

THI-SHOW TRANSCRIPT 2020-12-10

Hi all sin eaters tonight we have a THI synopsis all in one rather full show, containing all the usual news, exposes, intel and a little something extra near the end that will require deep thinking and pondering on. We warned in a recent show about rogue satellites being harmful to us, then news breaks that the assassination of the Iranian scientist was carried out by an AI Satellite, according to Russian Intelligence. In a week where more of the script is revealed and a fashion reality show called Project Runway shows an outfit designed with a mask by an alleged contestant called Kovid Kapoor, both spelt with the letter K as we covered in FRWL, someone once said I guess the movie has to play out. As this week reveals a COVID-19 Vaccine Bombshell: FDA Documents Reveal DEATH + 21 Serious Conditions As Possible Adverse Outcomes, yet still approved it today. As US President Donald Trump has hosted two Hanukkah events at the White House, more than 100 people attended each of the events, which were held to mark the Jewish holiday, all without masks. make of that what you will. Hearing larges volumes of people are joining up to the LifeForce gardening and agriculture group from around the world, good stuff, people coming together Hearing Pentagon are about to cut off funding and support to the CIA I suspect had some involvement from the Trustee, if so, more good stuff. US President-elect Joe Biden has set a goal of 100 million Covid vaccinations in his first 100 days in office. US President-elect Joe Biden has said he will ask Americans to wear masks for his first 100 days in office to curtail the spread of corona virus. Joe Biden pledged Tuesday to bring the coronavirus pandemic under enough control to open most of the nation's schools during his first 100 days as president. Mr Biden said: "The first day I'm inaugurated to say I'm going to ask the public for 100 days to mask. Just 100 days to mask, not forever. One hundred days. I guess Biden is obsessed with the 100 series. Does anyone ask why they want to reveal so much truth now, via factcheckers, yet have never exhibited it at any time in the past? Does anyone ask why the Governments are suddenly interested in peoples health, yet have never exhibited it at any time in the past? Health is now suddenly a priority, from a country that brought us street drugs as a govt program ran by the CIA, brought us aspartame, has chemtrailed us for 50 years, added fluoride to the water, ran several pointless wars that killed many, ran syphilis, typhoid and TB experiments on us, ran MK Ultra experiments directly on people, then indirectly on people and detonated tens of nuclear weapons are on our own soil, using soldiers and citizens in harms way to test the effects. Not to mention the fact that our Health Industry is the 3rd leading cause of death each year in this country, and you believe they have our health and best interests at heart now? This virus is so deadly that it convinces covidiot to take a vaccine that is 10 to 38% less effective than your own body. At this point I say let them take it, it is their own free will and they made their choice, and they suffer the consequences. They are a living insect like society all following the Queen, taking their Milgram program induced medicine, they are the city of light people. They can't be helped anymore, we have to let them go and protect what we have. My only request is that a law is created that it becomes a criminal offense to shame others into taking it. That will end the people division and media shame programming which will follow in the coming months. The UK rolled out their first vaccine patient, Margaret Keenan was given the vaccine by a May Parsons. You know how they like to do code and or take the piss with names, numbers and dates per se. Try this by the names initials, MK was given by the vaccine by an MP, at 6.31 which equals 10 and it's 1's and 0's again. The suspicious at this point death of the anti vaxxer Brandy Vaughan this week, along with several scientists and other prominent speakers against the official narrative, brings into stark reality of whistleblowers and people who go public whether as radio shows hosts or guests, highlights the real dangers people face on this planet, for the crime of telling the truth or people thinking for themselves. RIP Brandy your fight is over, but the war on lies and liars will go on.

NEWS FROM BOTWORLD DELIVERED BY NON PORTAL PEOPLE Application to strike off DS01 Companies House UK. Entity: Government UK Limited Company no: 05522373 This company has applied to be struck off and dissolved. Coutts is the bank the royals use and high end elites only. Further proof of Clowns in Panic show June 2019, I warned what they would do, they called it decentralization, I called it harvesting it into a smaller control system. I warned governments would go, currency will go, police would go, military would go and agencies would go unless all those who work within those structures fought back with the people. tick tock.

Criticism of the killing of a senior Iranian military researcher voiced by the ex-head of the CIA seems misplaced considering that his chief Barack Obama ordered targeted assassinations himself, a former Mossad head believes. Mohsen Fakhrizadeh was gunned down last week in what many, including top Iranian officials, believe to be a clandestine Israeli operation. RT's Going Underground spoke to Efraim Halevy, the former head of Israeli secret service Mossad, to discuss the high-profile assassination, criticism of the move coming from some senior intelligence figures in the US, and what possible goals may have been behind it. John Brennan, the head of the CIA under Barack Obama, reacted to the killing with remarkably harsh words calling it a "criminal act," "highly reckless" and possibly an "act of state-sponsored terrorism" that would be "a flagrant violation of international law.” The characterization does not seem genuine coming from Brennan, Halevy said, considering that “American organizations and agencies in the past have carried out similar acts when they believed that an individual was endangering the national security of their country.” Brennan was the one official in the Obama administration to formally acknowledge for the first time that the CIA was running the highly controversial program of targeted drone assassinations. He insists that killing “terrorist leaders & operatives” is fundamentally different to what happened to Fakhrizadeh. The CIA calling out Mossad on morals, what an oxymoron that is, that is cognitive dissonance on steroids. There is no justification for killing anyone, period, least of all over political or trade discourse.

A young Palestinian teen has died after being shot in the stomach by an Israeli soldier during a protest in the occupied West Bank, the Palestinian Ministry of Health said. Israeli officials deny their forces fired live rounds. The 13-year-old boy was taken to a hospital in Ramallah in critical condition, where he died from his injuries, according to a statement from the health ministry posted on Facebook. A spokeswoman for Israel’s military said that its personnel had used “riot dispersal means” against Palestinians who were throwing rocks and burning tires in the village of al-Mughayir, some 27 kilometers northeast of Ramallah. “The reports of the use of live fire during the riot are not true, and claims about a number of rioters injured and one killed are known,” she said. However, Palestinian media reported that live rounds and tear gas were used against the demonstrators, while four men were wounded during a march that was reportedly staged in protest at Israeli plans to expand settlements in the West Bank. The mayor of al-Mughayir told reporters that the child had been shot near the entrance to the village. “This ugly crime is a war crime and a crime against humanity,” the Palestinian Foreign Ministry said in a statement about the reported death. Again the world stays silent to the crimes of these people and entities, show some backbone for once.

