

THI-SHOW TRANSCRIPT 2020-01-09

I hope you all liked the End of year reviews, a small recap of the Thursdays show that largely left out the Must Listen to shows in many ways. Parts 1 to 4 revealed much of what has been going on the past year in what was a whirlwind of revelations, revealings and went deeper into many of the hidden narrative and world, mainly only available on this show, particularly the intel aspect. Part 5 was about us it laid out where all of the problems lay, and not just the 1% either, but all of us, once the finger points at everyone for blame, then solutions to the problems can be discussed, planned and applied. Some picked up on the one line of THI many not continue right through this year, ah will ya miss me? But that means other things have taken place and I am moving into some different hats that will still be based on what are doing. Part 5 revealed how all colors have blame, faults and issues of a lack of caring and looking after each other, never mind looking after other colors, I am glad to see many of you got a lot out of it.

Message of support and concerns for all the people of Australia and particularly those connected to THI, smacks of California to me. I suppose it was due, or was it DEW.

Following consultation with many members about a slight change for next few months in regards to the shows, and what will likely start from next Thursday is a live re-run of the From Russia with Love series 1 through to 8C. This will replace normal show which will be done every other week until series is completed. Added bits will be in each episode and also intel at the beginning if that crops up. So it will be a week of FRWL with intel and a week of normal shows alternating, every other week, I suspect many will get a lot more out of a FRWL re run as you all now have an expanded knowledge and understanding since that series. I suspect it may play a bigger role going forward, it is already now as it winds around the globe.

As the impeachment delay forecast on this show and why, Feinstein and other Demoncrats getting a bit pissy with Pelosi, she is stating she needs to know the rules of engagement before the trial, what utter bs that is Pelosi and you should be on trial for treason you utter biatch. wasting public money and stifling the government, somebody somewhere needs to do something with facelift central and quick.

A new Cobra interview has been conducted by Sisterhood of the Rose to bring more awareness of our Age of Aquarius activation. For those that remember FRWL 8C oh dear, Sisterhood of Anu essentially and dark witches from the Sirius group.

Thomas Williams not in a million years did I think I would hear Serbian Orthodox Priest talk your talk walk your walk ... how wrong was I In a wide awakening movement that is taking place across former Yugoslavia or rather Serbian people some priests are leading in “preaching” the truth. I wish there was English version. Lot of historical truth is coming out from archeological findings, historians who would not accept standard teachings, linguist, physicists army personnel engineers etc. That's great to hear, lots of people are covering aspects of our show now, which is why discredit clowns continue to play their failed agenda program. I see David Crayford who is legal counsel of the UN OITC has bought a Fisher Price spy kits as well, apparently THI is based in Glasgow UK, these people are stupid.

Voters being dis-enfranchised in Shasta County, California. no republican box to vote on the main voting page oh my who needs fake russian collusion when you have pelosi, feinstein and brown in one state, fascism dictatorship anyone, the same protagonists.

Whilst on New York why does this latest move not surprise me or will it surprise our members knowing the levels of criminality within that state. New state laws that came in January 1st and Bail reform category eliminations, which enables people to be released from custody for these crimes.

SUB INTEL Russian ship off East coast of America reported for acting suspicious, described by media as a spy ship, Russian ship off American coast is spy ship, NATO led ship off coast of Russia ignored or described as a security measure, or American ships in Straits of Hormuz or S. China Sea and media cries foul if ships there are challenged for being in other countries waters, why the inconsistencies?

Nearly 100 members of the MS-13 gang have been arrested as part of a New York takedown, WNYW reports. Officials say that 96 members of the violent gang were arrested as part of a two-year-long investigation. Suffolk District Attorney Timothy Sini says it is the largest in New York state history. A special grand jury indicted 45 gang members and 19 associates for murder conspiracies, drug trafficking, weapons possession and sales, gang violence and other offenses. The suspects, who ranged in age from 16 to 59, were a mix of U.S. citizens, legal residents, and illegal immigrants. "MS-13 is a ruthless, savage gang," Sini said at a news conference, pointing to a machete recovered by law enforcement. "They will attempt to recalibrate and send individuals to take up leadership roles in Suffolk County. That's why we have to stay vigilant."

In a Dec. 20 memo obtained by NBC News, Under Secretary of Defense for Intelligence Joseph Kernan and James Stewart, acting Under Secretary of Defense for Personnel and Readiness, said that DNA testing companies were targeting military members with discounts and other undisclosed incentives. "Tests that provide health information have varying levels of validity, and many are not reviewed by the Food and Drug Administration before they are offered," the memo said. The tests might be sold without independent confirmation of their claims, the officials said — a fact that poses more risk to military members than regular consumers. Inaccuracies could negatively affect the required disclosure of those members' medical information, the memo said. "Moreover, there is increased concern in the scientific community that outside parties are exploiting the use of genetic materials for questionable purposes, including mass surveillance and the ability to track individuals without their authorization or awareness," the memo said. The officials told military personnel to refrain from using the kits until otherwise notified. This is interesting and a possible sign the Pentagon is becoming aware of the wider hidden fun and games reported by the alt media.

