

THI-SHOW TRANSCRIPT 2021-12-18

Well I got a break, but prefer to not have that type of break to be honest, but suspect it is what was needed as we have an important phase coming up now. It is vital all pay attention to it, particularly the end piece tonight, just maybe our time has arrived and lets see what we can do with it. What that entails or looks like will for now not be revealed for safety purposes, but this will be an important phase for us all in this group, and I want more to participate, this is your future that is at stake, and your time to be the change. If you haven't joined the Communal Gatherings yet, what are you waiting for? What has been interesting and encouraging is, as to how many in certain pockets of alt media, are almost en masse now thinking within a single thought form. I have to wait until Thursday to deliver what I have to say, but finding so many pieces now are thinking and running along the same thinking process. This is a major event in and of itself, as uniformity of thinking on a critical thinking level, will create a new resonant frequency the clowns cannot stop. This coming Wednesday December 22nd at 7.30PM EST we will be launching the TPC Promotional video live for the first time. All are invited to attend it, in fact all should attend given the vast amount of effort that has been put into this. Once released, I will ask all members to then participate by posting it in all groups that people are involved in around the internet, and lets highlight who we are, what we stand for and how people not only can join, but why they should be joining. It is up to you all to promote the video, maybe do a family xmas showing and ask your family members to join and contribute to what we are doing. This is about the TPC, not THI. Next Thursday's normal show will not go ahead as planned, instead it will be a pre Xmas special called FRWL 9 "The completion", it will be a very long show, it will be epic, it will be very detailed, it will bring clarity and hopefully will leave you all with solutions. There will be no need for questions following that show, it is bam in your face, it will also be a very interactive style show as well. The following Thursday December 30th show will be replaced with a one off end of year review show.

Another 4.4M Americans quit their jobs in September, eclipsing the 4.3M who quit in August, soon there will be no people left to run the country at this rate. And what is mask man and Pelosi doing about that? don't suppose they have a single contingency plan, should the whole country grind to a halt? Why would they change the habit of a lifetime and use some common sense? CIA hotels will be emptying out soon, with no staff to run them. What has been encouraging is, 4.5M new business start ups this year, I guess people have had enough of working for bosses. That will also make those people more independent, and if it continues, the authorities time of running us will be over. Two chilling examples of how the old bosses put everything before people came to light in the past week or so, one with deadly consequences. An Indian guy named Vishal Garg of better.com, wrong choice of company name because they are not better, decided to arrange a call with 900 staff and just fired them all, just like that, no warning, no consideration just out the door you go. Mr. Garg has now decided to take some time off due the alleged stress and abuse he received, one hopes all the staff walk out, and negotiate better conditions of employment for all staff, before they return. That was bad enough, but during a deadly tornado outbreak this week in Kentucky, it emerged that both the Amazon factory and Mayfield Candle Factory refused workers pleas to go home, in fact the candle makers said if you leave, you will be fired. Both factories were flattened and in both, people died, all for the sakes of pieces of papers with numbers on. An Amazon delivery driver was told she would be fired if she did not finish her deliveries and returned to the base during a tornado in Illinois- that killed six Amazon workers. The unnamed Amazon delivery driver shared the text message exchange from December 10 where her boss threatened that returning to the base would 'ultimately end with you not having a job come tomorrow morning. We need full teaching courses of relearning humanity is not based on pieces of papers with numbers on. Safety of people should always come before profits, those that don't, refuse to work for them. Putting peoples lives in danger that way for the sakes of more profits, shows just how far humanity has fallen, and we have much work to do, to get it back.

Following a number of high profile gaffes by so called Authorities this year, be nice if someone could do a montage of them. But the Aussie clown PM, decided in his wisdom to call the Australian vaccinated sheep this week, we have to herd the sheep through the gate he said. Indeed, thanks for validating the alt media Mr. Morrison, you over bloated sack of shit. How much more evidence do people need before they take back their power, and remove these arrogant, over bloated psychopaths from ruling over us.

Here is another example of proof of how these people really care, as Durham cathedral church bans parishioners without their mark of the beast stamp, better known as a passport. It is all in your face now, I told you all in 2020 onwards we would see and it is time all the religious people see through this Satanic illusion game, known as religion. Religion or is it regi lion, in other words the Lion King and the King of Judah again. Religion is an external control game designed to harvest your energy to off world entities, always was and always will be, until we the people shut it down, once and for all. Child fiddlers, traffickers, organ harvesting, mafias, an all round death cult, that has stolen our energy, in some cases souls and this is what you are worshipping? Perhaps that is one for the Positive Action group? The Christian denomination in America fell another 13% in the past decade, fastest rising category? non religion now at 30%, tick tock.

A mother from Leander, Texas, addressed the Leander school board this month, expressing her outrage about a book that contained sexually explicit material that her high school son was reading for class. Predictably the book was about a lawn boy working for Disney, supposedly for 9 and 10 year olds, and it spoke about 10 year olds sucking each others dicks repeatedly throughout the book. And this passes off as education? and what's worse is, the teachers gives these books out and don't think it is inherently wrong in any way? Teachers you have either lost your sense of morals and unfit to teach, or you are part of an agenda that encourages all children to be sexual, fulfilling the transgender and multi letter groups into encouraging pedophilia. Please don't tell me you were following orders, as that is a pathetic excuse, and a dereliction of duty to protect the children. Do you know who runs the education system in this country? the Israelis, the same people that run all the top porn industries. We don't want or need Israeli or Hebrew Anunnaki filth in our schools, trying to make us all as corrupt as them.

A New York school this week in freezing temperatures made the children sit outside on the cold grass to have their lunches. These people seriously don't care.

Here is a useful questionnaire for people. Why are doctors, nurses, politicians, teachers, clergy, police, military people, Popes, Royalty, celebrities and media people, all declared as in some way better than us? Where is the evidence of such that they are? Have doctors and nurses cured us? have politicians helped the people? have teachers taught our children well? would they recognize if they have or haven't? have religious people set a good example? have the police protected us or the system? do military people protect the country or our sons and daughters? what good has any Pope done for the people? ended poverty? What good have Royalty or celebrities ever done good for the people? When have the media ever told us the truth. So, what makes many people still think these alleged authorities are still better than us? your own lack of self worth, is the glue that holds those beliefs of illusion together. They prey on your own weakness, and excerpt fake authority over you, these people are not the authority, they are dark arts swindlers cheating a living at our expense.

A recent Dutch flight was halted on a runaway and the plane was boarded by armed Military and a man dragged off the flight. So, was he a terrorist people will cry, no he is a Covid criminal it seems. So, did he have Covid and was in danger of spreading it? no, he was tested before the flight and he never had Covid. Confused yet? will it turns out the Government has determined based on his travel history, he might some day get Covid, and so he is being forcibly detained in a Covid camp. In the event he may get it? What type of psychopath rhetoric is that? I know, lets arrest Biden and Pelosi as they are both potentially elderly alzheimers patients and may press the nuclear button. Lets arrest Boris Johnson & Johnson for being an upper class buffoon who could potentially start a Brexit war. Or lets arrest Anthony Fauci given he has worked with Aids viruses and could potentially pass it onto others. These are dangerous times on this planet, where all leaders are exhibiting mass psychosis on an unprecedented scale.

David Frum the Canadian American political commentator has called on hospitals to quietly kill off the unvaccinated, by triaging them out of medical help. This type of psychopathy is spreading globally, Frum you won't be surprised is another Jewish born evil psychopath.

