Neither Kim or KIMS will have a website, The Trust and the Trustee are a private entity unto it itself, it does not require a website as it is not selling or promoting anything. THI is the website in essence.

One of our members was moving home and regular member offered to help, this is what THI is all about, getting people to come together and supporting each other, all was going smoothly until right near the end, but our own version of the good, not Samaritan but good person stepped forward into the role and rescued the day for them both, the dame rode up in her shiny armored 2005 GMC Savannah and saved the day. Nice to see and hear how some of the THI Oregon all came together recently and had a lot of fun together, following on from Florida, Sweden and Ireland it is great to hear.

SUB INTEL That means millions more electric cars in the next few years. All the batteries and the wiring, the processors and the charging points, will need raw materials. Last year the German giant Volkswagen tried to corner the market in cobalt. Supplies of lithium are also in hot demand. And copper has never been so badly needed. And with renewable power like wind and solar being installed at a frantic pace, every turbine and every panel also requires key metals. Add to that the boom in consumer electronics and there are real concerns about future supplies. With cobalt, it's estimated that by 2025 Volkswagen will need one-third of the current entire global supply for its electric cars. Massive new battery factories are being constructed – like Tesla owner Elon Musk's famous Gigafactory - and they too will be hungry for cobalt. Bram Murton, a geologist with the UK's National Oceanography Centre, says that if all the cars on Europe's roads are electric by 2040, and if they use the same kind of batteries as the Tesla Model 3, that would require 28 times more cobalt than is produced right now. At the moment more than 60% of all cobalt comes from the Democratic Republic of Congo. For decades allegations of corruption and human rights abuses have swirled around parts of its mining industry. Last year Amnesty International said there were children as young as seven working in the DRC's cobalt mines, "in narrow man-made tunnels, at risk of fatal accidents and serious lung disease". Microsoft, Renault and Huawei were among the companies named as failing to check if their supplies of cobalt involved child labour. The story of 5000 dead from measles in the Congo is linked to this story, genocide for minerals program again.

On Friday morning, a reckoning arrived, the consequence of his efforts to sabotage a congressional investigation that threatened his longtime friend President Trump. Mr. Stone, 67, was convicted in federal court of seven felonies for obstructing the congressional inquiry, lying to investigators under oath and trying to block the testimony of a witness whose account would have exposed his lies. Jurors deliberated for a little over seven hours before convicting him on all counts. Together, the charges carry a maximum prison term of 50 years. Personally I don't know enough about Roger Stone to state whether his actions are that way, what I don't get his how he went to court and was convicted that way, which is fine if all correct, but how another official who did the same thing, got a slap on the wrist? hello James Comey?

In a small Kenyan town, situated close to the Somali border, one NGO (non-governmental organization) has made a remarkable stride towards achieving this feat. The NGO known as GivePower is to thank for this new solar water treatment plant. Resident's of the small Kenyan town of Kiunga lives have already been positively impacted by the new development. As a result of the success of the new solar water treatment, GivePower plans to expand its program to other parts of Earth. According to reports published by world bodies UNICEF and WHO ( World Health Organization) less than two months ago, one in every three persons does not have access to readily drinking water. This water crisis is especially prominent in areas of sub-Saharan Africa, which made it the perfect locale to install the first solar plant system. The plant has been in operation since 2018 and its main objective is to transform saltwater from the Indian Ocean into clean drinking water. After the success with the Kenyan town of Kiunga, GivePower hopes to expand its reveling technology to Haiti and Colombia. Traditionally, the process of desalination is very expensive as a result of the high amount of power usage used to carry out the process. Subsequently, it can only be done in areas that have the resources to not only produce but also distribute that much energy. GivePower's technology tackled this issue through what is referred to as "solar water farms", that produces approximately 50 kW of energy stored by high-performance Tesla batteries along with 2 water pumps that operate 24/7.

Kenyan government risks losing the lucrative Mombasa port to China should the country fail to repay huge loans advanced by Chinese lenders. In November, African Stand reported on how Kenya is at high risk of Losing strategic assets over huge Chinese debt and just after a few month the Chinese are about to take action. The loans have been granted for the development of the Standard Gauge Railway (SGR). Also at stake is the Inland Container Depot in Nairobi, which receives and dispatches freight hauled on the new cargo trains from the seaport. Implications of a takeover would be grave, including the thousands of port workers who would be forced to work under the Chinese lenders. Management changes would immediately follow the port seizure since the Chinese would naturally want to secure their interests. Further, revenues from the port would be directly sent to China for the servicing of an estimated Sh500 billion lent for the construction of the two sections of the SGR. In December 2017, the Sri Lankan government lost its Hambantota port to China for a lease period of 99 years after failing to show commitment in the payment of billions of dollars in loans. In September 2018, Zambia lost Kenneth Kaunda International Airport to China over debt repayment. In 2018 China has agreed to extend a loan to Botswana for rail and infrastructure as well as writing off a BWP 80 million USD 733K debt after taking over Sri-Lanka port.

