

THI-SHOW TRANSCRIPT 2020-12-17

So, what do we have for tonight? well quite a varied and in some ways different show, more revealings exposes bits of intel scattered about the show and a laugh in some parts, a variety show to tickle all the emotions. I feel, sense and see a sense of circling the wagons within our group and more and more people reaching out to each other. People suddenly all connecting up and that is great to see, it is the correct time/space to be doing that, as it will be important in the next phase all in this group stick together and form a tighter bond. Forget the past build a future with each other and hold firm. Slowly but surely those who left within the last two years are all beginning to return, I guess like I have always said time always tells in their world. Our show is heavy, at times brutal truth and not all are ready to hear it, that is not a sleight on the individuals as the old world programs ran deep in many of us. Some say we should not let them back in, due to previous troubles caused and I understand that thinking, but we have to be different and allowing people second and sometimes more chances is, being different. We the people who seek the truth are very small in numbers in comparison to those who repeatedly swallow the lie, and if people go away and work on themselves and make a difficult choice of admitting in some part they were wrong, we should match that energy exchange and join hands once again. Trust is the key and those people have to rebuild it, but again we can match that effort with an element of support and a reaffirmation of what we stand for. I have always said our door is open to those who wish to walk back through, the 85% closed the door to us all and that didn't feel comfortable to us all at differing times, but we can show we can be different, think different and act different. No one host has suffered as much abuse than myself, yet I give people other chances and some will say that is wrong you will get more grief, on the face of it yes, but the real grief is not mine or ours, it is the individuals on the other side of the door. Pained with indecision, hemispheres fighting between truth or lie, light or dark, tyranny or personal responsibility, comfort zones or stepping outside of their box or boundaries, we at THI can help all those people overcome those internal battles, it is what we do. It is also testimony of another of our repeated memes, immigration of the future will not be country to country, but from their world into ours.

On Monday, Biden was confirmed and another of the great hopes put forward by Q to drain the swamp allegedly, William Barr was fired. Ultimately as I warned in August what would happen, has now all unfolded and the people need distractions from the lifestyles and freedoms being looted in front of their eyes. So out comes Hunter Biden stories, the new boogeyman the CCP, Dominion machines, lost, stolen or after time ballots, out comes release the Kraken which is a CIA program name. Meanwhile one in eight Americans reported they sometimes or often did not have enough food in November, according to a recent census survey. Nearly 26 million adults - 12% of all adults - reported in that their household had food shortages in the past week, according to Household Pulse Survey data collected in November. Overall, food insecurity has doubled since last year, reaching the highest level since 1998, when data about US household ability to get enough food was first collected. Just as we warned in spring last year.

Trump turned up at an Army parade this week and I thought he was in another country, the dark grey overcoats en masse looked like an Eastern European, Russia or Asian military parade, one hopes this is not a pointer to come. The 2014 alt media were at it again this week with their usual fear porn, Chinese troops in Canada, other troops in Honduras, F-16 shot down in Canada by Chinese troops, others spouting the CCP stole the election, another showed a leaked document of Communist party members in there thousands going online. These people espousing all this are agents of distraction, nothing more and nothing less and I warned you all that the alt media is as corrupted as MSM, and hopefully now many can see that. In a week where I got full confirmation that all top Rothschild's are still alive that shatters another myth put out in the corrupt alt media. The Russian narrative has failed, so now they switch to the Chinese narrative, why? both commies you see and they are coming to get you, newsflash they have been getting you for the past 100 years, but they are not Russian or Chinese per se, but the hidden hand that our show covered extensively. The CCP should stand for Clowns corrupting people with disinformation, fear tactics and above all distraction, whilst the hidden hand rape this country as it has done financially since 1913. This is from Anna Von Reitz and is partially correct with a slight faction based stance, it is who she left out that is the key. Many of you have received news stories, claiming--- correctly--- that Chinese Government Operatives have infiltrated nearly everything in sight, and are actively engaged in trying to conquer this country by any means fair or foul, and also clearly stating that many "American" politicians have been bought off and are engaged in acts of treason. All of that is true and apparent and has been for years. What isn't being said is just as important. The Chinese are doing this because they were hired to do it and promised big rewards if they did. Hear that? They have been paid off and instructed and assisted to do all this. By whom? Who else? The ones that are always at the bottom of the dogpile. The Brits, including the Lord Mayor, the Government of Westminster, the Governors of HSBC, the British Crown Corp, SERCO, and the BBC. Our "friends" at it again. So don't waste your spitwads and F-16s on China or Trudeau. Go directly for the head of the snake and whack it off. Target Edinburgh for starters and make sure you take out Glamis Castle. Then bomb the Inner City of London into smithereens. And if they still continue their "antics" we can give you a lot of other far more appropriate targets than Shanghai or Beijing. Before many people say why is Anna saying bomb London it is not the whole of London, it is the square mile. City of London is a private estate within the heart of London, is not part of London or the UK for that matter, it just happens to be on the land of England, but those that run it the Masonic Cult of Ra and fake Jews are the real problem to us all, including Jewish people. So no Anna it is not just "The Brits", you frequently leave out the Jewish elite connection which runs these countries. In their world there no countries, only pawns. I told people of the 4th Reich decades ago, and the response was we are America, we won't fall for that, newsflash you did near 80 years ago, and the steady drip of totalitarianism is now stinking to high heaven, yet people can't smell it for wearing non Covid masks. How many Americans asked why their government paid for 1/4M flights to and from Germany in 1947-48, in what is known as Operation Paperclip, I thought Germany lost? yet they moved everything over to America and you ended up with a very Jewish looking President in Harold Truman, who took over from a Dutch person Roosevelt, and then followed up with another Dutch Rothschild's based puppet called Eisenhower. It has all unfolded before your eyes whilst you were distracted by ball games, fast food, mindless tv and news channels from another world, at which point can you not see that America was always under attack, but not the direct way, but by stealth. Someone has always been coming to get Americans, but nobody arrived, not Russians, Muslims, Chinese, North Koreans, why? because the hidden hand was already here is why, they are like termites, you only see the damage they have done when it is too late. So, keep being distracted with voter fraud, mass arrests, were all going to die biblical prophecies, Trump or is it Drumpf, just like Trumann spelt with double N or Eisenhower or Roosevelt Theodore or Franklin or Scherrf or Hoover all very National Zionist sounding names them, or George Washington who fought for the British Rothschild and Thomas Jefferson who fought for the French Rothschild, and you will begin to realize this country was a playground for the national Zionist elites club. That spread out from Egypt into Europe then to Russia and now as Israel Cohen told you all in 1912, deliver America to our cause which was Israeli based rhetoric, but it is they who created all the programs of deception and takeovers of countries. The new "China" Communist party leaked data of "communist members" are NOT directly linked to China, Communism = Zionism/fascism/socialism = Hebrew Annunaki Communists Overtly Vaccinating Inside Democracies 2019, in 2020 they ID us all, who were the dissidents and who were their bots, in 2021 they have another Agenda, unless we stand up, it is all it takes. There is always something on the horizon and there are a few still citing secret behind the scenes chess moves that will benefit the people, great if it is, but forgive me as I will not be holding my breath for it. Promises have gone on for too long, and it has all the hallmark of faction fighting to me.

