

THI-SHOW TRANSCRIPT 2022-02-10

TPC Positive Action Monthly Recap January 2022 TPC Positive Actions collaboratively worked to create a flier to generate interest, including a mission statement: TPC Positive Actions Group applies people-first solutions to make old outworn systems of society obsolete-to clear the path for a more heart-centered future for us all. PA formed a social media team and created an email account and new social media accounts. Our goals are threefold: Inspire Action. Asking provocative questions to encourage standing up for ourselves and each other. Promote self-responsibility which starts with one-and will grow into communities as the key to future freedom from tyranny. Bring awareness to the TPC and our Communal Gatherings, and increase donations in 2022. The PA Social Media team has a new member who is a graphic designer, who created a vector of the TPC Logo for our use. A vector is an art image which can be used in any format without distortion of the artwork. He also gave the team a PowerPoint presentation of the basics of design to elevate our social media campaign. Promo Editing Team was formed, to break the TPC Promo into smaller sections we can use in our various social media efforts. The PA group decided to switch gears in our focus and the team is furiously researching this new strategy. We agree as a group this new approach will have a stronger impact to facilitate the end of ridiculous mandates in schools and beyond. We are requesting all Communal Gatherings write a mission statement and brief description to add to the icons on the CG homepage. Since we will be increasing visitors to the site, adding this will help newcomers decide if they want to pay the $2 and join. Team Leaders please submit to Mission Statements folder on Positive Action CG.

We at the FRWL CG have prepared an editing and proofreading guide. A method of organizing our committee functioning has been proposed, and will be decided when we have our next zoom meeting. Possible cover style for the series and the blurb for the back cover of the first book have been proposed, and are awaiting discussion and approval or modification. All THI members are welcome to comment on the design or make suggestions. Methods of publishing and distribution have been suggested and need to be investigated and discussed in depth. We are hoping for THI site modifications that will enable uploading of more document formats, but we can work around that if it is not possible. And we await the updated versions of episodes one through five, edited by Thomas Williams. That has now increased to 7 episodes, there will be a zoom call this Saturday to formulate all the details.

There will be an extra show this coming Tuesday at the usual time, it will be FRWL Plus 11 called fake gods, Ashtaroth and Covid.

Russia has assembled about 70% of the military capability needed for a full-scale invasion of Ukraine in the coming weeks, US officials say. The ground is expected to freeze and harden from mid-February, enabling Moscow to bring in more heavy equipment, the unnamed officials said. Russia is said to have more than 100,000 troops near Ukraine's borders but denies planning to attack. The US officials did not provide evidence for their assessment. They said the information was based on intelligence but that they were unable to give details due to its sensitivity, US media report. Based on intelligence from US sources, since when have they ever exhibited intelligence?

Finally someone asks common sense questions in the alleged corridors of power. State Dept.: Russia is going to launch a false flag attack as a pretext to invade Ukraine. Reporter: What's your evidence? State Dept.: I just gave it to you. Reporter: No, you made an allegation. State Dept.: Yes, that's the evidence. Reporter: It's an action that you say they have taken, but you have shown no evidence to confirm that. This is like - crisis actors? Really? This is like Alex Jones territory you're getting into now. Reporter who was audibly shaking, finally asked the right questions this show has asked all along. Statements are not proof, and we have been railroaded thousands of times due to our inability to ask basic questions. This Government and it's treasonous media have gotten away with let's call it at best, serious oversights of making statements, at worst treasonous, that cost hundreds of thousands of lives, ruined economies, businesses, homes, livelihoods, lifestyles, freedoms. Iraq, Afghanistan and Covid are the most prevalent of recent catastrophes, all 3 riddled with statements and no proof ever garnered. Congrats to Matt Lee for finally having the balls to ask the most obvious question, now everyone needs to ask those types of questions. The State Dept guy was stumped, not used to handling basic questions, and too used to sheep nodding and asking questions in acceptance of the statement. The State Dept. needs to send all those questions over to the CIA, and get their representative out to answer the questions, as it is they who generate these bullshit scripts passed off as proof, to fund their private contractors. I object to the State Dept. people being put on the line for this, whilst the real culprits hide in the shadows like snakes. Mr. Trudeau lets ask you a question shall we, when on mind control idiot box which Mr. Trudeau are you? because we have seen 3 different versions. Not 3 different narratives, but 3 different people, can you inform us as to which one of you is the coward that ran? Given one of you is a member of the WEF, does that stand for Was Easily Feared? Did you turdeau your pants?

NEWS: More heights of hypocrisy scaled as while publicly advocating for limiting emissions in the hopes of stemming climate change, House Speaker Nancy Pelosi simultaneously spent nearly half a million dollars on private flights over the past year. More waste of the public's money, being ferried around like celebrities. Harvesting Governments and Countries to fulfill their One World Government project. It is no coincidence that many Government leaders are under fire now. What if the Canadian convoy is to bring the Canadian Government down? Trudeau already has his place in the

One World Government, check out who are the main WEF people, and in particular the young leaders section, it may reveal a clue as to what I am saying.

Meanwhile Zionist Fascism rolls on in Canada. An unvaccinated father in New Brunswick, Canada, lost custody of his three children, one of which is a 10-year-old immuno-compromised child, according to reports. The father presented research to the judge that he believed questioned the safety and efficacy of the Pfizer-BioNTech vaccine, but the judge ruled against it. His own anecdotal research on such a highly specialized topic carries little to no weight in the overall analysis, when measured against the sound medical advice of our public health officials, wrote Justice Nathalie Godbout of the Court of Queen's Bench. Godbout what a name that is, another title? High Priestess of the dark magicians, playing a bout of god are we? The order allows the father to interact with the children over Zoom and reevaluate the sentencing if he does get vaccinated, but the mother can overrule his lack of parental consent to get her children vaccinated, according to the ruling, CBC reports. Just outright Fascism, and to describe his evidence as anecdotal is just sheer arrogance, and a belief in system that has not provide evidence, anecdotal or otherwise. The fall out from this scam will last for years, once the full truth is established or enough people accept they have been lied to.

The BBC are continuing with their bullshittery campaign to discount basic truths they no longer wish for people to have. Their latest is a report on the body's immunity, the myth of the super charged immunity system as some on the internet are pointing out. Erm your medical establishment suggested the figure for our immunity from Covid before jabs was 99.79%, so it appears fairly strong to me. Except Covid jabs lowered that immunity down to 90% at best, and then reduced it further by injecting more jabs that went from 80% down to 58%, funny that. Lets not forget they said our immunity system would kick in after a single jab, and we would achieve herd immunity, sounds fairly super charged to me. But in the height of irony they used a science writer from You Tube to present their case, (M) a science writer off a platform that is removing everyone with an alternative opinion to their narrow minded own. The studio's YouTube channel focuses on minimalist animated educational content, that discusses scientific, technological, political, philosophical and psychological subjects. Narrated by Steve Taylor, videos on the channel are typically 4–16 minutes in length, with many of them available in German. Aside from their German channel, they began creating videos for their Spanish channel En Pocas Palabras – Kurzesagt in 2019. While their English channel mostly finances itself with donations from their viewers and individual sponsorships, the German channel is financially supported by Funk, the online presence of German public broadcasting, and the Spanish channel is sponsored by Wix, in addition to a grant from the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation. (M) What impartiality that is, almost like bringing an accused Epstein client to discuss the Ghislaine Maxwell case and speak of impartiality, oh wait, they did, they used Alan Dershowitz, who he himself is accused of sexual crimes against minors, and was on the Epstein plane list. BBC report card for this semester, must try harder, report mark F, F for fail.

Under fire Boris Johnson & Johnson has appointed a new spokesman, Guto Harri. Harri is an ex BBC employee, so he will be used to subversion of the facts and lying then.

