

THI-SHOW TRANSCRIPT 2021-09-09

Message to Colleen, THI is with you and always will be, stay strong with us all. Anyone else noticed yet that Insurance companies are adding a Covid insurance onto home Insurance premiums? My bill was an extra $400 to cover for Covid infections, did anyone ask whether that was required? Who authorized it? and with so many struggling with home costs now, will that lead to another foreclosure crisis? Mike Pompeo said, the United States must always stand with Taiwan and for freedom, anyone ask why we have to do that? all because you can intimidate another country with the warships again, ain't that right Mr. Pompeo? Since when has he or his ilk been interested in freedom in the people sense, what about your own countries freedoms that has steadily been eroded since the Patriot Act in modern times, but in reality since 1871. As the media at home and abroad ramps up attacks on Joe Biden, why? because their puppet boy can't perform in public any more and people are noticing it. Biden is no more to blame than the previous incumbent, politics is ran from the shadows as our shows have proven. As the twenty year anniversary day unfolds this week, a poignant reminder of how things are still having a negative effect on people in NY, still to this day. Nearly three-quarters of New York City's Fire Department workers who worked amongst the smoldering, toxic rubble at Ground Zero in lower Manhattan now have some sort of long-term illness linked to their service, according to a new report from the department's World Trade Center Health Program. Of more than 15,200 firefighters, paramedics and other FDNY workers, more than 11,300 had an illness certified under the guidelines of the federally backed program. Ranging from chronic acid reflux and minor breathing problems on the low end, to a broad spectrum of mental health problems to deadly lung ailments and lethal cancers. As of the end of March this year, 3,097 FDNY health program members had at least one 9/11-linked cancer, and hundreds of those people had multiple cancers. That grim statistic helps account for another one that is not in the report, nearly 250 firefighters have died since 9/11 of related diseases. The most common ailment is gastro-esophageal reflux disease, which nearly a half of firefighters and a quarter of EMTs suffered. That's followed by similar levels of upper and lower respiratory problems. The infamous World Trade Center cough, caused by the caustic dust and smoke from the imploded towers, which plagued more than half the responders in the year after the attacks, is now less than 10%. Similarly, chronic sore throats dropped from nearly two-thirds of the department's members to just under a quarter now. Members of the program who have a mental health problem as well as a physical illness report a poor quality of life. And while mental health has steadily improved since 9/11, more than a fifth of responders who were at Ground Zero on that morning still report depression, and around one in 10 have PTSD. One day the full truth of that day will be revealed, but I suspect the culprits that were involved in that from our own country, will be long dead.

Two stories from Australia complaining of the frankly Zionist Fascism ongoing over there, and bots just going along with it like lemmings or sheep in the slaughterhouse. In August 2020, while Australians were suffering through the first wave of covid-19 restrictions, a bill was passed through parliament to give authorities the ability to spy on, and even impersonate Australian's, without their knowledge and consent. This unprecedented legislation gives federal police spying powers, by their gaining access to social media and email accounts, where they can add and delete information, as well as send messages. All that is required is the suspicion of criminal activity. The proper safeguards recommended by the specially set up bipartisan joint committee were not legislated, and the bill was easily passed, thus giving authorities extraordinary powers to target individuals based on suspicion.

Well, this is what happens when you don't have a Second Amendment, this is what happens when you don't have a bill of rights. The hysterics over COVID here are unbearable, it's hyperbole on steroids. Anthony Fauci and his clown troop have peddled science fiction for months. While there's debate over ending forever wars, the lab coats want a forever pandemic. In Australia, that latter nightmare is already alive and well, we've seen the reports of teenagers and old people being tasered and pepper-sprayed for not abiding by the nation's COVID protocols. We're tasering you for your health, we're pepper-spraying you for your health. It's part of Australia's COVID zero policy which ensured a forever pandemic, a never-ending lockdown. And now, we have COVID concentration camps coming, it's come a full circle. BREAKING: A dedicated regional quarantine facility will be built at Wellcamp Airport near Toowoomba. As we contend with the dangerous Delta variant, we need fit-for-purpose quarantine facilities, said Queensland Premier Annastacia Palaszczuk August 26, 2021 That's why we've taken decisive action to build this new 1000-bed, dedicated facility under a joint agreement between the Palaszczuk Government and the landowner Wagner Corporation, who expects the first stage of the facility to be delivered for use by the end of 2021. Aussies are cheering their government building literal internment camps for COVID + individuals, said Jordan Schachtel August 26, 2021 Toowoomba is outside of Brisbane, and yes the locals were kept in the dark about the construction of this facility. Are locals upset that they weren't given a heads up? Sure, but there seems to be more of a fear that an outbreak could occur at the camp, rather than what these facilities could lead to in the future. #BREAKING: From September 13, NSW residents that are fully vaccinated against COVID-19 will be given new freedoms. Residents of hotspots can leave home for an hour of recreation on top of their exercise hour, while people in other areas can meet five others outdoors, Channel 9 News Sydney August 26, 2021. Keep an eye out, folks, you know Fauci, Biden, and the Democrats are just itching to enact an insane COVID agenda here. They want a nationwide vaccine mandate, they would be happy to sign off on a door-to-door forcible jab policy for sure. They can't right now due to Biden's fiasco in Afghanistan and the upcoming midterm elections. The lab coats want a forever pandemic, which is a shift in policy from the Military clowns wanting a forever war, the war is still on, but a different variety of it.

Which moves onto the next Zionist Fascist state, Canada. If an unvaccinated person catches Covid from someone who is vaccinated, boohoo, too bad, the front page of the Toronto Star read, in extremely large text. I have no empathy left for the willfully unvaccinated, let them die, the second statement blared, this time bolded. I honestly don't care if they die from Covid, not even a little bit. Unvaccinated patients do not deserve ICU beds, at this point who cares? Stick the unvaccinated in a tent outside and tend to them when the staff has time. Staggering headlines and right in your face, yet curiously it reveals the vaccine doesn't work if you are able to read it correctly. If an unvaccinated person catches Covid from someone who is vaccinated, it said. How can an unvaxxed person get Covid from someone who is vaxxed against it? duh!! HELLO MCFLY. So thanks to Toronto Star for proving further our case, and also revealing your dark intentions to not only Canadians who can think for themselves, but the rest of the world also.

Several Republican congressmen have accused Speaker of the House Nancy Pelosi of refusing to read the names of the service members killed in Afghanistan during the ISIS-k attack last week. This is the same Pelosi who wore Kente cloth and kneeled for 8 minutes and 46 seconds in the Capitol Visitor Center to honor George Floyd, a criminal who resisted arrest and died in police custody. Pelosi's action, or lack thereof, as this case may be, should be rebuked and condemned. We gaveled in, had a prayer, said the Pledge of Allegiance, took a moment of silence with pretty much all Republican veterans, then asked to be recognized to read names and bring up Afghanistan legislation, said Rep. Brian Mast of Florida. They did not acknowledge us, and just closed the House down. House Democrats just refused to recognize Republican veterans on the House Floor, to read the names of our fallen service members in Afghanistan, that's how far our nation has fallen, tweeted Rep. Greg Steube of Florida. How badly do Nancy Pelosi and the House Democrats want to cover up this Afghanistan debacle? They just blocked Members of Congress from reading the names of the service members who sacrificed their lives in Afghanistan last week. Don't you think our military deserves better? tweeted Rep. Carlos Gimenez of Florida. That guy used the right word, but not in the right context, so we will correct it. The soul diers were sacrificed for the fake gods again, and until Americans and any other countries with Military recognize that fact, your sons and daughters will always be used for sacrificial purposes. As for Pelosi, there appears no end to her levels of evil, almost as bad as Ann. For those new to the show, Ann is Hillary Clinton who died in September 2016, and was replaced by Ann, as in android, which is why she kept falling down the stairs.

