

THI-SHOW TRANSCRIPT 2022-02-24

In what has been a difficult week to formulate a show with what is relevant, what is interesting, I had to make many changes this week. It is all a part of the convergence. A website has claimed to have obtained a trove of personal data from Freedom Convoy donors, as the main fundraising platform for the backers of the Canadian anti-vaccine mandate truckers suffered an alleged hack and went offline on Monday. The Distributed Denial of Secrets (DDoS) whistleblower site announced it had been given 30 megabytes of information on the donors of the Christian fundraising site GiveSendGo, including names, email addresses, zip codes and IP addresses. This data won't be made available to the public, but will only be provided to journalists and researchers due to its sensitive personal nature, according to DDoS. All going to the Agencies then.

What the Canadian convoy has shown us in stark details is. 1. More people are starting to wake up and take actions and that is great to see, but 2. The clowns will use or create these events for their own ends. On October 2nd show I raised the prospect of Canada using the Emergency Act with this as an opening piece. There is an important document just released by Canadian government about a new Emergency Act, signed in Saskatchewan, but also in some American states that has the potential to bring in the Military, of varying nations to enforce the fake Emergency. Perhaps it's the UN like in Australia? Throw in the Illuminati card Truckers 101, and you have the recipe for staged managed events, that the majority of the public are not savvy enough to comprehend. What is clear now is, the Convoy was a product of the problem, reaction and solution game, the public provided the reaction, their solution all along was the Emergency Act, which was also implemented in some American States. The fall out of this was, the Emergency Act was issued after not before or during the event but after, all of which means it was pre-planned. The Emergency act also allows the people involved to be facially recognized, the funds for the Convoy suspended and now the details of all those who supported it, will be put on a database of potential terrorists. Those that paid under the Emergency Act, which included a banking bill, can now have their accounts suspended or deleted under the banner of State or Province terrorism. We have to be more savvy in activism than this, more clever ways of fighting back than protests. What this has also revealed is, the alt media is corrupt, as it was they who pushed it, made it viral and drove the whole event. That is not news to our listeners, but painfully short with members of all other groups, a lack of understanding leads to poor and costly decisions. The Alt media followers has to learn they are being played by Agency based people, I warned 6 years ago this week over 90% were corrupt, that figure has increased and is an epidemic within our community. The Alt Media hosts and groups are leading the people off the end of a cliff into the abyss, and gon't give a Fauci. Some of them are paid and some of them are acting to pay back for their crimes. Back in 2018, I got a report that a Military likely a Black Sun General was paying show hosts $5K to not have me on their show, and to turn against me. If true, that shows you 1. how they work against those who won't play their game, and 2. we are right on target, the right path and our destination and journey is not only for the truth, but self development. Those two traits are the biggest threat to the Globalists liars, politicians, think tanks, bots, doing nothings, Agency goons, badges of dishonor people. Why? because they cannot control either of them, should you choose that path.

NEWS: That opening was written last Friday, update as of today Trudeau cancelled the Emergency Act, more convergence? Why? could be two fold, they pushed in the banking portion which will stay, and or now they have another distraction in Ukraine. Remember what I said just two months ago? the end of Covid would bring this. At that point the clowns will wish to end the cycle, but we must be aware they will likely have to create something else on a massive scale to replace it as a distraction. False flags may increase again, more potential war flare ups with Russia and Iran, and possibly India and Pakistan to become unstable again.

As the UN website went down last week and returned with a new message, Peace, dignity and equality on a healthy planet. If only that was true, but who is the peace, dignity and equality for? is the great question. Maybe in the next week or so we will find out.

What is likely UN mercenaries disguised as Ottawa Police went on the offensive against Freedom Convoy protesters in Canada's capital on Friday, using the stocks of their guns, horses, and pepper spray to disperse crowds, after Canadian Prime Minister Justin Trudeau invoked emergency powers. Armed riot police moved in on the protesters after repeatedly declaring the protests unlawful, and warning those involved that they would be arrested if they refused to leave. One viral video showed protesters being trampled by mounted police on horses, while another showed an officer violently beating and kneeling an already wounded man to the ground. Police officers were also recorded beating a downed protester with a gun stock, and ripping a Canadian flag out of another person's hand. Protesters and journalists alike were pepper sprayed by police on Friday, with journalist Andrew Lawton claiming to have been pepper sprayed despite being several feet away from their front line and obeying every order to move back. Ottawa Police confirmed 70 arrests on Friday, though some reports placed the number as high as 100, two key figures behind the protests were arrested on Thursday. Several Canadian MPs condemned the police violence, accusing Trudeau of ordering authoritarian, military style measures to deal with peaceful protesters. Of course they used military style measures, that was in Emergency Act I warned of as far back as October 2021, where were you lot then to stop it? Where are the cops speaking out against these Stazi tactics? not an odd one, lots of you. People are getting angry and you lot are the front line, don't be a complete jackass for ever, as some of you will lose your lives fighting to protect a crumbling and treasonous system. You like scientists and medical people you will become pariahs, think different.

Rep. Yvette Herrell of New Mexico said on Saturday, that she would be introducing legislation that would grant temporary asylum to those involved in the Canadian trucker protests. Just as we provide asylum for political prisoners, we should do the same for truckers who have been subjected to violence, had their property confiscated, and their bank accounts frozen by a government that is quickly becoming the embarrassment of the free world, Herrell said in a statement on Twitter. I am introducing legislation that would temporarily grant asylum to innocent Canadian protesters who are being persecuted by their own government. We cannot be silent as our neighbors to the north are treated so badly, she added. Between Friday and Saturday, officials said that 170 people were arrested in Ottawa in connection to the demonstrations that took place against Covid-19 protocol measures in Canada, The Associated Press reported. A noble thing to do and say, hopefully it will give other States to encourage togetherness.

The crossover of news, sentences and memes that come from our show, is converging more and more each week, here is another example of that. A Catholic priest in Arizona is learning the hard way that words matter, words in essence are matter, an abstract frequency turned into a form. But, after a one-word gaffe forced officials to invalidate thousands of baptisms he conducted over many years. Church officials say that the priest, Andres Arango, used the word we instead of I during baptisms. Catholics believe that only Jesus Christ has the power to baptize, not the wider community or the Church. Mr Arango has resigned from his position and apologized. According to the Catholic Diocese of Phoenix, Reverend Arango was reciting the words used for baptisms incorrectly until 17 June 2021. The Church has declared all baptisms he conducted up until that date invalid. At the centre of the controversy is Mr Arango's use of the word we instead of I in the phrase, I baptize you in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, but where is the mother? Common sense question, how can someone who died 2000+ years ago baptize you? Are these priests acting like clones or avatars? who appointed them as representatives of Jesus? think about those questions deeply.

As Biden is wheeled out to talk his usual babble, stating the world will hold Putin accountable for 'unprovoked and unjustified attack' on Ukraine. Did the world hold America accountable for attacking 60+ countries since WW2? Did the world hold Israel accountable for the least 30 raids they have done on countries? What makes Russia any different? If NATO had stuck to the agreements in 1991, this would not have unfolded. If the CIA stopped meddling in the Ukraine and many other countries, this would not be unfolding either. Remember the Biden's have got business dealings in Ukraine, is he worried they will get found out? How is it the media just happened to go live at the same time as explosions? more staged theater?