I have been accused by some of not understanding the blockchain and bitcoin narrative, and that is ok to say that, I cannot be expected to know the ins and outs of every topic, and always seek clarity should further information come forward. But, if my opinion or knowledge turns out wrong, I am always willing to correct it, something that would be beneficial to all people to abide by. Holding into the lie or misinformation is what drives the low vibrational cycle of this planet, something to ponder on for us all. Here is a report by a person in the money field, who said this. If the Federal Reserve adopts a central bank digital dollar, the American government will be on a surefire path to authoritarianism. Central bank digital currencies, or CBDCs, have caught the Fed's attention in recent months, as the agency explores developing a digital dollar based on the blockchain, fueled by the meteoric rise in popularity of crypto-currencies like Bitcoin. While some compare CBDCs with Bitcoin as CBDCs can be based on the blockchain, similarities between the two end there. In fact, CBDCs are a wolf in sheep's clothing, co-opting Bitcoin's appeal while undermining every one of its underlying principles. A CBDC adopted by the U.S. government would involve digitally represented dollars, sidled with all of the issues of fiat currency that Bitcoin was created to solve, with a sinister new spin. By centralizing Americans' financial information and holdings in a digital database controlled by the U.S. government, CBDCs would create an authoritarian surveillance state and constitute a severe overreach of government power. With an American CBDC, the government would become both money printer and bank, destroying any checks and balances to the governments' power over Americans' financial holdings. By granting the government ownership over the root technology of money, CBDCs allow the government complete discretion over how and whether people can use their money. They would give the government total control and oversight over every person's holdings and transactions. CBDCs are a highly centralized form of currency absent of Bitcoin's anti-inflationary properties, as the government could continuously mint more of the digital currency just as it does with fiat currency, constantly devaluing it. An interesting if somewhat slanted perspective, that both items ran by blockchain technology, none of the public fully understands, that somehow one is better than the other. Bitcoin is anti-inflationary which is atypical, how do we know that for the future? Since when has any trading of currency ever been fair to all the people? Do you suddenly think these people have a conscience? And will they miraculously act like some fabled White Hat group, and alter the whole monetary scam into being fair and inclusive for the people? Blockchain, crypto, encryption and all the digital software and hardware, were all built by the very people who have controlled us for ages, and yet somehow they will create a coin, that is beneficial to the people? Does that sound likely? That digital currency is more sinister, and Bitcoin is so much cleaner and somehow is less authoritarian, is another of the binary choices illusion game they present to us. When like all of their other binary choices they are two sides of the same coin, pardon the pun.

As it emerges BLM fund has $60M in it and not helped a single black child or community improve their lives, whilst spending millions on a former Communist mansion in Canada. oops.

Hundreds of millions in fraud, even millions to feed kids in Mankato. A nonprofit organization that federal investigators allege participated in food-aid fraud, was previously incorporated and directed by Minneapolis City Council Member Jamal Osman, whose brother was featured in a video from 2020 illegally ballot harvesting 300 ballots on the dashboard of his car as he worked to elect his brother. According to business filings with the Minnesota Secretary of State, Jamal incorporated Stigma-Free International Inc. in August 2019 along with three others. In 2018, the nonprofit received $300,000 in federal funds. By 2021, that amount had ballooned to a total of $244 million. According to the search warrant, Stigma-Free's alleged involvement in the food aid fraud is tied to Safari Restaurant and Event Center, which is alleged to be a major player in the scheme. The south Minneapolis business is a popular East African restaurant and events venue. Safari made political donations to Congresswoman Ilham Omar. By July 2020, Safari claimed to be feeding 5,000 children a day. The numbers kept growing, and in fall 2020, the Minnesota Department of Education became suspicious. One employee noted that Safari claimed to be providing more meals than the St. Paul Public School District, according to the warrant. Millions were also paid for feeding 2,000 children every day in Mankato when the money was spent on a multimillion-dollar mansion instead.

After the deadly Surfside condo collapse, crucial pieces of evidence including portions of columns, beams and slabs, were trucked away from the disaster site and stored in a Miami-Dade police warehouse. All very 9/11 that to me. The evidence is key, both for federal investigators at the National Institute of Standards and Technology, seeking to understand what caused the collapse and for attorneys for victims and defendants in a massive civil court case, that will try to assign liability for an accident that claimed 98 lives at Champlain Towers South. But now the NIST and Miami-Dade County are trying to prevent experts for the attorneys, from testing and sampling the materials. At a Friday court hearing, an attorney for the county said that NIST had asserted its right to take sole control of the evidence, and that the county had agreed to cede control to the feds, despite a judge issuing a subpoena allowing parties in the lawsuit access to the warehouse. In a letter NIST sent to Miami-Dade police on Friday, an official said the federal investigation was moving into a more intense phase, and that the agency had a statutory duty to protect the evidence in the case. Smells like another cover up to me.

Billionaire mega-donor George Soros is seeding a super PAC with $125 million, an enormous investment that will aid Democratic groups and candidates for the 2022 election cycle and beyond. The group, Democracy PAC, has served as Soros' campaign spending vehicle since 2019, channeling more than $80 million to other Democratic groups and candidates during the 2020 election cycle. The new, nine-figure investment from Soros is aimed at supporting pro-democracy causes and candidates, regardless of political party who are invested in strengthening the infrastructure of American democracy: voting rights and civic participation, civil rights and liberties, and the rule of law, Soros said in a statement shared first with Politico. Except it wasn't Soros as he is dead, it was the program being ran by the Soros Foundation. Hey those of you in the State Dept, the Justice Dept, the Agencies and the Military, please explain in detail as to how this is not deemed as foreign election interfering? Maybe we should ask them directly?

Former President Donald Trump has blasted the House committee investigating the January 6 riot, and his latest critiques also call for the political hacks, liars, and traitors seated on the committee, to investigate former Vice President Mike Pence and Speaker of the House Nancy Pelosi. Trump blasted the committee for working so feverishly to alter the Electoral College Act so that a vice president cannot ensure the honest results of the election, when just one year ago they said that, the vice president has absolutely no right to ensure the true outcome or results of an election. The former president has blasted Pence multiple times for his actions on January 6, claiming the former vice president's position overseeing the election results gave him the authority to halt the certification, and send some ballots back to states where fraud had been alleged. Trump has the same none listening skills his former puppet the Trustee has. Trump was warned directly by Kim and I over Pence doing deals behind his back with Pelosi. In fact I reported it in a show. He didn't listen, and now like the Trustee wails far too much after the event, when they should have taken note of what was playing out back then.

Defense Secretary Lloyd J. Austin III ordered the military on Thursday to strengthen its efforts to prevent civilian deaths, and to improve the way it investigates and acknowledges claims of civilian harm in U.S. combat operations. In his most sweeping statement on the issue to date, Mr. Austin set in motion a series of measures that military officials say, are intended to change how commanders in the field think about their jobs, fostering a culture in which they view preventing civilian harm as a core part of their missions. We can and will improve upon efforts to protect civilians, Mr. Austin said in a two-page directive to top civilian and military officials. The protection of innocent civilians in the conduct of our operations remains vital to the ultimate success of our operations, and as a significant strategic and moral imperative. The move comes after a series of investigations by The New York Times into airstrikes that killed civilians, including the cover-up of a strike in Syria in 2019 that killed dozens of women and children, and a botched drone strike in Kabul, Afghanistan, that killed 10 innocent people in August. Another Times investigation based on a trove of Pentagon reviews of strikes, revealed systemic failures to prevent civilian deaths in its air war against the Islamic State. Whilst this is welcomed, one has to ask why it wasn't implemented to begin with? why are they addressing it now? Will those who ordered wrong events, be made accountable? I won't hold my breath as Military, Agencies, Governments and Medical establishments don't come under the guidelines of law or even accountability on this planet.

