

THI-SHOW TRANSCRIPT 2019-12-19

A documentary on the young Swedish climate activist Greta Thunberg is in the works at Hulu. The Disney-owned streamer is working on "Greta" (working title), which is slated for 2020 and will explore the story of the 15-year-old Thunberg who was recently named Time's person of the year. Perhaps I can help them out with the title and opening song, it's called TOMORROW BELONGS TO ME.

So we are getting announcement according to one alt media personality of the secret space program, The AF announced it said there will be declassification of secret space programs, fine but 1 they are not secret 2. what does it change for day to day life? 3. will they reveal that certain other alt media people have been working against humanity in the SS? 4. anti gravity tech released fine they have had it over 60 years, what will it change? the cost to ride it will be prohibitive to all except elites ET disclosure will not bring quality or equality of life to the vast majority of people, and is a complete distraction if that is the sole focus of attention.

We have had two stories out this week, neither of which makes any sense, unless it is part of a wider agenda, which this show has highlighted many times, ignoring it because of politically correct retards will not make it go away. The first was in Italy who have a racial issue towards blacks, they do monkey chants at black soccer players and has become a major issue, one has to ask whether these chanters are crisis actors at this point, because that level of abuse went out largely in the 1980's, although not necessarily the racism, which contrary to portal people clowns is done by all colors against all colors, fact. So the Italian soccer federation decided to make a stand and did a presentation with 3 monkeys as the backdrop, seriously you cant make this shit up. I don't believe for one minute a whole panel of people would come up with that logo and none of them thought oops perhaps that might be insensitive, I personally believe it is deliberate to cause distraction, further alienate the white and black communities and another talking point for the anti white portal people narrative. Then we had the American treasonous portal people declaring that putting your index finger to your thumb whilst keeping the other three fingers upright, is now a symbol of white power, deary me. How about focusing on the symbology of a Freemasonic nature, secret codes, handshakes and lets all lift are right trouser leg up to the knee, and other bizarre stuff that resembles kindergarten levels, or perhaps they could focus on the various symbols of child pedophilia? oh no can't do that as their paymasters, who pay them to read their scripts are all involved in it is why. No lets target and denigrate the primary group of people who can expose their criminality and have sufficient intellect to bring them down, the white race, white power my ass. This is the same white power and privilege that has seen white demographic numbers fall from 30%+ globally in 1920's to 12% when I disclosed it in the FRWL series, and I saw a report recently now stating the updated figures now is not 12%, but 9%, so much for white power. But Thomas the elitists are all white, yes on the face of it, pun intended, but beneath it lies the sub gray race, they are behind all of this, with the various sacrifices, wars, energy harvesting, name changing, land and resource claiming and their portal people controlling the narrative. They have spent at least 110K years trying to wipe out the white race, and people without a single brain cell of their own can spout racist or white supremacist all they like, but this is a serious issue that is being tragically overlooked due to peoples propensity to not think for themselves, research for themselves and instead form and react to clickbait headlines provided to them, by the very peoples wishing to wipe them out.

And if that wasn't enough try these next two articles as well, that the portal people launched this week. All in the patterns to be able to see the programming, people, it's all in the patterns and they always repeat, until people wake up to reality. In FRWL 4 we covered an example of how the indigenous black communities had prospered, and in one area in particular Tulsa Oklahoma, and we referenced it as the untold American Holocaust, at a time period when atrocities and death machines, viruses and programs were being launched globally 1914-1923. Our piece dispelled the myth that all blacks were slaves, they had their own prosperous bank called the Friedman Savings Bank, a large and widespread successful businesses platform that wouldn't allow interference via contracts or negotiations with the then current business and money system, they were autonomous, which as you all know is not allowed by the elitist clowns. What I didn't know was that area was nicknamed the Negro Wall Street or Black Wall Street, and so was obviously a power unto themselves, authorities didn't like this and sent in the US military to bomb the town, the people and the businesses into oblivion, the region never recovered and those that were left, were forced back into servitude. The portal people ran the story this week, Tulsa may be closer to finally answering whether bodies of black people killed in the 1921 race massacre, were dumped into mass graves after one of the worst episodes of racial violence in U.S. history, and then went onto report this. For decades, the rampage was left out of textbooks in Oklahoma and few people spoke about what had happened. The massacre began on May 31, 1921, when a white mob marched on Greenwood, one of the richest black communities in the country. The mob gathered after a black teenager, who was working as a shoe shiner in downtown Tulsa, was arrested and accused of assaulting a white woman “on a public elevator in broad daylight,” according to the Tulsa Race Riot Commission Report, released in 2001. There was a scuffle between “angry white vigilantes gathered at the courthouse intent on lynching the shine boy” and armed black men intent on protecting him, according to the commission report. A shot rang out, and the violence began. Historians believe as many as 300 black people were killed. Much of Greenwood was burned to the ground. The mob, “some of them government agents,” destroyed 35 square blocks of Greenwood, according to the 2001 report. The destruction included more than 1,250 homes, churches, schools, businesses, a hospital and a library.

What utter lies the key was in the quote unquote some govt agents, the classic tactic of telling you some of the truth and the rest of it bullshit. The reference to shoe shine boy also derogatory, why would a thriving black community needs a shoe shine boy to begin with? The mentioning of lynching as a form of white practice, when the practice of lynching was an African invention, long before European greed merchants turned up, and still goes on to this day in Africa of blacks lynching blacks, it is a heinous practice whoever is doing it, but people badly need to learn the real truth as their spoon fed portal people diet is costing many people their lives. This is outrageous reporting but also a victory of THI and FRWL series and Dane Calloway who has reported this in far greater depth than I, that the media is now covering our stories in greater volume now, and having to waste their time trying to write a spin story to cover up the truth. Portal people can continue rewriting his story, we will report the truth and let them face the music when reality bites, and you would think that was enough for one week of divide and conquer but no, try this next one.

