

THI-SHOW TRANSCRIPT 2020-06-04

Separate ways indeed a common theme recently as the divide and conquer program given to us by the clowns, is now being implemented by the people themselves and none more so than the Alt media. I and we have had to take on the chin a raft of alt media hosts, guests and love partner who departed from what we are doing, in a raft of poor comments, lies and distortions thrown at our group, mainly due to our connections with Kim and The Trust, from Shane to Randy to Jimi and Chloe, and we have overcome all that and pushed on. But given the talk and bad mouthing of me by certain individuals over the past few weeks, and the discord it causes, it is time to reveal two more who have stepped away from me and THI, Kim the Trustee a month ago, irony was it was the same date as the Keenan fiasco 4 years ago, I guess the 4 year loop still applies in some circumstances. She made the choice herself to switch all operations away from me and THI over to the Tank and Dan, and the please press our increasing, and now at least 6/7 separate donation buttons, or the lets sell humanity out and buy our Kringle crypto coins road show. Yes I am fully aware of the members of our group and his own, of concerns raised about that group and I agreed with many of them, but was asked to remain quiet, and I will remain so to a point. It is now up to those people who raised those concerns to were they belong, in their group, no longer does our group have to carry the can for others, our group has unfairly carried the can for it all, whilst others got off scot free it seems, maybe that is indicative as well. We are no longer the firewall and why I took the decision for all questions on Kim and The Trust to now be directed at the Tank group, I have done my part with that and I wish them well with that. Then this week I received a call from Alan of COWL and he wants to step away from THI & TPC as well, he wants to focus only on COWL now, I wish him and Steve well and thanks for the efforts and support given to THI & TPC in recent years. Yes I know this is disappointing but we can all sit there moping or carry on as normal learning, improving and developing the TPC. And so there we have it and that ends all the whispers and innuendo I could have said something earlier which would have helped me personally, but one hoped the wrath had calmed itself by now, but apparently it is not, but given many of the members and people being on edge over this fake pandemic, I decided it was best to just carry on and see what unfolds. Has anyone noticed any lessening of the shows? nope, in fact many have said they have got better over the past month. Now I have more time we will increase the must listen to shows and revealing the hidden world and their connections, I have begun to engage the state groups again, and I am currently working on 3 separate must listen to shows. We will carry on doing what we have always done, look after each other, and our group now will get a lot easier and better that we don't have to spend so much time defending a number of the above mentioned people, not all but a bulk of them, which had become so disruptive to our group, and our focus is now THI and TPC. I tried to bring in a core group of people and add to it along the way, as that is the way to defeat the clowns with sheer numbers, but some decided we are best all divided and fractured, and they ultimately are playing the game for the clowns they profess to want to end, THI does not and will not play their game, either with them or for them. As one door closes another door of greater potential and importance opened as I will reveal in full details later, but time always tells.

An update on sales tax Hi everyone, I wanted to give you an update on some changes that we'll be seeing which may affect some of your pledges. Due to new laws passing in several countries and US states, Patreon will be required to start charging sales tax on some pledges starting July 1st. Less than half of all patrons will be charged sales tax, and for most, the amount will be very small. For example, sales tax rates in the US range from 4% to 11%, so on a $5 pledge, that would be between 20 cents and 55 cents. Whether or not you will be charged sales tax depends on your location, and what is considered taxable there. Not every pledge is taxable, not all benefits are taxable in every location, and sometimes only a fraction of a pledge will be taxable. The money that Patreon collects as a result of these laws are paid directly to local governments. If you're in a location where sales tax will be required, you should expect to receive an email from Patreon with more information about this very soon, but I wanted to make sure you were aware of these changes way ahead of July 1st when they go into effect. So to counteract that and to make things simpler we now have 2 buttons on the website thinkdifferent.thepeoplesclub.org one for the TPC and one for donations to me. The email for me solely now is tgwusauk@hotmail.com, and the email address for direct payments via paypal for the TPC is, truth.honor.and.integrity@gmail.com I will still allocate donations this month to the correct accounts as I have been doing that with spreadsheets for past few years, but there was getting confusion as some people were actually sending funds to me and it was going to The Peoples Club account and not to me, unless that person notified me later of where those funds were meant for, sometimes I switched it over and sometimes just left the donations in the TPC. With Patreon charging the donor tax now, members of my patreon can send the same donations via Paypal instead of Patreon, with the tgwusauk@hotmail.com address and then notify me by private message or email and I will keep your Patreon access open to view the transcripts. Apologies for the disruption but this will make things much easier to deal with office wise, and people will know which they are donating to. Once again thanks to you all for the donations to both me and the TPC, Patreon is my salary in essence as this is my full time job, I walked away from my full time job at the request of many members to do this full time, and many of you have gained much from THI, and also the 4 years of working for The Trust for no pay and also 4 years of working for the TPC for no pay, I have to be just about the worst scammer on the planet at this point. I had hoped by now that the Patreon would end and my salary for the TPC would come from The Trust funding, but that is out of mine and our hands now, and up to Kim and Tank to deliver on their promises.

