

THI-SHOW TRANSCRIPT 2021-06-03

This show is brought to you by common sense, co-sponsored by non John Hopkins math, free of voyeuristic pets, a free show full of relevant information and truth, and delivered by a tiny man who curiously disturbs many so called el-ites and alt media people to boot, not bad for a tiny man. The opening song line says I love the feeling in the air, my kind of people everywhere, all are here at THI. And yet, we exist in a world that for years many parents, media and government warned children not to do drugs, as you have no idea of the hidden dangers to your health. Now the same three plus the health departments and telling you and in some cases forcing you into taking drugs you have no idea what is in it, or the potential side effects, all delivered by vaccine companies with impunity. What a bizarre world they have created for themselves, millions of conspiracy theorizers' all lining up for their experimental jab, when they have no illness or symptoms. What's worse it is so deadly you need a swab into your brain to test if you have the world conquering disease, when a simple swab of the mouth will suffice, no, people contort their face to look like Japanese kamikaze pilots and wait for the microchip spear to pierce their brain. A world where trusting your own immune system is now declare a radical act, many adverts for vitamins, drinks and other supplements to boost your own immune system they say, but when you rely on your own immune system, they now deem that an irresponsible radical, that borders on domestic terrorist. Because rest assured that title will be rolled out soon, a non vaxxer is a domestic terrorist, and deemed as threatening and evil as white people, ain't that right The Pentagon? All jokes aside, this is destroying many families up and down the country that is painful to see. Families torn apart all for the desire to fit into a safety government issued box, when the box was themselves and 99.97% immune by themselves. We, in the alt media have mentioned in great detail, the UN charter of deleting most of humanity by 90% or more and declared them rightly so, as evil. But, in the past 12 months millions of people declared martial law on themselves, deleted their own businesses and jobs, walked around like the masked crusaders and thinking they are safe, safe from what? Covid they will reply. Do you have any proof it exists? and who or what keeps them safe from themselves? is the two questions back. Their governments, media and agencies aligned with militaries in some cases are firing on the people with jabs, that's why they call them shots, the shot heard around the world has a whole new meaning. If analyzing it in a non personalized way, are those people worth saving? if their wishes to ruin their own lives, jobs, businesses and homes all by themselves, in a free will world, should we intervene with their choices? In a non personalized way, are they a loss to humanity with that level of stupidity, aligned with willful ignorance, running about like trained automatons, allied with the most child like thinking we have ever witnessed on a mass scale. The real pandemic is rank stupidity, zero thinking for themselves people all led by their god, the television. Television is people inside a box, sounds like host possession to me, to lie in vision is the correct term. In overview that animated box will lead many people into their own permanent boxes at social distancing depths, and what is bizarre is, the people themselves selected it. You can't save people who are not prepared to save themselves. A mistake which makes you humble is much better than an achievement which makes you arrogant.

I am witnessing many protests around the world ongoing currently, in some cases with vast numbers attending them. Viewing some of the videos briefly I saw a pattern of frequency emanating through the protestors, of inner strength. Inner strength protests have more impact than outer strength protests. All are comfortable standing together in a dignified manner for a common cause, that is pleasing to see. Lets keep it rolling, they are on the run and we must continue to chase them down, without violence or low vibrational confrontation. A shout out to Karen Brewer NZ for calling it as it is. She like myself praises the Common law groups, but declared them useless in the current format, and here in her words is why. "We have filed and signed Petitions, sent letters, Affidavits, done rallies and it has not got anywhere, I agree 100%. This is why I called for an actionable law group to work with Political activist group. I will leave you with her comment, taking a piece of paper to gunfight is stupid and pointless. She echoed my call for non violent non compliance actions.

Had another busy week this week up and down to the community village, with more members from California and Texas. Yet again it is great to see how easily and smoothly we all got along. Like last week I kind of exploded their heads a bit with information, some of which is in the shows, and some not. Two more are now interested in moving, and with more coming here in the next 2 weeks, expecting that to grow. Whilst viewing the village on Monday, Amy and I took the opportunity to look at a second village this time in Colorado, that is a bit more green than the New Mexico one, and view is equally pleasing on the eye, we are looking into it being a potential eco village with eco friendly homes at a very affordable rate, but would require some time and funding for infrastructure costs. Should we get the go ahead, I will arrange a zoom call to discuss the merits of that project as well. The only issue with that is it is at 7500 feet and growing seasons are short as the air up there, which is a key part of the eco village concept, scenery and location are beautiful though. I am aware of a breakaway group in the midst of THI communal gathering, I ask the common sense question, how is dividing the group helping humanity? That doesn't help me or us. I know all the names and asking you all to reconsider your stances. United we stand, divided we fall.

I was alerted to a brief video this week, after one guy got the vaccine and every time he goes near a phone or the TV, Bluetooth connects via him and turns on the tv or phone. It comes up with connecting with Astra Zeneca ChAdOx1-5 Further studies need to be made before this is a full confirmation of what I warned of in the Clowns in Panic show 3 years ago this month. We warned of technology, we warned of Robert David Steele's OSS group creating technology to hook people up to their phone, which is why he said the people will become the intelligence. He stated he wanted to give all people phones at a cost of $4.5B to create the network, do you understand his terminology now, "the people will become the intelligence" This is why I warned all the agencies, military and governments, they are going to replace you all with this system. Agencies defunct as the people are the intelligence, Governments defunct as they want a central government of pre selected clowns, Military defunct as all warfare will be cyber and robotic. Hello McFly in any of those departments, how many warnings do you require before you come and speak to us and formulate a better plan for us all? They will try to seduce you all with titles, promises and pieces of paper with numbers on, that once they fully roll out their digital system, will become worthless. This is to create the new AI, in the sky, as it all goes into the cloud, you become the cloud, you become the intelligence, you become the spy and welcome to your new AI sky/cloud god. As many rise from the shock, its only a shock as people denied themselves the truth.

The Black Lives Matter movement has been a disaster for the UK. We imported an American culture war and made race relations worse as a result. Pro-BLM activists, academics and MPs have set back the cause of anti-racism. Just as we forecasted, the rise in racism because the people are too stupid to realize we are being played over and over again.

You wish to know why we have racial division? here right on cue is an example of their lies. Exactly 100 years ago Tulsa, Oklahoma, saw one of the biggest race massacres in American history. But for years very few people were talking about it. Greenwood, known as Black Wall Street, was one of the most prosperous predominantly black areas in all of America. Racial violence broke out on 31 May, and by the morning of 1 June 1921 an estimated 300 black people had been killed, with the Greenwood district devastated beyond recognition. They lie, the real story is, it was way more killed and all done by the US Military as we covered in FRWL 4 episode. It is shameful the Government are using this now for an agenda, when they were responsible for the deaths to begin with. It had nothing to do with white extremism and everything to do with clown agendas. If you don't believe because I am white, go and check out Dane Calloway's YT site, it tells you all about your black history, all of it was based on a lie.