Pulsed electromagnetic energy plausibly explains some of the cases of the mysterious Havana Syndrome illness, a new US intelligence community report says. There has been a contentious debate over whether symptoms afflicting US staff around the world, were caused by some kind of device or were psychological in nature. The latest report from a US Intelligence Community panel of experts, says the symptoms are genuine and compelling and may have been caused by an external source. A January CIA study found no evidence of a widespread campaign by a foreign state, and said many cases could be explained by natural causes or stress. However, it acknowledged that a number remained unexplained. Yeah right that means they are pulling the National Security Act again, they know full well what is doing it, they just won't reveal it as they have been doing it to others in the past. This new study examined more than 1,000 classified documents and interviewed witnesses, to focus on a group of people suffering a particular set of symptoms, officials will not disclose the exact number. They concluded that this set of cases cannot be explained by environmental or medical conditions, and could have been caused by some kind of external source or device. We've learned a lot, said one intelligence official familiar with the work of the panel. The study found that pulsed electromagnetic energy, particularly in the radiofrequency range, plausibly explains the core characteristics, although it says that there remain gaps in the information. It says that non-standard antennas could create the effects on the human body. Such a source could be concealed and require only moderate power, it could also travel through the air and through walls of buildings. That latter is why they won't reveal it, because it is classified technology they have. Also one must consider the possibility that the agencies are doing it to their own people, to then blame it on somebody else for another agenda. It is not like they haven't used that trick before is it?

Buried in Meta's dense annual report for the Securities and Exchange Commission, filed Thursday, is a surprisingly stark sentence laying out a scenario in which the Company formerly known as Facebook might have to entirely stop operating Instagram and Facebook in Europe. Yep, no Instagram, no Facebook, for all Europeans. At issue are European data regulations that prevent Meta from ingesting Europeans' data on American servers. Basically, Meta says the ability to process user data in between countries is crucial for its business both operationally and for ad targeting. European laws meant to protect user privacy by keeping users' data within the EU's jurisdiction have invalidated previous systems. So, because Meta has been unable to reach new data sharing agreements, it's threatening to walk away from the continent with Facebook and Instagram. If we are unable to transfer data between and among countries and regions in which we operate, or if we are restricted from sharing data among our products and services, it could affect our ability to provide our services, the manner in which we provide our services or our ability to target ads, the statement reads. Target ads? we don't want their ads targeted or otherwise, in fact we don't need their child like Fascist based platforms either. The world is ran on advertisements, none moreso than the Ad fest coming up at the weekend, whilst they do their ritual in your face festivals of evil, all whilst worshipping Moloch, under the banner of the superb owl.

Israeli laws, policies and practices against Palestinians in Israel and the occupied territories amount to apartheid, Amnesty International says. A new report alleges that the Israeli state maintains, an institutionalized regime of oppression and domination of the Palestinian population for the benefit of Jewish Israelis. Apartheid is considered a crime against humanity under international law. Israel says it absolutely rejects all the false allegations in the report, and cited lies, inconsistencies, and unfounded assertions that originate from well-known anti-Israeli hate organisations. The report denies the State of Israel's right to exist as the nation state of the Jewish people. More abject lies and deflection, one word negates their whining, settlements. No one denies them ever of the right to exist, it is the Israelis who deny everyone the right to not live peacefully on their own land, whilst they go around thinking they own everything. Typically they cited Anti Semitism, but this has nothing to do with that, whatsoever. The Palestinian foreign ministry welcomed the report, saying it was a detailed affirmation of the cruel reality of entrenched racism, exclusion, oppression, colonialism, apartheid, and attempted erasure that the Palestinian people have endured.

Pharma company Pfizer said on Tuesday that it expects to generate more than $50 billion in revenues this year from its Covid-19 vaccine and antiviral treatment pill. The company reported its 2022 forecast in its quarterly earnings report, which showed that Pfizer made almost $24 billion in revenue in the final quarter of 2021. About half of that came from sales of its Covid-19 vaccine and $76 million from sales of its antiviral treatment Paxlovid, which was the first COVID-19 treatment pill authorized in the United States. Right in your face greed, and yet where are the Governments regulating this theft from the people? Governments don't pay for it remember, the people do. We must call for a global pull back on profits of all medical related items to be set at a maximum of 10%. It is beyond despicable making profits in these matters at the expense of the sick. Sick being the operative word, in my opinion these earnings are pure evil.

The promise of free community college in the latest spending bill is gone, Jill Biden confirms. Though free community college was promised by US President Joe Biden when previously promoting his administration's massive spending packages, it will no longer be included, the first lady confirmed on Monday. Two free years of community college, amounting to more than $45 billion, was an early promise by the president. Free community college was already stripped from the nearly $2 trillion version of the Build Back Better package released in October, which ultimately failed to pass the Senate. Another example of how our own money is not spent on we the people, only their cronies, private contractors and other assorted goons. $45B out of $2T and that is what gets removed, says it all really. What is the solution to this? in the future I would like to set up a Communal Gathering on behalf of we the people, whereby by we challenge all the bills and spending, that way we can make them accountable or at the very least put them on notice by challenging every bill.

MEDICAL RELATED NEWS: California Gov. Gavin Newsom said Monday that he will let a statewide indoor mask mandate expire next week, for people who have been vaccinated against Covid-19. Masks will continue to be the rule for schoolchildren, his office said, and the unvaccinated will still have to wear masks indoors after the mandate ends Feb. 15. Local governments can continue their own indoor masking requirements. Me thinks this jackass needs to be trucked like Trudeau. Surely that statement comes under some sort of ism? running a society based on individual groups and discounting others, is how racism unfolded? The best solution is for unvaxxed to add a deductible item on their tax returns for lack of services provided. I would say a $5-10K deductible was about fair. Another would be on property taxes as well, if unvaxxed are not allowed the services, why should we pay. With hundreds of thousands or millions in the TPC, both of those suggestions would be viable.

A Food and Drug Administration (FDA) document explaining why the agency approved Moderna's COVID-19 vaccine, was removed from the agency's website overnight. Like Trudeau they run when the truth hits the fan.

Researchers at Cambridge University have developed a video game which teaches people how to spread misinformation about Covid-19. The aim of Go Viral! is to make it easier for players to spot fake news in the future. (M) Cambridge University was involved with the scandal Cambridge Analytica remember. Fake news and go viral, sounds like the Covid scam to me all in one sentence.

The US is expected to approve corona virus vaccines for children under the age of five by the end of February. Officials at the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) anticipate Pfizer will ask them in coming days to authorize two doses for the age group. The company is also researching a three-dose regimen but that data is not likely to be submitted until March. Pediatric Covid-19 cases have spiked since the rise of the Omicron variant. More than 3.5 million cases were reported in the US last month, according to the American Academy of Pediatrics, what lies, where is their proof of such claims? But data shows few children have been hospitalized or have died from the virus. In December, Pfizer announced a low-dose trial for children, at a tenth the amount of the adult dose, and has delivered mixed results. While the company said it had not identified any safety concerns, initial results showed that those aged two to four years old produced a less than adequate immune response post-jab compared to adults. Then leave them alone then. But it also found children from six months old to two years old were well-protected, yes but you said that at the beginning of the scam. Pfizer, therefore, expects three shots might be needed, not two and its trial has since been modified to include a third dose, but the FDA has reportedly urged the company to submit its data for two so it can begin reviewing it. On Monday, regulators granted full approval to the Moderna vaccine, following suit after it did the same for the Pfizer jab back in August. Pfizer is currently available to children over the age of five, but Moderna is only approved for use in adults over the age of 18. Meanwhile, schools struggling to stay open during the latest wave of the pandemic are moving to mandate the vaccine for approved age groups. Time to continue targeting the schools then, as not only do they teach utter rubbish, indoctrinate the children, now they declare themselves medical experts, and wish to poison the children. Maybe the protests need to go to the FDA and CDC facilities?