Congresswoman Rashida Tlaib has been slammed for wrongly blaming white supremacy for the deadly Jersey City shooting at a kosher supermarket. The Democratic congresswoman had tweeted a photo of one of the three slain victims, gunned down inside the JC Kosher Supermarket on Tuesday, in an attack that authorities have said was 'fueled' by anti-Semitism. 'This is heartbreaking. White Supremacy Kills,' she tweeted from her personal Twitter account on Thursday, Tlaib appeared to delete the tweet soon after, that's just wrong but then she went from one wrong tweet into another. Tlaib also tweeted about the shooting on her official Twitter account without referencing white supremacy. 'It was beyond heartbreaking to learn of what appears to be another anti-Semitic act of violence. The hate growing in our country is toxic,' the tweet said, yes it is and it is people like you generating the toxic environment and stupid people for following her. This type of stereotype racism is a program this show has been warning about for a long time, the idea that racism is only done by whites, is both wrong and damaging. Statistics show there is more racism done and violence between people of color, and yet the latest thing is to just blame one group, there are elements in all colors, cultures and creeds that are racist, there I have said it, it is a fact, blaming one group no matter who that may be, is neglecting the rest of the issue. Ms. Tlaib should be fired for those comments, it is blatant MSM stereotyping rhetoric and is clearly racist towards white people, she didn't even check the facts, just ran her mouth on assumptions again, dangerous assumptions at that. Will she be fired? no chance, for the simple fact it wasn't racist against black, Hispanic or Jews is why, and it appears it is ok to denigrate the white race with no come back whatsoever, yet if Trump would have tweeted black people being violent again, the media and all the fake I am offended actor and actresses, would come out of the woodwork in uproar, despite the fact that had Trump said that, it would actually be correct in this story, but being correct or telling the truth in this world becomes a revolutionary act. What is lost in the stream of political religiosity based pity party is, that people died, not one report focuses on the people that died only the fact they were Jews. What is also lost is the people who did the shooting were the same color as Ms. Tlaib oops and more conveniently lost and buried in an avalanche of repeating sentences of anti semitism, is the killers were Jewish, but none of that matters when the AIPAC and J Street backed by the treasonous media, as lets all pity the poor Jews program is rolled out yet again to suit an agenda. Six people died in unnecessary religious based violence, at which point will the treasonous media focus on how many people are killed because of fake religions, now that would be a real story.

I am seeing a rise of younger members joining THI and it is great to see, it is reaching into a wider age group so I want to give a shout out to new members both of which are activists in their own way. Eleyah Knight who describes herself as Environmental/health rights activist, and natural medicine provider, and is also part of a group called Earthgivers. Also joined is Rachel Wyman who has a Phd in Academia and has wrote a few papers on political and social life, plus a thesis on the NWO that includes reference to and excerpts of our show. For me it is great to see the younger generation involved, this movement requires the different age generations to all be involved, it allows for continuity, the dark have always had continuity which is why groups of hate continue to spew their bile, we have to maintain continuity also, despite their restrictions and interference.

SUB INTEL Express Scripts made a point in wiki saying scripts was short for prescriptions, odd addition to the narrative so I checked origin of scripts, or could it be S cripts? written paper; credit note, IOU; deed, bond and also to cut, separate, sift so prescription is another bond, another credit note or IOU and the deed or title is your body, so it is a possession spellcast, which they cut, separate and then sift, which is wheat and chaffe terminology. Still want to be using their prescriptions? Welcome to the world of increased datamining via AI, brought to you by Palo Alto, Go ogle, Microsoft, IBM all of whom are subsidiaries of the NSA and CIA, along with other Clowns In America agents and his NATO based Open Source public spying system Robert David Steele, listen to Clowns in Panic show again for wider understanding.

Saudi Arabia will no longer require restaurants to have separate entrances segregated by sex, the government says. Previously, it was mandatory to have one entrance for families and women, and another for men on their own. The restrictions had already been quietly eased in practice, with many restaurants, cafes and other meeting places no longer enforcing segregation. A series of sweeping social reforms in Saudi Arabia has been accompanied by an intensified crackdown on dissent. Earlier this year, a royal decree allowed Saudi women to travel abroad without a male guardian's permission, and in 2018 the Gulf kingdom ended a decades-long ban on female drivers. But activists complain that many laws discriminatory against women remain in place. And several prominent women's rights advocates have been arrested even as the government has made reforms. Finally it seems some common sense is beginning to prevail over there.

As scrutiny of Purdue Pharma's role in the opioid epidemic intensified during the past dozen years, its owners, members of the Sackler family, withdrew more than $10 billion from the company, distributing it among trusts and overseas holding companies, according to a new audit commissioned by Purdue. The amount is more than eight times what the family took out of the company in the 13 years after OxyContin, its signature product, was approved in 1995. The audit is likely to renew questions about how much the Sacklers should pay to resolve more than 2,800 lawsuits that seek to hold Purdue accountable for the opioid crisis. The family has offered to contribute at least $3 billion in cash as part of a settlement to resolve thousands of lawsuits brought by state and local governments against Purdue. But 24 states, led by Massachusetts and New York, have refused to sign onto the agreement, arguing that the Sacklers should pay more. Sacklers born in and born to just saying, should be in jail for mass manslaughter, money is no use to the people who are dead.

Labour "pursued a path of almost comic indecision" over Brexit during the election and "alienated both sides of the debate", Tony Blair has said. In a speech in London, the ex-PM said he believed the party could have kept much of the vote in traditional Labour areas under a different leadership. The situation was "made impossible by failure to take a clear position and to stick to it", Mr Blair said. "The result has brought shame on us. We let our country down," he added. In an interview with the BBC's Newsnight, to be aired later, Mr Blair said "the Labour Party, by its self-indulgence - and that's what it was in the end - was the effective handmaiden of Brexit. The classic blame game when Blair knows all too well how the game of politics works, infact that is how the former MI5/6 agent became the Prime Minister, and also this is fake as both Blair and Corbyn are part of the same funny handshake club called the Fabian Society and all are buddies, so this was a script for the public to play the blame game, and keep the illusion of elections going that they are fair.

