

THI-SHOW TRANSCRIPT 2021-01-21

The only way is one, and no that is not by some Marvel neo based character, but the one being the all. Biden is in now for 4 years allegedly, when he barely looks like he will live for the next 4 weeks, never mind years. I look forward to all the press and media giving him a hard time, questioning his every statement, twisting all of his words he actually manages to get out of his mouth that is coherent. I look forward to prickly question time between the press and the new spokeswoman. I look forward to the Big tech companies banning him from their platforms. I look forward to the BBC factchecking every comment, statement or appearance he makes. I look forward to the BBC questioning the purposes behind every move. I look forward to the calls for inquiries and impeachments during the next 4 years. I look forward to when the press and media label Biden, white privileged, racist and white supremacist. I look forward to the press reporting the Biden followers as retards, racists and domestic terrorists. I look forward to the press launching witch hunts against Biden. I look forward Biden's family coming under heavy scrutiny. But alas we know that is not what is going to happen is it? With the Trump/Trustee savior program now rendered mute or irrelevant, what happens next? Wait another 4 years for Trump to comeback, at which point he will be 78, do people really think about having 70+ years of age people in hot seats is a good thing for humanity? Particularly in this country with the programming and medical poisons program ran on the majority of Americans. Why not build something ourselves? The TPC was always the answer to solve our problems, but it requires people to act like adults, drop their self importance, my idea is better than yours and create a cohesive, actionable group for and by the people. Or you can keep your aprons and stay waiters in the non serving restaurant of life.

I get lots of requests for friending on FB and Mewe, and I turn them all down by and large due to technical issues related to that friending. It is no reflection on the people trying to friend me, it is just a stance I took to prevent hacking and also fun and games targeting of those connected to me. The new website solely for THI shows, will be on line shortly. All the archives of past shows, transcripts also, and a synopsis of each show dating back to August 2018 for easier reference points of each show. There will be a search engine for keywords contained within each show also. All the must listen to shows in date order, plus a separate section for the FRWL shows with the plus versions as well. It will contain the link to the up and coming show as well, as I know many of our listeners don't access our social media pages, this will save you waiting for the YT archived version. Once done the YT page will only link to the new website, although all archived shows will remain. Eight months ago, one group opened up with claims of being connected to Q and stated they would be getting Q drops. Our show questioned Q and their inactions from 3 years back. One group stated they were in with Trump and would get White House passes for all their staff, our group questioned as to where Trump's allegiances really lay. 8 Months later that group now denounces Trump and states he and the government where not operating for and by the people, our group stated that a long time back, our group created the TPC with the eventuality of leading to TPC government members over 4 years ago. One group now states Kushner along with chabad, which they have never referenced before in that group, created the Q movement, our group repeatedly warned of Kushner and referenced chabad influence only last week, plus in FRWL shows. I am delighted they have finally realized what I have been saying all along, as to who the real problems are, one always ponders how different things could have been if, the person stating this now, would have listened 5 years ago, and the many times I stated it in Florida and also the many times I stated it in my new abode working directly with her. Unlike them and some others, we don't get our information via rumormillnews, it really is 2014 on that site. We lead and they followed, but one wonders why it took so long to recognize our input, or why they send an army of distractors into a group that clearly knows what is going on globally, given they are now following all of the THI and TPC truths and ideas? An often used term is breaking news, I love it when I hear that as I know a validation of THI news previously is about to unfold. What was the whole purpose of creating a separate group for that group to repeat the narratives, ideas and ideologies of the long standing group? questions on a postcard to Tank and Kim please. We have more than enough answered questions in our group, time for people to direct all their questions to where the problem lies. You cannot spout you are in it for humanity whilst discrediting, avoiding and deliberately attempting to hijack a group you are copying and pasting. Imitation they say is the sincerest form of flattery, I am flattered by their attention to us, but staggered by their divisive attitudes.

No fear, observe not absorb, 45/55 is our path forward from today onwards. The rest of the alt media is into sensationalism, fake claims and all the 2014 NPC alt media personalities are back out largely spouting shite. They were all wrong back then, what makes you think they will be right now? Even LF is now full on copying the THI and TPC model, narrative and ideas. We were right on our calls back then and we will be more correct than most going forward.

This is a report on a show from Lifeforce. As of January 16/21, according to Kimberley Ann Goguen (KAG), all the military goings-on at the US Capitol were part of declaring global martial law, to be implemented this coming Wednesday through a staged other-worldly invasion. KAG met with her other-worldly Council Members, and they said, "Fine. Deep State, you want an invasion, we'll give you one." So, KAG and her other-worldly enforcements have now declared war on Planet Earth. Thus, it's now Star Wars on Planet Earth. She fully expects to win, hands down. Let's see what this week brings. The claim that world hunger was ended by the same group on 8th January despite some detailed checking has not been borne out either.

WARNING.....our courts are totally disregarding common law. Paperwork you take into court has to be scanned because it is so contaminated they are not allowed to touch it they then add the cost of using the scanner onto your fine. They are not interested in anything you have to say and giving heavier penalties (in my case) for daring to stand up for your rights.

So, America now has a new president, despite all the rhetoric of Krakens being released, mass arrests, court cases, chess moves, secret maneuvers, Trump staying in Office, Biden and Harris getting arrested, Biden getting taken out in some ritual style event, some being killed or sent to Guantanamo, none of it has taken place. I personally wish many of those things would happen, but warned of exercising caution, but facts matter in this show, it is not based on hopium, but reality, and sometimes reality bites. The problem is not entirely believing in it, but the waiting around and doing nothing, waiting for it to happen. Wilcock was claiming mass arrests since 2002, here we are 19 years later waiting for an event, that will have no particular impact on our day to day lives, only the TPC can change that. If the new wait club of Trump for President on March 4th happens, then the question is what will it really change? The last 4 years didn't bring much in the way of real tangible progress, despite an overspend of $8T. The it's all happening crew led by many but more prolific by Simon Parkes, Charlie Ward, Robert David Steele, Sacha Stone, The Lifeforce group, Alfred Webre, Jim Willie, Fulford, SGT Report, X-22, Aim4Truth, Juan Osavin, Q and various QAnons and people claiming to be in the know, all played their part in the distractions game, to takeaway the focus of we the people. Congratulations to the lot of you, as you had many convinced with your fake promises, failed date predictions, endless streams of pure drivel, all of you played the faction role all so well. So what happens next then guys? Will all of you apologize for leading your listeners and followers astray? will you give back donations based on repeated failed predictions? will you apologize for creating a datamining database for the benefit of the clowns to use against the dissenters? Well will you? I would love to see it, but unlike this show, no one holds the other shows to any level of accountability, now why is that? Perhaps the fact is that now, there is only one lead group of alt media who is not connected in any way to the establishment, agencies, factions, masons, political party and their controlling mechanisms, funny that isn't it? I operate for no one except to help people be better in themselves and then combine it with others. Whilst all the above got a plethora of predictions wrong, our show gets more and more validated by the week. Why is that? because we have no agenda other than to help the people. Because we strive hard to obtain the truth and release it when the time is right. We do not do sensational headline grabbing stuff, glitz and glam stated to be different yet mirrors exactly what you say, you are striving against, we do not do clickbait headlines, we do not go into others groups to disrupt and or harvest their members, we do not advertise our show, or gain advertising revenue from it and most of all, we don't do bullshit. All alt media groups have now been found out, everyone of them. That is sad for so many people even some of the dual citizens in our own group, you have been betrayed by these liars or distractions. But you were guilty of the two things they have heavily used against humanity, the seducement of self elevation and money, and the savior program. They are old world programs designed to steer you away from doing anything, they are not easy programs to unhook from, so don't be too hard on yourselves. They are all wait clubs, humanity does not need more restaurants and waiters, we need grass root action people who think in a better way. The key is recognizing it within yourselves, and letting it go it has served it's purpose, if not, you will carry on with the same above mentioned distraction agents and repeat it all again. You can add the other savior program groups into the mix, all promising we were going to 5D in August/September of last year, with some telling people to forget about everything and just focus on going to 5D. Some spend whole shows espousing it, yet no one has defined what it would be like have they? perhaps the real answer is they don't know, and the 5D escape route is another excuse for that person to not develop themselves, and the 5D narrative is another wait club and is a get out of jail free card. Think about it rationally, it is a get out of jail free card, none who follow that script have done anything to help themselves develop, it is wait for ET's and or 5D to arrive. One show of which 90% of it is the were all going to 5D, yet the host seems to think it is elevated behavior to do wrong too good people who have helped him in so many ways, that is not being a spiritually evolved being or behavior. All of us have elements of not admitting when we are or were wrong, it is another of the deep seated programs that echoes out of the emotion and energy fields of insecurity and low self worth, this planet is riddled with it. People hold onto failed programs and circumstances due to not wanting to be seen as being wrong, but other people who observe can still see where you are wrong, and more importantly, your own vessel package knows when you are wrong. Why lie to yourself? what is that achieving? and then things like I don't want to admit to so and so, I was wrong and they were right, because that means I have lost. Lost what exactly? we have all been wrong thousands of times, it is part of learning and gaining wisdom, what you have lost is yourself only, and has nothing to do with other people, think about that closely. It is not about the person themselves being right, although it is projected that way, but the information was right they gave. If this is you quit it, as that is operating out of the competitive and comparative mindset, it doesn't serve any of us well doing that. Think of what you are denying yourself, the opportunity to grow in a different direction, but you still hold onto that favorite worn out old jacket, because it is comfortable on the external, but not on the internal. The old jacket is the lie, do you wish to continue? or do you wish to grow? do you wish to dim or glow

