I believe in me, I believe in you and I believe in us, lets do this, the groundwork of our venture is underway and now it's time to kick it on. We are the saviors, we always were and it's our time to believe in ourselves, lets end all divisions, fear and anger and turn towards love, compassion, understanding and cooperation. The TPC is our life train to ride, we have built the track now lets ride the new humanity train towards a better world for us all. Yes they the clowns, cabal, the dark forces are dying as their world no longer exists in the format it once was. They had to make a very public play and have been exposed more, as the Day of Svarog peels back the layers of the thicket bush into the light of day, and we see the snakes for what they are, dark, evil and destructive. We are observing the death rattle, but we must also beware of the cornered snake striking out, they can even strike you whilst dead, which is suggestive of alternating between the planes of existence. Only when the head is removed are they rendered obsolete, and so the object of the game is to cut off the head of the snake.

Word of warning as the energies ramps up, the division will increase, the targeting will increase, the isolation will increase, just stay your path, trust your path and trust in you. Keep shielding, keep clearing your field, keep centering which is balance, and protect your fellow members, we are all we have, for now.

I have had another busy week, a 1750 miles cross country round trip through storms, lightning and even hail given the joys of Southern Oklahoma and North Texas weather. But, it was a trip I would repeat again in a heartbeat, to meet such wonderfully vibrant, compassionate and intelligent and intellect based people all coming together to create a better world for Texas, and also a blueprint for all the rest of the world, all within the parameters of the TPC. Innovative ideas and presentations, thought thinking ideas and solutions all done in a loving, caring, compassionate and cooperative way, which is the essence of the TPC. TPC Texas welcomed me as one of their own, I felt their love, they listened and I listened, they questioned and I questioned, they answered and I answered, all proposed solutions and some provided their ongoing solutions as part of the TPC Texas package. New ways and ideas proposed for the communal gatherings, that spurred more inspiration in myself, of which I will reveal later. This is how we should all be, engaging conversation devoid of imbalanced ego, an adult thinking based way, listening to each other and challenging each other to go onto greater heights within and of ourselves, and in doing so inspiring others, including me. This vision that started with me, but is not central to me, has gained new momentum, and all it takes is a few like minded individuals to come together harmonically and share ideas and thoughts, then put them into action. Special thanks to the wonderful hosts Barry and Charlotte that allowed us all to invade their homes for the weekend, and shared with us all such wonderfully culinary delights, I'll tell ya' all missed a feast. Thanks to Amy for arranging it all, thanks to Michael for his math insight and many other insights, Nicholas for showing us his creation of microgreens, Kevin did a brilliant video presentation into maths and the great lie math, astronomy and science has delivered to us and he corrected their lies and presented a worthy case for pondering and a possible teaching method for the school charter curriculum. I have visited two former state groups now and both were really good people coming together, this heartens me to see this, and makes all the hassle, targeting, abuse and sacrifice I have committed to this cause, all worth it. This is about us, just us for now, but build it and they will come, the great question is, who is they?

President Joe Biden has hailed a "great day for America" as US officials said vaccinated people can go mask-less in most indoor and outdoor settings. The president removed his mask in the Oval Office with Republican lawmakers as the guidance was being announced. The advice still calls for wearing masks in crowded indoor settings like buses, planes and hospitals. The Biden administration has faced pressure to ease restrictions on fully vaccinated people. In another major step for the US in returning to pre-pandemic life, the president of the 1.7m-member American Federation of Teachers labour union called for schools to reopen fully in the autumn. 13 months of crass stupidity coming to an end finally so it seems, but we must be wary of their extra waves generated by fake figures from John Hopkins et al. Overall the masks and the lockdown taught us all valuable lessons, the most important of which there are no experts in any field, and people in general will always act like bots. That gives us the kick in the ass we needed to see, that only us not complicit with their stupidity can save or change the world, the last 13 months has shown us that, so lets get moving.

Judge Garland dismissed concern from Sen. Richard Shelby (R-Ala.) who asked whether the Justice Department was investigating with "equal vigor" protests in Portland, Ore., and other cities that were often a focus of former President Trump. "We don't care what the ideology is, violations of law are pursued and are prosecuted. I think it's fair to say that in my career as a judge, and in law enforcement, I have not seen a more dangerous threat to democracy than the invasion of the Capitol," Garland said. "There was an attempt to interfere with the fundamental passing of an element of our democracy, the peaceful transfer of power. And if there has to be a hierarchy of things that we prioritize, this would be the one we'd prioritize. It is the most dangerous threat to our democracy, that does not mean that we don't focus on other threats." Well clearly you haven't Judge Garland, yet another lead position for a born to, otherwise the Senator wouldn't be questioning you. They wont investigate Portland because it was Jewish elites funded and organized is why.

The Biden administration's top law enforcement officials on Wednesday, pledged to dedicate their resources to combat domestic violent extremists amid questions over whether the agencies are equipped, to monitor such threats in the wake of the Jan. 6

Capitol riot. Attorney General Merrick Garland and Homeland Security Secretary Alejandro Mayorkas appeared before the Senate Appropriations Committee for a hearing on domestic extremism, as Congress ramped up its scrutiny this week of the circumstances around the attack on the Capitol. Both Garland and Mayorkas testified that white supremacist groups pose the most serious domestic national security threat in the U.S., reinforcing what analysts have long concluded about far-right organizations. Well what a surprise and proves Israel is still pulling the strings of blaming the group they wish to target, whilst using their funds to target the whites as well, with Black Lives Matter and Antifa. In case DC forgets the whites still represent the majority in this country, and they need to quit targeting and blaming one group no matter which color for all ills, clean your own house up before blaming the people. "Domestic violent extremists pose an elevated threat in 2021 and in the FBI's view, the top domestic violent extremist threat we face comes from racially or ethnically motivated violent extremists, specifically those who advocate for the superiority of the white race," Garland told lawmakers at the top of the hearing. The FBI being ran by top Democrat criminals and the Israeli junta is the biggest threat to this country, again clean up in house before blaming others. But the hearing on Wednesday highlighted the competing partisan priorities, as Republicans urged a crackdown on illegal immigration, and Democrats questioned whether the agencies are fully prioritizing efforts to prevent the type of domestic extremism that led to the storming of the Capitol. Lets get it right it was the Democrats, in particular Pelosi along with the treasonous media that set the stage the likely staged capitol event, again pointing fingers away, when they need to look at themselves.

In February of this year, Irish Tanaiste, Leo Varadkar resorted to a well established Bolshevik tactic when he labelled a gathering of thousands of Irish people, who were marching through Dublin City in protest of the nation's farcical COVID lockdown policy, as 'bonkers'. Doing so, Varadkar made it clear, in a roundabout way, that anyone who dissents against the government could be assumed mentally unwell, sectioned and placed in a looney farm. He had confirmed that the Stalinist ploy to rid the country of opposition, by locking them up in mental asylums had been adopted by the sitting Fianna Fail/Fine Gael/Green Party, World Economic Forum-sponsored cartel. On pointing this out to the hypnotised normies of Europe's only fluoride-mandating nation, I was laughed at and fobbed off as a tin-hat wearing zany conspiracy theorist. I pointed out further that legislation had recently been enacted in the country, with the COVID-19 illusory virus pandemic used as an excuse to change existing laws, in an effort to further tighten the grip of arbitrary control of the Irish people. The Emergency Measures in the Public Interest (Covid-19) Bill and the special powers granted to the Department of Health via the 2020 Mental Health Care Act, meant that an Irish citizen could be detained against their will without access to a lawyer, arrested without a warrant, subjected to force and coercion, and put before a single person tribunal who had full authority to have him or her isolated and placed in a detention facility of any sort, including, but not limited to, a psychiatric hospital. Once again, the Bolshevik techniques and the poisonous styles used to stifle political dissent were plain to be seen. Once again though, the majority of Irish men and women whom I spoke to about this, brushed it off as a minor triviality and showed no concern for its threat to their liberties. It was all for our own good, apparently. We need more Irish speakers speaking up about the shenanigans within that country, as one lead Irish figure went from alt media warrior and joined the establishment this week, and another is waiting for 5D. The Irish have a rebellious nature to them, yet where is your rebellion and fire that has been prevalent so much of your past?

