

THI-SHOW TRANSCRIPT 2020-04-02

This host and show has a lot of detractors when we have shown many proofs, the Shanes, Team Bubbas, Randy Maugans and various others who wish to discredit us all make statements and yet conveniently leave out any proof of their claims, which is no different to the MSM media, all spit out scripts and yet remain unchallenged of providing proof to back their claims. One radio show host described our show of 3 hours of steamy rehashed dog shit this week, they doth protest and envy too much, this show will provide more clarity and also further proofs to back it up.

Why are hospitals empty, why is heart disease being posted as corona virus death, where is the proof of their claims of deaths? 100's in New York they say, 100's in California again no evidence, is it a coincidence of false reporting of deaths in those two states? no, why? because they will request more funding is why, and those two states are the pinnacle of greed based money harvesters. does that show reduce you or inspire you? how you perceive it is how you are thinking or operating. Did it have sad messages and not what you want to hear? yes it did, but few you didnt already know. Did it overwhelm you are lack of support? why, that has always been the case Does the alt media being corrupt disturb you? why I told all back in 2016 it was, so that hasn't changed either and yet despite all that we have still achieved so much, and proven we didn't need their "help" I have said all along we save us, and that will never change, along the way we will pick up stragglers, fence sitters and minions to our cause, why? they will have no other option. April could well be explosive in more ways than one.

I detect quite a disappointment amongst many of you in regards to Mr. Trump and Q of links to Black Rock and taking over the Federal Reserve, with the obvious links to the Black Sun elements, even Anna Von Reitz called that out as well. A few things come from this, people will ask does Trump know about Black Sun? the answer is yes and we have made him aware of those facts. Is Trump aware the Federal Reserve is defunct, has no license since 2012 and can't print dollars, yes again we have made him aware and also shown the papers proving it. People will ask have I changed my stance on Trump? I will say what I have said previously in many shows, that I will support Trump or anyone operating for and by the people, and I have repeated that consistently. I personally don't care much for politicians, the majority of them are self serving greed merchants, who over time have done little to nothing to aid or support the people they represent. Personalities don't appeal to me either, I don't care what fake label you have or how perceived higher rank you have, if you are not for and by the people I will call it out. I remember saying in one show if they replaced Trump with George Bush Jnr and he was following to the letter the changes to be made for and by the people, I would support him, personalities and titles don't count, actions do. Remember the events piece a year or so ago and many have been added to that list since, so likely over 40 now, none were achieved with Trump, Q or the any government we did that ourselves, and with our expanding groups now generating massive interest globally, with talk this week of adding over 100K members to the group from countries afar, that we is now sharing the load a bit into a public arena, of what was largely a hidden war. Trump spoke recently of fighting a hidden war and hidden people, well we have been doing the bulk of that with many others long before Trump even came into office, all done by ordinary people, if they wish to join us fine, if they don't then fine also, as we have proven we don't need them and it is only a matter time before they all fall.

Alex Salmond has been cleared of sexually assaulting nine women while he was Scotland's first minister. A jury found the former SNP leader not guilty on 12 of the sexual assault charges facing him, while another was found not proven. A further charge of sexually assaulting a 10th woman had previously been dropped by prosecutors. Mr Salmond had said he was innocent of all the charges against him throughout the two-week trial. The women who made the allegations against Mr Salmond included an SNP politician, a party worker and several current and former Scottish government civil servants and officials. During his evidence to the court, he said the claims made about his alleged conduct were "deliberate fabrications for a political purpose" or "exaggerations". Typical cover up by Scottish MP's who were all responsible for the Dunblane school massacre in 1996, because some of the children began to talk of the sexual abuse by well known politicians that were the backbone of the Tony Blair government. They hired a patsy Thomas Hamilton to kill 16 children and then launch one child who survived that into a global superstar in the field of Tennis, that child was Andy Murray. This is being covered up by Scotland Yard, they could have prevented that event and all the other people like Jimmy Saville and cohorts, but in their investigation it all lead back to the Royals, and they deleted the files and investigation, but time will always tell. Everton and its official charity Everton in the Community has today launched 'Blue Family', a coordinated outreach and engagement campaign to maintain contact with fans and provide vital support and assistance to some of the most vulnerable, socially isolated and at-risk members of the community in the wake of the coronavirus pandemic. The 'Blue Family' campaign will maintain and extend the reach of the Club and the charity following the closure of all Club sites, the suspension of football fixtures and the postponement of most community programme delivery. The Club will be providing £50,000 to fund the launch and initial activities and will be reallocating Club and Community staff to ensure the effective delivery of the campaign. Evertonians across the world are together during this difficult time - and that's why the Club has launched its Blue Family campaign to bring our amazing fanbase and community together - and to help the most needy and vulnerable members of society. The initial outreach activity includes: Fans and members of the community in greatest need contacted by Everton in the Community staff to deliver tailored and focused support, assistance and guidance, including: Essential food parcels distribution, including breakfast packs for young children Financial assistance for prescription purchases and delivery Mobile phone credit for those living alone and with limited support networks Support with gas and/or electricity vouchers for those facing increased fuel bills Mental health support and advice A referral service for access to Everton in the Community's support provision Calls from the Everton Fan Centre to thousands of fans to maintain contact and provide a friendly voice to talk to, prioritising the elderly and isolated Increased communication through the Club's email, social media and web platforms to share important public information and deliver engaging content for those in isolation Exercise and mindfulness videos provided by trained staff from the Club and Everton in the Community. Fresh food intended for players and staff at Everton's USM Finch Farm training headquarters was donated to North Liverpool Foodbank [NLF] on Friday. Everton and its official charity Everton in the Community [EitC] this week launched its Blue Family campaign, designed to support and assist some of the city's most vulnerable community members following the coronavirus outbreak. Produce collected from USM Finch Farm was delivered to NLF where it will be packaged into essential food parcels ready for distribution to those in need across north Liverpool. Throughout the day, the Club's Fan Services team continued to call vulnerable, isolated and at-risk people across Merseyside to ensure the Blue Family initiative continued to support those in need. The charity's Neighbourhood team has continued to work to support more than 10,000 residents living within the immediate vicinity of Goodison Park and is running a phone/text/email service for any local resident requiring advice or support relating to matters such as housing, benefits and general wellbeing. All great stuff and why that club is nicknamed The Peoples Club, they do a lot for the community, whilst the more richer and media based darlings less than a mile away, give little to nothing back to their community or fan base, and they are not just rivalry biased words either, the opinion gathered to support that statement came from several charities within the region all stating the same, they give you nothing, but Everton are always willing to help, support and give.

