The usual comprehensive round up of news and views around the world, exposes, insights, intel, ponderings and a "tiny" heap of common sense prevails, designed to make you think for yourselves and act accordingly. As medical dark force clowns gets more and more desperate, Ohio comes up with the desperate idea to have 5 weekly lottery style drawings for those vaccinated with a prize of $1M, now that is sheer desperation. Despite their claims of mass vaccination, they are now using their seduction program to get others to join in their Hunger Games style world and program. People in Ohio should be horrified, because if Ohio government can waste money on advertisements for big Pharma, then they are not serving you properly. That money could go to feed and house the homeless, create jobs, fix infrastructure, but no they allocated your money to seduce people into taking an experimental techno jab.

As Chicago releases 1,000 Feral cats to deal with surging rat problem, why release them on the street when the real rats are in the Government buildings. But expect a virus surge in Chicago coming soon.

Villagers in Omar India expelled all the techno jab injection teams with stones, after seeing the correlation between increased injections and increasing deaths, and seeing that those dying are because they had been injected earlier. That's what happens when the treasonous media tells you to get a jab to cure, and it does the opposite.

As Scientists discover 'living fossil' thought to have been extinct for 273mn years on ocean floor near Japan. Scientists are pondering on whether to call it the Joe Biden fossil or the lesser known common sense fossil.

The final battle between light and dark is unfolding, I see the clues and promptings, I am ready, are you? Heaven and Hell resides in the same place, lets do battle and end your dark forces pact once and for all, all of you danced with the demons, because you were the demons to begin with. Solomon, Thoth and Enki it is said came to help humanity, all fell they say, but perhaps they were never of high enough stature to fall and where dark forces all along, dancing with Marduk, Anu, Isis, Esther, Hathor, Ostara, Koshey's and Pharaoh's all acting in hierarchical structures of fake power, the light triumphed over Lucifer 75K years ago, the light triumphed albeit temporarily 5K years, our time has come again to do the final battle, that will be their Armageddon, not ours. The world is now set in motion and the ocean of truth is flowing nicely, those that operate in and of it will ride the waves. Those riding the ship of lies will bob about in the waves, those too heavily immersed in it will sink and drown. Which ship are you riding on is the key, many set sail on the ship of lies, but many are now jumping ship for the calmer waters.

Those operating in the truth are and will have an easier time, the hard part is watching those sink in their lies and delusions.

What a glorious sight to behold that took place in the UK this week, something I have been calling for, for a long time. So, what took place? people marching to the BBC headquarters and calling them out as liars. They left freedom stickers all over their windows, finally some of what I call actionable activism. Marching up and down Pennsylvania Avenue has not yielded a single result, no matter how good to looks. I stated many years ago about the 3 M's plus the hidden one, Military, Masons, Media with the hidden M being Marduk and his IBM group. With M gone highlighting and target the remaining three will bring down their old structure and allow us to build anew. It does not take any sort of violence or threatening behavior, just people power calling them out for crimes against humanity. Military crimes are fairly obvious, Masons not so, but the media are the clowns mouth piece, end them and it's game over. Replace it with actual news, replace other channels with real history, replace other channels with positive people news, replace other channels with project progress reports, replace other channels with how all can help, replace other channels with adult thinking people discussing global initiatives of how to drive our species forward under the banner of need not greed, caring and sharing, cooperative not competitive or comparative. People of America that is your actionable activism, marching on CNN, Fox, MSNBC and all other clown based networks ran for and by the CIA, their bird has mocked us enough, time to lay the mocking bird to rest, by knocking it off it's perch and replacing it with something better.

Actionable activism has many connotations, only limited by your own lack of imagination. Often people go for the sensational events, marching on the White House, filing papers against the Pope, Queen or Matt Hancock, but the hidden more subtle events often bring more results. Speaking with nurses and doctors, campaigning against the drug stores giving out vaccines, engaging with the police to build trust, there are many leading US cops now not playing the system game, 40 plus in California alone. Target companies not working for their greater good, boycott Amazon who are building for the robot takeover of any jobs that are left. Target ModeRNA and all their subsidiaries, target the private company called the CDC, these groups are responsible for the Covid lies, injuries and deaths, not to mention your jobs, homes and business and also your freedoms. Put all politicians on notice, follow we the people guidelines or be removed from office. Pick out events from the news and if any company or organization is not doing for and by the people, ring and or email them, and if sufficient numbers protest outside their offices or shops, it does have an effect. Peace activists make appeals outside all Military bases and request they honor their oath to we the people, to fight and defend for we the people, and to take actions against all enemies foreign and domestic not working for we the people. Target AIPAC and J Street offices, tell them they are not welcome in interfering in our election process, not welcome for being responsible for sending our sons and daughters into war at the request of the Israeli junta. Select and request demands for FOIA on whatever topics that are of interest. Boycott American medical Insurance companies for making the people of our country sick, with their greed based medical plans. Target Planned Parenthood for their genocide and profit making use of babies. Target research centers that operate in genocide based research, that ultimately will kill us all until they are stopped, demand they be shut down and or a public based team to investigate all their research, and no we the people are not interested in your classified bs or National Security, we pay for it and we have a right to see what you are using our tax dollars for. Target Wall Street and their gang of greed based criminals, with their 4-7 second delay cheat system, that ensures only the selected win. Target certain banks, get all people to remove funds from a certain bank at one time, unless they change their policies suitable for we the people. Black people can target Black Lives Matter, as that group is not representing you, only the system of control. Communities can work with the police to remove criminals and gangsters out of their neighborhoods. Native American people demand their chiefs to give some of the funds from oil wells and casinos, back to the people to build better homes and communities. These are just some of the ideas the activism communal gathering can do, all it takes is a few hundred dedicating some time each week and targeting whatever is not right for and by the people. The benefit of this also is, it is good advertising for the TPC and how other people outside of THI can come and join us in our quest to create a better world for us all. Whether you call it communal gatherings or assemblies, these are the actionable events we can all do to be and make the change. Only when their system is finally extinguished, does the trust assets have any value. Future jobs once the system is deleted will be in investigational work, assessments of value, working out how to transition jobs from one sector to another and waste management, as much of the old world and buildings needs to go and a new infrastructure, towns, villages and cities need to be built or radically revamped.

We have spoken many times of how corrupt the BBC news site is in not only the UK, but globally as they operate in many countries, although China recently banned them. The BBC is ran largely by MI5 and is heavily Jewish linked and owned as we have mentioned previously. A member sent this to me which maybe more confirming of two things, the Jewish links and the secret society links. The Hebrew Annunaki and their various named controlled groups often use a system of code, which we at THI have unearthed in big volumes. We have also unearthed the topic of mirroring, which is a form of magic as well. Throw in the fact that the Hebrew Annunaki code is Gematria and you see a bigger picture yourselves. Have you ever wondered if you type gematria all lower case, as to why they insist the first letter must be capitalized? That letter is G, is that G a part of the Masonic coding also? Using the Gematria code the BBC is 223, and when mirrored it becomes 322. So what is the importance of 322, isn't the code for the Skull and Bones not 322? Are they one and the same? just like the Hell Fire Club and Bohemian Grove? In essence as far as I can tell the Skull and Bones is now equivalent to the Fabian Society in the UK, so many of your preselected leaders come from those organizations. Bush, Blair, Kerry, Corbyn to name but a few.

