $10 dollar a day (US $3,650/yr) figure above is close to poverty levels in the US. The richest 1% (about 73 million) of the world’s population owns 50% of the world’s total wealth ($125 trillion). Of the richest 1%-ers there are 34 million people (0.7% of the global adult population) who had a net worth of at least US$1 million. These people hold 45% of global wealth. Within the top 1% is there is a much more elite club multi-millionaire group representing 0.36 % of the world’s adult population or 123,800 adults with a net worth of more than $50 million. At the base of the global wealth pyramid are those with a net worth of less than $10,000, who account for a massive 71% of the world’s adult population. the total cost per year to end extreme poverty worldwide in 20 years, would be about $175 billion. which is just 1/6th of our current military spending to put that into perspective, or The combined wealth of the world’s billionaires ($6.48 trillion) this can be easily achieved by taking off the harvesters and removing some of their ill gotten gains.

Some of America's billionaires have a message for the next President of the United States: tax us. Does that make any sense? have these people suddenly gained a conscience? not likely. Nineteen billionaires including George Soros, Abigail Disney, Chris Hughes and members of the Pritzker family released a bipartisan letter on Monday asking the 2020 presidential candidates to support a tax on the American families with the largest fortunes. "The next dollar of new tax revenue should come from the most financially fortunate, not from middle-income and lower-income Americans," the letter, first reported by the New York Times, said. A tax on America's wealthiest has been at the forefront of the 2020 election stage. Presidential hopefuls Senator Elizabeth Warren, Senator Bernie Sanders, Mayor Pete Buttigieg and Representative Beto O'Rourke and more have come out in support of a tax on the wealthiest Americans. Remember AOC started this illusion off. So why are they saying it? Because of proposals put forward to end their game of only the poorer being taxed is why. Don't think for one second these people suddenly gained a conscience, they have none. It is another of their clever plots designed to dupe the public into keeping the IRS in its present format, with the seducement of tax the rich. The public completely ignorant will vote for continuation based on this proposal, whereby they vote to continue a false system imposed on the people. The new solutions in House and Senate will make real change, not fake illusionary solutions these clowns are promoting. How about an alternate solution, all billionaires give half of their wealth to The Peoples Club Foundation, around $3.25T, then the people can decide how to share it out, not the system. Imagine that playing out Billionaire's wailing everywhere that would leave me with only $1.5B left, how am I possibly going to get by with that amount? my reply would how do you expect 12% of the planet to survive on less than $2 a day, or 50% who live on less than $2.50 dollars, you greedy vacuous cretins. With that money we can end student loans debt, global poverty and start some projects designed to help the people, not harvest off them.

Millions of seniors today get a large portion of their monthly income from Social Security, but many of today's workers don't expect to get to do the same. In fact, 22% of nonretired Americans think it's unlikely that Social Security will be available to pay them benefits when they retire, according to Northwestern Mutual's 2019 Planning & Progress Study. The latest Social Security Trustees Report paints a fairly bleak picture of the program's financial outlook. In the coming years, the program will owe more money in scheduled benefits than it expects to collect in revenue. Thus, it will need to tap its trust funds to compensate for that shortfall. Once those funds run out of money, however, Social Security may have no choice but to cut benefits drastically if lawmakers don't manage to intervene with a fix. As of earlier this year, the Trustees expect those trust funds to be depleted by 2035, and they anticipate a 20% reduction in scheduled benefits once that happens. These targets, though, are subject to change. It is only bleak if clowns continue, infact it will get even more bleaker as last weeks show warned.

On Monday, Project Veritas released a powerful video revealing Google's liberal "Machine Learning Fairness" program, which a Google executive admitted defined fairness in terms any supporter of President Donald Trump would disagree with. She also suggested that Sen. Elizabeth Warren's (D-Mass.) plan to break up Google is misguided, because only Google has the power to prevent "the next Trump situation." She also expressed a goal with Google's algorithms — to prevent 2016 from happening again. It's like a small company cannot do that," Jen Gennai, head of Responsible Innovation at Google Global Affairs, tells an undercover Project Veritas journalist in the video. Project

Veritas interesting name and Langley again, Veritas, Abel danger, Camelot and Avalon are all CIA project names, but also links into show last Saturday, those tentacles getting wider and deeper. Veritas Technologies LLC is an American international data management company headquartered in Mountain View, California. The company has its origins in Tolerant Systems, founded in 1983 and later renamed Veritas Software. It specializes in storage management software including the first commercial journaling file system, VxFS, VxVM, VCS, the personal/small office backup software Backup Exec and the enterprise backup software, NetBackup. Veritas Record Now was an early CD recording software. Prior to merging with Symantec in 2004, Veritas was listed on the S&P 500 and the NASDAQ-100 under the VRTS ticker symbol. Following its merger, the Veritas brand was replaced by that of Symantec. In 2014, Symantec announced that it would demerge its information management business as Veritas Technologies LLC, in order to focus on security. It was purchased as part of the demerger by the private equity firm The Carlyle Group for $8 billion in cash.