Education Scotland showed signs the system is panicking this week with a document highlighting to teachers the rise in radicalization of children, they are blaming on the alt media, thanks for the recognition of our work. They stopped short of using pro pagan da in the document, as that is the school boards realms. In it they highlighted several things the system is demanding for the children to be stopped. The Jewish plot, and blaming Jews for everything, well in part it is, the Jewish elites. The British Muslims are spreading Covid, this is the fault of the BBC and Sky for pushing anti muslim rhetoric on the people, so it has backfired. Narrative promoting anti Chinese, that is the fault of the BBC and Sky promoting agency led scripts repeatedly warning the public, China is the enemy. Daesh-inspired narratives claiming that the pandemic is divine punishment for the West's 'sinful' behaviours and using this to promote the need for a Caliphate in the West. I am not sure kids are discussing that in the slightest, most kids don't know who Daesh is, that is pro pagan da on behalf of the Israelis. Hmm did they mention a caliphate - oh my. Extreme right-wing conspiracies claiming that society is collapsing, and that right-wing terrorism can accelerate its end through inciting social conflict, violence and ultimately a race war. Again kids will not know what is the stupid bird like labels of left and right wing, so again that is pro pagan da. Again the media are wholly responsible for pushing and promoting racial division. Wider conspiracy theories relating to 5G, test and protect and anti-vax, which can be detrimental to public health messaging, conspiracies haha, you have to laugh at their own stupidity. Here is one test you can see with your eyes and listen with your ears, it's called the retard test, which figure is high and better? Immune system 99.97% or vaccine 63-90%? One has no side effects and keeps you alive, the other has a multitude of side effects including death. They are, as I have stated losing the children, children outside of the mind controlled school system develop themselves in a better way. Although a lot of our alt media leaves much to be desired, particularly the vast volume of them connected to agencies, who are responsible for the above lists themselves, given MI5 runs not only the Government via the Fabian Society, but the media as well, not to mention the private contractors like Serco, running the schools and school boards as well. The school board suggestions to get proper news? the BBC haha surely you jest, no? my advice then is, please take the retard test again.

Amazon is gearing up to bring on 75,000 new employees, and one of the incentives they will be offering new hires is a $100 bonus payment for proof that the worker has been vaccinated against Covid-19. With its less than stellar reputation on employee welfare, Amazon is resorting to offering perks to workers as the US job market struggles to fill positions. With more and more people turning to e-commerce sites to do their shopping during the pandemic, it is one of many stores looking to quickly hire fulfillment and logistics employees. Besides the $100 for proof of vaccination, new Amazon employees will also receive another $1,000 as a new hire. Amazon should be put under the microscope, this is them skirting the system and offering bribes to be vaccinated. It is ironic they ban stuff promoting non vaccines, yet the likes of Amazon can put it in your face, solution? mass boycott of Amazon. Medical bribery for an experimental vaccines is a crime against humanity.

The boss of the US tech giant IBM has said a computer chip shortage could last another two years. Its President Jim Whitehurst told the BBC it could be "a few years" before the situation improves. Many firms have seen production delayed because of a lack of semiconductors, triggered by the pandemic. The shortage has been exacerbated by surging demand for TVs, phones and gaming consoles while consumers are stuck at home. Mr Whitehurst said on BBC World Business News: "There's just a big lag between from when a technology is developed and when [a fabrication plant] goes into construction and when chips come out". "So frankly, we are looking at couple of years... before we get enough incremental capacity online to alleviate all aspects of the chip shortage." IBM licenses its microprocessor technology to the world's biggest chip makers such as Intel, TSMC and Samsung. The chip shortage is due to them being used for vaccines and PCR tests, the two years tallies with the government warnings of it will take two years to vaccinate everyone, connecting the dots now?

Long working hours are killing hundreds of thousands of people a year, according to the World Health Organization (WHO). The first global study of its kind showed 745,000 people died in 2016 from stroke and heart disease due to long hours. The report found that people living in South East Asia and the Western Pacific region were the most affected. The WHO also said the trend may worsen due to the corona virus pandemic. The research found that working 55 hours or more a week, was associated with a 35% higher risk of stroke and a 17% higher risk of dying from heart disease, compared with a working week of 35 to 40 hours. The study, conducted with the International Labour Organization (ILO), also showed almost three quarters of those that died as a result of working long hours were middle-aged or older men. Often, the deaths occurred much later in life, sometimes decades later, than the long hours were worked. In the UK, the Office for National Statistics (ONS) found that people working from home during the pandemic were putting in an average of six hours of unpaid overtime a week. People who did not work from home put in an average of 3.6 hours a week overtime, the ONS said.

The solution? create more cooperative businesses operating under the TPC guidelines, that ends that nonsense of harvesting once and for all. The second stage of a TPC company is for the staff to work only 4 days but have pay equal to 5.

A novel written about the persecution of Jews in Germany in 1938 but which was then forgotten about for 80 years has made it onto a UK bestsellers list. Ulrich Alexander Boschwitz's The Passenger is about a Jewish man who - like the author - attempts to escape the rise of the Nazi regime. It was rediscovered in 2018 after the author's niece told an editor about it. The book has had stellar reviews and has now entered The Sunday Times list of top 10 hardback fiction bestsellers. The UK edition sold almost 1,800 copies last week to put it at number 10 on the list. It was written in the weeks after Kristallnacht (the Night of Broken Glass), the outbreak of mass violence against Jews in Germany and Austria in November 1938. It tells the story of a Jewish businessman called Otto van Silbermann, who hears a knock at his door from Nazi Storm Troopers and quickly realises he must flee. He and his wife stuff all their money into a suitcase, just their money? why does that not surprise me, all about the shekels you see, and end up boarding train after train across Germany as they try to make their escape. Boschwitz himself had left Germany three years earlier after anti-Semitic laws were enacted. His book was published in the US and UK in 1939 and 40 respectively, but made little impact and soon went out of print. The author died in 1942 at the age of 27 when a boat he was travelling on was torpedoed by the Germans. What a coincidence they "unearthed" this book this week, as the same psychopaths who ransacked Russia and Germany, are now doing it to their own falsely created state and all neighboring countries. Why did it come out now, because it is a mind control spell casting tactics is why, sympathy for devil, that shames and guilts many peoples, when it is their own kind who killed them as a sacrificial offering.