NEWS Holland now Mark Rutte's government has stepped down after thousands of families were wrongly accused of child welfare fraud and told to pay money back. Families suffered an "unparalleled wrong", Dutch MPs decided, with tax officials, politicians, judges and civil servants leaving them powerless. Many of those affected were from an immigrant background and hundreds were plunged into financial difficulty.

Mr Rutte submitted the cabinet's resignation to the king. "Innocent people have been criminalised and their lives ruined," he then told reporters, adding that responsibility for what had gone wrong lay with the cabinet. "The buck stops here." The government will stay on in a caretaker role to tackle the pandemic until parliamentary elections in March but Economics Minister Eric Wiebes has quit with immediate effect for his role in the scandal. Asked whether the cabinet's resignation was merely symbolic, Mr Rutte was adamant that it was not.

Italy govt on brink of collapse, Kuwait govt has collapsed to add to previous news in last weeks show. Merkel stepping down, Estonia PM missing, America in flux sign of things to come? Decentralization anyone?

Antifa-Insurgence leader John Earl Sullivan is in custody after being arrested in Utah on Thursday. Antifa protester John Sullivan was caught on video posing as a Trump supporter during the rioting at the US Capitol last week. Earlier this week John Sullivan's brother James contacted the FBI and turned his brother in. John Sullivan was released without bail on Friday and placed on house arrest, Not every violent protester is so lucky. QAnon protester Jacob Chansley is being held without bail. So, not Trump supporter again as the lying agenda driven portal people would have you believe.

Banker and chairman of the Edmond de Rothschild Holding S.A. company, Benjamin de Rothschild, has passed away at the age of 57, his family revealed to French media. "Ariane de Rothschild and her daughters are deeply saddened to announce the death of husband and father, Benjamin de Rothschild, following a heart attack in the family home in Pregny (Switzerland) in the afternoon of January 15, 2021" the family said in a press release on Saturday. I guess that particular top Rothschild's family member was missed, in the last round of Life Force assassinations, or body parts and chopping exercises, sounds like Mrs. Bobbit to me.

Here comes another of the seducements, and you just know some stupid people will go for this. Cannabis activists in Washington, D.C. are planning to offer a free bag of marijuana to those receiving the vaccine for Covid-19, the group DC Marijuana Justice announced this week. The free cannabis giveaway, dubbed Joints for Jabs, is being arranged to coincide with vaccine clinics expected to open in the nation's capital soon, DCMJ wrote in a press release on Monday.

Rep. Greene told Greg Kelly, "We cannot have a President of the United States that is willing to abuse the power of the office of the presidency and be easily bought off by foreign government, Chinese energy companies, Ukrainian energy companies. So on January 21st I will be filing articles of impeachment on Joe Biden." Oops and they all thought it was only Trump with foreign interests, lets see how the garbled mask man deals with that. Twitter responded by banning Marjorie Greene from their platform, you see Big tech like the media are now judge and jury for the people.

Parler CEO John Matze has fled his home with his family and they all have gone into hiding after receiving “deaths threats” and “invasive personal security breaches,” according to a new filing from Parler’s lawyers in the suit with AWS. Last week Amazon kicked Parler off their webhosting service, meaning the platform will be offline until they find a new host. Parler has faced what can only be described as a mass coordinated cyber attack by Big Tech, first being banned by Apple and Google within a 24 hour time period. Parler responded to the deplatforming by filing a lawsuit against Amazon. This shows you the levels of power and thuggery the lead tech giants will employ on people they don't agree with or tow the party line. Parler should file a lawsuit for discrimination and put these election controlling, thought controlling and life controlling entities out of business. Big Tech now issuing death threats to people, oh my, all very Continuum series that. There will come a time where underground activists will attack these companies and their infrastructure, when the public realize we were right all along about these technology companies not only invading our lives, but running them like some pseudo dictator parent.

The FBI is reportedly investigating if foreign actors funded some of the rioters that breached the U.S. Capitol on Jan. 6, a current and former FBI official told NBC News. The agency is investigating whether foreign governments, organizations or individuals provided funding to those that helped plan the riot, according to the news outlet. As part of the probe, the agency is reportedly examining payments of $500,000 in Bitcoin by a French computer programmer before the riot. The French computer programmer died by suicide shortly after transferring the cryptocurrency, according to french media, NBC News reports. Haha really, isn't it just amazing when events like this ends with the person committing suicide, just like Frank Olsen and the CIA event and many others, one would almost be led to believe there is some sort of conspiracy going on there. Yahoo News first highlighted the bitcoin payments on Thursday, which was reported by analysis company Chainanalysis. On Dec. 8, 28.15 BTC, which was worth $522,000 at the time of transfer, was sent to 22 different virtual wallets, many of which belonged to far-right activists, according to the report. Most of the money went to far-right podcaster Nick Fuentes who received 13.5 BTC, according to Chainanalysis’s report, which is worth about $250,000. Fuentes told ProPublica that he was at the rally, but didn’t enter the Capitol with the mob. Separately, the FBI issued a bulletin earlier this week with the Department of Homeland Security warning that Russian, Iranian and Chinese influence actors, have “seized the opportunity to amplify narratives in furtherance of their policy interest amid the presidential transition,” according to NBC. The FBI declined to comment. The Department of Justice didn’t immediately return a request for comment from The Hill. It's always Russian, Chinese and Iranian with all of our agencies in this country, can they not change the script and blame in house skullduggery for once? as it is far more prevalent than outside boogeymen. The report comes as federal law enforcement seek to track down and charge members of the mob involved in the Jan. 6 riots. Last week Michael Sherwin, acting U.S. attorney for D.C., said in news conference that officials were treating the investigation “just like a significant international counterterrorism or counterintelligence operation.”

Sidney Powell, one of the most vocal proponents of unsubstantiated theories that Georgia's presidential election was rife with fraud, withdrew her lawsuit to overturn the results there. There goes the Kraken lawsuit, which is a CIA program name.

