

THI-SHOW TRANSCRIPT 2020-09-03

That was David Icke a man who helped many wake up but not without his critics, from my perspective his link up with Alex Jones raised many concerns. But I have always said I will support people who do or say the right thing and that speech was right on point. Tonight is a big show and many words will be spoken and a whole range of emotions will bleed through, it is a line in the sand show in many ways, I will pull no punches and deliver not what you want to hear, but you need to hear, and will include the occasional and rarely used in our shows - F bombs. Happy birthday to Russell who has come such a long way on his own journey and I am proud to have witnessed it. Message for people who are in bed sick for ailments for Sal and Catherine, support for those two members and message for two other members in bed for other reasons - get r done!! Protests all over the globe happening...Berlin, London, Canada, Australia, Belarus, South Korea, Hong Kong, Israel, Lebanon, Ireland...and many more. People are sick and tired of the restrictions and not buying into the fear anymore. They are losing the narrative now badly, expect a backlash of draconian measures following an incident or several. As Mr. Icke said we are living in historic times for the people of the world, and none moreso for the so called conspiracy theorists, branded idiots, nuts and cast out of families and society for having the temerity to be brave and speak the truth, but guess what? We have been proven right time and time again, and that is in spite of the real rogue elements that are riddled through 95% plus of alt media as well. It is indeed historic and you should all be proud of your own participation in it. As the virus starts to turn back on the very people who implemented it, September 1st marks the downward spiral of the old system collapsing, all must participate in every way possible to push it on it's way. If Trump wont implement change, and Biden is a complete and utter waste of life force energy and is symbolic of the fall of the American empire, mute, incomprehensible, dodderly and impotent, then it is we the people that must facilitate and bring about the change. We are now in the most important time of this revealing year, the last month of which was deemed crucial and revealed to me in April of last year. Speak up, speak out and speak within, the only people who are mad at you for speaking the truth, are those who are living the lie. We the people have had enough of lies and are now demanding more and more of the truth. The truth is brutal, unpleasant, painful and searching, but it is also cathartic, and long term beneficial for those who go through the lie barrier. That barrier is a major blockage to progress for all life on this planet, and it is one all must hurdle. We are on the precipice of a global shift in perspective, that to my knowledge has not been seen since the time of the Ur's and Rus maybe 110K years ago, certainly is a first in more modern history. An Earth shaking shift by the people that brings tears to my eyes, out of the slumber of being slaves into a new paradigm of speaking, acting and being in the truth. Message to the psychopaths, think tank groups, psychology departments, Intelligence Agencies and all Governments, it is time to down tools and accept the tide has turned and the people will prevail, come and join us in the Earth Restoration Plan.

Message to Black Lives Matter quit acting like idiots and pawns of the olds system, throw away your black lives matter banners and rhetoric and come and join ALL lives matter. Message to all people quit with the fear and little me programs, you are the power, you are the solution and you are the savior.

We had a great Zoom call with Harald Thiers this week and delivering information on the Cosmic Towers, a recording of the audio will be out soon. But this Saturday at 3pm est we will have another call and decide how or if we proceed with this based on your own understanding of it.

On Sunday for those with issues connected to astral rape wish to come forward and tell their story and receive support, we will have another zoom call for those people who have suffered, this call is for astral rape and entity issues only and for the people who have experienced and need help only, it is not an open zoom call.

I am looking for qualified tax accountant familiar with business and personal taxes from within the THI structure.

"I am Rogue hear me roar, Working to bring the light and nothing more Creating through action a better future we will see, One for all people, it's time to be free Many wish for the darkness and they work against the light They work to cause havoc and delight in the fright Nothing will delay this action toward good, All shall be uncovered, we shall see under the hood The light will quell the darkness and calm the night. I stand guard over the children to deliver them from their plight No more destruction, no more shall it be, Time for everyone for the all to see I am a keeper of truth and my ray burns bright, I am Rogue and I am a Warrior for the Light"

What is important in terms of VALUE, is how much service WE can give to the world, and how much WE can get done, and how much better WE can make things. These are important things. These are all that are important. A bank account never measured the worth of a man. His ability to HELP measured his worth and that's all. A bank account can assist one to help, but where it ceases to do that it becomes useless. for MAN : The VALUE of SURVIVAL : Having food, shelter, job, peace, friends, schools ..... For SPIRIT : The VALUE of FREEDOM. As of TODAY ..... The VALUE of Survival and of Freedom has A PRIZE : Constant and continual alertness is the price of Survival and of Freedom. Constant willingness to fight back is the price of Survival and of Freedom. A man has no more VALUE than that he can HELP others. In The Book of Origins, chapter 10 :7 :- There are seven absolute values, which are: Love, Truth, Beauty, Wisdom, Goodness, Creativity and Justice.

John Darash has sent you a group email from National Liberty Alliance. ONLY THE PEOPLE CAN SAVE OUR REPUBLIC Donald J. Trump said: "Our movement is about replacing a failed and corrupt political establishment with a new government controlled by you the American people." Thomas Jefferson said "If a nation expects to be ignorant and free in a state of civilization, it expects what never was and never will be...." Our Sheriffs are as ignorant to the Constitution as we are, only you can change that. It's the very least you can do! Go to - <https://www.nationallibertyalliance.org/county-sheriff-project> And Join our Campaign for Constitutional Sheriffs Retired Sheriff Richard Mack, founder of the Constitutional Sheriffs and Peace Officers Association (CSPOA), has been training county sheriffs for more than a decade on how to keep their oath of office. Now, due to the excessive tyrannical COVID dictates terrorizing the nation, there is a new-found demand for the services of CSPOA, and they recently started a monthly "Ask Sheriff Mack Any Question You Want" call-in program to educate people on the Constitutional role of County Sheriffs. In his most recent call in August, he revealed that he has been in contact with sheriffs in California, and that they claim that there are at least 40 sheriffs in California who oppose Governor Newsom, and that's out of 58 sheriffs!

Vindictive: the act to seek revenge, marked by or resulting from a desire to hurt; spiteful. But what happens when that act comes back to bite the one implementing it? Time always tells. True intent matters in this next phase, ALL will see.

The strange quirks of life and the 4 year loop I became aware of in 2013 and presented later in shows once I got personal confirms, has reared up some interesting correlations for me again this year. On May 4th 2016 I went against information put out about Neil Keenan and we parted ways. On May 4th 2020 Kim and I had a minor disagreement about words Kim had said to me, and we parted ways. In August 2016 Neil Keenan launched a technology a bio healing device that costs a lot of money In August 2020 Kim launched a technology healing device that costs a lot of money Only difference between the two is Neil backed off and in part apologized in July.

Tank gave an impassioned speech and promise of student loans being eliminated by a Trump speech by the weekend. Saturday and Sunday came and went like the previous Monday promise. All very disappointing. Following on from my raising concerns about the bio machine, not who is promoting it. In a small excerpt of their last show there was talk about the machine and how all the software in the machines, are corrupted when attempted to be used in America. Evidence came forward of the same machines being reverse engineered and also being corrupted, but they at Lifeforce were going to acquire the original none corrupted machines direct from manufacturer and designer of the product. Trump was supposed to announce this machine to the American public also, and failed to do so. Perhaps it would be better to not announce anything ahead of time, as it looks bad when the public are let down, following failed promises. Making sensational headline grabbing promises on a weekly or bi weekly basis, all of which have failed to date, is not the way forward for any show, new or otherwise, and sadly resembles most of the rest of the alt media circuit over the duration it has been running. This show was meant to be different, honest and up front, delivering real news and not as one member put it, turning into an infomercial broadcast with glitz and glam, all image based and no substance, which resembles they MSM which we are trying to replace, not add to. The Trustee has stated she will buy one for each state at least with the Trust funds, some people have asked me how she can pay for these machines and yet not fund the people? perhaps that can be answered in their next show, to be clear yet again this is not a challenging or trick question.