Many alt media will cover the violence, inconsistencies with the narrative and a number of so called conspiracies have risen up, and our show can cover some of that, but we are about the solutions and getting into the psychological side of it, angry retorts doesn't solve the issue, we have to have at least one group THInking and acting different, tonight's show will reflect that. There will be no news, sub intel, intel although there is some in tonights show and is fairly explosive in nature, or op-ed sections anymore as they have all merged into one, such is the narrative that has come out of our shows, many of our topics, warnings, prediction are now in the news.

New York state farms have donated 34000+ pounds of milk, beef and produce to families in need in New York.

Friday evening, bus drivers in New York City and members of TWU Local 100 refused to cooperate with police in transporting arrested Justice for George Floyd protestors. The action comes a day after bus drivers in Minneapolis also refused to assist the police in transporting arrested protestors; shutting down the Twin Cities' transit system. "I told MTA our ops won't be used to drive cops around. It is in solidarity [with Minneapolis' bus drivers]," JP Patafio, vice president of TWU Local 100. Finally a bit of courage one hopes out of all things that can go viral, that courage is at the fore front. They cannot handle a United peoples, it is they who should have fear not us.

Members of the community loaded up their cars, trucks, vans, and in one case even a U-Haul, to bring groceries to a Minneapolis neighborhood after riots destroyed stores and shops in the area. Sanford Middle School became a collection site on Sunday for groceries for families living in the area of the Third Precinct. The police station was the center of heated protest that turned to riots on Wednesday and Thursday. Stores in the area, particularly Target, were hit by looters and people looking to cause trouble. Sunday, a call was put out asked residents to bring food and other supplies for families who are left without a place to shop nearby. On top of that, many have no transportation with Metro Transit shut down to the riots. Video shared online shows bag after bag of groceries lining the sidewalk around the middle school.

All cops, government officials have to become accountable, it is us that makes them accountable, not their closed shop Just Us system. Cops have been shown to be agent provocateurs, spraying people, running them over with cars and horses and then an even more sinister acts, of placing bricks in protest zones and smashing windows to provoke the rioting and looting. Whilst it is not all cops and I appreciate that, the ones in it need to stand up now and speak out, a silent cop is as much of the problem as a bad one. But we also have to show them a better way, no violence please, use your anger to get clever, think of non violent ways to disrupt their organizations, people are people do not differentiate by color or gender as both will be rolled out again now by the establishment to social distance themselves from the corona virus and fake lockdown. Use the social distancing of 6-10 feet to stay away from cops and government officials until they change the whole corrupt system, social distance from polling booths and tell them we don't want their method of governing either, if cops come to talk to you ask them to move 10 feet away as we don't want their virus near us. #socialdistanceallcops Some people didn't like the next part in the group and it is the old failure of shoot the messenger instead of facing the problem, the violence of the police has become a major problem in several countries and they treat people with complete disregard, ignore their constitutions and their rights, and they the police are enforcing illegal laws against we the people. Next time you get shot with a rubber bullet, run over with cars or horses, don't come crying to me, come with solutions not critiques. Social distancing is NOT Constitutionally legal so lets reverse it back on them. Let them know we don't appreciate or want them near us, until they learn we the people are NOT the enemy. Until they learn to speak to people not at them, until they learn to come in peace, and not with weapons threatening and pointing at us. Until they stop going undercover and creating violence and disturbances. Until they learn to deal with the criminals within their own ranks and high society. Until they learn enforcing a wrong order is not the right thing to do. Social distance at 10 feet all Police and tell them we do not want them near us. Forget colors, genders and nationalities, WE ARE PEOPLE, NOT LABELS. Until cops stop treating us as their personal anger management course, hiding behind bushes to collect motoring fines for the establishment, threatening and bullying people, intimidating people because they have a badge and treating us like pariahs. Lets turn the tables on them and make them pariahs in our own community and see how they like it. This is a simple solution and the best way to fight back, it requires no violence and does not require you to have nasty exchanges or trade verbals at them either, just social distance them. You are then giving them the clear and defined choice, support we the people or support the establishment.

Another group I am social distancing is, and this comes with a clear warning also is mask wearers, your grandchildren will look back at you all and revel in your own stupidity. Viruses and bacteria thrive in warm and wet conditions, like mold in your bathroom as an example, plus you are refilling your lungs with carbon dioxide and a lot of you are going to have long term health issues going forward. The tighter the mask the worse your conditions, so I am social distancing all carbon dioxide breathers as protection of my health and away from their bot like stupidity. Here is another THI prediction we will watch to see unfold, there will be a mass of sickness within your own communities by the regular mask wearers in the coming weeks and months and then we have a potential of a real epidemic. The added concern to do with masks and has not been covered by social media, is they all came from the East, and given they have been battling the West for past decade, where the virus originated, not to mention the ongoing trade war and barbs flying back and forth, just how safe are those masks to begin with? given where they came from courtesy of Kushner and FEMA

