

THI-SHOW TRANSCRIPT 2021-12-30

This show replaces the End of year review show, which will now go ahead on Saturday January 1st at 7.30PM EST. I am seriously considering closing down all of our Facebook pages due to the continuing child like way that Facebook operates. If it was up to me and the admins I would have closed it down sometime back. Their continuous ways of deflecting truth, banning and censoring people should never sit well with any truther, and all of us should leave it behind. Promoting pedophilia, whilst banning common sense and critical thinking posts, is an abomination for all truthers. All it takes is a change of mindset, which I have often spoken of, yes I know it is convenient, but since when has convenience favored we the people? like never. I personally would never have got involved in Facebook ever, it was an old friend of mine who put my page up on FB out of mischief. I recognized it when it opened in 2004 it was a datamining and control based platform, anything that goes viral quickly is for the bots, not critical and common sense thinkers. Should I do so in January, this will include all THI state and country groups and I will be asking members to support me in that. It is not like we don't have an alternative, I could see where FB was going in a more fascist direction 3 years ago, and why we set up the Mewe page. It is not perfect by any means, but doesn't control what you say, your content or bombard you with advertisements for now anyway. This is an example of fighting back in essence, why should we participate with their control platforms? Isn't that defeating our own purpose? What I would like to do is, create our own social media page? Imagine a social media page called The Peoples club going viral everywhere, that then will shut down Facebook, Twitter and all the other controlling platforms. Like in life in general, if you don't like something, change it.

A few short pieces on the bizarre world going on around us, that hopefully none of you are absorbing. Here is their latest attempt at pro pagan da on fact checkers. VAERS records adverse events occurring after vaccination. Because there is already a preexisting background or baseline rate of illnesses and deaths occurring even among unvaccinated people, VAERS reports alone don't demonstrate causal relationships between a vaccine and adverse events, as these events can simply be incidental illnesses and deaths unrelated to vaccination. Take a bow Flora Teoh, Health Editor for talking shit, time to target her me thinks for lying to the public and injuring and killing people. While very important in monitoring vaccine safety, VAERS reports alone cannot be used to determine if a vaccine caused or contributed to an adverse event or illness. That's fine under that criteria, then other figures that determine lockdowns, restrictions and firing people in their jobs, subsequently cannot be used then? Except these child level people cannot comprehend anything outside of what the system tells them. Add to the targeting, Christopher Giles, Jack Goodman and Olga Robinson, factchecker BBC.

The BBC did a piece, Why we are so prone to seeing patterns in randomness, haha oh dear they don't like that we see patterns. Psychologist and author Steven Pinker explores apophenia, the tendency to perceive meaningful connections between unrelated things. Here is a word for them poophenia, the tendency to talk shit and convince others of your shit, whilst injuring and killing many people. Me doth think they protest too much, there is a series of these types of shows, comments and blogs all to keep their lies going. Newsflash BBC and others, it's not working. What is working is, we are making you work very hard to keep your lies going, and that pleases me immensely.

Clowns are running bot people on the internet to control opinions, with several bots all saying the same message the world over. The internet for the clowns has become like American MSM, all clones all saying the same shit just on the illusion of it being a different channel. One of our members posted a meme and it said this, I just left the ER we are officially back to getting crushed by Covid. Delta variant is running rampant and it is much more transmissible than the original virus. 99% of our ICU admits did not receive a vaccine. All saying the same message except 2 slipped in future variants, Sugma and Ligma, stupid bot can't spell as it would be sigma.

Anyone else think it is odd that, the VP of America would go on an interview with a guy who has been done twice for Possession and distributing pot and cocaine. Was arrested for being in the vicinity of a shooting and spent 41 days in jail, then was charged with a sexual assault, but accepted a misdemeanor charge for contributing to the delinquency of a minor and received 3 years probation?

An advocate of defund the police and Democrat Congress member was carjacked and robbed in Philadelphia, oh the irony.

So, Ghislaine Maxwell a known Mossad agent along with another Mossad agent Jeffery Epstein has been found guilty on most charges and awaits sentencing, what happens next?

Pope Francis has warned that the world is becoming so desensitized to crises and suffering that they are now happening while hardly being noticed. In his annual Christmas Day message, the pontiff pointed to ongoing turmoil in Syria, Yemen and Iraq, as well as in areas of Africa, Europe and Asia. And with your organization being involved in previous wars, plus desensitizing the people away from Source and into off world savior and harvesting programs, he is the last to talk.

You want another example that these churches are not what they portray themselves to be? NYC Catholic priest tells unvaccinated people they are NOT welcome at church this Christmas and they have a social responsibility to get the shot. Such a welcome all place, not!

ITV accidentally announced the death of the Pope during a news bulletin, Pope Francis, who has not died, featured in ITV's Evening News at 5.15pm after making his Christmas Day address. Who cares whether he has or not? another of their distraction pieces that makes no sense, which means it is a program. One suspects it is an agency based faction warning.

The Queen spoke of the reassuring comfort of family traditions, such as watching a favourite film where we already know the ending. Interesting analogy she used there, except it will not be the ending you thought this time. The speech highlighted the importance of passing the baton to the next generation. Indeed, and that is what we at the TPC will and are doing. It is not passing the baton to the next generation, but creating a new future away from the failed old establishments, like royals.

Recently we mentioned the school running the Jewish guilt and shame program on the people, making kids wear yellow badges. Well it is increasing, Justin Trudeau is now making the state owned rail company wear a yellow badge, coincidence? I think not.

America's top infectious disinformation expert, Dr Anthony Fauci, warned that Christmas travel would increase the spread of the variant even among the fully vaccinated. All of which means the vax doesn't work.

Following our piece about many dead pilots in the last show, here is more evidence. Thousands of flights have been cancelled across the world, according to the FlightAware website. US airlines said they were already suffering from staffing shortages due to flight crews testing positive or being forced to self-isolate. No mention of dying pilots then.

Claiming that almost all of over 400,000 Americans who died of Covid-19 in 2021 were unvaccinated, US President Joe Biden demanded everyone get vaccinated and boosted as a patriotic duty amid the spread of the Omicron variant. What a state sponsored liar he is, where is his proof? and how desperate is he to lie about his own departments figures, which show the majority of deaths are the jabbed. And as for the patriotic duty claim, patriotism is a fancy word for Zionist Fascism, and patriotism has got millions of Americans killed fighting fake wars. Patriotism means love of the country over the people, so, he can stick patriotism where the sun don't shine. That patriotism has cost every American $3500 in the last year in inflation, caused by a deliberate pandemic that has no merits where health is concerned, and only for greed based clowns to harvest what is remaining of the old failed financial system.

Food prices in Canada are expected to reach record highs next year. Canada's food price report predicts the average family of four will pay $966 more for food in 2022, a total annual grocery bill of nearly $15,000. It is a crisis on a crisis, said Neil Hetherington, CEO at the Daily Bread Food Bank. The estimate would mark a 7 per cent rise compared to this year, and would be the biggest year-to-year jump ever predicted in the 12 years of the annual report. The era of cheap food has ended, said Sylvain Charlebois, lead author and Dalhousie University professor of food distribution and policy. Prices have been increasing since 2010 and the pandemic accelerated that trend. That is the price we pay for savior programs and going along with authorities. A case of, if we can't jab them to death, we will starve them to death. The point is, whilst it is nice that many people give their time and support to Food banks, and it is a worthy cause. But, the great question no one asks is, why do we have any food banks to begin with? and what are the solutions to fix that?