A UN expert has warned of a possible "climate apartheid", where the rich pay to escape from hunger, "while the rest of the world is left to suffer". Even if current targets are met, "millions will be impoverished", said Philip Alston, the UN's special rapporteur on extreme poverty. He also criticised steps taken by UN bodies as "patently inadequate". "Ticking boxes will not save humanity or the planet from impending disaster," Mr Alston warned. The Australian native is part of the UN's panel of independent experts, and submitted his report – which is based on existing research – to the UN Human Rights Council on Monday. The UN Mr. Alston is not interested in humanity one iota, another of the overarching governing bodies created during or just after WW2 to implement tighter controls of the people. It needs to be disbanded publically, already has officially and install people from the general populace interested in humanity, not self appointed clowns operating for and by the few. Allow safe passage of both Kim and I to attend the meeting and address the world's leaders to the truth of what has gone on here, how we can change direction completely, restore this planet and all beings on it, working together. MWHT has 6 seats on the UN Council. On the other hand, Mr Alston cites examples of how the wealthy in Western nations already cope with extreme weather events. When Hurricane Sandy hit New York in 2012, most citizens were left without power, yet "the Goldman Sachs headquarters was protected by tens of thousands of its own sandbags and power from its generator." Similarly, "private white-glove firefighters have been dispatched to save the mansions" of the wealthy. Another example of this filth in our midst looking after themselves, whilst everyone else sinks, the blame for this lies with the police, agencies and the military for allowing these psychopaths to control and use us in this manner, none of you in those groups will be saved if tshtf totally, you will all be left out on a limb, whilst they hideout like Lenin did during the Bolshevik revolution, of which he was the leader. One female member of this team stated "women are too scared to have children due to climate change" well I for one is personally glad those women, with that type of thinking are not have children, they are too stupid to see through their own illusions, without passing that levels of stupidity and burdens onto their children, small mercies as they say.