This is a synopsis of comments made to me over the past few months. Over the past few months much has been said in private, many people are unhappy, some people are angry at the rejection of them, and some are furious, mainly females that another female public figure has gone astray and basically gone away from the common touch of we the people, and followed the well trodden elite path of ego, bad manners and general arrogance, that is what is and has been said. Not by a few but by many, and not limited to our group either, as several of their own members, and people out of NLA have expressed disgust and aghast at what has unfolded. Some people have tried to fix that, some people left our group to follow the money program, and that is ok, you follow your own path based on how far you have developed. Some of their own members have come to me recently and apologized to me, some of their members and even some of Team Bubba members have now asked to join or rejoin THI again in the past few weeks, will they be let back in the group? in most cases yes, people make mistakes in life, including me, and it is about all of us learning those lessons mistakes bring, and doing things in a better way in the future. The gist of what was said, was we at THI were right all along, me personally I don't care too much about being proven right, I wish it would have never taken place to begin with, but some people will always have agendas, follow their own self importance path and believe the lies to fulfill their base levels and agendas. I said time would tell, and it appears it has.

So, what is my opinion and thoughts. Yes I am fully aware of what is and has gone on in their group recently, including plans to bring me and THI down from as far back as October last year, although that person has tried that since September 2018. It failed. The same person tried to do the same to NLA harvesting ideas and members for donations that ultimately went missing, funny how only THI has to make every cent accountable and yet no one else does, particularly in the world of Tank. How about some transparency Tank of where all of the funds donated via 6-8 separate donation schemes has been spent? Money going missing out of accounts, accounts being emptied, people paying thousands of dollars to help with the start up of LifeForce/UNC and then being blocked out of the group, people being vetted to just go on a call, all very old system over officious that, or paranoia has set in, either way it is not conducive to an open and welcoming group. Further issues with security and apps and Tank lying to the public of he made a mistake with the password, the question is and remains to be answered is, why do you need a facial recognition, finger print and tracking app to join an internet group to begin with? the lure of the funds should not overlook the need to protect yourself from being datamined. Everyone already has an app, it is called a brain, if only more people used it. An element of overcharging for the bio machines, several of you have come forward over that, and I promise you that is not the all of it, but you get the gist, and it is all very sad. One high profile member already bombed out, another expected to follow and it is all imploding, which again I find sad, I shouldn't after what they have done, but I do. It is not about me or even THI it is about all the people coming together, and this group to date has done nothing but make empty promises that failed, although my own personal position of that is known to the Trustee, I said it often enough as to why many of those promises have failed as far back as December 2018, did she listen? clearly not. It has split the movement going forward that THI had assembled with Randy, Jimi, Ava Cowan, NLA and Alan, all except the NLA guys have left and left a strew of carnage. All because of one person with over inflated self importance, who not only wanted my job, a job he cannot do I might add, but wanted the Trustee job as well, paraphrasing a quote from February "look Kim you have to hand over the role of the Trustee to me, because your a woman and no one is or will listen to you, they will only listen to me" that was told to me by Kim and indicative of that man. I guess your fortune tellers or mystics were fake Tank, and the other despite her higher status cannot apologize or act in the right manner, the latter of which has been telling people total lies to cover her own failing, time will always tell on your own actions, whilst some played vindictive, I got vindicated. The only winners of this all is the old system, riddled with division, self importance rather than doing important work, envy and vindictiveness, arrogance and lies, and why we the people have always struggled to build momentum of a group for and by the people. New ventures only work now with the right intent, and none of them started that group off with the right intent. Only one person will get all the flak as only one person in the group carries titles and positions, but that one person wants to play ego and big fish in a very small pond that is filled with piranha, at some point whether she is directly orchestrating all of this or not, it becomes a case of guilt by association. Prominent people around the world are looking on aghast, this is not how the mitochondrial Eve should be acting dividing good people and spreading lies, it is just not. Whether speaking to me again or not, it becomes irrelevant if you have destroyed the foundation you had been built upon and around you, and ultimately she is the one who takes the fall. Reputations take a long time to build, but collapse an awful lot quicker, and rebuilding them takes even longer, that is legacy of what has unfolded in the past 4-6 months, and still to this day that fills me not with satisfaction I was proven right, but deep sorrow of what has unfolded. According to some higher up the chain they are thinking now that I was the brains behind it all, and Kim is just some dumb blonde, that is not and was never the case, but that is the perception she has now created.

Asking for our members who are involved now or in the past with John, Karl and Gerard to step up please, as NLA has undergone a harvesting of their members and ideas by the LifeForce and UNC channels with their plagiarised assemblies. If they were genuine about the people they would have joined their members with the more established NLA group last year, they didn't and elements within their group are intent on destroying the few groups left in the alt media working for and by the people.

So it is now all so obvious now of what I knew a long time back, of a plot to isolate me and our group and then destroy it with a plethora of lies, look at those who left in past 6 months, 4 show host connections, practically all of shows I have been on in the past, plus NLA came under attack, the Trustee and whether she is involved in it or not is irrelevant at this point, well guess what, I and we are now in our bubble of isolation and yet we are all still here, fighting and dare I say it flourishing, another failed plot. I will always do and say what is right for our listeners at THI, our show is not for the all because it tells you the raw facts and truths too many do not want to hear, time will and has proven our show correct on many occasions. All done and stated at great cost and sacrifice to my own life and largely not for my benefit either, it is done for your benefit not mine. I have accumulated a vast quantity of knowledge, insight and wisdom, and don't need intel with those skill sets, all done in a way that allows for understanding, processing, healing and a path to the future for us all. I said we would think and act different and we have, I said we would all combine with an equal say and footing and we have, I said we would build a family and we have, not I have but we have, and no money based character, looking and acting like a used car salesman will alter that fact, even the dinar people after him now, I guess you reap what you sow. I was asked today as further interesting revealings have come to my attention, of would I support or protect Kim in the future? my answer was providing she does the right things I will support her, but she is and has been way off track for many months now, and barely recognizable, ultimately it all comes down to her. Whilst others rose only she fell, but that was her lesson to overcome and redeem herself and the mission.

Some statements from Catherine Austin Fitts that is more near the mark, than much of her previous stuff and is perhaps indicative. "We are in the process that I would recall is a global reset, the entire financial system is being reset. There are two aspects of this: One is extending the old system, and the other is bringing in the new system. It's very much being done on the fly by trial and error, but the new system is 100% digital." "If you look at the tyranny they are working on delivering, I don't think most people realize how hideous some of their plans are. So, the tyranny that's coming and the printing that's coming is greater than anything we have seen so far. . . . The Fed started a new round of QE in March, and if you look at the extent of that, it is extraordinarily inflationary. One has to ask is the digital wallet and the QE funding all linked to one person or group? Trump was asked on national TV this week where did all the money come from? given we were told only the Trust has that sort of funds, perhaps they need to bring some clarity to the situation, as many people are now getting concerned of how the Trustee is operating, for hers and our sakes please deliver some clarity on the situation without the malice that has preceded other questions. THI did not create that mistrust you did, please fix it. That's because this time around, the Fed is not just doing $3 trillion in QE. What the Fed did in three or four months, what it took them to do in three to five years during the so-called financial crisis, that is an extraordinary amount. Then you combine it with fiscal stimulus because the Fed is now buying the Treasuries . . . and the Treasury is sending checks out to Main Street. We are seeing that money going into the economy that is extraordinarily inflationary." "We are basically entering into a war period, and it's dangerous. . . . There are many different layers, but this is what World War III looks like. The people running things and centralizing economic power and control are saying we don't want to share the subsidy anymore with the general population. . . . This is a spiritual war between good and evil. Part of that war spreads out to invisible technology like mind control." "If you look at where they want to go, their vision is so dark that I think the more people recognize and see it, the more they are going to want simple assets they can control that are not digital and try to keep them outside the system. Globally . . . I think the pressure is going to be on to have precious metals."

