

THI-SHOW TRANSCRIPT 2022-05-05

April was a quieter month, we prepared for and hosted Intro to Law Part 4 on Sunday, May 1. We changed the format to a Round Table Forum rather than present the material. We had a great conversation, attendees expressed why they wanted to learn about Law, shared their insights and asked questions. Based on the feedback we will plan to facilitate more Round Table Forums during the Intro Series. Prep work has started on the Intro to Law Part 5 where we will talk about Estates, what are they, why were they created, and how can this knowledge help us better understand the mechanisms of control in the current system.

Episodes 1 to 4 are undergoing review to answer questions that arose during initial edits, in order to answer as many as possible before referring them to Thomas. A front-cover design has been proposed, and back-cover options as well, along with establishing the title of the first book. Episodes 8a, b, and c have received first edit. A Dutch translation for Part 1 is one-third finished, in case you want to include that in this week's podcast. The number of episodes to be combined into one book is still undecided, and the May zoom is scheduled. A books page on the main site is in the works, and a newsletter has been proposed to alert readers regarding upcoming books and shows. It has been suggested that the publishing and distribution should remain in-house for legal reasons, at least for the present, which would obviate the need for ISBN's, although an in-house system of our own would aid accounting on the sales site; this needs discussion.

The PA group has seen delays in our strategy to hold school boards accountable for pandemic related mandates, CRT, SEL and LGBTQ+ curriculums. Side note: SEL is viewed by critics as a shield for Critical Race Theory. Go figure-they are withholding information and unlawfully dragging out SRA (State requests for information) by months, as our initial request was pushed to April 27th. Received email and they delayed again till May 11th. Coincidentally their next school board public meeting is May 10th.

The Team collaborated to draft a letter to journalists/Fact-checkers and will look for more of them to reach out to invite to use their talents for a better cause.

All of the information for the Vegetable, Herb Fruits & Nuts Sections of the TPC Gardening Guide, have now been compiled and are in the editing stage. The Vegetable Section of the Garden Guide is now in the final stage of being proofread and polished, with a few last minute additions. The Vegetable section will be ready very soon to put up on the TPC Web page. As each section of the guide is completed, a hard copy will be printed and kept at the village, with the long term idea of setting up a reference library. Editing is ongoing on the Fruit and Nuts section and the Herb section. The Herb Section will be focused on the basic culinary and practical herbs that are used as complimentary plantings to vegetables and fruits. The Gardening and Non GMO Communal Gathering are excited about the idea of a collaboration with an Herbal Apothecary Gathering. We are also compiling information for a section to help beginners learn about soil building, soil biology, organic fertilizer, soil PH and plant hardiness zones. The TPC Gardening and Non GMO Communal Gathering is meeting every other Saturday at 9:00 am MST or 11:00am EST The zoom link can be found in the Community Gatherings Forum under the Gardening CG Zoom Link Topic.

The web team expects to have the new THI-show.com website and the Patreon alternative done by the end of May. We are spending a lot of time on design, content creation, and creating new pages.

Donations to Thomas Williams are now exclusively at thi-show.com.

We reformatted some of the old transcripts for the new website. The team is very excited about the visuals and functionality of the new site.

We resolved the login and other related issues with the thinkdifferent website. If you cannot login, there is now a link that allows you to reset your own password. We also added the ability to upload bigger files and more file types.

We have a solid core of women in both groups. We have discussed women being out of balance, how to recognize it and how to reconcile that. Our solutions was modeling. We defined the divine and the sacred, we discussed boundaries and giving and receiving. The most exciting topic wasn't really a topic at all, but came about from discussing the divine, and it carried over into our last meeting where we discussed the sacred. We talked about the need for self trust, and one woman from each group shared a recent experience they had had in holding their higher frequency in the face of chaos. They were excellent examples of modeling that high frequency and the people who were with them got it! These are two great groups of women who are committed to doing their inner work and modeling the core values of TPC. The best is yet to come!

GENETICISM: The United States broke all previous records for mass shootings in 2021. None of the attacks had a white racial or terroristic motive. The year closed with a total of 691 mass shootings and several hundred deaths related to these incidents in total, according to information collected by the Gun Violence Archive. Estimates reveal that the mass shooters are overwhelmingly black, cue mass censorship. The grim milestone was largely ignored by the liberal Brookings Institute, which instead praised the Department of Justice's aggressive crackdown on political activity, as the reason for why there weren't any far-right or white supremacist attacks. The FBI's resources are currently preoccupied with soliciting alleged victims of hate crimes and confronting white supremacy, as violent threats to citizens continue to rise to all time highs. 2021 also saw at least 222 school shootings, another record, according to the Center for Homeland Defense and Security's K-12 School Shooting Database. School shootings, also driven largely by black violence, have steadily increased in recent years, with 2018 and 2019 being the third and second most violent years for school children to date. The truth must be told to then be able to correct the problem, regardless of which color.

Here is an interesting pondering, from 2017 to 2021 we had the rise of Antifa. Who were blatantly allowed to smash up towns and the alleged authorities did little or nothing to stop them. Has anyone noticed that Antifa has suddenly disappeared since Biden and the DNC came in office? The great question is, is Antifa the new mercenary army of the DNC, like the KKK?

The world of division continues to heat up, if only these people would A: realize they are being played and B: not look and sound like an idiot. Whilst I recognize these people maybe reading a script given to them, too many people buy into it. Blackfishing is a term that refers to someone who is pretending to be black or mixed-race, particularly with regards to social media and influencers who might benefit from misrepresenting themselves in this way. It is mainly used towards people who alter their appearance, for example, styling their hair and make-up or altering their skin tone or features to look more like they are of a black background. It is seen by many as both deceptive and problematic. It's about picking and choosing common black traits and characteristics for one's benefit, while we continue to face discrimination on a day to day basis, Johanna Yaovi, the founder of The Curl Talk Project. As black women, we are constantly fighting for clear, authentic representation and diversity and then have to face individuals who do blackfishing, individuals who will, therefore look ambiguous enough for brands to use them as emblems for diversity. Do these people not realize the saying imitation is the highest form of flattery? Should this be a valid thing, is that in some way finally an acceptance of people of color? Would that not be recognized as a good thing, after the awful racism of this country in the last century? Paranoia and victimhood is rampant it seems. Where were the statements of whitefishing, when Michael Jackson and Maria Carey started to look more white? Where is the same statements of people like Kushner and several other Jewish ELites and bloodlines appearing as white? Where does all this end? where is all this going to? having spent decades being accepted by some ignorant white people in this country, suddenly now they wish to segregate again? This is what they are saying, they are going to turn everyone racist again, which serves only the system these idiots are working for. Do these people realize, the same people who oppressed them with policies, are now playing them to create the same situation we had back in the 1960's? These people need common sense, some true history before they speak of things. The system are playing on the black victimizer card, and too many are buying into it. The outcome if it continues will get ugly and will affect us all, that is where I am coming from. I am appealing to the many black people in our group, to counteract these types of stories, and maybe create a positive action group where we write to these organizations. Let's see if we can get some dialogue of common sense going, before the street racial wars get started. Because that is where we are headed. The point is, we have all been victims, many have been victimizers and all lives matter.