Snake oil people work for both sides it seems, I have noticed an uptick in cures for the jabs, anti 5G gadgets and other assorted items being sold by fear within the alt media. No, surprise LF is involved in it, remember their $20K machines they were getting for everyone? another false promise. But Tank is now snake oil selling antidotes to jabs, which is utter rubbish, you have to remember before he was peddling lies on the RV he was a pharmaceutical peddling agent, the classic snake oil.

Facebook finally admits that their so-called fact-checkers are just opinion checkers. The truth came out in a court of law from a lawsuit filed against Facebook by journalist John Stossel. Facebook finally admitted in court that their fact-checkers are mere statements of opinion rather than factual assertions. It would appear that this has the potential to open up a massive lawsuit against Facebook, for all the people who had had their content taken down due to it being labeled as false by Facebook when in reality, it was just someone who disagreed with the information. I am less concerned about people who lost their Facebook page, and far more concerned of how many people were injured or killed by their non factual information. Zuckerberg and co should be charged with willful manslaughter, along with the BBC fact checkers, all of them should be charged. If you have to lie to make a point, perhaps the point shouldn't have been made to begin with. Maybe people in the UK can come up with all the names the BBC used as fact checkers, I outed a few in our shows, and charge them all accordingly.

Biden saying the poll ratings of him are misinformation, oh the irony. The truth is, he said the economy's growing more than it has at any time in close to 60 years. Yes, the Wall Street economy, not the public economy. The unemployment rate's down to 4.2%, it's going to go lower, in my view. How is that possible when 4.2M Americans a month are quitting their jobs Biden, are you running Johns Hopkins math as well? or common core? Seriously, he is a complete jackass. We do have inflation on things that, in fact, matter to people's lives. No shit sherlock, did your teleprompter tell you to say that? You know, when you show up at a gas station and it's $3.50 at your pump, although now because I took 50 billion — million barrels out of the Strategic Petroleum Reserve, the gasoline is down below $3 in many places. It's going to come down. It's going to move. It hasn't it is $3.59 to $3.79 on a recent trip I have just made, so you lie. And the barrels you took out of the Strategic Petroleum Reserve, you sold them to the great enemy, China. You complete and utter buffoon, these people wouldn't know the truth if it slapped them in the face, do the honorable thing now Biden and step down, and save not only Americans embarrassment, but the rest of the world also. A 79 year old incompetent and incoherent buffoon, who says he will run again in 2024, seriously, and stupid people will still vote for him, because he is a Democrat. If Satan himself came down and operated as Democrat, would you vote for him as well? It is banal and idiotic thinking, the last election should be the last of it's kind, and by 2024 we could have in place new elections of for and by the people, with no AIPAC interference, providing the people come together.

Here is a jackass of the week award to Richard D. Hansen a former US Navy Seal, exhibiting such staggering rhetoric against people who erroneously put their lives on the line for US Freedoms. And this how they get treated, treated like common criminals for the audacity of freedom of choice, of which this country allegedly stands upon, what utter bollox that is. Mr. Hansen said, the harshest punishments are likely to be reserved for personnel who are more blatant in their disobedience, such as by lobbying other troops to refuse the vaccine. That's undermining good order and discipline by encouraging other soldiers to disobey the order, he said. That gets at the heart of military organization, I can imagine a command might take a strict response to that to send a message to others. Order out of chaos? given he referenced it twice, but whose order Mr. Hansen? are you another jackass puppet following orders of death and stupidity, just like the Germans? In the case of the US Navy, an administrative message released on 13 October said that, active-duty personnel who are not fully vaccinated and do not have an exemption will be forced out of the service, after their case is sent to a newly established Covid Consolidation Disposition Authority or Covid Clown Demoralized Assholes. Additionally, a spokesman for the Chief of Naval Personnel said that sailors may have to repay bonuses, special pay, and some training costs if they refuse vaccinations. Utter scandalous behavior and this jackass needs to be fired immediately, speaking to men and women who put their lives on the line in that manner. Although Mr. Hansen thinks vaccine-related court martial's are unlikely, they can certainly happen under certain circumstances. A court-martial conviction is equivalent to a civilian felony conviction in a federal court or a state criminal court. If there are enough refusals, at some point it would not surprise me if that did happen to someone, he said. He should be court martialled and committed for treason against we the people and the soldiers. In fact given how your top brass really thinks of you, it is time all Military personnel stepped down and let the badges of dishonor pen pushers fight wars themselves.

White House Covid-19 clown and non expert Dr. Anthony Fauci criticized Fox News for staying quiet, after Fox Nation host Lara Logan compared him to sadistic Nazi doctor Josef Mengele earlier this week. Don't be so green Dr. Fauci, your lies have like Mengele killed many thousands of people. What I find striking, Chris, is how she gets no discipline whatsoever from the Fox network, how they can let her say that with no comment and no disciplinary action, I'm astounded by that. Touche Dr. Fauci Green.

Nearly a dozen iPhones associated with U.S. State Department employees were hacked, using spyware developed by Israel-based NSO Group, well I never. The attacks were carried out in the last several months by an unknown assailant on U.S. officials, either based in Uganda or focused on the country. The Washington Post and CNN also confirmed the intrusions. Previous reporting on NSO Group suggested that U.S. officials' phones may have been targeted using software developed by NSO Group, but Friday's report is the first to confirm successful breaches. As many as 11 U.S. diplomats received notices from Apple that they may have been targeted with the spyware. Apple began notifying potential targets around the world that they may have been targeted by the NSO Group software on Nov. 23, the same day the tech firm announced a lawsuit against NSO Group for allegedly violating its terms of service. NSO Group and another Israeli firm, Candiru, were added to the U.S. entity list on Nov. 3, after the U.S government accused the company of being used by foreign governments to maliciously target government officials, journalists, business people, activists, academics, and embassy workers. The designation prohibits most transfer of products between U.S. companies and the two firms. We have been reporting on this company and others in Tel Aviv for some time now, are the agencies saying they are incapable of dealing with a problem, until after an event? This what our tax dollars goes towards, paying them to spy and hijack us, yet no one in the corrupt Congress will take any actions.

Former US President Donald Trump has launched a scathing attack on his once-close ally, ex-Israeli leader Benjamin Netanyahu, accusing him of disloyalty. Mr. Trump said he was furious at Mr Netanyahu for the way he congratulated Joe Biden on his election victory, using an expletive towards him. He also said he believed he saved Israel from destruction. Mr Trump accused Mr Netanyahu of congratulating too quickly Mr Trump's successor Joe Biden on winning the 2020 US election. Mr Trump disputed the election result, though his claims were never upheld. The first person who congratulated Biden was Bibi Netanyahu, the man that I did more for than any other person I dealt with. Bibi could have stayed quiet, he has made a terrible mistake. He was very early, Mr Trump said. like earlier than most, I haven't spoken to him since, fuck him. Israelis don't give a shit about anyone Mr. Trump, you have learned what we already knew, you were a convenient dancing puppet for them. Now, it is ironic when you mention loyalty, given you showed none to us, and none to the American people either. Loyalty starts at home Mr. Trump, not some fake state pushing fake books and fake history. If loyalty also starts at home, you may want to look at that snake in law you have.

Remember I warned in the Clowns in panic show of job closures and shut downs? well the Covid scam gave them an excuse to escalate that plan. Walgreens closed several locations last month and CVS announced in November that it would be shuttering nearly 900 locations over the next three years. Kmart is continuing to wind down its operations by closing most of its remaining locations and leaving just six stores in the continental U.S. open by the end of the year, at its peak in 2002 it had 2100 stores.

