

THI-SHOW TRANSCRIPT 2020-03-05

The FRWL series and the clowns in panic shows, will feature heavily tonight and further proofs will all unveiled in tonight's show, including other aspects of our show validated as well. Strap in this will be a fun but bumpy ride tonight.

I want to say a massive thank you to all in THI for the concerted push on the donations for the TPC, I am glad and amazed to report that donations last month alone was a record, that beat the previous record set in January as well. The donations for February alone was more than the entire years of donation for 2019, March is on course to smash February also after an extraordinary donation that came in and special thank you to that person, you know who you are, but with internet children around best to not mention your name.

This person gets it, not because of her praise for me or the show, because she took her own responsibility and actions, the trigger was the repeated word with that Part 2 show, she embraced it. I noticed a couple of posts, apologies I don't know who posted them (as I was just having a look and had little time) that mentioned the women's connection to the moon. Sometimes, when I feel really happy in my heart, I say things really simply with much conviction at the same time. I refer to a comment I made about cutting the chord to the moon and that I was going to celebrate that. I need to say, I meant that. To me, intention and connection to it is everything, and it can be simple and uncomplicated. I turned away from all kinds of healing modalities I've learned or come across over many years because they never spoke about this. They all called on people to call in this diety or that alleged master, or perform particular practices precisely, so that a healing could "work". They never allowed or guided people to go in to their own inner wisdom, or inner tech, or whatever we want to call it. So here I am now, with respect for the choices others make, truly training myself as much as I can to heal myself, transform my thinking, doing my shadow work. When I said I'm going to cut that chord, that is what I did. And I can say that I've been experiencing tears of joy, deeper connecting, inspirations, all in a few days! All this triggered by Thomas' Part 2 of 1's and 0's show. So to the person who wanted some help for his girlfriend, the best thing you can do is guide her if she is willing to listen to Thomas' Must Listen series, and allow her to shift in her own rhythm. And to the person who offered some music as assistance in my chord cutting, thank you so much. I do use music a lot in my life as well, and sound, and its all beneficial.

There is a clear sign now that this show and also the work I do along with The Trust is having a massive impact, as you can judge it by the levels of trolls that appear. Over recent times it has become a daily event, in fact more people have been removed from the group due to poor behavior and inappropriate interactions in the last 3/4 months, than over the 3 plus previous years that THI has been operating. There are a few factors in this, we are winning the information war along with a number of other alt media outlets, people are losing the plot big time, as the difference between those have worked on themselves and those that haven't has become marked. I want to thank our members in these interactions for not stooping to the levels of these types of people. Those people cannot be helped, it boggles my mind why people would join a group if they don't like the owner, and spend all day trashing it, I don't particularly care they don't like me either, these people are irrelevant. But is it much to ask that those people go and do something more productive for themselves and others, instead of going around trashing others? These are testing times for us all on so many levels, and holding our nerve is the key, bad people want to throw you off balance and disrupt your work and progress, by putting doubts in your head all designed to pull you back into their spiral dance of fear, lunacy and darkness.

From Kim: People only talk about people who are actually doing something, they do not discuss ones who are not moving. The most heavily attacked persons in Alt Media are Thomas Williams and myself. Sure you have spurts of blue chicken haters (also spurred by Shane) and a few others here and there. For the most part, it is us. I have been peeking in and out of the Alt Media for nearly 10 years maybe more and never have I seen more "hate campaigns" then the ones against us. Why? Ask yourselves. Has Thomas Williams EVER struck first against an Alt media person publicly? He may give his opinion when asked, but not a slander campaign. So lets look at the facts, 1) Intel given by us is presently leaking out in the MSM, 2) The Team works diligently on preventing catastrophe after catastrophe which also eventually leak to the MSM, including the "birth of a new star" announced here first, 3) The team works day and night to bypass system after system set up by the Black Sun and Rothschild, and don't you think we all would like a paycheck too? Projects after projects with amazing new technology cures for all types of disease and for every day our tests only make it through the gauntlet so far, many people die of starvation (much more than the corona virus, I wonder if they are selling more Mexican beer these days), cancer, cystic fibrosis and many other man made diseases. How hard do you think it is for us to sleep? or do anything but work? Why? because we have a moral obligation and all of this rests on us (at least in the beginning before the large funds). So I could care less about the hate campaign coming from self-proclaimed Rothchild coven members, or pedophiles or Nazi/Black Sun Von Reitz. Matter of fact I thank them. Why? Because if these two murderous covens are sending their skills into Alt Media after us (and mostly only us) then that means WE ALL HERE AT THI/The People's Club ARE THE DOERS. Oh and may God/Source bless them the way they have blessed us... Peace, Strength and Love to all. We WILL prevail. Often times I wake up with a song that comes to mind.. This was one from the other day, and to my friend Thomas Williams who has helped the team more than you know, has been a friend to me through all the attacks (not facebook banter people who hide behind a computer, but real physical attacks, spiritual attacks and personal attacks), who is always willing to lend an ear to anyone in need (not just me) and is sharing of his time for hours on end each week teaching us and helping us grow so we are ready for this new beginning we are experiencing now. We all love you, let the haters hate, stay strong!

