

THI-SHOW TRANSCRIPT 2021-06-24

After the explosive show from Tuesday, we will carry on this show in similar mode, calling it as it is. We will not be making up intel for clickbait, not be recycling old news and passing off as new, and will not be making any extraordinary claims of our own prowess, we will continue to develop us and ourselves in a dignified and progressive manner as one. The Government often states if you are not doing anything wrong, you shouldn't have anything to hide. If that is the case then, shouldn't the Government declassify everything? We covered Tuesdays show with a document, and start this one off with two more that are deeply revealing and confirming of past shows. Here is part of an official document surrounding the PCR test issued this year. Class 3 Device Recall Biomeme SARSCoV2 test Date Initiated by Firm January 05, 2021 Create Date February 01, 2021 Recall Status1 Terminated 3 on June 11, 2021 Recall Number Z-0940-2021 Recall Event ID 87153 Product Classification Reagents, 2019-novel Coronavirus nucleic acid - Product Code QJR Product Nucleic acid-based in vitro diagnostic devices for the detection of 2019-novel coronavirus (2019-nCoV) and/or diagnosis of 2019-nCoV infection in human clinical specimens. The RT-PCR test runs on a Franklin Real-Time PCR Thermocycler Device (Reference/Catalog Number 1000003,1000018) with the Software Controller version 6.4.3. The cyclers has a "baseboard" unit with firmware and associated software component that control motorized movements of the optical filter carriage used for PCR detection. Code Information Device Reference/Catalog Number (Black) - 1000003, (white) - 1000018. Software version 6.4.3 EUA - Emergency Use Authorization Recalling Firm/Manufacturer Biomeme, Inc. 1015 Chestnut St Philadelphia PA 19107-4316 For Additional Information Contact Andrew Barnard 267-930-7707 Manufacturer Reason for Recall Users cannot complete testing due to a sign-error in the software component that controls the filter movement and results in an instrument failure and assay failure before results are generated. FDA Determined Cause Software design: Action On 01/05/2021 Biomeme, Inc., issued an Urgent Device Recall Correction for the latest build of the Franklin Real-Time PCR Thermocycler, which affects some devices built since September 21st, 2020. This software correction is to fix an issue where the device is unable to get past the beginning stages of the test. Distribution Domestic: FL, TX, IN, KY, OH, NY, CA, PA, MD. Foreign: Canada, Zimbabwe. Remember early in the Expose series we spoke of the polymerase chain and it's implications, here is a description of the thermocycler. The thermal cyclers also known as a thermocycler, PCR machine or DNA amplifier, is a laboratory apparatus most commonly used to amplify segments of DNA via the polymerase chain reaction (PCR). So, to put it bluntly the swab test is installing a piece of apparatus to amplify DNA using the polymerase chain reaction, which is why it is called the PCR test. This one piece confirms one of our earlier expose reports that, that test is nothing to do with detection. Detection was a plastic stick with cotton wool swab on the end, this in their own words was a device. Lets look at the description of the word device shall we. Device a thing made for a particular purpose; an invention or contrivance, especially a mechanical or electrical one, a plan or scheme for effecting a purpose, a crafty scheme; trick. A piece of equipment or a mechanism designed to serve a special purpose or perform a special function, the examples the definition gave for this special function? smartphone and other electronic devices, a hidden recording device. Synonyms of device: artifice, dodge, fetch, flimflam, gambit, gimmick, jig, juggle, knack, play, ploy, ruse, scheme, shenanigan, sleight, stratagem, trick, wile. Since when has a cotton wool swab contained software? why were we not notified of such, this is a direct invasion of peoples privacy and body, that surely comes under the Nuremberg Code? As VAERS the side effect reporting group has received 40% of all of it's death reports in it's 30 year history from Covid alone. What this should alert all people now is, the medical profession, the Government agencies protecting and approving these devices, the Government are all prepared to commit not only invasions of peoples bodies for their own ends, but will go to great lengths to spy, manipulate, conceal, deny and coerce the public into dangerous situations for their own desire to control, maim or kill the populace. I have repeatedly said for many years long before any radio shows, all care, teaching, medical, government services, law groups, police, pharmaceutical are not there to serve we the people, just to use us a cannon fodder, guinea pigs, batteries, loosh and experiments to serve their paymasters. It is time all the people realized this fact, don't trust hospitals, doctors, chemists, lawyers, judges, police, politicians, social service, adult and child services, Governments and in particular all medicines, vaccines, creams, pills and potions. Is that fair some would ask? that is your choice, I am not talking of individuals here, well my son or daughter work in blah blah and they are not like that, I am talking overview. That's how they get away with it, they send good people out to protect the system, when all systems supposedly for and by the people are corrupt. The TPC can correct all of that if we pool our resources, we can take people in all those professions who don't wish to work for those corrupt systems and build our own network. Build Hospitals with people who are taught in cures, doctors and nurses based on how much they care, chemists that use natural remedies, lawyers that use RITA/Cosmic or natural law, police who operate in a civil manner, politicians operating under the memes of the TPC, Social adult and child services who care for the patients not use them in experiments, MK ultra or otherwise, organ harvesting or adrenochrome, or sell babies for monetary gain. This is the duty of every man, woman and child to build this system for and by the people, as their system has never ever worked for us. In the 18 and early 1900's on all medicines they had a clear and distinct warning on the bottle or package, it said poison. Why? because they are all poisons.

NEWS: As Miami goes all New York and 9/11 on us, despite having no planes hitting them, although there was evidence of pulse waves before during and after collapse. All those condos and only one dead?

Having warned in the Covid section last week of watch out for flight cancellations due to pilots dying of Covid jab and reluctance of airlines to use vaccinated pilots, right on cue this came in. Hundreds of American Airlines flights have been canceled this weekend and Monday because of significant staffing and maintenance issues. As of Sunday afternoon, 123 flights were canceled Saturday, 178 on Sunday and 97 were canceled for Monday, largely the result of a high number of sick calls, combined with maintenance and other staffing issues. American told ABC News that most of the cancelations are on A320 and 737 aircraft, but that it may continue to cancel at least 50 to 60 flights per day for the rest of June and 50 to 80 flights per day through July. So they are thinking the flights cancellations will increase over time then, as why would you say 50-60 in June and increase that to 50-80 in a months time? does that mean they think those who are sick won't recover, or are they expecting even more sickness?

Boeing announced this week they are considering using pilotless planes, perhaps that is why the industry is deleting all their pilots with the techno jabs? one does have to wonder. Two years ago in the Clowns in Panic we warned of the rise of the machines and crypto dangers, now people are seeing the evidence unfolding. The question for all the people working in clown based groups is, you do realize you are all next. Perhaps you should take over the mantle of an infamous RV promoters saying, it's all happening tomorrow, but unlike the RV which was never happening, this will unless you act.

A national shortage of midwives has put admissions services under significant pressure Liverpool Women's Hospital has said. Over the past month, the hospital has posted on its Facebook page several times, alerting pregnant women that high levels of activity causing delays and appointment changes. After the ECHO asked what reason was for the change to admissions, the hospital said a national shortage of midwives plus issues with existing staff availability such as sickness had increased pressure on staffing levels and services. The staffing crisis has also resulted in the hospital temporarily closing their Midwifery Led Unit (MLU) at certain times. The hospitals like the airline industry, the care industry all forced vaccinated their staff, all 3 are exhibiting elevated and high sickness rates, and also deaths of their staff. All three are also having great difficulty replacing staff, just like the teachers union also, you want to know why? it's simple, you treated your staff like shit and forced them into injecting themselves with experimental techno based poisons. With regards to the care and hospital staff shortage, which will likely worsen, the great question is who will care for the sick and dying if the die offs and side effects escalate? will we get the alien looking avian doctor arriving again?