Oh dear it seems the Russians upset the Jewish apple cart this week, and dropped a bombshell we revealed in an early FHSTOS show. Israel has reacted with fury after Russia's foreign minister claimed that Nazi leader Adolf Hitler had Jewish blood.

Sergei Lavrov made the comments to explain Russia's portrayal of Ukraine as Nazi, despite the fact that its president is Jewish.

Israel's foreign ministry summoned Russia's ambassador for clarification and demanded an apology.

The report trotted out the mind meme of 6M despite the camps themselves lowering that figure substantially.

Mr Lavrov made the remarks on an Italian TV programme on Sunday, days after Israel marked Holocaust Remembrance Day, one of the most solemn occasions in the Israeli calendar.

When asked how Russia can claim that it is fighting to de-Nazify Ukraine when President Volodymyr Zelensky is himself Jewish. Mr Lavrov said, I could be wrong, but Hitler also had Jewish blood, yes Rothschild's from his mother as I understand it. That Zelensky is Jewish means absolutely nothing, wise Jewish people say that the most ardent anti-Semites are usually Jews.

The minister's statement was met with outrage across Israel's political spectrum.

Israeli Prime Minister Naftali Bennett said, such lies are meant to blame the Jews themselves for the most terrible crimes in history and thus free the oppressors of the Jews from their responsibility.

No war today is the Holocaust or is like the Holocaust. The classic victimhood card that is celebrated and not mourned and let go.

Israeli foreign minister Yair Lapid reacted angrily, calling Mr Lavrov's words unforgivable. What is unforgivable is, their own lack of accountability, the repeated mind memes of sympathy played on the public, and forgetting their role in the Russian Holocaust that killed 70-90M people. Truth is a one way street, it is they who rewrote his story in a cul de sac of lies.

NEWS: Moscow continues to benefit from Europe's energy dependence on Russian oil, despite a reduction in sales due to sanctions. The Center for Research on Energy and Clean Air released on April 28, shows that Russia has nearly doubled its revenues from sales of fossil fuels to the EU during the two months of war in Ukraine. Soaring prices have more than compensated Russia for the loss in sales volume due to sanctions, and new sanctions promise to drive up prices even more. Since the start of the war, Russia has sold 46 billion Euros worth of energy resources to the European Union, and the figure continues to rise. This is about twice as much as the amount of sales in the same period in 2021. Even though there was a decline in the volume of sales, the increase in the price of oil brought Moscow about 63 billion Euros ($66 billion) on the energy exported on ships and through pipelines, since the invasion was launched on February 24. The volume of Russian oil imported by the EU fell by 20 percent and coal by 40 percent. However, gas imports grew, and Germany remains the main buyer. During the two months of the war, it imported energy products worth 9 billion Euros. Oops another ouroborus backfire by the old world clown system, just beyond stupid at this point.

A reputed federal informant and whistleblower who went missing after reportedly turning over a trove of secret files about Deutsche Bank, was found dead at a Los Angeles school earlier this week, according to police officials. The body of Valentin Broeksmit was found at Woodrow Wilson High School. Los Angeles Police Department Capt. Kenneth Cabrera told the Los Angeles Times that authorities do not suspect foul play. Yeah right, just amazed he wasn't found in Texas, connect the dots.

Facebook in public relations mode, proclaiming they don't know what happens to their data. Not all of us are blind and stupid. Staying in the world of social media, notice the alt media always pushes a savior person or program, the latest Elon Musk and taking over Twitter. As one member said last week, Musk is not spending $44B because he cares about your freedom of speech, he's going to integrate Twitter into Neuralink . Neuralink Corporation is a neurotechnology company, that develops implantable brain machine interfaces. The Pioneer Building in San Francisco that shares offices with OpenAI. More faction fighting in the gladiatorial sense, except the people are the ones in the ring.

In an interview questions were asked to Marjorie Greene about Catholic organizations in the U.S, that use federal funding to help resettle undocumented immigrants and refugees. I thought we had a separation of church and state, Greene said in response. What it is, is that Satan's controlling the church. The church is not doing its job, and it's not adhering to the teachings of Christ, and it's not adhering to what the word of God says we're supposed to do and how we're supposed to live. She added that Christian groups that say you should take care of migrants, are destroying our laws and taking advantage of Americans. Yes, we are supposed to love one another, but their definition of what love one another means, means destroying our laws. It means completely perverting what our Constitution says, it means taking unreal advantage of the American taxpayer. And it means pushing a globalist policy on the American people, and forcing America to become something that we are not supposed to be. She also suggested that the U.S. government should sever foreign aid, to the home countries of undocumented immigrants who are illegally invading. We should hold those countries accountable, oh, I'm sorry, Guatemala, you're not getting a check this year because you've sent X number of thousands, tens of thousands, hundreds of thousands and millions of people to illegally invade our country as if they're an army. Whilst she is correct in her statements I feel, is this another use of the word Green? Is it a smokescreen? a green screen? deflecting and distracting in a psy op way?

Yet another non future thinking policy. Microsoft announced a deal worth potentially $22 billion with the U.S. Army, to produce HoloLens-like headsets for the military. Since that announcement, the deal has ran into several issues, including delays and reported disarray in Microsoft's augmented reality team. Now, it turns out that soldiers may not even want to use the Integrated Audio Visual System. An audit by the U.S. Department of Defense found, that IVAS program officials did not define minimum user acceptance levels, to determine whether IVAS would meet user needs. This happened because the Army did not require the officials to define suitable user acceptance levels. Potentially, the IVAS contract could result in a large loss for the U.S. Army, according to the audit. While the audit is heavily redacted, the crux of its argument is that, officials did not set a clear mark of what level of user acceptance is good enough. As a result, it is difficult to determine if the IVAS project will prove useful for the Army. The meatier parts of the audit, including soldiers' overall acceptance of IVAS, are redacted. There are, however, some noteworthy portions. Results from the surveys show both positive and negative user acceptance. Army officials stated that it was difficult to assess soldier feedback, stated the audit, that is their world talk for, we don't like their responses. Officials also stated that challenges to assessing user acceptance included asking the right questions, soldiers not liking change, comparing prototype in process systems to current capabilities, and lack of soldier knowledge or training on new systems. Program officials stated that, if soldiers do not love IVAS and do not find it greatly enhances accomplishing the mission, then soldiers will not use it, said the report. A section labeled Management Comments on the Finding and Our Response has notes based on comments from the Assistant Secretary of the Army, Douglas R. Bush, as well as a response from the office of the Inspector General of the Department of Defense. Not another Bush, surely you jest? Bush claimed that the emphasis on the potential waste of almost $22 billion is misleading, because it is a contract ceiling over a 10-year period and includes all possible sales to the Services and foreign military sales. Johns Hopkins math again, losing or wasting $22B, is just that, whether it is over 1 year or 10 years, it is still wasting the public's money with hair brained schemes all designed for killing people.