This is from a Jewish newspaper in North Carolina, with some of my words added for extra details. Ukraine became the only country in the world besides Israel whose president and prime minister are both Jewish. Comedian Volodymyr Zelensky's, When Zelensky is sworn in as president, his prime minister, at least for a while and possibly until the parliamentary elections scheduled to take place sometime later this year, will be Volodymyr Groysman, a Jewish politician who was the mayor of the city of Vinnytsia. The 300-page Intelligence Committee report concludes that President Donald Trump "placed his own personal and political interests above the national interests of the United States" in asking Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelensky to investigate former Vice President Joe Biden, calling it “the act of a president who viewed himself as unaccountable and determined to use his vast official powers to secure his reelection.” It is now the Judiciary Committee’s task to decide whether to recommend articles of impeachment, and while the officials who appeared before Schiff’s committee were fact witnesses who described the events surrounding the Ukraine scandal, Judiciary Committee chair Rep. Jerry Nadler, born in and to, brought three witnesses, all constitutional scholars, that he hoped would outline a theory of impeachment. All three witnesses are Jewish: Noah Feldman of Harvard, Pamela Karlan of Stanford and Michael Gerhardt of the University of North Carolina. So are Adam Schiff and Jerry Nadler, and so was the Democrats’ counsel who directed the first 45 minutes of questioning, Norm Eisen. Noah Feldman of Harvard, who also helped draught the Iraqi Constitution, which tells you exactly why Americans was sent into Iraq and which country benefitted from it, your not telling me there isn't a single Iraqi capable of drafting their own countries Constitution are you? Eisen founded an ethics watchdog, Citizens for Responsibility and Ethics in Washington, to the tune of $1.35 million in 2017, that was funded by another Jewish person George Soros, Soros’ Open Society Foundation had helped fund Eisen’s group, which from all accounts appears to only target people who speak out against the Jewish people in power. Which person was tasked with delivering the details of the report to the public? Michael E Horowitz born in NY, Born to Jewish parents, with wife a former field producer for CNN. What also should be noted is the main Democrat counsel Barry Berke is also born in and born to, and the chairman Jerry Nadler neglected to swear him in under oath, essentially allowing him to say whatever he wanted with impunity, the whole charade should have been closed down on that action alone. The paper spoke about pushing Jewish politicians and mentioned Georgia and Trump losing ground in the South, and then they said this " and women in Atlanta’s suburbs, emboldened since Trump’s election, are the hinge on whether Georgia turns blue next year. Kemp does not want to further alienate them. A lot of those women are Jewish. I spoke to two who head up a “salon” of 1,500 Jewish women aimed at flipping the state for Democrats, and also to Atlanta-area Jews who are grappling with how to rebuild a moribund alliance with African-Americans as a means to topple Republicans. What are the chances are there that the whole commission is based on a foreign country who both the President and Prime Minister are both Jewish, that the Judiciary is headed by a Jewish person, who brought in 3 witnesses who were all Jewish, the inquiry was drafted by two Jewish people, the first counsel was Jewish and then the DOJ IG was also Jewish, how many cohen cidences do people need before seeing this as something at the very least is imbalanced, at worst a hostile takeover of our country, like Iraq and Ukraine? They can spout anti semitism all they like, which they did to Anne Coulter who dared to say that the witnesses were lacking in ethnic diversity, for that she was labeled a right wing agitator and anti semitic. They can scream all they like and these people need to remember one thing, this is America not Israel, if you don't like people questioning your blatant racist rhetoric then leave, sound harsh? lets use their own words then shall we, "and also to Atlanta-area Jews who are grappling with how to rebuild a moribund alliance with African-Americans as a means to topple Republicans", notice they don't say American Israeli but label blacks as African Americans, no America never gets referenced with these political based people, for them they are Jews, and they it appears to anyone with a thinking brain, these people are not here to integrate, but to agitate the country on behalf of their religion, not the country of origin or where they reside. Again people can say all they like he mentions born in and born to far too often, the point being is those born in and born to are the cause of much corruption, fraud, division, manipulation and harvesting in this and many other countries, does it go back to help their supposedly own people in Israel or wherever else they have decided to occupy based on some fake book of 2000 year ago, no they don't. This is the whole gist of why I speak out these people are not interested in anyone but themselves, they are Zionists hiding behind the banner of Jewish and we need more Jewish people to stand up and speak out, and ram their anti semitism bs back down their throats, because anti semitism is a spell cast for silence, well people have been silenced for too long, they need to speak up and remember Truth never fears investigation. There is something inherently wrong about stifling any questions particularly on a political and societal level, if a cop asks you a question and you refuse to answer, his or her opinion will believe you are covering something up, well the same applies with the Jewish history, narrative, politicians and lawyers, the public have a right to question them, because all the evidence points to a whole heap of skullduggery is operating in their midst.

Further down in that article AIPAC has been asking its members for weeks to get senators to sponsor legislation that would extend sanctions to entities dealing with already sanctioned Palestinian groups. One has to ask again is that not interfering in this countries policies and subsequently elections? Why are AIPAC allowed to do that, and Russian can't, what is the difference? Yet again I ask what is the National Security Act for if this group is not a threat to National Security?