The 147 Republican lawmakers who opposed certification of the presidential election this month have lost the support of many of their largest corporate backers. The Washington Post contacted the 30 companies that gave the most money to election-objecting lawmakers' campaigns through political action committees. Two-thirds, or 20 of the firms, said they have pledged to suspend some or all payments from their PACs. Meanwhile, 10 companies said only that they would review their political giving or did not commit to take any action as a result of this month's events. So, who are these groups? In order of spending the highest first. AT&T, Comcast, Lockheed Martin, Honeywell Int, UPS, Northrup Grumman, Boeing, Deloitte, Ernst & Young, Marathon Pet, Pricewaterhousecoopers, New York life Insurance, GE, Altria group, Raytheon, Union Pacific, UBS Americas, GM, KPMG, Verizon, Koch Industries, Home Depot, American Crystal Sugar, General Dynamics, Exxon Mobil, BNSF Railway, Charter Communications, Fedex, USAA and Cox Enterprises. Campaign finance system rocked as firms halt contributions after election results challenged. The dollar amounts given by corporate PACs tend to be relatively small: They can legally give each candidate's campaign only up to $5,000 per election. “They spend more money on paper clips in the corporate office,” said Doug Schuler, a professor of business and public policy at Rice University. But the donations can help ensure companies access to key policymakers overseeing their industries. “If they're sitting on the right committee, you give them money,” Schuler said. “It's kind of expected.” This is full evidence of the collusion of all politicians and why they have no power to do anything, all are controlled by big business. Yet the people like lemmings vote for these dancing puppets every two years. All the distraction about foreign collusion, and these American companies are the real collusion along with AIPAC, who shouldn't even be on our soil.

Max Rose to join Biden administration as Pentagon COVID adviser. The former New York congressman, who lost his bid for reelection last year and then mounted a short-lived campaign for mayor, is set to join the Biden administration as a senior Pentagon adviser on coronavirus-related issues, two sources familiar with the matter told the Daily News on Tuesday. One of the sources said Rose approached President-elect Joe Biden's transition team about a role in his incoming administration shortly after Rep. Nicole Malliotakis (R-N.Y.) beat him in the Nov. 3 race to represent New York's 11th congressional district, which covers all of Staten Island and parts of southern Brooklyn. Keeping his options open, Rose last month also announced a Democratic campaign to replace Mayor de Blasio. However, he pulled the plug on his mayoral campaign just a few weeks later on Jan. 3, potentially in preparation for his new Pentagon post. Max Rose born in and born to.

Elect Joe Biden has a remarkably Jewish family. All three of his children married Jewish spouses, and the baby grandson that he cradled in his arms after his victory speech last week is halachically Jewish, as are the children of his late son Beau. Beau's wife, Hallie Olivere was the Bidens' first Jewish daughter-in law. Joe Biden had known her mother Joan since childhood, and once joked that he'd have liked to have married her. 'I was the Catholic kid. She was the Jewish girl. I still tried. I didn't get anywhere.' Hallie and Beau married in 2002, and had children Natalie and Robert. In 2015 Beau died of brain cancer. In the aftermath of his death, Hallie turned to his brother Hunter, who was separated from his wife, Kathleen, the mother of their children Naomi, Finnegan and Maisy. Joe and Jill Biden, as well as Hallie's parents, supported the couple, with Joe Biden saying that the couple had his and Jill's "full and complete support, and we are happy for them." Hallie and Hunter split up last year, in part because of the constant attention from the press. Not long afterwards Hunter met Jewish South African film maker Melissa Cohen, and within 10 days the couple were married in a ceremony in her Los Angeles flat. Hunter marked the occasion by getting a tattoo to match Cohen's - the word 'shalom' in Hebrew letters. According to the South African Jewish Report, it was love at first sight, and her family were left reeling by the news. Her parents Zoe and Lee Cohen would not comment, but her brother Garyn said: "It's very much a fairytale, all they want is for Melissa to be happy, and for there to be a happy ending." Melissa grew up with three older brothers, attended a Jewish day school and studied interior design before moving to Los Angeles. Garyn said that his sister had always been a "champion for nature conservation and the environment, as well as the underprivileged and people from all walks of life. She is truly remarkable, intelligent, and has a special neshoma [soul]." The couple's baby, named Beau, was born in April, just under a year after they first met and married. Joe and Jill Biden's daughter Ashley also has a Jewish spouse - Howard Krein, an ENT specialist at a Philadelphia hospital. They married in 2012, in a Catholic-Jewish ceremony followed by a reception during which the then Vice-President danced the hora. "I'm the only Irish Catholic you know who had his dream met because his daughter married a Jewish surgeon," he said in 2016. Alongside the Biden's Jewish in-laws, the new Vice President's husband Doug Emhoff is also Jewish. Not only is he the first American 'Second Gentleman', he's also the first Jewish spouse of an American president or vice president. Mr Emhoff, 56, met Kamala Harris in 2013. He's a successful entertainment lawyer. They married in 2014. "In keeping with our Indian and Jewish heritages, I put a flower garland around Doug's neck and he stomped on a glass." Ms Harris wrote. Biden like Trump has strong Jewish connections, which in and of itself is not a bad thing, but the Jewish elite use that against them and manipulate them, and they end up as puppets to the Hebrew Annunaki junta.

The national debt is approaching $28 trillion ahead of Biden's inauguration on Wednesday after surging more than $7 billion during Trump's four years in office. The likely passage of additional corona virus relief measures in the early days of Biden's administration could add trillions more in debt, even before factoring in other policy changes. Obama debt was $9.3T over 8 years, Trump spent $8T, yet the significant difference was, Trump never declared a war. The great question is just where has that $8T extra spent gone to? Infrastructure? Job creation? better health, schools, transportation? none of the above, and people can blame Trump all they like, the problem is the people, allowing them to spend our money on non productive benefits that for and by the people.

The media couldn't stress enough that the mob in Washington, D.C., a couple weeks ago was "mostly white," presumably to compensate for the fact that we had just gone through seven months of violent Black Lives Matter riots. But anyone who looked at photos and video of what happened in D.C. on that day might have noticed there were a not insignificant number of black and brown faces in that crowd, too. Could Trump's most die-hard supporters all be a bunch of white supremacists if many of them were actually ethnic minorities? According to liberals, yes!

The Republican Party Central Committee in Carbon County, Wyoming, has censured Rep. Liz Cheney for voting to impeach President Trump, as support for the one-time rising GOP star crumbles in her home state. The censure resolution passed in a unanimous vote by the 45-member central committee. It included a demand that Ms. Cheney appear before the committee to explain her actions. "Our representative did not represent our voice," said Carbon County GOP Chairman Joey Correnti IV, who presented the resolution to the central committee at a Saturday meeting where the vote took place. The resolution condemns Ms. Cheney for conduct described as defying the will of most Wyoming Republican voters and joining in a rushed impeachment that did not examine all the facts and denied Mr. Trump due process. The resolution also declared that a "vocal majority of Wyoming Republicans recognize there were significant irregularities" in the Nov. 3 presidential election. Accusations of ballot fraud and election irregularities were the basis for the Jan. 6 pro-Trump rally that became a deadly assault on the U.S. Capitol, temporarily halting the Electoral College vote count that affirmed President-elect Joseph R. Biden's victory. The censure is the latest blow to Ms. Cheney, a member of the House Republican leadership team and the daughter of former Vice President Richard B. Cheney.