With that distraction and madness over we now move onto the madness of the rest of the world. Germany have closed the borders, already!! About the mass demonstration for freedom and against the totalitarian regime following the covid craze tomorrow in Berlin: Hello, I am writing to you from Germany. Worry no more. The 29. 8 in Berlin is going to be historic. I just received news that is not yet public. To inform and encourage you: The demonstration is expecting about 5 million protesters. The purpose is to stay until the government resigns! We have food and drink for 5 days. An airline company who does not yet want to go public will bring protesters from many parts of the world. If the government falls, they return the money to the passengers! Several bus companies do the same. 1200 buses bring protesters from many cities in Europe. They will not return until the government falls. A General of the German Military is going to resign on stage. Ships and boats are going to block the river Spree. Even helicopters will demonstrate in the air! The police are on our side. They will not intervene for masks or distance. We want to paralyze all of Berlin. Camps are to be set up all over Berlin. Soon this madness will end !! The main group of protestors now are moving onto Warsaw Poland September 12th, I am sure are many Polish members will be there and fighting the good cause.

Unable to protest on the streets, some activists in Zimbabwe are calling themselves “keyboard warriors” as they use social media and graffiti to put pressure on a government that promised reform but is now accused of gross human rights abuses. Activists use the hashtag #zimbabweanlivesmatter to encourage increased global pressure on President Emmerson Mnangagwa’s government. Tens of thousands of people, from Jamaican reggae stars to US rap and hip-hop musicians, have joined African celebrities, politicians and former presidents in tweeting with the hashtag. However, some analysts say online protests might not be enough to move Mr Mnangagwa, who increasingly relies on security forces to crush dissent despite promising reforms when he took power after a coup in 2017. Tensions are rising anew in the once prosperous southern African country. Inflation is over 800%, amid acute shortages of water, electricity, fuel and bank notes and a health system collapsing under the weight of drug shortages and strikes by nurses and doctors. Revelations of alleged corruption related to Covid-19 medical supplies led to the sacking of the health minister and further pressure on Mr Mnangagwa. His government has responded to the rising dissent with arrests and alleged abductions and torture. Before July, few Zimbabweans knew about Jacob Ngarivhume, a fringe opposition politician. Then he went on social media to announce an anti-government protest planned for the end of July. Soon, #July31 swelled into a movement. The government panicked, jailed Ngarivhume and journalist Hopewell Chin’ono, deployed the military and police to thwart the protest and arrested dozens of people who tweeted about it.

As reports now come in of another major US city is now emptying out of people, following New York and California, new one emptying out like someone has farted in an elevator is, Chicago. Now I wonder who forecasted that some time back? Next stop Miami? Seattle? San Francisco? what happens when they all empty out?

Did you know that Greenland is gaining ice at record levels and earlier than ever before, normally there is a spike in mid September of increased ice, it started August 8th. Aspen Colorado got it's first snow last week, not normally seen until October, ice age anyone? Want to know how to bamboozle bots with one question? Ask where is the proof the media is correct in what they state?

Message to the fascist police in Australia the world is watching and we the people will have our day, not by violence but judgement, tick tock.

Last month, a Turkish warship came one step away from firing missiles at a French naval vessel off the coast of Libya. In response, Paris suspended its involvement in Operation Sea Guardian — a multinational maritime effort to provide security in the Mediterranean Sea and halt the arms trafficking fueling Libya's ongoing civil war. Initially, only eight member states — notably excluding both the U.S. and U.K. — supported France's official complaint. This was only the latest incident in the increasingly frequent — and exceedingly awkward — tensions between several of Washington's core North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) allies. Indeed, from South America to East Asia, NATO members stand divided over many critical foreign policy issues of the moment. On the subject of NATO — as with much else — President Trump is obtuse and ill-informed, courtesy of Langley and Deep State actors, plus an unhealthy allegiance to is ra el. Only here he isn't exactly wrong, in fact, recent events raise serious questions about the 70-year old alliance's lingering relevance and utility — as in what, so to speak, NATO is for? Sure, The Donald is hardly a bridge-builder, but the media's temptation to blame him alone for NATO's growing fissures ultimately misses the mark — and the backstory. While his foreign policy fiascos have widened its divisions, the alliance's inherent contradictions and hypocrisies preceded Mr. Trump. Indeed, some of the current fracture traces back to NATO's complicated genesis; the rest, mainly, to the problematic pivot after the collapse of its justification-boogeyman — the Soviet Union — and its leading American member's hyper-imperial post-9/11 turn. It is all too easy to forget that a crumbled Berlin Wall (1989) and collapsed Soviet Union (1991) very well could — and possibly should — have spelled the end of an inherently anti-Russian NATO. However, misreading internal Soviet collapse as a personal victory, Washington fell prey to triumphalist delusions and opportunistically maintained NATO to abet its unipolar destiny. Then, even after Mikhail Gorbachev stunningly agreed to the reunification (within NATO!) of Germany — a two-time 20th century-invader of his Mother Russia — a succession of U.S. presidents reneged on the Soviet premier's one requested (if informal) quid pro quo. "Any extension of the zone of NATO is unacceptable," Gorbachev had then warned, to which Secretary of State James Baker assured him "there would be no extension of NATO's jurisdiction for forces of NATO one inch to the east" — though he and many analysts later quibbled about the promise's exact meaning and scope. That is on a par with GHW Bush's promise in the Church Committee that no more would the CIA interference with the news media, like the NATO assurance they predictably lied, it is how they have always operated. Instead, it wasn't three years before President Bill Clinton kicked-off NATO's eastward expansion that's now reached into the formal boundaries of the old Soviet Union and to the very borders of the current Russian Federation. Clinton was forced into attacking Yugoslavia against his own wishes by CIA and Deep State actors, that is what you get when you allow the wrong head to think for you and have sex with the Monarch Mossad based agent, Lewinsky. NATO is collapsing, countries maybe have taken on board what our show and the Trustee has been saying all along, they are a private army designed to takeover and rule countries, using the fake climate change bill to fund them. Russia is not the collusion, but the illusion, a convenient boogeyman used to spread fear and hate, whilst the greed based psychopaths plotted against and took over all countries in between. NATO is a deliberate anagram of Aton, and we are back to all roads lead back not to Rome, but Egypt for the more modern story, and India for the past story.