With the UN climate meeting falling into chaos, as usual people dont think or realize what they are actually saying, they just spit out scripts given to them by portal people and their agency based Lords or paymasters. So this gist is we have to cut carbon and its emissions, which in non thinking terms is Fossil fuels such as oil and coal, for example, that help fuel cars and industrial equipment, neglecting the fact that these are not fossil fuels to begin with, but the very people pushing climate change are the psychopath families invested in oil and coal. Ignoring also the fact that we have new technology these same families are blocking to not need this outdated technology to begin with, infact we haven't needed it since 1906, when the Morgans, Rothschilds, Rockefellers and Warburgs all blocked it, due to their greed, but apparently they are not responsible. So what else is carbon used for? clothing, furniture, plastics and your household machines, do we delete all them as well, but then you forget it is the same elite harvesters that own all them companies, but apparently they are not responsible. What happens if you remove carbon? Trees need carbon dioxide, a compound of carbon, to produce photosynthesis, so trees, plants and food would die. Then you take into account that all living things consist of carbon, Carbon is present in our muscles, bones, organs, blood and other components of living matter, and are essential components of DNA and RNA, add that this was a UN meeting and in the UN they have a document called agenda 21 or 30 of population reduction of 90%, then reducing things that emit carbon makes more sense and clarity, does it not? Something Greta needs to understand, save the climate, ok delete old technology families and their global reductionist puppet Greta is the solution.

INTEL So the delay the inevitable process is underway, more commonly known as the impeachment of The President, which will be delayed and delayed before going to Senate, in an attempt to change the outcome of what is going on behind the scenes, either way it won't work, but stupid is as stupid does. What the public don't know is, behind the scenes on a separate level the dark minions plot and scheme with the same levels of repeat and repeat they have done previously and you too few see through the illusion, even the ones with an IQ of 135 as an entry point. Bribery and the promise of riches is being brought forth now to all politicians, ranging from $1.5M to $10M depending on the person to vote against Donald Trump at the hearing, newsflash for those willing or open to that, we will know if you have fallen for that tactic, no place to hide now, and 2. you will never get paid, like ever. Mike Pence who has been working with the likes of Pelosi, Clintons and Cheney has been promised funds and The Presidency, same applies to you Mr. Pence we see everything, and you will be thrown to wolves because it is not you they want as President, that is the seducement, it is the 3rd in line and Speaker of the House Nancy Incoherent Pelosi. They need Trump out of the way as Pence or Pelosi in charge they plan on transferring all of Americas inground resources to China, just like Hillary until she lost the one horse race. Bribery, Sediton and Treason, I believe you have a code for that Mr. Trump, use it indiscriminately as it is time to scatter the 4 horsemen to the wind.

The swamp is beginning to drain

OP-ED The next three pieces were written by our members and enhances the fact this show is not about me, but us all having an equal input. The factor of "out of exchange" is the de-moralizing factor that destroys a person, when the person is living on handouts. If the person is given the opportunity of giving his exchange, the factor of de-moralizing is NOT there anymore, and the person grows insteadSeeing athletes / Lady Gaga / entertainers getting billions in income makes the person think that he has nothing to offer - nothing to get his exchange from. Edward Mandel House idea of welfare state is based on this de-moralizing..... When passing the ethical point in life, where I have been taking too much of help to be able to keep my faith in myself ,and in my own ability to get along and survive, then nothing else matters anymore, and I do not care anymore, so now I cannot do without help Personel = I (with knowing) + my Delivery capacity (of adequately needed and wanted) = my exchange in Life (money, goods, services, affinity, whatever ...) Small children just love to contribute. Let us create the society that does not take this urge away A happy feeling when I know that I have been giving more than that I have been given a true contributor! Mission Impossible Your mission, should you accept, is to penetrate the entity of self and undermine its position as the usurper of love and truth on earth. This is the hardest mission of all; for if the enemy is provoked and threatened, it will crucify you in one way or another. Know your enemy. The self is the consummate trickster and skilled in the art of deception. It's fooled humanity since the earliest of times and continues unabated today throughout western civilisation – the first global culture to be completely possessed by this alien parasite of self. The self is a word that describes something fundamentally selfish in revolt to the good of the whole. It's most recognisable as the worrier in the head, that's unable to stop thinking when anxious or troubled by a relationship or event. The self is the feeling of gloom and emotional discomfort in the pit of the stomach when depressed or fed up with life, everyone is aware of the troublesome self, but few ever succeed in vanquishing the impostor. The majority of people have little time or inclination to look for any deeper meaning, beyond the need for material security, and the sensual experiences of modern living. Be advised that you are entering an alien environment where nothing is as it appears, you will begin by being born into a physical body and assigned an earth mother and family. For some years you'll be deep undercover with a veil of forgetfulness, to help you blend in with those around you, when it's time, you will be partially awakened, to begin your mission in a more conscious state of awareness, later, when able to contain the incoming spiritual power, the full purpose of your mission will be revealed to your intellect. The way will be not be easy since the projective drive of the self-driven world, has a built in resistance to anyone courageous enough to dare to stand alone – as those who have gone before have discovered. Recent intelligence suggests strange anomalies on the earth affecting the planetary consciousness; these, paradoxically, are making your mission possible at this point of human evolution, but dismantling the hold of the diabolical self is a mighty and honourable task. You've been selected for this mission as an agency of truth to attempt this on behalf of the greater good, you will make the journey alone – but be assured that help is at hand to point you in the right direction should you waver or stray off course.