Why is Gaza, one of the most densely populated places in the world, blurry on Google Maps? It's an issue that has been highlighted by researchers using open-source, publicly available information - including mapping data - to locate attacks and document the destruction. In fact, much of both Israel and the Palestinian territories appear on Google Earth as low-resolution satellite imagery, even though higher-quality images are available from satellite companies. Until last year, the US government restricted the quality of satellite images that American companies were permitted to provide on a commercial basis. Why? because of National Security, ah I see, that means they cover up their own crimes then, I get it now, do you or they? The Kyl-Bingaman Amendment (KBA) had been introduced in 1997 to address Israeli security concerns. Although the ruling only referred to Israel, it was also applied the restriction to images of the Palestinian territories. The KBA limited image quality, so that an object the size of a car was just about visible as a highly blurred image, but anything smaller would be very difficult to identify. "We [Israel] would always prefer to be photographed at the lowest resolution possible", said Amnon Harari, head of space programmes at Israel's Defence Ministry last year, reported by Reuters. "It's always preferable to be seen blurred, rather than precisely." It's a pity their roles in top positions around the world were not made blurry as well, in fact it would be preferable to not see these born to in any top positions, as the world would be better off overnight. It's not uncommon that sites such as military bases have been blurred - but the KBA was the only case of such a wide area being subject to such a restriction. However, once non-US providers, such as French company Airbus, were able to supply these images at a higher resolution, the US came under increasing pressure to end its restrictions.

Tensions between Australia's military and a controversial Israeli weapons manufacturer are threatening to topple a multi-billion-dollar IT system, that allows Army commanders to control units in the field. Defence is refusing to comment on the saga but several sources with knowledge of the dispute, say the Army is now moving to scrap its Battle Management System (BMS) produced by Elbit Systems Australia. The digital Israeli technology allows Army commanders to better coordinate various land assets during complex battlefield scenarios, where previously they had to rely on "analogue" methods such as maps and radios. The United States military has for years taken special precautions while operating alongside Australian vehicles that are equipped with the Elbit BMS, because of security concerns about the Israeli technology. And yet your own government gives these psychopaths the funds and the knowledge to build these systems they are wary of, does that make sense? no, it's a program then. Military figures have said simmering tensions between the Defence Department and Elbit Systems Australia have come to a head in recent weeks, with the Army now moving to stop using its existing deployed BMS. One Army source, who spoke to the ABC on the condition of anonymity, described the standoff as a "complete shambles". "People are getting the sh--s with Elbit exploiting their monopoly to impose huge premiums," the officer said. "And there are definite concerns that the Israelis are backdooring the system for information". The ABC understands Elbit employs 190 staff in Australia, but Defence is now looking to use an American company which is yet to properly establish itself in Australia. Yes Elbit is backdooring every system as I understand it, all paid for by American money, this has to stop in this country and quickly.

Here is another group out of control also and wasting tax payers money. The Pentagon is running a 60,000-strong secret army made up of soldiers, civilians and contractors, who travel the world under false identities embedded in consultancies and name-brand companies — without the knowledge of the American people or most of Congress — according to a report. The top-secret army was created by the Pentagon over the past 10 years as part of a program called “signature reduction,” and operates both domestically and internationally, using a low-profile force of clandestine warriors who sometimes wear civilian clothes as they carry out their assignments, Newsweek reported. The force is 10 times the size of the covert elements of the CIA, comes with a cost of more than $900 million, and engages about 130 private companies in operations in locales like the Middle East and Africa, the report said. Despite the undercover army's size and budget, Congress has never held a hearing on it. So, it is working for Israel then, another $900M of our funds wasted in pursuit of the dark forces agenda. The Pentagon is a giant waste of public money, not one cent it appears to me is spent on benefitting the American people. All of it seedy undercover underworld black budget expenses with zero oversight. Military intelligence specialists comprise the second-largest element inside the force. But the newest and fastest-growing group in the unit is made up of cyber-warriors who use false personas and "nonattribution" or "misattribution" techniques online to disguise themselves so they can track high-value targets, collect "publicly accessible information" and engage in influence campaigns to manipulate social media. Remember the Pentagon ran social media before handing it over to Facebook and the Israeli Junta. "Signature reduction" programs, which are administered by a number of shadowy government organizations, have no unclassified definition, and are portrayed by the Defense Intelligence Agency as what "individuals might use to ... describe operational security measures for a variety of activities and operations." The report said ultimately the programs shield the operators from being identified by the groups they are tracking online, and cover their cyber tracks to keep their identities secret to protect them from retaliation. This is a national disgrace, we have the Pentagon, 17 agencies, 5/6 branches of Military consuming enormous expenses of this countries yearly funds, and none of it benefits America or Americans, as harsh as that sounds it is the truth. I would welcome to be shown otherwise. $1T a year to wage war on other countries and none of it helping Americans, is the reality. Solution? Cut Military budget to $500B, cut 17 agencies down to 3 one domestic one international and one cyber, and cut the 5/6 military branches into 3, land sea and air and make them defend this country only, or lose more budget money. If you thought the actions of the Pentagon were bad in that story, listen to this one.

A recently relieved Space Force commander claimed Monday night, that the Pentagon sent service members a video that claimed that America and white people were "evil." Lt. Col. Matthew Lohmeier told Fox News' that the videos were sent out to every base and service member, and we were asked to watch them in preparation for our extremism down days and discussions on race. Those videos, Lohmeier added, "taught that the country was evil, that it was founded in 1619 and not 1776, and that whites are inherently evil." Lohmeier did not specify when the videos were sent out beyond saying it had happened in the past ten months, when I was in command of a unit. However, in early February, Defense Secretary Lloyd Austin ordered a military-wide stand down in an effort to tackle domestic extremism in the ranks following the Jan. 6 riot at the U.S. Capitol. This is what we are wasting $1T a year on, for jackasses with badges of dishonor to spew out Hebrew Annunaki and Ciakar pro pagan da. The good people in the Pentagon, CIA and other rogue based agencies, the soldiers all need to stand up now and be counted. You are being swept with the same brush as these psychopaths and their Is RA eli agenda, lets unite and bring these old system dark forces down.

COVID NEWS: Recent updated figures from the CDC is that 10570 are dead from the vaccines and 405,259 injuries due to vaccines. Meanwhile 99.97% without vaccines survived, and that figure could well have edged higher if not for John Hopkins and their fake math. The lawsuits in the coming years will be enormous, when reality finally kicks in and people realize what has been done to them. I suspect most countries will rise up to turf out their governments, but people must beware that the clowns want governments gone for their one world government program.

Over the weekend, Texas reported reaching the milestone of zero deaths from COVID-19 for the first time since March 2020. Arizona, Minnesota, and Massachusetts also recently reported COVID death-free days for the first time in months.

I received this piece this week and thought it was worth highlighting it on a wider scale. I work in a lab and I run PCR tests. I give covid patients blood from the blood bank, and I run all lab tests on them as well as have access to all the collected covid metrics. Here is what I know: 1) Covid was never presented as a true “virus”, the blood counts never added up as a historic viral syndrome. This is a very much a bio-weaponized viral vector blood co-agul-opathy disorder. It doesn’t affect the lungs as much as it affects the oxygen carrying capacity of the red blood cells. We gave people units and units of blood to offset the low O2 counts, to no avail. This affected type A and B mostly, but when we started giving them O many recovered quickly. This supports a previous piece of O blood group and smokers being more resistant to this bio-weapon. This indicates manipulation at the molecular level to affect the blood, and so is not viral. 2) Many patients were specifically selected to die from "covid", they were used under the guise of their co-morbidities to up the body count. I reviewed many patients; elderly, immigrants, unsuspecting and unaware populations who had no knowledge of medical processes, who on their death day had nearly perfect biochemical lab results, yet died having only minor illness but with ongoing co-morbidity. I suspect the exclusion of having loved ones visiting was to hide the “medical treatment” they were given. This is not hyperbole, many traveling doctors and nurses were brought in during the height of the pandemic to help administer care. So, they brought in outside doctors and nurses at the expense of local doctors and nurses to end the familiarity with patients, reminiscent of the Avian looking plague doctors in the past, no one knew where they came from either. 3) The package inserts of the PCR explicitly says, if you have had prior viral illness if any kind, false positives may result as well as a having had a flu shot. It also explicitly stated the test does not confirm or deny, that the existence of pathogens is what is causing any disease. 4) Many patients were admitted with positive tests, only to be discharged 8 hours later. They were not sick but their admission allowed the hospital to get extra compensation for their being a true inpatient. Which confirms what I have said all along, hospitals are not there to treat you, just harvest you and the medical people at the top are part of this criminal gang against humanity. Please don't take that as me meaning all doctors and nurses, like the Freemasons many are clueless as to what they are involved in. 5) They were calling entire psychiatric floors positive for Covid because the patients didn't know any better, no tests to confirm, just observationally diagnosed. Mental health clinics are funded by the CIA and MK Ultra groups. 6) The hospital staff were being highly encouraged to get vaxxed, and most who did are now being monitored as test subjects, maybe that is their silencing technique as dead people don't talk, another classic agency tactic. They have now introduced special "lightning protector" equipment all around the building (we rarely have lightning), and made us aware not to worry about this big noisy project. When did you ever get a notification at work about this? Here is where they are testing the biosensors of the nano in the vax. The luciferase bioluminescent uplink with the AI crypto system to see if it works well before they unleash it on the general public. My hospital is well connected to the Harvard/MIT/Fauci/Gates network and has historically been a "teaching hospital" where many novel experiments were done over a century of operation. Do you all see where this is going?