Facebook founder Mark Zuckerberg has been named The New Republic magazine's scoundrel of the year for creating the worst, most damaging website in the world. While awarding nitwit Zuckerberg the dubious honor on Wednesday, writer David Roth opined that Facebook had made the world infinitely dumber, uglier, and worse in a number of obvious and inescapable ways, and is a miserable website to use to boot. Zuckerberg, who changed the name of Facebook's holding company to Meta earlier this year, was critiqued for both allegedly lying about his company's purported propensity to spread misinformation for profit, and for pushing other viral idiocies into the social media realm. The idiocy is one thing, as that clearly existed before Facebook as we have all seen now. But, the worst thing is, FB allows child pedophiles to run on their sites, and tell lies about the fake pandemic that has injured and killed hundreds of thousands, plus ruin billions of peoples lives, that is the real focus and damage of Facebook and other lying and conniving platforms.

The beginning of the change in narrative I warned of on the Mewe chat? The Justice Centre for Constitutional Freedoms today reports that, in yet another last-minute amendment to Alberta Health Services (AHS) Vaccine Mandate Policy, on direction of the Alberta Government, AHS will now allow an estimated 1,400 unvaccinated full-time and part-time healthcare workers who were placed on unpaid leave, terminated and/or disciplined by AHS, to return to work with the option of rapid testing. This comes days after the Justice Centre was in court, requesting a temporary order prohibiting AHS from enforcing the Vaccine Mandate against four doctors, as well as a temporary order directing AHS to follow Alberta's Restriction Exemption Program and allow Rapid Testing in lieu of vaccination to allow the doctors to continue to practice at AHS sites in Alberta. More of those decisions will follow as their continued ouroborus programs fail.

NEWS: The US Congress has passed a bill that requires companies to prove that goods imported from China's Xinjiang region, were not produced with forced labour. The US has accused China of genocide in its repression of the predominantly Muslim Uyghur minority there, a charge that China has repeatedly rejected. The bill had been criticised by major companies that do business in the area, including Coca-Cola, Nike and Apple. Its passage also overcame initial lack of support from the White House. It was approved by the Senate on Thursday with the vote of every member of Congress except one. The Uyghur Forced Labor Protection Act, as the bill is formally known, now heads to the desk of President Joe Biden to be signed into law. It comes after months of Mr Biden's spokeswoman refusing to take a stand on the legislation. Earlier this week, press secretary Jen Psaki said Mr Biden would sign it. Funny they burble on about China human rights, whilst sitting in their ivory towers forcing companies to inject people with poisons. Notice it didn't stop Biden sending America's Strategic Reserves to China? What about America human rights of dropping over 100k bombs in Syria and killing thousands of civilians? Or the human rights of the Palestinians, American taxpayers money is being used to injure and kill them. Perhaps Congress needs to pass a bill on those instead of focusing on everyone else.

The United Nations General Assembly late Thursday night with the support of 125 countries backed an unprecedented open-ended war crimes probe against Israel, including into the 11-day Gaza war in May known as Guardians of the Wall. Establishing a novel, permanent standing committee rather than a limited, temporary and well-defined Commission of Inquiry is unprecedented, and dangerous in terms of the long-term budgetary implications for the UN organization as a whole, the Israeli representative told the UNGA. She accused it of funding a mock court against Israel. The probe had initially been approved in May by the 47-member UN Human Rights Council body in the aftermath of the Gaza war. Its broad mandate approved 24-9 with 14 abstentions, allows for an investigation into alleged Israeli human rights violations on either side of the Green Line. This would include both sovereign Israel, as well as the West Bank and Gaza. No such open ended investigation has ever been leveled against any other UN member state. More faction fighting, but it is highlighting the issues to the public.

The US Treasury Department on Monday sanctioned a Congolese national alleged to have provided financial support to Israeli billionaire Dan Gertler, who is already facing US sanctions due to what Washington says are fraudulent mining deals he reached with the former president of Congo. The Treasury Department blacklisted Alain Mukonda along with 12 entities linked to him in the Democratic Republic of the Congo and Gibraltar, pursuant to Executive Order 13818. Which builds upon and implements the Global Magnitsky Human Rights Accountability Act, and targets perpetrators of serious human rights abuse and corruption around the world, the State Department said. The Treasury accused Mukonda of providing a financial lifeline for Gertler, opening bank accounts and making payments into proxy bank accounts for him. In March, the Biden administration re-imposed sanctions on Gertler, after he won an unusual reprieve in the final days of the Trump presidency. Well I never. The US Department of the Treasury, in consultation with the Department of State, revoked the previous administration's move. The US State Department hit Gertler with sanctions in December 2017 under the Global Magnitsky sanctions act, for opaque and corrupt mining deals struck with help from his friend, then-Congolese president Joseph Kabila. Washington claims Gertler deprived the DRC of $1.4 billion in tax revenues over the past decade. What this reveals is, yet again Israeli EL-ites involved in other countries, that war almost certainly follows it. The Congo is wracked by war and corruption and there is always an Israeli person or group behind it. Clearly this is another example of faction fighting, Trump and Gertler are Black Sun, and the Demoncrats are ran by the Rothschild's clan.

Damning new information has come to light about systematic disregard for civilian casualties in U.S. airstrikes on Syria. Reporting by the New York Times revealed the existence of a shadowing U.S. military unit called Talon Anvil, responsible for identifying targets for airstrikes. Talon Anvil directed over 112,000 bombs and missiles between 2014 and 2019, ostensibly targeting ISIS, but in many cases only murdering Syrian civilians. The new report is related to a previous article that showed how the U.S. military covered up the deaths of 64 Syrian civilians. The investigation also disclosed that various intelligence officials expressed alarm about, how Talon Anvil lacked oversight and that top commanders swept concerns under the rug. Targeting decisions could be made by low-ranking members of the unit, and Talon Anvil frequently attacked on the basis of questionable intelligence without confirmation about the presence of noncombatants. Every year of the unit's operation saw an increase in civilian casualties. Top military brass like Gen. Stephen J. Townsend ignored the mounting death toll, essentially sanctioning these killings by keeping Talon Anvil in active operation. In 2016, Gen. Townsend took overall command of the U.S. war against ISIS and shifted tactics to speed up strikes. To achieve this, he gave low-level commanders on the ground authority over targeting decisions. Townsend now is the head of the U.S. military's Africa Command (AFRICOM). In a 2016 speech, President Obama claimed in reference to Syria: With our extraordinary technology, we're conducting the most precise air campaign in history. And so when there are allegations of civilian casualties, we take them very seriously. We work to find the facts, to be transparent, and to hold ourselves accountable for doing better in the future. But in reality, throughout Talon Anvil's operation the U.S. military routinely killed innocent civilians with impunity and neglected any accountability for such suffering. The United States' image as the global enforcer of human rights and democracy is exposed as, an utter farce by the true cost of the war on Syria.

Malta has become the first EU country to legalize the cultivation and personal use of cannabis. Adults will be allowed to carry up to seven grams of cannabis, and grow no more than four plants at home. But smoking it in public or in front of children will be illegal. Several other nations have similar plans, such as Germany, Luxembourg and Switzerland. Countries like the Netherlands tolerate cannabis use in certain circumstances. Equality Minister, Owen Bonnici, said the historic move would stop small-time cannabis users from facing the criminal justice system, and would curb drug trafficking by making sure that users now have a safe and regularized way from where they can obtain cannabis. One suspects that new supplier is the Knights of Malta mafia. However, Malta's opposition Nationalist Party voted against the change. In October, its leader Bernard Grech, who initially supported the new law, warned it would only lead to the strengthening of the illegal market, with organized crime taking advantage. Yes, that organized crime will be the Knights of Malta. Opponents have called on Malta's president, George Vella, not to sign it into law, which is the final, ceremonial stage. Under the changes, anyone carrying more than seven grams, but less than 28g could be fined up to €100 (£85; $112). The punishment for smoking in public will be a €235 fine, and those smoking cannabis in front of anyone younger than 18 could be fined up to €500. Associations will be set up to distribute the drug or seeds to cultivate cannabis, therefore regulating how much someone buys and a person can only be a member of one association. There is also support for minors who are found with cannabis. They will be recommended a care plan or treatment as opposed to facing arrest or criminal charges. Knights of Malta will use kids then to sell it is the gist of that.