SUB INTEL The right-wing Israeli Likud party headed by current Crimes Minister Benjamin Netanyahu proposed on Wednesday bill calling for executing Palestinian political prisoners. Reporting Miki Zohar, the head of the Likud faction in the Knesset, the Israeli newspaper Israel Hayom said that the party also proposed another bill to annex the Jordan Valley, the Northern Dead Sea and the desert of Al Khalil (Hebron) in the occupied West Bank to Israel. It is worth noting that Avigdor Lieberman, the head of Yisrael Beiteinu, who is currently endorsing the head of Blue and White party, Benny Gantz, for the prime minister post, has called for the heads of the Palestinian prisoners to be chopped off with an axe. Lieberman has also described the Palestinians inside Israel as a "fifth column" and called them "enemies." "We will see how they will work together with those [Palestinians in Israel] who work against the state," Zohar said. In December 2017, Lieberman, who then served as defence minister, introduced a bill allowing the use of the death penalty against Palestinian prisoners. The bill did not go through the Knesset.

Netizens and experts are calling for the US government to release information on the suspension of an infectious disease research lab under the US Army, as a petition on the White House website listed coincident events between the closure and the outbreak of COVID-19, urging the US government to clarify whether the lab was related to the deadly virus. While the origin of the novel coronavirus is still unknown and conspiracy theories have caused widespread panic, experts said that timely information disclosure to the public would benefit global unity and cooperation against the pandemic, which had infected more than 150,000 people and killed 5,400 around the world as of Saturday. The Fort Detrick laboratory that handles high-level disease-causing material, such as Ebola, in Frederick, Maryland was shut after the US Centers for Disease Control and Prevention issued a cease and desist order to the organization in July, 2019 according to local media. The suspension was due to multiple causes, including failure to follow local procedures and a lack of periodic recertification training for workers in the biocontainment laboratories. The wastewater decontamination system of the lab also failed to meet standards set by the Federal Select Agent Program, media reported. The lab, which was closed more than half a year ago, recently caught public attention as a petition submitted to the White House website on March 10 listed some coincidences in time between the closure and the COVID-19 outbreak. For example, "a large-scale 'influenza' killed more than 10,000 people" in the US in August 2019 following the closure; and the COVID-19 epidemic broke out globally in February 2020 after the US organized Event 201 - A Global Pandemic Exercise - in October 2019. The petition also noted that many English-language news reports about the closure of Fort Detrick were deleted amid the worsening COVID-19 pandemic, raising suspicions over the lab's relationship with the novel coronavirus. Petitioners urged the US government to publish the real reason for the lab's closure and to clarify whether the lab was related to the novel coronavirus and whether there was a virus leak.

