Wishing you all a happy Thanksgiving we are all still here and most of us are enjoying a meal and much beer, but ask all to spare a thought for the billions that don't today, and be grateful and thankful you are not one of them. Perspective is often lost and this show always bring perspective back into line, as the world and its people faces the dire actions due to the stupidity of a few. But that stupidity of the elites has been passed onto the masses, their army of compliant bots despite the overwhelming evidence to the contrary. Special thanks to NB today you know who you are, thank you so much. I also want to say a thank you to all those who contribute to me and also the TPC, rest assured our funds goes to the right causes. The desire, want, need for a TPC Island increases by the day it seems. Away from the seething masses of stupidity, whose inability to think for themselves has become a genetic default. They breed other non thinkers and the compliant masses spreads like a virus. Non thinkers are the Covid virus. Here's to the crazy ones, the misfits, the rebels, the troublemakers, the round pegs in the square holes... the ones who see things differently -- they're not fond of rules... You can quote them, disagree with them, glorify or vilify them, but the only thing you can't do is ignore them because they change things... they push the human race forward, and while some may see them as the crazy ones, we see genius, because the ones who are crazy enough to think that they can change the world, are the ones who do. As Tucker Carlson reveals himself a worthy advisory and worthy replacement to a famous alt media flip flopper this past week, as his ratings fall fast against all other leading newsreaders. As the Trump favorite news channel OAN does a full hit piece exposing Q and QAnon as fake this week. With Sean Spicer and Sarah Huckabee declaring the movement fake, the questions remain as to why Trump was buying into it, doing Q air signs, and why the change now? As 12 million Americans face loss of unemployment benefits the day after Christmas, these are concerning times. The number of Americans applying for unemployment benefits rose last week to 778,000, The Labor Department's report Wednesday said jobless claims climbed from 748,000 the week before. Over 1.5M extra jobless in just the past two weeks and people still accept this shit? Go back to work en masse they cannot arrest us all, cops and other enforcement stand down, just following orders is NOT an excuse, they did that in the 1940's remember, it never turned out too well for we the people. How long are parents going to continue masking their children causing great harm to them, even to the point of risking their lives? Dr. Eric Nepute in St. Louis took time to record a video rant that he wants everyone to share, after the 4-year-old child of one of his patients almost died from a bacterial lung infection caused by prolonged mask use. 6 protesters shot with live rounds in Bangkok, but police deny the claims, sadly one died. For mass murder of the elderly, shut down of businesses, treating people like cattle, overseeing over 1/2M people leave the area, running Stazi style police forces, can get you a lot it seems in their world these days. Governor Andrew M. Cuomo of New York will receive this year's International Emmy Founders Award, in recognition of his leadership during the Covid-19 pandemic and his masterful use of television to inform and calm people around the world. The Emmy will be presented to Governor Cuomo during the Academy's live, on November 23. An award for mass murder of the elderly in care homes!! utter psychopaths. Calling for a boycott of Emmy awards, emmy awards is a platform for awarding adrenochrome participants for complying with psychopaths, and keeping the illusion they are more important than the rest of us. In essence they are the peanut gallery in the main city of the Hunger Games series. Vacuous cretins way out of touch with reality, living fake lives, with fake fame, fake tits, lips, arses, names and ages, most of them at the expense of young children. I guess the leader of the rebellion didn't get round to arresting Cuomo after all, awful lot of major predictions all failed now over there, I heard today they copied material from our show on Tuesday predictably with no reference, is suggestive of a rivalry between shows which is child like, we will never solve problems acting like children, and some people think I am the problem. I am glad the info is being put out, and it re-affirms we lead and they copy, paste and follow us, lets just keep leading on our adult based path. Not content with funding coming from the Trust in March that funded the Fed and they launched their lockdown program of closing businesses and mask mandates, on the back of that money. Today I hear the Trustee has gone one step further and gave Trump $500B of our money and then Trump immediately announces the vaccine program will start next week, to those that jumped ship, do you still think I am the problem? Some deep clear and transparent explanations are required by the Trustee, not mind control TV channels. If this is confirmed it is a massive sell out of we the people.

NEWS Thousands of Israelis braved cool, wet weather Saturday night to extend months of demonstrations demanding the resignation of Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu. Several thousand people gathered outside Netanyahu's official residence in Jerusalem, the focal point of most of the demonstrations. A similarly sized crowd protested outside Netanyahu's private home in the upscale coastal town of Caesaria. Smaller gatherings took place at junctions and overpasses across Israel. The protests, now in their sixth month, appeared to be smaller than in recent weeks. Grassroots organizers could face a challenge getting out large crowds as winter arrives. Parts of Israel experienced heavy rain Saturday. Protesters say Netanyahu should resign while he is on trial for corruption charges and accuse him of mishandling the country's corona virus crisis. The crisis has hit the economy hard and sent unemployment skyrocketing, many of the protesters are young people who have lost their jobs. That is great to hear and I support all the Jewish people fighting back against the Hebrew Annunaki operating as Jews, that has done much to destroy this planet and it's people.

Iranian military officials claim the country has bolstered its navy with the introduction of a new warship capable of carrying aircraft, drones, helicopters, and missiles, according to a statement issued on Thursday. The 150-meter Shahid Roudaki vessel is "ready to carry out missions," Iran's Islamic Revolutionary Guard Corps (IRGC) said in a statement on its website. The IRGC's existing fleet mainly comprises small vessels off the Iranian coast and near the Strait of Hormuz, a strategic choke point on a major international oil and gas shipping route. The announcement of the new addition to the fleet comes days after Tehran warned Washington that it would be met with a "crushing" response, following reports that US President Donald Trump had considered strikes to take out Iranian nuclear sites. "Any action against the Iranian nation would certainly face a crushing response," said Iranian government spokesperson Ali Rabiei. A New York Times article had suggested that US officials, including Vice President Mike Pence, had to talk Trump down from military action, which could have included targeting Iran's primary uranium-enrichment facility, Natanz. Tehran has begun uranium enrichment at an underground plant at the site, according to a recent report by the International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA). This is a dangerous situation in Iran, Israel wants to attack it and continue their caliphate from Egypt to India, along with the Saudi peninsula, it is the old version of Empire expansion again, that will increase the perpetual wars that have ravaged this planet for centuries. Whilst the world is distracted those of the Hebrew Annunaki clan and their traitorous puppets like Pompeo, on a middle east tour of ass licking for the benefit not of America, but the fake Hebrew Annunaki empire, continue to garner allies for support and approval of Israel using trade deals to buy them off, or issue sanctions against the said country. The seedy world of foreign policy is littered with blackmail, deceit and high level criminality, and Pompeo needs reigning in and told you are paid to look after this country, not Israel.