Emerging reports show that two little-known drugs are making lethal new contributions to America's drug overdose crisis. Para-fluorofentanyl and metonitazene are being seen more often by medical examiners looking into overdose deaths, according to a government report published Thursday. They often are taken with or mixed with illicit fentanyl, the drug mainly responsible for the more than 100,000 U.S. overdose deaths in just the past year. Funny that is not declared a pandemic is it not, perhaps everyone should social distance all drugs? Increasingly, one or the other of the two drugs is the sole reason for some overdose deaths, said Dr. Darinka Mileusnic-Polchan, one of the report authors. Often injected or snorted, they are more powerful than fentanyl, she said, these victims just crumple and collapse. Frequently they don't even inject the full syringe before overdosing, said Mileusnic-Polchan, who leads the medical examiner's office in Knoxville, Tennessee. The overdose-reversing drug naloxone can still work, but more of it may be needed than when other drugs are involved, she said. Where is the media outrage over this, the 24/7 coverage, endless debates and the people divided over this, oh I forgot the lazy minded people weren't told to trend on this item, so lets just ignore it shall we. If you go on their figures, these medical items have killed more people than Covid, and yet there is no lockdown, threat to peoples freedoms or jobs to be seen or heard, you know why? Because it will undermine the very Institutions who created this problem, these are the very Institutions that created the Covid, and they don't want the public to lose their blind trust in them. Meanwhile lots of people suffer and die.

We did a piece last week on lockdowns having no effect on mortality rates, and a new paper from a surprising source re-affirms that. A new working paper from Johns Hopkins University's Studies in Applied Economics institute claims that, COVID-19 lockdowns imposed by a variety of governments worldwide had little to no effect on COVID-19 mortality. The study, conducted by three professors from around the world, also found that lockdowns imposed enormous economic and social costs, and are ill-founded and should be rejected as a pandemic policy instrument. No shit sherlock. An analysis of each of these three groups support the conclusion that lockdowns have had little to no effect on COVID-19 mortality. More specifically, stringency index studies find that lockdowns in Europe and the United States only reduced COVID-19 mortality by 0.2% on average. The study elaborated further, stating that the overall conclusion was, that lockdowns are not an effective way of reducing mortality rates during a pandemic. As the study noted, a major purpose of lockdowns is to save lives. So did they? The study claimed to have answered that question with a resounding no. However, lockdowns during the initial phase of the COVID-19 pandemic have had devastating effects. They have contributed to reducing economic activity, raising unemployment, reducing schooling, causing political unrest, contributing to domestic violence, and undermining liberal democracy. These costs to society must be compared to the benefits of lockdowns, which our meta-analysis has shown are marginal at best. Such a standard benefit-cost calculation leads to a strong conclusion, lockdowns should be rejected out of hand as a pandemic policy instrument. The study was conducted by three professors from Denmark, Sweden, and the United States. There ruins the plans and theories of all the so called experts, they have been proven to make wrong choices and rendered themselves as future pariahs, and also confirmed this shows claim, there are no experts in any field on this planet.

According to three U.S. Department of Defense (DOD) whistleblowers, there have been disturbing spikes in incidences of cancer, myocarditis, and miscarriages after the distribution of experimental Covid-19 vaccinations, based on hidden government statistics. Whilst I welcome this, the great question is, are the DOD the Ministry of Health now? Remember this piece from Tuesday's show? Under the Council model, a unit becomes a ward, a patient is called a Resident. A ward is a Hospital Ward, a Hospital is a military institution and a County is a military company, the same as an occupied territory. A Council is the administration of Residents in voters wards, as outpatients of a Mental Hospital, which is why they call it seeking asylum. On Monday, medical freedom rights attorney Thomas Renz revealed the news during a brief presentation at a U.S. Senate panel debate, organized by Sen. Ron Johnson (R-WI), Drs. Peter McCullough, Harvey Risch, Pierre Kory and Robert Malone were among the dozen health specialists who attended the session, which was headlined Covid-19: A Second Opinion. A second opinion, erm no that was the first opinion before this shit got going. All these clowns now complaining never read the experimental data sheet, and never asked a single question on the validity of the jabs, the potential side effects or anything of that nature. That to me is a dereliction of duty. Instead Trump and Pelosi played party politics, whilst the greed based Medical Fraternity pushed on with their cash cow machine. The Ohio-based lawyer, who is still engaged in numerous big lawsuits, involving fraud and infringement of medical freedom rights taken against federal agencies, commenced by stating that he has obtained written declarations under penalty of perjury from all three whistleblowers. We have substantial data showing, for example, that miscarriages have increased by almost 300 percent over the five-year average. We saw an almost 300 percent increase in cancer over the five-year average, Renz said. On neurological issues which would affect our pilots, the data shows over a thousand percent increase, it went from 82K per year to 863K in one year. Our soldiers are being experimented on, injured, and sometimes possibly killed. Wait until the nurses, doctors and teachers start dropping like flies. That's precisely what it is, Renz affirmed, after thanking Kory for mentioning corruption before. They know this information. To reinforce his case, the lawyer cited statistics from Project Salus, a military department technology that combines several data streams for assessment. Common sense question is, why are the Military involved in anything medical, given their appalling treatment of their soldiers? Renz mentioned that, White House Covid czar Dr. Anthony Fauci and others were showcased in the media in late December, encouraging folks to get these shots, and that these systems track outcomes of experimental Covid-19 vaccine injections, and pass them along to the CDC. They stated that the country was facing a pandemic of the unvaccinated, with unvaccinated people accounting for 99 percent of hospitalizations. In Project Salus, in the weekly report at the time, the DOD document says specifically, 71 percent of new cases are in the fully vaccinated and 60 percent of hospitalizations are in the fully vaxxed. Not accounting for the sleight of hand figures of the vaxxed, where they declared you are not fully vaxxed until a period of 2 weeks, no surprise there. But, I suspect if you add in the frankly ridiculous rhetoric are you are not fully jabbed until two weeks after all jabs, then those figures are higher than 71 & 60%. Renz said, this is corruption at the highest level, we need investigations, the Secretary of Defense needs to be investigated and the CDC needs to be investigated. During Johnson's introduction of Renz, he underlined the very alarming hikes and cited evidence from whistleblowers that, data has already been doctored in cases of myocarditis. The data has been doctored, what a medical pun that is. Johnson claimed that incidences of myocarditis were 20 to 28 times greater than typical, after reportedly conducting a search query in the Defense Medical Epidemiology Database (DMED) in August. But now in January, it's only two times higher, so there appears to be doctored of the data now. As a response, he said he had issued the DOD a record preservation letter that morning, putting the Department of Defense, the Biden administration is on notice, they must preserve these records, and this must be investigated, Johnson concluded. Cue the CIA doing a Watergate tactic again I suspect, or their will be some miraculous fire. Renz declared in September, that yet another whistleblower had submitted official statistics from the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS), revealing 48,465 deaths among Medicare patients within 14 days of receiving COVID-19 immunization. Hence the change in narrative of you are not fully jabbed until after 14 days, just scandalous and evil behavior. Another testified in July that at least 45,000 vaccination-related deaths occurred as a result of experimental Covid-19 vaccine injections, despite the fact that the passive VAERS reporting system only recorded 10,991 at the time. The president and CEO of an Indianapolis-based insurance provider voiced alarm earlier this month, noting that the highest death rates we have seen in the history of this business, are up 40% over what they were pre-pandemic among primarily working-age people 18 to 64. Common sense question is, if all the working age people die or are infirm, who is going to replace their jobs? How will the country function? The mortality rates are not shocking to several physicians who have looked into these experimental Covid-19 injections. Last March, Geert Vanden Bossche, a former senior officer of the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation, drew widespread interest with just a public letter and video, alerting of a global catastrophe without equal, if experimental Covid-19 vaccination operations were not stopped. The fall out for this will rumble on for years, the best thing to do is, remove all senior roles in Government, in particular Biden and Pelosi, ban Trump from office, fire all leading Medical professionals who advocated or pushed these jabs. Delete the CDC, FDA and other departments all together. Delete the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation, and give all funds over to the Restoration plan, which the TPC is designated for. Fire the Military top brass for their involvement, set up a world people thinking group, and force all the Governments to create a unilateral ban on all bio warfare research, testing and use. Fire the CEO's of all hospitals or clinics involved in this. Ban Facebook, Twitter, YouTube, Go oogle, Microsoft and all other platforms associated with promoting this and banning people telling the truth. Fire and or ban every news media personality promoting or advocating this, the Editor of all newspapers. Fire and or ban every school board promoting this. Restore every person who was blocked from working to their jobs, and pay back what they are owed, from the salaries and bank accounts of all of the above mentioned. Restore every business that went bankrupt due to lockdowns and pay for it via salaries and bank accounts of the above mentioned. Temporary close down all medical research centers including the Military and Agencies. Set up a disciplinary committee with medical people and people out of the alt media, the followers not show hosts as the majority of them are faction based clowns, to then investigate all research centers, hand over all the materials of what is being done in these centers to another committee to evaluate whether this research is beneficial or not. All paid for out of the salaries and bank accounts of the above people down to $1M. Some people think $1M for them is too much, not with their lavish lifestyles it is not, that will vanish in a month for some of them. Repurpose several US Military bases for holding centers, to evaluate all the above mentioned, assess prison time, rehabilitation via teaching, both to and from, and whether they should be used for community purposes on a low wage. That plan with some adjustments and input from other adult based and future thinking people, would go a long way to correcting this mess. It will also remove psychopaths, greed based people as well, and remove numerous agendas being used against we the people.