The Spycgate scandal is shaping up to be the most significant political abuse of government power in history. And it may be even larger than people expect. The investigation by U.S. Attorney John Durham into the origins of the FBI's Russian collusion investigation – or as President Trump prefers to call it, the witch hunt – continues to expand. Durham reportedly opened criminal investigations last fall. And unlike the narrow Justice Department Inspector General's review of the abuse of the FISA process, Durham is looking into the questionable activities of other government agencies, in particular the CIA and its former director John Brennan. The widening scope involves not only the agencies being investigated, but who was being targeted and why. Earlier last week Sharyl Attkisson reported that, based on her sources in the intelligence and law enforcement communities, the authorizations to spy on Trump functionaries such as Carter Page or former campaign manager Paul Manafort were actually pretexts for a much more expansive web of surveillance that could include anyone in contact with Page, or even anyone twice removed from the ostensible target. Hence, thousands of people could have been unknowingly caught up in the Spygate web and are still unaware that their privacy had been violated under the severely compromised FISA process. Judicial Watch has chronicled how Obama's United Nations Ambassador Samantha Power and National Security Adviser Susan Rice, among others, colluded in this effort to bolster the "insurance policy" to hobble the Trump presidency. There is also the matter of President Obama finalizing rules in the closing days of his administration that opened the raw, unedited information feeds collected by the National Security Agency to all of the 16 other agencies in the Intelligence Community before any privacy protections are implemented.

The drop in the stock market since the coronavirus outbreak began has resulted in huge losses for millionaires in the United States. At the start of the year, there was a record 11 million people in the country with over a million dollars in assets, according to a new study published by research firm Spectrem Group.

However, after the fluctuating losses and gains of the past several weeks, approximately 500,000 people who were on that list are no longer millionaires. While that number is sure to change from day to day, it seems safe to assume that when all is said and done there will be fewer millionaires after the pandemic than there were before. While there are some ripple effects experienced by the general population, the wealthy are most affected by the stock market crash. The top 1 percent of households owned 53.5 percent of equities and mutual fund shares, according to data from the Federal Reserve. According to the Bloomberg Billionaire Index, the world's 500 richest people have lost nearly $1.3 trillion since the beginning of the year. The nation's wealthy certainly lost the most money in the past few months, but they had much more to lose, and many of them have private bunkers, or at the very least enough resources to get them through this difficult time. People who live paycheck to paycheck may not have lost much money in the stock market, but many of them have lost their jobs and fear that they won't be able to afford to survive in the coming weeks and months. It was reported this week that 3.3 million Americans filed for unemployment, shattering previous records. The Labor Department said in a statement announcing the numbers: All as forecast in original Clowns in Panic done last year was it not? INTEL Who are Blackrock, linked to the Blackstone group and ultimately all other color code program like Black Dragon, Blackwater and Black Sun. Predictably out of New York, and two of the four main executives on whose details I managed to research were born to Jewish Parents, why is that significant? because it crops up so many times now in key positions it has to be noted as a pattern, a distinguishing and indicative one at that. BlackRock Solutions was retained by the U. S. Treasury Department in May 2009 to manage the toxic mortgage assets (i.e. to analyze, unwind, and price) that were owned by Bear Stearns, AIG, Inc., Freddie Mac, Morgan Stanley, and other financial firms that were affected in the 2008 financial crisis.

Despite BlackRock's attempts to model itself as a sustainable investor, one report shows that BlackRock is the world's largest investor in coal plant developers, holding shares worth $11 billion among 56 coal plant developers. Another report shows that BlackRock owns more oil, gas, and thermal coal reserves than any other investor with total reserves amounting to 9.5 gigatonnes of CO2 emissions – or 30 percent of total energy-related emissions from 2017. BlackRock CEO Laurence D. Fink stated that other CEOs should be aware of their impact on society, however, anti-war organizations are discontent with Fink's statement, because his company is the largest investor in weapon manufacturers through its iShares U.S. Aerospace and Defense ETF.

Oil is a big issue and is playing out between Rothschild's and Black Sun members now, the reason for highlighting Venezuela recently is the oil coming through there is Iraqi black market oil, although not so much now as oil is as we forecasted last year is now below $30 a barrel, current price $22 a barrel, which puts it at below black market rate. This has wrecked the shale market that requires $50 a barrel to break even, and heavy crude which requires between $40-50 a barrel to break even as well. The issue that is rapidly arising with oil right now is, there is such a glut of it and with reduced sales and use of it, it is said that the world will soon run out of places to store it. The cost to produce 1 barrel of oil is $1. Black Rock are a part of the black market oil deals.

Wednesday brought up Trump for a tv address on corona virus, what we got in essence was an illegal drug address involving Venezuela, Columbia, Mexico and other central American countries and how things needed to be stopped. This show stated in intel recently of warning Trump that clowns were trying to bring in stronger strain of a virus into America, via ports and planes, and we are glad to see he is acting on it. As for the rest of the drugs trading and going after cartels, it appears from my perspective of faction fighting in essence between two factions of Langley. Langley bought and paid for all illegal drugs, cartels, weaponry and trading of it, including all the drug and child trafficking tunnels dotted throughout the SW border, including paying off the Texas Bush Rangers and various other so called government enforcement groups designed to protect the border, not for the Government but the CIA. If this country is ever going to be free, elements within Langley and the subsidiaries plus the NSA and Silicon Valley have to be cleared out, this will help several other countries blighted by this parasitic organization.

There was a big booming earthquake at 10km again, one wonders was it at Sawtooth National Forest Idaho, that contains a massive deposit one of which was the forerunner to obtain assets to takeover America by the CIA and other subsidiaries. That field contains Rare Earth minerals which they want for time travel and also gold totalling 5.4B metric tons of which they believed only 4.5M was required, that is known as LLC 3. As for your time travel, that is not happening, no matter who you attempt to coerce into doing so, and you all know who I am referring to.

