

THI-SHOW TRANSCRIPT 2020-02-06

I am preparing a sequel show to the last show on Saturday, you are not 1's and 0's you are the light, which adds to my workload but it is what it is, so look forward to that coming out, not as intense as Part 1 but still goes deep into many things including some new fields. Tonight's show covers a lot of our current ills of people not thinking before speaking or writing, people falling for the several divisive programs ran on us globally, who are doing it and a warning of what is to come, we at THI have put extensive hours in to negate those divisive programs and prepare us for this time and our future. Then we come to the other end of the spectrum, people acting important not doing important work, there is a difference and an important one to grasp, alas some see it as an opportunity to challenge people, they perceive as being in more important positions than them, and insert themselves into situations for their own self importance, whilst contributing nothing to any solutions, mired only in drama. The latest of which is Randall Kaiser, his title? Anna Von Reitz and Jesper Ellerman lackeyboy it seems to me, apparently Mr. Kaiser thinks our show is crap and is also pure propaganda, I am sure his 40-50 listeners to his podcasts may agree with that or maybe not. So clearly Mr. Kaiser is not liking me or THI fine by me, but why join THI then? because the lure of money and funding always brings these type of people out, in many cases out from the gutter. Randall feels Kim and Anna need to work together, and he appears to have self appointed a position for himself to tell Kim what she should and shouldn't do, keep running with that Randall it wont end well, I promise you. The world is full of people telling others what to do, and too few doing the work themselves, THI excepted, which is why Mr. Kaiser didn't last too long in our group. Randall appears to live in a soundproof booth and hears nothing and also a darkened room as he sees nothing, Kim tried twice to work with her, Anna tried to steal the funds, but Randall can't hear that it seems, and likes to work with people who want to put the hand in the cookie jar and take things that belongs to everyone else. Randall thinks Kim should work with Anna, this is the same Anna who publically admitted to blocking the Trust funds for the people, her words not mine, so Randall what have you got to say for that? Anna is the same person who has spent last few years calling Kim everything under the sun, but the latest fake Jesus incarnate Randall Kaiser, thinks we should ignore all that and just carry on. We went from she is not trustee to she is, then she stole the trust that also didnt exist at some point, she is dead, she is a man, she is a cold hearted bitch, to she is my cousin, all lovely conducive words to engineering a working harmonic relationship isn't it Randall? not. Here is the latest rendition of the Diary of a Madwoman, a genetics based interbreeding experiment within the same family, that has clearly had its effects in this generation, listen closely now Randall. "But Kim is an AI controlled Eugenics Experiment, and they can override her brain at will, tell her what to do and what not to do, and she will do it, because the left half of her brain is largely separated from the right half of her brain, as you can readily determine by doing a brain scan on her." desperate claims, desperate tactics and desperate woman, can't produce facts and so write shit, well that Failed again. Newsflash Randall before you make more of a fool of yourself than you already have, Fact 1 Anna Von Reitz works for the system, always has and always will do, Fact 2 Anna is not interested in the people as proven by blocking the funds Fact 3 Anna was asked for proof of claims and she rejected it, Fact 4 is it not significant Randall, that the funds she is claiming are all for the bloodline families of which she is one of them, the very same people who looted the Trust under Kim's predecessor, they did nothing for the people except harvest us. Fox in charge of the hen house has never worked too well Mr. Kaiser Fact 5 she is fond of asking who appointed Kim, which has been answered several times, but refuses to answer who appointed her? There are your facts Mr. Kaiser and time you stepped out of your darkened, soundproof existence and into the light of reality. As for Anna once a Hapsburg always a Rothschild is all I have to say.

Please name publicly all of "Kim's alleged Controllers" and all members of the group she allegedly is a member of. Further please post publicly all documentation and evidence in your possession which states the following 1)Any evidence linking Kim to any virus in China 2)All brain scans which indicate that him is "bio-engineered" which you have in your possession 3)All the names of the "former trustees" in proper legal format with each and every one of them signed and notarized/attestation with identification of their claim to any property with proof Kim currently holds this property (assets accounts cash land) and proof of the existence of the asset in question with all legal documentation showing they were "trustees", "beneficiaries" and/or owners with their name clearly stated on said documents. Any vague information such as "Indian Tribe or Descendants of X" is not legal proper form and will be disregarded. If you can not substantiate any claims, please remove this post as then it is clearly a defamation of character and shall be treated accordingly.