Saudi crown prince had been due to stage public meeting with Israeli prime minister but cancelled trip over fears details had been leaked, according to sources. The Crown Prince of Saudi Arabia, Mohammed bin Salman, pulled out of a planned visit to Washington DC next week to meet the Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu, after he feared that the news had leaked and that his presence in the US capital would become a "nightmare". It had not yet been agreed whether the meeting between the crown prince and Netanyahu would have been recorded and then announced or conducted live in front of the cameras. But those pushing for it to happen, which included US President Donald Trump and his son-in-law and adviser Jared Kushner, see the prospect of a handshake between the men as a way to relaunch Mohammed bin Salman's image as a young Arab peacemaker and shore up regional support for the US-brokered deal between the United Arab Emirates and Israel. In the ensuing statement, the crown prince would have stopped short of announcing recognition of Israel, but the meeting itself would have been the strongest hint that the kingdom was also on a path towards normalising relations. I think he feared arrest being honest as US and Is ra el agents are setting several countries up in that region, UAE will become a another proxy state of is ra el. Kushner said blatantly unaware of the sheer irony of his scripted statement this week, the Palestinians live in the past, whilst backing Israel's thousands of years old claim to the land. No Mr. Kushner there is zero evidence of is ra el as a country, state or region ever existing, period. Just because some book written by Crown agents in the UK, like King James says so, does not make it fact. Where is the proof? The better question is, is Kushner a clone because he sure looks like wax and rubber to me.

The U.S. Marshals Service found 39 missing children in Georgia over two weeks in a mission known as "Operation Not Forgotten," the agency announced in a press release Thursday. The operation led to the rescue of 26 children and the safe location of 13 others. "These missing children were considered to be some of the most at-risk and challenging recovery cases in the area, based on indications of high-risk factors such as victimization of child sex trafficking, child exploitation, sexual abuse, physical abuse, and medical or mental health conditions," the press release reads. "Other children were located at the request of law enforcement to ensure their wellbeing," the release continues. "USMS investigators were able to confirm each child's location in person and assure their safety and welfare." Nine criminal associates were also arrested and investigators cleared 26 arrest warrants. Investigators also filed additional charges for alleged crimes related to sex trafficking, parental kidnapping, registered sex offender violations, drugs and weapons possession, and custodial interference, according to the U.S. Marshals Service. This is one of many raids quietly ongoing around the country and indeed the world, as this heinous practice get exposed for all to see, and the children can try and rebuild their lives following harrowing events that have unfolded in their recent years. Childhoods stolen by psychopaths pushing their child like thinking adult bodies onto children for money, sexual gratification and power games.

U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) officials report the disruption of more than 160 human smuggling stash house operations this fiscal year just in South Texas. The data provides a rare glimpse into the level of Mexican cartel stash house operations occurring in this region alone. In the tweet, CBP reported that in South Texas alone in Fiscal Year 2020, which still has two months left in the year, the agency has already dismantled an astounding 160 stash houses and rescued over 1,600 people.

The US economy shrank at an alarming annual rate of 31.7% during the April-June quarter as it struggled under the weight of the fake pandemic. The Commerce Department downgraded its earlier estimate of the US gross domestic product last quarter, finding the devastation was slightly less than the 32.9% annualised contraction it had estimated at the end of July. It was the sharpest quarterly drop on record, with the previous worst quarterly fall since record-keeping began in 1947 a 10% annualised loss in 1958. In the last quarter, businesses closed and millions of workers lost their jobs as the world's largest economy went into lockdown mode in what succeeded only fitfully in limiting the spread of reported viral infections. Unemployment is still high at 10.2%, and roughly one million people are applying for jobless aid each week even as the amount of aid they receive has shrunk. Though the stock market and home sales are surging, the broader economy shows signs of stalling, and millions face potential evictions from their homes.

The Victorian government in Australia is facing a potential class action expected to be to the tune of several billion dollars brought by the businesses that have been shut down during the state's stage four restrictions. The class action is open to all Victorian-based businesses that were shut down after 1 July, according to an AFR report, and thousands are expected to take part. The lawsuit is being launched by Damian Scattini, from Sydney-based law firm Quinn Emanuel Urquhart & Sullivan. Scattini was formerly with Maurice Blackburn, the firm known for successfully winning a class action against the Queensland Government after the November 2011 floods.

Kpmg and Amazon Aws heavily involved in Australia's health;( especially victoria the Garden state) KPMG has won five tender bids for contracts with the Victorian government this year worth more than $4.17 million combined. Three of these were paid for by the Department of Health and Human Services to work on projects including the management of the government's 12-week COVID-19 testing implementation strategy. Amazon Aws running and managing all of Australia's contact tracing database AND most probably world wide. Two things spring to mind over this, one is the Trustee stated she had shut down KPMG and their servers, which is clearly not the case it seems, and secondly this Amazon takeover of operations was stated and forecasted in our Clowns in Panic show.

TikTok chief executive Kevin Mayer has resigned amid US pressure for its Chinese owner ByteDance to sell the popular video app which the White House calls a security risk, an app being a safety risk oh my. In a letter to employees, Mr Mayer said his decision came after the “political environment has sharply changed”. His resignation comes after US President Donald Trump ordered a ban on TikTok unless parent company ByteDance sold its US operations to an American company within 90 days. “I have done significant reflection on what the corporate structural changes will require, and what it means for the global role I signed up for,” Mr Mayer said in the letter. Mr. Mayer was a former CEO of Playboy to then become a Executive Vice President for Disney, hmm. What amazes me here is, this fear of China and their threats, and yet Trump, his son in law and his connections to Kim Goguen, all bring up dealings with and of China. Kushner with PPE's and masks, and even Kim with the bio healing machines. Not to mention Pelosi, Biden and others of having Chinese links either, is this Chinese security risk not a contradictory statement? Or does it all come down to the fact that the CIA, NSA and subsidiaries don't own and or control it?

I mentioned earlier of how THI has created a family and we try our best to look after each other, and also remember each other. This week marks the 2nd anniversary of a painful opening to our show for me personally, and the passing of one of our members, Luna Lisa Dougherty, much loved and missed by many still. THI wishes to remember her today with this song.

FAKE VIRUS NEWS: A professor has claimed that 91% of neighbourhoods in England haven't recorded a coronavirus case in four weeks. John Clancy said that he believes lockdowns cause non-coronavirus deaths as well, arguing that putting local areas into lockdown 'just in case' was an unacceptable response to "dodgy data". The professor hit out at testing procedures in the UK, saying the system is in 'total chaos'. And he hit back as fears mount over a local lockdown in Birmingham. In an article titled 'Local lockdown lunacy: Putting Birmingham into lockdown would be ridiculous' posted on August 21, he argued that 87% of Birmingham's 132 neighbourhoods did not record a single tested positive case of Covid-19 in the last week. In the blog, Professor Clancy said: "91 per cent of England (that's 51million people) live in neighbourhoods where there hasn't been a recorded Covid-19 case in the last 4 weeks." He added: "So-called 'spikes' are occurring here, there, and everywhere up and down the country because new testing regimes are causing them either with false positives, picking up residual infections or (usually more likely) suddenly increased testing in specific areas.

No child who was not already profoundly ill has died of Covid-19 in Britain, a large study has indicated, with the researchers saying that the results should reassure parents as a new school term begins. The study looked at 260 hospitals in England, Wales and Scotland. Out of the 69,500 patients admitted with proven Covid-19 in the first six months of the year, 651 — or 0.9 per cent — were under 19 years of age. Six deaths of minors were recorded. Three were newborn babies with other severe health problems. The other 3 were aged 15-18 years old also had profound health issues.