Dennis Tyler, the Democratic mayor of Muncie, Indiana, was arrested at his home on Monday morning, according to the FBI. An arrest warrant was executed at Tyler's home at 7:30 a.m., according to Chris Bavender, spokeswoman with the FBI in Indianapolis. Tyler is currently in FBI custody, Bavender said. Bavender referred any additional questions to the US Attorney's Office, which did not immediately respond to a request for comment. Tyler's administration has been under scrutiny for several years now as investigators conducted a federal corruption probe. Earlier this year, the city's former building commissioner was sentenced to two years in prison after pleading guilty to wire fraud and money laundering.

Next two stories are linked, connect the dots, Prince Andrew has finally broken his silence on his controversial friendship with paedophile Jeffrey Epstein in a prime time BBC special to be shown tomorrow evening after six months of planning. The Duke of York was interviewed by Newsnight's Emily Maitlis at Buckingham Palace last night and the show: 'Prince Andrew & the Epstein Scandal' will be broadcast on BBC 2 at 9pm on Saturday. The BBC has not released any footage - but Ms Maitlis said today it was a 'no holds barred interview' with 'no questions vetted' by Andrew or palace officials, who were pondering taking part since May, it emerged today. It is believed the Queen will have given her blessing for the interview to go ahead inside the walls of Buckingham Palace. It is the first time the duke has been grilled on his friendship with the American sexual abuser found dead in his New York prison cell three months ago while awaiting trial for sex-trafficking. He will also be confronted with allegations made by Epstein's 'slave' Virginia Roberts that she was flown to London on Epstein's private jet, nicknamed the 'Lolita Express', for sex with the prince who she has called 'an abuser'. Andrew has 'vehemently denied' claims he slept with Virginia three times - including once during an orgy with nine women on Epstein's private 'paedo island' in the US Virgin Islands - but only ever in pre-prepared statements released by Buckingham Palace's press office, never in a TV interview. Since then several high profile sponsors or group connected with him have disassociated from him and then this statement yesterday, The Duke of York says he is stepping back from royal duties because the Jeffrey Epstein scandal has become a "major disruption" to the Royal Family. Prince Andrew, 59, said he had asked the Queen for permission to withdraw for the "foreseeable future". He said he deeply sympathised with sex offender Epstein's victims and everyone who "wants some form of closure". In a statement, the duke said: "I continue to unequivocally regret my ill-judged association with Jeffrey Epstein. Very clever worded attempt Andrew, except some see see through your carefully selected mind memes, the focus of this has been pushed onto his friendship with Epstein and away from his sexual activities, a typical ploy they use. Be careful Andrew I hear there is a nice tunnel in Paris for sale again.

On Tuesday Meghan secretly invited former First Lady Hillary Clinton to visit her at Frogmore Cottage, her Windsor home, the Mail can reveal. According to sources, the two women hugged during what was described as something of a 'fan girl' meeting. Prince Harry and six-month-old Archie were there and Mrs Clinton, 72, even got to have a cuddle of the royal baby and told Meghan about Chelsea's new baby son, Jasper, her third grand-child. 'Both women have a lot of admiration for each other and it was a very sweet, warm meeting,' the source said, 'they are mutual fan girls!'

US Secretary of State Mike Pompeo on Monday announced a major reversal of the US' longstanding policy on Israeli settlements in the occupied West Bank, rejecting a 1978 State Department legal opinion that deemed the settlements "inconsistent with international law." The announcement, which breaks with international law and consensus, is the latest in a string of hardline, pro-Israeli moves that are likely to inflame tensions between the Trump administration and Palestinians and widen the divide between the Trump administration and traditional US allies in Europe. An administration official said the State Department has been working toward this decision for nearly a year in coordination with the White House's peace team, which is led by Trump's son-in-law Jared Kushner. The official said the move does not change the administration's position that continued settlement construction is not conducive to Israeli-Palestinian peace. tick tock Pompeo.

Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu was indicted Thursday on bribery, fraud and breach of trust charges in a set of long-running corruption cases, immediately throwing his political future into doubt and heightening the uncertainty and chaos surrounding Israel's fitful, yearlong struggle to choose its next leader. The cases against Mr. Netanyahu involve allegations of giving or offering lucrative official favors to several media tycoons in exchange for either favorable coverage in news outlets or gifts worth hundreds of thousands of dollars.

A week of impeachment rolls on through via the organized and disorganized circus tent. Claims and counterclaims I see, I ignore 99% because the whole thing just like the Russian collusion requires pretty much 1 question, why is it ok for one party to collude and use powers of persuasion but not another? I recall the Clintons using persuasion from MI6 to dig dirt on Trump via the Steele documents, most of which were fairytales, but not ok for Trump to ask another leader to dig dirt in the Ukraine? In reverse it was stated that Trump was doing private deals and business in Russia and that was not ok, but Biden and several other Dems and Reps who are actively doing dodgy deals and business in Ukraine is ok? The real problem with all this is the treasonous media who haven't got a single brain cell combined, duracell bots wound up and given scripts and opinions to read out and relay to a non thinking comatose audience. To the media here is a new meme, Be