SUB INTEL The attorney general of the US state of New Mexico is suing Google, accusing the company of illegally collecting the personal data of school children. The tech giant is alleged to have collected data on which websites pupils visited, passwords, videos watched, contact lists, and other information. The data was allegedly gathered from Google's Chromebook laptops and G Suite for Education programme. Google disputes the claim, with a spokesman calling it "factually wrong". Google Chromebooks and the G Suite for Education - which includes Gmail, Calendar, Drive, Docs and others - are offered for free to more than 60% of students in New Mexico, according to the lawsuit. Attorney General Hector Balderas said Google had failed to get parental consent from children under 13 and collected their data for commercial purposes, in violation of the Children's Online Privacy Protection Act. Last year Google reached a $170m (£130m) settlement with the Federal Trade Commission over allegations that it illegally harvested personal data from children on YouTube.

and we are back to Russia again. like night follows day US intelligence agencies have warned that Russia is attempting to help President Donald Trump get re-elected in November, US media report. This will be the same US intelligence agencies who gave fake news and reports 4 years ago - oh dear, not very original are they? The comments were said to have come in a closed-door briefing to the House Intelligence Committee on 13 February, Mr Trump sacked his acting intelligence chief, Joseph Maguire, a week later. Reacting to the reports, President Trump said they were "another misinformation campaign" - and "hoax" launched by his Democratic opponents. The New York Times reported that Mr Trump was particularly angry that Adam Schiff, the Democrat who led the impeachment proceedings against him, was at the briefing. Three days later knowing full well the majority of Americans have shorter attention spans, out comes this report. The Office of the Director of National Intelligence pushed back Monday on reports that a senior intelligence official told lawmakers that the Russian government was actively aiding President Trump's re-election, though it did not specify what the official did say at a classified, now-contentious briefing before the House Intelligence Committee on February 13. "During the [February 13] briefing, the Intelligence Community did not state that Russia is aiding the re-election of President Trump," a senior official from the Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI) told CBS News.

The Chinese Foreign Ministry has asked the US for a "clear explanation" after claims the CIA had been hacking targets in China for at least 11 years. The allegations were made by Qihoo, a well-known cyber-security firm based in Beijing. The company said it had found evidence in malware suggesting the CIA had targeted airlines, petrol companies and government agencies. Qihoo said it had analysed malicious code and found similarities between it and information about alleged CIA hacking tools which was published three years ago. Among other alleged targets of the hacking campaign were internet firms, scientific institutions and energy companies. "We speculate that in the past 11 years of infiltration attacks, CIA may have already grasped the most classified business information of China, even of many other countries in the world," added Qihoo.

Indian authorities are investigating claims that dozens of women were forced to have gynaecological tests to prove their fitness for work. The women, trainee government clerks in the city of Surat, in Gujarat, say they were also checked for pregnancy. An official report on the alleged incident is expected within 15 days. The women allege that they were forced to stand naked in a room together, in groups of 10, during the invasive "finger tests", which were conducted by female doctors. It comes days after college students living in a Gujarat hostel said they were forced to remove their underwear to prove they were not menstruating.

India's uncomfortable relationship with periods is back in the headlines. College students living in a hostel in the western Indian state of Gujarat have complained that they were made to strip and show their underwear to female teachers to prove that they were not menstruating. The 68 young women were pulled out of classrooms and taken to the toilet, where they were asked to individually remove their knickers for inspection. The incident took place in the city of Bhuj on Tuesday. The young women are undergraduate students at Shree Sahajanand Girls Institute (SSGI), which is run by Swaminarayan sect, a wealthy and conservative Hindu religious group. They said a hostel official had complained to the college principal on Monday that some of the students were breaking rules menstruating women are supposed to follow. According to these rules, women are barred from entering the temple and the kitchen and are not allowed to touch other students during their periods. At meal times, they have to sit away from others, they have to clean their own dishes, and in the classroom, they are expected to sit on the last bench. Not just India either the treatment of women from India to Saudi Arabia is beyond disgusting in this day and age, all done by weak men. Anyone who controls another does so out of weakness. What this proves is the FRWL series again, with their fake spiritual bs'ery of Shiva, Buddha, Tantric and Jainism clearly has an impact on their thinking, that ascribes to treating women in this fashion is ok, the Kali Ma lives under the banner of Indian religious culture.

The Catholic Diocese of Buffalo, which is facing nearly 250 lawsuits involving clergy sexual abuse, has declared bankruptcy. Aside from the obvious financial implications, the diocese's formal Chapter 11 bankruptcy filing means that many of the victims of clergy sexual abuse may not anytime soon get the answers that have long been hidden in secret diocesan archives regarding pedophile priests. But there is still a chance that those hidden files could be forced as part of a bankruptcy settlement, as has happened in other dioceses. Because the cases will soon be shifted from state civil court to U.S. Bankruptcy Court, survivors of clergy sexual abuse are likely to receive compensation, though it is unclear how much per case the diocese would be required to pay out. According to bankruptcy documents, filed in federal court, the Buffalo Diocese is facing between $50 million and $100 million in estimated liability. It means the church could be forced to sell properties and to make appeals for more money from parishioners, but it also paves the way for the Catholic Church in Western New York to -- after its debts are paid off -- emerge from the crisis with its mission and services still intact. The dramatic move comes after the Diocese of Rochester became the first Roman Catholic diocese in New York State to file for bankruptcy on Sept. 12. It is no doubt one result of the Child Victims Act, which was passed in January 2019 and allows victims of child sexual abuse in all institutions -- not only the Catholic Church -- a one-year "window" period in which they can sue the institutions to prove they were responsible for the abuse. To date, more than 300 Child Victims Act lawsuits have been filed in Western New York.

