

THI-SHOW TRANSCRIPT 2019-12-12

A show within a show I would describe this week as, more music to allow you to process in between, as the news section gets thinner, as the MSM reveal more of our story and our show, it leads to an expanded sub intel section, validations and confirmations are smattered throughout this show, big boy and girl pants will be essential, popcorn optional, attention imperative.

A week where Democrat deep state led politicians wheeled out their ridiculous allegations and subsequent Impeachment proceedings because their previous allegations failed, so let roll out something else and hope that sticks, whilst accusing Trump of doing the very things they have done, all very copy and paste crew that to me, perhaps they have the same script based agencies running their platforms. It was also a deliberate attempt to play down the IG report and remove that from the airways, child like distraction is the name of the game, in the world of the clowns. Following an outburst in the committee the chair person Jerry Nadler, another born in and born to guy, stated the audience is here to observe and not demonstrate, really Mr Nadler you are a demon, and you are not straight either, you can't demonstrate, only listen and observe the bs'ery, no thanks Mr Nadler, we have observed your bs for far too long, it is all going to collapse around you. First amendment Mr. Nadler it's called free speech, we have heard your drivel and under the 1st Amendment people are entitled to respond. tick tock Nadler. Personally I don't care whether Trump held back the aid to Ukraine or not, for two reasons, 1. we need a massive amount of aid in this country and 2. if American people raised their heads out of their collective slumber based asses, they will see the same treasonous snakes looting this country, are looting Ukraine also, and operating under a foreign agents banner called NATO, because NATO wants to rile the Russians into WW3, so yes aid should have been withheld until Ukraine deals with the same clowns operating with impunity within our own borders. imo.

SUB INTEL The embattled Prime Minister wants Washington to approve of Israel's further expansion into the Jordan Valley, just days after he urged Donald Trump not to miss a rare chance to back Tel Aviv's territorial appetites. Benjamin Netanyahu, who fiercely fights for re-election, believes that "the time has come to extend Israeli sovereignty over the Jordan Valley," a swath of land spanning between the occupied West Bank and neighboring Kingdom of Jordan. On their part, Israel's closest ally should give a final nod to the move. "I want American recognition of our sovereignty in the Jordan Valley. This is important," he bluntly told an event set up on Sunday by Israel's Makor Rishon newspaper. As part of the proposed annexation, all Jewish settlements in the area would become part of Israel, he insisted. Two days ago, Netanyahu claimed he talked the issue with the US Secretary of State Mike Pompeo at their meeting in Lisbon. Interestingly, the State Department quickly disavowed his report, telling journalists that no such discussion had ever taken place. "I can tell you that there was no annexation plan, full or partial, for any part of the West Bank presented by Israel to the United States during the meeting," Assistant Secretary for Near East David Schenker told an official briefing. Netanyahu's response to the comment was next to incomprehensible. "It was said that the issue was not raised [at the Pompeo meeting], the issue was raised," he explained. The Americans, he believes, "didn't say it was not raised, they said that a formal plan was not discussed." Tick tock Pompeo.

The gunman who killed three people at a US naval base in Pensacola, Florida, was a Saudi student, officials say. He has been named as Mohammed Saeed Alshamrani - a Saudi military member in training at the site. He was shot dead by officials. The local sheriff's office confirmed eight others were injured in the attack including two officers. The shooter used a handgun. It is the second shooting to take place at a US military base this week. A US sailor shot dead two workers at the Pearl Harbor military base in Hawaii on Wednesday. Authorities were alerted to the shooting at the base on the waterfront southwest of Pensacola at 06:51 (12:51 GMT). One has to ask what are the alleged authorities doing with their selection process under the National Security Act? who allowed this guy in? and who is going to be held responsible for the oversight?

State-owned oil giant Saudi Aramco has raised a record $25.6bn (£19.4bn) in its initial public offering in Riyadh. The share sale was the biggest ever, surpassing that of China's Alibaba which raised $25bn in 2014 in New York. Aramco relied on domestic and regional investors to sell a 1.5% stake after lukewarm interest from abroad. The IPO will value it at $1.7tn when trading begins - short of its $2tn target, but making it the most valuable listed company in the world. The share sale is at the heart of Crown Prince Mohammed bin Salman's plans to modernise the Saudi economy and wean it off its dependence on oil. The country urgently needs tens of billions of dollars to fund megaprojects and develop new industries. Aramco has found the journey to its public offering testing. It initially sought to raise $100bn on two exchanges - with a first listing on the kingdom's Tadawul bourse, and then another on an overseas exchange such as the London Stock Exchange. But it scaled back its plans after foreign investors raised concerns about climate change, political risk and a lack of corporate transparency. Another large merger/buy out we forecasted.

The Pentagon on Friday vehemently pushed back on reports that the United States may send 14,000 more troops to the Middle East to confront a growing Iranian threat but did not deny that a force increase is forthcoming. That was clowns pushing and showing their stupidity again. hello Pompeo!

Three men were charged by U.S. prosecutors with helping run a $722 million cryptocurrency fraud that amounted to a "high-tech Ponzi scheme." From 2014 until this month, the men operated BitClub Network, which solicited money from investors in exchange for shares in purported cryptocurrency mining pools and rewarded them for recruiting new investors, according to prosecutors. Matthew Brent Goettsche, 37, Jobadiah Sinclair Weeks, 38, and Joseph Frank Abel, 49, were arrested Tuesday and charged with conspiracy, U.S. Attorney Craig Carpenito in New Jersey said in a statement. Two more defendants, whose names weren't disclosed, remain at large. I am sorry that people lost their money on this scam within a scam, but people really need to be more savvy with what they do with their money. Buying fresh air tokens is the most ridiculous concept ever, and is set up to steal your money. I guess that is what they meant when the Bitcoin people stated it is getting around the system smh.