Truth not Lies. THE WHITEHOUSE, November 10, 1999. To the Senate of the United States: With a view to receiving the advice and consent of the Senate to ratification, I transmit herewith the Treaty Between the United States of America and Ukraine on Mutual Legal Assistance in Criminal Matters with Annex, signed at Kiev on July 22, 1998. I transmit also, for the information of the Senate, an exchange of notes which was signed on September 30, 1999, which provides for its provisional application, as well as the report of the Department of State with respect to the Treaty. The Treaty is one of a series of modern mutual legal assistance treaties being negotiated by the United States in order to counter criminal activities more effectively. The Treaty should be an effective tool to assist in the prosecution of a wide variety of crimes, including drug trafficking offenses. The Treaty is self-executing. It provides for a broad range of cooperation in criminal matters. Mutual assistance available under the Treaty includes: taking of testimony or statements of persons; providing documents, records, and articles of evidence; serving documents; locating or identifying persons; transferring persons in custody for testimony or other purposes; executing requests for searches and seizures; assisting in proceedings related to restraint, confiscation, forfeiture of assets, restitution, and collection of fines; and any other form of assistance not prohibited by the laws of the requested state. I recommend that the Senate give early and favorable consideration to the Treaty and give its advice and consent to ratification. signed by? WILLIAM J. Rockefeller CLINTON. as Q said these people are stupid, I suspect we will have a lot of fun between now and then.

INTEL The 11/11 event stated throughout alt media was about the Dark forces opening up portals, and letting in the armies to create havoc again. At least two portals were opened one in Russia and one in Switzerland, this was wreak maximum damage on this planet and turn the tide back in their favor. People doing mass meditations have to realize you are being duped into opening up these portals for them, via certain chants and incantations within the mediation word magic ritual. The situation was contained, around 150 dead and 4000+ were quarantined, whereby they all died and returned to source. For those fighting on that level use a faraday cage to contain them, no current based energy can go in, and so they can't feed and subsequently die off in there. The head and ultimate in the dark magician world known as The Destroyer and his legion of armies has now been completely eliminated from all planes of existence, we were aware of it over a week or so ago, but their minions confirmed the event did take place in the now, and caused some high profile peoples to now admit, they are not part of the Order of the Black Sun, and actually they were their enemies. What these people and in some cases entities don't get is, you were all played big time, the illusion was this group and that group were enemies, is the oft repeated boogeyman and savior program, one day you will all realize, the dark played both and all sides. Create nasties, then create another set of nasties, call one the light and one the dark, one is the boogeyman and one is the savior, no you were both energy harvesting batteries. Like the mirror created conflict called the Cold War, the US fought the SU, and the SU fought the US, all of which was total bs'ery, there was no separate US or SU, SU is just US in the mirror, and so it was not the United States fighting the Soviet Union, it was US was fighting US, and the dark wins off both sides. So now the Destroyer who I believe goes by the name Kal Karinjan, whose female counterpart was the Kali Ma and subsequently Lilith, who all tribal people have been taught to worship of and subsequently sacrifice to her, the same entities who all the Hebrew, Buddhism and Hinduism people are worshipping, the witchcraft people and their goddesses where all worshipping the Kali Ma and the dark mother moon ritual based entity, syphoning vast quantities of life force energy off the people participating in it, but also those who came in to contact with them, a self perpetuating virus. This will now allow things to move onto the next stage, the key battles are being won and won heavily, and the end game moves closer again now, Universe that was once 87% dark is now heading close to the balance of 45/55 now.

Some maybe noticing a lot less pigeons around the world, this is due to certain ET species who were used to eating humans in their staple diet, they were offered a replacement, and have now gained a taste for pigeons, replacing the human food source.

When you understand the term let us make man in our image in terms of not creation, but genetics, as an imitation of them in their image, then you begin to understand the bigger picture here, of what unfolded.

Not all large lights falling in the sky globally are meteors.

Expect a lot of buzzing particularly in the right ear from this day forward, embrace it the G cloud and GNA is near

So today, Rothchild's in cooperation with Bank of England, HSBC and Deutsche bank tried registering new birth certificate bonds of American citizens as collateral today, in hopes of issuing crypto currencies against these bonds. They must have forgotten they already issued these bonds, and sold them to the Trust, so when they tried to issue them they came up as duplicates and we're rejected.

Somewhere in neighborhood of 1.5 trillion were attempted, clowns also failed to realize the bonds were DOLLAR denominated, and therefore would still have required the Trusts approval, and would have been denied anyway, as it would have devalued the dollar drastically and crashed the economy, clearly they have the same half wit economists as Anna Von Reitz. do you understand

