

THI-SHOW TRANSCRIPT 2022-02-03

For what is a man, what has he got? If not himself, then he has naught To say the things he truly feels, and not the words of one who kneels The record shows, I took the blows, and did it my way. And then unlike others went onto to doing it our way. No leaders, just all of us being leaders. The now desperate situation the globalists face over the loss of the narrative on Covid, is now reaching pure theater levels. Joni Mitchell has followed Neil Young, other lemmings followed, of requesting all songs to be removed from Spotify, due to their continued misinformation of Covid, surrounding anti vaxxers on the platform, most notably Joe Rogan. Rogan was paid $100M to be on the Spotify list, just saying. They are wheeling out the fake celebrities, under the notion that because these people are famous, they know better than us, what a steaming pile of excrement that is. Based on what criteria? does anyone ask? Why is Young and Mitchell's opinions more important or better than your own? Are they secret medical experts? have they studied the contents and researched what is in the vaccines? a resounding NO. Even the medical expert doctors and nurses who are jabbing you, don't know that. Have we ever seen such theater and a divided peoples, what happened to the great American cry of we have freedoms, rights and choice? what an illusion that is. It is now a place where society turns on each other, based on whether they have been medically jabbed or not? From overview it is beyond pathetic and now resides in the field of mass psychosis. What we are clearly seeing now, something this show has stated for many years is, just how little people think for themselves. This is how these people are duped, a lazy assed group that can't be bothered to research anything, because that would require thinking, which is clearly beyond them. And what we are left with is, a divided peoples that even dwarfs the other retarded division game, called politics. Like assholes everyone has an opinion, but one gets their information by thinking and researching, the other gets their opinions out of somebody else's asshole, riddled with pre-prepared scripts and clichés, they all repeat like automatons. Whichever side is right and time will tell, it will be a long time before the division of the lazy and stupid and those who research and think for themselves, ever reach a trust of each other, if ever again. This is not a globalist imposed tyranny, it is the realm of the stupid, ignorant and pure lazy minded based tyranny. Arguing with these people, renders us no better than them, I warned over 4 years ago it was too late for them people, why would you argue with a person who has zero knowledge of anything? Whose only response is, trust the science, whilst I ponder in my head, have you researched the science? there is no point in answering my own question as, even the expert scientists haven't researched the science either. And all because two people did a few songs 3-4 decades ago, have been wheel chaired out of the detox lab, having addled their brains with drugs, to read out a prepared script. Joe Rogan was forced to back down a bit, but this show won't. I will carry on calling it as it is, celebrities as experts? oh dear now that is sheer desperation tactics.

THE WHAT WE ARE DOING SECTION: We are adding the must listen to shows only, back onto the YT channel and a link to the next show. We will be adding an index, bullet point type summary for every transcribed show going back to August 2018 onto the thi-show.com. We are doing a full review of all websites and bringing people who understand that field, to come up with the best solutions for all aspects of our websites. In terms of data, graphics, connections and platforms. Given my own server head has expanded exponentially in past few months, now is the time for THI & TPC to expand theirs. A full assessment is underway and any modifications or upgrades will be decided on a February 28th call.

A zoom call for the FRWL Book will be launched this coming week, keep a look out for details of that. I have now re-edited 6 of the 10 ten parts to be made available this week, for suggestions of changing the text, or further editing for grammar etc.

What we are doing in the Communal Gatherings. The Vegetable Section of the T.P.C. Food Growing Guide Database is nearing completion with more than 100 pages of plant descriptions, basic growing instructions, harvest, storage and seed saving information. The sections for Fruits, Nuts and Herbs are underway. We are also building a section for garden bed preparation, with solutions to getting started on practical and sustainable food production. This growing guide is designed to be easy to understand for people with little or no gardening experience. Each section can be released as soon as it is completed, to make the information available to the people as quickly as possible. All of the growing guide sections will fit together in a consistent format, indexed in alphabetical order. We are building a comprehensive database that can always be expanded, as the people share their experience and knowledge, an ever growing database about growing. The TPC Gardening and Non GMO Food Communal Gathering are currently meeting weekly on Saturday Mornings at 9.00 am M.S.T. The zoom link can be found in the Community Gatherings Forum under the Gardening CG Zoom Link Topic.

Universal/Natural Law Group Recap January 2022 The Law Group made an Intro to Natural Law presentation to the TPC Europe group with about 20 in attendance, including a few from Australia. Presentation was very well received-several in attendance joined the Law group, with an interest in forming a Euro Law Group and an AUS Law Group. The American Group will support this to get them started. The Law Group also decided that building the Community Model and the teaching curriculum are our highest priorities at the moment, and shall refocus our energy in these 2 areas. The Law Group compiled 2 Semesters of a self-study curriculum. The Law Group is currently forming a series of live presentations as an addition to the self-study curriculum, to be scheduled at a time all countries can attend, with a 1-hr lecture followed by Q&A to facilitate deeper learning. These will be recorded and added to the curriculum. We gave some documentation regarding the Myths of Common Law to our Aussie members to share, and gain interest in Natural Law. Australia seems to have quite a few groups who mistakenly believe common law will get them somewhere. The Law Group provided material for the upcoming THI Law show. A Law Member residing in Quebec is translating our Natural Law curriculum into French-no small effort! The Law Group proposed the Positive Action group as the action arm of the Law Group. We have provided strategic guidance and support to the PA Group's efforts and are encouraged by their progress.

The people's Club self help and support communal Gathering is unique in that it is driven solely by its members. Our only agendas and goals are to collectively support each individual member as issues, concerns and clarification-needs arise. Individual sessions are available if the issue is too delicate, or the member is unable to share collectively at any given time. There are no leaders and we are all equal to each other, no matter what level each individual is at. Confidentiality is of the utmost importance so names will never be used, and examples will be so generalized that the hidden identity of the individual is preserved. To date, our CG has been successful in assisting one member in stabilizing two family members who were suicidal. One member has successfully transitioned off of a multitude of prescription meds, and one member has resolved early childhood traumas involving astral rape. Also, another member has been able to utilize newly learned skills in resolving family conflicts, to successful resolutions without it escalating into violence and self-harm. The following are a very short list of some 50 advantages that each individual member has self-reported, that they gained from investing their time in this communal Gathering: In learning how to integrate my shadow elements, I feel like I am truly integrating my personality and becoming whole. I have gained the confidence to successfully solve my own issues, I have learned how to actively support others. The honesty, openness and safety in the group speaks to a very caring environment and encourages personal sharing. I am coming out of my shell and am able to go beyond myself in a service to others manner, for other people and the planet, itself. It's a safe space where energy is not being loosed, drained, harvested and/or manipulated.

In January of 2022, we created two women's groups, one for America/Canada, and one for Europe/Australia. We are redefining what it is to be feminine and looking at our behaviors, in order to improve ourselves individually and collectively so that we can be the way-showers for all. We have anywhere from 12-20 participants in each group and the groups have been well received. Fantastic stuff I am sure you will all agree, hopefully over time more will participate, in a manner befitting the TPC.

NEWS: Message I was asked to convey to the truckers is. Keep food stores stocked with food. Surround and block RCMP compounds, prevent them from deploying enforcement, ditto army bases. Refuse to supply food to parliaments and legislatures. Blockade politicians homes and communities, so neighbors can pressure them to talk. Refuse to supply box and chain stores that are enforcing mandates, supply local mom and pop stores. If Walmart, Costco's shelves are bare, they go down, we can restore the local economy and help the smaller, family run business owners.