As the French closed the door of parliament with cement because they state that the parliamentarians do not represent the people, but represent the interests of the Globalists. The Canadian death rate is down this year, World death rate only 0.44% up, and America despite John Hopkins fear porn figures is still 170K deaths short of last year, with only 2.5 weeks left oops. Then a freedom of information to Merseycare NHS Foundation and Trust in Liverpool UK, was asked the question, how many patients died of Covid without pre-existing conditions? the answer - none, oops. In an article on the COVID vaccine rollout, CNN says that Americans shouldn't be alarmed if people start dying after taking the vaccine because "deaths may occur that won't necessarily have anything to do with the vaccine." In a survey of non factcheckers, non portal people and the common sense club, we found that statement can be reversed and also help fear, public should not be alarmed that Americans are dying as that won't necessarily have anything to do with the virus. Dr. Kelly Moore then went further with her globalist fascist addiction plans by stating, Vaccination cards will be used as the "simplest" way to keep track of Covid-19 shots, people who regularly listen to this show will not be surprised by either comment, we warned of it many months ago. "One of the things we want to make sure people understand is that they should not be unnecessarily alarmed if there are reports, once we start vaccinating, of someone or multiple people dying within a day or two of their vaccination who are residents of a long-term care facility. That would be something we would expect, as a normal occurrence, because people die frequently in nursing homes." yes moroso if your governor is called Newsome, Cuomo or labeled a Democrat. If you want to tell Kelly what you think of her statements call this number (615) 322-1488 or email her at Kelly.L.Moore@vanderbilt.edu All the things we warned about now unfolding $1500 seducements, tracking cards, tracking phones, denying entry to several locations, deny access to several things all to seduce the gullible public into accepting a DNA/RNA altering code, it is not a vaccine, only the genetic code.

The Seeding program: What is a seeding program? planting thoughts and narratives in people's minds, so they adopt it as a new meme, here is classic example of what I warned of last week. Good Morning Britain is facing backlash on Twitter after asking followers whether unvaccinated people should be banned from public places. The official social media account for the programme was slammed after the poll was posted online. It asked: "Should the unvaccinated be banned from public places?" Bizarrely 25% who are clearly bots, said yes. The question is who are the seeders? what are they planting? plant has three meanings, is it vegetables, fruits, trees or crops, or is it a machinery based plant? or is it a spy planted within our midst?

Here comes more seeding, Netanyahu: Vaccine drive to begin December 27, with 60,000 shots given a day Prime minister encourages all to be inoculated, says authorities developing 'green passport' allowing entry to malls, events for those who receive the inoculation. Israel will begin vaccinating its citizenry against corona virus on December 27 and will be able to inoculate 60,000 people a day, Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu said Wednesday. The only surprise is he didn't say 6M per day. At a press conference following the arrival of a preliminary batch of Pfizer's vaccines, the prime minister stated: "On the eve of Hanukkah, we've brought a great light to Israel," adding that the end of the pandemic was in sight. Earlier in the day, the first batch of Pfizer vaccine doses landed in Israel. "Tomorrow another shipment is arriving, a much larger one," Netanyahu said. "I'm asking that every Israeli citizen be vaccinated, and to do so, have requested to set an example and be the first person being vaccinated in Israel," he said, repeating a similar statement from earlier in the day. Netanyahu also said the Health Ministry was working on developing a “green passport.” “Whoever receives a vaccination will be able to show a certificate or application that would enable entry to events, malls and all kinds of services. “This will encourage vaccinations and help return us to normalcy quickly,” he said. Touting his achievement in securing the vaccines’ swift arrival, Netanyahu said: “It’s not to be taken for granted that Israel, which is... a small country with 9 million citizens should receive the vaccines at the same time as Britain and the leading countries in the world. Like I have stated all along, the Israeli regime cares not for it’s own people, never mind goyim as they call us. Does anyone not think to ask is this not an example of ze papers please?”

Funny they use the word normalcy again, most people think normalcy is a new word, nope it was used in 1920 by the treasonous President Harding in a speech following the war. Funny how his story repeats 1916-1920 was all about anti Russia, 2016-2020 was all about anti Russia, in 1919 there was a virus that allegedly killed many around the world, in 2019 there was a virus that allegedly killed many around the world, in 1920 the word normalcy was used, in 2020 it returns. Normalcy 1857, "mathematical condition of being at right angles, state or fact of being normal in geometry," so it is all about the patterns again, are you seeing the pattern now?

Oman today welcomed Morocco’s decision to normalise relations with Israel through a US-brokered agreement, and the kingdom’s renewed commitment to a two-state solution to the Palestinian problem. There is that word again, normalise. “The Sultanate of Oman welcomes what the King Mohammed VI of sisterly Morocco announced in his phone contacts with US President Donald Trump and the Palestinian President Mahmoud Abbas,” the Omani Foreign Ministry said. “We hope this will boost efforts for achieving comprehensive, fair and lasting peace in the Middle East,” it added. Morocco is the fourth Arab country to agree to establish normal ties with Israel since August after the UAE, Bahrain and Sudan. Not to sure it is normal ties and has the element of subnormal if you ask me, whilst the world is distracted, they with Trump and Kushner are organizing a peaceful coup d'etat, is it a coup d'etat or coup de grace a merciful death blow to those countries. Once the termites enter your country the damage has already begun, you just won't see it yet. Oman borders Yemen and clearly they have already signed onto the Israelization of the Saudi Peninsula.

Another distraction program is the Hunter Biden issues, who cares whether a politicians son did wrong things, what difference does it make to our lives? If he gets arrested and or jailed what will it change for you or us? But it proves the Bidens are corrupt, and? what about Trumps connections? what about Pompeo's connections and what about the snake in law Kushner and his connections? What about Fauci connections? What about Mnuchin connections? What about Mitt Romney connections? what about Ted Cruz connections, Marco Rubio, Rick Scott connections and the list goes on, they are all Republican appointees not Democrat, although both Trump and Kushner were Democrats before 2016. The point is it makes no difference, at which point will people see that? All this type of alt media narrative is reflective of society in a competitive drama syndrome effect, of pointing out the failure of others to then give the self, an element of self satisfaction of their own saintliness. But it's not true is it? we have all done wrong things, things we are not proud of, but this hiding behind and pointing out others failures or wrong doings, whilst ignoring our own has helped no one. All politicians are corrupt or have been corrupted, otherwise they would not be in those positions, do you think the cabal are that stupid and would allow people who are service to others within their own control structure? Come on people we have to think better than that, think and act different will get us through this, not repeating old failed programs that have never worked for we the people. This group and it's knowledge base by and large has developed past the stage of arguing over poli"tic"s and politicians. All in the word they are tics/parasites all of them, and to become a developed society we have to move past the need for government. We have to develop enough to become self sufficient and self governing.

The US Supreme Court has rejected an unprecedented attempt to throw out election results in four battleground states that was backed by President Donald Trump. The lawsuit, filed this week by the state of Texas, sought to invalidate results in Georgia, Michigan, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin. President-elect Joe Biden won all four. The lawsuit was supported by 18 state attorneys general and 106 Republican members of Congress. But in a brief order rejecting the bid, the Supreme Court ruled on Friday that Texas did not have legal standing to bring the case. The court rejected a separate legal challenge against Mr. Biden's victory in Pennsylvania earlier this week, dismissing it in a one-sentence ruling. So much for the big Q push of Trump allegedly getting all his own people in the Supreme Court, to then drain the swamp. Like everything else in the past 4 years nothing seems to have changed. I would love to report differently I really would, but the evidence against such outside of click bait alt media shows is now overwhelming. Personally I no longer care whether Trump wins or not, his decision to not only fund fake vaccines manufacturers and then give an untested fake vaccine to the American people is an act of treason against we the people.