A detainee at a secret CIA detention site in Afghanistan was used as a living prop to teach trainee interrogators, who lined up to take turns at knocking his head against a plywood wall, leaving him with brain damage, according to a US government report. The details of the torture of Ammar al-Baluchi are in a 2008 report by the CIA's inspector general, newly declassified as part of a court filing by his lawyers aimed at getting him an independent medical examination. Baluchi, a 44-year-old Kuwaiti, is one of five defendants before a military tribunal on Guantánamo Bay charged with participation in the 9/11 plot, but the case has been in pre-trial hearings for 10 years, mired in a dispute over legal admissibility of testimony obtained after torture. According to the inspector general's report, the CIA was aware that the 2003 rendition of the detainee, Ammar al-Baluchi, taken from Pakistani custody to the black site north of Kabul was conducted extra-legally, because at the time he was in Pakistani jurisdiction and no longer represented a terrorist threat. Another black site on the 33rd parallel then. The report said that interrogators at the site, known both as Cobalt and the Salt Pit, went beyond the CIA's guidelines in torturing Baluchi, using two techniques without approval, using a stick behind his knees in stress position that involved leaning back while kneeling, and dousing with ice-cold water. The technique of walling was approved by the enhanced interrogation technique guidelines sent by CIA headquarters. It involved placing the detainee's heels against a specially designed plywood wall which had flexibility to it, and putting a rolled up towel around the detainee's neck. The interrogators would then grab the ends of the towel in front of and below the detainees face, and shove Baluchi backwards into the wall, never letting go of the towel, the report said. One of the interrogators identified only by a code said the goal was to bounce the detainee off the wall. The report noted that Baluchi was naked for the proceedings. There was no time limit for the walling sessions, but typically a session did not last for more than two hours at a time. They went on for so long because Baluchi was being used as a teaching prop. One former trainee told investigators all the interrogation students lined up to wall Ammar, so that the instructor could certify them on their ability to use the technique. Beyond disgusting, and yet again the CIA involved in abject brutality, seems those people over there lack an ounce of humanity.

The Ministry of lies and disinformation are panicking that much now, they are creating a disinformation bureau in the DHS. Yet again more duplication, as all 17 US agencies are or have departments of misinformation. You can't make this stuff up, they are that desperate now, they are revealing their weak hand to the public. And what it reveals is, A: they can't handle free speech B: they can't handle the truth and so are childlike and C: they are the most pathetic people in leadership roles this world has ever seen. It reveals who and what they are by the name, a disinformation governance, all in the words once you see. President Biden came under fire Thursday for the creation of a dystopian disinformation bureau created under his Homeland Security department, which critics are blasting as just a way for the government to police free speech online. Conservatives slammed the Department of Homeland Security's Orwellian new Disinformation Governance Board, with some suggesting the timing is convenient given Elon Musk vowed to make Twitter a free speech haven, after his $44 billion takeover of the social media platform notorious for selectively censoring right-leaning points of view. Missouri Sen. Josh Hawley called the new board a disgrace that was designed to monitor all Americans' speech. In a letter to Homeland Security Secretary Alejandro Mayorkas, Hawley said he initially thought Wednesday's announcement was satire. Surely, no American administration would ever use the power of government, to sit in judgement on the First Amendment speech of its own citizens, sadly, I was mistaken. Rather than protecting our border or the American homeland, you have chosen to make policing Americans' speech your priority. Nope that has always been the case, you just didn't see it. Florida Republican Congressional candidate, Dr. Willie J. Montague, tweeted: Is there anything more dystopian than a Disinformation Governance Board run by the federal government? Texas GOP Congressman Troy Nehls griped: They didn't need a Disinformation Governance Board until Elon Musk threatened their control over the narrative. Republican Congresswoman Lauren Boebert accused Democrats of spending the last weeks planting the seeds for the back-up plan in case the Twitter deal actually happened. She, too, called the news dystopian and said the left can't afford to let the truth be anything but what they say. Yet more Avian based politics. The hashtag Ministry of Truth was also trending on Twitter as critics compared the new board to George Orwell's 1984 novel. Adolf Hitler, Joseph Goebbels, Joseph Stalin all had a Ministry of Truth and now Joseph Biden has a Ministry of Truth," tweeted Errol Webber, GOP congressional candidate in California. How ironic the ministry of lies has 3 Joseph's, Arimathea spring to mind? Remember on Tuesday Joseph was the sodomy spirit Strong Man. Georgia Rep. Andrew Clyde added: this is seriously dangerous and wholly unconstitutional, and demands Congress to investigate DHS' Ministry of Truth now. The newly formed panel will target supposed misinformation aimed at key points of vulnerability for Biden and Democrats such as southern border migrants, as well as monitor and prepare for Russian disinformation threats as this year's midterm elections near, the DHS said. All valid comments, yet these same people allowed the Patriot Act to be extended. The spread of disinformation can affect border security, Americans' safety during disasters, and public trust in our democratic institutions, the department said in a statement. DHS said that the board will protect privacy, civil rights, and civil liberties as part of its duties. Now that statement is complete misinformation before they even start it. In reality land, this department has always existed, except now they have to be more open about it. Their control packages always start out playing on people's fears. The board will be led by Nina Jankowicz a disinformation expert, who has been criticized for repeatedly casting doubt on NY Post's reporting about Hunter Biden's laptop. The White House liars club better known as the press secretary Jen Psaki said, she didn't have details on the board's role, or its executive director, during her Thursday press briefing, but said President Biden supported the effort. We know that there has been a range of disinformation out there about a range of topics including COVID, for example, and also elections and eligibility, Psaki said. Yes most of which came out of her mouth. The backlash over the creation of the board came as, the Biden administration also unveiled an international Declaration for the Future of the Internet with 50 other countries on Thursday, that endorsed efforts to also curb online disinformation and harassment. What about the harassing of people into death jabs, damaging masks, mandates and lockdowns? The document outlines ideas for reclaiming the promise of the Internet, and US officials described it as an effort to counter the practices of countries including China and Russia. It notably doesn't mention domestic US struggles over internet freedom, such as politically motivated censorship of news stories, by private companies and alleged illegal government mass surveillance. The term disinformation has been used to censor content that later gains broad acceptance, such as the reporting on documents from Hunter Biden's laptop. Which Twitter blocked and Facebook throttled, and speculation that Covid-19 leaked from a Chinese lab, which Facebook banned, before US intelligence agencies later found the scenario one of two plausible pandemic origin theories. The vague document doesn't describe a specific remedy for disinformation, but does call for governments to foster greater exposure to diverse cultural and multilingual content, information, and news online. Exposure to diverse content online should contribute to pluralistic public discourse, foster greater social and digital inclusion within society, bolster resilience to disinformation and misinformation, and increase participation in democratic processes, the document read. Democratic being the operative word, the SS was "democratic" remember. The new document is signed by many US allies, including the governments of France, Israel, Japan and the UK, but the list doesn't include many of the largest but relatively poor democracies, such as Brazil, India, Nigeria, Pakistan and the Philippines. So, how does that piece make you feel? Angry, disappointed, frustrated or ambivalent? Understandable if it does, but, you do realize this is a staged event? A few things springs to mind, the use of bird politics with right and left wing, the bird's social platform of Twitter, the fact that so many politicians railed against it, the side story of Elon Musk, the mention of Nazis which self generates the mind meme of the Holocaust, where all clues. Which takes us into the next story.