As a California town is about to be run by the militia, the company known as Meta lost the largest amount in one day this morning of $220B, ESPN host when asked what is the problem with the NFL, the answer given was, white people, A Wisconsin-based spice company's held a Republicans Are Racists Weekend, promoting BLM, Texas energy grid buckling, Susan Sarandon has called into question the need for police in New York City, she posted a message likening cops at the funeral for fallen Officer Jason Rivera to fascists, The Human Rights Campaign, one of the biggest and oldest LGBTQ+ advocacy groups, was sued for discrimination by its first Black president, Turning Point USA founder Charlie Kirk ripped into Californians on Wednesday, calling them locusts that are going to destroy states like Montana and Utah. All of that was in the news this morning, a typical days news of division, agenda running programs, lack of common sense and perhaps Zuckerberg emerging as another scapegoat is unfolding?

The theater of the absurd in the UK, as the party of clowns is now being investigated for having a range of private parties for clowns, all whilst the majority of the public clowns did what they do best, comply. And that is the major news currently over there. The police clowns will spend a year investigating whether clowns had a party or not, whether it was for a party or it was a party for a party, and whether the party was aware it was a party. Quite why the police are involved as beyond parody, the keystone cops all arriving for an arrest at an illegal party, only to find it ended over a year ago. Cops will spend months now writing out reports, which is I suppose better than hiding in bushes waiting to pounce on motorists. Perhaps the public should assess whether the party having a party is valid at all? Boris Johnson & Johnson suggests it was not a party, but a work gathering for a party. To Party or not to party that is the question, and waiting in the wings to amplify a frankly ridiculous story is the Jewish juntas choice to disrupt things even further, all for the benefit of the 3rd temple, Keir Starmer.

The pin drop moment when you find out that the gofundme account set up allegedly for the truckers in Canada, was set up by a Jewish person called BJ Dichter, now it has reached over $7M. As Canada's crime Minister Justin Trudeau has slammed protests in the capital city against Covid-19 vaccine mandates as an insult to memory and truth. The enduring memory and truth Mr. Trudeau is you ran from your own countries capital like a spineless coward, yet state you will work for the Canadian people, only around 20% voted for Trudeau, only around 26% voted for Biden or Trump. They were not the popular vote in recent Western elections, the popular vote around 40%+ was the no vote. Why did they not vote? many reasons, the main one is they have no candidate to vote for.

Don't think for one minute anything that goes viral is for our benefit, weak assed clowns will never allow it. One week of this convoy and they collect $7M compared to a fair and valid organization the TPC, who have collected $100K in 5.5 years tells us you that. And therein lies the problem with people, ignore the valid groups and fall for the directed agency spin over and over again. I said 6 years ago on Alan's show, that 70% of alt media was corrupt, that was publicly, privately it knew it to be 90% plus. Now, it looks like to me 99% corrupt, I wish I was wrong on that, but the facts speak for themselves. Many truthers don't want the truth, only their version or level of it, which is set like a barrier between their ankles and knees, how can you "see" from there? the answer is you can't. Full truth can only be seen if your truth barrier goes above your 3 eyes. That is why I don't advertise, most people are not ready to face our levels of truth. The truth is what I warned in Clowns in Panic and several other shows, they are replacing everyone, like Military, Agencies and also Governments. Look at the major leaders under threat now, media have turned on Biden, Johnson, Putin, Macron and made Trudeau look weak and act like a coward. Why? One World Government, after the people themselves demanded, screamed, protested for it, problem, reaction and solution. All pushed by truthers who have low levels of knowledge, no understanding of the middle picture, never mind the bigger picture, mired in the lowest form of awakening, politics. Poly means duo, tics means parasite, so politics is ran by two parasites, take your pick, or in essence pick your poison. Only the TPC can provide an alternative. If you don't believe me, here is a quote from a more recent puppet member Klaus Schwab. Schwab said: We have to prepare for an angrier world. He also said this in 2017, we have penetrated their presidents and high level cabinet members. Who is we? does anyone outside of our show ask? They are on the inside of everything, including the planet, controlling it like a parasite, they then create the problem, they make and wait for the public to be angry, which is the reaction, and then they launch their solutions for us. Who are the problem in that scenario? the public, by falling for their repeated programs and not seeing the truth beyond their own ankles or knees.

Here is another group under threat who didn't listen. On Thursday, Patrick Yoes, the president of the National Fraternal Order of Police, a major law enforcement union, declared that the current level of violence being directed at police officers is the worst he's ever seen. His comments came nearly a week after two New York City police officers were shot dead responding to a domestic incident, and days after a Houston-area deputy was killed during a traffic stop. On the same day that he released the statement, news broke that three officers in Houston had been shot and injured. Yoes said that as crime rates continue to rise, the violence directed at law enforcement officers is skyrocketing. In an interview on Fox News the next day, the Fraternal Order of Police's national vice president, Joe Gramaldi, directed criticism at President Joe Biden. Our cities are war zones, our country is in turmoil and police officers are being hunted in the streets. Mr. Yoes, you reap what you sow, you were warned by common law groups, this show and many others to pick a side, you did and now your officers are front line for the wrath of the public. Down all tools and meet and greet the people, that will change the situation.

Here is another example of undermining the Government for an agenda. The NYT has sued the State Department on Monday, asking it to hand over emails mentioning Hunter Biden. Lawyers for The Times say the department is stalling giving them emails requested under FOIA. The Times appears to be investigating whether officials helped businesses with links to the US government. The New York Times sued the State Department on Monday, seeking access to US embassy emails that mention President Joe Biden's son Hunter, court filings show. In the lawsuit, filed in federal court in Manhattan, lawyers for The Times requested access to emails sent by officials at the US embassy in Romania between 2015 and 2019, that contain keywords including Hunter Biden, the filings show. The alt media will think this is for our benefit, wrong again, it is for their benefit, not ours.

Whoopie Goldberg despite being black has a very Jewish name, and whether she was part of this script or not remains open at this point. Yet again for many weeks running now, they bring up an event from 70 years ago, that has no bearing on the now, except to run guilt and shame programs on children who were not born at that time, or their parents for that matter. She responded to the Holocaust material going around brainwashing children, stating it wasn't racism, but people being bad to each other. This brought massive outrage from the offending by everything, but ashamed of nothing crew, who continue to pedal their own racist views on every other color, without a shred of accountability. Whoopie was forced or part of the script to back down and apologize, no surprise there. But Whoopie you were right the first time, it is about man not acting right towards one another, and only one race wants to install the race aspect into. Whoopie was subsequently suspended for 2 weeks, which reveals it was all a program to me.

The BBC and an American news outlet, ran more pro pagan da pieces this week, both questioning as to why so many people are conspiracy theorists, (M). The irony is staggering, it is they who are the conspiracy theorists, because none of their conspiracies they pass off as news, has any sort of basis for reality. It is portal people news, news for a different world and reality, so you can carry on calling us conspiracy theorists, which is ironic, because that term came from the unintelligence agencies to discount any alternative thoughts, and those are the same agencies who write your conspiracy scripts for you to read out to bots.

Here comes the media spin to make all protestors appear like lunatics, and passify the bots, which will lead to more stringent Zionist Fascist measures, all to be blamed on the protestors. The classic problem, reaction, solution. Police have started investigations after several incidents, including the appearance of swastika flags and footage of a woman dancing on the tomb of the unknown soldier. Ottawa police said in a Twitter post that several investigations were now under way into the desecration of a number of monuments in the capital city, as well as threatening/illegal/intimidating behavior to police/city workers and other individuals and damage to a city vehicle. Elsewhere across the city, truckers blocked the streets around Canada's parliament building and Ottawa's Mayor Jim Watson said some protesters had harassed staff at a soup kitchen, demanding free meals after they were turned away by restaurants for their refusal to comply with indoor mask mandates. All so predictable, I have to say and why I don't favor protests too much.