General David H. Berger, Commandant of the United States Marine Corps., refused House Speaker Nancy Pelosi's request to use the Corps. to safeguard Biden's Jan. 20 inauguration from Trump supporters and insurrectionists. A Pentagon source speaking under promise of anonymity told Real Raw News that Pelosi contacted Gen. Berger late Monday night, and she beseeched him to commit 5,000 troops to help ensure a peaceful transition of power and to prevent a repeat of the Jan 6 siege of the Capitol. Gen. Berger, our source said, didn't understand why Pelosi needed additional soldiers to augment an already impressive force assembled by federal and state officials. That force includes 15,000 National Guard from D.C., Delaware, Massachusetts, and Rhode Island, and an undisclosed number of FBI and DHS agents who arrived in D.C. Sunday night. Pelosi said she wanted "battle ready" reinforcements because "radicalized Trump supporters and kooky Qanon conspiracy people" were about to converge on D.C. She implored him to reconsider, arguing that it was the general's patriotic duty to quell uprisings and guarantee Biden's ascension to the Oval Office. Her statement made the general explode, our source said. "Don't lecture me on patriotism, Madam Speaker. I've served this country with distinction for 40 years, I've spilled blood for our nation. What have you, a self-serving elected official, done for your country?" Gen. Berger said. Pelosi further enraged him by saying he was answerable to Congress. "I answer only to the president, and as I understand it, Donald J. Trump is still president and commander-in-chief. I abide in the Constitution as it was written, not your interpretation of it," Gen. Berger admonished Pelosi. Quoting our source, "When her intimidation tactic failed to sway Gen. Berger, Pelosi tried a different tactic: Begging and flattery." Pelosi claimed that the National Guard's "weekend warriors" were ill-prepared to repel an army of "mad Trumpists." Battle-hardened marines, however, were more capable of defeating "rabble rousers," she said. "You have the best trained soldiers in the world, and America needs them." Gen. Berger was unmoved. The only way Marines would be deployed, he told her, was if President Trump himself issued that order. "If you want us to help combat his supporters, I suggest you get him on the phone and tell him that. If he orders me to, I will. Otherwise, I suggest you listen really hard to the words escaping your cracked, poisonous lips; they're tantamount to treason," Gen. Berger allegedly told her. About time someone told that bitch to shut up and put her in her place. The very fact that raving psychotic lunatic is anywhere near a top position in this country is, a damning indictment of the country and people allowing it.

Speaking of Pelosi here is some family history released by files this week. It appears that Nancy Pelosi's brother Franklin Roosevelt D'Alesandro was charged with rape. He was charged with rape at the age of 20 years old. The victims? They were aged 11 and 13. This was back in 1953, 14 people were charged, 12 went to court, only one got acquitted, Pelosi's brother, funny how that happens frequently isn't it? This next song was done at one of the clown award ceremony events, pay close attention to the words, they are telling you the future, not all are gonna make it, is actually the truth. This is what we are preparing for here at THI, our future, not their version.

COVID BS At least 13 Israelis have experienced facial paralysis after being administered the Pfizer Covid-19 vaccine, a month after the US Food and Drug Administration reported similar issues but said they weren't linked to the jab. Israel has been hailed for its speedy and efficient mass inoculation program, which has vaccinated a staggering 20 percent of the country's population since the drive began at the end of December.

Dozens of health workers in Delhi who were the first in line to be inoculated against Covid-19 have experienced side effects from the jab, with one admitted to the ICU, as India begins its nationwide immunization drive. At least 51 healthcare workers in India's capital suffered minor adverse reactions after receiving the jab on Saturday. Health authorities said the most common side effects were dizziness and headache. Several people reported tightness in the chest and were administered medical treatment, while one individual experienced a serious health emergency after suffering from headache, rashes, respiratory distress, and tachycardia after taking the vaccine. The patient was administered adrenaline and rushed to an intensive care unit, India Today reported, adding that his symptoms worsened for at least 30 minutes after being hospitalized. The case has been classified by health authorities as a serious instance of AEFI (adverse events following immunization).

A Norwegian program on National TV this week told of the alarming rise in elderly dying when they get the jab. Further reports from Germany and other Countries as well.

Fifty-five people in the United States have died after receiving a COVID-19 vaccine, according to reports submitted to a federal system. Deaths have occurred among people receiving both the Moderna and the Pfizer-BioNTech vaccines, according to the reports. The reporting system, the Vaccine Adverse Event Reporting System (VAERS), is a federal database. The system is passive, meaning reports aren't automatically collected and must be filed. VAERS reports can be filed by anyone, including health care providers, patients, or family members. VAERS reports "often lack details and sometimes can have information that contains errors," according to the reporting system's website. Still, reports on VAERS represent "only a small fraction of actual adverse events," the site states, though underreporting is believed to be less common for serious events. In some cases, patients died within days of receiving a COVID-19 vaccine. One man, a 66-year-old senior home resident in Colorado, was sleepy and stayed in bed a day after getting Moderna's vaccine. Early the next morning, on Christmas Day, the resident "was observed in bed lying still, pale, eyes half open and foam coming from mouth and unresponsive," the VAERS report states. "He was not breathing and with no pulse." In another case, a 93-year-old South Dakota man was injected with the Pfizer-BioNTech vaccine on Jan. 4 around 11 a.m. About two hours later, he said he was tired and couldn't continue with the physical therapy he was doing any longer. He was taken back to his room, where he said his legs felt heavy. Soon after, he stopped breathing. A nurse declared a do-not-resuscitate order.

Some 10,000 people marched through the center of the Austrian capital Vienna on Saturday to protest against restrictions aimed at stopping the spread of Covid-19, and to demand the resignation of Chancellor Sebastian Kurz. Corona virus skeptics took to the streets as Kurz and his government discussed the possibility of extending the ongoing third lockdown in Austria, which includes movement restrictions and the closure of all non-essential businesses. More and more countries now fighting back and realizing those conspiracy theorists were right again.

Small businesses across the nation have been devastated, drug use, depression, domestic abuse, and suicide have climbed, and society has been all but completely transformed. And yet, those in power still flip flop, self-contradict, spin the facts, and continue to demonstrate how useless they are at actually stopping the spread of anything at all. Chicago Mayor Lori Lightfoot is such a leader, who has previously been an adamant proponent of shutting down bars and restaurants. Now, all of a sudden, she's insisting that these establishments be re-opened "quickly." New York Governor Andrew Cuomo, who like many of his fellow Democrat mayors and Governors has also strictly regulated indoor food service, has also done a similar about-face. A week before Biden's inauguration and a study is released announcing that lockdowns don't work, Cuomo comes out and says that New York can't stay closed, and the mayor of Chicago is urging restaurants to open ASAP. We are supposed to believe that the timing is coincidental.

On Monday, New York Gov. Andrew Cuomo called on pharmaceutical company Pfizer to sell doses of its coronavirus vaccine directly to New York state. The proposal to work directly with New York's state government would require Pfizer to bypass the federal government's Operation Warp Speed campaign to vaccinate hundreds of millions of Americans. "The distribution of any doses obtained directly from Pfizer will follow the rigorous guidance the State has established, while enabling us to fill the dosage gap created this week by the outgoing federal administration," Cuomo wrote in a letter to Pfizer. Pfizer told Insider in an email on Monday that before being able to sell vaccines directly to US states, the Department of Health and Human Services would have to sign off on the plan. "Pfizer is open to collaborating with HHS on a distribution model that gives as many Americans as possible access to our vaccine as quickly as possible," the firm told Insider. The request would require Pfizer to circumvent the federal government's Operation Warp Speed - a campaign to produce and distribute some 300 million doses to Americans in an effort to end the pandemic - and deal directly with Cuomo's state administration. "Because you are not bound by commitments that Moderna made as part of Operation Warp Speed, I am requesting that the State of New York be permitted to directly purchase doses from you," Cuomo wrote on Monday in a letter to Albert Bourla, the chairman and CEO of Pfizer, which is headquartered in New York City. Good luck with that Cuomo, unless you are in with the vaccine czars like Kushner and Fauci, Kushner who lets not forget threatened and banned American companies from selling PPE's to Americans in April last year. It's a closed shop for the Hebrew Annunaki and billionaires club.

As Cuomo asks for more, some are asking for less in his own constituency. New York will be reallocating unused COVID-19 vaccines after more than ten thousand nursing home residents and nearly half of staffers declined the jab, according to Gareth Rhodes, a member of Governor Andrew Cuomo's COVID-19 Response Task Force. Rhodes said that out of 70,000 nursing home residents, 57,000 have been vaccinated, while 13,000 have declined. Meanwhile, out of 89,000 nursing home staff, 41,000 have declined. Overall, 105,000 first-doses of the vaccine have been used so far in nursing homes, while 120,000 doses remain. We're gonna reallocate those that are used in the long-term facility program to the state program, but we'll make sure that the residents who want to take it and the staff who want to take it, we will reserve their doses," said Cuomo.