Following a call made by one of the leading Rothschild's came on Friday, which was expected, like I have said they all have to come to us eventually. Several confirmations were given to us in a direct and indirect way by the 3rd leading Rothschild, including the Destroyer entity, but he also revealed that they were enemies of the Order of the Black Sun and should work together. What these people fail to get yet, but are learning, as they were all paired off against one another, there was no boogeyman, only a carefully constructed false enemy or opponent, all manipulated from on high, like a giant video war game. All of our calls are listened to, but Kim's in particular sets off servers around the world the minute she answers the phone, so all and sundry were listening in on this call, which may well go down as another event, and another shot heard around the world, because Mr. Rothschild said " the RV/GCR was a carrot for jackasses" jackasses oops. This has got the Generals, Agency people and all other minions all around the world, all of whom bought into this program that not only was not physically possible, but a plot to distract the jackasses, oh dear all those so called top people are now very pissed currently. Thank you Mr. Rothschild for telling the truth for once, maybe now the world can move on and actually do something useful together, as for the jackasses it serves you right, a simple check of the plethora of systems you have and had at your disposal, would have told you clearly, this was all a ruse, your greed overtook your common sense. Minions et al you can cry at the Roths all you like, but like the general populace we all fell for the oldest tricks in the book, I guess your IQ of over 140 doesn't work too well, when greed and control becomes the dominant feature, as for military people you are even worse, as Kissinger told you all years ago what he thought of you all, "Military men are just dumb, stupid animals to be used as pawns in foreign policy." or this classic from sponge bob man John Kerry, "Education, if you make the most of it, you study hard, you do your homework, and you make an effort to be smart ... you can do well. If you don't, YOU GET STUCK IN IRAQ." Like we say time always tells, this show and my previous show I stated the RV was not possible, Kim has been telling you all so called top dignitaries the same thing for last 4-5 years, perhaps now you will listen to us more. Truth prevails in the end. The RV/GCR was a carrot for jackasses, utter classic line that. Forgive us for our bit of schadenfreude, but the point is you have been taking the piss out of the people for a long time, a bit of payback time for the people.

When you are talking to yourself and nobodies home indeed, these people are beyond stupid and need to be returned to source pronto, their thinking levels are beyond absurd, despite receiving the best schooling, inside knowledge and various other advantages, they are still at banal levels of stupidity. Repeating failed programs, following dead people, thinking their fake gods will come down and save them, waiting for US dollars arriving from higher dimensions to fund the RV, I kid you not, and they call us nuts and conspiracy theorists? You were all told in the meeting what is the new directive, and yet on you go with fake Rv's, fake fresh air tokens, fake control systems, wasting vast resources to block things, getting several servers and systems fried, and you still don't get it, the Rothschild should have looked in the mirror when he called out jackasses, and to the rest of his Draco off spawn family. Listen careful jackasses you gave all the riches away to the Trust, you gave all the power away to the Trust, and we are not giving it back to you jackasses to waste again DO YOU UNDERSTAND, you have lost, get over it.

OP-ED Next piece is brought to you by clown think tank retards going back to 1966, that is not to say there was no previous to that, we had the were all going to die several times previously, via the biblical Armageddon bs.

The saddest thing is people keep believing this shit, it is what happens when you don't pay attention and don't see the patterns, they are not very original, they always repeat things, because people keep falling for the same crap is why. The day most people realize the government, schools, medical, science, religions and people services are not there for your benefit, but actually to harm you, then we will have a real change on this planet.

A documentary focusing on India showed children - 5, 6, 7 years old - out in the hot sun (120 degrees F is not uncommon in Summer) making mud bricks. The factory owner was asked, "Why aren't these kids in school?" He replied, "They cannot go to school until the debt is repaid - until then, they are my property". You see, in India, debt transfers from parents to children. So, if one of your relatives got, say, a "payday loan" years ago at the standard 5000% annualized interest rate, then all relatives beyond that point would become slaves of the loan holder until it was repaid. Of course, it will never be repaid so the loan holder legally owns the kids - and their kids - throughout time - forever. Yet millions of people around the world are enamored by the enlightenment of India culture and spirituality, whilst running children as pay day slaves, of which 7000 of them die each day, the Kali ma lives on, under the banner of spirituality and enlightenment it seems.

According to recent data from the Food & Drug Administration reveals 6,370 adults have died from a drug currently being used to block puberty in transgendered children. Between 2012 and June 30 of this year, the FDA documented over 40,764 adverse reactions suffered by patients who took Leuprolide Acetate (Lupron), which is used as a hormone blocker. More than 25,500 reactions logged from 2014-2019 were considered 'serious,' including 6,370 deaths. Interesting that the FDA are now highlighting this drug, given it was the same organization who approved it, this drug is also on the List of Essential Medicines, by the World Health Organization, go figure. Will the FDA and WHO be held accountable for these injuries and deaths? answers on a quark particle.

A recent study of 1600 children done by scientist told the story of 98% of children are born with and carry what is called the genius gene, genius level intellect of creativity, by aged 10 that is reduced to less than 30% of the children, by aged 15 less than 13% by aged 20 to 30 less than 2% why because they educated it out of us, education means training of animals, they have destroyed by that point, the most creative intelligent species down to the level of animals. teach not educate. The teaching of Soul development awareness is a must for future development of our children, for the overall development of the species, the consequences of not teaching them, is why humanity has regressed backward, in terms of development and intellect. We also need to teach a real understanding of karma, the consequences of it and not just pass it onto others via the Day of Atonement ceremonies. We need to teach real spirituality which is individual based not groups, all groups spiritual or religious are corrupted by the dark elements, repeat ALL of them. Meditation time and classes would make children grow again, Spirit knowledge and awareness we are not alone also, teaching the above without stating we are not alone, becomes a muted and stunted exercise of dancing around things, facts and truth not assumptions and logic. We can only do that by scrapping the current education programs, enough of their animal training, the animals they called us are waking up, and are tired of being treated like dead animal carcasses, the whole system is a complete joke and access to the private schools all the elite children go to, need to be rolled out into charter schools first, then eventually public schools for real development.