This incident has raised awareness and one jackass soccer club in the UK thought they would do a publicity stunt in favor of George Floyd, no surprise that club is owned by an American elitist involved with Epstein and crew, that club is Liverpool FC, whose sponsors are Standard Charter the money laundering bank and also involved in child trafficking in Asia. The stunt was the players all took the knee, which has caused much discord in this country in past 2 years, for reasons most are oblivious to. How ironic or coincidental or perhaps coven cidental it rears it's head again with the latest American crisis, that will have no end until the people wake up to reality of what is unfolding. Yes the taking the knee came up again like a past episode of The Simpsons so often does, this is social conditioning and now you should realize that the taking of the knee was preparing you all for a future event. The fact it was highlighted so much, should have warned people this was being introduced ahead of an event, that event was George Floyd taking the knee from the establishment, whether he is dead or apart of the plot becomes irrelevant. It was and is pre-orchestrated as their previous program which they warned us of in 2017, was beginning to fall apart. Taking the knee is their piss take on the people regardless of color, and the people fell for it again. To add to their piss take was what George Floyd said, I can't breathe, which is symbolic of the masks? Taking the knee is not symbolic of showing support for your country, neither is the flag or the anthem, it is symbolic of bowing before your fake gods, royals and jackass elites, better known as curtsying. Like the term knee capping with no knees you drop to the floor in submission to your master, this is them reminding you that they are in control and we are all slaves, with knee bent it bends the hamstring and has hamstrung us all. Also on relation to the knee is the cruciate ligament which is in the form of a cross, with all the religious connotations in relation to that, one ponders that this knee issue has deeper meaning than most realise. From knee to kneel the latter of which is knee to el, and we are back to kneeling or bowing to the gods again, El like Al means god. Which brings us back to score again and the object of the game is to score more goals than the others, and when your team score many shout goal, one ponders if this is another of their spell casts with go al, go gods that means and fake gods at that. The great question I ask is, whilst you are bowing to your country and leaders with the knee, I ask what has your country done for you?

Arizona has filed a lawsuit against Google accusing it of illegally collecting smartphone users' location data, attorney general Mark Brnovich said in a press release on Wednesday. The lawsuit claims Google violated Arizona's consumer fraud laws by tracking users' locations even when they had disabled location tracking settings and demands Google repay any money it made as a result. "The Attorney General and the contingency fee lawyers filing this lawsuit appear to have mischaracterized our services," a Google spokesperson said in a statement to Business Insider. "We have always built privacy features into our products and provided robust controls for location data." The company could also soon face two additional lawsuits, one from state attorneys general and another from the DOJ, as probes into the company's ad and search dominance wind down.

Microsoft is to replace dozens of contract journalists on its MSN website and use automated systems to select news stories, US and UK media report. The curating of stories from news organisations and selection of headlines and pictures for the MSN site is currently done by journalists. Artificial intelligence will perform these news production tasks, sources told the Seattle Times. Microsoft said it was part of an evaluation of its business. The US tech giant said in a statement: "Like all companies, we evaluate our business on a regular basis. This can result in increased investment in some places and, from time to time, redeployment in others. These decisions are not the result of the current pandemic." Microsoft, like some other tech companies, pays news organisations to use their content on its website. But it employs journalists to decide which stories to display and how they are presented. Around 50 contract news producers will lose their jobs at the end of June, the Seattle Times reports, but a team of full-time journalists will remain.

Two Remington rifle owners are asking a federal judge to revisit a landmark class action settlement involving millions of allegedly defective guns. This, after CNBC reported that multiple customers have complained to the company about their guns malfunctioning even after they were repaired under the settlement. Anyone wonder if this was done deliberately?

A CNN reporter & his production team were arrested this morning in Minneapolis for doing their jobs, despite identifying themselves - a clear violation of their First Amendment rights. The authorities in Minnesota, incl. the Governor, must release the 3 CNN employees immediately. Roths and Black Sun groups fighting now spreading to the portal people? oh my.

Scientists working at the Oxford based Jenner institute in the UK are racing against the clock to try to create a coronavirus Vaccine before anyone else, obviously for the good of mankind and not the enormous profits such a vaccine could reap. Reports that Oxford was proceeding to the second stage of human trials for its coronavirus vaccine, which would see the number of participants rise to 10,000 people, were met with optimism. Oxford's Jenner Institute is working with drug company Astra Zeneca to develop a vaccine. The government projected that the vaccine, if successful, could deliver 30 million doses by September. However, there is just one problem – the virus is dying out and scientists are concerned that any chance of doing a meaningful trial for a vaccine is dying out with it. All about the money and control you see.

Tens of thousands of Covid-19 tests have been double-counted in the Government's official tally, public health officials have admitted. Diagnostic tests which involve taking saliva and nasal samples from the same patient are being counted as two tests, not one. The Department of Health and Social Care and Public Health England each confirmed the double-counting. This inflates the daily reported diagnostic test numbers by over 20 per cent, with that proportion being much higher earlier on in the crisis before home test kits were added to the daily totals. Almost 350,000 more tests have been reported in Government data than people tested since the start of the pandemic. The discrepancy is in large part explained by the practice of counting saliva and nasal samples for the same individual twice.

May 27th I wrote this 3/4 days later they started implementing what I was warning about. The event in Minneapolis yesterday where cops killed a person (forget the damn color, it was a person) in unnecessary circumstances. That event is the medias, govt, agency clowns attempts at a pull back from the COVID and Lockdown event. They will turn it into a race war, do not fall into another trap. As the lockdown winds down, they will introduce another lockdown on us, curfews. THInk different and ALL lives matter. we already have Martial Law, it is called the Lockdown, they issued Martial Law on March 21st remember, it was in the intel for the show martial law for and by the people, and the people declared it on themselves. Curfew means the covering of fires, dampening the fires, so what were the fires? the people protesting, seeing the picture now? When you consider it took the government a few months to get round to dealing with issues and enforcing a lockdown, how have they reacted so quickly, just a few days to enforce curfews? unless of course it was all part of the plan. Do we trust the plan? Should we trust the plan? or wait until they prove themselves with full on public confirming actions.