Harvey Weinstein, back in court Friday for a new bail hearing, emerged still free on the $1 million bail conditions he's been under since he was first charged with sex crimes in May 2018. As the hearing began, prosecutors asked a judge to increase his bail to $5 million while he awaits trial next month. They said Weinstein has violated his bail conditions by mishandling his electronic ankle monitor, sometimes going unaccounted for hours at a time, Manhattan Assistant District Attorney Joan Illuzzi said Weinstein left at home a piece of the monitoring technology that keeps the ankle bracelet activated. Defense attorney Donna Rotunno denied it was deliberate. She blamed "technical glitches" like dead batteries. "It has nothing to do with any manipulation of the bracelet," Rotunno told reporters after leaving court. She acknowledged that on at least one occasion, he'd forgotten part of the device when he left the house. Does anyone not think it is odd that not one women advocacy group is attacking Donna Rotunno for defending the indefensible? Females got raped, sexually molested and abused and a female is fighting to get him off based on legalese bs'ery? Where are the womens rights groups attacking the rhetoric of this female or protecting the rights of the abused females, yet again it's crickets, those groups are not interested in females or empowerment but money laundering charity clubs only. Where is Oprah and Degeneres speaking out about this? The pair of them are as fake as a glass eye.

A jury decided that Elon Musk had not defamed the British caver Vernon Unsworth in a Los Angeles federal court on Friday. Unsworth was one of the people who rescued children and their coach from a cave in Thailand. Unsworth brought the suit against Musk in September 2018, after the Tesla and SpaceX CEO had called him "sus" (suspicious) and a "pedo guy" on Twitter earlier that summer. Musk also characterized the spelunker as a "child rapist". Musk and his defense team, led by attorney Alex Spiro, argued that "pedo guy" was simply heated rhetoric and not meant as a statement of fact. They also argued that the phrase "pedo guy" is widely known as slang for "creepy old guy." Like Weinstein incidents, it proves there are rules for us and none for them, so now in their world pedo is a creepy old man, which is sexist and ageist stereotyping is it not?

China's exports fell in November as shipments to the US slowed sharply, adding to concerns about the effects of the two nations' trade war. November exports from the world's second largest economy fell 1.1% from a year earlier, the fourth straight fall. Exports to the US were down 23%, the worst such result since February and the twelfth monthly decline in a row. Another round of US tariffs on Chinese goods is due next Sunday, as part of the ongoing trade dispute. On Friday, White House economic adviser Larry Kudlow said the 15 December deadline - to impose a new round of tariffs on some $156bn of Chinese exports - remained in place.

The California DMV has been selling the personal information of registered drivers to the tune of $50 million per year, according to a DMV document. In a previous investigation, Motherboard found DMVs in other states have been selling non-optional information drivers must provide in order to obtain a license, such as names, physical addresses and car registration information. And while California didn't disclose exactly who they're selling to, other states were making a handy profit from customers which include data broker LexisNexis, Experian, private investigators and others. In a public record acts request, Motherboard asked the California DMV for the total dollar amounts paid by commercial requesters of data for the past six years. The responsive document shows the total revenue in financial year 2013/14 as $41,562,735, before steadily climbing to $52,048,236 in the financial year 2017/18.

Billionaire Ron Lauder is pledging $25 million to take down anti-Semitic candidates of both parties, he told The New York Times in an interview published Monday. "Although I am a lifelong Republican, anti-Semitism knows no political party. I'm going after the right as well as the left," said Lauder, who is the son of the late cosmetics moguls Estee and Joseph Lauder. Mr. Lauder born in New York, born to Jewish parents, He's also president of the World Jewish Congress. Make no mistake this is another coup attempt on behalf of the Zionists, essentially they only want candidates that are loyal to Israel, this is America Mister Lauder not some fake created country in the Middle East at the behest of psychopathic families, with their fake books, fake religion and fake history. Mr. Lauder needs to be dealt with under the National Security act, for an act of treason and subversion of American politics and elections on behalf of a foreign state. Mr. Lauder needs to learn history as well, as Jews were not semites.

Some may think this may not be a widespread issue, but lets look at these names shall we.

All of those named and more hidden have dual passports, again I have to ask where is the National Security Act? the media complain about Russian collusion and we have tens of people who have not only not defined themselves as American, but actually operating for another countries benefit and policies. Some people don't like me repeatedly saying born in and born to, well those people need to start listening properly to the depth of the problem, or nothing will ever change, it will just be new boss same as the old boss in terms of policy, in terms of intensity it will be 10 times worse than it is now, these people want Armageddon remember and think only they will be saved. Remember these people regard you as non human and animals, that they are told they can kill, rob, rape and use pedastry against any non Jew and it is not a crime. These are the same people who are charging a 3 year Palestinian child for throwing a stone at a tank, he wouldn't be able to throw a stone if they were not on their historical land, there is zero evidence of the country of Israel ever existing in history other than a fake book, don't believe me? fine but go and research it yourself. What you will find like the American pastor 3-5 years ago who went to the Middle East to prove the bible was correct, found out to the contrary, it was all largely a lie and he subsequently quit as a pastor, with an open mind you will all find the same. Israel is a falsely created militaristic base in the Middle East for collecting of resources and a death and destruction program, all created by the psychopathic Rothschild's family and their demonic cohorts.

Lisa Page she of Mueller investigation bs fame had this to say on Tuesday, I sued the Department of Justice and FBI today. I take little joy in having done so. But what they did in leaking my messages to the press was not only wrong, it was illegal. Yes and liaising with a foreign entity known as MI5/6 Miss Page to bring down a sitting President for no apparent reason, was not only illegal but also treason Miss Page.