The mystery of the unknown island in Hawaii, known as Ni'ihau, a small island no doubt few have ever heard of, myself included. An island where no one has been allowed to go on the island since King Kamehameha IV sold it for $10,000 in 1863 to Elizabeth Sinclair of Scotland, ah the Sinclairs or St. Clairs of Roslyn Castle fame. She the passed private ownership onto her descendants, the Robinson family. The island is generally off-limits to all but the Robinson family and their relatives, U.S. Navy personnel, government officials, and invited guests, giving it the nickname "The Forbidden Isle". Sounds like Epstein island to me. Since 1864, guaranteed full-time work for the inhabitants was supplied by the Niihau Ranch. Natives also fashioned Niihau shell lei for luxurious jewelry. But in 1999, the Robinsons closed the ranch when it was admitted that no profit was made from cattle and sheep ranching, processing of charcoal and honey on the island. Today, only part-time work is offered to a few with local tourism and a small U.S. Navy installation. The U.S. military has also been an important source of income for the island and for decades has run special operation training programs and even research and development of top-secret military defense systems there. hmm research and development are not the two words I would call it personally, as we will find out later. It is estimated that only 70 permanent residents remain, which is a considerable reduction since the last census in 2010 put the total at 170, the main reason for the exodus they say is unemployment, since the closure of the ranch in 1999, I would suggest island takeover for other nefarious purposes personally.

In the summer of 1974, a large and highly unusual ship set sail from Long Beach in California. It was heading for the middle of the Pacific where its owners boasted it would herald a revolutionary new industry beneath the waves. Equipped with a towering rig and the latest in drilling gear, the vessel was designed to reach down through the deep, dark waters to a source of incredible wealth lying on the ocean floor. But amid all the excited public relations, there was one small hitch - the whole expedition was a lie. This was a Cold War deception on a staggering scale, but one which also left a legacy that has profound implications nearly half a century later. The real target of the crew on board this giant ship was a lost Soviet submarine. Six years earlier, the K-129 had sunk 1,500 miles north-west of Hawaii while carrying ballistic nuclear missiles. The Russians failed to find their sub despite a massive search, but an American network of underwater listening posts had detected the noise of an explosion that eventually led US teams to the wreck. So the CIA hatched an audacious plan, Project Azorian, to retrieve the submarine. That would have been hard enough. But there was another challenge as well - it had to be done without the Russians knowing. The spies needed to create a smokescreen so they pretended to be exploring the possibility of deep sea mining. There had to be a frontman - someone rich and eccentric enough to be plausible. The reclusive billionaire inventor Howard Hughes was perfect for the role. It took until 1974, six years after the sinking of the sub, for the CIA to be ready. The cost of the project - $500m - was equivalent then to building a couple of aircraft carriers or launching an Apollo mission to the moon. When you know that the CIA and the KGB worked together during the whole of the fake Cold War, this doesn't appear to be as cloak and dagger as it once sounded, they were terrified those weapons would get in other hands, all about fear and control with these people, and $500M of American taxpayers dollars wasted because of their fears and control issues.

In From Russia with Love we asked questions where the Germans duped or a separate group to Hitler, and we based this on the notion that Hitler, was delivering the narrative of the blue eyed blondes being the ultimate, the master race, only two problems with that, 1. he wasn't blue eyed blonde which makes no sense for an egoistic megalomaniac world perceives, as ultimately he would have to wipe himself out, and 2. why did the Nazis then attack the Poles, Slavs and Russians, many of whom were Aryan and blue eyed blondes, it made no sense. We also put forward this was an attack on whites mainly, done by totalitarian, one word split into three, means destroy the aryan, perhaps this piece will give you more clarity. Hitler's system argued that blue eyed blondes were the "master race" and should rightfully rule the world. Although, mainly due to the concept of political correctness since the US champions integration and race equality, another example of light and dark, boogeyman and savior, all bs, people look down on Hitler's argument that blue eyed blondes were somehow superior, and it should be noted and also recognized by the masses, that the United States used the same genetic selection system when it was fighting Hitler. If you go back and find some color pictures of men in the US Navy during the late 1940's to early 1950's you will find that they are ALL blue eyed blondes, oops and, they are not just blue eyed but are the special "azure blue" which sort of shines as if it was lit up, there were no exceptions. People do not seem to realize that the different US armed forces, were populated with specific genetic types before the services were ordered integrated. The Air Force also liked the Hitler model SS genetics [incidentally, the "SS" is a schematic symbol for the double helix of the DNA molecule], the Army was for the "lower genetic classes" which means brown eyes and not necessarily white skin.