A CNN talking head declared Sunday that if Elon Musk is allowed to buy Twitter, the platform will have to be government regulated, to prevent discourse being open and free, and not subjected to establishment controlled censorship. While discussing the Musk takeover media analyst David Zurawik proclaimed that Musk is dangerous, and shouldn't be allowed to restore free speech on the platform. Zurawik suggested that the U.S. look to Europe, which has recently brought in new laws to limit social media, and even threatened to ban Twitter if Musk doesn't play ball. There's a bigger problem here about how we're going to control the channels of communications in this country. Zurawik frothed, panicking at the notion of the likes of CNN not being able to dictate what Americans think. An interesting discourse, but is it a double bluff? A reverse psychology program? It begs the question of, is Elon Musk the new agency version of Q? Distract the alt media with a paid stooge, get them all fighting for the person who works for them, and not focus on real issues? It is all too convenient for me, they rarely tell the truth in straight format, and so there is a program behind it. A repeat of the earlier line, Musk is not spending $44B because he cares about your freedom of speech, he's going to integrate Twitter into Neuralink . Neuralink Corporation is a neurotechnology company, that develops implantable brain machine interfaces. The Pioneer Building in San Francisco that shares offices with OpenAI. All of which this does confirm they are panicking and are desperate as I have stated, Zurawik revealed their fears. But Musk got that rich for a reason, and is another player against we the people in my opinion. Unsurprisingly David Zurawik is born to, if there is one group frightened of free speech and truth, it is them.

EXPOSE: This was a letter sent on Monday, April 4, 2022 To: Hon. Mr. Andrés Manuel López Obrador President of Mexico. Topic: Brief history of Anglo-Saxon drug trafficking. Who we now know, are going back to the Pleiadeans who merged with the Druids. For thousands of years, China perceived itself as the center of the world. To illustrate this, the name used by Chinese themselves to refer to their country, Zhōngguó, which means core kingdom. During various periods in history, the Chinese had the military capacity to expand their empire, far beyond their borders, but they did not do it because, from their point of view, they were rich and stable enough to not have that need. It can also be argued that the Chinese were too civilized, or that such military expansionism it is not compatible with the ethnic-racial character of the Chinese. That is true about not expanding their borders, and something the rest of the world should follow. It is the greed based peoples who push that agenda and they need to be stopped. The Chinese way is the position of self sovereignty, and going forward, all countries should become truly sovereign and self sufficient, aided by other countries. Not in terms of damaging and harvesting loans, but truly help to support the country and it's peoples. Trade deals then, would not be inserted with arms deals, but to sustain a country in its needs, that they can't supply or produce only. From times of the Roman Empire, the most precious products of the world came from China. During these millennia, until beginning of the 20th century, a constant movement of highly prized items such as silk, ceramics, species, and then tea, from China to the West, to change from the constant movement of gold and silver from the mines from the West to China. With the sole exception of these precious metals, the Chinese were not interested in anything what the Europeans came to offer them. That's why the Spaniards searched for gold in America so energetically. That is partially true, they were moving all the gold and silver over there, for the East takeover of the Federal Reserve in 2012. What the Spaniards did find in America, in much larger quantities, was the silver deposits in Mexico and in Bolivia. It can be said that globalization entered the march, when the Spaniards landed in the ports of the China from its galleons full of American silver. The "Spaniards" were not Spanish as we have found out, they were the Sephardic Jews thrown out of Spain, and the pioneers or precursors of the fake Mormon religion. Both were thrown out of the respective regions, both went to the Americas to claim false titles, and both took over whole regions based on greed. The Mormon church is the or one of the top holders of gold reserves in America, did god tell them to do that? Why is not shared within their communities? Not only that, but why do they tithe their own communities? Cohencidentally the Jewish tithe people in the same way, all Kosher food has a tithe that goes to the rabbis. All sounds so familiar doesn't it? Why? Because they are all one and the same, be it peoples of origin or program. By the 19th century, with the defeat of Emperor Napoleon of France on the European continent, the British positioned themselves as the first imperial power in the world. For the word British, replace it with the words The Crown, they are nothing to do with countries, only power. Why Britain some may ask given how small an island it is? the answer is, it is one of the last 3 parts of Atlantis. They are harvesting it's ancient powers, grids, ley lines and energy centers. Despite this, they seemed not to reach the silver to be able to trade with the Chinese to the degree they wanted. It was then that the British, at the point of a cannon, imposed the sale of opium in the China, which was abundantly produced in India, the jewel in the crown of his empire. What followed were two humiliating and traumatic defeats of China, in what were the Wars of Opium of 1839-1842 and 1856-1860. So, the aristocracy British established itself as the richest caste that ever existed, dominating the largest empire in the entire history. All of which was kept afloat with, the enormous narco-fortune they achieved at the cost of thousands of Chinese deaths in the Opium Wars and countless millions of Chinese who literally, at the point of a bayonet, they addicted them to opium. So pervasive was opium addiction among the Chinese population, both in China Proper and in the Chinatown diaspora all over the world, that a true stereotype of Chinese was created, as a vicious man who spent his time lying down, unable to put down his pipe. Now you know why the Sackler's born in and born to, unleashed the Opium addicted in pill form on America, it is his story repeating itself. By the 1930s, President Franklin Delano Roosevelt of the United States, together with his manipulator, Iósif Stalin, dictator of the Soviet Union, conspired for the conquest and partition of the entire planet, designing the most extensive war plans in history. Roosevelt was born in New York, but his parents who were cousins were part of the Dutch connection we covered in the Plus 3 show, and so is connected to the Rothschild's/House of Orange clan. The regime of Franklin Roosevelt commissioned the following map, on which shows his plan for world conquest: As can be clearly seen on the map, both Mexico and Canada appears as an integral part of the United States. (POST MAP) The following is a list of the war plans designed by Americans, except they are not Americans, forget countries they don't exist in their world, countries are just pawns. The plans including Franklin Roosevelt himself, since he was Assistant Secretary of the Navy for United States united in the First World War, which are named by colors. This is another layer of the color coded programs ran by the secret rulers. War Plan Black - The plan to invade Germany. War Plan Gray - The plan to invade Italy, a name which was later reassigned to the plan for the invasion of the Azores away from Portugal. War Plan Orange - The plan to invade Japan. War Plan Brown - The plan to complete the extermination of the indigenous people of the Philippines, and thus prepare that territory for repopulation with American Anglo-Saxons and for their development with capital American. It must be remembered that the Americans exterminated about 4 million of Filipinos in the Spanish-American War. In 1898, in which the United States stole from Spain its territories of the Philippines, Cuba and Puerto Rico. That is linked in at a later date with the Sino, Soekarno, Marcos and the collateral accounts nonsense. That brought in