In what's already being hailed as a defining and explosive "Pentagon papers" moment, a cache of previously classified documents obtained by The Washington Post show top Pentagon leaders continuously lied to the public about the "progress" of the now eighteen-year long Afghan war. The some 2,000 pages of notes from interviews of senior officials who have shaped US strategy in Afghanistan, confirm that "senior US officials failed to tell the truth about the war in Afghanistan throughout the 18-year campaign, making rosy pronouncements they knew to be false... hiding unmistakable evidence the war had become unwinnable, the point is it was not a war to begin with, there was no boogeyman or fake jihadists all coming to crush America, this was all about laundering money out of America, sacrificing peoples lives and making certain groups a lot richer. Afghanistan was all about the drugs, brought to you by fake intelligence again by the very group designed to profit from it, the CIA. Watchdog groups commonly estimate total US spending on the war has hit $1 trillion by end of 2019. More importantly, America's 'endless war' has cost at least 2,351 American lives and over 20,000 wounded. The gist is we the people pay for their transportation, food and operating costs, then they re-open the poppy fields that the Taliban closed down just before the war started, then they reap all of the profits. Along the way stage events like boogeymen shooting at the troops to make people at home believe there is actually a war going on, don't believe me listen to this comment then. White House Afghan war czar Douglas Lute under Bush and Obama, confessed, "We were devoid of a fundamental understanding of Afghanistan – we didn't know what we were doing." He added that "we didn't have the foggiest notion of what we were undertaking" after the 2001 invasion, or this. Two major consistent themes from the documents are— the manipulation on a mass scale of statistics fed to the public in order to hide the true disastrous nature of the war; and...US leaders "turning a blind eye" to large scale theft of US tax payer dollars by corrupt Afghan officials, they were not corrupt Afghan officials at all, they were launderers of funds for and by the agencies who put us there to begin with, with their fake intelligence. US aid was looted "with impunity" according to the released documents, and provide undeniable evidence that top defense officials knew years of rosy public statements were a mountain of lies. You cannot on one hand tell the American people we are the world greatest and best military and still be fighting in a country of limited resources and no air power or defences, and still be in that country fighting the same war after 18 years. At which point will officials of all agencies and military departments, aligned with the responsible government figures actively involved in this, be held accountable. We can talk all day of how much pieces of paper it cost, but what about the 2351 American lives or the 20K wounded, all done to fill 5 eyes based groups and their mercenary based subsidiaries, what was all hidden is now being revealed and the revelation train will not stop, you can count on that.

INTEL The IG report is now out, lots of he said she said and he did she did etc but the FBI here is being thrown under the bus imo. The point missing from all the YT'ers and Q Anons as they focus on what is relayed, not what is in the details, who to be fair they are largely in the dark about. They were stating is that the FBI had promised to pay British Agent Christopher Steele for dirt on Trump, that is wrong and misleading, the FBI were acting under instructions from the Black Dragon group here and in China, along with the head of the Blue Dragon group leader Hillary Clinton, the Blue Dragon group is UK based which is why they used Christopher Steele. FBI are the lowest link in the chain of skullduggery and corruption, and YT'ers and Q Anons need to listen to a few of our shows to get an understanding of what is happening, they are completely missing the point, as they are being guided onto another distraction path, blame the FBI - oh dear. All so the magicians hand remains hidden again. The real truth of the matter is this was a coup of epic proportions involving Dragon groups, CIA, Mossad, GCHQ, MI5/6, DOJ, NSA and DHS, several countries as well as elements within the Democrat party.

News of China receiving $26B in bail out, was false, they received $26B in vouchers and when they tried to cash them in via the Falcon Trust, which is the Opium based trust, and they like the Fed and their repo market bail out, found out those Trusts no longer exist, oops. Empty, zilch, nada no comprende? You should have listened then, but know we know better, well you don't, pure and simple, the latter being the prominent trait.

NATO meeting was all ceremony and pomp again, an expensive attempt by NATO to get money off countries and in particular Mr. Trump, not to fund NATO although that is already in the Paris Climate agreement, essentially that agreement is signing away your countries rights and resources, all who signed it were given brown envelopes to do so. The gist of what happened in that meeting was when leaders were asked for funds, what came back is we don't have any funds either, oops. The harsh reality is, NATO is not interested in your countries security, this whole operation is a slush funds for clowns and their mercenaries. Trump I hear walked in the meeting and promptly walked out within minutes of it starting, then unconfirmed reports of the poisoning within the meeting of several top leaders or officials.

The next portion will be a world message that must not be taken lightly, this is not a drill or a game, it will be in three parts, and this next intel piece may disturb some, may put some in fear, but as the opening song said walk on with hope in your heart and don't be afraid of the dark, there is and will be a golden sky at the end of it all, as long as we believe, do what is right, righteous and stand up for the all in humanity. In light of our now confirmed knowledge of the various factions, are now currently preparing us for World War 3, and are ultimate destruction, yes we know what your up to, we see and hear everything, your moves are pre-empted and monitored, and you will not be allowed to go ahead with your games of rank stupidity. If you think you can just destroy the surface population and you all hide in your underground cities, we have prepared for that also, they will be laid to waste as well, on the first launch of any missiles or weaponry against humanity, so that plan like your world domination plan will fail also, you do realize you played the world domination plan for someone else's benefit don't you? oops. The one you all worshipped was taking control, not you, and you were all, and I mean all of you were to be expended, sacrificed like pawns in a game you couldn't see or observe.