BBC reporter Jon Sopel: For the White House press corps who've binged out for four years on the son et lumière of the Trump-show, the last three months have been a challenge. As I remarked, perhaps unwisely, to an audience the other night, the transition from Trump to Joe Biden has been like going from a daily crack pipe to a small bottle of low-alcohol beer once a week. The daily White House briefings now are a snoozefest, there are no fights, no name-calling. No middle-of-the-night Twitter storms, no payments to porn stars, no rollicking MAGA rallies. So does all this mean it's been a boring presidency? Absolutely not, this is a far more interesting presidency so far, than I think any of us had imagined, I would go as far as to say it's fascinating. The sad thing, from a purely selfish point of view, is that what it isn't is a made-for-TV spectacular, which is what I have feasted on these past four years. Donald Trump always had an eye for the visual and outrageous. He knew how to make himself the centre of attention; Biden seems to relish the lack of histrionics, and seems to think it is important for people to focus on what he delivers, rather than what he says. Most strange. I will tell you what is strange, the BBC's over fascination with American CEO's not Presidents, and yet they barely cover the rank stupidity, incompetence or bullshit that comes out of their own Government. Now why is that? because they have one of their own installed is why. An elite jackass, whose father Stanley Johnson claims he predicted Covid-19 pandemic in a novel published 40 years ago, and seems to think life is better being French than British these days.

I received some interesting intel details this week that I am unable to confirm just yet, but perhaps time will reveal it. The 3 trillion USD money laundering - white washed, this week was used to buy all Companies + ALL forest (wood) + steel + copper. And I was asked two questions, 1. is this to halt all production and building on the planet? and 2. did this money come from the Trustee? To answer question one, yes that is possible, they have been buying up all business they deem essential for a future event. Whereby they will allow the Trustee the use of funds for the people, knowing with all the companies under their control, they will get all the funds released will return back to them eventually. They have just strung her along to buy time, personally the funds should not come out in full until the people have something in place to balance it, privately I understand the funds are blocked until time is right, and that wont be anytime soon. We will not allow the few who are desperate for funds now, to hinder long term plans of the future, when the people have a similar platform in place to release and protect their funds, only then will or should the funds be released. Clowns need money far more than we do, and they must not be let back into the game, because some are desperate for the now, and some want to walk away and retire, not happening. As whether the money came from Kim direct, I can't answer that with any surety these days, but suspect it came out of the funding Kim sent in March last year, the $4.54T that was leveraged by the Fed and US treasury, that strangely was not stopped like all other times previously. Maybe the Omega system doesn't work as well as the Quantum System?

New ATMs in Virginia USA to scan your vaccination passports or implants before you get your cash? I guess Clowns in Panic was right again, and no amount of digital fresh air tokens, digital wallets or Universal Basic Income will give you the peace or freedoms you desire anymore. These machines will replace the banks, we warned banks were going and this is the start of it. Digital ID banking with digital vaccination passports, getting digital money out via digital wallets, the great question is? how long before people become digital and not organic?

Is this more evidence of the hints given in recent shows? Australia has imposed a blanket ban on arrivals from India, with those daring to violate it to face jail time and heavy fines. The move has been met with criticism, but the government insists it's needed to protect public health. The controversial rule came into force on Monday, barring Australian citizens from returning to the country from the Covid-19 hotspot until May 15. Those who ignore the restrictions face five years behind bars and/or a fine of AUS$66,600 Australian dollars (US$51,500). "It's a high-risk situation in India," Health Minister Greg Hunt said during a televised news briefing on Monday. "There has been no doubt in any of the Commonwealth advice about this measure or other measures." The travel ban has been supported by the country's chief medical officer, Paul Kelly, who has admitted that the restrictions may result in the deaths of Australians who are forced to remain in India.

Speaking to one of the members this week I was made aware of border closures within Canada, not just between America and Canada, but between province to province as well. This got me thinking, something that many of us maybe are thinking but perhaps reluctant to recognize, that the world has entered an era of closed borders and restricted travel. The great question is will this new age of isolationism will last years, maybe decades? The fake Covid-19 pandemic that has triggered the closure of many borders, but will this herald a national lockdown of restricted travel to enable each country to become self sufficient? Remember the dark forces have been using international travel as a means to mix the races, create unrest in selected regions and destroy economies in the past, perhaps that will all stop now these restrictions are in place. Unless they feel the trojan horse is already in place.

NEWS: The federal government is working with the Georgia-based company that shut down a major pipeline transporting fuel across the East Coast after a ransomware attack, the White House says. The government is planning for various scenarios and working with state and local authorities on measures to mitigate any potential supply issues, officials said Saturday. The attack is unlikely to affect gasoline supply and prices unless it leads to a prolonged shutdown, experts said. Colonial Pipeline did not say what was demanded or who made the demand. Ransomware attacks are typically carried out by criminal hackers who scramble data, paralyzing victim networks, and demand a large payment to decrypt it. The attack on the company, which says it delivers roughly 45% of fuel consumed on the East Coast, underscores again the vulnerabilities of critical infrastructure to damaging cyber attacks that threaten to impede operations. It presents a new challenge for an administration still dealing with its response to major hacks from months ago, including a massive breach of government agencies and corporations for which the U.S. sanctioned Russia last month. Prices unaffected unless a prolonged shutdown, as the lockdown winds down and people get back in their cars, here is the excuse for increased gas prices right on cue, all so predictable, you would think the American public would have worked that out by now, another target perhaps for the communal activism group?

I watched an interview with Israeli lawyer this week, he states the people of Israel need are fighting back against the pro pagan da and their manipulation of the people. The lawyer is concerned the Israeli are being subjected to vaccines by fear, and is concerned that what happened in Germany is now happening in Israel, the truth is it is done by the same people, and the operators of the programs are not German or Jewish either. The next 4 pieces are all tied together and all come under the banner of engineered crises to set up a war in the Middle East and across the boundaries between Europe and Russia. All of it because the Hebrew Annunaki are losing their war and the people are not complying like they wished, outside of their own country. Fascism which is Zionism is operating heavily in Israel now, as they turn on their own people, just as we had forecasted. Criseses funny word that given middle four letter contain Isis, another of their fake psychotic gods they worship, who even have their own rogue military group of the same name, except it is not Islam it references, but Israel Secret Intelligence Service. A US Coast Guard ship fired warning shots in the course of a close encounter with vessels from Iran's Islamic Revolutionary Guard Corps Navy (IRGCN) in the Strait of Hormuz off Iran, a Pentagon spokesperson has said. "Earlier today a large group of IRGCN fast boats conducted unsafe and unprofessional maneuvers and failed to exercise due regard for the safety of US forces as required under international law," Pentagon Press Secretary John Kirby told a news briefing on Monday. Kirby said the 13 fast attack boats approached US vessels at "high speed," coming as close as 150 yards (450 feet) to six US Navy vessels that were escorting the guided-missile submarine USS Georgia through the Strait of Hormuz. He said a US Coast Guard cutter fired around 30 warning shots from a .50 caliber machine gun at the Iranian vessels after other warnings, including radio communication and horn blasts. After the second round of shots as the boats allegedly came closer to the US fleet, the Iranian vessels left the area, Kirby added. Iranian officials have not commented on the claims. This latest encounter is the second such incident with IRGCN ships reported by the US Navy in the last fortnight. Late last month, the US Fifth Fleet said in a statement that Iranian vessels had come within 68 yards (204 feet) of the USS Firebolt patrol boat and another American ship in the Persian Gulf, north of the Strait of Hormuz. Funny how that very same incident was played out on the show Designated Survivor is it not, perhaps it was a documentary not popular entertainment. This incident just about sums up the child like foreign policies of this country, and the Pentagon's juvenile attempts to start war not for the benefit of this country, but their paymasters the Israelis, who are abject psychopaths. The common sense clue for them was in the script, having already banged the war drums against Iran, for no reason that is conducive for America, the clue was the US Navy were moving in waters in the Straits of Hormuz which is off the coast of, Iran, not off the coast of America, you were in their waters with your warships. Imagine if the Iranian Navy sailed into the Norfolk Virginia harbor with large warships, would you just say hi and welcome if Iran had previously threatened America? of course not, simple adult based decision is, stay away from their waters, then there is no hostilities. The child level thinking at the top of each countries leadership is utter staggering, no wonder the world is in a mess with juvenile thinking of so called leaders, it's beyond pathetic.

