

THI-SHOW TRANSCRIPT 2020-10-01

I will be disturbing the sounds of Silence this evening, as frankly I have had enough of the bullshit, after what happened with my dad recently and some recent podcasts elsewhere, then throw in the frankly awful show I had to do on Tuesday, enough is enough and we need to get realistic and back on track. A strange week in so many ways I wrote 3 shows this week alone, one we had on Tuesday, another before next Thursday, we had a were all going to die piece on another show, biblical level extinction events we heard. Team Trump took a bashing which was long overdue, the battle of the pensioners all played out on national TV between Trump and Biden, where not surprisingly debates on policies and helping the people where thin on the ground. The fact that Trump apparently lost a debate to Biden, is a national embarrassment, because if the alternative is Biden, Americans you have lost your collective minds. Biden is a puppet to get Pelosi in charge, wake up, Trump is lesser of two evils again, when will the public see through this illusion and pick their own candidates? Israel carried on being is ra el, the media carried being treasonous and liars, the medical people carried imitating Drake of contradictin ma contradictions, NASA carried on warning were all going to die via asteroids, BLM carried on caring for blacks only, 200K children carried on dying this week from preventable causes. Then we found out US Army facilities including Gitmo are running adrenochrome harvesting on children aged 3 to 13. But despite all that we were then assured that the modern day Moses called Tank, will lead the rebellion and us all to the promised land, and so all our fears subsided did they not? no? oh well. As John Lennon said a long time ago, that still reigns today, and that is our responsibility to fix it. Our society is run by insane people for insane objectives. I think we're being run by maniacs for maniacal ends and I think I'm liable to be put away as insane for expressing that. That's what's insane about it.

Two years ago early this month we outed a major case that had barely been covered within MSM or alt media too much either. That expose was about Nxium, and was not until the following February before it became a national topic, yesterday brought some justice to that matter. US heiress Clare Bronfman has been sentenced to six years and nine months in prison for her role in the Nxivm sex trafficking group. Bronfman, heir to the Seagram liquor fortune and a benefactor of Nxivm leader Keith Raniere, pleaded guilty in April 2019 to harbouring migrants for unpaid "labour and services". She also admitted to credit card fraud. She was taken into custody to begin her jail term immediately after the sentencing in Brooklyn, New York. Writing to the court last month, Bronfman said she "never meant to hurt anyone, however I have, and for this I am deeply sorry". However, she said Nxivm had "greatly changed my life for the better" and that she wouldn't denounce its leader Raniere. Nxivm - pronounced "Nexium" - was started in 1998 as a self-help programme. It said it worked with more than 16,000 people. The trial last year heard that Nxivm operated like a cult. Prosecutors told the court that members formed a secret sorority of brainwashed "slaves" who were branded with Ranieri's initials and forced to have sex with him. Bronfman was on Nxivm's executive board, and gave Ranieri tens of millions of dollars to run the group's intensive self-improvement classes. She also paid for the group's lawyers when a lawsuit was filed against them. Counsel acting for Bronfman argued that she should be given a lenient sentence because she wasn't directly involved in the most serious allegations against Nxivm, however, prosecutors said she should be given a serious punishment because "Ranieri would not have been able to commit the crimes with which he was convicted were it not for powerful allies like Bronfman".

JPMorgan Chase & Co. Agrees To Pay $920 Million in Connection with Schemes to Defraud Precious Metals and U.S. Treasuries Markets JPMorgan Chase & Co. (JPMorgan), a New York, New York-based global banking and financial services firm, has entered into a resolution with the Department of Justice to resolve criminal charges related to two distinct schemes to defraud: the first involving tens of thousands of episodes of unlawful trading in the markets for precious metals futures contracts, and the second involving thousands of episodes of unlawful trading in the markets for U.S. Treasury futures contracts and in the secondary (cash) market for U.S. Treasury notes and bonds. JPMorgan entered into a deferred prosecution agreement (DPA) in connection with a criminal information filed today in the District of Connecticut charging the company with two counts of wire fraud. Under the terms of the DPA, JPMorgan will pay over $920 million in a criminal monetary penalty, criminal disgorgement, and victim compensation, with the criminal monetary penalty credited against payments made to the Commodity Futures Trading Commission (CFTC) under a separate agreement with the CFTC being announced today and with part of the criminal disgorgement credited against payments made to the Securities Exchange Commission (SEC) under a separate agreement with the SEC being announced today. "For over eight years, traders on JP Morgan's precious metals and U.S. Treasuries desks engaged in separate schemes to defraud other market participants that involved thousands of instances of unlawful trading meant to enhance profits and avoid losses," said Acting Assistant Attorney General Brian C. Rabbitt of the Justice Department's Criminal Division. "Today's resolution — which includes a significant criminal monetary penalty, compensation for victims, and requires JP Morgan to disgorge its unlawful gains — reflects the nature and seriousness of the bank's offenses and represents a milestone in the department's ongoing efforts to ensure the integrity of public markets critical to our financial system."

A research and development lab of the Chinese tech giant Huawei Technologies in the southern city of Dongguan caught fire, producing large clouds of thick grey smoke. Locals caught the incident on camera. The videos show plumes of smoke coming from the building's top floors, and largely obscuring the sky above the facility. According to the local fire department, the flammable sound-absorbing cotton which the facility was using may be the main source of the blaze. Cohen evidence? I think not.

I received this message last week, that said I thought you might find this interesting. My dad found thousands of unopened ballots at the garbage dump in Petaluma, California, north of San Francisco. Interesting story and the piece we put out about two months ago, will make more sense now. The reason they are unopened is, the result is on the outside of the envelope with a bar code. This is cheating on a massive scale, and Trump needs to cancel the election now and fix this country, before any ridiculous election unfolds.

Undercover informants working for the police and MI5, are going to be explicitly permitted for the first time under British law to commit crimes. The unprecedented legislation to authorise and oversee crimes comes after years of unclear rules over when these agents can break the law. The law will not specify exactly which crimes can be committed. And critics are urging MPs to amend the proposed law to rule out murder and serious violence. The highly unusual decision to create a law that sanctions crime, comes after a legal battle to force MI5 and the government to reveal secret rules, governing when an informant can break the law. Informants - also known as agents - are recruited to gather intelligence on targets, including terrorist organisations, major drugs gangs and child abuse networks. These agents are often already involved in the networks being targeted, and need to maintain a cover in order to gather critical evidence for investigators. Under the legislation going before Parliament on Thursday, MI5, the police, the National Crime Agency and other agencies that use informants or undercover agents will be able to explicitly authorise them to commit a specific crime as part of an operation. The law will require MI5 officers and others to show the crime is "necessary and proportionate". While the security service's watchdog, a senior judge, will report on how the power is used, there will be no role for the Crown Prosecution Service in reviewing the crimes. Which agencies will be able to authorise secret crimes? MI5 and other intelligence bodies, Police forces and the National Crime agency, Immigration and Border Officers, HM Revenue and Customs, Serious Fraud Office, UK military forces, Ministry of Justice (investigations in prisons) Competition and Markets Authority, Environment Agency, Financial Conduct Authority, Food Standards Agency, Gambling Commission and Medicines and Healthcare Regulation Authority. That does not augur well, MI5 and intelligence, plus occasionally police maybe, but what does the rest of them included in that report require that level of authority for?

