

THI-SHOW TRANSCRIPT 2020-10-22

Michigan will prohibit the open carrying of firearms at polling stations, clerk's offices and other places where absentee ballots are tabulated to prevent voter intimidation, state officials said on Friday. I guess that is a designated area for Operation Blackout false flags then. Pennsylvania has rejected over 370,000 applications for mail-in ballots, most of which were duplicate requests, according to a report by ProPublica and the Philadelphia Inquirer, about 90 percent of the denied application requests were duplicates, and one out of every five requests have been rejected. To the check out girl in Walmart, have you found out yet which state Pennsylvania is in? As Caroline Giuliani, the daughter of President Donald Trump's personal attorney and former New York City mayor Rudy Giuliani, is urging Americans to "end this nightmare" by voting for Democratic nominee Joe Biden and his running mate Kamala Harris. She needs to shut her pie hole and look closer to home love as part of the problem, think 9/11. Wall Street's top matchmaker for megadeals sees a wave of corporate takeovers coming, with a worrying implication for the workforce and a jump in job losses. You are only 16 months behind our show Wall Street, we warned of this in June 2019. As some decide they have had enough of Presidents George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, Abraham Lincoln and Franklin Roosevelt are among the historical figures whose names are no longer considered honorable enough to adorn public schools in San Francisco. The city's school board is looking to rename as many as 44 of the 125 public schools in its district after a panel of community members appointed to study the issue found their namesakes to be problematic by today's standards of woke conduct. As a new report reveal the suspension of New Yorker staff writer and CNN legal analyst Jeffrey Toobin, who was born in and born to, claims the legal pundit was masturbating during a Zoom call with colleagues. He exposed himself to members of the New Yorker and WNYC radio staffs during a Zoom call last week it was revealed, from jackass to jack off it seems. As Factcheckers reach new disturbing heights of crass child like stupidity, are people really getting what that whole exercise is? It is telling us all, we are too stupid to think for ourselves and please allow them to think for us, and we just copy and repeat them, all very school and church like isn't it. But then if millions of people act stupid and child like by wearing masks, that states on the box is not a deterrent for Covid or any other infections, but lets ignore that shall we. We the bot people are enjoying the comfort of our government looking after us just like mommy and daddy, we love our Milgram experiment and we bow to authority and factcheckers like the children we are. Is it just the fact that, really too many adults lack love, and prefer the mom and dad variety of care? which is then replaced by the government, and subsequently the world becomes a giant nursery for adults with child like thinking, too lazy or too stupid to think for themselves? There are many who can think for themselves and the rest have shown themselves to be computer like entities, unable to do anything unless someone presses their keyboard and they follow the instructions. They allow them to go ogle at you, they learn the alphabet from the agencies, call you micro soft when actually it is macro soft in the head, and because you are micro soft you will be micro chipped, and they just want to do what the doctor said and have an Apple a day, with their new partner for life, an Android. Factchecker is their new micro soft in the head Messenger, whilst Mk Ultra Twitters in their head, whilst they call you tube, a tube is a TV and there they return to the alphabets of ABC, all waiting to receive stimulus from the Trump card. Trump will look after us as uncle sam sung for us, our food is disappearing yet these people wait for their news feed, CNN the children's news network, all brought to you by the CIA, children imitating adults. There they learn of the deep state, not government deep state, but a deep state of amnesia, of how wonderful it is that Wall Street and the US which means US as in them, are doing marvelously well, and don't worry about losing your businesses, savings, lifestyles, freedoms and speech, because mummy lie ops the non speaker of our House is Biden her time and will save you from the House of Orange man. White hair, yellow hair no one notices, as for you entrainment, not entertainment, Trump now does Easter festivals in the autumn or the fall, the fall of man for technology. They carry on with their hash tags, hash means to chop into pieces and then they tag you, the great divide and conquer program the bots love to play with. They go back to the computer to be plugged into a maritime sea port, where they have a monitor to go ogle them some more, or with a cam, which stands for children are monitored, whilst they stay silent like a mouse, because they love the comfort of being trapped by a net, and enter the net they go. All used like batteries which is why they call it dura cell, dura means the membrane surrounding the brain and the spinal cord, cell is a prison, which means your brain is imprisoned and they are plugged into the back of the neck just like several movies like The Matrix shows you. Lets collect some apps which are applications and means the bringing of something to bear on something else, and that something else is us, the organic self thinking populace whilst they play Continuum style technology games. Light web dark web it is still a web of the spider, but no worries one search on the spider web will bring up your obsession and you will find your new master via cat holicism, but don't worry your new parent the mother board will protect you, whilst calling you USB, you stupid bastards. ET phone home? no earthlings phone home as you are on a different world currently. Think and act different from our very first show has more meaning now than then, doesn't it.

SOCIAL MEDIA/INTERNET ISSUES: Introduced in House (09/25/2020) This resolution condemns QAnon and rejects the conspiracy theories it promotes. The resolution condemns all other groups and ideologies that contribute to the spread of unfounded conspiracy theories and that encourage Americans to destroy property and attack law enforcement officers. The resolution encourages federal law enforcement and homeland security agencies to continue to strengthen their focus on preventing violence, threats, harassment, and other criminal activity by extremists motivated by fringe political conspiracy theories. Finally, the resolution encourages the intelligence community to uncover any foreign support, assistance, or online amplification QAnon receives, as well as any QAnon affiliations, coordination, and contacts with foreign extremist organizations or groups espousing violence. This is what your politicians are doing instead of looking after the people and the country. Where were the bills for investigations or condemning of Antifa or BLM? Can spend time to push this bill, whilst ignoring the peoples stimulus bill.

The US government has filed charges against Google, accusing the company of abusing its dominance to preserve a monopoly over internet searches and online advertising. The lawsuit marks the biggest challenge brought by US regulators against a major tech company in years. It follows more than a year of investigation, and comes as the biggest tech firms face intense scrutiny of their practices at home and abroad. Google called the case "deeply flawed". The company has maintained that its sector remains intensely competitive and that its practices put customers first. "People use Google because they choose to - not because they're forced to or because they can't find alternatives," it said. The charges, filed in federal court, were brought by the US Department of Justice and 11 other states. The lawsuit focuses on the billions of dollars Google pays each year to ensure its search engine is installed as the default option on browsers and devices such as mobile phones. Officials said those deals have helped secure Google's place as the "gatekeeper" to the internet, owning or controlling the channels for about 80% of search queries in the US. "Google has thus foreclosed competition for internet search," the lawsuit said. "General search engine competitors are denied vital distribution, scale, and product recognition - ensuring they have no real chance to challenge Google." Better late than never I suppose, but wondering of this is a faction lawsuit? Wouldn't it be a good idea if the fines went to the TPC or better still food banks?