Switzerland is a landlocked country bordered by Italy to the south, France to the west, Germany to the north, and Austria and Liechtenstein to the east. It is geographically divided between the Alps, the Swiss Plateau and the Jura, dominated by the Alps home of the dorsay. The largest cities are located, among them the two global cities and economic centres of Zürich and Geneva. It's national flag is symbolism, red background and white cross, reverse of previous white background red cross. The establishment of the Old Swiss Confederacy dates to the late medieval period, resulting from a series of military successes against Austria and Burgundy. Swiss independence from the Holy Roman Empire was formally recognized in the Peace of Westphalia in 1648. Since the Reformation of the 16th century, Switzerland has maintained a strong policy of armed neutrality; it has not fought an international war since 1815 and did not join the United Nations until 2002. Switzerland is the birthplace of the Red Cross, one of the world's oldest and best known humanitarian organisations, and is home to numerous international organisations, including the second largest UN office. It is a founding member of the European Free Trade Association, but notably not part of the European Union, the European Economic Area or the Eurozone. However, it participates in the Schengen Area and the European Single Market through bilateral treaties. Switzerland is one of the most developed countries in the world, with the highest nominal wealth per adult and the eighth-highest per capita gross domestic product. The entire region became part of the expanding Frankish Empire in the 6th century, following Clovis I's victory over the Alemanni at Tolbiac in 504 AD, and later Frankish domination of the Burgundians. Throughout the rest of the 6th, 7th and 8th centuries the Swiss regions continued under Frankish hegemony (Merovingian and Carolingian dynasties) neither of which were good. By 1200, the Swiss plateau comprised the dominions of the houses of Savoy, Zähringer, Habsburg, and Kyburg. Some regions (Uri, Schwyz, Unterwalden, later known as Waldstätten) were accorded the Imperial immediacy (declared free) to grant the empire direct control over the mountain passes. With the extinction of its male line in 1263 the Kyburg dynasty fell in AD 1264; then the Habsburgs under King Rudolph I (Holy Roman Emperor in 1273) laid claim to the Kyburg lands and annexed them extending their territory to the eastern Swiss plateau. When war broke out between France and its rivals, Russian and Austrian forces invaded Switzerland. The Swiss refused to fight alongside the French in the name of the Helvetic Republic. In 1803 Napoleon organised a meeting of the leading Swiss politicians from both sides in Paris. The result was the Act of Mediation which largely restored Swiss autonomy and introduced a Confederation of 19 cantons, cantons apparently means regions of autonomy, I thought it was talking about the Rothschilds, they are total cant ons. In 1815 the Congress of Vienna fully re-established Swiss independence and the European powers agreed to permanently recognise Swiss neutrality. A system of single weights and measures was introduced and in 1850 the Swiss franc became the Swiss single currency, relating back like the French to the Frankish dynasty. Switzerland was not invaded during either of the world wars. During World War I, Switzerland was home to Vladimir Illych Ulyanov (Vladimir Lenin) and he remained there until 1917, guess who assisted him to return back to Russia, the Germans, does that make any sense? Neutral means protecting Israelite created Communist program members then, who genocided a whole country. Swiss neutrality was seriously questioned by the Grimm–Hoffmann Affair in 1917, but it was short-lived. In 1920, Switzerland joined the League of Nations, which was based in Geneva, on condition that it was exempt from any military requirements. During World War II, Switzerland was able to remain independent through a combination of military deterrence, concessions to Germany. Over the course of the war, Switzerland interned over 300,000 refugees and the International Red Cross, based in Geneva, played an important part during the conflict. Strict immigration and asylum policies as well as the financial relationships with Nazi Germany raised controversy, but not until the end of the 20th century. Allied forces explained the bombings, which violated the 96th Article of War, resulted from navigation errors, equipment failure, weather conditions, and errors made by bomber pilots. The Swiss expressed fear and concern that the bombings were intended to put pressure on Switzerland to end economic cooperation and neutrality with Nazi Germany. Court-martial proceedings took place in England and the U.S. Government paid 62,176,433.06 in Swiss francs for reparations of the bombings. After the war, the Swiss government exported credits through the charitable fund known as the Schweizerspende and also donated to the Marshall Plan to help Europe's recovery, efforts that ultimately benefited the Swiss economy. Switzerland was the last Western republic to grant women the right to vote. In 2002 Switzerland became a full member of the United Nations, leaving the Vatican City as the last widely recognised state without full UN membership. A large number