A number of police departments around the United States have reported that their 911 services are down, a widespread outage believed to be linked to a glitch in Microsoft cloud computing platform Azure. Police and sheriffs departments in at least Minnesota, Arizona, California, Nevada, North Carolina and Pennsylvania have noted issues with their emergency call systems on Monday, directing residents to use alternative numbers while they work to correct the issue, allegedly caused by a technical failure in Microsoft's Azure cloud computing services. No official explanation has yet been offered for the outages in any of the affected locations. ATTENTION: The 911 lines are not operational nationwide. This is for phone calls and text messaging. If you need police, fire or emergency medical assistance in Minneapolis, please call 612-348-2345. We will advise when this issue is fixed. Sounds like they are testing something, the key is testing for what?

The top-ranked Democrat in Washington has called President Donald Trump's alleged tax avoidance a question of "national security". Nancy Pelosi, Speaker of the House of Representatives, asked whether Mr Trump owed money to foreign interests, following an article on his financial records by the New York Times. It alleges Mr Trump paid only $750 (£580) in federal income tax in both 2016 and 2017. Mr Trump called the report "fake news". Speaking on NBC, Ms Pelosi said the report showed that "this president appears to have over $400m in debt". "To whom? Different countries? What is the leverage they have?" she asked, adding: "So for me, this is a national security question." "The fact that you could have a sitting president who owes hundreds of millions of dollars that he's personally guaranteed to lenders, and we don't know who these lenders are," she said, and suggested that Mr Trump may be indebted to Russian President Vladimir Putin. "What does Putin have on the president politically? Personally? Financially?" Lenders were Rothschild's Pelosi, they bailed him out 4 of the 6 times he declared fake bankruptcy. Tax details are national security oh dear, fine Pelosi, then you and every other politician won't mind showing all your bank accounts to the general public, because I think we would then have a real national security issue, if they were all revealed.

MIDDLE EAST: U.S. Special Operations forces, with no fanfare, killed a top Qaeda leader in northwest Syria in an unusual drone strike nearly two weeks ago. They used a secretive weapon — a so-called Ninja Hellfire missile on which the explosive warhead is replaced by long blades to crush or slice its victim while minimizing risks to any civilians nearby. It was the second time in three months that American commandos have killed a senior Qaeda leader in northwest Syria with these specially designed missiles. The strike illustrated the complexities of carrying out operations against terrorist groups in a part of the world where the United States and Russia have been warily pursuing their own objectives and occasionally coming into conflict. The recent ramming of an American ground patrol by a Russian armored vehicle escalated tensions between the two rival powers in northeast Syria. The clash prompted the Pentagon last week to dispatch Bradley fighting vehicles and more fighter jet patrols to reinforce the more than 500 American troops helping stamp out remnants of the Islamic State there. But in an opposite corner of the country, where the United States has no troops on the ground, the military's secretive Joint Special Operations Command, with help from the C.I.A., is carrying out a shadow war against a different terrorist threat — a small but virulent Al Qaeda affiliate — that American officials say is plotting attacks against the West. The Pentagon will not say much about the latest Reaper drone strike in northwest Syria. I thought Trump said Al Qaeda and ISIS was defeated and we were bringing home the troops many months back, or was that an alternate timeline? Does anyone ask why a supposed intelligence agency is in combat mode in other countries? perhaps we will find out in the next story, also from Syria.

Northeastern Syria, home to the vast majority of the country's oil, is also where most US troops in the country are concentrated. Damascus has repeatedly accused US forces and their Kurdish allies of stealing the nation's oil, with intelligence confirming the shipment of tens of millions of dollars of black gold out of the country every month. A convoy of 35 tanker trucks from the Jazira region of northeastern Syria, has made its way out of the country into northern Iraq, the Syrian Arab News Agency has reported, citing local sources. The convoy reportedly left Hasakah province on Wednesday evening. The US has been strengthening its presence in Syria in recent weeks, despite promises by President Trump to withdraw from the war-torn country late last year. Last week, US officials and Syrian media reported the delivery of additional troops and vehicles into the country from neighbouring Iraq. Last year, Russian military intelligence released a report on US oil-smuggling activities in Syria, revealing that the Pentagon, the CIA, private military contractors and Kurdish militias were engaged in the illegal shipment of more than $30 million-worth of Syrian oil out of the war-torn country each month. Now you know why the CIA are there. Before the start of its foreign-backed civil conflict in 2011, Syria produced about 400,000 barrels of oil per day, enough to provide the country with energy self-sufficiency and up to 20 percent of the state's revenues. Production dropped dramatically during the war. Syria and its allies see the return of the nation's energy resources as a crucial requirement for rebuilding the country from the estimated $200-$400 billion in damage caused during the conflict. However, President Trump has repeatedly pledged to "take" and "keep" Syria's oil, and to prevent it from falling into the hands either of terrorists or the Syrian government. Who made Trump the decider of where another countries oil should go? Is he a CIA puppet? Can you imagine the uproar if Putin or Xi said the oil out of America is not allowed to go to the countries government? In related news, residents of the village of Tal Sateeh took to the streets in the Qamishli countryside on Thursday, carrying national flags, portraits of Syria's president, and signs demanding that both Turkish and "Zionist US occupation" forces withdraw from the region immediately, and stop plundering their land, oil and wheat resources.