Lawmakers on both sides of the aisle came away with vastly different interpretations of two classified briefings that top administration officials held on Wednesday about the airstrike last week that killed top Iranian General Qassem Soleimani. Speaking alongside Sen. Rand Paul, R-Ky., Sen. Mike Lee, R-Utah, said, "I had hoped and expected to receive more information outlining the legal, factual and moral justification for the attack and left somewhat unsatisfied on that front." He added, "it was probably the worst briefing I've seen at least on a military issue in the nine years I've served in the United States Senate." "I find this insulting and demeaning," he said. No what is insulting and demeaning is these lawyers have a say at all, as under the Constitution they are legally not allowed in Office, Lawyers operate under Bar and subsequently classed as a title of nobility, title of nobility? I haven't seen anything noble from any of them.

INTEL Latest clownery is NESARA is happening January or February this year, err that will be a no, not happening, neither is St. Germaine Trust, neither existed. Clowns also pulled off a fake RV which had no pay out as there is no funds, Kim reversed it all out and then... All the money borrowed by The Black Sun and Rothschild on behalf of the militaries, agencies, UN, World Bank, IMF, Fed, Central Banks worldwide for last 500 years that the trust bought and paid for, was called in. All bonds, treasuries, central bank bonds and the likes, that the Trust funded against, including the bonds against birth certificates were also called on new years eve. Either the debtor which is the banks, agencies or central banks need to pay up, or they need to get The black sun or Rothschild to pay on their behalf. They have until Friday at 5pm to figure it out. If they don't pay, then there is the issue that the military or agency or central bank it will be paid out of X country government fund (such as Republic of United States fund), the fund will pay off the debt, but that will return ownership of said military or agency or central bank to its respective government, in other words those entities will be Nationalised, no longer private entities. If a private bank such as JPMorgan, Wells Fargo, Deutsche bank or Bank of America, those organizations and their notes will be paid by the American people's national debt relief fund and the American people will own the bank stock, all filed properly with SEC. In the case of Deutsche bank Germany, that will come out of the German people's fund...in case of Sberbank Russian people's fund, HSBC, China people's fund and so on, but those banks will be owned by the peoples of the respective countries. We can then re-negotiate all lending terms with all banks that are owned by the people, including who runs it, essentially it turns that bank into a cooperative bank and all the people have shares in it, bye bye greedy CEO's and Management.

The total amount of debt being called world wide is about $16.8 quadrillion. So pay up black sun empire or Rothschild...congratulations on your reverse rv....only way to win the game is not to play and we are playing our own game of chess...your move.

This is a piece written on a media site, House Speaker Nancy Pelosi isn't just condemning President Trump's decision to (rightfully) take out Iranian terrorist leader Qassem Soleimani, she's submitting a resolution to tie his hands in the future. In other words, she's attempting to limit President Trump's ability to protect Americans, at home and abroad, from Iranian terrorists planning lethal attacks. "Last week, the Trump Administration conducted a provocative and disproportionate military airstrike targeting high-level Iranian military officials," Pelosi wrote in a letter to her Democrat colleagues, falsely painting Iran as the victim of U.S. aggression. "This week, the House will introduce and vote on a War Powers Resolution to limit the President' military actions regarding Iran. This resolution is similar to the resolution introduced by Senate Tim Kaine in the Senate. It reasserts Congress's long-established oversight responsibilities by mandating that if no further Congressional action is taken, the Administration's military hostilities with regard to Iran cease within 30 days." President Trump's decision to take out Soleimani, along with Abu Mahdi al-Muhandis, was a defensive action against an imminent threat in the aftermath of a U.S. Embassy attack in Baghdad. Considering Soleimani's plans to launch attacks throughout Syria, Lebanon and Iraq against American targets, the strike was proportional.

Now for the real issue behind that strike, Soleimani was a Red dragon disciple, that has nothing to do with that clown on the internet, the fake ambassador. For those of you who have seen the pictures of his demise online, which was a security breach and will be dealt with, Soleimani wore a ruby red ring, that is signifying he was a part of the Red Dragon group. Mr. Soleimani has been replaced and a deal has been made with that person and it will all be over soon, it will not escalate like the portal people are making out. Their posturing and fear porn is beyond pathetic now, their lies, twists and spins making them look exactly what they are, treasonous anti human slimeballs.

The US embassy attack in Baghdad on December 31st was ordered by General Mattis, designed to provoke more conflict and force The President and others, to attack another fake enemy target. I will repeat that again General Mattis ordered an attack on our own Embassy, for those with the right clearance go and check it for yourselves, how and why is that allowed? This is the same guy who was involved in trying to take out The President twelve months ago, Generals gathered in the masses or will Generals gather in the Mattis? Drag Pompeo and Kushner in with him imo.