The BBC excelled themselves again this with MI6 agent acting as a journalist Sarah Rainsford reporting on Ukraine. She and they were passing on comment on a Putin speech Monday, all the staggering hypocrisy just flowed. Someone clearly got an inside memo and reversed all the words and pinned on the boogymen of Russia, because the article was riddled with accusing others of doing what they have done, and misdirection. Putin rightly states that, NATO promised in a 1991 agreement called the 2+4 agreement, where NATO stated they would not extend their push towards Russia, they lied. At least 4 maybe more countries are now under NATO East of the Elbe or the Oder rivers. Mr. Putin's focus on Ukraine felt obsessive, like a man who thinks about little else, a bit like your department MI6 and other 5 Eyes groups as well then Sarah. Everything is about the boogeyman Russia, it is you and your ilk that are obsessive. Putin rewrote Ukrainian history, (M) too funny, your ilk rewrite his story every day, denying the 2+4 agreement, except I have seen the document. The Russian Security Council meeting earlier was a piece of theatre in which everyone had their allotted role and their script. (M) Just like the BBC then Sarah, giving scripts to read from MI5/6 that bears little resemblance to true facts. In stepped another Agency puppet called Paul Adams to add to the theater, history rewriting, pre-determined narrative and lashings of fear to generate shekels for the warmongers. He described Putin's speech as a fever dream, Mr. Putin is speaking from a very different place. This is not just a different slant on history, at times it felt like a parallel universe. (M) That is why we call you the portal people, news from another world, devoid of facts, bland statements with no proof and an intelligence level of a pre kindergarten child. The media cry Putin annexed the Eastern part of Ukraine and the Crimea, but NATO with it's 30 countries attached to them have Anu-exed the whole of Europe. Putin asked, why did NATO make an enemy of Russia? Adams said The Western alliance certainly never set out to do any such thing. (M) Your Western Alliance has been doing it since the 1950's, like the American's, the Russians are coming, 60+ years later they never arrived. But idiots like Adams and Rainsford, like a modern day Punch and Judy show, are sent out to talk shite for the public to repeat, and generate fear. Why can't the media do pieces on peace, reconciliation? because that doesn't pay the war machine does it. MI now stands for Missing Intelligence.

A newly discovered document from March 1991 shows US, UK, French and German officials, discussing a pledge made to Moscow that NATO would not expand to Poland and beyond. Its publication by the German magazine Der Spiegel on Friday, comes as expansion of the US-led bloc has led to a military standoff in Eastern Europe. The minutes of a March 6, 1991 meeting in Bonn between political directors of the foreign ministries of the US, UK, France and Germany, contain multiple references to 2+4 talks on German unification in which the Western officials made it clear to the Soviet Union that, NATO would not push into territory east of Germany. We made it clear to the Soviet Union in the 2+4 talks, as well as in other negotiations, that we do not intend to benefit from the withdrawal of Soviet troops from Eastern Europe, the document quotes US Assistant Secretary of State for Europe and Canada Raymond Seitz. NATO should not expand to the east, either officially or unofficially, Seitz added. All very well but that is not what happened is it? It should be noted that Seitz is born to and a puppet of Henry Kissinger. A British representative also mentions the existence of a general agreement that membership of NATO for eastern European countries is unacceptable. We had made it clear during the 2+4 negotiations that we would not extend NATO beyond the Elbe, said West German diplomat Juergen Hrobog. We could not therefore offer Poland and others membership in NATO. Yet in a memo after that they stated this: We might however consider referring to our interest in these countries in future NATO declarations. Further steps could be taken in the CSCE and through Bilateral Agreements. Who or what is the CSCE? The Commission on Security and Cooperation in Europe, also known as the U.S. Helsinki Commission, is an independent U.S. government agency created by Congress in 1975 to monitor and encourage compliance with the Helsinki Final Act, and other Organization for Security and Co-operation in Europe commitments. Compliance? that is not a Commission then is it, it is a Gestapo organization. The minutes later clarified he was referring to the Oder River, the boundary between East Germany and Poland. Typical that when they are called out, just change the narrative or a vowel, and cite mistranslation. Hrobog further noted that West German Chancellor Helmut Kohl and Foreign Minister Hans-Dietrich Genscher had agreed with this position as well. The document was found in the UK National Archives by Joshua Shiffrin, a political science professor at Boston University in the US, it had been marked "Secret" but was declassified at some point. Shiffrin tweeted on Friday he was honored to work with Der Spiegel on the document, showing that Western diplomats believed they had indeed made a NATO non-enlargement pledge. Senior policymakers deny a non-expansion pledge was offered, the classic Egyptian river stance when confronted over falsehoods, go in de Nile. This new document shows otherwise, Shiffrin said in a follow-up tweet, noting that beyond the Elbe or Oder by any standard includes Eastern European countries, to which NATO started expanding just eight years later. During a major press conference in December 2021, Russian President Vladimir Putin said the West had promised the Soviet Union NATO would not expand a single inch to the east, but brazenly deceived and cheated Moscow to do just that. Responding to these comments, NATO Secretary General Jens Stoltenberg said the alliance has never promised not to expand. In an interview with Der Spiegel later, Stoltenberg repeated that there has never been such a promise, there has never been such a behind-the-scenes deal, it is simply not true. NATO admitted Poland, Hungary, and Czechia in March 1999, just before launching an air war against Yugoslavia without the permission of the UN Security Council. This put NATO directly on the Russian border, the enclave of Kaliningrad for the first time ever. The next round of expansion in 2004 included the former Soviet republics of Estonia, Latvia, and Lithuania, placing NATO's eastern frontier just 84 miles from St. Petersburg. In a series of security proposals made public in December, Russia demanded NATO publicly renounce expansion to the former Soviet republics of Ukraine and Georgia, and withdraw US forces to the 1997 boundaries of the bloc, among other things. The US and NATO have rejected this, arguing the alliance's open door membership policy is a fundamental principle for them. A former German defense official, Willy Wimmer, also said he personally witnessed the West vowing not to expand eastward in an RT interview. The veteran politician, who served as parliamentary secretary to Germany's defense minister between 1985 and 1992, said that he personally witnessed this promise, when he sent Chancellor Helmut Kohl the statement on the Bundeswehr in NATO and NATO in Europe, which was completely incorporated into the treaties on reunification. Berlin's decision at that time, not to station NATO troops on the territory of the former East Germany, and to stop NATO near the Oder was part of this promise. He explained why the West quickly changed course: Wimmer believes that the promises made by the Western leaders in the early 1990s, were eventually dashed by the US ambitions formulated in the infamous 1992 Wolfowitz Doctrine. That was drafted by Paul Wolfowitz and Scooter Libby. Wolfowitz was born in New York and born to Jewish parents, Libby born in Connecticut and born to Jewish parents, and no surprise there then. The doctrine was in fact a Defense Planning Guidance for the 1994-1999 fiscal years that was leaked to the New York Times at that time, and sparked a wave of criticism even in the US itself. The document outlined the policy of unilateralism and pre-emptive military actions designed to suppress potential threats, and prevent any supposedly authoritarian states from becoming superpowers. The official text of the guidance was then changed following the uproar, but many tenets of the doctrine still found their way into the former US President George W. Bush's foreign policy. Bush never had a foreign policy, it is ran by Dick Cheney and other psychopaths. Since that time, the US and its allies have been on the wrong track, as they have been virtually doing everything to create a fairly justified impression in Moscow, that the Western nations seek to kick Russia out of Europe. To then build a new wall between the Baltic and the Black Sea and eventually to destroy Russia instead of cooperating with it, Wimmer pointed out. Yet more faction based fighting, NATO is the Rothschild's private army, Trump went against NATO as he is Black Sun. Perhaps now you will understand more that countries in their game and world don't exist, just used as pawns at certain epochs of time, whilst the warring off world factions play their insidious games.

Mr. Putin said Russia was intervening as an act of self-defence. Thursday's attack was partially intended to protect the newly recognized Donetsk and Lugansk People's Republics from continued harassment by Ukrainian forces. The Ukrainian forces backed by NATO, Israel and CIA mercenaries have been shelling Donetsk and Lugansk since the war in 2014. Russia did not want to occupy Ukraine, he said, but would demilitarise and "de-Nazify" the country. Interesting giving a recent piece on "Odessa" home of the Sarmatians, that, that region was attacked. Did you know that Ukraine has not registered it's borders since 1991 agreement? why is that significant? An interesting symbol on the back of a military truck was marked with the letter Z. Zidomasons or Zionist? time will tell.

