

THI-SHOW TRANSCRIPT 2020-06-18

This will be a very revealing show on a number of topics and will connect several more dots, reveal hidden intentions and programs and will be heavy in some parts. I will make no apologies for that, as this is not an entertainment and lets all have fun channel, there is a plethora of them dotted all over the internet, this show reveals the hidden truth, for so long denied to us all, and is based on reality of the past, now and how we build and develop our future with the knowledge we have received. Our show is about learning to enable us to teach within the parameters of the TPC. The sub sections of our show are now gone, as much of our show now is the Intel. Loop world runs again with spike in virus, Mnuchin talking about another stimulus check in July ignoring the fact many didn't get the first stimulus check or unemployment pay. Mnuchin said the $1200 could last for 10 weeks we are now past that 10 weeks, and now he says wait until July? These people are taking the piss out of the people and the people by and large are allowing it. I presume the next stimulus check will take people up to October when the alleged fake vaccines are supposed to come out? We already have a vaccine on public view and yet so few recognize it and even less question it, those vaccines are the police, the media and politicians because none of them are wearing masks, and haven't since it started, so by common core logic stand next to one of those 3 categories and you will be cured of the virus, but not stupidity or the ability to think.

There was a discussion in the chat that I thought would be useful for a wider audience, and it is something many people are struggling with currently, even moreso now than in the past. The issue of the sleepers or bot behavior people and not waking up and seeing reality, that is more in their face now than any other time of their life. We have gone from a world of illusion and lies, and we had a few so called conspiracy theory people calling out more of the truth, who predictably were dismissed by society as freaks, nuts, delusional, mental patients and the think tank Langley based meme of, conspiracy theorist. But that world has gone and is remarkably reversed now as the world is a giant conspiracy theory now, and a majority of the people are the conspiracy, not theorists, but illusionists. All the so called theories are now out in public for all to view, yet the blind children fail to see their own demise, but not only do they fail to see their demise, they are actively participating in it, it takes a special level of blindness to do that. One member was struggling with it known as Billy Idol haha, about how we must care and help the unawakened and I do get that, so that sparked this piece. I get you care for the all, we all do in here and it is what we at THI are about. But this is a key epoch in "time" and we need to focus on what we have, than what we don't have. Source, the Universe, the Sun and many of us on this planet have held an arm down and waiting for them to put their arm up, so we can pull them out of the pit. A strong decade of growth learning via the alt media, disclosures, exposures on a massive scale and they just roll on enforcing the old system - which is Stockholm syndrome on steroids. Those people are children relying on govt, church, media to tell them what to do and think. Hey quit your jobs and stay home and we will give you $1200 for 2 months to compensate you, wear health damaging masks, stay at home, don't go out, when you do go out stay 6 feet apart, which is symbolic of being buried, no sport, no gym, no bars, no theater and the people ALL self enforced martial law on themselves. For human progression we don't need adult children, we need the children taught and adults to be adults. This planet is carrying lazy and lazy minded people in large numbers, and there are some excuses for that, but it is at this stage minimal. They want to stay children and they are holding back the whole of humanity, with their I want a nanny state behavioral modes. They don't want to do anything of their own volition, it is all instructions and repeat after me, and that is computer like. We don't want or need computer type people waiting to press buttons for instructions, we don't need phone based people squinting at the 4" screen, like some Japanese kamikaze pilot, and tv screen people watching utter drivel because that is their level of thinking. We need people who are going to expand their thinking, consciousness, all are by and large individualistic exercises, we need to rebuild communities of people coming together who will do things together. The mission was for the all, it was down graded to rescue mission and then salvage mission, and develop what we have. To enable this planet and it's human guardians to go forward on a plane and soul development level, beyond just the duplicate world of energy harvesting and disease, known as the astral, we have to have leaders to lead the way. You cannot drag non thinking people along with you, it stalls it and our progress. We have to have a number of people essentially being the pioneers for a planetary restoration, we have waited for 10 years for the masses to wake up, and whilst progress has been made in that field, it is painfully slow and not conducive to the plan. A number of people have come to me in the past month saying the same thing, they struggled with the 85/15% concept, maybe they didn't believe it outright or just didn't want to face that reality, which is understandable. That concept you put out of the 15% looks more realistic in past two months than ever, some went further and said they now think the 15% is optimistic upon judging people's behaviors. The disconnect of sleepers and us is now more marked, and some will say that is making us appear special or elitist, but we never created that, they did. I wanted to see millions of Neo's not a few hundred, our shows were designed that way to elevate us all out of the pit and march forward at a pace, you cannot march at a pace carrying baggage in the form of sleepers, no matter how much you want to or wish to try it. This is your journey alone, the fact we created a group to support your journey is a plus, but it cannot and will not become the crutch for you to sit back and let others do the work, because all are responsible for that. We are not special or elitist, but they created the scenario where now, basic common sense appears Einstein levels of intellect. It for me is painful to watch.