The Canadian province of Quebec will no longer offer AstraZeneca's Covid-19 vaccine to people as a first dose, the health ministry has said, following advice on the issue from its immunization committee. The ministry said in a statement on Thursday that almost all of its AstraZeneca doses, have already been used in people aged 45 and over in recent weeks. Any doses left, including an additional 148,000 set to arrive in the next week, will only be used as booster shots, the ministry said. "I want to reassure Quebecers who received AstraZeneca in the first dose: its effectiveness is high and lasting," Health Minister Christian Dubé said in a tweet on Thursday. The ministry's statement highlighted that blood clots related to AstraZeneca's vaccine are a rare side effect – approximately 1 in 100,000 – but did not say this was the reason for its change in strategy. Quebec is the latest Canadian province to alter its AstraZeneca vaccine use this week, after Ontario suspended its rollout of the jab over blood clot concerns, and Alberta paused its campaign due to supply issues. Multiple countries around the world have reported a small number of unusual blood clotting cases among the millions of people injected with the Anglo-Swedish jab to date. Drug regulators in the US and EU have said the vaccine's benefits continue to outweigh its risks. Drug regulators are in on the scam is why, like the CDC and FDA which we covered their involvement in last weeks show.

An official tally of suspected side effects resulting from Covid vaccination in Sweden has surpassed 30,000, with the majority of cases occurring in people inoculated with AstraZeneca's shot. According to the Swedish Medical Products Agency, as of last week, the Scandinavian nation had received 31,844 reports of adverse reactions linked to the rollout of Covid-19 vaccines. Sweden is currently offering three variants of the drug, variant drugs and variant strains seems variant is the new normal. There are currently 2,103 reports of side effects from the Moderna shot, while the Pfizer-BioNTech vaccine has been associated with 9,117 health issues. But the number of suspected adverse reactions from the two shots seems relatively small when compared to the 19,961 reports linked to AstraZeneca's Vaxzevria. The most common side effects for all three drugs were fever and headache. Other reported adverse reactions included nausea, joint pain, and dizziness. Notably, the AstraZeneca shot only accounts for about 26% of the roughly 2.7 million vaccines that have been administered so far in Sweden, but makes up around 63% of the side effects reports. Of the nearly 32,000 reports, 663 cases have been registered where it's unclear which vaccine was administered. Two-thirds of the reports have been submitted by the general public. The agency cautioned that individual reports do not necessarily demonstrate a correlation between the medical episode and the vaccine. Ebba Hallberg, an official with the Medical Products Agency, told Swedish media that it was unusual to receive so many reports of side effects, but noted that the figure was likely high because of public focus on the new vaccines. Healthcare providers are likely only reporting more "serious" side effects, the official theorized. Hallberg also said that it was possible that AstraZeneca was overrepresented in the data because the shot was given to many young people and healthcare workers, who are more tech-savvy and would therefore be more likely to report an issue. According to one Swedish outlet, the agency has received more reports of suspected side effects over the past several months than it typically does over four years. In March, Sweden was one of several nations to temporarily suspend the use of the AstraZeneca jab, following reports of abnormal blood clotting in recipients. AstraZeneca, as well as the European Medicines Agency, have insisted that the vaccine is safe after it came under scrutiny. Since then, new reports have linked the drug to severe medical episodes, and even death. Earlier this month, a 35-year-old female medical worker in Vietnam died from anaphylaxis after being injected with the jab, in what has been described as a "very rare" case of adverse reaction to the vaccine. So, why are the media reporting against Astra Zeneca all of a sudden? in a recent show I warned that Astra Zeneca would face the wrath of the Hebrew Annunaki media, for the audacity to ask Israel to pay for vaccines they purchased, now you are seeing it in full.

While Congress sparred over the question of then-President Donald Trump's (first) impeachment, Sen. Tom Cotton was preoccupied with what would become the story of the decade. The Arkansas senator was begging the White House to take a novel corona virus circulating in China more seriously. He warned that, despite the Chinese Communist Party's narrative that it emerged from a wet market, Wuhan was also home to the Wuhan Institute of Virology, China's only BSL-4 laboratory known to conduct experiments on novel corona viruses. Cotton's queries about the true origin of the virus were written off at the time by the rest of the federal government and the media. But the circumstantial evidence was always there. The closest known genetic cousin of SARS-

Cov-2 is RaTG13, a corona virus with a 96.1% nucleotide similarity. RaTG13 was discovered more than 1,000 miles away from Wuhan and brought back to the WIV by Shi Zhengli, who was conducting gain-of-function experiments on corona viruses, with the explicit purpose of making them more transmissible and dangerous. Despite the State Department's 2018 warning that such experiments were risky, it now seems likely that the National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases, headed by none other than Dr. Anthony Fauci, funded these experiments. Fauci got just about everything wrong in the early days of the pandemic, from masks to outdoor transmission. But his early support for the wet market theory seems like no mere mistake. His nearly omnipotent control over government funding of virology successfully silenced most of the virology industry. Fauci categorically denies funding the WIV's gain-of-function experiments with novel corona viruses, the evidence tells a different story. In 2017, virologists successfully lobbied to rescind a moratorium on federal funding for gain-of-function research, a dangerous scientific practice reviled by other biologists. But between that moratorium's imposition in 2014 and its repeal, 10 projects received exceptions. One of those awardees was EcoHealth Alliance, a pandemic prevention nonprofit organization led by Peter Daszak. The description of Daszak's project, per his application for federal funding, reads, in part, as follows. This project will examine the risk of future corona virus emergence from wildlife, using in-depth field investigations across the human-wildlife interface in China, molecular characterization of novel CoVs and host receptor binding domain genes, mathematical models of transmission and evolution, and in vitro and in vivo laboratory studies of host range. This project aims to understand what factors increase the risk of the next CoV emerging in people, by studying CoV diversity in a critical zoonotic reservoir (bats), at sites of high risk for emergence (wildlife markets) in an emerging disease hotspot (China). The three specific aims of this project are to: 1. Assess CoV spillover potential at high risk human-wildlife interfaces in China. This will include quantifying the nature and frequency of contact people have with bats and other wildlife; serological and molecular screening of people working in wet markets and highly exposed to wildlife; screening wild-caught and market sampled bats from 30+ species for CoVs using molecular assays; and genomic characterization and isolation of novel CoVs. 2. Develop predictive models of bat CoV emergence risk and host range. A combined modeling approach will include phylogenetic analyses of host receptors and novel CoV genes (including functional receptor binding domains); a fused ecological and evolutionary model to predict host-range and viral sharing; and mathematical matrix models to examine evolutionary and transmission dynamics. 3. Test predictions of CoV inter-species transmission. Predictive models of host range (i.e. emergence potential) will be tested experimentally using reverse genetics, pseudovirus and receptor binding assays, and virus infection experiments across a range of cell cultures from different species and humanized mice. Pseudoviridae is a family of viruses, which currently includes three genera. Viruses of the family are actually LTR retrotransposons of the Ty1-copia family. They replicate via structures called virus-like particles (VLPs), so a bit like computer bots then. VLPs are not infectious like normal virions, but they nevertheless make up an essential part of the pseudoviral lifecycle.