The old adage is you can't please all of the people all of the time, has raised it's head a bit too frequent for my liking recently, wasting my time and the admins. One of the latest complaints is I don't cover topical things like the impeachment, 5G, Chemtrails, Geo engineering or vaccines, ok, but I have a question back, do these same people complain to other shows of why they don't cover the near 100 topics I do? Now regular listeners will all know that is not the case, but for some it appears despite me covering more topics and countries than any other show, it is never enough. Some it appears to think I am their personal teacher, as despite doing packed 3 hour plus shows each week, which takes 6-10 times longer than that to produce, the must listen to shows are 80-100 hours to complete, but then some think I should be on standby for a Q & A section after every show, or everytime I turn on FB or Mewe, doing this show means I miss normal dinner time, which is done after posting the archive following the end of the show, people are just not being considerate enough. 90% plus of the questions I get asked were actually answered in the shows themselves, I spend a lot of my time producing shows, running the TPC, researching for shows, answering to FB and Mewe, admin on both pages, dealing with trolls and people who don't think before they write, the emails, and that is before I do work for or meetings with Kim. People asking for one on one calls, to review their proposal or discuss their proposals, lengthy emails to answer, the emails only I open, I can only get to them twice a week now and then I have limited time to answer them. Some people demand far too much from me at times, and I am asking people to stop and think for a bit. I don't think I need to give my opinion on vaccines again, but for clarity of those who ask I don't trust a single vaccine. Chemtrails, yes they continue, but what are they doing? it clearly doesn't affect 99.99% of the people, because after 40 years plus of spraying, we are all still alive. So one can deduce from that whatever they are doing is not working, or is not as dangerous as some alt media make out. Kim was told by the Council the people are immune to them in 99.999999% of the case, so that should end that topic, unless you like to be put in fear. Geo engineering I warned about in 2014, I warned about it in my first Must Listen to show The Future of Humanity, I warned Californians they were pushing you out of the state in 2014, and since warned Chicago, Miami and New York people of the same event. I did an extensive piece on the geo engineering of California and the fires, I also warned all of the countries and states connected to the Gulf of Mexico, Puerto Rico the most obvious one, but that is not enough it seems. 5G again I ask the question back, where was the fear of 1, 2, 3 or 4G? and you get crickets back, if people are going to demand answers from me, it is only fair I ask questions back is it not? and the sick irony of it all, is the people asking and making bad comments against my opinion on 5G, are mostly doing it from their phone! If you don't like 5G your simple stance on it is, get rid of your phones, if people don't have mobile phones which is essentially a spy and track piece of technology, then there is no 5G. So what we can deduce from that is, you want me to talk of the dangers of 5G, but you won't take your own stance and responsibility for the reasons it is being implemented, by keeping your phone. Is 5G dangerous? it has the potential to be, like all technology, almost every piece is weaponized against us in some way, as dangerous as the alt media makes out? no The top and bottom line is, this show and host has discounted a plethora of the fear based narrative that has come out of the alt media, from various viruses, zombie virus, Jade Helm and other drills, FEMA camps, people round ups, guillotine trains, Muslim training camps, the UN on our soil, the Russians and Chinese are coming the list goes on and on, do the people stop and think, you know what he was correct on all of those, perhaps his stance maybe correct on those topics just covered? The problem is the people who buy into these fear porn based programs, is not me, but themselves, mired in fear which is a low vibration frequency, they may as well have stayed asleep than awakening, the question to ask yourselves is, does it make sense? Fear makes people ill, do you not understand that? you get ill or stressed you buy and take their pills, which makes you more ill and you buy and take more of their pills, jump off the hamster wheel FSS. I will not change my stance and will not put our listeners in unnecessary fears, because a certain few revel in it, it is not conducive to personal growth, which is the gist of these shows, and not just an outlet for the Trust funding many people think it is. Money will not help people mired in their own victimhood fears of were all going to die. That is my stance and I am sticking to it, there will be NO FEAR PORN on our show.

Discuss the TPC financials Question was asked in mewe on filing fees. A: Fees and filing fees include to keep TPC licenses, filing fees, agent registration fee ($900) and also some of the website host fees and license to keep the name protected. there are some fees that are not paid like an accountant, which I do, and some of the filings are also done by me to keep the fees down. Question what is a registered agent A: every company has to have a registered agent, ours is Harbor Compliance, they do a portion of the filing, but not the tax, I do the taxes filing for TPC. One of our members fell on hard time this month, due to several issues that echoes throughout America despite the glossy picture painted at the SOTU address, which I will cover shortly. She reached out and I was able to help her with some funds from The Peoples Club and I also chipped in some of my Patreon also, this is what the Peoples Club is all about, nothing more and nothing less, despite the fake claims of our detractors. Caring and sharing, we have all left each other out to hang for too long, and time we all lifted each other up. I am more than delighted at the contributions to my Patreon and more so for the TPC from our members, but I am appealing to members to step up and not put their hands in their pockets more, but to speak to family members, friends, work colleagues, church meetings or sporting events and ask people outside to donate $1 a week or a month minimum. This not only increases the funds to help more people, but is also free advertising of what we do here, reach out to people wherever you go, and ask them to speak to their people, so we can have a Foundation in this country, that does what it says on the tin, a hand up not a hand out. Michele announcement as a Director of the TPC.

