From one of the members Gemma. I noticed that a carpet shop opposite where my children go to gymnastics class had the paedophile triangle incorporated into its advertising splashed across its frontage, I finally plucked up the courage to say something one day and approached the 3 men standing outside, one was outright rude to me, another, the owner listened to what I had to say but seemed dubious.. I explained what the symbol meant and walked away... last week I took my children back to class and ... the sign had been removed!! A small change but a huge boost to my self confidence in living the truth. Shows what can happen if you speak up, I suspect they knew what they are doing, like the 6 star safe houses for Jews, and certain symbols for IRA safe houses, their symbolism will be their downfall.

SUB INTEL Is this another of the Bush/Clinton death trail? The US diplomat Joseph Wilson, who defied President George W Bush over the decision to go to war with Iraq, has died aged 69. In 2003, Mr Wilson disproved allegations used by the Bush administration as grounds for invasion that then-Iraqi leader Saddam Hussein had bought uranium in Niger. Days later, his then-wife Valerie Plame was outed as a CIA agent, in what some saw as an act of political revenge. He and Ms Plame divorced in 2017. Ms Plame told the Washington Post that her ex-husband had died of organ failure in a hospice in New Mexico, where they both lived. As acting ambassador to Iraq in the run-up to the First Gulf War in 1991, he was the last US diplomat to meet Saddam Hussein. In 2002, by then a private citizen, Mr Wilson was sent by the CIA on a fact-finding mission to Niger to investigate reports that Iraq had bought a nuclear material - uranium yellowcake. Mr Wilson concluded that the reports were false, but 11 months later they reappeared in Mr Bush's State of the Union address. They were used as evidence that Iraq was obtaining weapons of mass destruction, and justification for the 2003 war. In July of that year, the former diplomat wrote in the New York Times: "I have little choice but to conclude that some of the intelligence related to Iraq's nuclear weapons programme was twisted to exaggerate the Iraqi threat." The following week, conservative columnist Robert Novak reported that part of the reason Mr Wilson had been given the Niger mission was that his wife - a CIA agent - recommended him. Ms Plame, whose work required secrecy, was forced to resign from the service. It was seen by many as an act of revenge against Mr Wilson by the Bush administration. Like FRWL 7 uncovered they are involved in world issues far more than people realize, and I am hoping this govt reigns them in, on real grounds for National Security.

Fox News radio host and commentator Todd Starnes has been ousted from the network, its website contract and the premium subscription service Fox Nation, the company told TheWrap on Wednesday. He made headlines as recently as Monday for comments during his radio program that Democrats do not believe in the Christian God and instead may worship Moloch, a pagan god often associated with child sacrifice. Fox News on Wednesday confirmed that Starnes is no longer working at the network but did not elaborate on the reasons behind his departure. An individual with knowledge of the situation told TheWrap Starnes' exit "was in the works well before Monday." I wonder if he listens to THI? only problem is Mr. Starnes it applies to both parties, both are involved in it, not just one. Reason it is an owl is Egyptian word for owl is Moloch.

Mexican authorities are currently investigating a massive fraud scheme involving a bank that is widely used by American retirees who have moved to Mexico. According to officials with Monex say that about $40 million has been reported missing from 158 accounts. One couple who was scammed out of their life savings shared their story with NBC News. Kathy and Jim Machir retired and moved from San Diego to San Miguel de Allende, a small mountain town about four hours northwest of Mexico City. The Machir's worked with Marcela Zavala Taylor, a former banker with Grupo Financiero Monex, to deposit their funds into a bank account. The couple says Taylor was always responsive when they needed money. She would either have the funds wired to them or would dispatch her assistant to deliver an envelope filled with pesos. In December, the Machir's needed money to pay their contractors and contacted Taylor. This time, they didn't hear back from her and contacted Monex. The bank told them their money was gone and they had just a few pesos left in their account. "I was speechless," said Kathy Machir. "It just gives you a sense of ultimate betrayal, loss, horror." Dozens of people told Bloomberg They were scammed out of the money by Taylor. They had no idea their accounts were empty because they kept receiving fraudulent statements from the bank. Monex is working with retirees and has offered to reimburse them if they press charges with the Procuraduria General de Justicia in Mexico City and name Taylor in their complaint. "Legal action is continuing in the case, and details cannot be disclosed so as not to hinder the investigation." The bank is working with clients and has settled with 70%,"