The remains of 215 children, some as young as three years old, were found at the site of a former residential school for Indigenous children, a discovery Canadian Prime Minister Justin Trudeau described as heartbreaking on Friday. The children were students at the Kamloops Indian Residential School in British Columbia that closed in 1978, according to the Tk'emlúps te Secwépemc Nation, which said the remains were found with the help of a ground-penetrating radar specialist. "We had a knowing in our community that we were able to verify," said Chief Rosanne Casimir said in a statement. "At this time, we have more questions than answers." Canada's residential school system, which forcibly separated Indigenous children from their families, constituted “cultural genocide”, a six-year investigation into the now-defunct system found in 2015. The report documented horrific physical abuse, rape, malnutrition and other atrocities suffered by many of the 150,000 children who attended the schools, typically run by Christian churches on behalf of Ottawa from the 1840s to the 1990s. It found more than 4,100 children died while attending residential school. The deaths of the 215 children buried in the grounds of what was once Canada’s largest residential school, are believed to not have been included in that figure and appear to have been undocumented until the discovery. Trudeau wrote in a tweet that the news “breaks my heart – it is a painful reminder of that dark and shameful chapter of our country’s history”. Your as fake as a glass eye Trudeau. In 2008, the Canadian government formally apologised for the system. I don't believe this is new news, we covered it in our show in detail with Kevin Annett at least 3 times, the first being back in 2014. One has to wonder why now? is it because Prince Phillip is dead? because he was involved in it, him and Queenie took at least 10 children from that home and never returned them, none have been seen since. A witness to that case was William Coombs, by a quirk of fate, he was treated by my ex girlfriend and she declared he did not die of the reasons posted on his file. It appears to the common sense brigade that William was murdered to shut him up. Another victory for the so called conspiracy theorists, I guess we were right again. Some people like Kevin and some don't. Personally I don't care if Kevin has aliases or whether he is legit or not. I do care he highlighted the Kamloops genocide and others, it has led to it being highlighted and now outed in public realms.

So, much so that the BBC decided to not only cover this and place their usual we didn't know and spin shit, but also the Fauci emails where they went to great lengths to cover Fauci's back, when clearly the man is guilty as hell in his own words within the emails. Here is the BBC response to Fauci's emails, utter shameful, find out where this woman resides and call her out publicly. No nastiness or threats required please. Analysis by Tara McKelvey, BBC White House reporter Fauci's emails are like a Rorschach ink blot: what you see in them reveals more about you than the ink blot, or, in this case, the emails. For Trump supporters I know in small Kansas towns and other rural areas, Fauci is a villain. He broadcasts conflicting messages about the virus, these Republicans say, and twists science. They also say that he undermined then-President Trump. Hey Tara you complete jackass, the emails proved he lied, they proved he gave conflicting evidence, and he did twist the science, but that is all Trump followers fault? seriously? are you incapable of basic reading skills? or are you a puppet reading scripts for MI5 and 6? Get a new job as you are clearly not qualified as a reporter. He lied to the world and the BBC also, you are traitors to humanity and the people will remember your actions when the hammer falls.

Remember the story recently about we will not be able to eat meat, coming from Biden and Gates, well here is their cover story right on cue. The world's largest meat processing company has been targeted by a sophisticated cyber-attack. Computer networks at JBS were hacked, causing some operations in Australia, Canada and the US to temporarily shut down, affecting thousands of workers. The company believes the ransom ware attack originated from a criminal group likely based in Russia, the White House said. The attack could lead to shortages of meat or raise prices for consumers, just like the gas cyber attacks, all an excuse to create scarcity and increase prices. When will the people see through their illusion games?

President Xi Jinping launched the campaign in 2018 with the slogan "Saohei chu'e," meaning sweep away black and eliminate evil. After three years, the initiative concluded last year. China's legislature, which is convening this week, will likely hail the campaign as a smashing success: nearly 40,000 supposed criminal cells and corrupt companies busted, and more than 50,000 Communist Party and government officials punished for abetting them, according to official statistics. Now Beijing is signaling it will continue elements of the campaign. All very interesting and a job well done, but one has to ask was this part of the faction wars? What is missing is, has he dealt with the Koumintang elements?

Ahead of Sunday's election in Mexico, Since September 7 last year at least 89 politicians have been assassinated as drug cartels and criminal networks do everything to put pressure on both voters and elected officials. For mayoral candidate Alma Barragan, a Facebook invitation became her last appearance. Last Tuesday, Alma Barragan, mayoral candidate in the violent city of Moroleón, was assassinated shortly after broadcasting live on Facebook. But there was no event, instead she was shot at the scene by an unknown perpetrator. This weekend is time for midterm elections in Mexico. The country's government has described the election as the largest ever, with 500 federal members of the lower house, 15 governors and several thousand mayors to be elected. But when the polls close on June 6, it could also turn out to be the bloodiest. Are these the types of people we are letting pour through our Southern border?

The Biden administration on Tuesday denied several Republican lawmakers access to a Drug Enforcement Administration border facility in El Paso, Texas. A delegation of 12 GOP members of Congress were physically restricted from entering the El Paso Intelligence Center during a visit to the southern border. The lawmakers have reportedly attempted to gain access to the facility for weeks and been rebuffed by Biden's government. The GOP lawmakers accused the Biden administration of interfering with their "constitutional duty, to have oversight over these facilities that are paid for by taxpayer dollars." All I can say is, I don't know what they have to hide," Rep. Brian Babin (R-Texas) said. For some reason, we were not allowed in. I can only imagine what is it that they want to hide and not show, the very representatives of the American people that have oversight over this facility, that fund it and that authorize it, what don't they want us to see?" Indeed, again we warned of this unfolding in November last year. The criminal element that run the DNC, with seemingly various agencies and DOJ in tow, one has to pray the children are some how protected by other non rogue elements.

Drug-sniffing police dogs from around Virginia are being forced into early retirement as the state prepares to legalize adult recreational use of marijuana on July 1. I guess Langley will be opening up a shop there then, to raise more funds for black budgets, even though they deny ever being involved in anything of a rogue nature. The most common line over there is, the CIA was not involved, repeated by their PR division called the Pinocchio department.

Texas Land Commissioner George P. Bush has announced a bid to serve as the Lone Star State's attorney general. Bush is son of former Florida Gov. Jeb Bush, the nephew of former President George W. Bush and the grandchild of former President George H.W. Bush who passed away in 2018. "I am proud to announce I am a Republican candidate to be the next Texas Attorney General," Bush said in Austin on Wednesday night, according to CNN. Seriously? do we really need another Bush in our midst? hire him? no, fire him then the burning bush would be more apt.

Amazon customers have one week to opt out of a plan that would turn every Echo speaker and Ring security camera in the US into a shared wireless network, as part of the company's plan to fix connection problems for its smart home devices. The proposal, called Amazon Sidewalk, involves the company's devices being used as a springboard to build city-wide "mesh networks" that help simplify the process of setting up new devices, keep them online even if they're out of range of home wifi, and extend the range of tracking devices such as those made by Tile. Sidewalk has come under fire for the apparent lack of transparency with which Amazon has rolled out the feature, as well as the limited time available for users to complete the tricky process required to opt out. Other critics have expressed concerns that failing to turn the setting off, could leave customers in breach of their internet service provider's terms and conditions.