During a recent USA congressional hearing, Facebook's former Director of Monetization said that Facebook "took a page from Big Tobacco's playbook, working to make FB as addictive as cigarettes." He admitted that "Facebook built algorithms that have facilitated the spread of misinformation, encouraged divisive rhetoric, and laid the groundwork for a mental health crisis." Now he worries that FB is "pushing us to the brink of a civil war." Facebook employs psychologists and data scientists to analyze and manipulate our emotions and purchase decisions. FB deliberately serves us polarizing content that outrages us. Why? Because that drives higher engagement and more ad revenue. This high-tech brainwashing is like something straight out of Black Mirror. It's time for MeWe, social media done right. No Targeting, No Algorithms that Boost Inflammatory Content, No Ads, No Manipulation of Our Minds and Newsfeeds, No BS!

In August 2019, a new illness was reported in the US which was named "vape lung" or EVALI (E-cigarette/Vaping -Associated Lung Injury). "The EVALI and other respiratory viruses share similar symptoms, including shortness of breath, night sweats, low oxygen levels, and hazy spots on a lung X-ray, statnews.com reported, quoting experts, who mentioned the difficulty to "tease apart a bad flu case and a vaping case." The illness was reported as "a U.S.-specific phenomenon" that began in Illinois and Wisconsin in April 2019. "The first death from a vaping-related illness was reported Aug 23 in Illinois." "Patients, mostly otherwise healthy and in their late teens and 20s, are showing up with severe shortness of breath, often after suffering for several days with vomiting, fever and fatigue. Some have wound up in the intensive care unit or on a ventilator for weeks. Treatment has been complicated by patients' lack of knowledge — and sometimes outright denial — about the actual substances they might have used or inhaled." It "sharply increasing in August 2019 and peaking in September". It was blamed on illicit vaping products, especially those containing cannabis, as of October 15, 2019, the CDC had reported on 1,358 sufferers of EVALI, of whom about 2/3 were male. The median age was 24 and although the median age of fatality was around 50 years. I warned about this when it first came out, it all came out too quickly and was promoted heavily, that rarely happens with something that is beneficial, and so this is now revealing it's issue. Smoke natural tobacco and you will be fine, it is a high vibrational plant, unlike the burning of marijuana which is low vibrational.

Trials of a Covid-19 vaccine being developed by AstraZeneca and Oxford University will continue, following a review into the death of a volunteer in Brazil. Brazil's health authority has given no details about the death, citing confidentiality protocols. Oxford University said a "careful assessment" had revealed no safety concerns. The BBC understands that the volunteer did not receive the vaccine. Only around half the volunteers in the trial are given the actual Oxford University Covid-19 vaccine. The second group are being given an existing licensed vaccine for meningitis. Neither the participants nor their families know which vaccine they are being given. This enables the researchers to compare the results for the two groups in order to measure whether the vaccine is effective. Low income people bribed into being lab rats, being set up into the great unknown and risking their lives for less than $100, just stupid if you ask me.

US President Donald Trump has said Sudan will come off a list of state sponsors of terror if it pays compensation of $335m (£259m). Sudanese Prime Minister Abdalla Hamdok responded by saying the funds had been transferred but there was no immediate US confirmation. Sudan has been listed since 1993 when al-Qaeda leader Osama Bin Laden lived there as a guest of the government. The compensation relates to al-Qaeda's 1998 bombing of US embassies in Africa. The attacks in Tanzania and Kenya killed more than 220 people and the compensation money is to be paid to "US terror victims and families", Mr Trump said. Where is this $335M being paid to? this is a country wracked in poverty and debt, why increase that strife Mr. Trump? For what, denying Israel? If Sudan has to pay for having Bin Laden as a guest, are you going to charge McCain family for being engaged with terrorists? or Donald Rumsfeld for meeting and shaking hands with Bin Laden in hospital?

“Politicians are going to be faced with the uncomfortable reality that you’re going to have more big business doing better, and that there’s going to be more losses of jobs along the way,” Goldman Sachs Group Inc. President John Waldron said at a conference Friday. “You are going to see a fairly sizable amount of large-cap Mergers and Acquisitions coming with stronger, healthier companies being the acquirer, and taking advantage of weaknesses in their industry or elsewhere.” Big companies outside the most hard-hit industries can tap financing at extraordinarily low rates, adopted by central banks to prop up the economy during the pandemic. “And the market is giving them the license to do M&A, encouraging more consolidation,” Waldron said. Goldman Sachs has been one of the biggest beneficiaries of this year’s turmoil, with its core Wall Street trading and deal making operations facing a surge in demand from investors, and corporations looking to reposition themselves or raise capital. At Goldman and its peers, divisions providing those services have seen revenue and profitability surge to the highest levels in years. Snake oil lenders and companies, harvest, harvest and harvest is all they know. But this confirms again what we warned of in the clowns in panic show, large corporate takeovers by the billionaires club. Everything below them will cease to exist, then comes our death knell Universal Basic Income or UBI, you be idiot is real term.

The U.S. budget deficit hit a record $3.132 trillion during fiscal 2020, more than triple the 2019 shortfall, as a result of massive coronavirus rescue spending, the U.S. Treasury said on Friday. The deficit more than doubled the previous record of $1.416 trillion in fiscal 2009, when the United States was battling a financial crisis. At the start of the 2020 fiscal year ended Sept. 30, the U.S. government had been forecast to rack up a $1 trillion deficit before corona virus lockdowns began in March. In September, the year’s final month, the U.S. budget deficit was $125 billion, compared with an $83 billion surplus in September 2019, the Treasury said. Receipts for the full fiscal year totaled $3.42 Trillion, a decrease of $43 billion or 1% from fiscal 2019. Fiscal 2020 outlays jumped $2.105 trillion from 2019 to a total of $6.55 trillion, with the increase made up almost entirely from increased healthcare and unemployment compensation costs, and the cost of small business and corporate rescue programs approved by Congress. No mention of the bail out of the Fed then? or the bail out of large end clown companies, making out they spent it on the people is a bare faced lie. But whilst the bulk of American people tolerate this crap, the theater and rape of the peoples money will go on.

Thailand: The dictator not only extended the state of emergency BUT increased it to "Severe". Things are going downhill here. His expression in a press conference was cocky, smug and says he is not resigning. That gave him the authority to try to disperse the protests using strong water canons. Protestors were out last night in heavy rain, I mean heavy, to defy the ban on gatherings but they had to change location to Siam Paragon. It hasn't stopped raining. He is threatening a curfew. The army dictator is cozying up with China. The 10th of August 2020 will be remembered as either a key date in Thailand's transition to democracy or as a precursor to yet another coup carried out by a military pledging itself to the defence of the monarchy. On that date, a representative of a group of students at a protest held at Thammasat University publicly made a unique set of demands: strip the monarch of legal immunity, revoke the lese-majeste law and pardon all those jailed for the crime, clearly define which assets are held privately by the king, reduce tax money supporting the institution, abolish all royal offices, open all money given to royal charities to public scrutiny, forbid the monarch from expressing political opinions, cut all royalist propaganda, investigate the disappearances and murders of critics of the monarchy, and outlaw royal consent to coups. In democratic countries which have monarchies, most of these demands are rather commonplace. But in Thailand, it was a singular event given the draconian lese-majeste law. At the same time, the demands were very much saying out loud what many Thais have been thinking privately for a long time.