Rising home prices, coupled with conservative borrowing, have today's homeowners sitting on a record amount of potential cash. Today's mortgage holders saw their home equity increase by 4.8% annually at the end of the second quarter. This is a collective gain of nearly $428 billion, according to CoreLogic. Break it down by borrower, and the average homeowner with a mortgage gained $4,900 in home equity in just one year. "Borrower equity rose to an all-time high in the first half of 2019 and has more than doubled since the housing recovery started," said Dr. Frank Nothaft, chief economist for CoreLogic. "Combined with low mortgage rates, this rise in home equity supports spending on home improvements and may help improve balance sheets of households who could take out home equity loans to consolidate their debt."

More than 35,000 people were forced to flee their homes every day in 2018 - nearly one every two seconds - taking the world's displaced population to a record 71 million. A total of 26 million people have fled across borders, 41 million are displaced within their home countries and 3.5 million have sought asylum - the highest numbers ever, according to UN refugee agency (UNHCR) figures. Why are so many people being driven away from their families, friends and neighbourhoods? Devastating wars have contributed to the rise, Conflict and violence, persecution and human rights violations are driving more and more men, women and children from their homes. In fact, the number of displaced people has doubled in the last 10 years, the UNHCR's figures show, with the devastating wars in Iraq and Syria causing many families to leave their communities. Conflict in the Democratic Republic of Congo (DRC), Yemen and South Sudan, as well as the flow of Rohingya refugees from Myanmar to Bangladesh, have also had a significant impact. Over 4 out of 5 stay in their country, contrary to MSM opinions, over 90% would rather live in their own country, not be sent to far foreign lands as covers for other rogue elements to install themselves into the theater of operations.

Jakobshavn Glacier in western Greenland is notorious for being the world's fastest-moving glacier. It is also one of the most active, discharging a tremendous amount of ice from the Greenland Ice Sheet into Ilulissat Icefjord and adjacent Disko Bay—with implications for sea level rise. The image above, acquired on June 6, 2019, by the Operational Land Imager (OLI) on Landsat 8, shows a natural-color view of the glacier. Jakobshavn has spent decades in retreat—that is, until scientists observed an unexpected advance between 2016 and 2017. In addition to growing toward the ocean, the glacier was found to be slowing and thickening. New data collected in March 2019 confirm that the glacier has grown for the third year in a row, and scientists attribute the change to cool ocean waters. “The third straight year of thickening of Greenland's biggest glacier supports our conclusion that the ocean is the culprit,” said Josh Willis, an ocean scientist at NASA's Jet Propulsion Laboratory and principal investigator of the Oceans Melting Greenland (OMG) mission. As predicted everything is moving away from the traditional sites of glaciers and ice pack into new regions, climate change my ass, no natural planetary change to accommodate movement of the planet towards being back on it's axis.

The Trump White House upgraded the security of the National Security Council's top-secret codeword system in the spring of 2018, according to two former Trump White House officials familiar with the matter, as part of an effort to ferret out and deter leaks. The changes included a new log of who accessed specific documents in the NSC's system—known as NICE or “NSC Intelligence Collaboration Environment”—and was designed in part to prevent leaks of records of the president's phone calls with foreign leaders and to find out the suspected leaker if transcripts did get disclosed, one of the former officials said. Prior to the upgrade, officials could only see who had uploaded or downloaded material to the system but usually not who accessed which documents. You all know how that came about and who was involved.

U.S. federal agents raided genetic testing laboratories, and 35 people were criminally charged in four states in a crackdown on genetic testing fraud that officials said on Friday caused $2.1 billion in losses to federal healthcare insurance programs. The use of genetic testing, which helps people determine their risks of developing cancer and other diseases, has skyrocketed in the United States since 2015. For Medicare, the public insurance program for elderly and disabled Americans, payouts for genetic tests jumped from $480 million in 2015 to $1.1 billion in 2018, analysis found. Genetic testing has sparked more than 300 federal investigations involving healthcare fraud and illegal kickbacks. But many of the lab tests are not relevant to the patient's history, and some of the doctors sign off on the results without conferring with the patient, investigators say.

INTEL Glad people have noticed the disappearance of the humming noise since certain machines have been destroyed, things also feel lighter as well.