Incoming Mossad director David Barnea on Tuesday gave a threatening speech against Iran, alluding to potential future assassinations of its nuclear scientists and attacks on its nuclear facilities. The Iranian nuclear program will continue to be met with the full power of the long arm of the Mossad, Barnea said. We are very familiar with the different components of the nuclear program and we are very familiar personally with the officials involved in it and also with the officials who direct them. The Mossad chief said that, Iran is acting even at this very moment to realize its nuclear vision, under international auspices. Using the nuclear deal and without it, with lies and with concealment, Iran is more advanced than ever toward developing a weapon for genocidal destruction. Touche Mr. Barnea. He said that the spy agency would undertake a mix of operations and the use of advanced technologies, likely a reference to cyber attacks among other capabilities to keep the Islamic Republic in check. Further, he said that Israel would not be passive simply because the majority of the world was willing to look the other way on Iran's nuclear program. We will not act according to the idea that 'majority rules' among the nations, since that same majority will not be stuck with paying the price for their mistaken evaluation of the threat, as reported by Yediot. In the 1990's Israel sold nuclear weapons to Iran, in 2021 they wish to bomb Iran for having nuclear weapons, does that make sense?

Right on cue the pity party is rolled out, as night follows day. As the world watched fighting rage in Israel and Gaza, US Jews endured an increase in anti-Semitic attacks on a scale not seen during previous Middle East conflicts. Experts say it is too early to tell if the high-profile assaults, including a daylight brawl in New York City's Times Square point to a trend, or are a part of already high levels of such incidents seen across the country in recent years. Violence and harassment targeting American Jews broke out coast-to-coast, amid the 11 days of fighting between Israelis and Palestinians that ended in a ceasefire on 20 May. Incidents included outdoor diners in Los Angeles who were physically attacked by a group carrying Palestinian flags, violence against orthodox Jews in New York City, home to the largest population of Jews outside of Israel, and Nazi imagery posted on a synagogue in Alaska this week. Those people posting Nazi images given to them by the media are as stupid and ignorant as it gets, Nazism was created against all people including the average Jew, by Jewish elites NATIONAL ZIONIST. Pro-Palestinian protests and anti-Jewish vandalism at synagogues have also been documented in Illinois and Florida. People around the world need to have a reality check, stop attacking the ordinary Jewish people and go after the high profile ones, not with violence but campaign against them. If you wish a target in New York, try Elie Weisel, Jared Kushner, Kissinger, Soros Foundation. To the Jewish people you are not the chosen ones or your alleged god would have saved you in the last 80 years, realize there is an enemy within your midst, who say they are Jews but they are not. The greatest thing the Jewish people can do now is, throw away your religious books and your persecution will be over, come and embrace the rest of the world, you will find many who will support you, including most of the goyim as you are told to call us. Then we can all realize we have the same problem and we can work it all out, with just a little patience.

COVID BS: As Italy demands more and more members of society to be compulsory vaccinated, remember Italy was ground zero for the bio warfare weapon known as Covid, as we reveal in Expose 7 The Shadowy Underworld.

As Oxford UK has now set a stall out to ban all smoking in that town by 2025, now why would they do that? Because Oxford developed the Covid vaccines, alongside Astra Zeneca and as our recent report has proven, smokers are more immune to Covid than non smokers. Nice try Oxford but we the people are onto you now, one hopes your boat sinks like the Thames boat race, because after all, you are all a bunch of toff nosed cox.

Here is a report from a member, 94.9% voluntarily join the COVID-19 vaccination program here in Denmark. I can hardly turn anywhere anymore without hearing people talk about taking the jab, or asking when it's your turn. I'm apparently part of a 5.1% minority here.

Britain plans to drop COVID-19 passports as a legal requirement for large events, The Daily Telegraph reported on Sunday. The UK officials working on the review into COVID-19 status certificates, believe there is no chance the law will be changed to mandate their use within the UK, the report added. "It's not a case of it's finely balanced, it's not going to happen," a government source told the paper. "Everyone says it's dead."

Hospitality venues are struggling to fill thousands of job vacancies, according to an industry body. UK Hospitality says waiting staff and chefs are in particular demand as Covid-19 restrictions continue to ease. It is calling on the government to stick to its plan to lift all Covid restrictions in England on 21 June. The simple solution is for you to look after your staff better and not using them in a high risk social experiment, or make them a pin cushion.

There are signs the UK is in the early stages of a third wave of corona virus infections, a scientist advising the government has said. Prof Ravi Gupta, from the University of Cambridge, said although new cases were relatively low the Indian variant had fuelled exponential growth. He said ending Covid restrictions in England on 21 June should be postponed. Environment Secretary George Eustice said the government could not rule out a delay to the planned lockdown easing. But business leaders have warned of the harmful impact of any change to the proposed dates. Again just as predicted, it will be wave after wave, it has gone from the Mexican wave to the Covid wave and the reason being is, because they can't work out how to return to normal without the bots realizing it. I said in May last year, only the rise of the people will end lockdowns, that is still the case.

According to a Doctor, who cites a brand new, peer-reviewed research study out of Japan. They made a mistake they thought the spike protein was a great target antigen, only to discover it is a toxin, that can travel to many organs of the body, causing severe damage. Worse, the spike proteins generated by mRNA vaccines don't stay in the shoulder muscle, but spread to the brain, heart, ovaries, etc. They also know that the spike protein is what causes the damage with COVID, and now it is clear how it is causing so much damage in other parts of the bodies of the vaccinated.

The BBC the biggest fact checking clown organization, who stated with great veracity about the lockdown, the test kits, social distancing and the vaccines. In a sense of irony although it is very sad for the family and friends Lisa Shaw: BBC presenter, 44, died from blood clot after having AstraZeneca Covid vaccine, her family say. The BBC have blood on their own hands now - just saying.

The latest approved jab in the UK is Janssen. Janssen started out in Hungary in the 1930, has undergone 8 name changes since, but the constant since 1961 is, it is a subsidiary of? Johnson & Johnson. Names changes but the program remains the same, just like another particular group, maybe they are one and the same?

About 60,000 people in the UK would test positive for corona virus, up from 54,000 people a week earlier, latest ONS estimates show. Most people would miss the word that reveals in that short piece, so what is the key word? would, About 60,000 people in the UK would test positive for corona virus, would means it has not happened, it is a forecast not a real event.

A professor at the renowned Johns Hopkins School of Medicine advised Americans recently to ignore guidance from the CDC, due to the public health agency's puzzling refusal to recognize natural immunity from previous infection. Dr. Marty Makary, who also serves as a professor at the Bloomberg School of Public Health, suggested that 150 million Americans, or half the country, likely already have natural immunity to COVID-19 due to having been infected with the virus and then recovering. Yet despite that staggering figure, Makary lamented the fact that the CDC, in concert with Biden administration officials, have neglected to recognize the reality of the situation. Instead, previously infected individuals who decline being vaccinated are routinely "demonized" by health officials, who insist that virtually all Americans must be vaccinated before normal life can resume. But "herd immunity" has already been reached, argued Makary, citing up-to-date vaccination and infection data to suggest that 80% to 85% of Americans are currently protected from the virus. I never thought I'd say this, but please ignore the CDC guidance, Makary stated, advising Americans to live a normal life, unless you are unvaccinated and did not have the infection, in which case you need to be careful. Oh my at last some common sense from John Hopkins or are they doing a PR job?, I wonder why?

OTHER ITEMS: A warning from one of our members: Everyone needs to open the dashboard on their email accounts - Yahoo, Gmail, Hotmail, etc and "uncheck" ALL the tracking features that Monitors every single move you make - hence the way those ads pop up when you've just looked at One thing in a search. The 'hidden search' feature is a joke cos the dashboard in ALL search engines have MULTIPLE avenues of 'tracking' your every move. Do Remove them to Reduce tracking you every move - it's Not just only in apps that track your moves. Also on your phone's Dashboard for the SAME account ...that has a different feature dashboard. Found this out recently.