Things they say that make you go hmm part 1: Fox News’ Jeanine Pirro, one of President Donald Trump’s most loyal supporters, has turned on Attorney General Bill Barr, calling him a “reptile” for daring to weigh in on election voter fraud. While Pirro once praised Barr, she is now referring to him as a ‘swamp dweller’ for his comments this week that there has been no substantial evidence of widespread voter fraud in the presidential election. “As a former prosecutor, for over three decades, I and virtually everyone similarly situated know that DOJ guidelines do not allow comment on investigations,” Pirro said Sunday night in a long rant directed at Barr, whose job some have predicted could be on the line since his election comments, as they break with the president’s hard-line stance that he won in a landslide. “We need answers. We need action. We need justice. And you, Mr. Barr, are so deep in the swamp you can’t see beyond your fellow reptiles, and you are not the exceptional leader needed at this exceptional time in history,” Pirro added about the attorney general. oops

House Speaker Nancy Pelosi is being accused of having spent months blocking Covid-19 relief to help Joe Biden and hurt Donald Trump, after she said a smaller bill is now possible thanks to a lack of “other considerations.” Pelosi (D-California) changed her tune on Covid-19 relief during a press conference on Friday, where she appeared more willing to cut a deal with Republicans than in previous months. Pelosi previously led House Democrats for months in a battle with the White House, unwilling to agree to anything less than the $2 trillion-plus envisioned by the House-passed HEROES Act. The California congresswoman even referred to a previous $1.6 trillion stimulus as not even “half a loaf.” In her Friday press conference, however, she was much more willing to back a $900 billion package proposed as the basis for negotiations with Senate Majority Leader Mitch McConnell (R-Kentucky). Asked by a reporter if rejecting the $1.6 trillion package was a mistake now that one worth much less is being discussed, Pelosi snapped at the characterization and insisted blocking relief previously was not a “mistake.” “I’m going to tell you something, just don’t characterize what we did before as a mistake as a preface to your question if you want an answer,” she said. Her unwillingness to compromise previously “was not a mistake,” Pelosi insisted, and the reason a deal is possible now is because those months of no progress “has taken us to a place where we can do the right thing without, shall we say, other considerations in the legislation that we don’t want.” There you have it Americans, Pelosi delayed your money for political gains and then when it works, slashes $700B from you, and you think it is all ok? Tolerating this level of deliberate delaying of the public's funding, enables the government to treat us with disdain.

The BBC did a stark effect video on the comatose public this week showing the death rate fear porn as all media and weather channels do. In the presentation they were asked, Where does the data for the visualisations come from? Most of the case and death figures come from Johns Hopkins University, although the European Centre for Disease Prevention and Control is the source for China and for any data before 22 January, when the Johns Hopkins dataset begins. Government data is used for the UK and France. All the numbers are an underestimate of the true impact of coronavirus. When so-called excess deaths - the number of deaths above the average - are considered, the toll increases. The BBC revealed where their funding comes from for Media action, they out these groups. BBC Media Action is the BBC’s international charity - we believe in media and communication for good. We reach more than 100 million people each year in some of the world’s poorest and most fragile countries. Our projects and programmes save lives, protect livelihoods, counter misinformation, challenge prejudice and build democracy. Media action top 10 donors 2019-2020. Norwegian Ministry of Foreign Affairs 886K GBP, Swedish International Development 3m 383K GBP, Global affairs Canada 1M 642K GBP, UK Dept for International Development 2M 767K GBP, UK Foreign and Commonwealth Office 7M 645K GBP, European Union 3M 199K GBP. It is about to get and sound worse, United Nations Development 2M 402K, US Aid $1M 5K GBP, NORAD 1M 399K GBP and finally 1m 569K GBP from the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation. All that money goes into not helping people, but convincing people of their truth.

As President Maduro of Venezuela looks set to regain control of his country's National Assembly, the US secretary of state blasted the vote as a "sham" despite his own administration still contesting results at home. "Venezuela's electoral fraud has already been committed. The results announced by the illegitimate Maduro regime will not reflect the will of the Venezuelan people," Pompeo tweeted on Sunday. Venezuela's electoral fraud has already been committed. The results announced by the illegitimate Maduro regime will not reflect the will of the Venezuelan people. What's happening today is a fraud and a sham, not an election. Like Brennan more cognitive dissonance from the Deep State department, question is who made them god or the authority on world affairs, when none of them seem capable of running affairs at home, never mind elsewhere. I don't expect Mr. Maduro to live long, these clowns will take him out, it is what and all they do, our way or the highway is the mantra of the CIA and Deep State clowns.

Mystery illness suffered by US diplomats in Cuba was most likely caused by directed microwave radiation, a US government report has found. The report by the National Academies of Sciences does not attribute blame for the directed energy waves. But it said research into the effects of pulsed radio frequency energy was carried out by the Soviet Union more than 50 years ago. The illnesses first affected people at the US embassy in Havana in 2016-17. Staff and some of their relatives complained of symptoms ranging from dizziness, loss of balance, hearing loss, anxiety and something they described as "cognitive fog". It became known as "Havana syndrome". The US accused Cuba of carrying out "sonic attacks", which it strongly denied, and the incident led to increased tension between the two nations. A 2019 US academic study found "brain abnormalities" in the diplomats who had fallen ill, but Cuba dismissed the report. Canada also cut its embassy staff in Cuba after at least 14 of its citizens reported similar symptoms. The latest study was carried out by a team of medical and scientific experts who examined the symptoms of about 40 government employees. Many have suffered longstanding and debilitating effects, the report said. "The committee felt that many of the distinctive and acute signs, symptoms and observations reported by (government) employees are consistent with the effects of directed, pulsed radio frequency (RF) energy," the report reads. Perhaps that is the cause of the fake named Covid 19 virus? having admitted there is no live virus where is this illness coming from? is it frequency wave virus?

Things they say that make you go hmm part 2: China wants to boost its ability to modify the weather and will extend an artificial rain and snow programme to cover at least 5.5 million square kilometres of land by 2025, the country's cabinet said late on Wednesday. The State Council said in policy guidelines that it would ensure that its weather modification capabilities would reach an "advanced" level by 2035, and would focus on revitalising rural regions, restoring ecosystems and minimising losses from natural disasters. China has frequently made use of cloud seeding technologies to relieve droughts or clear the air ahead of major international events. It has also been building a weather modification system in the Qinghai-Tibet plateau, Asia's biggest freshwater reserve, with the aim of pumping large quantities of silver iodide into the clouds in a bid to increase rainfall. The cabinet plan said China would continue its artificial weather operations in key areas like the Qinghai-Tibet plateau, as well as the major ecological protection zones of the Yellow and Yangtze rivers. China will also build up its scientific capabilities and establish an experimental base and laboratory to improve its ability to induce or prevent rain, eliminate fog and improve air quality, it said. The first patent for weather modification was not 2000's not even the 1900's, it was the 1800's and yet some still think this is a conspiracy theory.

Things they say that make you go hmm part 3: The World Meteorological Organization (WMO) pointed out that 2020 will be one of the three warmest years in history. The reduction of industrial activity and the decrease in air traffic, a sector with high greenhouse gas emissions, halted the advance of global warming during the pandemic. Not even the presence of the La Niña phenomenon helped, which usually cools the oceans and temperatures in general. So, what this tells us is, the human interaction has no effect on their alleged global warming narrative. Temps rise and falls, ice levels are increasing not decreasing, cold snaps earliest on record in several places, snow earliest on record in several places also. So, the WMO has just proven the global warming is zero to do with the people, thanks for the validation and perhaps now that will shut up the Al Gore and Greta Thunberg scam.

Armed demonstrators have held a rally outside Michigan Secretary of State Jocelyn Benson's home to protest against Donald Trump's election loss. "Dozens" of people arrived at her home on Saturday evening as she was putting up Christmas decorations with her son, she said in a statement. Protesters shouted "stop the steal!", echoing President Donald Trump's claims of voter fraud. Ms Benson has joined a growing number of government and election officials targeted by protesters this year over the 2020 election. In a statement posted to Twitter on Sunday, Ms Benson, a Democrat, said that protesters made "unambiguous, loud and threatening" demands outside her Detroit home to overturn the state's election results. It is not clear there was armed protestors as that was a media statement backed with no proof, but if there was people armed, please stop that, it is unnecessary and intimidating that detracts from the right to protest, and gives portal people opportunities to discredit you. No arms, no threats, no violence and no destroying property please, just get in their faces and let them know we will not tolerate their bs anymore, without recourse.