So Jussie Smollet was found guilty, lets see what happens next. The crimes are a disgrace to humanity, fuelled by Jewish Elites money programs and Jewish Elite ran media, that have been running divisive programs on the people for last few years now. Smollet needs to cough up, who put him up to it? or face a longer jail sentence. Racial crime nowadays is almost as bad as being accused of sexual misconduct, which have led to many people being falsely arrested, based on victimhood people and revenge. A false sexual charge should carry the same sentence as those who did carry out the sexual attack. As, for Smollet he should also get the same sentence as a person committing a racial assault.

The New York of the early 1990s is back, and it's not just New York. Many of this country's biggest cities are going backwards in the same way the city of Philadelphia, who just set a new all-time record for murders. This is happening all over the country, Louisville, Kentucky, Tucson, Arizona and Columbus, Ohio have also set new murder records this year, and with just under two months left in 2021. Indianapolis has broken its criminal homicide record for the second consecutive year. Cook County, which includes Chicago, just surpassed a thousand homicides for the first time since 1994. What's the common thread linking all these cities? look at who's funding the prosecutors. In St. Louis, Circuit Attorney Kim Gardner's campaign, took more than $200,000 from a group backed by the billionaire George Soros. Soros knew what he was paying for, as Gardner was open about her desire to stop prosecuting crimes. Two years ago, Garner declared, we have to tear down the system, the system is going to do what it's going to do, and that is to cause harm. The system has caused harm by what is called mass incarceration. Gardner's followed through on that promise. Data from 2019 show that Gardner issued warrants for, just 23% of the cases brought by the St. Louis Police. Soros has also funded DA Larry Krasner in Philadelphia, Kim Fox in Chicago and George Gascon in LA. There are no campaign finance limits on these local elections, so Soros is free to spend millions on them, and he's not the only one doing it. Soros was Jewish again overlooked by not only MSM, but a majority of the corrupt alt media as well. It is my understanding that Soros died around late 2018-19 time, and it is his Foundation doing the damage. All of which reveals is, don't focus on the person or group, but the program running behind it.

The corrupt media are behind the last story as well, as they have been running divisive race rhetoric for 3/4 years now. Last year Americans had to run the gauntlet of destruction in their towns and cities, courtesy of Antifa, another funded by the Soros Foundation, and Black Lives Matter. Did the media report the wanton destruction as it happened? no, they played word salad deflection games. So it is curious to see how they reported another demonstration that took place recently. And straight off the bat came the racist language of the media, they said this. A group of white supremacists stormed through downtown Washington, D.C. on Saturday evening. Bearing American flags and mildly menacing plastic shields, while marching to the beat of a snare drum down the steps of the Lincoln Memorial. And chanting aggressively about their plans to reclaim America, their intended show of force stalled spectacularly when they lost their ride home. There was no reports of violence, no reports of fighting with police and no reports of graffiti or smashing up the town, funny they didn't report that, instead of making racist and threatening overtone statements. This is why people are turning them off in record numbers, your time of talking shit is coming to an end, tick tock.

This is an interesting piece from their perspective compared to ours, riddled with the usual fear porn we have heard thousands of times from NASA, and the biblical doom and gloom merchants. Not one event happened? why? because we have an ancient detection system that will deal with any incoming rocks, or other intended projectiles. An asteroid the size of the Eiffel Tower is headed toward Earth on Dec. 11, and this asteroid is potentially hazardous due to its size and proximity to Earth. The asteroid, called 4660 Nereus, originally discovered in 1982, is about 390 feet long and shaped like an egg. It will come within 2.5 million miles from Earth, which is 10 times farther away from the moon. Though this distance may seem vast, it isn't by cosmic standards, if the Nereus was closer to Earth, it could do some serious damage, and if my auntie had balls she would be my uncle. But, this is the closest this asteroid has been to Earth in a 20-year period. There have been several missions in the past targeting this asteroid because of the egg-shaped, size and orbital path around the sun, making it an ideal asteroid to visit. The Nereus may also contain nickel, iron and cobalt worth billions, which makes it a great asteroid to mine. Asteroid mining gained popularity in the early 2010s and now big players, like Blue Origin and SpaceX, have shown an interest in the field. This asteroid is worth $4.71 billion, according to Asterank, a database that monitors more than 600,000 asteroids. They can't work out how to fix global hunger, provide 2.3B people with a toilet, provide 1.3B with electricity, and over 50% of people with decent housing, but can work out the estimated gains of asteroids over 2.5M miles away, funny that.

If you were born after 2008 in New Zealand, you'll never, ever be allowed to buy a pack of cigarettes there. In new legislation expected to take hold next year, no cigarette or tobacco products will be available for people to purchase legally in the country. Jacinda with the hard on and his Nazi friends will no doubt be pleased at their next levels of Zionist Fascism. That means anyone who is 14 as of today will never be allowed to buy them in New Zealand. The four-year Smokefree Aotearoa 2025 Action Plan hopes to reduce rates of smoking for older people while completely banning sales for the younger population. We want to make sure young people never start smoking, so we will make it an offense to sell or supply smoked tobacco products to new cohorts of youth, said Verall in a statement. The move comes as New Zealand's health ministry pursues a large-scale crackdown on tobacco in the country. In April 2021, the country's parliament announced its goal of being smoke-free by 2025, aiming to slowly reduce, phase out, then entirely cut the prospect of smoking. There are already existing barriers to tobacco products in New Zealand, including high taxes and plain packaging on cigarettes. Clinical studies have shown that dramatically reducing nicotine levels in cigarettes makes it far easier for people to quit, said Verall in parliament. So the action plan will see New Zealand transition to low-nicotine cigarettes. This is a major change but it is based on clinical research and it is realistic, because with vapes widely available, there is a far less harmful option available for smokers who are addicted to nicotine. Message to all the youth in New Zealand, move out of that country and into a place where you freedoms and choices will be allowed. If all the youth leave the country, New Zealand will collapse like New York. Who will they impose their fascism on then? who will serve or pander to the EL-ites then? let them rot, and they will turn on each other. Draconian measures are not for we the people, the solution is simple, leave them behind and see how far the non smoking taxpayers will fare paying the increased taxes due to a loss of payers.

Do you know why they are panicking, because smokers have the lowest rates of Covid, and many are going back to it, that'll piss the Reps off. Cigarette sales in the US increased in 2020 for the first time in 20 years, according to a new report from the Federal Trade Commission. The country's largest cigarette manufacturers sold 203.7 billion cigarettes last year as the country grappled with stressors from the pandemic, up from 202.9 billion in 2019, the Tuesday FTC report said. Or could it be because smoking drastically reduces the chances of getting Covid, and several other diseases, like lung cancer, oops.

MEDICAL NEWS: So What With 108 FIFA Footballers And Coaches Passing In The Last 6 Months. We Now Have Confirmation According To ALPA - Airline Pilots Magazine. That Only 1 Pilot Died In 2019, that Only 6 Pilots Died In 2020 and incredibly 111 Have Died In The Last 9 Months. The great question is, could that be called A Pilot Program or an APP.

A panel of US experts has voted unanimously to recommend the Pfizer and Moderna Covid-19 vaccines over Johnson & Johnson's, which has been linked to deadly side effects. According to the US Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), a total of 57 J&J patients have developed a rare blood clot disorder. Nine people are known so far to have died: seven women and two men, and the rest. A total of 16 million US residents have received the single-dose J&J vaccine. Funny that we warned of it last year, and it takes the experts all this time to work it out.