Reports in several countries about this practice but will highlight one case of our member in Sweden who tried to withdraw 7000 SEK out of the bank ATM and received only 4000 SEK and now having to engage Nordea bank for the stolen or missing 3000 SEK, which is around $322 USD.

The Pakistan ISI 111 who are a DNC Proxy for ANTIFA sent 550 tons of gold arrived by air into New York to which location is unclear at this point, and that info has been confirmed by a second source. Pakistan has also issued a commemorative coin in Honor of 550TH Birthday of BABA GURU NANAK, full name SRI GURU NANAK DEV JI born 1469 2019 The coin was an idea of The Trust for America, and as we did meet a member of Pakistan ISI in a meeting earlier this year one wonders where their ideas came from.

This next piece will send a shockwave around the world of that there is no doubt, and it needs to be heard on all levels and for all to get a grasp of it. I will require many to expand their thinking and also get an understanding of their situation and ours as we the people also. I was contacted directly this week by people who I will reveal soon although not the name of the source just yet, for safety and operational purposes, and it revealed some startling information that has enormous potential to end the Mexican style stand off our planet is currently under going. First I will give some background to it as the information from my sources confirmed many suspicions of mine, and also re-affirms many things that have been said in this show. So, lets go back to the Illuminati 1 & 2 shows, known as the Svali material, she was part of the elite programs as a trainer and responsible for delivering the program, that all of the so called bloodline families have to undergo. Whereby they are tortured, drowned, brought back from the dead, poked, prodded like cattle, electrocuted and electrotherapy are just some of the things they undergo from inside the womb to age 6, and is often done or administered by at least one of their parents, as well as the trainer, in those cases it was the woman known as Svali. I still struggle to get my head around females participating in that level of evil and torture, as the bearers of the children one would expect a more nurturing species, but that is clearly not the case, and the females have played a far larger role in the desecration of this planet, than many including myself at times would like to accept, it is pure illusion it is a man's world once you know the demographics in the top Order. But these are not trainers, but handlers designed to smash all human based traits out of them like, sympathy, empathy, compassion and in many cases love, and this is why most if not all people from the bloodline families are cold hearted, dismissive and carry no responsibility for their own actions, no matter how wrong or heinous they do or act. They are then sent to Waldorf Steiner school to further their brain entrainment, and a reminder of an excerpt of the Waldorf trainers not teachers is, that the trainers encourage touchy feely with the children and ask them to not inform their parents of what goes on in the schools, essentially these trainers in part become the new parents, or for the correct term, handlers. We have two of these trainers in the alt media although they have gone very quiet since I exposed them, Elana Freeland sister of Canadian politician of ill repute and Cara St Louis which is a fake name, as real name is Orendorf. Essentially they, the children have little to no humanity left, and they often seek out people who do and try to mimic their actions or behaviors. People often wonder how can they be so cold and evil, and have great difficulty grasping or comprehending that level of non humanity, and we have spoken about at length of how we can't judge the morals of others by our own standards. Those shows Illuminati 1 & 2 had major impacts on our members, so much so that I had to cancel Part 2 for a later date to give our members a chance to grasp, accept the information, release it and heal. There are something's many don't like to hear or see, me also and perhaps sometimes many members don't take into account the effect it has on the show host revealing much of the information within these shows, but this stuff has to come out into the light of day. You cannot provide a solution to fix a problem if you don't have the full or fuller picture of what the problem entails. It is the jigsaw puzzle analogy again, you cannot complete the jigsaw with only a small percentage of the pieces, like with the minions who followed Marduk, none of them had all the pieces of the puzzle or the pie, so not one of them was able to realize the full picture, or what they were participating in. Kim and I along with help from Shane although his help has long since past, managed to put all the pieces together of who was who, what was what and where they all fitted into the control structure, with a myriad of compartmentalization administered on all levels, the lowest form of which is the Governments. But the reason for doing those shows was, it shattered the illusion that somehow the elite lives are all so rosy, because it is not and there is a hidden darkness that surrounds them also. There has been a lot of skullduggery done on this planet to all humans, elite or otherwise, including to other beings residing here as well, no one has been missed out. All people and beings have been lied to and played, none moreso than the so called elites, and no matter how much they deny the truth, the reality of fact, will not go away. Like Shane and his programming they were all told this was for their benefit, because they are special and led to believe they are above the ordinary masses. Part of my background work before working for The Trust was to bring people and beings together, and the work done for a while with Shane, who is a Rothschild and a Draco, and that was for a while very beneficial for both species. I have spoken to privately to several bloodline family members to gauge their intentions, in the hope we could find some commonality and bring some peace for this planet and many others, that was largely curtailed during my work with The Trust as the Trustee wanted to in part control the narrative and who we engaged with. We have at least 2 members of major bloodline families within our own group, so you see it is not all of them that are the problem. But this week a member of a leading bloodline family reached out to me, in part requesting my help and they wanted me to relay it to Kim also. I have warned several times in these shows of not all is what it seems, and I am open minded of where this information came from and prepared to engage it, and in the hope we can find a solution to the problems all of humanity now faces. This is why The Trustee offered a 1/3 to the people, 1/3 to The Rothschild's and a 1/3 to The Black Sun and predictably the top end of those groups declined it, why? because they couldn't control our 1/3 is why. Some of you will have heard me mention on recent zoom calls of getting from Point A to Point B which is freedom, and I stated if we did nothing in the next 20 years, the old program game will be all over regardless. So why did I come to that conclusion? well the reality is, only the older members of the bloodline families are 100% behind the death, destruction and harvesting program, the middle aged group is less interested than the elders, and the younger bloodline family members are decidedly against continuing the old program, and wish to step out and away from that program. In 20 years time all those of the older generation with reduced and somewhat corrupted adrenalchrome, so they can no longer sustain their life longevity program, and all will be dead, and with it goes the programs by and large. Now that 20 year span can be reduced if we get help from all levels of society coming together and providing a solution to the problems, work goes on to drastically reduce that to varying degrees of success. Those problems now are not just endured by we the people, but the elites psychopaths or otherwise, as a recent Black Sun leader confessed only last month when asked how he or they were going to fix the global problem they in part created, the answer back was stark and alarming in equal measure, we don't know how to fix it, it has gotten out of control. This in essence is an example of watching it all play out, whereby the fear of the elites would escalate to a point and then seek help, and just maybe this call I received this week maybe the straw that breaks the camels back, time will tell. But it is potentially the first sign of a crack in the elite world and those that are a part of it, where it all goes or leads to who knows at this point, but we have to be open to debate and not suffer the almost closed shop dealing of the past year or so, where people on all sides refuse to listen. Our target of attacks on the system was not to convince the top order to quit, but to get their minions to see through their illusion and step down. The top Order are complete psychopaths and cannot be turned, they will carry on regardless, and what is all playing out now was as I warned and went against Shane's opinion on a show, that the infighting was the cabal's way of trimming the fat he said. My response was not only would it trim the fat, but they would eat the lean as well, and all that will be left will be a relatively few psychopaths, with little wealth, little assets and no control, only the illusion of, and essentially we are real close to that prediction coming to fruition. Not all elites are psychopaths remember that, the ones that are and have, have been created that way. Can they be playing a game