More than 400 lawmakers from 34 countries have signed a letter to Amazon.com Inc boss Jeff Bezos backing a campaign that claims the tech giant has “dodged and dismissed ... debts to workers, societies, and the planet,” organisers said. The “Make Amazon Pay” campaign was launched on Nov. 27 - the annual Black Friday shopping bonanza - by a coalition of over 50 organisations, with demands including improvements to working conditions and full tax transparency. The letter’s signatories include U.S. Congresswomen Ilhan Omar and Rashida Tlaib, former UK Labour Party leader Jeremy Corbyn and Vice President of the European Parliament Heidi Hautala, co-convenors Progressive International and UNI Global Union said. “We urge you to act decisively to change your policies and priorities to do right by your workers, their communities, and our planet,” the letter said. “We stand ready to act in our respective legislatures to support the movement that is growing around the world to Make Amazon Pay.” Governments worldwide are considering tougher rules for big tech to assuage worries about competition. The European Union, for example, last month charged Amazon with damaging retail competition, alleging it used its size, power and data to gain an unfair advantage over smaller merchants that sell on its online platform. Not before time.

The US Department of Justice has accused Facebook of discriminating against American workers by giving hiring preferences to immigrants. A lawsuit alleges the social media firm refused to recruit, consider or hire qualified and available Americans for more than 2,600 positions. Those jobs instead went to foreigners on temporary visas, the lawsuit says. Facebook disputed the allegations, but said it was co-operating with the department. The lawsuit concerns Facebook’s use of temporary H-1B visas, which are often used by tech companies to bring highly skilled foreign workers to the US. In its lawsuit, filed on Thursday, the department alleged that Facebook “intentionally created a hiring system” that favoured H-1B visa holders and other temporary workers over Americans. Forget the fact they are foreigners, that is not the story here. This is a copy of the CIA student programs, they are not bringing in foreign students to work, but to spy and use them for espionage reasons back in their own countries. This whole thing is a scam, that benefits no one except the Deep State clowns.

A recent report from CNBC states that sources believe that a lawsuit could be filed against social media giant Facebook as early as next week. A group of 40 states led by New York have been investigating Facebook for possible antitrust violations and plans to file a lawsuit against the company, according to four sources. The lawsuit would be the second major case taken against a major tech firm this year following the Justice Department’s lawsuit against Google in October. Over 40 states reportedly plan to sign on to the Facebook lawsuit one source said, but would not provide the list of states.

Authorities were preparing as many as four more cases targeting Google or Facebook by the end of January 2021. The lawsuits reportedly focus on whether the tech giant abused their power. Despite ongoing antitrust investigations and lawsuits, Facebook and Google are both on a spending spree to buy rivals and tech startups, the decentralization harvesting we warned of 18 months ago. Facebook claims that it aims to support free speech while limiting "hate speech" and harmful content, so in their world, honest doctors and nurses who they were calling heroes earlier last year, are now labeled as hate speech for speaking out on Covid. Mad World we live in currently.

Something has gone seriously wrong in the UK, when the police take it upon themselves to intimidate a 14 year-old schoolgirl by making an official record of her innocuous statement in class. The girl, known only as Miss B, became a target of police interest because she, along with millions of other people, took the view that sex is distinct from gender identity. At a time when it is increasingly verboten to question trans ideology's claims on the subjectivity of both sex and gender identity, Miss B's views are too often condemned as hatred. Miss B, who has indicated that she is 'frightened about speaking openly on transgender issues' is – along with her parents – seeking legal recourse and challenging the decision of the police to classify her comment as a non-crime hate incident. Her lawyers' letter to the College of Policing states that Miss B is 'concerned about the possibility of having a police record potentially including details of conversations that she has had at school' and fears 'this record would impact on her future career prospects.' What is totally absurd about the predicament Miss B finds herself in, is that she neither demonstrated nor had any intention of demonstrating hostility towards any person. In fact, even the police have not claimed that Miss B hurt the feelings of anyone, she has not done nor said anything hurtful to a single individual. In fact, there is no victim of her action whatsoever, yet still the police involved themselves. Under existing policing guidelines on hate, you do not need to have done anything remotely hurtful to be made to feel like a criminal. According to these guidelines, officers should make a record of a non-crime hate incident 'if the victim or any other person perceives that the incident was motivated wholly or partially by hostility, even if it is referred to a partner to respond.' In this case it is evident that it was the police, or some other busy-body official, who thought Miss B's comment might be motivated by hostility. What is truly bizarre about these guidelines is that they empower the police to record not only criminal acts but non-criminal acts as well. I warned people in the UK in mid 1990's political correctness is not about being nice or fair to black people, it is a control system on us all, now with factcheckers and other jackasses who get offended by everything in life, the control system ramps up. Only you can stop it.

COVID NEWS NON FACTCHECKER BS INFORMATION: People in the UK will begin to receive the Pfizer/BioNTech vaccine on Tuesday. NHS England boss Sir Simon Stevens said vaccinations would continue "at least until next spring" and warned people to be "very careful" in the meantime. Refrigerated containers holding the vaccine doses, which need to be kept at -70C, have been arriving in the UK from Belgium, where it is made, and are being prepared to be moved from secure locations to the hospitals. Residents in care homes and their carers will be first. Then everyone over the age of 80 along with front line health and social workers, in my world social workers would go first, I have major issue with many of those people I have encountered, riddled with drugs, alcohol, new age belief systems and more health and mental issues than the clients they are supposed to be helping. Then people over aged 75, then those over 70 along with those they state as clinically extremely vulnerable. Phase 5 is 65 and over, Phase 6 is aged 16-64 with underlying health conditions. Phase 7 is 60 and over, Phase 8 is 55 and over and Phase 9 is 50 and over. So all the older people who I might add they have spent their pension money and cannot afford to pay them within the next decade is, designated to go first. Remember the data is 90% effective and that did not include the data from the older generation. What happens next? Is it a coincidence that the UK becomes the first to roll out a vaccine for an illness called corona, which means a crown. The Crown which is ran in a square mile of the land of England, but is not a part of England, you know the same Crown now acquiring all the assets of the UK.

Hi Tommy Williams, Our team has reviewed your content, and, unfortunately, we think it violates our medical misinformation policy. We've removed the following content from YouTube: Video: Expose+Part+6+World+In+Crisis YouTube doesn't allow content that explicitly disputes the efficacy of local health authorities' or World Health Organization (WHO) guidance on social distancing and self isolation that may lead people to act against that guidance. Because it's the first time, this is just a warning. If it happens again, your channel will get a strike and you won't be able to do things like upload, post, or live stream for 1 week. I guess the truth hurts Youtube, I guess you think it is ok to trample all over the First Amendment, I guess you are under the National Security Act which is designed to let psychopaths, truth deniers and criminals operate with impunity. But we thank you for validating our podcast, because if you deny it, you have confirmed it was truth.

Things they say that make you go hmm part 4: Corona virus had been infecting people in the US even before China reported its first cases on December 31, 2019, research by the US Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) and the American Red Cross has revealed. American medics officially registered their first Covid-19 patient on January 19, 2020, but the findings in a paper published in the journal Clinical Infectious Diseases suggest the virus may have been circulating in the US prior to that. The researchers studied almost 7,400 blood donations made in nine US states between December 13, 2019 and January 17, 2020. Evidence of Covid-19 bodies antibodies, the presence of which suggest a person had contact with the virus, were present in 106 of those samples, according to the study. This means corona virus could have been in the US a month before it saw its first confirmed case, and weeks before the Chinese authorities announced the infection in the city of Wuhan. oops The analysis of hospital data from across the US in late 2019 also showed a spike in flu patients, many of whom had "heavy coughing" and other severe respiratory symptoms. European researchers have also speculated that corona virus had been present in their countries before China officially announced the outbreak of the new strain. A French survey has discovered there were Covid-19 antibodies in blood samples taken in early December 2019. A similar study carried out by their Italian peers revealed that samples in Italy were already showing antibodies in September. Spanish virologists, meanwhile, found traces of corona virus in sewage water samples collected in March 2019 - a full nine month before the events in Wuhan. The precise origins of corona virus are currently unknown, despite Donald Trump's attempts to blame it on China since the start of the pandemic. I guess he still listens to the Ministry of misinformation from Langley then, 4 years to work it out and 4 years later has appeared to have learnt nothing, as nothing has changed, or perhaps he was a problem all along?