Following previous discussions with the Fed last week, negotiations with Fed and JPM were ongoing over the weekend after they cancelled a deal at the last minute on Friday. The deal was to band aid banks until November, not to liquidate them, but bring them back to zero

The deal was also to provide funding for essential government based items like operating costs and wages only, again until November. Conditions of the deal were on set conditions laid out and deliverance During this time there will be no contracts, decisions made on any financial levels involving the Fed, Banks, Treasury without prior approval of the President.

New talks will take place amongst aforementioned parties at the revelations made by the Trust to the Fed NY, who appear oblivious to the fact that the Fed has no license to operate, and was being ran by the Rothschilds, who think they own it, when it belongs to the Trust.

Kim requested a task to be done at a major dept this week, the dept is involved in the task that was requested, and no one in the building could carry out that simple request or task, utterly staggering the lack of basic skills in so called major departments, you have no idea how bad it is, much retraining required in and at all levels will be needed going forward.

Attempts to initiate Solomon's demons will be thwarted

Banker at JPM arrested Tuesday on 16 counts of wire fraud and embezzlement, further arrests in other banking establishments have followed

It appears clownery going on with some new system they tried to attach to QS. So It was removed the system and crashed new system in minutes. cue cobra tomorrow stating three or four crashed or aborted. This is the quantum system everyone talks about that is far from quantum. So I guess it was all a rouse from the start. Convinced the Fed that their system is too corrupted and usher in a new system that is weak as milk toast and try to attach to me and steal everything. All crashed. Now what?

Having failed in attempts to declare Kim is dead recently, latest bs from the clowns is Kim is a man, oh dear desperate are these people getting. Dig up dirt - failed, deny Trust exists - failed, She is not the Trustee - failed, she cant transfer funds - failed, Bribe us to step down - failed Assassinate Kim and team out - failed, to be arrested by FBI or CIA - failed, Kim is dead - failed, Kim is a man - epic fail, trying to get us to quit - failed.

OP-ED In the light of the show on Tuesday and current global mind control program being fronted by some child from Sweden, who is miraculously allowed to skip school, travel the world, talk at high end events with no backing we are led to believe, like that ever happens, called Greta Thunberg, here is a document from 1960 from the CIA files that tells you all you need to know about climate change, to think this was in planning 60 years ago, should alert you to the advancements made in that time. <https://www.cia.gov/library/readingroom/docs/CIA-RDP78-03425A002100020014-2.pdf>