with us? potentially but the implications of this happening and us all coming together can not be left to chance, being stubborn and non flexible, opportunities when they come along have to be seized and be given a chance, and if it all goes to shit, we are no better or worse than when we started. A case of nothing to lose and everything to gain. Some people will not trust their motives and I get that, but many people support and trust Mr. Trump, and yet he was bailed out of bankruptcy by the same family at least 4 times to my knowledge, so what is the difference? well that difference is time and time will always tell. So here is the gist of the conversation between myself and a representative of the Rothschild's clan. They claim and I have some validation of this knowledge although a slightly different interpretation of it, that for at least the past 70 years the elder Rothschild's have been torturing the bulk of not only their family, but many others also, and perhaps all the bloodline families, including all Royals, Tsar family lines and many other of the upper echelons of society as well. They described a very old artifact that dates back many thousands of years old, that was potentially to be for benevolent purposes and like everything else when the dark forces gets it's demonic hands or some cases claws on it, it was turned and used for malevolent purposes with the most far reaching levels of pure evil in it's darkest form. This artifact spans and traverses Universes and operates in and out of the parallel Universe to our own, and has the ability to take away the free will of almost anyone, and make them do the most heinous things ever, they under normal circumstances would never have undertaken in any way shape or form. It has been used extensively on the Rothschild's family members, many of which were unaware of what was taking place or what was going on, and was all perpetrated by the three leading Rothschild's clan members, one of which is not human. For those that don't know the Rothschild's clan have the highest level of Draco DNA and blood than any other family on the planet, in other words they are a form of reptilian. This machine is known as The Arc, which is a multiverse machine, I will try and find out more details on this artifact but I don't suspect they are speaking of the Arc of the Covenant, to my knowledge there are 7 arcs and none of those are in dark forces hands anymore, so this artifact is different. Over the past 7/8 years we have managed to acquire and or remove many of the ancient artifacts declared to be myths, the myths for the most part were real, many of which were removed from the Draco group, and that has had a major effect of preventing further violence in many parts of the Universe. One such artifact was the star maker - star breaker staff which has been in part referenced by the tribal peoples in Australia in their dealings in the past with the Draco, that was acquired in 2014-15 time period, around the time the bulk of that group left, and his housed safely and not accessible by them anymore. So the elder Rothschild's were stripping away the free will of their own family and forcing them to be and act like them, those 3 need to be removed from this planet once and for all, and a return to source, and I don't think those souls will be returning ever again, they are too corrupted and not redeemable. This machine has echoes and may well turn out to be a variant or the central hub for the Vrill machines which were uncovered and partially removed last year, these machines underground were creating a frequency sound that interferes with the human brain, like an MK Ultra machine. The people I spoke to from the family were fairly distraught at what they have endured, their free will taken away is one thing, but getting them to do the most heinous acts on their behalf is a whole different ball game. This is how they get around karma in many respects, and they then like the modern Hebrew culture have a day whereby they cast all their karma onto the people, this is known as the day of atonement, and is replicated in Indian religions and spiritual practices, and the so called Christian religions as well. The Hebrew religion, of which all other religions derive from, and like the Zionists are all connected to the Annunaki group. The gist is the Rothschild family have got together and decided to disconnect two of the top three from the family altogether, but the third is able to garner sympathy in some way due to his propensity to turn on the water works and get added time. Message to the over 400 out of the 700 Rothschild's who are now separating themselves and any connections to their former clan, is ditch the third one as well, you all know who and what he is, you will have no peace with that entity around you. Learn how to shield yourselves I have made those techniques available to the family member who approached me, our members will testify that it does work if correctly applied. They also confirmed several of the reports that came out of our show and the named deaths or eliminations of certain individuals also. The top echelon of the Rothschild's continue to hail Marduk and were not in favor of the new Draco queen who is the sister of Marduk, and they do not want to carry out the Earth Restoration plan formulated by The Trust and the team, approved by The Council and also The World Government, who are a group of entities housed within the UK. Despite the Queens attempts and successful engagements with her by myself and also Kim, they took action against the Queen with the support of Draco elements, and reports suggests they not only killed her, but ate her as well, a common practice by that group I'm told. My efforts to locate her since being informed have come up empty. The plans for installing a new King for that group, centers heavily around the person known as Shane the Ruiner, he was in line for the "Satan" role back in 2015 and that was prevented, remember that is a title and not a name, but reports suggest he is or was part of the plot to remove the Queen, and he is in line to the Draco throne, which his cryptic comments inferred to me recently, supported that claim. Some will see this episode of engaging with the enemy, some may see it as a plot to avoid the disclosures about that family, many of which we have covered in previous shows, and I do get that to a point and will be aware of any potential side tracking. But, with the knowledge I have at that level I see it as a massive opportunity, one of which I have done earlier working with Shane, knowing full well who and what he is. An opportunity to build common goals and address the issues along the way, until ego a common problem of that group took over him and possibly also coercion by his elders, either way both learned much from that engagement, and was a step towards peace. I have told you all, there is not one person or being on this planet who hasn't been heavily lied to, abused or duped on a massive scale, and we can carry on pointing fingers at each other, or build bridges and work towards peace and also a better and safer planet. Sometimes the enemy of my enemy can become our friend, time will tell and caution will be exercised, but the elite world is crumbling around them as predicted. The reality is there are no enemies by name or fake titles, only by evil or divine, which is the same as light or dark. Most of the enemies on this planet are fake and created only for the divide and conquer program. Unlike others placed in important positions here, I am not coming at it from warrior stance, ego or completely inflexible, going forward all will have to be flexible and open to any and all possibilities of obtaining peace, and this is the time for it. I stated back in 2015-16 in 2020 we would all "see" and yes the alt media people have seen much, but it is not just the alt media people I said all would see, and maybe the younger generation of the so called elites, all of which was falsely created to keep them occupied, are now starting to see through the illusions themselves. At some point all species are going to have to learn to cohabitate in this and many other Universes, this greed based model of harvesting planets, beings and resources has to stop, it has resulted in countless wars and cost trillions of lives, for what? nothing!! To become fake gods, fake kings and queens and have every material possessions at the expense of your life force energy and a real life, because those beings don't have a real life, they live in fear and are always looking over their shoulder, as the Queen of the Draco found out apparently. But their real loss is the damage to the soul and spirit and their missing connection to Source, that doesn't not have a price tag and never will, and will always be the ultimate in richness. I am hereby calling on The Council to take the fullest possible actions against those who killed the Queen and continue to plague this planet from their other world bases. Enough is enough, I and we kept warning you of continued off world interference and humans running off world programs, many of which they are oblivious to. It is time for real actions many of which I and we have requested of you, and quit protecting the lead members of that Council and fix things once and for all, and as this planet is a nexus planet it will fix many other places simultaneously. You fix the problems we cannot deal with and then give us the tools to start the full Restoration of this planet, with hopefully many of the younger so called elites in support of us, not against us. Evil is evil and it has to be addressed with haste, one must never turn their back on evil, a lesson we have all paid heavily for doing so.