Yes, I can officially confirm – the US Armed Forces and Allied Forces are inside the Sovereign Republic of Canada. 1. The opening of your Province/Territory hinges solely upon the completion of the work being done by the US Armed Forces/Allied Forces within your Province/Territory 2. It has nothing to do with vaccinations and percentages nonsense. The Parliament and Legislatures, are not part of and will not be part of the Sovereign Republic of Canada's Government structure. The National Capital of the Republic of Canada is, Victoria, BC, Canada. Canada Revenue Agency (an Agent of a foreign Monarch), will not be part of the Sovereign Republic of Canada's Gov't. There will be zero personal income tax in the Sovereign Republic of Canada. The Republic of Canada has funds at the Vatican. It is now under the Republic's control and guarded by the White hats. It will be repatriated to the Republic of Canada. Hold your Wine/Beer Message from Romana Didulo, Head of State and Commander –in-Chief of the Sovereign Republic of Canada. The opening to this piece said: Hello everyone, Here are itemized notes to keep you in the loop. Keep us in the loop indeed Ms Didulo, some of us have had enough of time loops, gate loops and internet news loops. Another of these internet pop ups claiming all kinds of titles, making all kinds of promises, none of which has bore any benefits to we the people. Citing that they are going against the Monarch, which is valid, but then stating they will use another Monarch named place for their capital, Victoria, do these people not think?

Here is another, and as Karen Brewer said, it is pointless taking a piece of paper to a gunfight. But scratching the surface these are the Jews that fled Iberia and came to America, as Finkelstein indicated. Perhaps their real label was Donmeh, who we covered in the FRWL series.

Though Miami and Los Angeles are commonly regarded as the twin cradles of crack, the first government-financed study of cocaine smoking concluded that it was actually born in the Bay Area in January 1974. After comedian Richard Pryor nearly immolated himself during a cocaine-smoking binge in 1980, the National Institute on Drug Abuse hired UCLA drug expert Ronald Siegel to look into the then-unfamiliar practice. Siegel, the first scientist to document crack's use in the United States, traced the smoking habit back to 1930, when the Colombians first started it. But what was being smoked south of the border - a paste-like substance called BASE (bah-SAY) - was very different from what Californians were putting in their pipes, Siegel found, even though they called it the same thing: free base. BASE was a crude, toxics-laden precursor to cocaine powder. On the other hand, free base (which later became known as crack or rock) was cocaine powder that had been reverse-engineered to make it smokable. When San Francisco Bay Area dealers tried recreating the drug they'd seen in South America, Siegel learned, they'd screwed up. When they looked it up in the Merck Manual, they saw cocaine base and thought, well, yeah, this is it, Siegel said. They mispronounced it, misunderstood the Spanish, and thought (BASE) was cocaine base. The base described in the organic-chemistry handbook was cocaine powder separated from its salts, a process easily done with boiling water and baking soda. It was an immediate, if unintentional, hit. They were wowed by it, they thought they were smoking BASE, they were not, they were smoking something nobody on the planet had ever smoked before. Using the sales records of several major drug-paraphernalia companies, Siegel correlated crack's public appearance with the appearance of base-making kits and glass pipes for smoking it. The sales records zeroed in on the Bay Area. We were able to show to our satisfaction that they were directly responsible for distributing the habit throughout the United States. Wherever they were selling their kits, that's where we started getting the clinical reports, it all started in Northern California. His groundbreaking study was never published by the government, purportedly for budgetary reasons. Siegel, who said he grew concerned that the information would not be made available to other researchers, published it himself in an obscure medical journal in late 1982. The series, Dark Alliance written by reporter Gary Webb, reported that a San Francisco Bay Area drug ring sold cocaine in South Central Los Angeles, then funneled profits to the contras for the better part of a decade. The series traced the drugs to dealers Danilo Blandon and Ricky Ross, leaders of a CIA-run guerrilla army in Nicaragua. So like the Iran Contras, the Nicaraguan Contras was created by the CIA, throw in Farq Guerrillas and MS-13 and you begin to see a bigger picture. The Seattle Times ran the series on Aug. 22-23, 1996. The reports sparked widespread anger in the black community toward the CIA, as well as numerous federal investigations into whether the CIA took part in or countenanced the selling of crack cocaine to raise money for contras. The investigations never found that the CIA had any link to drug dealing. Message to the CIA, do you throw the banks, or chuck the banks? I see you. A common theme that, the CIA was never involved in anything bad according to official records, just like Operation Condor, or the Majestic 12 or the P2 Lodge and the list could go on, why? because they created an Act that would cover up all their bad behaviors called The National Security Act. Interesting to note that it is a pharmaceutical company manual of Merck's that created this drug craze, the reality is all of those types of drugs when requiring mixing, originated in pharma, agency and Military labs, for the purpose of raising money for black budgets and to run agendas on the people. Widespread anger from the black community? is that not passing the buck? nobody forced people into doing drugs it was a personal choice to do so. Blaming anyone else is dissolving your own responsibility and something all too many people partake in, and that is something we must all change. If only the black and any other race showed widespread anger against their own, in their own communities, we may finally raise the levels in all communities, and get rid of the many ills in all races and colors.

A little something the Granny Knappers have been working on for about six weeks now... On behalf of all Humanity of Midgard Earth, we now recognize, become aware of, block and remove all programs, manipulations and agendas of mind control, programming and frequencies that have been and are currently controlling any and all people. Any attempts to dominate, manipulate, create divisiveness, disengage people through isolation/"social" distancing, hive minded/group thinking, and implanting thoughts and/or emotions that are not our own with the outcome of disorienting and controlling our actions, that are not for the highest good of humanity, are now permanently and completely stopped. We now block, stop and render all negative and dark manipulations useless on all frequencies, timelines and planes- past, present, future and out of time. All control tactics targeted against humanity which have malevolent intentions are now deflected, and returned to those agents which are knowingly or unknowingly engaged in these attacks. Humanity now has a healthy and balanced awareness of these control agendas, which allows for instant detection of all attempts to coerce or manipulate, including, but not limited to mind control, isolation and or inciting violence and/or war. This awareness spreads throughout humanity and a greater understanding of the lies and actions taken to control Humanity spreads to all. Humanity, from this time, space and frequency through the All, now states, affirms and commands an immediate and complete cessation of all of the aforementioned manipulations. We the people are now ready, willing and able to assume responsibility, accountability and sovereignty for all of our actions and choices. These intentions now manifest on behalf of all humanity for the greatest and highest good of all. To all our members and people in the alt media it is time to remember, you are the voice.