EXPOSE: Marcus "Husky" Wallenberg is a Swedish banker and industrialist, and part of the mighty Wallenberg family which controls 40% of the Swedish economy. He is a former member of the Steering Committee of the Bilderberg Group. Wallenberg began his apprenticeship in the New York City office of Citibank in 1980–1982. He subsequently worked for Deutsche Bank, followed by S. G. Warburg & Co., Citicorp and the family bank SEB Group. Wallenberg then served as the President and CEO of the family holding company Investor AB from 1999 to 2005. He served as the Chairman of the International Chamber of Commerce from 2006 to 2008. Wallenberg is the Vice Chairman of the Institute of International Finance. He serves on the board of directors of Skandinaviska Enskilda Banken, Electrolux, Ericsson, LKAB, AstraZeneca, Stora Enso, Saab, and the Knut and Alice Wallenberg Foundation. He is also a former member of the board of directors of Temasek Holdings, and currently on the Temasek International Panel. Temasek we have covered before in relation to skullduggery. In June 2020, BioNTech received €250 million from Temasek Holdings (Singapore), which is the same company board that housed by the Swedish clown Marcus Wallenberg. Based in Singapore, whose original name was Temasek and was replaced in the 14th Century. It may not come as a surprise but the meaning of Singapore means Lion City. Member of Bilderberg/Steering committee, European Round Table of Industrialists, International Institute for Strategic Studies/Advisory Council, The 1001 Club. The Wallenberg family is a prominent Swedish family dynasty renowned as bankers, industrialists, politicians, bureaucrats, and diplomats. Following the family motto, the family keeps a very low-key public profile, eschewing conspicuous displays of wealth. Their power is used behind the scenes, and the family has had members on the Bilderberg Steering Committee and several other attendees. In the 1970s, the Wallenberg family businesses employed 40% of Sweden's industrial workforce, and represented 40% of the total worth of the Stockholm stock market. The Wallenberg's are present in most large Swedish industrial corporations, like Ericsson, Electrolux, ABB, SAAB, SAS Group, SKF, Atlas Copco and more. In 1990, it was estimated that the family indirectly controlled one-third of the Swedish Gross National Product. The two overarching companies are the holding company Investor AB, which again owns the bank Skandinaviska Enskilda Banken (formerly Stockholmska Enskilda Banken). The people companies and other entities around the Wallenberg family is commonly known as the Wallenberg Sphere.

Origins: The Wallenberg Financial Empire was founded by André Oscar Wallenberg, who in 1856 started Stockholm's Enskilda Bank, following the Scottish banking model, which is one of the forerunners of today's Skandinaviska Enskilda Banken (SEB).

The taking over the Ivar Kreuger Empire: During the 1920s, the Wallenberg family and the tycoon known as the Match King Ivar Kreuger, were the main competitors for power in the Swedish business world. When Kreuger made his last request in February 1932 to the government Riksbanken for bank guarantees to keep his empire afloat, all the major Swedish commercial banks agreed to this except for the Wallenberg's Stockholm's Enskilda Bank. After Kreuger was murdered or committed suicide in 1932, his business empire was declared bankrupt, and several of the Kreuger-controlled industrial companies were taken over by the Wallenbergs in a quick, decisive action. Ah the suicide story again. Many of these businesses still form the core of the current holding. The management and development of the remnants of the Ivar Kreuger empire fell on Marcus Wallenberg Sr., who dominated the Swedish business community for more than half a century. Together with Curt Nicolin, he secured the family's dominant position in Swedish business during and after WW2. Families connected to the Wallenbergs: Von Sydow, Lundin, Wehtje, Hambro, Mackay, De Geer, Bonde, Rockefeller, Palme, Morgan, Warburg, Bush and Sachs.

World War 2 Activities: During WW2, the family was very busy capitalizing upon the Sweden's neutral status, about as neutral as the Swiss. It conducted major business activities with the German government, while maintaining extensive ties to US/UK intelligence. An example of the Jewish EL-ite program of playing both sides. It had ties to German resistance circles, served as middlemen for various peace feelers, and served as placeholders for big corporations to safeguard business assets in enemy countries.

Hiding Bosch Assets: Beginning in 1939, the family's bank, SEB, had acquired eight subsidiaries of the German corporation Bosch in neutral countries, including a majority of the shares in the American subsidiary, American Bosch Corporation, ABC. The business settlement was such that the parent company was granted the first right to purchase, if the companies were to be resold. Bosch, in turn, gave the Wallenbergs a significant sum of money and other financial advantages. In practice, the Bosch Group came to have full control over the subsidiary through the business agreement. SEB claimed that it owned ABC without reservation, and that in the future it intended to sell this to Americans. At the same time, however, it was important to keep a sufficiently large proportion of shares to be able to satisfy the Bosch Group when the war was over. However, suspicion from the United States government remained high and in December 1941, the American Treasury Department, ATD, declared that ABC was not a purely Swedish company. SEB's American lawyers, including the later US Secretary of State John Foster Dulles from Sullivan & Cromwell, made it clear to SEB that it was necessary for Swedish authorities to certify that ABC was Swedish, otherwise it would be seized as a hostile entity. Marcus Wallenberg turned to the Swedish government and managed, after a meeting with, among others, the Minister of Finance Ernst Wigforss, the Chairman of the Riksbank's Council Dag Hammarskjöld and the Governor of the Riksbank Ivar

Rooth, to get it to sign a memorandum, which he himself had drafted. The letter sent to Washington on January 13, 1942 did not contain any reference to Bosch having an option to buy back the company. The Treasury Department was informed here that the ABC shares were: definitely bona fide Swedish and there exists no qualifying agreement undertakings or promises impairing this ownership. Foreign Minister Christian Günther also made it clear to the US Secretary of State in Stockholm, that he was sure that SEB did not hide anything. However, the efforts were in vain. On May 18, 1942, ABC was seized by the American Alien Property Custodian. At this time, none of these events came to light. The bank's business was revealed on July 31, 1945, in an article in the New York Herald Tribune. US military investigators had meticulously searched Bosch's headquarters in Stuttgart and found hidden documents, with the help of which, it was possible to trace the questioned ownership of ABC back to the parent company Bosch. On August 8, the Treasury Department declared that the Wallenberg brothers were personally blocked, under what was called special blocked nationals, and that SEB should be blacklisted in all allied countries. The revelation led to the Wallenberg brothers and their collaborator Rolf Calissendorff, being summoned to a committee hearing in Washington. The hearings lasted for periods throughout the autumn of 1945. During these, the SEB group had significant difficulties in defending itself against the accusations and the Americans' conclusion was that, the bank had not only withheld the proper ownership but also, when asked about it, had lied. The interrogation protocol came to include 1261 typed pages. Marcus Wallenberg Jr. now took the initiative, which created a schism between him and his brother Jacob. In addition to the general memorandum requested by ATD, he wrote a personal private memorandum. This included an apology for the deal, and an acknowledgment that it had been mishandled by the bank. He emphasized that his view of the relationship with Bosch differed from the others in the SEB group and stated, without Jacob Wallenberg's knowledge and agreement, that Jacob would soon resign from his post as CEO and then be replaced by Marcus himself. Marcus Wallenberg's decisive actions and his close friendship with the English Minister in Stockholm, Victor Mallet, may have contributed to a positive effect for the bank. When the Allied Blacklisting Group met in May 1946, the British called for a restrained reaction against the SEB group, and although it was pointed out that the Wallenberg brothers deserved to be blacklisted, it was decided not to recommend this. The Bosch deal was not over until 1950. In 1947, the SEB group sued Alien Property Custodian with a claim to get their assets back. After a lengthy process with negative publicity and the end of which could not be seen, SEB in 1950 accepted a settlement, which meant that it would receive 2.6 million USD, which corresponded to only a third of ABC's then value. The Bosch deal was a clear financial loss for SEB. By far the biggest loss, however, was the negative effects on the bank's and the Wallenberg brothers' reputation in Sweden and internationally. In the American press, they were associated with Nazi Germany for a number of years. Classic faction fighting and shows the greed of people operating in that field. Wallenberg swallowed the Kruger Empire and then was stiffed by an American and UK faction, what goes around comes around very quickly in their field. All snakes harvesting each other and the public.