The UK government has granted pharmaceutical giant Pfizer a legal indemnity protecting it from being sued, enabling its coronavirus vaccine to be rolled out across the country as early as next week. The Department of Health and Social Care has confirmed the company has been given an indemnity protecting it from legal action as a result of any problems with the vaccine. NHS staff providing the vaccine, as well as manufacturers of the drug, are also protected. The vaccine will be made available to anyone over the age of 16, but will not be available to pregnant women because of the lack of data about how it could affect them and the baby. An ongoing trial is looking at this. "There's a lack of data overall, that's why the vaccine needed to be granted 'emergency authorization'." The Pfizer/BioNTech vaccine was authorised by the Medicines and Healthcare products Regulatory Agency on Tuesday, under regulation 174 of the Human Medicine Regulations 2012, which allows an "unlicensed medication" to be used in an emergency such as a pandemic. It also has the effect of granting civil immunity to Pfizer after the government changed the regulations following a short three-week consultation in September. The government are ramming through numerous laws, bypassing the democratic process, and changing life in the UK as we know it, and not for the better. In a press conference with journalists on Wednesday, Ben Osborn, Pfizer's UK managing director, refused to explain why the company needed an indemnity. He said: "We're not actually disclosing any of the details around any of the aspects of that agreement and specifically around the liability clauses." Asked about when the full data on the vaccine's clinical trial would be published, the company said this was still being worked on. Governments are using coercion seen only in totalitarian states to make citizens to take the vaccine: 'And that no man might buy or sell': Welsh government to roll out 'coronavirus vaccine ID cards' The Canadian vaccine czar admits that this is the plan: Doug Ford's hand-picked vaccine czar: maybe we can't force you to take a vaccine, but we sure can ban you from moving around or traveling if you don't. So, not only is there no live virus, not only hasn't it been tested fully, not only has the minimal testing not included the results of the most vulnerable, the elderly, the government is now allowing unlicensed medication. Good luck with that bots and covidiot.

Things they say that make you go hmm part 5: The World Health Organization has urged people to continue to take the coronavirus outbreak seriously and not to act as though the pandemic will soon be over, despite recent progress in the development of Covid-19 vaccines. "Progress on vaccines gives us all a lift and we can now start to see the light at the end of the tunnel", the organization's Director-General Tedros Adhanom Ghebreyesus said on Friday, before adding: "However, WHO is concerned that there is a growing perception that the Covid-19 pandemic is over." Furthermore, new alarming data indicates that protection from vaccines "may not be lifelong and therefore re-infections may occur," the WHO's top emergencies expert Mike Ryan, said. Vaccines do not equal zero Covid. Notably, on Thursday, Pfizer's CEO seemed to echo Ryan's concerns, saying that he "wasn't certain" if the already green-lit cure would stop transmission of Covid-19. Vaccines do not equal zero Covid and not certain it would stop transmission of Covid 19 oh dear and the bots still all roll up their sleeves for their genetic alterations. I think we need another vaccine to test for brain cells, Here comes the psychic vaccine man again. The U.S. COVID-19 outbreak will "get worse before it gets better" and the country won't see "dramatic changes" until the third quarter of next year, Dr. Anthony Fauci told Newsweek. Speaking to Newsweek, the director of the National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases (NIAID) and member of the White House COVID-19 task force said: "I think the decreases are going to start as we get into April and as more of the general population gets vaccinated. "Then as you get to May, June and July, towards the end of the second quarter of 2021, I think you're going to start seeing some dramatic changes as we go into the third quarter. Noting the country "never got out of the first wave" of the COVID-19 outbreak, Fauci explained: "I don't even talk in waves anymore [when describing the outbreak]. I see it more like a high background with different surges super-imposed upon it, as opposed to a wave that comes and goes." That sounds like the mystery illness in Cuba earlier in the show does it not, surges of what?

The Ministry of Jackasses came out again this week with this gem. Singing happy birthday could spread Covid 19 due to the letter B and P releases droplets which may be infectious. All thanks to the jackasses at the Mail, who appear to have the same staff as the BBC. The letters B and P brought to you by Sesame Street level characters, B and P all very oily or snake oil to me, bit like Kushner.

Things they say that make you go hmm part 6: At least six people - including five coronavirus patients - have died in a hospital in Pakistan after oxygen supplies ran too low. Patients' relatives have described how they begged for help as panic engulfed the government-run hospital in the northern city of Peshawar. A reported delay in deliveries meant more than 200 patients were left for hours on reduced oxygen. Hospital officials have blamed the shortage on the supply company. Pakistan is currently fighting a new wave of corona virus cases, with a total of more than 400,000 infections and over 8,000 deaths reported since the start of the outbreak. According to local media, the problems at Khyber Teaching Hospital began after the daily supply of fresh oxygen cylinders did not arrive on Saturday evening. The 300 backup cylinders were then unable to supply the required pressure for the ventilators. Mureed Ali, whose mother is ill with Covid-19, told BBC Urdu that "throughout the hospital, we were running to save our patients, begging the medical staff". He explained that some patients were eventually moved to the emergency room, where there was still a good oxygen supply. But after those supplies ran low as well, several patients died, while many others deteriorated into critical condition. So, patients died due to reduced oxygen levels, and the fake covid death rates went up after people started wearing masks which reduce oxygen levels, well I never.

I have 3 nurses in my family here in the Phoenix area. None of them have seen a COVID patient. That's because out of 32 hospitals in the Banner Hospital network only a handful accept covid patients. (Same is true in CA where another family member nurse works.) The 3 different hospitals that they work in do not accept them. So when the news is telling you that the hospitals are at full capacity with covid patients it leads you to believe that all hospitals are over crowded. Not true. Also one of them tested positive and could not work for 2 weeks. He had NO symptoms but the hospital kept him out anyway. How many are counted in this category? They want you to think all covid patients are dying in the hospital. What a scam. Hospitals not accepting Covid patients? empty hospitals? and they tell us they are concerned for our health?

Things that make you go hmm Part 7: The CDC revealed this week that 130K Americans deaths were recorded this year, were not Covid patients but pneumonia, flu and heart attacks, oops. So the reported American deaths for Covid stands at 229K but 130K of them were other related illnesses, which means we are now down to 99K deaths. That equals a death rate of 0.0003% of the population, and yet people want to take a vaccine that is between 62 and 90% effective? 99K deaths is a global shutdown emergency, yet 250-400K Americans dying from medical negligence per year is not or 70-80K Americans per year die from no health coverage funding.

Things they say that make you go hmm Part 8 CDC-006-00019-Revision 05 The analytical sensitivity of the rRT-PCR assays contained in the CDC 2019 Novel Coronavirus, real time RT-PCR diagnostic panel were determined in Limit of Detection studies. Since no quantified virus isolates of the 2019 nCov are currently available, assays designed for detection of the 2019 vCOV RNA were tested with characterised stock of in vitro transcribed full length RNA. Assay means to judge the worth of, attempt, try or estimate, or a test of character, that is not definitive science to roll out a vaccine. The public need to ask why was there no live virus available, only genetic coding of it, which means that coding is a lab created virus with no live virus available. It means the virus doesn't actually exist, and the vaccine is a genetic based virus of code sequences derived from someones RNA and DNA.