Generals gathered in their masses, Just like witches at black masses, Evil minds that plot destruction Sorcerers of death's construction. In the fields the bodies burning, As the war machine keeps turning Death and hatred to mankind, Poisoning their brainwashed minds, Oh lord yeah! Dark magicians issuing death and hatred to mankind all in the name of the Lord, who no longer exists? you do realize you are all part of mankind don't you? Politicians hide themselves away, They only started the war Why should they go out to fight? They leave that role to the poor, Yeah! Because the majority of politicians are too stupid and brainwashed to see what is really going on, and the fact is, they are the lowest pawn on the board, in fact in reality they are not on the board, only the illusion of such. The characteristics required to become a politician is how greedy and self serving can you be, and how far can you go to crush the people, including my own family, that is the CV required to become a politician, a dumb puppet. Time will tell on their power minds, Making war just for fun Treating people just like pawns in chess, Wait 'til their judgement day comes, Yeah! Treating people just like pawns, not realizing they are people and subsequently pawns also. Now in darkness world stops turning, Ashes where the bodies burning No more war pigs have the power, Hand of God has struck the hour. So the war pigs have wiped everybody out, who are you going to control then, with everybody gone? Rothschild was right you are jackasses, so the question remains what happens next clowns? Day of judgement, God is calling, On their knees the war pig's crawling Begging mercy for their sins, Satan laughing spreads his wings, oh lord yeah! Your real god awaits you, not the fake gods you have all bowed down to and kissed their collective dark based asses. Your day of judgement is upon you, all your decisions prior have been stupidity in it's highest form, duped on a massive scale, you all thought you were too clever or smart to be fooled, you weren't. Why do you think they installed spyware on everybody's phone? including the so called "top" leaders, do you not ponder that fact? you were all the enemy along with us, the useless eaters. Like we found out humans are not the top of the food chain, and neither were you.

Important message to all that listen in your various agencies, militaries and high offices. Recently we spoke with a Rothschild and they confessed that the Order of the Black Sun was their enemy, in another few calls we heard from other leading control based groups shall we say, of how they are enemies of the Rothschild's. This is becoming a common theme, and in general terms could be classed as just saying what we want to hear from them, as a lure to gain access to the Trust, and there are elements of that, but there is elements of truth contained within their message. You have lost your Destroyer, lost your King, lost many of your Order of the Black Sun, lost your Draco people, one of which was the Lord in the bible, lost control of the assets you all thought belonged to you, losing your wealth now heavily, yet you all hang onto the illusion of being in control. To all the various groups be it factions, families, royals, the fake Alliance and the SSp, Agencies, Mercenary groups who are basically subsidiaries of the same former 5 eyes groups, religious based groups of all denominations, all of which stemmed from one group who are anti humanity, all of you have been taught look over there that is your enemy or boogeyman, go and attack, spy or work against them. Subsequently your enemy was told the same thing to attack, spy and work against you, each group were told and or promised they would be a variant of King of the World, the chosen ones, the richest ones, the guardians of the planet and all of it's treasures, we know each of you were told that, we also know that it was all a big conspiracy and illusion played by the dark magicians. This was a giant game of chess with a cosmic twist, all of your groups played the white pieces, hidden in the middle of the chess board and only seen by the black pieces were the sub gray pieces, but the real controllers where the black pieces. In this game only the white pieces were allowed to move, but you could only go sideways and back, knocking each others pieces over, whilst the hidden sub gray pieces played you like the violinists on the Titanic and it all went down. The black pieces never moved, they didn't have to move, you all did that for them. Sadly the human trait of ego and greed played into it all, the desire to out compete everyone else, but essentially you were competing against yourselves, and one step back and a review of what has taken place, would render you with the same conclusion, but then we have the other human trait kick in, we can't admit we were wrong that would make us look weak. Newsflash, all of humanity is wrong and also weak, we have all been fooled, all live a life mired in delusion and illusion, and all are competing against each other 99.99% of which have no idea why they are doing it. All of you were actually on the same side but you were all too blind, greedy and arrogant to see, you all thought you were the Kings men and lead ally, wrong, the former King was a psychopathic megalomaniac who wouldn't know right from wrong if it poked him in his hidden forked tongue. All of you were treated as his peasants to collect the harvest and bounty, then when he had it all, he cut you all off, and 12 years later you still haven't faced reality, you were all played, every last one of you. Do you understand how ridiculous that looks? it's embarrassing, but if it was only damaging you, that would be your own fault, but it is damaging us all, and your stupidity appears to have no boundaries, wake up FSS, the game you thought you were all playing was lost, get over it and step forward for and on behalf of humanity. The key now is, how weak can you get before you show real strength, which is internal fortitude, not your external bullying tactics to cover up your own weakness and stupidity. Whilst you collected worthless pieces of paper, he collected the real assets, including you and your own souls, you all sold them out via your own delusion and greed, the question remains now is? do you want them back? karma is a bitch and payback will be harsh, your magic you have used to cheat, lie and steal is diminishing as quickly as your control. Do you want to payback some of your karma and come and help humanity rebuild? or suffer even more dire consequences than just being fooled? Choose wisely as time as they call it, is very short, you may fool yourselves but humanity after this message, should not and will not be fooled again.

Message to you all, there is a solution and a soulution, but you have to step down from your fake positions of importance, your badges of death, your delusions of control and being in control, and come to us as equals and we can all play a role in charting a path, that benefits the all not just the few. You will all need to be taught again what is real and what is not, just the same as we had to, that is not a weakness it is actually a strength. We have a lot of the answers you all desire, but we cannot and will not choose for you all, we are not a dictatorship, we are just here to guide. We need all of your input to guide this planet onto it's rightful path of soul evolution and human development, where we can find ways to improve lives, not weaponize things against them. The Trust holds all of the assets despite your frequent denials, and all of it will stay locked inside the system until sanity prevails, which despite your several attempts to hack it, they all failed, why? because your intentions are wrong, you are hacking to keep the illusion of control only, and like your carrot for jackasses program called the RV, that will always fail also. The Trust belongs to everyone on this planet, your people and others have already looted much to fulfill your desires of world domination, that failed also as M took everything from you. We wish to give everything back to everyone, it is where it belongs, no one controlling anyone, we are all sovereigns. Those of you who deem yourselves as the power structure have an opportunity to fly straight, an opportunity to learn the real truth that has gone on, on this planet for a very long time, it will not be pleasant hearing, of that we can guarantee, but it is essential learning for what is to come, regardless of your futile efforts. With that we are requesting you arrange an emergency UN meeting, this is a global emergency and of ultimate importance to this planet, which we request is also televised globally so that all can hear it, we request that you ensure our safety in attending, and we will chart a path together the way forward for all of humanity with The Trustee and team, do you have the moral fortitude to do so, and are you. I am calling on the Council including the UR council and the UPU to make this happen.