Then we had the alleged retaliation fired on the Iraqi base housing US troops that miraculously killed no one, 22 missiles and no one injured or dead? and even more miraculously it was not detected by the so called most sophisticated surveillance and shielding systems, and no anti missile weapons were launched to block alleged incoming missiles. The media of course showed footage and then saying the takeoff of missiles was from Iran and landed on Iraqi base, but providing no actual proof, which is the key, showing something taking off and announcing it was in Iran, doesn't constitute proof. No one asks how did they know it was in Iran, and if they did, why wasn't anti missiles launched to stop it? Reality was it was another staged event 100%.

There is heavy chatter of the Rothschild will be announcing shortly a full cancellation of the program known as the RV.

Yet again clowns are planning some ritual event between 10-17th January and yet again we have a call on alt media for mass meditation at the same time period, spread the love and light yourselves, shine your beacons and a message of no consent during those days.

The new word on the block which was hinted at for you to prepare for in Part 5 is desperation, sheer panic ensues now as operation self protection and preservation mode sinks in with the former control system. This panic and desperation will not go away for quite a few weeks, maybe months, but there is a potential for the end game to unfold in late February, like I said it is a potential, but perhaps you can all use your manifest skills to push that along. Cautious optimism hangs in the air on many levels now, but we always have to beware of a cornered beast, and a propensity to strike out as a last measure, from our point of view we are ready for that, and will be important you all prepare for all eventualities, which has possibilities of bank failures, war and disruption as the dying beast lashes back. In my opinion it will be a futile exercise they know they have lost, and they are desperate for a way out or back, those doors or gates will be closed to them, but we must always be prepared. Black sun minions have figured out there is no destroyer no extinction level event which they were promised and working towards, and no one is coming to pick them up. oops. Another group who perhaps would have been better listening to our show, been telling people who would hear that since 2013.

They are left here to lie in their own steaming pile of mess, they created for themselves and will ultimately fail, which Kim also told them all along. There was a very old plan of the light forces to trap all the darkness in one region of space and not let them out, many of the original old souls darkened by their poor choices and actions became trapped here within their own construct.

Update on the Revocation, that was a tremendous success it was the quietest harvesting period ever, which then led to more work being done to tip the balance of power further. We spoke of the 7 days between the 21st to 28th December last year being a key factor of time, for the light and dark. Much work was achieved by the light forces in terms of prevention of actions and also counteractions led to the elimination of the leader of The Order of the Black Sun known as the Dark Prince, that took place on the final day December 28th, that has triggered much of the behind the scenes mayhem that has unfolded since. The Dark Prince we are reliably informed was one of The Parents and we were led to believe he left back in 2016, I was told he was gone, but appears that term was double edged and part riddle, no surprise given the source at the time, he was only male left out of the last 10 of them, well now he is no more for definite. The next three in line to replace him realized their whole plan was not going to work and all three have quit. So now their Destroyer, Dark Prince, Marduk and Anu are all gone, so has their plans, they have no plan only a desire to stay in control of their own illusion, particularly since 2012, reality was they lost back in 2003, but one could argue for it being 1996 also, by the end of 2012 that was confirmed, what followed was a clean up operation of behind the scenes characters, the majority of which people had no clue about, that is the inner war, clean up of outer war may burst forth in the near future.

With the unnatural black hole in our Universe also gone now, a natural black hole has a white hole on the other side and is another Universe for evolution of galaxies, stars, planets and life. With that gone we expect now for the first time in aeons new growth to come into this Universe, it will expand not contract, maybe a return of what was here in the past, to herald the arrival of that and other things. A new star will appear in the night sky, if visible it will be between Sirius and Orion and low down. Keep checking the moon what couldn't be seen can now potentially be seen.

Restructuring is going on within the hierarchy currently, following a spate of deaths on Tuesday within the Black Sun and Rothschild's groups, none of whom would be known within the public circles. The war between them two will rumble for quite a bit, much focus on Iran not having a Rothschild's bank, that is because it is ran by the Black Sun, eventually all banks will be out of the hands of the harvesters and the world can move on in a more transparent and fairer way. That war has and will get ugly, both are evil and neither can be redeemed, their fight is over the illusion they are still in control, what these people don't get is, whoever wins out of that duel will be known as the lead group of losers, it's like a 3rd and 4th place play off game, it has no point or purpose, not that they will see it that way, like I said those people and in some cases not, cannot be redeemed. Expect a lot of chaos, of the good and bad variety as the transition of power is shifting and underway. Langley is restructuring as I understand, which will improve something's and also will be part of the shift, phasing in and phasing out process.

Hottest word on the lips of many this week was The Trust in a more favorable light or option, so we'll see how it all unfolds.

Kim never stated that the funds will be coming out soon or in 2 weeks, the funds will be out when it is out and will be officially announced when it is done, not before.