What is a PCR test, it is a polymerase chain reaction test, it does not say is the viral or covid test. What is polymerase? Any of various enzymes, such as DNA polymerase, RNA polymerase, or reverse transcriptase, that catalyze the formation of polynucleotides of DNA or RNA using an existing strand of DNA or RNA as a template. An enzyme that catalyzes the formation of new DNA and RNA from an existing strand of DNA or RNA. DNA polymerase - the enzyme responsible for DNA replication. RNA polymerase, transcriptase - the enzyme that copies DNA into RNA. Why are they replicating DNA or RNA for an alleged virus test, Covid is in saliva, so you swab the mouth, no they went near to your brain and inserted the vaccine of DNA and RNA coding, that caused a chain reaction. Remember the micro devices on the end of a Q tip? Those that have had that test, have had the vaccine. oops Test also means trial, I hope they haven't passed judgment or sentence on you.

EXPOSE: Iran will not accept preconditions from a new Biden administration over its nuclear programme and the US must return to a 2015 deal before talks can take place, its foreign minister says. Javad Zarif said the US had its own "commitments" that must be implemented. President-elect Joe Biden has said he will rejoin the nuclear deal and lift sanctions if Tehran returns to "strict compliance with the nuclear deal". Both sides appear to want the other to readopt the agreement's terms first. In May 2018, US President Donald Trump pulled out of the deal negotiated under his predecessor, Barack Obama. He then reimposed strict economic sanctions against Iran, targeting the country's oil and financial sectors. Tehran has since exceeded limits to its nuclear activities set under the deal, raising suspicions that it could be using the programme as a cover to develop a nuclear bomb. Its government insists, however, that its nuclear ambitions are entirely peaceful. The deal was designed to constrain the programme in a verifiable way in return for sanctions relief. Addressing a virtual conference hosted by Italy on Thursday, Mr Zarif said the US had been "in grave breach" of a UN resolution endorsing the nuclear deal when it abandoned it, describing the Trump administration as "a rogue regime". "The United States must stop, the United States must cease its violations of international law," he said. "It doesn't require any negotiations." Mr Zarif went on to say that the US was "not in a position to set conditions". Mr Biden, who is due to be sworn in as the 46th US president on 20 January, said he would prioritise returning the US to the agreement and look at lifting sanctions, but that it would require Iran to first comply with its terms.

Iran, formerly known as Persia, is an oil rich nation state in the middle east. Is it a coincidence that Russia and Persia have the same last 3 letters? Sia means helper. It has the 4th largest oil reserve and the 2nd largest natural gas reserves of any nation state, about 16% of total global reserves. Iran's fossil fuel wealth has made it a target for decades. It was on a list of seven countries which retired 4-star general Wesley Clark (SACEUR from 1997-2001) stated that the US military had plans to invade: In 2001, in the Pentagon, a general told me : 'I just received a classified memo from the Secretary of Defense: we will take seven countries in five years, starting with Iraq, then Syria, Lebanon, Libya, Somalia, Sudan and finally, Iran. Planned since at least 1951, a coup d'état was carried out in Iran in 1953 against the democratically elected government of Mohammad Mosaddegh. This was organised by the Seven Sisters and then carried out by a small group within MI6 and the CIA, motivated largely by the huge profits of extracting Iranian oil. US Deep State operative Frank Terpil admits working for the Iranian government. Frank E. Terpil was a CIA agent born in Brooklyn, New York, U.S. in 1939, who was asked to leave the agency for misconduct in 1971. He then "went rogue", going to work for Edwin P. Wilsons operations supplying arms, bomb making training, and surveillance equipment to numerous regimes. After serving for a short time in the U.S. Army, Terpil joined the CIA in 1965, working in the Technical Services division, which adapted technology and weaponry for covert work. After departing from the CIA, he supplied dictators including Muammar Gaddafi of Libya and Idi Amin of Uganda. He left CIA but you largely you don't really, what he became was a private contractor, who all work directly or not for the CIA. In 1980, a U.S. court indicted him on charges of large-scale illegal arms dealing. He skipped bail and left the U.S.; in 1981, he was sentenced in absentia to 53 years' imprisonment, with the judge describing his operations as "trade in death and destruction". However, he was never put on the FBI most wanted list. Funny how that happens is it not? He moved to Lebanon, offering his services to Yasser Arafat of the PLO. The US commercially-controlled media used the phrase "Iran Contra" to refer to a US Deep state scheme which smuggled cocaine in the US and shipped weapons to the "contras". The October surprise was a deal organised by the US deep state to try to ensure the defeat of Jimmy Carter in the 1980 US Presidential election. This is suspected to have arisen from the Iran-Contra drug deals. Ah the October surprise ran on the alt media every year, and it is all happening, except that is a deep state term, like kraken is a deep state term and a CIA project name, just like Projects Avalon, Camelot and Abel Danger, all CIA project names. It has reported that groups in Iran are involved in international drug trafficking which threatens the profits of globally organised and US deep state groups. He stated in 2014 that "Cocaine is transferred to Sierra Leone, where it is exchanged for diamonds. With the diamonds they purchase arms. This triangle - Hezbollah, Syria, Iran - gets in the way of the Americans. They take the view, correctly, that eliminating Syria as an Arab partner of Iran, whether relations with Iran are good or bad, Iran will be weaker, and it will be easier to get an agreement with them. The removal of the Assad regime therefore became objective No.1 for the Americans. Likewise for Saudi Arabia and Israel." In 2018, the New York Times headlined a story Iran Eases Death Penalty for Drug Crimes, Saving Potentially Thousands of Lives, which cited anonymous "activists" as claiming that an elevation of the drug minimums for a capital sentence "could save potentially 5,000 lives."

The recent assassination of the Iranian scientist most likely carried out by Mossad, most definitely carried out by deep state agents, is far from the first in Iran. In January 2010 Masoud Ali Mohammadi was killed by a remote control bomb strapped to a motor cycle. In November 2010 Majid Shahriar was killed after a motor cyclist attached a bomb to his car in Tehran. In July 2011 Darioush Rezaeineja killed by gunmen. In January 2012 Mostafa Ahmadi Roshan died after people on a motor cycle again attached metallic bombs to his car. Seems motor cycles are a popular choice for assassination events, remember the motor cycles chasing Princess Diana in France, before she died?

The 'Seven Sisters' was a common term for the seven multinational oil companies of the "Consortium for Iran" oligopoly or cartel, which dominated the global petroleum industry from the mid-1940s to the mid-1970s. Alluding to the seven mythological Pleiades sisters fathered by the titan Atlas, ah the Pleiades connection again like Nibiru, the Alcyons being related to bad things happening here, yet some alt media people think they are coming to save us. The business usage was popularized in the 1950s by businessman Enrico Mattei, then-head of the Italian state oil company Eni. The industry group consisted of: Anglo-Iranian Oil Company (now BP), Gulf Oil (later part of Chevron), Royal Dutch Shell, Standard Oil Company of California (SoCal, now Chevron), Standard Oil Company of New Jersey (Esso, later Exxon), Standard Oil Company of New York (Socony, later Mobil, now part of ExxonMobil), and Texaco (later merged into Chevron). Preceding the 1973 oil crisis, the Seven Sisters controlled around 85 percent of the world's petroleum reserves. Since then, industry dominance has shifted to the OPEC cartel and state-owned oil and gas companies in emerging-market economies, such as Saudi Aramco, Gazprom (Russia), China National Petroleum Corporation, National Iranian Oil Company, PDVSA (Venezuela), Petrobras (Brazil), and Petronas (Malaysia). In 2007, the Financial Times called these "the new Seven Sisters".