A new report by the European Court of Auditors has found that the EU's antitrust investigations are too slow and the fines too ineffective to curb the actions of large tech companies, such as Google and Facebook. The EU watchdog released an assessment of the antitrust probe process, stating "although the Commission has taken a number of case decisions tackling challenges resulting from the digital economy, significant challenges remain to be resolved." While EU antitrust investigations addressed competition concerns, they were criticized in the report for failing to adapt quickly enough to the changes in digital markets, which meant that tech giants were able to escape from necessary scrutiny – and eliminate potential competitors. Criticism was also leveled at the Commission for conducting "generally lengthy" antitrust investigations that were only launched "after a competition problem has arisen." The report found it took an average of four years for a decision to be made in such inquiries. Due to the delays incurred, the effectiveness of the decisions taken by the EU was believed to be negatively impacted. The report also noted that "since parties often appeal before the EU courts, this can add significant delays to a Commission decision in taking effect." Even where an investigation was finished and had identified a particular breach, the European Court of Auditors raised concerns about the level of fines imposed, as "effective enforcement requires deterrent fines." Despite the fines being some of the largest in the world, critics have claimed the figures involved are more than affordable for wealthy tech companies. The great question on American lips is why are Congress and the Supreme Court allowing these truth deniers to block our First Amendment rights with impunity?

The number of foreigners registering at U.S. universities to get work permits is falling quickly, likely opening up many Fortune 500 jobs for American graduates. The good news means that "30,000 additional slots have just opened up for Americans, maybe as many as 60,000," said Kevin Lynn, the director of U.S. Tech Workers, a group that champions the workplace interests of American professionals. The news for U.S. graduates was revealed by a survey of 700 colleges which reported mid-November that "New international student enrollment in the United States and online outside the United States has decreased by 43 percent in Fall 2020 ... [and] new enrollment of international students physically in the United States declined by 72 percent." The report was posted by the International Education Exchange, a government-backed group that tracks the inflow of foreign students into U.S. universities. The decline in new foreign students suggests that many fewer foreign graduates will get work permits via two work permit programs, dubbed the Optional Practical Training (OPT) and Curricular Practical Training (CPT) program. A 2021 drop-off will cause a modest drop-off in foreign graduate workers starting in mid-2021 but quickly accelerating major reductions in 2022 and 2023. The Department of Homeland Security releases little about the cheap labor, fraud-prone programs, which allow foreign managers in elite U.S. companies to hire fellow nationals without any concerns about federal anti-discrimination law. In 2019, for example, 535,000 foreigners had one-year or two-year work permits from the OPT and CPT programs — despite the huge number of American graduates who cannot get jobs that match their college degrees. The foreign graduates will take the no-pay or low-pay CPT and OPT jobs, Lynn said, because "it's not just a job — it's a pathway to U.S. citizenship." The 535,000 foreign workers are a huge population compared to the roughly 800,000 Americans who graduate each year with high-tech degrees in business, healthcare, engineering, science, software, architecture, or math. America for too long as acquired foreign people and brain drained it, which then allows them to brain drain their populace and produce low level graduates, because the cheaper foreign graduates were better suited for the plan. With foreign more intelligent people now shunning this country, this country will finally after near 90 years, will have to actually teach it's own populace again properly, or sink badly on an economic or political level. One thing this will do is stifle the CIA program of foreign recruitment, to then be sent back to their countries as mind controlled spies, mercenaries or government overthrow people.

Independent journalist Glenn Greenwald torched accusations that he endangered reporters by saying NBC News spouts CIA propaganda, saying he only spoke of a well-known fact, and the effort to shame him was "manipulative bullst." "Profoundly sorry for endangering the lives of NBC executives and TV personalities by spilling the extremely well-kept secret of their close working relationship with the CIA," Greenwald tweeted sarcastically on Saturday. His message showed a picture of a headline about NBC's 2018 hiring of ex-CIA chief John Brennan as an NBC and MSNBC contributor. Nice to hear other people stating the facts and the obvious, that we at THI knew a long time back.

Jonathan Munro, the BBC's head of newsgathering, claimed there are too many privileged white men in senior positions at the company - prompting others to point out the fact that he himself is one. The BBC's latest director-general, Tim Davie, has vowed to make the company 50 percent female, 20 percent BAME (Black, Asian, Minority Ethnic), and 12 percent disabled. Munro was mocked for his comments due to the fact that he is a white man in a senior BBC position himself. "Does this mean you're resigning? Didn't think so," British columnist Toby Young reacted, while the Times' Andrew Ellson wrote, "Presumably these comments by Mr Munro are a precursor to him resigning his £180k-a-year position in favour of an ethnic minority candidate..?" What Mr. Munro and others fail to point out is, the prominent color within the BBC is white, for two reasons 1. the country is predominantly white and 2. the higher level of white is over assessed because of the Jewish element, which are by far the most popular element within the higher reaches of the BBC, have declared themselves as white, they are not, they are gray. Take out the figures for the Jewish element and you will get a fairer and clear picture.

BORIS JOHNSON is facing a fresh Tory rebellion after 70 MPs backed a letter sent to the Prime Minister advising they would not support further lockdown restrictions. During a vote on the current four-week system earlier this month, 32 Conservatives rebelled to oppose the measures and 17 more, including former prime minister Theresa May, abstained. Now it seems Boris Johnson may have another internal crisis on his hands after a letter on behalf of 70 Tory MPs, indicated they would not support the rollout of new corona virus lockdown restrictions, the Prime Minister is expected to unveil tomorrow.

COVID RELATED NEWS: Former Health Secretary Jeremy Hunt wants Brits to take a monthly coronavirus test, with a negative result earning them "freedom passes", His idea angered some commenters, who called it "Orwellian." Writing in The Times on Friday, Hunt described an effective vaccine as Britain's best shot at returning to normal life. That is the seducement we only go back to normal when we all get the vaccine, but Klaus Schwab told us it would never go back to normal, did he not? However, the Conservative MP said that the country needs a "plan B" in the form of monthly tests for the whole population, with the freedom to live a normal life awarded only to those who show negative results. The coming civil war between the people they wanted, problem, reaction, solution time again. Hunt suggested "offering people who comply with testing and isolation requirements a 'freedom pass' that removes the requirement to follow lockdown regulations." Slovakia rolled out a similar system less than a month earlier, with those testing negative earning a certificate exempting them from curfew. Though Hunt described the passes as an incentive to boost the uptake in testing, normal life would be quite impossible without one. In his own words, these passes should be required by people who want "to go out, shop and go to work." The idea didn't go down well on Twitter, with commenters accusing the Surrey MP of using "Orwellian doublespeak" to promote "fascism." "It's not a 'freedom pass,'" one wrote, "it's an 'enslavement pass.'" Mr. Hunt with a silent C needs to shut up and quickly, he is a fascist jackass following a program, he doesn't understand, doesn't get or where it is leading to, next time you speak Mr. Hunt be careful to mask out the strings that operate you, the puppet.