As revealed in stark reality in last Tuesdays FRWL 7 about the infiltration of the agencies in mainstream media, near forty years ago there was over 400 CIA agents assigned to the media and tasked with providing information to MSM, with the sole purpose of shaping public opinion, they cared not of whether it contained a shred of truth, it was just a story and another group or country to target with their pro pagan da. A word they created like cognitive dissonance and also conspiracy theory or theorist all to deflect people off their path, as Langley agent Pompeo stated recently, we lied, cheated and stole, all in their own words. So, does anyone really think for one second that they are not heavily involved in the alt media pro pagan da? because if you do at this point, you really need to re-align your thinking to about being awake is about, I and Randy have been given a fair amount of flak over outing certain people within the community, which over time we were proven correct over many of those outed. But as one is exposed, a replacement is always waiting in the wings to disrupt, distract and distort, I wish it wasn't the case and we have more alt media personalities operating in the right way, but it is what it is. So we have ex military, CIA, NSA people in alt media, Thomas at American Intelligence Media is ex NSA and has cat picture logo, Steven D Kelley ex CIA and ex NSA also his cat picture on his website and calls his show truth cat radio, do people not think that is kind of odd in and of itself? Robert David Steele ex CIA, involved in NATO and British establishment and people trust these people and not question whether they are disinfo or faction based? Steven Kelley did another video on the death of Mike Ringley who ran Revolution Radio which was popular a decade ago, involved Kerry Cassidy amongst others, Kelley himself was also involved in Revolution Radio and but he left suddenly, due to some not to well explained reason, given his short video presentation he gave this week, full of innuendo, umms and pauses. Anyway he cites Cassidy, Bill Ryan, Wilcock, Ringley, Loren Fenton, Gilliland and Miles Johnston of being involved in some child and porn distribution ring, along with several others, but his real piece was to trash Randy Maugans again, with a topic that Randy has covered and explained in great detail of how this was done, and who were behind it, and it was not him. There was evidence I received outside of Randy and others which I cannot confirm whether it is correct or not, that stated this of Kerry Cassidy, which is a stage name and she was involved in Hollywood remember, of making a lot of money via porn connections via her site, as well as being paid by the Bilderbergers group back in 2013, whether the two are connected or correct I don't know. Randy is being targeted heavily now for having the audacity to do his own investigation, make his own mind up and in part support the Trust and what THI are doing, this goes against the rest of the alt media paid agents of doing everything to block what we are doing. All the loop agents are coming back to cause issues now you all know the names, it's what they do or what they told to do, they are no different to portal people in essence, passed script to say on shows or blogs, making statements but short on facts or proof. But lets run a hypothetical scenario shall we, which for the hard of hearing means it's not real, but should an independent investigator take up this porn on a server case and look into the facts, perhaps he or she may come to a certain conclusion. The NSA is part of the old control system and trying with the CIA to create a new control system. NSA we know is involved heavily in computers, computer programming, meta and data collection and gaining access into all people's computers, with the purpose of spying on us all. Given they are part of the control system, what if they determine a target or group of targets and employ one of their field agents to disrupt or target that group, having worked in that agency they will be familiar with computers and programming. The agent sent to target then joins the group and becomes a part of the group, in agency speak this is called inserting the asset, then when the agent achieves what it was assigned to do, the agent leaves the scene in some cases pronto, if they have been rumbled. Sometimes the agent is there to garner information, sometimes to take people out and sometimes to plant evidence so that their targets are implicated, I think most people would agree with that assessment of how agency people work, so with that in mind. Lets look at the facts, a man joins a group, suddenly there is evidence of criminality and said man leaves the group quickly, the man then is questioned on why he left and is not very fluent in his speech on reasons for leaving, I'm sure the average FBI agent would deduce the same conclusion, why is this man not to clear on his reasons for leaving, when criminality has allegedly been uncovered? I am sure that FBI agent would drag that guy in for further questioning would he not? Then the FBI guy would find out that the man in question worked for the CIA and the NSA and then questions the man, one of his first questions would be is, was there evidence of criminality before he joined or only during, at which point he departed? was this an undercover job? and so what was his role and purpose as an undercover agent? Fair assessment? you decide. Looking for more evidence try this next piece.

This was from a post by Tyler Durden of zerohedge, It sheds a whole new light on just how deeply interwoven the Social Media monoliths and the Deep State truly are: The senior Twitter executive with editorial responsibility for the Middle East is also a part-time officer in the British Army's psychological warfare unit (remember that term psychological warfare it will come up again soon), Middle East Eye has established. Apparently, Gordon McMillan – twitter's head of editorial for Europe, Middle East and Africa – not only works for the British government, but is a reservist in the 77th Brigade. In case you don't know what the 77th Brigade is, it's a "counter-intelligence" unit set up to "combat disinformation" on social media, they spread pro-Western propaganda on Twitter and Facebook. The unit was announced in 2015, in response, you can imagine, to a series of losses on the information warfare front, mainly re: Syria and Ukraine, it is not just there they are losing information war on all levels. The Guardian reported it, The British army is creating a special force of Facebook warriors, skilled in psychological operations and use of social media to engage in unconventional warfare in the information age, which I remember highlighting that when I was in CV. Whereas Sky News said Using creative thinking it is hoped that 77 Brigade will influence the minds and shape the behaviour of the enemy and local populations. This has led to the early nickname "Twitter troops" for the Brigade, which will be formally created on 1 April. April 1st launch day is not a coincidence, as also known as April's fools day, so if it gets uncovered, they can say it was a joke. America has their own unit launched in 2011, and Israel has one too. These are not state secrets, but widely reported, now you know why I said most on the internet from around 2011-12 was pure bs and distraction. Revealed: US spy operation that manipulates social media was headline back then. Britain launch said this soldiers familiar with social media sought for 77th Brigade, which will be responsible for non lethal warfare, which equates to mind control and pro pagan da. Israel's started in 2009 with a headline which reveals absolutely everything as to what they are about, Israel recruits army of blogger to combat anti Zionist web sites, not to protect Jewish people oh no, but Zionists, which are nothing to do with Israel at all.