With all that being said and the restructuring going on for the various representatives of the old system, I am requesting a member of the public engaged in the alt media, preferably out of THI as our members know a lot more of the hidden world than other groups, to be a people based representative in all meetings for balance in all countries. This planet is designated to be operated and looked after by humans, the previous regimes that all failed had military, agencies puppet politicians and families all representing themselves, their rogue paymaster groups and not humanity. We should not and cannot let the same organizations chart the path for our future, mired in dogma, mind control and following the dark agenda scripts, it failed and we don't intend to fail by allowing them to repeat it. To bring balance we need the average person out of the community, that is not agency or faction based, involved in high level meetings and discussions as a representative of We the people in all the countries, this hopefully will bring some common sense into the proceedings, it is time the people had a voice and say in things, not just the system.

OP-ED Use of GMO in cotton To my knowledge (heard from sources in Mali and Burkina Faso), Burkina Faso has stopped using GMO Cotton seeds. However, Kenya just gave the green light for it: “KENYA: The government makes a landmark decision of approving genetically modified or Bt cotton. This resolution does not specifically address Kenya’s 2012 ban on GM crops, but moratorium is essentially over, because the cabinet memo says that other GMO's will be considered on a case by case basis, according to Kenya Agricultural Research Institute (KALRO).” Pascal Murasira continued: “According to KALRO, Bt cotton has a potential to increase income in the textile industry from the current Sh3.5 billion to Sh2 Trillion by 2022 and create 500,000 cotton jobs and 100,000 new jobs in cloth making. The once-thriving cotton industry collapsed between the late 1980s and 90s after the liberalization of the agriculture sector following introduction of SAPs by The World Bank and International Monetary Fund.”

GDP in Africa On LinkedIn Pascal Murasira wrote: “Didyouknow In 1994, Africa was poorer than it was in 1974? Per-capita GDP, as measured in constant US dollars, was $1,166 in 1994 while in 1974, it was $1,531. Some economists blame structural adjustment programmes imposed by International Monetary Fund and the The World Bank for causing this decline. The belt-tightening programmes emphasised the short term, to the detriment of investments in education, health and agriculture. This short-termism combined with weak institutions inherited from colonialism created a conducive environment for corrupt leaders to flourish, further worsening the situation. In the last 25 years, Africa has been slowly but steadily recovering from the lost years, with the per-capita GDP reaching $1,657 in 2018. With the population set to explode in the coming decades, the current rate of economic progress is still far from enough. The task ahead for African leaders is to rethink growth from scratch and test unconventional ideas that democratize opportunities for all. Simply imitating what worked in Asia won't save the masses from a hard life, as the geopolitical conditions are different today than they were 50 years ago when Africa screwed up while the rest of the world saw relentless progress.” Infograph as in the File ‘Africa-stats’ based on WB and FAO was used (as attached). The role of IMF and WB and their Structural adjustment Programmes were already questioned and played out in a informal court in the movie ‘Bamako’ (2006). We did watched the movie again some weeks ago and some of the remarks made in the movie could and should be made again today.

Investment in chemical fertilizer Information from a person whom I met in Ghana. He is very worried about the completion of the largest chemical (inorganic) fertilizer plant in Africa that will indeed on one hand enhance production of crop production on the short term, but will destroy the earth as well if it is not well applied with sufficient amounts of organic matter. In my past life as soil scientist I've never seen that land fertilized with chemical fertilizer will maintain a nutrients balance (i.e. outputs of nutrients equals inputs). There is always more nutrients exported from the soil that applied ! In Guineau Conakry part of a region is destroyed by fertilizers in the past, and now regenerative measures are desperately needed. Here rethinking is also needed for safe keeping agricultural production in the future.

As the year ends here is an update about Africa's biggest petrochemical fertilizer factory: So the main component which is the world's biggest crude oil distillation train (tower) has been shipped to site and successfully installed this month December. This is what was mainly causing the delay therefore production of raw materials and fertilizer is possible to begin next year!

With the project's stated capacity, pace, and concessions the future quality of soil, food, and natural water reservoirs in West Africa and even Africa as a whole is looking very bleak in reality.

Although very challenging times, we will still enter and face the coming year with hope and determination, see photo of cup with algae that you can drink safely by the way.

More than half of sub-Saharan Africans lack access to electricity. Africa will require an unprecedented effort to meet the UN's target of electricity for all by 2030. In most parts of the world energy demand is growing too quickly to keep greenhouse-gas emissions within international targets, according to a report released today by the International Energy Agency, a think-tank. Many in Africa, however, worry about the opposite problem: the acute shortage of electricity. The continent is home to almost a fifth of the world's population, but accounts for less than 4% of global electricity use. North Africa enjoys near-universal access to electricity, yet more than half of the sub-Saharan population—600m people—live in the dark

In a special broadcast today, Kevin Annett and the Provisional Council for the Republic of Kanata issued an announcement regarding three important events over the coming month.

1. Here We Stand, the public voice of the Republic of Kanata, will resume its live blog radio broadcasts this Sunday, January 5 at 3 pm pacific, 6 pm eastern time. This hour long interactive program features the front line fighters who are stopping crimes against humanity and creating a new society from the grassroots. Tune in at that hour this and every Sunday at www.bbsradio.com/herewestand (all previous shows are archived at this site).