The newly formed U.S. Space Force is deploying troops to a vast new frontier: the Arabian Peninsula. Space Force now has a squadron of 20 airmen stationed at Qatar's Al-Udeid Air Base in its first foreign deployment. The force, pushed by President Donald Trump, represents the sixth branch of the U.S. military and the first new military service since the creation of the Air Force in 1947. It has provoked skepticism in Congress, satire on Netflix NFLX, +0.57% and, with its uncannily similar logo, “Star Trek” jokes about intergalactic battles. Future wars may be waged in outer space, but the Arabian Desert already saw what military experts dub the world’s first “space war” — the 1991 Desert Storm operation to drive Iraqi forces from Kuwait. Today, the U.S. faces new threats in the region from Iran’s missile program and efforts to jam, hack and blind satellites. “We’re starting to see other nations that are extremely aggressive in preparing to extend conflict into space,” Col. Todd Benson, director of Space Force troops at Al-Udeid, told the Associated Press. “We have to be able to compete and defend and protect all of our national interests.” your national interests are in this country Mr. Benson, not everywhere else. In a swearing-in ceremony earlier this month at Al-Udeid, 20 Air Force troops, flanked by American flags and massive satellites, entered Space Force. Soon several more will join the unit of “core space operators” who will run satellites, track enemy maneuvers and try to avert conflicts in space. Benson declined to name the “aggressive” nations his airmen will monitor and potentially combat. But the decision to deploy Space Force personnel at Al-Udeid follows months of escalating tensions between the U.S. and Iran. Hostilities between the two countries, ignited by Trump’s unilateral withdrawal of the U.S. from Iran’s nuclear accord, came to a head in January when U.S. forces killed a top Iranian general. Iran responded by launching ballistic missiles at American soldiers in Iraq. This spring, Iran’s paramilitary Revolutionary Guard launched its first satellite into space, revealing what experts describe as a secret military space program. The Trump administration has imposed sanctions on Iran’s space agency, accusing it of developing ballistic missiles under the cover of a civilian program to set satellites into orbit. This is not an American war with Iran, this is Israel and the Hebrew Annunaki program, Iran means land of the Aryans, and this is the modern day version of attacking this and every other country housing Aryans and Rus as far back as 100K years ago. That is what the recent agreement between Israel and UAE was all about, more bases to attack Iran, and the world sits back and watches? First Iran, next America, you may laugh, but they did this to Russia and their Baltic states in the past 100 years, and our US military are working for them, not us.

Nutty is at it again, telling the world where there next missile launch is going to take place. Lebanese group Hezbollah has a “secret arms depot” in residential Beirut, Israeli PM Benjamin Netanyahu claimed in an address to the UN General Assembly, during which he again turned to a PowerPoint, maps, and other visual aids. “Here’s where the next explosion will take place – right here,” Netanyahu said, as he directed his laser pointer at a large screen, showing the map of the Lebanese capital. Beirut is still recovering from a huge ammonium nitrate blast caused by Israel that occurred at the city’s port in early August, killing nearly 200 people, wounding thousands, and causing massive destruction. The alleged Hezbollah missile depot is situated near both a gas company and people's homes, Netanyahu insisted in his speech, which was broadcast from Jerusalem. At which point does the rest of the world stop this shit, and when will America stop being Israel's bitch?

Women of the Wall (WOW), a group of women who have asserted women's right to pray at the Western Wall in Jerusalem, have struggled against personal violence and public opprobrium since 1988. Though the group is small in number, it has garnered considerable international support, especially for its lengthy struggle in Israel's Supreme Court of Justice. The latter has expressly recognized the Western Wall as a site of great symbolic significance for Jews in Israel and in the Diaspora, not only as a holy place but also as a historical, national and cultural symbol. The reality is it is not an historic place for humans, only the off world who were stationed there in the past. On this historic stage, the struggle between enlightenment and fundamentalism and between patriarchy and feminism is being acted out. Its outcome is important not only for the Women of the Wall themselves but also for the future of human rights in Israel. WOW's manner of prayer is women's prayer in a group, wearing prayer shawls and reading aloud from the Torah Scroll—a manner of prayer customary for men but not for women, which is a subject of controversy amongst Orthodox Jewish authorities. It is considered by many Orthodox rabbis to infringe prohibitions of Jewish halakhic law or, even if it does not, to constitute an impermissible deviation from the custom of the place at the Western Wall. So much for the gods chosen people tag, I guess their god was a misogynist as well anti human, after dismissing 99% of the world as goyim, which we are declared non human and beasts, their god denies women of their own Hebrew Annunaki off world religious program as well. Lilith and Samael who are both demons and worshipped by the Jewish faith, just smile on at their stupidity it seems.

RACE ISSUES: A new Associated Press poll finds that there has been a massive 15 point swing and that most Americans are now hostile to Black Lives Matter protests. "The poll from The Associated Press-NORC Center for Public Affairs Research finds that 44% of Americans disapprove of protests in response to police violence against Black Americans, while 39% approve, in June, 54% approved. The new survey was conducted Sept. 11-14, before Wednesday's announcement that a lone Louisville police officer would be charged in the Taylor case, but not for her actual death." The figures are also interesting when broken down along racial lines. Just 35% of white Americans approve of the protests, down from 53% back in June. Just Latinos, 31% approve, compared with 44% in June. Support for BLM amongst African-Americans has also dropped from 81% to 63%. Support for BLM amongst Republicans has also dropped from 29% to 9%. Meanwhile, 70% of Democrats still approve of the protests, while significantly more people on both sides of the political spectrum believe the demonstrations to be "mostly or all violent." The survey also finds that belief in the central underpinning narrative pushed by BLM, that blacks are being indiscriminately targeted by police, is being eroded.

Which is exactly how the system wanted it to run, then to get the people to turn against the blacks for wrecking your towns and cities, and the cycle continues.

A Louisville university canceled all classes following the indictment of a police officer in the death of Breonna Taylor, telling white students to “educate yourselves on systemic racism.” Bellarmine University president Susan Donovan notified her students that classes were dismissed, a decision that was made after “hearing from many of our students of color and their allies, and in consultation with faculty and student leadership,” Campus Reform reported. Donovan said in the letter, later writing, “the white members of our Bellarmine community to educate yourselves on systemic racism, recognize your part in it, and work toward inclusion.” She urged her students to “continue to channel your feelings into constructive action, such as pushing for police reform, [. . .] and exercising your right to vote for candidates who share your views about the fair and equitable treatment of all people.” Do people not see that as blatant racism? This University needs to be defunded until they learn basic common sense and quit running script programs of divide and conquer between the people.

Misogyny could become a criminal offence in England and Wales to protect women, according to a report from the Law Commission. The independent body, which is responsible for reviewing laws, will look at whether those abusing women because of their gender should have tougher sentences. Currently, the groups and characteristics protected by law include race, religion, sexual orientation, disability and transgender identity. The Law Commission is calling for evidence from victims of hate crimes, police officers, prosecutors and civil liberties groups which will be assessed to help establish how misogyny hate crimes could work in practice. Oh dear whilst I don't condone that behavior in any way, clear guidelines will be required for this as it will be open to massive abuse.