of international institutions have their seats in Switzerland, in part because of its policy of neutrality. Geneva is the birthplace of the Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement and the Geneva Conventions and, since 2006, hosts the United Nations Human Rights Council. Even though Switzerland is one of the most recent countries to have joined the United Nations, the Palace of Nations in Geneva is the second biggest centre for the United Nations after New York, and Switzerland was a founding member and home to the League of Nations. Apart from the United Nations headquarters, the Swiss Confederation is host to many UN agencies, like the World Health Organization (WHO), the International Labour Organization (ILO), the International Telecommunication Union (ITU), the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR) and about 200 other international organisations, including the World Trade Organization and the World Intellectual Property Organization. The annual meetings of the World Economic Forum in Davos bring together top international business and political leaders from Switzerland and foreign countries to discuss important issues facing the world, including health and the environment. Additionally the headquarters of the Bank for International Settlements (BIS) are located in Basel since 1930. Furthermore, many sport federations and organisations are located throughout the country, such as the International Basketball Federation in Geneva, the Union of European Football Associations (UEFA) in Nyon, the International Federation of Association Football (FIFA) and the International Ice Hockey Federation both in Zürich, the International Cycling Union in Aigle, and the International Olympic Committee in Lausanne. Switzerland is home to several large multinational corporations. The largest Swiss companies by revenue are Glencore, Gunvor, Nestlé, Novartis, Hoffmann-La Roche, ABB, Mercuria Energy Group and Adecco. Also, notable are UBS AG, Zurich Financial Services, Credit Suisse, Barry Callebaut, Swiss Re, Tetra Pak, The Swatch Group and Swiss International Air Lines. Switzerland is ranked as having one of the most powerful economies in the world. Since 2000 the armed force department has also maintained the Onyx intelligence gathering system to monitor satellite communications. The main sources of income for the federal government are the value-added tax (33%) and the direct federal tax (29%) Geneva and the nearby French department of Ain co-host the world's largest laboratory, CERN, dedicated to particle physics research, or so they say, either way that failed also. Another important research centre is the Paul Scherrer Institute. Notable inventions include lysergic acid diethylamide (LSD), ah the red pill chunks of alt media talk of, not realizing it is an MK Ultra mind control drug, diazepam (Valium), I wouldn't describe them as notable, more like genocidal to me. Switzerland has no official state religion, though most of the cantons (except Geneva and Neuchâtel) recognise official churches, which are either the Roman Catholic Church or the Swiss Reformed Church. These churches, and in some cantons also the Old Catholic Church and Jewish congregations, are financed by official taxation of adherents. A history of neutrality, which is a cover for we do what we like in here and will impose rules, statutes and regulations on everyone else, another like City of London, Vatican City and District of Columbia. Neutral in World Wars was for a start fake they were helping and funding the Nazis, as well as protecting the protectorate of the Rothschilds. Heavily linked within the Roman Church despite publically not declaring, infact who are the armed forces protecting the Vatican, the Swiss Guards. Quietly they have collected and housed most of the world governing or controlling bodies, be it the UN, WHO, BIS, Credit Suisse who are major players in the financial skullduggery, sport is one of the main money makers now, so no surprise FIFA and the Olympics headquarters are situated there either. It wasn't the only thing they collected, it was they stored and then claimed large portions of the Nazi loot, artifacts, gold, priceless art pieces and likely the famous amber room, remember during the war The Rothschilds who run and control Switzerland (which means land of Isis) funds all sides in the war, and so collects the bounty. Then we have CERN, the major clown escape machine and now said to be the home of Libra, which apart from collapsing the old system of banking, like their flag representing Red Cross, also housed in Switzerland and a representation of the old Templars who created usury banking, and you see why Switzerland remains large hidden from records, researchers and historians. This is a country who have banged on about neutrality for close to 1400 years, what makes that region so special for a certain group of peoples to continue that line to the modern day? who or what are they hiding? Why is that country overlooked in so many aspects, yet house so many governing and controlling bodies? Well the curtain just got pulled back a bit on this piece of real estate that operates under a cloud of illusion, their history is formulated by Cult of RA, and the Egyptian symbolism, which is completed with the role of the Templars, carried on by the sister organization the Red Cross.