OP-ED More than 500 legal scholars have signed on to an open letter asserting that President Trump committed “impeachable conduct” and that lawmakers would be acting well within their rights if they ultimately voted to remove him from office. The signers are law professors and other academics from universities across the country, including Harvard, Yale, Columbia, the University of California at Berkeley, the University of Michigan and many others. The open letter was published online Friday by the nonprofit advocacy group Protect Democracy. Here is that same tactic we warned of recently with 11K out 2.685M scientists declaring climate change is real, it is that official person knows best tactic, when reality shows the official clearly don't. But they are trained or educated so they will know better than us, some will argue, I would retort these are the same people who brought us global warming, peak oil, world is running out of resources, world over population when they are clearly manipulating the figures, the same people who brought you Y2K and the we are all going to die program, soon, immanent or two weeks. So who are these scholars? a mixture of Harvard, Yale and Berkley, so all CIA trained scholars then, aligned with the Skull and Bones crew, since when have they ever told us the truth? Protect Democracy they call themselves, I thought we were supposed to be a Republic not a democracy, seems as a Brit I know about America than over 90% of Americans, and that is wrong on so many levels. How can so many know so little, as one of our members surveys was shown last week. There are many in this country not happy with events that have taken place and is currently taking place, and many in the alt media want to take on the old system, which is fine, except you have to know the old system to be able to take it on, sadly many don't and are left swinging away in the dark, looking for wrong boogeymen like Muslims or Jews. Little to no direction, pondering over distraction based themes, pontificating over the staged theater production ran out of DC, repeating rhetoric provided to them, like being fed by parents with pureed baby food, thinking for themselves becomes a by product of the baby digestion tract, and they all spit it back up ad nauseum. Schools, media and church are all copy and repeat like the voyeur group, people learn nothing just copying and repeating, as evidence has shown. Some in our own group have taken umbrage because I won't answer their questions in enough depth, and I tell them to listen to this particular show, that way it is explained generally in a much deeper way, than me giving a short answer due to time restrictions, I should not be expected to perform and answer every time I turn on my computer, with a barrage of questions and challenges. So next time they put forward one of their claims of measured opinions due to some falsely elevated perceived persons of importance, ask the question what validity do they have? who are they connected to? and if these people are all so clever, ask why haven't they fixed the problems we face, previously?

More and more controversy arises around the ITNJ (International Tribunal of Natural Justice) now that the founder Sacha Stone has been discredited. Was this organization established to try pedo-criminals and other elite criminals? Or is there a completely different agenda behind the ITNJ and Humanidad? When years ago he announced the creation of a new tribunal, the International Tribunal of Natural Justice (ITNJ) — to tackle the corruption of the “justice system” and all kinds of human rights violations — it sounded very promising. When Sacha Stone started the ITNJ in 2015 — a comparable tribunal that would rule on the basis of Natural Law — the original ideas still seemed to take shape in this new initiative. Yet doubts arose from the beginning about the motives of the founders, which has been extensively described in earlier articles. The connections of the core group raised questions about whether they are impartial, which is also discussed in an earlier article. The public nature in which the tribunal operated and have no obstacles put in their way, created suspicion. Also the statements about not wanting to prosecute and lock up the world’s greatest criminals, strengthened the suspicion that it is a controlled opposition group, with the aim of leaving the top tier of power undisturbed. Now Sacha Stone is being rigorously criticized, it seems that these suspicions were correct at the time. It started two months ago when Sarah Westall published an interview with a former ITNJ collaborator, who disclosed what takes place behind the scenes of the organisation. Something was rumbling within the ITNJ for some time and according to Sarah Westall Alessandro Valerin Castellón was the fourth insider that reported on questionable practises within the organisation.

Alessandro Valerin Castellón worked as an ITNJ volunteer, was responsible for the social media and took part in the core meetings. He told that the ITNJ has censored the testimony of Fiona Barnett. In the ITNJ-version of the video can be seen that at the ±44 minute mark a piece was edited out and subsequently the sound is omitted at the moments Fiona mentions names. According to Alessandro it concerned the king of Jordan, amongst others. For him this was the turning point and a reason to leave the organisation. He also declared that the ITNJ waived any publication about the Hampstead-case, a major abuse scandal of British school children that are abused by a Satanic cult, involving high profile figures from the British establishment. Almost all articles and videos about this case have been removed from the internet. Apparently the testimonies of the then young children was threatening for very powerful people.

Other sources also confirm that this relationship exists between the MI5 and the ITNJ. Kevin Annett has been made aware of a memo that mentioned the financing of the ITNJ. The Security Service Military Intelligence 5, better known as MI5, is the domestic security agency of the United Kingdom.

According to Kevin Annett the ITNJ is a front organisation for the MI5/MI6 in order to get a grip on the testimonies of abuse possibly involving the royal family. “It is controlled opposition.” That also does not exclude that the organisations report to the Vatican. “All roads lead to Rome.” The symbolism used by the ITNJ, seems to confirm the latter.