I was asked in email to add crypto based site to our group, my response: Yes, it is called crypto for a reason, it is a death based currency, designed to take all your rights and freedoms away with one push of a delete button. Watch the series Continuum and then tell me cryptos are for the peoples benefit, people have to wake up and see beyond greed based capitalism. Our children and grand children will never forgive this generation for getting involved with what is currently a scam, in future it is a global control system. Putting it bluntly we will not be promoting or putting fresh air tokens anywhere near our site or show.

Did you know the BBC known as the British Broadcasting Company was part-share owned by a committee of members of the wireless industry? including British Thomson-Houston, The General Electric Company, Marconi and Metropolitan-Vickers. Thomson is part of Reuters which is now the CIA. The same rogue companies involved like GE and the electric company and patent stealer Marconi. Most will not know who Metropolitan - Vickers are or were, they were an electrical engineering company operating under the Westinghouse group. They were taken over by GE in 1967 which was later restructured into many other companies, including Marconi plc in 1999.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation has opened an inquiry into the leak of personal income and tax data of some of the wealthiest Americans, according to law enforcement. Where is the same enquiry into the several high profile data leaks of the public's information, one has to ask. The independent, nonprofit publication ProPublica last week published the tax liabilities and incomes of billionaires, including Amazon's Jeff Bezos, Tesla's Elon Musk, and investor Warren Buffett, among others. The publication says it obtained thousands of tax returns for the country's wealthiest individuals that span more than 15 years. The records showed Buffett paid a "true tax rate" of 0.1% from 2014 to 2018 while Bezos and Musk paid 0.98% and 3.27%, respectively, according to ProPublica. The top marginal tax rate is 37%, but that rate is only applied to any income above $510,301 for individual filers. ProPublica says the "true tax rate" is calculated by comparing how much the individuals paid in taxes with how Forbes estimates their net worth grew over that time. Rules for them and rules for us, if there was a base tax rate for all, those with more money not less money would pay the most tax. Trump was given that project in 2018 and like all other help he was given, refused or failed to implement it, yet some people want him back in? Yet according to the world's only viable intel channel or so we are told, Trump will be dead of prostate cancer within the month. Time will tell again.

More than five million people became millionaires across the world in 2020 despite economic damage from the Covid-19 pandemic. While many poor people became poorer, the number of millionaires increased by 5.2 million to 56.1 million globally, Credit Suisse research found. In 2020 more than 1% of adults worldwide were millionaires for the first time. Recovering stock markets and soaring house prices helped boost their wealth. Wealth creation appeared to be completely detached from the economic woes of the pandemic, the researchers said. Anthony Shorrocks, economist and author of the Global Wealth Report, said the pandemic had an acute short term impact on global markets, but added this was largely reversed by the end of June 2020, not for the general public it wasn't. Global wealth not only held steady in the face of such turmoil but in fact rapidly increased in the second half of the year, he said. All of these new millionaires can be connected only to the medical industry, snake oil vulture capitalists playing on peoples fear and sickness is the most despicable way of making money. All medical equipment and services should have a maximum profit margin of no greater than 10%.

Some 270 million people worldwide, equivalent to the combined populations of Germany, Britain, France and Italy, stand on the brink of starvation, the head of the United Nations' World Food Programme said on Thursday upon receiving the Nobel Peace Prize. Because of so many wars, climate change, the widespread use of hunger as a political and military weapon, and a global health pandemic that makes all of that exponentially worse, 270 million people are marching toward starvation, David Beasley said from the WFP headquarters in Rome. Failure to address their needs will cause a hunger pandemic which will dwarf the impact of COVID, and if that's not bad enough, out of that 270 million, 30 million depend on us 100% for their survival, he added. We warned of food shortages coming up in a February show 2019, when deliberate flooding of all the food basket areas of America and Russia was unfolding at the time. But I guess despite being the head of a UN programme he didn't get the memo on January 6th where the head of the UN and Trustee announced she personally had ended world hunger on January 8th, 2021. Does anyone know what they are doing or saying these days? World hunger is a sad and worsening major issue and should never have been used as a platform Integrated or not, for clickbait headlines. Furthermore nuclear weapons on tectonic not tuetonic plates, Teutonic is related to the knights and the Black Eagle, anyway that was done a long time back not recently, and was dealt with en masse just after the 2011 Japan/Fukushima incident and so that news is out of date by a decade, so no fears about that. But given the Commander had previously announced that she has control of all the nuclear codes, then it was surely a pointless exercise of placing nuclear weapons on sea beds, that the navies were doing, when only the Commander herself has all the nuclear codes anyway? So the story itself becomes irrelevant based on that fact does it not? The people feeding her scripts are playing her like a fool, due to her lack of knowledge surrounding the alt media prior to 2015, they are giving her old news to pass off as new, those of us who have been in it longer remember the same stories a long time back, we have a term for it here, it's called loop news. With Kim declaring the Fed declared void, all top bankers dead, all lead Rothschild's dead, all lead black Sun leaders killed twice, she is the head of all of the families, has full control of the banking system, indeed she is the lead banker of every bank, has full control of the military and intelligence systems, and the only legitimate world military under her command, one has to ask why she is still complaining of them blocking her? who is they? I thought she told us she was the head and lead of everything, how can anyone block her when she is controlling all of that? Why hasn't Life Force enforcement done anything public to date to remove the minions, given she single handedly destroyed all the top levels, and kick start the ailing Restoration plan that now dates back 21 months? Surely if you own the Fed and have this enforcement unit who destroys everything, then the sensible thing would be for the enforcement unit to march into the Fed and The Treasury and take over control of it from there? If you are the lead of everything, in control of everything and nothing is being accomplished or coming to fruition, who carries all of the blame for the failure of not bringing anything to fruition? This is not personal it is based on decisions being made on the peoples behalf that we all have the right to question and have answers returned in a dignified matter. But there was one piece of good news the life force assurance and the treatment of soldiers, that came directly from a plan that I formulated and revealed in our show a few years back. One hopes it works as it is a valid task and exercise to undertake, and I am glad she is finally taking up that idea and running with it, the question is where is the funding coming from, because the Omega system is empty.

17 Aug 2020 Business Merger In New Mexico evidence was filed in which HSI USA INC. ID #5206022 of Utah qualified in New Mexico. Merged with and into PayPal, Inc. ID #5235375 Who is HSI USA INC, well Patreon operates under that name now for a start. I suspect given there is a number of these same name companies, all of which are registered as foreign owned, this is the USA INC operated by The Crown UK organization. Another group we were told by The Trustee was squashed, when clearly they are not.

As millions of American workers who've quit their jobs in recent months. Even with 9.8 million people unable to find employment, others are quitting at record rates, pushing the quits rate to never-before-seen levels. Some workers are leaving for new jobs, with better pay or remote-friendly working conditions. Others have decided to start their own businesses rather than collect a paycheck. Still others are quitting with no firm plans, confident they can get a better deal elsewhere as the economy rebounds from the pandemic recession. The rate at which people are quitting is ridiculously high, given how high unemployment still is, said Michael Pearce, senior U.S. economist at Capital Economics. People are so confident in their prospects of finding a new job that they're quitting at unprecedented rates. Nearly 4 million Americans left their jobs in April, according to data from the Bureau of Labor Statistics, an unprecedented number in the two decades the government has been tracking this data, pushing the quits rate 24% higher than it was before the pandemic. Layoffs, which peaked at 13 million in March 2020, have come down to more typical monthly levels of under 2 million. This could be a sign of the changes ongoing as people move away from the traditional corporate slavery jobs, and into something that works better for themselves. Those quitting and awaiting the return to normal are sadly deluded at this point, there is no going back, there was no normal, there is no old world and only a rising new one, few in numbers but not in application. Those quitting to collect unemployment and stimulus checks have never been a part of a general contributing society, they are harvesters with lazy minds and attitudes, that path is doomed. It's all part of the phasing and shifting, and the key is to build up our world for when others are ready to join. Perhaps a body of people are not acting in the algorithmic way, the clowns relied upon them doing. But with the shift gathering pace, they may find it is they who are left behind, not the people.