Leading California cannabis companies warned Gov. Gavin Newsom that, the state's legal industry was on the verge of collapse and needed immediate tax cuts, and a rapid expansion of retail outlets to steady the shaky marketplace. The letter signed by more than two dozen executives, industry officials and legalization advocates followed years of complaints that the heavily taxed and regulated industry, was unable to compete with the widespread illegal economy, where consumer prices are far lower and sales are double or triple the legal business. Four years after broad legal sales began, our industry is collapsing, said the letter, which also was sent to legislative leaders in Sacramento. The current system is rigged for all to fail, they wrote. The opportunity to create a robust legal market has been squandered as a result of excessive taxation, the letter said. Seventy-five percent of cannabis in California is consumed in the illicit market and is untested and unsafe. Just as I warned would unfold at the start of this fake legalization.

The UK Supreme Court has prevented Venezuelan President Nicolás Maduro from accessing $1.95bn (£1.4bn) of gold stored in the Bank of England. The Supreme Court overturned a prior Court of Appeal ruling, meaning only opposition leader Juan Guaidó, who the UK considers as the legitimate leader, can decide what happens to the gold. Despite this, in practice the UK deals with the Maduro administration. Mr Guaidó and Mr Maduro have separately appointed two different sets of governors to Venezuela's central bank. Mr Guaidó, who is recognised by more than 50 countries as the legitimate president, wants the gold to stay in the BoE's vaults. Mr. Guaido is an agency based installed puppet to undermine the country, bought and paid for by the CIA. If he is recognized by 50 countries it tells you how much they have interfered in those countries as well. But this is international thievery of the highest scale, and all countries assets should be returned to them immediately.

This is interesting on a number of levels. Bosses from the world's two biggest plane makers have called on the US government to delay the rollout of new 5G phone services. In a letter, top executives at Boeing and Airbus warned that the technology could have an enormous negative impact on the aviation industry. Concerns have previously been raised that C-Band spectrum 5G wireless could interfere with aircraft electronics. US telecoms giants AT&T and Verizon are due to deploy 5G services on 5 January. Which is a year after they said they would roll it out, I might add. 5G interference could adversely affect the ability of aircraft to safely operate, said the bosses of Boeing and Airbus Americas, Dave Calhoun and Jeffrey Knittel, in a joint letter to US Transportation Secretary Pete Buttigieg. The letter cited research by trade group Airlines for America which found that if the Federal Aviation Administration's 5G rules had been in effect in 2019, about 345,000 passenger flights and 5,400 cargo flights would have faced delays, diversions or cancellations. The aviation industry and the FAA have raised concerns about potential interference of 5G with sensitive aircraft equipment like radio altitude meters. Airbus and Boeing have been working with other aviation industry stakeholders in the US to understand potential 5G interference with radio altimeters. What gets me is, did they not think of this when it was rolled out? why complain now? yet again more ouroborus programs it seems.

Washington DC school officials say a staff member who forced young students, to re-enact events from the Holocaust has been placed on leave. The re-enactment by eight and nine year olds included shootings and digging of mass graves, with one child assigned to act as Adolf Hitler. DC Public Schools confirmed the incident and said an investigation was underway. In an apology, the school said this was not part of an approved lesson plan. In an email sent to parents of Watkins Elementary School on Friday, principal M. Scott Berkowitz acknowledged the gravity of this poor instructional decision. Berkowitz being a Jewish name is the patsy in this narrative, deliberately engineered again. Students should never be asked to act out or portray any atrocity, especially genocide, war or murder, he said. Parents quoted by the Washington Post claimed that some children were forced to act, as if they were shooting their classmates and pretend they were on transportation trains or gas chambers. One parent cited by the paper alleged that the instructor told students that, the Holocaust took place because the Jews ruined Christmas. In a statement DC Public Schools said that the unnamed staff member is on leave pending the results of the investigation. This was not an approved lesson plan, and we sincerely apologize to our students and families who were subjected to this incident, spokesman Enrique Gutierrez said. Here is the point of this whole article with these pre-scripted ideas and indoctrination pieces to follow. Mr Gutierrez added that the staff member allegedly used hate speech during the lesson, which he said is unacceptable and not tolerated at any of our schools. Several other local schools have recently reported anti-Semitic incidents. Earlier in December, students at a Washington DC high school, Woodrow Wilson, reported swastikas being painted on a bathroom wall alongside racist epithets. The case also comes amid warnings from experts about the rise of anti-Semitism in the US. A report published by the American Jewish Committee in October found that, one in four American Jews reported being the target of anti-Semitism in the last 12 months, with the same number saying that they have changed their behavior because of fear. Yet again another example of these now frequent articles, all designed to guilt and shame the public of the plight of the alleged chosen ones. What will be lost in the stream of anti-Semitism claims is, that some teacher who remains unnamed was set up to do this for pro pagan da purposes. Oh the poor Jews narrative is wearing very thin, and it is time all people recognized this is a program of mind control and indoctrination. That the Jewish EL-ites can do what they like to the world, and cite some wartime atrocity from 80 years ago, to let them do and spew their evil upon us all. The Jewish people en masse need to call these people out as well, it is they who suffer due to these indoctrination programs. That are deliberately designed to have all people fighting each other, including the Jews, and all of us must call these guilt and shame programs out. There is no anti-Semitism, the Jewish rabbis told us that, only guilt, shame and fear programs being ran on the people.

Imagine how political life would be so much better if, the same policies that apply to people claiming benefits, would be applied to all politicians. Every two weeks they must attend or face sanctions. They must provide evidence of their constituency work. They must also declare any change in circumstances, such as extra income. Then that extra would be deducted from their pay.

MEDICAL RELATED NEWS: Maybe a questionnaire for employers who are asking for jobs? Will (name of company) give full guarantees of the said jobs being safe? yes or no? Will (name of company) take full responsibility for any injuries, adverse effects or death following taking the job? yes or no? Will (name of the company) pay $? for mild injuries? yes or no? Will (name of company) pay $M? for severe adverse effects? yes or no? Will (name of company) pay $B? for my death following the job? yes or no? If they answer no to all 5 categories, you can then ask why would you force people into taking a job, they are not personally guaranteeing? It not only negates their narrative, but will also make them think.

US health officials have halved the recommended isolation time for people with asymptomatic Covid-19 from 10 to five days, amid a surge in cases. Does that make sense with an increase in cases? no, it's an ouroboros program again then.

79% of all new Omnicron cases are in the vaccinated, courtesy of the CDC.

Flu figures 2012-13 34M, 13-14 30M, 14-15 30M, 15-16 24M, 16-17 29M, 17-18 45M, 18-19 36M, 19-20 38M and 2020-21 1822. The magic Covid eraser of flu cases.

In the history of all vaccine deaths ever recorded, 46% have happened in the last 3 months.

In the hospital in southwest England where Joanna Poole works the last few weeks have been a blur of canceled operations for lack of beds, and a scramble to plug holes in schedules because of corona virus cases among the staff. From day to day she is unsure who will be available to work, including herself. One day this month, she said, most of her department had to go home to take tests after coming into contact with an infected colleague, throwing the staffing schedule into turmoil. Dr. Poole, 32, wants to get back to normal operating, when she knows her staff roster and has a chance to become familiar with her patients. Data projections from the Health Service Journal, a trade publication, indicated that one in three workers in the National Health Service could be absent from work by New Year's Eve if the current case rate continues.