For months, the Australian government has hastily imprisoned people, it deems to be a risk of contracting or infecting others with COVID-19, and forced them into isolation in state-sanctioned quarantine camps. According to 26-year-old Hayley Hodgson, who spent weeks in a quarantine camp despite the fact that she never tested positive for COVID-19, being locked up in this manner is like you're in a prison. It's horrible and a horrible feeling, you feel like you're in prison, you feel like you've done something wrong. It's inhumane what they're doing, you are so small, they just overpower you and you're literally nothing. It's like, you do what we say, or you're in trouble, we'll lock you up for longer. Yeah, they were even threatening me that if I was to do this again, we will extend your time in here. Hodgson reportedly moved from one end of the country in Melbourne to Darwin on the other end, to escape totalitarian COVID measures enacted by the Australian government, but quickly found herself as a prisoner in her state's quarantine camps, even though she did not have the virus. Australian officials first confronted her after one of her friends tested positive. Investigators found Hodgson by running her scooter license plate. They interrogated her and asked if she had been tested, since she was a close contact of the now-Covid-infected friends. Hodgson, who had yet to get a COVID test, lied and said she had already been swabbed. So then the police officers blocked my driveway, I walked out and I said, what's going on, are you guys testing me for Covid? what's happening? They said, no, you're getting taken away and you have no choice, you're going to Howard Springs. You either come with us now, and we'll put you in the back of the divvy van, or you can have a choice to get a COVID jab. I just said, I don't consent to this, I don't understand why I can't just self-isolate at home, like a lot of other people are doing. And they just said, we've just been told from higher up where to take you, and that's all that there is. Hodgson said she was told she would be released after testing negative for COVID-19, but when she arrived at the facility, she was escorted by figures in hazmat suits to a room where she would stay for 14 days with meal deliveries occurring just once daily. She was reportedly tested three separate times during her detention but was forced to stay in isolation. Hodgson said that when she tried to leave her cabin cell to walk outside, she was threatened with a $5,000 AUD fine for not wearing a face covering. The facility also reportedly offered her drugs such as Valium to calm her down. She has since lost her job at a store, which was on a casual basis. At no stage was she reminded of her rights or put in contact with a lawyer. Australian officials established the Howard Springs quarantine camp near Darwin last August, with the intent of imprisoning anyone, they believed to be possibly infected with Covid-19 and forcing them into isolation. Despite the fact that the Northern Territory where Howard is located has not seen a Covid death, the old mining camp-turned-unofficial prison can hold up to 2,000 people at one time. Just this week, Australian police recaptured three people who attempted to flee the Covid camp. The trio of escapees tried to jump the fence after testing negative for the virus one day prior. Just out and out Stazi tactics and the cops should be ashamed of themselves for carrying it out. I am not buying they are following orders shit, imprisoning people for no wrong doing is just plain wrong. Your status with the Australian people was bad enough, what happens when the people get angry? who do you think they will turn their ire against? the cops. Serve and protect the people or pay a heavy price further down the line, when the lawsuits start to mount up, do you still think following orders is the right thing to do? Cops, medical officials, doctors and nurses jabbers, care homes, media, school boards, fact checkers and politicians will all run the multi lawsuits racket when it unfolds, I suspect early next year.

The World Health Organization's office for Europe said Tuesday that children in the 5 to 14 age group now account for the highest rates of reported COVID-19 infection in the region. Yes, and anyone with common sense sees that ties in with them being jabbed, remember at the beginning of this scam, they said children were almost totally immune? WHO Europe regional director Dr. Hans Kluge also argued that vaccine mandates should be an absolute last resort, and said that COVID-19 deaths remain significantly below previous peaks. But he said that corona virus cases and deaths have more than doubled in the last two months, in the 53-country region stretching to central Asia. Which again is down to the vaccines.

Brazil's Supreme Court has opened an inquiry into comments made by President Jair Bolsonaro wrongly claiming that Covid-19 vaccines may increase the chance of contracting Aids. The comments, made during a social media livestream in October saw him temporarily banned from Facebook and YouTube under their fake news policies. Mr Bolsonaro has frequently cast doubt over the effectiveness of vaccines. He is already facing a separate inquiry into his handling of the pandemic. During the livestream on 24 October, Mr Bolsonaro claimed that reports suggest that, people who are fully vaccinated against Covid-19 are developing Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome (Aids) much faster than expected. The assertion has been strongly rejected by scientists and medical experts. The embattled president, who has refused to get vaccinated himself, has defended the comments and claimed that he was simply quoting from an article in a magazine. On Friday, Supreme Court Justice Alexandre de Moraes ruled that Mr Bolsonaro had used the modus operandi of mass dissemination schemes in social networks, which called for further investigation. Funny that because Facebook, Twitter, YT, Telegram, MSM and several other platforms are using the modus operandi of mass dissemination schemes, in favor of their cash cow and death jabs. Interesting people are now connecting the dots between the jabs and Aids, as Dr. Fauci was involved in the Aids research and jabs industry, is it connected? Well if you followed our Expose series last year, you bet it is.

On August 17th this year a Bloomberg born in and born to, headline was stated that, South Africa expects 4th wave of Covid 19 to start in early December and last for 75 days. Said to start on December 2nd, what magical prophecy that is. Which means the 4th wave ends on massacre sacrifice day, known as Valentines Day, how convenient. Should we expect lockdowns, which is actually Martial Law in between the said dates?

A Slovenian nurse walked out of her job this week with bottles of the vaccines to explain the codes on the bottles. We said last year bottles were designated for individuals by code, and this is what she revealed. Jab 1: placebo, saline Jab 2: MRNA Jab 3: MRNA and oncogene, which is a mutated gene, hence the gene therapy that triggers the development of cancer. People who receive it will develop soft tissue cancer within two years she said.

Dr Thomas Jendges, Head of the Chemnitz Clinic, committed suicide by jumping from the top of the clinic's building in Flemmingstrasse, Germany, according to Bild, he was 55 years old. The Doctor died on the spot from his injuries. He committed suicide because he said he no longer wants to be part of the Genocide happening vis the COVID-19 Vaccine. These are bio-warfare agents he said. He is also said to have described the vaccine in his letter as genocide and a crime against humanity. Hear hear Mr. Jendges, rest in peace but your efforts will not be in vain.

We conclude that the mRNA vacs dramatically increase inflammation on the endothelium (layer of cells lining the blood vessels) and T cell infiltration of cardiac muscle, and may account for the observations of increased thrombosis (clotting), cardiomyopathy, (a group of diseases that affect the heart muscle) and other vascular events following vaccination. A new study of 566 patients who received either the Pfizer or Moderna vaccines shows that signs of cardiovascular damage soared following the shots. The risk of heart attacks or other severe coronary problems more than doubled months after the vaccines were administered, based on changes in markers of inflammation and other cell damage. Patients had a 1 in 4 risk for severe problems after the vaccines, compared to 1 in 9 before.

Calgary freedom central has received number of reports this past week of nurses at the Alberta Children's Hospital, warning parents to not get the jabs. They said the hospital has seen a large influx of children suffering severe adverse reactions, and that the hospital is doing everything it can to keep it quiet and gag the staff. What type of society are we living in? staff need to walk out en masse, until the hospital comes clean.

But this whole ranking of stupidity virus has been that way from the off. PCR tests people claiming retard status, by spearing their own brains and standing there and watching it. Which then morphed into Covidiot, of acquiring a fake diseases given to them by the system, the power of thought does the rest. Remember this virus is magic, it has it's own watch, it's own measuring tape, it's own calendar and did something no medical expert has done in decades, and cured the flu. But, still the stupid believed. Then they lined up for idiot jabs, was told this was a miracle cure and all hail the pharma giants, one jab turned into two and we will return to normal, haha. But, then the deaths and injuries from the covidiot jabs began to ramp up, so they deciding they would go cryptic and use anagrams for the next variant of stupidity, this time it was called moronic. And still the Milgram Experiment people lined up. I remember that guy, you know that guy who gets things right a tiny bit, promising xmas lockdowns due to engineered surge, created by the vaccines themselves, well the UK and others have started. 2020 through 2021 will go down as the years the clowns showed just how stupid, gullible and child like the people are. There are no ifs or buts anymore, the only real variant amongst the masses is the variants or degrees of rank stupidity.