It seems the old Aryan Slavs are now rising up and fighting back and this report from one of our members describes. The protests are going on since before Xmas and it started about controversial law about religious freedom. However as Thomas Williams identified the phenomenon, it is not about church: It is about denying majority to be ethnic Serbs, making new quasi country and ultimately destruction of a nation; in this case Serbian people. One cannot help but wonder why are Serbs such a thorn in the western eye? This is one city in Montenegro. Serbs all over the world are protesting. Just for clarification purpose the amount of people that are protesting would be equivalent to 1/3 of the UK being on the streets. Imagine if 20,000,000 million people come out at once. They are numbering around 250,000 out of 700,000 population. Also not a single incident of violence.

The cryptocurrency market needs to improve how it secures digital assets for the $245 billion industry to keep growing, according to KPMG. At least $9.8 billion in digital assets have been stolen by hackers since 2017 because of lax security or poorly written code, the accounting firm wrote in a report released Monday. Adoption of cryptocurrencies such as Bitcoin and Ether among institutional investors has led to competition for a place in portfolios, making safeguarding the tokens more important than ever, KPMG said. What stupid people who buy these fresh air tokens is, the system for running the cryptos is designed to steal them, 100% fact, ran by rogue elements from CIA and NSA who created cryptos, taken over by Rothschild's based companies like KPMG as the new harvesting center, stop buying them and anyone selling or advertising them at this point are frauds, no exceptions. You people are keeping these clowns afloat, cryptos are all they have left to control.

Facebook is reportedly rethinking its plans for its own digital currency after resistance from regulators. It is now considering a system with digital versions of established currencies, including the dollar and the Euro. The Libra Association, which Facebook founded to create the currency, will continue its work, the reports said. The plan will include Libra, the company said in response. The social network's digital wallet is now expected to launch this autumn, several months later than initially planned, according to the reports. Of earlier reports that it might drop Libra itself, the firm said: "Facebook remains fully committed to the project." Facebook announced in June last year that it would launch the Libra digital currency, with a goal of making payments easier and cheaper. Its partners in the Libra Association include Lyft, Spotify, Shopify, but several other high-profile members such as Visa left after the idea was criticised by authorities. Dante Disparte, head of Policy and Communications at the Libra Association said: "The Libra Association has not altered its goal of building a regulatory compliant global payment network, and the basic design principles that support that goal have not been changed nor has the potential for this network to foster future innovation." In October, the world's biggest economies warned cryptocurrencies such as Libra pose a risk to the global financial system. France has said it threatens the "monetary sovereignty" of governments; others have warned it could be abused for money laundering and other nefarious purposes. A load of banks at high levels not supporting this as they realize what we said in the Clowns in Panic show is unveiling, they will all be replaced in what they call decentralizing, cryptos will put millions out of work, and create a society wholly dependant on a few psychopaths, who have shown they care nothing for us, but will care less for those they used previously, called the minions.

Files discovered in Argentina reveal the names of 12,000 Nazis who lived there in the 1930s and many had Swiss bank accounts, researchers say. The US-based Simon Wiesenthal Centre, famous for tracking down Nazis, has asked Credit Suisse to identify the dormant bank accounts. "We believe that these long-dormant accounts hold monies looted from Jewish victims," the centre says. The papers were found in a store room at a former Nazi HQ in Buenos Aires. Nazi Germany began seizing Jewish property after enacting racist laws in 1935 and a colossal amount was stolen during the Holocaust in the 1940s. Much of that wealth was transferred to secret Swiss bank accounts. In a letter to Credit Suisse Vice-President Christian Küng, the Simon Wiesenthal Centre says "we are aware that you already have claimants as alleged heirs of Nazis in the list". In a statement on its website, the centre says many of the Nazis listed in the Argentinian files "contributed to one or more bank accounts at the Schweizerische Kreditanstalt, which became the Credit Suisse bank". In 1930-1938 Argentina had a pro-Nazi military regime led by President José Félix Uriburu, nicknamed "Von Pepe", and his successor Agustín Pedro Justo. Ignore the narrative behind this piece, this is faction fighting between Rothschilds and The black Sun groups over money they stole off the people, and stole not just from Jewish people either, that is part of the guilt program that has been ran on the Western world people for the last 75 years by the likes of Wiesenthal and the other snakes out of the NY and IsRAel holocaust museums, syphoning and laundering vast sums of money, whilst their own peoples are enduring severe hardship and poverty. The clock ticks on the Swiss banking system the article said, who own them banks? Rothschilds, What is Rothschilds family? Jewish, who stole off all the Jewish people? Rothschilds, who refused to safely remove the Jewish people out of the camps in 1942? The Rothschilds

Our show warned of high profile firings in early January and February and also said the fall or collapse of old system could happen in February, some parts of that have been unveiled and some parts haven't yet, but here is a list of CEO going in the past month alone. Disney, Mastercard, Bayer, Victoria Secret, Hulu, Uber eats, Salesforce, IBM, LinkedIn, Barclays and MGM Resorts

INTEL Intel coming in on markets and Corona virus with on going operations to stop it The corona virus is a global attempt to control what people focus on and talk about, meanwhile alt media disclosures proliferate wildly. Its desperation tactics to control the narrative.