This is from Niek Regarding the continent of Africa, it is strangely weird to notice the recent excessive rains in East Africa, the intense drought in South Africa and Southern Africa, and the continuing attacks by terrorist groups in Western Africa. All to discourage people to take the next step to stand up as humans being in a new world? Africa is today a continent with extreme opposites. There is so much happening in Africa, for the good and the bad, that is its impossible to cover this all just by me. So, please forgive me, that I give some observations based on my recent trips to Ghana and Mali. When we zoom into West Africa, especially Mali and Burkina Faso, an increasingly number of common people and decision makers worry how it is possible that a modern army of France and the UN (MONUSMA) are fighting each against the terrorists but are unable to make any progress while they have a budget of over a billion US$ per year? Certain areas are abandoned by specific groups because they do not feel safe anymore, bridges on various roads are blown up by these extremist groups, to fight their war against the governmental armies, and place improvised bombs to attack military convoys as well as civilians and transporters. Even cars from neutral parties (such as NGOs) are now being hijacked, people wonder how this all goes so fast in the negative spiral, while they observe that mind control is being used, and that trafficking of human body parts is taking place on a large scale, by murdering people seemingly at random because they belong to a specific ethnic or socio-economic group, It doesn't make sense anymore to most people! On the other hand we see, I see progress towards taking more responsibility, for instance, in Ghana the government has taken actions to clean the banking sector by closing some banks, and a large number of micro-credits suppliers. In a radio-show one of the main ministers was being questioned why the roads in the Cacao region remain in such a bad shape, and why the report on this has not yet been made public. On the internet there was a discussion on the news that the capital city of Ghana Accra, will get a new sophisticated transport system, by questioning if water supply to all citizens should not be a higher priority, these examples prove that people are not anymore accepting the old way of governance. Another interesting phenomenon is the quest for more healthy food, in Nigeria, people are increasingly eating healthy, organic food, accepting that they have to order bio-chicken a few weeks ahead, and small local companies are picking up organic agriculture in many countries. In Madagascar, even a law that supports and regulates organic agriculture has recently been adopted, these are signs of an awakening population that want to make a change themselves, at the scale where they can make the difference. However, a lot has still to be done, in my field of work I come across a lot of people that are so used to project proposal writing, that they've forgotten that some things can be done for free, such as working together to build trust, give a compliment to each other when things are well done, provide feedback and give advice when things are not how it was planned. Stop waiting for a donor, a NGO or a foreigner to rescue you! A couple of years ago in Burundi, we introduced the principle of vision building at household level, the husband, wife, and children together. What do we want, and how can we pursue that goal or those goals; what do we need to get success? it goes beyond the scope of this piece to provide all details, but it was a start with a number of families in the village, that started working together at the level of the village. This resulted in a better life without major financial investments, The key: internal motivation to realize your vision. In Mali I see the same, where municipalities are now putting their hands together around an integrated and sustainable development plan, that they elaborated with some assistance. Of course it is not easy coming from an attitude, 'My municipality first' to 'What is best for all of us?’ This takes time (patience) and building capacity, and increase interpersonal skills towards pursuing their goals, this way of thinking and working together towards a common future is in my opinion a big step forward, and the model used can easily be replicated elsewhere. Small steps towards development should also be celebrated, as this provides the energy to take the next step, I would like to close this part of information sharing, with a very inspiring proverb from Burundi: Akababaje Umutima Kazindura Amaguru. Translated into English: When the heart is touched by the cause, the legs will stand up early in the morning to pursue that goal.

When you walk into a courtroom, you are actually walking into a game arena to play legal and magic games. This is why the judge is sometimes called the magistrate, and the letter that the court used to notify you to appear in court is called a summons, What do witches do when they want to call spirits to appear in front of them? They summon them using the power of words! They did not call it a summons letter by accident. In legal terms, the word magistrate is defined as “any individual who has the power of a public civil officer or inferior judicial officer, such as a Justice of the Peace”, Magistrate can also be defined as “a civil officer charged with the administration of the law”. To find the occult definition of the word magistrate, you need to split it into two words (magi-strate). The word you need to pay attention to is magi. One of the origins of the word magi is the Latin word magi(plural of magus), meaning “magician, learned magician”. Hence, the words magistrate, magician, magic, and magistrery. Judges are trained by the legal system to cast magic spells on you when you are in a courtroom. However, many judges may not be aware that they are casting magic spells. The hidden agenda of their magic spells is to trick you to give up your spiritual powers and natural rights, the good news is that when you learn how to rebut their claims using the right words, you can nullify their claims and put them in checkmate. Do you comprehend now why words rule the world?