A proposal by an outspoken congressional Democrat to pay Americans to stay home in order to get the coronavirus under control got Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez into Twitter fights with two prominent female Republicans. "To get the virus under control, we need to pay people to stay home," tweeted Ocasio-Cortez, also known by her initials AOC, on Thursday. "Are you suggesting you want to pay people to stay home from the money you take by defunding the police?" replied Nikki Haley, former Republican governor of South Carolina and the Trump administration's first US envoy to the UN. "Or was that for the student debts you wanted to pay off, the Green New Deal or Medicare for All?" Haley added, referring to AOC's other proposals. AOC the gift that keeps giving, stealing our ideas for student loan debt pay off and new banking system, does she have a mind of her own? the barmaid like Mr. Hunt previously needs to shut up as well.

As we edge ever closer to a Covid vaccine, the arguments for making it mandatory grow ever louder. This is wrong. I will be first in the queue to get it, but forcing people to do so breaches their human rights. The good news is that it looks as if we will soon be able to access a safe and effective vaccine to protect us from the coronavirus. The bad news is that there are plans afoot to criminalise views that oppose this vaccine. And even worse, there is a lot of chatter percolating from official sources that suggests that some want to make vaccination mandatory. YouGov has just published a truly terrifying poll that asked, "Once a coronavirus vaccine is available, would you support or oppose the government making it legally compulsory for all people in Britain to be vaccinated?" Alarmingly, 49 percent of those who were surveyed said they would support such a move. Bot people or covidiot. Only 34 percent of those polled by YouGov stated that they opposed legally compelling people to be vaccinated. And that is worrying news. Of course, polls only indicate part of the story, they represent off-the-cuff reactions to a question. Yet, the very fact that compulsory vaccination has become a focus for polling, indicates that it has become an issue in society. Compulsory vaccination represents a serious attack on people's rights, to make decisions about matters that directly affect their body. It violates the principle of bodily integrity, which is the right of each human being to exercise self-determination over their own body. The freedom to make a choice about whether or not to accept a health intervention in your body is a fundamental one. In a democratic society, people cannot be forced to be vaccinated without losing their right to be free citizens. Historically, such coercive acts in the name of health, have been promoted by eugenics-inspired governments like Sweden or by totalitarian states like Nazi Germany. I am 100 percent in favour of receiving the first vaccine against Covid that I can lay my hands on. On balance, despite the great speed with which these vaccines have been innovated, I am convinced that the risk of infection is far, far outweighed by its possible side effects. I am also 100 percent against making the vaccination compulsory. I was disturbed when I heard that Secretary of State for Health Matt Hancock refused to rule out mandatory vaccination. It should be made available to all those stupid enough to take it, should it have adverse affects it is their own fault. I have zero sympathy now with these fascist compliant bot people running and ruling over our lives, with their shame tactics, bad mouthing and snaring looks at us, bollox to them people. They offer us nothing except misery and death, because they can't be bothered doing some basic research, give them the most virulent injections and leave the rest of us alone.

There is growing evidence that as states in the U.S. try to order more people to obey their edicts as the U.S. also heads towards a second lockdown, that law enforcement simply is going to refuse to enforce these orders this time around. In New York, Governor Andrew Cuomo got upset this week, because many of the State's Sheriffs have come out and assured the public that they are not going to enforce his order, that no more than 10 people can attend a Thanksgiving dinner. New Mexico Governor Michelle Lujan Grisham, who has made a similar order for her state, came out in public and even admitted that her order, or anybody else's order limiting people attending Thanksgiving dinners, is not enforceable. In Oregon, the Marion County Sheriff's Office has also publicly stated that, they will not enforce Governor Kate Brown's orders after she publicly told citizens to call the police on people, who were not adhering to her COVID decrees. Just after Newsom ordered the curfew, Breitbart News reported that every single Sheriff in Southern California has publicly stated that they will NOT enforce Newsom's curfew. Fox News interviewed Sacramento County's (California State Capital) Sheriff Scott Jones who stated that he also was not going to enforce the Governor's curfew order, nor any other COVID order. The American public appears to be sufficiently uneducated enough today to not even understand what a "law" is anymore. A new law is made when someone in the legislature proposes a "bill" which then must pass both houses of the legislature, which is the government body tasked with making "laws," and then signed into law by the executive branch, either the Governor at the state level, or the President at the national level. The executive branch can issue "orders," but the issuance of an "order" does not automatically make it either "legal," or "enforceable." Not even during a "pandemic." Since these COVID "orders" by Governors are supposedly in the name of "emergency health orders" related to COVID, it appears that most of the country's law enforcement agencies are waking up to the fact that, these Governors just mostly want more control, especially when they themselves do not even follow their own orders, and these orders actually have little or nothing to do with "health," and are therefore refusing to enforce them. Great stuff and hope the common law people get with and support the cops in their stance, now is not the time for division. You want evidence they don't follow their own rules? here it is.

The San Francisco Chronicle recently reported that Democrat California Governor Gavin Newsom and his wife attended a birthday party with 'at least a dozen people' from several different households for his advisor Jason Kinney. Newsom attended a dinner party at The French Laundry, a restaurant in Napa Valley that charges $800 per person for their tasting menu while he tells Californians they can't gather with their families for Thanksgiving. Photos of Newsom's swanky dinner party was leaked to Fox LA. No one at the dinner party was social distancing and nobody was wearing masks. Last Wednesday it was revealed that California Medical Association officials were among the maskless guests who joined Newsom at The French Laundry. And now they're laughing at the peasants for being outraged. According to reporter Adam Housley, there was 22 people in attendance with Newsom, not 12 as previously claimed. The dinner cost about $15,000 and some of those who attended the dinner are now privately laughing at the controversy. "Because Yountville is my hometown..and where the French Laundry is located...I thought I'd do some digging. Facts about the Newsom dinner. The bar bill was around 15-thousand. 22 people in attendance, not 12. No masks. All indoors. They got so loud, other patrons complained," Housley said. "There was "zero effort" to go outside and there was no social distancing of any type. I'm also told some of those there are now privately laughing at the controversy. Remember this is my little hometown. The walls speak," he added. At which point do the public not realize all politicians are taking the piss out of us. I said months ago are politicians immune? cops immune? the press and media immune? as not one of them have observed social distancing, lockdowns or masks. It is all about pushing the people into what we will tolerate, our toleration bar needs to be pushed the other direction.