Iran's foreign ministry has declared the victory of "multilateralism, peace and security", as the UN's conventional arms embargo effectively expired on October 18, despite Washington's pressure to reimpose sanctions. "As of today, all restrictions on the transfer of arms, related activities and financial services to and from The Islamic Republic of Iran, and all prohibitions regarding the entry or transit through territories of the United Nations Member States previously imposed on a number of Iranian citizens and military officials, are all automatically terminated," Iran's Foreign Ministry said in a statement on midnight local time, October 18. "A momentous day for the international community, which—in defiance of malign US efforts—has protected UNSC Res. 2231 and JCPOA," Foreign Minister Javad Zarif added in a tweet. A momentous day for the international community, which—in defiance of malign US efforts—has protected UNSC Res. 2231 and JCPOA. Today's normalization of Iran's defense cooperation with the world is a win for the cause of multilateralism and peace and security in our region. Cue a false flag in the Middle East and blame it on Iran, no doubt carried out by the fake country.

Right on cue just 3 days later, US national security officials have reported Iran was responsible for sending threatening emails to Democratic voters. The emails appeared to come from a far-right pro-Trump group and were meant to "incite unrest", National Intelligence Director John Ratcliffe said. Mr Ratcliffe also said US officials found Iran and Russia have obtained "some voter registration information". The announcement comes 13 days before the presidential election. Mr Ratcliffe said Iran's "spooof emails" claimed to be sent by the Proud Boys in order to "intimidate voters, incite unrest and damage" President Donald Trump. MSM has incited unrest, intimidated voters, promoted racist, sexist and divisive comments, and caused untold damage to the people all year, will US National Security cite them? Is there any collusion Russian or otherwise? absolutely because the National Security group known as 5 eyes which turned into global eyes, colludes with everyone. They are all in it together with boogeymen countries, terrorist countries and axis of evil labeled countries, when will the people realize this is all a giant hoax?

TRUMP: The Trump administration has not spent $9 billion in funding for COVID-19 testing because of opposition from Scott Atlas, an advisor on the White House coronavirus task force, The Washington Post reported. Atlas is not an infectious-disease expert they proclaim, and has emerged as an influential and controversial advisor on the task force, by promoting ideas in line with Trump's approach to the pandemic. "We're demanding that the feds release ... those dollars," Senate Minority Leader Chuck Schumer said on Sunday, urging the Trump administration to commit to a "robust testing and tracing program." Those are MSM statements but lets factcheck it shall we. "Atlas is not an infectious-disease expert" Atlas is an American neuroradiologist, professor, commentator, and health care policy advisor. He is a senior fellow at the Hoover Institution. He has also written four books on health care policy, Reforming America's Health Care System. That is declared as a non expert. Bill Gates business magnate, software developer, and philanthropist, mentions of medical expert? none. He is a computer tech wizard who can't cure viruses on his own computer system, and yet he is highly regarded and mentoring as a medical expert, infectious disease or otherwise. Testing the public has cost lots of public money, and yet tests have been found to reveal 90% are false positives. We the people find this type of information is not only bs, but also misleading the public, and goes against our community standards.

This was part of a broadcast and follow up news piece. By now, you've probably heard of QAnon, a broad, baffling conspiracy theory that centers on the idea that there exists an international cult reaching into the world of celebrity and politics that engages in child sex-trafficking. It roams widely, at times looping in theories about John F. Kennedy Jr., who supporters allege is still alive, or celebrities' need to consume a chemical extracted from human blood. All of this orbits around a mysterious figure identified as Q, who releases cryptic notes from which adherents extract their own life-sustaining meaning. It's ... a lot, so much that you're probably familiar with it in only a fairly broad sense. But, again, you're probably familiar with it to some extent and probably have an opinion on the extent to which the most powerful person in the United States should entertain it as legitimate. If your opinion is that President Trump should break with his past practice and condemn the theory as both ludicrous and dangerous — a position held by the FBI — we have some bad news. During a sharp exchange with NBC News's Savannah Guthrie during a town hall event Thursday, Trump was peppered with a number of his more inscrutable and contentious claims. One was his refusal to advocate for wearing masks to combat the corona virus pandemic, which led him to make false claims about the purported risks of wearing one. He was again pressed to reject white supremacy, prompting him to try to pivot to complaints about left-wing activists like antifa, a loose-knit group that has at times engaged in violence. Pro pagan da at it's finest, why are they holding up the FBI as the bastions of truth, when clearly they were found wanting on the Russian collusion, Hillary emails and many other discrepancies in the work. False claims of purported risks of wearing a mask, yet why is there a warning on the side of a mask box that states: This product is an ear loop mask, This product is not a respirator and will not provide any protection against Covid 19 or other viruses or contaminants. Wearing a loop mask does not reduce the risk of contracting nay disease or infection. Why haven't they banned the manufacturer for misleading information? yes I know common sense again. So there you have it, the manufacturer of mask tells you they dont work against viruses or infections. Antifa a loose knit group that has at times engaged in violence, yes like burning whole towns, shopping centers and up and down the NW coast of America, these people are not only stupid, but certifiable. Then Guthrie asked about QAnon. GUTHRIE: Let me ask you about QAnon. It is this theory that Democrats are a satanic pedophile ring and that you are the savior of that. Now, can you just once and for all state that that is completely not true and disavow QAnon in its entirety? TRUMP: I know nothing about QAnon — GUTHRIE: I just told you. TRUMP: You told me. But what you tell me doesn't necessarily make it fact, I hate to say that. I know nothing about it. I do know they are very much against pedophilia. They fight it very hard, but I know nothing about it. If you'd like me to — GUTHRIE: They believe it is a satanic cult run by the deep state. TRUMP: — study the subject. I'll tell you what I do know about: I know about antifa and I know about the radical left. And I know how violent they are and how vicious they are. And I know how they're burning down cities run by Democrats, not run by Republicans. Five years into Trump's political career, it's rare to find any of his comments terribly shocking. This response is shocking. Trump expresses ignorance about the bounds of the QAnon theory. That the president of the United States should assert that he's unfamiliar with a bizarre theory that has tens or hundreds of thousands of adherents, that has been described as dangerous by federal law enforcement and that centers on his administration suggests either that he's stunningly uninformed or simply not telling the truth. Guthrie's summary of the theory is fair and common; it's impossible to think Trump's never been presented with it before. That he then isolates a central tenet — that the group is “fighting pedophilia” — suggests that he's quite familiar with it. QAnon followers try to leverage legitimate efforts to combat human trafficking to increase the reach of their theory. They are mucking up sincere efforts centered on the issue to introduce wild accusations and increase their exposure. QAnon “fights pedophilia” in the same sense that an Instagram influencer pretending to help clean up after protests is fighting for social justice. But, as with the white supremacy question, Trump doesn't want to alienate people who support him, which QAnon adherents broadly do. His campaign has tried to walk a line between welcoming QAnon adherents and still maintaining some distance, not entirely successfully. So, once again, he says something nice about them, as he did in August. The exchange continued. GUTHRIE: Republican Senator Ben Sasse said, “QAnon is nuts, and real leaders call conspiracy theories conspiracy theories.” TRUMP: He may be right. GUTHRIE: Why not just say it's crazy and not true? TRUMP: He may be right. I just don't know about QAnon. GUTHRIE: You do know! TRUMP: I don't know. No, I don't know. I don't know. Guthrie tried to move on. Trump, angry, insisted they not. GUTHRIE: Let me ask you another thing. TRUMP: Let's waste a whole show. You start off with white supremacy, I denounce it. You start off with something else — let's go. Keep asking me these questions. GUTHRIE: OK. I do have one more in this vein. TRUMP: Let me just — let me just tell you, what I do hear about it, is they are very strongly against pedophilia. And I agree with that. I mean, I do agree with that. And I agree with it very strongly. GUTHRIE: But there is not a Satanic pedophile cult being run by— TRUMP: I have no idea. I know nothing about it. GUTHRIE: You don't know that? TRUMP: No, I don't know that. And neither do you know that. The president of the United States, asked if there is a satanic pedophile cult with roots in the U.S. government, says he “has no idea.” Further, that a journalist for a major news network can't honestly claim not to know whether this idea is legitimate. Guthrie asked Mr. Trump about his retweet this week of a conspiracy theory that Biden orchestrated the killing Seal Team 6 to cover up the fake death of Osama Bin Laden. “Why would you send a lie like that to your followers?” Guthrie asked him. “I know nothing about it,” Mr. Trump said. “You retweeted it,” Guthrie pointed out. Mr. Trump also couldn't answer whether he was tested on the day of the last debate, shortly before he tested positive for COVID-19. Mr. Trump, who has claimed to have one of the best memories, said he didn't know and couldn't remember. So having bombed in his debate with a senile Biden, Trump now fails spectacularly in pre election broadcast, are we seeing a pattern here? Not only did he come across badly, but he also deleted from the records his main voting group, the Q Anons. Message to QAnons, come and join us and you will learn a whole lot more than cryptic messages, booms in information will be real, we will not seduce you with fake dates or promises that come and go faster than the Trump cabinet members. The question is, is he stepping aside or down? perhaps next piece reveals more?