Langley 2 and 3 agents, like Neil Keenan, Obama and some other known alt media personalities. Like I mentioned earlier, it was a program to move all the world's wealth over to the East, as part of the Federal Reserve deal in 1912 for the West to control the finances for one hundred years, then hand it over to the East for 100 years. Politicians will not be aware of that deal or program, the conclusion of which is, the bloodline families and their off world connections always stay in power. Something Anna Von Reitz fails to address at this point. There is a reason she stated the Prussian Government remains open and should be returned with its wealth, because Prussia like Austria and Hungary were ran by the Hapsburgs. War Plan Yellow - The plan to invade China. War Plan Gold - The plan to invade France, including all her colonial territories. War Plan Red - The name given to the plan for invade the United Kingdom of Great Britain but also a series of plans to invade all territories of the British Empire, for which they had designed plans that were named with different shades of red: War Plan Crimson to invade and annex Canada. War Plan Ruby to invade India. War Plan Scarlett to invade Australia. War Plan Garnet to invade New Zealand. War Plan Emerald to invade Ireland. War Plan Indigo the plan to invade Iceland. War Plan Tan the plan to re-invade and annex Cuba. War Plan Green the plan to invade and annex the entire territory of Mexico. War Plan Violet and War Plan Purple the plans for invade the rest of Latin America, which was Operation Condor done by the CIA and P2 Lodge, which we covered in FHSTOS 7. We must not forget that the United States, in an act of unprovoked aggression, before the official start of the World War II invaded Greenland, to date an integral part of the Kingdom of Denmark. Oops that was kept quiet was it not? Remember Trump trying to buy Greenland recently, connecting the dots now? His story repeating again. What this reveals is what I stated in the Clowns in Panic show, a takeover of the all by the few. This has gone on throughout our history, various Empires all created by off world entities, and then a new boss same as the old boss comes in and harvests the harvesters. As above so below, the bloodline families all collect the Earth's wealth and gave it over to the Trustee Marduk, who subsequently pulled the plug on them all in 2007, as the event known as 2012 was arriving. Since then there is a power struggle by a few of the lower minions of the former control structure that was decimated around 2015. It then created a void, which allowed others to initiate their takeover and that is what is unfolding. What the people miss is, the void is for we the people also, an opportunity for us to takeover and run it in a better, fairer and inclusive way for us all. To contextualize the reason why the United States did not carry out the vast majority of these war plans, you will have to document an even more extensive investigation. The largest and most complete of all these plans of war was War Plan Crimson, the plan to invade and annex all the Canadian territory and repopulate it with Americans. To which, the United States allocated 57 million dollars of the time (about a billion dollars today) for the construction of multiple military airports in the north of its territory. In 1937, the royal family of Great Britain already feared the invasion of the British Isles by Germany's Hitler and began planning his exile to the Dominion of Canada. Except the UK royal family is German, Saxe, Gotha Coburgs. It was then that they learned of the American threat to invade and annex that

Canada. At that time, the British, in particular the royal family, were between a rock and a hard place. So, they decided to bribe the Americans to abandon their plans to invade Canada, handing over all the opium trade that had for so long supported this huge empire. Since then, the US government, in particular the army and the CIA, has stood out as the largest drug trafficking organization in the world. Since then, the US government traffics huge amounts of opium and heroin from the Golden Triangle, in the southeast Asian, for many years through the airline of the CIA Air America, and also from the Golden Crescent, between the south and Central Asia. (POST MAP) Notice the growing regions are all on a similar longitude? Afghanistan is the largest growing area, hence the wars there. You wish to know another reason these clowns want to deal with Iran? Although Afghanistan is the major producer of opiates in the Golden Crescent, most of the drug seizures are made in Iran. This is because traffickers are arrested while crossing the border from Afghanistan to Iran. So, Iran is blocking the trade of these creators of death and the erosion of the peoples around the world, again located on the 33rd parallel. The US government traffics the opioid's on military aircraft landing at military bases in Europe and the United States, from there they distribute it to American drug traffickers, which very conveniently is never talked about in the media. Yet again the US Military and their handlers the CIA are operating for and on behalf of the controllers, not the country or the peoples. As a consequence of having inherited from the British the opium trade in Asia. This statement is a misnomer and needs to be understood better. America did not inherit the trade, it was transferred from one Crown colony to another, forget the names of the countries as they don't exist in their world, the issue is who runs The Crown. The Americans clashed directly against the Japanese who, from their point of view, they were fighting an Asian liberation war against the colonial domination of Western empires, in particularly against the opium trade in China. In December of 1937, the Americans sabotaged the peace negotiations in Nanjing between the Empire of Japan and the Nationalist Republic of China through a false flag operation. Mercenary Americans, led by Generals Evans Fordyce Carlson and Claire Lee Chennault, Claire who despite the girly name was a man, they attacked the Japanese dressed in Chinese uniforms and with aircraft painted with emblems of the Nationalist Republic of China. Chennault arrived in China in June 1937, he had a three-month contract at a salary of $1,000 per month, charged with making a survey of the Chinese Air Force. A $1000 a month in 1937? 85 years later some people are not earning that amount now. This is the same as the mercenary BlackWater group, they are paid $500 a day for their often murderous work. Chiang's English-speaking wife, Soong Mei-ling, known to Americans as Madame Chiang, was in charge of the Aeronautical Commission and thus became Chennault's immediate supervisor. Chiang was the wife of the Chinese premier, who 30 years earlier moved to New Jersey to study, or be prepped as a future agent. Chiang again sent Chennault, accompanied by Chinese Air Force General Pang-Tsu Mow to the United States, to meet with banker Dr. T. V. Soong in Washington, D.C., with the following goal: to get as many fighter planes, bombers, and transports as possible, plus all the supplies needed to maintain them and the pilots to fly the aircraft. Chennault's mission to