2. On January 15, 2020 - the fifth anniversary of the establishment of the Republic of Kanata - three new Citizenship Training Schools will be convened by the Republic in Vancouver, Winnipeg and Toronto. The two-week long school will educate, train and accredit new citizens and Republic officers with the tools they need to reclaim the nation and build the Republic of Kanata in their communities. To enroll in the school or to take out citizenship in the Republic, write to republicofkanata@gmail.com or thecommonland@gmail.com.

3. On January 23, 2020 - the twenty fifth anniversary of the firing without cause of Kevin Annett by the criminally convicted United Church of Canada - Kevin will convene a global press conference at a location and time to be announced. At that event, Kevin will be announcing a new series of actions to resurface the history of ongoing genocidal crimes by Church, State and Corporations in Canada and to prosecute those individuals and groups responsible.

Something came to me whilst pondering the other day, we have heard a lot from certain alt media people about the simulation, and how we are all trapped in it like a giant Simms game. Whilst there are bots, synths etc on this planet I don't believe the Simulation per se exists, but people with the propensity to use distraction elements and not face reality, will continue to peddle this theory, fine, far be it from me to disturb their illusion. I took part in what was a private group behind CV with Drake, Tanaath, Sunfire, Wolfy, Tom Simms, Andrew Simmons and a few others who were not in there because of abilities, but just hangers on. Now apart from Drake all the others mentioned were heavily into the World of Warcraft and other video based games, the other common theme those 5 had is, they all went to varying degrees badly off the rails, depressive and suicidal in some cases, none of them remained on what was alleged their true path of the light forces, and some went very dark indeed, which is why I withdrew from the group. The question to ponder is, did the video games cause them to lose it? The second question to ponder is, are video games creating a variant of a simulation for humans? evidence with the VI or VR technology points towards this does it not? The damage via mind control all those video games have is bad enough, it upsets the rhythm of the heart and also the neurons of the brain, as it encapsulates you via prolonged attention spans, in another reality for ridiculous lengths of time, that leads to full on changes within your vessel, but the question remains are they leading humans into a simulation world?

Yet eventually it will hit a constraint: The U.S. will run out of people to join the workforce. Indeed, this bright cyclical picture for the labor market is on a collision course with a dimming demographic outlook. While jobs are growing faster than expected, population is growing more slowly. In July of last year, the number of Americans stood at 327 million, 2.1 million fewer than the Census Bureau predicted in 2014 and 7.8 million fewer than it predicted in 2008. (Figures for 2019 will be released at the end of the month.) The U.S. fertility rate—the number of children each woman can be expected to have over her lifetime—has dropped from 2.1 in 2007 to 1.7 in 2018, the lowest on record. From 2010 through 2018, there were 3 million fewer births and 171,000 more deaths than the Census Bureau had projected in 2008. Death rates, already rising because the population is older, have been pressured further by “deaths of despair”—suicide, drug overdoses and alcohol-related illness.

The CIA's Remote Devices Branch's UMBRAGE group collects and maintains a substantial library of attack techniques 'stolen' from malware produced in other states including the Russian Federation. With UMBRAGE and related projects the CIA cannot only increase its total number of attack types but also misdirect attribution by leaving behind the "fingerprints" of the groups that the attack techniques were stolen from. UMBRAGE components cover keyloggers, password collection, webcam capture, data destruction, persistence, privilege escalation, stealth, anti-virus (PSP) avoidance and survey techniques. "Fingerprints" are meaningless. It's now clear that the CIA is able to "pose" as "Russian hackers" whenever it so chooses.

Some figures from Down Under. It has now been 12 months since gun owners in Australia were forced by a new law to surrender 640,381 personal firearms to be destroyed by our own government, a program costing Australia taxpayers more than $500 million dollars. The first year results are now in: Australia-wide, homicides are up 6.2 percent, Australia-wide, assaults are up 9.6 percent; Australia-wide, armed robberies are up 44 percent (yes, 44 percent)! In the state of Victoria.....alone, homicides with firearms are now up 300 percent.(Note that while the law-abiding citizens turned them in, the criminals did not and criminals still possess their guns!) While figures over the previous 25 years showed a steady decrease in armed robbery with firearms, this has changed drastically upward in the past 12 months, since the criminals now are guaranteed that their prey is unarmed. There has also been a dramatic increase in break-ins and assaults of the elderly, while the resident is at home.

Given all of that it is perhaps not surprising to learn that policemen in Tampa Florida are now undergoing “holocaust training,” sponsored by the Anti-Defamation League. Conveniently, there is a holocaust museum located just down the road in St. Petersburg where the first group of officers was taken, since when has that organization become the must go to for training. Actually it is not training it is brainwashing. They are being sent to Mossad based police training schools also which is just a subsidiary of the British SAS they even have the same or similar badge. So why are they being sent there? to be trained in cold hearted programs is what, SAS, ISIS which is Israeli Secret Intelligence Services, Blackwater, XI, P2 Lodge, CIA are all trained assassins, The Black Sun version is know as The Order of the Assassins, they remove targets by any means necessary and collateral damage is just one of those things. These are cold hearted killers, incapable of reasoning or empathy which is why they do that job, and they are passing that training onto our police forces whose sense of superiority over everyone else is already off the charts. Because in their world badges are important and that makes you superior to everyone, in my world those badges are more carrots for jackasses.