To prove we are all in the same boat together, when it comes to truth or lies, status has no role anymore as this proves. Candace Owens was denied access to a COVID-19 testing center after the owner told her, she has pro-actively worked to make the pandemic worse. After Owens, who is unvaccinated, attempted to get tested for the disease in Aspen, Colorado, the owner of the testing facility, Suzanna Lee, told Owens she was going to refuse this booking and deny service, due to Owens's spreading misinformation, politicizing and discouraging the wearing of masks, and actively dissuading people from receiving life-saving vaccinations. Message to the jackass Suzanne Lee, Lee spelt LEE but could just as well be spelt LI, stupid bint.

Fox News contributor and former Arkansas governor Mike Huckabee said Biden is done as president if the media does their job, after a leaked phone call reportedly recorded him pressing the former Afghanistan president Ashraf Ghani, to change the perception that the Taliban was winning amid growing conflict. If journalists do their jobs, they cannot ignore this story, it is huge. But the question is, will they do their jobs? Or will they just look the other way in a manner in which they would never do, if this were not just Donald Trump and any Republican? So if they do their jobs, he's done, but they don't do their jobs and they do what they normally do, he probably rides it out. I don't want Biden impeached for the country because it's not a good thing for us, I don't like that. But I also don't like when a person has lied to us and left Americans stranded, and has shown little empathy whatsoever. Look, I think generals and secretaries of state should be held accountable, but nobody's been fired. Nobody's been held accountable, and we ought to be outraged that something so bad, so totally bungled could happen. Mr. Huckabee, in case you hadn't noticed it has always been that way. Journalists are paid agency lackeys reading scripts provided to them like children in a classroom. As for the accountability aspect, again there has never been accountability in any department connected to or from the Government, you should know, you were part of it. Ashraf Ghani lets see his timeline and connections shall we. Worked for the World Bank, worked for the UN, attended Harvard, worked for Johns Hopkins, has a US citizenship, he has a daughter Mariam, a Brooklyn-based visual artist, and a son, Tarek, who was a national security and foreign policy advisor to 2020 presidential candidate, Pete Buttigieg. When the country was in chaos guess where did he flee? the US Embassy and they escorted him safely away, whilst the people were left to face the mess. Ghani is a US agency puppet, that is now clear.

Remember I warned of the State Pension funds being looted in Britain and America, and eventually the shtf? A retirement specialist has warned State Pension in the UK is set to run out for millions of people this week. Figures from Just Group show State Pension shortfall day arrived on Monday, as Wales Online reports. This marks the point in the year when the average retired pensioner will have spent the equivalent of their annual State Pension. Official figures show the average annual spending for a single pensioner is £13,842, and the full State Pension amounts to an income of around £9,340, which represents a shortfall of £4,502. The retirement group warn that without additional sources of income, such as private pension provision, this group would have run out of income by Friday September 3. Speculation has been rife that the government may abandon the State Pension triple lock, the promise to raise the State Pension by the highest of three measures, the rise in Consumer Price Index, the rise in average earnings or 2.5%. However, analysis by Just Group reveals that even if the triple lock was implemented at 8%, pensioners would still face a shortfall of more than £3,500 every year in order for them to reach the average yearly spending in retirement. UK pension was $80B in the red around 2008 and we reported it on the show, I guess it is now crunch time not only in the UK, but America's Social Security also. Like I warned in Expose 1, now you know why they are killing off the elderly first, the clowns in Government and their string pullers have spent the bulk of the Pension money, and the lockdowns has increased the shortfall.

Ethiopia's 10-month war has come at a huge human cost, with thousands killed, millions displaced and many in desperate need of assistance. But that's not the only damage being done to Africa's second most populous nation, the war has incurred a huge economic cost, too, that could take years to repair. All by designed of the Israeli junta and their control of that country, given it was the site of the 4th Garden of Eden for the sub gray race. In the capital Addis Ababa, 26-year-old Tigist, who didn't want her full name to be used, says her monthly expenses have doubled for two reasons: the war that broke out in the northern region of Tigray in November and the corona virus pandemic. Before Covid and the conflict, I would pay 1,000 birr, about $22 or £16] each month for groceries, now I spend 2,000 birr, she says. Things are more expensive now, phones, food and clothes. Exactly, but part of the problem they have is using the word phone as the first issue, a phone is not an essential item, and that is where better thinking is required. Official statistics show the cost of basic consumer goods has indeed gone up in Ethiopia, they were on average around a quarter more expensive in July than a year earlier. Tigist is working as a supermarket cashier to support her family. She's responsible for the food shopping while her brother covers the rent. Also, the dollar exchange has not been good, last year, for $1 you would pay 35 birr, now you pay 45. Faisal Roble, a US-based analyst who specializes in the Horn of Africa, says that spending on the war effort has really negatively impacted Ethiopia's capacity to access dollars, and has caused the exchange rate to deteriorate. It is not clear how much the war has cost, but Trading Economics forecasts military expenditure will reach $502m (£365m) by the end of the year, up from $460m last year. Last week, UN secretary general Antonio Guterres said the conflict had drained over a billion dollars from the country's coffers. Yes, all to benefit the shekel people, and the greed based harvesters. Prior to the global pandemic and the war, Ethiopia's economy was one of the fastest-growing in the region, expanding by an average of 10% a year in the decade to 2019, according to the World Bank. So, the shekel people stepped in, to lower it and ensures they cream off of the top of it. Countries like Ethiopia are not under developed, they are over looted by greed based psychopaths.

Israeli Prime Minister Naftali Bennett presented President Biden in their meeting last week, with what Israeli officials described as a death by a thousand cuts strategy against Iran. Why it matters: Besides striking up a personal relationship, Bennett's primary goal in his first meeting with Biden was, to express his sense of urgency about the significant progress Iran was making in its nuclear program, and Israel's new government conducted an Iran policy review prior to the visit. Behind the scenes: The strategy Bennett presented to Biden involves countering Iran through a combination of many small actions across several fronts, both military and diplomatic, instead of a single dramatic strike, the Israeli officials said. Bennett compared the standoff between Israel and Iran today to the one between the U.S. and the Soviet Union during the Cold War. Except there was no stand off or Cold War, it was a program to create fear, make shekels and steal resources. The prime minister said Israel is the region's America and Iran is the Soviet Union with its corrupt and decaying regime, the official said. Except it was Israeli El-ites who created the Soviet Union with their puppets like Marx, Stalin, Lenin and Sverdlov, who was also a Jew, and has a descendant in the alt media circle, oh the dot connecting of that. Bennett told Biden the U.S. and Israel need to put Iran's regional aggression back in the box, in addition to its nuclear program. To that end, he asked Biden not to pull U.S. forces out of Iraq and Syria, the Israeli delegation felt optimistic about Biden's attitude on that front. Which reveals our soldiers are in Iraq and Syria for the Israeli war junta, and we are paying for that in terms of lives lost and economically. Israel can go and place it's own soul diers in there, given it is so important to them, and leave America and Americans out of it. Bennett also told Biden that he opposes a return to the 2015 nuclear deal, and that the effectiveness of the deal had faded, because of its looming sunset clauses and Iran's nuclear advances. Biden did not seem optimistic about the prospect of Iran returning to compliance with the deal, the officials said. Between the lines: Bennett was very happy with two things Biden said in his statements to the press during their meeting. First, Biden expanded on his previous statements that Iran wouldn't get a nuclear weapon on his watch, and said he was committed to Iran never obtaining a nuclear weapon. Unbeknown to Biden and other clowns masquerading as politicians, Iran already has nuclear weapons, because Israel gave them to them - duh!! Second, Biden said that if diplomacy with Iran fails, he is ready to explore other options, echoing Bennett's calls for a Plan B. What he's saying: Bennett told the Israeli traveling press that his meeting with Biden was "excellent" and that he felt like they had known each other for a long time. I found a leader who loves Israel, knows exactly what he wants and is attuned to our needs, Bennett said. Does anyone ask, why is Biden like all other Presidents including Trump, attuned to Israeli needs? What have they ever done beneficial for anyone else? Bennett expressed optimism on the prospect of cooperation on Iran, adding, we don't have much time, the Iranian issue is urgent and can't be postponed. What's next: Bennett invited