A French modelling agent and close associate of the late US financier and sex offender Jeffrey Epstein has been found dead in his prison cell in Paris, (M) What a surprise that is. Jean-Luc Brunel was found hanged in his cell in La Santé prison on Saturday, prosecutors said. The 76-year-old had been held for over a year, as he was investigated on suspicion of the rape of minors and trafficking of minors for sexual exploitation. Brunel had denied any wrongdoing. Brunel's lawyers said he had been crushed by the allegations, and blamed a media-judicial system. Brunel co-founded French modelling agency Karin Models in 1977, and MC2 Model Management in the US with funding from Epstein. The children sell out girl Giuffre, said she had to sleep with him as well.

Not a good week for the Anunnaki puppet who runs non Factbook. Meta Platforms Inc. has tumbled out of the world's 10 largest companies by market value, hammered by its worst monthly stock decline ever. Once the world's sixth largest company with a valuation in excess of $1 trillion, the Facebook parent closed on Thursday with a value of $565 billion, placing it in 11th place behind Tencent Holdings Ltd. Hey Zuckerberg with a silent F, your Metatron game and program is collapsing.

A high-level Facebook staffer was allegedly caught soliciting a minor for sex during an amateur undercover sting operation in Columbus, Ohio. The video of the encounter was posted to the YouTube channel Predator Catchers Indianapolis on February 16. Jeren Andrew Miles, 35, of Palm Springs California, allegedly sent sexually explicit texts to a 13-year-old boy, and made plans for the boy to meet him at Le Meridien Columbus hotel. People need to check that hotel out, as it maybe another of their designated centers, remember many of the hotels are CIA fronts.

Long Island Democrat Kathleen Rice of New York's 4th congressional district announced Tuesday that she will retire, becoming the 30th House Democrat to announce they will leave the House this election cycle. The demons are leaving in their droves it seems.

California State University Chancellor Joseph Castro has resigned effective immediately, the CSU Board of Trustees announced in a press release. The announcement comes two weeks after a USA TODAY investigation revealed he mishandled years of sexual harassment, bullying and retaliation complaints against a senior administrator while he was president of CSU Fresno. The investigation sparked immediate and widespread outcry from students, faculty, staff, lawmakers and others, many of whom called for Castro to resign or an independent investigation into his handling of the matter. I guess Castro got castrated. Strange how famous or infamous names crops up in prominent positions isn't it. The US having spent years plotting against one Castro, now have had an appointee of the same name, and possibly a crime minister on it's borders of the same Castro name.

Canadian service members taking part or voicing support for the trucker protests against vaccine mandates are being investigated, according to a Canadian news outlet. The National Post reported this week that nine members of Canada's military have been identified, as either allegedly taking part in the protests or voicing support on social media, and that military police have launched two investigations. Canadian National Defense spokesman Dan Le Bouthillier told the outlet that Canadian troops are expected to adhere to rules and established codes of conduct. He told the Post: Those who disregard these principles not only demonstrate an extreme lack of understanding of the military profession, they undermine the very foundation the Canadian Armed Forces. Any member of the armed forces who brings discredit to the CAF through either conduct or performance deficiencies, be it through actions or words, will be held accountable. Consequences could include discharge from the military. What about the oath to serve the Canadian people? These military jackasses need to be reminded who pays their wages? the likes of the truckers are, who pay their wages, and yet they wish to crush them like bugs? The Post reported that some of those being investigated are already in the process of leaving the Canadian Forces, since they have refused a requirement to be vaccinated. Those reportedly being investigated include troops appearing in uniform on videos, posted to social media expressing support for the protests led by truckers, and speaking out against Canadian politicians. The Post reported that two serving members of the Canadian military's elite counterterrorism unit are under investigation, for allegedly taking part in protests in Downtown Ottawa. Retired and serving Canadian Forces personnel were the ones who reportedly sounded the alarm. Another reservist is under investigation for allegedly donating to the truckers protesting. The crackdown against Canadian military members who allegedly supported the trucker protests, resemble a U.S. military crackdown against so-called extremists, who took part in or supported the January 6, 2021, protests in Washington, D.C. After the January 6 protest, Defense Secretary Lloyd Austin launched an effort to root out extremists from the U.S. military, and ordered a force-wide stand-down where commanders spoke to troops about extremism. Extremism, like conspiracy theorist, like critical thinker like asking questions you are entitled to ask, is now deemed under the terrorism banner. This is how your Government and Military really is, we are seeing their real faces now, not the masks of illusion. Austin also stood up the Countering Extremism Working Group to examine extremism in the military. The CEWG found, after about a year of study, that there were fewer than 100 service members who engaged in extremist activities. A whole year investigating to find 100 people to target, this is where our money is going folks. The U.S. military is also cracking down on service members, who are refusing to comply with the Biden administration's corona virus vaccine mandate. So far, more than 1,000 service members have been discharged for not complying. The Post reported that in May 2021, a Canadian Forces member who called on fellow service members to not assist with distributing vaccines was charged with an offense related to mutiny, in the first time the Canadian military has used such a charge. Mutiny for not enforcing or speaking of not pushing poisons, oh my. Everyone is deemed a criminal under emergency powers, when the real criminals are the ones making them, and the ones enforcing them.

MEDICAL RELATED NEWS: With the heat and analysis turned on the country who vaccinated their people the most, protests rising and people questioning their infection rates since the jabs, there is a bit of a pull back from the fake country. The Israeli prime minister cited a drop in corona virus infections as reason to do away with restrictions. Israel will soon end its Covid-19 green pass system, I wonder if highlighting the green program had an effect in that? convergence? They are doing away with the vaccine card, as officials point to a significant decline in severe cases and an end to the Omicron surge. Prime Minister Naftali Bennett announced the move on Thursday, declaring that the wave of the Omicron has broken, and that there is now a sharp drop in the number of serious infections. Omicron is broken? is that significant? maybe we will find out soon.

A board-certified Embalmer and funeral Director Richard Hirschman revealed that arteries and veins filled with unnatural blood clot combinations with strange fibrous materials, that are completely filling the vascular system. Many of the victims reportedly died of heart attacks and strokes. Mr. Hirschman reports that he found resistance when he tried to embalm these jabbed patients, and then found these strange materials and pulled them from the large vessels of the bodies. He also reported that he has gone from seeing 50% of his embalmed cases with these types of blockages rise to almost 80%. Yet more evidence these jabs are not what they say they are, yet still the masses sit within the lie, whilst psychopaths pick them off.

China is said to have released a new hemorrhagic fever virus during the Olympics, called Marburg which is from Worms Germany, as covered in the show on Tuesday, what a coincidence that is. Viral hemorrhagic fevers are infectious diseases that can cause severe, life-threatening illness. They can damage the walls of tiny blood vessels, making them leak, and can hamper the blood's ability to clot. The resulting internal bleeding is usually not life-threatening, but the diseases can be. Is that a cover for the blood clots? like Omicron was cover for heart issues and other vaccine related ailments?

Bio weapons like Covid are not new, in 1951 insects were found in North Korea, carrying Cholera, Smallpox, Plague, Meningitis, US Air force spreading their version of democracy. 1951 CIA of Switzerland poisoned a French Town, Pont-Saint-Esprit with LSD, with many deaths. Swiss Novartis is effective it seems. Novartis is the company that developed saccharin, and were also in receipt of large funds from US so called health departments in 2009, one year before Project Lockstep. In January 2009, the United States Department of Health and Human Services awarded Novartis a $486 million contract for construction of the first US plant to produce cell-based influenza vaccine, to be located in Holly Springs, North Carolina. North Carolina? remember this piece from Expose 7? The project however did not only take place only in Wuhan's bio-safety laboratory 4, but significantly also in the maximum bio-safety labs 3 of Chapel Hill of North Carolina University. The stated goal of this program is the capability of producing 150,000,000 doses of pandemic vaccine within six months of declaring a flu pandemic. Hundreds of bio-weapon simulations were done in the 1950s and 1960s, even in the USA, 293 places in total, like in San Francisco. Swiss initiative with infected blankets is said have led to many deaths of Native Americans. We will have more on bio weapons later.