The U.S. Senate threw its weight behind the annual National Defense Authorization Act, or NDAA, a $740 billion bill setting policy for the Department of Defense, voting by a large margin to advance the bill on Friday. $740B to a fake military group who are doing what to save the American people from tyranny? whilst the so called stimulus bill which was promised to happen in July by Mnuchin, of which only a small portion goes to the American people is only at $900B. Throw in $10B to Israel and $14B to vaccine manufacturers all of which Trump approved, whilst failing for 4 years to get the peoples money out of the Trust, and a clear case of the people being the lowest priority emerges. Newsflash, we are not a priority to either party, politicians are the peanut gallery in the Hunger Games show, watching the people starve, be homeless, die and fight each other, we need an alternative, it is called The Peoples Club.

The Western media have hailed Ethiopia's Premier Abiy Ahmed as a "liberal reformer" ever since he rose to power in the East African country nearly two years ago. Remarkably, despite the chaos and conflict that has accompanied his leadership, the same media tend to portray the mayhem as somehow due to opposition to his benign reforms. Recently federal military forces have launched operations in a northern region of Tigray. Western media amplified Abiy's claim that the state of emergency was necessitated because, Tigray militia had attacked federal forces first. Tigray leaders say that is turning reality on its head, claiming that they are the victims of aggression sanctioned by the central government in Addis Ababa. The Tigray People's Liberation Front (TPLF) were formerly the main ruling faction before Abiy's ascent to power. So it is easy in the simplistic Western narrative to portray the latest conflict, as a contest between a reforming pro-West PM and a revanchist old regime. After all, Premier Abiy was awarded a Nobel Peace Prize last year for his efforts, to supposedly normalize relations with neighboring Eritrea, with which Ethiopia fought a border war nearly two decades ago. Eritrea is just north of Ethiopia and they are the two African countries opposite the Arabian peninsula and opposite of Yemen, all very caliphate like to me. Lots of bad actors have been awarded that fake prize over the years, so don't think of all those with that prize are saints, most are not. He was generally feted as a democratic progressive bringing years of hostility to an end. That "normalization" has yet to produce any meaningful result in terms of restoring neighborly relations. It was more a public relations exercise to burnish Abiy's image as a benign pro-democracy, pro-peace figure. I lived in Ethiopia's Tigray region for eight years including during two years of Abiy's premiership. I have witnessed the entire country slide into bloody internecine wars between the many nations that comprise Ethiopia's 110 million population. All this carnage involving thousands of casualties – rarely reported in the media – occurred precipitously after Abiy became leader. The way Tigray people see it, Abiy, who is alleged to have spent periods of time as an intelligence officer seconded in the US, while a member of the TPLF-led former government, is working for a foreign agenda to undermine Ethiopia's independent politics and economic development. During nearly 27 years of TPLF-led government following a revolutionary war ending in 1991, Ethiopia was an important strategic partner for Chinese investment in Africa. Much of its impressive development was financed with Chinese loans – not with private Western capital, although China still remains a top foreign donor. For many Ethiopians, Abiy Ahmed is seen as an imposter figure – Tigray sources even allege he could be a CIA agent – who has overseen the weakening of a proud independent nation, the only African nation that was never fully colonized by Europeans. His Nobel gong and Western media indulgence is part of the cover for what is otherwise a sabotage operation, to turn the country into a failed state henceforth to be dependent on Western capital and geopolitics. Should we be surprised? War criminals and conmen – from Henry Kissinger to Barack Obama – are often decorated with the accolade. Interesting they should mention links with the CIA, not uncommon in our shows to find their tentacles reach into every crevice around the world. But Ethiopia is largely controlled by Zionist elements and has a large Jewish population there, due to that location being the 4th and final Garden of Eden, is it a coincidence that Ethiopia has border wars just like the country known as Israel?

I was analyzing a report on taxes for the various brackets, which led me into some set of figures to unravel and the conclusion was eerily similar to a figure I had mentioned on earnings for a TPC project or company. The Western world would and should be humbled as well as surprised, at how little earnings raises you above a threshold of wealth, in comparison to other regions of the world. But, the counter argument is, I don't live in the other regions I live here and it is expensive, but it is counter argumentative because prices are also based on earnings, that is how their markets works. I had mentioned a top figure of $80K for an individual, and people in certain regions of America would all say en masse, that is not enough to feed a family, but again the argument is and can be countered with, that most families have two earners, not one like in the past. That was the case before this fake pandemic anyway. So, we all focus on the 1% and their riches, but where do the rest of the world sit in terms of wealth and the question was, how much do you have to earn in a year to become part of the top 5%. The answer is $104K or 80K GBP, that puts you inside the world's top 5% of earners, $80-100K puts you at 5%-8% of the world's wealthiest earning bracket, and some said $80K is too low, no your over the top lifestyle is too high. Move to another area there are plenty where your money goes further, and the need for larger wages is not required. The planet provides enough for everyone's needs, but not enough for everyone's greed.

TECHNOLOGY: Multiple federal government agencies, including the U.S. Treasury and Commerce departments, have had some of their computer systems breached as part of a widespread global cyber espionage campaign believed to be the work of the Russian government, according to officials and people familiar with the matter. Russia's foreign-intelligence service is suspected of being behind the hacks of the U.S. government networks—in which some internal communications are believed to have been stolen—and the operation is related to a cyber breach disclosed last week of U.S.-based cybersecurity firm FireEye, one of the people familiar with the matter said. While those familiar with the hack couldn't precisely specify its scope or the resulting damage to the U.S. government, several described it as among the most potentially worrisome cyberattacks in years, because it may have allowed Russia to access sensitive information from government agencies, defense contractors and other industries. Except American agencies work with and share all date with the KGB, so that is bollox. One person familiar with the matter said the campaign was a “10” on a scale of one to 10, in terms of its likely severity and national-security implications. The question is was it a hack or a restructure plan I was aware of a week last Saturday, things could get real interesting following that, time will tell as always.