For nearly four years, congressional Republicans have ducked and dodged an unending cascade of offensive statements and norm-shattering behavior from President Trump, ignoring his caustic and scattershot Twitter feed and penchant for flouting party orthodoxy, and standing quietly by as he abandoned military allies, attacked American institutions and stirred up racist and nativist fears. The shift, less than three weeks before the election, indicates that many Republicans have concluded that Mr. Trump is heading for a loss in November. Senator Ben Sasse of Nebraska unleashed on Mr. Trump in a telephone town hall event with constituents on Wednesday, eviscerating the president's response to the coronavirus pandemic and accusing him of “flirting” with dictators and white supremacists and alienating voters so broadly that he might cause a “Republican blood bath” in the Senate. He was echoing a phrase from Senator Ted Cruz of Texas, who warned of a “Republican blood bath of Watergate proportions.” Senator Lindsey Graham of South Carolina, one of the president's most vocal allies, predicted the president could very well lose the White House. Even the normally taciturn Senator Mitch McConnell, Republican of Kentucky and the majority leader, has been more outspoken than usual in recent days about his differences with the president, rejecting his calls to "go big" on a stimulus bill.

A Regulatory Rush by Federal Agencies to Secure Trump's Legacy Facing the prospect that President Trump could lose his re-election bid, his cabinet is scrambling to enact regulatory changes affecting millions of Americans in a blitz so rushed it may leave some changes vulnerable to court challenges. The effort is evident in a broad range of federal agencies and encompasses proposals like easing limits on how many hours some truckers can spend behind the wheel, giving the government more freedom to collect biometric data and setting federal standards for when workers can be classified as independent contractors rather than employees. Still think Trump is going to win, does he want to win? is the key question given his recent performances.

The Transition Integrity Project is a US deep state action group of more than 100 current and former senior government and campaign leaders, academics, journalists, polling experts and former federal and state government officials. Using color revolution tactics, it intends to hinder Trump taking power after the 2020 election. Using projection, the Project repeatedly states that the whole planning effort is to "restrain or counter anti-democratic actions the Trump Administration", while itself planning similar "practices that depart from traditional rule of law norm". Likewise, "Media outlets, organizers and campaigns need to develop strategies to both promote accurate reporting with trusted leaders and to interrupt and limit disinformation campaigns," which is seen as only coming from the other side. The Initiative was initially convened by Rosa Brooks, a law professor at Georgetown and former Pentagon senior official, and Nils Gilman, a former vice chancellor of the University of California, Berkeley and historian at the Berggruen Institute. She is married to a former Lt. Col from the Pentagon who are also backing her. Brooks is born in and born to, just saying yet again the same dynamics come forward at such regular occurrences. David Blum, New York Times columnist and member of the Initiative, envisages "a group of sober people who are militant about America, who can see reality unblinkered by the lens of partisanship, and who are finally compelled to organize." Wanting to "spur all stakeholders to action", the scenarios began charting out what it would take "to stand up a multi-state communications arm to fight disinformation, a training program for nonviolent civil disobedience, and the underpinnings of what one official described as 'mass public unrest.'" Stake holders is an interesting term, are they calling us vampires? The scenarios concentrates on what the Democrats see as their two biggest weaknesses (but also strengths): Voting irregularities ("voter fraud"). The scenarios noticeably mentions the Trump campaign condemning fraud in the mail-in ballot process, and the Democrats need to protect this process proceeding. The scenarios also consistently envisages state Democrat officials under different pretexts select a different and pro-Biden batch of Electors to the national Electoral College. Peaceful demonstrations and escalating violence, street demonstrations and how the government reacts to them is seen as crucial. In the playing out of street violence, terms such as false flag and agent provocateur were used (by the other side), and as well understood in color revolutions methods, "the game-winning strategy was to goad the other side into violence." During 2020, the group executed a series of four crisis planning exercises ('games'). Stating that "the winner may not, and we assess likely will not, be known on "election night" as officials count mail-in ballots" the group, with apparent lack of self-irony, concludes "This period of uncertainty provides opportunities for an unscrupulous candidate to cast doubt on the legitimacy of the process and to set up an unprecedented assault on the outcome." Game One played an ambiguous vote, without a clear winner. The game envisages Trump calling into question the validity of mail-in ballots and getting Republican officers in several states to immediately halt further vote counting. On the Democrat's side, "the Biden Campaign declared that victory was imminent and called for every vote to be counted. The team mobilized a network of influential bipartisan elites, elected officials, and retired military officers to speak to the press and denounce any effort to suppress counting the vote. The Biden Campaign also called for peaceful rallies, echoing a call to count every vote." The Democrats also turned to state officials, using an incident where a batch of presumed pro-Biden votes were destroyed by "a rouge individual", leaving Trump a narrow electoral win. The governor of Michigan used this abnormality as justification to send a separate, pro-Biden set of electors to DC. Game Two: Clear Biden Victory In this scenario, Biden won outright in the Electoral College and the popular vote. "The Biden Campaign team emphasized standing up a credible transition process. The Trump Campaign sought to hinder this, but the Federal Government Team confirmed that a number of civil servants would seek to enable it regardless of directions from the White House." Game Three: Clear Trump Electoral College Win The third scenario posited a comfortable Electoral College victory for President Trump — 286-252 — but also a significant popular vote win—52% - 47%--for former Vice President Biden. The game play ended in a constitutional crisis, characterized by: "1) Political chaos; 2) Widespread threats of violence, and sporadic actual violence in the streets; and 4) A hostile, dangerous, highly-partisan, and frequently unconstrained information and media environment" (point 3 missing in document). The Biden Campaign proposes a series of - presumably immediately effective - constitutional changes, including abolishing the Electoral College, changing the Supreme Court composition by retiring judges over 70, creating new states, etc; changes which would give Biden the presidency. The game envisages the Biden Campaign encouraging "Western states, particularly California but also Oregon and Washington to secede from the Union unless Congressional Republicans agreed to these structural reforms. Game Four: Narrow Biden Win The final scenario explored a narrow Biden win where he leads with less than 1% of the popular vote the day after the election, and is predicted to win