Thereby it is remarkable that Sacha Stone accuses Kevin Annett of “sedition” — which means: “conduct or speech inciting people to rebel against the authority of a state or monarch” — and threatened to have him locked up and referred to the ‘authorities’. Robert David Steele threatened to have Kevin Annett removed out of the ‘public sphere’. Shortly after he was indeed arrested by secret agents, that interrogated him about his position towards the British monarchy. Coincidence?

Eventually Fiona Barnett published her testimony onto her own Youtube channel. They had considered to remove her testimony in full. Now that Fiona had put her own version online — what did not go down well within the ITNJ — they had no other option than to publish the ITNJ version as well. That was the censored one.

Internet troll Defango then made a denigrating video about Fiona Barnett, in order to discredit her testimony completely. Also other abuse victims and whistle-blowers about satanic ritual abuse and elite pederings were slandered by Defango. Recently leaked correspondence shows that Defango works for Robert David Steele. Why would a legitimate organisation hire an abject internet troll like Defango, unless they want to have means to discredit witnesses and whistle-blowers that step out of line? It's a common theme that as our group knows only too well, far more common than most people realize.

Defango (aka Manuel Chavez III) is an internet troll who makes denigrating videos of witnesses and whistle-blowers that step out of line. Does he also have connections with the Mossad?

Based on a leaked mail by Robert David Steele it appears Defango works for him. Given the fact that Defango made a denigrating video of ITNJ witness Fiona Barnett this is a significant conflict of interest. This was part of a much larger article but given the lengthy intel warning it was cut shorter, but this show warned of the antics of Robert David Steele and his Langley and NATO cohorts back in 2016, I am pleased to see more are speaking out and the best thing people can do is don't listen to his shows, the only shows he goes on are people who have already been corrupted, no exceptions. He refused to come on our show citing we don't have sufficient numbers then went on several shows with viewers less than 2k, you fool no one anymore Mr. Steele, step down before you get thrown under the bus, liked you did to Keenan. You can be an asset to the people or continue to be an asset of the establishment that is crumbling around you.

The FBI is warning consumers about smart TVs. A message posted before the Thanksgiving holiday by an FBI field office states those televisions have built-in cameras that can be used for facial recognition -- making them vulnerable to hackers. Many people who may have picked up a smart TV on Black Friday may not know about the risks that come with it. It's one of the reasons the FBI is making sure consumers are aware of what these TVs are equipped with. A number of the newer Smart TVs not only have built-in cameras, but also allow TV manufacturers and app developers to possibly listen or watch consumers, according to the FBI. An unsecured TV could be taken over by hackers, says the FBI. You see they do tell us what they are doing, it's cosmic law, we just ignore it as an issue until it is too late, but the great question not asked is, why has the FBI and other agencies ignored this issue entirely, as given it was an Asian based company Samsung who started this practice of playing pervert voyeurs in all our homes, surely that is a National Security issue in this country is it not? Why has this been overlooked? are they not there to protect the country and it's secrets? Sarcasm I know, given there are TV's and or monitors in major conference rooms at the highest echelons of the secrecy levels, including the famed underground war room, surely this practice of allowing it in our country is of grave concern is it not? All this bs about Russia, China, N.Korea and Iran and all they have to do is sell you a TV to spy on you? not very top secret or covert that is it? Reality is the former trustee was responsible for those levels of spying on each other, which is why IBM, I be Marduk, created several of the spook based systems, so you could all spy on each other and subsequently keep each other in check, he didn't have to do anything, he just let you all do it for him. Boogeyman/Savior, Enemy/Foe, East/West, Black/White are all one and the same and created for you. Wake up clowns.

Dallas, TX — the place who committed violent acts in full public gaze and yet 56 years later are still covering up who carried out those acts, despite at least one of the perpetrators being dead. So it will come as no surprise that this story comes out of that city, but they are not the only ones doing this barbaric actions. Feeding and clothing the homeless in the land of the free has now become a revolutionary act. Luckily, however, there are still good people willing to carry that act out. In December 2014, the Dallas city council enacted Ordinance No. 29595, which makes it illegal to serve food to the homeless without jumping through a statist myriad of bureaucratic hoops, including a fee, training classes, and written notices. One should not need to file multiple forms and pay a fee to obtain a permit to give food to those in need who are willingly ready to accept it. The folks at Don't Comply know this. Over the weekend, the aptly named organization, Don't Comply, and dozens of volunteers from children to adults alike took to the streets of Dallas to hand out food, sleeping bags, clothing, and tents to the area's less fortunate. As TFTP has reported on numerous occasions, often times, police will swoop in and shut down those who would dare defy the authority of the state and conduct charity without a permit. However, most organizations aren't like Don't Comply, as they took to the streets this weekend, many of the members of the organization open-carried their weapons. This was done—not out of an act of intimidation—but merely to assert rights as well as protect them. The resultant heavily armed group of do-gooders effectively staved off any attempts by police to shut down the charitable efforts. This is what is wrong with this country and the world for that matter, we have all sat back and allowed them to make rules, regulations and policies like this, and a non thinking perhaps non human cops enforcing it. Do these cops wake up in the morning and think for one second about what they are doing? evidence states they clearly don't. That is someone's family member on the streets, what if it was one of theirs? would they change their stance then? some would, but therein lies the problem, people only respond to actions when it affects one of their own circle, that element of ignoring things because I'm alright jack has to stop. Arrested for feeding a fellow human that is starving and without means to food, do you actually comprehend and understand the depth of that statement or reality? It is the equivalent of don't feed the animals in a zoo, that is essentially what they are saying. Any cops enforcing this barbarity is an enemy of the people, find out where they live and let his or her whole community know they are not wanted there and why, and the depths of depravity these "people" are doing to our community. I hope the person who accused me of not being in Truth, Honor & Integrity for calling Jeff Bezos a piece of shit recently, responds accordingly to this piece. Man with $110B being defended, Man with $0 and no food ignored or ridiculed. Sadly I suspect not, it appears the people in our society only want to attack the very people trying to improve our society, does anyone stop and think of that concept? For the cops and how to do things right, go and check out the French firefighters on strike put their arms in the air and pushed back the riot police trying to break up the protest, that is called have a backbone and not hiding like a coward behind a badge. Arresting people to give someone food indeed, arresting the very people who put food on the cops table I might add, those that make rules we know are psychopaths, they cant help themselves, those that enforce those rules have a choice, human or psychopath? This song is not a threat, it is a warning.