Here is another of their play on words and seducement programs related to technology. A hybrid cloud perhaps done by hybrid people or beings? How does hybrid cloud work? Traditional hybrid cloud architecture Initially, hybrid cloud architecture focused on the mechanics of transforming portions of a company's on-premises data center into private cloud infrastructure, and then connecting that infrastructure to public cloud environments hosted off-premises by a public cloud provider (e.g. AWS, Google Cloud Services, IBM Cloud, Microsoft Azure). This was accomplished using a prepackaged hybrid cloud solution such as Red Hat OpenStack (link resides outside IBM) or by using sophisticated enterprise middleware to integrate cloud resources across the environments, and unified management tools for monitoring, allocating and managing those resources from a central console or 'single pane of glass.' Central console or single pain of glass is the same technology in Bucegi Mountains, holographic screen technology, given the original mean for a cloud was a mass of rock or hill, perhaps makes sense? Figuratively cloud means something that obscures, darkens, threatens, or casts a shadow, indeed. As part of the next critical step in their digital transformations, organizations are building new applications and modernizing legacy applications to leverage cloud native technologies - technologies that enable consistent and reliable development, deployment, management and performance across cloud environments and across cloud vendors. At a higher level, public and private cloud are no longer physical 'locations' to connect. For example, many cloud vendors now offer public cloud services that run in their customers on-premises data centers; private clouds, once run exclusively on-premises, are now often hosted in off-premises data centers, on virtual private networks (VPNs) or virtual private clouds (VPCs), or on dedicated infrastructure rented from third party providers (who are sometimes public cloud providers). Which means new boss same as old boss as all the same companies run it. Is it a cloud or in the clouds is the great question, if it is in the clouds who is running it? is it people on Earth premises or people off Earth premises? Red Hat is open source and so a NATO/CIA venture, but here is what it also means. red hat: 1. (Roman Catholic Church) the broad-brimmed crimson hat given to cardinals as the symbol of their rank and office 2. (Roman Catholic Church) the rank and office of a cardinal They are created in consistories by the pope and one of their foremost duties is the election of a new pope (invariably from among themselves, although not a formal requirement) when the Holy See is vacant, following the death or the resignation of the reigning pontiff. The most senior cardinal priest of the College is termed the protopriest, so a cohen, not a red hat but a red flag.

What is server less computing? Server less is an approach to computing that offloads responsibility for common infrastructure management tasks (e.g., scaling, scheduling, patching, provisioning, etc.) to cloud providers and tools, allowing engineers to focus their time and effort on the business logic specific to their applications or process. The most useful way to define and understand server less is focusing on the handful of core attributes that distinguish serverless computing from other compute models, namely: The server less model requires no management and operation of infrastructure, enabling developers to focus more narrowly on code/custom business logic. That is the seducement, it saves "time". It is AI. Server less computing runs code only on-demand on a per-request basis, scaling transparently with the number of requests being served. Server less computing enables end users to pay only for resources being used, never paying for idle capacity. Another seducement, look what it saves you. Server less is fundamentally about spending more time on code, less on infrastructure. The biggest controversy associated with server less computing is not around its value, use cases, or which vendor offerings are the right fit for which jobs, but rather the name itself. An ongoing argument around server less is that the name is not appropriate because there are still servers in server less computing. Why the name "server less" has persisted is because the name is describing an end user's experience. In a technology that is described as "server less," the management needs of the underlying servers are invisible to the end user. The servers are still there, you just don't see them or interact with them. To the vast majority of people it is server less anyway, only a few know where are the servers and less know who runs them, so to the average user, all computing is server less. All very open source that to me, and what it confirms is, they are building a new one because their old systems went down. Perhaps the right term for these clouds are cloud cuckoo land, which generally means people are a bit nuts or fanciful, but perhaps the original description may make more sense again, imaginary city built in air, 1830, translating Aristophanes' play in "The Birds" (414 B.C.E.). Cloud-land "place above the earth or away from the practical things of life, dreamland, the realm of fancy" is attested from 1840. Floating cities anyone? Avatar? the floating in mid air island off of NW Africa reported by the US Military? Floating cities can also be space stations, just saying, the question is, who or what is in them?

A robot surgeon has removed a tumour weighing 5kg from a 44-year-old woman's ovaries. The complicated surgery, conducted at Al Qassimi Hospital for Women and Children in Sharjah, used the Da Vinci Robotic surgical system that performs minimally invasive surgery with advanced set of instruments and a 3D high-definition view of the surgical area. The procedure was initiated by Dr Labib Riachi, reconstructive surgery and robotic gynecology specialist and member of the American Board of Female Pelvic Medicine, with the help of Al Qassimi Hospital's gynecologists. "The painless surgery was done through a small 2cm opening in the abdomen and patient was sent home within 24 hours without complication and with minimal pain compared to traditional surgeries," explained one of the doctors who was part of the team. Dr Mohamed Salim Al Olama, Mohap undersecretary and head of board of directors of the Emirates Health Services Corporation, said the ministry is keen in harnessing the latest robots to conduct surgeries, and was doing its utmost to double its achievements in the artificial intelligence field. "This is in line with the wise directives of the UAE Government, which seeks to become a hub of incorporating AI (artificial intelligence) in health services in the Middle East for performing robotic surgeries," he said. What a way to bring in robot staff by injecting all the front line nurse staff first? Interesting they use Da Vinci for it's name, given it was not the proper name for who we know as Leonardo, his real name was not leon but lion, as in Lionardo di ser Piero, da vinci was not the surname it was the name of the Province he came from, Vinci. The last supper picture he is famous for, carries two anomalies upon closer inspection. One there is glass cups on the table, was there clear glass cups available at that time, no and 2, why is Mary Magdalene carrying a knife and one of the alleged disciples holding her arm to stop her using it? Lionardo grew up in the Medici owned province and was connected to the Medici's in more ways than one. Court records of 1476, when he was aged twenty-four, show that Leonardo and three other young men were charged with sodomy in an incident involving a well-known male prostitute. The charges were dismissed for lack of evidence, and there is speculation that since one of the accused, Lionardo de Tornabuoni, was related to Lorenzo de' Medici, the family exerted its influence to secure the dismissal.

COVID: Here we go with the race issue again, that yet again targets the so called privileged whites, what an oxymoron that is. The university allows student exemptions for medical and religious reasons as well as people of color who are concerned about fulfilling the requirements. Ivy League college Cornell University implemented a flu vaccination requirement for all students during the fall 2020 semester, but allowed for minority student exemptions based on "historical injustices and current events." Through a Behavioral Compact, the collection of schools known as the Ivy League, required students attending the Cornell to receive a flu shot as a public health strategy in response to Covid. Exemptions applied only for medical or religious reasons, along with concerns from black, indigenous or other people of color. Is white not classed as a color anymore? "Students who identify as Black, Indigenous, or as a Person of Color (BIPOC) may have personal concerns about fulfilling the Compact requirements based on historical injustices and current events," the Cornell Heath website states. "We recognize that, due to longstanding systemic racism and health inequities in this country, individuals from some marginalized communities, may have concerns about needing to agree to such requirements." Students at the school, in Ithaca, New York, can apply for an exemption to required vaccines. However, the BIPOC exemption to the flu vaccine does not explain a requirement that must be met, in order for the exemption to be approved. Cornell explained why some groups may feel skeptical agreeing to the flu shot requirement. "Historically, the bodies of black, indigenous, and other people of color (BIPOC) have been mistreated, and used by people in power, sometimes for profit or medical gain," school officials said. Another school based Institution that doesn't know it's arse from it's elbow, no wonder no one understands anything much in this country if these people are the top of the knowledge tree. Perhaps the Ivy League can explain why only one color of people is vanishing rapidly on this planet, the whites, whilst populations of other colors have expanded in the past 100 years. 30%+ of the worlds demographic a hundred years ago, now down to 9% and only 3/4B left.