Some of this was originally meant for Alan's show last Sunday, but Alan soldiered on despite the flu and time ran out, so here is a fuller more detailed piece of looking at the world of religion, spiritual based groups and hidden cults. Cat - holic lets look at them closely shall we, they have or had large amounts of wealth whilst many of their followers struggled, yet it was the church and their assassin crew, called the Knights Templar who created the first bank and usury. Which was stationed along the trade routes, they took gold and silver which is the only real form of money, and gave people pieces of paper, then they raided the towns where the people were trading and killed people, so those that never returned for their gold and silver, then they claimed the gold and silver of the people they killed, the funds went to the church. They are involved extensively in pedophilia no longer a conspiracy, involved in child trafficking via the Vatican bank, looting via Vatican bank, they created the mafia as a money laundering operation, they created the P2 lodge which is another of the 5 eyes crew who take part in assassinating people, overthrowing countries, killing the people and stealing their resources. They partake in ritual sacrifice below the Vatican, initiated the Dutch led not British led destruction of Ireland, via the Battle of the Boyne, created the divide between the Irish people, yes they can argue that was the Protestants, the C of E and the Queen, but Protestants is a Cat holic religion in disguise, original Protestants where Cat holics who were protesting against the crimes and corruption of the church. The C of E is ran by Vatican, took part in several heinous crimes within Ireland and several other places involving children, sexual abuse, trading, torture and death, forced in a problem, reaction, solution tactic, thousands of Irish people onto boats and over to the next conquest of land America, in appalling conditions, many of which became slaves. His story says they were fleeing religious persecution, but once they had split the Cat holic religion and created Protestants so they can fight each other, then they set up the next stage, and how the Pilgrims were fleeing the nasty Brits, and moving towards favoring the more nice Dutch. Out of the frying pan and fire springs to mind and another problem, reaction, solution achieved, along with the fake enemies Cat holic and Protestant program launched based on false history they gave to the people, and the classic boogeyman/savior program. Catholics, Protestants are not your enemies, Protestants, Catholics are not your enemies, it is and always was the Church. Pilgrims were not fleeing the England church and state but were being corralled by the Zionist led Dutch movement, Christopher Columbus who to this day we are told founded America, why was it lost? did he rise the whole continent out of the water? like a turtle lol, he didn't find it at all, it was the next stage of the Roman Empire under the hospices of the Hebrewic Kali Ma movement, Columbus was also funded for that journey by the Vatican. They set up fake charities like the Salvation Army, Red Cross and Mother Theresa most of the funds where/are funnelled back to the Church. They went about during the 1500-1700 and possibly beyond, setting fire to the whole of Europe, all the major cities, something that is not well known, to destroy the history of Europe and it's peoples. The Vatican church was also the holder of all the Birth certificates and bonded us to them as chattel, then leveraged vast funds against those bonds called stocks, stocks are a bind term, and then looted our personal funds at age 7 when we were declared lost a sea, as in the Holy Sea. Burned several people alive during the alleged witches phase, but these were people exposing the church, the church is represented by a negative ET race with the fish hats the Dogon, and worships the even more negative race of ET's the serpents, check out the roof of the auditorium in the Vatican, check out the floor to ceiling bronze statue they state it is Jesus rising out of the nuclear ashes, how? when allegedly new tech nuclear bombs were started in 1940's, in fact it is not Jesus at all, it is a reptilian and part of the serpent race. They burnt alive one of sources teachers Anna in 1500's, they hunted down and murdered Mary Magdelene and one of her children, they hunted down and killed the real Jesus, Radomir. They changed the Easter festival from Ostara to Easter to disguise their pagan based diety. They wrote a story about the winter solstice into an Easter narrative, changed sun SUN into son SON, on December 21st the shortest day and the winter solstice, the sun goes down below the horizon for the next 3 days, behind the sun in the night sky is the constellation called the Southern Cross. The sun dips below the horizon for 3 days, so the sun died for 3 days on the cross, on December 25th the sun rises above the horizon and is "reborn". So the sun died for 3 days the 3 days of darkness and then was reborn and went into the heavens, sound familiar? They created all of your holidays which is holy day, all are pagan ritual sacrifice humans days to their fake gods. They were active in WW2 of undercover missions to destroy many people, particularly of Aryan descent, check out FRWL series for more details on that. Your recent popes, one was a gun runner for the junta in S. America, one sold cyanide to the Nazis, another was an SS officer, and no Nazis are not Germans by and large, they were Zionist Kali Ma's or the sub gray race. They burned books of anything that went against the narrative of the church, the burning was a ceremony only, they removed the vital books prior, and stored them now in Vatican library and under of house in Malta, Gallileo, Da Vinci and Copernicus were victims of their oppression. Protected by the Knights of Malta another thug based assassin group connected to the church. It was they who destroyed France with their Zionist based Franks and Merovingians, and they who worship the cat, which is the Cult of RA whose only purpose was the takeover of this planet and destruction of all humans, that is why they are called Cat holics. And people go to these Cat holic churches for spiritual or god based for morality, well being and a sense of servitude to their god, I am sorry but your were fooled big time, all religions and spiritual based practices connected to religion are all fake, and an external seeking of a fake god, when the real god Source is already inside of you, just waiting for you to tap into. All these messiahs and gods were all fake in every religion or spiritual based practice, Messiahs are ten a penny and basically ego based airheads declaring themselves above all others, no one is above anybody else, and I mean no one. A real messiah or god would not announce it, they are here to do a duty and help humanity, not stand around in crowds demanding servitude, sacrifices and all bow down to the great one, that is ego, the real Source would never ask that of you, ever.

As for all the offshoots like Baptist, Methodist, Puritan, Episcopal, Evangelical, Lutheran etc, they are all off shoots of the same church no matter which way you mask it, divide and conquer is the main tactic, then throw in problem, reaction and they provide us with the solution, they wanted, not what we wanted.

Mormons another but more direct version of the Cult of RA, like the Vatican has vast amounts of wealth stolen under false pretences, and sometimes use violence based threats to and from the followers. A fake religion based on some fake Egyptian plates that no one other than the creator and the writer of their manifesto ever saw. Egyptian symbolism everywhere, the main center is called a Temple, all Temples are ritual sacrifice centers for humans and animals. Heavily involved in pederasty and pedophilia, a fear based cult that demands 10-20% of your earnings or else you lose your job, contract or worse. An hedonistic and tantric based cult that involves a sexual free for all, involving pedophilia, incest and wife swapping, from an over view that is an energy harvesting tactic, but also has the propensity to spiritually degrade your vessel, due to having several sexual based cords connected to you via the sex act, moreso if it involves buggery.

Africa relies on varying ET based cultures like the Dogon that were predominant there, plus European based messiahs for the varying religions, like Rabbi Zavi and the other fake self created messiahs like Oskar Ernst Bernhardt, under the pen name Abd-ru-shin and his Grail Message doctrine, they come under misdirection and ego based practices. Then you have the Zionist sub gray element again in Ethiopia and neighboring countries, they have oppressed into following their cult based religion. Then we have the Mecca, based on the Sirius star system technology, that harvests the energy of all the people who pray to it several times a day, and as for the festival, oh dear, like the maypole festival all swirl around the pole in a retrograde motion creating the vortex for the harvesting of your energy, enlightenment my arse.

For evidence of how easy it is within a culture to create false gods, look no further than the Pacific Islands, for decades their gods were the US Military of all people, who dropped supplies for their soul diers in readiness for the next ritual sacrifice of humans during WW2, the natives saw them as the return of the gods in their fiery chariots, built replica planes long after Military left hoping for a return of the gods and supplies dropped from the air.