Biden to visit Israel once COVID-19 is under control. Teams from both sides will continue the discussions on Iran and other issues in the coming weeks. Israeli Prime Minister Naftali Bennett told President Biden in their meeting on Friday at the White House that although he is against a U.S. return to the 2015 nuclear deal with Iran, he isn't going to publicly campaign against it like his predecessor, Benjamin Netanyahu. Why it matters: Biden and his senior advisers are veterans of the intense confrontations between Netanyahu and former President Obama on Iran. Former U.S. ambassador to Israel Dan Shapiro has joined the State Department's Iran team as a senior adviser, a senior State Department official. Why it matters: Israel is pressing the Biden administration to start discussing a Plan B in case diplomacy with Iran fails. Which is all out war strikes and more costs to America, for no apparent benefit. Shapiro, who has a personal relationship with many Israeli officials, including Prime Minister Naftali Bennett, is equipped to play a key role in any such talks. His portfolio will be the regional aspects of the Iranian issue and coordination with Israel, Shapiro is born to, so no chance of adult level diplomatic discourse with that appointment.

More than 7 million out-of-work people across the United States are set to lose all of their jobless benefits this week as three federal programs expire on Monday, in what several experts described as one of the largest and most abrupt ends to government aid in U.S. history. In addition to the more than 7 million people who will lose all their benefits, nearly 3 million more people will lose a $300 weekly boost to their state unemployment benefits. The cessation of this jobless aid, first put in place by Congress nearly 18 months ago, could upend the lives of millions of Americans still struggling to find work at a time when, the pandemic's delta variant is wreaking fresh havoc across a number of states. That was a predictable ouroboros response, after their deliberate plan to put people out of work for their control agenda, they now find that many out of work are now waking up due to the extra time allowed to focus on things. So, the big appeal to get back to work is underway, but sadly many Americans don't seem to want to work, given a report recently of 11M job openings. Yes, the majority will not be paying high wages, but it is still a job and better than earning nothing.

The US economy added fewer jobs than expected in August as employment rose by 235,000. The figure was well down on the 1.05 million jobs created in July, adding to fears that the recovery from the pandemic may be running out of steam. Despite the disappointing hiring levels, the unemployment rate fell to 5.2% in August from 5.4% in July. Economists say rising infections caused by the Delta variant have hit spending on travel, tourism and hospitality. They also note that the Labor Department's data was collected in the second week of August, so does not reflect the impact of hurricanes Ida and Henri in the second half of the month. President Joe Biden said he was disappointed but defended his record on the economy, saying it was growing consistently. Actually Mr. Biden like your popularity it is going down, not growing consistently.

A judge ordered the rearrest of Doug Jensen, one of the protesters charged with entering the Capitol on January 6, after pretrial services officers made an unannounced visit to his home in Des Moines, Iowa, and found him watching an online discussion featuring MyPillow CEO Mike Lindell. On July 13, U.S. District Court Judge Timothy Kelly released Jensen, with strict conditions, including the prohibition of using the Internet and his cell phone. The judge said he released Jensen after the man told him he had had an epiphany and no longer believe in the controversial QAnon ideology. That is Zionist fascism, denying that person normal freedoms, so now they are saying we will jail you for watching the internet content they don't approve? What child level behavior that is.

POSITIVE NEWS: Recent news based figures finally suggest the people are turning off the lies and liars, that operate under the banner of MSM, but in reality land they are ran by psychopaths El-ites and agency goons. Total viewers for the respective news channels: Fox News: 3 million, MSNBC: 1.61 million, CNN: 785,000 oops, CIA news network are collapsing. In the 25-54 age demographic: Fox News: 499,000, MSNBC: 171,000, CNN: 155,000, oops CIANN failing again. Time for all to turn them off, use your parental guidelines on those channels and block them.

News from Holland, today there was the second largest peaceful demonstration since WW2 to protest against our government and their many mistakes such as the covid bs. Estimated people showing up today around 75,000 - 100,000 although Dutch public broadcasting says it's only 20,000 people, yes because they went to the Johns Hopkins school of fake maths as well.

A coalition of police and firefighters are suing Gov. Kate Brown over her mandate requiring COVID-19 vaccination for state workers. The lawsuit, filed in Jefferson County Circuit Court, says the plaintiffs are the Oregon Fraternal Order of Police along with troopers from around the state, and firefighters at the Kingsley Field Air National Guard Base in Klamath County. It names the governor and the state of Oregon as defendants. The group is asking a judge to declare Brown's executive order unenforceable, claiming it allegedly works against existing Oregon statutes and would result in wrongful termination of employees. The order, which was announced in August as Brown reinstated an indoor mask mandate amid a surge of COVID-19 cases, requires all executive branch employees with the state of Oregon to be fully vaccinated on or before Oct. 18, or six weeks after a vaccine receives full approval from the U.S. Food and Drug Administration.

While many large companies across the U.S. have announced that COVID-19 vaccines will be required for their employees to return to work in-person, there is one state where such requirements are banned: Montana. Under a new law passed by the state's Republican-controlled Legislature earlier this year, requiring vaccines as a condition for employment is deemed discrimination and a violation of the state's human rights laws. Montana is the only state in the U.S. with a law like this for private employers, said Hemi Tewarson, executive director of the National Academy for State Health Policy.

Here is an update from one of our members about the vaccine mandate at his workplace. On the Main page I've shared the email I sent to my Director to let him know where I stand re: the policy. Feel free to copy/paste and use if you feel it's relevant or helpful to you, it is Canadian focused. He and I discussed briefly and all is well as I work from home anyway, so I do not anticipate any issues for me. He asked if I would come to the office for team meetings, I said no if I am going to be discriminated against and reiterated that I do not consent to this overreach. The insidious nature of how they are rolling out these mandates in Canada is everything is so low key, polite and normal, people don't see they are seeing freedoms eroded, many in my company will feel coerced if they haven't already got the Vaxx. Our Medical Advisory Council just shares government info, and uses this as the source of truth to claim they have given us enough information for informed consent. The challenge is the lies start from the top down, and many people still trust that voice. So in short, I'm sure I'll be fine, I've declared my standing, have law and truth behind me and will manage myself according to my conscience and truth. I will also be available to people in my organization and friends if they need support to stand up for themselves. I'm working with 3 friends in other organizations stand up for themselves, learning who we are and from where our rights are derived is so important now. This is a spirit/mind battle first & foremost, and we see the results manifest in the physical. The challenge for many is the real work is done in the spirit/mind dimensions, and many are stuck in the physical reflection.

COVID BS Once the herd accepts mandatory vaccinations, it's game over. They will accept anything – forcible blood or organ donation for the greater good. We can genetically modify children and sterilize them for the greater good, control sheep minds and you control the herd. Vaccine makers stand to make billions, and many of you in this room are investors, it's a big win-win. We thin out the herd and the herd pays us for extermination services. Henry Kissinger WHO Speech, 2009

80% Of The COVID-19 Deaths In August Were Vaccinated People Confirmed The Public Health Data.

Australia is set to end its covid zero policy after Prime Minister Scott Morrison determined, that the country's approach is not sustainable in the face of the more infectious COVID-19 delta variant. Australia has maintained a strict policy of restrictions and lockdowns to stamp out any outbreak, but the government over the weekend laid out a new plan that marks a sharp change in policy. The government will drop most restrictions once 80% of adults are vaccinated, which the government believes could happen by the end of the year. That way they can get the bots to attack the self thinkers if the 80% is not achieved, divide and conquer again. Any further action would occur only after hospitals reached a point at which they could no longer cope with new cases, but will otherwise handle what they can.