There is no stimulus bill or checks without the 2% fee being paid, period.

Eerie similarities 1963 and 2008 is Q in Q tel which is out of Langley? bail outs blackrock treasury, infighting. Back in 2008 and unlike what was said earlier in a new piece the banks were affected by the financial crisis and by and large people accepted that narrative, that would be a no, the banks in part created the financial crisis with their greed based harvesting system, in part 2008, now 2020 they are solely responsible for the financial crisis, period. No longer do they have M and The Trust to blame which largely created the 2008 crash, now it is them. There is financial crash, they have harvested everything and created it that way, they have blocked The Trust releasing new money and money owed to every country, because they can't control it, and yet the policy makers wish to bail them out again, only this time with fresh air policies, fresh air bills and fresh air hopium, there is no stimulus without The Trust. People have to understand finances, if you create or print new money, you have to have an asset base to support it, they have no assets, none, all of the assets were pledged to the Trust by them, for them to build their mini empires of control, only now all the debts are called in, they have nothing left and the dwindling money supply increased again by the removal of $1.89T they syphoned out of the stock market and was subsequently taken off of them, reduced the money supply further. The same syphoning out of the oil markets was or will be swiped also. So in 2008 the rogue based US Treasury dept called in a group to sort out the mess, in 2020 the rogue based US Treasury dept called in a group to sort out the mess, the company used both times is, Black Rock who are trying to leverage black market oil to finance their takeover of America, hence the oil price war ongoing currently. This is what was said in the Treasury dept this week and shows their total arrogance, naivety and also an admittance they are and have lost their control, do you think Kim will pay us out without her 2% fees, that will be a no, not happening.

So now we go into similarities of 1963 and now, when Kennedy spoke of secret societies being repugnant, changing the Fed, changing the currency and building a space based group Goznak currency printing out of Russia as the main center of De La Rue Rothschild's is being squeezed by the Black Sun group. Back in 1963 Kennedy was plotting along with Soewarno both of whom are Black Sun, which may shock some but we will show the proof of which, remember Kennedy is one of the 13 American bloodlines families of control and he also married into the Onassis family, another wealth based family line involved in shipping, of which they received carte blanche contracts and deals to virtually monopolize all shipping lanes. So what was going on then and is replicated now, well it involves Trump and Q and the pushing of JFK Jnr still being alive, it matters not whether he is or isn't. JFK seniors burial place is in the shape of a Q as the story goes, so back in 1963 Kennedy tried along with Soewarno to print new currencies via the Green Hilton agreement signed off on November 14th 1963 with a range of $1B