ADVANCED WARNINGS SECTION: An estimated 11 to 13 million renter households are at risk of eviction, according to Stout, an investment bank and global advisory firm. It predicts there could be as many as 6.4 million potential eviction filings by January 1, 2021 if the CDC moratorium is lifted. Since the order does not cancel or freeze rent, all of the tenant's back rent will be due come January 1. Without rent relief or an extension of the protection, many struggling renters will again face eviction. I have a feeling that the moratorium may be extended, but that will just put even more financial stress on landlords. The landlords stress is a deliberate ploy for the banks to take more homes away from people, otherwise they would have put funds in the debt relief for landlords. How can they expect landlords to absorb the cost and potentially lose their investments, due to rogue government decisions and programs? And at some point there will be no more moratoriums, and all of that back rent will be due, and most of those households will not be able to pay it and will be evicted anyway. Meanwhile, more Americans are losing their jobs with each passing day, and the new lockdowns that are being put in place all over the country right now will greatly accelerate that process. No matter what happens politically, it appears that our national economic nightmare is only going to intensify in 2021, and that means that we are likely to see even more civil unrest. Of course most people already understand what is happening to our nation, and that is why so many wealthy individuals are fleeing our core urban areas. According to the New York Post, "far more than 300,000 New Yorkers" have moved out of the city over the past eight months... City residents filed 295,103 change of address requests from March 1 through Oct. 31, according to data The Post obtained from the US Postal Service under a Freedom of Information Act request. Since the data details only when 11 or more forwarding requests were made to a particular county outside NYC, the number of moves is actually higher. And a single address change could represent an entire household, which means far more than 300,000 New Yorkers fled the five boroughs. This is already the craziest time in modern American history, as we head into another deeply troubled year. For a long time I have been warning that economic collapse, famine and civil unrest were coming, and now all three are all in the headlines on a continual basis. Unfortunately, what we have experienced so far is just the beginning. Global authorities are hoping for a "reset", but what they are facing is a "great meltdown" instead. Like the last song played, why are we the people tolerating this?

The UN World Food Program was the winner of the Nobel Peace Prize in 2020, and the head of that agency is warning of the potential for absolutely devastating famines around the globe in 2021. The COVID-19 lockdowns that were instituted all over the world this year, created tremendous hardship in many wealthy countries, but in poorer nations the economic devastation has created alarming waves of hunger. There was hope that things would get better when lockdowns were being lifted, but now a new round of lockdowns is being imposed, and many experts are warning about what this could mean for those living in deep poverty. David Beasley was absolutely thrilled when his agency was given the Nobel Peace Prize, because all of the attention has given him more opportunities to ask for money. Because without a massive influx of money, he says that we are going to see "famines of biblical proportions in 2021"... The head of the World Food Program says the Nobel Peace Prize, has given the U.N. agency a spotlight and megaphone to warn world leaders that next year is going to be worse than this year, and without billions of dollars "we are going to have famines of biblical proportions in 2021." Widespread crop failures along with the economic shutdowns brought on by COVID-19, have put a tremendous amount of stress on global food distribution systems. The widespread crop failure where nothing to do with Covid 19, as they started that with weather wars and we highlighted it, back in March of last year. Food prices are rapidly rising all over the planet, and this is hurting the people at the bottom of the economic food chain the most. According to Beasley, many areas of the globe are potentially facing a major food crisis "in the next three to six months"... According to a joint analysis by WFP and the U.N. Food and Agriculture Organization in October, 20 countries "are likely to face potential spikes in high acute food insecurity" in the next three to six months, "and require urgent attention." Of those, Yemen, South Sudan, northeastern Nigeria and Burkina Faso have some areas that "have reached a critical hunger situation following years of conflict or other shocks," the U.N. agencies said, and any further deterioration in coming months "could lead to a risk of famine." Here in the United States, the good news is that nobody is facing starvation at this point. But the bad news is that we are in the midst of the worst economic downturn since the Great Depression of the 1930s, and some Americans are waiting in line for up to 12 hours for handouts. If you don't believe this, here is an excerpt from a news report about a food distribution event that just happened in Texas... Thousands of families lined up to receive groceries at a Texas food bank this weekend, some queuing for as long as 12 hours, as the on-going corona virus pandemic continues to inflict hunger and economic hardships on the state. The food bank distribution event, held by North Texas Food Bank (NTFB) in Dallas on Saturday, saw 600,000 pounds of food given away - including 7,000 turkeys. You have to be pretty desperate to be willing to wait in a line for 12 hours. But when you are very hungry and you are very short on money, all of a sudden you will be willing to do things that you wouldn't normally do. For those that wouldn't have a Thanksgiving dinner otherwise, this food distribution event was "a real big deal"... "I see blessings coming to us cause we all struggling, and I appreciate North Texas helping us out," resident Samantha Woods said while waiting in her vehicle. "I haven't been working since December, can't find a job, they cut my unemployment, it's a real big deal," said Cynthia Culter.

Scientists have made a major energy transfer breakthrough, achieving unprecedented efficiency using a so-called 'anti-laser' device to capture diffuse microwave energy, taking humanity one step closer to a wireless future. At present, wireless charging for devices like smartphones is possible but within an extremely limited range, and with varying degrees of efficiency. Long-range wireless power transfer, on an industrial scale, is still somewhat of a distant dream. However, a team of researchers at the University of Maryland (UMD) have taken a huge leap towards making it a reality, by expanding upon existing techniques for ranged energy transfer. The majority of current research in the area focuses on narrow beams of energy aimed at a target receptor, but energy loss and efficiency issues abound. In contrast, the UMD team explored long-range power transmission without the need for focused beams of energy, by employing a concept known as an "anti-laser." Lasers are the result of a domino effect in which photons of a certain color, are shot out triggering a chain reaction with other photons of the same color, thus creating a beam of light we recognize as a laser beam. On the other hand, an 'anti-laser' reverses this process; instead of boosting photons along a coherent path, it absorbs tuned photons. Led by UMD Professor of Physics Steven Anlage of the Quantum Materials Center (QMC), the team decided that they wanted to prove such a reverse laser was possible in a more challenging environment, more akin to the real world than the laboratory. "We wanted a sort of random, arbitrary, complex environment, and we wanted to make perfect absorption happen under those really demanding circumstances. That was the motivation for this, and we did it," Anlage says. The team set up what has been described as a labyrinth of wires through which electromagnetic waves, or more specifically microwaves, could travel (microwaves are a common candidate in energy transfer research given their flexibility and ease of manipulation). The team then beamed microwaves of different frequencies, amplitudes and phases through the labyrinth to an absorber embedded in the centre. Through repeated experiments using this labyrinth, the researchers fine-tuned the exact properties of input microwaves to maximise efficiency of energy transfer. In the best case scenario, the labyrinth absorbed 99.999 percent of the power they sent into it - a promising start. The team next examined wireless power transfer capabilities of the system by repeating the experiments within a cavity, this time with two brass plates placed at either end several feet apart, with an asymmetrical hole in the middle to randomize the microwaves which were later beamed in. Sure enough, with the right tweaks, they achieved 99.996 percent efficiency. "If we have an object which we want to deliver power to, we will first use our equipment to measure some properties of the system," says Lei Chen, lead author of the paper. The efficacy and safety of such a technique in a real-world environment would also need to be examined for years before regulatory approval would be granted. This sounds great, but I always caution on technology and ponder on how it can be weaponised against us. If I have it correctly, and this cleans up microwaves and turns it into energy, then that will be a good thing. Next step then would be to negate any harmful effects of the 1-5G wireless industry.