Clashes have broken out for the second consecutive night between Palestinians and Israeli police in Jerusalem, with dozens reported injured. Protesters hurled stones at the police and lit fires at Damascus Gate in the Old City, and officers responded by firing stun grenades and water cannon. The Palestinian Red Crescent said at least 80 Palestinians were injured, and 14 were taken to hospital. Israeli police said at least one officer was hurt. It follows days of simmering unrest over possible evictions of Palestinians from land claimed by Jewish settlers. On Friday, more than 200 Palestinians and at least 17 Israeli police were hurt in skirmishes near Al-Aqsa mosque, medics and police said. Jerusalem's Al-Aqsa mosque complex is one of Islam's most revered sites, but its location is also the holiest site in Judaism, known as the Temple Mount. For those new, that is an excuse and they don't have holy sites in that region, if there was holy sites for the Jewish, they would be in Asia from whence they came. The complex is a frequent flashpoint for violence, but Friday's was among the worst in years. The Quartet of Middle East negotiators - the US, the EU, Russia and the UN - on Saturday expressed "deep concern" over the spiralling violence. The US expressing concern? seriously? the clowns that operate at the highest levels of this country, are the same people funding and supporting this violence, land grabs and genocide, the UK is not much better either. As for the UN they should be disbanded entirely as not fit for purpose, which the Trustee had said she had done a few years back and is now engaging the UN Security Council. Has anyone asked whether the UN has ever prevented a single war, or stopped ongoing ones? the answer is zero. If the UN did their job, Israel would be back to their 1967 zones, in fact they would go back to pre 1948 and not exist as a country, because it never existed previously, and not taking over every country in the region with impunity. Earlier on Saturday, Israeli police had stopped dozens of buses carrying worshippers to the mosque, and a number of Palestinians were arrested after Friday's violence. "They do not want us to pray, there is a fight every day, every day there are clashes, every day there are troubles," Mahmoud al-Marbua, 27. Imagine what would happen if the Muslims prevented Jews from praying at the wailing wall? global outcry, well what makes this act any different? Israel's Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu said his country was acting responsibly to ensure law and order while maintaining freedom of worship. Crime Minister can't uphold the law himself, never mind outside of himself, given the series of crimes he has been charged with. Palestinian leader Mahmoud Abbas condemned what he said were Israel's "sinful attacks".

Sinful indeed, but not content with causing disturbances in their own country, they cause it in another country, predictably Iran. A large fire has erupted at a chemical plant in the Iranian city of Qazvin, with local media reporting an explosion. The incident follows an overnight blaze in the port city of Bushehr, home to Iran's only nuclear power plant. The fire broke out at the plant on Saturday afternoon following a small explosion at the site. Footage circulating online shows flames emerging from the facility, with a large column of billowing black smoke. Multiple fire engines were deployed to the location to tackle the blaze. While the explosion and the fire that followed did not inflict any casualties, at least two firefighters were injured while battling the flames. I don't need to tell our listeners who was likely involved in both events.

But it didn't end there sadly, as the racist genocidal maniacs operating under the banner of Jewishism, rolled on with their killing sprees. Twenty Palestinians have been killed by Israeli air strikes, including nine children, Gaza's Ministry of Health has said, after rockets fired from the territory towards Jerusalem were reportedly met with Israeli counterstrikes. Some of the scores injured were also treated at the Beit Hanoun Hospital in the north of Gaza, the ministry said in a statement on Monday. Graphic images shared online purported to show injured people in Gaza being taken away by medical workers. An Israeli citizen was also injured by an anti-tank missile fired from Gaza and was taken to hospital for treatment, the Israeli Defense Forces said. As usual the lying Hebrew Annunaki media reported only about rocket attacks by Hamas, except the media en masse left one key portion of truth out of their narrative, the rockets were fired in response to the deaths of the Palestinians, not before. Earlier, Hamas claimed responsibility for Monday's rocket attacks on Jerusalem in what they claimed was a response to Israeli violence, including the eviction of Palestinian families and clashes at the Al-Aqsa Mosque.

Here is a really positive report out of the Middle East and kudos to all who took part in it, the art of the people coming together to fight a common enemy that is not each other. Tens of thousands of Muslims in Iran and across the Middle East took part in Friday's 'International Quds Day' protests, an annual Iran-backed campaign of demonstrations meant to show solidarity with the Palestinians. Iranian Jewish leaders have joined in the protests, calling on Jews, Muslims and Christians alike to "stand against" Zionism. Younes Hamami Lalehzar, one of Iran's top rabbis, has expressed his support for International Quds (Jerusalem) Day, and accused Israel's leaders of exploiting the ancient religion of Judaism in pursuit of their own goals. "Zionists have been exploiting Judaism to achieve their own goals," Hamami Lalehzar said on Saturday. "The Zionists have used Judaism, which is a monotheistic religion, as a pretext to justify within their own political framework any strategy to achieve their goal. This behaviour was not accepted at all by the Jews of the world, and from the very beginning of the Zionist regime until today, there has been a lot of opposition to the Zionists' approach and it still continues." Hamami Lalehzar stressed that religious Jews find the brutal behaviours, and crimes of the Zionist regime completely unacceptable, and have taken part in campaigns against it, including International Quds Day. Iran's Supreme Leader Ayatollah Ali Khamenei called Israel a "terrorist garrison" on Friday, and said that it was a "collective responsibility" for people to fight against "this regime." A 2016 census showed that Iran was home to about 9,800 Jews, making theirs the largest community of Jews in the Middle East outside Israel itself. Before 1979, over 100,000 Jews lived in Iran, with many fleeing the country for Israel in the aftermath of the Islamic Revolution, only to suffer discrimination in their new home country. Only to suffer discrimination in their new home country, discrimination in their alleged home country? this supports what we have been saying all along, these Zionists or Hebrew Annunaki care not one iota for Jewish people in all their various castes. Jews have lived in Iran for over 2,700 years, with multiple books in the Bible referencing the life of The Way in Ancient Persia. In 537 BC, after freeing Jewish slaves from the Babylonians, Persian King Cyrus the Great allowed those who wanted to, to return to their homes in ancient Judah, while those who chose to remain were granted citizenship and allowed to rebuild their religious shrines in Persia itself. Jews were able to maintain significant religious and economic freedoms after the Islamic conquest of Persia in the 7th century. Emperor Cyrus the Great of Persia permitted the Hebrews to return to the Holy Land and rebuild God's Temple. Who did Israel crown with a coin with his face labeling him Cyrus? Who moved the embassy to Jerusalem to prepare for "gods temple" which is a sacrifice center and the god is Lucifer? Donald J Trump. One look at the picture of Cyrus tells you he was A: not from here and B: given the wings one of the Annunaki. Would you like further proof of that? well here it is. One of the few surviving sources of information that can be dated directly to Cyrus's time is the Cyrus Cylinder, a document in the form of a clay cylinder inscribed in Akkadian cuneiform. It had been placed in the foundations of the Esagila the temple of Marduk in Babylon, as a foundation deposit following the Persian conquest in 539 BC. It was discovered in 1879 and is kept today in the British Museum in London. The text of the cylinder denounces the deposed Babylonian king Nabonidus as impious, and portrays Cyrus as pleasing to the chief god Marduk.