Again this was just what we warned of last year, the great shortage of staff, which is again due to ouroroborus programs. The autumn school term that has just ended in the United States was marked by a shortage of teachers and support staff. The pandemic has heightened the long-running problem, with a huge spike in retirements and resignations. In a classroom full of colorful posters, Jennifer Wolfe plays a geography quiz game with her teenage students at Oceanside High School in Long Island, New York. This is her 25th year in education, she absolutely loves her job she said, and was given New York state's Teacher of the Year award 2021, in recognition of her excellence as a social studies teacher and mentoring of fellow educators. But it has been a particularly exhausting few years for Jennifer and her colleagues. There is a shortage of them in almost every state with teachers citing low pay, overbearing bureaucracy and lack of respect as reasons for their unhappiness. I'm exhausted and a little crispy around the edges, it's really hard to get out of bed sometimes in the morning, said Jennifer. Teachers need time to rejuvenate and are not given that time, they don't need more and different responsibilities. This is a common refrain from teachers across the country. The demand-supply ratio has been skewed for several years, but the pandemic has been especially hard. They had to figure out new tools to keep students engaged during online learning and deal with an increased workload. Lisa Morrison, an arts and communications teacher in the island of Maui in Hawaii, said the pandemic proved to be a breaking point for many. People have relied for years on the fact that teachers have a love for teaching and for being with kids, in order to make up for poor salary and hard working conditions. Now many of them are feeling that's not enough of a reason to stay. Throw in the fact that their Government doesn't give a shit about them, otherwise would not have ordered National Zionist jobs for them all, or the fact they are educating and not teaching, and the powder keg has gone off. You cannot lose 4M jobs per month and not effect the whole operations, and this is on the heads of Trump and Biden, as neither did anything to head it off, and neither have done anything to address or correct it either.

Across the country, hospitals are buckling under the strain of nursing shortfalls and the spiraling cost of hiring replacements. For Watsonville Community Hospital on California's Central Coast, those costs became too much to bear, and contributed to the facility's bankruptcy this month. The shortages are most acute at hospitals like Watsonville that rely on government funding to treat poorer patients, since they have fewer resources to compete against the rising cost of keeping staff. The situation adds to the stress facilities have already experienced responding to the early onset of the virus, just as the last of federal aid is being doled out. This is like survival stakes, said Steven Shill, head of the health-care practice at advisory firm BDO USA. Winners are whoever's highest on the food chain and who has the biggest checkbook. That just mirrors life, why wait for a pandemic to come to that conclusion? The agencies that provide nurses and other staff on a temporary basis, are gouging hospitals. Hospitals are having to lay out thousands of dollars a week more, to pay what he calls exorbitant rates to outside agencies to keep his hospital properly staffed. A report by human-resources firm Mercer this year estimated a shortfall of 3.2 million lower-wage workers, such as nursing assistants and home health aides, by 2026. Employers will also need to hire more than 1.1 million registered nurses in that period, Mercer said. Walsh said his hospital is also struggling to fill lab, respiratory therapist and administrative positions. Two-thirds of nurses surveyed by the American Association of Critical-Care Nurses said their experiences during the pandemic have prompted them to consider leaving the field. And 21% of those polled in a study for the American Nurses Foundation said they planned to resign within the next six months, another 29% said they might. A national issue and your Government as done what to alleviate it? can't even regulate the staffing agencies, no doubt all ran by the shekel people.

Dr. Janet Woodcock, whom has been involved in approval of Oxycontin addictive drug, which killed over 500.000 people is now in charge for the vaccine approval for little children!

W.H.O Dr Tedros Adhanom Ghebreyesus confesses verbatim quote: If we are to end the pandemic in the coming year, we must end in equity by ensuring 70 percent of every country is vaccinated by the middle of next year. Focus on those groups who have risk of severe disease and death, especially above 65 and above 60, so if it's going to be used it's better to the elderly, rather than as we see some countries are using to give boosters to kill children which is not right.

Nigeria dumped more than 1 million AstraZeneca vaccines on Wednesday, roughly a week after Nigerian officials said a similar number of vaccines in the national stockpile had expired. The country bulldozed the vaccines at a site near the capital city of Abuja. Faisal Shuaib, executive director of the National Primary Health Care Development Agency in Nigeria, told reporters the vaccines had to be destroyed because Nigerians needed to trust the vaccination process. We have kept our promise to be transparent to Nigerians, she told reporters. The destruction today is an opportunity for Nigerians to have faith in our vaccination program. Nice to see the African countries being more aware of the nefarious programs that has been ran on them for decades, and taking steps to stop it. They have been sending African countries out of date drugs, medicines and supplies for decades, it is what they do. All out of date drugs are repackaged and sent to third world countries, it is time those countries stopped it.

This is on WH. Gov and yet again dismissive, divisive and frankly arrogant attitude to we the people. We are intent of not letting Omicron disrupt work and school for the vaccinated. For the unvaccinated you are looking at a winter of severe illness and death for yourselves, your families and the hospitals you may soon overwhelm. What type of utter shit is that to address to people? the best way to engage these people is not voting in mid term elections, as reasoning with them is an exercise in retardation. I would sooner take my chances and trust my immune system, than be a statistic of injury or death with their viles of poison, thanks. 90% of illness and death are for those who have been vaxxed. But, wishing death on your own populace to fulfill an evil agenda is a new low for this country, and those who wrote or signed off on that should be fired immediately. At least they are more honest now, as Americans have been killed in there millions due to policies of their corrupt clown based corporate company, pretending to operate as the Government since 1871.

South African scientists hailed for their discovery of Omicron are investigating the highly plausible hypothesis that, the emergence of new Covid-19 variants could be linked in some cases, to mutations taking place inside infected people whose immune systems have already been weakened by other factors, including, though not limited to, untreated HIV. Researchers have already observed that Covid-19 can linger for many months in patients who are HIV positive, but who have, for varying reasons, not been taking the medicines that would enable them to lead healthy lives. Normally your immune system would kick a virus out fairly quickly, if fully functional, said Professor Linda-Gayle Bekker, who heads the Desmond Tutu HIV Foundation in Cape Town. Remember we covered that in the Expose series, and how Dr. Fauci is an expert haha on HIV studies, are they linked? you bet they are.

The Fascist regime rising in Austria again it seems. A city in Austria is looking for employees who will be tasked with enforcing fines against those unwilling to get the Covid jab. The recruitment drive comes weeks ahead of a sweeping vaccine mandate in the European country. Successful candidates will be issuing penalties, processing appeals and taking measures against those who fail to shell out their fine for being unvaccinated, says a job ad placed by the Austrian city of Linz. The opening line says the job will suit those who take pleasure in working with legislation and administrative procedures. So, psychopath bots then. The employees' hard toil will be remunerated monthly with a salary starting from €2,774 ($3,126). To qualify for the job, an individual will have to hold Austrian citizenship, be a secondary school graduate, be resilient and prepared to work overtime, have no criminal record, and, last but not least, have a valid Covid vaccination or recovery certificate. On top of that, women will be given priority when vying for the post against men with comparable qualifications. Linz, home to 200,000 residents, is known to have the lowest Covid vaccination rate across Austria.