COVID RELATED NONSENSE: China's Ambassador to the United Nations said Thursday that the US has "created enough troubles for the world already" as the two nations continued to spar over the coronavirus pandemic during a tense meeting of the UN Security Council. US Representative to the UN Kelly Craft criticized China over what she said was a "decision to hide the origins of this virus, minimize its danger, and suppress scientific cooperation." China hid it because they are part of the operations with Harvard, the CIA and Black Dragons involved in that operation. Craft claimed Beijing's actions "transformed a local epidemic into a global pandemic." China's Zhang Jun swiftly rejected Craft's characterization of events. Again this is not an accurate description, the fake pandemic in the EU created the pandemic, and the USA made it into Orwell 1984 on steroids, supported by non thinking bot people. Zhang said "I must say, enough is enough, you have created enough troubles for the world already,". "Regrettably, we have once again heard noises from the US, that are so at odds with the atmosphere of the meeting." Zhang added that Beijing rejected the "baseless" accusations. The spat came two days after US President Donald Trump, used much of his pre-recorded video address to the General Assembly to blame China for the Covid-19 pandemic, and for withholding information about the virus. Try asking Langley and Harvard first Mr. Trump, if we in the alt media knows it, why don't you? On Tuesday, Trump accused Beijing of "allowing flights to leave China and infect the world" and referred to Covid-19 as the "China virus" on Tuesday. On Thursday, Zhang said the US had only itself to blame, since January, the US has diagnosed more than 6 million coronavirus cases in its population, and lost more than 200,000 lives to the illness. Utter rubbish, figures were made up by the CDC and accentuated by the Langley ran John Hopkins Center, try less than 10K and most of them were largely due to prior illness. The Russian representative at the Thursday session also criticized Craft's accusations. "We regret the fact that the representative of the United States chose this meeting, and the platform of the UN Security Council to make unfounded accusation against one of the members of the Security Council," said Russian Ambassador Vassily Nebenzia. Covid-19 has loomed heavily over this year's summit, which was forced online due to the pandemic and the 14-day quarantine regulations in New York City. UN Secretary General António Guterres has repeatedly pleaded for unity between member states, and warned on Thursday that the relationship between the US and China was moving "in a very dangerous direction."

This is being implemented in the UK and a heads up warning called the 2020 national security no 973 The Coronavirus (Retention of Fingerprints and DNA Profiles in the Interests of National Security) (No. 2) Regulations 2020 Made at 2.54 p.m. on 10th September 2020, Laid before Parliament at 4.00 p.m. on 10th September 2020, Coming into force 1st October 2020. (funny how their bills against the people are ran through within a single afternoon, and yet tax reforms takes years, or stimulus packages for the people takes weeks, months or not at all) The Secretary of State makes the following Regulations in exercise of the powers conferred by section 24(2), (4) and (8) of the Coronavirus Act 2020(1) The Secretary of State, in accordance with section 24(3) of that Act, considers that coronavirus is having, or is likely to have, an adverse effect on the capacity of persons responsible for making national security determinations to consider whether to make, or renew, national security determinations and that it is in the interests of national security to retain the fingerprints or DNA profiles as provided for in these Regulations. The Secretary of State has consulted the Commissioner for the Retention and Use of Biometric Material in accordance with section 24(6) of that Act. (2) The condition is that the fingerprints or DNA profiles are retained in accordance with a national security determination that will (ignoring the effect of these Regulations) cease to have effect on a date during the period that starts with 1st October 2020 and ends with 24th March 2021. (3) The retention of the fingerprints or DNA profiles under the national security determination may continue for a further period of six months starting with the date on which the national security determination would otherwise have ceased to have effect. (2) The first condition is that the fingerprints or DNA profiles are retained— (a)under any of the following provisions— (i)paragraph 20B(3) or paragraph 20C(3) of Schedule 8 to the Terrorism Act 2000 (retention of paragraph 20A material)(3); (ii)section 18A(1) of the Counter-Terrorism Act 2008 (retention of section 18 material)(4); (iii)paragraph 8(2) of Schedule 6 to the Terrorism Prevention and Investigation Measures Act 2011 (retention of paragraph 6 material)(5), or (b)under section 63F(3) of the Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984 (retention of section 63D material)(6) if the fingerprints or DNA profiles satisfy the national security retention condition (see regulation 5). Mentions of why fingerprints or DNA are a national security issue - zero!!

House Democrats postponed a vote Wednesday on a $2.2 trillion COVID-19 stimulus bill in the hopes a deal could be reached as negotiations drag on with the White House on a plan to help Americans struggling from the impacts of the coronavirus pandemic. The vote was postponed until Thursday to allow House Speaker Nancy Pelosi and White House negotiators more time to discuss a potential bipartisan deal, said a Democratic aide, who was unable to discuss internal deliberations publicly. Pelosi and Treasury Secretary Steven Mnuchin met at the Capitol Wednesday for their first in-person negotiations since August. The two sides have been at an impasse for months over the size and scope of a COVID-19 relief bill, but rank-and-file members have pressured congressional leaders to get some sort of relief deal done by Election Day. Another delay and negotiations when it is relevant to giving money to the people, and yet $38B of Americans money goes to Israel, then our Trustee decided they didn't have enough and tried to send them another $130M all agreed practically on the spot. When will Americans wake up to the fact, neither party are fit for purpose in regards to we the people.

A test that can diagnose Covid-19 in minutes will dramatically expand the capacity to detect cases in low- and middle-income countries, the World Health Organization (WHO) has said. The $5 (£3.80) test could transform tracking of Covid-19 in less wealthy countries, which have shortages of healthcare workers and laboratories. So the UK and US are charging $150 to their residents, yet other countries it is just $5. ok. A deal with manufacturers will provide 120 million tests over six months. The WHO's head called it a major milestone, lengthy gaps between taking a test and receiving a result have hampered many countries' attempts to control the spread of coronavirus. In some countries with high infection rates, including India and Mexico, experts have said that low testing rates are disguising the true spread of their outbreaks. Funny they fail to mention that false positive testing figures are disguising the true bullshit of their claims. The "new, highly portable and easy-to-use test" will provide results in 15-30 minutes instead of hours or days, WHO Director General. Drugs manufacturers Abbott and SD Biosensor have agreed with the charitable Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation to produce 120 million of the tests, Dr Tedros explained. go figure and no shit sherlock. The man who couldn't solve viruses in computers, is now an expert in medical viruses, and people don't question this? The deal covers 133 countries, including many in Latin America which is currently the region hardest-hit by the pandemic in terms of fatality and infection rates.