Steve R. Pieczenik born in Cuba, born to Jewish parents, then moved to France and then emigrated to US and moved to, New York. A Harvard trained psychiatrist, and then a doctorate at MIT. After being drafted, Pieczenik says the navy assigned him to St. Elizabeth's Hospital insane asylum where he oversaw several wards of criminally insane patients. Whilst working there he ordered a lobotomy on a patient which ended up killing the man, who apparently was born in the asylum, an autopsy revealed the man had only half his brain, what happened to the other half is anyone's guess, but the question is how and why would a psychiatrist order a lobotomy? We have psychiatry and was involved in mental hospitals to date, given some of the experimentation mentioned in MK ultra this doesn't augur too well, but lets see where it goes. Pieczenik was Deputy Assistant Secretary of State under Henry Kissinger, Cyrus Vance and James Baker. His expertise includes foreign policy, international crisis management and psychological warfare, hmm psychological warfare adding to the list now. In 1974, Pieczenik joined the United States Department of State as a consultant to help in the restructuring of its Office for the Prevention of Terrorism, by 1976 he was also now a specialist on hostage taking. In 1978, Pieczenik was known as "a psychiatrist and now a political scientist in the U.S. Department of State, quite a flexible guy, but then Steve's life took another turn and he acquired another specialist position, this time as a special envoy for President Jimmy Carter to Italy to assist in the search for Italy's Prime Minister Aldo Moro. Pieczenik, now described as an international crisis manager and hostage negotiator in the State Department, Pieczenik said the committee was jolted into action by the fear that Moro would reveal state secrets in an attempt to free himself, hmm what where they frightened he was going to reveal? Pieczenik said that Moro had been "sacrificed" for the "stability" of Italy, which in our terms means he was taken out as that person was not playing the agency game. Moro's eventual assassination has been attributed to the CIA as part of Operation Gladio by journalist Philip Willan. And there you have it, as explained in FRWL 7 which Operation Gladio like Condor was done by CIA and the P2, all about shutting people up or down. In 1979, he resigned as Deputy Assistant Secretary of State over the handling of the Iranian hostage crisis, then in 1980 Pieczenik wrote an article for The Washington Post in which he claimed to have heard a senior U.S. official in the Department of State Operations Center give permission for the attack that led to the death of U.S. Ambassador Adolph Dubs in Kabul, Afghanistan, in 1979. In 1982, Pieczenik was mentioned in an article in The New York Times as "a psychiatrist who has treated C.I.A. employees", treated or actually worked for the CIA, given his previous role in Italy? In 2001, Pieczenik operated as chief executive officer of Strategic Intelligence Associates, a consulting firm, all very Robert David Steele that to me, these private intelligences are all still connected to the main hub of CIA and NSA, despite searching I found no evidence of this Strategic Intelligence Associates, only a Strategic Intelligence and Associates ltd which is a British based company, with people listed as shareholders with middle eastern peoples names. As recently as October 6, 2012, Pieczenik was listed as a member of the Council on Foreign Relations (CFR). Mysteriously his name was removed from the CFR roster sometime between October 6 and November 18, 2012, why was his name removed? is it possible to become undercover agent in the alt media? Then early in 2013 he made a foray into the alt media and went on Alex Jones channel, you decide.

Matt and Magan known as The Divine Ms. M and Mary Magdelene, and Matt now goes as Matteus Imhotep and also Thomas who was Jesus's brother. If you can get past that level of sanctiminious highfalutin I am all important bs, then they Have a new website that has all the hallmarks of clown operations and actually reveals who they are working for. Omni Fi, omni means all Fi going along with Sci Fi means fiction, so there title means all fiction, hmm. Talks of a global grid of communications, mentions the term decentralize both of which was covered in the Clowns in panic FB Libra coin show. Selling gold back coins, reserve coins - federal? and AI blockchain, launching in November they say is Gaia tokens the first digital currency that goes beyond gold back coin. Gaia pay as a merchant app allows any natural reserve asset to be used as currency, ok. Launching December this year smartphones, next generation super smart phones that are 5 years ahead of all the rest, with technologically advanced features, such a battery the size of a speck of dust that last a whole year! they claim, via the global mesh grid, hmm sounds like a new veil to me, but here is the kicker and will send certain members and alt media scurrying to the hills with claims of where all going to die, a phones that uses not 5G but 6G. Electronic Intelligence in other words AI, Holo web super search, which will be ran by Amazon no doubt that will be 10 times worse than Go ogle, Ecommerce social media, which means loads more adverts and you have to pay. You will hear this term not often used twice in op-eds tonight, meta, showing or suggesting an explicit awareness of itself or oneself as a member of its category, they will have the meta cloud, super cloud all in one, Master media vault and network and if you haven't caught onto who what is all behind this yet the final category in the meta cloud is intelligence OS, which OS open source intelligence as in OSINT, which is same company as Robert David Steele again. oh my. Also now you can tell as to why Kim dropped Magan from the team, she wanted with Matt who is connected to rogue Pentagon and RV crew, went off to sell sunshine in Sedona, in Mount not Shasta but shyster. Contrary to popular opinion in the woo woo new age alt media clowns, Mount Shasta is NOT a nice place to go, riddled with negative beings and entities.