Now here is a real pandemic, yet curiously like famine, cancer, heart issues whether from vaccines or not, they choose to ignore it, whilst operating in a Fascist way to say they are caring about our health! what comedians these people are, about as funny as setting fire to your own genitals. Fentanyl overdoses have become the leading cause of death for Americans aged 18 to 45, according to a new report which shows deaths related to the drug overtaking Covid-19 and suicide. Between 2020 and 2021, 78,795 adults in the age bracket died from the drug, with 2021 deaths rising by nearly 4,500 over the year before, according to a report released by the organization Families Against Fentanyl this week. In November, the CDC said that 100,000 people died of overdose between April 2020 and April 2021, mostly connected to opioid's. Fentanyl now kills more 18- to 45-year-olds than suicide, Covid-19, and car accidents, with the number of deaths experiencing a particularly sharp rise since the beginning of the corona virus pandemic. Fentanyl is tied to 64% of all US drug fatalities. Fentanyl fatalities have increased by 49.4% in just 12 months, surpassing 64k deaths as of April 2021, the organization is calling for lawmakers to designate the drug as a weapon of mass destruction. A WMD designation can empower the US to shift from a policy of mass incarceration of Americans with substance use disorder and low level drug dealers, to an all of government approach to stop the flow of this poison into our country and stop the poisoning of our people, Families Against Fentanyl said. The US imposed sanctions on four Chinese drug companies this week after accusing them of trafficking fentanyl into the country. Beijing denounced the erroneous decision and encouraged the US government to look for causes of the abuse of fentanyl from within. Overdose deaths, particularly those caused by opioids, were rising before the corona virus pandemic, and the over-prescription of opioid painkillers has also been blamed as a contributing factor to America's drug problem.

I have mentioned often the links between computers and people, add a new one to that list, as Pfizer is bringing out a tablet form of Covid 19 bs. Is it a pill or a tablet? is the tablet a pill or an operating system? Merck is also introducing a new Covid 19 pill instead of a jab now, the color of the pill? red, so from lets go and get branded, to the Matrix and CIA MK Ultra red pill. And some in the alt media think they are awake? miles behind THI listeners, literally miles behind. Red pilling deary me.

Days after reversing a decision that allowed grocery stores to ban unvaccinated Canadians, New Brunswick health minister Dorothy Shephard is saying some of the mail she received over the policy crossed the line. Touche Ms. Shephard, touche. In an interview with the Times & Transcript, Shephard describes receiving a huge onslaught of the material, including hundreds of emails. I think I have a thick skin, but it doesn't change the fact that some of these emails have crossed the line. The Department of Health confirmed that particularly threatening examples have been sent to the Department of Justice and Public Safety for assessment, the RCMP would not confirm whether it was investigating. One of the emails accuses Shephard of literally causing people to starve to death this winter, while another advises her to sleep with one eye open. People like you always get what's coming to you, the writer goes on to wish Shephard a slow and painful death. The fact they have highlighted this tells you they don't like and are trying to garner sympathy to block it, a classic Jewish EL-ite tactic that. We need to get in their faces, as these jobsworths are injuring and killing people and what's worse, covering it up. Keep getting in their faces, they will back down eventually. This is positive proof that the setting up of the Positive Action group and implementing it will bring the desired results.

INTERESTING PIECES: James Webb Telescope: A $10bn machine in search of the end of darkness, oh dear. Perhaps they should have invested that $10B here, as the end of the reign of the darkness is all happening here and now. But, perhaps if scientists think on a more common sense based thought pattern, and used less math to fulfill a narrative, they wouldn't need a $10B spacecraft to find out conclusions. How can you find the end of darkness in a bubble? The simplest solution to understanding this Universe is, put a string of xmas lights inside a balloon, and then blow the balloon up, then you will understand the Universe and not waste $10B on a question that is easily proven in a lab.

One Sunday in October, Pastor Somu Avaradhi got a shock when he entered his church in Hubballi city in the southern Indian state of Karnataka. There were people sitting inside, singing Hindu religious songs and shouting slogans. He says he called the police, but when they arrived, the protesters accused him of abusing and forcing a Hindu man to convert to Christianity. The pastor was arrested under charges of outraging the religious feelings of any class and spent 12 days in prison before he was released on bail. This isn't an isolated incident, a report by the Evangelical Fellowship of India listed 39 cases of threats or violence against Christians from January to November this year in Karnataka. These include alleged attacks on pastors by members of right-wing Hindu groups, and even instances where they reportedly physically prevented them from holding religious services. No surprise it is in India, the scene of our first FRWL show. But what subsequent shows revealed is, Christian is a fake name used, when the real target is not Christian, but the white race.

The scene is repeated in another country symbolic with ending the white race also. Church leaders in Jerusalem have complained that fringe radical settler groups, are mounting a violent systematic attempt to drive Christians from the city. Israel predictably has criticized their statement as baseless and infuriating. Last week, the Patriarchs and Heads of Local Churches of Jerusalem, a collection of various Christian denominations launched a campaign to protest frequent and sustained radical violence and strategic property acquisition. They said these tactics were aimed at diminishing the Christian presence. In a statement issued by the Diocese of Jerusalem, the church leaders pointed to countless incidents of physical and verbal assaults against priests, intimidation of local Christians and the desecration of holy sites and churches. They called out the failure of local politicians, officials and law enforcement agencies to stem the violence, which they dated back to 2012. The joint statement was signed by the leadership of all the city's major churches, including the Custody of the Holy Land representing the Vatican, the Armenian Apostolic Orthodox Patriarch of Jerusalem, the Latin Patriarch of Jerusalem and the head of the Anglican Church. Yet again more examples of how being religious is not teaching the alleged values it promises. The sooner that whole program is shut down on this planet, the better we will all be.

Clowns and their story only people, have confiscated a clay tablet that speaks of building a boat, told by Enki to some priest, that predates "Noah" by one thousand years, oops.

This next piece is about a song written in 1976 for an album called 2112, it has many interesting connections and parables that mirrors today. I lie awake, staring out at the bleakness of Megadon, or is it Metadon? City and sky become one, merging into a single plane, a vast sea of unbroken grey. The Twin Moons, just two pale orbs as they trace their way across the steely sky. That is Rahu and Ketu doing their evil dance across the sky, one or both of which are responsible for the eclipses and the shadow on the moon. I used to think I had a pretty good life here, just plugging into my machine for the day, plugging into my machine like the Metaverse? then watching Templevision or reading a Temple Paper in the evening. That is in relation to the Freemason Cult of Ra, anything with the word Temple is connected to that cult. 'My friend Jon always said it was nicer here than under the atmospheric domes of the Outer Planets. We have had peace since 2062, when the surviving planets were banded together under the Red Star of the Solar Federation. Red Star or Red Shield? or the RA cult Federation. The less fortunate gave us a few new moons. I believed what I was told. I thought it was a good life, I thought I was happy. Then I found something that changed it all...'

[I. Overture] And the meek shall inherit the earth...

[II. Temples of Syrinx] The massive grey walls of the Temples rise from the heart of every Federation city. I have always been awed by them, to think that every single facet of every life is regulated and directed from within! Indeed, our whole lives are regulated by psychopathic entities and system, and correlated by greed based and frankly retarded humans. Our books, our music, our work and play are all looked after by the benevolent wisdom of the priests. Yes, the Hebrewic Cohens, a band of complete anti life psychopaths, who have no compassion for life itself, they are a harvesting race of parasites. We've taken care of everything, the words you read, the songs you sing, the pictures that give pleasure to your eyes. Add in our education, our fake history, our news to that list and you begin to see the bigger picture. It's one for all and all for one, we work together, common sons, never need to wonder how or why. Yes, it is the case of us accepting their reality and harvesting schemes, but some of us no matter how they try, will never bow to their weak and pathetic way of life. We are the Priests of the Temples of Syrinx, our great computers fill the hallowed halls, it is not their great computers that filled the hallowed halls at all, they belong to all life forms here and are accessible for those who "see" and go beyond the lies. We are the Priests, of the Temples of Syrinx, all the gifts of life are held within our walls. Yes, like the Temple of Syrinx known as the Vatican, who have stolen all our history, artifacts, priceless treasures and our right to know the true knowledge of us and why we are here. Look around at this world we've made, equality our stock in trade, actually it is inequality they bring. Come and join the Brotherhood of Man, it is not the brotherhood of our man they mean, they are the Brotherhood of the Snake, these people are not and never will be man. Oh, what a nice, contented world, let the banners be unfurled, hold the Red Star proudly high in hand. Contented world is the realm of fantasy, a sick fantasy world, where every evil imaginable these snake priests have done.