I am writing with an update from Melbourne ... long again. Over the last 10 days we have seen some interesting twists and turns for the fate of Melbourne and its inhabitants. Some liberties have been 'granted' while others have been taken back. Progress on legal matters .. There are now 4 cases before the courts that each tackle a different element (not all) of the orders by decree of the Premier of Victoria. Enforced curfew, freedom of trade and passage are the two lead cases; the former is testing the Victorian Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 (Supreme Court, Vic) and the latter is testing section 92 of the Australian Constitution (High Court, Cth of Aus). After a week of opening arguments for the Supreme Court challenge for the Curfew and on the day before arguments open, after two weeks of pre-trial, on Sunday 27th September the Premier announced the removal of the curfew effective 5am 28th September (today). The Victorian Chief Health Officer made reference to the appropriateness of the measure, and made reference to the Victorian Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006. Both cases brought by individuals so kudos to them both for their efforts. Hotel Quarantine enquiry ... This enquiry was a significant fixture in the news and pandemic because contact tracing, (that had already failed) claimed that every second wave SARS Cov-2 case was linked to the botched Quarantine of returning travellers, and those inbound when the pandemic led to a lockdown of Australian and each State boarder; empty city hotels were turned into camps. This enquiry heard its final witness, the Premier of Victoria, last Friday. After the premier's testimony (under oath) it was clear to everyone that either Premier or all other ministers were lying about the quarantine failures (reason for the enquiry). The premier then proceeded to blame his Health Minister throughout proceedings. The above mentioned references by the Victorian CHO highlighted, that evidence was withheld from the judicial enquiry by someone. The Health Minister whom was sold out on Friday, promptly resigned from parliament on Saturday morning and through several cats among the pigeons. In addition, the contracts and all material pertaining to the quarantine made their way into the public domain, and proved the Health Minister had told the truth throughout the last 4 months, and the enquiries into Quarantine and identified specifically who knew (and via due process who should also know), and exposed the underbelly of government, aka the deep state. It is widely understood the Premier is finished along with his party, and so to it may be that rusted on two party politics, is nearing its used by date too. Police presence ... No protests were organised and none occurred in your traditional form; however people have taken to writing messages on their masks. E.g., "#unlock_Victoria". Organised exercise now at two hours per day, has seen nearly all of Melbourne out and about on the weekends for exercise and food shopping, and rendering all local walking trails overcrowded, although no one appears visibly concerned, smiles have returned. Despite no protests the Riot Squad of the Victoria Police and their UN sidearm, were out in force as a solution in search of a problem. The 15 – 20 black police vehicles in convoy are very obvious on empty streets; their air support hasn't helped the situation. Most police are either over the draconian measures, embarrassed or simply no longer care; most police out on the beat are all smiles and will engage 'is safe'. There is a clear 'drive' by the police to rebuild the faith lost in recent weeks, and a recognition that a lot of "water must go under the bridge" to win the public trust again. There have been fewer helicopters overhead and flying at higher altitude, fewer flights from China in the middle of the night and it has been more than a week since I have seen an F35 JSF at dusk in the area. When approached by police the public is sincere but firm in their resolve, and challenge every statement that does not make sense; I have witnessed two of these exchanges in recent days. Government charm offensive ... Our federal Health Minister and new State Health Minister have maintained engaged public appearances, to only discuss the next health day or awareness week for 3 weeks now. I had no idea how many medical special research and fund raising days existed; then again this could just be fundraising by stealth. Our part time Prime Minister has dropped talk of vaccines and replaced this with talk of cures, "be they a vaccine or antiviral drugs" and has highlighted existing legislation that prevents stockpiling of such cures. It didn't take long for the PM to be pushed by MSM and social media about government stockpiles of Hydroxy-chlor-oquine and Ivermectin to name but two. The government appears close to admitting the planned reversal of the ban of Hydroxy-chlor-oquine for non-existing ailments. The federal health authorities announced that their research had identified, that people who suffered from Dengue Fever, had little to no chance of catching SARS Cov-2. The social media was quick to point out that Hydroxy-chlor-oquine in combination with other over the counter medications, did cure Dengue Fever, and left the patient's immune system primed to handle a SARS Cov-2 infection for example. What the street is talking about ... People are now able to congregate in small numbers which is turning into medium sized groups. I have overheard all manner of conversations ... here are a few: a) It's those people in the shadows who want to give us the NWO b) Everything has a 13 in it, the 13th star sign is ... c) I am never voting for a major party again d) Why can I now go to the local pool and swim and I can't play golf e) Do you know anyone who tested positive? I don't! f) Who cares about the count of cases, its total BS and a hoax ... get on board mate g) You should go and read up at the coviddoctorsnetwork.com because you sound so stupid saying that The COVID mortality has been from nursing homes for all 800 deaths except 15, and but for about 20, were all over 70 and leaves many annoyed. The $10,000 payments and doctors having their death certificates falsified has had a few laps of talk back radio too. Melbourne just might be waking up as a village yet ... when the Premier mentioned his fear of a third wave coming at a recent press conference, it was met by laughter by the journalists and not taken seriously by anyone. Businesses have started preparing for an opening and the air is no longer feeling heavy; Spring has finally sprung and its onward and upward from here. Great stuff and thanks to our THI resident on the ground in Melbourne for that update.

It turns out that there is a genuine plan in place to defend the United States in the event of a zombie apocalypse. The destruction of mankind at the hands of a contagious zombie virus is a scenario that has played out time and again in movies, books and TV shows, but what if it were to actually happen for real? It might seem like a scenario that the US government would never take seriously, but in actual fact there does exist a zombie apocalypse defense plan – albeit one that even admits that such a thing is never likely to actually happen in reality. Known as CONOP 8888, the official zombie preparedness plan includes a disclaimer noting that it was “not actually designed as a joke” and that the strategies outlined are the real deal. rest assured it is nothing to do with our Lee Konop. It was written back in 2011 by junior military officers at the US Strategic Command (USSTRATCOM), as a training exercise that tasked them with presenting a general invasion contingency plan. The resulting 31 page document, includes many of the concepts you might expect to find in such a plan, especially if you are a fan of zombie apocalypse movies. What’s interesting is the seriousness of the presentation, despite the inclusion of fantastical concepts such as “evil magic zombies”, “space zombies” and other bizarre theoretical subcategories. It’s clear that the plan was never intended to be taken literally – as far as zombies are concerned anyway – and serves as more of a general template for an invasion scenario. Well unknown to this article writer and few outside of THI, the zombie virus program was supposed to roll out in 2017, under the Zika virus guideline, it failed.

"We are plunging now into a deep mini ice age," says British astrophysicist Piers Corbyn, "and there is no way out". For the next 20 years it's going to get colder and colder, on average, says Corbyn who holds a B.Sc. in Physics and an M.Sc. in Astrophysics. The jet stream will be wilder: there will be more wild temperature changes, more hail events, more earthquakes, more extreme volcano events, more snow in winters, lousy summers, late springs, short autumns, and more and more crop failures. "The fact is the sun rules the sea temperature, and the sea temperature rules the climate," explains Corbyn. A shutting down of the Gulf Stream will lead to cold Arctic-like conditions invading Western Europe almost overnight, concludes Mauriello, with Britain, Ireland, and Scandinavia at the forefront of the blast. "What we have happening now is the start of the mini ice age ... it began around 2013. It's a slow start, and now the rate of moving into the mini ice age is accelerating. The COLD TIMES are returning, the mid-latitudes are REFREEZING, in line with historically low solar activity, cloud-nucleating Cosmic Rays, and a meridional jet stream flow. Both NOAA and NASA appear to agree, if you read between the lines, with NOAA saying we're entering a 'full-blown' Grand Solar Minimum in the late-2020s, and NASA seeing this upcoming solar cycle (25) as "the weakest of the past 200 years", with the agency correlating previous solar shutdowns to prolonged periods of global cooling here. The Russians told you this back in 1959, and you went off with your opposite program of global warming, jackasses.