So, there you have it, From Russia with Love series confirmed again, the illusion was their was an enemy and we were the good guys, when there was no enemies or good guys, just pawns in a program of lets eliminate the whites, connected to the great north, the URS and the Rus they taught, why? because they were the most advanced humans ever on the planet, and a threat to the dark forces. For further confirmation of our series and in particular FRWL 8A & C, when you find out that Zen is mind thought based, and zen also derives its name from Zeus. Zen master is also another Ophiucus term, remember their word for guardian was master.

Everybody by now are aware that the secret and various orders all carry code words, that mean much to them but not much to us, until they surface and come into the light, then suddenly everything makes much more sense. Apologies ahead for certain words stated in this piece, but it does bring a certain understanding of how they operate and think. There is a famous doctor, who had won awards and international recognition for his research on the eye using dogs for destructive testing. My friend saw him at a party and, it so happened, she had a sick dog with some kind of eye trouble. She approached the man and asked his advice since he was so famous for his dog research, and was hoping for this doctor to help fix her dog, what she got in return left her speechless when he replied, "Dogs? - I don't know anything about dogs, we don't use dogs, we use niggers, Niggers are better than dogs." Dogs was a code word for black people in these research facility, research facility has whole new meaning than the majority think, they are death and torture centers. In this way the doctor was able to "operate in plain sight" and even receive public awards for his research, of course, people with code word clearance knew what "dogs" really meant, and what was really going on but the general public was clueless. This is how code word clearance works in everyday life. And the Lord came down and changed the language so people wouldn't understand it, makes much more sense now doesn't it?

I have read this before but a timely reminder of the plots of the dark forces using pawns to do their bidding. The plan to convert from real currency to imaginary currency appears to be inherently sinister, essentially they are describing mirror money, looks like money, spends like money, but is like the mirror only an image or likeness of such. As supported by the following quote: Edward Mandell House, who coincidentally was involved with the Treaty of Versailles and also drafting the Covenant of the up and coming League of Nations, he also set the stage and groundwork for the CFR as well. He had this to say in a private meeting with Woodrow Wilson (President) [1913-1921] "[Very] soon, every American will be required to register their biological property in a National system designed to keep track of the people, and that will operate under the ancient system of pledging. Unbeknown to the elitist cloth heads, they were pledging it to the Trust which they didn't own. By such methodology, we can compel people to submit to our agenda, which will affect our security as a chargeback for our fiat paper currency, every American will be forced to register or suffer not being able to work and earn a living. They will be our chattel, and we will hold the security interest over them forever, by operation of the law merchant under the scheme of secured transactions. Americans, by unknowingly or unwittingly delivering the bills of lading to us, will be rendered bankrupt and insolvent, forever to remain economic slaves through taxation, secured by their pledges, those pledges are what the Trust is returning back to the rightful owners, not Rothschild's or some other half witted clown, the people. They will be stripped of their rights and given a commercial value, designed to make us a profit and they will be non the wiser, for not one man in a million could ever figure our plans and, if by accident one or two would figure it out, we have in our arsenal plausible deniability, that plausible deniability met his ultimate death two years ago, and these clowns are still running that failed program platform for a dead entity, haha seriously. After all, this is the only logical way to fund government, by floating liens and debt to the registrants in the form of benefits and privileges. This will inevitably reap to us huge profits beyond our wildest expectations, and leave every American a contributor or to this fraud which we will call "Social Insurance." Without realizing it, every American will insure us for any loss we may incur and in this manner; every American will unknowingly be our servant, however begrudgingly. The people will become helpless and without any hope for their redemption and, we will employ the high office of the President of our dummy corporation to foment this plot against America." Can it be more clearer than that? President of a dummy corporation owned they say by the US, nice play on words, the corporation is owned by us, not the US United States, us, we the people, and it is going back to we the people, that we have to achieve with our goals going forward. Like I have said they, the US like banks own nothing, all of it was stolen off us by the us, one giant trick has been played on us all, not just the people, but the clowns also, they are the three ringed circus.

A little in the way of some past, our story, The Hu people were a tribe from ancient Egypt and Mesopotamia that were descendent from dark planes in 2nd dimension. They were called the tarzacs. In ancient days prior to 16000bc in earth years they existed in 3rd dimension, the Hu warlords were a descendent order of the Ra king. Ishtar

When people spend their lives doing bad things, constantly plotting to hurt other people and cultivating hate and the like, the Aura is damaged and the person suffers, this is where and when dis-ease and possession kicks in, holes in the aura facilitates that. The elite like to do all these things but they don't want to suffer the natural consequences of their behavior, therefore, with periodic use of the Aura balancing equipment, they can lead as evil a life as they want, and still have a "picture perfect" Aura and enjoy excellent health, they have effectively "defeated the law of karma". They use machines to clear their karma, people who develop their own skills don't need machines, machines are for the lazy and less developed people, which these el-ites clearly are. Their desire for the external riches supersedes the development of their own internal riches, which no amount of money can ever buy, no matter how hard you try, that's why whenever you see a Rothschild or Rockefeller they all look miserable bastards, spent all their lives chasing external riches and will eventually realize it was all pointless.