Did you know there are 45M laws in this country? Why do we need millions of laws, and do they increase our liberties? or do they have the opposite effect of shrinking them? At this pace how close do you think we are to a dictatorship form of government in the United States of America? The great question is, why haven't the religious complained about the laws? given their god only gave 10, isn't that by definition going against their god? Welcome to the lunatic asylum, again no one asked the obvious questions when attempting to live in another country, like why are they called Aliens? illegal or otherwise? Why are we seeking the asylum? are we all nuts? And the greatest question in relation to that is, how can you be illegal on your own planet? Those who would give up essential Liberty, to purchase a little temporary Safety, deserve neither Liberty nor Safety. I will add my own quote, those that will trade their own sanity for a bit of safety, end up losing both, and ultimately their lives as well, now that is stupid.

INTERESTING PIECES: Another event in India that literally defies belief is a group of students have been jailed for showing support to the Pakistan cricket team who had just beaten India. They were arrested and have been held in jail since October on charges of sedition, and no lawyer will represent them. That is blatant racism and should be stamped out by the good people of India and Pakistan, jailed for supporting a cricket team, deary me what is this world coming to. Will Biden sanction India for human rights abuses? suspect not given India is another Israeli puppet country.

As it emerges the latest great alt media hope and how he is fighting for the people, erm no. Robert F Kennedy has revealed quite a few good things for the alt media, but don't for one second think it is for our benefit. Kennedy and his wife arranged a party and asked all the guests to be jabbed, it has emerged. He, like the rest of his Irish mafia family is working for the Black Sun crew.

Corona and everything related is a name for a psychological information warfare program on the public. You have think of it as a Hollywood Movie Script for the public like most news in the media. It is fictional reality, and the news has become a commodity. Narratives are being sold and delusional masses not able to distinct between reality and fiction. So we have had Delta and now after a quick jump from Nu to Omicron, but what is interesting is, that delta and omicron is an anagram of media control. I guess our show fact is fiction and fiction is fact was along the right lines.

Us who are the great unvaccinated have not bought into the Pharmageddon from the start. But here is some more common sense, I see it is catching on not only in our group, but many others now. So, the great unjabbed never got involved, and subsequently were not that interested in going for PCR tests. So that means the not so great jabbed, all the new cases and the positive tests are all done by those who bought into the pro pagan da. Pharmageddon description, a Jewish Hebrew Annunaki medical conspiracy designed to kill and injure many people, and make lots of shekels. Whilst putting people in fear, rendering them comatose, oblivious to the obvious dangers, and prepared to give up their freedoms, lifestyles, jobs, businesses, friends and family members. Welcome to Pharmageddon, brought to you by psychotic greed based billionaires of a decidedly Jewish flavor. It is time we did a Passover of them, me thinks, and fed them to the pigs.

Here is some more common sense analysis. The last 12 months we have seen the Pharmageddon crew go to great lengths to cover up the facts that, their vaccines have caused heart inflammation, blood clots and indeed heart failure. Their solution to that niggling problem? introduce Omnicron. Which is said to cause, wait for it (DRUM ROLL) heart inflammation, blood clots and indeed heart failure. Pure genius by the clowns, sadly a vast majority of stupid bots will not see the connection or see through the illusion game they are playing.

The great question for the bots and their digital identities they are all so fond of is. Does your QR code stand for Quintessential Retard? or more up to date was Q a retard? 13 months on now from the last post, where is Q? the great peoples savior program, press your QR code to find out why.

Here is another of their engineered and pre planted stories to garner more sympathy, and continuously remind the public of the plight of only one group of people. A parenting campaign group has criticized the deeply inappropriate request from a school, for pupils to wear a yellow badge to show they are exempt from wearing a mask, with many making a comparison to the yellow stars forced upon Jewish people in Nazi-occupied Europe. You know why they did that assumption? because it has been brainwashed into them from all angles is why. Allison Pearson from The Telegraph had circulated last week excerpts of an email from the headmaster of Farringtons School in Chislehurst, Kent, advising parents that children who are exempt from wearing a mask in school should wear a yellow badge to identify themselves. Does this story make any sense? no? it's a program then, and time more and more people see it for what it is, a stealth guilt and shame program ran on the people, just like their churches have ran on the people for centuries. Same program, same people or entities is why.

China has reported its lowest birth rate since 1978: 8.52 births per 1,000 people in 2020, and these numbers are getting dangerously close to the death rate. According to National Bureau of Statistics, the death rate last year was 7.07 per 1,000 people. That means that the natural growth rate of the population is at a record low level of 1.45 compared to 3.32 in 2019. The birth rate has been in steady decline since 2016 after decades of family planning policies and the changing economic climate. According to census data released by China in spring, 12 million babies were born in 2020, the lowest number since 1961. With people aged 60 and over accounting for 18.8% of the 1.4 billion population, China faces a major problem of an aging population. Despite the recent decision to allow all couples to have a third child and other measures taken to increase birth rates, the Chinese authorities admit that an increasing number of Chinese people from all ethnic groups are choosing to marry late, and to have smaller families for economic and educational reasons. The number of marriage registrations dropped this year too to 814.3 per 10,000 couples. The next ten years will be a major turning point for my country's population to enter negative growth, warned He Dan, the director of the China Population Development and Research Center, in an article published earlier this year. Yet more evidence of the decline in births, yet they still peddle Johns Hopkins level maths of over 7.5B, the Jewish Chinese plan is working it seems.

I have covered several times about the North and South Pole not being as their science reveals. It seems science is now catching up again on this item, there have been a few of these recently, predictably they have no idea why, when one just has to use common sense to reveal a much bigger picture. One area in the Earth's atmosphere is proving that space is not as uniform as many believe, Humanity Unplugged show revealed that, without all primary matters, life cannot exist. There is an area which is around 250 miles above the North Pole has a funnel-shaped gap which opens up in the Earth's magnetic field every day at noon local time, when the Sun is at its highest point. That is the vortex as above so below we spoke about. Mostly, the magnetic field prevents any particles of the Sun reaching the planet, but the gap creates a space where solar winds interact with the planet's atmosphere causing issues for satellites and spacecrafts. Wrong, the magnetic field was the veil and was used like a faraday cage for those on and in the planet. Besides interfering with radio and GPS signals in the region, NASA scientists have also noticed that spacecrafts passing through the region, known as a polar cusp seem to slow down. Because time is not what we are led to believe either. NASA are trying to find the reason behind these strange occurrences. Mark Conder, CREX-2 principal investigator and physicist at the University of Alaska Fairbanks, said: At around 250 miles above Earth, spacecraft feel more drag, sort of like they've hit a speed bump. Indeed, because they are in the Earth grid vortex is why, the vortex puts out the inner sun and takes in from the outer sun and then creates the charged particles, we know as the Northern and Southern Lights.