EXPOSE: GCHQ is an intelligence agency based in UK, where, according to their Twitter site, our brightest people bring together intelligence and technology to keep Britain safe. Clearly they are comedians as well, keep Britain safe, surely you jest. In May 2021, the European Court of Human Rights ruled that, GCHQ's methods for bulk interception of online communications violated the right to privacy and its regime for collection of data was unlawful. Origins: GCHQ was originally established after World War 1 as the Government Code and Cypher School (GC&CS) and was known under that name until 1946. Associated with the OSS group then. During World War 2 it was located at Bletchley Park, the cryptography center, which later spawned the CIA and NSA, who also went on to creating the dead peoples currency, called crypto. The Joint Threat Research Intelligence Group (JTRIG) is a subgroup of GCHQ. "Among the core self-identified purposes of JTRIG are two tactics: (1) to inject all sorts of false material onto the internet in order to destroy the reputation of its targets; and (2) to use social sciences and other techniques to manipulate online discourse and activism to generate outcomes it considers desirable." Citing documents released though the Snowden affair, Glenn Greenwald termed the group extremist, he cited documents showing their planning of deceitful strategies to discredit a target. Activities: GCHQ's 360 degree full spectrum bulk collection data system was constructed in brazen and arrogant defiance of, Article 8 of the European Convention of Human Rights. Britain's parliament never debated or approved this massive construction programme, as it would for any national infrastructure project. Britain's parliament like Congress is about as useful as a chocolate tea pot, neither have a clue what is going on or what they are doing. Every phone call, no matter the device is recorded, every image, website visited, personal details such as medical and financial records, contacts, everything private to you is no longer private. No shit Sherlock. Illegal Hacking: In May 2014, Privacy International and seven communications providers filed a complaint with the UK Investigatory Powers Tribunal, asserting that GCHQ's hacking activities were proscribed under the UK Computer Misuse Act. Rather than face this legal challenge and in apparent response, on June 6 2014, the UK government introduced the new legislation via the Serious Crime Bill to allow GCHQ, intelligence officers, and the police to hack without criminal liability. Another example of pieces of paper to a gunfight, we find the loopholes and the close them back into the mobius loop. It consulted the Ministry of Justice, the Crown Prosecution Service, the Scotland Office, the Northern Ireland Office, GCHQ, the UK police and National Crime Agency, but did not inform Privacy International until after May 3, 2015 when the new law entered into force. A 2017 legal verdict by Justice Floyd, Justice Sales and Justice Flaux for GCHQ against privacy international, decreed the Investigatory Powers Tribunal cannot be held subject to a judicial review under active laws unless the Secretary of State personally intervenes. Justice Floyd, Sales and Flaux are all inner temple BAR Crown agents. A bit like Langley and Mossad then, make the rules up to suit them accordingly, ignore existing rules and when challenged, write new ones or cite National Security. Mass Surveillance: In 2014, the Guardian reported that documents provided by NSA whistleblower Edward Snowden, about project Optic Nerve showed that GCHQ recorded millions of images from Yahoo webchats. To avoid overloading their computers while recording streams of so many users simultaneously, they recorded one image every five minutes from the users' feeds. Optic Nerve is a mass surveillance programme run by the British signals intelligence agency Government Communications Headquarters (GCHQ), with help from the US National Security Agency, that surreptitiously collects private webcam still images from users while they are using a Yahoo! webcam application. As an example of the scale, in one 6-month period, the programme is reported to have collected images from 1.8 million Yahoo! user accounts globally. GCHQ got help from the NSA because the NSA was created by GCHQ and so are a subsidiary company. GCHQ who are part of the original OSS also created the CIA. OSS is the name of CIA agent Robert David Steele's company, connecting the dots yet? Tapping Submarine Cables: In 2014, revelations from Edward Snowden revealed how GCHQ acquired taps on internet lines. Whenever GCHQ wanted to tap a new fiber optic cable, they called engineers from British Telecom (codename:REMEDY) to plan where to physically connect to the taps to the cable, and agree how much BT should be paid. GCHQ has Internet data feeds from "more than 18 submarine cables coming into different parts of Britain either direct to GCHQ in Cheltenham, or to its remote processing station at Bude in Cornwall". Hey Bude, don't make it bad, take a sad script and make it better. Information Sharing: GCHQ routinely shares information with other signatories of the UKUSA agreement, Australia, Canada, New Zealand and USA. Courtesy of the program Echelon and the 5 eyes group of voyeuristic clowns. This agreement assists all member countries in circumventing laws about spying on their own citizens. Commercial espionage: GCHQ intervened to prevent the sixth installment of the Harry Potter book series being leaked on the internet. All of which reveals J.K Rowling is one of them elitists, and not a person of the people. In fact her books revealed her dark nature and intentional use of spell casting within that series. Corruption: Jock Kane, a GCHQ employee for over 25 years with experience in many areas of the organisation uncovered a range of corruption and bad practices, including poor security, and blew the whistle. A senior civil servant from the Home Office, James Waddell compiled a government report about his claims. Although finished in April 1979, this was never published. Margaret Thatcher alleged to Parliament that Kane's allegations were "unfounded"; as a consequence Waddell hinted to a journalist that his report, had not concluded that Kane's allegations were without foundation. A June 1980 episode of the investigative television show, World In Action, titled Mr Kane's Campaign, was dedicated to Kane's revelations and campaign for stricter security at GCHQ in Hong Kong. Who knew they were in Hong Kong as well, oops. The programme was modified after having been restricted from being broadcast by the Independent Broadcasting Authority. Kane wrote a memoir in 1984, GCHQ: The Negative Asset, which was confiscated by Special Branch, and remains unpublished. Undaunted, he wrote a second memoir, The Hidden Depths of Treachery, which was also subsequently halted by an injunction served on the publishers, Transworld Publications, Ltd. GCHQ internal material leaked by Edward Snowden lists investigative journalists as a threat, alongside "terrorists" and hackers, for reasons that have not been explained. Investigative journalists are a threat oh my, the truth never fears investigation GCHQ. Control: Robin Ramsey, editor of Lobster Magazine opined in an editorial: "GCHQ works for the Americans. They must do because the British state no longer has the power to use the information GCHQ gathers. Wrong assumption and naive, thinking they are connected to and operating on behalf of the British, that is delusional at this point. COVID-19: In April 2020 Matt Hancock bypassed scrutiny from UK parliament, and gave GCHQ easy access to information from the NHS. War to Take Out Vaccine skeptics: In November 2020, GCHQ was ordered to wage cyber war on anti-vaccine propaganda and to take out anti vaxers online and on social media. The focus of the high priority covert operation is taking down hostile state-linked content and disrupting the communications of the cyber actors responsible. GCHQ stands for Global Clown Head Quarters, again we ask the good people working in GCHQ to come forward and lets end this conspiracy, spying and voyeuristic group for the benefit of humanity.