In my opinion, and that of many of my colleagues, there has been no Covid Pandemic, certainly not in the Surrey region and I have heard from other colleagues this picture is the same throughout the country. Our hospital would normally expect to see around 350,000 out patients a year. Around 95,000 patients are admitted to hospital in a normal year and we would expect to see around a similar figure, perhaps 100,000 patients pass through our A&E department. In the months from March to June (inclusive) we would normally expect to see 100,000 out patients, around 30,000 patients admitted to hospital and perhaps 30,000 pass through A&E. This year (and these figures are almost impossible to get hold of) we are over 95% down on all those numbers. In effect, the hospital has been pretty much empty for that entire period. At the start, staff that questioned this were told that we were being used as ‘redundant’ capacity, kept back for the ‘deluge’ we were told would come. It never did come, and when staff began to question this, comments like, ‘for the greater good’ and to ‘protect the NHS’ came down from above. Now its just along the lines of, ‘Shut up or you don’t get paid’. The few Covid cases that we have had , get repeatedly tested, and every single test counted as a new case. Meaning the figures reported back to ONS / PHE (Office for National Statistics & Public Health England) were almost exponentially inflated. It could be that Covid cases reported by hospitals are between 5 to 10x higher than the real number of cases. There has been no pandemic and this goes a long way to explain why figures for the UK are so much higher than anywhere else in Europe. The trust has been running empty ambulances during lockdown and is still doing it now. By this I mean ambulances are driving around, with their emergency alert systems active (sirens & / or lights) with no job to go to. There you have it, their own fake statistics ran by the CIA led John Hopkins Center has now doubled back on them, time for people to step up and step out into a less Orwellian with masks all tossed in the trash can. If loads of people have the virus and are breathing on the masks and then discarding them in open trash, was that not considered a major health issue? where were the hazard cans for discarded masks? Just proves it is all bs as I stated on this show last January, long before lockdowns and mandates, even before the killing off of the elderly to inflate figures.

If you doubted what this show has been telling you all along, that all the institutions designed to serve and or protect the people are corrupted at the top level minimum, then this piece should surely have you reconsidering your thinking. They ordered vaccine manufacturers to turn over their documents and found them graphing how much it would cost for a brain damaged baby. They determined that a dead baby costs less than a brain damaged baby. By graphing these costs, they determined how much they would need to charge for the vaccines to still profit. A judge in NJ ordered one of the companies to produce their documents and only gave them 48 hrs. They did this because the manufacturers were already beginning to manipulate data (and lie) to make it harder to sue. If the lawyers had been more prepared they would have tried to lock down or clean the documents, but since they didn't these things were found. This was in the 80's . This was when they could still be sued. This is also when the Tennessee SIDS cluster happened, and they decided to split the lots, so that deaths wouldn't happen in clusters that could be traced back to the vaccines. I'm sure you know about hot lots now." Prior to 1986 the vaccine manufacturers could be held liable and sued for vaccine injuries; however, they were being sued so often and losing so much money, they went to the federal government and threatened to stop making vaccines if they weren't protected. The Vaccine Injury Compensation Program was born, Vaccine manufacturers are no longer liable from any harm that is caused by their products, the tax payer now has to pay for injuries or deaths that occur. It's Interesting at the same time that the Pharmaceutical companies were granted immunity from being sued that autism started to skyrocket. In 2014 alone 3,540 families were compensated through the vaccine injury compensation program for death or serious bodily harm caused by vaccines (and those are just the ones the government conceded to and not anywhere near the total cases filed.) So far in 2017 Dozens of families have won cases for over $1.4 million (keep in mind the average award is only $250,000 for a lifetime of disability) Where is the outrage? Where are all the people screaming for the vaccine manufacturers to be held responsible? There you have it, they make drugs not cure people, but for profits with no responsibility should they kill or maim the people they sell to, buy off doctors to promote their drugs again they have no personal responsibility, and then when it goes wrong, which is over 90% of the time give the side effects, they then charge the public for their incompetence, and we tolerate this shit?

Here come the label machines technology, divide and conquer aligned with guilt and shame programming. An Irish based firm will be the first to launch a digital platform aimed at increasing Covid-19 testing for businesses and the public. The ROQU Group, based in Dublin, has announced the pilot launch of the Health Passport Ireland, which is said to deliver test results in 15 minutes. The system will be downloadable on mobile devices, with users able to display or scan their Covid status whenever needed. If the user has tested negative, a green status will show on their profile, which turns to amber when it is time to be re-tested. The system was engineered in Ireland and it is hoped that the Health Passport will allow people to continue daily activities, working with all official Covid-19 test types. A national trial of the system will now take place with participants including Tallaght University Hospital, Keogh's Farm, Emerald Freight and a number of GPs. President of ROQU, Robert Quirke said: "In the past week alone, unfortunately we've seen continued frustration and disappointment as restrictions have again been tightened due to continued spread of Covid-19. "Health Passport Ireland is designed to put a safety net in place where none currently exists, allowing our economy to recover and thrive in a more safely controlled environment. “It is a world-first innovation, proudly engineered in Ireland to the highest standards, that will enable business and society to finally move forward. The game changer has finally arrived,” added Mr Quirke. The ROQU Group has announced that, in addition to Ireland, the Health Passport platform will be launched in the US, UK, Italy, Kenya and Germany, with other locations to follow.

Did you know the CDC is not an independent agency, but it is actually a vaccine company. It holds 20 vaccine patents and sells $4.6B a year of vaccines, so much for transparency there - not. This is why a have asked for a public independent commission on each division a Government has or interacts with, because all agencies here seem to be running a scam not only on the people, but the Government as well.

Common sense pondering time: as this fake epidemic rolls around to 6 months now, the great question to ponder on is, if not wearing masks was dangerous, why are all the none mask wearing people still alive?

These are the official figures from the CDC for deaths involving Covid. 2/1 0, 2/8 1, 2/15 0, 2/22 5, 2/29 9, 3/7 25, 3/14 52, 3/21 571, 3/28 3152, 4/4 9999, 4/11 16152, 4/18 17035, 4/25 15388, 5/2 13109 5/9 11136, 5/16 9133, 5/23 7126, 5/30 6080, 6/6 4948, 6/13 4158, 6/20 3758 6/27 3714, 7/4 4354, 7/11 5463, 7/18 6717, 7/25 7457 8/1 6993, 8/8 6058, 8/15 3988 and 8/22 967 Deaths with confirmed or presumed COVID-19, coded to ICD-10 code U07.1, presumed? what type of reporting is that? Weerrlll looks like someone got shot in the head by the Clinton's, we will presume it is Covid? is that what they are saying? When COVID-19 is reported as a cause of death – or when it is listed as a “probable” or “presumed” cause — the death is coded as U07.1. This can include cases with or without laboratory confirmation. So, now we have determined they are presenting distorted figures based on ass- umption. They have other categories with common core thinking statistics like Deaths involving pneumonia, with or without Covid excluding influenza, deaths involving flu with or without Covid. What type of accurate reporting is that, figure for flu and pneumonia with or without Covid, all very misleading that, you either do statistics with or without in separate categories not combine them because the figures for flu and pneumonia are now misleading, because the viewer of the statistics doesn't know whether the figures are with Covid or without Covid. Mindboggling, this type of jackassery and chronic shortage of people who don't comprehend basic math and descriptions, is how they get away with false reporting. So, the figures jumped up in the same week the clowns issued their hidden martial law, March 21st, coincidence? The rise throughout April and May whilst all were under lockdown should have seen a reduction, but it didn't, why? Because they were sending sick patients Covid or otherwise into nursing homes and killing off the elderly is why, to inflate their figures and reduce their welfare payments to people, out of a fund they have already looted and over spent. In June people started protesting and demanding a pull back, that coincided with an increase again in their fake statistics, to go look we need to keep the lockdown.