[III. Discovery] Behind my beloved waterfall, in the little room that was hidden beneath the cave, I found it. I brushed away the dust of the years, and picked it up, holding it reverently in my hands. I had no idea what it might be, but it was beautiful. I learned to lay my fingers across the wires, and to turn the keys to make them sound differently. As I struck the wires with my other hand, I produced my first harmonious sounds and soon my own music! That is the joy of being creative, the essence of being human, and something the system wants to breed out of, of not only the children, but all life. Only their approved artists go forward in life, only the children of darkness are pressed into their world of celebrity. How different it could be from the music of the Temples! I can't wait to tell the priests about it! Good luck with that I'm thinking, the control freaks don't allow self expression or creativity. What can this strange device be? When I touch it, it gives forth a sound, it's got wires that vibrate and give music, what can this thing be that I found? See how it sings like a sad heart, and joyously screams out its pain, Sounds that build high like a mountain, or notes that fall gently like rain. The joy of the stringed instrument, that started with the lyre it is said, that lead to the electric guitar. I can't wait to share this new wonder, the people will all see its light, Let them all make their own music, the Priests praise my name on this night. It is like any groundbreaking discovery, anything that benefits the people is discarded, in favor of weaponized technology and war machines that kill.

[IV. Presentation] In the sudden silence as I finished playing, I looked up to a circle of grim, expressionless faces. The Council or the Sanhedrin a collection of grim and expressionless faces, as they have no life, just spend time committing evil ways upon others. Father Brown rose to his feet, and his somnolent voice echoed throughout the silent Temple Hall. Brown is likely a color coded program name. Instead of the grateful joy that I expected, they were words of quiet rejection! Instead of praise, sullen dismissal. I watched in shock and horror as Father Brown ground my precious instrument to splinters beneath his feet. I know it's most unusual to come before you so, but I've found an ancient miracle I thought that you should know. Listen to my music and hear what it can do, There's something here as strong as life, I know that it will reach you. The priests replied Yes, we know, it's nothing new, it's just a waste of time, We have no need for ancient ways, the world is doing fine Another toy that helped destroy the elder race of man Forget about your silly whim, it doesn't fit the plan. These priests are not man, so how would they know, in fact the point is they do know it is beneficial, and anything beneficial for the people is squashed. Just like free energy, knowledge, remember these people think us having knowledge is a sin, never eat the fruit of the knowledge tree. The only beings who would say that are weak willed child like species who will never progress in life on a soul journey. These parasites are weak willed, lazy, apathetic and shallow low vibrational entities, whose only purpose in life is to destroy others. I can't believe you're saying these things it just can't be true, Our world could use this beauty, just think what we might do, Listen to my music and hear what it can do There's something here as strong as life, I know that it will reach you. It will only reach those in harmonic with life itself, these people are in the frequency range of darkness, death and destruction only, creativity to these people will never be seen or respected, it is beyond their low level capabilities. Don't annoy us further! We have our work to do, Just think about the average, what use have they for you? Just think about the average, yes the bot like creatures they have created that are devoid of thinking, creativity and in essence life itself. Another toy that helped destroy, the elder race of man, forget about your silly whim, it doesn't fit the Plan! Their plan is all about evil you see, so a thing of beauty is wasted on these people, unless they make shekels off of it.

[V. Oracle: The Dream] I guess it was a dream, but even now it all seems so vivid to me. Clearly yet I see the beckoning hand of the oracle as he stood at the summit of the staircase. I see still the incredible beauty of the sculptured cities and the pure spirit of man, revealed in the lives and works of this world. I was overwhelmed by both wonder and understanding as I saw a completely different way to life, a way that had been crushed by the Federation long ago. I saw now how meaningless life had become with the loss of all these things. Indeed we the people have had enough of the Federation, Councils, Fake gods, fake books, fake religions, the Hebrew Annunaki and their chosen ones, their version of life is an abomination. It is the antithesis of life, devoid of creativity with their armies of bots and hive minded creations, all designed to ruin life and harvest everything in it's path.

I wandered home through the silent streets and fell into a fitful sleep. Escape to realms beyond the night, dream can't you show me the light? I stand atop a spiral stair, an oracle confronts me there, He leads me on light years away, through astral nights, galactic days I see the works of gifted hands, that grace this strange and wondrous land I see the hand of man arise, with hungry mind and open eyes. I see the hand of man arise, with hungry mind and open eyes, that is what we are doing here and now, hungry minds for truth ends their stagnant knowledge base with which their system operates. Open eyes or just being able to "see", 2020 the year of vision and sight enabled many others to "see", many for the first time. What we "see" is pure ugly, denying that fact renders you back in a coma, it is what it is and the key now for those with hungry minds and eyes to "see" is, what happens next? Well that depends on us all manifesting away from ugly into something of beauty and soul progression. Far away from astral nights, which is a trap, both heaven and hell have copies in there, both are a trap, and our goal is the mental planes of operations with higher thinking, knowledge, understanding and responsibility. They left our planets long ago, the elder race still learn and grow Their power grows with purpose strong, to claim the home where they belong Home to tear the Temples down, home to change! Yes every temple and religious structure needs to be rendered mute, whether they should all be torn down is a decision for we the people. On the one hand we can tear them all down as symbols of hate, oppression, death or we could leave them up and show where our ancestors went badly wrong, and how we and the future generations must never repeat that pattern.

[VI. Soliloquy] I have not left this cave for days now, it has become my last refuge in my total despair. I have only the music of the waterfall to comfort me now. I can no longer live under the control of the Federation, but there is no other place to go. My last hope is that with my death I may pass into the world of my dream, and know peace at last. Accepting there is a problem is the first step to correcting the future. The sleep is still in my eyes, the dream is still in my head I heave a sigh and sadly smile and lie a while in bed I wish that it might come to pass, not fade like all my dreams. Just think of what my life might be, In a world like I have seen! I don't think I can carry on, carry on this cold and empty life, My spirits are low in the depths of despair, my lifeblood, spills over... This is exactly how they want us all, no hope, despair, all is lost and in general a pointless existence. We cannot allow ourselves those levels of despair, in life there is always hope, visions, dreams and manifest abilities to change any outcome. Remember the outcomes offered are not our own, we didn't ask for them, it is their duality programs and choices, we do not have to accept their versions of reality. We have our own version of reality and choices, it's called the Triality, our choices, our visions, our dreams and our manifestations.

[VII. The Grand Finale] Attention all Planets of the Solar Federation Attention all Planets of the Solar Federation Attention all Planets of the Solar Federation We have assumed control We have assumed control We have assumed control. Not on our watch you are not, your time is up, we will no longer be a planet of the Ra Federation, piss off back from whence you came, with your child like brains, psychotic minds, hearts and souls, because we the people will assume control and run it in a fair, balance, equitable and far more adult way, than you were capable of.