After World War II: The Wallenberg's were highly active in the Bilderberg conferences from the beginning. A significant number of the Swedish and Scandinavian Bilderberg attendees, have strong connections to the family's companies. As well as family members, senior management in their companies were sent, participated and joined the Steering Committee. Complicating the measuring of the true impact, is that a large part of the Swedish business-world and society in one way or the other dependent on the Wallenberg's. After Marcus Wallenberg Jr.'s death in 1982, a power vacuum arose within the leadership. His eldest son Marc had reportedly committed suicide in 1971 and the younger son Peter, who not considered fit by the father to hold leading position in the empire. Thereafter, the management of the empire ended up in practice with officials within Investor AB. In practice, however, Peter Wallenberg took command of the holdings during the 1980s and significantly increased the assets. He died in 2015, but the sons Jacob (born 1956) and Peter Jr. (born 1959) and their cousin, Marc's son Marcus (born 1956) now (2020) run the business.

Raoul Wallenberg: Another famous Wallenberg, Raoul Wallenberg, worked as a diplomat and possibly for intelligence services in Budapest, Hungary, during World War II where he between July and December 1944 issued protective passports and housed Jews, saving tens of thousands of lives. I guess saving Swedes was not on the agenda then? or Poles, Slavs or anyone else it seems.

The Saltsjöbaden Agreement: The Saltsjöbaden Agreement is a Swedish labour market treaty signed between the Swedish Trade Union Confederation and the Swedish Employers Association on 20 December 1938, that became a model for other agreements. The rules on industrial action have come to be regarded almost as general legal principles of conflicts between the labor market forces, containing a prominent role of collective agreements, regulation by the labor market parties themselves, and a climate of cooperation between employers and workers organizations. The agreement is still in effect, with the latest changes being made in 1976. The agreement was signed in the family's Grand Hotel Saltsjöbaden, thus giving the family's, which owns most of Swedish industry, sanctions and approval to the agreement. The unofficial King of Sweden, and a bastion of all things Swedish are the Wallenberg's. Only one problem with that is, the Wallenberg's are Jewish and another of the Jewish EL-ites who have harvested everything with their insane greed practices, created suffering and death and at times pure evil.

EXPOSE: Max Jakobson was a Finnish diplomat and journalist. Jakobson was an instrumental figure in shaping Finland's policy of neutrality during the Cold War, about as neutral as the Swiss it seems. Max Jakobson was a source of information for the CIA, it was revealed in 2013, after his death. The CIA received excellent insider information, starting with Väinö Leskinen, Max Jakobson and Johannes Virolainen, revealed Professor of Political History Kimmo Rentola at a history seminar in Lahti. Rentola tied the contacts of the 1960s and 70s to previous known information, according to which the CIA had already invested considerably in the non-Kekkonen wing of the Agrarian League in 1962. The Agrarian Party was a party for peasants and farmers, like a modern day Green party, who act all green and yet remain green to it's intentions. The financial support would have been as much as a million dollars, a great amount at the time. Jakobson was then a top official in the Ministry for Foreign Affairs, and an intellectual designer of Kekkonen's foreign policy. He was a favorite of President Urho Kekkonen, as he was one of the few from whom the President also tolerated critical position. Thanks to his flawless knowledge of English, Jakobson served as the president's personal interpreter and adviser during many state visits. Still, Jakobson never belonged to Kekkonen's inner circle, he never visited the Tamminiemi sauna at the presidential residence, and did not take part in skiing, fishing and hunting trips. Max Jakobson was born in 1923 in Viipuri, Finland now Vyborg, Russia, as son of Finnish tailor Leo Jakobsson and his ethnic Finnish wife Helmi née Virtanen. He began his career as a journalist, and worked at the BBC, which is ran by MI5 & 6. From 1953 to 1974 he was employed by the Finnish Ministry for Foreign Affairs, eventually acting as Finland's ambassador to the United Nations in 1965-1971, and Finland's Ambassador to Sweden in 1971–1974. Jakobson ran for United Nations Secretary-General in the 1971 selection. He was one of three candidates to receive the required 9 votes in the Security Council, but he was vetoed by the Soviet Union. According to historian Rentola, KGB Viktor Vladimirov said the Soviet Union had opposed the election of Max Jakobson, as UN secretary general because he was an American agent. Jakobson was active as a commentator on Finnish politics, having written several books and numerous articles on Finnish political history and contemporary Finnish politics. He also acted as chairman of the Estonian International Commission for Investigation of Crimes Against Humanity investigating Communist and Nazi crimes in Estonia. In the 1990s, Jakobson prominently pushed for Finland's EU membership. He was also known as a supporter of NATO membership. In his book The Future, published in 2005, Jakobson argued that Finland should not receive security guarantees through the EU, and that joining NATO may only be possible when there is no threat of war. He was a member of the Executive Committee of the Trilateral Commission, and a Bilderberger attendee. Worked for CIA, MI5 & 6, the UN, NATO, Trilateral and a Bilderberger, quite a list of clown groups that on your CV, but there is something else that ties it altogether. Oh I forgot to mention that Jacobson was mentioned as Finnish, but he was of Jewish descent.

OTHER PIECES: A young athlete who was born in America but is Chinese, has competed in the Winter Olympics this week. Unfortunately for her she fell several times during her ice skating routine, a sad enough event for any athlete who work hard to get to the Olympics, and sadly they fail on their big day. But, instead of garnering some sympathy, Chinese social media people took to ridiculing her, calling her names and questioning her patronage. Hundreds of thousands took the time to do that to a 19 year old girl, it's just sickening behavior. Why would people do that to her or anybody else, is the great question. That young girl could be emotionally traumatized for the rest of her life, all because low life and low vibrational people think it is fun to ridicule people, in the belief that makes them superior. The reality is it doesn't, all of you who shamed that girl, would never be good enough to get near the Olympics, she did. This moronic child level, well actually that is at times doing a disservice to children, these people are a blight on humanity, with their holier than thou attitude. Who do nothing to elevate themselves never mind others, yet run people down who do get up off their backsides and attempt to do things. Society has into an army of St Peters and become far too judgmental on other people, instead of focusing on the judgment of themselves.