Zionist based Jewish groups in the United States are adept at creating mechanisms that benefit themselves, and also frequently Israel at the expense of the American taxpayer. The proliferating holocaust museums are a good example, sometimes built by private donations but then paid for and operated by the local government, the national holocaust museum in Washington is, for example, supported by the taxpayer to the tune of $54 million per year. When one considers that the so-called holocaust occurred nearly eighty years ago and did not involve the United States at all, it is a remarkable achievement to so memorialize the claimed uniqueness of Jewish suffering, which then is used to justify other abuses and excuse Israel's ongoing war crimes. For those who deny that claims of the uniqueness of Jewish suffering are exploited, and even promoted in order to be able to influence public opinion, while also obtaining special favors from government, one might cite specific instances where that has most definitely been the case. Jewish organizations receive over 90% of discretionary grants from the Department of Homeland Security, for example, and Israel benefits from $3.8 billion in aid annually plus another $10 billion through bogus charities, trade concessions and U.S. government funded projects, approved by Congress that the American public knows little or nothing about, and is benefiting Jews worldwide is also part of the agenda. Apart from the creation of the state of Israel itself, which was opposed by most of the U.S. foreign policy establishment, the first major effort to condition U.S. foreign policy to benefit Jews specifically came with the Jackson-Vanik Amendment of 1975, which made some aspects of relations with the Soviet Union conditional on that country's willingness to let Jews emigrate. Far more outrageous was the so-called Lautenberg Amendment enshrined in the 1990 Public Law 101-167, that granted refugee status to Russian Jews even though, they were not actually being persecuted or in any way endangered. The refugee status is significant as it provided food stamps, housing, social security, Medicaid and educational benefits along with a free ticket into the U.S. to an "estimated...350,000 to 400,000 Jews [who] entered the United States ..." Remember isRAel was ultimately classed as a British enclave, which is why the SAS trained the israeli special forces, and is a subsidiary of The Crown, and ultimately was a cash collection scheme and also designed to weaken financially America, all about control you see, so we can't blame Jewish people for that, it was designed by the old system to crush America. But what has to happen is, a complete financial restructuring of this country and end foreign aid until American people are given back some of what was stolen from them.

The notion of establishing a memorial in the historical Jewish homeland for Jewish victims of the Nazi Holocaust was conceived during World War II, as a response to reports of the mass murder of Jews in Nazi-occupied countries. Yad Vashem was first proposed in September 1942, at a board meeting of the Jewish National Fund, by Mordecai Shenhavi, a member of Kibbutz Mishmar Ha'emek. In August 1945, the plan was discussed in greater detail at a Zionist meeting in London. So, there you have it FRWL proven correct again, this was all pre-planned by the Zionists to get the world to pay them over and over again for their alleged suffering, because according to them it appears no one else on the planet died or suffered, and if you think for one second they are interested in the plight of Jewish people then or now, your not thinking straight, this is another slush fund to propagate their agenda of world domination using fear, trauma and diversion tactics as a front to dupe the world. But then some quotes out of The Talmud will make sense of why they think that way. That the Jewish nation is the only nation selected by God, remember the real meaning of nation is not country but a race, while all the remaining ones are contemptible and hateful.

That all property of other nations belongs to the Jewish nation, which consequently is entitled to seize upon it without any scruples. An orthodox Jew is not bound to observe principles of morality towards people of other tribes. He may act contrary to morality, if profitable to himself or to Jews in general. If a goy killed a goy or a Jew he is responsible, but if a Jew killed a goy he is not responsible.

When the Messiah comes every Jew will have 2800 slaves. Extermination of the Christians is a necessary sacrifice.

Even the best of the Goyim (Gentiles) should be killed.

Jehovah who is Yahweh, created the non-Jew in human form so that the Jew would not have to be served by beasts. The non-Jew is consequently an animal in human form, and condemned to serve the Jew day and night.

A boy-goy after nine years and one day old, and a girl after three years and one day old, are considered filthy. After those ages are past it is ok to sexually use and abuse those children, this is known within the circle as pedistry, glorified pedophilia. That is just a small sample of their rhetoric and ideals, the Torah is the watered down version, and I don't believe for one second that the average Jewish person thinks that way, like I have said they were blind puppets to the whole program.