Ziad K. Abdelnour is a Lebanon-born American financier who reached an out of court settlement with the SEC in 2013 that saw him fined $25,000 and banned from dealing in securities for 5 years. He continues to work for Blackhawk Partners, which he started in 2006. Black Hawk, Rock, Dragon and Sun all one and the same. "In 2000, he was an author of a policy paper advocating the removal of the Syrians from Lebanon that was endorsed by a number of people with close ties to Bush advisers, including Richard N.

Perle, a Reagan administration assistant secretary of defense; Perle born in and born to. Douglas J. Feith, born to and one of the architects of the plan to invade Iraq; and David Wurmser, who was born to also, and adviser to draft dodger and Darth Vader himself, the Vice President Dick Cheney on the Middle East." Ziad Abdelnour (November 18, 2005) "Iran's going to be finished and every single Arab regime that's like this will be finished. Because there is no room for us capitalists and multi-nationalists in the world to operate with regimes like this. Its all about money. And power. And wealth... and democracy has to be spread around the world. Those who want to espouse globalization are going to make a lot of money, be happy, their families will be happy. And those who aren't going to play this game are going to be crushed, whether they like it or not! This is how we rule. And this is how it's going to be as long as you have people who think like me." Ziad Abdelnour (November 18, 2005) "The end justifies the means. I don't care about how it's done. The important thing is that it is done. I don't rule out force. I'm not against force. If it's an option, it will be an option... I have — we have — absolutely no problem with heavy US involvement in Lebanon. On an economic level, military level, political level, security level... whatever it is. Israel is the 51st state of the United States. Let Lebanon be the 52nd state. And if the Arabs don't like it, tough luck." Iran is a long time target of the Hebrew Annunaki masquerading as Jews, how many born in and born to people at the top are all advocating for this, and the question is why? because they have done this for at least 110K years is why, made war on the Great White Race, not all were white before people jump at that wording, Iran which means Land of the Aryans and like Russia is and always was a target by these sub gray race of beings. The very people who stifle questioning of them and their narrative are no running factcheckers, social media blocking of truth, at which point will all of us "see" that?

The scripted narrative of the 2014 world has become more obvious than previous attempts to roll back time within the 4 year loop. The Alt Media is littered with it, channelers returning, even Pete Santilli has been rolled back out, I mentioned it recently they were all returning and mentioned Cindy Currier, then a former CV member pops up and asks if she is valid? That person was very familiar with Cindy in the past, and yet didn't appear to remember who she was. These events appear random and yet are so often repeated and so it becomes a program of events, scripts and live events to unfold. On a psychological level my assessment now is, we are clearly now dealing with a mass psychosis event and element. People appear to have less memory than even a goldfish now, I have lost count the number of times in the past month that people have sent me articles, asked questions on subjects or topics that have been put out in recent shows, never mind shows from a few months ago. Those memory wipes have inserted them back into the savior and money programs of the alt media, prevalent from 2008 and 2014. Many got exposed by myself and Randy Maugans at the time, and why I was initially reluctant of joining up with The Trust in 2016, I was pondering whether it was a trap to lure me in to another money based program. When I was asked to join, I gave conditions for joining and asked could they facilitate my reason for joining, they said yes and gave details of certain things and so I agreed to join. At no stage did I join the Trust for money, either for the self or the collective, it was not a priority for me and was also a potential hook to rope me in, having warned of the hooks in shows, I was not going to fall for that potential trick at the time. You see in their world everyone has a price, I don't, it's that simple. I remember being grilled by the security team early 2019 as they questioned me motives for being here, I told them why, to help Kim, they refused to accept it, shifted the questions around several times and my answer was the same, I came here to help Kim. The 5 hooks are Drugs, Alcohol, Sex, Money and Religion none applied to me and the hidden hook of unbalanced ego, didn't either, despite claims by two people who actually have that problem themselves, which is a common theme that, projecting the self into and onto others. As time speeds up and makes less sense now, events, characters will pop in and out of our reality now at an increasing pace, all designed to get you to question yourself and your own sanity, but remember these people are actors in a movie scene we are no longer a part of. Some of you who listen to this show have turned off and unplugged your movie playing on your VCR, which could stand for Virtual Clown Reality, for those who travel, that may well make more sense to you personally. The distraction crew of the movie set is in full flow now, pulling you back into their world, that makes less and less sense by the day. You must resist inserting yourselves back into that fake and false reality, replete with endless streams of tv channels espousing the senility of what they call entertainment, I call it entrainment, if you remove the letters ET from entertainment, you are left with entrainment, perhaps that makes more sense of it's origin? The popular launch of 24/7 television was done by MTV, perhaps there is a new MTV, time will tell. All designed to distract people from reality, an endless stream of drivel, none moreso than the oxymoron named show that became most popular on that channel, called Reality TV, if only it was. Cassandra told us this previously, for a hundred years we have fed you your entertainment and you have devoured our offering supporting the lies your told ignoring the nuggets or people of truth. The two worlds we spoke of in 2015 is now in clear view, we also spoke of 2020 the time people would "see", and those both now are prominent in our world, hence the AI based loop program of trying to change what is known as time, but ultimately time is an illusion of their world. As we go towards the anomaly or the event horizon, time changes due to dilation, what is a few seconds here, can be many years elsewhere. Essentially we are or hopefully were governed by time, which means to bind when separated, tie me, time is and was the god in here, a control mechanism and also fear inducing concept. Why else would they call it Father Time? the depictions of father time is all very Jesus or god like, a Jesus in an older form, man replete with a long beard, which is the same depiction of the Annunaki is it not, perhaps they are one and the same? Remember we spoke of why the gods came here in FRWL series, they came to buy more time with the Elixir of Life, from the Milk Ocean that existed where the Himalayan mountains are now situated. The elites still do it, of attempting to cheat time and old age by consuming adrenochrome, it all boils down to gaining from time, so time becomes the god here, and wielded it's fear, power and control on us all. The religious orders all call god "The Father", so if god is the Father, who is Father Time? Chronos. Who or what is Chronos? In recent centuries he is usually depicted as an elderly bearded man, sometimes with wings, dressed in a robe and carrying a scythe and an hourglass or other timekeeping device (which represents time's constant one-way movement, and more generally and abstractly, entropy). Usually with wings, oh my, the new age and religious elements will all scream he is one of the angels, those who have researched properly will realise it is the fake gods again, the Annunaki had wings, just saying. Your Michael's, Azazel, Raphael, Gabriel, Uriel, Samael, Seraphim, Elohim and all others of that ilk all came out of the Talmud book, long before Christianity adopted the religion of the Hebrews. The Hebrews on earth were the black Africans originally, the Hebrews now are the disciples of the Hebrew Annunaki, playing the same war and same events of time out, like a loop. If these angels were so great, and we are told an angel came to the entity known as Jesus before his alleged arrest, why didn't they save the alleged son of god? Why wouldn't god save his only son? does that really make any sense? Here is what does make sense of that analogy, because that is what it is, a misinterpretation of the narrative that is riddled with analogies in the so called holy books. The real reason is because those gods in the past and also the bloodline families here on Earth, all sacrifice their first born is why, the other entities worshipped here by the Hebrews or more modern day term Jewish is Solomon and Herod did exactly the same thing, seeing a pattern now? The story of Jesus is symbolic of their Earthly not godly based practices. A group of other beings we call ET's now, presenting themselves as the god or gods. The Annunaki beings are depicted in hieroglyphs with wings, the Royal White Draco appear in wings, of which Anu was one of them. Some people will not believe that last statement, but their psychosis effect prevents them from seeing that themselves. They will look at the hieroglyphs and see a man, and ignore the wings aspect because that is outside of their own program of understanding, if you develop your own program of understanding and not accept theirs, you will come to the conclusion that, A: hieroglyphs are disclosure of ET life and B: we see with our own eyes and interpret ourselves and C: we come to our own conclusions. A man with wings is not native to this planet, that means it is from somewhere else, that is ET Disclosure 101, it cannot get any simpler. People with psychosis cannot do that, and this world is riddled with people living within time and psychosis. They mentioned he carries the hourglass, which we in the UK call the egg timer, how apt is that? that we revealed the hour glass concepts in describing how life, loops, time and events unfolded here? It is said that the hour glass represents time and it's constant one way movement, which is describing linear, except time is an illusion and cannot be linear, as all events are past, present and future. If the hour glass represents only a constant one way movement of time, what happens when you tip that hour glass upside down? does time go backwards? I know common sense again, but that ends that illusion of a constant one way movement of time. The representation of the tipped upside down hour glass is a description of an Earth based event of pole flips, North becomes South and East becomes West. China and Russia become North America region, and Australia and New Zealand become top of the world, but what is up and what is down? essentially there is no up or down it depends on your orientation of standing and objects. Australia and New Zealand are described as Down Under, has anyone asked what are they down under from? are they beneath the surface of something? is Australia and New Zealand in a giant cave? Why describe it as down which means below something, and under which also means below something, the question is what are they beneath? As above so below springs to mind, but what is above and what is below? is the great question. Surely above and below have no real concept, as it is indicative of where and how you stand and your perspective from that particular vantage point. Ok Thomas now your getting too technical, but if you approach Earth from a space craft from the north pole, Australia would appear as the top of the world, not down under. So, your perception then becomes different from the differing vantage points of observation, does it not. The sky is up above us, but the sky is also below us, we just can't see it as it is below the horizon, look at the words below the horizon, the original version of horizon was to circle or bind. So the sky is not up or down but all around us, just like the Universes, just like the dimensions, just like the planes of reality. They are neither up or down but around us.