278 electoral votes, concluding with an "uneasy and combative but ultimately successful transition." The scenarios envisages Trump being escorted out of the White House on January 20, 2021, by the Secret Service, while continuing to "launch attacks against the legitimacy of the election".

Yet again these think tank psychopaths with little regard to or for the people, playing board room simulation games to essentially be or chose the leader of a criminal network. But should the justice departments actually think of we the people for once here is something as a reminder of your own rules. Title 18 U.S. Code 2385, Whoever knowingly or willfully advocates, abets, advises, or teaches the duty, necessity, desirability, or propriety of overthrowing or destroying the government of the United States or the government of any State, Territory, District or Possession thereof, or the government of any political subdivision therein, by force or violence, or by the assassination of any officer of any such government; or Whoever, with intent to cause the overthrow or destruction of any such government, prints, publishes, edits, issues, circulates, sells, distributes, or publicly displays any written or printed matter advocating, advising, or teaching the duty, necessity, desirability, or propriety of overthrowing or destroying any government in the United States by force or violence, or attempts to do so; or Whoever organizes or helps or attempts to organize any society, group, or assembly of persons who teach, advocate, or encourage the overthrow or destruction of any such government by force or violence; or becomes or is a member of, or affiliates with, any such society, group, or assembly of persons, knowing the purposes thereof— Shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than twenty years, or both, and shall be ineligible for employment by the United States or any department or agency thereof, for the five years next following his conviction. That whole piece is how and why we have to build The Peoples Club, for and by the people.

A small legal challenge has turned into a precedent-setting case about whether someone in today's Britain can be prioritised or denied housing on the basis of their religion. The law isn't always right and it's not just people who can be taken hostage. In a disgraceful decision deemed legitimate by the UK's highest court, a single mother with four children was refused social housing – because she wasn't a Jew. It's that simple. The charity Agudas Israel Housing Association (AIHA) owns 470 houses in the London borough of Hackney. Local authorities promised, in October 2017, the next available home to the woman and her kids, two of whom are autistic. AIHA refused to hand over the keys to any of its SIX four-bedroom, unoccupied flats. Their argument was it makes offers "only to members of the Orthodox Jewish community." As Britain is a secular nation, the woman's legal team found this claim astonishing and argued it had the same sentiment as the 'No Dogs, No Blacks, No Irish' signs that were once displayed in some pubs. Lord Sales stated the charity's use of positive discrimination was lawful, under the Equality Act 2010, in order to correct the disadvantage faced by the community. The issue apparently was not racism, but discrimination on the grounds of religious observance. The court considered the “widespread and increasing overt antisemitism in our society.” Intolerance or hate speech of any form is unacceptable. But it’s hard to believe the courts and public reaction would have been the same, if this had been Islam or a group of Pashtuns from the Iranian border region. Jewish affairs are treated differently. There's a 'kid gloves' approach and they're deemed to be culturally valuable, while other communities are sometimes dismissed as interlopers. AIHA’s founder Ita Cymerman-Symons, speaking last year about the legal action, offered the view: “Which non-Jewish person honestly speaking wants to live in the midst of a building full of Haredi men with all the beards, and all the chanting on a Friday night and all the children?” Those who consider themselves in the modern day Semites, are the most racist group of people upon this planet by some distance, quit feeding their pity party tactics and wake up to what is really going on. This group is backed by, supported and used by those who have hunted down the real oppressed on this planet, the whites for thousands of years, the last show on Tuesday revealed that fact, supported by various anecdotes in From Russia with love.

Something else that has arisen and yes I will get called out again for daring to ask a question, but this has to be said and questioned based on her own words in recent shows. We are all about the truth Kim and Tank stated and I welcome that, but there are serious gaps between the narrative that rolls on week to week with little to no recourse, and debate when questions are asked, they are stifled or blocked. If they weren't, I would not have to do these pieces highlighting various discrepancies that are ongoing week after week, please don't delude yourselves that it is only the tiny man and THI members thinking this, because it is just not. I have written 5-6 pieces for shows in the past 2 months and never put one of those in the show, as more important things to cover than one group, who are playing child like games of lets see how many times we can reference myself or THI without naming them, and this is suppose to be the peoples answer to the MSM? Kim and Tank you can continue to take veiled swipes at me and our show, but we have always answered questions when safe to do so, and it is very disingenuous to talk of all inclusive, and we can agree to disagree on things, and should talk and settle differences like adults, when your own actions are 100% to the contrary. Accountability and truth never fears investigations, it is staggeringly awry with this group and that is my main concern and contention, not the personalities. If truth is your goal and target then please start answering the valid questions many people are asking, and stop rolling over it like you have something to hide, week after week. I want your show to work, but this unsecret society now has not mild concerns but a gaping chasms of concerns. If truth is the primary goal here and we can clear up some discrepancies, then Kim will not mind appearing on a Question and Answer show with me and lets see if we can clear this mess up, and then go forward with real clarity not the muddy waters it currently portrays. So there is your opportunity Kim to show the all inclusive you stated, an opportunity to be in and of the truth, and an opportunity to talk together like adults you stated around the 14-