A preprint study looked at how people's personality traits could influence whether, they partake in coronavirus pandemic health guidelines or not. Study author Pavel Blagov surveyed people about their habits during the pandemic, and also asked them personality-based questions. Blagov found that people who exhibited more psychopathic traits like meanness and lack of restraint, were more likely to disregard policies like social distancing. If reports of people licking toilet seats and intentionally spitting on others during the coronavirus pandemic left you astounded, a new study on the psychology of pandemic behaviors could answer your questions about what motivated their behaviors. The study, a peer-reviewed pre-print that will soon be published in the journal Social Psychology and Personality Science, asked 502 people to answer questions online about how often they followed coronavirus pandemic health guidelines, if they planned to follow guidelines going forward, and what they'd do if they were diagnosed with COVID-19, the disease caused by the novel coronavirus. The researchers also asked personality-related questions to determine where survey participants fell on scales for conscientiousness, cooperativeness, neuroticism, tendency to take risks, meanness, and lack of restraint. If participants answered questions in a manner that suggested they had low levels of neuroticism, tendency to take risks, meanness, and lack of restraint, they were more likely to follow social distancing guidelines, but if they scored high in these traits, they were less likely to follow guidelines. Study author Pavel Blagov said these traits are also common psychopathic traits. "I knew that traits from the so-called Dark Triad (narcissism, Machiavellianism, and psychopathy), as well as the traits subsumed within psychopathy, are linked to health risk behavior and health problems, and I expected them to be implicated in health behaviors during the pandemic,". Indeed, his study suggested a small correlation between psychopathic traits and disregard for pandemic public health policies does exist. Blagov said the majority of survey participants said they followed coronavirus health guidelines. But those who didn't follow guidelines answered the survey questions in a manner that suggested they knowingly and purposefully ignored the safety advice. For example, study participants who scored high on traits like meanness and lack of restraint also said they didn't follow social distancing and hygiene practices like hand-washing. Blagov said these findings are concerning from a public-health perspective. Is his name Blagov or Blaggard, either way he needs a new job. Social distancing refusal is now the new conspiracy theorist ploy they have used to alienate people who can think for themselves. Mr Blagov would be better served analysizing the policy makers and why they are in so much fear and hate, to impose this ridiculousness on the people. Classic divide and conquer program ran over and over again, like Black Lives Matter, the male and female divide that people like Blagov and the media all push onto the gullible people. Social Psychology and Personality Science is essentially a Langley, Harvard, Tavistock think tank group of jackasses, and they need to look at their own psychotic states instead of judging others.

The Senate Foreign Relations Committee quietly passed a bill yesterday to give Israel a minimum of $38 billion over the next ten years despite the ongoing devastation to the U.S. economy caused by the coronavirus. The bill – S.3176 – will now go before the full Senate. Since the legislation has already been passed by the House of Representatives, if the Senate passes the bill, it will then go to the president to be signed into law. The bill was passed by the committee under two unusual circumstances and with almost no public awareness, like the Patriot Act create a distraction sneak through clandestine bills. First, Senate Committee Chairman Jim Risch (R-Idaho) refused to allow a live stream of the meeting, despite the fact that the Senate Rules panel had recommended that extra efforts be taken to ensure public transparency, while the Capitol is closed to the public and the presence of reporters is severely limited. The Senate's Press Gallery Standing Committee of Correspondents had objected strongly to Risch's decision. Second, the bill was passed without being named, debated, or even discussed, even though it would set into law the largest such aid package in U.S. history. There has been no mention of the bill by most media in the United States, of course not, it is ran by the same people is why. The massive package is particularly noteworthy in light of the current devastation to the American taxpayers who will be footing the bill – over $10 million per day. In recent months approximately 30 million Americans have lost jobs, 100,000 small businesses have already closed forever, and over seven million are at risk of doing so. Some background of Jim Risch in March 2018, Risch co-sponsored the Israel Anti-Boycott Act (s. 720), which would make it a federal crime for Americans to encourage or participate in boycotts against Israel and Israeli settlements in the West Bank if protesting actions by the Israeli government. Why are we still feeding this country that was falsely created in 1948? Why are Saudi Arabia feeding this country also? Why are the US in bed with both countries when both are committing genocide on Palestinians, Yemens, Syrians, Iraqis and Lebanese and disrupting Iran, they won't attack Iran as Iran has means to not only defend but attack. In times of massive austerity on the American people who need funds themselves, why are we continuing to feed a Zionist genocide state? Why have the American people not spoken up as to how their tax dollars are being used? $3.8B a year would erase all poverty in America within a few years and we are sending it to warmongers?

Whilst the Zionist state gets bailed out with our tax dollars a neighboring country continues to suffer due to the same Zionist regime. Hundreds of people have protested in cities across Lebanon for a second night over the handling of the country's economic crisis. The Lebanese pound has fallen to record lows, having lost 70% of its value since October when protests began. The financial crisis has worsened during the coronavirus pandemic. Protesters in the capital, Beirut, and in the northern city of Tripoli, threw stones and fireworks at police who used tear gas and rubber bullets. The pound's decline appeared to halt on Friday after the government announced that the central bank would begin injecting more US dollars into the market in a bid to stop the pound's freefall. The move is set to begin on Monday. It comes as the government prepares to hold talks with the International Monetary Fund (IMF) with the hope of securing billions of dollars in financing to help put the country's economy back on track. However any bailout is expected to involve painful economic reforms in a country built on a sectarian political system that is likely to face stiff resistance from the entrenched parties. Many Lebanese citizens who rely on hard currency savings have fallen into poverty due to capital controls, as banks restrict dollar withdrawals. More than a third of the population is unemployed.

The Trump administration has decided to break the 33-year-old Missile Technology Control Regime (MTCR) treaty in order to sell high-tech American drones to whomever it wants. First on that list, are Saudi Arabia, the United Arab Emirates, Jordan, and Romania, with sales to begin almost immediately. The move will doubtless signal the end of the MTCR, a longstanding international agreement with 34 signatories designed to stop the spread of nuclear missiles and other weapons of mass destruction. Most of the developed world, including Russia, has signed up to its principles. However, the Trump administration's abrupt shift is another example of the policy of escalating the likelihood of international conflicts. Last year, Trump unilaterally withdrew the U.S. from the Intermediate Range Nuclear Forces (INF) treaty, an accord signed between President Reagan and Soviet General Secretary Mikhail Gorbachev, stating that he would "move forward with developing our own military response options." In April, the White House also destroyed the Open Skies Treaty, an agreement that allowed the world's major players to freely observe each other from the air, increasing knowledge and understanding of everyone's capabilities, thereby limiting the risk of accidental nuclear war between the East and West. And last month Trump indicated that he would let the New Strategic Arms Reduction (START) Treaty expire in January, allowing the U.S. to rapidly increase its supply of atomic weaponry. This has already begun, as the first batch of low-yield nuclear warheads was delivered to the military in January. Novel weapons like these were specifically mentioned in the Pentagon's latest budget report for the need for new weaponry to confront China and Russia. This is jackass policy, war equals sales and money, their budgets are failing so lets create a new cold war with the world and generate more money for the Lockheed Martin's, Northrop Grumman, Bechtel and Halliburton style corporate groups. After near 4 years of new governance one has to say the song remains eerily the same.