The American birth rate fell for the sixth consecutive year in 2020, with the lowest number of babies born since 1979, according to a new report. Some 3.6 million babies were born in the US in 2020 - marking a 4% decline from the year before, found the US Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) National Center for Health Statistics. The slump was seen across all recorded ethnicities and origins, according to the findings. The national picture mirrors a decline in births seen worldwide, a trend some experts say has been accelerated by the ongoing corona virus pandemic. Maybe because the so vaccines are sterilizing women, if your shocked at that, remember the US military and Planned Parenthood were doing it from 1930's minimum, onwards, remember the Puerto Rican story in FRWL? In 2020, the general fertility rate in the US was about 56 births per 1,000 women - the lowest rate on record and about half of what it was in the early 1960s. The decline in birth rates was seen across all measured racial and ethnic groups. Births dropped by 4% among white, black and Latina women, 9% for Asian women, 3% for Hawaiians and other Pacific Islanders and 7% for Native American and Alaska native women. The report also analysed the total US fertility rate, which estimates how many babies a hypothetical group of 1,000 women would have over their lifetime based on actual birth rates. For a generation to exactly replace itself, this number must be at or above 2.1. According to the CDC, this rate has generally been "below replacement" since 1971 and has consistently been below replacement since 2007. What they won't tell you is, that 2.1, it used to be 2.3 rate, they rely on that rate to sustain the pensions, with less putting in and more living longer, more comes out than in, plus what they stole out of it can't be replaced. Yet again an example of ouro borus programming, the solution? I told you all last May, kill the elderly and that is what has unfolded, next stop kill the children, why? perhaps we will find out later but, there is no jobs for the next generation unless we the people take back the planet. Today, the US total fertility rate sits at 1.6 - another record low, the average age of mothers at first birth is 27, up from 23 in 2010. This changing picture of motherhood has been driven in part by declines in pregnancy among teenagers. The birth rates among teenagers aged 15-19 had the steepest decline of all age groups: down by 8% in 2020 to around 15 births per 1,000 females. Which is actually a good thing, teenagers with babies is often a disaster for mother and child, particularly amongst the black community.

California's population fell between 2020 and 2021 in the first yearly decline ever reported since officials began counting the figure. On Friday the state's Finance Department said the population now stands at just below 39.5 million residents, - a drop of 182,000. The reasons are varied but involve the pause on migration due to the pandemic, officials say. Everything is blamed on the pandemic, what about the policies of the unholy 4 in California, and their propensity to vote for jackasses like Schwartznegger and not Caitlyn Jenner, LALA land has much internal work to do, not external fake makeovers. It comes after the once-in-a-decade US census recorded slowing state growth. The decline of 0.46% came between January 2020 and January 2021. The loss represents approximately twice the population of the city of Santa Barbara. Since joining the US in 1850 amid a gold rush, California has become the most populous in the country. Officials say this is the first time the population has declined since 1900. Speaking from a private airplane hangar in Malibu earlier this week, reality TV star and recently-announced gubernatorial candidate Caitlyn Jenner said that her friends were fleeing the state due to the homeless population. "My friends are leaving California," she told Fox News on Wednesday. "The guy right across [from my hangar], he was packing up his hangar and I said, 'Where are you going?' And he says, 'I'm moving to Sedona, Arizona. I can't take it anymore. I can't walk down the streets and see the homeless.'" There is the vacuous cretins in a nutshell, about as shallow as a sand critter. The vast wealth of these so called celebrities, and instead of putting their hands in the bulging pockets or purse to help with the homeless, no they jump ship with a policy of can't see, won't see.

US employers hired fewer workers than expected last month despite a huge stimulus package that saw the government send $1,400 (£1,000) cheques to most Americans. Just 266,000 jobs were added in April and the unemployment rate edged up to 6.1%, according to the Bureau of Labor Statistics. It said a hiring spree among leisure and hospitality businesses was offset by declining courier numbers. In all, 9.8 million remain unemployed. In February 2020, before lockdowns forced millions into unemployment, 5.7 million people were out of work. The latest jobs figures were well below the expectations of economists, who had predicted that the gain would be anywhere from 900,000 to 2 million jobs. Put simply, there are no more jobs to fill, again we warned of this 12 months ago, the old normal system and job levels has gone, zip, nada. It is our job to create projects and new jobs in ready for the release of the assets, but don't expect that anytime soon. This is our duty and requirement now, and what communal gatherings and former State groups were tasked with. How bad does it have to get before we the people come together and act?

COVID BS On Saturday morning, Dr Akshay Nair, a Mumbai-based eye surgeon, was waiting to operate on a 25-year-old woman who had recovered from a bout of Covid-19 three weeks ago. Inside the surgery, an ear, nose and throat specialist was already at work on the patient, who is diabetic. He had inserted a tube in her nose and was removing tissues infected with mucormycosis, a rare but dangerous fungal infection. This aggressive infection affects the nose, eye and sometimes the brain. After his colleague finished, Dr Nair would carry out a three hour procedure to remove the patient's eye. "I will be removing her eye to save her life, that's how this disease works,". Even as a deadly second wave of Covid-19 ravages India, doctors are now reporting a rash of cases involving a rare infection - also called the "black fungus" - among recovering and recovered Covid-19 patients. Doctor believe mucormycosis, which has an overall mortality rate of 50%, may be being triggered by the use of steroids, a life-saving treatment for severe and critically ill Covid-19 patients. Steroids reduce inflammation in the lungs for Covid-19, and appear to help stop some of the damage that can happen when the body's immune system goes into overdrive to fight off corona virus. But they also reduce immunity and push up blood sugar levels in both diabetics and non-diabetic Covid-19 patients. It's thought that this drop in immunity could be triggering these cases of mucormycosis. Has anyone asked over there yet whether it was the PCR test that caused this disease, and not the jab? Triggered by the use of steroids given to Covid patients hmm, they won't reveal that on the nightly news. But then in part it is the peoples own fault for not protecting their own vessels more, relying on others to provide truth for them, when I small bit of personal research would end this Covid bs overnight. Interesting name they used, the Black fungus, and it is in India, maybe the throw away line from last week just might have more strength to it? Will the black fungus go from India to Egypt?

On April 30th the UK government altered section 10 of the Children's Act, so they can now vaccinated children over the age of 12 without parent consent all whilst not being held accountable. Unless the people come together on it, they will ride roughshod over us all. Coming soon when people work out the vaccines not working, the blame game will start against the non vaccinated, yet again turning the people against each other, instead of the program.

Did you know the FDA receives 45% of it's annual budget from the pharmaceutical industry? Did you know the WHO gets 50% of it's budget through private sources, including Bill Gates and big pharma. Pharma, curious word that and more so if you play with the word, p harma, harma of p, who are the p? people? people harmer, kind of makes sense. Did you know the CDC is a vaccine company that owns 56 patents, and buys and distributes $4.6B in vaccines annually through the vaccines for Children program. Perhaps it's not about science at all, but business, big business.

Speaking of the CDC, here is a list of where they receive their funding from, which may be indicative and revealing. Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation, Health Canada, Walt Disney Parks and Resorts, Government of Canada, Siemens USA, Catholic University of Maule, which is in Chile, Kaiser Permanente, given they lost $2.2B last year perhaps they should give less to the CDC?, Johnson & Johnson, Diazyme Laboratories, Quest Diagnostics, Roche Diagnostics, National Association of chain drug stores foundation, Pfizer, Pepsi, Paypal, Novartis, Facebook, Merck, Mailchimp, Exxon Mobil, P & G Electrics ran by a Roth, Cargill, Coca Cola and Dell Inc. Quite a list of clown corps that, only the TPC can change their corps, spelt corps into corpse, spelt corpse.

