

THI-SHOW TRANSCRIPT 2019-11-28

Hope all had a nice pleasant day given it is Thanksgiving day here in America, the show is packed as normal with a mixture of pieces that will enlighten, cause introspection and pondering, but also have a few laughs. we are 24 hours away from the jackasses fight club more commonly known as Black Friday, where the masses are duped into thinking they are getting bargains for stuff they don't really need, but makes observers like me ask the question if you can sell it that cheap tomorrow, what happened to the other 364 days? Save 30%? save 100% and stay at home is my advice.

The dickswinging contest of who is the world richest person reared its ugly head this week, claims that Bernhard Arnault who just bought out Tiffany's, another example of the large takeovers that we forecasted. Him, Bezos and Gates are vying for top position of worlds not richest but greediest bastard if you ask me, the combined wealth of just those three, and spent on eliminating global hunger would last for the next 11 years. The next 4 below them would eliminate global hunger for a further 10 years. 7 people's wealth could feed everyone on the planet for the next 21 years, ponder on that for a second, whilst we in America all stuffed our faces to excess today, there are still so many who don't have one meal, never mind excess on one day. I know many of you listening are struggling in varying ways, but spare a thought today for the many who have it far worse in life. We have Thanksgiving meal on one specified day of the year, regardless of the real history of that day, but there are billions of people waiting on their next meal, to them every meal is a Thanksgiving, and it doesn't have to be this way. This planet produces enough food to feed 3 planets per year, and we have over 1/2 of the planet starving? Whilst we didn't create the problem, we are certainly responsible or negligent in our actions to prevent that genocide, by largely ignoring it, some will say well I gave money to charities to solve the problem, and that in basic terms is a nice gesture, except you didn't investigate the charities you were giving funds to, and they just collected your money and spent it on themselves. The world was told back in 1984 with Live Aid and billions poured in allegedly to feed the Africans, and what has changed? nothing! where did the money go to? the same billionaire scroungers and fake famous people like Geldof and Bono is what, one giant PR stunt to make them look and act normal, and the perception that they care to the rest of us, they are not and they don't. All partying at a cost of thousands of dollars per night, fake socialites, whilst those thousands of dollars per night wasted on fake drizzle meals and expensive grape juice, could feed an entire village for a whole year. Kanye West spent $150M in one year, that is more than the GDP of several countries, and people are signing up to his fake church to garner more money to feed his excessive greed based lifestyle? he is about as genuine and real as Joel Osteen, preaching out prepared scripts, saying all the right words whilst collecting vast millions of dollars, that totally negates the message he is alleging to spit out, the pair of them are as fake as a glass eye. So just 7 people can eliminate global hunger for the next 21 years, 7 people, one of those 7 people we can easily stop their harvesting tactics, Jeff Bezos, but no, people like the convenience too much, I will just order off Amazon has become a new meme, go to your shops and buy the item, boycott Amazon altogether, that baldy freak could end global hunger for next 3.5 years with his own money, instead he spends it on increasing his own power base. All to say I am the richest man in the world, these people have no touch with reality, it is on a par for receiving badges for killing people, it is and should be a hall of shame, not a badge of honor. The average person spends $125 a day some spend more, some spend less, but $125 a day is around the average, this is your total spending on items such as mortgages, rents, food, energy and other expenses, if Bezos spent the same $125 a day his current fortune would last him 880M days before running out or 2.4M years, with this being Thanksgiving day and be thankful for what you have, this piece of shit has that amount whilst many have nothing. ponder on that again, if Bezos spent the same $125 a day his current fortune would last 880M days before running out, or 2.4M years. Jeff Bezos the worlds self serving greediest bastard award put that on your mantelpiece Bezos, Gates, Arnault and Buffet, the irony that Buffet has $86B and wont give a massive chunk of it away so billions can have a buffet, is not lost on me, and more importantly, should not be lost on you all either, need not greed is we the peoples ideal going forward, people acting real and in reality land, not fake vacuous bastards living in the City of Light world, where no problems exist. They exist everywhere and it is our duty as humans to correct all the worlds ills, and we wont do that being service to self. Correct your thinking, your own perspective and your own responsibility in these matters, and your roles to correct it going forward, because nothing else matters.

Sadly this week more of mine and the admin's time was wasted on people not acting in the right manner, as always it is just the few who spoil it for the rest of the group, but the stupidity of what had and has gone on in that group, left me and the admins no alternative but to shut it down. The THI FL group has been closed down and removed from the register as a recognized THI group, it was not taken lightly or a hasty decision, as ongoing investigations into the antics and various allegations of that group has gone on since early summer. It saddens me no end that people despite being taught in a better way, will still fall and slide down the easier path of the dark and the failed old system of harvesting, aligned with self serving greed and not need. A new group will be created when the time is right, beyond disappointing in the extreme I have to say.