Question to ponder based on hidden technology available to them but not us, I wonder what happens if you find out that no famous person has died since the 1960's and all of them are in vast underground cities, and the famous people on the surface are copies?

There are many changes the true nature of which you would probably never guess. To prepare the Earth for the proposed "New World", the Satanic overlords who run this place have decided to make certain "changes", but most times, the reasons for these changes are not obvious to the masses. I have mentioned previously that certain ET's don't like smoking, and here is why the shame and guilt program that the stupid people ran for them, was implemented. For example, consider nicotine, many will not know that nicotine was the main active ingredient in insecticides for many years, starting in late 1800's, it kills insects dead, and you would think fine lets continue with that natural based product, err no, why? Because since we developed secret relations with the aliens, some of whom are Insectoids (advanced insect races), nicotine and therefore cigarette smoke is harmful to them. oops The use of tobacco products has never been permitted in the secret underground cities and installations because, in these protected areas, aliens are free to mingle with humans, this was generally the case, at level 6 and further down is where comingling occurred, as I understand it now they are banned from going below level 6 currently. However, under agreements aliens sometimes desire to move about on the surface disguised as humans, this has led to the new movement to have "smoking free cities" to accommodate these desires. This tells you what I have been saying, they walk amongst us regularly, in particular areas where smoking is banned, and once you can "see" one you will see more, and no they will not be coming up to you and saying hi I am an alien. So my saying a smoke or several a day keeps not only the Repts away, but the bug people also.

One of the MK Ultra tactics and used by rogue ET elements to get people into their order is the eye implant. This has been noted around the world of famous people all with their left eye blackened, that is due to their implant. It is a Vrill device to wrap around the optical nerve, eventually the brain and onto the spinal column as it grows for complete take over of the vessel. This is essentially what Elon Musk is promoting this week with brain implants, he needs strapping to one of his rockets that frequently blows up and hurtled into space imo. These are old gadgets and they are not easy to remove, it becomes like a crown of thorns around your head, very nasty. Notice the Illuminati symbols where they cover up the left eye and then do a circle in front of the right eye, apart from being a symbol of Ra, and son Horus, it is this eye implant sign or codes they use. Often human looking ET's have what is called a lazy eye, one eye is bigger than the other, once you can see, it becomes all so obvious.

There has been a big push in America to remove lead from paint from homes and all previous traces of it, and people think it is for their health, haha that's funny, nope. Lead paint is another good example of how they convince the masses that they are interested in our health, when evidence is all around you, they don't give a monkeys shite about our health. Lately, local police have been provided with previously classified technologies, which include portable X-ray devices to look into people's houses from the outside, not withstanding people putting home security, Alexa machines, smart fridges etc which are all spying and recording devices, except the government, military and agency peoples have been using X-ray satellites to watch people inside of houses and buildings, from as far back as the previous century. So what has this got to do with lead paint you may ask, well, since lead blocks X-rays, it was important to get rid of lead paint, otherwise, these spy devices could not effectively operate. So the removal of lead paint was not for our health, but to further their agenda of spying on us. All sing along now I see you through lead paint.

As above so below applies on astral and physical realms and so subsequently another trap or spell cast, the same as saying I am going astral traveling, it is a spell cast and subsequently a trap. What exists on the physical plane or realm is replicated in a slight variant form on the astral level, this confuses many as they think they are operating in the physical world, when they are inhabiting the astral copy world. This is where what is known as the mandela effect really takes effect, like I said there are subtle differences for the critical questioning minds, once you ask questions in the copy realm, that construct falls apart. People have reported whole buildings missing and then turn around and find it or lose it altogether, this is the merging aspects of the two worlds as the veil thins at various intersections of both space and also time. Things appearing and then disappearing, which is a classic encounter with UFO's is part of this merging and then uncoupling process, occurring simultaneously on the different planes of existence, which I will cover more in next piece. It is part of their greater plan to cause the maximum confusion, leaving the majority of people, not knowing whether they are coming or going, what is east or west, what is up or down and consequently what is real or not. Eventually that confusion will end and things will become a whole lot clearer, nobody knows the date for that, what will be will be. I may go deeper into this in another show.