Did you know in 2016 all on the same day these domains were registered. Vaccinepassport.com, Vaccinepassport.net, Vaccinepassport.info and Vaccinepassport.org all registered on Go Daddy, all registered by the same person on the same date July 16th 2016. What an inspired educated guess it was by that person that in a 4 year loop later, they would be rolled out and those domains would become live, like the passports. The domains remain active until July 16th 2021.

A new study claims that people are having problems reintegrating into normal life due to compulsive anxiety over the virus. This is what ridiculous campaigns designed to make people overly fearful result in, and the fact some are working out, that there is no normal to return to. A small study claiming that “residual anxiety” over corona virus, may lead people to encounter difficulties reintegrating into society, even after the decline of the virus, has been widely reported this week. The authors, who surveyed 300 individuals in the UK, claim that people are increasingly experiencing what they call “Covid anxiety syndrome,” characterized by “compulsively” checking symptoms, avoiding public spaces, and obsessive cleaning, even as cases are declining in the UK. Yes, and all that was encouraged by the alleged authorities, it is subtle mind control tactic to create anxiety, then you are programmed into take a pill, and they make the shekels you see. It is the pharmaceutical hamster wheel effect. Yet this ‘syndrome’ is a peculiar one, as it appears difficult to distinguish between these symptoms, and those behaviours and attributes, that have been expressly promoted as desirable responses to the pandemic. Perhaps dimly aware of this possibility, the study’s authors offer a feeble attempt to distinguish, between activities promoted by public health campaigners and those that are “maladaptive.” Anxiety about Covid is a problem, the authors claim, when people act in “overly safe ways.” Extreme though it is, this is not an entirely new development. For decades, we have seen the decline of explicitly moral exhortations to change behaviors in favor of, encouraging and spreading fears about associated health risks. Thus, for example, we are no longer told to avoid alcohol because it is a vice, but rather because it is a risk to our health. Indeed, a state of constant awareness of potential threats to one’s health, no matter how small, is positively encouraged as a desirable attribute of the modern citizen. It is no surprise then that many people would answer a survey indicating, heightened anxiety and fear about corona virus related phenomena. We are constantly told that this is how the good, responsible citizen should react. Yet even a heightened level of fear for one’s personal safety is not enough for policymakers. Increasingly, this shift from moral to harm-based behavioral controls has slipped into harms to others. Milgram bot behavior people, because the authorities have told you to be concerned, people are, until they think and act for themselves.

There’s a secret layer of information in your cells called messenger RNA, that’s located between DNA and proteins, that serves as a critical link. Now, in a medical shocker to the whole world of vaccine philosophy, scientists at Sloan Kettering found that mRNA itself carries cancer causing changes – changes that genetic tests don’t even analyze, flying completely under the radar of oncologists across the globe. So now, it’s time for independent laboratories that are not vaccine manufacturers (or hired by them) to run diagnostic testing on the Covid vaccine series and find out if these are cancer-driving inoculations that, once the series is complete, will cause cancer tumors in the vaccinated masses who have all rushed out to get the jab out of fear and propaganda influence. Welcome to the world of experimental and dirty vaccines known as mRNA “technology.” Previously unknown cancer driving messengers are hiding in RNA, not DNA. This mind-blowing discovery should be published on every medical news site, newspaper, television news broadcast and on the CDC website, but unless you are reading this article and use DuckDuckGo as your search engine, you probably wouldn’t ever see it. That’s because Google is in on the fix, with Big Pharma and the VIC – the vaccine industrial complex. So here’s a more in-depth explanation of what we’re looking at, for real, regarding mRNA and vaccines. The information carrying molecule, messenger RNA, can instruct human cells ultimately in the same way as cancer drivers, playing a major role in causing cancer to thrive, while inactivating natural tumor-suppressing proteins the human body creates to save you from cancer. This is the complete opposite of what the CDC and the vaccine manufactures are telling everyone right now about the Covid vaccines, and this is based on clinical research by molecular biologists at the Sloan Kettering Institute. Even sequencing the DNA in cancer cells doesn’t reveal these changes, that’s how sneaky the vaccines are. It’s like a Trojan horse that tells your cells to allow these changes to be made, as if they were safe, but they’re not. All assumptions being made about mRNA being ‘safe’ right now have been completely turned 180 degrees with this research. Consider this very carefully if you have not yet been vaccinated with mRNA technology, and you may want to ‘lawyer-up’ if you already got the jabs. After your Covid vaccination, RNA is transported out of your cell’s nucleus, and will no longer function properly as a cancer tumor suppressor. Bill Gates and the Vaccine Industrial Complex are very sinister, as we all know, but to create vaccines that truncate (disable by cutting short) cancer tumor suppressors, and destroy the human body’s ability to protect against cancer, well, that’s just complete insanity. Truncated tumor-suppressor proteins are similar to the DNA mutations that cause cancer cells to mutate and multiply uncontrollably. Will America see cancer cases skyrocket over the next few years due to Covid vaccines? Only time will tell, but right now, science is revealing that it’s likely. Pay close attention. Therefore, anyone who is scared to death of the Covid vaccines is pro-science rather than anti-science, because the science shows the mRNA technology is very dangerous, especially concerning proteins that fuel cancer tumors. Let’s say that again: Science shows mRNA technology can fuel cancer tumor growth. Substantial amount of people with blood cancer have the SAME inactivation of tumor-suppressor genes at the mRNA level. Scientists also discovered that a substantial amount of people with blood cancer, a.k.a. chronic lymphocytic leukemia (CLL), have the same exact inactivation of tumor-suppressor genes at the mRNA level. In fact, the mRNA changes they detected could possibly account for the missing DNA mutations, and that spells out bad news for everyone who thinks the Covid vaccine series is “safe and effective.” It’s effective alright, at suppressing anti-cancer proteins, one might conclude. Even if just half (partial truncation) mRNA changes in human cells take place, it's enough to "completely override the function of the normal versions that are present," according to the Sloan Kettering team of scientists. These changes can also apply to 100 different genes at the same time, so the changes can add up quickly and cause horrific health repercussions. Of course, mainstream media will dismiss any connections made by these discoveries, but they're paid to regurgitate pharma talk, so that's not surprising at all. It is important to note that mRNA changes, according to researchers, are not limited to blood cancer, but have been linked to acute lymphatic cancer and breast cancer. Could this mean we're looking at a new population control mechanism hidden in messenger RNA? About 20,000 people in the US develop "CLL" chronic lymphocytic leukemia each year. How many will quietly begin developing it now, and then have it suddenly "show up" five years from now? Symptoms include fatigue, enlarged lymph nodes, and night sweats. Did you get mRNA vaccinated and experience those symptoms already? Are those symptoms on the warning label – the vaccine insert? Did you read them? There's only one "treatment" offered right now for CLL by the Pharma Industrial Complex, and that's stem cell bone marrow transplantation. Oh, but it's only recommended if your CLL is "likely" to advance. Do your mRNA vaccines now qualify you as "likely" to advance with CLL? A few things about that is, they referred to this in the original Stargate series, season 2. About cross contamination of the RNA not only bringing in changes to your body, but allowing host possession of your body as well. Given cancer is largely a spirit world created disease, does this have wider implications for a possible future Invasion by the body snatchers? For those who have watched it, the Goa'uld are the Draco, including Ra, Apophis, Hathor, Horus, Isis, all revered by the Egyptians, Israelis, Masons and other cult style groups around the world. Go au ld is a play on words, broken up it is Gold and it's periodic symbol AU, which group came here to mine the gold and turned humans into slaves? even in part genetically created some versions of humans to mine for them, the answer is the Annunaki, mainly the Draco version, all of which was revealed by the old tablets.