SUB INTEL House and Senate leaders were unable to reach a deal on a short-term spending deal this weekend as a government shutdown looms on Thursday, according to aides in both chambers. nearly two months into the new government fiscal year, no progress has been made on any of the 12 annual spending bills. And this comes despite a highly touted budget agreement hammered out between the White House and Congress this summer. House Democrats want to add roughly $7.5 billion for the Census Bureau, House Democrats also want to fund a military pay increase and provide historically black colleges and universities with mandatory funding that lapsed at the end of fiscal 2019 in September, and they want to address a $7.6 billion rescission in highway funds that will take effect in July 2020. A deal was made to fund through to December 20th,

The California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA) is a new data privacy law that applies to certain businesses which collect personal information from California residents. The new law goes into effect on January 1, 2020. Google already offers data protection terms pursuant to the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) in Europe. We are now also offering service provider terms under the CCPA, which will supplement those existing data protection terms (revised to reflect the CCPA), effective January 1, 2020. No additional action is required to accept the service provider terms if you've already agreed to the online data protection terms. These service provider terms will be made available alongside new tools for partners to enable restricted data processing. Restricted data processing is intended to help advertisers and partners prepare for CCPA. Please note that restricted data processing operates differently across our products. Some products provided by Google will automatically operate using restricted data processing while action is required to enable restricted data processing for other products. Subject to the service provider terms, we will act as your CCPA service provider with respect to data processed while restricted data processing is enabled. You can refer to this article for more information on restricted data processing and to determine whether restricted data processing meets your CCPA compliance needs. They seem to be rolling out an awful amount of regulation changes, with twitter, youtube and also phone companies, following Go-ogle all changing their rules and regulations, something to be mindful of and not something to be ignored. We have ignored these fine prints for far too long, then complained after it was too late.

Following our piece last week and previous news regarding Iran, this piece will come as no surprise to THI listeners. At least eight individuals with ties to the US Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) were arrested in Iran during protests over a fuel price hike, the country's official state news agency IRNA reported. Those detained "had received CIA-funded training in various countries under the cover of becoming citizen-journalists," Iran's Intelligence Ministry said, as cited by the outlet. Six were reportedly arrested attending street riots while "carrying out CIA orders," while two others were apprehended as they were trying to "send information abroad." They had all received orders to attend protests and prepare reports, "especially videos," the intelligence agency said. Iran's Supreme Leader Ali Khamenei earlier blamed the protests on a "grave, extensive and very dangerous conspiracy" by the US to sow discord in Iran. Khamenei released a statement Wednesday thanking the Iranian people for quashing the chaos, after pro-government demonstrations popped up to counter the protests over the fuel price rise. Western politicians and media attempted to seize on the news of demonstrations, hoping that there may be a "revolution" in the works, but the situation has largely calmed down over the past days. This is a familiar CIA tactic in many countries to sow discord, create diversions, create pro pagan da and confuse the situation, this whole nonsense in Iran is the CIA and their counterparts have had their free or cheap oil program disrupted.

US immigration authorities created fake universities, lured foreign-born students to enroll, and took large sums of their money – before arresting and deporting them for immigration violations, a new report has revealed. In recent months, Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) has deported 90 students enrolled in a fake Michigan-based university, the Detroit Free Press reported on Wednesday. As many as 250 people, mostly from India, have been arrested since January, as part of the sting operation concocted by federal agents. The scammed students had arrived in the US legally on student visas, but when those were about to expire, they sought to extend them by enrolling in the 'University of Farmington' – which was later revealed to be fake, a front operated by ICE. While the story has provoked outrage, with many quick to assume that the con job was a scheme conjured up by the Trump administration, the 'university' was actually incorporated in January 2016 – during Barack Obama's presidency – and has been staffed with undercover agents pretending to be college officials ever since.

My opinion on this was covered in FRWL 7 and the antics of the CIA, you don't think they are not involved in and with ICE do ya, think again, their tentacles are everywhere, and as previous story revealed not just in America either. Remember under the Education Act since 1948 the CIA have been profiling students globally and then bringing them to America for clandestine purposes, this reveals to me that maybe authorities are now finally onto it, and dealing with it. Yes the media will cry foul, it's what they do, but if I am correct this will help those students immensely.

In the American imagination, at least, the family farm still exists, But it has been declining for generations, and the closing days of 2019 find small farms pummeled from every side: a trade war, severe weather associated with climate change, tanking commodity prices related to globalization, political polarization, and corporate farming defined not by a silo and a red barn but technology and the efficiencies of scale. It is the worst crisis in decades. Chapter 12 farm bankruptcies were up 12 percent in the Midwest from July of 2018 to June of 2019; they're up 50 percent in the Northwest. Tens of thousands have simply stopped farming, knowing that reorganization through bankruptcy won't save them. The nation lost more than 100,000 farms between 2011 and 2018; 12,000 of those between 2017 and 2018 alone. Farm debt, at $416 billion, is at an all-time high. More than half of all farmers have lost money every year since 2013, and lost more than $1,644 this year. Farm loan delinquencies are rising. Suicides in farm communities are happening with alarming frequency. I seem to remember warning about this before, those clowns are decimating the food crops areas with fires, flooding or other certain disasters, and because of the non compete policy of 1976, these farmers are forced to sell the majority of their crops to groups like Walmart at below cost levels from the farmer. Of course scarcity is another of their policies to drive prices up and fill their pockets. If people don't believe food is being made more scarce, go into your local Walmart, shelves are empty, products that went onto one shelf are dispersed onto several shelves, to make them look full. Products that were in one aisle are now spread about several to fill up the shelves, go and check for yourselves, other supermarket brands will be no different. Electronics are filled with old stock and out of date models, why? because no one is buying enough of them anymore, if you keep taking money from people here there and everywhere, eventually they run out of buying that stuff, and end up buying essentials only, which will actually be a good thing, long term. We have the potential of a national food crisis looming unless addressed quickly, should the Trust be not blocked we will endeavor to fix this problem once and for all.