Boris Johnson & Johnson, the only man who seems to comb his hair with a sticky candy or toffee apple, has now turned his hand to becoming a mystic, given he has warned that the UK could face a rough winter, as he refused to rule out more lockdowns in the future. The Prime Minister was asked by reporters if the country could face more lockdowns this winter and he said: You can never exclude that there will be some new disease, some new horror that we simply haven't budgeted for, or accounted for. Except the district he operates from has already done a budget and accounted for, as we will find out later. But looking at where we are, looking at the efficacy of the vaccines against all variants that we can currently see - so Alpha, Delta, the lot of them, Kappa - I think it's looking good for July 19 to be that terminus point. I think what the scientists are saying is that things like flu will come back this winter, we may have a rough winter for all sorts of reasons, and obviously there are big pressures on the NHS. All the more reason to reduce the number of Covid cases now, give the NHS the breathing space it needs to get on with dealing with all those other pressures, and we are certainly going to be putting in the investment to make sure that they can.

Given he mentioned kappa and was out of context, what is Kappa? well apart from alpha, delta and kappa being part of a secret alumni club operating from Universities, but the kappa has another meaning as well. A kappa river-child also known as kawatarō river-boy, komahiki, horse-puller, kawatora, river-tiger or suiko, water-tiger is an amphibious yōkai demon or imp found in traditional Japanese folklore. They are typically depicted as green, human-like beings with webbed hands and feet and a turtle-like carapace on their backs. A depression on its head, called its dish or sara, retains water, and if this is damaged or its liquid is lost either through spilling or drying up, the kappa is severely weakened. Kappa are usually seen as mischievous troublemakers or trickster figures. Their actions range from the comparatively minor, such as looking up women's kimono if they venture too near to water, to the outright malevolent, such as drowning people and animals, kidnapping children, raping women and at times eating human flesh. Though sometimes menacing, it may also behave amicably towards humans, not unlike a politician then.

The Palestinian Authority has cancelled a deal under which Israel was to give it at least one million Covid vaccines. The authority said the Pfizer jabs were too close to their expiry date. Earlier, Israel said it didn't need an ageing stock of vaccines and they were to be used to speed up the Palestinian vaccination programme. In return, the Palestinians were to give Israel a similar number of vaccines they are expecting from the Pfizer organisation later in the year. However, when the first batch of jabs from Israel arrived, Palestinian officials said they were even nearer their expiry date than expected. They said there wasn't enough time to use them, and that the deal was off. I am not being funny here, but if I was a Palestinian I wouldn't be taking anything off of that fake state, do you really think that state is interested in your health? it was stupid to agree with it in the first place.

President Joe Biden on Thursday signed a bill establishing Juneteenth, the date commemorating the end of slavery in the United States, as a federal holiday. Biden, in what he called “one of the greatest honors” of his presidency, signed the bill two days before Juneteenth itself, which is on June 19 each year. They never ended slavery at all, they just made whites slaves to look like the blacks position, the blacks thought then they were equal, yes, all slaves together in reality. One has to ponder over them creating this new holiday two days before the summer solstice, which we now all know as a ritualistic festival for the dark ones. But given the Inuits of the Arctic Circle have stated the sun rises 2 days earlier than it used to, is that why they shifted back 2 days? The clowns solar god who is a fake, is Ra.

Two US Supreme court cases and one Australian court with the rules for one and rules for another, a total non common sense approach. The Supreme Court on Thursday delivered a unanimous defeat to LGBT couples in a high-profile case, over whether Philadelphia could refuse to contract with a Roman Catholic adoption agency, that says its religious beliefs prevent it from working with same-sex foster parents. So much for the church being about all gods creations, at some point their fake program will collapse, likely by the next generation.

The Supreme Court reversed a lower-court ruling that had allowed six men to sue Nestle USA and Cargill, over claims they were trafficked as child slaves to farms in the West African nation of Ivory Coast that supply cocoa to the two giant food companies. If people are going to trafficking, perhaps they can start trafficking the children and grandchildren of the Supreme court, Nestle and Cargill CEO's first, maybe then they will realize what it means, and the damage and pain causes.

A court has fined 12 Australian media groups a total of A$1.1m (£600,000; $840,000) for their coverage of Cardinal George Pell's now-overturned conviction in a sexual abuse case. The outlets admitted to breaching a legal order in 2018, which banned them from reporting the verdict at the time. A judge rejected arguments that their news reports, which didn't name Pell were in the public interest. Who made that judge god? since when should judges decide what is best or not for the public? High falluting Cohens operating under the dark priesthood program, is not there to decide what the public can and not hear. Some of Australia's biggest media groups are among those fined. This includes Rupert Murdoch's News Corp, which was fined about A$430,000, for its reports on its site, The Daily Telegraph and other newspapers. Nine Entertainment which publishes The Age newspaper and owns Channel Nine, was fined over A$600,000 for its stories. The reporting ban enforced through a legal order was brought in at the start of Cardinal Pell's 2018 trial. It was to prevent the possibility of prejudice affecting a separate trial he was to face on other charges. yeah right. Under the suppression order, journalists were banned from reporting any detail of the sexual abuse case, including his conviction when it was ruled by a jury in December 2018. The cardinal had previously been one of the highest-ranking Vatican figures and a close adviser to the Pope. The High Court of Australia later overturned the guilty verdict against Cardinal Pell on appeal. Watch out for high profile takeover or mergers of the media giants, this is the precursor. Like the OSHA story recently, large fines leads to cor pirate takeovers.

Next three stories engages damage done against the people, but first a positive news piece. U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement Homeland Security Investigations announced the arrests of dozens of alleged child predators and said it had helped rescue 15 children in an international operation that involved more than 100 raids in a half-dozen countries last week. Between June 8 and 11, the HSI and counterparts in Brazil, Argentina, Paraguay, Panama and Ecuador conducted nearly simultaneous raids on suspected producers and distributors of "child sexual abuse material," or explicit content involving children that authorities call CSAM. Curious about HSI initials given earlier story on HSI USA INC. is Homeland Security Investigations running the Government, known as USA Inc?

The international charity Oxfam says it has dismissed three members of staff as a result of an independent investigation into allegations of abuses of power in the Democratic Republic of Congo. Oxfam said allegations were also upheld against a fourth person who is no longer an employee. The accusations included nepotism, bullying, sexual misconduct and failure to manage conflicts of interest. I apologize to everyone who has been hurt by these abuses of power and I hope the action we have taken demonstrates our resolve to tackle all forms of misconduct, Danny Sriskandarajah, Oxfam GB chief executive, said in a statement. We strongly encourage anyone who has concerns to report them, so we can hold those responsible for misconduct accountable. In 2018 Oxfam was accused of covering up claims that staff had been involved in sexual exploitation in Haiti. Tip of the iceberg that case, they along with the UN peace corps and other charities all have a long history of abuse of the native populace.