Time's constant one-way movement, and more generally and abstractly, entropy, the description said. Entropy is a scientific concept, as well as a measurable physical property that is most commonly associated with a state of randomness or disorder. So entropy is a state of randomness or disorder, so how can that be associated with fixed and recorded time? the answer is it can't. Entropy predicts that certain processes are irreversible or impossible, aside from the requirement of not violating the conservation of energy, the latter being expressed in the first law of thermodynamics. Entropy is central to the second law of thermodynamics, which states that the entropy of isolated systems left to spontaneous evolution cannot decrease with time, as they always arrive at a state of thermodynamic equilibrium, where the entropy is highest. Lets look at this line, entropy of isolated systems left to spontaneous evolution cannot decrease with time, so what they state is the randomness or disorder of evolution cannot decrease with time in an isolated system. And yet we are told this evolution was not done out of randomness or disorder, but was created by a god over time, which is contrary to scientific conclusions, more so in an isolated system. But what if Earth was in an isolated system, and that system is governed by time? I have thrown out random hints in recent shows to see if some of you picked up on it, three in particular, inside your matrix God is time, God is an AI, and you interact with Source outside of time, which is outside of an isolated system. Perhaps now those three statements make much more sense? if not ponder some more on it. As an image "Father Time's origins are curious", yes it is only curious because they leave key factors out of the narrative is why. But it also depends on which meaning of origins the writer was portraying, origins now is where you come from, but the original version of origin was ancestors or race. So origin like nations both meant race. The ancient Greeks themselves began to associate Chronos, their word for time, with the agricultural god Cronos, who had the attribute of a harvester's sickle, just like the grim reaper, who calls time on you. A sickle is a curved or crescent shaped blade, symbolizing the moon, all celebrate the Harvest Moon now, as the moon calls time on the light of the day. How curious can that be that the Father of time is also a harvester, now are you connecting the dots? They are the harvesters of life force energy, currency and time are replacements for life force energy, what is the saying? time is money, and money is a compensation for your labor, by doing labor you are using your life force energy. The Israeli word for time is Eth, Eth is also on the stock market called Ethereum, which is an open sourced blockchain crypto currency. The currency of the dead hence crypto steals your time which is money, which is life force energy. Cohencidence? But he is referring to agricultural crops some will say, which means greens, vegetables and fruits, yes to your perception, but what if an off world thinks of us as agricultural? Here is the description of agriculture, Agriculture is the science and art of cultivating plants and livestock. Your interpretation of livestock assumes it is to do with animals, but what if we are the livestock? Is there evidence of this? yes in the Hebrew Talmud again, they describe us, the goyim as animals, beasts, reference us as pigs, all those are our own livestock terms. One of the Parents who ran this planet for so long also echoed the Hebrew Talmud, same program, same beings is why, she said children is what you are the children of animals. Our birth certificates are a live stock, traded upon within the markets, which are called stocks, we are the living or live stock. Live stock can be said as one word or two, but whether two or one word the essence of it, and the notion behind it is one and the same. They told you all in Jupiter Ascending they consume our life force, in their religious ceremonies they told us to eat the flesh and drink the blood of Christ, that is cannibalism, but it's symbolic Thomas, symbolic of what? I would ask, symbolic of what? It is them and their fun and games again telling you to your face what they do, you cannot grasp it, as they have told you the reverse that man is top of the food chain, but when have they ever told us the truth? Canni which means to consume, Ba'al the god, so cannibalism is to consume the flesh of man as a sacrifice to the entity known as Baal, which is a title not a name. Rothschild, Moses, Baal, Ra were all titles and not individual beings. Is there evidence today of modern cannibalism outside of the church ceremonies? yes, we have found out they put aborted baby fetus cells in certain food, in particular fast foods. Curious term fast food, people relate the word fast with speed, and yet don't the Hebrewic and Muslim peoples fast from food, Hebrew and Muslim is one and the same religion by the way, Islam means Isis hidden, Israel means Isis and Ra are gods. So is the term fast foods meaning you are fasting from real food? oops They also put the baby fetuses in medicine, drugs, vaccines and cosmetics, which people consume, time for the Mewe vomit gif I think, that is only what we know at this point. Perhaps the description of Ba'al reveals more. Biblical, from Late Latin Baal, Greek Baal, from Hebrew Ba'al, literally "owner, master, lord," a title applied to any deity including Jehovah, but later a name of a particular Semitic solar deity worshipped licentiously by the Phoenicians and Carthaginians; Phoenicians are followers of the Phoenix, which is the Jewish bennu bird of death, out of our ashes they will rise is what they are telling us, but perhaps we have a more modern day Phoenicia called phoney cia. From ba'al "he took possession of," also "he married;" related to or derived from the Akkadian god-name Belu (source of Hebrew Bel), name of Marduk. oops. for whom the bell tolls. I hear it and activated, tick tock. He married, and the marriage ceremony for all females means you are wed not to your husband, but bound and wed to Ba'al. The Hebrews worshipped Baal, Bel and Marduk and still do to this day, perhaps the Trustee could explain that more on her channel? Given she worked directly with him every two thousand years for the past 15k years. Identical with the first element in Beelzebub and the second in Hannibal ("grace of Baal"), Hasdrubal ("help of Baal"). The name has been used figuratively in English for any "false god." The last line being the truth, they are all false gods, Baal, Marduk, Jehovah, Anu, Enki, Enlil, Moses, Noah, Melchizedek, Khan, Cohen, Shem, Ham and their 13 tribes of death and destruction. We are told by the tribal peoples that the gods brought us the technology called agriculture, why? to fatten us up, think different. The tribal peoples can be excused for ignorance back then, but not now, as many of them were in league with these off world harvesters, and still are to this day. The 4 corners states and tribal regions called Reservations, does anyone ask why they are called Reservations? a reservation is something you book for a stay is it not? and the tribal people who will not let people onto certain portions of their land, they are the booking agents for the off world entities is why. The Ute lands are riddled with off world and the public by and large cannot visit certain regions on their land, a land they share with other entities. Why? because they are all descendants of what we called the Indians, they came from India, via Africa and Egypt, and they were the disciples of Ham, Shem, Moses, Noah and other biblical names, all of which are off world entities who came here to use and abuse the native populace. Not all Native Americans are Indians, I want to make that clear, but many of them are claiming they are the 13th tribes or part of the 13 tribes, particularly the Cherokee but also others. They merged with the local populace, bred with them, killed them in their hundreds of thousands long before the latest boogeyman of these entities, called the white man arrived. The Hopi speak in revering terms of the Great White Brotherhood returning, that is the URS, Rus and Aryan peoples. The illusion is America was peaceful and all the tribes coalesced in peace together, another gigantic lie told to modern day man, like most of the rest of their his story it was all a fabrication and an illusion. Your 13 tribes of is ra el are or were all the disciples of these satanic off world harvesters of humans, I call them the Hebrew Annunaki. These Hebrews have done this in every country on this planet, snook in, took over their lands and crops and eventually killed many of the local populace, either with violence or starving them out by taking over and deny access to, or destroying their crops. For modern day evidence of that see Palestine, but also our story last week in India, the Israel envoy is running the farm lands of India and cutting the farmers out. The same has happened in last 100 years in America, since the Hebrew takeover of the Federal Reserve and this countries whole financial system. The farmers were forced off of their land, the corporates like Walmart brought their produce at less than cost rates, and the farmers were forced to sell or abandon their lands.