USD notes that was going to get around the Federal Reserve ran by the Rothschild's (show G), this was an attempt to bypass the treasury also. $2 bills were starting to be issued on a par with the Green Hilton Agreement issued via The Treasury and ultimately bypassing the Fed, who were being operated via the Black Eagle Trust that was set out under the Bretton Woods agreement created during WW2. The Black Eagle Trust was stolen loot out of Japan and Germany after WW2 and this is known as the Yamashita gold and Global debt fund mentioned by World Bank operator Karen Hudes. The Black Eagle Trust which was ran in America at least by the Bush group, and they are publically stated as owning $240B in 10 year Treasury notes that all became due on, September 12th 2001, you don't need a leap of faith to decide who was involved in the previous days carnage. JFK jnr who died two years earlier had a magazine called George, he called it that as it was outing who killed his father, George Bush senior, GHW Bush would go on to not only take out Kennedy snr but junior as well, all done with compliance and support of the CIA. In 1963 GHW Bush was running the CIA and this is why Kennedy was in hatred of the CIA and secret societies as all were run by head of the Black Dragon, George HW Bush who was Rothschild's based, whilst JFK and Soewarno were Black Sun. In 1998 the Black Sun tried to implement a change of control again as shown by these two pictures (show E & F) which likely facilitated the death of JFK Junior which also aided a certain unknown into the public realm and future Pindar, Hillary Clinton. Hillary Clinton is a Rothschild, Bill Clinton a Rockefeller. Around the same time as the Green Hilton agreement, Kennedy signed off with Russian counterpart to hand over all information of extra terrestrial knowledge and technology between both countries on November 11th, this then stripped away the secrecy and security clearance levels down to Presidential level and so accessible to those wanting to run that program. Kennedy started issuing the new $1B notes to fund NASA which were ran by Black Sun elements Werner Von Braun being one of them, those notes were shown earlier. Soewarno out of Indonesia was backing Kennedy to be the new head of the Black Dragon for N. America replacing Bush, and the new notes were bypassing the Rothschild's based Federal Reserve, but after his death they took all of the assets off of Kennedy and Soewarno and carried on their harvesting program. Soewarno was also the head of the group known as Swissindo, which is why Neil Keenan was involved in Indonesia, Soewarno and the Kennedy story also. Neil Keenan family was a friend of the Kennedys and he often went as a child on the private Kennedy plane, you maybe surprised to know that the name Keenan is a derivative of the name Kennedy, and why both focused on their Irish side. Keenan was in with the IRA in fact I was on a call with Neil when head of IRA came on the call, I think his name was Dermot, but not 100% sure who was somewhere allegedly in the Middle East at the time, around 2014, The IRA run many of the mafias and are an enforcement and procurement arm for the Black Sun. So this brings us up to the now 2020, yet again we are seeing the printing of new notes, yet again with taking over the Rothschild's based Federal Reserve, only this time using their own printing group as most of the rest of the world's printing of currencies is the Rothschild's based De La Rue. These notes are being printed out in Russia now by a company named Goznak, who are also The Black Sun here is proof of said notes (A-D) This is the same game new boss same as the old boss, and here is your latest new, new, new, new notes, after Treasury note failed, new Fed note failed, SDR note failed, Treasury dollar note failed and digital dollar failed, although they will try that again, that will fail also, remember a note like a bill is a debt instrument. For their part the Rothschild's are trying to implement a new US dollar and then an International dollar bill via The Fed, likely to be digital based, that will fail also - just saying. The whole myth via the internet that John F Kennedy was doing all that he said for the benefit of the people, is a 100% lie, this was a family based feud which still simmers today between the Kennedys and the Bush family. This is why Trump who was closed friend of JFK Jr was stating to release the files on who killed JFK, as it would bring down that side of the faction, expose who was involved in the killings of both JFK's and enable the public to create a firestorm against the former controllers of this country, whilst they set in place a new faction of new boss same as the old boss, with potentially far worse consequences than staying with the previous psychopaths. I appreciate this will not please Q followers or Trump's either, but you have to understand the nature of the beast we are dealing with here, to then grasp what is playing out, can Trump and Q still prosper? yes, but a change of direction is required and they have to fly straight, can they do that? time will tell. Whether that scares you are not, that over time will be seen as fact, remember the White Hats going into Indonesia? now you know why and who they represent, those White Hats are the Earth Allianz and subsequently Black Sun. Whether are detractors some of whom are invested in keeping the old program with a new boss and some just not knowledgeable enough to understand what is playing out, the only group operating for and by the people is The Trust and the team.

OP-ED This was stated by Anna Von Reitz, Black Rock, Smack Rock Well, meet your brand new "Financial Services" Company, which has been the "operative manager" of the merger of the Fed, a crime syndicate, with the IMF, another crime syndicate, and which now stands in the middle of the middle. Black Rock. Like Black Law. Like Black Water. Like Black Everything, except, of course, black people, which they generally despise and use and abuse as slaves. Time to wake up, people. Summon the Army of Gideon and rise.