THI members meeting up and some making direct connections is what this group is really all about, funding is lower down the list in the broader scheme of things. It is and has been noted of how our group has come together that has spanned time zones and cultures, people coming together and supporting each other, learning new things, embracing them is why THI exists, thanks to you all for taking part and going some way to fulfilling my vision, it's wonderful to hear, please keep it going.

If rabbits were killed off due to Myxomatosis being harmful to humans, why did cats survive culling due to Toxoplasmosis disease, which is more harmful to humans?

From the Grand Illusion to the grand delusion. On September 25, the 5,780th anniversary of the day on which Jewish tradition holds the world was created, ignoring the fact Gobekli Tepe is at least 11K years old, so the world and man was created according to Jewish his story and within 250 years hunter gatherer people built the Pyramids, and 5500 years later we can't build them to that precision, and they expect people to believe that? conspiracy theory at its finest. The Sanhedrin was holding a conference for the emerging Organization of 70 Nations. The conference will culminate in an animal sacrifice made by representatives of the nations on the Mount of Olives, in which they will renew the covenant made by Noah upon leaving the Ark. The conference will begin on Wednesday evening, September 25, the 25th day of the Hebrew month of Elul at the Jerusalem Gate Hotel and continue until Friday, September 27. Lectures and discussions will focus on the Noahide obligations incumbent upon all of mankind. Also discussed will be the universal economic, cultural, educational that should be the focus of such an organization. Not to worship idols. Not to curse God. To establish courts of justice. Not to commit murder. Not to commit adultery, bestiality, or sexual immorality. Not to steal. Not to eat flesh torn from a living animal. A major focus will also be the establishment of an international court based on Bible principles, (uh oh based on who's bible?) God established the borders of the world based on the 70 children of Israel (really so god drew lines on a map to divide people did he?) who went down to Egypt and the 70 nations that came out from Noah. The concept of 70 nations also appears in reference to the 70 oxen offered in the Temple throughout Sukkot (the feast of the tabernacles) which the Talmud (Sukkah 55b) teaches are for the merit of the 70 nations. (what are these 70 nations, when we were told God only chose one in all the books? is god planning globalist expansion programs?) The first day of the conference will end with a joint prayer by all the participants. Rabbi Yeshayahu Hollander, the Sanhedrin's Foreign Minister has been tasked with composing the unique prayer for the special occasion. (the same Sanhedrin according to the books that condemned the so called son of god to death, known as Jesus) "Religion is a difficult word," Rabbi Hollander said. "An individual does not need a religion to relate to God. (good start and take note of that statement, because I am certain our recent theme of contradictions will unfold shortly) Adam did not need religion to speak to God.(because Adam was created by the fake gods is why) Religion is an activity that a community does together. Nations were established with Noah (I thought he said it was established by god? does that mean Noah is god now?) and then there became a need for religion. (here we go) We need to come together as distinct nations and religions."(distinct means defined and separate from others) "A nation has the attributes that define it but it also needs a religion,"(and there you have it all in one paragraph, you don't need religion and now you do) Rabbi Hollander said, suggesting that the United Nations lacked this attribute. "An organization of nations necessarily needs to be religious, 70 nations under God, but not any specific common religion." (is he suggesting a reduction of nations under the banner of the UN?) The ceremony will renew the covenant made between mankind and God at that time. (which god are you referring to? covenant which like the word testament, means to bind, why would god bind us? bind us like the sacrificial offerings before being put in the fire, is that what he is saying? or is covenant or ant coven? What he is really saying here is to renew the covenant of Solomon, not Noah and bring the demons back, that appears intrinsically linked to this one group of people, I can assure you all that covenant and those entities will be not renewed or returning, these people best be careful what they ask or induce going forward, there will be consequences of their actions) “I now establish My covenant with you and your offspring to come, and with every living thing that is with you—birds, cattle, and every wild beast as well (when you consider in the Talmud non Jewish are declared beasts, in