Israeli data shows Pfizer's COVID-19 vaccine efficacy has dropped from a relative risk reduction of 95% during its early trials to just 39% by the end of July. So instead of revealing the jabs are a waste of time, like anti vaxxers warned from the beginning, now the Israeli government is pressuring citizens to take a third booster dose, saying its vaccine passports will expire after six months, for those who've only had two experimental shots. Israel's Green Pass demonstrating receipt of two doses of Pfizer's vaccine, which allows citizens to participate in ordinary activities including dining out, going to the gym, attending conference and entertainment venues, will now be linked to the timing of their last dose of vaccine or booster shot. We are updating what it means to be vaccinated, Israel's corona virus czar, Salman Zarka said, when something doesn't work just change the script or the name, an all too familiar sight with that group. Anyone ask why they use the term tsar for so called virus experts? Tsar, is a title used to designate East and South Slavic monarchs or supreme rulers of Eastern Europe, what has that got to do with medical clowns? This is simply because, in terms of its effectiveness, the vaccine is valid only for a period of five or six months, funny they didn't say that at the beginning of the trial. After about half a year, you have to get a third dose, otherwise, the vaccine loses its power, Health Minister Nitzan Horowitz said, really? Horowitz also said that his government was considering canceling citizens Green Passes, if they had not received a third dose of vaccine. The Green Pass testifies that a person is safe in a certain way, so that was wrong to give them out then, given the vaccines never worked, otherwise you wouldn't need a third dose. I know, I'm talking rare sense again as common sense is a dying trait in the old world. So the moment we know that the vaccine loses its effectiveness after a certain period, there's no justification for giving a Green Pass to someone who hasn't gotten another dose, Horowitz said. Spoken like the true Nazis they are.

The UK government just reported the following data, tucked away in their report on variants of concern: Less than a third of delta variant deaths are in the unvaccinated. Let me say that another way, two-thirds of Delta deaths in the UK are in the jabbed. To be specific: From the 1st of February to the 2nd of August, the UK recorded 742 Delta deaths, yes, the dreaded Delta has not taken that much life. Out of the 742 deaths, 402 were fully vaccinated, 79 had received one shot, only 253 were unvaccinated. Remember me warning several years ago these Jewish El-ites would kill off their so called own people for their walled caliphate? Try this. Countries around the world, as months pass since vaccinations, are experiencing a surge in vaccinated deaths and hospitalizations, 60% of hospitalizations in Israel are fully vaccinated patients. There has been a total of 5059 deaths related to Covid according to the UK official data, spread over 18 months. Yet Flu deaths in 2014/15 was 28330, flu deaths in 2015/16 was 11875, flu deaths in 2016/17 18009, flu deaths in 2017/18 26408, those deaths were in just England, not whole of the UK. Over the time period of "Covid" all doctors and statistical evidence show a dramatic decrease in flu deaths and infections. At which point do you jabbers smell the coffee? you/we have been duped.

293 million Covid vaccine doses ordered for Canadians, enough for nearly eight shots per year for everyone.

Mandate: an authoritative command especially : a formal order from a superior court or official to an inferior one. With more than 100 U.S. colleges mandating COVID vaccines for in-person attendance and schools enforcing mask mandates, it's critical people understand their rights. The bottom line is this: mandating products authorized for Emergency Use Authorization status, violates federal law as detailed in the following legal notifications. All COVID vaccines, COVID PCR and antigen tests, and masks are merely EUA-authorized, not approved or licensed, by the federal government, as long-term safety and efficacy have not been proven. EUA products are by definition experimental, which requires people be given the right to refuse them. Under the Nuremberg Code, the foundation of ethical medicine, no one may be coerced to participate in a medical experiment. Consent of the individual is absolutely essential. Earlier this year, Mary Holland, Children's Health Defense president and general counsel, and attorney Greg Glaser stated that federal law prohibits employers from mandating EUA COVID vaccines or EUA COVID-19 tests or masks. I checked out some boxes and packets of masks this week out of interest, do you know they say on the box not for medical purposes, oh dear. Holland and Glaser wrote: If a vaccine has been issued EUA by the FDA, it is not fully licensed and must be voluntary. A private party, such as an employer, school or hospital cannot circumvent the EUA law, which prohibits mandates. Indeed, the EUA law preventing mandates is so explicit that, there is only one precedent case regarding an attempt to mandate an EUA vaccine. What to do if your school or employer says you must get the COVID vaccine. The Children's Health Defense legal team has written three legal notifications that anyone faced with a COVID vaccine, COVID test or mask mandate can use to inform employers and universities that they are violating federal law. All of the notifications include this language: Federal law, Title 21 U.S.C. § 360bbb-3(e)(1)(A)(ii)(I-III) of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, states the following about products granted emergency authorization usage: Individuals to whom the product is administered are informed— (I) that the Secretary has authorized the emergency use of the product; (II) of the significant known and potential benefits and risks of such use, and of the extent to which such benefits and risks are unknown; and (III) of the option to accept or refuse administration of the product, of the consequences, if any, of refusing administration of the product, and of the alternatives to the product that are available and of their benefits and risks. Any entity or organization that requires EUA COVID-19 vaccinations, COVID-19 tests or masks are in violation of federal law, and will likely face lawsuits if they don't allow exemptions or alternatives. Submitting the notices prepared by Children's Health Defense is the first step prior to seeking an exemption or taking legal action. Vaccine exemption laws vary by state. Go to the National Vaccine Information Center to learn more about your state exemptions. It's critical to stand against mandates and preserve legally protected, fundamental human rights on issues related to health freedom. Don't fall prey to coercion and pressure, use the resources available to protect your legal rights. Mandate, Noun: c. 1500, a command, a judicial or legal order, from French mandat (15c.) and directly from Latin mandatum commission, command, order. Noun use of neuter past participle of mandare to order, commit to one's charge, literally to give into one's hand. Or is it to dare, man? Political sense of approval supposedly conferred by voters to the policies or slogans advocated by winners of an election is from 1796. League of Nations sense commission issued by the League authorizing a selected power to administer and develop a territory for a specified purpose, also used of the territory so specified is from 1919. Verb: 1620s, to command, from mandate (n.). meaning to delegate authority, permit to act on behalf of a group is from 1958; the question is, which group? Used earlier in the context of the League of Nations, to authorize a power to control a certain territory for some specified purpose. League of Nations was the precursor of the UN, so one can presume they play some role in it. Time for legal people to use another word, called countermand (v.) to revoke a command or order.