The Annunaki toiling in the gold mines sparks mutiny. It was said in the past that Enki and Ninhursag created Primitive Workers through genetic manipulation of Ape woman, and they took over the manual chores of the Anunnaki. This is surrounding the myth that they created us, they never. But, this got me pondering deeply, genetic manipulation of Ape woman to create primitive workers in the mines. Is this the actual origin of the Neanderthal's? or other ape like species none of which ties directly to us, only shoehorned in to fit their narrative. Science have tried to find the missing link and still throw up rubbish of ape man, but ape man was not our or Source's creation, just the fake gods and the narcissistic traits.

The Great Vowel Shift was a series of changes in the pronunciation of the English language that took place primarily between 1400 and 1700, beginning in southern England and today having influenced effectively all dialects of English. Through this vowel shift, the pronunciation of all Middle English long vowels was changed. Some consonant sounds changed as well, particularly those that became silent, the term Great Vowel Shift is sometimes used to include these consonant changes. English spelling started being standardized in the 15th and 16th centuries, and the Great Vowel Shift is the major reason English spellings now often deviate considerably from how they represent pronunciations. The Great Vowel Shift was first studied by Otto Jespersen (1860–1943), a Danish linguist and Anglicist, who coined the term. The causes of the Great Vowel Shift have been a source of intense scholarly debate, and, as yet, there is no firm consensus. The greatest changes occurred during the 15th and 16th centuries. All of which coincides with the Crown Agent known as King James writing the bible of their story. Population migration: Some scholars have argued that the rapid migration of peoples from northern England to the southeast, following the Black Death caused a mixing of accents that forced a change in the standard London vernacular. Others argue that the influx of French loanwords was a major factor in the shift. Yet others assert that because of the increasing prestige of French pronunciations among the middle classes, perhaps related to the English aristocracy's switching from French to English around this time, a process of hypercorrection may have started a shift that unintentionally resulted in vowel pronunciations, that are inaccurate imitations of French pronunciations. An opposing theory states that the wars with France and general anti-French sentiments, caused hypercorrection deliberately to make English sound less like French. The main difference between the pronunciation of Middle English in the year 1400 and Modern English (Received Pronunciation) is in the value of the long vowels. Long vowels in Middle English had continental values, much like those in Italian and Standard German, in standard Modern English, they have entirely different pronunciations. The differing pronunciations of English vowel letters do not stem from the Great Shift as such, but because English spelling did not adapt to the changes. German had undergone vowel changes quite similar to the Great Shift in a slightly earlier period, but the spelling was changed accordingly, e.g. Middle High German bīzen → modern German beißen which means to bite. Indeed. This timeline shows the main vowel changes that occurred between late Middle English in the year 1400 and Received Pronunciation in the mid-20th century by using representative words. The Great Vowel Shift occurred in the lower half of the table, between 1400 and 1600–1700. The changes that happened after 1700 are not considered part of the Great Vowel Shift. Pronunciation is given in the International Phonetic Alphabet: Before the Great Vowel Shift, Middle English in Southern England had seven long vowels, i: e: ε: a: ɔ: o: u:. The vowels occurred in, for example, the words bite, meet, meat, mate, boat, boot, and out, respectively. All of which proves why we should never trust their translations, as it is all to fit a narrative of one group of said to be chosen people. But, the great question is, if the Jewish are the chosen people, why do so many of them live in abject poverty? Perhaps the PA group should ask Elie the Weasel that question?

This next section is all about money: If the stark reality about who pays the majority of taxes is not clear by now, this little analysis will bring it home. Our analysis of tax data for the 25 richest Americans quantifies just how unfair the system has become, by the end of 2018, the 25 were worth $1.1 trillion. For comparison, it would take 14.3 million ordinary American wage earners put together to equal that same amount of wealth. The personal federal tax bill for the top 25 in 2018 was $1.9 billion. The bill for the wage earners: $143 billion.

Poland's Prime Minister Mateusz Morawiecki said that starting in December, the government will cut tax on fuels and on energy, and will offer bonuses to hardest hit households next year to counter inflation, that has reached its highest level since 2001. Morawiecki said that the so-called anti-inflation shield will cost the government some 10 billion zlotys ($2.4 billion) while additional funds will come from spending cuts. Well I never, a clever politician doing something sensible and for the people. Something far more richer countries seem incapable of.

During an interview with EMeRgent Sea, Melissa Ciummei, a Northern Irish investor and researcher, discussed the economic impact of lockdowns, and what she believes are the real reasons why Governments are enforcing stringent measures across the world. Inflation is here and people need to prepare for it, she warned. Earlier this year, Ciummei released a video message, lauding the success of lockdowns in ruining global economies and livelihoods. Her video message went viral across social media. Ciummei's concerns are the economic aspects about events since the beginning of 2020, and this is the aspect where she has focused her research. In her interview she explained that things started to go wrong when the United States dollar, the reserve currency, came off the gold standard. In early August 1971 France sent a warship to New York harbor, with instructions to bring back its gold from the New York Federal Reserve Bank. On 15 August 1971, President Richard Nixon suspended convertibility of the US dollar into gold. This was the beginning of an era of fiat money. This enabled the United States to live beyond its means, through annual budget and trade deficits and a growing national debt. This debt-based system that was created, in truth, collapsed in 2008. That was because Marduk pulled the plug on them, we then saw the rise of the fake fiat money, and so double fake money called crypto coins. Bitcoin is the largest and most well-known cryptocurrency, but it wasn't the first attempt at a digital, decentralized currency. Earlier versions of crypto currency existed well over a decade before Bitcoin's first lines of code were written in 2009. First lines of code written in 2009, hmm what a coincidence. The cryptographer and computer scientist David Chaum is often credited with laying the intellectual and technological groundwork for Bitcoin. Chaum pioneered the blinding signature protocol as a way to encrypt information and data. He created electronic money company DigiCash in 1995, which utilized his privacy-protecting formula to establish one of the first forms of digital cash. David Chaum is born to, what another surprise that is, not! The Events of 2020/21 all should have happened really around then, but they managed to re-inflate the balloon. They managed to re-inflate the balloon using Quantitative Easing and the printing of money by Central Banks. There's an ability that they can create money out of nothing, and loan it to the government who pay them back with interest, Ciummei said. Erm, they have been doing that since the Federal Reserve started in 1913. In August 2019, there was an annual meeting of economists and bankers, at the Jackson Hole Economic Symposium, where they decided to go direct. One suspects that was the week we gave warnings on our show about August 15-17th that month. Looking back now, it is was clear the Trustee was not capable of stopping that event unfolding, or was complicit in it, only she knows those answers, but given she refuses to answer any questions of a valid nature, one suspects she will remain as a co-conspirator until full proof is garnered to we the people. In an article Summary – Going Direct Reset, John Titus wrote that at Jackson Hole, BlackRock instructed the Fed, to get money into wholesale and retail hands when the next downturn arrived, which as luck would have it, occurred less than a month later. This was, in its essence, BlackRock's going direct plan, and it anticipates exactly what the Fed began doing, quite successfully under the cover of the pandemic. The downturn Titus was referring to was, what Ciummei described as a crisis in the repo market. In the following month, October 2019, Event 201 was held. Event 201 was a pandemic simulation exercise hosted by the World Economic Forum for the world's elite. The reason Event 201 is so critical is because the simulation was so accurate, and there has been another simulation from the World Economic Forum in 2020, which was about cyber attacks. The current one, Cyber Polygon, is a cyberattack on the supply chain, have a look at the three simulations because they have quite a lot of accuracy in what they're reporting. Ciummei also discussed how money is created, what real money is, the difference between money and currency, hyperinflation and how you can protect your money and prepare yourself for what is to come. We have been fooled into believing that currency is money. People have this idea that, that's my money in the bank, it's not. Should that bank become insolvent, you will be given shares of an insolvent bank currency representing money. I warned of that in the first show of 2015, both the UK and America installed those plans in bills on January 1st 2015.