Bank of England governor Andrew Bailey has said he will be "ready to take action" to help the UK economy weather the coronavirus crisis. He was speaking after figures showed that the country's economy shrank by 20.4% in April - the largest monthly contraction on record - as the country spent its first full month in lockdown. "We are still very much in the midst of this," Mr Bailey said, but he said the figure was "pretty much in line" with what the bank expected. "Obviously it's a dramatic and big number, but actually it's not a surprising number," he said. The Office for National Statistics (ONS) said April's "historic" fall affected virtually all areas of activity, as large parts of the economy remained shut to battle the pandemic. The contraction is three times greater than the decline seen during the whole of the 2008 to 2009 economic downturn. But analysts said April was likely to be the worst month, as the government began easing the lockdown in May. Mr Bailey said there were "signs of the economy now beginning to come back into life", but the big question was how much long-term damage the pandemic would cause. "That's the thing we've got to be very focused on, because that's where jobs get lost," he said. "Now we hope that will be as small as possible, but we have to be ready and ready to take action, not just the Bank of England, but more broadly on what we can do to offset those longer-term and damaging effects." News of the slump comes as almost nine million UK workers are having their wages paid by the government, while the number of people claiming unemployment benefit rocketed by 856,500 to 2.1 million in April.

The government was accused of being stuck in the 1980s after its quarantine arrivals form welcomed visitors from countries that no longer exist. Long-defunct nations including Yugoslavia, Southern Rhodesia, Zaire, Czechoslovakia and the USSR were all available as options on the official 'Public Health Passenger Locator'. The error was spotted by social media users a week after the new 14-day self isolation scheme for travellers to the UK was introduced on 8 June. "I know you are not keen on erasing the past, but you may want to check the geography on your COVID-19 immigration form," wrote researcher Max Fras. The list also included East Germany (German Democratic Republic, 1949-1990), the Neutral Zone (between Saudi Arabia and Iraq, 1922-1991) and the Netherlands Antilles (1954-2010). These are the same people you are entrusting to run your life for you, seriously? They are about as useful as a chocolate teapot.

Are you ready for re-education camps in the United States? Colorado has introduced a bill that would "re-educate" parents who refuse to vaccinate their child with the coronavirus vaccine. The bill forces all doctors and medical staff to give vaccinations with no exemptions, even if they are in a situation where they believe it would not be in that child's best interest. The bill's current version, however, does not list any sanctions or punishments for medical staff that refuse, according to Life News. The bill just passed through a committee in Colorado (20-14) to reduce available exemptions on vaccinations for school-age children (making vaccines mandatory). This bill offers "online education modules" for parents who want a different vaccination schedule than what the state demands. Submitting a "certificate of completion" from the re-education classes is one way to receive the state-sanctioned vaccine exemption. This pandemic was never about health, it was about forcing everyone to get a vaccine: an injection of whatever the hell the ruling class decided to put in the vaccine. These vaccines are not being required for the health of anyone unless it's for the health of Big Pharma and the ruling class. What happens if the "re-education" fails to convince a person to get the vaccines? It's hard to say, but these types of concentration camps (and be honest with yourself, you know that's what they are) should be condemned by anyone who wishes to be free. This is utterly insane. The limits the governments are now going to in order to force people to get vaccinated is unbelievable. Beware, this could very well be what more religious people are calling “the mark of the Beast”, and people commenting on this Colorado bill have already made it clear that “people won’t be able to go to work or school” unless they get the vaccine. What’s next? no vaccination = no SS, Disability or unemployment benefits? far fetched? I think not. What follows after the vaccines is the chip and crypto world, at that point I will say goodbye to this planet for good.

The largest wholesale food market in Beijing was shuttered behind police guard and the surrounding neighbourhood locked down Saturday after more than 50 people tested positive for the coronavirus in the Chinese capital.

The outbreak — coming more than 50 days after the last local case in the city of 20 million people — showed how the virus can still come back as restrictions are eased.

The city's swift response reflected China's emphasis on moving quickly to stem the spread of new cases wherever they appear, a lesson learned from fighting the outbreak earlier. It wasn't immediately clear how many people live in the 11 communities. Outside the market, paramilitary police in green uniforms put up vehicle barricades and stood in position at the entrances. Some people were allowed in after showing documents at checkpoints. A red banner reading "We cannot lower our guard when it comes to epidemic prevention and control" hung on a fence. In comes the second wave to justify the continued martial law tactics.

In light of recent efforts from at least 3 states planning to defund the police A majority of truckers are vowing to halt deliveries to cities that defund or disband their police departments, according to a recent poll. Seventy-nine percent of truck drivers said they felt their safety would be at risk if they had to deliver to a city with a disbanded police department, according to CDL News, a website for the commercial trucking industry. Long-haul truck drivers have been on the front lines of the coronavirus pandemic for the past year due to stay-at-home orders requiring most Americans to buy their goods online, and have had to deal with protests. Now many truckers are worried about going to places such as Minneapolis, Minnesota, where their city council president reportedly planned to dismantle their police department following the death of George Floyd. CDL News asked drivers on its app to explain their reasoning for not delivering to these cities. “I will not deliver to an area with a disbanded police department. My life matter and I do this for my family. We are already at the mercy of these towns and cities with laws and hate against us for parking, getting a meal or even using a restroom,” one driver responded. “Simple. We may not like it all the time, but laws and order is necessary,” another driver said. Truck driving has historically been ranked as one of the most dangerous jobs in the U.S. In 2018, the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics ranked it as the most dangerous job in the country with construction workers coming in second, farmers and ranchers taking third.