There is another word for time called Kaal, it represents time and death in Sanskrit, the letter K again and also related to India, Hindu, Jainism and Buddhism are of which we covered in no great light in the FRWL series. Is transferred into different spellings which is a common theme, to kala. It is also the name of a deity, in which sense it is not always distinguishable from kāla, meaning "black". So there are two words with same spelling of kala, one means time and death, the other means black, but change one letter again from kala to kali, and that means dark, which is black, it is all one and the same things. The Kali Ma worshipped in India and other places is the Dark Mother, some call it the Black Madonna associated with Moon cult worship and Lilith, Lilith was the Eve in at least one of the 6 civilizations of man. Man or Adam never stood a chance with two serpents in the garden, just there to seduce him onto a wrong path. It is often used as one of the various names or forms of Yama. Yama was known as the diety of death and related to the underworld. Yama a wrathful god or the Enlightened Protector of Buddhism that is considered worldly, said to judge the dead and preside over the Narakas ("Hell" or "Purgatory") and the cycle of rebirth. Which sounds like the Greek mythology of Hades and the underworld, it is, same people or beings, different epochs of time, different bodies but the same entity. Judging the dead and the Egyptian version was the Pleiadian Thoth, with his heart and feather justice system. Kala is another of the Hindu multi armed beings, again unless people are deformed, humans don't have multi arms. Do people not see something radically wrong with this portrayal, freaks of nature venerated, if only as many people were as kind to the disabled nowadays, the answer is where not, yet the religious cult element celebrate and venerate all kinds of freaks of nature. They all wait for the god to return, and yet your real god has never appeared in physical form ever. Your god or Source does not have a physical body, it never wrote books either. People only love god or gods when they have failed to remember their own connection to source. Yama only holds transitional places in hell where he oversaw the deceased before he, and the Generals of Five Paths, were assigned a course of rebirth. So, the Yama named kala or kaal holds transitional places in hell, and they are attributed to time and death, maybe where there is time, there is death, where there is time there is hell, maybe time is both? And these gods are the ones who imposed time on us all? Back to time and the Romans equated Chronos with Saturn, who also had a sickle, and was treated as an old man, often with a crutch, time, death and hell linked with Saturn, sickle shaped like a crescent moon, perhaps the Saturn Moon matrix makes more sense now also. The wings and hourglass were early Renaissance additions and he eventually became a companion of the Grim Reaper, personification of Death, often taking his scythe. He may have as an attribute a snake with its tail in its mouth, an ancient Egyptian symbol of eternity. So the Ouroborus is also Egyptian, the eternity symbol is also known as the mobius loop, another humanity and planetary based trap. The Titan's greatest benefaction for humanity seems to have been saving them from complete destruction. In an apparent twist on the myth of the so-called Five Ages of Man found in Hesiod's Works and Days (wherein Cronus and, later, Zeus created and destroyed five successive races of humanity), Prometheus asserts that Zeus had wanted to obliterate the human race, but that he somehow stopped him. Not all Titans were bad, and not all Olympians were either, there was elements in both groups that didn't go along with the rape and harvesting of humanity, and some tried to save man. But, his story goes to the victors, and humanity has lost every war until now, this time we went past the latest catastrophic civilization ending event in 2012, and we have an opportunity to chart a better and more peaceful path, and that is down to us all. In the Orphic tradition, the unaging Chronos was "engendered" by "earth and water", and produced Aether and Chaos, and an egg. Chronos had no parents and just appeared, maybe from the mists of time, and time has certainly produced chaos in the egg, which is the cosmos. If time was linear how can Chronos be unaging? But if Chronos and time just appeared from nowhere, perhaps Chronos is/was an AI. AI became time and time became the god of our system, which means our god here is an Artificial Intelligence. If you do time, it means to serve a prison sentence, time is also a limitation program, and time they say means a limited space of time, but could also be a limited time of space as well as a limited space time, when you ponder on that, this piece makes a whole lot of sense. Inception an act, process, or instance of beginning, but from the beginning of time, became our sentence of doing time for the benefit of the dark forces, step outside of time and it all ends. The bridge awaits and perhaps the shape of the movement of two planets observable in the skies now is indicative? and convergence of Saturn and Jupiter, which is Chronos and Zeus this month, signals that event and the great leap of mankind begins, one small step for man, one giant leap for the right kind of man.

Intel: heavy hidden war work now underway and some confirmations already garnered this week. We had to go back to the hidden war as some parts needed to be regained and re-established for the greater good. I cannot say what is unfolding, but I can say expect disruption and or delays of fake vaccines. We are in the final battle of the light and dark here now, do not be put off or distracted by the 85%, do not let them absorb you or your energy, for they are legions of the dark forces unwittingly or not. They are there for your distraction only, incapable of providing common sense or the backbone required to fight back. We on the other hand do, and despite coming so far and a tad weary, battered and worn, we are all still here and fighting. Take encouragement and empowerment from that, they threw everything at us, and still we stand. Further tests will arrive and be a challenge for us, but ride the wave, don't rise and fall with it. No fear, it is they who are in fear, not us, all their tricks, tools, spell casting and word magic and we are all still here. All their rape, pillaging and harvesting, and we are all still here. With the glitch outside of time and motion now back in play, things are about to get real interesting in coming days, weeks and months.