SUB INTEL direct evidence of the media being racist and setting the program Ugandan climate activist Vanessa Nakate has accused the media of racism after she was cropped out of a photograph taken with her white peers in Davos. In an emotional video statement, Ms Nakate said that for the first time in her life she "understood the definition of the word racism". Ms Nakate said "various" outlets, including the US' AP news agency, had removed her from photos. AP, which has since removed the cropped photo, said there was "no ill intent". "The photographer was trying to get a picture out fast under tight deadline and cropped it purely on composition grounds because he thought the building in the background was distracting," the news agency's director of photography, David Ake, said. Ms Nakate gave a news conference in Davos on Friday alongside fellow climate activists Greta Thunberg, Loukina Tille, Luisa Neubauer and Isabelle Axelsson. She later shared an article by AP in which she was cropped out of a picture of the activists.

The Bachelor contestant Victoria Fuller issued an apology about her involvement with a “White Lives Matter” slogan one month before Cosmopolitan pulled its digital cover that was supposed to feature her and Bachelor Peter Weber. On Jan. 4. —two days before the season began — Instagram account BachelorClues shared a photo of Fuller’s cast photo, as well as a shot from the modeling campaign. This is how deep the programming is in people ran by the media, non thinking bots shouting racist and racism, when suspiciously there was no alarm or call if it was Black lives matter, all lives matter, but that is not where the programmers went you to go, and re-enforce to a public clearly incapable of thinking for themselves, as this next part proves. That shoot was part of a marine conservation effort to do with the color of whales, that featured the phrases “White Lives Matter” and “Blue Lives Matter.” A guess Blue lives matter more than white lives matter as no one appeared to question that, with many commenter's criticizing Fuller for her connection to the slogan, the Virginia native defended herself on the post that day and elaborated on her involvement in the campaign.

As the Trump impeachment ramps up into alleged Ukraine interference, like I have told you all previously, reverse the allegations of those who shout the most and you find out that Pelosi, Romney, Biden and Kerry all have children working for Ukraine gas companies, oops. The same as the Russian collusion, Hillary, Obama, Cheney, Mnuchin and others all colluded to do the Uranium 1 deal with? the Russians.

The start of a new decade isn't offering much hope for beleaguered retailers. Traditional chains are looking increasingly frail less than a month into 2020, with vacancies piling up and few near-term prospects for a turnaround. National chains Macy's, J.C. Penney, Papyrus, Express and Pier 1 Imports, as well as other retailers, have collectively announced 1,218 store closures this year, according to global marketing research firm Coresight Research.

The United Kingdom (UK) yesterday called in Israel to “immediately” halt illegal settlements’ expansion in the occupied West Bank. In an official statement, the British consulate in Jerusalem stressed that the Jewish settlements were “illegal under international law,” adding that it was “sabotaging a possible two-state solution.” On his part, the British Secretary of State for Middle East Affairs, Andrew Morrison, condemned the Israeli government’s plans to expand and build new settlement units in the West Bank. Israeli settlements are considered illegal by the European Union (EU) and the United Nations (UN). The UN has published data showing a 45 per cent increase in the demolition and confiscation of Palestinian structures in the West Bank during 2019, compared to 2018. On Sunday, the Israeli government approved the construction of 1,936 housing units in the occupied West Bank. A total of 786 units received the final endorsement, including 258 that are to be built in Haresha, an “illegal outpost” west of the city of Ramallah on the West Bank. Roughly 650,000 Israeli Jews currently live in more than 100 settlements built since 1967, when Israel occupied the West Bank and East Jerusalem. The Palestinians want these territories — along with the Gaza Strip — for the establishment of a future Palestinian state.

INTEL Heirs to the Austrian branch of the Rothschild banking dynasty have accused the city of Vienna of “perpetuating” Nazi aryanisation laws by plundering a long-forgotten charitable trust, set up in 1905 to endow the Austrian capital with pioneering psychiatric hospitals. The case over the €110 million trust is one of the largest ever restitution claims contested by the descendants of Nazi victims — though it is highly unusual in that it is a dispute over charitable assets. A lawsuit accuses the municipality of conspiring in recent years to sell valuable property from the Nathaniel Freiherr von Rothschild Foundation for the Mentally Ill to itself at grossly undervalued prices — including a late baroque palace that was one of the world’s earliest centres of mental health treatment — and amending the charity’s deeds to make the city the sole beneficiary of its assets. The city is “completing what was done in 1938”, said Wulf Gordian Hauser, a lawyer representing the heirs, referring to the Nazi confiscation of the Austrian Rothschilds’ assets and bequests following the annexation of Austria by Germany. Austria is no stranger to legal claims from the families of its once-thriving Jewish community, though it has so far been priceless cultural artefacts — such as Klimt’s portrait of Adele Bloch Bauer(rothschild) — that have been the subject of an often deeply uncomfortable reckoning with the country’s past. That is a sign of sheer desperation, and further signs of their panic, further proof of what we have been saying, they are running out of options and seeking every measure to stay afloat. What this piece also raises is, since when have the Rothschild's been interested in peoples mental health, like never, they havent taken care of their own mental ill health. What I suspect is these mental hospitals was part of the first set up of MK Ultra, makes far more sense than Rothschild's supporting peoples health.