President Trump now known as the vaccine president for bots, lashed out anew at the Food and Drug Administration in a Friday morning tweet, attacking the agency's commissioner, Dr. Stephen M. Hahn, by name for not approving a Covid-19 vaccine faster. Continuing his practice of publicly upbraiding subordinates with whom he is displeased, Mr. Trump told Dr. Hahn to "stop playing games and start saving lives!!!" He called the F.D.A. "a big, old, slow turtle," flush with funds but mired in bureaucracy. The F.D.A. has been walking a thin line, trying to fast-track vaccine approval without undercutting public confidence in the process. Dr. Hahn has repeatedly said regulators will not approve a vaccine that has not been proven safe and effective. The president's tirade came the morning after an outside advisory panel of experts voted overwhelmingly to recommend that F.D.A. regulators approve a vaccine developed by Pfizer and its German partner, BioNTech, for emergency use. The regulators are expected to issue the authorization as early as Friday, and in a statement on Friday said it put the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and those involved with Operation Warp Speed on notice "so they can execute their plans for timely vaccine distribution."

Operation Warp Speed is a US deep state project to facilitate, at an unprecedented pace and expense, the development, manufacturing, and distribution of a COVID-19 vaccine to the entire US population by January 2021. A significant number of military personnel is utilized in this effort. On April 30, 2020 the Trump administration announced a "Manhattan Project-style" effort to drastically cut the time needed to develop a corona virus vaccine, The Manhattan project was to develop nuclear weapons, from nuclear weapons to unclear weapons Mr. Trump. Operation Warp Speed is the brainchild of Presidential Adviser and son-in-law Jared Kushner. It is being formally run by the Health and Human Services Secretary Alex Azar and Defense Secretary Mark Esper, who will work with a new Vaccine Czar. The Vaccine Czar selected for Kushner's Operation Warp Speed is former GlaxoSmithKline Chairman of its Vaccines Division, Moroccan-born US citizen, Dr. Moncef Slaoui. 60 military officials — including at least four generals — are involved in the leadership of Operation Warp Speed, many of whom have never worked in health care or vaccine development. Just 29 of the roughly 90 leaders on the chart aren't employed by the Department of Defense; most of those work for the Department of Health and Human Services and its subagencies. Normally a vaccine takes 10 years to develop, due to safety tests, but in this case, Big Pharma companies have been fully indemnified by the US government against liabilities should vaccine recipients die or develop serious disease as a result of the hyper-rushed vaccine. Fourteen promising candidates have been chosen from the 100+ vaccine candidates currently in development for Covid-19 — some of them already in clinical trials with U.S. government support, which will be reduced to 3-5 in the end. In April 2020, the leading US Government candidate for winning the “warp speed” race to roll out a COVID-19 vaccine was Slaoui’s Moderna Inc. in Cambridge, Massachusetts. On April 16, Moderna got an award from US government agency BARDA for $483 million to accelerate development of mRNA-1273m, a gene-edited vaccine technology that is entirely experimental and has never before approved for use as a vaccine. Dr. Slaoui also has ties to the projects of the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation. He sat on the board of the Gates-funded International AIDS Vaccine Initiative. The IAVI was initiated in 1994 at a Rockefeller Foundation conference and is backed among others by the Gates Foundation, by the US Department of Defense and by Anthony Fauci’s National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases. Johnson & Johnson, which hopes to begin trials of its most promising potential vaccine at latest by the first week of September 2020, announced that it had struck a deal with the intelligence connected company Emergent BioSolutions of Maryland to mass produce its product. The U.S. Congress has directed almost $10 billion to this effort through supplemental funding, including the CARES Act, and Congress has appropriated other flexible funding. Over $6.5 billion has been designated by the US Congress for countermeasure development through the Biomedical Advanced Research and Development Authority (BARDA), along with $3 billion for NIH research. Instead of entering into contracts directly with vaccine makers, more than $6 billion in Operation Warp Speed funding has been routed through a defense contract management firm called Advanced Technologies International, Inc. ATI then awarded contracts to companies working on COVID-19 vaccines. As a result, the contracts between the pharmaceutical companies and ATI may not be available through public records requests, and additional documents are exempt from public disclosure for five years. The U.S. federal government is making investments in manufacturing and distribution at its own risk much earlier than usual, giving firms the knowledge that they can invest aggressively in the development. The key in that is investments, Trump said it in that short speech last week, they are profiting off of a fake illness they created and subsequently a fake virus. My information I received this week is the fake virus was started and created in France and transported to Wuhan. Covid-19 was made in France by French scientists at the Institut Pasteur from natural Sars-CoV, then transferred to Wuhan where the People of Institut Pasteur released it, unbeknownst to scientists in the Wuhan laboratory and the Chinese government. Remember our intel from March/April of the stronger variant being released in France and Panama, I suspect this is what they are describing. Covid was in many countries before Wuhan, with links to Harvard as we revealed earlier. Not one country was involved in it, but several countries, this was a coordinated attack.

INTEL The hidden war is back in full flow and some interesting developments on that side of things have been revealed in various differing confirmations this week. The skullduggery planned this and next week appears to have been addressed and some real interesting developments could arise before the years end or early into the new year. I will reveal details and more when safe to do so, so please do not ask me questions on the who, what or why of that ilk, I will not answer them. Expect a major false flag event in one or more countries, as they are losing the narrative on this Covid badly.

You know how they love to have the acronyms and word magic and mistranslation games, I pondered on the 3 key words spanning the three years from 2019, 2020 and 2021. Covid 19, followed by ID2020, followed by Agenda 21 what are the first three letters for each year? another coincidence?

Technology and bots, all take your medicine now to become better bots and you can see your results on your tablet, is tablet a computer system or medicine or one and the same?

Ase or ashe (from Yoruba àṣẹ) is a West African philosophical concept through which the Yoruba of Nigeria conceive the power to make things happen and produce change. It is given by Olodumare to everything — gods, ancestors, spirits, humans, animals, plants, rocks, rivers, and voiced words such as songs, prayers, praises, curses, or even everyday conversation. The name Olodumare symbolises a divine "Entity" following these characteristics: not having a father or mother; one that simultaneously is and is not bound by space. Which is exactly the same description for Father Time or Chronos. Existence, according to Yoruba thought, is dependent upon it. In addition to its sacred characteristics, ase also has important social ramifications, reflected in its translation as "power, authority, command." A person who, through training, experience, and initiation, learns how to use the essential life force of things to willfully effect change is called an alaase. Rituals to invoke divine forces reflect this same concern for the autonomous ase of particular entities. The recognition of the uniqueness and autonomy of the ase of persons and gods is what structures society and its relationship with the other-world. So, when they talk of Lucifer ase, polymer ase and transcript ase, protein-ase, synthet-ase perhaps now you will have a better understanding of what these clowns are up to, unless you are part of the general malaise, not spelt same way but pronounced same way. If you don't you may well find yourself under other categories that end in ase, like decease, disease, erase or cease.