Classic media spin, designed to get the bots to turn on the public. As the first vehicles from the trucker convoy started appearing on Ottawa streets, some Twitter users shared a particular photo: a pickup truck with a confederate flag flying from the bed. Now, as the convoy descends on Ottawa with the stated aim of opposing all COVID-19 mandates, anti-hate experts allege those with white nationalist and Islamophobic views, don't just represent the fringes of the movement but are among the organizers of the convoy. We're saying that this is a far-right convoy because, from day one, the organizers themselves are part of the far-right movement, said Evan Balgord, executive director of the Canadian Anti-Hate Network. They have previously been involved in far-right movements and have made Islamophobic comments in the past. Who is they? did Balgord do a survey of the whole convoy to make that statement? Actually one of the main ones behind it, started LGBTQ and other assorted minority fringe movements. Given Mr. Balgord can make sweeping statements about people, I thought I would balance it out and use a sweeping statement written about him. Evan's job is listed as an "investigative reporter" but in reality he's the guy that tracks down Amira's targets and sends her their personal information. Evan has been known to use threats, and intimidation tactics towards people he follows around and has even attacked women and children. This guy will stop at nothing to harass and intimidate people. Showing up at their work, banging on their door in the middle of the night, and even showing up at their kids schools to harass their children while they walk home from school. That all sounds very far right to me Mr. Balgord, and another example of people accusing others of doing things, they themselves do.

Remember the piece last week about the CIA training mercenaries in Ukraine? check this out. Ukrainian police on Sunday detained a group of people suspected of preparing mass riots in the capital Kyiv and other cities, to cause instability as tensions rise with neighboring Russia, Ukraine's interior minister said on Monday. Interior Minister Denys Monastyrskiy told a televised briefing that around 5,000 people, were supposed to take part in riots and clashes with police in five cities in northern and central Ukraine. This action, which was planned in advance, was originally aimed at violent actions and organizing riots and had nothing to do with peaceful protests, he said. Yes, but he should have gone one step further and called out the CIA for organizing it.

But Ukraine authorities were not finished launching truth bombs it seems. In a stunning and unexpected outburst this week, Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelensky said that his country's current problems came from the west rather than the east. The fears of a looming war were built on news stories that, Russia had troops on the border it shares with the country but this was not unusual, and there had been a similar assembly of soldiers a year ago, he said. The truth was that threat level had not changed, he told a press conference this week. Furthermore, the real threat to Ukraine was not Russia, but the destabilization of the situation inside the country he told journalists. Which is likely another reference to the CIA trained mercenaries. The cause of the panic was the press itself, Zelensky said. The Ukrainian leader went on to slam the US, British and other Western diplomats who were fleeing the country, as if the much-described war was actually real. On the media front, the message is virtually identical in every outlet: Russia is suddenly being threatening, so the good guys are being forced to respond. US Defence Secretary Lloyd Austin said the US was committed to helping Ukraine defend itself. The BBC rolled out politician Tobias Ellwood to explain that all the problems are Russia's fault, who is the same man that is used by the media as a source of negative comments on China. The BBC failed to mention Ellwood's background, he served as part of the 77th Brigade, a British army propaganda unit focused on psychological warfare, media operations, and special influence methods, for the latter read MK Ultra.

In times of crisis you can always rely on the church to show caring, compassion and understanding, so we are told. Yet, in an all too frequent message now from the church is, we don't give a crap about you unless we need your money. The head of Cyprus' Orthodox Christian Church said Sunday that he will suspend a dozen priests from his diocese, because they refused to heed his call to get vaccinated against COVID-19. (SH)

The former badges of dishonor three star general and adviser to Trump, Michael Flynn has clearly lost the plot according to the MSM. After ranting about the pandemic during an appearance on an Infowars show. Flynn claimed Covid was invented by George Soros, Bill Gates and others in order to defeat Donald Trump. A typical media related response that, talk sense and then link it to something stupid, and so the bot people will have an excuse to turn away from the truth, a classic media tactic. Does Flynn think we are all born yesterday? Covid was created to bring down Trump! wtf, is that all about? The system will bring down all Governments and evidence as such is unfolding before our eyes, in their quest for the public version of the One World Government, they have had one in private for at least 100 years, the system all so desires. If Flynn had any clout or wherewithall to fight for the country or it's people, he would have garnered a Military support by now, to not only take back this country, but the planet as well. So, Mr. Flynn that is your task to do for the people, not talking shite with Alex Jones, who has already been disgraced in the MSM and the Alt Media circles.

Is this another case of a staged news event? A bridge in the US city of Pittsburgh has collapsed with six vehicles, including a bus, on it at the time. Officials said 10 people sustained minor injuries, three of whom were taken to hospital. The snow-covered Forbes Avenue Bridge gave way on Friday morning, sometime after 06:00 local time. The collapse happened just hours before President Joe Biden visited the area to talk about infrastructure. Biden said I didn't realise there are more bridges in Pittsburgh than in any other city, said the president, who was born in Pennsylvania, does he know of that is the state as well? We are going to fix them all, that's not a joke. No, but what is a joke Mr. Biden is you being in the one county to discuss infrastructure out of over 3000 counties, and a bridge just happens to collapse on that day, that time when you were there. Pure political theater and an excuse to railroad a bill that may contain details of infrastructure improvements, but will also contain other items of a Draconian nature.

The Internal Revenue Service is temporarily re-assigning 1,200 employees to the frontlines of a challenging 2022 tax season to deal with a daunting backlog of last year's paper returns and mail from taxpayers. Maybe the IRS heard our piece recently, maybe not, but this is a welcome move, that should have been done at the beginning.

As news emerges that Israel has a second company spying on people's phone, NSO was main group, now a group called Quadrem have been caught as well.

TerraZero Technologies has facilitated one of the first ever "metaverse mortgages" for a client buying virtual property in the ethereum-based metaverse platform Decentraland. Some experts remain skeptical about metaverse real estate, likening it more to a crypto asset than physical property. TerraZero equals no Earth - for some, the line of the week and the ultimate in complete retardedness, "some experts remain skeptical about metaverse real estate" Experts of virtual real estate? seriously? The great question is, how can you have an expert on something that is not real? But, then have we not had a physical version of that for the past 2 years? Anthony Fauci. tick tock.

MEDICAL RELATED NEWS: Economists who carried out a meta-analysis found draconian restrictions imposed in spring 2020, including stay-at-home orders, compulsory masks and social distancing, have found out now that it only reduced Covid mortality by 0.2 per cent. oops. The UK report turned on Dr. Fauci, he will be the scapegoat and as forecasted a month ago, Covid will end soon and a blaze of anger and lawsuits will follow.

A new version of the omicron variant is starting to spread around the world, called BA.2 by scientists, it has earned itself a more ominous nickname of stealth omicron, woo scary the stealth omicron lets all poop are pants. What makes stealth omicron so stealthy? It has genetic mutations researchers are concerned could make it harder to identify compared to BA.1, the original version of omicron. BA.1 has features that made it easy to distinguish it from delta using a certain PCR test. BA.2 doesn't have that same genetic quirk, so on the test, it looks like delta. But this is more of a problem for researchers, and less of a problem for the average person taking an at-home COVID test, or going to a testing site when they have symptoms. It's not that the test doesn't detect it, it's just that it doesn't look like omicron, said Dr. Wesley Long, a pathologist at Houston Methodist in Texas, which had identified three cases of BA.2 as of Tuesday. Don't get the impression that 'stealth omicron' means we can't detect it, all of our PCR tests can still detect it. But you just said that you couldn't because it looks like delta? How can the average home tester be clear but not researchers? almost as much babble as lawyers. I tell you what has been stealthy, the rape of the planet since this fake babble based rhetoric as been wheeled out. But the biggest stealthy part has been the lie.

The Czech government is ending COVID vaccine mandates to avoid 'deepening fissures' in society. The news was delivered by Prime Minister Petr Fiala at a press conference on Wednesday. Denmark went further and deleted Covid rules altogether. Angry citizens surround Pfizer headquarters in Paris, now that is proper activism and worthy of protest.