Washington generated the concept of creating an American Volunteer Group of pilots and mechanics to serve in China. By then Dr. Soong had already begun negotiations for an increase in financial aid, with U.S. Secretary of Commerce and Federal Loan Administrator Jesse H. Jones on October 17. This group of mercenaries were known as the Flying Tigers. Washington provided the money, how to obtain the shopping list of aircraft, aviation supplies, volunteers, and funds for the Bank of China was further discussed in a meeting held at the home of Treasury Secretary Henry Morgenthau Jr. with Captain Chennault, Dr. Soong, and General Mow on December 21. Unsurprisingly Henry Morgenthau Jr. was born in and born to. Washington provided the money, I wonder just how much of the American people's money has funded over the past 100 or so years, for this murderous clown organization. It must run into potentially near the $100T mark at least. This is something all Americans need to address en masse, we do not have a shortage of funds in this country, or a debt either, but our funds are being syphoned at ridiculous rates each and every week. On April 25, 1941, the United States and China formally signed a $50 million stabilization agreement to support the Chinese currency. By December 23, 1940, upon approval by the War Department, State Department, and the President of the United States, an agreement was reached to provide China the 100 P-40B Tomahawk aircraft which had originally been built for Britain, but the British were persuaded to give up in preference for newer models rapidly being built. With an agreement reached, General Mow returned to China aboard the SS Lurline, departing from Los Angeles, California, on January 24, 1941. Chennault followed shortly after, with a promise from the War Department and President Roosevelt to be delivered to Chiang Kai-shek that several shipments of P-40C fighters were forthcoming along with pilots, mechanics, and aviation supplies. The Japanese responded immediately with what is known as the Nanjing massacre, in which hundreds of thousands of persons died. It was not until later that the Japanese found out that the aggressors were actually Westerners. The British and Americans were the only Westerners in the region at the time, the Japanese responded by attacking the British ship, the HMS Ladybird, and sinking the American ship, the USS Panay. So, the United States and the Empire of Japan were already at war since December 1937, four years before the famous surprise attack on Pearl Harbor. This is how World War II really started between United States and the Empire of Japan. The US Military-Industrial Complex uses funds collected from drug trafficking to finance criminal operations around the world. It is worth noting that, according to the accredited diplomat and military and intelligence expert, Gordon Duff, in 1974, John Ellis "Jeb" Bush, who later rose to prominence as governor of Florida, the son of whom a few years later was director of the CIA and later was president of the US George Bush I, and brother of President George Bush II, traveled to Colombia to finance Pablo's Medellin Cartel Escobar. It is also worth noting that, between the US bureaucracy it is joked that the C.I.A. stands for Cocaine Importation Agency. It is also joked that the NAFTA, the North American Free Trade Agreement, for its acronym in English means North American Free Trafficking Agreement. Referring to unofficial agreements regarding drug trafficking, which formed part of NAFTA. Also, according to Gordon Duff, it began to be designed by the current US Senator and Mormon Mob boss Mitt Romney, along with former Mexican President Carlos Salinas de Gortari when they were college roommates at Harvard. Amazing how many times that happens isn't it? Chance meetings in hotels or Universities led to those people being connected in high level positions in the future. FHSTOS Part 7 reveals many of those coincidences. It is extremely important to understand that when Americans speak, in utter hypocrisy of designating or legalizing the Mexican drug cartels as terrorists, as they came very close to doing during the Donald Trump's regime. They do it so that according to their laws that's approved, as a pre-planned consequence of the attacks by false flag of September 11, 2001. The United States, the largest and most dangerous terrorist organization and drug trafficker of human history, can invade Mexico and steal everything our oil, silver, gold, natural gas, copper, lithium, lead etcetera. We conclude this investigation with a list of cases most famous CIA drug traffickers, who to date, have seen the light of day. France 1937; In the port of Marseille they discover laboratories of heroin destined for the United States, administered by the Corsican mafia Unione Corse, which later was protected by the CIA. Later, this drug trafficking network became known as the French Connection. Southeast Asia 1949; it is accused for the first time, of the CIA trafficking heroin to finance their War Secret in Laos. Later the CIA is accused of traffic heroin from the Golden Triangle through the airline Air America. Honduras 1980; The airline SETCO, of the Honduran drug trafficker Juan Matta-Ballesteros, which traffics cocaine for the CIA, in addition to weapons and military supplies, leading to the closure of the DEA office in Honduras. Nicaragua 1986; The Report entitled Drugs, Law Enforcement and Foreign Policy of the Committee on United States Foreign Relations headed by then-Senator John Forbes Kerry, commonly known as the Kerry Committee Report. It concludes that the Nicaraguan Contras, who were backed by the United States to overthrow the Sandinista government, were financing themselves with the cocaine trafficking to the United States, which is turned into crack and distributed from Los Angeles, California. Panama 1989; General Manuel Noriega the Panama head of state, in exchange for supporting the Nicaraguan Contras in their efforts to overthrow the government Sandinista, he was allowed to continue his activities of drug trafficking that he was known to carry from the 1960s. When in 1971 the DEA attempted to prosecute him legally, the CIA intervened on his pleas. United States 1990; It is revealed that the CIA used the Mena Municipal Airport, Arkansas, a state governed by the future president of the United States and accomplice drug trafficker William Jefferson "Bill" Clinton. To traffic arms and ammunition for the Nicaraguan Contras in their efforts to overthrow the Sandinista government and, on his return trip, traffic drugs to the United States to finance the same undercover coup. Other accomplices important in this case included Lieutenant- Colonel Oliver North, and the future president of United States George Herbert Walker Bush. Venezuela 1993; It is revealed that in order to win the confidence of a Colombian drug cartel, the anti-drug unit of the Venezuelan government, which worked for the CIA, supplied them with a ton of cocaine they had confiscated, which the CIA then imported to the United States despite objections from the DEA. When the operation came to light, the CIA officer in charge of the operation resigned and his supervisor was transferred. Mexico 2013; Two ex-federal agents of United States and a former CIA agent revealed by American television that, CIA agents were involved in the kidnapping and murder of undercover DEA agent Enrique Camarena in 1985, because it posed a threat to operations CIA drug smuggler in Mexico. According to the three former US agents, the CIA was collaborating with drug traffickers in Mexico to move cocaine and marijuana to the United States, with the aim of financing the Nicaraguan Contras in their efforts to overthrow the Sandinista government. It is said that Mexico is also cutting its ties with the fake Biden regime. Mexican intelligence also sent a detailed report on their view of the United States and their Cocaine Importing Agency (CIA). This document offers a very different view of history than what we have been taught. For example, it claims that US President Franklin Roosevelt and Russian dictator Joseph Stalin plotted since the 1930's to conquer the planet earth. It says Stalin and Roosevelt planned to invade Germany, France and Italy long before WWII started, they also intended to take over the British empire, China and the rest of the world. We got partial confirmation of this from a CIA source, who admits Russia and the United States have been allies since the time of President Lincoln. The links between drugs and drugging the public to off world groups is now becoming a whole heap clearer. All the usual organizations involved in it, in what seems a deliberate ploy to render many of the surface population into zombies. Clowns in America yet again at the forefront of it, always is where money is involved and harming we the people. The theory of the CIA being ran by the CIAkars, looks more likely each week now. I get where there is high money potential these groups are at the forefront, but this is a double pronged attack. To not only harvest lots of people out of money, but drugs them into oblivion is the predominant aspect of this. It has harmed so many, killed so many and rendered millions of people into walking pharmaceutical factories, that need repeat doses. And so, the hamster wheel cycle of highs and lows continues, both of which brings energy harvesting. Stop feeding the beast, and end your dependency on external things and go within. You end drugs, and you end the system.