This is an update as to the state of the world as it is today, our world has collapsed now on all levels, Whether it is the Government, Business, Banking, Military, Agencies, our world hangs in the balance propped up by illusion and delusion. You will see an increase in banking glitches, more political theater, more fake news events like the repeating story out of London of terrorist stabbings which are all similar to the previous events alleged to have taken place there. Militaries are in turmoil no one is being paid out on contracts, agency people also, Rothschild's and Black Sun are engaged in a financial whack a mole, so one of them controls the financial institutions once the Trust funds come out, meanwhile they continue to block it, whilst waiting for some divine event to save them, and keep them in control. Those near or at the top end of the system are all still hailing Hydra, the serpent, or calling on their dead gods to return, like some latter day Bobby Ewing program. People are getting worse in and outside the group, it is happening on all levels, and we have the potential to see many people go insane, as for THI our members were warned of this event and had time to prepare for it, I hope you used that time well, or you will fall into chaos with them. It will be a testing time, and it will not get better until it reaches critical mass or point, a point of no return so to speak, which we are working hard on to not reach those types of levels of chaos. Either way we all have to be ready to pick up not only the pieces but the baton to bring the change, be the change we all wish to see.

OP-ED With much pondering on the vaccines, which one member suggested this week I don't talk enough on, here is another piece of our extensive evidence we have put in several shows. Vaccine 1800, used by British physician Edward Jenner (1749-1823) for the technique he devised of preventing smallpox by injecting people with the cowpox virus (variola vaccinae), from vaccine (adj.) "pertaining to cows, from cows" (1798), from Latin vaccinus "from cows," from vacca "cow," a word of uncertain origin. "The use of the term for diseases other than smallpox is due to Pasteur" It is all in the words or the name as they say, and thanks to one member for pointing this out, who is the vaccine and depopulation king? Bill Gates or is Bill Gates? wife's name is Melinda or is Melanoma? either way the pair of them are like a cancerous tumor on this planet and should be removed from society, not visit the White House.

When Abby Govindan, 22, from Houston, Texas, got dumped by her boyfriend, one of her biggest concerns was how to tell her cat that the guy they had both adored had left for good. The US-based comedian and writer lamented to Twitter: "How do I explain to my cat, who loved my boyfriend more than anything in the world, that he is never coming over again ever"? And with 250,000 likes and nearly 13,000 retweets, her plea clearly resonated. She told the BBC she was shocked by how many people got in touch - with many more sending her private messages of support. Yet if people tweet 1.3B have no electricity or 3B don't have enough food, and therein lies the problem does it not, the programmed bot people jumped in on the stupid cat meme, thankfully our members can see the problem now, regardless of whether they like snakes in fur or not.

Taylor Swift "Lately, there's been a new shift that has affected me personally, and that I feel is a potentially harmful force in our industry. And as your resident loud person, I feel the need to bring it up: And that is the unregulated world of private equity coming in, and buying up our music, as if it is real estate, as if it's an app, or a shoe line. "This just happened to me without my approval, consultation, or consent. After I was denied the chance to purchase my music outright, my entire catalogue was sold to Scooter Braun's Ithaca Holdings in a deal that I'm told was funded by the Soros family, 23 Capital and the Carlyle Group. oops "Yet, to this day, none of these investors have ever bothered to contact me or my team directly, to perform their due diligence on their investment, on their investment in me, to ask how I might feel about the new owner of my art - the music I wrote, the videos I created, photos of me, my handwriting, my album designs. And of course Scooter never contacted me or my team to discuss it prior to the sale, or even when it was announced. That's what happens when you sell your soul Taylor, it has consequences for earning the illusion of fame.

In Sweden, which ranks first in the EU's gender equality index, thanks to factors like generous parental leave, subsidised daycare and flexible working arrangements, economists recently studied how promotions to top jobs affected the probability of divorce for each gender. The result: women were much more likely to pay a higher personal price for their career success. "Promotion to a top job in politics increases the divorce rate of women but not for men, and women who become CEOs divorce faster than men who become CEOs," summarises Johanna Rickne, a professor at Stockholm University and co-author of the research. The paper, which looked at the lives of heterosexual men and women working for private companies with 100 or more employees, found that married women were twice as likely to be divorced, three years after their promotion to CEO level compared to their male counterparts. In the public sector, using three decades' worth of records, women mayors and parliamentarians promoted after an election doubled their chances of splitting from their partners; 75% were still married eight years after the vote compared with 85% of those who didn't get promoted, while there was no evidence of a similar effect for men. Female medical doctors, police officers and priests who progressed in their careers also followed the trend. Sobering reality that the real problems are not male or female based in reality, the real problem is the conditions, pressures and comparative mindsets that permeate through the corporate structure of these professions. The co-operative based model will eliminate many of those issues, think people, not profit.

We know here what's going in Zimbabwe and Malawi. In Malawi all the best land was taken by corporations to grow tobacco. All forest was cut to dry tobacco. In Zimbabwe huge drought this year and we here have lots of rain.