LOTS of puzzling Questions about the Floyd George Incident: Submitted by Brittany Bjorklund Why does one photo from behind show the man on the road is not handcuffed and the video from the front that he is handcuffed? Why is the cop car in the restaurant surveillance video different than the one Floyd was lying behind (different car numbers)? Why were the cops in the surveillance footage that arrested him different than the police in the actual incident? Why does the video show the diesel fuel price as 99 cents instead of the regular price in the area of $2.49? Why is Walz acting like this is all okay? Why does Derek have a completely different police badge on top of a second police badge matching his partner's if they work for the same precinct? Why is it not odd that both Officers Tou Thao and Derek Chauvin have both previously been investigated for excessive use of force and not charged by State AG Amy Klobuchar? Additionally, Officer Derek Chauvin is married to his partner's sister Kelli. Is there any cop dumb enough to continue kneeling on someone's neck for 8 minutes when surrounded by people and being video recorded? Is it possible for the deceased's cousins and fiancé to be completely tearless during interviews? Why does the main cop have one hand in his pocket most of the time he's kneeling? Why did the kneeling officer appear completely cool and calm, as if he was posing for the camera? Doesn't it seem strange that Floyd and the officer that kneeled on his neck worked security together on the same shift at the El Nuevo Rodeo Club, the officer for 17 years (both were laid off because of the Covid Virus)? Why do the neighbors of this officer say they didn't know he was a cop and never saw him in uniform? Why has the same attorney been hired as with all the other big supposed police killings of blacks? Attorney Benjamin Crump. The same attorney that worked on previous cases that resulted in busses bringing in rioters from outside the city? Why does store surveillance video show Floyd calmly and submissively walking with the officer and not resisting arrest while the officer gently allowed him to sit down on the side walk, and multiple officers calmly chatting with him? Is this the kind of suspect that a police officer would feel the need to put on the ground and place his knee on his neck? Why did the EMT workers (wearing Police Uniforms including bullet proof vests) roughly handle and dump the unconscious George on the stretcher? This is not how trained emergency workers lift a person with a possible neck injury. Why did they not attempt triage or try CPR? Can someone really not breath when someone kneels on his neck and is the victim really able to speak for considerable periods of time if he can't breathe? Post killing: Why is a white man that looks like an undercover (St Paul) cop in black and a riot gear mask carrying a black umbrella walking around breaking windows (and others dressed similarly starting fires) and instigating a riot? Is this reminiscent of “umbrella man” during the JFK shooting? Why were almost all the rioters leading the destruction of the neighborhood at the beginning of the riots “white” and not from Minneapolis... in a black neighborhood after a police killed a black man? Why did the Chief of Police make it a point that those Inciting the Riots and Arsonists were not from Minnesota? Why was a CNN News Crew not only detained but also Arrested? Make of that of what you will, but it does raise numbers of questions and I have one of my own, if this was all staged was George Floyd taking the piss out of the people wearing masks, stating I can't breathe? something else to ponder on.