A video was posted in Israel that the Jewish ran FB declared not acceptable, so what were they covering up? The Jewish have a day of atonement, where they pass all their karma onto the goyim as we are known, yes you heard that right, the day of atonement is where they pass their karma and sin onto the goyim. The did sacrifices in the streets this time with animals, behind closed doors and the higher ups it is humans. The ceremony involved them all including children to rip wings off live chickens, all in the public view. The complete disregard for life these people show on this world is beyond staggering, all to appease their fake and frankly evil god or gods.

Reports of THI members being blocked from joining Lifeforce has now increased a bit I am hearing, but if we are going to go with apps, how about an app that deletes all CIA, NSA, Google, Microsoft and data collections? Can we find a developer for that? All apps otherwise are part of the Robert David Steele plan to harvest all data and get machines to analyse and target all people. He RDS said the people will become the intelligence, and asked for $B's to give everyone on the planet a phone. Lifeforce app is actually playing into RDS/OSS/NATO hands. This song says to Hold your breath, I feel it coming, it is after this song

Before I go into this piece I need to make clear this is not an attack, it is constructive criticism and in essence an audit against claims being made. It no doubt will illicit much response as I will be labeled the bad guy for pointing out either the failure of others, breaking hopium spells, fake reports, misleading information, divide and conquer tactics, MSM sensational headlines of all happening this coming Monday or latest Tuesday, silence within the week unless host does a we need donations call, then another repeat and rinse the next weekend, with a different theme and zero addressing of why the previous weekend didn't happen. I have always said that if I thought people were not operating for or in the best for we the people, I would call it out, and Lifeforce and Kim are no different to anybody else. For the record and will repeat again, I want Kim to succeed as Trustee and Eve, I told her it was not a good idea her going public and gave her valid reasons to protect her as to why, before the split. I want the TV channel to work 100% as it is exactly what I said we needed back in 2013 and since, given so much of alt media is corrupted, and I don't particularly care if that TV channel didn't or doesn't include me. I have come up with other solutions, that all appear to be status elevating, and yet I wanted others to do it not me, the military courts as one example, I picked John Darash and NLA, why? because they are better placed to understand it, and even Anna Von Reitz. The business team and subsequent TPC 3, I gave to Alan James to do, because they are more business minded than I, despite me running a successful business for 25 years, so if people think I am pissed about not being in Lifeforce, that is a wrong assumption. Some will say it is because of the split, which she engineered all by herself, that I am now criticising her, but I would not have agreed with numbers of the decisions Kim has taken in the near past 5-6 months either, and so it is no different, and not personal. It was Kim's idea only to split from THI and divide our community and go a different path. The only difference now is, once it was private and now it is public, but Kim herself made it public with her own statements, remember I said nothing for 5 weeks, and she also went public with her show, proclaiming about not having a relationship with me, nobody suggested that was the case, and I am not sure why she had to state that, and her Bill Clintonesque statements did not make a good luck for a Trustee or Eve. Her show is to be treated no different from any other alt media shows now, except they make more claims than any other group on the internet, and to date their record is 0/14, that is not a good look for them, and because it is 0/14 it is not good for me or we the people either. Yes, you heard that right, their mishandling is not good for me or the people, it needs to work and work properly, this was our biggest chance to end the clowns and their regime, and decisions since March made by the Trustee is jeopardizing that for all to see currently. So, people can snap at me, blame me, use me as the bad guy but I have kept largely quiet and watched a disaster unfold that is damaging to us all, but after podcasts done by them this week, enough is enough. There is a common theme running through this piece and I hope all, including Kim and her group take a long hard look at it, because it needs to be corrected, if the damage of the last 6 months is to be pulled back on track. Kim's latest was like a re run of several THI shows this week, albeit with wrong placed information, riddled with THI themes and yet we remain a maligned group, unless Kim feels she can use some of our members for brownie points. But it raised several inconsistencies and mixed messages within that speech, which I will address to not attack her, but to get her see where the problem lies. All people make mistakes, and the key is to correct them, not mask them and hope they all go away, they don't, in fact they get worse. As the cover up leads to lies and them lies have to be maintained, but then another event comes forward that contradicts the previous sub set of information. At some point honesty is the only way forward, because in this case it has got a thousand times worse than the original problem.

She spoke about 9/11 and it was all about to happen again, this time it is global and real, billions to die she proclaimed, and then wheeled out the classic MSM or Hollywood movie trailer style delivery, of statements with no supporting information, and then stay tuned for our next broadcast, is again not a good look, all this after promising this channel would not be like MSM, it is and worse. That podcast has put people in fear Kim, if you are going to out that level of dire statements, you do not keep people hanging like that, and it is again inconsiderate of the emotions of the people. Cliffhanging and trailers are of the Hollywood mould, generating interest to garner more listeners or viewers, this is not what we want or need in the alt media, it's piss poor grandstanding and fails to take into account the emotions you have caused to the people who listened to that caveat. One suspects these constant flow of sensational events each week now on their show, is a deflection against the promises made in the previous shows not coming to fruition, and a total failure to address each week, why the previous weeks promises or predictions all failed. That again is not a good look for a new channel, and less so for Kim's standing. How the channel look does not concern me, but Kim's standing does, someone has to tell her things are not going well or right, and the yes people over there are not helping her currently. She stated in this podcast that we are all responsible to fix it, which I agree with on point but, that is contrary to everything that has been stated by her in the past 5 months, with constant reference of me myself and I, the now 4 titles plus the highest security clearance, and how I don't need anybody else I am doing it all alone, and now there is an alleged crisis, it is all our responsibility to fix it? Then we got the religious aspect thrown into the mix, the solution to fixing a problem is to pray? is it PRAY or PREY, neither are good, but what type of leadership is that? If praying fixed anything billions would not have died in the past 100 years alone.

Tank is leader of the rebellion according to Kim via Project looking glass, I will leave my opinion out of that, but many people are aghast at that statement Kim, inside and outside of THI, and they are all asking is it a sign that Kim is not either being truthful, grandstanding or has lost the plot, I will repeat again others words not mine. Something's are best left unspoken, with the rhetoric and dire warnings that followed in that show, one has to wonder why it was even mentioned in this podcast? The people are thinking it is another of your now long list of jabs against me Kim? making comparisons between me and Tank, that is what they are thinking Kim, all very, our show is better than yours. Their thinking I am relaying not mine.