Mozambique's justice minister is to investigate reports that staff at a women's prison have been forcing inmates into prostitution. Anti-corruption organisation the Centre for Public Integrity (CIP) has revealed that for years prisoners from Ndlavela Women's Penitentiary in the capital, Maputo, have been taken to nearby guest houses to work as prostitutes for wealthy clients. The investigative undercover journalists spoke to current and former inmates who said they were forced to have sex several times a week. The victims said if they refused to comply they were beaten or punished with hard labour. One of the women told an investigator that she had ended up in hospital after being beaten and having water poured over her - this tactic of plunging people into cold or dirty water is used by the security forces. Other inmates spoke about wanting to take their own lives. "There were times when I went out for four days straight," an inmate said, adding that if she had not: "I wouldn't be here anymore." Borges Nhamirre, who coordinated the investigation, said their research showed this had been going on for 10 years. "It was like a formal business happening in jail, we do not understand how the board of the jail, the commanders could not notice that there is something very strange happening," he told the BBC's Newsday programme. He alleged that the prison guards were benefiting financially from the sexual exploitation and even advertised when there was a new inmate. "The payments go from $50 (£35) to $500 per woman, it depends on what they called the quality of the woman, much younger the more expensive it will be." The women also alleged they were also being sexually abused by the prison guards. Statistics from 2019 show that Ndlavela Women's Penitentiary had 125 inmates. The CIP has called for an independent commission of inquiry to be set up to look into their findings - to include the public prosecutor's office, MPs and human rights defence organisations. The systematic abuse of women in countries of color, ranging from Africa, the Middle East, West Asia and Central Asia is nothing short of a disgrace. Most of those people are religious, and yet treat women like 2nd class citizens and think they are their property and can do as they see fit. No you can't, and more work needs to be done within those countries to correct their archaic rules and laws that discriminates against women. Does your god tell you to treat women like a piece of meat? if not why do it, if your god approves or hasn't, then that god is a misogynistic bastard, pure and simple, and you need to replace it or him. Rape and other sexual abuses are rampant in those countries, and yet where are all the authorities addressing these matters? Men who control women are weak and spiritually underdeveloped, or just plain retarded. The question upon your life reviews will be how did you love? did you love as equals or non love and abuse? Because treating your woman as second class is not love - just saying.

COVID BS: As the CDC removes 150K deaths and side effects reaction from the VAERS SYSTEM

This was sent in by one of our members, maybe indicative. Astra (Sanskrit) = extraordinary weapon, Ze (Sanskrit) = both genders, Neca (Latin) = kill

UK deaths: Unvaccinated: $23 / 19,573 = 0.00117$, Fully vaccinated: $12 / 1,785 = 0.00672$ according to the official figures of the UK Govt, all of which means that the vaccinated are dying at 5.721 times higher than the non vaccinated, funny that.

A BBC report last week which we had in the show highlighted the rates of immunity of the said vaccines, and said one jab 33% the two jabs 80%. This week they flip flopped as people are noticing things more now, and they did a PR piece on why taking the jab improves your immunity. The latest figures are according to latest data from PHE, a single dose of vaccine reduces a person's chances of catching corona virus and needing hospital treatment by about 75%, even with Delta circulating in the UK. Among people who had received the recommended two doses, the chances of catching and being hospitalized by corona virus was reduced by more than 90%. Lies, it is 33 and 80%, utter clowns. no jabs, no pills and an occasional Paracetamol equals 99.97% immunity.

This article kind of confirms what we put in our Expose series last year, it states the corona virus vaccine is not a vaccine. What has always been a vaccine? It was always the pathogen itself, a microbe or virus that was killed or attenuated, that is, weakened, and it was introduced into the body in order to produce antibodies, the corona virus vaccine does not that have at all. It is part of the newest group of mRNA. Once inside a human cell, mRNA reprograms normal RNA / DNA, which begins to make another protein. That has nothing to do with traditional vaccines, it is an instrument of genetic influence, it is potentially a Gene weapon. Which has the potential to destroy humanity and leave the survivors as Genetically modified organisms. Following the unprecedented mRNA vaccine, the vaccinated will no longer be able to treat the symptoms of the vaccine in an additional way. Vaccinated people will have to come to terms with the consequences, because they can no longer be cured by simply removing toxins from the human body, as in a person with a genetic defect such as Down syndrome, Klinefelter syndrome, Turner syndrome, genetic heart failure, hemophilia, cystic fibrosis, Rett syndrome etc, because the genetic defect is forever according to a former Pfizer scientist now speaking out. This clearly means: if a symptom of vaccination develops after mRNA vaccination, neither I nor any other therapist can help you, because damage caused by vaccination will be genetically irreversible. Vaccination - weapons of genocide of the 21st century. Former Pfizer Chief Scientist Mike Yeedon has once again expressed his position that it is too late now to save those who have been injected with a substance publicly called "the Covid-19 vaccine." He encourages those who have not yet received the lethal injection to fight for their lives, those around them and the lives of their children. The internationally renowned immunologist goes on to describe a process that he says will kill the vast majority of people. Immediately after the first vaccination, about 0.8% of people die within two weeks. The average life expectancy of survivors will be a maximum of two years, but it also decreases with each new injection. He went onto say they are developing additional vaccines to cause deterioration in certain organs, including the heart, lungs and brain. After two decades at Pfizer, Professor Yeedon was familiar with the functions and research and development goals of pharmaceutical giant Pfizer, and states that the ultimate goal of the current "vaccination" regime can only be a massive demographic event that will make all world wars put together, look like child's play. He predicts that anyone who receives the injection will die prematurely, and three years is a generous estimate of how long they can survive.

This will come as no surprise to our listeners, but perhaps will shock many of the realization that all the chatter may well be true. Deadline: 12 Jul 2021 12:00 Concepts: Temporary body storage service, health and social buildings, local body storage capacity, temporary body storage, temporary body storage facilities, London boroughs, structural products, crematoriums and public conveniences, event of an excess deaths situation, local authorities. Location London: 1 buyer Westminster City Council London Description: The Authority seeks to procure a framework agreement for temporary body storage, in the event of an excess deaths situation for the 32 London boroughs and the City of London, led by Westminster City Council. The framework agreement will appoint a single provider and will be for a period of 4 years. This will be a contingency contract, only called upon in the event that an excess deaths situation arises in the future, and existing local body storage capacity needs to be augmented. The over-arching aim of this tender is to provide a single framework supplier, that will be able to provide temporary body storage facilities to house deceased in the event of an excess deaths situation. The deceased will be stored with dignity and respect, at locations to be determined based on local London needs at the time, and will require some design elements to accommodate local site conditions and constraints, while being capable of rapid deployment, construction and commissioning to an agreed standard. This framework will be procured by the Authority as the pan-London lead, but all London local authorities may call-off against the framework. This will be a contingency cover framework and as such, there is no minimum guarantee of any level of spend or call-off under the framework agreement. Total Quantity or Scope: The Authority will be hiring the structures and associated items, which will be decommissioned and removed at the end of the requirement. CPV Codes: 45215000 - Construction work for buildings relating to health and social services, for crematoriums and public conveniences. 44210000 - Structures and parts of structures Indicators: This is a one-off contract (no recurrence) Renewals are not available. They are the pirates of the sea who came on land, to create corporate pirate companies. I have revealed steadily in recent shows for peoples sensitivity about the possibility of mass die offs surrounding the Covid 19 vaccine. It is unpalatable for me and all our listeners, but the evidence begins to mount up. I have been informed privately that those with double doses have two to three years left, can I prove that 100% at this point? no, but the evidence begins to mount up. The pilots information last week warned of airlines having to use non vaccinated pilots as some are dying off, after they forced pilots to take injections. The Former Pfizer Chief Scientist Mike Yeedon mentioned in the last piece, has also warned it is too late for those vaccinated, and he believes they will die off within 2-3 years. This contract is to last 4 years for the potential of mass die offs, which coincidentally coincides with an increasingly mentioned dateline of 2025. I was made aware of that date 2025 back in 2014/15 time, that it was a key and significant time. This is all very concerning and disturbing to hear, but we are best being warned about the potential at this point of mass die offs. One hopes the NASA document being spread around the internet about 6-8 years back of only 100M Americans being left in, 2025, does not come to fruition. Whilst every sympathy will go out to those vaccinated and their families, I should remind you all at this point, that every person made their own free will choice, albeit in my opinion those vaccinated have immersed themselves in the Milgram experiment, which believes the authorities are always right and we should just follow orders. Because they made the free will choice on their own lives means, you are all free of guilt, blame or shame for their choices. We have all tried our utmost to inform them of the consequences, they chose themselves to ignore it, so no blame or guilt can be laid at your door, you did more than your best, we all did. Should that event unfold, perhaps now more than ever we have to build upon the TPC to create a new way for us all. The TPC is the only way of building a new platform for and by the people, regardless of numbers. I kept stating we all have to stick together, perhaps with this news and it's potential at this point, we are all we have and a must that we all combine resources with what we have, and a must we come together.