Take embattled UK banknote printer De La Rue, which is Rothschild's owned and a further example of what this show has been stating, all these elites are now being burnt badly in their own pockets. De La Rue whose new management led by CEO Clive Vacher, warned the company's £171 million debt pile – up a whopping £63 million – meant it could breach its banking covenants if trade continues to worsen, costs are not slashed and the business fails to get paid on time. As a result, as part of its latest quarterly results in which the company with the ironic ticker DLAR reported a 15% drop in revenue and a £12 million loss, the new CEO announced plans for a "radical review" and scrapped the company's £26m dividend to give the business breathing space, sending its stock tumbling by as much as 25% earlier today, and wiping nearly 70% of the company's value in 2019. The company is now valued at just £140 million, less than its money-printer's total debt. De La Rue's latest troubles come after a "torrid year for the company during which the Serious Fraud Office opened an investigation into the business – which is still ongoing – following allegations of suspected corruption in related to currency printing contract in Africa." oops I wonder that came from. Ironically, the business also took a £18 million hit due to uncollected sales from its top client, Venezuela, which has been on a literal money-printing spree in recent years, after US sanctions came into force and it lost the contract to print British passports late last year, resulting in a very public row with the Government. I wonder who highlighted that?

INTEL If people still don't believe the Rothschild's and clowns are struggling perhaps this piece will make you ponder. The Rothschild's were in Moscow this week begging the oligarchs for $300 billion, promising them that the ruble would be the new world's trade currency, and subsequently the Russians would be the new Federal Reserve, I wonder what China and Beijing think of that, given they were promised to be the new Fed from 2013 onwards, that was agreed as far back as 1910, oops. To do this they were taking over for Morgan's and other banks...however to achieve this they were coming to the Trust for the money, I told you all they have to come to us eventually, but it will not be on their terms, but ours. tick tock.

However what is lost, forgotten or mindwiped from these, and I will use their own quote, jackasses, is the Trust already holds all the liens against the Russian assets anyway.

Alt media clowns again pushing fake stories that Trump had been poisoned, Trump was not poisoned at all, he had a medical check up appointment and was fine.

G cloud and GNA is getting closer and is currently having an effect on people, some good, some not so good. The ones who have done their own work will benefit greatly from this, the ones that haven't will struggle more than previously in this next phase. There will be no ifs or buts of whether you have done it or not, it will be revealed in ever more increasing ways. I am not going to denigrate people who haven't, it is none of my business, that was their choice to do it or not, and our members were all warned of it back in May 2015 of what was coming, and the consequences of masks dropping and people will be able to see the real you, 2020 vision will bring that into even more focus. For those who have done their work it is a time to beware, so that you do not fall victim to spiritual envy based targeting, you will be tested but hold your ground. Males who never got in touch with their feminine aspect will struggle also, as they cling to a failed archetype, females who have gone too far masculine will struggle also, those groups will have to come back into the balance.

OP-ED I received an email stating greetings in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord was not Jesus or Christ, the Lord was Anu the Draco reptile king. Whether you believe Jesus existed or not matters not, where was it in the messages attributed to him, whereby he would take a title of a lord? the Lord came down and changed the peoples languages and cast them around the earth, so they wouldn't coalesce together, a bitter spiteful action, does that sound like Jesus? A king is above a Lord, think people.

So when a 16-year-old Colorado girl was “violated” by sexually explicit role playing assignment in public school — where she was required to role play rape and sodomy concepts while the teacher demanded she read out loud lines like, “fucked in the ass” and similar language — most people dismiss the reality because they can't fathom it being real. But it is real. And it just happened in Steamboat Springs, Colorado. Skylar is 16 years old and attends public school in Colorado. Her teacher required Skylar to role play sexually explicit rape and sodomy scenarios in front of the class, where she was required to read out vulgar lines from a poem known as “Howl,” which include explicit words and phrases like “cunt” and “granite cock.” Granite cock is a reference to obelisks and the penis of Osiris. “In another assignment students were asked to review a song that talked about sexting and offering sexual favors to a teenager, something that “blindsided” school officials when they found out about it from Cason.” Some of the lines from the “Howl” poem, all required to be read by Skylar, are: “let themselves be fucked in the ass by saintly motorcyclists, and screamed with joy” “a vision of ultimate cunt and come eluding the last gyzym of consciousness” “sweetened the snatches of a million girls trembling in the sunset” “who cut their wrists three times successively unsuccessfully” “who blew and were blown by those human seraphim, the sailors, caresses of Atlantic and Caribbean love”