The times of the fake gods and their human, hybrids and walk ins who support them are over, the evidence of their flailing about now and making fake allegations to keep the illusion of control and keep their perceived self importance as relevant, is all around us now to see. My message to them people May your god, lord or King bless or love you they way you bless or love others.

we have just been informed that there is a Chinese National who has taken refuge in Phnom Pehn. Claims to be a recent researcher at the Wuhan Institute of Virology. He claims there is a fellow professor Shi Zhengli currently in US. She is one of several professors who worked to develop the Corona Virus as a bacteriological agent for dispersement into popular groups. He claims elements of the PLA (Peoples Liberation army) spec ops currently in Panama and in France with the next gen of Corona Virus. The fact it becomes public is designed to stop it, not create more fear.

Given markets tanking this week, I am letting you all know the Plunge Protection team in place to stop this here, ignored the issue. Apparently the credit markets are freezing completely tomorrow.

Phasing and shifting has increased, become aware of it, it is observable within and without now. Subtlety is king, your separation is underway - no fear.

We will do a special show at short notice for any major events or warnings if need be, but please - no fear The sole reason for all of this nonsense and alt media clownery is because there are many positive things happening now, some of which stem out of our show and my other work with Kim.

Over the past week the clowns using servers out of New Zealand under the cover of the corona virus syphoned out of the stock markets $1.87T, and were planning to buy up whole of the USA and provide the US government with the budget. This weekend brought the return actions and the money and servers went into dust to all intents and purposes. The $1.87T was taken back off the clowns by the way by Kim, but like their previous heist last time, that money cannot be put back into the system as it has no allocation numbers, so now the world financial system is short of another $1.87T, smart move that jackasses - not. The server people in New Zealand went into a panic and called the person known as The Commander and told him the servers were down, Commander told them to just fix it, the reply was this will take months. Panic ensued ever since and major issue and concern is markets and banks will suffer badly this week. The name of the commander of that NZ base? Barack Obama. Clowns were planning to shut down whole of the western banking, finance and markets from Monday as a cover up of their crime, because the $1.87T is now permanently gone and cannot be put back.

There were large explosions in the tunnels under a certain facility in Virginia this week as part of the clean up operation ongoing currently.

A company called KPMG, the USA's largest contractor with Global Headquarters in Netherlands but official a "Swiss Corporation". KPMG is a Rothchild endeavor with heavy ties to the Clintons in the USA. This also explains why the FBI got calls from high level Democratic Senators in the USA telling them to stop the operations and investigations into David Rea and the Team Bubba group. Think George Nader, think Clintons. For those new this is not some petty internet tiff, far from it, this involves serious high level crimes and criminals, of which our show has revealed many of them, not just them but global criminals, that is having a massive effect. KPMG also had servers in Lithuania which just happens to be where David Rea and sidekick or a duplicate Rea known as Barry Biggum ran the child porn and child trafficking from. The Lithuanian Servers are protected by KPMG/National Cyber Forensics and Training Alliance. The NYC branch of KPMG has IT persons from every major bank in the USA plus the FBI, and it may well turn out it was this group who were doing the final blocking of all the funds recently. I can tell you over the last couple of months what Kim and I have been working on to transfer the funds went very very close to delivering, and we kept hitting one last hurdle, in the past there were nearly 40K hurdles and we have whittled it down now to one. This is why Shane and others went on attack, they and their handlers know we are about to end their control of this world. I spent out of the Trust and its game over. In the same building as other Clinton Organizations in NYC, which brings in Citadel who blocked the American and Puerto Rican Disaster Relief funds from The Trust, they run cyber out of that office for the entire banking network in USA all tied to the Team Bubba group.

We have received a report this past week and will reveal certain details for this show. The joint DNC and the pedophile, child torture and child mutilation supporting agents in the copy and paste crew, known as THI Team Bubba, which for those new is nothing to do with us, and is nothing more than a lower level hate club, but with some very high profile criminals and agents within it. These people doth protest too much they are not involved, whilst stupid enough to cc themselves on the same email as David Rea, oops. David Rea, and also the pseudonym of Barry Biggum, both have emails with the misnomer of fraudfighters and the Whistleblower site, and I have email evidence of exchanges between David Rea and Barry Biggum, like I said they protest too much of not being involved with Rea, when evidence shows to the contrary. They are even that stupid as to admitting they were wiretapping our phones, and fraudulently creating fake emails in other peoples names, plus admitted blocking two African governments from working with us for the benefit of their people, plus 7 other brokers. Not to mention their fake banner suggesting they were connected to the FBI, via some private NGO person named Brad Carpenter, he does not work for the FBI, and their banner has been collected as evidence, as impersonating a federal officer, in this case is a felony, that all in that group are complicit of, a large fine and three years in prison for pushing that narrative. Rea, Biggum, Large and Neitain the main protagonists on that front. Do not bother jumping ship like rats to hide your participation, all names who were apart of that group at any given time have been documented. Thanks for the evidence chaps you will be hearing from us and proper authorities in due time. The Team Bubba group are protected by KPMG and US Senators who are on David Rea's pedophile client list, and rogue elements within the FBI and CIA, covering up the DNC and this groups crimes, this group is not separate to DNC they are one and the same network. George Nader of DNC campaign donations fame was indicted is accused of transporting a 14-year-old Eastern European boy to the United States for sex in the year 2000, who has repeatedly acted as an unofficial liaison between Washington politicians and the United Arab Emirates and Saudi Arabia and as a lobbyist for private security firm Blackwater, and is a consultant to Erik Prince. Remember this show mentioning earlier about Team Bubba being connected to Erik Prince? They even have in their group Tere Joyce who along with Steven Kelley from Truthcat radio who is both CIA & NSA, he says he is ex of both, I beg to differ there is no such thing as ex CIA, see Robert David Steele for that example. Joyce and Kelley tried to pin sexual crimes and links to the DNC on Randy Maugans, you see they point fingers at others of crimes that are related to themselves, be it directly or indirectly. Another one who popped up on the radar and is in their group, who went missing but returned around the time of the Ukranian fake impeachment, Lily Kolosova better known as Lily Earthling, lesser known as born in the Ukraine and also a spy, cohen cidence, you decide. That group and their servers in Lithuania is not just involved in sexual abuse of the children, but trading them as well, but that is not the worse aspects, this is high level ritual stuff, of both torture and mutilation of children, as was relayed to me by those who viewed the full evidence off their server in the past month. All material and evidence has been collected and stored where it is not accessible or can be deleted or moved. When the DNC house of cards collapses, and we have unbiased and uncorrupted officials in the enforcement groups in this country, all of you will be dealt with, until then the Russian authorities will be dealing with it as it is one of Russia's original landmasses, all in that group have been warned several times and you are an accessory to the crimes against children. Debra Heap Kale, Richard Hobbs, Andrew Simmons, Brian D. Ridgeway, Mark Power, Brady Goddard, Randall Kaiser, Shane Bales all people who jumped out of our group into theirs are now considered accessories to serious crimes against children, you were all warned and chose to ignore it, that makes you as complicit as Rea and Barry Biggum, who maybe one and the same person, given their server links are connected. As of Tuesday their other website of whistleblowers was closed down and contents collected. thewhistleblowers.info site of Team Bubba has been blocked and they are currently under investigation by the Russian Authorities for child pornography, sex trafficking of young children from Eastern Europe. Expect other sites connected to them and all their other members websites and blogs to be investigated as part of a wider research, deleting will not work, we have all of your incriminating comments already stored, whilst you copy and pasted for fake, we did it for real.