We are blessed by the Nature and new climate. We can grow lots of beans and vegetables and we could help Zimbabwe and Malawi people.

Doesn't make sense to send them dry beans they can't cook, no more firewood but we can process them and send in jars or tins.

I discover your page on YouTube through Harald Thiers from Germany. I've heard about Manna World Holding Trust and Kim, I am searching for contact with her, I would like to present our project about food growing, processing and sending to very hungry people in our neighborhood. I am in Africa from 2012 first West and last 5 years East. Nobody, no western countries want African people to be healthy, prosperous and happy. Rockefeller's Foundation designed GMO maize to depopulate Africa. All vaccines are tasted here on children. All the poisonous food products, ( Nestle milk, palm oil, gmo crops, banned pesticides and herbicides, medical drugs without any clinical trial ) are here!

Many good things can be done, I would love to invite people who can assist us to realize good project, we need money for food processing plant, transportation and all necessary concessions and permits etc I don't, we don't need any profit but everyone who works has to be paid. The time of slavery is over but not for many African people. Whilst western countries dont want Africa to thrive, the point is Kim and the team do, and will continue to press for Africa to get the projects and improve those countries once and for all. I will repeat again it is not Kim's remit to be involved with, discuss or be presented with proposals for your projects, Kim deals with and at the level of CEO's of banks, financial institutions, Presidents, Prime Ministers, Heads of States, Military Generals and Agency based heads, that is her level of operations, she is not a day to day meet and talk to the people entity, her role is to make high level deals on behalf of Governments and the people funding, and as much as she would like to talk to people on a one on one basis, she does not have the time and it is not her role as the Guardian of the Trust.

Category: Truth At times it is helpful to have a description of the types of lying that happens, in order to view that stance that gave rise to it...I will attempt that now... At times a lie is told, when the being that has made a selfish choice, can not bare to tell of that action to others, they do not feel justified or sure within themselves, that the telling of which will not bring judgement that will pain them, and so they do not stand-up for their choice, as a result. Some lies come from a being that lacks Self-Esteem, this manifests in exaggeration of the emotional kind, the exaggeration is meant to sway the being they are lying to, beyond their own (the Liars) doubt. Often when the Lying/Low-Self-Esteem being interacts with someone who loves them, the lie seems unnecessary. The Loving Being holds Them in an esteem that is higher than They hold Themselves. Often, when confronted in such a situation, the Being with low self-esteem will present false bravado. This is a-kin to wearing a 'mask of illusion' as Thomas has said. When the lying is a deep habit or cherished mask for a Being, They will fight (or 'project- onto') any Being that challenges Their lies and mask. At the core of that action is a lack of love for the Being attempting to interact beyond the lies and mask. They can not love Another, because They do not fully love Themselves. It is as if Their love has drained by Their mask, and there is none left for Anyone. When U truly love Someone, U desire to know Them, faults and all. However, a Being that has masked Themselves deeply, does not know Themselves enough to share Who They actually are. Innerwork is a continuous journey of Self-discovery, but when a Being travels through Their Experience wearing a Mask of Ill-usion, They see mostly Fantasy. It is a short-term pleasure to dwell in Fantasy, that will bring pain as Actuality does not conform to the full whim of Any one Being. To fully Know Thy Self, requires Love be given to all the parts of the Self. It is with the eyes of Loving-Compassion turned-inward that even the most pain inspiring parts of the Self can be healed. I Love You and We

Schwarzenberg Crime Family Schwartz, becomes Schwarzenberg, Schwartzman and Schwarzenegger. The Schwarzenberg family is an Austrian and Bohemian nobility serving the House of Habsburg and they are involved with military, politics, and the Roman Catholic Church, on their coat of arms there is a raven pecking at a decapitated head. Prince Karel Schwarzenberg is the current head of this family, and is a member of the Czech parliament and knight of the Habsburg's Order of the Golden Fleece. Prince Karel supports the idea that denying communist crimes is a criminal offense, that itself sounds a lot like fascism and communism, of which both are one and the same and come under Zionism. In fact it was in Austria where families like the Schwarzenberg's ruled over where the Nazis originated, Austria formed the United States in 1815, Adolf Hitler was an Austrian. Gustave Schwarzenegger was an Austrian Nazi and the father of Arnold Schwarzenegger, Arnold Schwarzenegger is an unofficial relative of the Schwarzenberg family, and that is why he has been allowed to become a famous and wealthy actor and politician. The Nazis SS used the Skull and Bones symbol, Arnold Schwarzenegger can be seen on the cover of the Time Magazine wearing a Skull and Bones belt buckle. Stephen Schwarzman is an American investor worth over 10 billion, CEO and co-founder of the Blackstone Group, and a member of Yale's Skull and Bones secret society, Stephen Schwarzman is also the head of Donald Trump's economic advisory council. George Soros whose original last name was Schwartz is worth over 25 billion, and he is from Budapest Hungary, where the Habsburg and Schwarzenberg families governed. George Soros founded the Open Society Institute, which is involved in funding radical political groups as a means to destabilize societies, while pretending to represent civil liberties, George Soros is also funding Nazi style persecution carried out by secret societies. Dieter Schwarz is a German billionaire worth over 20 billion, and runs a retail monopoly called Schwarz Gruppe. Bernard Schwartz is a billionaire financier who was CEO of Loral Space & Communications, which merged with Orion Network Systems which was ran by Kevin Patrick Power, and he was married to Karen Akers the daughter of Prince Heinnick Orth-Pallavicini of the noble Austrian House of Pallavicini. Loral Skynet was a subsidiary of Loral Space & Communications, Skynet is also the name of an artificial intelligence that takes over the world in the movie Terminator which stars Arnold Schwarzenegger. George Soros (Schwartz) Dieter Schwarz, Bernard Schwartz and Stephen Schwarzman are all Court Factors, handling the finances and interests for the House of Schwarzenberg. Arnold Schwarzenegger is really a Prince of the Schwarzenberg family and the Duke of California. The Schwarzenberg family serves the Roman Catholic House of Habsburg as Knights of the Order of the Golden Fleece. The Habsburg family serve the Black Nobility of Italy as Knights of the Order of Malta, Anna Von Reitz is a Hapsburg, seeing the picture now? The irony of the fact that the Soros funded liberals, with groups like Black Lives Matter and Antifa amongst others shout racism, fascism and Nazi, when their very groups were funded by an actual SS officer called George Soros, another piss take on the people involved, when will people see through their bs.