Alternative media has seen a rise of 2014 again, back come Pete Santilli the original Tank imo, in terms of character, Jimmy Church, Wilcock, Drake, Tanaath, Kent Dunn and another show running first common law, then militia and veterans enforcement stories, then out went the news, intel, financial details, in came the very childish presenting another groups members as a gloating exercise, and then switched to Wilcockesque buy my whatever is for sale this week, it's all very 2014. Coming soon channeling of dear brothers from the Pleaidies, Keenan returns from the dead, Cindy Currier declares herself Queen of America, Wynn and Gould proclaiming they still own everything, Heather Jarraf restarts OPPT, Teale Swann back to tell her listeners to commit suicide again, Tellingering espousing Ubuntu, Cassidy and Bill Ryan get back together again and wheel out more corrupted interviewees. Guest appearances to come Rick Light, Lady Dragon, Gramy J, Corey Goode to reinvent himself as a diet and teeth expert, Leo Zagami back to tell you he was still in the Illuminati, Shane the Ruiner reinvents himself as a non Draco/Rothschilds, Graham Hancock finally writes a book not about Ayuhausca, Fulford extoling the virtues of the P2 lodge. Dawn Hamm Hart, Dani Mckenney show how they operated Randy Maugans by strings, Bubba goes back to CV admin duties along with the alcoholic drug runner and his boat man. You have to laugh but this stuff is really not funny, all of them have become a massive distraction, zero are providing genuine solutions, unless they are copying THI for their own ego and ends, and it is desperate stuff I have to say. At this point the lack of focusing on what is real becomes more apparent by the day. All of it is distraction, dividing people into smaller groups of followers, all trying to reinvent the wheel with the same bs that failed before. One channel states they are going to be an alternative to the MSM, then delivers the MSM shows to your app, does this make any sense whatsoever? Think and act different is the only way forward, repeating old system ideas all of which failed, is the last refuge of the insane. It is all about the comfort zone and familiarity aligned with a convenient distraction from not facing your fears, our show on Tuesday released those inner fears for you all to face, it is shadow work on an interactive basis, this show is known for. Some won't face themselves and so will easily jump back into the past failed programs and show formats, the folly of that will become most apparent over time. The Alt media has descended into the pit of 2014 news, narrative and repeated agency based shows and programs, his story always repeats unless you stop the cycle. As for THI, we will retain focus on what is real, continue to expose those who harm us, continue to focus on what we can do, continue to focus of improving everyone's lives, continue to point out distractions and continue to expand your thinking, consciousness and develop critical thinking minds.

Word of warning from one of our members: Ah, our sweet children...last but not least, always have to pay dearly for their stupid bot parents taking them to their stupid bot physicians to keep them current on their 45 vaccine schedule before 6 yrs old, so their child can attend a stupid bot school...non-compliance not allowed, 'must keep up the appearance that I'm being a good parent/doctor' while our perfectly healthy children become bots/statistics...54% of the children in America have chronic illnesses. There's 54% of the future work force gone...on the dole/back of future tax payers/basic income anyone? Yes the world of compliant bots, a bucketful of indoctrination a day keeps their minds enslaved. A good and too the point input, and I don't disagree with any of it, except to consider that is the plan, there will be no future jobs. Most of it will be done by machines, cops, military, government, banking will all go under their decentralization plan. Jobs will go to the complaint bot slaves and the rest will survive on scraps, like the District 9 movie. Underground insurgents hiding from Robocops will become reality, but we can stop that now with none compliance of their illegal rules and build a new future for us all, be a divergent.

EXPOSES: WikiLeaks documents reveal CIA agents were given cover identities and diplomatic passports to enter the country. The base was used to develop hacking tools as part of the CIA's massive digital arsenal. The leaks purportedly revealed that a top secret CIA unit used the German city of Frankfurt am Main, as the starting point for numerous hacking attacks on Europe, China and the Middle East. Frankfurt base WikiLeaks reported that the group developed trojans and other malicious software in the American Consulate General Office, the largest US consulate in the world. German daily "Süddeutsche Zeitung" reported the building was known to be home to a vast network of intelligence personnel including CIA agents, NSA spies, military secret service personnel, Department of Homeland Security employees & Secret Service employees. "It reported the Americans had also established a dense network of outposts and shell companies in Frankfurt. The programs focused on targets in Europe, the Middle East and Africa. The documents revealed that CIA experts worked in the building under cover and included advice for life in Germany. "Do not leave anything electronic or sensitive unattended in your room," it told employees, also advising them to enjoy Lufthansa's free alcohol "in moderation." The Frankfurt hackers, part of the Center for Cyber Intelligence Europe, were said to be given diplomatic passports and a State Department identity. It instructed employees how to safely enter Germany. A WikiLeaks tweet published an section of the Frankfurt information. The consulate was the focus of a German investigation into US intelligence capabilities, following the 2013 revelation that NSA agents had tapped Chancellor Angela Merkel's phone.

Televisions turned into bugs According to WikiLeaks the documents revealed that the CIA could remotely activate certain Samsung smart televisions equipped with cameras and microphones to turn them into bugs. An intelligence expert who examined the dump, Rendition Infosec founder Jake Williams, told news agency Associated Press the documents appeared legitimate. Bob Ayers, a retired US intelligence official currently working as a security analyst told AP the release was "real bad" for the agency. Jonathan Liu, a spokesman for the CIA, told AP: "We do not comment on the authenticity or content of purported intelligence documents." Smartphones hacked WikiLeaks also claimed that if the CIA had hacked a cell phone, it could then bypass encryption methods used by popular chat programs such as Whatsapp, Telegram, Signal and Confide. I warned encryption was fake years ago, the CIA & NSA created it with backdoors so they could access it, encryption was a seducement program, all passed off as protecting your security and privacy, when essentially you just gave them free reign to do the very things encryption was created for. To target the ones who wanted their privacy and security protected, it's a reverse psychology trapped, complaint bots will accept anything, those that think different and are aware will not, and encryption was for those people. This prompted some concern at first online that all such messaging "Apps" were no longer effectively encrypted - but the exploit only applied to people whose phones are already compromised, which is all phones, all apps no matter which non thinking person tells you otherwise. According to the leaks, the CIA has undocumented exploits on popular smartphone models. When you understand like I laid out in the Clowns in Panic, all phones, all apps are deliberately compromised and are also being ran on your data to create cryptocurrency, which is why your phone freezes at times, why your battery drains and why you need to replace phones every two years, so they can add more software for larger data collection. The most popular app is the Weather Channel, fine to get warnings, but to get that app, the Weather Channel needs access to all your contacts, texts, pictures, emails, messenger and social media accounts, in other words they are collating your whole life. People may ask, why would a Weather Channel do that? because the Weather Channel is ran by IBM and their Watson AI. In a series of tweets NSA whistleblower Edward Snowden, said deliberately leaving vulnerabilities in software and hardware open, left public users susceptible to attacks. The documents also revealed that the CIA had the ability to conduct false flag attacks using malware stolen from other nations. According to WikiLeaks the trove showed that the CIA had lost control of its arsenal of hacking tools. WikiLeaks said it was given the files by an anonymous source who wanted to shed public light on the hacking programs. The collection of documents vastly outnumbered the trove on the NSA released by Snowden.