POSITIVE COVID NEWS: Britain's vaccines minister announced Monday that the government will definitely not mandate the corona virus shot, and that it has no plans to introduce immunity passports, or place restrictions on those who do not take the jab. Nadhim Zahawi made the announcement after a petition with more than 324,000 signatures against the so called 'COVID passports' was debated in parliament. It is an about face for Zahawi, who just two weeks ago said that he expects bars, cinemas, restaurants and sports stadiums to all demand proof of vaccination against COVID-19 before allowing customers to enter their venues. An appeal from the Metropolitan Police urging Londoners to turn in people suspected of having potentially dangerous opinions has backfired, after the message was flooded with George Orwell references and satirical 'reports'. In a tweet, the police force encouraged Britons to tell them their concerns "in confidence" if they become worried about someone they know "developing extremist views." The message included a link to a counter-terrorism initiative called Act Early, which urges individuals to contact authorities if "someone close is expressing extreme views or hatred, which could lead to them harming themselves or others." If you are worried about someone you know developing extremist views, #ActEarly and tell us your concerns in confidence. According to the site, signs of "radicalization" include "An obsessive or angry desire for change or 'something to be done'" and "spending an increasing amount of time online and sharing extreme views on social media." People are encouraged to call a hotline to share their concerns with specially trained officers. "You won't be wasting our time and you won't ruin lives, but you might save them," the website states. The Met's Twitter PSA was met with considerable suspicion. Several replies made reference to George Orwell's '1984' and compared London's cops to a modern-day thought police. "Anyone reading a book you don't like, don't stand for it, report them to the authorities for wrong think," reads one of many disapproving comments. Gerard Batten, a former UKIP MEP, accused the police force of becoming increasingly authoritarian. Yes, I am deeply concerned that your officers are being indoctrinated with hate against ordinary decent people who demonstrate & defend their freedoms & liberties. Your reputation is going the same way as the Gestapo, KGB & Stasi. More desperation tactics and seeding and more people calling it out as bs.

Netherlands: 87K nurses all refused to take the Covid vaccines stating they were not guinea pigs, exactly, given nurses are front line for their experiments they have the right to refuse, and I am requesting all nurses and doctors to call their bluff and say no. What can they do if you all say no? fire you? who will run the hospitals then?

SYDNEY — Clinical trials of a COVID-19 vaccine being developed by the Australian University of Queensland in partnership with biotech company CSL have been abandoned after participants returned false positive HIV test results. The treatment was a key part of Australia's response to the pandemic, and the government had signed a deal to buy 51 million doses. Vaccines typically take years of painstaking research to develop, but COVID-19 has sent scientists around the world racing to find an effective treatment. The Australian government was no different, but it has announced the sudden termination of clinical trials of a vaccine being developed at the University of Queensland. A small component of the experimental drug was derived from the human immunodeficiency virus, also known as HIV. It is used to give the vaccine stability, helping it to recognize and then neutralize the corona virus. HIV in the vaccines for a Covid virus? does that make any sense whatsoever? Some participants recorded false positive HIV test results. Researchers have stressed that the treatments are harmless and do not expose patients to the risk of disease. Biotech giant CSL, which has worked alongside the university team in Queensland, has insisted the vaccine had a "strong safety profile." they can say that as they have immunity if it is not. Phase one clinical trials involving 216 people began in July. Phases two and three have been canceled. Australia has recorded 28,000 corona virus cases since the pandemic began, and 908 people have died, according to Johns Hopkins University data. Which is 0.00003% of the population, and given they are blaming many deaths on Covid when clearly not as the CDC revealed makes that figure even smaller.

An emergency approval for vaccines is not a legal option in Switzerland. Swissmedic works closely with international partner authorities and reviews all applications for COVID-19 vaccines as a matter of urgency and in a "rolling" procedure. The companies supplied further details on their COVID-19 vaccines. This enables authorizations to be issued quickly once sufficient data on safety, efficacy and quality are available. Emergency approvals for the use of vaccines fall short of regular authorizations. Even in countries that possess the legal instruments for placing them on the market earlier than usual, the investigations are still ongoing. In Switzerland, there is no legal basis for the emergency use of COVID-19 vaccines while the authorization applications are still being processed. Parliament and the Federal Council have decided that, for the protection of the public, the regulatory authority (Swissmedic) should review the submitted documentation carefully according to scientific criteria. Pity Mr. Trump couldn't exhibit same criteria and thinking towards his fellow Americans, but he is a business man and sees an opportunity and ruining lives don't matter to the greed based peoples, ask the thousands of staff he never paid playing the self bankruptcy game. Like he stated it was an investment, here is a reminder.

New Zealand has lifted almost all of its corona virus restrictions after reporting no active cases in the country. At midnight local time (12:00 GMT), all of New Zealand moved to level one, the lowest of a four-tier alert system. Under new rules, social distancing is not required and there are no limits on public gatherings, but borders remain closed to foreigners. New Zealand has reported no new Covid-19 cases for more than two weeks. Prime Minister Jacinda Ardern told reporters she did "a little dance" when she was told the country no longer had any active virus cases. "While we're in a safer, stronger position, there's still no easy path back to pre-Covid life, but the determination and focus we have had on our health response will now be vested in our economic rebuild," Ms Ardern said. "While the job is not done, there is no denying this is a milestone. So can I finish with a very simple, 'Thank you, New Zealand'." I guess they felt the heat over there, but also beware of elites in large numbers moving to those islands, it was their plan a decade ago.

An Austrian parliamentary member exposed the defectiveness of the government's COVID-19 tests by demonstrating in the parliament how a glass of Coca Cola tested positive for COVID-19. In footage from the meeting in Vienna Friday, FPO General Secretary Michael Schnedlitz brings a glass of Coca Cola to the podium, from which he proceeds to collect drops to use on an antigen rapid test being used on a mass scale. After going to the lectern and starting his speech, the politician sprinkled few drops of cola on corona rapid test. Three minutes later the test showed a result: Coca Cola was COVID-19 positive. With this information I am calling for a complete lockdown of all Coca Cola products, they should be removed from the shelves of all stores to not infect the customers, all Coca Cola plants and facilities to close down until further notice, and when the notice expires declare a second wave is imminent and then close it down again. Create think tanks to warn us of how dangerous Coca Cola is, develop University thesis's to counter the Coca Cola virus. Get the John Hopkins center to use their special maths skills to count how many Coca Cola infections there are, and then times it by ten and create fear and panic. Get the portal people to declare global martial law lockdown until all Coca Cola virus products are deemed safe. Get the portal people to place cans of Coca Cola in an Italy hospital, fill all the beds up with them and then film it and say it was in New York. Run 24/7 television stating how hospitals are over run with Coca Cola viruses, make nurses and doctors stay in harms way of the Coca cola machine in the hallway, declare them heroes for doing so, and then tell them for their valor and bravery they will be first in line for the cure for Coca Cola virus with a vaccine that doesn't contain the virus. Put forward a stimulus package for affected by Coca Cola products and then delay it in Congress, bring out experts from the technology world to warn of the pandemic these soda products are causing. Develop Coca Cola tests call them PCR or Prevalent Cola Reactions, add Pepsi to the test and declare it positive and then lockdown measures to be continued. Blame Russia for the Coca Cola crisis after Americans finds some flimsy evidence linking Coca Cola with the ancient Rus people, then declare they found samples of it in Siberia. The CIA will produce digital photographs of evidence from 2000 BC and declare it as fact, Reuters will confirm it and the Hebrew Annunaki media all publish it and say look we told you those whites were the problem all along. Insist all users of Coca Cola to be quarantined and they will not be allowed to travel or visit stadiums, bars, restaurants or fly. Roll out non Coca Cola users passports declare the users of Coca Cola as lepers. Declare Coca Cola adverts as irresponsible and hate crimes and ban them from social media. Create a vaccine against Coca Cola out of thin air in less that 1 year when it normally takes 10-25 years, wheel out soda experts to declare it is safe, create Coca Cola czars and call them Dr. Peppers. Ask the military to administer the vaccine, whilst singing I'd like to buy the world a coke. Create new words like normalcy, the new normal and the Great Reset and declare with the Coca Cola virus nothing will ever be the same anymore. Change the calendar to year zero and have 0 B.C and declare past years BC as Before Coke. Ban marches against those in support of the Coca Cola virus and shout slogans Coca Cola lives matter. Declare all people who have been in the vicinity of Coca Cola for a period of 15 minutes as a national security risk. Mark lines on the shop floor and cordon off the Coca Cola aisle, make people stand outside in the cold and declare any items within a 6 foot radius of Coca Cola to be declared non essential. Deliver all those infected by the Coca Cola virus into elderly nursing homes and call it the Cuomo act. Stay six feet away from all cans of Coca Cola as it knows how far you are away, beware if Coca Cola cans starts singing happy birthday to you, as the letters B and P will infect you, do not open can of Coca Cola as it has aerosol properties that can disperse the virus on you. Report to the authorities if there are more than 6 cans or bottles congregated together, get scientist to inject them and recode them and replace them with natural water, get Trump to send $14B to find a cure to stop Coca Cola, we must rename it and call it the Coca Corona virus then announce we have a natural therapy to the Coca Corona virus, it is called Dr. Pepper and SALT act, and the world rejoices and we go back to the American dream, where eventually you all wake up and into reality land.