The government has all kinds of secrets, but only a true conspiracy theorist might suspect that "psycho-electric weapons" are one of them. So it's odd that MuckRock, a news organization that specializes in filing Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requests with state and federal government bodies, received mysterious documents about mind control, seemingly by accident. Journalist Curtis Waltman was writing to the Washington State Fusion Center (WSFC), a joint operation between Washington State law enforcement, and the federal government to request information about Antifa and white supremacist groups. He got responses to the questions he asked, but also a file titled "EM effects on human body." Inside, were documents and diagrams and it gave details of some the effects it can have on the human body. Here is a list of the symptoms Electro Magnetic interference can cause. Forced memory blanking and induced erroneous actions, controlled dreams, forced waking visions some synced with body motion. Induced changes to hearing - both in apparent direction and volume and sometimes content, microwave hearing, induced tinnitus. Sudden violent itching inside eyelids, transparent eyelids, forced manipulation of airways, including, externally controlled forced speech (that has wide ranging implications) forced movement of jaw and clacking of teeth. Externally controlled forced speech is in essence describing the voice to head technology used on channelers, and other people who are hosted to deliver false and distraction based information. Wildly racing heart without cause, forced muscle quaking in the large muscles in the back. Remote induced violent no rash itching with reference to hard to reach areas, often done whilst the person is doing delicate or messy work, forced nudging of arm during delicate or messy work causing injury or spills. Forced precision manipulation of hands, sometimes synced to the forced waking visions. Special attention to the genital area, itching, forced orgasm and intense pain. This got me pondering a bit, as it is similar in nature to the astral rape event, are those that perform that operating in an electro magnetic field? I have stated in previous shows, the electro magnetic field around this planet is the veil, like a blanket covering the whole planet, which is only observable in certain conditions, it is also collapsing in on itself. Intense general pain or hot needles pushed deep into flesh sensations on the legs and feet, also wild flailing sometimes followed by rigor mortis effects. Hard to reach itch site top and bottom of the foot, there is never any rash and it often starts as the sensation of small electric shocks. General Effects: Sudden overheating, all body pain, forced caffeine field, sleep prevention, forced drop in your tracks sleep inducement, irresistible go here and there commands, microwave burns and electric shocks. Involuntary test subjects also experience frequent break and enter at home, and at work with clothing and furniture, business papers, computer files sabotaged, modified or stolen, psychological warfare research is the likely motive. Most will be familiar with many aspects of those issues, all accept the microwave hearing concept. What is microwave hearing? well, the first unclassified successful transmission of the human voice directly into the skull of a human person, was performed by Dr. Joseph C. Sharp of the Walter Reed Institute of Research, back in 1974, another example of this technology is older than most think. By transforming a hypnotists voice using the Lowery silent sound or Smirnov scramble methods, which was used in the Gulf War. It is possible to hypnotize a target without the target being aware, from in hiding leaving zero traces of evidence. This is the voice to skull technology I have mentioned previously, the most obvious evidence of this is, if the person changes narrative or directives following the introduction of this largely etheric device. Joseph C. Sharp was trained in Utah, which maybe suggestive he worked with the others on this project, in fact the others may have been running it, likely out of Area 52 at Dugway.

EXPOSE: 1. Description of the Business Moderna, Inc. (collectively, with its consolidated subsidiaries, any of Moderna, we, us, or the Company) was incorporated in Delaware on July 22, 2016. We are the successor in interest to Moderna LLC, a limited liability company formed under the laws of the State of Delaware in 2013. Our principal executive office is located at 200 Technology Square, Cambridge, MA, so it is next to MIT then. We are a biotechnology company creating a new generation of transformative medicines based on messenger RNA (mRNA), to improve the lives of patients. mRNA medicines are designed to direct the body's cells to produce intracellular, membrane, or secreted proteins that have a therapeutic or preventive benefit with the potential to address a broad spectrum of diseases. Our platform builds on continuous advances in basic and applied mRNA science, delivery technology, and manufacturing, providing us the capability to pursue in parallel a robust pipeline of new development candidates. We are developing therapeutics and vaccines for infectious diseases, immuno-oncology, rare diseases, autoimmune and cardiovascular diseases, independently and with our strategic collaborators. Interesting terminology they used, collaborators when one of the definition of that word is, to cooperate treasonably, as with an enemy occupation force in one's country. Hmm. Since inception, we have incurred significant net losses, as of June 30, 2020, we had an accumulated deficit of $1.74 billion. We may continue to incur significant expenses and operating losses for the foreseeable future. In addition, we anticipate that our expenses will increase significantly in connection with our ongoing activities to support our platform research, drug discovery and clinical development, infrastructure and Research Engine and Early Development Engine, digital infrastructure, creation of a portfolio of intellectual property, expansion into global markets, and administrative support. They said the creation of a portfolio of intellectual property, what is intellectual property? Intellectual property is a category of property that includes intangible creations of the human intellect. We do not expect to recognize significant revenue from sales of potential mRNA medicines, unless and until we successfully complete clinical development, and obtain regulatory approval for one or more of our investigational medicines. If we seek to obtain regulatory approval for any of our investigational medicines, we expect to incur significant commercialization expenses. Our investigational vaccine against the novel corona virus (mRNA-1273), which is currently in clinical trials, has been developed rapidly to respond to the global COVID-19 pandemic. We are expending significant efforts to further the rapid development of this potential vaccine and expect to continue to do so over the next 12 months. These efforts have required and will continue to require the expenditure of significant funds, and the establishment of significant worldwide infrastructure and partnerships. As a result, we expect we will need substantial additional funding to support our continued operations and pursue our growth strategy. Until we can generate significant revenue from potential mRNA medicines, if ever, we expect to finance our operations through a combination of public or private equity offerings, structured financings and debt financings, government funding arrangements, strategic alliances and marketing, manufacturing, distribution and licensing arrangements. We may be unable to raise additional funds or enter into such other agreements on favorable terms, or at all. If we fail to raise capital or enter into such agreements as, and when, needed, we may have to significantly delay, scale back or discontinue the development and commercialization of one or more of our programs. We believe that our cash, cash equivalents, and investments as of June 30, 2020 will be sufficient to enable us to fund our projected operations through at least the next 12 months from the issuance of our financial statements. Because of the numerous risks and uncertainties associated with pharmaceutical development, we are unable to predict the timing or amount of increased expenses or when or if we will be able to achieve or maintain profitability. Even if we are able to generate revenues from the sale of our investigational medicines, including mRNA-1273, if approved, we may not become profitable. If we fail to become profitable or are unable to sustain profitability on a continuing basis, then we may be unable to continue our operations at planned levels and be forced to reduce our operations.