OTHER ITEMS: James Gustaf Edward Le Mesurier was the British co-founder of the White Helmets, a volunteer civil defence organisation in the Syrian Civil War, founded in southern Turkey in 2014. The epic establishment clean-up operation launched in the wake of James Le Mesurier's apparent suicide was effective in the short term, but determined digging by critical journalists means the scandal definitely isn't over yet. A Dutch newspaper, De Volkskrant, has published a stunning exclusive based on internal government emails, exposing how officials conspired to prevent a minister publicly raising concerns about fraudulent activity at Mayday Rescue, the now-defunct "humanitarian" organization behind Syria's highly controversial White Helmets. The internal communications show that, following the ever-mysterious demise of Helmets and Mayday founder James Le Mesurier in November 2019 in Istanbul, Sigrid Kaag, the Minister for Foreign Trade and Development Cooperation, planned to formally caution parliament about financial impropriety on Le Mesurier's part. Several draft statements were produced over the ensuing Christmas period, in which Mayday was openly named. Her anxieties were well-founded. On November 8, three days before his death, Le Mesurier openly confessed in an email to his organization's numerous international donors – of which the Netherlands had been but one – that he was guilty of misconduct and fraud, admitting to forging receipts to hide the disappearance of $50,000 in cash, paying himself and his wife Emma Winberg “excessive” salaries, and potential tax evasion, among other malfeasance. While claiming this wasn't intentional, he took full and sole responsibility, and warned against further investigation into Mayday's financial affairs, fearing that continued probing could expose yet more “mistakes and internal failures.” In the wake of his apparent suicide, Volkskrant reports that donor countries – who'd collectively committed in excess of $100 million to Le Mesurier's cause – convened a crisis meeting at the Dutch consulate in Istanbul, at which diplomats concluded the Netherlands was “extra vulnerable”, given all the funding it had provided to Mayday, and the organization having ostensibly been based on its soil, meaning millions in international payments had been processed through Dutch accounts. Funding from Amsterdam had nonetheless ceased in September 2018, after a Ministry of Foreign Affairs report outlined serious concerns about Mayday's financial practices, including a virtually total lack of oversight over, and even awareness of, how its money entered Syria, and precisely where it eventually ended up. However, top Netherlands State Department officials strongly disagreed with Kaag's proposal, arguing that if lawmakers were warned at all, it was best done confidentially, as if the allegations weren't in fact true, it could “unjustly harm” Mayday. First, in October, a fawning 6,000 word Guardian piece acquitted Le Mesurier on charges of fraud, being an agent of British intelligence, using the Helmets as a Trojan Horse for regime change in Syria, and affiliation with extremist groups. Russia and Syria consider the White Helmets a terrorist group. Mayday Rescue reported that between 2014 and 2018 it received funding of $127 million, $19 million of which came from non-government sources. What sort of non agency or clown based group receives $127M in 4 years, most of which came from Governments, which suggests as I mentioned 7 years ago, the White Helmets were not working for the people, just the system. The White Helmets pass themselves off as some rescue group of the people, but they are agency based people who started the issues to begin with, and once on the ground become reconnaissance and spies for the overlords, they are in essence a smaller version of the UN peace corps, which is an oxymoron if ever there was one, moron being the operative word and part.

The next 3 stories all come under the banner of anti white programs, being ran by the Hebrew Annunaki media, The Pentagon and other clown outlets. A Black man accused of wounding five people during three separate shootings in Georgia and Alabama told police he was targeting White men and the attacks were racially motivated, according to a recent report. Justin Tyran Roberts, the accused shooter, told police that White men had picked on him and wronged him for all his life, Columbus, Ga. Police Det. Brandon Lockhart testified during a preliminary hearing on Monday. Basically, he explained throughout his life, specifically white males had taken from him, and also what he described as military-looking white males had taken from him, Lockhart reportedly testified. Sounds like an MK Ultra Manchurian candidate to me, to carry out an assigned project they alongside the Pentagon are working on to denigrate all white men and Americans.

Early Saturday morning, a gunman shot and injured at least 19 people outside an Austin, Texas. Sixth Street in Austin, Texas, was crowded with post-Covid revelers on Friday night when a man described as black with a thin build and dreadlocks opened fire outside a bar. At least 13 people were taken to the hospital, of the 13 wounded, 11 were in stable condition with two critical. The suspect(s) remains at-large. It is unknown if there is one, or multiple suspects involved. There is one suspect described as a black male, with dreadlocks, wearing a black shirt and a skinny build. But the city's flagship newspaper, the Austin-American Statesman, is refusing to release the description of the suspect, a dangerous mass shooter who is still on the run, because it would be racist to do so. The political agenda against whites continues, and the cover up of black crimes not to appease the black people, but to run a Hebrew Annunaki program of the destruction of whites. The Austin American Statesman should be brought to task by the people of Texas, as this level of reporting has to stop.

Sen. Ted Cruz (R-Texas) slammed critical race theory during a speech Friday at the Faith and Freedom Coalition Road to Majority Conference, calling it bigoted. It is a lie, the Republican Texas senator said of critical race theory, which advances the idea that students should learn about how race and racism has affected American society in the past and present day. He described it as every bit as racist as a Klansmen in white sheets. Critical race theory says every white person is a racist, Cruz stated. Critical race theory says America is fundamentally racist and irredeemably racist. Critical race theory seeks to turn us against each other. He added, as a Christian and as an American, I love my brothers and sisters whatever skin color you are. Cruz is one of many Republican lawmakers and leaders who have criticized the theory, notably the teaching of it in schools. Supporters argue advancing the theory is important so that people understand how slavery, for example, has deeply affected U.S. society throughout history, and continues to do so today. More than 20 states, including Arizona, Arkansas and Texas, have enacted legislation to prevent it from being a part of the curriculum in public schools. This is the agenda we have warned about for some time, has little to do with color and slavery, if it did it would mention most slaves brought to America were white, and yet that is never mentioned. This is about creating racism, getting the people to hate on each other for something that took place many decades ago, it is the equivalent of shaming Germans that still goes on today, for something that happened before most Germans were even born. How can the modern day person be held responsible for crimes committed by other people? This is what the Pentagon are pushing with their videos stating all American whites are racist, and Americans are inherently evil, don't believe me do a search on it, we revealed it in a show around a month or so ago. All part of the Hebrew Annunaki plot to get the people fighting each other, and it is time people saw through it.