OP-ED For those questioning it the TPC is nothing to do with Kim or The Trust, the $1 or more program is nothing to do with Kim or The Trust, both were my creations or ideas, although Kim did help with the setting up and paperwork to creating the TPC. Kim is not involved in TPC at all, TPC is about us all looking after ourselves and stepping forward in service to others, not the self. Now Kim has said she will provide project funds for the TPC but also to Kre8chnge and other people doing lead projects, and that is the top and bottom line of her input to the TPC. Kim works for The Trust, the same Trust that not one of these miscreants bothered to ask a single question about, or demand certain proofs of the previous Trustee, not a single question. Kim to date despite having worked for The Trust for seven years has received no pay for doing so, funny scam that. Kim is not obligated or here to provide proof to anybody, she is not selling anything, what is their to sell? It is a private establishment that is not connected to any country, and why it was called previously the Unknown country. I will ask the question again so people grasp it, what is Kim selling? If the Trust closes its doors for the next 495 years which it can do, what does that change for you? If you say it changes everything then you haven't gone into thinking and acting different have you? you saw it as another hand out program, something you didn't have to participate in too much. The Trust and it's workings in real terms is nothing to do with handing out pieces of paper with numbers on, money might be your god, but it is certainly not Kim or I's, Kim 7 years no pay, me 4 years no pay and yet we are scammers? I ask all who listen to this would you work on something for 4 or 7 years with no pay, all whilst taking a barrage of abuse? whilst all your friends, family and love partners are taken away from you, would you do it? I and a few others have built our own Trust in essence called the TPC and have gone with the $1 or more, which has more value for and by the people? one where all contribute and participate, or the one where people hold their hand out? So Kim is selling nothing and yet asked for proof of selling nothing, do people actually understand what they are saying, evidence points to no they don't. Do any of those people ask any other company to provide details of their proof, their financials, who they are sleeping with, are they a scammer, are they homeless or in poverty? no, people don't even question their own doctors whether they are expert enough to treat them, never mind question other establishments. I am humbled at the donations received into the TPC, and it will go to good causes even if the good causes at the time of donating, turn out to be a lot more nasty than previously thought, like Marilee Neitain and Shane Bales, both of them have received money from the TPC and now call it a scam. So in essence as Shane and Marilee have received financial gain from the TPC and I haven't, if they label it a scam, it is they who are the scammers as they received funds from the alleged scam, oops. Like I said these people do not think before they speak. Scam: an illegal plan for making money, quick profit, especially one that involves tricking people We will carry on doing the right things and helping and supporting each other, these lowlifes who attack do so out of envy and their own bitterness, because they are takers not givers, darkness not light and STS not STO. Whilst even our other two directors will admit that 99% of the work of TPC is all done by me, I will continue like the previous 3.5 years to not take a penny out of the TPC, until the larger funds come out. My funds comes from my Patreon which is voluntary, but apparently a voluntary donation is now consider a scam by some, and yet no one else whose has a Patreon apparently is a scammer, even if same said accusers have Patreons themselves, funny that. Kim is nothing to do with the TPC and has not received anything from it in terms of financial support, TPC is my company and my responsibility, along with my two directors, neither of which have received any funds or compensation out of it.