When the world was milk and honey and the magic was strong and true Then the strange ones came and the people knew yeah that the chains were on Bought 1/2 bitcoin for $100.00 (a while ago) it was only way to pay. I made two transfers, no problem.

Multi layer identification required CELL PHONE. Cell phone damaged. New phone, new number.

Could not update cell number. Contacted customer service.

Was told no way to access account again without sitting in front of webcam while I

UPLOAD PHOTOCOPIES OF MY DRIVER LICENSE. I refused. Told them there had to be another way. There was not.

Locked out of account still. Imagine thousands or millions getting locked out of their account, and trying to reach customer service, which as we know today exists of a retarded automated message box.

Well I will end tonight's show with a summary of the Clowns in panic show, the warning I kept giving about bitcoins and cryptos is there now for all to see, you have no excuses for going along with that program anymore. Those with more discernment should have heeded the warning last November, when the IMF instructed 134 countries into going with crypto, and replacing all the currencies, that remember they said they were going to reevaluate, in their so called RV program, so much for those who cried but the cryptos are going to get around the cabal system, oh they are getting around the system ok, but a system that is now ours, not theirs. The reality is cryptos is another dinar, zims and dongs stunt, which the same people fell for, hand over valid currency and we will give you fake in return, and so keeping their dwindling pot of money going to facilitate their illusion of control. This is being ran out of City of London by the Crown, Israelite Ra cult, Freemasons and Templars attached to the church, for those new Israelite is nothing to do with Israel the country or Jews, those people have been duped into an Egyptian cult, period. Crypto is ran by the CIA and NSA as a near future show will show the deeper levels of that, it involves datamining, cloning and harvesting on a massive level, Orwell world on steroids. It is being pushed by clowns and agents of the CIA, the open source aspect is Robert David Steele, to date this man has not contacted us to arrange a show, we don't expect him to, due to the fear of his and their narrative would be torn to shreds, but we live in hope and door is always open. Then we read out the Facebook manifesto or white paper, white paper is indicative, white paper is what you wipe your arse with, fitting in this case. Quite frankly a beyond absurd article riddled with contradictions, several lines of narrative repeated several times to fill the document out, which is suggestive it was thrown out in haste, infact we know it was, it was in response to actions taken recently that essentially cut them out of the game altogether. oops An article that stated itself for those who read and understand, not read and skip it's content, which far too many do, and why they get away with so much, stated it can't be done safely at this point, but are working on it and maybe in 5 years it can be done. Can you imagine walking into a bank to open an account, and the manager says well we will take your money, but we cannot guarantee it's safety, but no worries we maybe able to do that in 5 years time, it's absurd, but that is what they told you in the paper. They also stated they have got no funding for it, and was a polite way of saying, we the people will be funding our own demise again, how nice of them. They stated about this would improve the financial system, when Kim and team has already done that to the current system, which they don't like as now they don't control it, again a confirmation of what we have been saying. They stated they would be using bank deposits, which is our money and securities which is bonds, which are IOU's or debt notes, well no change there then is it, a brand new system that duplicates the previous failed model, how futuristic and progressive is that type of thinking? We know they are planning on using the Birth certificate scam all over again, again not very original are they? They also stated they are not basing it on assets, which means it is not backed or supported, which means it is Quantitative Easing again, printing shit out like monopoly money, leads to inflation, which leads to extra tax, for those that don't know inflation is a tax. All the main players are in on it, the New York crew, Crown, Rothschild's, Rockefellers, Bankers, CIA, NSA, GCHQ and other agency led groups, the Israelite cult, Houses, Freemasons and the original crusade type Templars etc, the question is why? The reason why is supportive of what this show and Kim has been saying, they are doomed, and it is a full on admittance that we have brought down their whole banking and currency systems. Also in their document that appeared to be written by a pre high school child, they talk of decentralization, this should scare the shit out of a whole heap of elites, yes you can convince yourselves that you are all so important, to the games, and a player in their plans, but those plans failed, and actions by them against you will be severe and swift, by all means sit back and wait for your demise, it will come, but at least we can say we told you and subsequently warned you. Out will go governments as we know it, out will go central banks, out will go several high street banks and it will be swallowed in several big mergers soon, watch and see. Out will go funding for the US military, they have served their purpose and the world is catching on to their role they play, your replacement is already funded, and further funding will be looted out of countries via the fake Paris Climate agreement, that group is NATO, which ATON based, whose sole aim is to defeat Russia and Iran, why? listen to FRWL 1 & 2, it's all there. So the self appointed top end clowns are now culling their herd, as Shane warned of back in 2015, this will be decided upon by the leading elites and you will be sacrificed, after all, sacrifice is the name of their game, all the way back to Solomon and infact much further. Millionaires need not apply, you will be harvested and cut out, this is a billionaires game now, again don't believe, just wait and see. Libra is a desperate attempt by desperate people who have lost the game and the plot, big groups of so called leaders and organizations will get culled if this goes ahead, because the clowns can longer support it, again proving what we have said. It was a fairly rollercoaster show, that exhibited deep concerns of our future should this go ahead, we believe we will stop it, but that responsibility to do so, lies with each and everyone of you. You have a deep obligation to safeguard not only your future, but your children and grandchildren's future, let us not be the generation who allowed tyrannical clowns, who are deeply wounded, to throw us all into a nightmare world of epic proportions based purely on technology, not much of which has any real value to us as a species anyway. But the positive aspects, shows and proves how far we have come in such a short period of time, their financial energy harvesting machine ground to a halt in under 5 years, their own document admitted that in great detail, almost every paragraph confirmed it. But the biggest triumph is we have forced them to play their hand out in public, for years those plans remained hidden, the hidden hand of the dark magician, the houdini style mask ripped off and unveiled for all to see, at least to those who use their eyes to observe. That show is essence the line in the sand moment in time, when the hidden was revealed in it's full dark glory, the genie is out of the bottle, for years we never realized there was a bottle, never mind a genie inside, waiting to pounce on it's unsuspecting and oblivious hosts. Now they have revealed their hand, it is up to us all to play our cards right, we have to trump them (pardon the pun) we have to, not just him, time is now to play our aces, and we will carry on playing them strategically, we have time, they don't. We know it and now they know we know it, and can sit back and watch it all unfold, whilst making strategic hammer blows that facilitates their end.