Although EcoHealth Alliance was based in New York, Daszak collaborated with Zhengli, routing NIAID funding to her corona virus gain-of-function research. Funding EcoHealth Alliance is a feature, not a bug, of Fauci's career goals. After the outbreak of AIDS and then 9/11, Fauci's anti-terror "biodefense" budget exploded to $1.7 billion by 2003. In a 2011 Washington Post op-ed deeming gain-of-function experiments a "risk worth taking," Fauci wrote, "Working carefully with influenza viruses they have engineered in isolated bio-containment laboratories, scientists in Europe and the United States have identified several mechanisms by which the virus might evolve to transmit efficiently in the ferret, the best animal model for human influenza infection." "The question is whether benefits of such research outweigh risks," he continued. "The answer is not simple. A highly pathogenic bird flu virus transmissible in humans could arise in ways not predicted by laboratory studies, and it is not clear whether this laboratory virus would behave in humans as it does in ferrets. Nonetheless, new data provide valuable insights that can inform influenza preparedness and help delineate the principles of virus transmission between species." So it should come as little surprise that Fauci and NIH Director Francis Collins wrote a loophole in the moratorium that allowed them to continue funding Daszak's work despite full knowledge of the risks. Unless the bat-borne RaTG13 really managed to mutate naturally into SARS-Cov-2, travel over 1,000 miles without infecting anyone along the way, and end up in a wet market that sold neither bats nor pangolins, then ... well, do the math. Somehow, Fauci has become a national hero, and the Chinese communists have gotten off scot-free. Daszak's reward? Becoming the only American on the China-approved sham World Health Organization "investigation" designed to shut down an increasingly credible lab leak hypothesis.

Taken from a senate committee on the dangers of the vaccine, and how protocol was broken to launch it. It was revealed there was insufficient animal testing done on the jab, why? the animals were dying in large numbers and was stopped, it was revealed.

The Georgia Guidestone's are 666 nautical miles from the center of the Cuban pentagram at Tarara (Ararat backwards). Tarará is a gated resort town in the municipality of Habana del Este in the city of Havana, Cuba. It is about 19 km east of the city centre and west of other beaches including Santa Maria del Mar and Guanabo. This resort community was built in the 1940s in Art Deco style on a hill facing the Atlantic Ocean. A small marina is located in an inlet west of the town, an amusement park was located across from this inlet, but now (2006) lies in ruins. While there's hardly any evidence of its past existence on the ground, the aerial view reveals a pentagram shape. The circle that surrounds the pentagram measures exactly 666 feet in diameter. The Pentagram does not belong to Playa Tarara, but to Playa Celimar. It was built after 1959 as an amusement park for

"Pioneros of Cuba" organization. Royal Sylvester Webster built railroads in Mexico then moved his family to Cuba so he could build railroads there as well. After he had finished building them he bought land and raised his family there. Tarará was developed in the 1940s by American Royal Sylvester Webster as a complete town, with a church (Santa Elena), a club known as the Tarará Yacht Club, 400 residences, stores, a movie theater, a marina, a public park and beach facilities. Many considered the Tarará beach to be one of the most beautiful on the island, with its boardwalk being a popular weekend destination. Tarará was a fast and easy trip to Havana and the airport, with newly paved highways going directly to the resort. Mr. Webster lived there, as did all of his children. The entire Webster family, numbering ten who were born on Cuba, and ten who were originally U.S. citizens, were later forced to leave the island, however, after Castro's police confiscated their homes. Now a British hotel company wants to buy it from the Webster family, and the family disagrees whether they should sell or not. The older generation does not want to sell but the new generations do want to sell some of the land. After the Cuban Revolution, in January 1959, Che Guevara went to live at a summer villa in Tarará to recover from a violent asthma attack. While there he started the Tarará Group, a group that debated and formed the new plans for Cuba's social, political, and economic development. In addition, Che began to write his book Guerrilla Warfare while resting at Tarará. Che returned to Tarará in June 1959 for his honeymoon after his marriage to his second wife Aleida March. At the height of tight Cuban-Soviet relations, the town housed Russian officials stationed in Cuba, and for a while (early 1990s) functioned as a recovery resort for Ukrainian children affected by the Chernobyl nuclear disaster. After 2000 (and the partial opening of Cuba to foreign investments), this was a place of choice for representatives of foreign companies that were doing business in Cuba, with the residences functioning as rental villas. In 2005, the town was turned into a recovery resort for blind patients from Venezuela, in part of a deal between Fidel Castro and Hugo Chávez, in which Cuba offered medical expertise in return for Venezuelan oil. In 2007, the town began to receive Chinese students, especially high school graduates. This is under a project in which the Cuban government provides scholarships and facilities for those Chinese to learn Spanish. The Tarará beach houses can now be leased for a minimum one year from the government for foreign and embassy employees. In previous years Canadians, Italians and Spanish visitors rented the beach houses for long stay vacations for 1–6 months, but this has not been re-established yet as of 2009. Many houses have been renovated recently again due to interior destruction from the Venezuelan people's misuse. The Cuban doctors now go to Venezuela to treat eye patients. In 2006, oil was discovered in a well near Tarará, maybe why there is an American interest in relations again? Ararat brings in the fake boat story and Noah, Noah's boat said to rest on Mt. Ararat, but Noah's ark was not a ship on water, it was in the water of the sky, it was a sky ship. They told you that in the 100 series, the ship carrying humans awaiting a return to Earth still suffering radiation, was called The Ark for a reason. Another name of a ship was called Polaris, now known as the pole star, but the original pole star was Thuban, which again is connected to Egypt, but Thuban is a star in the constellation of? Draco. Known as the Alpha Draconis, the great question is who is the Omega Draconis?

This came from Roger of our communal gathering Law group. What we know as Roma (Rome) was founded around 525 BCE, by who we now know as Pythagoras, a Persian false prophet called Haggiah and King Darius of Persia. One wonders whether Haggiah is another title, as the word Haggiah comes from hagag to gather for a festival and yah which is the shortened name of the Lord, so Haggiah means a festival for the Lord yahweh. Haggiah and Darius were called to build a house for the Lord. Darius was depicted in Egyptian hieroglyphs in Annunaki regalia, with a black face (Persians are not black and suggests he was one of the Kali Ma) and in another relief as a chimera, half man half lion. He was also related to Cyrus via two marriages of daughters of Cyrus. Pythagoras, Haggiah and the Yehudi priests of Mitra devised the Republic model. This was a fascist state, with 3 classes of citizens, Patricians (those born to the Yahudi priestly houses...), the 2nd class, men who through skill and learning achieve the highest degree (very masonic), & Municeps who swore allegiance with the straight arm fascist salute. Everyone else were slaves... sound familiar? Yehudi means Jew and it was the Yehudi priests who sacrificed the children to Molech, as did Solomon. They then corrupted true, ancient wisdom and created 10 occult degrees, the highest being Gewe (illuminated man). - Hence the masonic G = Gewe = Illuminated Man.... (The letter "J" did not exist in the alphabet until the 14th century) Lucifer (light bringer) was a title for the Roman Emperor... So this is the origin of Gewe (Jew)... the "Jewish" religion sprang from the cult of Mitra, which came out of Babylon and Persia to Roma, a cult of blood sacrifice, cannibalism, abuse, elitism & slavery etc... There never was an Israel, there were provinces and kingdoms known as Palestine and Yudah. Yeru Salem (Jerusalem) was originally an Egyptian Military outpost, there never was an Israel with a Jewish religion until the Balfour declaration assured the Rothschild's that Her Majesty's Britannic government would support the creation of the Israeli state, and this was done to bring America into WW1 as Britain was on her knees and losing badly.. and needed American help to survive....So all conflict in the middle east is founded on a lie... I agree Roger, the conflict is them reclaiming where they were stationed in the past, they are operating on behalf of off world entities, in worship of Isis, Ra and El.