Following many requests for the Jewish people to step up I am pleased to be shown a number of examples on a recent FB post. Given what is going on in Iran and Iraq plus Yemen, then throw in recent piece by senator Tlaib talking about making America all Muslim, all these on the face of it can seem random, they are not. Who gains by attacking Iran, who gains by making America look bullies, who gains by stating an inflammatory comment, which is not an opinion of Tlaib but an agency based scripted tactic, the old system caliphate of isRAel, that has nothing to do with books or religions but a dark forces old system plot, that has gone on for thousands of years. Tlaib like her boss Obama, despite being Muslim are setting the Muslim people up for destruction on a war based level and turning ignorant people against the Muslims, like prophesized back in 1880's. It is important people recognize it as a program, it should not be a tool to turn on Muslims, Countries or regions, learn to see behind the mirror and smokescreen, it will always bring you to the truth.

I thought I had saw an end to the nonsense in alt media of people doing memes against immigrants, illegal or otherwise into America. It is beyond ridiculous, this whole country was built on and by immigrants, otherwise you would all still be in tepee's. How quickly people forget their ancestors role in coming here from most countries around the world, many from very poor countries who still live in abject poverty and squalor, to turn around and say we don't want foreigners in our country. 1. it is not your country, the world belongs to everyone, not people contained within lines on a piece of paper called a map, or was it an M app? 2. that is service to self and fascism, and following MSM created scripts, not as awake as they thought they were, clearly 3. perhaps we should run a program of those who don't wish to share the planet, and do a life and country swap with those spewing that nonsense, with someone from a poor country, perhaps then they may think beyond their tiny brain cells and get some perspective on life and 4. is a question, how can you be illegal on your own planet? 5. I myself is technically an immigrant as I still hold British passport, should I be deported for not being born here? Thinkdifferent.

The ugly road and program of racism, that this show has campaigned against heavily this year, as the portal people and agency think tank clowns state racism is only done by one color, when evidence is overwhelming that all participate in it, and it is something we can all address. Given this is a soccer based piece, and there is much being said back in the UK about the crowd abusing black players which is completely unacceptable, but what is overlooked in this one track, one thought based narrative is, all groups get abused in some way during a soccer game, and yet curiously that is overlooked. Those born in Liverpool are called Scousers, a pointer to the Irish contingent in the region, most of which were those left behind from the white slave trade out of Liverpool to New York, Scousers are not popular with most other regions of the country and rival teams often sing anti Scouse songs openly and very audible on the tv, from songs about being thieves to celebrating that we are a poverty based region, plus more colorful language and descriptions of us, and yet no one stops and thinks of that as being racist against the people of Liverpool? To use a Hillary term, what is the difference? The difference is the authorities made one an agenda, and don't think for one minute they are interested in protecting black players or people, this is part of the Israel Cohen program initiated in 1912, where he said "We must realize that our party's most powerful weapon is racial tensions. By propounding into the consciousness of the dark races that for centuries they have been oppressed by whites, we can mold them into the program of The Communist party. We will invest to instill in the whites a guilt complex over their exploitation of the negroes. We will aid the negroes to rise in prominence in every walk of life" It is all there right in your face, that program has and is still playing out, designed to get the white and black communities fighting each other, whilst the hidden hand behind it plays both sides and laughs at us. THInk different.

Moshe Hogeg is a man on a mission. He's made millions as an entrepreneur in the technology sector, and in August last year he splashed out on a football club. It wasn't any old club, it was Beitar Jerusalem, one of Israel's top sides but one which was best known for its anti-Arab, anti-Muslim bias and for its violent, racist supporters. The challenge he set himself was to turn it around, to change the club's narrative. The results have been startling. It's a Wednesday night at the Teddy Stadium, the ground sandwiched between a busy road and a shopping mall. This is home to Beitar Jerusalem, arguably the biggest club in Israel with historic political ties to the right-wing Likud Party, and one that has never signed an Israeli Arab player. Sections of the crowd would regularly scream 'Death to Arabs'; their banners read 'Forever Pure'. It was a huge problem which previous owners tried to address, but none has been as successful as Moshe Hogeg. His strategy from the outset was to confront the issue head on. There was a fire at Beitar soccer ground in February 2013, when police said arsonists torched the club offices over the signing of two Muslim footballers from Chechnya. "I have zero tolerance for racism," he says. "Absolutely zero. And my reaction towards racism is not proportional. You shout one racist comment and I will sue you for a million dollars." You see this racism is not one way as I have stated previously, those fans could do with finding out some real truth in the FRWL series, and kudos to Mr. Hogeg for trying to address the problem, whilst we all remain divided the dark forces will still play us, just quit it.

A group of international exorcists has raised the alarm about a new children's book teaching kids how to interact with and summon demons, saying the publication is not only a spiritual threat, but is a disguised attempt to lure young people into satanism. "You don't mess around with demons. Whoever invites a child to summon a demon is like a person who puts a grenade in their hands to play with. Sooner or later the child will pull the pin and the bomb will explode in their hands," the International Association of Exorcists said in a statement last week. "Whoever invites a child to summon a demon is telling them that it's possible to get help from a criminal to get something. Whoever invites a child to summon a demon is causing them to lose their identity and to be morally, psychologically and spiritually destroyed," they said, adding that those who invite children to summon demons are already "an 'ally' of the demons." The statement, released Dec. 11 and signed by Father Francesco Bamonte, president of the association, was in reference to a new children's book titled, A Children's Book of Demons. Published in May, the book is directed to children aged 5-10 and was penned by Aaron Leighton, an award-winning illustrator and known fan of occult practices.