the Black Law dictionary humans means monster, and education means training of animals)—all that have come out of the ark, every living thing on earth. I will maintain My covenant with you: never again shall all flesh be cut off by the waters of a flood, (I guess they just save that for the sacrifices, as all the flesh is cut off) and never again shall there be a flood to destroy the earth.” (given it was the so called Gods who delivered the flood, essentially what they are saying is, as long as you stay bound to their undeterminable god and his covenant, we won't drown you again) Genesis 9:9-11 This sacrifice made by Noah was a Korban Olah (a sacrifice that goes up), a tribute to God that was entirely burnt on the altar. “Just as Noah was not Jewish but was a servant of God, this ceremony is a declaration that mankind is serving Hashem (God, literally, ‘the name’),”(Hashem is the new name along with Jehovah, Yahweh, tetragrammaton, Noah, Adonia, all too common of name changes amongst the people who follow this cult, Mileikowsky becomes Netanyahu, Lenin was Ulyanov, Bauer became Bayer both of which are Rothschild) Rabbi Weiss explained. The altar must be built and the sacrifice made by someone from the nations who keeps the seven Noahide laws. It is still unclear. (why do we need an altar, which means sacrifice? surely we have developed sufficiently to see through that illusion that we must kill animals or people as a sacrifice to the gods? What he is telling you here is they will build 3rd temple, which is actually the 4th, his story unable to count as well as unable to tell the truth, that sacrifice center, which is what a temple is, will not be allowed going forward) “This is a religious act but not for any specific religion,” Rabbi Weiss said. “This is a meta-religion, not a global religion, which is inherent in every person and expressed in his own way. The world needs to return to religion. Rejecting religion, rejecting God, is a sickness that is afflicting the world. (so having said we don't need a religion, now he says we do, using the term meta which means about, after, beyond and amongst, like meta data which means data about data, so meta religion means religion about religion, does that make any sense? but its not a global religion, well it cant be as he stated it was only for 70 nations, when there are 209. these people talk shit and in complete riddles) These ceremonies are stated as sacrifices to atone their own sins, why is a poor animal or children in some cases as covered in FRWL series, responsible for the Jewish cult crimes? does anyone sit down think and ask why are others made to end their lives because of the misdemeanors of ourselves? same applies to the whole Jesus narrative, he died for our sins they say, why did Jesus get sacrificed when he didn't commit the crimes or sins? What type of phony logic is applying here, do these people understand or comprehend exactly what they are saying, clearly not. I wonder what would happen if THI created a religion and all members declared their sins and offered up the Rothschild's family as the sacrifice, whether people would think that was acceptable, most would say that it's not, and yet this whole religion is based on that very concept, and is lost to most people, including the Jewish. Teaching the world needs a religion, and yet they are the most secluded group of people on the planet, teaching their children if you are not following Yahweh, Torah or Talmud then those are not real people and are just animals, what type of values in life is that teaching their children? Kosher people who come to Florida in April and cover the toilets, handles, faucets and any other stationary object covered to avoid touching anything that a non Jew has touched, what type of bs behavior is that? if it was a basic cleanliness I could perhaps understand, but every single family that left, left the house completely trashed, I hate to say it but you acted like pigs, one has to ask if you are gods chosen ones, did he tell you to behave in that manner as well? You do realize where the term scapegoat came into existence, it is a Jewish sacrifice term, as mentioned earlier someone else pays for their crimes and sins, hence scapegoat. The ceremony is called korban olah, korban means to draw close olah means holocaust, holocaust means religious animal sacrifice by fire, so korban olah means to draw close the holocaust of sacrificing by fire. The nascent Sanhedrin released a declaration to the 70 nations for Hanukkah to be read at a ceremony in Jerusalem on the last day of the holiday. The ceremony will include the consecration of a stone altar prepared for use in the Third Temple. The declaration is intended as an invitation to the nations to participate in the Temple and to receive its blessings. Neither their covenant with Solomon's demons or their 3rd or 4th temple of sacrifice will be allowed, anyone supporting it will be cast in the same light as these people.