I wrote this for a show on March 9th this year called Expose 7. Why is the CIA central to all levels of heinous crimes against humanity? are the people that represent that blight against humanity even human? are they actually the Ciakars? Kar is a suffix used after the names of villages along the western coast of India, forming the most common surnames used by the Marathi and Konkani people in Maharashtra, Goa and some parts of Karnataka. Kar is the surname of mostly the Brahmins of Kashmir, Maharashtra, Bengal and Odisha. Kar Brahmins hail from Karhama village in Kashmir, India. In Bengal, the Kar surname is also used by people of the Kayastha or Kshatriya clan. During the rule of the Nawabs of Dhaka, the Kars of Bengal were the tax and revenue collectors and government office workers and were known to be the prime enemies of the Jaat caste. Tax and revenue collectors? hmm which group started that? the sub gray race. The suffix Kar comes from the Sanskrit Kār, which means "making, doing, lord of", later modified to mean "hailing from" or "belonging to". Lord of and hailing from makes sense doesn't it. Then we have a place called Kar nak, the abode of Amun, which is the origin of amen, Amun means the hidden god, and the hidden god was Ra, hence Amun Ra. For those that don't know the Ciakars are a reptilian group, spelt CIAkar, are they one and the same group? It would certainly make more sense, than trying to get your head around of why a group of humans assembled to treat life with such little regard and disdain, in any country, because they have killed many at home as well with their clandestine operations. There is barely a show that goes by, that references this group in some rogue activity or another, not because I just wish to highlight them, but because they are involved in all that is evil on this planet. What have the CIA got against humanity? why will and have they gone to great lengths to delete life all so easily? threatened people to do their bidding and work? use people like pawns in their evil game? using espionage, mind control, blackmail and MK Ultra on people? Why did so many of the Jewish SS end up in the CIA? they who committed human atrocities and experiments on people within the camps? Are you required to have homicidal and maniacal tendencies, certain levels of evil and willing to commit any crimes just to become a member of the CIA? are there any good people within the CIA? It is a genuine question, as this cancer on the planet involves lots of people to carry it out, why is no one walking away and or speaking out? Why am I repeating that? because just 2 weeks later the CIA released a video called Humans of CIA. Is that a coincidence or what, why place the name humans in the title, is it because they are distinguishing between the human agents and the non human? Thanks for the confirm, now I want to see actions, come and join us at The Peoples Club communal gathering, introduce yourself and lets chart a better path for us all.

Which leads us into this next piece and their modern day war and death cult. This report was done on Friday and more casualties and hostilities have transpired since then. The Israeli military has intensified its assault on Gaza, as Palestinian militants continue to fire rockets into Israel on the fifth day of hostilities. Israel's army said air and ground forces were involved in attacks on Friday but had not entered Gaza. A BBC reporter in Gaza said there was heavy shelling involving gunboats, fighter jets, and helicopters. More than 100 people have been killed in Gaza and seven have died in Israel since fighting began on Monday. Meanwhile, Jewish and Israeli-Arab mobs have been fighting within Israel, prompting its president to warn of civil war. Defence Minister Benny Gantz ordered a "massive reinforcement" of security forces to suppress the internal unrest that has seen more than 400 people arrested. In a statement released early on Friday morning, Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu said the Israeli military operation against Palestinian militants in Gaza would continue for as long as necessary. He said Hamas, the Islamist group that rules Gaza, would pay a heavy price. A Hamas military spokesman said the group was ready to teach Israel's military "harsh lessons" should it decide to go ahead with a ground incursion. Hours earlier, Israel's military called up 7,000 army reservists and deployed troops and tanks near its border with Gaza. At least 103 Palestinians have been killed since Monday, including 27 children, and more than 580 wounded, the health ministry in Gaza said. Officials in the territory said many civilians had died. Israel says dozens of those killed in Gaza were militants, and that some of the deaths are from misfired rockets from Gaza, yeah right. What they don't tell you is, Mossad gave Hamas the rockets, it is all stage managed. That particular news report I added to the show before departing for Texas, and is no surprise the sacrificial style carnage is continuing. Those that have followed me for some time will know that I warned of this a long time back, and this move is in part of the desperation of the Hebrew Annunaki and their Zionist program. Some in Israel are liking their country now like Nazi Germany and Fascism, but Zionism is Fascism, is Communism and all other Government forms of isms, it was the same program and people who killed Jews, Poles, Russians, Slavs and Aryans then, as it is now. Hamas is the latest boogeyman of the Zionist cult, but perhaps given Israel operates in code, hidden hand, duplicitous and changed vowels and translations, but sometimes it is in plain sight, Hamas means zeal, strength or bravery in Arabic, in Hebrew it means violence. Why is that important? because we have heard from several leading Jewish peoples and narrators that the Jews always backs both sides of every war, so, Hamas is in part Jewish created, as was ISIS and other so called terrorist groups. Did you know where the modern term of terrorist came from? terrorist in the modern sense, 1944, especially in reference to Jewish tactics against the British in Palestine. There is a series called Mossad, which is another series that can quite clearly be labeled as a documentary. In it, they have lead operators in all the so called terrorist groups, and it was made clear they were operating those groups for their own ends. Maybe it is not a coincidence Mossad has SS in the middle of their name? They infiltrate everything and steer it for their own ends, they have told us that also, how many times have I said in shows of leading people and groups, born in and born to? their is a reason they call NY Gotham. It's all in your face, and much of it in is stealth mode, which is a key word and operation of all militaries. Have you ever wondered why the US military uses Latin for it's badges? because it is being ran by the same group that pushes the Zionist agenda, Latin is a reptilian language, go and look at Lockheed Martin, USAF and Northrop Grumman badges it reveals more than just Latin. This violence is the pre-requisite for their third temple of human sacrifice again, and the Rome church of Satan is also in on it. They have told us they worship Lucifer, they worship Samael who was a demon, they revere Solomon who worked with the demons and did human sacrifice, they worship Herod who slayed all the children in his temple, they worship Lilith who also slayed children and was part snake. Lilith the moon goddess and the night crawler, that led to the fall of man, which they signify by their 6 pointed star badge, that is not only a symbol of Jewry, but the Masons, the US cops all have 6 pointed star badges, and the Mormons. It is all the same cult of Ra and the serpent race, backed by the Pleiadian Thoth Avian race to chase down, disrupt and takeover the White Race planet again. Throw into the mix Apophis another snake and brother of Ra, Apophis or Apep derive from the Egyptian word to slither. Hathor who also went by the name Isis, which is the creation of two major names in this Isis Ra El and Islam, Is lam means the hidden Isis. Hathor spawned the serpent god Horus, add in another of their group Set and how they were all warring each other for the head serpent or more modern day term Pindar. Apophis turned on his brother Ra to fight for the lead snake, and guess what Ra did? turned into a cat to defeat the snake, which is why cats are revered globally, they are symbols of the brotherhood of the snake and Ra the fake solar god. Bastet is the symbol of it, she is depicted as Ra's daughter, the large cats on most bloodline family badges symbolizes this. This is also the group who brought here the domesticated cat into Egypt, the tabby cat is not native to here and did not originate from the large cats here. This is the classic allegory story of Cain and Abel, neither of which were human either and the story unfolds and unravels. Throw in Moses which is a title, Noah and his descendants Shem, Ham and Japheth were not human either. The brotherhood of the snake is who they are, that spawned all religions in their name and for their purpose. Their story is in the Egyptian hieroglyphs, the bible and the scriptures, those books are not about us, but them. The bizarre thing is that people in the alt media are still asking for disclosure, how much disclosure do you want before accepting the fact that, you have already had it, all hidden in plain sight. The stealth war goes on behind the scenes, but I warned in December 2019 you would see the public war, we have and that is what is playing out now. It is time for people to "see" for themselves, but this Is Ra Eli public war is part of a hostile takeover plan of the dark forces who go by many names. The Kosheys are the Kosher both are aliens, but they are also the Khans, who are the Cohens, known as the priest class which again came out of Egypt, and another letter K group the Kali Ma, which means the dark mother, which goes by differing names like the black Madonna and also Lilith. Kali Ma worshipped in India, the original Garden of Eden and the origin of the sub gray race better known today as Jews, but they are not real Jews, and in reality are walk ins of another species. They are, embody means to give a body to a spirit, which is the origin of the word incarnate. Embody also means to deprive of spirituality, embody means to represent in human or animal form, which is the origin of the word person-ify. Embody means to cause to become a body or part of a body, which is the origin of the word incorporate, just like a incorporate business, which means dead entity, why because it is hosted by something else. But perhaps embodies the word needs a closer look as in letter M bodies, is embodies Marduk bodies? We have something they will never have, it is all about conquest and ownership with those entities, this is our power, embrace and exude it.