Finland is a nation state in the Nordic region of Europe. National Security The Finnish Police have stated that warrants are not needed for searches in cases of national security. The dreaded and misleading National Security statement rears it's head again. Nuclear Waste: The citizens of Finland voted to dispose of all their country's nuclear waste within the borders of Finland, not to export the problem elsewhere. As of 2010, only Finland had begun construction of a permanent storage facility for disposal of nuclear waste (at Onkalo); other countries had only temporary storage. Heavy Bilderbergs: Jaakko Itoniemi, Jorma Ollila - Shell chairman, Nokia CEO, Bilderberg steering committee, Johan Nykopp - 10 Bilderbergs. CIA party funding: When Uhro Kekkonen was president, the CIA invested considerably in the non-Kekkonen wing of his party, the Agrarian League, in 1962. The financial support would have been as much as a million dollars a great amount at the time. Kekkonen's too Soviet-friendly position was considered problematic by the CIA. In 2013, it was revealed that his advisors Max Jakobson and Johannes Virolainen supplied the American agency with information. Max Jakobson was born to, no matter which far flung country there is always a born to and CIA footprint. CIA money also flowed to the Social Democratic Party. It was easy to obtain because Väinö Leskinen's Brother's in arms movement which was still active in the early 1960s, and did anti-communist work in the workplace and in organizations. Support from the CIA was also encouraged by information about Soviet support for the Finnish Communist Party. It is estimated that the support was a tenth of the Social Democrats's budget. Receiving money from intelligence services was illegal, yet money was smuggled across borders, billed overprints were printed, lotteries and fundraisers were held, their income could then be mixed with cross-border support. Nice to know that the CIA will go to great lengths to give away the American peoples money, for their own political gain and programs. Director of the employer's association, Päiviö Hetemäki, for his part, maintained his own channel of communication for British intelligence, but there is little information about the content of the contact.

Over the past two years, the Chinese authorities have repeatedly promised to help trace any children reported to be missing in Xinjiang, to prove that they haven't been forcibly separated from their parents. Those promises have not been met. The first time China made a public promise to help find Kalbinur Tursan's children was in 2019. If you have people who have lost their children, you give me the names, said China's then-ambassador to the UK, Liu Xiaoming, who told the BBC in a live television interview in July that year. Mr Liu denied that China's policies in its far-western region of Xinjiang, could be leading to the large-scale separation of children from their parents but, he said, if we had any such evidence, he would investigate. We'll try to locate them and let you know who they are, what they're doing, he said. Out of sight, sweeping silently across China's vast western region, a campaign of mass-incarceration had already begun with a rapidly expanding network of what were, at first, highly secretive re-education camps. A parallel network of boarding schools was also being built with the same aim. The forced-assimilation of Xinjiang's Uyghurs, Kazakhs and other minority groups whose identity, culture and Islamic traditions were now seen as a threat by the ruling Communist Party. One policy paper published, made it clear that the purpose of such boarding schools was to break the influence of the religious atmosphere on children living at home. A harrowing tale and yet again throws the light on the folly of religion, what benefit do people get out of it, when it produces little to no reward. It is like working in a job for years with no pay, bit like working for The Trust actually, except you get tortured, bombed, shot at, dispelled and expelled from your homes. Does anyone ask, where is your god when all this is unfolding? again it's like the women story, where is their so called god in these matters, why is religion said to be beneficial to the people, the direct cause of some much pain, abuse, suffering, fear, guilt, shame and death. More people on this planet have been killed because of religion, at which point do we advance enough to walk away from it all, it has never served anyone any use whatsoever. This story ties into the next story whether people like this fact or not, it is ongoing and far more prevalent than your stomach or being would like to admit.

When investigators in Canada began looking into allegations of forced organ harvesting on a mass scale in China, one of the ways they gathered information was making phone calls to the hospitals involved posing as patients needing an organ. It was back in 2006 that former secretary of state David Kilgour and human rights lawyer David Matas, uncovered evidence that Falun Gong prisoners of conscience, were being killed on demand to supply China's organ transplant industry. A prisoner of conscience is anyone imprisoned because of their race, sexual orientation, religion, or political views. The term also refers to those who have been imprisoned or persecuted for the nonviolent expression of their conscientiously held beliefs. Is your religion worth that much to die and suffer for? does it give you love, happiness, protect your family, feed your children, get you jobs, protect you when the people with guns arrive, stop slavery, well does it? thinkdifferent. Their subsequent report, titled "Bloody Harvest: The Killing of Falun Gong for Their Organs," concluded that imprisoned Falun Gong practitioners were indeed being used to service a lucrative and burgeoning transplant industry. One of the many methods the researchers used in their investigation was to call the hospitals in China, where organ harvesting takes place, and speak to medical professionals, assuming the identity of a transplant patient or the relative of someone in need of an organ. In many cases, those they spoke to admitted that they were sourcing organs for transplant from Falun Gong practitioners. The following is a transcript of some of the recorded calls translated from Mandarin documented in the 2006 and 2016 reports as well as from the

China Organ Harvest Research Center. Zhongshan Hospital Organ Transplant Clinic, Shanghai, March 16, 2006: Investigator: So how long do I have to wait for organ transplant surgery? Doctor: About a week after you come Investigator: Is there the kind of organs that come from Falun Gong? I heard that they are very good. Doctor: All of ours are those types. Chen Qiang, a kidney source liaison at the People's Liberation Army Hospital No. 307 in Fengtai, Beijing, April 10, 2007: Investigator: By the way, how can you be so sure the source will be a Falun Gong practitioner? Can you find out for sure? Chen: How to identify a Falun Gong practitioner? Well, when the time comes, then our side, our boss will have people showing you information, you can be sure. We have connections with government officials, that will be the Koumintang and may not be the actual Government itself. There are connections to high-ranking officials, I will show you such material even if you don't ask me for it. Investigator: You know that several years ago, they secretly detained many Falun Gong practitioners who went to appeal, but did not provide their names, there were no records, no registrations. Chen: Yes, this is quite normal. If Falun Gong practitioners did not give their names, they would be given a code. If their names couldn't be identified, there would be their code numbers. Also, one can be tracked by fingerprints, like our boss, like the connections to the detention centers, I cannot say casually. We have close relationships with them. Since we are engaging in this business, we have our people in each and every department. How can you get things done if we don't have our connections? This thing is just like a supply line, you know? Investigator: The patient emphasizes that he wants the organ of the young and healthy, the best is from those who practice Falun Gong, will he have this kind of chance? Xu: Yes. Investigator: Her doctor told her that the kidney is quite good because the supplier practises Falun Gong. Song: Of course. We have all those who breathe and with a heartbeat. ... Up until now, for this year, we have had more than ten kidneys, more than ten such kidneys. Investigator: More than ten of this kind of kidneys? You mean live bodies? Song: Yes, it is so. Shanghai Ruijin Hospital, Oct. 25, 2006: Investigator: Do you use live kidneys for transplant? Doctor: Yes. Investigator: Well, we have a relative in Shenyang, he said that it seemed that there were fairly larger numbers of kidneys used over there and they were better in quality. He refers to that kind from Falun Gong, right? Do you use this kind as well. Doctor: Yes. Investigator: Wow, you use that kind as well. Doctor: Every hospital is the same. Investigator: We hope the kidney suppliers are alive, we're looking for live organ transplants from prisoners, for example, using living bodies from prisoners who practise Falun Gong. Is it possible? Official: It's not a problem. Dr. Cui: Don't underestimate this small hospital, we dedicate ourselves to specializing in this organ transplantation. I believe we have the largest source of kidneys in Shandong Province and perform the most transplants. We obtain our kidneys from sources throughout the country, the kidneys leave the donor's body in less than 24 hours, the quality is absolutely assured. Our hospital president obtains the kidneys himself and performs the surgeries personally. Do I really need to add to that exchange? not really unless you like a plethora of expletives. The lengths some people will go to obtain pieces of paper with numbers on, never ceases to astound and disgust me to the core. Yet again where are the authorities on this? yet again that is a rhetorical question, as I have told you all authorities connected to public welfare and well being are involved in crimes against humanity. The past 14 months has consigned all the medical industry now as a criminal network, time we built our own, lets pool our money and resources into the TPC and create our own medical centers without criminals, greed based people, as health care and caring should never be a profiteering venture for an advanced species.