EXPOSE: Moab is known as a town in Utah more to Americans, but where did that name come from? what does it represent? who does it represent? Yet more evidence that Mormonism is based on fake gods, chimeras and seedy and heinous practices? Moab is the name of an ancient Levantine kingdom whose territory is today located in the modern state of Jordan. For Levantine read Levi. The land is mountainous and lies alongside much of the eastern shore of the Dead Sea. The existence of the Kingdom of Moab is attested to by numerous archaeological findings, most notably the Mesha Stele, which describes the Moabite victory over an unnamed son of King Omri of Israel, an episode also noted in 2 Kings 3. The Moabite capital was Dibon. According to the Hebrew Bible, Moab was often in conflict with its Israelite neighbours to the west. The etymology of the word Moab is uncertain. The earliest gloss is found in the Koine Greek Septuagint (Genesis 19:37) which explains the name, in obvious allusion to the account of Moab's parentage, as ἐκ from my father. Other etymologies which have been proposed regard it as a corruption of seed of a father, or as a participial form from to desire, thus connoting the desirable land. Rashi explains the word Mo'ab to mean from the father, since ab in Hebrew and Arabic and the rest of the Semitic languages means father. He writes that as a result of the immodesty of Moab's name, God did not command the Israelites to refrain from inflicting pain upon the Moabites in the manner in which he did with regard to the Ammonites. Fritz Hommel regards Moab as an abbreviation of Immo-ab=his mother is his father. More transsexual nonsense, or perhaps more incest, the Mormons are infamous for? According to Genesis 19:30–38, the ancestor of the Moabites was Lot by incest with his eldest daughter. She and her sister, having lost their fiancés and their mother in the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah, decided to continue their father's line through intercourse with their father. The elder got him drunk to facilitate the deed and conceived Moab. The younger daughter did the same and conceived a son named Ben-Ammi, who became ancestor to the Ammonites. According to the Book of Jasher (24,24), Moab had four sons—Ed, Mayon, Tarsus and Kanvil—and his wife, whose name is not given, is apparently from Canaan. Moab was located on a plateau about 910 metres (3,000 ft) above the level of the Mediterranean, or 1,300 metres (4,300 ft) above the Dead Sea, rising gradually from north to south. In the north are a number of long, deep ravines, and Mount Nebo, famous as the scene of the death of Moses (Deuteronomy 34:1–8).

Boundaries in the Hebrew Bible: In Ezekiel 25:9 the boundaries are given as being marked by Beth-jeshimoth (north), Baal-meon (east), and Kiriathaim (south). That these limits were not fixed, however, is plain from the lists of cities given in Isaiah 15–16 and Jeremiah 48, where Heshbon, Elealeh, and Jazer are mentioned to the north of Beth-jeshimoth; Madaba, Beth-gamul, and Mephaath to the east of Baalmeon; and Dibon, Aroer, Bezer, Jahaz, and Kirhareseth to the south of Kiriathaim. The principal rivers of Moab mentioned in the Bible are the Arnon, the Dimon or Dibon, and the Nimrim. The territory occupied by Moab at the period of its greatest extent, before the invasion of the Amorites, divided itself naturally into three distinct and independent portions: the enclosed corner or canton south of the Arnon, referred to in the Bible as field of Moab (Ruth 1:1,2,6). The more open rolling country north of the Arnon, opposite Jericho and up to the hills of Gilead, called the land of Moab (Deuteronomy 1:5; 32:49) and the district below sea level in the tropical depths of the Jordan valley (Numbers 22:1).

Another strange legendary creature shows up in the Bible that made it into my novel David Ascendant: Lion Men of Moab. In Hebrew, they are called Ariels, they are kind of like werewolves, but more like werelions, which translates to felinoids as shown on the hieroglyphs. In 2 Sam. 23:20 Benaiah, a valiant warrior, strikes down two ariels of Moab. The word ariel is a transliteration because scholars are not sure what it means. The King James and Young's Bibles translate these opponents of Benaiah as lion-like men of Moab, which captures the strangeness of the creatures but fails to express the religious or supernatural connotation of the word. Some translators translate the phrase ariel's of Moab as, sons of Ariel of Moab after the unlikely LXX Greek translation, or lion-like heroes of Moab. Ariel of course is another Disney character, most of which reference the Jewish side of things, and they clearly know who or what ariel means or stands for. But there is no Hebrew word for sons of in the sentence, no indication of ariel being a personal name, and no Hebrew word for warrior used in the sentence. The Hebrew word for mighty warrior, gibborim, is used frequently throughout David's narrative and that word is not here. The text says two ariels of Moab. Some suggest it may be a reference to killing two lions. But the very next sentence states that Benaiah, the killer of the ariels, then killed a lion in a pit. 2 Samuel 23:20 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was a valiant man of Kabzeel, a doer of great deeds. He struck down two ariels of Moab, he also went down and struck down a lion in a pit on a day when snow had fallen. The Hebrew word for lion is not ariel, but aryeh. Adding the suffix el to the word adds a religious dimension of meaning that transcends mere lions. This is why Hebrew lexicons explain the most likely meaning as lion of god. El was not merely a name used of Yahweh in the Bible, it was the name of the figurehead deity of the Canaanite pantheon as well as a general reference to deity in Mesopotamia. In 1 Chronicles, some additional warriors from Gad join David when he is at Ziklag, and they are described exactly like ariels as lion-faced warriors with preternatural skills: 1 Chronicles 12:8 From the Gadites there went over to David at the stronghold in the wilderness mighty and experienced warriors, expert with shield and spear, whose faces were like the faces of lions and who were swift as gazelles upon the mountains: Though animal-like abilities is a common metaphor used to describe extraordinary warrior skills, having faces like the faces of lions could mean more in light of the existence of these ariels, or Lion Men of Moab. Since the tribal location of Gad was precisely all the land of Moab across the Jordan, I decided to make the Gadite lion-faced men be those very Lion Men of Moab who converted to Israel and joined David. Two of these hybrid warriors then become the two traitors who face down Benaiah. Hybrid warriors indeed, what he is describing is chimeras, the lion men of Moab were chimeras, which is a form of hybrid. What I find curious with the author of this piece is how it ignores or is deflecting from basic Hebrew knowledge, because actually the Hebrew name Ari means lion, and Ari with El means the lion of god, and so the Lion of Judah in the Hebrewic culture. To which Disney again celebrates with the movie Lion King. Psalm 57 was written when David was on the run and hiding out in a cave from Saul's bounty hunters. Verse 4 says, My soul is in the midst of lions; I lie down amid fiery beasts, the children of man, whose teeth are spears and arrows, whose tongues are sharp swords. Though a surface reading of this text appears to be an obvious figurative expression of David's enemies, scholar B. Mazar suggests it may be a reference to a mercenary military corps of archers whose emblem was the lion-goddess, could they have come from Moab? So what if these ariels are hybrid creatures reminiscent of the Watchers' miscegenation in Genesis 6? What if they are elite warriors with hairy bodies and lion-like faces that only one of David's own gibborim Mighty Men could slay? I looked up gibborim, and it had an interesting description in the fan wiki Marvel pages. It said this, the Gibborim are mythical six-fingered mystical giant deities who supposedly predate the Old Testament in the Bible. One of the Gibborim was among the Elder Gods of Limbo also known as the N'Garai. They are stated to have lived on Earth when it was a peaceable utopia, and ruled the world before the Great Flood. They had the single-minded goal to wipe the Earth clean of all humanity because of what they did to Earth. Sound familiar? it should do, so these gibborim were reptiles, the six fingers gives that away, and likely resembled the crocodile beings in Jupiter Ascending. After all, the exploits of those Mighty Men in the passages we have been looking at are supernatural slayings of giants and hundreds of soldiers by single warriors. If these ariel's were mere warriors, then the feat accomplished by Benaiah in slaying them would be the only one in the entire passage that was banal and without significance. These ariels were something more than men, something supernatural. The ancient understanding of ariel as a lion-like hybrid humanoid finds support in a later Nag Hammadi text that speaks of a gnostic deity, Yaldabaoth, who was an ariel spelt slightly different. Arael is what the perfect call him, for he was like a lion. Yaldabaoth is portrayed as Satan or the evil god in some texts. The Dictionary of Deities and Demons in the Bible says of this possible religious mythical interpretation of ariel: This interpretation could be supported by a recently found bronze-silver figurine from Tell Abū el-Kharaz in Transjordan representing, according to the excavator's opinion a male lion-faced warrior god, which can be viewed, because of its appearance and its attributes, as a male pendant. The author then reveals that the word ariel shows up in the Mesha Stele, a Moabite stone inscription not too long after the time of King David. These are the very Moabites from which 2 Samuel says the ariels come. The line of text in question could be translated, the lion figure ariel of their beloved god which was dragged before Chemosh after the fall of the Israelite city. Bible scholar B. Mazar notes this Mesha Stele connection and adds that the word ariel became a synonym for the lion-headed cherubim at the base of kingly thrones. So in David Ascendant, I created a special unit of these Ariels, lion-headed warriors of Moab, to explore that supernatural dimension with imagination that fit the thread of the cosmic War of the Seed. The ancient Book of Jasher was a source text for both Joshua and David's stories (Josh. 10:13, 2 Sam. 1:18). The extant version we have of the Book of Jasher, though dubitable, tells of two different stories that contain hybrid creatures that may be similar to the lion-men of Moab or the satyrs of Baniyas. Satyrs are another of the chimeric group, humanoid in general, but other animal body parts attached to them, some of them horse features. My experience of Satyrs though is of an appearance of looking like Shrek, another myth based cartoon character out of Disney, when it is more based in fact than fiction. Shrek was not a Disney production per se, but a company called Dreamworks, how apt. In Jasher 36:29-35 we read of Anah, one of the sons of Seir the Horite, remember the Seirites' connection to satyrs during the days of Abraham. There is a large storm that the writer says caused a group of about 120 great and terrible animals, to come out of the forest by the seashore to be witnessed by Anah feeding his asses. I wonder if Anah is the cook then for the current asses? the Jewish El-ites, fake Royals and billionaire psychopaths? Jasher 36:29-35 And those animals, from their middle downward, were in the shape of the children of men, and from their middle upward, some had the likeness of bears, and some the likeness of the keephas, with tails behind them from between their shoulders reaching down to the earth, like the tails of the ducheephath, and these animals came and mounted and rode upon these asses, and led them away, and they went away unto this day. Another chapter in Jasher tells the story during the youth of Balaam son of Beor, about a strange animal that was devouring the cattle of the people of Chittim. A man named Zepho went in search of this creature and, he came into the cave and he looked and behold, a large animal was devouring the ox; from the middle upward it resembled a man, and from the middle downward it resembled an animal, and Zepho rose up against the animal and slew it with his swords. Were these creatures mere legends or were they genetic hybrid remnants of the miscegenation of the Watchers? In reality where researchers will not go, they will not face true reality and get wrapped up in myths. What this reveals is, the number of differing chimeras that were brought here including the satyrs, none of them were human, and yet people still ask about ET Disclosure? That is why this planet is in a mess, they tell us all, yet too few believe it. The watchers in part play differing roles here, and yes they are still here, in fact I met one in person only 3 weeks ago. She was surprised I remembered her and she backed away from me and left, she then vanished into thin air. Some watchers are here to help and some hinder, in essence they interfere in certain events to prevent certain people being injured, killed or certain people meeting or they create the meeting or event that will change timelines.