From the “Howl” poem, here are some of the snippets citing Moloch the god of child sacrifice: Moloch! Children screaming under the stairways! ... Moloch who entered my soul early! Moloch in whom I am a consciousness without a body! Moloch who frightened me out of my natural ecstasy! Moloch whom I abandon! Wake up in Moloch! Light streaming out of the sky! ...Moloch! Moloch! Robot apartments! invisible suburbs! skeleton treasuries! blind capitals! demonic industries! spectral nations! invincible madhouses! granite cocks! monstrous bombs! They broke their backs lifting Moloch to Heaven! ...Note carefully that the so-called “poet” Ginsberg talks about Moloch the child sacrifice demon entering his soul. “Moloch in whom I am a consciousness without a body,” he writes. He describes this child sacrifice demon as “Light streaming out of the sky!” These are not merely the twisted rantings of a mad man, but rather the demon-infested screams of a human skin bag possessed by demonic spirits in desperate need of an exorcism. Allen Ginsberg wrote a number of disturbing things this was just part of it, was an avid follower of Tibetan buddhism by the gist of his writing he was involved in the Tantric side of it, Ginsberg born in New Jersey, lived in New York and born to Jewish parents.

This piece was said by a black person by the name of Thomas Sowell who is an analyst of social studies and confirms further the myths put out by historians with regards to the slave trades, history tells you it was only one color or group of people, From Russia with Love tells a very different story, his quote was. More whites were brought as slaves to North Africa, than blacks brought to the United States or the 13 colonies as it was called back then. White slaves were still being bought and sold in the Ottoman Empire, decades after blacks were freed in the United States. Then there was a detailed story this week of how the Native Americans were being slaughtered in barbaric fashion in large numbers, long before the whites arrived here, and long after also. That is not to say that whites didn't do any wrong, they did, the reason for this day today Thanksgiving is because whites slaughtered a section of the Native Americans by poisoning their meal. But the native Americans were killing their own kind in record numbers of fighting between the clans, why is this history erased from our conscious, and set out that only one group of people killed or enslaved anyone I spent time trying to look for demographic figures this week, and a couple of points startled me on two counts, 1. it appears the color white is not classed as a color anymore when looking for race statistics 2. figures for white demographics are thin to non-existent via the internet anymore, past or present. This is supportive of what I put out in FRWL series, the white race is rapidly being written out of the narrative on an alarming scale, this whether people believe it or not is a major global issue and is deliberately being suppressed on a massive scale. Whites were 30% world demographic, it is now down to 12% and lowering all within 100 years. Imagine it was an elephant, tiger or worse a bloody domesticated cat given all the memes for those species, if it went from 30% down to 12% would there not be an outcry of save the whatever species? Why are the white people any different? Many will complain it is the white people mainly who are at the top of the wealth tree and why should we care, but they are less than 1% of the white people, eventually to their horror those were going to be eliminated as well.

Lets take a peak into some names that have arisen in the media and political circus realms shall we. Maggie Lindsay Haberman is an American journalist. She is a White House correspondent for The New York Times and a political analyst for CNN. She previously worked as a political reporter for The New York Post, the New York Daily News, and Politico. the daughter of Clyde Haberman, who became a longtime journalist for The New York Times, and Nancy Haberman (née Spies), a media communications executive at Rubenstein Associates. In October 2016, one month before Donald Trump defeated Hillary Clinton in the U.S. presidential election, a document was released by WikiLeaks that showed the Clinton campaign's use of Haberman to place sympathetic stories in Politico. "The Clinton campaign has a very good relationship with Maggie Haberman of Politico over the last year. Haberman married Dareh Ardashes Gregorian who is Jewish, a reporter for the New York Daily News, formerly of the New York Post. The incestuous type intermarrying also prevalent in this story, Maggie Haberman born in New York born to Jewish parents, her mothers maiden was a clue going forward for Maggie, nee Spies, she works directly for the CIA.

Alexander Semyon Vindman is a United States Army lieutenant colonel who serves as the Director for European Affairs for the United States National Security Council (NSC). Vindman came to national attention in October 2019 when he testified before the United States Congress regarding the Trump–Ukraine scandal. His identical twin brother, Yevgeny S. Vindman, is an Army lieutenant colonel and JAG Officer who is assigned as an attorney on the National Security Council staff handling ethics issues. Born In Ukraine, born to Jewish parents.

Nicholas Davies, the foreign editor of the Daily Mirror, had tipped off the Israeli embassy in London about Mordechai Vanunu. Vanunu had given information about Israel's nuclear weapons program first to The Sunday Times and later to the Sunday Mirror. At the time, the Sunday Mirror and its sibling newspaper, the Daily Mirror were owned by media magnate Robert Maxwell who was alleged to have had contacts with Israel's intelligence services. According to Hersh, Davies had also worked for the Mossad. Vanunu was later lured by Mossad from London to Rome, kidnapped, returned to Israel, and sentenced to 18 years in jail. Davies and Maxwell published an anti-Vanunu story that was claimed by critics to be part of a disinformation campaign on behalf of the Israeli government.