So, the death of George Floyd was the event for the media and clowns to back track away from the now clearly failed program of pandemics and viruses. My warning to the police only earlier this month, came sadly to fruition again and now they are in the firing line of the pent up public anger. I do not condone violence in anyway shape or form, in essence you are giving the authorities exactly what they want. A successful attempt to show your contempt for any authorities is, don't play their game by giving them the reaction they seek. Wanton destruction and violence is not avenging anyone's death, and becomes an excuse to behave badly, which sadly re-enforces the stereotype of the black people. You have to learn to think smarter than that, you are playing into their hands. I get you have lost a lot of people via the police, but all colors have as their heavy handed Israeli paramilitary taught tactics are causing havoc on our streets at levels that are unacceptable. I am no advocate for police either, I was beaten to a pulp at 17 and left with broken nose, jaw and eye socket, so I am well aware of their propensity of violence in situations that never warranted any, but fighting fire with fire means we all get burnt. There are a number of issues I have covered previously, that bear reminding to us all of where all sides play a role that leads to situations getting out of hand. The police seem to think having a badge allows them to act in a manner of violent confrontation, with zero accountability, their role was to protect the public, not beat, shoot or worse kill people. They and the public have almost forgotten the police role is or was to protect the public, now it is to protect the system of corruption, protect each other no matter what crimes an officer does under the Freemasonic brotherhood protection oath, and that has to stop before more lives are lost for a failed program.

Lets look at it in perspective shall we, all people being shot by cops in the majority of cases where by and large preventable, given the tools they have at their disposal, and ultimately it becomes a matter of choice and a lack of personal responsibility by the police. I pulled up random figures for cop killing civilians, and it covered the last four years and the analysis is marked. So, with the media based rise in it is only happening to blacks, which is engineered by paid agents within the black community to cause dissent and divide and conquer, all implemented by the Soros Foundation and others, called

Black Lives Matter. Black lives do matter, but not with deliberate agent provocateurs groups called Black Lives Matter. That is purely designed to get black people angry and cause discord amongst the populace. In 2017 the highest killed by cops was not black but white 457, in fact the totals for black, hispanic and other combined was less than the white total at 446. In 2018 the highest killed by cops was white again with 399, and again the combined total for black, hispanic and others was less with 393. In 2019 the highest killed by cops was white again with 370 but was not higher than the other 3 categories combined for that year of 432. In 2020 the highest killed by cops to date is white again with 42, but the other 3 combined is slightly higher than the white deaths at 47. So, what does this prove? well clearly it does not show a pattern that cops only kill one color, because the figures do not support it. Does this mean and prove White Lives Matter given the statistics? no, it means all lives matter, that is what the people are missing. Other gun related violence we covered last year and the highest statistic was black on black violence, at some point the black community have to take some responsibility and change the stereotype rhetoric themselves. Even the virtual reality tests done by cops of all colors proved that cops would shoot a black person sooner than other races, but you have to ask is, why do all colors including their own have a larger fear element towards black people? The answer lies within the black community themselves, clean up your own areas, stop the violence, prevent gun deaths in their own communities, pool together and create jobs within the communities so young blacks have another alternative than a life of crime, clean up the ghettos, no matter how poor you are, there is no excuse for not keeping your own communities clean. The very fact all the media is highlighting it, tells you straight off the bat it is agenda driven and not for our purpose, should make people stop and think. Pictures of black people looting and smashing things spread all over social media, and awake people posting it everywhere, oblivious of their participation in re-affirming a pre set narrative, at which point do you stop and think? Since when are portal people interested in black people? like never, but since when are portal people interested in people of any color? like never, they are there to read Langley and think tank based scripts designed to fool and distort the publics thinking and mindset. #socialdistanceallmsmmedia