East and spiritual based practices we have covered recently rampant corruption, the Dalai Lama is a CIA agent, Hinduism, Jainism, Buddhism, chanting mantras, mandalas, Shiva, Vishnu and other deities of that region all fake. Massive looshfest harvesting involving tantric, siddhis and other so called spiritual based practices, again heavy use of messiah complex, using threats and intimidation, again the use of sexual based coercion, and some of the most barbaric ritual sacrifices the planet over. That involves mass human and animal sacrifice, including evidence of bestiality with the animals inside the temples, like I said all temples supposedly places of worship, yet is achieving it's main goal of harvesting your energy, and is a sacrifice center. This culture also denigrates, abuses and treats women as sex objects, things to abuse and second class citizens, just like the African and Middle East cultures. India alone sacrifices 7000 of their people per day, and where are all the morally superior, enlightened spiritualists stopping this carnage? nowhere is what, because their fake god said it was ok, wrong! the thing that needs sacrificing is these fake gods, fake angels arch or otherwise, and fake messiahs in all cultures, because then what is left is just you and source, the way life was meant to be.

India, Tibet and China with their spiritual based practices, add in America and their sing Kumbaya love and light and all will be well, does anyone not ask why so many in those 4 countries alone are suffering, dying, being sacrificed, like 900K children per year in America alone, yes you heard that right. There is starving, homeless and crime, if all these practices were righteous and real the world would be a much better place, the fact is once you snap out of your zombified amnesia, is the world is not a better place, if these practices all worked the world would be a better place, it's not. 80% of the planet or more are involved in some form of religion or spiritual practices. that allegedly teaches you all kinds of nice things and yet the planet is divided, violent, chaotic and the worse aspect, none caring, which god teaches you that? There is zero evidence it produces what it says it does, none, the evidence of darkness is all around you, and that program encompasses everything, and subsequently darkens everything. Their is a common trait throughout alt media and in particular Steven Greer and the Ancient Aliens sell out crew, that these gods or ET's all came for our development, and they gave us various technology and understanding, and yes that did take place, but all under contract, of which humans were oblivious too, it was a seducement just like the Draco did 16500 years ago, it was all very nice initially, then the mirror was moved sideways and the illusion was no more. Just like religions they have harvested, consumed, looshed, traded, trafficked and enslaved us, has anyone considered that perhaps religion and ET's are based on the same principles and practices? The answer if you research for yourself is yes, they are one and the same, and humans have been duped on a massive scale doing untold damage. Which group is the predominant in all the religions, in fact all religions stems from and were created by one group, that goes by several names Torah, Talmud are the books, both of which think humans are expendable slaves with the most heinous writing, directives and acts ever on this planet. They go by Hebrews, Israelites, Jesuits, Jews, sub gray, Zionists, Kali Ma, Cult of Ra, Annunaki and Annunaki Zionists, all of which comes under the Order of the Black Sun, who worship evil and death. And people want to go to their churches and temples? all who goes to their churches, temples and places of worship are participating, consenting to and condoning their evil practices, there are no ifs or buts, your inner weakness has allowed you to be duped and harvested, your focus on the external and ignoring the internal strength, abilities and source has allowed these hideous practices to go on for far too long, you are their battery, their life force energy, without you participating none of this would exist. But Thomas my church is not like that, it is, it is part of the system, but the church does good things, non thinking again, the people in the church did good things not the actual building or the movement, you did good things, stop externalizing it, it was you. 1. god never wrote a book 2. Jesus never wrote a book 3. Mohammad never wrote a book 4. deities never wrote a book 5. Yahweh never wrote a book 6. Lucifer or 7. Satan never wrote a book, the only ones who wrote books were disciples of the dark forces and evil.

Worship or is it war ship, described as a condition of being worthy, which is subservience for a start, defined as worthy because you follow the god who demands to be worshipped or idolized. Idol means image of a deity as an object of (pagan) worship, but an image is not real, it is only a copy. Source thinks your all worthy, fake gods think only they are. So wor is reference to worthy, then you add the D and becomes the word, add the M and it becomes the worm, original definition of worm was serpent, snake, dragon, reptile. Is the D or M added to word, the Draco and Marduk? Perhaps this line has a different meaning now or makes more sense " In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God." oops. The reference to ship as the vessel again, maritime law or mari time to be precise and no Mari is not Mary Magdelene either, Mari is another of their fake goddesses of doom and death. The picture of the Virgin Mary or Mari, derives from French and the term marionette which means a puppet worked by strings, so the Virgin Mary is a puppet, but who was pulling the strings?

Mumbo Jumbo is a term often used as babble and yet this is actually an African deity, name of an idol worshipped by certain tribes in Africa; said to be a corruption of words in Mandingo one reconstructed version is Mama Dyumbo, no references to the word Dyumbo, but one must ponder is this the African version of Kali Ma? Their king or deity was called Mansa Musa, which is depicted in art as having less toes than us and feet looking slightly webbed. Musa was a devout Muslim, and his pilgrimage to Mecca made him well known across northern Africa and the Middle East, only one problem for that is Musa went to the Mecca 1324-25 and the term Muslim did not come into the language until 1610, oops. Perhaps it meant he was Islamic, well that came after Muslim in 1747, Mohammad was 1610 also, Shi'ite nope 1725, their history talking a lot of shiite to me. Operating under the House of Keita, there is those houses and the letter K again, as a Mansa they had the powers to dispense justice, to monopolize trade and in particular gold which was prominent in the region of Mali, all sounds very Solomon to me. In almost eerily coincidental circumstances the term Mansa is the name for two towns and a state, two temples and a deva deity in? India. It is also the name of a Catholic diocese in Zambia, connecting the dots again.