Speaking of Tank, he was talking of the GCR again, now we know why he flew to Reno Nevada again recently, Reno is home of the RV pay out game, is Lifeforce/UNC now running a new RV program? Again he gave more promises yesterday and again requested more funds from listeners, this is becoming like a church begging bowl, where are these funds going to? and where is the $25K of members donation for LawfulAmerica, that Tank I am told took out, where has that gone to? I know exactly what the latest request for funds are for Tank, I see patterns, quit asking people show me the money in a background of fear based rhetoric again, or I will out it. Where was an update or acknowledgement of our call to action on the adrenochrome issue the night before Tank? Is that something else that will be brushed away and hope people forget it? Or doesn't it count because it came from the so called enemy group? Tank also reiterated the Kim had taken out the top end of the Roths and Black sun, one hopes there is no back tracking on that news item, like she did with a previous statement of 768K Black Sun members are dead, only to back track on it in an attempt to discredit me and THI. With all the top end of the lower end people now gone and Kim in charge as ground commander of them now, I expect instant or imminent changes on a daily basis now, and no I am not being unfair with that statement either. With leaders all gone as she claims, there is no one left to run the programs, except minions, which she now controls.

Kim states trust our apps, Tank stated they were hacked, I stated that that was proof apps were not safe, Tank goes on next show and states it wasn't hacked, that he just got a password wrong. Now yesterday he says they are hacked again, which is it to be Tank? but then he says trust our apps, is about as shallow as Trust the plan and Q, remember you both came in with Trump and Q sales pitch, we are going to be getting Q drops and White House passes, where did they go Tank? You are there to protect and make sure Kim is safe, in good hands and quite frankly you have spectacularly failed to do that. You Tank have no reputation to lose, but Kim does, and the haphazard, shambolic way you have ran this show for Kim has damaged her more than people realize, although her input is not exactly helping either. You may get away with saying wrong information with your followers, politicians or world leaders, but not THI listeners. This is not about an internet show, it has far wider implications, and as for your statement of now the UNC was on the looking glass tech, do you really expect people to take you seriously with that? that like the rebellion man are pure ego statements and not conducive to we the people. It gets more embarrassing each episode of failed promises, both of them talking about varying stuff and getting it consistently wrong information, because neither of them were the origin of that information, and are winging it, just not very well. It is not a good look, I wished it would be better than this, but clearly it is not.

Kim spoke last week of not speaking to Heads of State anymore, then this week she is hectic because I have spoken to many Heads of State, some consistency would be nice.

White House end user and purchaser of all the minerals, but Kim has previously stated the Trust owned it all anyway, why would the Trust purchase minerals it already owns? We would like some clarity. Kim claimed some deal was going to take place, that is happening Monday and again this is about 4th or 5th Monday or Tuesday of promises now. Student loans, Trump announcements, Bio Machine announcements, Israeli money, Mexico money and now this? Again it is not a critique, these claims and promises each week are damaging their credibility, and making her look like a liar. At which point will she see that? As of today we have heard nothing as to whether the latest deal to just spin Kim's wheels has failed again. Clowns have been doing this to Kim for past 2 years, I kept telling her to not engage these people and gave her several alternative solutions, all of which were ignored. The people she speaks with mostly are just plugging her for information, and delaying the progress that we had made, I gave her a 12 point plan to fix that in March, she to date has ignored that as well.

Kim went on about food shortage, I am really pleased she mentioned that, but I warned her of this issue in spring of last year, and I did a show on it, why has it taken her 18 months to recognize a problem the team warned her of?

Kim spoke of and was warning about the digital world, oh my and yet I got flak only recently and accused of attacking them for mentioning about her digital, yes digital wallet program and also the digital apps, Thomas is always attacking me she proclaims, no!! it was warning you about going down certain paths that would come back to bite you. It did and it has.

Kim called for people to do homework this week and the role of Communism, this again was covered comprehensively and extensively by our FRWL series, why didn't she reference that? and again I kept telling her about Trump and his links to the real group behind Communism, the Zionists and their connections under the banner of Jewish, are we seeing a pattern yet? Kim recently stated that, Trump was a good guy but he was a Black Sun member, how long has she known this and why did she expect he would follow through for we the people? Then Kim launched into full attack mode on Mr. Trump, stating his actions are not good enough, and he is now not fit for purpose, finally Kim you see what I warned you of back in 2016, and several times since. This is not about me being right, most times I am right I wish I was wrong, it is about being able to listen to people and take appropriate actions, that way it becomes a team based decision not a one person road show. Because when that road show falls short, and it has, only you Kim then end up getting the flak, because you were the one who told everyone it was all about you. This is what you don't get, you are setting yourself up to get abuse and blame with all these one person claims, and for the record I for one, do not wish to see you get that abuse and or blame, in case you forgot, I was your firewall to avoid that for the past 4+ years. I think it is great to see and hear her finally call out Trump, but the question remains is who funded Trump, Kim? Who funded the Fed in March, Kim? these questions remained unanswered and so it creates doubts, that were not prevalent prior to May. Other people are now suggesting that things have got progressively worse since April- May time, as time and events rack up at which point does that become indicative Kim? At some point Kim has to listen to people who are advising her and actually take that advice on board, not ignore it and then we all pay a heavier cost later down the line. To all intents and purposes it appears now that Trump has been playing her like a fiddle, which I stated in a long conversation with Kim about plans in December 2018, I would love to be proven wrong, but evidence to this point, leans otherwise. You Kim have done many wonderful things and that should not be forgotten, and is not by me or THI members but you have to take the rough with the smooth, you have to treat the critiques and plaudits in as near as equal measure as possible, not rail at people for having the audacity to ask a question, and then cast them out like last weeks trash, all for pulling a face? Because you have set it all up as a one person road show with all these titles, you have left yourself stretched and open to being attacked, that was not the case prior to May, you know it, I know it and the listeners see and know it. You maybe angry now Kim but you ignored all the signs given to you by people who did everything for you to succeed, and as you are the leader of several titles, you have to take a large degree of responsibility for the current mess. I am not saying that as an attack, because what I say is the truth, and it is far from only my opinion either, as much as you like to make it seem like that. I maybe the one to fire the gun, but there are many others load the bullets Kim and you need to come clean on things that have been done by you, said by you that has gone wrong or backfired. It will not be me or us who face the consequences Kim, it will be you, you are the holder of all the titles, and you who will single handedly carry the can if it all fails. Willful ignorance is a crime you said, and yet there is a number of issues that you ignored from your own team, and that should be recognized, accepted, addressed, to then to be able to move forward. You stated all on this call are welcome and must take part, and I mean all you said, except that does not include myself who in your words was "the team" and the THI members? that comes across as tad contradictory does it not? and yet again does not make you look good in the public's eye. Only last week two good people out of THI traveled a 4200 miles round trip and 70 hours of driving at their own cost, to attempt to do a mediation with me that you Kim agreed to, and then blocked it when they got here, that was disgraceful and shameful in equal measure. That trip coincided with the death of my father, Kim did not even have the common decency to send condolences, and was aghast at the suggestion of it, that is not the behavior of a Trustee, an ambassador for Earth and certainly not the behavior of the supposed Eve, it is more Lilith like than Eve. Your lucky I even wanted to try and speak with you, after what you said and have done since May 4th, but I agreed because I see the bigger picture here, that goes beyond personalities. That does not encourage trust, integrity or unity, that equals divide and conquer and is more in tune with Marduk tactics than the new Trustee.