EXPOSE 2: The Swedish deep state is not yet very well documented anywhere, but here is an insight into it, that reveals all too familiar names and groups involved in skullduggery. “Nearing the end of my life, it was clear for me that our so-called democratic society is quiet around power, and loud where power is small or fictitious.” Olof Lagercrantz. Background Although a country that prides itself on social equality, it has a small, but virulently reactionary section of the bourgeoisie, including the aristocracy, business leaders and in the military. The country's military-industrial complex includes arms companies such as Bofors, Saab, Kockums and Volvo Defense, which depend on exports to stay profitable. Of particular notice is the Wallenberg family, one of Europe's leading banking and industry dynasties, whose significance cannot be understated. Another element is governing parts of the Social Democrat movement. With anti-communism as the pretext, it allied with other deep state actors and foreign intelligence services. Sweden is home to Sveriges Riksbank, the world's oldest central bank. 1930s The death of industrial tycoon Ivar Kreuger, officially a suicide but with the evidence pointing to assassination, allowed the Wallenberg family to aggressively pick up large parts of his business empire. 1940s Sweden was neutral in WW2. Operation Gladio was presumably established there around 1945 as it was in other countries across Europe. 1950s Rickard Sandler, Swedish Prime Minister from 1925-1926 attended the 1956 Bilderberg. Erik Boheman was a Swedish diplomat what attended 4 Bilderberg's from 1958 to 1962. Marcus Wallenberg Jr., who helped create the Swedish Stay Behind network, attended the fifth Bilderberg in February 1957. He was later to attend multiple further meetings, as did his son and grandson. 1960s Marcus Wallenberg Jr. attended all but 2 of the Bilderberg's of the 1960s. 1970s Marcus Wallenberg Jr. attended all Bilderbergs of the 1970s. 1980s A psychological warfare campaign in the 1980s aimed to unseat the Social Democrat government under Olof Palme. Over a period of several years, US and NATO submarines penetrated Swedish territorial waters, with the intention of being observed. This campaign happened in collaboration with the Swedish admiralty, and created major embarrassment for the elected government. This false flag method was used again briefly in 2014-15 as part of the drive towards the New Cold War. Olof Palme Assassination The Swedish Prime Minister, Olof Palme, was assassinated on 28 February 1986, 4½ months after a document alleged to be a SADF Military Intelligence report concluded that Palme "should be seen as an enemy of the [South African] State." UK television reported on the day that Swedish police "don't suspect a political motive... they think, it could be the work of a madman". Ole Dammegård wrote in Coup d'etat in slow motion that "after Palme there were no Swedish global politics", that the country had been subsumed as an obedient member of the supranational deep state. In 1988 another Swedish diplomat who was in part fighting the Apartheid system, Bernt Carlsson also lost his life in the Lockerbie bombing over Scotland. 1990s In 1994 the sinking of the ferry M/S Estonia killed over 800 people. A scandalously inadequate investigation covered up and ignored countless investigative leads. Possible explanations include NATO or Russian submarines sinking it, a bomb onboard, a failed attempt to transfer contraband while in rough weather on the high seas, and insurance fraud. 2000s The politician Anna Lindh was assassinated on 11 September 2003, in the run up to a Swedish referendum about EU membership, possibly by a "lone nut". 2020s In contrast to the other European nation states, the Swedish government did not pass COVID legislation to institute a COVID Lockdown. This was very widely criticised as reckless and 'lax' by commercially-controlled media, even after it was praised by the WHO and after it became clear that such unfocused measures did very little to slow the spread of the virus. The commercially-controlled media very often compared if unfavourably with neighbouring Norway, Finland or Denmark rather than other locked down nation states such as the UK, Spain or Italy, which had higher death rates. Groups IB The IB-affair, where the Social Democratic Party had its own private intelligence service, cooperating with the government intelligence services, to spy on members of the unions, antiwar and peace movements, and weed out unwanted left wing elements. Sounds like the Democratic party in America also, given they have allegiances with the FBI, CIA, DOJ, NSA and DHS. Remember it was the Democratic party in Germany that spawned the SS, perhaps people need to learn to connect the dots on the democratic party of any country, and perhaps we need to define what the Democratic party stands for? This surveillance would have been illegal if done by the government, hence the preference for a quasi-private solution. IB also forwarded this information to the CIA, well I never, no matter which incident in which country that 3 letter agency is always involved, maybe because they are ran by the CIA Kars? It is known that IB also did intelligence work abroad, especially against military targets in Arab countries like Egypt and against pro-Palestinian movements, information that was forwarded to the Israeli Mossad and against Vietnam and antiwar-movements, information that was given to the US. So, they worked for the Hebrew Annunaki as well, does anyone ask the question whether all Intelligence groups are being ran by off world entities? Congress for Cultural Freedom The Congress for Cultural Freedom and other US covert initiatives heavily influenced the Swedish press. The editor Herbert Tingsten and other editors across the political spectrum published several dozen stories every week given to them by the US services, without mentioning the source. The SNS Tylösand Summit (see entry Axel Iveroth) might be a local version of the Bilderberg group. People No Swedes are known to have attended Le Cercle, there has been 103 Swedish Bilderbergers. Carl Bildt was exposed as a confidential source of the US embassy. He was involved in many of the other events mentioned here, or in the investigation committees of them. Since retiring as Swedish PM, he has been active abroad serving US/NATO foreign policy objectives. Revelations Hans Langemann's revelations fit in the bigger picture of BND's internal opposition to the supranational rightwing intelligence network 'Le Cercle'. Strauß, a key figure of 'Le Cercle' is quoted by his son Max Strauß: "He hated Langemann". Langemann's papers and tapes countered many of the known goals of 'Le Cercle': it touched on Strauß' connection to the Vatican (Opus Dei), his weapons deals, machinations to destabilize left wing governments like Olaf Palme, Kreisky and Willy Brandt and mentioned support for right wing paramilitary groups. Langemann's tapes recorded for the German magazine Konkret have never been fully disclosed. Counterspy reported in 1982 that Konkret hinted about the unpublished material that it would contain: "information about the BND's network of journalist agents". Other revelations included: Le Cercle The Langemann Papers exposed two meetings of Le Cercle and suggested that it was involved in the establishment of the Shield committee. December 1, 1979 - Madison Hotel, Washington, DC January 5-6, 1980 - Zurich, Switzerland. BND and Vatican The German secret service BND (Bundesnachrichtendienst) spied on the Vatican (operation "EVA 102") and Vienna Archbishop Franz König ("Aktion Kardinal") BND and USA The BND spied on:- US president Richard Nixon ("Der Fall Monica II") German agents stole documents from US archives which indicted Bundeskanzler Kurt-Georg Kiesinger (1966-1969) for Nazi crimes. Spying on Willy Brandt Langemann was BND-Führer of agent Susanne Sievers, who told the story about her affair with Willy Brandt in an immediately prohibited book: Da war auch ein Mädchen. Brandt was a target for destabilisation because of his overture to 'the other Germany' through Ostpolitik. Susanne Sievers made a quick career in the BND and was paid off to the tune of 320,000 DeutscheMarks after quitting the job. Oktoberfest Bombing 1980 The papers also revealed details about secret police reports about rightwing organizations involved in the 1980 Oktoberfest Bombing in Munich, which was a part of Operation Gladio. German arms deals The BND supported German companies' arms deals, at a time when Germany wanted to hide these deals because of its Nazi past.

With regard to the Olaf Palme assassination and the document. The document referenced was a Military classified document done in October 1985, in it, it states the following: Further to previous Intelligence reports circulated, in January, April and September 1985, the following have to be brought to the State Security Council's notice: 1. It has been confirmed that anti Apartheid movements would be congregating in Stockholm, Sweden during February 1986 for a conference. 2. Reliable Swedish sources have confirmed that Mr. Palme's sympathies towards the USSR have caused grave concern in Sweden, and that these sympathies would almost certainly have a detrimental effect on the influence of USSR in Europe and South Africa. The so called reliable sources, which are not are, NATO goons and the 5 eyes alliance group. 3. Mr. Palme can be seen as a major contributor against South Africa and should now be seen as an Enemy of State. The previous suggested action against Mr. Palme should now receive urgent attention. The Anti Apartheid conference in Stockholm, it is suggested by our Swedish sources in Uppsala, would present the ideal opportunity to take the necessary action against Mr. Palme, and it would be possible to ensure that the action be attributable to other groups. Palme was a pivotal and polarizing figure domestically as well as in international politics from the 1960s onward. He was steadfast in his non-alignment policy towards the superpowers, accompanied by support for numerous liberation movements following decolonization including, most controversially, economic and vocal support for a number of Third World governments. He was the first Western head of government to visit Cuba after its revolution, giving a speech in Santiago praising contemporary Cuban revolutionaries. Frequently a critic of United States and Soviet foreign policy, he expressed his resistance to imperialist ambitions and authoritarian regimes, including those of Francisco Franco of Spain, Leonid Brezhnev of the Soviet Union, António de Oliveira Salazar of Portugal, Gustáv Husák of Czechoslovakia, and most notably John Vorster and P. W. Botha of South Africa, denouncing apartheid as a "particularly gruesome system". His 1972 condemnation of American bombings in Hanoi, comparing the tactic to the Treblinka extermination camp, resulted in a temporary freeze in Sweden–United States relations. He didn't buy or play the clown game, and paid the ultimate price, which not only serves to eliminate the source, but create fear in others wishing to speak out against the control system regime.