Thanks for all your comments on The Expose show, those are not easy shows to compile, write or relay, in a world of critiques it is often forgotten the messengers emotions and feelings. But with an alt media delving into shallow topics and in essence only using a few pieces of the jigsaw. There are times when on a single subject, which did encompass others much of which has come from our own show, you have to strip everything to the raw and core, and just lay it all out. I will make no apologies for a single word said in that show, because all of it was 100% truth, playing hide and seek or being selective with the truth, is no longer an option.

But it's a common theme of attacking the messenger due to own guilt, shame and cowardice, and this is portrayed in a few members comments that are poignant and hit the nail on the head at the same time. It reminds me very much of when I got sober, the people around me, some of them, took it personally. Suddenly it made them think they had a problem or that I thought they did, or whatever. People close to me didn't like it for a while because my behavior changed, people couldn't get me to react the way I used to. If they don't adjust and keep expecting me to be the same way I was in the drinking times, they end up pulling away. This is part of the problem everyone wants you to be an addict or in low vibration, when with a simple change of mindset we can elevate everyone, not drag each other down, but the envy of people improving themselves is the most ridiculous thing ever on this planet. That person took responsibility for themselves and raised their frequency and they couldn't match it is what took place. An example of around 85% of people in your life, only being there due to addictions and low vibrations, and the minute you improve, the more and further they disappear. The whole gist of THI is for people to recognize their own faults and shortcomings, regardless of what they are and improve it. That is the primary premise behind THI, it is a learning tool for us all, including me.

I feel stuck now, I don't know if I can support Donald Trump knowing what I know now about him the black sun and his support for Kushner. I've come to the realization that the "Q" base plan is based on a plan to herd the population into the agenda 21 force inoculation of the American public. It breaks my heart to know that the sleepers don't have a chance and when they do wake up it'll be too late. This latest episode "podcast" that Thomas so eloquently laid out really shook me to the Core. Although I felt compelled to follow this channel, I had no idea how much of an impact it would have on me and on my life. Because of the show, because I am awake now, I no longer smoke, Drink or do any kind of recreational drugs because of the inspiration of THI that has inspired me, has encouraged me to be a better man and to be a better human, and to live a better life than the life that I have been living here. on this forsaken planet that they call Earth!! Thank you for waking me up in a time in my life when I needed it the most... Like I said in previous piece, the premise of THI is we all learn, improve and grow as people.

Some of the items covered in this show are a bit harrowing and a bit of reality this show warned about weeks and months ago, about the staggering amounts of unemployed in this country, with many still not getting their stimulus checks and also many not receiving unemployment, and many following Trump the plan, it does raise deeper concerns. But the long piece in the intel brings the potential of great hope as well. In the midst of one of the pieces earlier reveals much about the global system and the way they direct opinions. They were always going to need an event of sorts to pull back from the virus, a new media spin and this post by CNBC and will be followed by all the others, as all of it is scripted and co-ordinated. But the key line in that is not how many have suffered no, it is who they mentioned suffered more, women and minorities. " While early unemployment figures shows the recent economic downturn has disproportionately impacted women and minorities in the U.S." This is what they were plugging away at in the previous two years, back and forth they went with the color divisive narrative and the male and female divisive narrative, and yet again out comes the Zionist based meme of White Privilege, what a load of bollocks that is, the same white privileged people who pay the bulk of the taxes I might add, I don't call that a bloody privilege, this is something we reported and warned of it several times in shows last year, stop falling for this shit. Given their patterns are all too predictable, one hopes more see through their lies and distortion and turn them off altogether. FRWL 7 re run told you how corrupt agencies feed you fabricated news stories, that has gone on for decades now. There is no doubt in overview that women and blacks have not been treated as well as they should, but in overview also, there can be no doubt that the behavior of those two groups has not been the best and has in some cases re-enforced stereotypes. It is the chicken and the egg, but it doesn't matter what color or gender you are, the perception of you always starts with the self, you fixing you changes how the world views or judges you. So, we can all sit back and complain I am not respected, cared or looked after enough, but the very fact so many people think that way, is a reflection of society and how we have all lost our way in so many ways, stop being the victim and become your own savior. Our whole world is dominated by repeat behaviors and patterns, and the antithesis of this is, we all change. Change who we bank with, change who we shop with, change from buying from Amazon altogether, change our health habits, change our lifestyles, do and be something different each day otherwise one week becomes the same as each other. Go to meet people more, go to the park or the beach more, take vacations even if for a long weekend, doing something different changes they way they and their AI, plots your course and path. The answer to fixing it starts and ends with you, one person fixing themselves in a world of predicted, predictable and algorithmic programming, has subsequently just changed the whole world. Just you yes you with all your boxes, victimhood and limitations can change the whole world just by correcting you, and remember we are the last in line.