It appears the CIA was using the same foreign data center to hack the US elections... and got caught.” “This may be why, as the Gateway Pundit reports, the CIA was kept completely out of the server raid operation rumored in Germany. The raid was likely leveled against the CIA’s own server farm that ran the remote Dominion-Scytl hacking operation the night of the election!” All interesting stuff no doubt, but what does it change, one rogue administration replacing another, neither of which will address the now blatantly obvious elephant in the room on a global scale, the CIA. Release the Kraken I have heard repeatedly for the last few weeks. The Kraken is a joint CIA and DOD cyberwarfare program, do you really think those organizations will work for the people or the country? This is direct evidence of faction fighting, The DOD had prior knowledge of this fake virus and why they stockpiled PPE's in December last year, only for Kushner to double deal them with China and India. The CIA now has 4 separate departments, known as Langley 1 through 4, L1 is the Reaganites, L2 is the Nazis, white and Zionist, L3 is the Obama led Muslim Brotherhood and L4 is an elevated version of the previous 3 and I suspect not entirely human. Assuming all this is correct and they release the Kraken, which group will arrest them? another clown group is what. Trump had 4 years to build a peoples based task force, we at THI were tasked to envision the new way and develop it for and by the people, until someone decided their ego had to be more important than the peoples. Maybe now you know why Trump said he was withdrawing troops from Germany, his CIA buddies it seems like Pompeo, told him to get everyone out, for fear of arrests and or prosecutions. What this reveals is something I have stated all along, the vast array of global issues on all levels somehow always have the sticky fingerprints of the CIA involvement in it. We can carry on blaming Chinese, Russians, Koreans, Iran, Cuba and every other created boogeyman country, but the global issues all stem from the 5 eyes group with other agencies added to it, like the P2 Lodge and Mossad, with the CIA playing a central role in all of it. They need to be thrown out of every country and arrested upon entry into America and charged with crimes against humanity. All CIA agents and their subsidiary companies then investigated, closed down and or repurposed. Only then can we begin to fix the unearthly mess that organization has created. What this also tells you is, it was they who cheated in the recent election, yet where is the media outcry, oh did I tell you the CIA runs that as well. To all the agents within the CIA, and those actually interested in looking out for your fellow Americans, I am told you need an IQ of 135-140 to join, I am asking you all to use that and shut the abomination you are connected to down.

We go from one major agency to another one now, we haven't covered much of the rogue elements within this organization to date, but tonight we focus on the FBI a bit. The 'primary mission' of the FBI, formerly "law enforcement" was noted to have silently changed in 2013 to "national security". FBI spokesman Paul Bresson stated dryly that "When our mission changed after 9/11, our fact sheet changed to reflect that". A webpage posted at cve.fbi.gov in February 2016 claimed that "It's the FBI's primary responsibility — working with its many partners — to protect the nation from attacks by violent extremists." In other words they came under the same blanket cover of the CIA & NSA, whereby their own crimes could not be investigated, called the National Security Act. Problems The FBI has a roster of 15,000 spies who not only infiltrate and report back information, but actively assist and encourage people to commit "terrorism", so that the FBI can then catch them. In 2012 Project Censored reported that the "majority of terrorist plots in the United States" are actually incited by FBI agents, and reports that such informants receive cash rewards of up to $100,000 per case. What nice people they are, people get killed or maimed in terrorist events, and they are running them to collect cash bonuses? wells the fargo, how much lower will people stoop for pieces of paper with numbers on them? It has become a cancer on society this insane drive for lots of pieces of paper, whereby anything and everything goes to attain it, like drugs, guns, organ harvesting, adrenochrome, child and sex trafficking, do people not see that as pure evil for a currency that is not even real money. In the days of Edgar Hoover, the FBI was widely feared as a tool of blackmail. In the 21st century, however, its activities are more blatant. Child pornography The FBI has run child pornography websites. The ACLU obtained documents indicating that it was "actually authorized to takeover 23 child-pornography websites in addition to The Playpen." Entrapment The FBI coerces thousands of young people, as the price for settling a minor legal problem, into dangerous careers as an informants. That is the same tactic the CIA use, in many lead people within the alt media have fallen victim to that entrapment. Sarah Stillman, writing in The New Yorker that "The snitch-based system has proved notoriously unreliable, fuelling wrongful convictions". Mass Surveillance Since at least 2010, the FBI has been planting hidden microphones in a range of places, from light fixtures in courthouses to car parks, bushes and bus stops. January 2016 guidelines (based on the UK's widely criticised Prevent programme) told high schools across the USA to report students who criticize government policies and “western corruption” as potential future terrorists. Assassinations Although the FBI tracks how many police officers die in the line of duty, it keeps no such record for how many civilians are killed by police each year. Statements Matt Connolly, a former Deputy District Attorney noted in 2015 that the FBI does not record its interviews. Instead, "two FBI agents ask questions and listen to the answers—without tape recording or obtaining a certified transcript. Instead, they return to their office and, based on their recollection and any notes they may have taken during the interview, write up a summary of what transpired. Summaries are, in most cases, written hours later, sometimes even the following day." This record, inaccurate as it might be, then becomes the "official record of what was said during the interview." Just us not Justice in action right there, Americans have the shortest attention span of all leading countries, and this is how they conduct business? The potential for innocent people to go to jail and have their lives ruined, because some jackass in the FBI misses or missed out key portions of an interview, due to poor recall or deliberate inflection of the facts. September 11, 2001 Rex Tomb, Chief of Investigative Publicity for the FBI, asked why there is no mention of 9/11 on Ossama Bin Laden's "Most Wanted" web page, he replied that “The reason why 9/11 is not mentioned on Usama Bin Laden’s Most Wanted page is because the FBI has no hard evidence connecting Bin Laden to 9/11.” oops On September 11, 2001, the FBI arrested 5 Israelis spotted in Manhattan behaving suspiciously. They referred to the group as the 'High Fivers' (after their apparent glee at the 9/11 attacks) but who are elsewhere known as the "Dancing Israelis". The group, which included two Mossad agents, were detained for 70 days and then deported. Three of them later stated on Israeli TV that they were in New York City that morning "to document the event". Remember Netanyahu saying 9/11 was good for us, and yet millions still want to believe it was the Muslims? Technically that is correcting as Islam and the Torah/Talmud are one and the same religion, if you research it to the same level I have. Israel Cohen warned in 1912 the goal was deliver America to the Zionist, 9/11 began the fall of America, and with people like Kushner and the several other Zionist fake Jews running all the key posts in our country, that fall will not stop until America is rendered a defenceless, third world country. It is a hostile takeover by stealth, and people are shit scared to speak up due to anti semitism labels, the point is they are not even semites to begin with. It was the ancestors of these people who destroyed the Garden of Eden and then spread their filth globally. As the line stated in the 100 series, Eden never had a chance with two serpents in the garden, serpents being the operative word. The 2001 Anthrax attacks prompted the most expensive investigation in the FBI's history, costing around $100,000,000. More evidence of money laundering, as it was clear to any rational thinking person who was involved in that, yep the CIA again. This blamed Bruce Ivins, a "lone nut" who had just been found dead, avoiding the need for a trial. Richard Lambert, the FBI officer who was put in charge of the investigation, says that the investigation suffered from intense compartmentalisation and lack of critical resources (such as bioweapons experts). He sued the FBI in 2015, alleging that they were concealing evidence that could have exonerated Ivins. This is part of an official memo to the FBI [DATE: November 22, 1963] one hour and 15 mins after the fatal shooting of JFK. At 1:45 p.m. Mr. GEORGE H.W. BUSH, President of the Zapata Off-shore Drilling Company, Houston, Texas, residence 5525 Briar, Houston, telephonically furnished the following information to writer by long distance telephone call from Tyler, Texas. BUSH stated that he wanted to be kept confidential but wanted to furnish hearsay that he recalled hearing in recent weeks, the day and source unknown. He stated that one JAMES PARROTT has been talking of killing the president when he comes to Houston. BUSH stated that PARROTT is possibly a student at the University of Houston and is active in political matters in this area. He stated that he felt MRS FAWLEY, telephone number SU 2-5239, or ARLENE SMITH, telephone number JA 9-9194 of the Harris County Republican Headquarters would be able to furnish additional information regarding the identity of PARROTT. BUSH stated that he was proceeding to Dallas, Texas, would remain in the Sheraton-Dallas Hotel and return to his residence on 11-23-63. His office telephone Number is CA 2-0395. Yes getting out of the way, as pictures put him at the scene in the doorway of the repository as the motorcade went past. Harry Truman stated this in a memo, "Dear Bess... We want no Gestapo or secret police. FBI is tending in that direction. They are dabbling in sex-life scandals and plain blackmail, again a copy of the CIA tactics. Edgar Hoover would give his right eye to take over, and all congressmen and senators are afraid of him. I'm not and he knows it. If I can prevent [it] there'll be no NKVD or Gestapo in this country. Edgar Hoover's organization would make a good start toward a citizen spy system. Not for me." But that is what it turned into, Hoover like many others of that time just after the war, including the Scherffs more commonly known as Bush was of German descent, and ran with their Dutch counterparts like Eisenhower, and yet people still believe American won the 2nd World War. If they did why were Germans and Dutch running all the highest positions in American government in 1950's onwards?