Dr. John Campbell reviews recent data released by the U.K. government in response to a Freedom of Information Act request. They show that the number of deaths during 2020 in England and Wales, where Covid-19 was the sole cause of death, was 9,400. Of those, 7,851 were aged 65 and older, and the median age of death was 81.5 years. During the first quarter of 2021, there were 6,483 deaths where Covid-19 was the sole cause of death, again with the vast majority, 4,923, occurring in seniors over 65. A total of 346 died from Covid-19 alone during the second quarter of 2021, and in the third quarter, the Covid death toll was 1,142. Again, these are people with no other underlying conditions that might have caused their death. So, in all, for the 21 months covering January 2020 through September 2021, the total Covid-19 death toll in England and Wales was 17,371, a far cry from what's been reported. As of the end of September 2021, the U.K. government reported there were 137,133 deaths within 28 days of a positive test, and these deaths were therefore all counted as Covid deaths. In a January 19, 2022, press conference, U.K. health secretary Sajid Javid admitted that the daily government figures are unreliable, as people have been and continue to die from conditions unrelated to Covid-19, but are included in the count due to a positive test. He also admitted that about 40% of patients presently counted as hospitalized Covid patients were not admitted due to Covid symptoms. They were admitted for other conditions and simply tested positive. Covid has primarily killed those who were close to death anyway, most of which can be attributed to flu. Campbell also points out that of the 17,371 people who had Covid-19 as the sole cause of death, 13,597 were 65 or older. The average age of death in the U.K. from Covid in 2021 was 82.5 years. Compare that to the projected life expectancy in the U.K., which is 79 for men and 82.9 for women. Campbell then goes on to review data on excess deaths from cancer. Estimates suggest there have been an extra 50,000 cancer deaths over the past 18 months, deaths that normally would not have occurred. And there you have it all in a nutshell, as the pull back from the fake Covid scam gathers apace.

In an extraordinary interview Macrosoft in the head Bill Gates said the Covid-19 Omicron variant had outpaced world vaccine drives in spreading immunity, urging health officials around the globe to respond more quickly to the next pandemic. Sadly, the virus itself, particularly the variant called Omicron, is a type of vaccine. That is, it creates both B-cell and T-cell immunity, and it's done a better job of getting out to the world population than we have with vaccines, he said. oops Due to a large amount of infection exposure in certain regions, the risk of serious illness from Covid-19 has been dramatically reduced, ouroboros program running again, one counteracting the other. (you suck) Gates continued, also noting that severe symptoms are mainly associated with being elderly and having obesity or diabetes. What an admission that is, and almost an admittance of the whole program has failed, except for the money makers. But typically these weak, childlike and pathetic clowns picking their ball up and then to get revenge, he didn't disappoint. Gates spoke with confidence in predicting a new major health crisis on the horizon, telling the panel we'll have another pandemic, though said it will be a different pathogen next time.

In January 2019, WHO defined the growing number of vaccine critics as one of the ten greatest threats to global health, and since the unprecedented corona vaccination fiasco, the number of vaccine refusers has really multiplied. So, they have created a new definition for people who exercise their free will right and choice over their own body as, a threat to global health. (M) Actually they have not put that into real context and I will correct it, it means the refusers are a threat to the Globalists health, and bank balance. Journalist John O'Sullivan warned that the massive PCR testing campaign could be a WHO vaccination program in disguise. He was referring to a new technology developed at Johns Hopkins University that developed tiny, star-shaped micro-devices called 'Theragrippers' that attach to the intestinal mucosa and can deliver drugs into the body. Ah the Johns Hopkins school of faulty math rears it's head again. The devices are made of metal and a thin film that changes shape and are as small as a dust particle. According to Johns Hopkins University, Theragrippers are administered with a cotton swab, similar to PCR tests. Just as we warned back in 2020. In October 2020, a Johns Hopkins University research team published positive results from an animal study confirming that the new technology works flawlessly. Then suddenly within 6 months they launched it. The person who invented the PCR test said it was not designed for that use, subsequently he died just after, but Johns Hopkins took it up and used it for their evil purposes. Perhaps PCR means Placing Covid Reactions.

Investigative outlet Project Veritas has released footage of a Food and Drug Administration (FDA) executive claiming that annual Covid-19 vaccine jabs are on the way, even for children under five. Even toddlers will eventually be required to get annual Covid-19 jabs, an FDA official said in the undercover clip. Christopher Cole, an executive officer with the FDA and head of the agency's Countermeasures Initiatives, told a Project Veritas reporter he is involved in the approval process for the various Covid vaccines. Cole claimed more jabs are in the pipeline for everyone, and acknowledged the money incentive for companies like Pfizer to promote more vaccination. It'll be a recurring fountain of revenue, it might not be that much initially, but it'll be recurring. If they can get every person required at an annual vaccine, that is a recurring return of money going into their company. This is what the initial investment brought, lots of people invested in the hope of a large return, remember the Congress report we did, whereby dozens of Congress people invested in the pharma giants delivering the vaccines. With a minimum investment of upwards of $2M this had to be delivered or the shareholders would go nuts. At another point in the footage, the FDA official also admitted that the very companies the FDA regulates, dump almost a billion dollars a year into its budget. The 'regulator' has thus become, quite literally, the sales division of Big Pharma. Like I have said the FDA and the CDC are private companies, not Governing bodies, although clearly with their monetary power they can buy off the Governments. Cole said even toddlers would be included in this annual shot requirement, though he conceded that there hasn't been enough testing on the long-term effects of the vaccines on various groups, including young children and pregnant women. Asked how he knew such a mandate could be coming, he said: Just from everything I've heard, the FDA are not going to not approve it. The annual jab would be just like the flu shot, Cole said, and required as the effectiveness of vaccines wanes. Just like a flu shot? with added genetic based interference modules, designed initially to make money, reduce the population as there is not enough cash flow globally, and then manipulate each person via the technology to their whims. The FDA released a statement saying Cole does not work on vaccine matters and does not represent the views of the FDA. US President Joe Biden has not endorsed an annual vaccine jab, but Cole said the president wants to inoculate as many people as possible. Biden's health officials have also floated the idea of regular jabs. White House health adviser Dr. Anthony Fauci has been open in recent talks to the idea of booster shots being needed regularly, though he has not endorsed annual shots for everyone. If you are a normal, healthy, 30-year-old person with no underlying conditions, you might need a booster only every four or five years. It will depend on who you are he said. It will depend on who you are? oh my, it is the DNA targeting certain races or people proof right there.

This President gets it, Nayib Bukele, the president of El Salvador, said on Sunday the crisis in Ukraine is just a distraction, while the real war of interest to free people around the world is being fought over authoritarian corona virus mandates in Europe, Canada, and the United States. The real war is not in Ukraine, it's in Canada, Australia, France, Brussels, England, Germany, Italy. They just want you to look the other way.

The Convoy leaders Dichter and Pawluk were not arrested and disappeared. Chris Barber, arrested, let go 1 day later and has basically said he wants nothing more to do with this, so the barber got a cut. Lich and ex RCMP bodyguard both arrested in fake looking arrests, charged with mischief or no charge, released and lying low. None of them stood in the front line with the people as the police attacked them, they hid their badges as they are not local cops per se. Like I said back in October perhaps it's the UN like in Australia? They're now tracking people down, freezing bank accounts and selling towed trucks so anyone who had a truck in Ottawa faces financial ruin, unemployment and loss of their trucks. They're even freezing bank accounts of people who donated to Go Fund Me, a local woman in BC, single mum, donated $50, has had her accounts frozen. But lets have a closer look at the word play we know they love to play shall we. The barber got a cut, no the people got cut. The woman named Lich, In fantasy fiction, a lich is a type of undead creature. Lich is an archaic English word for corpse; the gate at the lowest end of the cemetery where the coffin and funerary procession usually entered was commonly referred to as the lich gate. The gate brings up many connotations, Watergate brought in new stringent measure against the people. Liches are sometimes depicted using a magical device called a phylactery from a Classical Greek word meaning amulet, to anchor their souls to the physical world so that if their body is destroyed they can rise again over and over, ponder on that on a wider scale. Phylactery means two small square leather boxes containing slips inscribed with scriptural passages and traditionally worn on the left arm, and on the head by observant Jewish men and especially adherents of Orthodox Judaism. A lich is a spellcaster who seeks to defy death by magical means. Dichter means poet, I guess he wrote the script and all the world's a stage. The UN in America would require extraordinary measures at this point I am not sure they can make that call. If they did, it would be an act of final desperation. The UK, US & Canada, same problem, The Crown = Kron = Kronus, the KRON on the US. Where they think they will call time on us. think again, tick tock.