Watching the weather wars going on globally and a series of flooding events on the Middle and Eastern sides of this country, whilst the western side remains largely in drought like conditions and some extreme droughts, I came up with an idea and solution. It amazes me how long flooding remains in place in certain regions, and yet we have drought conditions less than an oil pipeline away. The solution is you have a fleet of trucks with large tanks and pumps that would suck up the excess water and enable flooded regions to start the recovery quicker. The trucks then can dump the excess water into vast tanks to be transported and dumped into the Colorado river system that feeds several states who are suffering droughts much needed water. There are two solutions for this, either the fleet of trucks drive there to deposit the water, or we build pipelines across the country to transport the excess water to the Colorado River or other rivers in the region to replenish it. The argument by the system is, it would be too costly, but everything that is beneficial to the public appears to costly to them, despite the money spent belonging to the people. If doing something of value for the people is too expensive and so not valid, then perhaps we need a close look at government costs, military costs and agency costs as well, as they are not valid or fit for purpose as it stands.

Given the abuses of the medical fraternity imposed on the people over the past year or so, in relation to the Covid bio-weapon. But also the fact that the 3rd leading cause of death in the US, is medical malpractice, perhaps it is time for we the people to make future hospitals be called Care and Cure Centers, and staff implement an oath that has long since expired, called the Hippocratic Oath. The Hippocratic Oath is perhaps the most widely known of Greek medical texts. It requires a new physician to swear upon a number of healing gods, that he will uphold a number of professional ethical standards. It also strongly binds the student to his teacher and the greater community of physicians, with responsibilities similar to that of a family member. In fact, the creation of the Oath may have marked the early stages of medical training to those outside the first families of Hippocratic medicine, the Asclepiads of Kos, by requiring strict loyalty. Over the centuries, it has been rewritten often in order to suit the values of different cultures influenced by Greek medicine. Contrary to popular belief, the Hippocratic Oath is not required by most modern medical schools, although some have adopted modern versions that suit many in the profession in the 21st century. It also does not explicitly contain the phrase, "First, do no harm," which is commonly attributed to it.

Hippocratic Oath I swear by Apollo the physician, and Asclepius, and Hygieia and Panacea and all the gods and goddesses as my witnesses, that, according to my ability and judgement, I will keep this Oath and this contract: To hold him who taught me this art equally dear to me as my parents, to be a partner in life with him, and to fulfill his needs when required; to look upon his offspring as equals to my own siblings, and to teach them this art, if they shall wish to learn it, without fee or contract; and that by the set rules, lectures, and every other mode of instruction. I will impart a knowledge of the art to my own sons, and those of my teachers, and to students bound by this contract and having sworn this Oath to the law of medicine, but to no others. I will use those dietary regimens which will benefit my patients according to my greatest ability and judgement, and I will do no harm or injustice to them. I will not give a lethal drug to anyone if I am asked, nor will I advise such a plan; and similarly I will not give a woman a pessary to cause an abortion. In purity and according to divine law will I carry out my life and my art. I will not use the knife, even upon those suffering from stones, but I will leave this to those who are trained in this craft. Into whatever homes I go, I will enter them for the benefit of the sick, avoiding any voluntary act of impropriety or corruption, including the seduction of women or men, whether they are free men or slaves. Whatever I see or hear in the lives of my patients, whether in connection with my professional practice or not, which ought not to be spoken of outside, I will keep secret, as considering all such things to be private. So long as I maintain this Oath faithfully and without corruption, may it be granted to me to partake of life fully and the practice of my art, gaining the respect of all men for all time. However, should I transgress this Oath and violate it, may the opposite be my fate. Divine law and truth is called RITA.

What is interesting is the only "god" of the past that visited Da Arya or Hyperborea was Apollo, the original solar god and possibly the Logos, before the intervention of the Egyptian/Israeli/Pharaoh/Cohens/Hebrew Annunaki and cult of Ra took over. Apollo was the healer, in part oracle and visionary, and was clearly held in high esteem and vibration to go to Da Arya, something none of the other god or goddesses achieved. To the maths people in Texas, Pythagoras swore by Apollo also, the number three was an "ideal number" because it had a beginning, middle, and end and was the smallest number of points that could be used to define a plane triangle, which they revered as a symbol of the god Apollo, perhaps 1 on 1 with the one is the triangle?

The gods and goddesses oh how many of them did fall, largely on their own sword. What does that mean falls on their own sword? well this plays into the self mastery and the allegory story of King Arth of UR and the Excalibur story. It is not a physical stone or sword, the swords you acquire in dream time missions are not physical either, but you can defend yourself with them and protect yourself in those realms. So, for those who have attained the inner non physical sword within, unless you exhibit ultimate personal responsibility on that level, you will fall on your own sword. The sword is attained by merging to two warring hemispheres of your brain, merging it with the third eye, and when ready the blade forms to the heart. Two things make this development stall or stop, 1. the blocking of the throat chakra and 2. the heart is made of stone, just like the Excalibur legend. The sword becomes wedged because the heart is made of stone, the heart is where your real development comes from. It has more neurons than the brain, it is where wisdom and intellect comes from, intelligence is a brain/mind development and can be taught to anyone, intellect comes from the heart and is much higher in vibration, stimulus, frequency, thinking and positive actions. Those with their swords wedged in the heart, can no longer defend with their sword, the sword is a double edge blade and if it can't defend, it can only cut you. If you cut yourself too much, and it happens at a faster pace now, you will quickly see that person falling, and cutting themselves to ribbons internally. Those people will no longer make sense, as the death by a thousand cuts is unfolding from within, and eventually externally. Death of a thousand cuts originated in China called Lingchi and was a torture tactic until banned in 1905. A slow death by the torture of many small wounds, none lethal in itself, but fatal in their cumulative effect. It is like termite damage, it eats from within and only when it becomes severe do you see the damage externally. This can only be fixed at an early stage, as each cut causes more internal bleeding on a different plane of existence. If not dealt with early by the person themselves, ultimately they will die the death of a thousand cuts, and ultimately fall on their own sword.