Expose: Nowadays, almost all money is created ex nihilo, out of thin air. It is not backed by gold or other such physical object, but simply entered into a ledger on computers. The following is a summary of a series of articles written by an anonymous investment banker. In its own words The Wizards of Money will take a critical look at the mechanics of the capital and debt markets, who makes the critical decisions that drive them, and how these markets then effect everybody's lives. Exactly How Does Money Get Created? Lets talk briefly about the actual mechanics of money creation. Money creation happens in two main ways; First the creation of base money, which is mostly physical currency notes, created by the Federal Reserve. The second money creation process involves checking account or deposit money created by the commercial banks, and which makes up most of the money supply. High Powered Money: Base money, also called high powered money, is created when the Federal Reserve performs what are known as Open Market Operations. In this process the Federal Reserve injects money by buying Government Securities, which then become debt owed by the government which is all passed onto the American Taxpayer to the Federal Reserve. Government Securities are IOU's, promises to payback the principal + interest at a given time, auctioned at the open market. And where does the Federal Reserve get this money to buy the government securities? Well, it just makes it up out of thin air. The Federal Reserve has no budget, quite simply because it doesn't need one, it invents money whenever it needs it. Formally speaking the FED has added securities to its assets, which it has paid for by creating a liability on itself in the form of bank reserve balances or Federal Reserve Notes. Bank reserve balances (FED accounts for public banks) and Federal Reserve Notes together form high powered money. In fact, almost all money we come by, has its basis in high powered money that the Federal Reserve invented at some time in the past. Most of this base money is currency in the form of Federal Reserve Notes. The Federal Reserve then creates a spurious liability on its balance sheet called Federal Reserve Notes outstanding, and in return gets an asset in the form of government securities, which the public must repay through the efforts of real work. Every time the Federal Reserve creates or extinguishes base money, the financial press and other mainstream media reports it as a Greenspan interest rate announcement. This is not technically correct but it does sound more palatable than saying, that the Federal Reserve just made some money up or just made some money disappear.

The Federal Open Market Committee (FOMC) The most important function of the Federal Open Market Committee (FOMC) is to increase or decrease the money supply. It does this by the deliberate and judicious buying and selling of securities on behalf of the twelve Federal Reserve banks. The F.O.M.C. can, without informing the government, the public, or the banks (its meetings are held in secret), increase or decrease the reserves of the banks. For example, if it wants the money supply to increase, it will buy government securities. If it wants the money supply to decrease, it will sell securities. The Federal Reserve banks can buy an unlimited amount of securities because they do not have to pay for the securities with anything. They pay for the securities by making bookkeeping entries in the member banks' reserve accounts. It is reasonable to conclude that the Federal Reserve System through the operations of the F.O.M.C. is in a position to control, to a large extent, the economic conditions of the country. As an example, In May 1975 the government paid out a rebate check of up to $200 to each individual who paid 1974 U.S. income taxes. And in June 1975, the government paid $50 to every recipient of Social Security Insurance, Supplemental Security Income or Railroad Retirement annuity or pension payments. The government officials paid out that money in order to increase the money supply in circulation, with the hope that these actions would increase the buying and selling of goods and services and thus create more jobs. One side effect of that action was that the government officials had to incur additional interest-bearing debts in order to make those payments. But what happened? About July 1, 1975, the prime interest rates began to increase. Between July 1 and August 8, 1975, the prime interest rates increased about one percent, from 6.75% on July 1 to 7.75% on August 8. The F.O.M.C. buys and sells securities in secret. It does not tell the public the amount of securities it buys and sells until weeks later. However, the people who understand what makes the interest rates go up or down can deduce what actions the F.O.M.C. has taken. When the interest rates increased in July 1975, we could conclude that the F.O.M.C. offered for sale on the open market enough securities to cause the price of the securities to decline. That act caused the interest rates to rise. We thus witnessed a situation in which government officials incurred an extra interest-bearing debt to increase the money supply in circulation, and at almost the same time the F.O.M.C. took action to decrease the money supply. Bank Credit: Once this base money is created, banks can create around 10 times this amount in checking accounts and other deposits. They do this by making loans to the non-bank public, and a corresponding amount of checking account money is created for each new loan. So most money is created just by bankers writing some new numbers on a piece of paper, or these days, entering some new bits and bytes in computers, since money is really now just a bunch of computer records. This means that when you go to borrow money to buy a house or car, the money is really being created out of thin air by the bank, and being credited to the checking account of the seller. The bank has a distinct advantage in all this just by being a bank. For if you can't pay the loan through your hard work, they automatically get the house, and all they did was write some numbers into the computer! From the bank's perspective however, if you don't pay off the loan, they would have to write down their asset (i.e. your loan) and this would effect the earnings they report. If lots of people did this the bank could go belly up. So you can see why they want to keep the house if you don't pay your loan, they are taking a financial risk too, albeit one created completely out of thin air. For What Purposes Money Is Created? It is only bank managers and the Open Markets Committee of the Federal Reserve Board that decide how much money gets created, and importantly, for what purposes money should be created. These decisions are all entirely closed to public input. Decisions on making new money will be based on whether a lender can repay and how much interest the lender can bring in, which is what creates bank profits. This means most money will be created to lend to people that already have lots of previously created money, and lots of advantages in life. Disadvantaged people will often be denied access to the money creating process, except under exploitative circumstances which are likely to see high interest rates, and/or ultimate possession of their assets and resources by the bank. That is what drives the class system, it seems you are predetermined around 18 years of age as to how much you will or can earn. That is actually written into your tax code as I understand it. Alternatively the more disadvantaged will have to seek money from non-bank entities that have already accumulated lots of money, and this often also leads to exploitation. What this also means is that money is NOT created for things most desired by society as a whole. In fact it is often created for exactly the things that society does not want at all. This includes projects that involve excessive destruction of natural resources like logging, building power plants, mining, and so forth, because the bank realizes that such projects are likely to bring back the money that will pay off the loans. That really can be described as, wanton destruction of the planet, yet these greed based psychopaths want us to pay for it, via climate change, I think not. It is also interesting to note that money is almost never created for the purpose of providing public goods, such as education and healthcare, for such services will not pay the bank back. Rather these services depend on recycled money through the tax system. So, there you have it, no taxes are used for our benefit. Hence it is not surprising that we have reached a situation where monetary value and social value are inversely correlated. By this I mean that a good or service with a high monetary value in the private property markets generally has a low social value. Conversely high social value goods and services generally return a low monetary value. This is illustrated in the example where public goods providers such as teachers are some of the lowest paid workers, yet currency trading is perhaps the most lucrative profession there is, and has also become one of the most socially destructive. It is reasonable to expect that this situation would be largely reversed, by taking social factors and public input into consideration at the point of money origination. It is clear that origination of money at commercial banks is undemocratic and so encourages the creation of money (or loans) for many undesirable activities. But often overlooked is the unchecked power of the Fed, the creator of Base Money. One of the best reminders of this power is then Federal Reserve Governor Paul Volcker's hike in interest rates in 1979 that triggered the Latin America debt crisis. This came at tremendous cost to the people of Latin American countries, which are now heavily controlled by Israel and the psychotic elements within the CIA. While the activities of OPEC, the commercial banks and various dictators, played a major role in laying the foundations of this crisis, the final push was decided at one committee meeting conducted behind closed doors. The FOMC meetings have never been open to public input or scrutiny. While summaries of meetings are posted almost immediately, the full transcripts of FOMC are not even available until 5 YEARS after the event! Yet more evidence they have something to hide, but yet more evidence that we the people allowed them to get away with it. It's important to be concerned that the money origination process is not subject to democratic accountability. Many of these problems could be remedied, if the public had more input into the decisions surrounding the origination of money, indeed. This requires an entirely different paradigm for thinking about money than we have today. It is a very complex problem and there are no simple answers. Actually I disagree there are several simple solutions or answers that have come out of our show. But at the very least it should be high on the list of topics for public debate. In addition, once you understand the process for creating money out of thin air, you begin to see that what banks and the Federal Reserve do is not so difficult after all. Some hope for better money is starting to materialize from the local and alternative monetary systems such as LETS and Ithaca Hours. Both are time banking methods, adopted in early 1990's. Ithaca hours was ran in New York and 1 Ithaca hour was equivalent to ten dollars. I can't see that system working outside of a local community, like life in general there will only be a few doers and lots of takers, and the system collapses. You have to change greed before being able to run those systems successfully. The Zero Sum Game: What is often overlooked about the monetary system, particularly by advocates of the trickle down hypothesis, is that it is a Zero Sum Game, because our money is entirely debt based. The more of a positive net money balance I have, the more of a negative balance someone else has. I can put my positive balance to work earning more money, while I either sit around and do nothing, or go and work for more money. So the most likely situation for a positive balance person is that their positive balance will keep growing. Also, in the zero sum game, this means that someone else's balance gets more negative. The negative sum person would be unlikely to get a loan to start their own business, and so would have to go work for someone that already has money. Under current wage structures and interest rates for high risk customers, it would be difficult for many negative balance people to ever get to a positive balance position, no matter how hard they work. They have the added disadvantage that they can't put a positive balance to work earning more money. Most likely their balances will get more negative, while the people that already have money will get more money to balance out the zero sum game. With positive money balances always earning a positive return on capital, combined with no requirement for redistribution of wealth, which is implicitly prohibited by neo-liberal policy because it eases such governmental intervention, the results are clear. The rich will keep getting richer and the poor will keep getting poorer, and the more interest bearing debt-money you invest in developing nations, the worse, not better the situation gets. Those that believe that the trickle down effect will result from investment in poorer more negative balance countries, and neighborhoods demonstrate a very poor understanding of the monetary system. In fact they believe in something that cannot possibly materialize, and is evidenced by the consequences of investment in developing nations. Generally speaking the zero sum game promotes conflict. Conflicting parties need money to stand competition, in the extreme case fight a war, in order to maintain their positive balance position. The only regulatory principle to limit the promotion of violence in all shapes and colors is the monetary monopoly's need to manage risk. Fatally, the risk taken by banks is distorted by the doctrine that the monetary monopoly as a whole may not fail. This so called Moral Hazard caused by public bailouts encourages investments in exploitation and war. What really trickles down is violence, not wealth.