The entire world has been subjected to a barrage of war-mongering propaganda against Syria by US Secretary of State John Kerry, but little known is the fact that Kerry's family name is Kohn and that he is, by Jewish definition and Israel's own immigration laws, a Jew. This fact puts the war-mongering by Kerry/Kohn into perspective, and also reveals just how deeply the Israeli/Zionist Supremacist tentacles run in the American government. According to the Israeli Haaretz newspaper, John Kerry's family are actually Jews whose surname was Kohn. His paternal grandfather Frederick A. Kerry, was born Fritz Kohn in a town in what today is the Czech Republic, before changing his name ahead of his immigration to the United States a century ago. Common sense question: does anyone ask why this race are allowed to change their name and identity to move to another country, that is not afforded to any other groups of people? In 1868, after the death of his first wife, he moved to Bennisch (today called Horni Benesov) and married Mathilde Frankel Kohn. Benedikt and Mathilde Kohn were two of the only 27 Jews living in Bennisch, which is listed as having a total population of 4,200, in 1880. Soon after Benedikt died in 1876, Mathilde moved to Vienna with her children Ida (7), Friedrich "Fritz" (3) and Otto (newborn). Fritz and Otto excelled in their studies in Vienna. Both Kohn brothers abandoned their Jewish heritage and converted to Roman Catholicism, another tactic they use to hide their identity just like the Donmeh in Iran, and the Spanish conquistadors that raided America and Central America. In addition, in 1897, Otto decided to shed the Jewish-sounding name of Kohn. He chose a new name by dropping a pencil on a map, the pencil landed on Ireland's County Kerry. In 1901, Fritz followed his brother's example and officially changed his name to Frederick Kerry. Fred, who worked as an accountant at his uncle's shoe factory, married Ida Loewe, a Jewish musician from Budapest. Ida was a descendant of Sinai Loew, a brother of Rabbi Judah Loew, the famous Kabbalist, philosopher and Talmudist known as the Maharal of Prague who some say invented the character of the Golem. Loew spelt LOEW means lion, hence the symbolism of the lion on all prominent el-ites family crests. The Maharal is the subject of the legend about the creation of a golem, a creature made out of clay to defend the Jews of the Prague Ghetto from antisemitic attacks, particularly the blood libel. He is said to have used mystical powers based on the esoteric knowledge of how God created Adam, their god is Lucifer - just saying, it was their Adam, not ours. What he did use was, dark magic, made out of clay is incorrect, it, the entity came out of the clay because the golem was non corporeal. A guess Lord of the Rings has a different meaning now. In 1905, the young family immigrated to America. After entering through Ellis Island, the family first lived in Chicago and then settled in Boston. Fred and Ida had two more children in America, Mildred (1910) and Richard (1915). Fred and Ida and their three children lived in Brookline, where Fred became a prominent man in the shoe business. In 1921, Fred Kerry, at age 48, entered a Boston hotel and shot himself in the head. Richard was six years old when his father committed suicide, he attended Phillips Academy, Yale University and Harvard Law School. Harvard and Yale are the breeding ground for the clowns and psychopaths. After serving in the U.S. Army Air Corps, Kerry worked in the U.S. Department of State and later the Foreign Service. He married Rosemary Forbes, the beneficiary of the Forbes family trusts. The Forbes family amassed a huge fortune in China trade, most likely opium. Richard and Rosemary had four children: Margery (1941), John (1943), Diana (1947) and Cameron (1950). John, a Massachusetts Senator, is the 2004 Democratic Nominee for President. Cameron, who married a Jewish woman and converted to Judaism in 1983, is a prominent Boston lawyer. Kerry was not the first U.S. Secretary of State to have a Jewish family past later in life. In 1997 it was revealed that Secretary of State Madeleine Albright, who was born in Prague, was actually Jewish, as if people seeing her visage could not tell that. Albright is more famous for telling the world during a television interview that the deaths of over half a million Iraqi children, caused by a US boycott of medical supplies, was “worth it.” In the past they could hide, name change and use codes, but now the world is watching, soon the whole world will be watching what these psychopaths are up to.

T: (We delve into the physical and non physical world with this piece, we are going to probe the mind and heart, unlike the greys who probe Uranus with Drakeycakes ET packages.) Where does the physical world come from? Matter at its smallest observable form, atoms, pop in and out of existence all the time. The idea that physical matter is birthed from a non physical realm, such as the quantum vacuum or the void, or something else we are unaware of is not novel. Nikola Tesla himself believed that all perceptible matter comes from a primary substance, or tenuity beyond conception, filling all space, the akasha, or luminiferous ether, which is acted upon by the life-giving Prana or creative force, calling into existence, in never-ending cycles all things and phenomena. T: (This physical matter going beyond the physical realm and into another realm, is observable when the human cells being to duplicate at the start of a humans' life. Cells disappear and then re-appear with double the number, is that your source spark, being created as one with one, which becomes one on one with the one. Question for the listener, given what has just been revealed have you determined this version of one on one with the one, who or what are the three components?) A paper published by Parahamsa Tewari in the journal Physics Essays explains, a century from now, it will be well known that: the vacuum of space which fills the universe is itself the real substratum of the universe. Vacuum in a circulating state becomes matter, the electron is the fundamental particle of matter and is a vortex of vacuum with a vacuum-less void at the center and it is dynamically stable. T: (The void is the singularity, it is the all and it is the nothing, depending on what is manifested there. All suns have a singularity, if you are able to stare at the sun for any length of time, you will see the void inside the sun as a little black dot.) The speed of light relative to vacuum is the maximum speed that nature has provided and is an inherent property of the vacuum, T: (that is actually not true, there is travel beyond the speed of light, as we advance as a species this will become common knowledge.) The vacuum is a subtle fluid unknown in material media; vacuum is mass-less, continuous, non viscous, and incompressible and is responsible for all the properties of matter; and that vacuum has always existed and will exist forever. Then scientists, engineers and philosophers will bend their heads in shame, knowing that modern science ignored the vacuum in our chase to discover reality for more than a century. This non-physical field may also be dark energy, we don't really know or understand it quite well, but we know it exists. T: (It is energy that has yet to manifest light, and why it is dark. You go into your unlit home late at night and it is total darkness, yet one flick of a switch changes all that. If you turn on multiple lights in the home, the dark void no longer exists. It could also be said that the dark energy field does not have the 7 primary matter contained within that space to generate life, which generates light.) A declassified Defense Intelligence Agency document touches on this, We do not understand why it exists or how it is created; we simply know it provides an ever-present force on spacetime, causing the universe to expand. Indeed, recent high-precision experimental observations indicate dark energy may be a cosmological vacuum energy. T: (Who says it is expanding? could it be the reverse effect of a railway line, because if you look down a railway line, to our vision, the track closes up, and yet it is the same width all along.) So, if our material world is birthed from this non material stuff, does consciousness play a factor? It's interesting to contemplate, especially given the fact that consciousness is not a physical thing, nor is it the result of any known physical process or biology. T: (Yet the non corporeal can engage in the physical, so why can't consciousness?) You cannot pinpoint or find the source of consciousness within the brain. T: (Because it is not in the brain is why, high levels of consciousness comes from the heart, which is where your soul/spirit package resides. The vessel itself is not the causal effect of the consciousness, it is the soul/spirit, which is multi-dimensional.) Even at the quantum level, factors associated with consciousness have been known to change the behavior of matter, like photons, suggesting that matter itself may be a conscious perceiving thing. Does this mean that all "physical" things possess some type of consciousness? Photons don't have a brain, do they? T: (Consciousness does change matter, why do scientists insist on relating these matters to the brain? You will not find the answers in there or using that organ to ascertain higher levels of knowledge. As long as they keep repeating mind over matter, their understanding will always fall short, how about using lets get to the heart of the matter instead?) What about plants? There is a growing amount of evidence suggesting that plants act and behave in ways suggesting that they are a thinking things, capable of feelings, emotions, perceptions and thoughts. T: (Really? it is a living thing and has many of the same attributes as we do, that is hierarchical arrogance to suggest that other living things don't have what we have. Have they asked why plants are nutritious to us? because they have the same life force energy is why.) If consciousness can have such an influence over matter, and is a non physical property that exists within all physical things, could it somehow be responsible for the creation of reality? T: That non physical property is the soul/spirit.) This has been a common theme discussed within the realms of quantum physics for quite some time. In fact, the discussion of ether, this non physical, indescribable stuff has been the subject of contemplation for thousands of years. Plato wrote about the ether in his work Phaedo, and explained how life exists within it. He believed what air is to us, the ether is to them. Is the ether alive? Is the universe itself, which could be primarily made up of this non-physical stuff, a conscious living entity? T: (Of course it is alive, what a strange question that is, if there was no life, there would be no suns, which we called stars twinkling in the night sky.) You cannot explain consciousness in terms of the existing fundamentals like space, time, mass, and charge. As a result, the logical thing to do is postulate whether consciousness itself is something fundamental to the existence of reality, to view consciousness itself as one of these fundamentals. T: (Consciousness is the manifestation of the thought, which can then determine how it manifests it terms of the physical or non physical.) Why do you insist the universe is not a conscious intelligence, when it gives birth to conscious intelligences? Cicero, c. 44 BCE