One million adults across the UK went an entire day without eating over the past month because they were unable to put food on the table, according to research from charity Food Foundation, published on Monday. The foundation's report claims that soaring energy prices, along with an increase in the cost of groceries, has exacerbated the cost-of-living crisis and the impact of a universal credit reduction. In October, a £20 ($27) Covid top-up to universal credit was removed. Food Foundation found that more than one in five households are facing a heat or eat dilemma, with family funds squeezed by the soaring cost of heating over the winter months. Gas and electricity bills are due to increase by £700 (almost $950) a year from April, pushing some five million households into fuel poverty despite government interventions to soften the blow. Grocery bills were up 3.8% in January, potentially adding an extra £180 (over $240) to the yearly food shop for an average household. There is little doubt that the cost-of-living crisis is putting very real pressure on the ability of many to afford a healthy diet and is set to widen health inequalities, the foundation said. The charity's findings were based on the responses of 4,200 people, of whom 8.8% admitted to some kind of food poverty, defined as skipping meals, going hungry or not eating for a whole day, up from 7.7% in July. The state has tightened access to welfare benefits in an effort to entice more people to accept jobs. There is currently a record number of job vacancies, causing upward pressure on wages. The real costs to the people of this fake scandemic is still unfolding on a massive scale. Whilst Governments still waste money on war, soon there will be no one left to fight wars, too few soldiers and too many people not fit enough to fight due to poor diets and a lack of. But, the ouroboros non thinking people don't think of those future events, they just think everything will work out fine, except from 2012 it's not. The whole thing was an engineered harvesting fest, and we the people including the bots are on the menu.

Kush is a cheap new illegal drug, is ravaging communities in Sierra Leone, reports of young people killing themselves or harming themselves and others. Medical staff in the capital Freetown say that 90% of the male admissions to the central psychiatric ward are due to Kush use. Police are battling to win the war against the drug. With Kush use spreading rapidly, with ever-younger users being exposed to it. I wonder who introduced it into Sierra Leone? Given Sierra Leone is wracked by war. The areas of Afghanistan, Tajikistan, and northern Pakistan, the Hindu Kush mountain range the very regions of the exodus from the Garden of Eden, India. In the valleys between the snow-capped peaks, cannabis and the preparation of hashish has been a way of life for centuries, and the hardy landrace strains that evolved there formed the basis of what we refer to as "Kush" today. Kush by name and Kush by nature.

An almost 500-mile long bolt of lightning that lit up the sky across three US states has set a new world record for longest flash, scientists have confirmed. The bolt in 2020, extended a total of 477.2 miles (768 km) and spread across Mississippi, Louisiana, and Texas. The previous record was 440.6 miles (709 km) and recorded in Brazil in 2018. Lightning rarely extends over 10 miles and usually lasts under a second. Another lightning flash recorded in 2020 - in Uruguay and Argentina - has also set a new record for duration at 17.1 seconds. The previous record was 16.7 seconds. Given our mention last year about strange lightening, and pondering whether extra ozone is some sort of cleaning effect, interesting this now makes the news.

Year 2001: 8K tons of Opium under the Taliban regime. Year 2014: 224K tons of Opium under the foreign regime. Year 2022: If production goes down = the regime is Taliban. If production does not go down = false Taliban regime = CIA.

Thomas any news on the great currency reset, of Kim $0 and Bitcoin $37100. That is not true, Kim gave $454B to Trump, which was leveraged into $4.54T to launch Fed takeovers, new boss same as the old boss, lockdowns and vaccines, which dwarfs the Bitcoin price. Both transactions are a big fat zero as far as I am concerned, as neither is for the benefit of we the people as it currently stands.

This was posted by one of the members, and is highlighting an oversight by many people. It astounds me that portal people, before and behind the camera they have no idea how expendable they are, as the old TV show Max Headroom showed us all. Nor do cops, soldiers, doctors and teachers pay any attention to the robots and/or software already available to replace them. Same for accountants, factory workers, delivery drivers, waiters, politicians, lawyers, judges, etc. Not that we actually need any of those anyway, given that none of them serve the people, including some waiters and waitresses. But they just follow orders in the absurd belief they are irreplaceable. Yes and what I warned about for some years now, whilst it is understandable around 4.25M are walking away from their jobs each month, likely due to job mandates. It is a long term concern that when they decide to return, they will be replaced by the machine. The lack of future thinking hampers us, we need more pro-active thinking and actions, and a massive reduction in the reaction after the event mode.

Social security benefits are received by millions in the United States and for many it is their only source of income. Once retirees begin to claim benefits, they will not be able to work at the same levels they had as or they risk jeopardizing their benefit amount. Do you have to pay taxes if you receive social security? During tax season those who receive social security will have to calculate their combined income. This figure income includes the adjusted gross income (i.e. wages, salary, investments) and social security benefits as well as some types of non-taxable interest. After determining this amount, a beneficiary will know whether they need to pay taxes or not. In most cases, those with a combined income under $25,000 ($32,000 for married couples) a year will not have to pay taxes on their social security benefits. For those with a combined income between $25,000 and $34,000 ($32,000 to $44,000 for married couples) a year, the Social Security Administration may be able to tax up to fifty percent of your benefits. Finally, with an income over $34,000 ($44,000 for married couples), one can be taxed up to eighty-five percent of their social security benefits. This is wrong on so many levels and needs to be highlighted, although quite why millions of Americans haven't complained in the past, is beyond me and also indicative. Social Security is not a benefit, they are making out it is some sort of hand out, when people have paid hundreds of thousands of dollars into it. It is like a giant savings scheme, except they pay no interest on it, and if you die early get zero benefits from it. The setting of the tax threshold is beyond ridiculous, it is like paying twice, well three times with no interest on your money. Those earning $25K or $34K and you pay taxes? of 50% on your own money? $32-44K if married and you pay 50% taxes on your own money? One cent over $34k single and $44k married and you pay 80% taxes on your own money? Lets not forget, you have already paid taxes against the money you earned, which includes the money you pay into the SS fund. Which makes it a tax on top of a tax, which is then taxed. A scam of the highest order pulled right in front of you, and yet where is the outcry? The aptly named SS, is your savings account in essence, except you get no interest and you can't access your account. Not to mention the fact that businesses have to pay into it as well, why is a business paying someone else's retirement fund?