Can a person develop to a mental plane if he/she is younger than 33 years old, why not or why can they? What is the factor that blocks it or allows it? I think it is a guideline more than a defined time or date. Some come in here with "more" and so the limitations are less, providing they apply themselves in the right way. Also remember that you come in on the level from the previous incarnation, so if you were on mental plane 1-3 in the last life, you will start with that the next lifetime. The 2% mindset problem or solution: It is said only 2% of the population exhibit these mindsets, and that is something we at THI have began to change. The 2% follow these guidelines of life, going for your dreams, confidence, exploring new things, happiness, fulfillment, embracing the unknown, excitement, liking change, living without limits, abundance, act in spite of fear and getting the most out of life. The other 98% have these traits in life, being like everyone else, insecure, surviving, fear, just getting by, a dull life, play it safe, procrastination, regret and settling for less, this is their so called comfort zone, except none of it was ever comforting, only an illusion. The answer for all is, don't be like the 98% wear your 2% proud and fulfill your life, dreams, destinies, hopes and freedom from restriction and restrictive lives. I decided on Monday night to check out the latest Matrix 4 movie called The Resurrection, that in some ways we blocked from coming out one year earlier. I have to say there were many occasions I gave out wry smiles and some laughter within that movie. It was riddled with THI based narratives, and even some piss takes on us as well, particularly right at the end. In one scene people will notice it saying Thomas doesn't like the cat, but the constant other references to the cat will have been missed by most. The cat was accompanied by bell ringing, I wonder how many picked up on that clue? The cat and the bell, Bel is another name for? Marduk, Marduks consort was? Bastet, represented as a cat. The ending piece after the credits could well have been done for the benefit of myself and THI, check it out yourself. They also revealed in one part of the intentions I stated what this movie was about, the resurrection of Set. Set is the el-ites and clowns savior program, because they now realize that M is not returning. So, they plan their great reset, the great resurrection of Set. Newsflash clowns, it's not happening, it is not yours or their time, space or line, can you not see that yet? or does your own self importance and arrogance pervade you? We see your codes, plans and actions now, and we are and have counteracted them, so what happens next? We will change the world whether you like it or not, come and join us and work off some karma. To accomplish that we all have to work together, we are not going to be successful if we work only as individuals. Some have asked is Thomas the Neo? that came up back in 2013-15 time as well, my answer to that is, I set out from 2015 to create millions of Neo's not just the one. The one is the old fake gods format, and I don't repeat their programs. The task going forward is to reduce the capacity of the bots, called Smiths, who are all the same look, have all the same actions and all the same dark forces intentions. These people are amongst us, they are our friends, family members and work colleagues, you have all seen them now, particularly since 2020, there is no disputing it anymore. The world is over ran by Smith bots, filled with lies, delusion, anti life, no freedoms and it is up to us all to fight back, whether you become a Neo or not. Titles and labels have never interested me, doing important work is more productive than being important, something a show not too far away from here has forgotten. Intel update: by working as a collective in some cases, we have not only managed to ruin their winter solstice rituals and calling on the fake gods attempts, but we have also been working on some other things I can now reveal. A volcano eruption on the Spanish island of La Palma has officially been declared over, after three months of spewing ash and hot molten rock. Thanks to all who participated in that exercise. Other work ongoing involves ruining the vaccine manufacturing, I may have further details on that in a later show. Also other work recently was undertaken that involved stopping certain satellites doing rogue based interactions at key strategic locations around the world. You may see evidence of that related to satellites in the MSM, should they continue to play that game on us, the same outcomes to those satellites and locations will be administered. Other work has involved targeting of certain individuals deemed authority, maybe MSM will start reporting deaths or people going missing of leading officials and EL-ites? Other events are still in the works and will be released when safe to do so. As entropy rises, the available energy decreases, until, eventually, momentum ceases and the entire thing grinds to a halt. Never underestimate the power of a group of committed individuals, no matter how small to change the world, we are the crazy ones, the misfits, who are mad enough to believe we can change the world, why? because they are the very people who do. Only a small group took over this planet and only a small group can and will take it back, providing we all come together and participate. THI says goodbye to 2021 and I want to thank you all for listening, participating and donating. 2022 will bring much changes, how those changes play out, is up to us all now to manifest and bring that to fruition.