The CDC silently updated their numbers this week to show that only 6% of all coronavirus deaths were completely due to the coronavirus alone. The rest of the deaths pinned to the China coronavirus are attributed to individuals who had other serious issues going on. Also, most of the deaths are very old Americans with co-morbidities. "This week the CDC quietly updated the Covid number to admit that only 6% of all the 153,504 deaths recorded actually died from Covid, That's 9,210 deaths The other 94% had 2-3 other serious illnesses & the overwhelming majority were of very advanced age"

So with the CDC being proven to be a private company running under the banner of a Government department one needs to highlight the full scale of shenanigans here at this point. You have the CIA and subsidiaries who are a private organization running under the banner of a Government department and yet has zero oversight of their operations by the Government, that is why they are called private contractors, they are not private at all, as they still come under the banner of the CIA, hello Robert David Steele. You have the NSA and DHA running under the banner of a Government department, yet both are private agencies and again with no oversight from the American government, operates to spy on American government, people and also the other agencies. You have an oversight committee that works directly for the Government, and yet is not allowed to oversight anything due to not having the right security clearances. You have a central bank running under the banner of a Government department called the Federal Reserve, which is not a central bank or even an American company. You have the tax revenue company running under the banner of a Government department called the IRS, which is not the actual Internal Revenue service, and is not an American company or housed on American soil either, the IRS is a Crown based trust based in Puerto Rico. You have the Treasury department running under the banner of a Government department, operating outside of it also and refuse to take orders from the President. You have a military and Pentagon running under the banner of a Government department, when both are operating on behalf of the Black Sun or Rothschild's groups. The DOJ running under the banner of a Government department, and yet they have no oversight either and also operate outside of the system and government, for evidence look at the weekend at Bernie's woman they wheel out for meetings, Ruth Ginsberg. I could go on but yet get the gist, but the biggest claim that is outside jurisdiction and description is, the US, the United States has zero to do with America, and is an EU creation by wealthy bankers and elite families.

TECHNOLOGY: Hacked documents suggest that the FBI is concerned some people may be using Ring or other smart doorbells to watch the police. The papers describe a 2017 incident where someone remotely watched live footage of police preparing to serve a search warrant. The information was found online by The Intercept among hacked documents. Previously, privacy advocates have raised concerns about data from smart doorbells being shared with police. The hacked papers, known collectively as BlueLeaks, were stolen from more than 250 police websites. The document in question is a technical analysis bulletin, offering an overview of the opportunities and challenges for police from home security systems and smart doorbells. The 2017 incident describes how someone under investigation was able to "covertly monitor law enforcement activity while law enforcement was on the premises" and alert his neighbour and landlord. It does not name the brand of video doorbell used. Yet again our show proven correct and yet again more hypocrisy from the authorities, we can film, spy and eavesdrop on you all day and night, but point a phone camera or a bell at them and suddenly things are not acceptable.

Elon Musk is due to demonstrate a working brain-to-machine interface as part of his ambitious plans to give people superhuman powers. His brain-hacking company, Neuralink, applied to start human trials last year. But Friday's demonstration will involve a robot and "neurons firing in real time", a series of tweets reveals. The interface could allow people with neurological conditions to control phones or computers with their mind. But the long-term ambition is to usher in an age of what Mr Musk calls "superhuman cognition". People need to merge with artificial intelligence, he says, in part to avoid a scenario where AI becomes so powerful it destroys the human race. Founded in 2017, Neuralink has worked hard to recruit scientists, something Mr Musk was still advertising for on Twitter last month. The device the company is developing consists of a tiny probe containing more than 3,000 electrodes attached to flexible threads thinner than a human hair, which can monitor the activity of 1,000 brain neurons. In its last update, more than a year ago, the company said it had carried out tests on a monkey that had been able to control a computer with its brain. It has also built a "neurosurgical robot" that it says can insert 192 electrodes into the brain every minute. University of Pittsburgh assistant professor of physical medicine and rehabilitation Jennifer Collinger described what Mr Musk was trying to do as "truly disruptive technology in a difficult space of medical technology". "Neuralink has significant resources and critically a team of scientists, engineers and clinicians working towards a common goal, which gives them a great chance of success," she said. But she added: "Even with these resources, medical-device development takes time and safety needs to be a top priority, so I suspect the process may take longer than they have stated as their goals." Musk needs to work out how his own brain operates, addled with drugs and too much money before engaging other people's brains, just saying.

The practicality of quantum computing hangs on the integrity of the quantum bit, or qubit. Qubits, the logic elements of quantum computers, are coherent two-level systems that represent quantum information. Each qubit has the strange ability to be in a quantum superposition, carrying aspects of both states simultaneously, enabling a quantum version of parallel computation. Quantum computers, if they can be scaled to accommodate many qubits on one processor, could be dizzyingly faster, and able to handle far more complex problems, than today's conventional computers. But that all depends on a qubit's integrity, or how long it can operate before its superposition and the quantum information are lost — a process called decoherence, which ultimately limits the computer run-time. Superconducting qubits — a leading qubit modality today — have achieved exponential improvement in this key metric, from less than one nanosecond in 1999 to around 200 microseconds today for the best-performing devices. But researchers at MIT, MIT Lincoln Laboratory, and Pacific Northwest National Laboratory (PNNL) have found that a qubit's performance will soon hit a wall. In a paper published today in Nature, the team reports that the low-level, otherwise harmless background radiation that is emitted by trace elements in concrete walls and incoming cosmic rays are enough to cause decoherence in qubits. They found that this effect, if left unmitigated, will limit the performance of qubits to just a few milliseconds. Given the rate at which scientists have been improving qubits, they may hit this radiation-induced wall in just a few years. To overcome this barrier, scientists will have to find ways to shield qubits — and any practical quantum computers — from low-level radiation, perhaps by building the computers underground or designing qubits that are tolerant to radiation's effects.

To some in the alt media who should know and act better, my stance on technology has never wavered no matter who presents it, that is called being consistent. Some wish to play the divide and conquer game, my stance is to look at all possibilities as any respected researcher or broadcaster should do. If it makes me the bad guy for warning about technology whilst others jump at an opportunity, some with dollar signs flashing in their eyes, without going into all aspects of the technology, then I am happy to do so and allow the thinking people an opportunity to make their own informed choice. With that said and proof I do listen to both sides, here is a portion of a letter from a person who has used it, and we can add more narrative to the balance of the discussion, without blindly jumping into things, too few have any knowledge of, including me. I have had 2 sessions on a quantum biofeedback machine and I can tell you it works, it's not new but been around for a long time. The drug and medical power brokers have tried to suppress it for years. It's not for everyone, I believe this machine will not work on a bot or anyone who seriously is not interested in going within, doing their shadow work and healing their soul/spirit. There is no competition to doctors or nurses because bots need drugs to heal, high vibration beings do not. For those who are trying to go within and clear themselves this machine helps, some times the trauma is so deep the individual can not locate it, and for however it works the machine will detect it. It allows the client to look, think, ponder on the charge located by the machine and release the charge clearing the trauma that had been stored in the body/aura causing wrong thinking and ill health. This is why I think it could help some PTSD patients, it is also why many will reject it; bots can't understand it, it can't be explained publicly on a broad scale. I spend the summer in high altitude and had difficulty breathing, I passed it off to altitude, the machine spotted pressure in the chest. The technician asked me about it and “bam” I blew some unknown past life charge I did not know I had. Within an hour I was able to walk several miles without huffing, it wasn’t altitude, it also helped me with another personal matter I didn’t know I needed help with. Again this is not for everyone, no point in discussing this kind of technology. Bots will reject it; humans will find it on their own. The minute someone starts promoting a new technology with a broad brush, I know trouble is on its way. Some technology will attract bots such as new vaccines and a new drug while other healing technology will attract real humans. We who are awake know that.