New Zealand seig heil measures again, the great question is, are they forcing out the New Zealanders for the clowns to accommodate themselves away from society? According to the latest announcement, anyone known to be infected will now be required to lock themselves in their homes for 14 days. That is only the start of it, however, because anyone else in the house automatically becomes classified as a close contact, they must also now isolate for the same period and then for an additional ten days as well. And if it so happens in those last ten days, that one of the previously un-infected close contacts in your house tests positive then the whole process starts all over again. If Omicron spreads as quickly here as it has in other countries, it seems possible that at some point nearly every household will be forced into isolation. Fortress New Zealand has also just closed its borders completely to outsiders. Tourists, visa-holders and citizens abroad will no longer be able to access the mandatory managed isolation and quarantine facilities, that newcomers are required to pass through in order to visit. No date has been given for when the old system will resume. All this despite 77% of the population being jabbed, clearly Commandant Ardern didn't get the herd immunity memo, and also clearly doesn't read the death reports of Covid either. In the past two years in a country of 5M that is pretty much isolated from the rest of the world, only 52 have people died of Covid. Yet Commandant Ardern continues with the Stazi measures? I guess she is heading for a clown top role for fulfilling it's duties of stamping all over the public, she is supposed to serve. The new Hitlery Clinton, like I have said the personalities don't matter, it is the program that needs to be attacked. As for the date when the old system will resume, the answer is, there is none, as it won't be returning.

A FOIA request date November 2021, and so sufficient time to attain records of these events, revealed this about the non transmission of Covid. The FIOA was sent to the CDC. The FOIA asked the question for any documents relating to, documents reflecting any documented cases of an individual who: 1. never received a Covid 19 vaccination, 2. was infected with Covid 19 once, who recovered and then later became infected again, and 3. transmitted SARS-Cov2 to another person when re-infected. The reply was, a search of our records failed to reveal any documents pertaining to our request, oops. That means Covid is not transmissible, it also means the jab are not required.

Some 57,563 Israelis tested positive for COVID-19 on Thursday, the Health Ministry said on Friday morning. Currently, 946 patients are in serious condition, with 213 on ventilators and 18 ventilated. A quarter (25.69%) of all test results on Thursday came back positive, as 623,010 Israelis have already received their fourth vaccine shot against corona virus. All those vaccines given to Israeli people, and yet they have the highest rates of infection cases, funny that, yet that is beyond the common sense levels of most people to put two and two together to come to a common sense conclusion. No the woke, common core and Johns Hopkins math based people continue to ignore they are being jabbed to make them sick, lose their immune system and worse, die. Ignorance is not just a monetary cost for the stupid these days, it is for your life. Question are they now killing off all the Jewish people as well as the Palestinians, Lebanese and Syrians, does the caliphate program I put out 8 years ago, now sound as absurd?

Dr. John Campbell, a retired senior nurse, broke down the numbers from a recent Freedom of Information request in the UK, which revealed the official number of those who died there in 2020 and 2021 from Covid-19. It revealed that the true death toll from Covid-19 in the UK is lower by a factor of ten, than what has hitherto been reported in the media as the Covid death toll. It just so happens that at the start of all this scam, John Hopkins deliberately missed off a decimal point, that sent 0.1 to 1.0 and they increased the death rates to generate the fear program. What was the Johns Hopkins error a factor of? ten. Not only that, the average age of death of those whose death was actually attributable to Covid-19, is higher than the average age of life expectancy in the UK. Epidemio-logically speaking, there was no pandemic. Youtube banned the broadcast of the show the doctor was on, despite him only accurately repeating the official statistics from the Office of National Statistics website! Ya see they don't like people talking truth and sense, even if it is from their own stats, extraordinary behavior.

VAERS published 726,963 adverse events, including 15,386 deaths as of September 17, 2021 CDC fraud expert says that number of deaths is at least five times, and possibly ten times higher, there is that factor of ten again. A whistleblower from the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Service (CMS) revealed how almost 50,000 people died from the injections. They represent only 20% of the U.S. population, meaning that if this data is applied to the entire population 250,000 have died. 150,000 reports have been rejected or scrubbed by the VAERS system. The actual number of anaphylaxis is 50 to 120 times higher than claimed by the CDC. Everyone who dies before two weeks after the second injection, is not considered a vaccine death, which causes the majority of early vaccine deaths to be ignored. Moderna received over 300,000 reports of adverse events in only three months-time. The Lazarus Report shows that only 1% of adverse events is being reported by the public. The majority of the population is not aware of the existence of systems, where they can report vaccine adverse events. Aggressive censorship and propaganda told the public that adverse events are rare, causing people to not understand how their health problems stem from past injections. The shaming and blaming of medical professionals who say anything against the vaccines, cause many in the medical community to avoid reporting adverse events. The fear of being held accountable after administering an injection that killed or disabled patients, further prevents medical personnel from reporting it. Having accepted financial incentives to promote, and administer the Covid vaccines, also stops medical personnel from reporting adverse events. Profit driven vaccine manufacturers have every reason not to report the destruction, their untested experimental products are causing. 250,000+ Facebook users comment about vaccine deaths and serious injuries Health care workers are paid or pressured to register all patients as Covid. The tens of millions of flu cases every year are now all Covid. A forensic German coroner examined 140 coronadalties and said, they all died of other causes and there is no killer virus. Doctors get hidden messages requiring them to register dying patients as Covid deaths. A network of 20 hospitals is caught increasing Covid numbers to create fear. Innumerable people worldwide are outraged because they were incorrectly registered as Covid. Funeral directors admit they see false Covid registrations all the time. CNN technical director Chester confessed they inflate Covid numbers because fear sells. An African government official is seen in a Zoom call discussing how to ramp up Covid numbers, in order to continue the lockdowns. The Italian politician Vittorio is infuriated because he sees how the chamber is lying, only a small percentage died of Covid. A funeral director witnesses the murder of thousands of elderly, to create so-called Covid deaths. He and dozens of other funeral directors were instructed by the British government to label every death as Covid. Once the vaccinations started, these funeral directors witnessed an unprecedented explosion of deaths.

Interestingly the CDC spat out more truth this past week, in relation to myocarditis and the vaccines. Evidence from multiple safety monitoring systems in multiple countries, supports the findings of an increased risk of myocarditis and myopericarditis following the MRNA vaccines. Risk is highest in adolescents and young adults, more male than female and more events after the 2nd jab than the first. Onset clusters within a few days of vaccination, that was all their own words. The mention of clusters backs up our claim that certain batches of vaccines are different to others. If the highest risk is adolescents, who the CDC and others declared at the beginning of the pandemic, as immune or extremely low risk of getting Covid, then why are they continuing to push these vaccines? Why are clowns like Biden and Ardern amongst others, insisting on mandates for vaccines with these ongoing risks? Once this program all dies down, it will be clear to all that, the vaccines causes more adverse effects and deaths than the Covid did. If your an adult, who consented to these jabs, that is your own fault, you have no one else to blame except yourself. Due to trusting people inside a box within your household, trusting a doctor or nurse who neither have knowledge of what is in the vials, yet criminally in my opinion continue to jab people despite their lack of knowledge or research. Lazy assed trusting on something's you don't understand or bothered to understand is the real pandemic on this planet, all of which is mired in a lack of personal responsibility.