If you look back in history, does it not strike you as strange that the people of Earth, went from riding horses and reading by candles or kerosene lanterns, to our current world of going on trips to the moon, satellites, flying around the world and being surrounded by every conceivable type of electronic gadget in less than a couple of generations? From the perspective of history, this is very strange, look at the length of time other evolutionary learning processes took, nothing like this has ever happened before. So, common sense should tell you that there is a missing part to this story, something that would explain this unprecedented jump in technical evolution, interjection and or interference is the reasons why. Some decided to add sin to the mix, sin means knowledge, and what is known as Seed knowledge, that was introduced in the early 1940's, it was stated that a decision was made to "take a chance" with the people of Earth, and to provide them with certain "seed knowledge" that they could use to raise their developmental level to a certain point. Where they would become an entrance level advanced civilization, and be able to interact with other advanced civilizations, from other parts of the physical universe. Quite who decided this on our behalf, without getting feedback from the very people it affects, is largely overlooked it seems, and also a part of the arrogance that has in some cases been displayed. Essentially every technology we enjoy today was derived in some way from this seed knowledge, so representatives came to Earth to deliver the seed knowledge, and discuss the potential and future evolution of the people of the Earth. All sounds very good on the face of it, humans being developed, but our shows have shown there is always a hidden agenda, and so it was. What they don't or won't tell you was, that a lot of this knowledge and technology came from previous human based civilizations, not a potpourri of exotic ET species, as we are led to believe. Agreements were made and that the seed knowledge was not free, and in order to obtain it, the representatives of Earth had to agree that the knowledge was to be used for the benefit of the all the peoples of the Earth, to promote their positive evolution and development, what could possibly go wrong! The Earth representatives were made aware that the seed knowledge did have a potential for abuse, they were required to promise not to do this, and they were also warned that there would be penalties if the knowledge, was used in any manner other than the positive and constructive manner they had agreed. It was explained to the representatives of Earth (which were Military, Agencies, Bloodline families and Governments, in other words they gave it to the worst elements of our society, I wonder what could possibly go wrong with that?) that violations of this agreement would result in punishments and sanctions, and could possibly make it necessary for the providers of the knowledge to correct their mistake by destroying the planet Earth, to protect the peace of the Universe and comply with Universal Laws. Nice people - not, so they make a decision and select their choices to deliver it and if it goes wrong, we all die, because they messed up with their selections, this is a major problem on this planet as well as outside of here, don't think for one second these entities are any better or more advanced, fancy technology does not make a species more advanced, but actually less advanced, technology is a lazy based non development tool. A distinct lack of accountability and the same applies with the latest viral bs, climate change, if the climate is changing, it is down to those who ran industries responsible for causing it, which is the bloodline families and their clown minions, so if climate change is real, the Rothschilds, Rockefellers, Du Ponts, Morgans, Bushes etc are wholly responsible for that mess, the reality is climate change is another bs attempt by them to stay in control. Prohibitions against nuclear devices, it was also explained to the Earth representatives, as they progressed , that nuclear detonations cause disruptions in space time, which can be detected by any advanced civilization and traced back to their source planet, they are considered bad form and should not be done. Lets ignore the fact that these so called advanced ET's were the ones responsible for bring that weaponry here to begin with, after destroying their own planet Nibiru with it, aeons back, but heaven forbid if the stupid humans rattle all the other planes of existence, where these fake gods and goddesses reside. There is a war in the heavens they say, as above so below, so war is here is what it means, war on here was not such an issue in the past, but since they became trapped on the planes, suddenly now it is a bigger issue, as war with nuclear weapons here rattles their planes of existence, see how it works? Unfortunately, Earth scientists got interested in the time distortion side effect of a nuclear detonation, and trying to get the secrets of time, they kept blowing up bombs until they figured it out, and then quickly got a world ban on new explosions in order to keep others from learning what they had. Status and dickswinging games again, we have something the others don't, utter delusional thinking, that America was getting one over on the Russians, and stupid Russians thinking they were getting or doing things better than the Americans, reality is you were both being played, in a pass the idiot parcel game, where the illusion one won and one lost, no you both did. Earth has not become the global advanced civilization that was intended, in fact, the Earth representatives chose to break all of their agreements, and use the seed knowledge to set up a global dictatorship, which is commonly called the New World Order, all done by the same entities that gave it to them in the first place, they played I am the chosen one or leader, whilst hidden entities played lets harvest everything from them. Newsflash for the clowns and the minions, the New World Order was not for your benefit, I will repeat again for hard of hearing the New World Order was NOT for your benefit, it was for theirs, and despite your fake titles of importance, all of you were irrelevant, oops, although it is pleasing to see and hear at least some of you are seeing through the illusion now. If they had kept their agreement, the general population of earth would not know poverty or disease, and would be free to travel and visit other advanced civilizations, throughout the universe by this point in time, ah the classic here is what you could have won guilt and shame tripping exercise, cleverly and deviously enhanced by the religious programming. We produce enough food per year to feed 3 planets and yet so many starve, that is not an accident, it is a direct policy. It was stated this was the hope and intent when the seed knowledge was handed over, however, as with any gamble, sometimes you do not get what you want despite your best efforts, more lies the hope was we all failed and these dark harvesters looted the whole planet and destroyed it, like they have done to many planets previously, including their own, and we think these entities are better than us? The seed knowledge as they called it is now being dispersed in a better way, by many people around the world. They are losing the narrative badly, and why they threw Prince Andrew to the wolves this past week, he is sacrificial lamb to protect higher up the chain, it's how it and they work. Lords, Kings, Queens, Generals, chosen ones, bloodlines, Pindars, Emperors, Empresses, Nobles and Nobility and every other of the fake titles you were given as a distraction, all of you and I repeat ALL of you were pawns in their game, oops. Their game no longer exists now and you are all that blinded by your own stupidity and self importance, you look and act like what you have been labeled, clowns. The giant circus production you all thought you ran, not realizing you were the figure of fun under the canopy, a canopy that you built for them, and they sat back in the gallery and laughed at you, and subsequently US.