DEEPER COVID EXPOSES: I am an industrial engineer at Moderna and the other one of us is a process development engineer. I am sure the same things is happening with Pfizer-BioNtech. It was hard to put things together based on the small quantities of additions happening in manual step which is highly unorthodox in a continuous process production. The explanation we got was highly sensitive trade secret adjuvants being added to the processing of the vaccines. Digging in deeper showed how highly sensitive it actually was. Most peoples understanding of this novel vaccine type is it works as follows: 1. Make mRNA coding for S Protein 2. Make lipid nano particle delivery system 3. Profit How it actually works for what we've uncovered: 1. Make mRNA coding for S Protein 2. Make mRNA coding for mutant versions of CYP19A1 and CDKN1B in smaller amounts. 3. Make sure that while the delivery system ends up for 1, mostly ends up in the liver, and most of 2 ends up in the gonads 4. Make sure form and quantity of additive up regulating Line-1 reverse transcription activity makes it hard to detect amongst legit adjuvants. 5. Effects from 2 integrated by 4 are recessive, mildly oncogenic effects in vaccine recipients unlikely to be noticed for many years 6. (5) recessive but since most of population vaccinated, in next generation female offspring to have premature ovarian failure. Stage 6 coincides with poor people being made obsolete by AI and robotics, so we didn't have to dig for motivation.

So what is CYP19A1? The CYP19A1 gene provides instructions for making an enzyme called aromatase. This enzyme converts a class of hormones called androgens, which are involved in male sexual development, to different forms of the female sex hormone estrogen. Androgens or Androgynous? The CDKN1B gene provides instructions for making a protein called p27. Specifically, p27 normally blocks cells from entering the phase of the cell cycle when DNA is copied (replicated) in preparation for cell division. By blocking cell cycle progression, p27 prevents cells from dividing too quickly or at the wrong time. Because p27 plays such a key role in controlling cell division, its activity is tightly regulated. Regulation can occur through modification of the p27 protein's structure, its interaction with other proteins, or its localization within the cell. For example, when p27 is held (sequestered) in the fluid that surrounds the nucleus (the cytoplasm) instead of being transported into the nucleus, the protein is unavailable to block cell cycle progression. Changing the sex hormones and blocking cell progression? oh my. So what is Protein S? (also known as S-Protein) is a vitamin K-dependent plasma glycoprotein synthesized in the liver. In the circulation, Protein S exists in two forms: a free form and a complex form bound to complement protein C4b-binding protein (C4BP). In humans, protein S is encoded by the PROS1 gene. In biology, a gene is a sequence of nucleotides in DNA or RNA that encodes the synthesis of a gene product, either RNA or protein. During gene expression, the DNA is first copied into RNA. The RNA can be directly functional or be the intermediate template for a protein that performs a function. The transmission of genes to an organism's offspring is the basis of the inheritance of phenotypic traits, these genes make up different DNA sequences called genotypes. So the RNA becomes a template for a protein that performs a function, is the same as a line of code performs a function within a computer based system, seeing the pattern now? All this is what we warned about several years back, but nice to see many around the world getting it now.

The mention of a czar has crept into the narrative in relation to Covid vaccine managers. A Czar or Tsar is a male monarch or emperor, a person having great power or authority. The word czar, a borrowing from Russian originally referring to the emperor of Russia, is a cousin of the German word Kaiser; both words descend from the name of the Roman emperor Julius Caesar. The spelling tsar is preferred in most Slavic scholarship, as it follows the standard conventions of Russian transliteration. The spelling czar is the more common form in American English, and is the only one employed in the extended sense "someone in authority," as in energy czar. Kaiser is more associated with the Nazis, but it is all a derivative of Rome and Julius Caesar. A Caesar or Kaiser is an emperor, ruler or dictator, and so Caesar is not a real name, it is another title played by a Julian, which is not actually his real name as there was no letter J's until the 15th century, first formed by the Spanish and only appeared in print around 1640. Which means the King James bible could not have been written in early 1600's as portrayed by the old world, they state it was written in 1611, how can a King James who was a member of the Crown, write a book and have a name with a letter that didn't exist? Julius Caesar was the original title of the letters JC, Jesus Christ was added much later in their story, like B.C was before Caesar. Historians are basing it on the words of Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John all of which are British names and not reflective of Middle Eastern cultural names. I would suggest Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John were all like King James, Crown agents. Crown a royal crown, ornament for the head as a symbol of sovereignty, directly from Latin corona "crown," originally "wreath, garland," related to Greek korōnē "anything curved, a kind of crown," Anything curved like the scythe or moon which relates to last weeks Father Time piece. But Beekes considers the "crown" sense as derived from the formally identical Greek word korōnē "crow" (see raven). The Crow and Raven feature prominently in witchcraft and occult circles, on the chess board it is known as the rook. The Raven peeps forth from the mists of time and the thickets of mythology, as a bird of slaughter, a storm bird, a sun and fire bird, a messenger, an oracular figure and a craftsman or culture hero. The word sun bird piqued my interest, as Ra was known as the solar god, so I looked up Ra ven, ven is a shortened word for venerated, which means to worship or revere, and so the popularity and mystique of the Raven is a worship of the cult of Ra.