EXPOSE: Things that make you go hmm, the chocolate fetish day of Valentines has just passed, but where did it originate from? The plant was only found in the region of the Aztec, Olmec and Mayans region, but expanded following the Sephardic invasion known as the Spanish Conquistadors. The desire for chocolate created a thriving slave market, as between the early 17th and late 19th centuries the laborious and slow processing of the cacao bean was manual. Cacao plantations spread, as the English, Dutch, and French colonized and planted. With the depletion of Mesoamerican workers, largely to disease, erm they were slaughtered by the Sephardic's, cocoa beans production was often the work of poor wage laborers and enslaved Africans. Roughly two-thirds of the world's cocoa is produced in Western Africa, with Ivory Coast being the largest source, producing a total crop of 1,448,992 tons. Ghana, Nigeria, and Cameroon are other West African countries among the top 5 cocoa-producing countries in the world. Only three to four percent of cocoa futures contracts traded in the cocoa markets ever end up in the physical delivery of cocoa, every year seven to nine times more cocoa is bought and sold on the exchange than exists. Just like the silver and gold contracts then, and it goes from the promise to pay, to the promise to mine or harvest. But, then you find out that the chocolate making plant cacao, was introduced to the people from Quetzalcoatl, known as the feathered serpent. oops. I guess I have ruined something else haha. The fact it was the gods that introduce wheat, wine and alcohol, none of which have been found to have been overly beneficial, and the original chocolate drink was fermented, is suggestive those plants were to be used for a negative purpose. For the off world fermentation program, review the Humanity Unplugged series it goes into deeper details.

From feathered serpent, we go to a descendent of them, for more dot connecting. A small bird of prey native to Mexico and Central America is making headlines, after its apparent decision to spend the winter in Texas. The now-famous bat falcon was spotted for the first time at the Santa Ana National Wildlife Refuge in Alamo around Thanksgiving. According to U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, this is the first recorded time that a bat falcon has ever been seen in the U.S. A bird of prey? Alamo? a bat falcon? the bat connotation given the Covid links is the first alarm or concern to that story. But, here is a detailed next part, that was written before this piece came in, more convergence it seems.

A member posted something on the Spreaker chat a few weeks ago, that got me pondering deeper again. It was related to birds of prey, which are my favorite birds but they have been corrupted, or maybe they haven't and were always apart of them? The Peregrine falcon is symbolic as Horus. The falcon is known for being watchful, hence the term watches you like a hawk, just like all seeing eye. Bird of prey, like praying to worship, is being preyed upon, perhaps these birds of prey are also a part of the system, all watching like a hawk? Are the birds of prey a link metaphorically or symbolically back to the Avian group of Thoth, Set and Horus? Given the eagle plays a dominant role in control circles, their symbolism of the Eagle is displayed everywhere. The American eagle, the German Eagle and many other countries associated with the eagle, non moreso than the SS, known as the Black Eagle. These birds are also known as raptors, and yet there is a race of bipedal beings called raptors as well, some of whom I am led to believe reside in Colorado. They say that all birds derived from the dinosaurs, hence they are in part reptile, which accounts for the raptor name, the flying reptile or serpent. But there was another flying entity that is still worshipped today in Mexico and some other Central American placea, the flying serpent known as Quetzalcoatl, which leads us to Teotihuacan. Teotihuacán the term has been stated as birthplace of the gods, or the place where gods were born, erm no they weren't, they were invaders. Although the National Institute of Anthropology and History states that, the city appears to have actually been named Teotihuacan, meant City of the Sun rather than City of the Gods, as the current name suggests. The classic name switch operating again, perhaps we will find out why. The site is best known for the construction of some of the most well known sites of Teotihuacan, the Pyramids of the Sun and Moon. So, that is the second reference to the sun, perhaps that is indicative? The early history of Teotihuacan is quite mysterious and the origin of its founders is uncertain, it predates the Aztec's and Toltec's by 1000 years. Wherever they say the origin is uncertain, it means it didn't come from this planet, etymology has a lot of origin uncertain in the descriptions, now you know why. In 378 a group of people from Teotihuacan organized a coup d'état in Tikal, Guatemala. This was not the Teotihuacan state, it was a group of the Feathered-Serpent people, thrown out from the city. The Feathered-Serpent Pyramid was burnt, all the sculptures were torn from the temple, and another platform was built to efface the facade. Two constructions recorded sunrises and sunsets on particular dates, allowing the use of an observational calendar. The orientation of the Sun Pyramid was intended to record the sunrises on February 11 and October 29 and sunsets on April 30 and August 13. The interval from February 11 and October 29, as well as from August 13 to April 30, is exactly 260 days. Pecked-cross circles throughout the city and in the surrounding regions served as a way to design the urban grid, and as a way to read their 260-day calendar. 260 day calendar, 13 months of 20 days, now where have we heard that before? They were also known for ritual sacrifices on humans, and even have a place called the Avenue of the dead. Evidence of a collective burial where found, of those sacrificed humans as part of the rites of consecration for the Pyramid of the Feathered Serpent (phase Miccaotli, c. AD 200) In this case, all buried bodies had their hands tied behind their backs, with the necklaces made of pieces that simulate human jaws, but other subjects buried wore necklaces with actual jaws. Also mentioned given our reference to all things green last week, was a mural called the Green Bird Procession in Temple of the Feathered Serpents. But upon my inspection of several pictures and video of the Sun temple and the carvings or statues of the Feathered Serpent, I came to a startling conclusion. Science, researchers and archeologists all reference this as a depiction of a feathered serpent, but the carvings suggest otherwise. The feathers around the head, don't to me at least appear to be feathers at all, it is actually the halo of the sun, and given it is called Temple of the Sun, that makes more sense. This brings up intriguing possibilities, is Quetzalcoatl either Horus, Thoth or Ra? Ra was known as the fake solar god after all? enjoy your chocolates.

EXPOSE: Yet another convergence of past shows and indeed a future show is contained within this piece. A new study uses pollen data to evaluate the mortality caused by the medieval plague at a regional scale across Europe. Results show that the impacts of the Black Death varied substantially from region to region, and demonstrate the importance of cross-disciplinary approaches for understanding past and present pandemics. The Black Death, which plagued Europe, West Asia and North Africa from 1347-1352, is the most infamous pandemic in history. Historians have estimated that up to 50 percent of Europe's population died during the pandemic, and credit the Black Death with transforming religious and political structures, even precipitating major cultural and economic transformations such as the Renaissance. Indeed it did, the magic Black death like the magic Covid death wrought much changes, none of which where beneficial to we the people. Although ancient DNA research has identified Yersinia pestis as the Black Death's causative agent and even traced its evolution across millennia, data on the plague's demographic impacts is still underexplored and little understood. I wonder why?