I received further deeply damning evidence this week on the ongoing sagas of the Life Force group, I could have put it in the show and presented it, but decided that flogging a dead horse is not on my vibration, and neither should it be. They are consuming themselves with or without my input, I tried many times to help or save, but you can't help or save people who will not help or save themselves. THI nor TPC is not a savior program of one leader, it is a multi leader self saving project to improve everyone's lives. We project ourselves into a brighter future, not use the old loop movie projector that always was repeated, in, of and from the past. Only criminals, losers and psychopaths want to change the past, higher vibrational thinking and people, observe the past, learn the lesson and chart a better future path. The former categories absorb the past and so it becomes their perpetual now and future until addressed. To build a new platform for humanity, in a new way that does not include copying the failed old system, the failed old ways and the failed old worlds. This requires input from you all, I will not do it all for you, think of how much energy we fritter away, and think of how, where and what is best to re-divert that energy to a better cause for the TPC and ultimately yourself also. Imagine if money was oxygen and breathable and subsequently observable, think of how the world would change over night. If your level of money was counted in terms of oxygen to breathe, I wonder how many would die overnight for the lack of oxygen? Would you still collect it like it is going out of fashion, or learn to share it? There is aplenty for peoples needs, but never enough for peoples greed. Ponder on how much of our frequency and energy is frittered away on a daily basis, arguing with people, fighting with people, raging at the people or groups, people watching mind controlled tv and worse news channels. Now imagine if that same energy was applied into fixing the failed old system and building anew. We don't have to fight them for that, we just raise our own frequencies and they can't sustain it.

As if we don't have enough ongoing I have conceived of a new idea in part inspired by the TPC Texas group and in particular Kevin. I thought of the two TPC videos that laid out my vision for us all, but never wanted to be all about me, and why I tasked Alan and Liam to compile and narrate Part 3, until they decided to sit in restaurants and wait for carrots program was more to their liking than working for the better cause themselves. So, I have envisioned a new TPC video, that will last 2 hours and will involve as many THI members as possible. I am thinking 20-30 members doing 2-3 minute pieces on the concept of the TPC and also explaining the virtues or teachings of the communal gatherings. A promotional video about the TPC and why people should join it and come together as one. Espousing the ideas of why we have to be and are different from all the rest, how we are the blueprint for a new humanity and new way of living, working and playing together in a peaceful world. I am looking for people of differing age groups, people of all colors, both genders, people from different countries also, to create the diversity with which we go forward with. I will ask Michael to add another communal gathering for those of you who wish to participate in this. We need ideas on the topics discussed, we need writers to compile the speeches for the 20-30 segments, we need names put forward for those who wish to speak in the video, it maybe a mix of video or audio recordings. Kevin Yockey will be the video co-ordinator for the final recording, but first we must build the concept in our image and in our own unique way.

The TPC community village is a blank slate concept, and some maybe disappointed with it's appearance, region and or location. It is not a tropical paradise, not a lush green area and not filled with expensive houses, and will not be a status symbol home or region. What it represents though is an opportunity to transmute, a blank slate for you to create in the image you wish to see. It in essence encompasses us all, and like us it requires work, requires effort, requires vision and requires change to transform it and yourselves. It starts from humble beginnings, the prices are suitable to be accessible to the many not the few, a reversal of their world. It aspires to the TPC model of need not greed, and if we care and share with it in a cooperative way, not comparative or competitive, it will become our foundation and base from which to build. Build it and they will come. Here is a few lines from a song that describes our venture and journey. It takes one step to start a journey, It's up to you to make it real This is the time for yourself to be free, you gotta follow your heart This is the time in your life and it's never too late, to see the light in the dark you gotta follow your heart.

A couple of points of interest from the mewe chat to cover now. The first was said that "Nobody gets me, they all think I'm mad." Let them, what you think and you believe counts, not what they think, self mastery overcomes those frustrations. You cant help people who wont help or save themselves. Those leaving you, are a sign of your progression, you were attached to them for a reason, they were your baggage, time will tell on that. It is not your fault you chose to raise your frequency and stand in the truth, the fault lies with them for not raising their frequency and operating in lies. Stop feeling guilty for those too lazy to work on themselves, they made their choice, which they think is the easiest route, they will find to their own cost it was not the easiest. The harder path is the easiest, the easiest path is the hardest, and is on a par with fact is fiction and fiction is fact in their world.

Some are reporting around the world of large numbers of people have or are going missing? oh my, transmutation or transition? or both? was my reply. I know this disturbs many and I explained this last weekend in Texas. I asked everyone how many people do you actually engage with either daily, monthly, yearly or over your lifetime, the answer is a few thousand probably. Now imagine if we had no news reporting channels or communications, and every country around the world emptied out, would you notice or miss them? think about that.

Another quote from the chat also plays into the last piece, that's what they wanted, us to be isolated. The answer is we were always isolated, it hasn't stopped us developing has it? so why is there a fear of being isolated? isolation from bots is our own paradise on earth. Bad apples spoil the crop, so you "isolate" the good apples. Those statements are in part, part of a general fear within people currently, let it go, fear helps no one. It doesn't mean you don't care, it just means your focus is more on you and helping those who wish to be helped. Sometimes you have to give up on people, not because you don't care, but because they don't. Being honest and truthful is an expensive gift, so don't expect it from cheap people. This next piece goes along the same lines.

The issue of family came up recently and how difficult it is at this time being with them, particularly when all they do is follow the corrupt system of deceivers. When they are family it is harder, family is harder as they are famil(y)iar is why, but they say familiarity breeds contempt. Familiarity breeding contempt is a clear and present danger, lives are put in jeopardy because we underestimate familiarity's threat, it becomes a symbiotic dance of who is the more dominant and who is the slave bound to the familiarity. Family teaches you the harshest lessons, do you observe them or absorb them? Who else teaches us the harshest lesson? the dark, but the famil(y)arity aspect can be a seducing effect, can it not? Many don't like people within their own family, yet stay together in a bind, due to familiarity only. Family members can be a big pull and also a big drain on you, but it is your life and your path not theirs, choose accordingly. The focus is often on what is lost to us but we have to ponder on those that go forward, otherwise the ones we lost, were in vain. The EBE program dropped children into "families" (tesla for one) how many others were seeded that way? is your family the real one?

This was sent to me and is fitting with the last few pieces. Our own competence, our own awareness, our own ability to take ownership of our own life and mind is essential, It is essential! Until we do take responsibility for our own lives, and we still live in a way that we keep looking to whom we vest our life, to whom we vest our trust, rather than taking ownership ourselves, and if we keep looking for someone that we want to have as a Messiah, rather than being our own Christ Consciousness, then people will continue to be able to trick us, we will feel helpless and lost at times and we may feel, “what is the point” sometimes. We are the point, we are the saviors and we will not die for our cause, we will live it and grow. The 6 songs played tonight said it all in story form, The war pigs they dont really care about us, but I believe in the power of love, as love conquers all, if you follow your heart, why? because we are the light of the world.