The network you asked or pleaded for on this call, we at THI had already built that up, with Randy, Jimi, Alan James, state groups, country groups and you were directly responsible for those break ups within those groups. You have to take and accept some responsibility here, before you start asking people to come together, largely because of some of your own actions have now gone wrong. Passing the responsibility now as you did in the last show onto all the people, when it was your actions and decisions that were responsible for the current mess, is not a good look. All people make mistakes Kim, they are lessons to learn for us all, they are not situations to cover up and turn what was a small mound in the grass last May, into the giant sinkhole it is now. We had them, the clowns over a barrel and were strangling them out of the game up until May, you said so yourself on the Zoom call in late April, and look at what has happened since, all under your solitary watch. This is not about you saving face, winning a personal battle that only exists in your mind, this is about the whole of humanity. Inadvertently you have sent my reputation through the roof since May, when the object was for the past 4 years to send your reputation through the roof, not mine. That is why I never proclaimed much of my role in it, it was you who outed what I have done, on the Xmas and April call, not me, then accuse me along with Alan James of having an ego problem. Ego people proclaim and shout their own input from the roof tops, I never, but that it seems is overlooked when agendas apply.

I respect you for all you have done Kim and wish you well in the future, and you can carry on designating this as an attack, but a clear head will see it as constructive criticism, and actually the goal is/was to help you, not attack you. If I really wanted to attack you I would just have to stay quiet, as with the things being said and unfolding on the Lifeforce channel you are running yourself down and damaging your reputation with your own words and actions. I could just let you carry on hanging yourself with contradictions and sensationalized claims each week, that zero have come to fruition. But there is a bigger picture here beyond the Kim and Lifeforce road show and that is my main and only concern. Kim I ask you to remember two things from March and April, one the 12 point plan I gave you, and two the incident in the car in April where you were ultra critical of yourself for one thing, and perhaps this piece today will help you. I never imagined I would write this piece ever, but these are the times we live in and people going off track, and some really bad deeds have been done and said against me and THI by you and your group since May, mostly behind the scenes, that quite frankly makes a mockery of your claim that we must all come together. To the people who hear this, you have no idea of how much flak I have taken behind the scenes all underhandedly via Tank, Ava and Kim plus others, and by and large I kept quiet.

The biggest sadness to me was seeing you at 48 mins in your 9/6/20 show, the look of sadness, broken and haunted, was a far cry from the glowing person that shone right through our Zoom call in April, the difference has been noted by me and many others inside and outside the alt media, at which point do you recognize this as an issue and problem, and address it? At the end of the day some honesty and truth telling is required here Kim, only then can unity and people really coming together can have a chance to prosper, and that as the Eve starts and ends with you.

I hope that, that piece in some way brings more clarity to the situation, there is much more I could have said, that would have been damaging to their cause, but I have chosen not to. The fact I said their cause and not our cause is the most damaging on a wider aspect that transcends THI or Lifeforce and is about we the people, not popularity contests. I have said all along this is not about me, this is our group not my group, The Peoples Club is what it says, it belongs to the people, all the people including Lifeforce members. But this division created by Kim and Tank as he has been doing it longer for his own ego ends has to stop, united we stand, divided we fall. It is the season of fall, but due to poor decisions made in the last 6 months this fall was to be the clowns fall, now it looks like the peoples, and Kim has to take all the responsibility for that. Should this piece not lead to a resolving of issues, admins are considering given the volume of jabs at myself, THI and blocking of our members joining Liferforce, a total ban of any Liferforce/UNC or speakproject posts on our page. No one has been blocked from their group, Kim is still in mewe and Ava in Facebook. But those posts are becoming increasingly fractious within our group, that we don't need at this point for what is best for our members. Should that step be taken you will all be notified by a post, and their posts will be deleted automatically. If you live by the sword, you end up dying by the sword, a sword can defend or cut you, but if your sword is rigid and stuck, the sword then can only cut you. And with that all said hopefully we can now all move on. I said time would tell, it has, does that please me I was right, the answer is emphatically no, I wished it was all different, and despite the very poor words and actions by Kim on May 4th I have tried 4 times to make peace, when many others wouldn't given her behavior, 4 times she trampled all over that peace. I stand by all what I have said, that was also on behalf of many others. I have proof for most of it.

A recent conversation on the chat I thought I would bring to a wider audience on the show, and the gist of the debate is, we should all share energy or energies, but the question back was, what type of energy are you sharing? Have you considered when people are sharing energies, the quality of that energy? is it for your greater good? Have you defined what is your space and your field, when considering sharing energies? Have you cleared your space and field and defined what energies you allow in? These are important things to consider when consenting to the sharing of energies. Why? do you understand the term harvesting? The 99% have shared their energies with the 1% and they harvested it all, and so with that said, it is kind of naive to suggest it is just about sharing energies. The key to THI listeners is to protect your energies, not share it with a bulk of humanity who harvest it. One of the things we have done at THI is highlight how we think and how we relay things, and are we in danger of consenting to things with how we speak, that may not be recognizable at the first go. We have had to counter many new age and wiccan speak that crept into alt media circles in vast volumes as well. The key was, have you defined energies or the sharing of it? wafting words about like energies and consciousness is often new age speak, without the clear definition, there is a difference. What I am trying to get across and I am asking is, you all to define the sharing of energies. Tuesday's harrowing show about the children brought this discussion to clarity, the children subjected to adrenochrome harvesting can be perceived as just sharing their energy? is that acceptable? That is being in the action, their action of harvesting our energy is it not? My question then is, you cannot just share the energy can you, without defining it? Non defining has caused untold damage to all humans here, all of us have not defined enough of our words including me, and a frittering use and application of our energy has yielded big harvesting, not understanding our own energy/liferforce = harvesting. But then we bring in a THI meme of, observe not absorb.

You observe the dark energy, dark magicians, dark forces and djinns, not absorb them, absorbing them equals energy sharing and a fall from grace, and harvesting. The lesson is you are responsible for your own fields and energies, you only share energies in minimal circumstances with people you actually know. Our abilities to read people and their intentions is often in the poor to average range, and why you must look after your own energies, before considering others. The Abraxans, Draco and Grays knew the importance of our energy and they revealed it in Jupiter Ascending, after that movie, ignorance became a choice that was your responsibility. Remember a soul journey is not a group think exercise, but a personal journey only. The final song is a question for all people to ponder on, goodnight.