because it will be found to have originated in Egypt, transported via boat from what is now Israel into the European regions they wished to devastate. Now, a new study demonstrates that the Black Death's mortality in Europe was not as universal or as widespread as long thought. An international team of researchers, led by the Palaeo-Science and History group at the Max Planck Institute for the Science of Human History, analyzed pollen samples from 261 sites in 19 modern-day European countries, to determine how landscapes and agricultural activity changed between 1250 and 1450 CE, roughly 100 years before to 100 years after the pandemic. Their analysis supports the devastation experienced by some European regions, but also shows that the Black Death did not impact all regions equally. Their results show that the Black Death's mortality varied widely, with some areas suffering the devastation the pandemic has become known for and others experiencing a much lighter touch. Sharp agricultural declines in Scandinavia, France, southwestern Germany, Greece and central Italy support the high mortality rates attested to in medieval sources. Meanwhile many regions, including much of Central and Eastern Europe and parts of Western Europe including Ireland and Iberia, show evidence for continuity or uninterrupted growth. The significant variability in mortality that our BDP approach identifies remains to be explained, but local cultural, demographic, economic, environmental and societal contexts would have influenced Yersinia pestis prevalence, morbidity and mortality, says Alessia Masi from the Max Planck Institute for the Science of Human History and La Sapienza University in Rome. Max Planck also appeared in Expose 7 warning about DARPA's program, which uses insects as the vehicle for as horizontal environmental genetic alteration agents. Think locusts, Locusts have formed plagues since prehistory. The ancient Egyptians carved them on their tombs and the insects are mentioned in the Iliad, the Mahabharata, and the Bible. Egyptians, Jews, India is their a connection? I will tell you how it is explained, certain Jews were in certain places that had full immunity from such plagues. As the bubonic plagues of the 6th and 7th Century swept across the whole of Europe, Africa and Asia, the natural immunity of the Sarmatians, with double CCR5 receptor deformities, put the Sarmatian exiles in Samara in a unique position. They were simply immune to the plague, smallpox, influenza, as they are immune to HIV today. Which reveals it is they who have plagued, pardon the pun, humanity since day one. What are the coincidences that all the plagues and dis-eases don't effect one group of people, without the rest of humanity questioning as to whether, it is they who created the plagues? Is it a coincidence that Russia just attacked what is now known as Odessa, base for the Sarmatians? Palynology, or the study of fossil plant spores and pollen, is a powerful tool for uncovering the demographic impacts of the Black Death. This is because human pressures on the landscape in pre-industrial times, such as farming or clearing native plants for building, were heavily dependent on the availability of rural workers. Using a new approach called Big-data paleoecology (BDP), the researchers analyzed 1,634 pollen samples from sites all over Europe to see which plants were growing in which quantities, and thereby determine whether agricultural activities in each region continued or halted, or if wild plants regrew while human pressure is reduced. One reason these results come as a surprise is, that many of the quantitative sources that have been used to construct Black Death case studies come from urban areas, which, despite their ability to collect information and keep records, were also characterized by crowding and poor sanitation. The crowding came after the influx of the Diaspora group, who were not known for cleanliness, why? because they were given immunity to such diseases and uncleanness can bring, overcrowding just made things worse for the locals. Less food, less clean water, less sanitation all contributed to the village communities being overrun by those nomadic peoples, who knew full well what they were doing. It was all part of the plan, a plan not beneficial to us, just like trust the plan. The object was to create disease after the diasporans moved in, leading to much illness and death and so they being immune to it, where the only ones left, or the more dominant ones. However, in the mid 14th century, upwards of 75 percent of the population of every European region was rural. The current study shows that, to understand the mortality of a particular region, data must be reconstructed from local sources, including BDP as a method for measuring the change in cultural landscapes. There is no single model of the pandemic or a plague outbreak that can be applied to any place at any time regardless of the context, says Adam Izdebski, the leader of the Palaeo-Science and History group at the MPI SHH. Pandemics are complex phenomena that have regional, local histories, we have seen this with Covid-19, now we have shown it for the Black Death. Indeed, and at which point will these academics learn to put two and two together and grow a set and call it out. The differences in the Black Death's mortality across Europe demonstrates that the plague was a dynamic disease, with cultural, ecological, economic and climatic factors mediating its dissemination and impact. Moving forward, the researchers hope that more studies will use palaeo-ecological data to understand how these variables interact, to shape past and present pandemics. I got pondering at this point, and ya know what happens next, I saw a pattern which is essentially a loop, this time for around 700 years. The bubonic plague was around 650, 700 years later came the Black Death in the mid 1300's and so 700 years later we get the Covid plague or pandemic.

THE PROGRAMS SECTION: New maps through a study by geologists with the Washington Geological Survey division of the Washington Department of Natural Resources, show that a 9.0 magnitude earthquake could be devastating to the state's coastlines and roadways, including along the entirety of the Olympic Peninsula. That is the second news report warning or alerting of a major earthquake in that region in the past month. Is that one of their we are telling you what we are going to do episodes?

The Poynter Institute most like myself have never heard of it, but it is a 501C3, so what is its purpose to society? Factchecking for Facebook and others, what a noble effort they do for society, not. So, lets do a factcheck on them shall we. I looked at their website to find evidence of them factchecking the MSM, none, factchecking books allowed into schools, none, factchecking books in libraries, none, and so they are a 501C3 for the sole purpose of stifling peoples thinking and free will of thought processing. This is a line from their website about donations, and only those over a significant amount is disclosed to the public. While all gifts, no matter the size, help us fulfill our mission, we consider contributions of $50,000 or more as significant funding sources that should be revealed to the public. So anyone paying $49,999 or below are deemed insignificant and can go under the radar. List of $50K donors are Charles Koch Foundation, Stand together Fellowships also Charles Koch, Craig Newmark Philanthropies, Gannett Foundation, Gill Foundation, Institute for War and Peace reporting in 20 countries, no evidence of them factchecking 5 eyes scripts for war or peace, John and James Knight Foundation, Lumina Foundation, John and Catherine McArthur Foundation, Newton and Rochelle Becker Charitable Trust, Rays Baseball Foundation, Robert McCormick Foundation, TEGNA Foundation and The Washington Post. How impartial is that? The Washington Post who occasionally put out decent reports when it is using it for faction fighting, but ignores the truth as it's modus operandi. What a structure they have put in place, all too keep the noisy rabble of truth, quiet. Whilst it is annoying, it shows they are panicking, which means they are the king of panic. Why? remember a meme from the show a few years back? and a new definition for panic? People Are Now In Control, this piece proves that and they are desperately trying to fight back to stay relevant. Mission or miss ion, ion is a negatively charged particle, fitting then, it is our mission to miss their negative charges and go positive protons. Mission another church term, meant a sending abroad as an agent, originally of Jesuits, The Sanskrit term means to become hostile, quarrel. Mission an organized effort for the spread of religion or for enlightenment of a community is by 1640s. Enlightenment? oh dear, endarkenment more like it.

Here is another of the offended by everything crew, the things these people find to be offended by, and then link it to divisive program. Louisa Warwin's discovery of figure skating at age 6 propelled her to an accomplished career. She has participated in competitions around the globe and has received numerous accolades, including a medal at the 2020 Reykjavik International Games. But in the midst of her success, the 28-year-old, who is also a violinist, continues to encounter a longstanding issue, finding the right tights to match her skin tone. Warwin described her experience on TikTok in November, after not having access to tights while participating in a show in Birmingham, England. In the video, Warwin is seen sitting on the floor, visibly upset over her tights that are multiple shades lighter than her skin tone. The brown tights she brought did not fit within the competition's requirements to fit over the boot, leaving her no choice but to wear the only available option, a lighter-colored pair, which left her uncomfortable. A 28 year old crying about the color of her tights? seriously, is she really 4 or 5 years of age? absolutely pathetic. It shows us more of what I warned of some months back, of how they are now using sport to create and administer programs of division. What this stupid puppet based skater has just exhibited is, actual racism against lighter colored skin people in effect, that somehow it offends her. The great question is, why is she offended by people with lighter colored skin? because that by definition is racist. These people are beyond stupid.