This week I posted a graphic with figures from the CDC, titled the flu cases. Flu season 2019-2020 38M, flu season 2020-2021 1822 and all I said was oops. FB flagged it using a person by the name of Dana Ford. She is an Atlanta-based reporter and editor, she previously worked as a senior editor at Atlanta Magazine Custom Media and as a writer/editor for CNN Digital. She worked for CNN, the bastion of non factual news, what a debit mark that is on your CV. Perhaps some people need to request to Ms. Ford of which side she is on? FB stated this: Does the fact that flu cases plummeted during the pandemic raise questions about infection statistics? No, that's not true. Erm I did not state that did I Facebook? but your jumping at it to defend it, does, and so thanks for that. They then went onto explaining how the figures are apples and oranges, now why didn't they use that term at the beginning? no you went with Johns Hopkins school of fake maths. They searched for the 1822 figure on the CDC, and said that only matched week 10, ok, lets do some proper maths then. Given the 1822 is for one week as they say, 1822×52 weeks = 94744 flu cases, now lets do Johns Hopkins maths with that figure and times it by their imaginary factor of 10, so now we have 947K flu cases compared to 38M the previous year. Is that proof enough for you? or do you wish to deflect it further with more fruit based maths?

OTHER PIECES: Earth's second Trojan asteroid a space rock that shares the same orbit around the sun as a planet, has been discovered by astronomers. This second example, named 2020 XL5, will remain trapped in the same orbit as Earth for at least 4,000 years, according to an international team of researchers. Trojan asteroids orbit in the same plane as a planet, but don't collide with it because they occur in dead zones, where gravitational forces allow the space rock to circle in a sweet spot at precisely the same speed as the planet. Questions, is this Rahu and Ketu they have just "found"? 2. where gravitational forces allow the space rock to circle in a sweet spot at precisely the same speed as the planet, just like the moon then. Amazing how all these moons or trojan asteroids all find the exact same space, isn't it?

Stacey Macken sued BNP Paribas for sex discrimination and victimization after finding a witch's hat on her desk. A UK court accepted her claim and awarded her nearly £2.1 million ($2.8 million) damages. The offended by everything crew, lawyers do themselves no favors doing ridiculous cases like these. They like the clients are money grabbing bastards. Can't even do or make a joke these days, it seems.

This was a piece on researching Tulsi Gabbard, but revealed quite a bit more to be relayed into the show. She took her oath of office as a member of Congress on the Hindu religious text, the Bhagavad Gita, and she generally follows the Vaishnava-Hindu sect and its sub-school, Sri Chaitanya Mahaprabhu, the latter affiliated with the Science of Identity Foundation. In many ways, Gabbard follows in the tradition of Stanley Ann Dunham Obama Soetoro, who joined the Indonesian-based Subud movement founded by Muhammad Subuh Sumohadiwidjojo. Subud and the Society of Identity Foundation found an important base of operations in Hawaii, just like Obama. More importantly, these religious sects acted as fronts for intelligence agencies, what a surprise that is. Are there any connections on this planet that is not a front for unintelligent agencies? For the Society of Identity Foundation, it is the Indian Research and Analysis Wing (RAW). For Subud, it was the CIA and the Indonesian Operational Command, for the Restoration of Security and Order. (m) The CIA for security and order, oh my what a laugh that is, insecurity and order out of chaos springs to mind, or just disorder. Interesting it is linked with Indonesian Operational Command, remember the Soekarno, Kennedy, Sino, Keenan and other clowns talking of the collateral accounts out of Indonesia? Well now you know who they all worked for. Intelligence agencies have long relied on cults, for field testing of psychological mass control techniques and political infiltration. Two examples of CIA-directed cults are the Peoples Temple of Jim Jones and the Chinese Falun Gong. What a surprise that is. The Unification Church of the late Reverend Sun Myung Moon, also had significant links to the CIA and the Korean Central Intelligence Agency. Which is why Korea is in a mess and split into two countries, just like Germany was, and many other countries, all under the dark forces shadow of the CIA. Remember the other cult in Tibet and the Dali Lama was also a CIA asset. Just as Israel's Mossad influences the operations of Jewish cults abroad, including the Chabad Movement, India's RAW, particularly under the Hindu nationalist Bharatiya Janata Party of Modi, maintains close links with various Hindu extremist groups and overseas sects. So, the Chabad is an Israeli cult and not a religious movement, well I never. Interesting that the Israeli Mossad is closely linked with India, I guess FRWL was right all along. These include the Hindu organization, Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh (RSS). The Hindu cults will likely come under the Langley 3 Division, known as the Muslim Brotherhood, whose leader is Barry Soetero of Hawaii, Kenya, not Hawaii the island, stolen from them and handed over to the American harvesting lands and countries association. RSS opponents accuse it of being the armed paramilitary wing of the BJP, much like the Irish Republican Army is the armed component of the Sinn Fein nationalist party of Ireland and Northern Ireland. Just as the IRA has carried out assassinations of British politicians, the RSS has chalked up a number of assassinations, including that of Mahatma Gandhi in New Delhi in 1948.