SUB INTEL Postbank, a South African bank has had to replace more than 12 million customer credit cards after an employee printed and stole a master key. The master key stolen by that employee is a 36-digit code, otherwise known as an encryption key, that allows the possessor to decrypt sensitive banking information and access key systems like customer's pins and internet banking passwords. It can also be used to generate keys associated with customer credit cards, hence Postbank's move to cancel and reissue as many as 12 million credit cards. The bank has said that it has lost more than USD $3.2 million to fraudulent transactions as a result of the security incident. The news was broken by the Sunday Times, who said the incident dates as far back as December, 2018, where a bank employee printed a master key at one of its data centers in Pretoria. PostBank, a financial division of South Africa's postal service, has since launched a security audit to determine which employees are responsible for the breach. That report shows that between March and December 2019, 25,000 illegitimate transactions were made from having access to master keys, totalling more than $3.2 million. The Sunday Times writes that PostBank's move to replace customer credit cards will cost the bank more than $58 million. In addition, a number of affected cards, anywhere between 8 and 10 million, were receiving government social grants and welfare payments, which were targeted the most with fraudulent transactions. More clownery it seems, but with the new cards the question to be asked is, what have they added to them?

INTEL Secretary of Transportation Norman Mineta testified before the 911 Commission on May 23, 2003 and offered an interesting account of Vice President Cheney's behavior as Flight 77 approached the Pentagon. MR. HAMILTON: We thank you for that. I wanted to focus just a moment on the Presidential Emergency Operating Center. You were there for a good part of the day. I think you were there with the vice president. And when you had that order given, I think it was by the president, that authorized the shooting down of commercial aircraft that were suspected to be controlled by terrorists, were you there when that order was given? MR. MINETA: No, I was not. I was made aware of it during the time that the airplane [was] coming into the Pentagon. There was a young man who had come in and said to the vice president, "The plane is 50 miles out. The plane is 30 miles out." And when it got down to, "The plane is 10 miles out," the young man also said to the vice president, "Do the orders still stand?" And the vice president turned and whipped his neck around and said, "Of course the orders still stand. Have you heard anything to the contrary?" Well, at the time I didn't know what all that meant. And -- MR. HAMILTON: The flight you're referring to is the -- MR. MINETA: The flight that came into the Pentagon. MR. HAMILTON: The Pentagon, yeah. MR. MINETA: And so I was not aware that that discussion had already taken place. But in listening to the conversation between the young man and the vice president, then at the time I didn't really recognize the significance of that. And then later I heard of the fact that the airplanes had been scrambled from Langley to come up to DC, but those planes were still about 10 minutes away. And so then, at the time we heard about the airplane that went into Pennsylvania, then I thought, "Oh, my God, did we shoot it down?" And then we had to, with the vice president, go through the Pentagon to check that out. MR. HAMILTON: Let me see if I understand. The plane that was headed toward the Pentagon and was some miles away, there was an order to shoot that plane down. MR. MINETA: Well, I don't know that specifically, but I do know that the airplanes were scrambled from Langley or from Norfolk, the Norfolk area. But I did not know about the orders specifically other than listening to that other conversation. MR. HAMILTON: But there very clearly was an order to shoot commercial aircraft down. MR. MINETA: Subsequently I found that out. "The repeated questioning of Cheney by the young man whether "the orders still stand" had to be about whether the order NOT to destroy the approaching plane still stood. Given the two prior attacks against the Twin Towers using the commercial airliners as weapons, an order to destroy the plane approaching the Pentagon would be the only order to give and would not be subject to question by the young man as the plane approached. Furthermore, had Cheney's order been to fire on the plane approaching the Pentagon (which first came near the White House), the anti-aircraft capacity of the Pentagon (or White House), would have sufficed to take out that plane, and certainly to have attempted to take out that plane. Since the Langley/Norfolk jets are at least 10 minutes away and out of range, Cheney's order is about the on-site Pentagon or White House defenses. Neither a shoot-down nor an attempted shoot-down occurred, and since Mineta does not speak of a last-second change in orders by Cheney, the only supportable conclusion is that Cheney's order was NOT to defend the Pentagon, an order so contrary to both common sense and military defense that it, and it alone, explains the repeated questioning by the young man." So the Pentagon and White House have antircraft capacity and yet never used it? At 8.46am was first crash and no aircraft scrambled, 9.03 2nd crash and no aircraft scrambled or in the vicinity then a gap of 34 mins to Pentagon incident and scrambled planes were 10 minutes away? Reason I know for allowing Pentagon incident is I dont believe it was a plane for a start, planes don't go through 6 rings of 10 feet of re-enforced concrete, if it was a plane why did the agencies remove all cams facing the Pentagon and not release the footage apart from a CGI that doesn't determine anything. The reason for Pentagon is I understand it, they hit the newly rebuilt wing of The Pentagon that housed what we know on the internet as The White Hats, all subsequent White Hats were Langley based clowns.