Here comes the seducement programs: The Sunday Times is facing a social media backlash for pushing Covid-19 vaccination passports as "freedom certificates" with many noting that the idea was considered a crazy conspiracy theory only a few months ago. An article published in the UK newspaper on Sunday makes the case for "immunity passports," which would allow vaccine recipients to be exempt from lockdown restrictions. The piece, titled 'Covid passports: a freedom certificate that may get the world travelling again', argues that several countries will start to introduce the documents, in some shape or form, and pressure will mount on British authorities to follow suit. "Whether or not the moral, political and medical questions of favouring the vaccinated are resolved, demand from the jabbed hordes for the necessary paperwork to travel this summer is likely to prove irresistible," the article argues. The piece drew the ire of many, who couldn't help but take to Twitter to note that it appeared to be a conspiracy theory brought to life. At some point the stupid masses have to accept a fair amount of the so called conspiracy theories were all proven correct, and wake up to reality.

German Foreign Minister Heiko Maas told the Bild am Sonntag newspaper that COVID-19 restrictions must be eased for citizens who have already been vaccinated against the virus. "Vaccinated people should be able to exercise their basic rights again," he said, adding that they should be able to go to restaurants and cinemas. "If there are only vaccinated people in a restaurant or a cinema, they can no longer endanger each other,"

Maas told the newspaper. Of course the German establishment will love this, another opportunity to say ze papers please.

California health officials have asked health-care providers in the state to immediately stop administering a batch of Moderna COVID-19 jabs after an "unusually high number" of adverse reactions were linked to it, according to RT. On order of State epidemiologist Dr. Erica S. Pan and the California Department of Public Health, the vaccines should be shelved until a proper investigation can be conducted. The lot in question is Moderna Lot 041L20A. This week, a higher-than-usual number of adverse events were reported with a specific lot of #Moderna vaccine administered at one community vaccination clinic. Fewer than 10 individuals required medical attention over the span of 24 hours. More than 330,000 doses from this lot have been distributed to 287 providers across the state.

All four nurses working in the health department of Coffey County in Kansas said they wouldn't give people the COVID-19 vaccine, a sign of how misinformation about the shots is spreading even among health professionals. In a January 4 county commission meeting, health department administrator Lindsay Payer said that they were not willing to give the COVID-19 vaccine. "My staff is not comfortable with that. It's a new technology we've never seen before," Payer told the Board of Commissioners in the meeting, which is available on YouTube. MRNA vaccines, like those being distributed now for the corona virus, have been studied since the 1990s. Payer said that she and other nurses in the department were uncomfortable with the vaccines and unsure of their safety, citing inaccurate information about the shots. She told the board that the health department would hire outside nurses who were willing to distribute the vaccine.

California has become the first state in the nation to record more than 3 million Covid-19 cases, according to data from Johns Hopkins University and the Covid Tracking Project. John Hopkins maths is not a good barometer as they tend to inflate figures by a factor of ten, so the real figure is likely near 300K, which is around the levels of the now magically disappearing flu. Tracking project oh my, next stop tracking project of people who haven't had the vaccine?

Several EU countries are receiving significantly fewer doses of the Pfizer coronavirus vaccine than expected, after the US firm slowed shipments. Six nations called the situation "unacceptable" and warned it "decreases the credibility of the vaccination process". Sweden, Denmark, Finland, Lithuania, Latvia and Estonia urged the EU to apply pressure on Pfizer-BioNTech. Pfizer said the reduced deliveries are a temporary issue. In a statement on Friday, the drugmaker said shipments were being affected by changes to its manufacturing processes designed to boost production. "Although this will temporarily impact shipments in late January to early February, it will provide a significant increase in doses available for patients in late February and March," Pfizer said. The EU has also approved the vaccine manufactured by US company Moderna for use, so the bloc is not wholly reliant on the jab developed by Pfizer and its German partner BioNTech. Still, the development is expected to slow the pace of vaccination programmes. The German health ministry called Pfizer's announcement surprising and regrettable, noting that it had committed to binding delivery dates until mid-February. EU Commission President Ursula von der Leyen said she had been assured by Pfizer's chief executive that all orders guaranteed for delivery in the first quarter of the year would arrive. Last week, Ms von der Leyen said Pfizer had agreed to supply the EU with 600 million doses this year, double its initial order. The pledge may do little to soothe European governments battling to subdue a fast-spreading Covid-19 variant first detected in the UK. It has slowed down for other reasons the authorities will not tell you, as they don't control the narrative.

The WHO organization has now released guidance to laboratories around the world to reduce the cycle count in PCR tests, to get a more accurate representation of Covid cases. The current cycle was much too high, and resulted in any particle being declared a Covid case. Funny that our show and many others also said that was the case over 6 months ago. The question is now with the lowering of cases be linked to the success rate of the vaccine? You can bet your last dollar on it, coming soon media and press releases of the improvement in figures to show the vaccine works and every jackass should take it.

More people are leaving Australia at the moment than arriving. Around twice as many people are still flying out of Australia despite COVID-19 travel restrictions, compared to the number of passengers who are managing to secure flights back home. Almost 40,000 Australians stranded overseas want to come home but have been unable to secure flights Australian Airports Association CEO James Goodwin said Australia should use its military aircraft and bases to repatriate citizens Despite this, there have been more passengers leaving the country than arriving since March 2020. In 2020, outbound passenger movements continued to outpace arrivals, in some months by a factor of three to one. It is unclear how many of the departing passengers held Australian passports, but it is feared more pressure will be placed on hotel quarantine arrangements when some eventually decide to return. "The list is growing with more and more Australians leaving the country," warned Australian Airports Association CEO James Goodwin. "Three people are leaving for every one person returning and that is putting added pressure on the hotel quarantine system and for all those other stranded Australians who are desperate to come home." Since March 25 last year, Australians have been banned from leaving the country unless they receive a formal exemption from the Australian Border Force Commissioner for reasons such as compassionate grounds. On March 20, the Federal Government also banned all non-citizens who failed to meet limited travel exemptions from being allowed to enter Australia. According to figures produced by the Bureau of Infrastructure and Transport Research Economics, more than 46,000 people flew out of Australia in August last year, while just over 15,000 arrived. A similar three-to-one ratio was recorded in September, while in October departures almost doubled the number of arrivals into Australia. In April, the month immediately after the international travel ban was announced, 53,000 passengers flew out of Australia compared to just over 16,000 who arrived here. Mr Goodwin said the Federal Government should now consider using military aircraft and bases to help repatriate and quarantine the thousands of citizens who remain stranded overseas. "The Australian Government could look at using military sites, the Australian Border Force facilities and I'm sure any Australian stranded overseas would be more than happy to quarantine in those facilities if it enables them to come home," he said. With fascism rearing its head in that country, the question remains is, have they left permanently to avoid their fascist regime? Like New York, California and San Francisco, people are voting with their feet now, more people should have the courage to do so, get out and away from major cities is my advice. Let them crumble into dust, those cities are all symbols of the old world harvesters.

Here are the 14 traits of Fascism. 1. powerful and continuing Nationalism 2. disdain for human rights 3. Identification of enemies as a unifying cause 4. supremacy of the military 5. Rampant sexism 6. Controlled mass media 7. obsession with national security 8. religion and government intertwined 9. Corporate power protected 10. Labor power suppressed 11. disdain for intellectuals and the arts 12. obsession with crime and punishment 13. Rampant cronyism and corruption 14. fraudulent elections

Oracle Corporation is an American multinational computer technology corporation headquartered in Austin, Texas. (before December 2020, in Redwood, California). Oracle has always had significant connections to the national security industry. The company sells database software and technology, cloud engineered systems, and enterprise software products—particularly its own brands of database management systems. In 2019, Oracle was the second-largest software company by revenue and market capitalization. Founded in May 1977, the CIA was Oracle's first customer, contracted to build a relational database. The firm's name came from a CIA project code-named "Oracle." Which tells you right there that the Oracle is CIA based entity. Company co-founders Larry Ellison, Robert Miner and Ed Oates worked on Project Oracle at a consulting firm, before striking out on their own. Since then, Oracle has grown steadily, continuing to win contracts for other law enforcement and government agencies, like the National Security Agency; the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives; and the Department of Homeland Security. So, the CIA runs those establishments as well. At the same time, it has continued to buy up competitors. Larry Ellison stated this, "The Oracle database is used to keep track of basically everything. The information about your banks, your checking balance, your savings balance, is stored in an Oracle database. Your airline reservation is stored in an Oracle database, what books you bought on Amazon is stored in an Oracle database, your profile on Yahoo! is stored in an Oracle database."