Did you know our world is only 5% developed, America is less than 10% developed also, and yet for the past 100 years we have knocked it down and rebuilt it, mainly due to war, all because certain private contractors get their funding that way. Imagine what we could achieve if that trash and rebuild process was eliminated? As covered in Tuesdays show, this is a scam of massive proportions, where an inner circle connected to CIA, 5 eyes, NATO are passing bogus information around the world to self generate their own programs, create their own contracts and collect all the funds associated with it. Look what happened in Iraq, they bombed it into oblivion and then clowns in America (CIA) brought in their own contractors to rebuild it, the likes of Halliburton, Bechtel and others, does anyone ask why are we rebuilding their country? think logically, you go to war in some country for whatever reason, but did the Romans, Dutch, British rebuild the towns and cities they destroyed? it defies all logic and yet so few ask why are we rebuilding their country? and more importantly why are we not rebuilding our own? The whole thing is beyond bizarre, that requires vast quantities of funds that belongs to the American people, and yet no one or too few ask, why are we doing this and who is responsible for it? well clearly after the last show, now you know why. So how does it work, well you have corrupt agencies passing bogus information based on a narrative designed to deliver a solution they require, it is passed onto governments and media to garner the reaction from the public, the reaction then from the public requires them to provide the solution they wanted, and off to war we go. Accept over the past 4-5 decades with new laws passed, they just by pass due process, and cut out the politicians altogether, politicians who I might add are clueless and know less of what is and has gone on, than the average alt media person, all compartmentalized you see, and politicians are bottom 1%, deep state, military and agencies bottom 5-10% maximum. Programs are based on population reduction, cover up previous scandals, acquiring of resources to then fund other programs, regime change to install their own puppets receptive to their levels of depravity and corruption. It involves military, science, big pharma, agency intelligence and world based agencies, private groups operating under the fake banner of security, churches, charities, banks and secret think tank groups, all are in on it. The CIA which is a front for OSS, who are a front for the Vatican, who are a front for Zionist Communist Israelite people masquerading as Jews, the Jewish religion was their chosen faith to deliver this anti life program globally, when in reality they are known as the Black Sun cult. Told a whole heap of fake history with books barely believable for those who can actually think, created a program whereby one group is more special than the rest, the classic divide and conquer, and caused untold suffering to people immersed into that religion, into a program that has rendered their peoples almost as pariahs in many countries. But these people have been used, pushed into various countries globally by the puppet masters, based on a completely fake history, and once sufficient numbers of Jewish people are installed, the programs are created for them to follow, which largely means they takeover the regions land, resources, business and banks, oblivious to the Jewish people by and large, and because of this hidden program, it is they who have suffered. Thrown out of 106 countries in the last 2000 years, plagued with the guilt that it was they who killed the person known as Jesus, plagued with the guilt of knowing in some cases, denial in most cases, it was their own kind who killed them in WW2, the SS were all Jewish connected as my series has proven. I wish more where encouraged to learn more and embrace the knowledge, it will solve many of the world's ill, where hate and division towards others are largely at the request of the system, blaming Jews for everything being one of them, Jews are the front puppets, the sacrificial lambs as it where, for a far larger program running in the background. Like I have said no one was born a Jew, Cat holic, Muslim or any other derivative of fake religions, that was given to you by non taught parents and the system. No child should be born and branded by a religion, it is far damaging than many realize, the choice of religion, whether to participate or not, should be decided by the child when passing into adulthood at 18, that then becomes their choice, currently that choice is taken away by a non sovereign program, by millions of parents inserted into a program they are oblivious to, or the consequences of. This world is riddled with stupidity, naivety, basic lack of understanding of how life works or should be, and we have much work ahead to get it anywhere near what it should be, thankfully our members along with Randy's and Alan's have made a good start in thinking different, we will not prevail copying old ways, all of it has failed and all of it is collapsing. I see us as errant warriors. Errant in the sense that we are departing from a prescribed course. We cross a threshold, and then the fabric of events alters. The “news” is different. Solid becomes liquid, liquid becomes vapor, and vapor becomes open space or aether. That space is waiting for us to do something. The space has no plan. It is calm. The challenges we assumed were there are missing. Those challenges were the last meal we consumed on the last day of old time. Now we walk and look up at the night sky. We are satiated and satisfied. Now we can do something different.