THE FOLLOW ON FROM TUESDAY SECTION: NEW MEXICO The state has temporarily shut down 11 businesses after workers tested positive for coronavirus. Currently, there are 244 establishments on the watchlist. Businesses are subject to a possible two-week shut down if they have four or more rapid responses. The 11 businesses, four of which are Albertsons, are now shut down, They will be closed until Dec. 2. According to the current Public Health Order, establishments will have to close for two weeks if they have four or more rapid responses within the last 14 days. The order states that this applies to retail spaces, places of lodging, food and drink establishments, close-contact businesses and other essential businesses. The closure of 11 businesses comes after the state broke its daily record of new COVID-19 infections Wednesday, Nov. 18. Along with the 2,897 new cases reported on Wednesday, there were 26 additional COVID-19 deaths. All based on fake tests and fake death rates, I warned this was coming in February/March last year, it is also listed in the plans of theirs, I read out again on Tuesday.

Abstract of US2020279585 (A1) A method is provided for acquiring and transmitting biometric data (e.g., vital signs) of a user, where the data is analyzed to determine whether the user is suffering from a viral infection, such as COVID-19. The method includes using a pulse oximeter to acquire at least pulse and blood oxygen saturation percentage, which is transmitted wirelessly to a smartphone. To ensure that the data is accurate, an accelerometer within the smartphone, is used to measure movement of the smartphone and/or the user. Once accurate data is acquired, it is uploaded to the cloud (or host), where the data is used (alone or together with other vital signs) to determine whether the user is suffering from (or likely to suffer from) a viral infection, such as COVID-19. Depending on the specific requirements, the data, changes thereto, and/or the determination can be used to alert medical staff and take corresponding actions. The data is also used to create crypto currencies, known as mining, as in data mining. This was patented on October 13th for Covid in 2020? NO! 2015 by a certain person called Richard Rothchild. Any technology device that is connected to or fitted to, like fitbits or medical devices can now be tuned for interference with your bodies circadian rhythms and alter your DNA and RNA.

Bank note maker De La Rue has revealed that it is in early discussions about working on COVID-19 "immunity certification schemes". Clive Vacher, chief executive of the company - which as well as currency also makes authentication and security products - said he had been approached by governments and private companies. But possible products being discussed internally included "seals on vaccines and codes on vaccine vials that would ensure they are genuine". Other measures could include holograms on certificates and services to track drugs through the supply chain. De La Rue revealed as it published half-year results that it was "in early discussion regarding COVID-19 immunity certification schemes". Mr Vacher told PA: "We have digital and physical products which would be well suited. But it's very early to say because we still don't know what a vaccine will look like. For those that don't know and would question why a bank note maker would be involved in this, the reason is the De La Rue company is ran by the Rothschild's.

The Disruption physician put this out. Any vaccine that has to be stored at -80C is not a vaccine. It's a transfection agent, kept alive so it can infect your cells and transfer genetic material. We covered transfection in Tuesday's show. He said don't let them fool you, this is genetic manipulation of humans on a massive scale.

MURDER BY INJECTION: The Great Swine Flu Massacre: When the US government MURDERED hundreds with the Swine Flu vaccine. The national program of swine flu injections was hardly under way before, alarming “rumors” of sudden death and of terrible side effects such as various forms of paralysis, began to alarm the American people. They were “rumors simply because they were suppressed by the nation’s press, and they were publicly denounced as “lies” by every public health official in America. After some weeks, during which the officials desperately tried to complete their announced goal of inoculating every person in America with this poison, they finally admitted that “one or two” people had collapsed, and died of acute heart failure after having been administered the poison. In the ensuing weeks, this figure continued to be revised upward until the officials admitted that just over two hundred persons had died after being injected with the vaccine. The actual figure, which has never been released from Washington, is sixteen hundred persons who died immediately after being injected. Despite these casualties, the officials continued the program of injection until Dec. 16, 1976, when public outcry became so great that it was officially stopped. Two generations later the psychopaths want to try it again, unless we stop it.

While Pfizer pharmaceutical made headlines announcing the imminent release of their COVID-19 vaccine, to much fanfare, a former Vice President and Chief Scientist for the company has flatly rejected the need for any vaccines to bring the COVID-19 pandemic to an end. In a recent article, Dr. Michael Yeadon, who “spent over 30 years leading new [allergy and respiratory] medicines research in some of the world’s largest pharmaceutical companies,” and retired from Pfizer with “the most senior research position in this field,” wrote: There is absolutely no need for vaccines to extinguish the pandemic. I’ve never heard such nonsense talked about vaccines. You do not vaccinate people who aren’t at risk from a disease. You also don’t set about planning to vaccinate millions of fit and healthy people with a vaccine that hasn’t been extensively tested on human subjects. There you have it from one of their own people and we the people have this to say on it, I hope Payton likes the new version.