And then this in 2002. "The single greatest step we Americans could take to make life tougher for terrorists would be, to ensure that all the information in myriad government databases was copied into a single, comprehensive national security database. Creating such a database is technically simple. Funny the DMV or all other government based entities cannot provide the public with the same simple database, or the same rules and regulations for each state, all about confusion and collecting more money off the people is why. All we have to do is copy information from the hundreds of separate law enforcement databases into a single database. A national security database could be built in a few months. A national security database combined with biometrics, thumb prints, hand prints, iris scans or whatever is best can be used to detect people with false identities." David Carney was leader of Oracle's Information Assurance Center, founded just two months after the September 11th attacks. He was formerly the number three person at the CIA, where he worked for 32 years. Another former CIA involved with this is Leon Panetta, Ellison the lead person is born in and born to, 2nd lead person is Safra Catz born in Israel and to Jewish parents. In December 2020, the company moved its corporate headquarters to Austin, Texas. The corporations former headquarters in Redwood, California, the distinctive Oracle Parkway buildings, nicknamed the Emerald City, served as sets for the futuristic headquarters of the fictional company "NorthAm Robotics" in the Robin Williams film Bicentennial Man (1999). The campus represented the headquarters of Cyberdyne Systems in the movie Terminator Genisys. All that simple database technology and yet crime rates have gone up, and crime solving rates have gone down. Either it doesn't work properly and then the CIA should be held accountable, or it was not designed for the purpose to begin with.

Fact One: The Municipal Government is trying to parasitize the Territorial Citizenry, and the Territorial Government is fighting back. We, Americans, are Third Parties, as we are not U.S. Citizens, but their plan is obviously to pretend that we are, and to draw us into the middle of their dogfight. Did you know that Nancy Pelosi, acting as a single Plaintiff, has named all "Citizens of the United States of America" as Defendants in a court suit seeking to steal all but $1000 of your checking and savings accounts, and to latch onto your 401K's? They don't call her "Nasty Nancy" for nothing. We should all hate her guts, and I trust that having read the foregoing, you now have a better appreciation for why. Fact Two: Bill Gates and Cronies in Britain and within the "Holy Roman Empire" have hatched a new Unlawful Conversion Scheme. The "vaccination" they are pushing is not a vaccination. It's an implant procedure to insert a piece of their own patented mRNA into the natural genome of individual living people. This procedure will unlawfully (but legally) convert the victims into Genetically Modified Organisms, GMO's, that can be claimed as property assets and owned. As slaves and DEBTORS. It's a process of branding people like cattle, and claiming them on what these idiots think of as "Open Range", because they miss the fact that our government never went anywhere, and didn't cease to exist and is now in Session --- so in fact, all those "cows" are already wearing the American Brand. And they, the Perpetrators of this Scheme, are Rustlers facing the Death Penalty. Fact Three: Just as I told you all, the Holy Roman Empire and their pals in Britain operating the Government of Westminster, are parasites that have caused 95% of all the misery and warfare in the world for the past 400 years. And just as I told you, these parasites decided to move to a new host, China. They have been doing everything they could to sell out America and leave nothing but their garbage behind. Now, from the standpoint of all the rest of us, it's high time to recognize the source of all these problems, and put an end to them. If the Catholics and the Brits won't do their own clean up, it will be left to a consortium of other nations to do their job for them---- but at least we can be assured that the job of mopping up the Roman Empire is finally complete, and we are all agreed that slavery is outlawed in every jurisdiction and under every form of law. After 3000 years of disagreement on this point, it's time to settle it. Fact Four: The Americans are not "the US" in any form, and never were. Both the Municipal United States and the Territorial United States are nothing but foreign, privately-owned corporations in the business of providing governmental services. The details of their service contracts are published as The Constitution of the United States and The Constitution of the United States of America. And both these foreign Federal Subcontractors are ultimately owned and operated by the Pope. It follows that any arguments among his airy-fairy corporations are to be settled promptly by him with no further acrimony or inconvenience or endangerment offered against their innocent erstwhile Employers--- the American States and People. And if that is not the immediate result, it's Pope Francis's fault. There is nobody else to blame, unless he cares to blame the Queen and the Lord Mayor for their despicable parts in all of this. There is this silver lining --- we all now know, or have cause to know, who the real Perpetrators are, and it's not the Americans. It's not even the Chinese. Fact Five: The actual American Government has stirred its stumps and there is no longer any reason for anyone to surmise, claim, or presume that the Municipal United States and its Board of Directors is "representing" us, or that the Territorial Government ---as the Pledge of Allegiance says, is "standing for" us --- when our States of the Union are in Session. It's self-evident that you don't send a Proxy to a meeting that you are attending yourself, and you don't need "representation" when you are present yourself. We are here. Present and accounted for. Provenance intact. So, here's the Third Option that everyone is searching for so desperately. Deal with the actual American Government of, for, and by the People of this country: The United States of America. That is a good piece written and whilst I don't agree with all points, particularly naming only two issues, Rome and Britain, not because I came from there, but blaming countries for the ills is a grossly overlooking of the real problem. Anna keeps mentioning the old labels, yet never addresses the factions, that is curious is it not? No mention of Rothschild's which in part her family the Hapsburgs created or the Black Sun elements. Never does she mention the Hebrew Annunaki group either, better known as "Jewish". I wonder why? I wish she would get off her high horse and stop working for the factions and bloodline elites, they were the problem all along. They and you who represent them as a fiduciary, are stalling

the process of healing and the recovery of the people and this planet. I am asking her to take a leap of faith and walk away from the factions and come and really support we the people. I am available should you really wish to come and support the people, lets make history shall we.

A.D 1570s, an abbreviation of Latin Anno Domini "Year of the Lord." This system of counting years was put forth by Dionysius Exiguus in 527 or 533 C.E., but used at first only for Church business. Introduced in Italy in 7c., France (partially) in 8c. In England, first found in a charter of 680 C.E. Ordained for all ecclesiastical documents in England by the Council of Chelsea, July 27, 816. The resistance to it might have come in part because Dionysius chose 754 A.U.C. as the birth year of Jesus, while many early Christians would have thought it was 750 A.U.C. There is a use of simple a for anno domini in an English document from c. 1400; A.C., for Anno Christi, also was common 17c.

B.C abbreviation of Before Christ, in chronology, attested by 1823. The phrase itself, Before Christ, in dating, with exact years, is in use by 1660s. so after the King James bible was written then.

BCE: initialism (acronym) for "Before Common Era" or "Before Christian Era," 1881; see C.E. A secular alternative to B.C. All these stated to be biblical related terms are all more modern day terms, and all created after the King James Bible.

B'nai B'rith: a Jewish fraternal organization founded in New York City in 1843, Hebrew, literally "Sons of the Covenant," from bene, construct state of banim, plural of ben "son," + brith "covenant." Born in and born to again, I like many others thought that was an Israel based group, well now you know differently.

No coincidence that Biden is bringing in all the Obama clowns into office, what is also not a coincidence is, the caravan entourage south of the border has miraculously reappeared again. Biden said to let in 11M migrants, these are used for voting purposes, financial programs, and devious plots and schemes of the psychopaths. Not to mention the child trafficking program being opened again. Some of these migrants are Farque guerrillas, MS-13 and Muslim brotherhood armies of Obama's. I would be wary of anyone in the southern border states in the coming months. I warned in recent shows of big cities issue, obama/biden bringing in 11m migrants through southern border, you know what happens next. I cant tell anyone what to do, but I am concerned with all border states.