I guess more of the people are waking up to the fact that white people are being written out any support structure, culture, history, television, sports and businesses and some are fighting back. A Russian citizen in Moscow has launched a formal complaint against American company Nike for its alleged racial discrimination against Russians. We're guessing Nike did not see that one coming, Nike named after the goddess of Victory with a V. Talk about flipping the diversity script on the Globalist American Empire. A resident of Moscow asked the Investigative Committee, to check the American company Nike for racial discrimination against Russians. The complainant, named Yevgeny Smirnov, found it offensive to see the almost complete absence of white models on Nike's Russian-language site. Almost all models representing the brand are either dark-skinned or representatives of the Mongoloid race, which is Asian. Caucasians, who make up the vast majority of Russian citizens, are practically not reflected. The company did not answer on what principles the models are chosen, after which the Moscovites turned to the UK. The company's policy is to impose Western values and stereotypes, that are alien to European culture in general and Slavic culture in particular. Nike refused to communicate not only with a dissatisfied consumer, but also with Russian journalists, for two days there were no answers to requests. If the UK finds signs of violation of equality of rights and freedoms in the activities of the manufacturer, a criminal case will be opened under Article 136 of the Criminal Code of the Russian Federation. Does Smirnov's complaint have any legal merit, or is it just a clever troll? A quick perusal of Nike's Russian website suggests he might just have a point. Out of Russia's 144 million people, only about 70,000 are black, presumably all of them migrated there to appear in Nike ads. Whatever comes of this complaint, it underscores the pathetic irony that an alleged foreign adversary seems to be, taking bolder action against American woke poison than America's own alleged opposition party, the GOP. And come to think of it, what is the deal with the bizarre anti-white discrimination in commercials these days? The deal is they are trying to wipe us off the map altogether, as I have said previously multi-culturalism, like the political correctness agenda is, a direct attack on the white race of this world.

Not only are volcanoes melting the ice in Antarctica, previous studies show that underwater volcanoes (not humans) are melting ice in the Arctic. Three new research studies confirm that geothermal heat flow, not man-made global warming, is the dominant cause of West Antarctic Ice Sheet melting, writes geologist James Edward Kamis. The West Antarctica's sub-glacial Marie Byrd bedrock mantle plume hotspot, shows the West Antarctic Ice Sheet thinning from 1992 to 2017. (1) One study, entitled evidence of an active volcanic heat source beneath the Pine Island Glacier, proves that the Pine Island Glacier of West Antarctica is melting and retreating from geothermal heat from a currently active sub-glacial volcano, not man-made global warming. Our finding of a substantial heat source beneath a major WAIS glacier highlights the need to understand sub-glacial volcanism, its interaction with the marine margins and its potential role in the future stability of the WAIS, the researchers wrote. They also note that volcanic activity could be increasing the rate of collapse of the Thwaites Glacier, which is adjacent to the Pine Island Glacier. (2) A different study entitled Bedrock in West Antarctica rising at a surprisingly rapid rate, shows that the Marie Byrd bedrock mantle plume hotspot region is rising rapidly and forming an extensive high elevation dome. Kamis contends that the high elevation rise rate of this plume region is the result of geothermal bottom melting of the ice column and upward bulging of the bedrock, not post-glacial rebound. Additional information concerning the geologically active Marie Byrd bedrock mantle plume hotspot, and the giant deep-earth fault that fuels this plume and more than a 100 sub-glacial volcanoes can be found. (3) Yet a third study, entitled New study suggests surprising wrinkle in the history of West Antarctic Ice Sheet, proves that the West Antarctic Ice Sheet significantly melted and retreated 10,000 years ago, then quickly recovered to its full extent. Remember I mentioned the poles shifting back onto it's axis and the planet and land masses where going clockwise in a SW pattern, and so Florida was going closer to the current Texas region. Hotspots are rising because of the friction created by the movement. Does this article prove that some way, well yes, because the western portion is moving north, hence the warming, the Eastern part is going south and is cooling more. Then a report comes in this week to add to this, the magnetic pole has moved 5.25 miles in the past month.

Climate change figures, ooh scary warming up, blame humans etc, in reality all countries must have 2% of their GDP stolen to promote fake science, none of which goes to science only greed based clowns to take over the world. Anyway the temperature has risen a massive 0.3C since 1991, and is dangerously close to a negative temperature drop. But trust the science knows best they say, Covid has proven that fact wrong, many times over, as science is now based solely on how much money you can make, whilst imposing tyranny on the people. Science like medical will become pariah profession in the near future I suspect. But here is a common sense question, Science states it is the oceans being warmer and creating more storms ok, explain this one then. If large portions of ice has melted and drifted into the oceans as stated, that would make the oceans cooler and less warming and storms would it not?

Yet more convergence as Nike as been covered a bit recently. I will add more to that as the boundaries of the latest event place Ottawa, is shaped like a V. The flag of Ottawa is shaped into a 6, and so becomes the all seeing eye in the color green, peaking out from the blue Azurite. As we have covered last week, there is no green and it is essentially an overlay color that does not exist. Which brings me back to my youth and the color blindness test, I could not see certain shades of green in certain lights and always saw it as brown, so they designated me as color blind. But, as it turns out now, it appears I was correct as there is no green only brown. So the dominant color was always blue, just like my favorite soccer team, and when you add the color of yellow to blue, which comes from the sun, it makes the color appear green. The great question is if green isn't real, is it a projection overlay color in an almost holographic nature, implemented by the fake gods and their Matrix games. Remember last week I mentioned Green was also considered to be the median color between light and obscurity, just like the medias use of the green screen then. What if the Matrix overlay is one giant green screen, and the medias version is as above so below? Monsters, lizards, reptiles, the Matrix all green, just maybe that is indicative, or is it a piss take on something much larger, that predates all of this?

SpaceX's internet connectivity constellation Starlink, which started in May 2019, has started inviting interested fans to the Better Than Nothing beta test. While the final version aims to offer gigabit download speeds at low latency to anyone with a view of the sky, the beta is offering more like 50 to 150 megabits per second, hence the humble-brag test name. The great question is, I thought that was what the 1-5G was supposed to do, and 6 will increase it, I guess not. Because oblivious to most people the internet has not sped up noticeably at all, after installing cables instead of the phone line dial up. It only sped up the data harvesting of the Agency's and the energy harvesting data mining for the fresh air tokens scam. But the Starlink terms of service, as spotted by Twitter account WholeMarsBlog require users to agree that, no Earth-based government has authority or sovereignty over Martian activities. Under section nine of the terms, SpaceX explains how services provided around the Earth or Moon will follow the law as governed by the state of California in the United States. The great question is, Who made the State of Kalifornia the governance of airspace around Earth or the Moon? But for Mars, the story changes a bit, for Services provided on Mars, or in transit to Mars via Starship or other colonization spacecraft, the parties recognize Mars as a free planet and that no Earth-based government has authority or sovereignty over Martian activities. Accordingly, disputes will be settled through self-governing principles, established in good faith, at the time of Martian settlement. The comments highlight one of SpaceX's biggest ambitions for the coming decades, to send the first humans to Mars and ultimately establish a city by 2050. About 100 years after the alleged first humans went to Mars, and many years earlier as slaves for the mining operation on this planet by the varying Anunnaki groups. To achieve that goal, the firm is developing the Starship, a fully-reusable rocket measuring around 400 feet tall when paired with the booster. SpaceX wants to send the first cargo ships to the Red Planet in the next few years, I suspect they will receive the same welcoming committee that the Apollo program got, particularly Apollo 13 that was fired at for carrying nuclear weapons to allegedly detonate on the moon.

A bit of a confirmation from our intel piece on Dec 30th 2021, which said this. Also other work recently was undertaken, that involved stopping certain satellites doing rogue based interactions at key strategic locations around the world. You may see evidence of that related to satellites in the MSM, should they continue to play that game on us, the same outcomes to those satellites and locations will be administered. Now the fake Michael Salla says that it was the deep state that took out Elon Musk's 40 satellites leaving 1700 still able to work. Just because Musk calls out one or two people we don't like, does not make him one of us, think faction fighting. We lead they follow and twist the narrative.