Words not understood or having differing meanings. Oriental (n.) native or inhabitant of the east 1701, from oriental (adj.). Probably a new use; Middle English had Oriental a native of the Orient (late 15c.), also a resident of the eastern parts of England (mid-15c.). Orient which comes from Occident just means the East, and is not related to just the Chinese or Asia. Occident is similar to Occitan, which is the Eastern region of France who are/were fiercely independent like their border neighbors the Catalans. Easterling (n.) resident of an eastern land in England, especially Hanse merchants and others from the North Sea Coast of Germany, and the southern and eastern coast of the Baltic, early 15c., from easter, obsolete variant of eastern + -ling. Which reveals hidden pagan deity connotations. Nice: Mediterranean seaport of France, ceded to France in 1860 by Sardinia; ancient Nicaea, from Greek nikaios victorious, from nikē victory. Nizzard a resident of Nice is from Nizza, the Italian form of the city name. So, the French town of Nice, has it's roots in the church of Italy. But it also has it roots in another of the pagan deities, Nike, the goddess of victory. Caucasian (n.) resident or native of the Caucasus, 1843; see Caucasian (adj.). meaning one of the 'white' race" is from 1830. So, the term white race was more commonly used back then, unlike now. Outside of this show and private halls of the Synagogues of the Hebrew Satan realms, the term white race is rarely used, I wonder why! Londoner (n.) resident or native of London, mid-15c., earlier (late 14c.) was Londenoy, from Anglo-French Londenois. So, like the 3 lions said to be a symbol of Britain, when it is actually French Houses, now the capital city name comes from France also. It's real name becomes clear if you add baby in front of it, don means a region or borough. American (n.) 1570s, originally one of the aboriginal peoples discovered in the Western Hemisphere by Europeans, from Modern Latin Americanus, from America (q.v.). The original sense is now Native Americans; the sense of resident of North America of European (originally British) descent is from 1765. Oops some much for the Independence a year later! Michigan a name originally applied to the lake, perhaps from Old Ojibwa (Algonquian) *meshi-gami meaning big lake. And they like London has a French flavor, because the spelling is French. Organized as a U.S. territory 1805, admitted as a state 1837. A resident is a Michigania (1813); Michigander (1848) seems to have been a humorous coinage of Abraham Lincoln in reference to Lewis Cass. Habitant (n.) late 15c., a dweller, a resident, from Old French habitant, abitant inhabitant, from noun use of Latin habitantis, genitive plural of habitans, present participle of habitare to live, inhabit, dwell, frequentative of habere "to have, to hold, possess" (from PIE root *ghabh- "to give or receive"). Specific meaning a native Canadian of French descent attested by 1789, it was the usual word for small farmers in 18c. Quebec, and Bartlett (1848) describes habitant as an Americanism for the lower class of Canadians of French origin. Amazing how many times France crops up in these words, think Rothschild's and the House of Orange is why. Algeria: North African country, named for Algiers, city chosen by the French as its capital when they colonized the region in 1830 + Latinize "country" suffix -ia, yet again the French connection. The city name is Arabic al-Jazair, literally the islands (plural of jezira) in reference to four islands formerly off the coast, but joined to the mainland since 1525. Related: Algerian (1620s); a resident of the place (especially indigenous, as opposed to French colonists) also could be an Algerine (1650s), and that word was practically synonymous with "pirate" in English and U.S. usage early 19c. Pirate? yes because the islands were separate from the land, and eventually joined the land. The pirates of the sea, went onto the lands and became cor-pirates. Denizen (n.) early 15c., a citizen, a dweller, an inhabitant, especially legally established inhabitant of a city or borough, a citizen as distinguished from a non-resident native or a foreigner, from Anglo-French deinzein, denzein. Old French deinzein- one within, the privileges of a city franchise; opposed to foreign one without. So a denizen is part of a franchise, and one without franchise is called foreign, which is where the term foreigner derives from. From deinz within, inside, from Late Latin deintus, from de- from + intus within. Historically, an alien admitted to certain rights of citizenship in a country; a naturalized citizen, but ineligible to public office, unless of course you reside in America and those rules don't apply, hello Obama. Formerly also an adjective, within the city franchise, having certain rights and privileges of citizenship (late 15c.). Nazarene (n.) c. 1200, holy man, early 13c., a native or resident of Nazareth, said to be the childhood home of Jesus, from Late Latin Nazarenus, from Greek Nazarenos, from Hebrew Natzerath. As an adjective from late 13c. As "a follower of Jesus" from late 14c. In Talmudic Hebrew notzri, literally "of Nazareth," was used dismissively for "a Christian;" likewise Arabic Nasrani (plural Nasara). In Christian use, however, it can be a nickname for Jesus, or refer to an early Jewish Christian sect (1680s in English), or, in modern use, to a member of the Church of the Nazarene, a U.S.-based Protestant denomination (1898 in this sense). Very little is known about Nazareth from the ancient sources. Outside of the New Testament, Nazareth is never mentioned until the Byzantine period (4th c. AD). Which brings in the Council of Nicaea who created it in their image. So, clearly Jesus was not that important until that Council meeting, neither was Nazareth given the various names it has gone by. It has also been known as En Nasira, Japhia, Mash-had, en-Nasirah, Nazerat, Yafti en Nasra, evidence of the small word shifting, far in the past as well, with the Nazareth of Galilee, Nazareth in Galilee. Such an important place and yet they changed the name several times? Jesus is said to have spent his boyhood years in Nazareth before beginning his ministry when he was about 30. After moving his home to Capernaum, Jesus returned to teach in the synagogue of Nazareth twice more, but was rejected both times. On one occasion the towns people were so outraged at Jesus that they tried to throw him off a cliff to his death. Nice people there it seems, I guess they didn't buy into the son of god script either. Capernaum was not in Israel either, it was in what should be classed as Syria, until the Association of Harvesters arrived and think all land belongs to them, when in reality they are a nomadic diaspora who arrived here from elsewhere, and attach to everything like the parasites they are. Pilgrim (n.) c. 1200, pilgrim, a person traveling to a holy place, as a penance or to discharge some vow or religious obligation. So, American was not a holy place, that means they were fleeing as a penance/punishment for wrongdoings. Pilgrim also means seeking some miracle or spiritual benefit, also a traveler generally, a wayfarer, from Old French pelerin, peregrin pilgrim, crusader; foreigner, stranger. Crusader brings in the Knights of Jerusalem, foreigner we now know means unfranchised. 11c., Modern French pèlerin, from Late Latin pelegrinus, a dissimilation of Latin peregrinus foreigner, stranger, foreign resident. This is the source of drinks names of Italian pellegrino, Spanish peregrino, German Pilger, from peregre (adv.) from abroad, from per- beyond + agri, locative case of ager country, land from PIE root agro- field. Pilgrim turned into a grim pill for Americans. Dwell (v.) Old English dwellan to lead into error, deceive, mislead, related to dwelian to be led into error, go wrong in belief or judgment, from Proto-Germanic *dwaljana to delay, hesitate, *dwelana go astray. Source also of Old Norse dvelja to retard, delay, Danish dvæle "to linger, dwell," Swedish dväljas to dwell, reside. So, to enter a dwelling you retard and linger, whilst also being led into error and deception. Sounds just like the Mortgage industry that to me, now you know why. Nice, Nike and pagan worship, brings in the word victory and produces another word and description that may become indicative. Nicene (adj.) late 14c., of or pertaining to Nicaea (Greek Nikaia, modern Turkish Isnik), city in Bithynia where an ecclesiastical council of 325 C.E. dealt with the Arian schism and produced the Nicene Creed. A separation or division into factions. A formal breach of union within a religious body, especially a Christian church. The offense of attempting to produce such a breach. So the Council of Nicaea dealt with the Arians back then and created an alternative religion.

In the past week there has been memorials for two events, the rest of the year there are other memorials dedicated to events in Liverpool, Hawaii, America and many others. The question I ponder on is, should we still be doing these memorials so many years on? A testy subject for many and many would be frightened of addressing them, but not in this show. The two memorials were the Holocaust reminder, which sadly is not an annual event, but a repeated almost daily meme, and the 2nd one was in Derry or Londonderry depending on allegiances, for the Bloody Sunday memorial. The Holocaust is all too familiar to address, but everyone has heard of the Bloody Sunday event which passed 50 years this week. The general gist is there was a protest march that got ugly, and ended up with British soldiers firing on the protestors and 14 died in all. Anger rages on both sides still today, yet if only the people came together they will realize they were all played, in the classic divide and conquer tactic all too familiar, an all so easy a card to play. That isle has been the scene of interference for a long time past, the Tuatha De Danaan, the Catholic Church, the House of Orange, elements of the Black Sun via the Kennedy's, and the Dutch and British empires of the Tea Trading Company variety, both ran by the Rothschild's, has brought much suffering, slavery and death to those isles. The IRA whose funds were received from many American's particularly in Boston, which was subsidized by the Black Sun Kennedy, cost many British peoples lives as well, yet curiously there is no public attention memorials for them. What makes one death more important to publicize than another? the answer is those selected for public memorials have an agenda behind them. Should we the public be dredging up painful emotions year on year for events that took place before many people were born? It is an emotive question, to some of those who were actually involved, some will say no and some will say yes. But, from a sympathetic objective overview stance, after a certain period of years, it really should be dropped. I don't see the value of dredging up the past, stirring unpleasant experiences, sadness, and in most cases seeking justice, too often tied into monetary recompense. Money will never bring back a lost one, will never pay back for a lost one, will never replace the lost one either, and so why pursue it? some people will not be happy with that statement, and yet if you understood it on a wider scale, they would come to the same conclusion. Money is a program, the same program of generating money that brought us many of these selected memorials, why replicate it? When you understand the compensation you receive, if it is ever enough? as the one people who do gain from lawsuits are the army of snake oil lawyers harvesting the public's funds. The pay outs are paid back by people who were never involved in it, how is that beneficial? So, the public end up paying for costly hearing, public reviews, endless streams of documentation, to pay back one person for their loss, which never rectifies the loss to begin with. This type of retribution culture needs to change going forward, as money can and never will repay the loss, memorials dredges up lower vibrational emotions, it loops you back into an eternal past, when the focus should be on the future. Which brings in the emotions of anger and revenge, is that a good state you should be getting people into each year that passes? The main issue these events bring is, the transferred anger and hatred to a group of people the majority of which were not involved in it, and yet end up paying for it, in terms of funds and the shame and guilt program. There is another memorial event in my birth place, every April 15th a reminder of the horror events of those who attended a football match and never came back. It is 33 years on now and still it is reminded on an almost weekly basis of that day, with endless court appearances and hearings to find out what those running it, call the truth. But the people don't want the truth in that event or the Bloody Sunday event, because if the real truth is revealed on both events, many would not handle or accept it. In relation to Bloody Sunday, a private memo of the past revealed it was Martin McGuinness who fired the first shot that day, that caused the soldiers to return fire. Yes, the same McGuinness said to be running campaigns for the Irish people, which generated at lot of money for a separate agenda I might add, along with his mercenary army buddy Gerry Adams. If you don't agree with that answer this one question, what has Sinn Fein done that is beneficial for the Irish people? The Irish people bought into it, point the fingers at the British Army and then it's people, but McGuinness wore the badge of Hibernian a Masonic cult, and Gerry Adams was a Knight of Malta, and so both were in the Establishment clubs, that facilitate these crimes on the people for a hierarchical purpose and end. In regards to the Hillsborough event, there was blame on all sides and that is where it should end. But, the supporters of Liverpool FC whose people died, have this innate ability and sense of self entitlement, it is never their fault, and some sort of superiority complex, that eerily resembles the same program associated with the Holocaust, is that indicative? The fans were the main ones to blame, because if everyone went into that stadium in an orderly fashion, this tragic event would have never happened. Yes, poor policing and stadium factors played into the mix, but 4K people trying to get in that game with no ticket, plus drunken and violent behavior outside of the ground, of trying to pull a cop off his horse, and trying to knock down a 20 foot gate to get in without paying, has suddenly all been forgotten in the sympathy and compensation culture. These are the same fans who 4 years earlier killed 39 people in a stadium, due to poor behavior, and yet the events of that day are hardly ever covered in the local press, and no memorial for those lost that day. It is airbrushed from history like the many other atrocities that are never memorialized. That is the truth whether people like it or not on those two events. And people will say but that is not personal to you and so you would have those opinions, because you are not Irish or a fan of Liverpool FC, you would be wrong in thinking that way. All people born in Liverpool have Irish connections, and one person who died in Hillsborough was known well to me, in fact we had been to matches together although supporters of rival clubs. I was a close friend of his father, he campaigned against compensation and was thrown out of the Hillsborough committee for saying so. The events of what happened at Hillsborough were relayed to me by fans who were at the game, and reported the very poor behavior of their own fans also. But, where is the memorial for the 1.7M people that were killed in one day in Iran, by Ghengis Khan/Cohen? why is that not in his story books or memorialized, given it is the biggest man made loss in history? Why are one group of people killed honored better than any others? is that the right and honorable thing to do? is requesting compensation for events placing a burden on people who are paying back for something most of them were not involved in, make it right? Is hating on a group of people you assign blame to, an honorable thing to do? The Battle of the Boyne from 400 years ago is still generating hate and anger against the British people, when in fact it had nothing to do with the British people, and everything to do with the Rothschild's, The Vatican and the House of Orange. There are no Protestant religious people, a protestant was a catholic who was protesting the catholic church, we the people have been duped on a massive scale. You want retribution? go after the Rothschild's, The Vatican and the House of Orange cult, as one peoples. End their reign of terror on the people by coming together, not using memorials set up for you to generate hate and anger against the wrong culprit. Perhaps some Irish radio stations should focus on the truth and bring people together, instead of pushing savior programs and where all going to 5D. Should we learn to move on better? should memorials be private events only? and should public events have a moratorium of a set period of years?