Here is a good quote that asks us all to think, we like that type of processing. In the end, we return to the question, just how much do you love truth? Do you really love truth or are you just curious? Do you love it enough to rebuild your understanding to conform to a reality that doesn't fit your current beliefs, and doesn't feel 100% happy? Do you love truth enough to continue seeking even when it hurts, when it reveals aspects of yourself (or human society, or the universe) that are shocking, complex and disturbing, or humbling, glorious and amazing, or even, when truth is far beyond human mind itself? Just how much do we love truth? It's a good question to ask ourselves, I think. We the people enter this key month with another revocation, that all listening must apply to. We do not consent to your spiritual warfare this month on any given day. We do not consent to your Omnicron, spell casting or word magic. We do not consent to you invoke the spirit world or calling in of the demons, fake gods or other malevolent dark forces. We do not consent to your full moon rituals one of which is today. We do not consent to your invoking of Ophiucus either, the serpent bearer indeed, we see you and you will not prevail. We do not consent to any of your rituals you plan this month, and word of warning should you choose to play, so will we with devastating consequences. They are planning of switching the dates again, nice try assholes, but we will be ready then as well. The 3-3-3 date is almost upon us, it is our date not theirs, calling on all warriors to start now, not wait for the 21st. I'm asking for those with abilities to join me in doing a Planetary wide clearing starting now through the end of the year. To the clowns, dark magicians and psychopaths. Your time is up, step aside and go somewhere where you are more useful. The Day of the Svarog is still dawning, but our light shines brighter now than ever, and once again we will claim our rightful heir and guardianship of this planet. And it will be ran in a much better and fairer than you all did.

I often ponder aloud and come across situations and events in life that cross link with other parts of life and people. I am seeing various images around the world of roads, bridges, rail lines, interstates all broken and the lifeblood of their system dying with it. You see those roads where not for us, those roads can be seen as links to connect us all quicker and more convenient, it is said. But, it was not for our convenience it turned out, as roads bypassed small towns, which led to reduced traffic, and suddenly the lifeblood of the town ebbed away, at the end of the interstate, which invariably led to a concrete jungle town or city, for their benefit not ours. The roads linked us all together, and then bound us to their concrete jungles. But, people are changing, and no longer seek the same roads or modes of traveling anymore, in essence they are choosing to walk or drive their own path, the road less traveled so to speak. For those people they will find out that, not all roads leads to Rome, you are on the roads that leads away from it, ponder on that it has a deeper meaning. But, along your road less traveled you are surprised to find, many others of likeminded and similar thinking people along the way. We find we are all linked, but not bound, we are like a jewelry clasp that forms a chain of people, but unlike other chains that bind, this clasp has an open and shut part to allow for free will. Is it a coincidence that the UK enacted laws against people linking together? no it is symbolic of their fears. If that wasn't the case then the truth would not fear investigation. But, it is not the truth they seek is it? they seek compliance and asking people to bind into their programs of lies, and illusion. What has been lost in the avalanche of Covid data is, the dark magicians roles in guiding the stupid amongst us, to agree to their own demise. It is the dance on the edge dynamics again, where they will argue you that we told you, and you still went ahead and consented to it. That has been the forte of the dark forces for aeons, dancing on the edges of cosmic law. Whereby they technically haven't broken the law, as the people consented to it, it is both genius and disingenuous in equal measure. But, our role in this has to be seen as something far more significant than people think, or give it credit. We are linking and networking against the system, whilst holding each other aloft in an energizing way. We must keep recognizing our own achievements, because no one else will. The saying keep the faith, often wrongly associated with the ultimate in control systems, religion. They call it blind faith for a reason, because if people could "see", they would see through the whole illusion that brings to child like savior based peoples. The same religions who label us all as sinners, creating low vibrational beings and guilt and shame complexes on everyone. The ten commandments if you read them in the right way, it is not possible to fulfill any one of those rules, it was designed that way. Thou shalt not look at another woman or man? how can anyone pass that test? the answer you were not meant to. Though shall not steal, is again fairly wide ranging when you "see", most people fiddle their taxes, is that not stealing? Many low vibrational people are energy harvesters, vampiric in nature, is that not stealing? So, you see their rules or laws could never be fulfilled, and so we were all declared sinners, who must pay for our sins. Except, the real sinners all went off scot free due to their Day of Atonement, and passed all their crimes onto us, again it is both genius and disingenuous. But keep the faith actually means, keep the knowledge, but these demons and Satanic's through their religions declared eating the fruit of knowledge is a sin. No, not swallowing the knowledge is the greatest sin for the vast amount of people on this planet, which is why they line up for their death and injury jabs in their millions. They didn't start the faith to be able to keep it to begin with, and that has and will be their downfall, along with the clowns. Symbolism and greed has been their downfall, at great cost to their own souls, as they will all soon find out.