EXPOSE: Manly Palmer Hall was a master Luciferian initiate who was considered the Prince of Freemasonry. He described to the public the ancient role of secret societies in hidden history, and their baneful influence upon America in his book The Secret Destiny of America. Notably, it was published in 1944, the year WWII was being decided and the New Underworld Order (NUO) needed new scripts, to justify American exceptionalism and dominance in the post-war environment. In a nutshell, Secret Destiny teaches nothing but revelation of the method occultism and secular-statist ideology. The 33 Degree Freemason Spiritual Laws and the Lost Keys of Freemasonry were other works of Hall's, who was a leading dark Freemason. In Freemasonry is concealed a mystery of creation, the answer to the problem of existence, and the path the student must tread in order to join those, who are really the living powers behind the thrones of modern national and international affairs. A centerpiece of Hall's book was the acknowledgement of secret societies and ancient mysteries. He concocted a concept called the Atlantean Ideal as the Utopian framework for the Secret Destiny. He claimed that the ancient goal of classical philosophers was to reshape the earth in a great democratic empire via a New World Order. He claims that America, which is fundamentally occultist, will carry out this secret destiny. No, America is not occultist, it was built and ran by occultists and dark magicians, which is why it is a mess. Freemasonry is a fraternity within a fraternity, an outer organization concealing a brotherhood of the elect. The invisible society is a secret fraternity dedicated to a mysterious secret. As Hall alludes, Freemasonry hides its greatest secret even from its membership at large, only an invisible brotherhood is entrusted with it. Robert Guffrey in a book called The Conspiracy Reader says, the cryptocrats as he called the EL-ites, consider most Americans mere sheep who must be kept from discovering the black cauldron of dirty secrets hidden to them. The Mysterious Secret that Manly Hall 33' writes, surely falls into this category of dirty secrets kept squirreled away in the black cauldron. The dirtiest secrets found inside that black cauldron is, that the unknown god worshipped by the Masons and called by such hazy and nebulous names, such as Abaddon, Mahabone, Jahbuhlun, is actually none other than Satan or Lucifer. That is the greatest secret the Illuminati must shield from view. The Illuminated, the so called Enlightened man who knows this darkest secret is taught by his superiors and comes to believe, that all who are in on the secret are more sophisticated, urbane, intelligent and spiritually astute, than the uncouth, vulgar and coarse people who stupidly follow after the God of the Holy Bible. What that writer doesn't get is, the god in the bible is connected to the same entities the Freemasons follow. But religion has a mind control program all of its own, we must follow what the book says, yet the book itself reveals the folly of doing that, if you step away from the mind meld. Stupid people deserve to be deceived say the Masons and Illuminists, what happens when they find out they have been deceived as well? perhaps moreso than the so called stupid people. At this point, with some basic common sense, rational thinking, non mind controlled thinking, all of these false belief systems all lead back to one central outcome. It is the work of ego based off world entities, keeping us all distracted whilst they rape, pillage and harvest us all. Emile Grillot DeGivry says the elites conceal in order to baffle the vulgar. I guess the Illuminated despite being involved in mirror based witchcraft, failed to look in their own mirror? Marie Roberts and Hugh Ormsby Lennon in Secret texts says the rituals, rites, symbols, emblems and other tools of secret societies are mysteries that must not be revealed to the vulgar public. We are considered profane, lewd and unworthy, some of these people are your politicians, with that thinking how do you ever think they will do anything for our benefit?