Space command was launched and yet again it is not for the people of our species progression, is about money. The same logo as the fake GFL? I suspect badge with chevron up is a tip to Apollo, the only Greek god to go to Da'ayra or later named Hyperborea, upon my research one of the few of them who weren't psychopaths and abuse of power, so that's an improvement from Genisis, Zeus, Athena, Ra and Shiva etc.

Frivolous collusion and Ukraine bs, one has to ask why hasn't counter claims and trials took place against criminal democrats? Where are the trials on the children of Biden, Kerry, Pelosi and Romney who are actually doing serious wrongs in the Ukraine?

Why hasn't trials or papers been filed against Pelosi about her abuse of power, doing trade deals that is not her remit.

We had Guilliani saying it all coming out a few weeks and where is it? Q which at times resembles drakes wait club on steroids, where are the actions? lots of words and ooh this or that document will be released, there have been millions of documents released on the crimes and treasonous actions of the CIA alone, yet not one major trial or exposure of them? why?

Criminal Hillary, criminal Pelosi, criminal Biden add other names all have been stated and tweeted and yet not one course of action to put them on the stand for their crimes? we need to ask why? Trump in these actions has largely been on the defensive, that has to be switched in the same way alt media switched the MSM, and he and his team need to go on direct attack mode, the vast volumes of real evidence, not fake documents supplied by Five Eyes group and push these people back, or better still arrest and charge them of treasonous acts against not only The President, but this country and it's people also.

We keep hearing about lying news media, where are lawsuits against the portal people for spouting lies? The BBC upon announcement of the fake impeachment result they raised their Blue Dragon MI5/6 based bias against Mr. Trump and debated point by point of why he wasn't impeached, neglecting to state who should be charged with criminal offences. They then did a fact check of Trump's State of the Union claims, now if only they did that for CNN, MSNBC, Fox, ABC or NBC, Pelosi, Hillary, Schiff, Romney, Kerry, Obama or any other politician for that matter, or better still there own BBC of fake claims they make that goes largely unchallenged, then we might get some more truth on those platforms. Trump is like THI it seems as the only one who gets questioned, requiring proof or is challenged on statements or comments made, funny that isn't it?

I was going to do a full piece on the SOTU address, which in parts was good and some parts disappointing, the main aspect of which is the focus of attention on all things military and war, I don't believe it is what this country should be portrayed as, and re-affirms the rest of the world's stereotyping of America and Americans as a nation of warmongers. I have been here near 18 years and that is not what I see, Americans have many other qualities, skills and abilities that should be highlighted, and not celebrating all things military and past wars, we have to change that image and perception. He came in and ignored the Pelosi hand out, which some will see as an affront, but what is an affront is the whole impeachment thing, ran and produced by Pelosi, with actual criminal based accomplices, that finally reached its inevitable conclusion yesterday, and the vote was no. Which this show stated would be the case, but it wasn't that hard of a prediction to work out, seen as the ever increasing criminal enterprise group known as the Democrat party, does not hold majority there. Of course Pelosi and her criminal gang were trying to bribe the Republican Senators with funds ranging from $1.5M to $10M per person to vote against Trump on the impeachment vote, that was halted in its tracks after the disclosure of that bribe, was outed in this show. Of course Pelosi was not content with fidgeting about throughout the speech, of, shuffling the papers, doing her eyes wide open impression, and signaling to the peanut gallery all those in white suits, all whilst twisting and contorting her face and licking her lips, it resembled a demented lizard skipping across a hot desert landscape to me, and if that wasn't enough, which it rarely is for what is America 3rd highest position on the political front as Speaker of the House, Pelosi went onto excelling herself. As Speaker of the House you are supposedly have to carry a certain amount of class and decorum, as Speaker you are suppose to be able to speak properly as well, now I am hardly the best speaker, but I do not sound like some insane incoherent rambler, who struggles to put one sentence together, never mind a whole speech, it doesn't look good no matter which side of the political divide you are on. Pelosi neither has class or anything resembling decorum, and in a fit of temper did the most classless act I am told ever in American speech based politics history, and tore up the script The President is obligated to present to her and the Vice President, which Trump also ignored at the handshake, which may or may not be significant, one can't always tell. A disgusting act of petulance that should have slapped every American in their face, but because of the programming of the political system here, people stick rigidly to party lines, and no doubt many Democrats applauded it, oblivious to the damage that action caused. She was told by her own people to remain calm, with the backdrop of the impeachment vote the following day, so what triggered her, not that she needs triggering is my observation. Is she was so mad about Trump saying what a bad state the state of California is in, she did not contain herself . Ya see truth hurts, California was being and still is being ran by high level criminals, some of whom deliberately started the fires that has devastated many parts of the State, you conveniently none of those fires went near the Rothschild's or Pelosi's vineyard estates, funny that. California is in a shocking state, as is