"Don't want to take out the trash tonight? Maybe you're swimming in homework? Perhaps that big bully is being a real drag? Well grab your coloured pencils and sigil drawing skills and dial up some demons! This paranormal parody is filled to the brim with funny spirits more silly than scary!" Several websites carrying the book have described it as a "playful guide" that allows readers, most of whom will presumably be children, to conjure "gentle demons" by drawing their "sigil," or magical symbol, after they wake up in the mornings. Decked with colorful images of some 20 different demons, the book urges children to summon these dark creatures in order to do everything from making themselves sick in order to get out of school and eat ice cream all day, to hypnotizing others and giving themselves "genius-level" smartness. Wells the Fargo are these people smoking, getting children to call in the demons, all very King Solomon that to me. Not content with getting a truant child to push their fake agendas globally, or promoting LGBTQ to children, force vaccinations without parents knowledge or consent, now it is lets call in the demons. These people are completely sick and no surprise it was a member of the Church promoting it, it is indicative and also further proof of FRWL series. The point of all this is you can no longer trust Church people, doctors, politicians, teachers and schools, the CPS, Social Services, the justice system or the police, as all but a small handful of them have little to no idea of what they are doing, which is running an agenda on the people. Parents have to take more responsibility of where they put their children, and whoever else goes near them, their old system is as corrupt as it comes, ran by people oblivious to what is going on. You have all seen and heard the evidence now and a full on movement to protect our children away from agenda driven programs and other more heinous exploitation of our children.

This is an excerpt of a much larger piece that debated the issues of who was Yahweh. "Much of the scholarship of Sitchin is very good and his books have always been really interesting. However, his claim that Enlil is the Sumerian precursor of Yahweh is total nonsense. Why did Sitchin claim something so absurd with regards to the identity of the Hebrew god in spite of having done such a painstaking job when it came to the history of the other ancient gods? The answer could be quite displeasing for many of his fans. We have to take into account that Sitchin could have had his prejudices and hidden motives just like any other author. Let's remember that Sitchin was a Jew, educated in a Jewish school in Palestine, and even claimed in one of his books that Yahweh was his god. Here we see the alliances of Sitchin very clearly. Sitchin was a member of the people of Anu and acknowledged Judaism, the original Anuist cult, as his own religion. In the end, Sitchin worked for Anu." That last part is correct Anu and family were the origin of the known as Jewish religion, it is not Jewish it is a reptile religion, of which all other religions were created from, for their divide and conquer games. Remember Anu who was the Lord in the Bible, not Jesus, said let us go down and scatter the people incase the coalesce and work together, his religion was a way to do that. Anu in the Upper Order circles was known as Grandfather, this is in relation to their leader at the time Marduk, and Anu was his grandfather, Uncle was another term they used that was Enlil, and the Father was Enki.

Things are unfolding and if you took the intention and meaning behind elements of Part 5 into your acceptance, you will gauge it is all your time to step up, not mine. I don't want you to get bogged down in thinking you are not good enough, or worthy enough to lead the life of yours and our dreams. I don't want us to feel that the nightmares of our past, mean we are disqualified from having a brighter, and more meaningful future. The issue of accepting praise and recognition for things you have done or achieved came up this week, and our reluctance in many ways to accept it, particularly the introverts, which is the most common trait in this group. Extraverts demand that praise, as they cover up weaknesses within, like the Globe awards people, all giving each other awards to stay relevant and appease their egos, but introverts are different and struggle to accept praise, we have to learn to balance that aspect, as readily as we accept the flak and abuse. We have all dragged each other down in so many ways, that has to be changed going forward and to elevate each other. I want to see you all become the leaders of your own lives, and leaders of THI & TPC, and I want us to all become the truest and most courageous version of ourselves. I would like you all to be flexible in terms of your decision making, living arrangements, whereby you are willing to be the change, not wait for the change to fall into your comfort zone. It may require you moving to be where you need to be, that is being the change and changing your timeline. We all have wounds, we have all experienced traumas, and reaching a level of acceptance with this, and knowing that despite it all we can all be whole again and flourish, that is the pathway to healing under and within this energy field. We don't need to wear our wounds as a badge of honor, it has not served us well, allowed low vibrations and victimhood to flourish, we didn't need those either. Instead we can just allow them to become part of who we are, integrating it and it becomes not who we are, but who we were, from there you create your own blueprint for your life, and then onto the collective. You will be guided to reach new levels of self-acceptance like never before, provided you are open and in acceptance. We can allow them guides and intuitions to lift us and guide us to become more compassionate, more caring, more trusting more loving people, and far more authentic than we have been previously. Stay safe, stay strong, stay prepared and never let anyone put you in fear.