People should pay real close attention to these next two pieces, it confirms much of our show and what I have been warning of. The National Security Commission on Artificial Intelligence(NSCAI) was established in August 2018 as part of the military budget "to consider the methods and means necessary to advance the development of artificial intelligence, machine learning, and associated technologies to comprehensively address the national security and defense needs of the United States." There is a considerable amount of overlap between the NSCAI and the companies advising the White House on “re-opening” the economy after the coronavirus panic (Microsoft, Amazon, Google, Lockheed Martin, Oracle) and one NSCAI member, Oracle’s Safra Katz, is on the White House’s “economic revival” taskforce. Also notable is the fact that In-Q-Tel (CIA) and the U.S. intelligence services has considerable representation on the NSCAI. It lobbies for Big Tech AI “smart cities” à la China. If you want proof of why smart cities are a dumb idea for the people, the piece after this one will reveal why. The NSCAI is a key part of the government’s response to what is often referred to as the coming “fourth industrial revolution,” which has been described as “a revolution characterized by discontinuous technological development in areas like artificial intelligence (AI), big data, fifth-generation telecommunications networking (5G), nanotechnology and biotechnology, robotics, the Internet of Things (IoT), and quantum computing.” The Commission is a temporary organization, and is supposed to submit its final report to Congress in October 2020. The Commission will cease operations following the submission of its final report. Is it a coincidence the alleged vaccine for the fake virus will be ready this October in line with this report? I would suggest not. The vice-chair of NSCAI, Robert O. Work – former Deputy Secretary of Defense and senior fellow at the hawkish Center for a New American Security (CNAS), described the commission’s purpose as determining “how the U.S. national security apparatus should approach artificial intelligence, including a focus on how the government can work with industry to compete with China’s ‘civil-military fusion’ concept.” Eric Schmidt, Chairman, Robert O. Work, Vice Chairman, Safra Catz, Oracle, with close ties to Trump’s top donor Sheldon Adelson, Steve Chien. Jet Propulsion Lab, Mignon Clyburn Open Society Foundation fellow and former FCC commissioner, Chris Darby CEO of In-Q-Tel (CIA’s venture capital arm), Ken Ford, Florida Institute for Human & Machine Cognition, if that title doesn't concern you greatly, you need a radical rethink, hello Transhumanism program, José-Marie Griffiths, Dakota State University, Eric Horvitz director of Microsoft Research Labs, Andy Jassy, Amazon Web Services, Gilman Louie, partner at Alsop Louie Partners and former CEO of In-Q-Tel, William Mark, director of SRI International and former Lockheed Martin director, Jason Matheny, director of the Center for Security and Emerging Technology, former Assistant director of National Intelligence and former director of IARPA (Intelligence Advanced Research Project Agency), Katharina McFarland, Chair, National Academies of Science Board of Army Research and Development, Andrew Moore head of Google Cloud AI. All these usual psychopathic groups and clown organizations and the Clowns in Panic show confirmed again.

I received a follow up call from the Rothschild's group and received more details of what goes on in their world. Which I will relay today, and whilst not all elements have been verified there is sufficient evidence this is taking place here and now. On the call was a slight back track of the number of Rothschild's no longer going ahead with the top end clowns of that family, and I suspect that is not a full retract, but a decision based in and of fear, imposed on them by the 3 lead Rothschild's plus the technology which will be described shortly in attendance also. One of the many warnings given in this show is highly prevalent in this piece, and the notion that technology is the future, when all of it is long in the past, a vast proportion of which is human technology. The common misconception is that technology is all off world based and more advanced than us, is just that, a misconception. All technology has the propensity to be used for good purposes, but 99% of modern technology has been weaponized against us, from the internet to computers to phones to smart tv's, fridges etc replace the word smart with dumb and you have a better idead, to home security systems all rendered for the use of spying, tracking and data mining and collection. Movies and TV shows re-enforce the notion it is science fiction or a dystopian world, all set in a supposed future world, when in reality it is now and the past, and our dire future unless we highlight it and stop it. We have already mentioned the underground cities with advanced technology, renewable energy, maglev trains etc all paid for by the surface population, whilst the few self appointed elites gorge on our life force energy, known as money. So, what was described to me certainly fits in with the background knowledge I have, and so I will reveal what was relayed to me. Below our feet in various locations there are what was called a rich man's resort, that is split into two camps of resident evil and some not so, and a diverse group of ordinary people who likely had no idea what they were getting themselves into. These resorts are using all the past technology not made available to the public, including many of which has come out of the various researchers centers and also Universities like Harvard, Stanford and Yale, in most case rogue based anti human research. These resorts are called Wonderland and has echoes of the series Westworld. The resort has various levels each with a separate function of what takes place on each level. There is a defined split of people within the resort of the left hand path false illuminated light psychopaths and the right hand enlightenment path. Because of the development of digital technology and the advancement in genetics, blood and DNA testing they have managed to create a new world within a world via clones and other technological techniques, and created digitalized humans. These digitalized humans are like an over lay of reality, a virtual world if you like, where what is real and what is not merges into a programmed world, that renders the host unable to ascertain between real and a digital recording. To obtain these digitalized clones and all the characteristics, they have been using the likes of FB, Google, twitter and various other data mining outlets to record and develop the process under the banner of Artificial Intelligence. This is an electromagnetic world packed with programming that is like and I suspect is based upon, the MK Ultra testing program. Some of the other technology available to them down there is, brain to brain interface technology, which transplant the consciousness from one person into another. Essentially this transfers all the essence of the previous person, and allows the host to become someone else including all the memories, habits and traits of the harvested being. Other technology available to them is what is known as a spectroscopic camera that is entirely invisible to us, the implications of that is wide ranging, and should be a warning to the police that it is likely they will be replaced by these cameras and robot armies they have been building for some time now. The recent version they put out to the public and the yellow dog, is nowhere the same level of the stuff they keep hidden. Another technology they have is called synthetic telepathy, and they are able to contact anybody via the telecommunications system and do voice to head messages from anywhere in the world. An earlier version of this in the early 2000's was using the channelers, that populated the alt media and seeding program messages, said to be from benevolent ET's and god, when it was just this technology. The clones for the digitalized world are generated by those find out your ancestors history groups, their reports are by and large false and the DNA, blood along with your recorded voice from phones and other forms of communications is then garnered to create a copy of you, for this electromagnetic digital world. This is why in part they switched from analogue to digital. So what is going on in these resorts? well this is what was relayed to me and it is fairly upsetting, and I will warn you as we go into this brief synopsis. The clones being made are seeded with programs to be evil, some would argue beyond evil. They are committing heinous crimes and carrying out evil based techniques and killing people with abandon, at the request of the three lead Rothschild's family members who run and control these resorts. Following certain events and bad occurrences, those on the right hand path rose up against the atrocities and the Rothschild's, and the Rothschild's proceeded to kill them all. Those who refuse to go along with the program, are given an ultimatum of join or die. Sixty percent of those on the right hand within the resort are dead, reports of corpses on each floor scattered everywhere. People are being crucified, tortured and many right hand path people are being mind controlled to carry out the most heinous actions against their will. The left hand path people carrying these acts out have been reported to me, as to be mutilating and consuming children on a large scale, amongst various of heinous acts unfolding. Those in these facilities no longer have control of themselves or their actions due to this technology being used against them. Now you all know why I kept warning you all about the dangers of technology, all technology is the lazy man's tool, from calculators, phones (think telepathy) to healing machines, you all have the capacity to tap into that technology contained within you all, providing you do the inner and shadow work and develop on a soul level. It was suggested to me that Kim the Trustee has fallen victim to this technology, certainly the voice to head variety and some other aspects that I found out for myself this past week. There was elements of trying to interfere with me as well, but an independent personal test of me rendered that mute for the most part, due to my own protection shield, field and support. Work to fix these issues was underway this week with a series of missions and operations that took place, that I am awaiting the feedback results of those interactions. I know some of it worked but hoping all of the actions taken worked and we can move forward again. I know these revealings are unpleasant to hear and know about, but you have all developed so much within yourselves to have it revealed to you all, and it is important you process it, release it from your field and heal. These type of events were never ever revealed when you begun your life here, they were all hidden in a cloak of secrecy so deep that no light ever reached it, the positive aspect not the negative is, the light is penetrating everything with this show and some others, of a world no one knew about. If you don't know all hell reigns, if we do know we can correct it, ignorance is now a choice, and me and this show will never allow these programs to go unheard of like it was in the past. I will continue to expose these psychopaths and their heinous programs until they are rendered mute and or obsolete.