So who is this Gideon she refers to? In this Bible story, from chapter 6 of the book of Judges, Gideon is called upon to save the people of Israel by leading them against the Midianites. In a common theme of apostasy, the people of Israel had done "what was evil in the sight of the Lord, and the Lord gave them into the hand of Midian." The Midianites were capturing any crops produced by the Israelites, giving them grief. When the people of Israel realized the error of their ways and cried out for help to the Lord, a prophet was sent to deliver them as they had been rescued from Egypt. Enter Gideon, while harvesting wheat and hiding from the Midianites an angel spoke to him and addressed him as a mighty man of courage. The angel told Gideon that God is sending him to "save Israel from the hand of Midian." Although at first Gideon doubts his ability to do so, he is heartened that God will be with him in this mission. The first task he is commanded to fulfill is destroying the Altar of Baal the Israelites have constructed, evidence of their apostasy. And so, during the night, Gideon and ten of his men took down the Altar of Baal making the townspeople very angry and asking for the death of the altar destroyer. Joash, the father of Gideon, then tells them if Baal really is a god he will kill Gideon himself, saving his son. Seeking reassurance from the Lord, Gideon requests prove of God's promise to save Israel using a fleece. Encouraged by the acts of God, Gideon and his men then travel near the camp of Midian and prepare for battle. It is clear that God wants the Israelites to realize his divine validity, telling Gideon to lessen his army from thousands to just 300 men to defeat the Midianites. Also, Gideon overhears from a dream of one of the Midianites that he is destined to conquer Midian and save the Israelites from oppression. Gideon commanded his 300 comrades to surround the Midian camp, making it seem the Midianites were greatly outnumbered, then blow their trumpets on every side and shout, "For the Lord and for Gideon!" When the Midianites heard the trumpets and saw the torches surrounding their camp they cried out and fled, a triumphant victory for Gideon and the Israelites. All too familiar of the FRWL series is it not? The Lord, god all saving Israel, except it didn't exist until 1948, they were not saving anything, they were conquering humans under the often played script of you are the good guys and they are the bad guys. The Israelites built the altar of Ba'al another sacrifice center like Solomon and Herod temples, these people the rest of the world are told are god and the lords chosen people, does anyone not ask the question who or what is this god who tolerates and exonerates their heinous behaviors? The Lord has done this many many times on this planet for his alleged chosen ones, he has treated this planet like a giant civ game, lets get them all to fight over some fake territory, after they declared it holy, but if the middle east of our planet is so holy and righteous based on their following of religion, why has that whole region been a bloodbath for millenias? Religion is about peace and love of your fellow man, morals and all things good we are told, in India we are told they are spiritual based and divine worship, yet they won't even look after their own people and place them in a caste system, so clearly the books of holiness and spirituality does not make a man or woman act in the right manner does it, and so one must deduce that religion and current versions of spiritually are a failed enterprise. That will not please some but lets look at it rationally of what you believe and what I believe with another example, if you bought a gadget from a store that tells you to do this and it will make you a better person than others and it didn't work, would you ask for your money back and or discard that gadget? Of course you would because it didn't do what the marketeers promised, well I hate to say this but the church marketeers are no different, the program doesn't do what it says and that should be clear to many more people now. But your wrong Thomas it does they will argue, ok, then please explain to me why the world is in such a mess with 4.5B religious followers? please explain why your god is telling you to kill followers of other gods? please explain why god doesn't protect the children of any religion? please explain why your Lord is a total dictator? were he says in several parts of the book, if you don't do this or that, I will bring down plagues, pestilence, famine and disease and I will smighteth you. If the holy book was about morals, peace and loving where is the evidence of such behaviors in the 4.5B people who follow it? Look around you, the world is a steaming pile of mess, where are all these moral values religious people correcting it? They are not and that is the brutal truth and fact no matter how upsetting that is, the world cannot go on with falsehoods, fake gods, fake history, fake countries and religious based hierarchical and tyrannical systems, we have to get smarter than that. It has cost us so many lives waiting for a religious based savior to come and rescue us, he, it or they never come because A: they are not who you thought they were and B: it's all a fake program designed to take you all away from your real god, source, which is not above or external of you, but resides within each of us awaiting you to access it. The Lord is not god, The Lord is not Jesus either, The Lord is not alive either they tell you that in the bible, it is in all capital letters, which means dead person, A Lord is below a King in titles, who was the King? Marduk after he was given control of this planet by his Grandfather the Lord, better known as Anu, the head of the Draco reptile group, also known as the Father, to Enki and Enlil, they were called Uncle in the clown circles, and why it was so disturbing hearing Wilcock who is ran by agency clowns speaking of Trump as the "father". The question remains for religious people is, does it make any rational sense of what they speak of? talking snakes, burning bushes that talk to you, immaculate conceptions, walking on water, parting oceans, a cloud in the sky passing laws and commandments, the ark story, god throwing his supposed children out of the house into the wilderness, kissing sandstone walls, praying to a black cube does any of this make any rational sense? go to your psychologist and tell them you have just experienced or did all of the above and see what happens. Anna Von Reitz short piece confirms further the split within the factions, and proof that Nazis which is National Zionism are not all in one camp, proof the Jewish based camp is not one either, both Anna and her cousin Emily Windsor Cragg are following Jewish based lines, in fact Emily says she channels Yahweh, oh dear. The fact Black Rocks lead directors are Jewish including head person Fink, proves with Anna's piece A: the Jews don't operate as one body and B: proves what FRWL has been saying all along, not all Jews are Jews, some are very different, and I will go as far to say, some are not totally human either. The fact these factions use the holy book to justify their stance is also very telling, it proves that books was not written for or by us, but a mixture of rogue off world elements documenting their story as them being our gods, but it is not our source or creator, and that is why I have no time or interest in supposed holy books. When the mind control blinkers come off all will begin to see. What this also highlights from Annas piece is the illusion of the good guys narrative, the story highlighted of defeating Ba'al would be celebrated by many and so the guys who defeated him are declared as the good guys, but did anything change after that war? no!! It is exactly the same as Rothschild's running the

Fed, QAnons celebrating the Fed changing hands only it is replaced by something equal or worse, The Black Sun group. The call Kim had with a Rothschild's asking for funding to fight against The Black Sun under the banner we are not opposites we have a common enemy, the same bs we are the good guys so help us, Kim replied no you are not getting it, you are both bad guys and you were both created that way by M, and told to fight each other to keep yourselves occupied whilst he and they looted the planet. The same happened in the war of 16500 years ago when the good guys came in and saved the humans, in stepped the Draco as the saviors, and I don't need to remind you how that turned out. See the comparisons? like said in the 100 series where are the good guys? the answer back there are none, it applied then and applied now until The Trust, Kim and the team stepped up and gave the people an alternative solution, that works solely for and by the people, and yet by and large the people reject it, well we are in good company, as previous teachers and revolutionaries operating for the people were rejected as well, and therein lies were the problems reside, US.