Rudolf Steiner wrote the following over a hundred years ago. "In the future, we will eliminate the soul with medicine." Under the pretext of a 'healthy point of view', there will be a vaccine by which the human body will be treated as soon as possible directly at birth, so that the human being cannot develop the thought of the existence of soul and Spirit. To materialistic doctors, will be entrusted the task of removing the soul of humanity. As today, people are vaccinated against this disease or that disease, so in the future, children will be vaccinated with a substance that can be produced precisely in such a way that people, thanks to this vaccination, will be immune to being subjected to the “madness” of spiritual life. He would be extremely smart, but he would not develop a conscience, and that is the true goal of some materialistic circles. With such a vaccine, you can easily make the etheric body loose in the physical body. Once the etheric body is detached, the relationship between the universe and the etheric body would become extremely unstable, and man would become an automaton, for the physical body of man must be polished on this Earth by spiritual will. So, the vaccine becomes a kind of arymanique force; man can no longer get rid of a given materialistic feeling. He becomes materialistic of constitution and can no longer rise to the spiritual “. It is stated that arymanique is for the aryan to eliminate all others, which is Zionist based rubbish and what Steiner likely said was Ahrimanic, which is described as the devil and a destructive spirit mentality. He wrote extensively about Ahrimanic and so that makes more sense. An evil spirit that has a practice here on earth called the Ahrimanic yoga, oh dear, now you know why I warned you of doing that practice without shielding was downright dangerous. Ahrimanic Yoga is a kind of Persian adversarial yoga, based on the ascension of Kundalini energy, (Negative/Feminine Energy: Shakti, Lilith, Az) and its union with the opposite pole (Positive/Masculine Energy: Shiva, Samael, Ahriman, to transcend the duality of the individual and awakening the powers, this is a very powerful meditation. Some call this "the foundation of Luciferian magical practice": None of those mentioned were Positive, in today's modern terms it would be known as a false positive, in other words bs. As we covered more deeply in the FRWL series neither Hindu, Egyptian or so called Israeli gods were positive for humanity. This piece also dispels the myth that Steiner was in some way beneficial, he was part of the elites and talks of improving man did not include the masses. There is a reason all elite children go to Waldorf Steiner schools, to be indoctrinated that they are in some way more special than the rest.

This is from a detailed study of where the letters in our alphabet originated from. Many of our letters began as Egyptian hieroglyph symbols 4,000 years ago, with a hodgepodge of Semitic, Phoenician, Greek and Roman influences thrown in. It would take centuries, and the dropping of more than a few letters along the way, before our alphabet was born. By year 1011, the order that we know today was largely in place — excluding “J,” “U,” “W” — but there were 29 letters, including the ampersand. The alphabet we know today takes its modern 26-letter shape in the 16th century. The letter D description was interesting. Around 800 BC, Phoenicians began to use a “dalet” — or a rough triangle facing left — which translated to door. The Greeks adopted it and renamed it “delta.” The Romans later added serifs and varied the thickness of the lines, softening one side into a semicircle. This explains the space industry obsession with the delta shape also called chevron, it is the door way.

Some people struggle deeply about discarding, neglecting or ignoring the potential 85%, now known as bots, and I do get that worry, fear, concern all of you exhibit. I have bot people in my own family, so it is not like I am not surrounded by it as well. There are times I feel people think the radio show host does not have any feelings, emotions or concerns, as they deliver the information, all of which was filtered by myself, in most cases the information I have put out has been, swirling around in my head for over a decade. A decade of knowing sometimes horrible, horrific and disturbing knowledge and wondering how to approach it, when to approach and what will the reactions be? Most will react to the information, but some choose to use the deliverer of the information as some sort of venting screen to spew angst at. People often forget, I have the same if not more emotions to cope with unearthing this information, connecting the dots over prolonged periods of time, and you get to hear it in one or more 3 hour shows, but those shows can take 40 to 100 hours to produce, with years of background knowledge or as we call it sin eating. By the time it reaches your ears it has undergone much processing, research, editing and filtering, as often is the case some parts are left out for the benefit of the listening to grasp parts of it in smaller chunks. That is all done by your host and other hosts who are involved in this work, although there is very few at the level of widespread knowledge that has come out of THI, due to us covering so many topics and some of the material being unique only to THI. So, I do get what you feel on bots, sleepers, synths etc. trust me, but the great question remains is, what support did they give to us? Bots are 1's and 0's and computer Matrix like, why should a non binary organic being engage something that is a zero or returns zero in the way of compassion, understanding or support? The reason only is and the difference between us both is, we care, they don't. They don't raise their vibration they lower it, they are the city of light people who partake only in the service of the self. Leaving us to sin eat our way through life, cast us out of families, friends circles, relationships and society in general. They ridiculed us and dismissed us to a point of becoming almost leper like, these are the same people who created the cults, delivered the programs on us all and played the false authority games and their ultimate control system, all designed to keep us down. I warned in November 2017 it was too late for those people, now you can all see why for yourselves. But they will always try to pull you into their morass, but as a zero they have no numeric value, 85% of zeros is still zero, do you understand that? The John Hopkins center won't as basic maths to them is beyond their skillset. Then why engage something that has no numeric value? you observe not absorb, absorbing them pulls you away from your path and higher frequency level, don't allow them to do that. People often think of it in terms of losing people, whether they are dead or not, but you never really lose anyone as they are stored in your DNA memory database, yes it is painful when people split I know that all too well with two living departures this year and one none living departure also. With regards to the living people, you didn't lose those people they lowered their frequency, or your frequency went up and they could no longer match it, is the real science behind splits. The more you awaken to the real truth the further you go away from the masses, that is how it works, but we have all spent way too much time lowering our own frequencies or knowledge base to accommodate others who lack one or the other or both. So, yes splits with people are painful, but they are growth opportunities also, and comes down to you how or which path you go down following it. This is a giant snakes and ladders game, snakes make you go down or backwards, the ladders are your own frequency boosts that make you go up or forward, and when you get to the 100, series or not, you win the game. But remember there are more snakes than ladders. Love is what separates us from the binary people, we love life, each other and we care, they just don't, no matter how much you analyze or scrutinize it. You could say we have a moral compass, morals yes compass no. Why? because a compass is connected to maritime which is the female variant mari time, to father time Chronos. The meaning of compass was "go in a circle, go around." which is the hamster wheel, the loop, the repeat patterns and cycles. The mathematical instrument for describing circles was so called in English from mid-14c. The mariners' directional tool (so called since early 15c.) took the name, perhaps, because it's round and has a point like the mathematical instrument. But its other meaning is "limits, boundary" is from 1550s, the limitation program, and from the early 14c. as "to surround, contain, envelop, enclose; the boxes of limitation which became labels. We are not labels, boxes, limited beings or binary people, we are the triality the one on one with the one, and never forget that. Like the compass everything is ship or water related as we have covered in FRWL series, governor, citizen, gamesman, battle, companion, steward, trustee, scholar, dealer, owner, ruler, space, town and the current ship control word censor. With rivers that have banks which collect the deposits, birth canals and the waters breaking, no wonder we are drowning in debt courtesy of the Holy Sea and their mary time. Perhaps the dark forces are just reminding us of how it ended last time, with the great flood that the Hebrew Annunaki Noah and his off world family all knew about, to continue the takeover of our planet, but we rebuilt and we returned and we survived their latest culling of the world, but now we have to rebuild the world in our image and a better one than the last. A deep discussion took place based on the Time piece last week, that has engaged deep thinking patterns within us all, and one member said this. Much of scientific theory on subjects like thermodynamics and the Maxwell equation is limiting because they removed the frequency component from them, which changes the interpretation. Science teaches techniques, not universal whys and hows. What is missing is the understanding of accessing energy from source, exactly Source did emit the energies but they mirror reversed the emit into time. We the people are going to require thicker skin, self mastery and a togetherness for the next stage. Because next comes the naming and shaming of the people who refuse the old systems of control, as the next layer of indoctrination of the public, done by media, magazines, newspapers, bill boards, and advertisements will be bad enough but, the general covidiot based public you know full well will participate in it also, they always do, to feel self satisfied and smug that they are on the right side. Time will prove they were not. Just maybe it is close to "time" when bots get short circuited, when it goes from an assay to an array, what a gloriously sunny solar day that will be.