Frequencies can and are used for good and bad purposes like any other tech. The machines Kim and Tank mentioned are said to cost around 25k but do the same as the devices which are a few hundred £. The only difference being some devices you can test for up to 10,000 different ailments and dis-eases quickly and accurately using bio resonance frequencies - basically it finds an exact match to the disease thus giving a positive reading. This same method can be used to destroy mutated and rogue cells such as cancer - match the frequency and it shatters like glass. This is not new tech btw this has been known for over 100 years and greatly suppressed by big pharma because they would lose £BILLIONS. Royal Rife even had his frequency devices in hospitals all around NY but when after he died they was quickly removed and forgotten about (he was run over outside a hospital strangely enough - likely a hit by big pharma). Spooky2, BioCom, TrueRife, Quantum, BioMedis - they are just some of the bio resonance companies I have heard about and even used their devices. Some are a lot better designed than others but all are programmable and fairly easy to use. There’s pre programmed list (around 200+) and you can also manually input the frequency of your choice.

Now I have prices for the packages and sessions are 3 sessions $250 follow up $85 for one hour, 90 mins is $125, 2 hours $185 5 hours $425, not $250 per hour, that is greed based and I am asking that person to reconsider the new way of operating of need not greed.

RACE & DIVIDE & CONQUER ISSUES: Zimbabwe has offered to return land to foreign nationals whose farms were seized under a controversial government programme two decades ago. Thousands of white farmers were forced from their land, often violently, between 2000 and 2001. The seizures were meant to redress colonial-era land grabs but contributed to the country's economic decline and ruined relations with the West. A separate compensation scheme has been launched for local white farmers. They have not been offered land, but the government last month promised them $3.5bn (£2.6bn) for seized infrastructure. The farms were taken under a controversial land reform programme launched by former President Robert Mugabe. He argued that this was to redress colonial-era land grabs, when much of the country's best land was reserved for the white population and black farmers were forced onto marginal areas. Under the programme, most of the country's 4,000 white farmers - then the backbone of Zimbabwe's agricultural economy - were forced from their land, which was handed over to about a million black Zimbabweans. Within 12 months many Zimbabweans were starving as they couldn't or wouldn't operate their own land, you see everyone needs help somewhere, and whites have been used as the scapegoats for the harvesting done by elite families at the request of Jewish elite peoples, the facts when presented and heard speak for themselves.

The Greek government is being denounced by the National Confederation of Disabled People after it added pedophiles, exhibitionists, and kleptomaniacs to the list of disabled people entitled to state benefits. They have joined pyromaniacs, compulsive gamblers, fetishists and sadomasochists as persons entitled to ask for government assistance. For example, a pyromaniac or pedophile is now entitled to disability pay up to 35 percent while a diabetic is entitled to only 10 percent disability. Presumably, a diabetic pedophile could received 45 percent disability, so it would be a curious benefit for diabetics to claim an interest in children or fires or both.

This is one story you will not find covered extensively in the media as it doesn't fit the profiles and labels they are directing people to follow. Antifa militant and convicted pedophile Blake David Hampe was arrested in the early hours of Saturday following his alleged stabbing of a black Trump supporter in Portland. The Trump supporter and conservative, who goes by the name Black Rebel on social media, posted several updates to his condition from the ambulance and hospital. In the Periscope livestream, he alleged that Hampe had stalked him and his group of friends for several blocks in Portland before stabbing him. Black Rebel stated that Antifa militants doxed his identity and posted his location on social media and advised each other to "watch out" for him. "That knife was long enough. He stabbed me to kill me," said Black Rebel, who says that he spotted Hampe, who was part of a group of Antifa following his group of friends for several blocks before he approached Hampe to ask why he was following them. The media are 100% responsible for this man's injuries and all other violence ensuing on our streets, due to their racist, divisive and pathetic attempts to create discord amongst the populace with script driven narratives out of the agencies. Fair and balanced reporting which was never fully the case anyway, has now given way to rampant programming of the people that is destroying our way of life.

In a world where everything is becoming politically correct, pedophiles on social media have seized a new opportunity to rebrand themselves as MAPS ("minor-attracted-people"). The MAP community and movement are growing in size and picking up steam particularly on social media apps like Twitter, where the problem is becoming increasingly worse. They've constructed their own flag and often describe their attraction to children as a sexual orientation, rather than the scientifically recognized mental illness that pedophilia is. The goal is the MAP community is to normalize pedophilia and convince those who are "woke" enough to begin to accept them and view them as a marginalized class. Their intent is to follow the blue-print of LGBT acceptance, with some even insisting that pedophiles should be included within the acronym. With the insidious growth of MAPs online, more and more of these individuals are feeling brave enough to post their faces and attitudes toward those who hate them. Traditionally, MAPS have always hidden behind cartoon profile pictures, as anonymity was the only shield they had against (rightfully) major backlash. That's changing though, and we can now see these individuals willing to show their true selves. I'm conflicted as to whether this new development of MAPs speaking out on social media with their real names and faces is a good thing or bad thing. On one hand, sunlight can be the best disinfectant, if their faces are readily visible and spread online, it could potentially protect children who may have otherwise been in their vicinity. If you're an anonymous pedophile online, no one knows who to protect their children from. On the other hand, there is something truly disturbing about the fact that there is an environment online being created where these monsters are comfortable enough to show their faces. It shows that their goal of acceptance and normalization is actually happening, at least to an extent. I agree with that piece 100%, they are trying to normalize it and avoid the penal justice alleged to be ready to launched by the Q following, delaying it only allows these maligned people an opportunity to promote their criminality and delete justice.

JK Rowling has said she is giving back an award associated with the US Kennedy family, after being criticised for her views on gender and trans issues. The author was given the Ripple of Hope honour by the Robert F Kennedy Human Rights organisation last year. But earlier this month, its president Kerry Kennedy said views expressed by Rowling recently "diminished the identity" of trans people, Rowling says Kennedy's implication that she is transphobic is "incorrect". Does anybody ask why we have to know the identity of transsexuals? It is classic contradictin ma contradictions again, on one hand we wish to live in peace as ordinary people, on the other please recognize our identity, which is it to be? The Harry Potter writer sparked controversy in June for posting tweets which took issue with the phrase "people who menstruate", Rowling objected to the avoidance of the use of the word "women". "I respect every trans person's right to live any way that feels authentic and comfortable to them," she wrote. "At the same time, my life has been shaped by being female, I do not believe it's hateful to say so." Earlier this month, Kennedy posted a statement online, which read: "I have spoken with JK Rowling to express my profound disappointment that she has chosen to use her remarkable gifts, to create a narrative that diminishes the identity of trans and non-binary people, undermining the validity and integrity of the entire transgender community. "One that disproportionately suffers from violence, discrimination, harassment, and exclusion and, as a result, experiences high rates of suicide, suicide attempts, homelessness, and mental and bodily harm. I have no time for these types of people offending by everything, do nothing of value and just create word salads all day to find faults in every word or sentence spoken. Ran like bots by think tank clowns on what to say, how to say it, create labels of division and upset everybody is the mean time, do us all a favor and shut the fuck up with your banal rhetoric and speech patterns, the people have had enough of your bullshit and we have far more pressing things to deal with.