Super Bowl 55 is coming soon, is it super bowl 55 or superb owl SS. Be watchful of clownery, they are desperate to make a statement via a false flag to divert attention away from several programs they are running in the background, and to bide more time to implement their public version of the NWO. Lockdowns will not end until they are finished or stopped by the people.

Be a radical and hug people, it spoils the algorithms Apply humor, it spoils their algorithms THI spoils their algorithms Know Thyself, Nothing to Excess, Surety Brings Ruin.

MORE FRWL PROOF OR EVIDENCE: A child rape victim has accused nuns at a now-shuttered Catholic children's home in Germany of "pimping" out orphans to priests, politicians and other wealthy men. The victim, now 63, has remained anonymous despite having fought and won a legal battle for compensation in May over the horrors they endured, beginning at 5 years old in March 1963. The man, who has struggled with post-traumatic stress disorder and depression since then, was awarded a total of 25,000 euros by German courts due to claims he'd been raped more than 1,000 times. He also said he wasn't the only victim. The case was only recently addressed in public for the first time, when Germany's Bishop of Speyer, Karl-Heinz Wiesenmann, spoke out about former diocese official Rudolf Motzenbäcker, who was named as an abuser in the case. Motzenbäcker died in 1998. As part of his spiritual discipline, the unnamed victim said he was beaten and "literally dragged" by nuns to Motzenbäcker's home where he was routinely sexually abused. The former altar boy at Speyer Cathedral was also plucked from the home to appear at "sex parties," facilitated by nuns on behalf of clergyman and the local elite. Over 900 priests left off Catholic Church's sex abuse lists: report "The nuns were pimps," he said in court testimony. "There was a room where the nuns served drinks and food to the men and in the other corner the children were raped," court records read, according to German news agency KNA. "The nuns earned money. The men present donated generously." "Sometimes I would run back to the home in blood-smeared clothes, the blood ran down my legs," he said. "Before I left in September 1972, I had been sexually abused about a thousand times." The home in Speyer shut down in 2000. "But what's the use of the money?" the victim said of the court-ordered compensation. "My marriage is broken, my bones, liver and kidneys are too." " Judge Andrea Herrmann of the Darmstadt Social Welfare Court in Germany responded, "For victims of abuse, taking legal action is associated with considerable psychological stress." Yet again more horror stories coming out of these churches of Satan, at which point do the people en masse walk away from this evil program. But not in our church people will say, there are good people in our church, forget the church part there are good people. There are good people in the local McDonalds store, do we go and worship in McDonalds, hand over fear and guilt money to the manager and pray for the Ronald McDonalds sky god to come down and save us. It is a mass epidemic that is riddled throughout many churches, all denominations, all countries and all cultures. These people are not messengers of the god you think you pray to, they are messengers of Lucifer and Satanic practices, the evidence to support that fact is overwhelming. 40K lemmings attend the cult known as Joel Osteen each service, you people need a total reality check, listening to the fake spiritualist talking shite, whilst harvesting all of your money, and when a crisis unfolding, Osteen closed his not church, but synagogue of Satan. When it comes to savior programs people will literally believe the most bizarre conspiracy theories ever created, it defies belief. The god and savior you seek was never external, it was always internal, and the sooner people realize that fact, the better they will be and the planet.

Ali Hosseini Khamenei (born 17 July 1939) is a marja and the second and current Supreme Leader of Iran, in office since 1989, he was previously President of Iran from 1981 to 1989. Ali Khamenei is the longest serving head of state in the Middle East, as well as the second-longest serving Iranian leader of the last century, after Shah Mohammad Reza Pahlavi. "Importing vaccines made in the US or the UK is prohibited, they are completely untrustworthy. It's not unlikely they would want to contaminate other nations, given our experience with France's HIV-tainted blood supplies, French vaccines aren't trustworthy either,". The tweet was from a longer address, where Khamenei also said "I really don't trust them, sometimes they want to test the vaccine on other nations." However, he also said that the Iranian government is allowed to supply the COVID vaccine from other, reliable sources. Twitter promptly banned him from the social network, stating the message was no longer available because it violated the Twitter rules, which prohibits "vaccine misinformation" The Iranian Red Crescent Society (IRCS) stated the import of American Pfizer COVID-19 vaccines had been cancelled because of this. The IRCS head, Karim Hemmati, said late last month that the organization was planning to take delivery of a batch of 150,000 doses of corona virus vaccines produced by Pfizer Inc. Nice to see a leader call things as it is for once, predictably the child rules of Twitter banned it, because the truth is too hard for their tiny undeveloped brains to handle.

Proof the Kali Ma went through all tribal people all over the world. Archaeologists have unlocked a new mystery involving the skulls of women and children, centuries after they were buried under a Mexican city. Historical experts have been left scratching their own heads after digging up, the decapitated skulls of hundred of lost souls from the 15th century. For Historical experts, read puppets of the established theories or they lose their grants. The remains of 119 people were found in an ancient Aztec tower of skulls, that was located in the ancient Aztec capital Tenochtitlan – which is where modern-day Mexico City stands. But what struck the experts about the gruesome finding is that many of the skulls are believed to have belonged to women and children, who would have been killed in ritual sacrifices in order to appease the gods. The skull tower is part of the Huei Tzompantli – a massive structure made of skulls that struck fear into Spanish conquerors. Again the tale is of mass horror and violence amongst the tribal people, long before the scapegoat white man arrived. Yes, many white men committed many atrocities here, but under orders from the establishment to acquire more wealth and land for their own gain.