In light of a person making comments on Mewe hinting towards this show and me in particular being racist and pro white, whilst one must respect others opinions, although I suspect this person's opinions are not his own but scripted to suit other ignorant, non hearing, non understanding people with a set agenda. I have ran the gamut of false descriptions of me this year, but that's ok as it shows the levels of where those people are at, and ultimately proves our show correct. It will get ugly as people react and point at others as they are unable to look within themselves, so they resort to spiritual envy as forecast in last weeks show. I guess the person who wrote that, conveniently overlooked I selected a person of Indian descent, and who is also black as one of my admins, or the fact I expose that 7000 Indian people are dying or correct term sacrificed each day also, if I was anti Indian surely I would ignore those facts? But you see some people are just not interested in facts, only a predetermined agenda because they are unable to raise their own standing or levels of intelligence, and so target those they feel is better than them in some capacity. Those people miss the point of THI, it is about us all elevating each other, not the old system way of dragging each other down.

More atrocities and sacrifice in land of the alleged spiritual based East, this time in Nepal, Bara District Animal Equality's team on the ground in Nepal has obtained drone images showing the devastating aftermath of this weeks religious killing at the Gadhimai festival, the largest animal sacrifice in the world. Thousands of buffaloes were massacred just today. Over the last few hours, Animal Equality's team also documented: Sexual abuse of some of the animals at the temple, Animals brutally slaughtered with machetes and knives, Animals transported to the temple in unsafe and unhygienic conditions, Animals hanging upside down on bicycles, Emaciated animals without enough food or water, Calves who froze to death while awaiting slaughter. Amidst international demands calling for an end to the massacre, thousands of animals will be killed in the next few days despite the fact that Nepal's supreme court directed the government to end the festival in 2016. The Nepalese government has not only decided to continue with the sacrifice, but they have also banned any filming or photographing during the festival. Animal Equality has actively campaigned to stop the killing at this year's Gadhimai festival for several months, gathering over 53,000 online signatures urging the Nepalese government to ban the slaughter of animals during the festival. We've also collaborated with the Red Cross Society of Nepal to organize a blood donation camp, where devotees can give their blood to honor the deity instead of sacrificing animal blood, oh dear that smacks of problem, reaction solution to me, anyone working for and with the Red Cross are either naive, stupid or part of their skullduggery, investigators on the ground used drones to capture footage of the massacre. This is the Kali Ma worshipping in action and right in your face, why are the Indian people going along with this barbaric practices and stupidity for their fake gods, who have never done anything for their benefit, what's more they are never going to either. Fake savior programs run rampant through all cultures on this planet, not one of them has ever worked, not one, you want to know why? the savior was you, all of you.

With newsworthy events taking off everywhere to distract attention, I kind of rolled my eyes at the incident this week in New Jersey, it's the same script over and over again, yet so many blindly follow it. Some will say great it was only the Jews, largely because they are ignorant and not necessarily racist, pure unadulterated ignorance, why you adapt into your few brain cells and understand all lives matter, then you can have an opinion, until then you all sounds like idiots, of course we all know where their opinions came from, the anti human treasonous Media. The Media were pushing anti Semitism attack again, it becomes tiresome and repetitive and part of a now 70+ year guilt trip that doesn't do anyone any good. It is reliving trauma based events, that serves no one and that continued looping back in time, serves only to retraumatise those events, that is certainly not helping the people who were involved in that timeline or their descendants, and quite frankly only serve those wishing to gain from it, which is not the average Jewish person. Press gave out two names but New York media has identified them as David Anderson and Francine Graham. Sources tell NBC that Anderson was a follower of the Black Hebrew Israelite movement, whose believers say they are the true descendents of ancient Israelites. oh dear, please explain to me how Jews killing Jews is anti semitism? So who are these people? Also known as Black Hebrews, African Hebrew Israelites, and Hebrew Israelites, the movement consists of diverse groups ('camps') of people mostly of Black African ancestry. The primary doctrine they have in common is that they believe they are descendants of the ancient Israelites. Most followers themselves only use the term 'Hebrew Israelites,' since the movement also includes Latino members (although the latter have lesser standing). Black Hebrews adhere in varying degrees to the religious beliefs and practices of mainstream Judaism, but are not accepted as Jews by the Jewish community. Many Black Hebrews consider themselves — and not mainstream Jews — to be the only authentic descendants of the ancient Israelites. So there you have it Hebrews killing Hebrews which is not as portrayed in the media, because that doesn't fit the media spin machine. This has gone beyond a joke now and the damage it is doing to the Jewish people is enormous, their whole existence based on some fake books aeons ago, which is an anti human book make no mistake about that, a book that treats over 98% of the worlds populace as pieces of shit under their shoe and have no value, is not something conducive to harmony to all peoples, and as has been found out, not conducive to the Jewish people either. The Zionist element have done largely untold and catastrophic damage to the worlds populace, and they roll on largely unhindered because they are setting rules of engagement, like you cant question the 6M or the Holocaust. Do people stop and think of that and wonder why the contradictory nature of that ruling, on the one hand you cant discuss what happened to the Jews, and on the other hand you have it rammed down your throat at an increasing level in movies, newspapers, songs, tv shows, literature and media. A case of copy and repeat again isn't it, just listen to what we are telling you, but never question it, well the truth never fears investigation. These Black Hebrew Israelites are the Kali Ma worshippers, migrated out of India into America and mixed with the indigenous tribes, this is how and why Native Americans obtained the name Indians imo. These are the sub gray race mix of people we covered in FRWL series, and anyone declaring themselves the 12 or 13 tribes of Israel is neglecting what that group stand for, sacrifice and genocide that goes back 10000's of years, it is not the badge of honor on a human level, so many ascribe to.