15 minute mark, by coming on a show and being what you have stated, based solely on the narrative not the personalities involved. Kim stated in recent podcasts about certain bank transfers, firstly to the Israel bank who are under investigation and have been charged by the DOJ. Secondly the public's transfer money was yet again sent over to Morgan Chase bank in New York, who also have been investigated and charged by the DOJ for various infractions over time, including some recently. Thirdly, now Kim reveals she sent money to a Santander bank in Mexico, who she stated have been corrupt for a while and she was aware of it, and they are involved in child trafficking, and yet sent the Trust money to that said bank and now states the money is lost. Questions have to be asked here of what the hell is going on over there, Kim is the guardian of what belongs to the people, and people are entitled to ask relevant questions. 1. Why is the Trustee sending Trust funds to seemingly banks that are all under investigation for fraud, or recently charged with fraud? 2. How and why with the QS is money suddenly now being lost? It was always recoverable, what is the difference now? Are you no longer able to operate QS? 3. Who or what is running the Trustee these days? as each week now more and more bizarre narratives are being spat out to an increasingly disbelieving public. 4. Where is the accountability and why does their show repeatedly now contain excerpts out of narratives I have written not from past shows, but from future or impending shows? These are valid questions that require answering to the public they state to serve. Interesting Kim stating it needed 3 keys to get money out of the 5 star trust, described a lock and key oh my so many connotations to that, so what she is describing with the 3 keys is something I revealed to her along with the lock and key is the 1 on 1 with the 1, which I stated operated on more than one level. Kim had the three people keys required and chose to go with the one, the question remains as to why? Kim then described the sheer contempt of the underground dwellers has for the surface people, and yes she is correct. She spoke of the contempt of them discussing how they would just eliminate the surface dwellers, but this is against a backdrop of how she has wiped out the black nobility, all the top Rothschild's all the top Black Sun, all the top bankers and now all the DUMBS with millions of people in there, including 100k's of workers and slaves. Should this be true and I have reason to believe they are not, these are staggering claims that brings up several questions. 1. who was involved in the discussion to delete all those people and other beings below ground? 2. who carried out this attack? 3. why wasn't the enforcement team she claims to have not sent in to rescue the people there first? 4. Does she realize that 100k's who work down there, are oblivious to world councils, ET's below their feet and just think they are working on an underground military base to hide from the Russians, now according to her they are all gone, I am sure their loved ones and partners are going to love that statement. 5. There is vast quantities of food and supplies in those bases, both of which we may well have needed in these struggling times 6. The World Council are not all humans, this is where her lack of knowledge comes in, they can trick our brains into thinking they are human when they are not. 7. Why is she not following the new Galactic guideline of transmute people not kill people? it works and she herself has felt much benefit from that. 8. Kim and her team are resembling the continuation of the past loop covered in the 100 series, it didn't work then and will not work now. 9. Some of those beings have been here longer than us, and Kim's lack of knowledge of ET matters is not conducive to making these types of decisions for humanity or them. Kim remember sat with Marduk for years oblivious to who or what he was, that was why she went on the internet to find out more details of people who knew and eventually found me and Shane. A quote from Kim in 2018 to me "If I had listened to your show in 2009-2012 I would have thought you were nuts talking about all these ET's. And now she is in a position that decides who lives and who dies with no learned knowledge, only partially remembered soundbites from me, in part Shane and also Chloe, Chloe knew a vast amount more of the ET narrative than Kim ever has. These are fairly serious oversights going on here and is not something I would have ever gone along with. Some people do not like or want to hear narrative in our shows, it is too deep into the core of truth is why. It is all about the balance, something not observed this past 6 months it seems, and maybe that is the real reason why I was shunted out through no fault of my own. Because much of my solutions, narratives and ideals are based not on emotional thinking, but overview thinking, this tends to lead to far less mistakes. This is serious stuff and goes way beyond just wiping people out, and some serious discourse needs to be done here before both sides turn this planet into dust. Real leaders do not discount or disregard good people without cost to themselves, something largely overlooked I feel. Unless Kim gets her act together with the proper balanced knowledgeable people for each task, not lackeys and yes people, instead of this Marvel style NEO character, we will all end up like those in the 100 series, and for her the line in the show will be, your fight is over.