HTLINGUAL a secret project of the United States of America's Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) project to intercept mail destined for the Soviet Union and China, operated from 1952 until 1973. Originally known under the codename SRPOINTER, the project authority was changed in 1955 and renamed. Early on, the CIA collected only the names and addresses appearing on the exterior of mailed items, but they were later opened at CIA facilities in Los Angeles and in New York. The program had the stated purpose of obtaining foreign intelligence, but it targeted domestic peace and civil-rights activists as well. Mail to and from prominent individuals such as Bella Abzug, Bobby Fischer, Linus Pauling, John Steinbeck, Martin Luther King, Edward Albee, and Hubert Humphrey was opened during the course of the operation. A total of 28 million letters were examined, and 215,000 were opened. Ya see, big brother was alive and kicking long before Orwells 1984 book came out or the internet.

ECHELON, originally a secret government code name, is a surveillance program (signals intelligence/SIGINT collection and analysis network) operated by the United States with the aid of four other signatory states to the UKUSA Security Agreement: Australia, Canada, New Zealand, and the United Kingdom, also known as the Five Eyes. The ECHELON program was created in the late 1960s to monitor the military and diplomatic communications of the Soviet Union and its Eastern Bloc allies during the Cold War, and it was formally established in 1971. By the end of the 20th century, the system referred to as "ECHELON" had evolved beyond its military and diplomatic origins into "a global system for the interception of private and commercial communications" (mass surveillance and industrial espionage). Former NSA employee Margaret Newsham claims that she worked on the configuration and installation of software that makes up the ECHELON system while employed at Lockheed Martin, from 1974 to 1984 in Sunnyvale, California, in the United States, and in Menwith Hill, England, in the UK. At that time, according to Newsham, the code name ECHELON was NSA's term for the computer network itself. Lockheed called it P415. The software programs were called SILKWORTH and SIRE. A satellite named VORTEX intercepted communications. An image available on the internet of a fragment apparently torn from a job description shows Echelon listed along with several other code names. A global network of electronic spy stations that can eavesdrop on telephones, faxes and computers. It can even track bank accounts. This information is stored in Echelon computers, which can keep millions of records on individuals. The CIA purchased a garbage collection company to collect documents that were to be destroyed. Another tactic they use that the average person is completely unaware of, agencies going through your trash, what stupid half ass retard is employed to do that, and why? Hi Johnny would do you do for work, erm I go through peoples trash cans, it is called the raccoon department.

Former NSA analyst Perry Fellwock, under pseudonym Winslow Peck, first blew the whistle on ECHELON to Ramparts in 1972, where he gave commentary revealing a global network of listening posts and his experiences working there. Fellwock also included revelations such as the existence of nuclear weapons in Israel in 1972, the widespread involvement of CIA and NSA personnel in drugs and human smuggling, and CIA operatives leading Nationalist Chinese (Taiwan) commandos in burning villages inside PRC borders. Echelon was in all the Israeli embassies for those new, it was crashed and burned and why their embassies were closed, oops.

On behalf of the British Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher, the Communications Security Establishment spied on two British cabinet ministers in 1983.

The US National Security Agency spied on and intercepted the phone calls of Diana, Princess of Wales right until she died in a Paris car crash with Dodi Fayed in 1997. The NSA currently holds 1,056 pages of classified information about Princess Diana, which has been classified as top secret "because their disclosure could reasonably be expected to cause exceptionally grave damage to the national security ... the damage would be caused not by the information about Diana, but because the documents would disclose 'sources and methods' of US intelligence gathering". An official insisted that "the references to Diana in intercepted conversations were 'incidental'," and she was never a 'target' of the NSA eavesdropping.

UK agents monitored the conversations of the 7th Secretary-General of the United Nations Kofi Annan.

US agents gathered "detailed biometric information" on the 8th Secretary-General of the United Nations, Ban Ki-Moon.

In the early 1990s, the US National Security Agency intercepted the communications between the European aerospace company Airbus and the Saudi Arabian national airline. In 1994, Airbus lost a $6 billion contract with Saudi Arabia after the NSA, acting as a whistleblower, reported that Airbus officials had been bribing Saudi officials to secure the contract. As a result, the American aerospace company McDonnell Douglas (now part of Boeing) won the multibillion-dollar contract instead of Airbus.

The American defense contractor Raytheon won a US$1.3 billion contract with the Government of Brazil to monitor the Amazon rainforest after the US Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), acting as a whistleblower, reported that Raytheon's French competitor Thomson-Alcatel had been paying bribes to get the contract.

In order to boost America's position in trade negotiations with the then Japanese Trade Minister Ryutaro Hashimoto, in 1995 the CIA eavesdropped on the conversations between Japanese bureaucrats and executives of car manufacturers Toyota and Nissan.