OTHER ITEMS: Arctic Sea Ice Extent has been holding exceptionally well during the 2021 summer melt season. Throughout August, higher volumes than usual have survived due to cold conditions and favorable wind patterns. As a result, Arctic Sea Ice Extent is now the highest in 8 years, and, if this year's trajectory continues for another week or two, which is expected, 2021 will achieve the healthiest since 2006. Only 2014, 2013, and 2009 remain in its way though the gap is narrowing fast. We exist in a orchestrated narrative of catastrophic global warming in which linearly rising temperatures are threatening to melt all the ice at the poles, flood cities, and wipe entire nations off the map turn. This is an existential threat to humanity, we're told daily, one which requires political intervention, higher taxes, and the further curtailing of our freedoms and the potential of climate lockdowns. So yes, in today's paradigm of phony temperature graphs and incessantly apocalyptic mainstream media publications, Arctic Sea Ice Extent is reaching its highest levels since 2006 is something to write home about. Such an uptick yet if we're to believe the science, it simply shouldn't be possible, the ice sheet was supposed to have been ice free by the summer of 2008, and then, when that date uneventfully passed, by 2012, and then by 2013, then 2015, then 2016, and now, there is an increase not decrease, oops. The Arctic is the poster child for global warming if it fails to melt, the IPCC hasn't a leg to stand on, particularly given the fact that the global average temperature has also refused to play ball in recent years, down some 0.7C since 2016. And all this is without even mentioning perhaps the largest spanner in the works, the goings-on at the South Pole, home to 90% of Earth's freshwater. Across the Southern Hemisphere, the ice trend has been one of growth for the past 40+ years since the satellite era. After a drop-off in 2015-2019, ice at the South Pole has rebounded strongly in 2020 and 2021, to the levels of some 3-decades ago, this reality maintains the trend of significant growth registered since 1979 of approx 1% per decade. The year really is a doozy, and is proving impossible for the AGW party to explain-away. In the 42 years of satellite data, Antarctic Sea Ice Extent in 2021 is the fifth highest on record, bested only by the exceptionally strong years of 2015, 2014, 2010, and 2006: As of Aug 8, there is enough extra ice to bury Central Park, New York City under 682 meters (2,238 feet) of ice, Central Park is 4 kilometers long and 0.8 kilometers wide, do the math, no not Johns Hopkins math, real math. I guess facts disturbs the fragile people who believes in the lies, here is an example of it.

Some people are so upset over climate change they are suffering from mental health concerns considered climate despair, a new Washington Post report said. Nice attempt to label and spell cast. The devastating and deadly Hurricane Ida has energized activists, including the Post, which published a lengthy piece that claims more people than ever could experience serious challenges to their mental health as a result of climate change. That is planting the seed of bs'ery. New methods for addressing these challenges are emerging in the United States, though some experts believe a surge in mental health issues related to climate change could overwhelm the system, leading them to consider how to radically remake it. The Post cited heat warnings, wildfires, and floods in recent years as proof of climate change, which is suddenly feeling a lot more real for many Americans who have not seen it up close until now, clinicians say, leading many to seek one-on-one therapy. If you need therapy for that you really are a sad and lost cause, perhaps those people need to take multiple doses of vaxx?

The thin line balance between doing what is best, and a totalitarian order comes into view with this piece. China's video game regulator has said, online gamers under the age of 18 will only be allowed to play for an hour on Fridays, weekends and holidays. The National Press and Publication Administration said that game-playing would be only allowed between 8pm to 9pm. It also instructed gaming companies to prevent children playing outside these times. Earlier this month a state media outlet branded online games spiritual opium. Inspections of online gaming companies will also increase, to check that the time limits are being enforced the regulator said. Earlier rules had limited children's online game-playing to 90 minutes per day, rising to three hours on holidays. The move reflects a long running concern about the impact of excessive gaming on the young. A month prior to the latest restrictions, an article claimed many teenagers had become addicted to online gaming and it was having a negative impact on them. I can't argue with the directive, as those video games are high level mind control, and also tools for profiling the levels of darkness within every person who plays them.

Suddenly the jackasses now say they caring for the children's health? news to me that, and just another excuse to target children. The effects of the pandemic have been blamed for exacerbating the mental health problems being faced by children, with the National Health Service (NHS) giving a record number of youngsters antidepressants. Figures revealed that last year saw prescriptions for antidepressants written for children aged five to 16 rise to 231,791, an increase of 22 per cent over five years. By age group, prescriptions issued to secondary school pupils aged 11 to 18 had risen by 23 per cent in that period, and almost as high was the increase in prescriptions to primary school children aged five to 11, which was 20 per cent, according to a report. The newspaper cited studies and mental health campaigners suggesting that corona virus lockdowns, and the related closure of schools could be increasing mental illness issues, on top of other factors already affecting children such as bullying, school pressure, and bereavement. Tom Madders from the charity YoungMinds told the newspaper: The pandemic has exacerbated these pressures, with many young people experiencing isolation, loneliness and worries about the future. I don't blame them being concerned but medication has never or rarely worked, kids watching so called grown ups acting stupid and child like has me concerned, never mind the children.

Here is something few Americans are aware of, even though it is on a National Treasure as they call it. Laus Deo praise be to god. For of him, and through him, and to him, are all things, to whom be glory for ever. Amen. Romans 11:36 I wonder how many Americans are familiar with that phrase? did you know it is placed on top of America's largest monument? It is inscribed on the top of the Washington monument, the 555ft tall obelisk. To the builders their god was Osiris, all obelisks are a reference to his penis, the Oval office opposite is a representation of the vagina and likely Isis. Laus Deo praise be to god, the great question is, which one?

EXPOSE 1: Peter Beinart's New York Times essay America Needs to Start Telling the Truth About Israel's Nukes earlier this month caused a firestorm. In it, Beinart noted how the prevalence of US lies of omission allow policymakers and politicians, to pretend Israel does not have nuclear weapons. This in turn generates the false narrative that Iran's nuclear program could initiate a Middle East nuclear arms race. Beinart laments how US deceptions about Israel's nuclear arsenal, undermine America's self-proclaimed status as a champion of non-proliferation. What Beinart did not appear to know until educated by Twitter users, is what machinery keeps the US in lockstep with Israeli so-called nuclear ambiguity and why it exists. Much has happened in the decades since President Richard Nixon first promised Israeli Prime Minister Golda Meier never to publicly discuss Israel's nuclear weapons. US Senators Stuart Symington and John Glenn learned that Israel with help from some proxies in the US in the 1960s, diverted enough US weapons grade uranium from the government contractor NUMEC to build a dozen bombs. NUMEC President at the time was Zalman Mordecai Shapiro, Shapiro born to and was a long-time Zionist, and his associate we covered previously Rafi Eitan., Shapiro also attended Johns Hopkins. Later U.S. Department of Energy records show that NUMEC had the largest highly enriched uranium inventory loss of all U.S. commercial sites, with a 269 kilograms (593 lb) inventory loss before 1968, and 76 kilograms (168 lb) thereafter. FBI also investigated and no charges were filed. Outraged that nothing was being done about it, the senators complicated presidential strategic ambiguity by amending US foreign assistance laws, to condition aid to nuclear weapons countries that were not signatories to the treaty on the non-proliferation of nuclear weapons. Israel and its US surrogates responded by lobbying incoming presidencies to ignore the law, and commit in writing to upholding nuclear ambiguity. In 2012 the Obama administration passed a gag regulation, forbidding any US federal agency employee or contractor from discussing Israel's nuclear weapons. The regulation severely restricts agency responses to Freedom of Information Act requests about Israel's nuclear weapons activities. For example, Israeli spymaster Rafel "Rafi" Eitan's covert operations team penetrated the NUMEC facility in 1968, the year of some of its most stunning losses. In closed briefings to top agency officials, CIA has never wavered in its conclusion that Israel, with the help of chemist Zalman Shapiro who ran the plant, diverted material to fuel Israel's nuclear weapons development. After Eitan died in March of 2019, a great deal of formerly classified information about his exploits against America, which included running Jonathan Pollard, should have become available since privacy claims no longer prevailed. However, the CIA's internal profile of Eitan, while mentioning his 1960 operation to kidnap Adolf Eichmann from Argentina and Jonathan Pollard, carefully redacts his NUMEC operation in the 1960s chronology. Why is such information continuing to receive protection? If multiple US government agencies reveal that the US has long known Israel has a nuclear weapons program, it raises uncomfortable questions about amount of foreign aid illegally delivered to Israel. Since Symington and Glenn became law, the US has transferred nearly a quarter of a trillion dollars in publicly known foreign assistance to Israel, and additional billions in covert assistance. One of the principal tasks of Israel's US lobby is delivering enough campaign contributions to US politicians that upholding the law remains unthinkable. This has been a winning strategy but also makes the power of Israel's surrogates in the US increasingly visible and the subject of scorn and derision. However, not even the continually lobby-maligned members of the squad have dared to uphold Symington & Glenn to block US aid to Israel, which they could easily do. Meanwhile, Israel and its surrogates have continued to feed Americans a rich banquet of justifications for attacking Iran, on the pretext that it is on the verge of introducing the very weapons to the Middle East that Israel deployed long ago. NUMEC is incorporated on December 31, 1956 in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania by Zalman M. Shapiro Nautilus nuclear submarine program chemist, Zionist Organization of America Pennsylvania chapter president, Leonard Pepkowitz Manhattan Project weapons physicist and Frederick Foerscher, all Jewish. Apollo Industry directors included Ivan J. Novick a future president of ZOA, David Lowenthal a refugee smuggler who also fought in Israel, and Elliott W. Finkel a former DOJ attorney dismissed over conflicts of interest. The US Army Corps of Engineers struggles to quietly clean NUMEC's toxic waste near Apollo, Pennsylvania with $170 million in taxpayer funding. Again all Jews, and not one Government or agency from Eisenhower to Carter dealt with clear breach of National Security, and operating in high level shenanigans and shipping dangerous chemicals and no one said anything. The great question is how and why?