OP-ED The George Floyd issue rumbles on, and was always an event to cover other things, and then initiate new programs, rules and directives. Well it has appeared to come forth this week of police reform, with George Floyd's patsy lawyer issuing a directive for the UN to step in and reform the police. Now some people say that is long overdue police reform, and many in this group because your thinking patterns have changed will say, what with? New boss same as the old boss just like the Federal Reserve takeover by The Black Sun from The Rothschild's? all championed by Team Q and possibly Trump also? Obama signed Executive Orders for the UN to takeover America remember, so if this is the narrative being pushed what has changed in the last 4 years? Remember this was the same narrative for the Jade Helm exercise back 2013-14 and pictures of UN vehicles dotted all around the country. So, the lawyer is asking for UN intervention, yet curiously doesn't ask the very organization said to look after events and issues within this country, called the Government? People should question that on a few levels, is the lawyer stating the government is incompetent, corrupt or incapable? because if that is the case, the people have an obligation to take action in November should they not? If something is not fit for purpose which is what the lawyer is implying, then surely the people have to react to that notion. We at THI know it is part of an agenda 21 or 30 possibly, and what he is stating or advocating is, the UN to dictate not only this countries policies, but globally and that should concern us all. The UN is a defunct clown organization designed to destroy every country from within and outside, it has looted every country, implemented the fake climate change with the hidden program of demanding all countries to sign over all of their assets to the UN. This is the public one world government in action, I say public as they have had one world government since 1920's and possibly earlier. So now reports are coming out of defunding the police predictably in California but in other regions also and so what are they replacing them with? militaristic elements of the UN? Mercenary style agency people like Blackwater? or the robot army all being built quietly in China and other regions? I warned of this in previous show first the police, next comes the military to be replaced by NATO, Mercenaries and robot armies.

I did a piece in last regular show and said I will be social distancing mask wearers and gave the reasons why, based on medical issues and actually the mask wearers are a threat to my health. Well here is the medical reasons for it. Pleurisy, also known as pleuritis, is inflammation of the membranes that surround the lungs and line the chest cavity (pleurae), this can result in a sharp chest pain while breathing. To clear the lungs and to remove the inflammation you need unrestricted airways, but how can you clear lungs and restricted airways with a mask on? Toxins we normally exhale becoming trapped in the mask mutate and then are recycled back into the lungs via inhaling, a permanent loop of toxins running through your lungs. This illness will not only be exacerbated by wearing a mask, but can be caused by prolonged mask wearing! But imagine what doctors would assume if you reported that symptom today! No doubt you would be diagnosed with COVID-19 and told to quarantine... with a mask, or even worse... placed into a medically induced coma and on a ventilator, then locked in a room with no visitors allowed! The motion of breathing in produces Oxygen for the blood, and what is breathed out is Carbon Dioxide. Carbon dioxide is known as an "asphyxiant," an asphyxiant gas is a nontoxic or minimally toxic gas which reduces or displaces the normal oxygen concentration in breathing air. Breathing of oxygen-depleted air can lead to death by asphyxiation. Because asphyxiant gases are relatively inert and odorless, their presence in high concentration may not be noticed, except in the case of carbon dioxide. Asphyxiant, which is a substance that bonds with your blood in place of oxygen, leading to a gradual strangulation of the vessel and with less oxygen, the body then transfers it to where it is most critical, and cuts off the less critical, one of which is the brain. Peggy Hall references OSHA regulations that require a workplace to provide Oxygen levels of at least 19.5%. Wearing masks can cause Oxygen levels to drop below 19.5% so employees may suffer irreversible brain damage. An employer that requires prolonged mask wearing would be committing an OSHA violation, punishable by a significant fine or loss of business license. So, there you have it, there are consequences to placing trust in people you don't know, like governments, media and medical experts, with regards to the latter it is called a practice for a reason. Assumption costs lives, ignorance costs lives, too lazy to find out truth costs lives, too willing to let others take responsibility for your life cost lives and rampant stupidity has cost millions of lives over many generations. It is your responsibility to teach and learn, not educate, that is for animals, we are not animals although the behavior of many resembles sheep.