I don't care you don't like my stance on 5G, chemtrails and religion they are my opinions and you can take them or leave them, but our overall show is not defined by those 3 topics, and if you are going to create sticking points on one or two topics, that is not reflective of me, but those who make it an issue. Our show covers probably well over 50 topics unlike other shows that has 1 or 2 or a niche based show, so I apologize if I don't cover the ant gestation period in Outer Mongolia or the flora at the bottom of Lake Baikal in Russia, we cover so much more. Focus on what we agree on and by all means focus on 5G if that is your thing, but don't be challenging me on my opinion to change it, it is in overall a complete waste of time and energy, moreso if you are complaining of 5G from a smartphone. The simple solution to ending 5G is don't have a phone, if no one had phones they will stop putting up 5G towers, so the individual not me is responsible for removing 5G. The sheer concept of complaining about 5G when you all have phones from overview is ridiculous, so it is time the 5G proponents did the right thing and ditch their phones, and so preventing the spread of 5G, but how many will do that? and again do people not see therein lies the problem, that people wont sacrifice part of their lifestyle for the greater good. If you are really worried about frequencies ditch your microwave, Clowns in Panic told you real reason behind 5G.

best thing people can do to change their lives is, stop keeping up with the fake Jones's program. Why struggle in a home you cannot afford? what is point of keeping that "status"? just down size, house is a home, not a status symbol. that is how people can change the system, quit their debt harvesting programs, let them carry on in their fake status and debt cycle game, in essence it is they who are downsizing their lives, staying in homes they cannot afford. what is wrong with admitting you cannot afford something? "new" technology has cost most people their lifestyles. $100's for cable, $100's for phones/internet, never mind all the other gadgets. bobby had a great idea of selling unwanted stuff of which we all have bundles of, and a portion going to TPC will put more money in your pocket and a little into TPC

So they established the social distancing rule, same measurement of when people are buried, cohen cidence, I think not. This is a direct attempt to install more control of the person and the mind, it will become a theme and a meme for bot like people to follow, beyond the virus fear based period ending. This is to stop the clockwise based energy flow currently going on and being spread amongst the populace, cut off the connections and send us back into the anticlockwise flow, which is harvesting the energy. So they set the gaps between us again in a classic divide and conquer program, even re-introduced the masks because the old ones all failed, it's symbolic and in your face. Yet curiously those 6 foot gaps are not present in the Presidents media address, or the political rallies to establish the next President, or the military training or other gatherings. It has not applied inside the Treasury, The Federal Reserve or the globalist meetings, only to the stupified public of I will obey you master, do as I tell you I am your new god. Stay at home, lose your income, lose your jobs, lose your business whilst we carry on as normal, because it won't affect us, because we are your new god, remember recent Q post of god wins? which god begs the question does it not? If 6 foot distancing applies and if that is the criteria set, lets all report Langley offices, NSA offices, rogue research center establishments, UN meetings, FEMA meetings and any other clown based meetings, even better report CNN, MSNBC, Fox and other portal people. The question is how many did that? likely none, yet people will report of other people having gatherings, so who is the real problem here? we are.

THI/TPC is the lead role of what happens next, our focus is not on who is a criminal or who gets arrested, that does not affect our lives. Our focus is on what happens after those MSM events, those events are not for the real alt media's peoples notifications, we already know who what when and why, that is not our focus. We are THInk different. yes they have a vast archive of information they can be directed to via thinkdifferent website, our focus is what happens after they all find out of what we already know. How will we take things forward, develop a better way and teach the better way is our main focus. The gist of the mass arrest stuff is, is so people can tell their own circle I told you so and prove they were not nuts after all, and I get that more than most being in this position, but it cannot be our sole focus, driving beyond that is.

There are things in the sky you can see, but also can't see. Sometimes things can be viewed but they are not there to see. Sometimes it can project and the sky is blue, but is it? as you cant judge a book by it's cover. Not all seen is fact or fiction, science or otherwise. Their charts can appear hollow, and yet viewed as fact, one is real and one isn't. Determining which is which will lead to mass panic, people will become sick on the ill-usion, is it pervasive or invasive? Is it A.I or A I or is it both? But it will evolve into a new panic. Panic = People Are Now In Control.