EXPOSE: This to me at least is one of the most disturbing articles, moreso because unlike many other articles we cover, this is in the now. The implications are of this latest program are enormous, for the effects now and way into the future. This is not something that should be a pre-requisite of being in the Military, and these psychopathic leaders need to stop using soldiers as medical guinea pigs. This is what Patriotism brings you, where you will do things said to be of benefit to your country, but is not beneficial for the people. While the US is planning to increase its military presence in Eastern Europe to protect its allies against Russia, internal documents show just what American protection in practical terms means. The Pentagon has conducted biological experiments with a potentially lethal outcome, on 4,400 soldiers in Ukraine and 1,000 soldiers in Georgia. According to leaked documents, all volunteer deaths should be reported within 24 hours in Ukraine and 48 hours in Georgia. Both countries are considered the most loyal US partners in the region, with a number of Pentagon programs being implemented in their territory. One of them is the $2.5 billion Defense Threat Reduction Agency, Biological engagement program which includes research on bio agents, deadly viruses and antibiotic-resistant bacteria being studied on the local population. Project GG-21: All volunteer deaths will be promptly reported. The Pentagon has launched a 5-year long project with a possible extension of up to 3 years code-named GG-21: Arthropod-borne and zoonotic infections among military personnel in Georgia. Chimeric infections then. According to the project's description, blood samples will be obtained from 1,000 military recruits at the time of their military registration physical exam, at the Georgian military hospital located in Gori. Gori by name gory by nature it seems. The samples will be tested for antibodies against fourteen pathogens: Bacillus anthracis, Brucella, CCHF virus, Coxiella burnetii, Francisella tularensis, Hantavirus, Rickettsia species, TBE virus, Bartonella species, Borrelia species, Ehrlichia species, Leptospira species, Salmonella typhi and West Nile Virus. The amount of blood draw will be 10 ml. Samples will be stored indefinitely at the NCDC (Lugar Center) or USAMRU-G, and aliquots might be sent to WRAIR headquarters in US for future research studies. An aliquot portion of a solution, but it also means something else. An aliquot is part of invested capital. Walter Reed Army Institute of Research (WRAIR) is the largest biomedical research facility administered by the U.S. Department of Defense. We have covered wrongful shenanigans on them before. The results of the blood testing will not be provided to the study participants, I wonder why? Such a procedure cannot cause death they say. However, according to the project report, all volunteer deaths will be promptly reported usually within 48 hours of the PI being notified, to the Georgian Military Hospital and WRAIR. The soldiers' blood samples will be stored and further tested at the Lugar Center, a $180 million Pentagon-funded facility in Georgia's capital Tbilisi. So, nice of the Pentagon to invest the American public's money into other countries, and yet make us pay for it. A full transparent audit needs doing of the Pentagon and other Military establishments, the waste they do that has no benefit for the American people, is astronomical. Who approved spending $180M on a facility in another country? The Lugar Center has become notorious in the last years for controversial activities, laboratory incidents and scandals surrounding the US drug giant Gilead's Hepatitis C program in Georgia, which has resulted in at least 248 deaths of patients. Gilead is more Hebrew named false biblical nonsense. The cause of death in the majority of cases has been listed as unknown, internal documents have shown. The Georgian project GG-21 has been funded by DTRA and implemented by American military scientists, from a special US Army unit code-named USAMRU-G who operate in the Lugar Center. They have been given diplomatic immunity in Georgia to research bacteria, viruses and toxins without being diplomats. Diplomatic immunity? equivalent to the National Security Act and medical immunity then, all of which means zero oversight. It is not classified, it is nullified, the ability to hide clandestine programs in secret. This unit is subordinate to the Walter Reed Army Institute of Research (WRAIR). Documents obtained from the US Federal contracts registry show that, USAMRU-G is expanding its activities to other US allies in the region, and is establishing expeditionary capabilities in Georgia, Ukraine, Bulgaria, Romania, Poland, Latvia and any future locations. The next USAMRU-G project involving biological tests on soldiers, is due to start in March of this year at the Bulgarian Military Hospital in Sofia. Which just happens to be the same city the CIA Eastern European Division is housed, coincidence? Project UP-8: All deaths of study participants should be reported within 24 hours. The Defense Threat Reduction Agency (DTRA) has funded a similar project involving soldiers in Ukraine code-named UP-8. The spread of Crimean-Congo hemorrhagic fever (CCHF) virus and hantaviruses in Ukraine, and the potential need for differential diagnosis in patients with suspected leptospirosis. The project started in 2017 and was extended few times until 2020, internal documents show. According to the project's description, blood samples will be collected from 4,400 healthy soldiers in Lviv, Kharkov, Odesa and Kyiv. 4,000 of these samples will be tested for antibodies against hantaviruses, and 400 of them for the presence of antibodies against Crimean-Congo hemorrhagic fever (CCHF) virus. The results of the blood testing will not be provided to the study participants. There is no information as to what other procedures will be performed, except that serious incidents, including deaths should be reported within 24 hours. All deaths of study subjects that are suspected or known to be related to the research procedures, should be brought to the attention of the bioethics committees in the USA and Ukraine. Another DTRA contractor operating in Ukraine is CH2M Hill. The American company has been awarded a $22.8 million contract (2020-2023) for the reconstruction and equipment of two bio-laboratories. The State Scientific Research Institute of Laboratory Diagnostics and Veterinary-Sanitary Expertise (Kyiv ILD) and the State Service of Ukraine for Food Safety and Consumer Protection Regional Diagnostic Laboratory (Odesa RDL). US personnel are indemnified for deaths and injuries to the local population, seriously which Ukrainian jackass signed up his own people for this I might ask? The DTRA activities in Georgia and Ukraine fall under the protection of special bilateral agreements. According to these agreements, Georgia and Ukraine shall hold harmless, bring no legal proceedings and indemnify the United States and its personnel, contractors and contractors' personnel, for damage to property, or death or injury to any persons in Georgia and Ukraine, arising out of activities under this Agreement. If DTRA-sponsored scientists cause deaths or injuries to the local population they cannot be held to account. So, if American clowns all have immunity, just who will be indemnified for the subsequent injuries or deaths caused? Furthermore, according to the US-Ukraine Agreement, claims by third parties for deaths and injuries in Ukraine, arising out of the acts or omissions of any employees of the United States related to work under this Agreement, shall be the responsibility of Ukraine. That is just unbelievable, are Ukrainians that desperate for money they would allow that on their own people? Maybe a Russian invasion would not be so bad after all, as clearly the Ukrainian policy makers are of the psychopathic order. So, the U.S.' biggest allies in Eastern Europe and right near Russia's borders, which means it is NATO backed, are essentially guinea pigs in the U.S.' developing biological warfare plans against Russia, and probably elsewhere. Allies with these people does not mean friendly, it is all lies that is the real way to pronounce it. Is the West Nile Virus really what it states? a virus from the West Nile region? or is it a virus created by the followers of that region of the Nile to eliminate the West? Lets replay a line of that piece earlier, can you connect the dots? US Federal contracts registry show that, USAMRU-G is expanding its activities to other US allies in the region, and is establishing expeditionary capabilities in Georgia, Ukraine, Bulgaria, Romania, Poland, Latvia and any future locations. The report also said, the U.S.' developing biological warfare plans against Russia. Is it a coincidence this bio warfare is all against all white race countries? I sadly would expect not. The Covid scam did not by and large take root in Europe, as many of those countries refused to buy into it. One has to ask is this their back up plan? Who proposed this plan? Why was it even allowed? Under what treaty or agreement could this possibly take place? Isn't this classed as human experimentation again? Why is a program of this nature even allowed, given absolutely nothing good will come of it? Is biological warfare an adult based decision? Where are the Ethics Committees? At which point will the American Government grow a set and reign in the psychopaths running the Military and Agencies? When will the people stand up and make them accountable? These are the same group who sent your sons and daughters into fake wars, drugging them, returning with mental issues, injuries, missing limbs or never returning at all. Stop waving your British created flags, and singing your British created National Anthem, and stand up not for your country, but your people.

Some people felt a law show would not be that interesting or compelling in our show format, well Tuesday blew that notion out of the water. Of course water plays heavily into their control system terminology, but that was quite a baptism of fire from our Communal Gathering Law group. Packed with info, packed with ideas, packed with solutions of how we can and will change the old system dynamic and indeed, the paradigm. It laid to rest the folly of common law, laid to rest the use of Magna Carta or assemblies. The first two just spins your wheels and does not deliver for we the people, the latter is risking a jail term and potential large fine to boot. Stay away from assemblies, and no that is nothing to do with Kim or Anna, and everything to do with they are putting their members at the risk of causing the authorities to designate it as a coup. Declaring yourselves as the new Government, equals a coup, and potentially 20 years in jail. Don't go down the same path as Heather Jarraff. Thanks again to our Law Group and also Frank O'Collins for his input into that show.

Whether speaking of being more Feminine, Masculine, the TPC, THI, alternative theories, so called conspiracy theories, or anything in particular. That is seen as different from the double negative normal standard, you have to address it all the same way or with the same principal. You are there to plant the seed only, you are not responsible for growing other peoples plants, thoughts, ideas or garden. You will always come up against people who will argue the point, deflective of the narrative, rail against the narrative, that is your cue to step back. Some people can't be helped, and so arguing your point with those people will have the effect of draining your time, your field and your energy. Those that rail back or recoil at your narrative have been triggered, so you have done your job, it requires no further input, until the person returns and asks more questions or accepts the task of growing the seed you planted for them. You can never pound common sense into people, most people do not reside in that frequency, to them it is like the static on the now defunct Looking Glass Technology. You can't talk butterfly language to caterpillar people, it just doesn't work, no comprende is their modus operandi. Use your energy for better more productive purposes, preserve your energy and use it in our world. Expending it in their world is a pointless and costly task. Psychology clown from the FRWL 7 Kurt Lewin, said this and fits neatly within the framework of our group. The whole is greater than the sum of its parts, he theorized that when a group is established it becomes a unified system with supervening qualities, that cannot be understood by evaluating members individually. Exactly, and this type of group unlike others is not easily definable in their database terms. With no leaders, and all being leaders, it creates a problem of who to target. The problem they face with this group is, we have been taught how to fight back, much to their chagrin. Keep being you, us and we and let them carry on wasting their energy trying to stop good people doing good things from happening.