This piece is in part a heads up to the research of Kevin Yockey and a presentation he did for us all in Texas. It was brilliantly done in two parts of about an hour each, I asked him after Part 1 would he expand on it, he said Part 2 is the expansion. After Part 2 I asked again would he expand further, he smiled and said I don't think so, but comments within the presentation had made him look at it, a few days later he said " now I know why you asked to expand on it" and now he is busy with maybe Part 3. Perhaps when time allows, which is a big laugh to me currently, he and Michael can do separate AEWT and present some of their material and research. When we take a close look at creation, we see that everything is mathematically related so even if one doesn't like math in school, one cannot get away from fact. Joseph Campbell, had this to say in his book The Inner Reaches of Outer Space - Metaphor As Myth And As Religion: Some notion of the whole, profoundly conceived, macro-microcosmic import may be gained from a consideration of the mathematics of the mythological, and actual cycles of the calendars of the rites of various ancient peoples. For example, in the Hindu sacred epics and puranas, the number of years reckoned to the present cycle of time, the so-called Kali Yuga, is 432,000, the number reckoned to the "great cycle" (mahayuga) within which this yuga falls being 4,320,000. Both of those numbers when added equals a 9. Actually they are not Hindu, they are the Urs, Rus and Aryan texts. Joseph Campbell is deeply religious and his work is very valid for the most part, but also skewed due to his religious background, I will fill in my understanding of things from a neutral aspect during this piece. But then reading one day in the Icelandic Eddas, I discovered that in Othin's (Wotan's) warrior hall, Valholl, there were 540 doors, through each of which, on the "Day of the Wolf" (that is to say, at the end of the present cycle of time), there would pass 800 divine warriors to engage the anti gods in a battle of mutual annihilation, (800 x 540 - 432,000.) So how is it that in the tenth-to-thirteenth century Iceland, the same number of years were reckoned to the present cycle of time as in India? In Babylon, there had been a Chaldean priest Berossos, who, c. 280 BC, had rendered in Greek an account of the history and mythology of Babylonia, wherein it was told that between the time of the rise of the first city, Kish, and the coming of the Babylonian mythological flood (from which that of the Bible is taken), there elapsed 432,000 years , during which antediluvian era, ten kings reigned. Very long lives! Longer even than Methuselah's (Genesis 5:27), which had been of only 969. When counting the begats of the Patriarchs from Adam to Noah and the first drop of rain came to 1656 years. Is this any relation to 432,000? Julius Oppert, a distinguished Jewish Assyriologist of the last century, in 1877 presented before the Royal Society for Sciences in Gottingen a paper on Dates in Genesis, in which it was shown that in 1656 years there are 86,400 seven-day weeks. 86,400 divided by 2 = 43,200. And so, it appears that in the Book of Genesis there are two contrary theologies represented in relation to the legend of the Deluge. The problem is which deluge, there was more than one. Forget the idiotic version of the melting ice, that would only generate 1-2" of increased water levels globally. That deluge added 400 feet of water, so where did it come from? as above so below, it came from the firmament. Someone with technology dropped the firmament, and Noah and his reptile buddies knew about it in advance. The Ark was in the sky, described as a boat on water, a boat is a ship, the ark was a ship traversing the sky water. Which is why NASA trains astronauts for space, in water, same composition is why. One is the old tribal, popular tale of a willful, personal creator-god, who saw that "the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and was sorry that he had made man on the earth, and it grieved him to his heart. So the Lord said, "I will blot out man whom I have created from the face of the ground, man and beast and creeping things and birds of the air, for I am sorry that I have made them" (Genesis 6:5-7). The problem is the Lord presented itself as god, the Lord was part of another race of beings determined to wipe out many beings in pursuit of assets and power. The other idea, which is in fundamental contrast, is that of the disguised number, 86,400, 864 which equals 18, which equals 9. Which is a deeply hidden reference to the Gentile, Sumero-Babylonian, mathematical cosmology of the ever-revolving cycles of impersonal time, with whole universes and their populations coming into being, flowering for a season of 43,200 or 4,320,000 years, dissolving back into the cosmic mother-sea to rest for an equal spell of years before returning, and so again, and again, and again. The Jews, it will be remembered, were for fifty years exiled from their Capital to Babylon (586-539 BC), when they were subject to Babylonian influences, so that although the popular, exoteric version of their Deluge legend is from the period of David's kingdom, tenth century or so BC. The exquisitely secreted indication of priestly knowledge, beyond that, of a larger, cyclic version of the legend - where the god himself would have come into being, and gone out of being with the universe of which he was the lord - is post-Exilic, as are, also, the genealogical datings of Genesis Chapter 5, which are so very nicely contrived to join the 600 years of Noah's age at the time of the Flood to furnish a total exactly of 1656. What Campbell is espousing there is, much of the bible and other scriptures were written to fit into the prescribed Jewish timeline. The Jews had no capital, only capitol. It is to be noticed, by the way, that $1+6+5+6 = 18$, which is twice 9, while $4+3+2=9$: 9 being a number traditionally associated with the Goddess Mother of the World and its gods. From my perspective it is the number of completion and the number of growth. I explained to the CA members about open and closed galaxies, an open galaxy will look like the figure 9, a spiral galaxy, which is also representative of the Fibonacci sequence, that then allows for growth. A concentric circle galaxy the way I see it is, a closed to growth or stagnant galaxy. In India the number of recited names in a litany of this goddess is 108. $1+0+8=9$, while $108 \times 4=432$. In Roman Catholic Europe, when the Angelus tolls (at morning, noon, and evening), it rings $3+3+3$ and then 9 times, in celebration of the Virgin's conception of the Savior. The recited prayer at those junctures, "The Angel of the Lord declared unto Mary, and she conceived by the Holy Ghost, and the word was made flesh, is in recognition of this miracle at the opening of a new world age. A new world age, like the Kali yuga which is darkness, or a new world order? I know this is sensitive to the religious, but does the story Mary was conceived by the Holy Ghost make sense? because to me that sounds like Astral Rape. Ghosts are in most cases the Djinns, trapped between two or three planes of existence, desperate to feed on our energy as they have no means of which to nourish themselves otherwise. In ancient Greece, 9 was the number of the Muses, patron goddesses of the arts. They were the daughters of Mnemosyne ("memory"), the source of imagination, which in turn is the carrier of archetypal, elementary ideas to artistic, realization in the field of space-time. The number 9, that is to say, relates traditionally to the Great Goddess of Many Names (Devi, Inanna, Ishtar, Astarte, Artemis, Venus, etc.) as matrix of the cosmic process, whether in the macrocosm or in a microcosmic field of manifestation. The reason for the suppression of her image by a clergy interested in the claims only of a divinity heavily bearded, therefore, can be readily surmised; but why the same company of priestly doctors so artfully concealed, in their document an unmistakable notice of their own knowledge of her power awaits interpretation. The profundity and sublime majesty of the suppressed mythology can be appreciated best by way of two apparently unrelated clocks, one, the ultimate clock of outer space, and the other of inner space - respectively, the astronomical precession of the equinoxes and the physiological beat of the human heart. That passage brings in as above so below, as within so without. Regarding the first; the slow westward motion in the course of years of the equinoctial points around the beltway of the zodiac (the vernal equinox, for example, moving from the sign of Aries, where it had been before the birth of Christ, through Pisces, where it is now, toward Aquarius, where it will be in a couple hundred years) I beg to differ on that theory, as I understand it we are moving towards Sagittarius, towards the great G matter cloud. The second reason for disagreeing is, it has left out one zodiac, more on that later. This complete cycle of the twelve zodiacal signs exactly 25,920 years, which term is known as a "great" or "Platonic" year. But if we divide 25,920 by 60 (which is the ancient Mesopotamian soss, or basic sexagesimal unit of astronomical measurement, still used in the measurement of circles whether of time or of space), the quotient is 432. Moreover: $2+5+9+2+0 = 18$. And regarding the second, the inward clock: I have read in a popular book on physical education that "A conditioned man, who exercises regularly, will have a resting heart rate of about 60 beats per minute or less . Sixty per minute time 60 minutes, equals 3600 beats per hour, times 24 hours, equals 86,400 beats a day. In another article it was stated that the heart rests in between beats for 9 hours a day. It is strange that in our history books, the discovery of the precession of the equinoxes should be attributed always to the Greek Hipparchus, second century BC, when the magic number 432 (which when multiplied by 60 produces 25,920) was already employed in the reckoning of major cycles of time before that century.