New York, another state and city ran by high end criminals, same people is why, and Pelosi and crew are wholly responsible for the mess in California. In recent times we have seen the first American Black president and his performance will likely ensure there will not be another anytime soon, he sold the black people out badly, never mind other colors, and the next hurdle to overcome as they like the black community were marginalized by some think tank divide and conquer program, was a female President. With script based media spouting propaganda of white and black, plus male and female divisive narratives, Pelosi's behavior and Hillary's before her, has likely set back the chances of a female President for many years, which will be cited as they are too emotional, and so subsequently unstable to govern. Over one hundred years of building up the women's movement and equal status, all destroyed in 4 years by Hillary and Pelosi inability to act like decent human beings, that is the real tragedy behind her childlike petulant tantrum, and the American people male or female not, to stand as one and tell her to get as far away as possible from participating in the running of this country or her state, and given the various criminal acts she has been involved in and with, preferably behind bars where she belongs. From there she can rip pieces of paper up for the rest of her days, preferably the Green Deal which is a piece of legislation designed solely to enrich the Pelosi family.

Communism in revolt, throws out all middlemen, simply takes the final step of Capitalism and seizes everything in the country. It fights Capitalism by becoming the Super-Capitalist. George Washington in the American Revolution, the Marquis de Lafayette in the French Revolution and Fidel Castro in the last Cuban revolution were each the richest man in the country at the time. Communism, is far different from the hope of Marx, although not sure Marx was stating it differently to be honest, it is the tool of the rich and powerful to seize everything in sight, and pay no wages. It is the final answer to Capitalism, it is not its opponent, Socialisms in different costumes all tend to the same end product – total ownership by the state, and so are also the end product of Capitalism, total ownership. What you are observing, in our modern world, is an obscuring of actual economics to the somewhat ignoble end, of taking everything away from everyone but the State, The State can then be a chosen few who own the all. Capitalism, Communism, and Social-ism all wind up with Man in the same situation – owned body and soul by the State. So if you are confused by "economic statements" by a few chosen mouthpieces of the intended few who will be the State, realize it is not the subject itself, but the intentional misuse of the subject which is causing the trouble. Since all roads – Capitalism, Socialism, Communism, lead to the same total owner-ship, none of them is in actual fact in conflict. Only those several groups who each want to own everything are in conflict – and none of them is worthy of support. There is an answer to all this, if these isms all tend to a total State, then the obvious rebuttal is a no-State. This alone would be an opposition to the total State, as this is instinctive in Man – to oppose his enslavement – and people can manifest their personal revolt in various ways. They cannot simply overwhelm a well armed government, so their revolt takes the form of inaction and inefficiency, Russia and Cuba, for two, are going on the rocks of individual inefficiency and inaction, they do not see it as a revolt as it hasn't got any peaks. The grain and cane just don't come up, the trains somehow don't run and the bread doesn't get baked, whilst America and England driven still by some faint remaining spark of "free enterprise" muddle along. But the economic squeeze is too great for this long for it to continue. Income tax, bank and state loans, all the evils are there waiting, sensing the coming total ownership of all, the worker even in the U.S. and England begins to put on the brakes, a good day's work today was an hour's work a century ago. Strikes enthusiastically paralyze anything they can, but inefficiency and inaction are the order of the day. Not clever, the Capitalist, the Commissar, the Great Socialist do not believe anyone has penetrated their actual intent. and so continue to twist economies about, in the hope of convincing the people who strike, it won't really work and get more inefficient. The societies of Earth, whether East or West, are all approaching with rapidity the same end – dissolution by a personal people's revolt. The revolt has no name, no leader, no banner, no glory. It only has a common end in view – the end of all States and all economic systems. And surely the people will win. The long term solution to the question "How can I live?" is never work for a suppressive firm, and do not support a suppressive government, and work to put us in a position to guarantee that the leaders are sane. That piece with some additional input from me describes entirely not only about how THI and TPC can make and be the change, but also I suspect this piece ties in nicely with the Intel warning earlier, please take careful note.