EXPOSE 2: This is a supporting view of our expose of the Freemasons and I will add pieces to it for further understanding. According to the official history of Freemasonry, the origins of the brotherhood date back to 14th or 15th century stone masons and their building societies. This is the story everybody knows, too bad it's not true. The official history is nothing more than a cover-up story to hide the fact, that the origins of Freemasonry go way back to ancient history. Most importantly, it hides the fact that Freemasonry is a branch of the Cult of Aton. The theory that our fraternity had its origin in the building societies of the middle age is sufficiently disproved by our ritual itself, which has many features that are totally inconsistent with any such theory, and point to a far more remote era, although many things relating to operative masonry were no doubt then ingrafted on it." - Robert Hewitt Brown, 32nd degree mason. Masonry was derived from Egypt, and more specifically from the court of Pharaoh Akhenaton, Egypt's great rebel monotheist. It's not really that much of a secret, that Freemasonry has close ties to Judaism. The Masonic temples are called Solomon's temples, and the Masonic symbolism is full of references to Jewish history and traditions. But what is still somewhat of a secret, is how Judaism and Freemasonry are actually versions of Atonism, that is because Akhenaton was linked with the Hyksos kings. The Cult of Aton was kicked out of Egypt after the reign of pharaoh Akhenaton, but it did not die or disappear. It just re-branded itself as Judaism and later on to many other splinter factions. Among the expelled Jews was the elite priestly class, who were highly educated on occult knowledge in the mystery schools of Egypt. The members of this esoteric brotherhood were called the Gaonim, they were the keepers of the esoteric knowledge - just as Freemasons are today. What that reveals is, not the poor Israelites were kicked out of Egypt, but the sub gray priest class who created Akhenaton, who was a copy of Ra, they were not the Cult of Aton, but the Cult of Ra, and Akhenaton was playing the archetype role in the physical of the entity known as Ra. Atonism is still prevalent today and the army is an anagram of Aton, called NATO, which as we know is the private army of the modern day Cult of RA family, the Rothschild's. It's the Gaonim and their traditions the Freemasons originate to. Still wonder why the Masonic logo has the capital G? Yes, the masons claim the G stands for God or Great Architect, but that's the exoteric cover-up story to hide the true meaning. The enigmatic Masonic insignia G stands for the Gaonim or elite Atonist-Judites, who later disguised their order under the name Freemason. The Gaonim were made up of elite Pharisees and Sadducees, who worshiped female deities such as Asherah. Asherah was the consort of the Lord himself, Anu. The Pharisees and Sadducees we covered in FRWL, they are the Great Sanhedrin psychopaths. The Sadducees were falsely said to have ceased to exist after the Romans decimated Jerusalem in AD 70. However they simply went underground, and as the Gaonim and later Sabbatean's, they have been aligned with the Setian-Atonists for centuries. Setian Atonists, that is the god Set and Ra. Ordinary religious Judaism provides this occult sect with a perfect cover. According to Albert Pike the ithyphallic pillars Jachin and Boaz represent the two solstices of summer and winter, the globes represent the earth and celestial sphere. Jachin and Boaz are symbols of the first sacrifice temple, known as Solomon's. The black and white squares represent ignorance and knowledge, overworld and underworld. Knowledge has long been associated with light, the word knowledge comes from Gnosis. As we know, the god of knowledge is called sin, you see, to them knowledge is power and why they have these secret cults to hoard all the knowledge, except they have all been duped, as they were only given the knowledge that kept them in the dark also. The capital G is a sigil for occult knowledge and for the Gaonim, known as the Atonist Princes of Light. In their notion of reality, men are separated into those who are ignorant and those who are knowledgeable. The word Freemason is actually a word play, it comes from the Egyptian words Phre Massen, the children or brother of the Sun. Again, it's all about the Sun and the ancient Egyptian sun god Aton, which is a later version of Ra. We are informed by several distinguished writers that the word masonry is a corruption of the Greek word Mesouraneo which signifies I am in the midst of heaven, alluding to the sun, which, being in the midst of heaven, is the great source of light. Others derive it directly from the ancient Egyptian 'PHRE,' the sun, and 'MAS, a child: Phre Massen the children of the sun, or Sons of Light. The so-called but misnamed Jewish co-conspirators who directed the operations of the Roman Caesars and emperors, were Atonists. Specifically, they were leaders of the Order of Melchizedek or Akhenaton, which confirms what we have said about the Melchizedeks. They were Pharisees and Sadducees of high rank, and keepers of the so-called Oral Tradition allegedly delivered to their ancestors at Mount Sinai. This quorum of sorcerers were also known as the Gaonim, in order to conceal their identity they began using the term Freemason meaning Sons of the Sun, and the capitalized letter G found on Masonic iconography, refers to this super-secret Luciferian cabal. The Masonic square and compass are also of Egyptian origins. The compass represents the sky goddess Nut, and the square represents her counterpart earth god Geb. It's important to understand, that common Jews have nothing to do with the Gaonim, or as some call them, the Judites. If you blame the Jews for everything, I'm afraid you are barking at the wrong tree. It's also important to understand, that common low level Freemasons have nothing to do with them either. We're not talking about common people, we're talking about the El-ite, the people on the very apex of the power pyramid. The Gaonim have nothing in common with modern religious Jews, which again supports what we have been saying, those that say they are Jews, when they are not. Terms and appellations of this kind do not refer to the kind of sects or beliefs we might at first imagine. They refer to a caste of sorcerers descended from the corrupt solar cults or Luciferians of antiquity. Sorcerers are the dark magicians. Members of the British royal family are Judites, even though they belong to the Protestant religion, except there is no Protestant religion, that is an illusion and the divide and conquer game. Protestants were protesting Catholics against the Roman church, that somehow morphed into a divide and conquer tactic to generate more wars, particularly in Ireland. The Pope and his bishops and cardinals are likewise Judites, even though they belong to the Catholic religion. Perhaps now you will look closer at a political think tank right before our eyes yet we never understood its meaning, the term G7? Formerly G20 and various other numbers, all part of the same cult. Another name for the Gaonim is the Princes of Masonry, this is the name 33rd degree Freemason Albert Pike used in his famous book Morals and Dogma for Freemasons at the very top of the brotherhood. The three first degrees of Scottish Rite freemasonry, the most common rite are called the Blue Lodge. Interesting term the Blue Lodge, is that the color coded program again? Because if it is, it is related to the Extra Terrestrial variety and confirms much of the origin of this group. Most of these people are usually ordinary people who joined Freemasons with innocent motives, like personal spiritual growth or charity work. They do lots of good things to their community and are usually good decent people. But here's the trick, These good honest people will almost never rise to the top degrees. Why? Because the people at the top are cold, ruthless, corrupt and power hungry monsters who use the fraternity to their personal benefit. It's basically a club of psychopaths, who hand pick people from the lower degrees to join their club very selectively. They control who's in and who's out in their little brotherhood inside the brotherhood. The 33rd degree is by invite only, provide you have shown sufficient levels of evil and darkness along the way, in essence the levels are based on profiling. In his book Morals and Dogma, the 33rd degree Freemason Albert Pike wrote openly how the Masonic system is built to mislead and misguide the lower level masons, and how the people at the top the Princes of Masonry, are the only ones who know what's really going on. The Blue Degrees are, but the outer court or portico of the temple. Part of the symbols are displayed there to the initiate, but he is intentionally misled by false interpretations. It is not intended that he shall understand them, but it is intended that he shall imagine he understands them. The true explanation is reserved for the Adepts, the Princes of Masonry. In practice, these Princes of Masonry are the 32nd and 33rd degree masons are the movers and shakers of the world. Except unbeknown to them, they only got given information to keep them occupied, and none of them got anywhere near the right or highest information, it was all compartmentalized on steroids. Their symbol is the Masonic double-headed eagle, their motto of the 33rd degree is Ordo ab Chao, Order out of Chaos, by creating chaos, they keep things in order, in their order. The House of the Temple, the HQ of Scottish Rite Freemasonry and 33 pillars. The American eagle has 32 feathers on the left and 33 on the right. The City of London is a city state outside of the UK and the other 32 boroughs of London. Star of David, which is also the flag of Alpha Draconis has two triangles = 33. There is no political solution all bases of govt and oppositions are controlled, and one does not simply join the freemasons unless invited. The last third party was the anti freemason party, its members disappeared mysteriously, which was no surprise as it was set up by a mason to clean house. You will notice how all critical opposition questions, will be to reinforce the desired outcome. This systems biggest secret is they only have the authority you give them. It should be noted that Hitler banned the Freemasons in Germany, which with common sense would suggest he was not a part of their cult. Is it possible that, because he went against the system, he was denigrated as a world pariah? The truth is marching on.