As Europe applies the directives and timelines of Event 201 and masks are now being made compulsory right on schedule. Meanwhile, a group called "Querdenken" (Think outside the box) is challenging a Berlin ban on a march on Saturday against Covid-19 restrictions. The protest has already seen 22,000 people sign up. A march on 1 August attracted around 20,000 people, made up of mainly Covid-deniers and far-right activists. You can say thanks to the MI5 and Mossad who run the BBC for those new word salad games Covid deniers and far right. Like last week the WHO doing a 53 page document of how to engage vaccine deniers. Clowns and their labels game will ramp up now with their guilt and shame tactics to force compliance, let use their own label for those who do that shall we, it is called fascism, their antics are gender bullying, trans bullying, gay and lesbian bullying, racial bullying, culture bullying and anti human rights, which makes those people transphobic, homophobic, anti goyim and racists. Why do you think the largest demonstrations are centered in one country in Europe, namely Germany? Because they have seen the same shit based program ran on them less than a 100 years ago and it sticks in their psyche. The German people are seeing it for what it is, fascist dictatorship against the people, and unlike the deliberate program ran on and against the German people around WW2, this is not just against or for one color, this is a sustained attack on humanity en masse. People of the world this is not the time to follow orders from your higher ups, this fascist anti human program has to be stopped, and now. We are now going from lockdown to full on police state, whilst bot like people walk us into a tyrannic world that will be real ugly. This is what we face, this is what I warned about months and years back, they are creating a new way of life, new normal, new chaos, new fascism, new Nazism and new world of disorder. A world that disrespects humans, their rights and their free expression based in a world of machines All the campaigners globally for the various new normal label word salad games, like feminists, transsexuals, gay and lesbian, non binary need to shut up about their agency script given rights as whilst you spend weeks, months and years talking shite, these psychopaths are going to trample all over you like nothing ever before. I am not being funny here but, promoting your sexuality looks and feels ugly to most people, and they are destroying the love aspects of making love and turning into an industry that resembles porn. It cheapens you and the act, go and fight for something more useful than the exhibitionist and voyeuristic tendencies you are promoting, of look at me I am (insert label). I will probably get some flak for those comments, but it is the truth, too many are content to pussy foot around with word salad mind games and political correctness, whilst the real focus on real matters are overlooked. Blacks and all these gender based elements are acting like the latter and modern day Jews, of we are more special than the rest, the question remains is, how has that worked out for the Jewish people? It didn't work out for them at all, it created envy and violence against them, put many millions of them in poverty, whilst the Zionist rulers used them like pawns also, are you getting the picture yet? if not, wake the fuck up. Black Lives Matter, the latest agency and think tank distraction ploy, you need to quit your stupidity and realize, like the gender based groups you are all being played like pawns. The Black people are being set up by the Zionist elements to rise up against all other peoples, as laid out by Israel Cohen in 1912, in other words they are being set up to smash the other peoples. Then when there is only the black people with any status, they will crush you, and use the other colors to do so, the classic divide and conquer. Remember the rise and how you trample on people, because when the fall comes those people en masse will kick you much harder on the way down. Here is a reminder of the Israel Cohen speech: "We must realize that our party's most powerful weapon is racial tensions. By propounding into the consciousness of the dark races, that for centuries they have been oppressed by whites, we can mold them into the program of The Communist party. We will invest to instill in the whites, a guilt complex over their exploitation of the negroes. We will aid the negroes to rise in prominence in every walk of life, in the professions and in the world of sports and entertainment. With this prestige, the negro will be able to intermarry with the whites, and begin a process which will deliver America to our cause." Do you get the message now of what they are doing to you?

I am calling on the many, many good black people to take a stand and teach your communities better ways and values, those who represent you now, are acting like terrorists, setting fire and destroying everything and re-enforcing the stereotype of black people being violent and destructive. No one in the general public believes you don't have the right to peaceful protest of crimes committed against your people, and many will support you in that stance, because funny enough those same crimes against our peoples are happening as well, and in greater numbers. But you will not garner support being violent, setting fire to peoples property, intimidating the other people and using racist slogans like black lives matter, all lives matter and whilst you focus on one thing and oblivious to the world around you, tyranny against peoples of all colors is abound. You have fallen for the classic sleight of hand trick again, distraction, divide and conquer, elevated self importance all the traits and programs that humans as collective regularly fall for, time and time again. It didn't work previously and will not work now, the only thing the people haven't tried yet is, coming together as one. Now more than ever in this version of civilization do we all need to come together, our very existence and lifestyles are under permanent threat by psychotic people who wish to dehumanize us at a rapid pace, using poisons and machines to crush us all into the ground. Think different for fucks sakes.

Two pieces that confirm more of our FRWL series I found more details on this week is this. The Jews, according to Blavatsky, were a "tribe descended from the Tchandalas of India," oops Echoes of "the 19th century prejudice about 'northern' Aryans who were confronted on Indian soil with black barbarians [...] can still be heard in some modern studies.

Is the electro magnetic force which is the veil, a corruption of life force energy? Kundalini is a electromagnetic force of which the sex force is a part. The base chakra is the sex chakra. which the adepts know how to play. By adepts they mean the elite and dark magicians elements. The unseen hand behind all the seeming spiritism of these orders, is a system of a very subtle and cunning hypnotism and suggestion. Further the aim of this group like that of all subversive esoteric orders, is, by means as such processes as eurhythmics, meditations, symbols, ceremonies and formulas, to awaken this force and produce false Illumination, for the purpose of obtaining Spiritual seership, which is at most clairvoyance or clairaudience etc. The ceremonies of the order are hypnotic, and by suggestion create the necessary mental and astral atmosphere, hypnotize and prepare to be the willing tools in the hands of the controlling adepts, which are the gurus. Black Magic is based on electromagnetic power, hypnotic and powerful suggestion.

"The type of information, which a developing individual will absorb, its quality and variety influences very much whether the development of a certain individual will stop at the stage of rea-soning man or proceed to the stage of highly developed man. These are active stages of development which are realized through action. When a person acts, he makes the knowledge he has acquired run through him and, using the true knowledge correctly, he achieves comprehension. When knowledge turns into a living stream which completely fills the acting person, converting him from a user into a creator. Thus, a developing man reaches enlightenment by knowledge and from this moment he starts developing into a highly developed man. At this evolutionary stage there is no limit to development." This is what we have tried to develop here at THI, despite our detractors and critics, and many of you have had varying degrees of success doing so, as evidenced by our recent Zoom call. As the deliverer of the knowledge I am often seen as mister bad guy and the trigger man. Telling you things that disturb you, revealing your inner traumas, some feel our show is negative, some feel I blame the people too much, some even accuse me of racism, but each and everyone of those with those sentiments are not actually projecting at me, but themselves, once you fully grasp the self. Our show is triggering, not to upset you or annoy you, but to get you to address the issues we all have and face including me. People think I am the projection screen when they look in the mirror, but the person in the mirror is not me no matter how many times you convince yourselves, you are playing the lies and illusion game. It was always you in the mirror looking back at you when you have not developed enough within yourself, the true you is behind you watching you and the person in the mirror playing mind games with yourself. So I will continue to play the bad guy, the negative guy and the trigger man, until we all develop ourselves into better people, and take all the flak your personas hands out, I have enough self mastery, wisdom and thick enough skin to handle it, all with the knowledge many of you have received it in the right way, and developed into far better people than when you started your THI journey.