Tuesday's show brought the stark reality of THI being right again, I take no pleasure in being right about that type of disclosure, in fact I wish I was wrong. Now we can carry on ignoring the input of THI and sleep walk into oblivion, or we can get our adult pants on and do something about it. We face a life and in some case multi life problem on this planet, and it is not important who was right or wrong, it is more important we act on it regardless of group affiliations. All of us, all 4B not 7.5B have been duped, been wrong, been lied to, believed in bs, made mistakes, all of us, the folly is covering up the lies, mistakes, duped and following programs of deception our spirit knows is fake, because it makes life all the more easier to go along with, with what the psychopaths have given, told or supplied us. The opening song Peace of Mind, is all too familiar to many people, I don't care what is going on as long as I have peace of mind and life, we have paid heavily for that ignorance and laziness. You gain peace of mind by doing the right things to the best of your abilities, not hiding behind your own laziness or cowardice. I told you all a few years back, the only thing that would save us, is US, no god or gods, no Jesus, no Allah or Mohammad, no Yahweh, no Lord, no ET group, no Government, no one, and the sooner people grasp that fact, and it is a fact, and come together with a common goal of saving humanity, then we will all suffer including the so called El-ites, those jackasses are too stupid to realize it yet. Mass arrests, Trump winning, digital wallets, apps and heaven forbid more MSM TV channels will NOT be saving us, if it did we would not be in this position, period. To those that doubt, please show me the evidence of why I am wrong, the cold hearted facts and brutal truth is, you have none, only a collection of anecdotes provided to you by, the very system that control you and us all. We, gave them that control and we can take that control away, but I am just one person Thomas, please shut up with that, you are not one person if you combine with the all. If the Peoples club was 100Ks of thousand or millions strong by now, this mask and lockdown program would not have taken place, there is your difference, there is the solution and there is your answer.

The world currently is infected by a sickness called illusion, as in ill usion, illusion broke down is ill us ion, when assembled correctly is, us go ill. Illusion plays out in many forms, the illusion of power at the hands of the few, is just that, we the people have the power, we have just gotten to lazy to accept and act upon it, and handed it over to psychotic mindset people immersed in the world of illusion. Fame is an illusion, some people will say I am famous because of the popularity of our show, but I am not famous, I am just a more prominent publically known figure trying to shake the masses out of their illusion and slumber. Money is an illusion, paper currency is not real money, only gold and silver are real money, in other words physical assets, pieces of paper with numbers on, are not physical assets. Because they are not physical assets you cannot pay debt off with pieces of paper, which is why when you pay your house off, it tells you on the title that you are a tenant. Magic is the ultimate in illusion, light or dark, both are demonic in origin as the magic is performed by the spirit beings known as Djinnns. All the spirit beings fell into the dark forces binding contract and agreement to mess with humanity. Illusion is used also in movies, plays, books and media, where they present fact as fiction, and fiction as fact. Truth becomes a conspiracy theory to fool the masses, because they are mind controlled to believe that all conspiracy theories are made up, by people who are nuts. The real conspiracy theories are played out on your daily news channel, I call them the portal people news, because their news is so far from the truth and our reality, it is from another world, the reality is, it is. Another illusion is politics, and the feeling our vote counts, that is not only an illusion, it is a delusion to boot. The illusion is to make people believe they are voting for their choice, when it is so far from the truth it is not funny, you are voting for their choices only, Trump like Putin before him was just the latest version of the savior program ran countless times throughout history, and not one delivered for and by the people. The illusion in America is you are voting for a President for the government, when we have not had a government since 1871, it's a corporation acting as a government called USA Inc. Holidays are an illusion, they days the dark do their ritual sacrifice, and we are asked to celebrate it. Experts are an illusion also, as we have found out heavily this year, most don't know their ass from their elbow, yet continue to peddle their illusion, like Bill Gates now passes off as a virus expert, when he couldn't fix viruses in his own Microsoft systems. At which point do we realize we have to cure ourselves from our own illusions? The world is a mess now because we haven't created or built the new one, the old one is collapsing all around us and the desire is to hold onto to it for grim death, NO!! let it go, it failed us all. Why hold onto something that failed, it is like an alcoholic thinking one more drink will solve things, the first one didn't and so the last will won't either. What was so great about the old world? please enlighten me, the truth is outside of a relatively few people in overview, it is and was a disaster of disease, famine, wars, death, demonic, controlling, spying and low frequency vibrations. Shorn of common sense, wisdom, caring, sharing and people think we need to hang onto that? let it go, it failed, they failed and we failed in it. We have to rebuild anew, old system parts no longer work, they just don't no matter how much you convince yourself otherwise, just drop the illusion, and step into the real world and come up with solutions to end the madness, largely of our own creation.

The forces of darkness comes in many guises be it Police, Military, Agencies, Federal, Universities, Institutes, Colleges, Churches, Hospitals, Research Centers, Global entities like WHO, UN, NATO, Banks all forms of them, Social Services, Child Natal Care, Charities all stated to care, look after or teach us, the answer is none of them are, that is the greatest of the illusions. And before all teachers, cops or hospital workers jump on my case saying that is not fair, this is not about you, quit with the personal affronts attitude, that is exactly how they shut the narrative down, it is not about you, this is about us all. Teachers don't set the curriculum, cops don't set the rules, doctors and nurses don't create the policies, neither do politicians either, just saying, so it's not about you. Self sensitivity is another control mechanism, just like political correctness, stop doing that, it only helps the system of control. OMG Thomas is trashing everything some will say, every organization, every group, exactly, why? because there is no evidence anything in our lives currently, is operating for and by the people, again please show me the evidence to the contrary, and I can show you over 300 THI shows were I prove otherwise. But that means we have no one to turn to Thomas, a common saying that, but that statement is looking for a savior, someone to save you again, you have you to turn to and us, YOU ARE THE SAVIOR, please imprint that into your heads, YOU ARE THE SAVIOR, accept it, wear it and act on it YOU ARE THE SAVIOR. But, Thomas you give us no hope some will say, I have, I have given you the knowledge to understand what is really going on, on this planet, I gave you solutions to fix it, I gave you your life back, your power back, your self appreciation back, your sovereignty back, raised your frequencies, took some out of the astral, you have had everything you need, except the belief in and of yourself. The hope is and was also created by THI, it is called The Peoples Club, it does not have a leader, you are the leaders, it does not operate for or by one person, it operates for and by all of the People. There is your hope, I may have started it, but it is up to you all to build it into something we can all get behind and be proud of. It is the lifeline for our future and future generations to come, it will not be built crying what others do or say, only what you do and say matters. It will not be built by people with egos copying our model whilst trashing us, playing child like divisive games, they as it stands are enemies of we the people, all because they wish to be important, and not do important things. They who want their name up in lights only, when we want all of us up in lights, those who deal in the self at this point are enemies of we the people, the one has never worked and the only thing not tried by the people is, the all. Hope? you are the hope Honest, Open, Perseverance and Endeavor, that is your hope, it is the real hope we must all abide by.