As the world runs into chaos and the people divide grows wider these are exceptional and dangerous times for us all. Forget elections, forget mass arrests, forget Comey, Mueller, Page, Bannon etc, forget Russian collusion, Ukrainian collusion, Chinese collusion, it is all distraction and lets focus. Forget Trump and his band of is ra elites coming to save you, save you from what? new boss same as the old boss? Forget Q and its cryptic code messages, there are people suffering and dying and what are they doing about it? What difference does it makes if they arrest 1K to 100K of government and agency based criminals, if 100's of thousands of people die due to poverty, violence and fear created by the portal people? Forget the Trustee and her promises of funds, favors, bio machines, student loans removed, deleting this that and the other group, she tells us the problem is the banks and yet sends our Trust money to the very same banks? the problem isn't the banks per se, it is the inability to listen. Forget the others promoting RV's, GCR, Nesara, Gesara, St. Germaine, Hildalgo, Heritage, D'Avila Trusts, Birth certificate funds. Forget the militias, White Hats, Anonymous groups, 144K groups coming to save you, they aren't. Forget 2 weeks Drake, tomorrow ad nauseum from Tank and cohorts and Kim's this coming Monday or Tuesday events, none of them have ever happened. Forget mass arrests started by David Wilcock in 2002 we have waited 18 years and that failed as well. They arrested Jeffrey Epstein and what happened next? nothing! Forget insert name of ET group coming to save their alleged brother and sisters, they didn't. Forget the new age all flowery and love and light bs, forget the spiritualist groups bs of enlightenment, forget the kumbaya singing of peace and love as well, the whole lot of it is pure distraction tactics. If that wasn't the truth, this world would be all so much better now, it is not and that is the pure facts and truth. Lets focus on what is real and really happening here, the loss of our jobs, the loss of our incomes, the loss of our ability to travel, the loss of social engagement, the loss of children going to school, the loss of touching each other, the loss of frequency combining, the loss of friends, family and neighbors, the loss of free speech and the loss of our freedom. They have increased the range and availability to spy upon us. They are sending out the control system puppets called the police, to deliberately harass, intimidate, arrest us and in some cases kill us. They have increased the availability of technology solely designed to harm, harvest and control us. They have drastically reduced our food supply, whilst increasing the prices of it. They have escalated poverty ten fold on all countries and peoples. They have increased our taxes whilst decreasing it for the rich, it was said with taxes that the only thing left they haven't taxed yet is breathing, well they have now, it is called the mask, and that is now taxing our ability to breathe and live. They have harvested all of our businesses, jobs, patents and lifestyles, whilst enriching their wealth by near $40T in under 6 months. They are enacting Draconian laws upon us, blatant fascism, dictatorships and their 4th Reich in America as they warned us of. They have turned the people against each other, turned ignorant people into thinking they are medical experts. Turned the medical experts who speak the truth into pariahs and conspiracy theorists. These are the real things to focus on. They wheeled out the manufactured protest groups and riots with BLM, Antifa and other agitators that have destroyed some of our communities, and what did the authorities do to stop it? nothing, did the media cover it in any detail or condemn it? no. Towns, villages, monuments all destroyed to show the watchers how evil and juvenile we all are, look the stupid humans are burning their homes and businesses again. The authorities have spent the money amongst themselves and left the public money short. Bought us off with a $1200 inconvenience check, of which most people never received, due to IRS failures then the postal service, or banking issues or so we were told. It is funny the postal service never failed to deliver ballots to vote for two people the public never asked for isn't it? $1200 pay off to shut up and tolerate outright fascism, 30.5 weeks of lockdown for $1200 which equates to $39 a week for those fortunate enough to receive it. $39 fucking dollars a week to tolerate fascism, that is the real focus, not bogus bloody emails, corrupt DOJ, agencies or congress, fake mass arrests. Focus on what is real and happening to us, not criminals within our midst, because unless bold actions are taken soon we will all be in camps or body bags with them criminals anyway. The clowns and their so called self entitlement program are running a harvesting program, a giant Milgram experiment on us, MK Ultra on us, that is stripping us of everything before our eyes, whilst some play our show is better than yours. The portal people globally are spreading hatred, division and more importantly fear, turning this planet into a giant adrenochrome center. So, they corralled us into our homes that is 8 times more toxic than outside according to the EPA, they then push you towards the internet for their pro pagan da purposes, until the people start seeing through the illusion of all their banal shit. They started to lose the narrative and they know how damaging that is, as all their programs and programming begins to break down, so what happens next? YT, Twitter, Instagram, Go ogle and the fascist Hebrew Annunaki ran Facebook, decide to take their ball away, and ban posts that goes against community standards. Do they reveal what those standards are? who are the community? no, in their game there are no rules, do as we say, even though we never told you what you can say or do, or we erase your pages, blogs, comments or videos, all very Talmudic that is it not? Seven months on since this virus of magic abilities that can tell the time, measure distances, know the dates, that eliminates flu, heart disease, cancer and many other illnesses. It also carries an immunity for certain people, like politicians, like the police, like the national guard, like the news readers and presumably the military, how many people stuck in their Hunger Game districts, all 13 of them, 13 districts 13 colonies 13 states 13 tribes of is ra el, 13 zodiacs and yes it is connected, have they asked why those people are immune from not only wearing masks, but from this magic virus. Do you really believe the politicians or so called stars have gotten Covid? look at Trump and his three day stage play of I am Jesus Christ returning from the dead virus, do you really believe that theater? He went to Bathesda hospital which just happens to be a pool in Jerusalem, where Jesus miraculously healed a paralysed man we are told. The pool is stated to be possibly a mikveh pool, which is a ritual pool for the purpose of ritual immersion in Judaism to achieve ritual purity, day of atonement for Trump? The word Bathesda means house of mercy, makes a change from House of Israel I suppose, and to complete the biblical based prophecy, Bathesda is housed in the land of Mary, or the modern day term Maryland. Forget Biden he is but a mere puppets amongst puppets, the real Punch and Judy puppet theater show is Trump and Pelosi. That 13 point piece I did in a recent show and posted on mewe chat is unfolding before your eyes, and Trump like the Trustee at this point appears impotent, not important, but impotent. The common theme is ego, presenting yourself as the savior program always ends in tears, whether at the top end of the scale or lower down amongst the masses, and when it goes wrong and it always does, their heads in olden times ended up on the chopping block, nowadays it ensures social media ridicule and abuse. Alt media is no different, egos running rampant, people playing opportunistic games to elevate their own status despite not being able to do the job of the person they are replacing, all divide and conquer tactics that the so called powers that be lap up and laugh hysterically in their secret boardrooms. Cassandra stated this, is she wrong? My very letter to this man called The Ruiner will be a representation of the fact that you all cannot see truth when it is in front of you, and you will always choose the more comfortable free ride provided by, leaders who are willing to be responsible for you. Before April things were going really well and we had the powers that were on the wrack, they were being strangled along with their old systems and ways, since then it has all gone to hell in a hand basket. Who or what has made that difference? why was that difference allowed to happen? who facilitated it? I am sorry Kim but you have to take a fair chunk of the responsibility for this mess, your the one who held or holds all the power, your the one who holds all the life force energy known as the Trust, and subsequently your the one who holds the purse strings. Your the one who based on what you told Alan James, who has given out $33.5T almost none of which has helped the people, and some accountability to we the people is required here. The focus is not one small group either yours or THI, but the bigger picture here that is unfolding, that on current inputs seems to be largely overlooked in favor of status. But that status like the people's is being eroded before our eyes, and what are you doing about it? infighting within your own group on an unprecedented scale and trying to cover it all up to save face, really? save face? all our faces are being stripped faster than a Hillary Clinton Huma Abedin video. Look around you a disaster is unfolding, on an unprecedented scale whilst your playing hide and seek with the truth, that is protecting the self only, and subsequently service to self and not others. From that standpoint we the people have always failed, the inability to share and care, the ability to play musical chairs with roles too few are capable of honoring, the ability to let ego get in the way of a valid movement or community, the inability to listen out for and protect the few people brave enough to speak the truth, the inability to coalesce into a cohesive unit to fight for the collective, the innate ability to try to destroy those few who do have your best interests at heart. And for what? your own status or perception of it? Tens of people on this planet running around stating they are the reincarnation of Jesus and Mary, and what are they doing about it? one is selling sunshine in a desert region whilst chasing the currency revaluation called the RV, really? these people are taking the piss with their ego based status's, because not one is operating as the archetype of that role, not one. And therein lies the problem, listen to what Cassandra the Parent told us all, can we as a collective really question what she said? A few may act or feel differently but the focus remains on the majority, not the few lonely villages questioning and dreaming. The energy you possess is squandered, neglected, abused. For a hundred years we have fed you your entertainment and you have devoured our offering, supporting the lies your told, ignoring the nuggets or people of truth. Not once giving us any indication you wish things to be any different. Speak up if you have something to say we are listening but we will not allow you to waste such a resource as yourselves. You can not be allowed to destroy the planet like your creators designed you to. Some deep soul searching is required by us all, and I mean all, where are we going here? what are we really trying to achieve? am I or are we giving our all or best shot? what are we saving? is it worth saving? are we adults or are we children? The very first THI show I stated two things, I would tell you what you need to hear, not what you want to hear. Secondly I said this show and it's listeners must Think and act different. THI has by and large thought and acted different, which is why we are attacked so much. We created a movement of people from varying backgrounds, diverse cultures and countries, differing religions and colors. We came up with innovative solutions to a range of topics, ranging from finance, food, health, law, teaching, building, governance, business, homes, villages and many others with a vision of all people are equal. We created groups in the various states of America, groups in other countries, encouraged all people to have a say, all people to speak up, all people to bring forward their ideas, all people to be leaders. We created E books for people to learn some true history. We got people off long term meds, pharma drugs, recreational drugs, alcohol, out of cults, out of religious dogma, out of witchcraft covens, out of fake spiritual groups, out of their programs and programming. We helped people with their paranormal issues, including abductions, astral rapes, visitations, bizarre experiences and much more the general society considers not normal. We helped people with their own emotional trauma, those who have been in the programs, we helped the monarch agents and we helped and supported the Trustee, the Eve and the Earth Ambassador. We helped people address their shadow and inner work. We gave people a far greater understanding of what is life, love, being human, who and what is the control system, the roles of the puppets and who they are, and a history knowledge base that once fully distributed will change all the people of this planet. We brought the truth, we brought balance and we pointed fingers as much at us, as the clowns, elites and the cabal. We brought people together, showed them how to learn again, of how to work together as a unit, not as individuals. We taught people to be less angry, violent, antagonistic, revengeful and hateful. We taught people to care more, share more, love more, support more. We taught people to THInk more. We taught people empowerment and how to step into their own sovereignty. We taught people how to protect themselves from attacks, repair your PSI fields, protect your energies. We fixed peoples health conditions and removed entity attachments. We unblocked peoples throat chakras. We promoted other groups, peoples and their ideas. We taught people soul development and removed several out of the Astral level and onto the mental planes. We came up with a plethora of all inclusive solutions of how to fix this world and it's people. We gave people their own power back, their life back, their purpose back and themselves back. I did all that in 4.25 years of working for the Trust and 4.5 years of running the Peoples club for no pay, did I complain of that? nope I didn't do it for a return, financial or otherwise I did it for we the people, and so did many others. I and we did all that in THI and no one can take that away from us. But what did we and I did get in return, has all been laid to bare. People like the Bubbas, Cosmic Voice crew, Drake, Marilee Neitain, Chloe Kirker, Shane Bales, Randy Maugans, Lily Earthling, Jimi Brent, Alan James and his crew whose names are not fully determined yet, Steffen Rowe better known as Tank and his Mottley crew, Ava Cowan and lastly the Trustee herself Kim Goguen trashing it and us, based not on truth but lies, is that how humanity is going to survive or thrive? well is it? If you don't like your name on that list, my question is what are you doing about it? what are you doing to fix or correct it? have you looked within yourself as to why you would attack a group and person who built and did, all of that for and by the people? well have you? We built for the first time in history a whole community and support structure that is solely based on for and by the people, and the above mentioned names chose to divide and conquer it, due to insecurity, over inflated egos and the sense of the self and not the all. How has that worked out for you all? how is dividing and conquering we the people for your own personal ends going to fix or save this planet or it's people? How having done all of the above, many good things, that has improved the lives of so many people around the world, is it ok to trash that person and the group? Why would you do that to the very few who are willing to stand up and risk their lives for the benefit of the all? The answers as always are within, they always where, you may see me and THI as the boogeyman in the mirror, but that is the illusion game you have played with yourselves your whole lives. I am open to constructive criticism the same as anyone else, providing it has a basis of truth or reality, and yet these same people who accuse me and us, won't meet us face to face or call to call? why is that? Am I that scary? the tiny scary man woo, or is it just because their claims are not based in reality? and can't face the truth? Do I get all things or situations right? absolutely not, yet why I am held to such high levels of accountability that is not exhibited to, for or by any others? That is the question, but you are the answer. Illusion or reality, lies or truth, together or divided, thriving or conquered, organic or cybernetic, mental planes or astral, higher vibration or low vibration, balance or ego, side by side or hierarchy, harvesting ideas or sharing them, creativity or destruction, evolution or devolution, life or death, chaos or order, sanity or unsanity, duality or triality, one on one with the one or 1-0-0, which is exactly what is in the opening of The 100 series is it not, 2 zeroes crashing together, symbology is and was their downfall, real source or fake gods and goddesses, one NEO or millions of NEO's.