The Family Jewels is the informal name used to refer to a set of reports that detail activities conducted by the United States Central Intelligence Agency. Considered illegal or inappropriate, these actions were conducted over the span of decades, from the 1950s to the mid-1970s. William Colby, who was the CIA director in the mid-1970s and helped in the compilation of the reports, dubbed them the "skeletons" in the CIA's closet. Most of the documents were publicly released on June 25, 2007, after more than three decades of secrecy. The non-governmental National Security Archive had filed a FOIA request fifteen years earlier. According to the Family Jewels documents released, members of the American mafia were involved in CIA attempts to assassinate Cuban leader Fidel Castro. The documents showed that the CIA recruited Robert Maheu, an ex-FBI agent and aide to Howard Hughes in Las Vegas, to approach Johnny Roselli under the pretense of representing international corporations that wanted Castro dead due to lost gambling interests. Roselli introduced Maheu to mobster leaders Sam Giancana and Santo Trafficante, Jr.. Supplied with six poison pills from the CIA, Giancana and Trafficante tried unsuccessfully to have people place the poison in Castro's food. Is it family jewels as in diamonds and sapphires or family Jew El's as in Hebrew Zionist gods?

Oscar Seborer, who was working at Los Alamos, NM, at the time Manhattan project scientists were laboring to beat their Nazi counterparts in the race for an atomic weapon, passed sensitive information to Soviet agents, according to an article titled "On the Trail of a Fourth Soviet Spy at Los Alamos" by Harvey Klehr and John Earl Haynes, in the current issue of the CIA journal Studies in Intelligence. All of the children gravitated toward the Communist Party USA (CPUSA). In fact, the Seborer family was part of a network of people connected to Soviet intelligence. Max was brought into the communist movement by his Cornell friend Gibby Needleman. He was a teacher for a number of years before going to work for Needleman's law firm. His first wife's sister, Rose Biegel Arenal, was married to Luis Arenal, implicated in the KGB plot to kill Leon Trotsky. Ooh those nasty Russians again, except Oscar Seborer born in Ohio born to Jewish parents. Communism is not and never was Russian or Chinese, it is Zionist Jewish.

Having delved into the world of spying clowns, now lets delve into the incestuous world of banking shall we. The world's largest companies are now: Bank of America, JP Morgan, Citigroup, Wells Fargo, Goldman Sachs and Morgan Stanley, so who are behind these groups? Bank of America: State Street Corporation, Vanguard Group, BlackRock,

FMR (Fidelity), Paulson, JP Morgan, T. Rowe, Capital World Investors, AXA, Bank of NY, Mellon. JP Morgan: State Street Corp., Vanguard Group, FMR, BlackRock, T. Rowe, AXA, Capital World Investor, Capital Research Global Investor, Northern Trust Corp. and Bank of Mellon. Citigroup: State Street Corporation, Vanguard Group, BlackRock, Paulson, FMR, Capital World Investor, JP Morgan, Northern Trust Corporation, Fairhome Capital Mgmt and Bank of NY Mellon. Wells Fargo: Berkshire Hathaway, FMR, State Street, Vanguard Group, Capital World Investors, BlackRock, Wellington Mgmt, AXA, T. Rowe and Davis Selected Advisers. We can see that now there appears to be a nucleus present in all banks: State Street Corporation, Vanguard Group, BlackRock and FMR (Fidelity). Goldman Sachs: "The big four," Wellington, Capital World Investors, AXA, Massachusetts Financial Service and T. Rowe. Morgan Stanley: "The big four," Mitsubishi UFJ, Franklin Resources, AXA, T. Rowe, Bank of NY Mellon and Jennison Associates. Bank of NY Mellon: Davis Selected, Massachusetts Financial Services, Capital Research Global Investor, Dodge, Cox, Southeastern Asset Mgmt. and ... "The big four." State Street Corporation (one of the "big four"): Massachusetts Financial Services, Capital Research Global Investor, Barrow Hanley, GE, Putnam Investment and ... The "big four" (shareholders themselves!). BlackRock (another of the "big four"): PNC, Barclays e CIC. Who is behind the PNC? FMR (Fidelity), BlackRock, State Street, etc. And behind Barclays? BlackRock The U.S. government contracted with BlackRock to help clean up after the financial meltdown of 2008, smart decision make one of the leading reasons behind the meltdown, try and fix the mess they played a large role in creating, brilliant decision making that - not. Blackrock is related to Blackwater, Black Trust, Black Dragon etc it is part of the color coded program, ran by Larry Fink, lives in New York born to Jewish parents. In short: the eight largest U.S. financial companies (JP Morgan, Wells Fargo, Bank of America, Citigroup, Goldman Sachs, U.S. Bancorp, Bank of New York Mellon and Morgan Stanley) are 100% controlled by ten shareholders and we have four companies always present in all decisions: BlackRock, State Street, Vanguard and Fidelity. In addition, the Federal Reserve is comprised of 12 banks, represented by a board of seven people, which comprises representatives of the "big four," which in turn are present in all other entities. In short, the Federal Reserve is controlled by four large private companies: BlackRock, State Street, Vanguard and Fidelity. These companies control U.S. monetary policy (and world) without any control or "democratic" choice. These companies launched and participated in the current worldwide economic crisis and managed to become even more enriched. To finish, a look at some of the companies controlled by this "big four" group Alcoa Inc. - Altria Group Inc. - American International Group Inc. - AT&T Inc. - Boeing Co. Caterpillar Inc. - Coca-Cola Co. - DuPont & Co. - Exxon Mobil Corp. - General Electric Co. General Motors Corporation - Hewlett-Packard Co. - Home Depot Inc. - Honeywell International Inc. Intel Corp. - International Business Machines Corp - Johnson & Johnson - JP Morgan Chase & Co. McDonald's Corp. - Merck & Co. Inc. - Microsoft Corp. - 3M Co. - Pfizer Inc. - Procter & Gamble Co. - United Technologies