We have spoken in the past about the night and day of the Svarog, where our solar system passes through zones of space that can enhance the light in one period and enhance the dark in the next period, and this is covered very well by Nicolai Levashov apart from one thing, the dates. Levashov dates of the Night of Svarog was from 6496 (988 A.D.) to 7504 which ends the night sometime between (1995-1996 A.D.) But this didn't fit into certain timelines, agreements and statements said by the former king of the world Marduk, and so we set about trying to work it out from the period of 16,000 years ago and now following a statement passed to us on March 21st of their tenure is over. This is to do with the dark entities and their playground of the night of the svarog, during that time the dark almost has free reign to create as much havoc as possible and the light has little to no support to fight it off, if they are seduced by it, which many humans did. But during the day of Svarog it is the time of the light and things start develop better for those operating in the light, remember we all have aspects of ourselves that is both light and dark, 51% light is enough to be in that bracket or dance of the light and the dark, and also remember the dark teaches us our greatest lessons if you observe it, not absorb it. Now you have to understand that the dark doesn't go away in the day of the Svarog, but it has to come into the light to operate and continue their games and so they get exposed that way, and it becomes easier to see and more difficult for them to operate, and so they operate under stealth of convincing you they are the light when they are the dark. Which is exactly what is playing out now is it not with the Federal reserve takeover, it is the same program and they are presenting themselves as the savior, which is perhaps explains the whole narrative around the year 0 time and the savior Jesus, known as JC or Jesus Christ when it was actually JC and Julius Caesar, BC could possibly mean before Caesar. Draco came in as savior in the night of Svarog time period as well, but what if the light played our own game of installing light beings in their night of Svarog? could that have been the case 1000 years ago when Radomir and Mary Magdelene were around teaching the world a better way. Like the Rus and Aryans did in the Garden of Eden in India which worked for a while but the dark were too pervasive, again that fits into the night and day timelines of the Svarog. So it was said that the night ended in 1996, but what if it was this year not 1996 and was actually 2020? if you add 24 to 1996 = 2020 if you add 24 to 988 = 1012 so to those who said it was 1000 years that would be 2012, and why we had the big fuss over that year as the ascension time or the world is going to end time, pushed by the Mayans and other tribal cultures of Central America, and yet we have found all of the globes tribes were not only infected with the Kali Ma, but taught wrong history and timelines by the dark forces. But the actual length of the day and night of Svarog is 1008 years not 1000 years, so 1012 plus 1008 years is 2020 The day of the Svarog started on the first equinox March 21st, which is why the pagan elements who are dark forces declared their secret martial law on the very day of Ostara, which was later to be christianized into Easter and the fake Jesus story, of dying for 3 days and ascending, which is the 3 days of darkness the alt media are pushing like David Wilcock, said to start on April 10th which is Good Friday this year, seeing the picture now? The light has triumphed over the dark, and up to us all to enhance that by lighting up our beacons, but also beware of their underhand intentions of presenting themselves as light, when they are not, it applies on all levels.

I remember in the past people complaining of me always speaking of the hidden war all taking place behind the scenes, and when is it going to become public, we want to know and see what is going on. I did warn when it goes public you may not like what you see, I warned back in December things were going public, I warned it would get ugly, I warned news and media would make no sense, no matter who is speaking, the question for you all is, did and has those things now come to pass? I am not saying that to go look I was right, I am saying that as a confirm that we on this show get a lot of things correct and for you the listeners to have a better trust in what we are saying and doing here. All those things now have come to pass and yet some see it as a negative, that is your own fear based thinking mindset and should not be projected onto me or others, let it go, we have said no fear here and we mean it, worry a bit by all means but don't let it consume you. Some fear and some are exhibiting the comparative mindset program, of why just you and Kim, why not? Rothschilds and Black Sun started off with just a handful and look what they built. But those saying why you and Kim are not thinking right at all, this is not just me and Kim at all, this is about you all. Some use ego of I should be in that position, fine why didnt you then, it was open to everyone but did you step up when called? This job requires many many skillsets to be in this position, including sacrificing your personal life almost totally, absorbing endless abuse and attacks, see and hearing things that would tip most over the edge, dealing with the frustrations of it all, knowing it is all so much easier it is to walk away than stand up and fight for people a majority of which are ignoring you or abusing you on social media, and all for no pay, how many with that level of sacrifice, abuse and working or being on call to work 24/7 would still want this job? The key is and the most positive not negative is that, at least some stood up, at least many of you listening to this heard the call and support what we are doing here. We have human representatives now on Galactic level and also at the very highest levels of the control game, they are massive positives for humanity, you are waiting for events, well there is two of the biggest ever in recorded history. Kim and I are not in it for the glory, the titles or the money I think that should be clear by now, no one would tolerate what we do on a day to day basis and all we ask in return is for you to be better versions of yourselves, you to strive to be the change not wait for it, you to set and chart a new path of what it means to be human, you to develop your own abilities and progress your soul development, you to care and share more, operate in need not greed and above all think and act different, is that too much to ask or deliver? is that an example of us being more important than you? no it's about elevating you all, and that should be in anyone's book a positive. The proof of our work is playing out here and now, not the future now, what we have done is, forced their hand to play in public arena when all of this was hidden, and they are exposing each other and themselves on all levels for all to see, again that is a positive not a negative, as it means we are nearing the end of the game. Yes, some will fear that based on religious based programming the end is nigh, there is no end only a new beginning. What that new beginning entails is down to you all, are you going to focus on two people you perceive as being more important than you which is comparative mindset, argue over what Thomas does or doesn't do or say, or focus on the main message of THI which is not defined by pieces of paper, and teach yourselves the new way for the new beginning and then teach others the same, because that is what it all boils down to, you. We don't need their bot creations, we don't need their thought control, no dark satanics in the classroom, teacher leave those kids alone. hey teacher leave those kids alone All in all were just another brick for their fall All in all were just another brick in their fall. We are building our wall now, not theirs.