Interesting stuff and it brings in some of things I have relayed in our shows, the most obvious is, find the pattern it always repeats, and not just in one field either, like the 1 on 1 with the 1 it applies is many ways and fields, the key is to connect it to other fields, more times than not it will apply. As for the one zodiac missing, this disrupts many of the sciences and is another example I have relayed many times of the $12 + 1$, with the one hidden. In the past we had 13 months in a calendar year, of 20 days each, and so our year was 260 days, this means we were closer to the sun. Then we had a leap of 60 days to 320 days in a year, for some reason they added 5 which is unclear why at this point, and we went to 325 days, which then increased again to 360 which is the same degrees as a circle, $3+6+0 = 9$, which again 5 days was added to 365 days we have now, plus a $1/4$ each year, and after 4 years we add a day. Which is called a leap year, but is it a 4 year loop year? what is a double loop? the figure eight. The eight plays a role in this next piece, sometimes the eight is added and sometimes removed. The Mayan calendar says 13K years, does that fit neatly into 13 zodiacs of a 1000 years each? which is a half cycle, was it added or taken away? 13k years is $1+3 = 4$ and a loop. From 13k years we go to full cycle of 26K years, $2+6 = 8$, double loop, but the figure earlier was 25920, which is 80 less than 13k, $8 + 0 = 8$. 25920 is $2+5+9+2+0 = 18$ which equals 9. The Levashov theory of the Day and Night of Svarog was that it lasted 1000 years, when actually it is 1008, so an eight was missing, $1+0+0+8 = 9$. The music of the spheres, the great harmonic of the Universe is 432HZ, which equals 9, the Aldabaran and Vrill in league with the Nazionists changed our music frequency from 432 to 440, which is again a difference of 8. Why 8? because it is a closed loop, designed to repeat, like the new age created mobius loop that so many follow blindly without knowing its real intentions or implications. In the now Hindu texts it mentions the yugas, which is the varying ages, and the 4 sections of the yugas relates to a 4 level triangle, with 4 at the top 3 on the next line, 2 and then 1 at the bottom, known as the Kali Yugas, which is the dark age. But that pyramid equaled ten $4,3,2$ and $1 = 10$, this got me thinking, because if you remove the one, you are left with the 9 and the 3 level pyramid of the ages. Ten is the binary inorganic code of the computer and AI, so if you remove the one line, the numbers then would be 4, 3 & 2 which equals 9, but could also be 3, 2, 1 when times by the main number of 3, the power of 3, those numbers then become 3, 6 & 9 and you are left with the quotation from Tesla of "If you only knew the magnificence of the 3, 6 and 9, then you would have a key to the universe" The great question is, was the 10th age added for inorganic growth called the kali yuga, the age of the darkness, which is an accurate description of the Kali Ma, the age of the dark mother, the hidden one and why the churches leaves the mother out of their trinities, to hide the dark ones they all worship to. Ten in the mirror is net, a net is a trap like a web, what is the web or into the net made up of, ones and zeroes like the ten or net. In the series Stargate Season 3 it reveals a planet with amnesia that was done by a female called the destroyer of worlds. The amnesia was the sleeping pods, which look eerily like the Med Beds. The female destroyer of worlds, is that the Kali Ma in the age of the Kali Yuga? the Lilith who was the Eve who fell, as above so below. But you know what changed her in the series? human love, it is the antidote to many things once you find the frequency of it. It is not a visual, audible, looks or status based event as they are all external, it is the harmonic frequency that is internal, of where love exists and resides.

Our next journey into the figures 3, 6 & 9 involves brainwaves frequency and what is known as the Solfeggio Frequencies. What does Solfeggio mean? well it derives from sol and fa, sol means sun, the meaning of Fa is unclear, but it is the 4th note on the diatonic scale. The diatonic scale is do, re, mi, so, fa, la, ti, doh the vocal range we were all asked to repeat in UK schools, not sure whether it applies elsewhere. The so part had a silent L, and sol fa is the origin of the Solfeggio sequence and frequency scale. This are the key frequencies and their fortes. 174 Hz Remove physical & energetic pain 285 Hz Influence energy fields 396 Hz Turning Grief to joy, liberating guilt & fear 417 Hz Undoing situations & facilitates change 432 Hz Tone of nature & natural order 528 Hz Transformation & miracles, repairing DNA LOVE 639 Hz Relationship with spiritual family 741 Hz Awaken divine intuition 852 Hz Returning to spiritual order 963 Hz Promotes oneness Where is the 3,6 & 9 you may ask? 174 or 417 or $741 = 12 = 3$, 285 or 528 or $852 = 15 = 6$, 396 or 639 or $963 = 18 = 9$, $432 = 9$. Solfeggio is used in the modern day for what is known as sight reading. People in music literature commonly use the term sight-reading generically, for the ability to read and produce both instrumental and vocal music at first sight, the conversion of musical information from sight to sound. Udtaisuk and some other authors prefer the use of the more specific terms "sight-playing" and "sight-singing" where applicable. This differentiation leaves a third, more restricted use of the term "sight-reading" for the silent reading of music without creating sound by instrument or voice. Solfeggio is also represented in hand signals, the most famous of which was used in a movie called Close Encounters of the 3rd Kind. The ET was using hand signals in accordance with the music, that was the solfeggio hand signals for do, re, mi, sol, fa, la, ti, doh.

Speaking of ET's this theory of mine may or may not be true but perhaps it makes sense on a wider scale. So we take the 3,6,9 add the number 57 and a condiment company and we will see if it makes sense. Man and woman is represented as a 6 and 9, just like the mutual sex act of the same number. It is also represented as the yin and yang shape in non human form, it forms the same shape when viewed at a distance, unless you are a voyeur and want to witness the act lol. The Heinz company came up with the brand Heinz 57, said to be the various number of pickles, but over time is has become knows as a mixed breed. Here is the description: 1. A phrase used to describe anything that is made up of a mixture of things. 2. A mixed-breed dog. A mixed breed is a hybrid, if a child is produced from a 6 & 9 mix, it will produce another 6 or 9. But what is a 3? does it exist? is the 3 a hybrid, whereby only one of the 6 or 9 produces offspring from an outside source, is that child a 3 and subsequently a hybrid? Remember the EBE saying they were dropping children off in the 4 corner states, well, they were hybrids. To complete the pondering the numbers 5 and 7 equals 12, and so is a 3. An interesting tidbit about the Heinz family is, Henry Heinz paternal grandmother was Charlotte Louisa Trump, he was a second cousin of Friedrich Trump, second cousin (once removed) of real estate magnate Fred Trump, and second cousin (twice removed) of former 45th President of the United States, Donald Trump. The great question is, was Trump a hybrid Ciakar?

Here is another 9 factor that has interesting connotations. They say that water is the source of life, what constitutes water? Hydrogen which is number 1 on the periodic table, Oxygen which is number 8 on the periodic table, $1 + 8 = 9$. Perhaps water is the Source, given organic humans are composed of 70-80% water, maybe that is the source spark?