Hamas, Muslim Brotherhood and Black Lives Matter all coming together, along with Netflix and lead Democrats, of promoting black lives matter, oh my another confirm of FRWL and another confirm of the information within this show. This proves once and for all, that all these so called terrorist groups like Hamas, Muslim Brotherhood, ISIS, Al Qaeda all come from the same source. All middle eastern groups were formed and paid for by the Zionist elements in league with the 5 eyes groups and in particular the CIA groups 2 and 3. The CIA now has a Langley 4 and they are no better than 2 or 3, there are elements of good people in Langley 1 but they are like islands in the middle of a vast ocean of a swirling swamp. This is why Pelosi is pushing police reform and wants all racial profiling stopped, not for policing or public privacy reasons, but to continue to flood across our borders radical mercenary style groups to attack this country from within. Like Farq guerrillas, like MS-13 and other similar Mexican gang related groups, who not only do violent jobs at the request of these psychopaths, but are given voting approval by the Democratic led states. Like Ilhan Omar calling the police a cancer, Ms. Omar is not representing Republicans anymore than Democrats are representing the Democrats, both are riddled with faction based dark forces groups, but Ms. Omar is a disciple of Obama and the Muslim Brotherhood group he leads. He was responsible for the porous borders to allow those mercenary style groups into this country. What gets me here is, and I don't care who I upset because it is the truth, the term Black Lives Matter is an outright racist term, nothing more and nothing else, and people can whine and be petty all they like, but it is true to any common sense and thinking person. Remember the cops in one state putting a sticker on their cars of All Lives matter and the Political Correctness crew shouted racism and it was removed? Political Correctness is a fancy word for subtle racism and divide and conquer programs. Just because the deliberate divide and conquer people tell you it is valid, does not mean it is. In fact most of what they tell you to believe, do or think is skewed and invalid as we have all found out. This is same program of what they declared as normal, normal does not exist in the real world, in their world it is a limitation and control program, as only they decide what is normal, and those think tank jackasses who come up with these terms are not normal in any world. Well, normal has ran it's course and they declared new normal, which essentially means being an enslaved jackass. Look at the word normal, it is a double negative and that should alert you to it's intentions. nor and mal is double negative. Black Lives Matter have raked in $100M in donations we are told in the past month, that is money laundering at it's core, because if black lives really matter why haven't they solved the near 1B people in food crisis, 2.3B with no toilet, 1.3B with no electricity the majority of which are black or brown? It is near 40 years since live aid when vacuous cretins known as stars all came out to the public presenting themselves as humanitarian, when it was just another publicity stunt to sell more of their wares and boost their egos, FACT, because if it wasn't, why hasn't a single African country improved since, in fact most are now worse. All that money is coming into the blacks in America who are a small percentage of people in this country, but what about the blacks in Africa? or any other country? what about them? And no I was being sarcastic about the money coming into black Americans, like the Jewish holocaust money none of it goes to the people it is designed for. Do you really think these groups and elites care one iota for the black people? well do you? you are bordering on criminally insane if you are, I'm sorry but those are the facts. No one has cared within the system for any color, no one cares for the native or tribal people, no one cares for the yellow or brown people, no one cares for the poverty stricken sub gray group either, known in modern day terms as Jews, and no one cares or is paying any attention to the chronic loss of white people in your own lifetime. Those are the true hard facts, but it is not just the system who doesn't care enough for all colors, from opposite colors to the same color WE have not cared enough either, WE, US, forget them clowns and pointing at them, it is WE who are the problem of not coming together, that facilitates their jackass think tank groups to make the gap between the colors wider. So no I will not be supporting the racist term Black Lives Matter, because ALL lives matter, and the sooner all colors recognize that and come together, they will always play us like pawns. There are some in emails and on the pages who don't like me saying we are part of the problem, people writing that are part of the problem and we have to face facts, not illusion. We have to be adult about it and not act and think like children of blaming everyone else, we are the majority, we have the power and we have allowed this planet to become an almighty mess of greed, violence, hate, self serving, idolatry, corruption and evil. So you can carry on pointing fingers at me for being negative, moaning I am blaming us and being a part of the problem or face reality. This show has never been and will never be a City of Light pill for you all to ignore and forget issues, there are plenty of other jackass led alt media sites for that, but not this one. This is why we are different, this is why we are attacked, as we went beyond exposing their prescribed front puppets and into the real issues. The Black Lives Matter (BLM) movement's welcoming embrace of the slogan "From Palestine To Ferguson", which on the face of it sounds all too nice, but the very group of people providing funds and running BLM are the very groups that in part enslaved the blacks and also destroyed Palestine. Known as Jews but these people are not Jews at all in real terms, and are Hebrew Annunaki, running off world programs on behalf of the fake gods out of their books. These were the same people behind the slavery ships, represented as whites, but were Jews, all of them. They were running black on black slavery via east African trade company to and from Egypt, which is where these Israelites came from, long before the whites arrived with Jewish owned ships. We had white slaves in Africa before the blacks were enslaved in more modern his story, we had Indians out of India coming into America and slaughtering Native American groups again long before the whites arrived, and mixing and destroying their culture. These same sub gray groups corrupted and destroyed many of the tribal groups globally with their off world counterparts, evidence of their travel is in the Grand Canyon in Arizona. Why is there so called Egyptian (its not Egyptian at all) artifacts, gold and hieroglyphs a distance of 7500 miles from Egypt, when we were told their was no major travelling on this planet, does that make sense? There was travel just not our type of traveling vehicles. I said we would see this year and things have been borne out, the thing is to not just see, but use the information to counteract their problem, reaction, solution game. But I will repeat again Black Lives Matter is pure racism, and they are guiltling people into going along with it, just like they did to the Germans and Polish people since World War 2 with the holocaust narrative, which most people don't realize that term holocaust was introduce in 1957 and 12 years after the war. It is the same program and ran by the same people is why. If you don't believe me and require more evidence as to what is going on now, listen closely to this next piece and see how much of it has been implemented.