Corp. - Verizon Communications Inc. - Wal-Mart Stores Inc. Time Warner - Walt Disney - Viacom - Rupert Murdoch's News Corporation., CBS Corporation and NBC Universal The same "big four" control the vast majority of European companies counted on the stock exchange. In addition, all these people run the large financial institutions, such as the IMF, the European Central Bank or the World Bank, and were "trained" and remain "employees" of the "big four" that formed them. This is what we are attempting to change via TPC going forward, these vast networks of syphoning harvesters has to be stopped, by promoting a new model not based on greed, that all of these cor-pirates operate under. Based on a cooperative model, where all have their say, pay and profits are spreading far more fairly than currently, end to expensive and greed CEO's, Middle Management, Brokers and backhanded dealers, those people took all the money, and left everyone else the bare minimum of scraps. The TPC has to create our brand that is not monetary based, but people based, all people, the fair share group will be our foundation, alongside need not greed and put an end to this capitalist based greed harvesting system, where everything goes to the few, and nothing or little is left for the all.

For the 4th year in a row the life expectancy of Americans has declined, males is 76 years of age and females 81 years of age, the difference is not clearly understood, perhaps it is down to being nagged it is why us guys die sooner haha. It is a marked contrast to a 100 years ago as life expectancy was just 39 years of age, but given another of their genocide programs of which there was several between 1914 and 1923, where Russians, Slavs, Aryans, Armenians, Native and Black Americans were slaughtered, then throw in the Spanish Flu which killed another 50 million including 675K Americans and age expectancy looked bleak. But age slowly recovered, it had to as the Illuminati folk and former Trustee planned a 2nd world war in 1923, and so the average ages went up to 51 and 55 respectively. The biggest rise in deaths has been the drug abuse aspect, via opioids, meth and Fentanyl, followed by flu and pneumonia of course that will never be explained or revealed they were caused by the increase in vaccines in that time period, because that is a conspiracy - not. Third is increase in suicides, which whilst understandable in many cases given the despair that has been created on this world, I wish more were made aware of the consequences of carrying out that act, the consequences are far worse than many of the situations they face in the physical world. Whilst life expectancy is on the decrease, death rates are increasing rapidly, there's been a 6% increase in death rates among people 25 to 64, and in young adults 25 to 44 it's more like a 25% increase, given America has a high population of elderly compared to many other countries, this has long term impacts for business, sustainability and pensions for the average American. With drugs like Entyvio that cost $3300 a month, what the heck is in them? gold? How can you justify it, it is pure criminal that type of expenditure and profit. Men live on average 5 years less than women, this is due to a serious ear affliction due to constant nagging.

Yes I am aware of the faceless clowns sending pm's to members, but unlike them we don't advertise our show or group, unlike them we don't chase after members to bump our numbers up, unlike them we don't hide behind fake names, and unlike them we are transparent, these people who clearly have a mental health size issue, given their fake names, whilst labeling me tiny, which I am more than happy to be. You see as Tiny man I get lots of focus and attention from the Large and big group who only have 56 members after 12 months of operating, woo not very big or large that is it? but that attention I get from them has led to a very large increase in our listeners, followers and my patreon numbers this year, so I thank them all. A group who have a pedo and child trafficker as the lead group member, would sooner be called a tiny man and tiny group than be associated with a pedos and child traffickers. It's all very groupie style behavior to me, that people eat, sleep and drink all things Thomas all day, their whole lives just thinking of tiny me, I do admire their devotion to all things Thomas. So here is a song for the massive, gigantic, large, big, extensive and ginormous members of the hide and seek group. 12 months and counting now.

Speaking to some people about how things are going, and many still convinced things are moving slowly, despite our show covering the sheer depth of the old system, and when you add in so many people, bots or synths or otherwise all propping up the failed system, the task becomes heavier for the few delivering and trying to implement the change. A 16500 year control system smashed to smithereens under around 5-6 years, to a point of which it will never return to anywhere near their former levels. Many of their hidden worlds and entities crushed and they will not be returning, we have achieved much, but much work is still to go. Some expressed the enormity of changing humanity, and how far we have to go before the more visible changes take place, which I do get. But I reminded one group this week they were looking at things from only one perspective or angle, which is a common perception and how we all have to retrain our brains to think and look in a different way. The gist was we have a mountain to climb to wake people up and also start the rebuilding phase, it was perceived that we had to climb the proverbial Mount Everest, and too many it can look that way, but things go up and things come down. The elites were all at the top of the mountain and we were in the valley, but we are edging up the mountain, and given the circumstances that is extraordinary in and of itself, and criminally overlooked or ignored by some within our group, and much worse also in the alt media in general. Why is it always a focus of people to complain, whine or moan of what hasn't been done largely by others, not withstanding whether they have reflected have they done enough themselves? the focus is what we have lost or not done, and don't recognize or realize what we do have or what we have done. But here is the kicker and what people forget is, is they the control system are plummeting down the mountain at a far faster rate than we are climbing, once we pass them on the way up, that rise will increase dramatically in pace, and elevation. Perception is not a one way street.