Elements of the old banking system was made up of nines also, $1+8$, $2+7$, $3+6$, $4+5$, all nines, and the top stand alone number was 9, who is/was The Trustee. That is replicated in the front and back systems of the banking sector, and another case of as above so below. That system is crashed now, and the new one was being developed in a better way involving 3, 6 & 9 until the listening problem the current Trustee has, kicked into gear and has delayed it indefinitely, despite her claims otherwise, time will tell. The next journey through the nine is, the nine realms or veils depending on your understanding. It is said that the nine realms are collapsing from above and compressing from below, and all will be left is Midgard. The nine worlds were sheltered by the cosmic tree, Yggdrasil. Asgard, the home of the Aesir gods Most of the best-known Norse gods and goddesses belong to the Aesir, including Odin, Thor, Frigg, Tyr, Loki, Baldur, Heimdall, Idun, and Bragi. Interestingly in the Stargate series Thor is depicted as a grey ET being, all humans in the higher densities would look like the biological grey, I say that as many greys are not biological but technological bots. So why would humans look like greys in space, because they would have less density, so no need for muscles or mass, which would give us all a spindly look, just like some greys. Those that remember the story of the P45 and P52 species will understand that more. Soul development onto the higher plains is the Universes greatest dietary cure, you are only 10% of your body weight. Vanaheim, home of the Vanir gods, they fought the giants who wished to drag us into the underworld. There was not just one form of giants, there were many, some good some bad. Of note in relation to the Vanir gods, it came as a surprise to me that the name of one of the goddesses in that realm, whose name means the goddess of fullness. Fullness means completion, which is the number 9, she wore two open spirals on her left arm, which is the 6 or 9 depending on your viewing perspective, the name of that goddess? it is spelt gna, the goddess of fullness returns which could well symbolize to the fullness return of the g matter, but also signal the return of another version of, the one on one with the one. In Norse mythology, Gná is a goddess who runs errands in other worlds for the goddess Frigg and rides the flying, sea-treading horse Hófvarpnir. Hófvarpnir and the eight-legged steed Sleipnir have been cited examples of transcendent horses in Norse mythology. In chapter 35 of the Prose Edda book Gylfaginning, the enthroned figure of High provides brief descriptions of 16 ásynjur. High lists Gná thirteenth, is that another of the $12 + 1$, the hidden thirteenth? High adds that Gná rides the horse Hófvarpnir, and that this horse has the ability to ride through the air and atop the sea, adds a whole new meaning of ride the waves. High ends his description of Gná by saying that "from Gna's name comes the custom of saying that something gnaefir [looms] when it rises up high." Alfheim, home of the "light" elves The light elves are the origin of the tooth fairy. The light elves had a glow around them like an angel description, perhaps they are one and the same? It is said, the Light-elves are fairer to look upon than the sun. Nidavellir, home of the dwarfs, this world and beings are connected to the moon, also called Myrkheim comprising of myrkr - "darkness" + heimr - "home": the world of darkness, Dark Abode. These are the trolls said to be of mythology and they are said to inhabit the world of the dark elves also. Jotunheim - (Norse) The abode of the giants. From Jötunheimr, the jötnar menace the humans in Midgard and the gods in Asgard. The river Ífingr separates Asgard, the realm of the gods, from Jötunheimr, the land of giants. That is why Thor, Odin and others were slaying the giants. Thor slain the main giant after one of his ilk betrayed him, Loki, all very Cain and Abel that. Svartalfheim, home of the "dark" elves This is the realm and origin of Batman, batman is a dark elf? for those who have seen them, it looks like the Dark Knight version of Batman. Dark Elves are fairly evil, and maybe their realm on Earth is right in our own back door, New York. New York is called Gotham, which is the home of the dark elf, I am just waiting for them to confirm it in lights from the previous twin towers to a single tower, from which a beam of light is cast into the night sky, just missing the bat emblem at the end of it. Hel, home of the unworthy dead Hel with one L, is a replica of hell with two L's and is ran by a female called Hel, one L. What is it with females and the underworld and moon, as above so below. The word Hel as other related terminology and something we have warned about. Other related early Germanic terms and concepts include the compounds halja-rūnō(n) and halja-wītjan. Halja is related to Hel, runo is runes and witjan looks suspiciously like Wiccan to me. The feminine noun halja-rūnō(n) is formed with *haljō- 'hell' attached to rūno mystery, secret runes. It has descendant cognates in the Old English helle-rúne which means possessed woman, sorceress, diviner', the Old High German helli-rūna 'magic', which means this is the realm of witchcraft. Niflheim, the region of everlasting cold and endless night. Home of Mist is a location which sometimes overlaps with the notions of Niflhel and Hel. Later, it became the abode of Hel, a goddess daughter of Loki, and the afterlife for her subjects, those who did not die a heroic or notable death. Sounds like another version of the astral to me. So, what is left after that lot? Midgard, the home of humankind, it is all we have and we should treasure it, nurture it and develop it in a much better way than we have. Yes, there has been much interference, but we allowed that interference to flourish, when each of us has the capability to change that and our path.

The final portion of tonight's show involves an audio of someone very familiar to THI members. An impassioned speech in many ways, but also contradictory in some parts that has still not been addressed. I can hear and feel the pain in your voice, I know you too well. 0.14 We will go it alone piece was said 2-3 years back to these people, they like Kim have a listening problem. The reality is, we have always gone alone. 0.32 we fixed the banks over two years ago Kim, why does it need refixing now? 0.55 The same Generals and Trump I requested you many times from as far back as December 2018 to cut them off. I kept telling her Trump is playing you like a fiddle, I wish I was wrong, sadly for me and Kim I wasn't. It was all about him she said, you do realize Kim that is what people are saying of you, words are not enough to prove otherwise, actions are, and corrective actions on your part have been in short supply. 1.26-2.50 Including myself are depending on you right now, indeed Kim and therein lies the damn problem, you. You divided the people you are supposed to lead, you dismissed thousands of people around the world as irrelevant all because they are connected to one man, who did everything to support you. The buck stops with you, you are the appointed leader, now act like one. Whining over Trump and Generals was your remit, you chose to engage them and it failed, crying about people needing to come together is your remit, as it was you who divided the one group humanity had assembled in the right way to take us forward. Lets handle ourselves like respectable people, again Kim I'm sorry but that is all on you, have you exhibited that trait? clearly not. The reason for discord in your own group is because you never addressed a single thing or question, again divisive. Life Force like COWL is falling apart, why? because it was not started out with the right intent, Liam will tell you that as it is his quote. THI has grown considerably in that time, despite your attempts with Tank to disrupt it, why is that? because we have the right intent and the right people is why. So, the whole issues including what is happening to you in your private life (which was drastically reduced between Aug 2018 and May 2020, your words not mine) are all down to you, you created this mess and do you have the moral fibre to correct it? so all the people have the chance to go forward together? There are circumstances for your errors, as there is no manual for these jobs, jobs plural not single, single as you have found out did not work, 1 on 1 with the 1 remember that Kim? But continuing to ask people to do things you yourself have not exhibited, you yourself has caused is not only disingenuous, but has failed you and all the people. At which point will you see that, how far does the pain, suffering and division have to go on Kim, before you realize you are central to it? Your championing of Trump led to lockdowns and vaccines, again you don't wish to hear that, but those are the cold hard facts. Projecting, pointing away and going blah blah blah I can't hear you for 13 months has not served you well has it? One look in the mirror tells you that, if you are being honest with yourself. The easy thing in life is to say I made a mistake, it is not a big deal, no one lost no one won from making a mistake, it is a learning lesson, nothing more and nothing less. The hardest thing in life is covering up a mistake, it leads to lies and more lies to cover up that one error of judgement. I will say again mistake which makes you humble is much better than an achievement which makes you arrogant. This song is for our members from me, but a poignant reminder to the Trustee, of who lifted who?