Another paper has emerged claiming that observers are responsible for determining physical reality, and that conscious observers themselves generate and create the structures of time and space. What's interesting to contemplate here is that, if this is true, it would include all observers within the universe itself, not just human observers. T: (Hence the term we use in our show, observe not absorb or immerse, an observer can then become the creator of reality depending on what levels of manifestation is available. For example an artist is an observer, and can then create the painting, but if the artist was in the canvas the same painting would not emerge.) It reminds me of the double slit experiment, where tiny bits of matter are shot through a slit forming what's called a wave pattern of probabilities and possibilities, but when an observer is introduced the wave function collapses. T: (Because the observer is altering the field with non physical influence is why.) One of the authors of the paper, Robert Lanza, said that observers can dramatically affect the behavior of observable quantities both at a microscopic and massive spatiotemporal scales. In fact, a profound shift in our ordinary everyday worldview is necessary. The world is not something that is formed outside of us, simply existing on its own. T: (Indeed, as this show has stated everything you need is internal, not external, that is the purpose of religion to make you believe everything is external. Observers ultimately define the structure of physical reality itself.) How does this work? Lanza contends that a network of observers is necessary and is inherent to the structure of reality. As he explains, observers you, me, and anyone else live in a quantum gravitational universe, and come up with a globally agreed-upon cognitive model of reality, by exchanging information about the properties of spacetime. For, once you measure something, Lanza writes, the wave of probability to measure the same value of the already probed physical quantity becomes localized or simply collapses. T: (Which makes the theory of the expanding Universe, completely mute.) That's how reality comes to be consistently real to us all. Once you keep measuring a quantity over and over, knowing the result of the first measurement, you will see the outcome to be the same, T: unless you went to Johns Hopkins math studies or common core.) The implications of this are and have always been quite large. The idea that consciousness itself is fundamental to reality suggests that it must have played an integral part in the creation of reality, that consciousness itself had to exist prior to the birth of physical material reality. T: (Yes it did, but the great question is, who or what started it? the religious will say god, non religious will say Source, but no one can answer who created god or Source?) One could go on and on contemplating things like: if consciousness is fundamental to the creation of physical matter, then what created consciousness itself? Where does consciousness itself originate from? Does existence itself even have a beginning? Can the future change the past, can the past change the future? T: (All good questions they formulate, yet surprisingly they will not go near the god conundrum in this discussion. Who knows, but the most important point to takeaway here is that consciousness itself is fundamental to the creation of our physical experience.) If we want to change the world, ultimately we have to change the way we think, feel and perceive. T: (Indeed and the essence behind this very show, THInk and act different, because when you do in a better way, you, life and your surroundings change, you manifested that with your thought form, which is consciousness. The key at this point in time and our development does not lie in the vessel understanding it, inside the vessel already knows and is awaiting for you in the physical to catch up. The key is not understanding it per se, the key is trusting in yourself, becoming one on one with yourself, leads to the one on one with one, understanding the mechanisms comes later.) This is a key factor that is directly intertwined with the type human experience we create for ourselves. This is why, perhaps, sometimes it seems that the greatest resource for powerful people, politicians and corporations is human consciousness itself. T: (No, they are spiritually devoid of higher level consciousness, which is why this planet is in a mess, aligned with the fact that the populace itself is too damn lazy to work on themselves, take personal responsibility, because if all do it, the darkness no longer prevails here.) If we ourselves determine what direction humanity heads simply by what we think and feel, just imagine what somebody could do if they could manipulate that aspect within us? The state of the world today, some might say, is chaotic, and that could be a direct result of the fact that the collective mind and heart is not in a state of coherence. You might say we are all over the place. We're separated by our beliefs and unable to come together in understanding and harmony. This collective state of being in turn will create a physical experience that reflects that, which is exactly what we are seeing today and have seen throughout human history. T: (Indeed. When all realize they are more powerful than they can imagine, things move, things change, and a new creation and creativity is born. Show me the way? I just did.) I will repeat again, you changing you for the better has just changed the world, when you understand it in terms of algorithms and the 6 degrees of separation, then you comprehend the change you just made. That ends the lazy minded thinking of, I am just one person what can I do, well that piece shatters your lazy savior based thinking, because it is clear we are all capable of being the change. A lot of people ask where all my knowledge is from, and I can give various answers to that question, but the answer lies within. Self mastery and the sword will lead to heart thinking, not brain thinking, something scientists and many other so called experts miss the obvious in my book. They are trying to shoehorn everything into the brain, why? because the brain is a software and can be manipulated, the heart can't. Once a degree of self mastery is attained, in comes the wisdom, the non reactionary thinking, and in steps the overview mind and thinking, which as that piece stated the importance of it, being the observer. The overview mind and thinking, will lead you to many more correct answers and decisions made, than the immersed thinking pattern, which can turn very quickly into hive mind thinking. now hive mind thinking does not necessarily have to be bad, because combining our PSI fields can have the same effect, and like the computer or the AI, it all depends on the programmers within the field, the programmer is each and every one of us that combines into a better way. Heart thinking leads to the question of intelligence, intelligence is a perception based on what field or fields you are intelligent in. Given there was zero mention of god in that scientific study paper and how consciousness creates matter, life form and reality, how can you be intelligent and yet follow the external god of religion? Some people will not like that statement, but over time, that statement will bear the truth to you. So intelligence is not the top of the tree for understanding or status, because another word goes beyond intelligence, intellect. Intellect supersedes intelligence by far, intelligence can be taught, intellect has to be earned. Intelligence is the mind, intellect is the heart. The answer to the question posed earlier of who or what is that version of one on one with the one? The answer is you, the soul/spirit package and Source, your next question is, who is you? It is another version of the power of 3, the great triality that supersedes the programmed duality. We are not 1's and zeroes, we are you, soul/spirit and Source, the power of 3 but when developed enough within yourselves, that power of 3, becomes the one.