Will end this show as we begun it with a period of reflection and introspection, no matter how bad we mainly in the Western world think we have it, it literally pales into insignificance when measured against the rest of the world. That is not said to make you feel guilty, but to balance your perspective on life and see beyond your own bubble world, many have created for themselves, some refuse to let go of, and some have stepped outside of their bubble and are rippling the world out of their slumber. I tend to think at times that our own members underestimate this group and what we are actually doing here, this is NOT a social group, it is a working group primarily, that I feel at times that is perhaps lost on some. Yes I am fine with having a laugh in the chats and comments on the FB, but I don't lose sight of what our purpose and goals are in and outside of this group, and remember some of us don't have that luxury to just switch off. There are times when I wonder do people realize the amount of work, time and sacrifice that goes into what is known as THI, that is not withstanding the abuse, flak and game playing that goes on, on a far too regular basis. The same applies to the work of The Trust, you have been given a small sample of the real work of the Trust and the team, I can assure you the real focus is not pieces of paper with numbers on them, it is vast in it's scope. The Trust itself will be judged by many on when the funding comes out, but is that fair on those trying to deliver, when at the very least our regular THI listeners are all aware there is so much more to the Trust than funding. The Trust is a high stakes strategy game player, whereby all involved in it run the risk of losing their life on a daily basis, again something that in general is overlooked, as the desire of things particularly in America but rest of the world not that far behind, that everything must happen today, tomorrow or in two weeks, without taking into account the varying levels, hurdles, clowns and beasts we face on an almost daily basis. Then we have the day to day life hurdles to overcome the same as everybody else. There is an old saying of never judge people unless you have walked in their shoes, I can assure you many would not walk in ours too far, riddled with people and other entities treating you as some sort of target range, try to oust you, kill you, or dupe you on a recurring basis. All this is done in the name of saving our species and attempting to drive the planet into a better shape and surroundings, than it has been for tens of thousands of years. THI is not a social group, we were tasked to drive humanity forward along with Off Planet radio and Circle of White Light, plus others who are welcome to join in with the vision of improving life for the betterment of the all. People may ask why THI? my reply is why not? why are you thinking in limitation? Which other group of people would you give it to? religious? governments? agencies? the military? are they the perfect representations of our society? I am sure you will all agree that none of those mentioned are, the reality is, all of those elements contributed massively to the fall of humanity, so why would we ask them to do anything? How many other groups on the internet can say their lives have changed enormously since joining a group? How many other groups have learned the in depth knowledge our group has? How many other groups focus on us and our own role in the control system? finger pointing and blaming others only solves less than half of the problem. Only those 3 groups are aware there was a control system above the royals, bloodline families, Deep States and think tank Bilderberger groups. You have over the years unlearned the lies you have been fed all your life, and then began to learn more of the facts and the truth than any other groups, all of you have witnessed being in other groups, and you have seen for yourselves how far behind they are in terms of knowledge and understanding, it is a plain as night and day. Our goals are keep it simple, need not greed, service yourself to then be able to be service to others, fairness, compassion, empathy, flexibility and that oh so rare item, common sense, none of this is rocket science, complex or difficult, essentially it is the basics of life, and we have to go back to the basics to start again, everything else has failed, repeating failure is for the realm of the RV people, the jackasses who took the carrots, not realizing those carrots were not even real to begin with. I showed some the path of life recently, it is the letter N, the first line up is the left hand path, but it has no gate or exit, those on the top of that first line think they have reached the pinnacle, they think they are the Illuminated ones, they are the gods known as the el-ites or elites, but it is the false light they bathe in and that light of theirs is dimming by the day now. To get to the right hand path you have to slide down the middle, a steep descent, here lies the sleepers and a majority of the alt media, the reason I say that is they are still following the lies spat out by clown agency based groups and are largely blaming something or someone else, neglecting the fact that despite being the 99% they are somehow not responsible for the worlds ills, wrong thinking! Our group, Randy's and Alans have stripped away those lies, come off the downward descent and are climbing up the right hand path, we are between 1/3 and 3/4 of the way up that path, depending on the individuals ability to learn and understand the information. People have said we have to wait for the sleepers to catch up, there are three things wrong with that thinking 1. how long did it take you to get to where you are? 2. do you think you yourself will stand still to allow them to catch up? and 3. if point 2 is correct where are the pioneers or wayshowers to move forward going to come from? do you think you are just going to standstill? for most of you on that path, no you wont, you will go through the gate. The right hand path unlike the left hand path has an open gate for progression, some of you one day will go through that gate, and back to where you belong, amongst the spiritual worlds and out amongst the stars, as for the rest? they had the exact same opportunity as you, they failed to take it, and none of you are responsible for that, only themselves, whilst they chose to point outside of themselves, we looked, embraced and went inwards. The ending message is remember what you have, not what you haven't, remember how far you have come and not focus how far you have to go, this was never a race, a sprint or a dash, it is and always was a long term project, that will go beyond my time here and many of you also, but we lay the foundations, before putting up the walls and installing the roof.