In From Russia with love we did pieces on the overtaking and elimination of the whites, here is a piece by a Jewish person named Israel Cohen (that name again, Cohen like Khan means priest class) said back in 1912, not 2012 but 1912 and shows how far ahead they plan. People of all colors need to absorb this, be aware of and counter their program, none moreso than the black people themselves. These clowns are pulling strings again and you, the black people are their dancing puppets, are you going to allow them to do that to you? "We must realize that our party's most powerful weapon is racial tensions. By propounding into the consciousness of the dark races, that for centuries they have been oppressed by whites, we can mold them into the program of The Communist party. (communist and communism was created by the Zionist sub gray group, known today as Jews but I must stress not all Jews, Communism is not Russia, not China, not Cuba or Vietnam) We will invest to instill in the whites, a guilt complex over their exploitation of the negroes. We will aid the negroes to rise in prominence in every walk of life, in the professions, and in the world of sports and entertainment. With this prestige, the negro will be able to intermarry with the whites, and begin a process which will deliver America to our cause." And there you have it all in their own words. The cop responsible for this latest program is Derek Chauvin, to me he is an International criminal and should be arrested in every country not for killing George Floyd, as it is still debatable whether that death actually took place, but for participating and launching a fake program against every person on this planet, of continued slavery and death. Question remains with the alleged mugshots of Derek Chauvin is, why does he look like a Greenberg family member? Greenberg is real name of Mark Zuckerberg, check the resemblance. The Greenberg and Sexton families have a history for playing acting roles in disaster scenarios, more commonly known as false flags. Remember the dark haired wailing girl that turned up in 3 disasters on 2 continents? yes she is also part of those families. His name Chauvin is the eponym of chauvinism, which means derived from, and originally a term for excessive nationalistic fervor, but later used to refer to any form of bigotry or bias. Do you seriously believe that person and his name was a coincidence?

4 years ago last month THI was formed from a large betrayal of me, the admins and the members by Drake and Co, and like a loop program it was repeated four years later to the very same day. Four years ago was bitter and painful for us all, none moreso than myself and the admins of Cosmic Voice, so much work surrounding Cosmic Voice was done by myself and the admins and yet we were cast aside like a piece of dirt. No discourse and on the particular day no reasons given either, it was heartless by their actions, and current events are a replica of that. Whilst I pondered on next path 4 years ago, my decision was in part made for me by the support of the people out of Cosmic Voice. They all recognized my input into that show, and the knowledge that I imparted into that show and wanted me to continue, and so we launched THI. I specifically picked that name for a reason, all must abide or strive for the truth, that is essential for us all. Honor is the idea of a bond between an individual and a society, as a quality of a person that is both of social teaching and of personal ethos, that manifests itself as a code of conduct, and has various elements such as valor, chivalry, honesty, and compassion. Integrity a rare commodity these days, which means whole or complete and is garnered by doing shadow and inner work which we have covered extensively within our shows, some would say it is the core of our show. Integrity is the practice of being honest, and showing a consistent and uncompromising adherence to strong moral and ethical principles and values. In ethics, integrity is regarded as the honesty and truthfulness or accuracy of one's actions. Integrity is the opposite of hypocrisy, in that judging with the standards of integrity involves regarding internal consistency as a virtue. Setting the standards is the basis of that, and the one thing members say who have met me in person, and those who have been long term listeners is, he is consistent. Those three words are our own bible in essence, something that raises the bar for us all, as standards have dropped remarkably over our current lifetime. Contrary to some opinions it is something I myself also strive for as well, this is about us all and not just me, do I slip from time to time? absolutely, I am not perfect. Although often critiques hold me to every word, text or post, and that is good in some respects as it makes me accountable, the most accountable person on the internet, yet those that set so high standards for me curiously neglect their own, that is called projection of the self. So THI was built for us all to raise the bar, and so many of you have done just that, judging by the volumes of emails, texts and private messages sent to me during the duration of THI. That is what drives me on, despite the now daily shenanigans of trolls, shills, alt media division programs and the now more regular occurrences of betrayals of our group and myself. I get off upon seeing people improve many aspects of their lives, and none who betrayed us will ever take that away from us or me. Many have come and gone and many doubted me when x, y or z left, but over time most saw why those were no longer part of our group and in some part I was vindicated, current events will be seen in the same light. My door will be open to most of those to return, I have often let people back in our group despite their previous poor interactions, including people who have trashed me, why? because we all have bad days, weeks or months and no one knows what is going on in the background of anyone's life that may have caused that blip in time. But as we as a group raise the bar, it means some will fall below it and that is sad to witness for us all, but is it not the case we focus more on what was lost than what was gained? we focus more on what hasn't been done than what has been done? Why do we focus on the negative so much, and not take into account of what we have achieved or gained? Our group was burdened with the repeated swipe of where's the money, a common theme of Tank and his group, and yet miss all that has been done on an individual or collective, and then I did the Events piece of 30+ major events that has been done and many of them events are directly attributable to this group and connections to it. The Trust became the leverage with which to destroy and deflect all the other work we had done by the do nothings, paid clown agents and humanity sell outs. Many people have asked me many questions in regards to Kim and yes I agree it is sad and very strange, but I and we have to honor Kim's wishes, it is the path she has chosen, and is what she wanted, and so we wish her well. My engagement with Kim and moreso The Trust cost me much Cosmic Voice was the first, Shane, Randy and Chloe my former love partner times three all followed, all left by and large of percentages 90-100% because of Kim and moreso the Trust, and quite a few members also, some of which now reside in our publicity branch group called Team Bubba. I did it because it was the right thing to do, no matter what personal cost and my personal cost has been brutal at times, perhaps more than many of you realize, but I did it for the mission and the mission goes on, no matter who falls. THI rose out of the ashes and shadow of the Phoenix, project or otherwise and went onto becoming the now global phenomenon we see today. We regrouped and built something new, we built something better, we built a global community, we built friendships, we built a deep support system for each other, we built loyalty not blind loyalty as we questioned each other along the way, and we built upon the vision of the TPC, and received a "tiny" bit of knowledge along the way. We built islands of like minded people who no longer see or want the illusion world. We built us, all of us and the latest attempt to drag me down will not work and we will carry on building as we have done for the past 4.25 years.

You cannot forgive, if you don't forgive yourself. You cannot trust, if you don't trust yourself. You cannot fully care for others, if you don't care for yourself. You cannot think for others, if you don't think for yourself. You cannot soothe anger, if you don't restrain your own. You cannot heal your inner, if you continue to project outer. You cannot request change, if you don't change yourself. Ascension is an inner process, not an external. You cannot hope to achieve high consciousness with lower vibrational actions and thinking. You cannot heal the planet, if you haven't healed yourself. You cannot love if you don't love yourself, not loving yourself leads to a heart of stone, and the Excalibur sword we all have the potential of holding becomes only a self cutting tool.