Yes many of you have been disappointed by Shane the Ruiner's actions this week, it is sad for all to see, someone fall that far, but unbeknown to many as I have kept quiet, Shane has done this to me privately several times for the last four years, made nasty and false allegations only to back track on all of them, sorry this time will not wash. Shane is the latest in a long line of agency based puppets sent out like a child's wind up toy to rake mud, lots of mud thrown in the desperate hope that something sticks, but nothing sticks against people operating in the truth anymore. It is a desperate act by the clowns to disrupt the work we are doing and have done, all other attempts have failed, and this one did also. He like those that went before him have done untold things to both the friends and families of both Kim and I, all designed to get us to quit. Shane gave it all away with his comment to me you need to get away from Kim, these people are not very bright and both Kim and I have seen and heard their bs many times before. Shane was the direct cause of my losing my girlfriend Chloe, although she doesn't help herself too much and was not entirely guilt free either, not once but twice he did it, along with his fellow supporter Marilee Neitain. Despite that I still helped him when he was struggling, I sent him a practically brand new laptop, and also $200 when he was out of work for food, since that day Shane has never messaged me once in 15 months, I guess gratitude is not one of his qualities either. Yet again the case of making allegations and yet again provides no details of proof to support said allegations, if you make allegations the burden of proof is on the part of the person making the allegations to provide the proof of their statements, none was forthcoming. Anyone can make statement, but if you are going to make allegations one would expect people to have the proof, no, that is not how it works in their world. The saddest part is Shane has gone so low as to support and join a pedophile group, when he suffered so much of that abuse himself as a child, but apparently now it is ok to support pedophiles when it suits an agenda. Shane doesn't like Kim despite saying to me he vetted her 3 times before the TPC started, despite also signing up as a director of TPC, but then Shane for no apparent reason decided he had lied about vetting Kim and TPC was fake, whatever that means. Then suddenly in summer 2016 Kim was the biatch from hell, and he talked Chloe into that bs as well and she left me over it, history always repeats and it did. Despite what Chloe did I decided last year to help her again, it is what I do help people, and some may think that I was stupid for me helping her, no its not, helping people is the right thing to do, forgiveness is the right thing to do, but Shane got involved with Chloe again recently, and that has now ended that partnership and my help of and for Chloe again. The problem is not helping people, the problem is the people you help turning nasty, is not my problem, it is theirs, they are what they are. Every person who has been removed from our group, which is generally a four person vote on whether members should be removed, not one, and the general rule is all members misbehaving get several warnings to improve before a vote is taken. This has always been the case, so all those in Team pedo failed to control their own poor behavior, and were nasty to other members before being removed, the evidence of their continued poor behavior is there for all to see in that group. The ethos of me and my admins go by or try to go by is we don't go looking for issues, we manage them when they arrive, although some people are flagged as potential issues, long before it happens. Shane says like he has some authority that The Trust is fake, fine that is his opinion, but like his pedo friends provides no proof to support his claims. Shane who is a Rothschild's which he himself has stated a few times on shows, but what I knew back in 2014 following chats with him and his revealing of who and what he was, Shane is also a Draco, related to Anu, Enki, Enlil and Marduk, same family line, all his words not mine. Yet despite that I still worked on a plan with him to try and make peace between the two species, for the future. I thought it would be of tremendous value, until Shane shape shifted metaphorically and brought out all the worst traits of his brethren. Apparently Rothschild's don't talk to each other, and Shane appears totally out of the loop, a 4 year loop given comments this week, one wonders at this point if it is Shane at all and not some agency based goon. So the Trust and Kim is fake says Shane, any proof? erm it is fake, so no proof then, when asked to explain why 3rd lead Rothschild asked Kim for funds in November, crickets, why would a Rothschild ask for funds from an alleged according Shane, a homeless person with no money? does that make any sense? And if you are going to make a statement she is allegedly homeless with no money, please explain how you can turn around and say she is scamming people? again does that make any sense? Why did lead Rothschild say to Kim it would be better if you hand over The Trust and quit just last week? but according to Mr. I am the authority figure on this Shane Rothschilds, it's fake, he clearly has no clue of anything that is going on, and someone needs to tell him it is 2020 now, not 2016 anymore. His relevance is not what it was, he hops in and out the alt media like some high school drop out, comes back talks shit and expects people to believe him because he is the Great Shane Bales/Sedore/Rothschild's. Because he didn't get his own way and was asked to provide proof, he then gets nasty and he stated 4 times he was going to do physical damage to me, offering to fight and threaten me, sorry Shane I don't do violence and I certainly don't wish to engage someone who has lost their mental faculties. I waited 4 years Shane for the public to see your true colors, now they do. May your lord, god and king bless you the way you bless others.