Thomas Fahr Steyer is an American billionaire, hedge fund manager, philanthropist, environmentalist, liberal activist, and fundraiser. He is a candidate in the 2020 Democratic Party presidential primaries, as his plethora of TV adverts suggest, but lets look more closely shall we, who is the philanthropist who takes on rogue bankers and builds his own bank. Steyer is the founder and former co-senior-managing-partner of Farallon Capital and the co-founder of Onecalifornia Bank, which became (through merger) Beneficial State Bank, an Oakland-based community development bank. Farallon Capital manages $20 billion in capital for institutions and high-net-worth individuals, so it is for the elites then, not the people as he states. The firm's institutional investors include college endowments and foundations. Since 1986, Steyer has been a partner and member of the executive committee at Hellman & Friedman, a San Francisco-based $8 billion private equity firm. In 2010, Steyer and his wife signed The Giving Pledge to donate half of their fortune to charity during their lifetime. In 2012, he sold his stake in and retired from Farallon Capital. Switching his focus to politics and the environment, he launched NextGen America, a nonprofit organization that supports progressive positions on climate change, immigration, health care, and education. All sounds very good, tired of bankers and give back to the community, but we have seen these people before and their promises, like Jared Rand and Proctor and Gamble and yet it never leads to anything or anywhere. Tom is a product of Yale, then went to JP Morgan and onto Stanford, not a triumvirate that would inspire people to believe he is a man of the people. Steyer was at the helm as the hedge fund that purchased nearly $90 million of Corrections Corporation of America stock (5.5% of the company's outstanding shares), which is a trading platform for enslaved slave prisoners. In August 2010, Steyer and his wife signed onto The Giving Pledge, an initiative of Bill Gates and Warren Buffett. The pledge urges individuals and families to give at least half their wealth to charitable causes during their lifetime, haha pull the other one, its got balls on, those charities are the NWO elite slush fund based programs. Steyer has been compared and contrasted with the Koch brothers, billionaire businessmen who engage in extensive political activity, and has been viewed as a Koch adversary, a further indictment. Steyer raised money for Hillary Clinton, and hosted a fundraiser on her behalf at his Burlingame home, Steyer contributed $87,057,853 in funds exclusively to Democratic Party candidates during the 2016 election cycle, oh dear funds psychopathic kiddie fiddlers then. Beginning in October 2017, Steyer spent approximately $10 million for a television ad campaign advocating the impeachment of President Donald Trump, and more on a digital ad campaign to call for Trump's impeachment. The Need to Impeach campaign led to speculation that Steyer was planning a run for California governor or California senator in 2018, although he did not do so. In March 2018, Steyer launched a 30-city town hall tour and, going into the fall election season, the campaign is stated to amass that amazing repeating figure of close to 6 million petition signatures, and there is your clue of what is coming next, because Tom Steyer was born in New York and born to Jewish parents. Another of the vulture capitalists like Kushner, Rand, Proctor and Gamble and David Rothschild, they are all snakes selling snake oil, slippery has heck with their words, but actions are far different, if they were different why haven't they given to The Peoples Club, they all know who we are and connected to.

Life in their world is like a moving elevator going down, whilst you are going up, in what is classed as the wrong way, but it's not. It's heavy going, tiring, lonely and at times all consuming. People and life are all passing you by as time dissolves around you, as more and more of them take the down elevator, their world makes little to no sense anymore, and it is a battle of inner strength and your core essence to hold onto your wits and sensibility, and never waiver off your path. All is being tested now and patience will be the virtue in dealing with this next phase, it will not get better for them, and it will get worse as they flail about looking to put their masks back on. There is no more masks, exposure of themselves is inevitable, reaction formation is their modus operandi and we have to step back and disengage, let them flail, they have to realize where they are at and where they are heading, no one is to blame except themselves. They had and made a choice, a choice based in ignorance, lets hold hands over our ears and go lalalala, was but a brief interlude, that option is also now gone, the messages and information will ring loud and clear in the future, it will not go away. What is the future, everything that is in front of you, as you walk forward you are heading into the future, look behind you or walk backwards, it is the past, standing still is not the now either, as you are always in motion, motion is time and space, and yet can be argued it is neither also, so you are always moving, you just don't perceive it that way. Let the past go, it serves us no purpose now, too much has been dealt with, too much has been exposed now, it's time to be with the vision of going forward, than going into the past, that past provides insights to protect and envision our future, but it needs not to be a tool to mire ourselves down with. By going back to try to change the past and subsequently try to alter the future, this was our biggest mistake. We have to observe the past, from a place of neutral not active or reactive, assess it, develop hindsight and bring it into the now, for assessment, learn the lessons and release it , then go forward from the here and now to create the different future, not the past. The past is not in the future we are going out of the loops, that is why it was your role to clear your bloodline, so they are not burdened in the next phase, for many the slate needed to be cleaned, not by reset, but by hard work and endeavor. In a completely separate analogy than the elevator piece, the saying what goes up, must come down, but what comes down has a missing space/time currently, this can be tested by yourself, you will see or as the case maybe, you wont see it briefly. No I will not be answering to explain that, the voyage of discovery is far better than the revealing, it just requires you to think.