Some are focusing on the Great White Race and Aryan connotations due to the programming, if you are focusing on the color you are missing the point completely, you are playing the divide and conquer game for them. We can go back in history and produce it in a way that makes more sense and connects the dots, but with history and time, there is always an element of proof, that no matter who writes it, that can't be deemed as 100% truth, it is a matter of putting the pieces together and seeing if it fits, if it doesn't fit, something is missing, something is hidden. Even the detailed knowledge I put out cannot possibly have all the truth, all of the time, as what is talked about took place in other epochs of time, that very few remember being there to confirm the full truth. But we can all go back in our own time in this lifetime, which the bulk of the FRWL series is, and also parts of the last show on Saturday. What is fact is, every color has increased their numbers bar one in the last 110 years, what does that tell you? and the questions raised and asked would then be, are they targeting that group? the proof of which is in the figures and the information itself. So, they were targeting that group more than others in the countdown to extinction day 2012, what does that tell you? perhaps they were targeting the strongest or their main enemy group does it not? Which the wars described in the Vedas tells you, the dark skinned magicians destroying the white race. It matters not to me which color it is, if it was the great black, red or yellow race that taught the better practices, and went around the world teaching a better way, and supporting non violence, I would support that just the same. Remember that both the yellow and black race, asked the white race for help to remove their genetic malfunction. Now if the white race is about their own supremacy and a white only policy, which is the narrative from the scripted Nazi Aryan propaganda based program, why would they help the other two races? it makes no sense. They also helped the red and brown colors as well in North and South America, does that fit in with the one color only program? clearly not, so why should people get hung up on the white race? As our shows has borne out, we have highlighted the plight of all colors in many countries around the world, if this show and it's narrative was biased in favor of one color, why bother spending so much time in my shows highlighting the atrocities against the people of other colors? If I was a Nazi or white only based, the elimination of all other colors would be welcomed, by their definition of a white supremacist, again it makes no sense. If this show or host doesn't like Jews, why spend so much time alerting them to the dangers within their midst? Why bother warning them of the Zionists, because Zionists have killed more Jews than any other race combined, surely if you were anti Jewish, you would just let them carry on in their delusion. It is a problem of it being a Russian based group from the past, when millions of Americans have been programmed into thinking Russia and the Russians are like some return of the antichrist, but where is their evidence supporting that? beyond making statements like the Russians are Commies? There is none, and we have to step outside the boundary boxes the system created for us, and we stepped into them. Let go of your programming, it served them, not us.

Ayahuasca topic has rattled some new age cages it seems, some took umbrage of my stance on it, funny I don't take umbrage on those who take it, but I digress, as I have said in the shows it's peoples choice on what they do. I give an overview of the information and in my opinion, with assorted evidence it is dangerous to the vast majority of people.

1. It is a low vibrational plant
2. it is not conducive to all races genetics
3. you are entering a world too few are aware of, and like yoga they do not warn of the dangers of participating in it.
4. the world you enter with ayahuasca is a dark trap for most
5. upon leaving that world who do you bring back with you
6. you are out of control when we are trying to attain inner self mastery, not drug induced control systems.
7. "the plant protects you" where is the proof?
8. look closely at the concept of what you are doing, with self development you can visit most worlds not just the astral layer.
9. it is escapism from realities you wont face here, again not conducive to mastery of the self
10. and the kicker it is an external not internal action. Does anyone ask the question If you are seeking spiritual enlightenment which is internal, how can you expect to gain that with the central core of your enlightenment the spirit out of your body? think about that closely, again does it make sense? I have shot down a lot of the new age potions, trinkets, spiritual practices, witchcraft, magic, crystals and various other things that came under the banner of the new age program, and some people don't like it. New age programs are the same as

ET Disclosure it is a vast money marketing program based on greed not need, and people can rail at me all they like, it will not stop me warning people of the dangers surrounding it, and unlike those people I am not in it for the money or any personal gain. Our show is free, whilst those people charge vast sums for alleged retreats for spiritual learning, that costs thousands of dollars, when you can listen to our shows for free and gain far more than stuffing low vibrational plants down your throat, that makes most people vomit, designed solely to make a few people very rich, which is the antithesis of soul or spiritual development. The world is undergoing heavy changes and when one thing fails or collapses, another must replace it, and this is what is playing out now, not only on and in this planet, but right across the Universe on all levels of existence for the living organic being, to sum it up in one word, that word is recalibration, it's a sight to behold not fear. Internal and external is like love, you can love someone externally but not internally, when the external love becomes internal you are generating then the love frequency, the magnet of love, now all it needs is the opposite side to have the same frequency and a partnership is born. For those who are struggling, this is the journey, the destination will be better, your role is to make sure you arrive in one piece (which is whole)