The point is in all of this is Shane jumps in and out of alt media to cause disruption and the request of his handlers, he supported me in outing the antics of Corey and Wilcock and I thank him for that, and that groundbreaking show we did together in September 2015, it changed things dramatically after that show. But there is a darker side to Shane that people let his calming voice into seducing you into their realm and darkness, it hides a bitter and twisted mindset as he has not addressed, of what his own people did to him as a child and onward. I pulled back from Shane when he went NEO on me, and you have heard me mention the quote I want to build millions of NEO's not one or be the one, that came from an interaction with him in October of 2016. Shane claims Kim is making fantastical claims and she has no proof, and to a degree that is correct, why that is I will say later, but proof is a two way street, not a one way cul de sac, so lets look at some of his claims. He is son of Anu, he claims he trained President Putin when he was 15, claims he was next in line to become the planetary being Saturn aka Setan aka Satan, claims to have spoken to the giants, claims to have spoken to the real Elders who he stated are 70-130K years old, claims to go out of body for months on end, claims to have been on and working with entities on the new earth, claims to have worked with The Parents, all extraordinary claims all that is it not? Some of which I may or may not believe but that is not the point here, where is his proof of all of these claims? so I challenge him to provide proof of all of his claims, in the same way he and his handlers are requesting from Kim and myself, it's only fair is it not? So I ask you all to go and message Shane to provide his proof of all the above claims, ask him is he a Rothschild, ask him is a Draco, ask him what happened with Stewart Swerdlow, ask him why he lures and seduces in Chloe Kirker and Kelly Frogge and then when they have their hopes raised, he crushed and dismissed them both, ask him what he did to Natasha Arthurs, ask him why he was in and working with Corey Goode and David Wilcock under the pseudonym of Harry, they dropped him and real reason why he turned on them, because he was cut out of the money pit they were creating, ask him why he was involved with Cassandra, who like him and his ilk are dismissive of humans. Calling Kim, me, The TPC and my patreon a scam, for those new I did not create my Patreon funding page, the members themselves requested it, I didn't request it as I didn't want personal gain for what I am doing, I wanted to set the example of being different. But threats to my life and my partner absconding due to mind control by others of which Shane was central to that, I realized it could help me be more involved than doing a day job and also the work for The Trust, and I thank you all for that and your contributions, all of which are voluntary, unlike Ms. Neitain I have never demanded money from anyone. I think most members would say who have contributed the varying amounts they have given me, although one or two have more than given me extraordinary sums which have helped me financially, you know who you are and I am eternally grateful. I give my time freely, too freely those close to me have said, but I do it so everyone can learn and improve themselves, not for financial gain, and this is what grates on these people, my example with their comparative mindset makes them feel lesser, when our show is about elevating the all, including them. I have been accused of sleeping with several people in the group and having love connections to a few others, that is my private life what difference does it make to you? why is it even discussed? it is more drama and resembles the sleeper people. If I have slept with all of them what difference does that make to what we are doing here? is it your business? what if I asked who you sleep with would you like that level of prying into your personal life?

So, we go into another phase of this of what is proof? in this world of fakery there is no defining proof anymore. Even with elements of my own show, how can proof be garnered? it can't it comes down to your own personal experiences, my truth is not yours, your truth is not mine. Pictures, paintings, artifacts, documents, false flag movies can all be staged now to look real, the classic example is 9/11 and two planes bringing down two buildings that were designed to withstand planes hitting them, everything now can be faked, like Hillary Clinton the woman of a thousand faces, but people believe that is Hillary do they not? Remember the CNN live interview and the reporter in Baghdad I think it was, when proven the interviewer and interviewee were both in an American car park, or Cooper Anderson and the green screen tactic with alleged victim of the Sandy Hook incident. All fakery and everything can be faked, so there is actually no proof anymore in real terms. But people believe, believe being the operative word, it has lie in the middle of it, it is not about what you believe, and everything about what you feel, the mind can be manipulated, your inner self can't when truly mastered. 1700 to 3000 have died from a virus recently the media tells us, have they shown proof to support those figures? no, but how many people have asked to provide proof to support their claims, if only the media, along with agency and govt officials were held to the same level of transparency and question, myself, Kim and THI were held to, then this world would be a much better place. This host and show gives you transparency, but for some they don't want transparency, they wish to destroy people based on the lie, to people with agendas, truth doesn't matter, truth is the light and they cannot handle the light, a bit like cockroaches is it not. What believe really means is, you cannot be bothered investigating yourself, and chose to be handed a script for you to follow, that is not believing or knowing in anything, that is a machine accepting data input, are you man or are you a machine. You have as an inner technology a proof and truth gadget inside of you all, it is called intuition, if your intuition feels I am not right for you, walk away, why waste more of your energy on it? Why spend all day turning nasty on me or anyone else, why are you turning yourself into the hate glass of water experiment? because if you are being nasty with someone else, regardless of what they may or may not have done to you, you have become that ugly molecular structure in Dr. Emoto's experiment. You may think you are getting back or revenge on someone else, but actually you are destroying yourself, not your target or enemy, that is how it works, we are 60-85% water it is symbiotic and symbolic, why would you do that to yourself? So the point is what constitutes proof? Kim can show certain documents, like the control system and some have seen the sovereignty letter to Trump what does that prove? because if people choose to have an agenda, there is never enough proof can be given to them people. I show all the figures for the TPC, it is posted publically and yet people still say despite public available records that either or both Kim and I are scamming it? a massive scam that over three and a bit years has collected $8k which all went to set TPC up, we saved $7K in fees because in a small part I did some filings and paperwork, but the bulk of money saved was done by Chloe. 2017 we collected in $5.5K in donations, 2018 a similar amount, 2019 just over $7K of which $2.5-$3k a year goes on fees to keep it operating or the radio show costs which was approved by the members, so $25K collected in donations over a 4 year period, ignoring all the fees which was $16K, which leaves $9K over 4 years wow what a massive payout I am getting for running a so called scam, $9K over 4 years! woo. But many of you know who have received help from that $9k over 4 years including Shane the ruined and Marilee I demand $6K off my cult members or I throw them out Neitain, so with my massive $9k scam money over 4 years, I helped them, kept one person in her home, fixed some peoples cars, supported a medical emergency, supported someone who ran out of gas and had no money to get home, helped a few who had lost their jobs all out of my $9K I scammed over 4 years, so you see showing proof makes not a blind bit of difference does it? None of the 6 directors of TPC has received a single cent, including the three that are no longer one of the Directors, one of which incidentally was Shane the Ruined, claims he saw the light, like Marilee former Sisterhood of the Rose out of Sirius star system, neither of those two would know what the light is if it smacked between the eyes, both are as dark as they come. If people cannot garner my intentions and integrity from over 300 shows at this point, and believe anything a Rothschilds, Draco walk in, who has agency based handlers telling him what to do and say, then those people who have or can leave our group with my blessing, it is not that they don't trust me, the reality is they don't trust themselves, you have made your choice, and you are not ready, or the right standing of person required for doing what we are doing going forward. One of their pedo supporting members asked recently what is alignment? Alignment is about being in balance with yourself, gaining a mastery over yourself, being in tune with yourself, recognizing your own shortfalls and triggers, and maintaining your 45/55 in balance with yourself and others. Alignment is being in balance with you, those around you and nature, a symbiotic dance of consideration for all others outside of yourself. But the great question is why anyone would have to ask what is alignment? the fact you have to ask speaks loudly to you that you are not in alignment with yourself, never mind others. Shady by name and nature it seems.