From time to time I like to go back and revisit certain pieces I have written, and bring them from the past into the now, so that is can improve our future. With another Must Listen to show coming up next Tuesday, that will expand the bigger picture and your understanding of it, today I will replay a piece from October 17th 2019 called what is human? So, what is human? our record outlined is a not too pretty picture is it? in the fake book written by controlling elites men, not god or source, it states let us create man in our image, now I have gone on record to state that book was written about the Annunaki groups and their offspring, they all carried the mark of the nefilim. From Melchizedek, to Genghis Khan(cohen), to the Indian gods to Noah, as did Noah's offspring Shem and Ham, all it was said they had a coat of armor when born, described as scaly skin, and no it wasn't eczema or psoriasis, it was reptile skin. Many have interpreted the term let us create man in our image, too few ask who is us and what is our? I thought it was said god made us, are there more than one? many took that statement as a sign that they made man literally, they didn't. They the gods, fake ones, set about turning man into their image via mind control and low vibrational frequency traits, divide and conquer and hierarchy all came from them, now they are gone, and can no longer interfere on the levels previously, there will always be some who wish to continue that program. We have enough humans who are as psychotic as their leaders where, what are we going to do to create man in a new image and light? We have an opportunity to forge our own path for the first time in history, without interference, do we like our current image? labeled as savages by some, labeled as low intelligence by others, is that what we wish to be labeled by? Or will the collective stand up and finally take some responsibility of the mess this world is in? come together and forge a better path? Whilst they created the image, like bots we followed it, when a little circumspect reflection, of your self and the world around you, could have easily changed this abomination a long time ago. THI has been on a journey of correcting the past ills and exposing the hidden world, too few could see and even less believed. What made us different is, we pointed the fingers not just at those who hurt, controlled or damaged us, but at the mirror and back toward us, and what our role was in it. You can't create solutions by looking at only half of the problem, that is why this world is a mess, too few see the bigger picture, too few realize there is a bigger picture, never mind see it, too few critical think or analyze, and the ones that do analyze, largely do so for negative purposes. Too many are reminiscent of the children in kindergarten class, listening to the teacher read a book to them, or worse George Bush Jnr, all just swallowed it up, and regurgitated it ad nauseum. Only the few asked the questions of it's validity or whether it was true or not, adults are no different to those children. The children had an excuse they were learning the world, and were relatively new to it, adults don't have that excuse, you chose to be a bot, listen and repeat, that is not being human, that is a machine. I am overall pleased at how many of you in the group have embraced the message, and gone onto making better changes in your life and those around you, it is arduous I know that more than you all, truth comes at a very heavy cost to those delivering it on this planet, and the least anyone can do is support those who are, yet we see several examples of those mired in their own shit, projecting it onto others. Do we want a world that throws shit everywhere and creates a massive stink? or do we take responsibility for ourselves and create a much cleaner world, where the stink is in the minority, and not the majority? Many of you have took up the mantle and changed yourself, your outlook and your own image, and some have gone onto helping others to do the same. This group has taken many members off pharma drugs, other drugs illegal or otherwise, alcohol abuse, victimhood programs, religious programs, cycles of abuse programs, we have made giant strides in this arena. Many have written to me and said their whole lives have changed since being in THI, people from all over the world who have never met me, all stating the show turned their life around, and yet we have all been targeted for doing so, why is that? is that being human? They target you not because you are weak, but because you are strong, never forget that, they target you not because you have external strength, but inner strength, never forget that, they target you not because you are stupid, but because you have more intelligence than them, never forget that, they target you not because you don't care, but because you do, never forget that, they target you not because you have low vibration, but a higher vibration, never forget that. Remember where you were, head and heart wise before THI, and see and feel your own development, no low vibration person can take that away from you, never forget that either. I brought forward a vision of how to be, but you delivered it and the low vibrational's cant take that away from you either. They are lost and stuck in their own world and their program has ran out, and they have no idea what to do, so they revert back to type, of those who created the image for them. The hu in human has three meanings higher universal, the Sumerian Annunaki term hu means serpent, in Sanskrit it means dragon, which is it to be humanity? dragon man, we had an example of the dragon guardians failing last week, serpent man worshipped by the Cat holic church or Higher Universal man, the choice now rests solely in all of your hands, which of the three you become. No masks to hide behind, no cabal, no Illuminati, no ET's or NT's groups, no global Martial law, another hidden group decimated this week, cloaked technologies destroyed or revealed, no psychotic AI, no simulation, no matrix, and the top order on this planet decimated down to a relative few psychopaths, only fear, threats and a lack of responsibility keeps the illusion that the old order is still in control, the reality is, they are not. There are no more excuses, you are on your own to create and be creative, be free or stay in your own enslavement, are you mind or heart based, real or fake, it's all out in the open now, and the frequencies are telling the real truth, not the lies you spew out or have been fed and absorbed as fact. Disclosure people cry, you have already had it, that is why you know of it, question is now, what next? Do we carry on not caring, carry on not sharing, carry on in their image or create our own image? That image we create needs to be an almost 180 turn on what went on before, that failed, we failed, now is the time for a new way, a different image, a progressive change and a drive to take this world of children into a progressive, flourishing adult based species. The whispers in your ears are getting stronger as the reconnection to the higher self bonds closer and closer, but will you listen? So are you waiting for the event? or have you realized yet, you are the event? The great question we started with, what is human? now with a blank slate, it and we becomes what you make it. Choose wisely and learn to be nice to each other.

There is a bigger picture of dot connections right through this show, can you find them? People who look to god for the savior are not self empowered people, and do a disservice to Source. Stop asking for your god to fix all your personal problems, and learn to fix things yourself. Stop asking your god to be your own personal Government, and learn to govern yourself. Stop asking your god to be your own personal savior program and learn to save yourself. That then makes you more empowered, and that very fact will please your god or Source that you have developed in that way. Your god or Source is not here to be your own personal slave system, fix this, fix that, save this and save that, just quit it, and do things yourself. They love to create fear because it is something they can control, but they fear love, because it is something they can't control. As nightfall does not come at once, neither does oppression, there is a twilight when everything remains seemingly unchanged. And it is in such a twilight that we must be most aware of change in the air, however slight, lest we become unwitting victims of the darkness. William O. Douglas, US Supreme Court Justice from 1939 -1975 The twilight or the great void of the darkness is only there because, enough haven't turned onto their power and their light. In as above so below as within and so without, you are the light the world waits for in the twilight zone, awaiting for you the eternal sun to turn on your light. I am the twilight TW I LIGHT, so join alongside me in lighting our beacons. Taking a break last week from incessant writing, thoughts and ponderings, interference and game playing, projects of varying degrees, I decided to take a break and to go back to a favorite place at my last abode. A valley with mountains on all sides, punctuated by a babbling brook, that was still iced over in many parts. The snow had fallen heavy there and is still packed at around a foot in that valley. As I ambled through bare trees across the snow covered ground, and took in the silence as the sun rested atop of the hillside. I reached a point where the mountain on one side was a steep vertical drop, and yet I marveled how trees still grow on that steep vertical cliff face. How they still stood upright on a vertical rock, they stood tall in the face of adversity whilst the ground beneath them was crumbling, it is a lesson for us all. The trees unlike us, kept their memory, they learned the lessons of life that can be a key lesson for us all. The trees learned to stand tall and be proud, to go out on a limb, reach for the sky, adapt to change, branch out, stay grounded whilst remembering their roots. They drink plenty of water, got rid of the dead wood, never stopped growing, learned to bend before you break, they turned over a new leaf each year and grew with it, all whilst taking in the view, particularly the overview. You can't see the forest for the trees they say, so become the trees is the answer, as all trees collectively come together to build the TPC forest. Reach above the bot based canopy and stand tall and proud, reach for the sky but don't limit it to one sky. This sky is their limit, don't make it ours as well.