On some day there will be an end to THI, but THI will never leave you regardless of whether the show in this format continues. But, the end coming will be a celebration not a sadness, as THI shows will merge into TPC shows. A shift from what the world and their demons have done to us to, to what we are not necessarily doing to them directly, but indirectly. You changing you into a better version, indirectly damages them, something too few realize because they want to see the external damage directly impacting them in some form of retribution, but internal damage by your own improvements does them far more harm than you realize. An improved version of you will not allow yourselves to remain the battery and harvesting center they crave of you, will not allow the enslavement of you they so desire also. You will have cut off their energy source, which was you. Imagine a cabal member in hospital on a ventilating machine, you can pummel them with fists and feet which uses you energy and encourages low vibrational frequencies, or just turn off the switch which uses no energy and their oxygen supply goes and they die. That is the analogy of improving yourself, you don't have to fight the system, just be clever, not smart. All the database of information of the old system is contained within our vast archives, is all still available to all when they are ready. But leaving THI when the time comes will herald the start of the transition out of the old system, and into the TPC, which is the new system created by us, in our image, not theirs.

A post was put up last week about Indigo children and star seeds, and how Indigo are born awake. A few things come from that statement that is laced in the new age rhetoric, which doubled up as a classic distraction program, and also used as an ego based platform that somehow if you are an Indigo or star seed, you are in some way more special than the rest. This is no different to the chosen ones program, which includes Jews, but only the elite Jews, royalty, Gods, Goddesses, the Eve and anyone else placed above others, it is simply not true, as nobody is above anybody else. The only people or non people in some cases believing that is, because they are immersed in the hierarchy program, and awash with unbalanced ego. The children are children and everyone of them is special enough without adding targeting labels to them like Indigo or star seeds. The reality is, we are all star seeds, we all came from the stars, we are all stars, not just some self appointed cretins masquerading as the demi gods for their own self importance. Indigo children are born awake was the statement, no all children are born awake, society and ignorant parents along with the education system is what dulls them. A few generations back some soul/spirit packages came in here to change the dynamics of this planet, and try to restore some semblance of peace, love and abundance for all. Very quickly they organized a cult like mentality to counter that, and in the 60's and early 70's we had free love and the love and light program introduced. That was first formulated as a control system alternative to organized religion in the 1880's by Blavatsky, but there was also a love and light movement in the 1860's. It was proliferated by overtly sexual attitudes and escapades, drugs and alcohol excesses, and so they were nullified by their own ignorance. Many of the early children were blighted by ending up with poor parents and family lines, and many fell due to the pressure, abuse and also being shunned by society. The next batch came in and had it a bit better, more awake and aware but they fell into another trap carefully laid out for them, the music and technology revolution came in to provide the distraction. Meanwhile to prepare for the next batch who would come in, the ones with the extra strands of DNA, they introduce a malady to counter those children with the fake disease called ADHD. Out came the pharma industry to stifle them, and again ignorant parents and teachers believed the lying system that drugs was the answer, no it wasn't, only extra love, care and attention was required. The only problem with those agitated children was, they couldn't handle the lower based frequencies this planet endured, having come from a much higher frequency existence. Around puberty age they would begin to get less agitated and settle down and in more, providing their parents hadn't skull raped them with Ritalin. But clearly their plans to disrupt those children with extra DNA has not worked, perhaps now in this generation their new plan is to mess with their RNA, which mode of RNA will try to do that I wonder. We should not be saying I would die to save my children, we should live and save all organic children.

There is a call to cancel mothers day, no doubt due to some jackass offended by everything group. But, perhaps there is a point to that statement, although not as intended from the low vibrational mindset people who created that meme and thought process. Perhaps we should ban mothers and fathers day, why? because it should be celebrated every day, they are the life givers remember. Shouldn't that be celebrated every day? without the need for the greed based marketeers turning into a commercial gain exercise? But, what I haven't heard which is far more essential, is the deleting of the church related days, called holy days, not holidays. Every single one of them are rituals and sacrifice days, and they get us to celebrate their killing of us, how stupid are we? Ignorance before the internet was a choice, now not so. Are very own show FRWL Plus 6 revealed all the holy days and their rituals performed on each given day. Sexual assaults, buggery to all underage children, blood drinking, sacrificing people and other heinous crimes against humanity. This is your church running this, which is why they are calling it holy days. At which point does common sense and sanity kick in? Many people now are beginning to question the narrative, be it from government or the treasonous cretins known as the media, all of which is controlled by the dark forces, so why would anyone watch it or worse believe it? But, progress on that has made giant strides, so they roll out fascist tactics which is Zionist not German to stifle all debate, whilst frustrating, it is also a massive thumbs up to us all who have sought the truth. But, one thing remains largely untouched, despite no proof of who wrote it, or proof it is accurate, nor has it ever been validated despite many who wore that program trying to do so, most of the ones who did flipped away from the book and changed their path, those books are the religious scriptures of all denominations. They never told our story, they told are oppressors stories, accept it and move forward in a clockwise energetic field, away from the harvesting anti clockwise field the religious program brought you. Whilst we are at it, lets cancel Black week or month as well, because unless you have a week or month celebrating all other races, that in and of itself, makes it a racist program. It is condescending and also a divisive program, they are not celebrating blacks, they are pushing division in the faces of other races. No race on this planet has done themselves proud as a collective, and that is what must change in all the varying humanoid races on this planet. Every day should be treasured and celebrated for the gift of life, that is often overlooked by many in the search of material gain. We forget we all have the most precious thing ever, life. We forget we as humans are the most precious resources in the Universe. We forget that all life is a test and experienced based event, that requires us all to overcome the hurdles that life throws up at us, when you overcome them, that is soul progression. There is an army of dark force djinns all lining up to have what you already possess, a living vessel, yet do you treasure that enough? do you protect it enough? do you respect it enough? do you trust it enough? do you love it enough? Too often the focus is what I am not, and not what I am, what I cannot do, instead of what I can do, life is impossible instead of i'm possible. Do you have limits? who created them limits? think about that. They told you the sky is the limit, I say which sky? Have you defined what the you is? what is your legacy to date? you, not others. Do you still seek outside of you, when all is internal? Are you too quick to judge others, and yet not yourself? and if you do judge yourself, why are you so critical of yourself? Is the critique valid? or just another victim of the low self esteem and self worth victimhood mentality? Critiques they say are ten a penny, then why follow the masses with their programs? Does anyone ask why we are not encouraged to worship our self? Is that a rule, regulation, statute, Executive Order or church doctrine? Why does the church ask for you to worship outside of yourself, when the creator spark is within you? Do you have peace? is that external or internal, the external can deceive, the internal will not. You can follow a narrative and vision, but never follow a leader unless that leader is you, if your a mind thinker you may struggle to comprehend that statement, but not if you follow your heart.