All valid questions an adult advancing species should address, because the current ways are not working for we the people.

EXPOSE: The issue of waste in America's endless wars should certainly not be ignored, given its immense costs to taxpayers. As early as 2011, ten years into the Afghan war, the congressionally-mandated Commission on Wartime Contracting estimated that, there had already been between $31 billion and $60 billion in waste related to contracting in the two war zones. There has been no comparable analysis since, but it's safe to say that there have been tens of billions more in waste, including criminal fraud in the most recent ten years of war. The Special Investigator General for Afghan Reconstruction has produced scores of reports documenting waste in Afghanistan, even as it has helped convict 160 companies and individuals of fraud and saved taxpayers $3.8 billion in the process. The United States has used private contractors going all the way back to the Revolutionary War, and an estimate cited in the Wall Street Journal indicates, that there was roughly one contract employee for every seven troops during World War II. Ah the private contractors and front groups rears it's head again, all connected to agency groups and in particular the CIA. During the Vietnam War, there was an increase in the use of contractors to maintain increasingly complex weapons systems alongside troops in the field, as well as the use of private air transport companies like Air America. Except Air America is not private at all, it is another CIA front. The real surge in the use of contractors, however, came at the end of the Cold War, when then-Secretary of Defense Dick Cheney commissioned a study by Halliburton, assessing whether it would be possible to privatize all major support services for US troops overseas, with a special focus on areas of conflict. Halliburton said yes, and the Pentagon promptly moved to contract out these services. When he left government, Cheney went on to serve as CEO of Halliburton, in a blatant example of the conflicts of interest inherent in the revolving door between government and industry. In reality he was working for them whilst in the Government. Once Cheney became vice president in the George W. Bush administration, it was Halliburton's KBR unit that made tens of billions of dollars, provisioning and supporting US troops and the US rebuilding effort in Iraq. In short, Halliburton was good to Cheney, and the government Cheney helped run was good to Halliburton. Another example of self generating funds, that quite frankly is beyond absurd. Which Military the world over, goes into an enemy country, blitzes it and then sends in contractors to rebuild it! All at a cost to the American public, I might add. Contractors not only aren't worth it, but are a blight on our economy. It would have been hard for the US military to sustain two decades of war in Iraq and Afghanistan without the use of contractors, but that's part of the problem. The United States should not seek to repeat the mistakes of those two wars, which the costs of War Project at Brown has documented cost a total of 8 trillion dollars. To put that into perspective, those wars cost every American $25K each, with interest payments added to that, that will not end until around 2050. The deaths of thousands of US troops and hundreds of thousands of civilians in the war zones, not to mention physical wounds and post-traumatic stress syndrome, on hundreds of thousands of troops who served in those conflicts. The results are in, a sectarian regime in Iraq helped create the conditions for ISIS to make major territorial gains, and Afghanistan is now run by the Taliban. The consequences of these ill-conceived wars will be with us years to come. If we don't want to be ripped off by contractors, we shouldn't fight the unnecessary wars that they help enable, indeed hello clowns at Langley. Shutting down the rogue elements in that place, along with all of their fronts and subsidiaries, would save the country hundreds of billions per year, and trillions over a multi year period. Another downside of heavy reliance on contractors is that they disguise the full costs of war. Casualties among contractors don't spark the same public concern as casualties among uniformed troops, even though in Afghanistan there were thousands of contractors killed. This is evident from the lack of press coverage on the topic, as opposed to the posting of photos and listing names of troops killed in the New York Times, and other publications like the Military Times. As the US has fought wars, the use of private contractors has increased. Private contractors do everything from laundry and food supply, building military bases, maintaining weapons systems, to training police and military forces. What was left out was, election interfering, torture techniques and money laundering. At the peak of contractor involvement in Iraq and Afghanistan, there were 155,000 contractor personnel in the two war zones, more than the 145,000 uniformed troops there. Ultimately, hiding the full costs of war, from the number of casualties to the true size of the force, makes unnecessary conflicts more sustainable. All of this suggests that even as we strive to end all of America's open-ended wars, the Pentagon should scale back its use of private contractors, not only to curb waste, but to make the costs of war more transparent and make the Pentagon more accountable to the American public. The post-9/11 surge in Pentagon spending resulted in $14 trillion in Pentagon spending from 2001 to 2020, up to half of which went to contractors. Which means Contractors contributed to a 1/4 of the current National Debt, and war itself contributed 1/2 of the National debt. The biggest beneficiaries by far were the top five weapons contractors, namely Lockheed Martin, Boeing, Raytheon, General Dynamics, and Northrop Grumman. These five companies alone have split $2.1 trillion in contracts since 2001. To give some sense of scale, Lockheed Martin alone received $75 billion in Pentagon contracts in 2020, which was more than one and one-half times, the combined budgets of the State Department and the Agency for International Development. You wish to know why America is in a mess, that article explains it in full. The war machine and their greed and evil, are the very problem that not only economically bankrupts the nation and it's people, but sours opinions of all Americans abroad, and renders us a pariah nation. America has been in almost perpetual war since it's alleged foundation, due to Jewish EL-ites and their harvesting regime, and it is time this whole operation of death, harvesting and bankrupting not only in terms of finances, but morals as well, is closed down for good.