Whilst it was generally believed that Columbus was the first European to discover America in 1492, it is now well known that Viking explorers reached parts of the east coast of Canada around 1100, and that Icelandic Leif Erikson's Vinland may have been an area that is now part of the United States. What is less well known is that a Welshman may have followed in Erikson's footsteps, this time bringing settlers with him to Mobile Bay in modern day Alabama. According to Welsh legend, that man was Prince Madog ab Owain Gwynedd. A Welsh poem of the 15th century tells how Prince Madoc sailed away in 10 ships and discovered America. The account of the discovery of America by a Welsh prince, whether truth or myth, was apparently used by Queen Elizabeth I as evidence to the British claim to America during its territorial struggles with Spain. oops So who was this Welsh Prince and did he really discover America before Columbus? Owain Gwynedd, king of Gwynedd in the 12th century, had nineteen children, only six of whom were legitimate. Madog (Madoc), one of the illegitimate sons, was born at Dolwyddelan Castle in the Lledr valley between Betws-y-Coed and Blaenau Ffestiniog. On the death of the king in December 1169, the brothers fought amongst themselves for the right to rule Gwynedd. Madog, although brave and adventurous, was also a man of peace. In 1170 he and his brother, Riryd, sailed from Aber-Kerrik-Gwynan on the North Wales Coast (now Rhos-on-Sea) in two ships, the Gorn Gwynant and the Pedr Sant. They sailed west and are said to have landed in what is now Alabama in the USA. Prince Madog then returned to Wales with great tales of his adventures and persuaded others to return to America with him. They sailed from Lundy Island in 1171, but were never heard of again. They are believed to have landed at Mobile Bay, Alabama and then travelled up the Alabama River along which there are several stone forts, said by the local Cherokee tribes to have been constructed by "White People". These structures have been dated to several hundred years before the arrival of Columbus and are said to be of a similar design to Dolwyddelan Castle in North Wales. Early explorers and pioneers found evidence of possible Welsh influence among the native tribes of America along the Tennessee and Missouri Rivers. In the 18th century one local tribe was discovered that seemed different to all the others that had been encountered before. Called the Mandan's this tribe were described as white men with forts, towns and permanent villages laid out in streets and squares. They claimed ancestry with the Welsh and spoke a language remarkably similar to it. Instead of canoes, Mandan's fished from coracles, an ancient type of boat still found in Wales today. It was also observed that unlike members of other tribes, these people grew white-haired with age. In addition, in 1799 Governor John Sevier of Tennessee wrote a report in which, he mentioned the discovery of six skeletons encased in brass armour bearing the Welsh coat of arms. George Catlin, a 19th century painter who spent eight years living among various native American tribes including the Mandan's, declared that he had uncovered the descendants of Prince Madog's expedition. He speculated that the Welshmen had lived among the Mandan's for generations, intermarrying until their two cultures became virtually indistinguishable. Some later investigators supported his theory, noting that the Welsh and Mandan languages were so similar that the Mandan's easily responded when spoken to in Welsh. Unfortunately the tribe was virtually wiped out by a smallpox epidemic introduced by traders in 1837. But the belief in their Welsh heritage persisted well into the 20th century, when a plaque was placed alongside Mobile Bay in 1953 by the Daughters of the American Revolution. "In memory of Prince Madog," the inscription reads, "a Welsh explorer who landed on the shores of Mobile Bay in 1170 and left behind, with the Indians, the Welsh language." The Mandan and their language received much attention from European Americans, in part because their lighter skin color caused speculation they were of European origin. In the 1830s, Prince Maximilian of Wied spent more time recording Mandan over all other Siouan languages and additionally prepared a comparison list of Mandan and Welsh words (he thought that the Mandan may have been displaced Welsh). Scholars do much to present this case as a myth, and are paid to deny it, but the facts speak for themselves. The Mandan's were regularly attacked by other tribes, which our show had stated previously, here is an excerpt confirming that. Soon attacks on hunting parties by Lakota and other Sioux made it difficult for the Mandan to be safe in the treaty area. The tribes called for the United States Army to intervene, and they would routinely ask for such aid until the end of Lakota primacy. Despite the treaty, the Mandan received little protection from US forces. Now there goes another American history myth, Columbus my ass. Columbus was paid by the Roman Catholic church for those expeditions, it was a hostile church based takeover of the country. Yet, Americans are taught to celebrate Columbus and the founding of America, what utter bullshittery that is, on a par with the fable called the Civil War, there is nothing civil about war to begin with, but that was another hostile takeover of this country, and they used the American people to fight in it, for their gains. Which country tried to save the American people in that time of need, Russia, not what the Hebrew Annunaki led scholars of conspiracy want you to believe is it? A full rewrite of American history needs to be taught to every man, woman and child in this country, as your history is all based in conspiracy and complete fairy tales. To start the healing of this country requires telling the truth about this country in full, only then can America be made great and go forward with a better understanding of what really took place here. So, there is evidence the white man came and not conquered, but lived, traded, engaged and intertwined with the local populace, not what the Hebrew Annunaki wants to portray is it? those nasty white men ruined everything is their narrative, this story and others stated by the Hopi proves otherwise.

During out of body experiences and other semi states of consciousness, there remains a common theme of going to the light, and in some cases familiar people to you all greet you. It feels all warm and cosy and for some life changing experience. The question is, what if that is what you wanted to see and not what you actually saw? Is it possible that was an AI projection of your own thoughts? Is it possible the dark controls or in some way interferes with those states of consciousness and frequencies? Anyone noticed the dropping off of reports of those types of OBE's since the fall of certain technology associated with that experience around 2014? The same applies to the drop off of reports of alien abductions from around that time also, are they in some way connected? Much has been said of the 85% figure we mentioned in our show some years back now, there was heavy resistance to that figure and narrative, up until the year forecasted that we would "see", which was last year. So, many of you have come forward to me now with similar stories, I didn't believe that, or was it the case you didn't want to believe that? but now I "see" it unfolding. Some now are worried there may not be even 15%, such is the levels of new eyes many of you now have. Various theories have been put forward on this subject of the 85%, A: they are a holographic projection, B: they are bots, C: they are synthetics, D: they are hybrids, E: they are host possessed, F: they are off worlders and G: they are inorganics. Often people pick the one they are most comfortable with, why? because all of us know some or many within our own circle that fit under those categories. Many years ago on this planet, following more destruction and wars, it was said humanity was offered a choice of a reset type of scenario. They would lose their memories, pains, diseases and harsh lifestyles and would start again anew, like a blank slate or a tabula rasa. Tabula rasa is the theory that individuals are born without built-in mental content, and therefore all knowledge comes from experience or perception. It is the blank slate, essentially what had gone before is now erased and they or the person goes forward with no memories of people, experiences or events prior, the magic eraser in other words. But, those who use tabula rasa where not just erasing memories or experiences, they erased their soul development as well, essentially they were back to the child level stage plus the level they came in with. Many thought Kim would return and some still believe in her and she will do, but she announced what she would do in her first two shows, she said the phrase tabula rasa, it was significant for those with wisdom and overview aspects. By taking the tabula rasa she confined herself to the city of light, and all it's wonderous possibilities of no pain, no trauma and everyone has a good time consuming whatever makes them feel good, it's all a placebo placed in the mind whilst others play with your emotions. During one reset, humanity was placed in what is called sleeping pods, told that one day they would wake up and all will be anew again, but perhaps anew was really Anu. Some woke quicker than others, some avoided it altogether and fled, some stayed in longer than they should. Does anyone stop and think on, why they are called the sleepers or unawakened? seeded into the alt media as a method of differentiating the two groups, but also could be used as a divide and conquer tool. Does anyone think these wordings of sleeper and unawakened is a piss take on humanity, this is how the top level people think and act, they take great amusement in playing out dark magician games with humanity, whilst to all intents and purposes our creator god sits back and does nothing for his creation, or stop it. False wiping of memories, events, pain, fear, traumas will not make the issue go away, it only prolongs it. Those states are our learning tools, they are for our soul development, the pathway to wisdom, knowledge and enlightenment, erasing them or playing tabula rasa in 3D or sleeping pods, does not make them go away, but makes you relive them over and over again, until you step out of the sleeping pod, walk away from the city of light and face the actual consequences of life upon this plane of existence. So, back to the OBE experience, is it a coincidence many walk to the light? not considering the potentiality that the light maybe a trick? Many have spoken of the light being a trick, for an Earth based analogy look at the Illuminati, the illuminated ones, worshipping Lucifer whom they call the light bearer, but their light is false is it not? Immersed in Satanic practice, dark magic, various sexual deviances, death and harvesting, and those people think they are the light, they really do, but it is all an illusion. They like many others on this planet love the illusion game, why? because they won't face reality, all too content to believe their fame and wealth elevates them into demi god status, when in truth they have been duped by the dance of the dark in a light based environment. So, people are entrained to go to the light, after all it is the majority rule and many others did it before, but the many others have no memories left, now why is that? Some will ask are you asking us to go into the dark Thomas? I am not asking you to do anything except ponder. People will ask why head for the dark when you can go into the light? fair question but, have you defined what is the light? have you ascertained that is the light or just another dark magician trick? One of the most seediest places in America, riddled with greed, debauchery, thieves, negative off worlders and an all round harvesting center masquerading as entertainment is, Las Vegas. What is the most common theme for Vegas? a city of lights, echoed by New York, Los Angeles and also Paris. Do you think it is a coincidence those cities are known for dark practices whilst exhibiting so much light? But the clue is all those lights are not natural are they? it is the false illumination tactic again, once you see a pattern it always repeats remember. So, back to going towards the dark, why is it dark? because no light shines within it is why. Like the void it is dark, it is the real blank slate not the 3D tabula rasa version. But the great question is why it is dark and no one goes there, because people are entrained to fear the dark and the darkness is why. Yet we learn our greatest lessons from the dark, so why fear it? the key is to not fear it, but observe it and make better choices if you are on the light path. With a blank slate you have the ability to create the real light within the darkness, you are the light in the dark, when you all shine your beacons, the dark or darkness then becomes the light. Some people will say omg that never occurred to me, that concept, and a new dawning of thinking patterns now emerges. A dawning or the dawn, dawn a period of darkness before the light emerges. Like the 100 series that covers the City of Light people immersed in the AI world of fakery, they asked where are all the good guys, the answer was "there is none", why was there no good guys? because we didn't create enough of them. Why is there no light in the dark doorway? because we have not created enough light guys to illuminate it.