Then we come to the word similar to Mansa of Mensa and they are linked in African terms, but Mensa is also known as the IQ test group which maybe symbolic of wheat and chaffe, perhaps we will see why. Mensa is a dim southern constellation that is visible near the south celestial pole between the constellations of Hydrus and Chamaeleon, Hydra and Chameleon are both reptile groups, and that constellation is held to be a representation of the Table Mountain in South Africa. The Table Mountain is a South African icon, and the only natural site on the planet to have a constellation of stars named after it, Mensa, meaning the table. So what type of table are we looking at? perhaps this helps, In Roman Catholicism Mensa means the top of the altar, altar means a sacrificial slab for burnt offerings, to honor by burning sacrifices to the gods. The top or central slab upon which the eucharistic elements are placed, Eucharistic elements are what? the sacrament of Holy Communion; the sacrifice of the Mass; the Lord's Supper. Oh dear the sacrifice of the Mass and the Lord's Supper, has so many connotations none of which are pleasant on the ears or the heart. Remember we are or were not top of the food chain.

Another word which I revoke all consent to future events being manifested by this word is Abracadabra, it is spell magic that not surprising came from Hebrewic origins, evra k'divra, meaning "I speak, therefore I create", and also has origin in what is described as a separate culture it's not, more illusion again, Aramaic, they use the word spell avad k'davra, meaning "it has perished like the plague", so it's a death spell.

Consecrate the act of separating from a common to a sacred use, ritual dedication to God, there is another word connected to consecrated in both German and Gothic that means consecrated and also holy, so the pie root of holy and consecrated is the word guile, which means deceit, wile, fraud, ruse, trickery, sorcery and witchcraft. Consecrate the act of separating from a common to a sacred use, ritual dedication to God, from that comes the word Inauguration perhaps the President sworn in ceremony has more meaning? from common to sacred use, except they don't count the people as sacred. Consecrate and make holy comes up again with the term to bless, Old English bletsian, bledsian, Northumbrian bloedsian "bless, to consecrate by a religious rite, make holy, give thanks," from Proto-Germanic *blodison "hallow with blood, mark with blood," from *blotham "blood". Originally a blood sprinkling on pagan altars. So a blessing was a sacrifice on an altar for pagans and the church. Given it is related to blood perhaps the word bless is a shortened version of bloodless, which is what happens after the sacrifice ritual. Consecrate and make holy comes up again from Gothic weihs "holy," German weihen "consecrate" with the term victim, which meant originally a living creature killed and offered as a sacrifice to a deity or supernatural power, or in the performance of a religious rite, rite religious observance or ceremony, which is where the term ritual comes from, rit you all, or in legal terms writ you all. When you add the word hood which is the soft head covering, to the words victim and priest, who are the hooded robe class and join them together, then perhaps you will understand where all your victim and victim hood stems from, the priests, these priesthoods also operate in the courts, but known moreso as judges, essentially they are high priest or priestesses and is the reason why they wear the robes. A public representative of the priest class there to be feared, with their shipping docks on land, replete with their freemasonic tool called the gavel, passing judgement just like the church, hynoptising just like the church with their spell binding dock u ments, which means ship of the mind, spellcasts abound just like the church with their gospels, pronounced go spells.

In light of the word prescription used earlier we have what is described as the placebo, said to be a blank based pill that convinces the body to cure anyway, which it can, a medicine given more to please than to benefit the patient called the placebo effect. Placebo meaning the name given to the rite of Vespers of the Office of the Dead, which essentially means the underworld. so called from the opening of the first antiphon, "I will please the Lord in the land of the living. oh dear Being bound by religiare this next phase of time will not serve you well.

You have survived all of that and are still standing? what a triumph over adversity that is, your goal was not to seek out a god, the object was to find yourself, and realize you all have Source inside of you, congratulations to all of you for getting this far. Living a lie with the majority of people in your life was stated this week, and yes it is correct. You have not been you, and you have accommodated them is the reality, the desire to fit in is a strong pull, but it is a damaging one for yourself and your soul, which requires you to be you and sovereign, not a copy and paste of others. We are the ice breakers, we went to the lowest depths on the journey of discovery, came back to the surface with samples, but society or the science of the people will not accept the evidence, and we ponder and wonder why, this can create reaction formation but we have to be careful where our energy goes. Sometimes people ponder on their own inner work a lot, that leads to over analysis, but Over-analysis is a form of denial, to overanalyze means that you have the correct answer but you refuse to accept it, then you go on searching for an answer you would prefer rather than accept the truth. Remember that the truth for one is not necessarily the truth for another, and that the truth has a tendency to drive you crazy just before it sets you free, perhaps what you once thought was craziness is simply what it takes to free yourself from outdated beliefs. You cannot expect others to know what you are thinking or feeling, or to understand your moods and bouts of secrecy. They may think you are on a different wavelength entirely, (which you are) You may be difficult to approach or comprehend, and this applies in vice versa also, but seeking an answer of what is wrong with people around you, becomes a lesson in over analysis and denial. Its not the case of giving up on them, unless they intrude upon, harvest or distract your path, it is just a case of letting them be, and focusing your energy on you, plus people in your same frequency and your future, you set the right frequency, they find you, but the pool is much thinner, and you have to accept that, it is lonely on the right hand path as too few make it. The left hand path of the letter N we covered recently where the Illuminated ones are at the top of that LEFT path, but that path has no gate, and the NWO they run is one of illusion, they think they are the top of a tree, but it is the Kaballah tree of death, they have to fall to then begin ascent to the right hand path and the open gate. They have no gate and perhaps the lesson for them is in their New World Order or NWO, perhaps Marduk was playing words with them, wouldn't put it past him as he took the piss daily, and NWO means No Way Out. Being bound by religiosity in this next phase of time will not serve you well. I will leave you with a few lines from a song that encompasses, right from wrong, the pain of separation, the loneliness being in a small pool, the pain of the two worlds and the promise of 2020 and it's visions. And when the broken-hearted people, Living in the world agree, There will be an answer, let it be, For though they may be parted. There is still a chance that they will see, There will be an answer, let it be.