EXPOSE: In 1918 a disastrous number of 50 -100 million people supposedly died of what was called the Spanish flu, was it Spanish or Sephardic? An expert eye witness of this event was the medical scientist Eleanor McBean, PhD, N.D. who wrote a book with her first hand experiences of what was truly going on. She explains there wasn't really a flu, but mass vaccinations had been imposed on the population, causing flu-like symptoms, a host of different illnesses, and massive deaths. She knew of not a single unvaccinated person who died of this alleged Spanish flu, while most vaccinated lost their lives. I was an on-the-spot observer of the 1918 influenza epidemic. All the doctors and people who were living at the time of the 1918 Spanish Influenza epidemic say, it was the most terrible disease the world has ever had. Strong men, hale and hearty one day, would be dead the next. The disease had the characteristics of the black death added to typhoid, diphtheria, pneumonia, smallpox, paralysis, and all the diseases the people had been vaccinated with immediately following World War 1. Practically the entire population had been injected or seeded with, a dozen or more diseases or toxic serums. When all those doctor-made diseases started breaking out all at once, it was tragic. That pandemic dragged on for two years, kept alive with the addition of more poison drugs, administered by the doctors who tried to suppress the symptoms. Are the doctors administering them, the Avian doctors of the black plague? Anunnaki has 5 groups not just the reptile based Draco, one is Avian, think of Thoth and Set, you know the Great re SET. As far as I could find out, the flu hit only the vaccinated. Those who had refused the shots escaped the flu. My family had refused all the vaccinations so we remained well all the time. We knew from the health teachings of Graham, Trail, Tilden, and others, that people cannot contaminate the body with poisons without causing disease. When the flu was at its peak, all the stores were closed as well as the schools, businesses and even the hospital, as the doctors and nurses had been vaccinated too and were down with the flu. No one was on the streets, it was like a ghost town. We, who didn't take any vaccines seemed to be the only family which didn't get the flu, so my parents went from house to house doing what they could to look after the sick, as it was impossible to get a doctor then. If it were possible for germs, bacteria, viruses, or bacilli to cause disease, they had plenty of opportunities to attack my parents, when they were spending many hours a day in the sick rooms. But they didn't get the flu, and they didn't bring any germs home to attack us children and cause anything. None of our family had the flu, not even a sniffle, and it was in the winter with deep snow on the ground. It has been said that the 1918 flu epidemic killed 20,000,000 people throughout the world. But the doctors killed them with their crude and deadly treatments and drugs. This is a harsh accusation but it is nevertheless true, judging by the success of the drugless doctors in comparison with that of the medical doctors. While the medical men and medical hospitals were losing 33% of their flu cases, the non-medical hospitals such as Battle Creek, Kellogg and Macfadden's Health Restorium were getting almost 100% healings with their water cure, baths, enemas, etc., fasting and certain other simple healing methods, followed by carefully worked out diets of natural foods. One health doctor didn't lose a patient in eight years.

The very successful health treatment of one of those drugless doctors who didn't lose any patients will, be given in the other part of this book, titled Vaccination Condemned, to be published a little later. If the medical doctors had been as advanced as the drugless doctors, there would not have been those 20 million deaths from the medical flu treatment. There was seven times more disease among the vaccinated soldiers than among the unvaccinated civilians, and the diseases were those they had been vaccinated against. Then like now, the US Military were involved in the jabbing, the disease spreading, the proliferation of it and the ensuing deaths of it. One soldier who had returned from overseas in 1912 told me, that the army hospitals were filled with cases of infantile paralysis, and he wondered why grown men should have an infant disease. Now, we know that paralysis is a common after-effect of vaccine poisoning. Those at home didn't get the paralysis until after the worldwide vaccination campaign in 1918. Seven men dropped dead in a doctor's office after being vaccinated. Letters were sent to their families said that they had been killed in military action. Eleanor McBean, PhD, N.D. Her expert medical eye witness account was later confirmed by autopsies, which showed there indeed wasn't a flu, but the suffering was caused by random dosages of an experimental bacterial meningitis vaccines, which to this day, mimics flu-like symptoms. The massive, multiple assaults with additional vaccines on the unprepared immune systems of soldiers and civilians created a killing field. Those that were not vaccinated were not affected. The Spanish flu and Covid like the Black Plague and other global diseases before them, were all manufactured events for their masses extinctions. Yes, it is their not our, those doing it are not us, not our type of human. These are the beings in the bible, who said they would make us like them, you know the same ones who said if you don't follow me or us, we will send fiery serpents for you or the fear of god. You know the same beings that had the word incest mentioned 54 times in the bible, the same as the Pharaohs, The Royals, The Nobility and the bloodline families do, to keep their control system going. Those of us not in those categories, despite all being a different race of humans need to come together to build a new world in a better image, than the one they created for us. We have to accept all the science has lied to us, you cannot have white children just miraculously born out of black parents, like some modern day version of Michael Jackson, all dressed and moon dancing like a latter day Melchizedek, going he-he, it makes zero sense and we have to accept that we are not one and the same species. We are not from the same planet either, we have to accept that as well, but that does not mean we cannot all work together to fight our enemy, the slave masters largely of a Hebrew Anunnaki flavor, that goes under the moniker of being Jewish, when they are not. That goes under the moniker of being human, when they are not. They are a parasitic race that feeds off of us all, regardless of color or even if you are Jewish.

Next Tuesday we will have our first Must Listen to show of the year, called The Peoples Law. It will be a very interesting show that will lead to another Must Listen to show and then something bigger.

Scientists in South America are investigating a strange phenomenon: Some newborn babies from vaccinated parents in Mexico have black eyes, while normally the eyes of newborns are lightly colored. It also appears that these babies are aging too fast, as they can stand and even walk at only three months old. Sounds like a Melchizedek baby to me, maybe the jabs have something to do with it, ponder on that.

The fear porn channel launched their latest fear campaign on the public, from their IBM based weather channel this week. Using the term bombogenesis, one has to ask is that meaning they are bombing of the genes of Isis? Given Islam means Isis hidden, will the worship of Isis country Israel be bombing the Islam people again? Would that then be called Gene therapy?

Be aware of the misnamed word magic sporting event coming up next week, called the Super Bowl, but it's real name pays homage to Moloch, the superb owl. Given it is number 56 which equals 11 and is another of their magic numbers, likely symbolizing Joachim and Boaz, then people should be aware. The fact it is in Kalifornia, home of the Bohemian Owl ritual sacrifice ceremonies raises more concerns. I would boycott that game altogether, or if you wish to watch it, turn off the half time advertisement and ritual fest at least.

I found a piece whilst researching, I thought would be useful for the show, it said. This was then mixed with human and wild lion DNA to form the common house cat found on Earth. Personally I disagree with that statement, because they clearly used reptile DNA to produce the eyes. The cat was given to every home in ancient Egypt, and programmed to leave at night to report back to their alien controllers. This is why cats to this day have the urge to go out at night, this also explains their aloof nature. The Sirian's (Sirius) incorporated worship of the cat idol into the Egyptian religion to ensure the perpetuity of this method of spying. Earlier I mentioned using our 3 eyes to see, yet the clowns have their spying group called 5 eyes, so who are the other two eyes? the cat.

We developed to not only think different, but act different. But, think and act different that has been done in a right, righteous and better way. We stand alone because we are different. We share our life force energy, while other life force's harvest and drain it. We are the only flower in the garden, that is not over ran by parasitic weeds. We are not a continent, we are an island. We don't just live on a rock, we are the rock.