I don't care if you don't like me, it drives me onto greater heights and so is actually beneficial to me, but not yourselves. Me wounded Jenefer? you look in the wrong direction, because pictures can tell a thousand words. Look at what my vision brought forward and the THI listeners and members delivered on a daily basis, vast improvements and yet you people think I and we are in some way bad, evil or the devil incarnate? Have you ever seen any dark being create that much good and beneficial for we the people before? well have you? as you all know we welcome ideas here, so please enlighten us as to when and how a so called dark being, did what we have done with THI? Lets get real here, you may trash us all you like, yet funny enough you find it worthy enough to take all our ideas, proposals and solutions for your own ends? take a bow Alan James and Tank, and to a degree Kim as well. The reality is I am the just the mirror of your own internal failures and your subsequent external projections, you may all think and believe it is me, but the answer you already know is yourselves, I have become the convenient battering ram and target for your own shortcomings. You can carry on deluding yourselves and contribute to we the peoples downfall, or show some gumption and fix you and it. Humanity is in an almighty mess and no amount of delusion or new age rhetoric will change that fact, we have to act now and fast, we have common goals and yet some want to use it to enhance and promote the self, it has never worked in the past and will never work in the future. Dividing and conquering is operating for and by the cabal, not we the people no matter how much you kid yourselves otherwise. My door remains open, for you all to walk through again and join a group of hope, passion, drive, togetherness and community spirit rarely seen anywhere outside of this group. Your past I am less interested in, only your ability to correct wrongs within you and towards us, your future and forward path determines your development, not mine or ours. Humanity is in a mess and at a crossroads, that requires focus not on and of the self, but amongst us all. We will never achieve anything divided, a look back in history tells you that, billions killed following a psychotic plan of controlling psychopaths and gods has got us nowhere. Why did that happen? because we never built an alternative until now, of for and by the people, that is our past legacy of disunity and non harmonic, and some people want to replicate that again? to just look important? Wrong thinking you do important work not look important. Are we creating shared clockwise lifeforce or allowing them to take our life by force? It all comes down to choices in life, and those named above have some serious considerations to do in and of themselves, are we acting in the right way and are we working for humanity or ourselves only. What is your choice? carry on dividing and contributing towards the end of humanity as we know it? or grow a set and work with us for a brighter future for us all.