EXPOSE 3: Last week we mentioned the term the farms and how they are subset camps for the CIA. Camp Peary is an approximately 9,000 acre U.S. military reservation in York County near Williamsburg, Virginia. Officially referred to as an Armed Forces Experimental Training Activity under the authority of the Department of Defense. Camp Peary hosts a covert CIA training facility known as The Farm, which is used to train officers of the CIA's Directorate of Operations, as well as those of the DIA's Defense Clandestine Service, among other intelligence entities. Camp Peary has a sister facility, The Point, located in Hertford, North Carolina. Camp Peary is named for Arctic explorer Rear Admiral Robert E. Peary. Porto Bello, the historic hunting lodge of Lord Dunmore, last royal governor of Virginia, is listed on the National Register of Historic Places and is located on the grounds of Camp Peary. Comprising 9,275 acres of land, of which about 8,000 acres are unimproved or only partially improved. The 100 acres Biglers Millpond occupies the site adjacent to the York River, but it has been closed to the public since 1951, and remains highly restricted to this day. The majority of Camp Peary falls within York County, though a small portion of the reservation near Skimino Creek at the western edge is located in James City County. During World War II, beginning in 1942, the United States Navy took over a large area on the north side of the Virginia Peninsula in York County, Virginia which became known as Camp Peary, initially for use as a Seabee training base. The Chesapeake and Ohio Railway (C&O) extended a spur track from its Richmond-Newport News main line tracks to the site from nearby Williamsburg, and established Magruder Station near the former unincorporated town of Magruder. As part of the process of converting the property to a military reservation, all residents of the entire towns of Magruder and Bigler's Mill had to vacate. The town of Magruder was a traditionally African-American community, established for freedmen after the American Civil War, it had been named for Confederate General John B. Magruder. A Civil War field hospital had occupied the site of Bigler's Mill near the York River. Although the graves in the church cemetery were not moved, many of the residents and the local Mount Gilead Baptist Church were relocated to the Grove community, located on U.S. Route 60 in adjacent James City County a few miles away. Where a number of displaced residents from an area near Lackey known simply as the Reservation, had earlier relocated under similar circumstances during World War I, when what is now the Naval Weapons Station Yorktown was created. At the outset of the War, the preliminary training of the Seabees had been carried out at Naval Training Stations across the country. That lasted a short period until boot training was consolidated at Camp Allen Virginia. Camp Allen was replaced by Camp Bradford which in turn was replaced by Camp Peary, they love their name changes, which means Hebrew Annunaki were involved. The initial Seabee recruits of WWII were men who built Boulder Dam, America's highways and New York City skyscrapers. At Naval Construction Training Center Peary, Seabees were taught basic military order, discipline, weaponry, stevedoring, and construction trades. The Camp opened in November 3rd of 1942 with the 36th CB the first to train there, while the first organized there was the 61st CB. Another 100,000 men would go through the camp before training there ceased in June of 1944. During that period the Seabees established over 60 trade schools on the base. In June of 1943 the dynamite and demolition school opened, some of its first graduates included the first six classes of Seabee volunteers for the Naval Combat Demolition Units. After June 1944 Seabee boot camp was moved to Camp Endicott, Quonset Point, Rhode Island. Base commander Capt. J.G. Ware had the idea to raise hogs on base so the recruits called the place Capt. Wares hog farm. Originally the hog yard was in the center of the camp, but the enlisted complained that the pigs were on high ground while they were in the mud. This got the hogs moved to a more obscure location, but still within the limits of the government reservation. A bulldozer numbered B-16 was used for clearing the feed troughs and transporting slop from the galley to the hog yard. According to an article in the St. Peterburg Times, one morning alone it moved 1,400 pounds of slop. It is from this history that base derives The Farm moniker used today. The farm was ran by pigs that were preceded by pigs, and treated "trainees" like pigs of the guinea variety.

German prisoners-of-war: Camp Peary's mission changed when a new need presented itself to the Navy. A portion of the land became a detention center for German prisoners of war in the United States. Many of them were Kriegsmarine crewmen from captured German U-boats, and from ships the Germans thought lost at sea with crews presumed dead, a bit like the American POW from Vietnam then. It was important to keep the German authorities unaware of their capture, since knowledge that they had survived would mean that secret code books and Enigma machines thought lost at sea, could also have been compromised. Learning that these men were being held as POWs, would almost certainly have caused the Germans to change the secret codes that had been broken by Allied codebreakers, thus, extra secrecy was necessary. Yeah right what utter drivel. Many of the former POWs stayed in Virginia and the United States after the war, and became naturalized as U.S. citizens, that was known as Operation Paperclip.

Post–World War II use: Vacated by the Navy in 1946, Camp Peary became a Virginia state forestry and game reserve for five years. A reservoir that had been built on the upper reaches of Queen's Creek, to supply the substantial fresh water needs of Camp Peary when it was a Seabee base, was divested to the City of Williamsburg. The Waller Mill Reservoir formed the basis for the city's Waller Mill Park, although the park is located north of the city limits in York County. A portion of the abandoned Chesapeake and Ohio Railway spur from the Peninsula Extension main line just east of near Ewell Station, to the base also built during World War II is now a recreational rail trail. Then, in 1951, the U.S. Navy returned to the property, securing the portion north of the highway, which was State Route 168 at the time, and announced it closed to the public, it has been that way ever since. In June 1961, two months after the Bay of Pigs Invasion, the Navy announced it was officially opening a new facility at Harvey Point base, in Hertford, North Carolina. A spokesman said that all four branches of the military would conduct testing and evaluation of various classified materials and equipment at the new site. He added that some of the training now being done at Camp Peary, Va., will be transferred to Harvey Point.