It is said that most people fall for at least one or several of these sins, overcoming them all leads to true enlightenment. The seven deadly sins: Lust is a strong passion or longing, especially for sexual desires. Chastity or self-control cures lust by controlling passion and leveraging that energy for the good of others. Gluttony is an excessive and ongoing eating of food or drink. Temperance cures gluttony by implanting the desire to be healthy, therefore making one fit to serve others. Greed is an excessive pursuit of material goods. Charity cures greed by putting the desire to help others above storing up treasure for one's self. Sloth is an excessive laziness or the failure to act and utilize one's talents. Diligence or zeal cures slothfulness by placing the interest of others above a life of ease and relaxation. Wrath is a strong anger and hate towards another person. Patience cures wrath by one first understanding the needs and desires of others before acting or speaking. Envy is the intense desire to have an item that someone else possesses. Kindness cures envy by placing the desire to help others above the need to supersede them. Pride is an excessive view of one's self without regard for others. Humility cures pride by removing one's ego and boastfulness, therefore allowing the attitude of service. This is what THI is for, avoiding the old ways via either the 7 deadly sins or the 5/6 hooks they try to lure us in with.

Working towards the betterment of humanity requires all people to come together, helping and supporting each other, it is a moral obligation you all have regardless of whether you like me or THI, arguing over every single fear based point within your state or country groups, if you cannot look after or follow the few guidelines within a FB or Mewe page, how are you going to run a TPC organization with funding, you can't and you won't. The funds will be given to those who are ready, most are not petty squabbling, people leaving the groups over who is more important than others, people refusing others to come in and help them, all examples of not being ready for the funds, it is your loss not mine in that situation, but also you are failing your own state or country. You are representing your whole state or country, step up to the responsibility that entails, it requires a commitment to yourself and to others, it requires you doing your best, it requires you supporting each other at all times. Darkness comes in many forms and pervades in people who allow it, it is always testing you, any sign of weakness and it gets. We have people who have left the group, I can do hundreds of shows and this is great and or Fantastic Thomas, then one comment from me they don't agree with, and off they go and suddenly I am some demon from hell, or one comment from the darkness and it is all off, I wonder do these people live their lives under such pressures where there every word or inactions is dissected, diced and pureed, do they hold themselves as accountable as they hold me or others? you should be ashamed of yourselves for allowing darkness or agenda driven idiots to sway you, not me from your path. I warned this would unfold and for all to stay calm, in balance and support each other, people who hide, are operating from the shadows, which is not being of the light. Beacons, which is a sign of your own progress, have to be switched on and shown for all to see, are you up for the challenge? in what is the greatest period in history for humans for at least a 110K years. A few years ago now back in 2015 I did the factions show to get people to understand the various groups of dark forces operating within our midst, and to show that the group known as the Illuminati no longer exists and has splintered into factions. The five factions were the Asian, Nazi, Jesuits, Jewish/Hebrew and the Secret Society groups, with the work done that is connected to The Trust and this show, those 5 factions now are really down to just two, the Rothchild's and the Black Sun have basically swallowed the 5 factions. Most if not all of the main alt media shows or blogs are faction based. Some people may not believe this statement now, but over time if it hasn't already revealed itself to you it will, there are only 3 groups now vying for the lead role for this planet. The Roths and Black Sun are vying for power and control over us, and continuation of the old system, the 3rd group is Kim, myself and The Trust fighting on behalf of the people on that level of operating. That is where we are at now, one group fighting for your benefit, having shredded their Top Order people, shredded their Parents, shredded their covens, reduce the collective Illuminati to 5 factions. We have shredded their destroyer, their prince, their lord and their king, shredded their 5 factions into 2, who are fighting each other, and for first time in many thousands of years, we the people are represented at the highest table and an increasing chance of prevailing. They are reduced now to sending pedophiles, criminals and witches, in alignment with Rothschild's puppet to disrupt you and us, that Rothschild is so far out in the loop in regards to what is the now it is not funny, as he found out for himself over the weekend, oops I bet that hurt Shane, hearing the truth. That is an amazing victory in and of itself, given all the sorcery, mind control and various other tools and entities to attack us in the past. They have lost the narrative badly on all levels, and they are trying to create a new one based predictably on lies, only their lies and twisted agendas do not work like the past, and time always tells. The only tool those clowns have left now is, keeping you all divided. Which place do you stand? United we stand, or divided we fall.