The Farm: Camp Peary is known as The Farm, a training facility run by the Central Intelligence Agency for the purpose of training CIA's clandestine officers, as well as officers of other organizations specializing in clandestine activities, such as the Defense Intelligence Agency. The existence of this facility is widely known but has never been formally acknowledged by the U.S. government. Access to Camp Peary is strictly controlled, and visitors to the installation are escorted at all times. The portion of the original World War II Seabee base north of Interstate 64 has been closed to the public since 1951. However, the roads and many structures of Magruder and Bigler's Mill are still there and many are occupied. An airport with a 5,000-foot runway was added to the facility near the site of Bigler's Mill. Flight records show that at least 11 aircraft that appear to be owned by CIA front companies, and are believed to have been used as rendition aircraft by the CIA under the guise of charter flights, have landed on this runway. Former CIA officer Bill Wagner attended a three-week interrogation course at The Farm in 1970. He claims it was the agency's premier course, and that volunteers played the role of interrogation subjects in order to be guaranteed seats in future classes, yes human guinea pigs on the farm for the cia-kars. Interrogators-in-training practiced techniques such as sleep deprivation, deliberately tainted food, and mock executions. According to Wagner, the course was dropped from the CIA training curriculum after the Watergate scandal, due to increased attention being paid to CIA practices.

We at THI have often focused on things that pertains to us, the I portion of us, that in the past has relied on not taking personal responsibility. It is all so comfortable to point fingers away, but too few pointed back at themselves, and a life of personal choices was cunningly snatched away for the convenience of no blame attached. Because if you don't take personal responsibility, someone will always do it for you, in particular the Government and EL-ites. The Governments these days are a cop out, for weak child like people, to not take responsibility for their own lives and of others. Let the Government fix it they cry, wail and rage at the latest incumbent, yet no one asks why don't you fix it? and out come the plethora of excuses, little me program, I'm too old, too infirm, disabled etc, you don't need me to tell you that has not worked for us. The reason why Governments are unaccountable, not serving the people and other complaints is, us. Yes us, plain and simple. We have a bizarre scenario now where families are turning on each other to defend a Government whose levels of incompetence are at epic levels. Does anyone ask why for example my sister would believe a TV screen and a set of animate caricatures in a box she has never met, and find them more viable and believable than her own brother? It is not just me though, it is all of us who listen to this show and many others, the sheer banality of it beggars belief, but it happens on a daily basis. The reason why the countries are in a mess is, us, because we have not taken enough personal responsibility. Because we have not cared enough, not supported each other enough, not cooperated with each other enough and allowed the few with rampant egos to dictate our lives, our thinking, our actions and now our liberties. That has to stop, the TPC blueprint is the way to cure all the ills of this country and the world, it is the antithesis of the clown operated world with show room dummy like people, who all follow the dark, death, harvesting and sacrifice script. At which point do people not see that? why don't they see that is the great question? The reason being is their world is filled with lies and illusion, and they are too weak to step away from it. Why did Kissinger say what he did earlier? because he can, because we allowed it and them to do so, ride roughshod over our lives, well enough is enough. I am seeing many people now fighting back against lockdowns, jabs and the easier issue, against masks, and finally we begin to see the masses arising from their slumber. Typical of humanity is the ability to react too late, life for far too many is reactive, not proactive. THI members will not be surprised at the current old world antics, we warned of it many years back, and many of you now "see", not just with your eyes, but your whole being. Some members this week commented to me that, THI is the only valid show left, reporting things as they are. I warned 5 years ago most of alt media was corrupted, it still is and in essence it is done for. Filled with compliant agency people who have been leveraged against for past crimes, or just bought off with shekels and titles, you all know the names. Whilst I take pride in what I have done with THI, great pride seeing so many of you seeing and the important part, changing your own lives for the better, the latter is the main legacy of THI, not the show content per se. The main difference of THI and other shows is, we focused on fixing us, not just pointing fingers away, that is the main difference. Do I take delight that people say I am the only show worth listening to? no, I find it sad, tremendously sad and also damning, that people after this long in the alt media who say they are awake, are deluding themselves on a mass scale. Chasing savior programs, Marvel characters, ET groups, 5D and new age programs, more technology and more lack of personal responsibility, that somehow these people they follow are all going to fix their lives for them. Well guess what? they are not, they never have and they never will, if that was the case their would be an endless list of names of the past who came and saved the people. Where is the evidence of such benevolent traits, be it in the past or the now? There was but a few in the past, but did the people protect them? no they never. The answer always was us, you, me and us, we are responsible for the world's ills, not the cabal, Illuminati, EL-ites, Black Sun, CIA, why? because despite being the majority in terms of numbers, we allowed the few to prosper at our expense. How many other shows will tell you that truth? none, why? they are too self serving, egotistical, fantasists and delusional. The cure is the TPC and some hard work done by yourself, and that is it, no if's, no but's, just the cold hard facts of real reality, not illusion. Personal responsibility for your own life, thoughts, healing, fixing and actions, and some will ask how can that be done, my answer is look around your fellow members, they did it, and so can you. The ability to critical think has been lost on this world, which is why nothing works anymore as I forecasted back on January 1st 2013. So, if nothing works anymore, why are people fighting to make the system work? lack of personal responsibility is why, and why so many are asking for normal to return. Normal? wells the fargo to that, we have all heard the atrocities, lies, death, darkness, sacrifice and greed of the old world, why in the name of Satan's portion would you wish to go back to that? A child level world wracked with bitterness, envy, hate, harvesting and division, all low vibrational aspects that served to keep us in the loop and the astral harvesting system. Fuck normal, new or otherwise, there is nothing normal about it, and the object is to create anew. That creating which is a key component to our species has to learn to flourish again, not inclusive of the old world and all it's failings. The old world is gone, let it go, let it go, let it go, our task is to build a new one, not maudlin over the failed old one. Our task is to create a new world based in our image, of true values in life, truth, honor and integrity. We can avoid the past thinking by replacing it with future thinking. Future thinking brings in the manifest ability, because that is sowing the seeds for you and our future. Future thinking brings up fears, traumas and shadow and inner work, the fear is the key component of why many people mainly outside of our group won't entertain it. Yet curiously, fear is a future based word, it is a predictive programming mind sets created by your own fears. Can you exist on fear? existing is not living so why keep that premise? A fear is just a reminder that you have not done future thinking and manifest enough. Future thinking erases fear, which then alters your future in your way, not theirs. It changes your path, it alters the algorithms, it puts you together with higher thinking like minded, removes you away from the pack whose role it is to keep you thinking in the past, and subsequently the false loop cycle. Do you like your current path? who can change your current path? if you are thinking someone outside of you, your wrong, the answer is you. If your fear having done that is, I feel lonely, there is not many of us, the answer to that is, you have you, you have the group, and you have the Universe to engage with, how can you feel lonely? You are just experiencing the pull back from the illusion of having everybody around you, but what if those around you weren't real to begin with? where were those people when you were going through your personal growth stage? did they help you? did they support or encourage you? the answer is and was an emphatic no. So, the conclusion is, they were never your people to begin with? They were a filler in the pie that just did not taste good or nourish you, convincing yourself otherwise is pure folly. People come into your life for a reason or season, determining which is your learning curve, the lifetime section in your life is also statistically an illusion, it is as rare as common sense nowadays. You can't replace internal love with external, you can't fix external without the internal fix, you won't see an external change until you deal with and promote internal change, you can't heal external of you if you haven't healed the internal of you. As you battle yourself with holding onto connections to the old world, remember the old world served no one. The old world created the fears, the traumas, the pains, the frustrations, the shadow and a loss of love, spirituality, perspective, common sense, you, and creativity for us all, why hold onto that? The new world is for the loving, the creativity spirit, freedom and joy, the key to finding that world and state of being is, you. All it takes is for you to let the old world go, and create anew by future thinking, deeper pondering and a desire to be the change. Visit your own personal video and your chain to the old Earth and let it go, let it go, let it go, recognize the pattern as it will repeat on other levels.