Briefly stated, the true purpose of ancient philosophy was to discover a method whereby development of the rational nature could be accelerated, instead of awaiting the slower processes of Nature. In other words, the goal is the imposition of moral and spiritual chaos into the lives of individuals, and in the affairs of nations by working to destroy natural moral order on Earth. That is their plan, they didn't want to wait for the longer but easier path of true enlightenment, and think they can speed the event up by following the dark and the more arduous path. It won't work, but trying telling that to these brainwashed clowns, they all think they are above the masses in everything, that arrogance is their downfall. It is said that Hall was just modernizing and picking up the themes of Sir Francis Bacon, who is better known as William Shakespeare. Bacon wrote the book on this subject titled New Atlantis in which he heralded the coming of the Kingdom of Man, as opposed to the Kingdom of God. Another Thothian cult. Bacon acted as head of a secret society that included in its membership the most brilliant intellectuals of his day. All these men were bound together by a common oath to labor in the cause of a world democracy and unity. In practice, however, it is leveling to the lowest common denominator. They were motivated to ensure that the New World became the New Atlantis out of which would arise the great English-speaking nation, that was key to bringing about the right conditions for the establishment of the unholy alliance of Antichrist, the Great Dictator, the Occult Hierarchy and the World Empire under their direct control. The one program again, and then when they reach the top they harvest each other to death, nothing brilliantly intellectual about that, actually it is psychopathic. Hall sugar-coats the scheme: For more than three thousand years, secret societies have labored to create the background of knowledge necessary, to the establishment of an enlightened democracy among the nations of the world. Men bound by a secret oath to labor in the cause of world democracy, decided that in the American colonies they would plant the roots of a new way of life. Brotherhoods were established to meet secretly, and they quietly and industriously conditioned America to its destiny for leadership in a free world. Free like the words holy and divine in their world have a completely different meaning it seems, all of which involves endarkenment and sacrifice. In actuality, this is the New Underworld Order. America leader of the free world they say, no America is the leader of the freemasonry world is more apt. The English divine Bishop William Warburton (1698-1779) had a front-row seat during his lifetime to the emergence of Hell Fire Clubs, Frankism, Marquis de Sade and Illuminism. In his Divine Legation of Moses, he states: those inclined towards these vices are drawn to Secret Societies as a moth is to a flame. Moses? oh dear another example of following an off world cult, if these people are human, how long will it take before they work out the off worlders are playing them? And when they have finished their dirty work, they will eliminate them as well. Although the Ancient Mysteries were originally pure they became abominably abused, and that in Cicero's time the terms mysteries and abominations were almost synonymous. We can assign no surer cause of the horrid abuses and corruptions of the mysteries than the season in which they were represented, and the profound silence in which they were buried. Night gave opportunity to wicked men to attempt evil actions, and the secrecy encouragement to repeat them. I suspect they speak of the Night of the Svarog. Roman historian Livy gives an extended account of the Roman bacchanalia cult. Livy had a deep mistrust of mystery religions and saw it as extreme Roman degeneracy and a threat to social order. It was also a secret society, indeed, during its several years of utmost depravity from 188 to 186 B.C., complete privacy was maintained and no magistrate intervened. Because the magistrates are Cohens is why. Bacchanalia involved Roman festivals of Bacchus, the Greco-Roman god of wine, freedom, intoxication, fornication and ecstasy. They were based on the Greek Dionysia and Dionysian mysteries, and probably arrived in Rome around 200 B.C. via the Greek colonies in southern Italy and Etruria. Like all mystery cults, bacchanalia was held in strict privacy and initiates were bound to secrecy. In the year B.C. 186, the consuls Spurius Postumius Albinus and Q. Marcius Philippus conducted an investigation of the cult and reported to the Senate. One concern was that its own members were compromised in its frenzy, the report suggested the Bacchics would soon be in a position to seize control of the government. The shocked Roman Senate called a dire national emergency. Once investigations were complete, the Senate rewarded and protected informants, and suppressed the cult throughout Italy, or rather, forced its reformation. In the course of the crackdown, about half the participants in the cult were arrested and 7,000 persons were executed.

What are the Roots of Secretive Ancient Mystery Religions? We would hold that so-called mystery religion really wasn't that complicated, some men just like to sin excessively and be evil. They utilize a license to sin and obtain power under the cover of a ritual. They have given themselves over to narcissistic evil and worship it for the temporal treasures that it brings. By having a religious excuse to sin and be evil, they have a rationale to exploit and gain the upper hand, and lord over the people who they view as plebs, slaves or deplorables. It's only mysterious in the sense that the true intent is hidden from the masses. Roman sources discussed its origins, the annalist Lucius Piso attributed the new attitudes to the influences of depraved mystery religions from Manilus Volso's army campaigning in Asia Minor. Livy himself attributed it to new foreign, luxurious, cultural materialism, including female lutists and harpists brought back from the East. Among the hierarchy, Livy points to the use of boy slaves pederasty as a serious moral problem. Which is mentioned in the Talmud remember, A boy-goy after nine years and one day old, and a girl after three years and one day old, are considered filthy. After those ages are past, it is ok to sexually use and abuse those children, this is known within the circle as pederasty. The now-ended Punic wars and campaigns throughout Italy also increased the population of migrant newcomers, with no stake in the blood and soil of Rome itself. Sound familiar? because it is still happening today. This was referred to as the Etrurian influence. Additionally, Carthaginian prisoners and slaves captured during the Punic wars introduced the Dionysus, or Bacchus cult, to Rome. Punic means Pheonician.

Was Carthage Involved in Ritual Sacrifice? One of the darker elements of this evil cult is ritual sacrifice, and is effectively covered up historically and to this day. Greco-Roman sources have always reported that the Carthaginians burned their children as offerings to Ba'al Hammon. Modern skeptics and cover-up artists opined that this was Roman black propaganda. French-led excavations at Carthage in 1921 and 1923 uncovered a large quantity of urns containing a mixture of bones of animals and children. René Dussaud identified a 4th-century B.C. stela found in Carthage as depicting a child sacrifice. In a single child cemetery, called the Tophet by archaeologists, an estimated 20,000 urns were deposited. A Tophet is a term derived from the Bible, used to refer to a site near Jerusalem in which Canaanites and Israelites sacrificed children on altars. Like I have said the bible reveals the story providing you view it in a non personal perspective. The mind meme imposed on the people about these Israelites, of how they are the chosen ones, always oppressed and holier than though, has to stop if we as a species including the Jews are to move forward. The amount of groups in particular Native Americans and Africans claiming to be descendants of these people, is indicative in one sense, and pure folly in another sense. Those people in loose terms were pure evil, a seduction program into the dark arts, a harvesting and sacrifice program played out on us all. The older origins of these practices stem back to Babylon. With the evidence mounting, in 2014 a number of key researchers swung back to the child-sacrifice view. In a paper published in the journal Antiquity, Dr. Josephine Quinn of Oxford University's Faculty of Classics wrote, it's becoming increasingly clear that the stories about Carthaginian child sacrifices are true. Sites within Carthage and other Phoenician centers revealed the remains of young children in large numbers, and other Phoenician colonies conducted the practice. Sites within Carthage and other Phoenician centers, such as Motya near Sicily, revealed the remains of male children under the age of 5. There was no evidence of disease in those bones that survived cremation. Tophets have also been found in Sardinia at Sulci, Nora, Monte Sirai, Tharros and Bithia. Since 1963, a cemetery of 3,000 sacrificed children, ages 1 month to 4 years old, has been under excavation in Sardinia, an area of Punic conquest and settlement. The city-state of ancient Carthage was a Phoenician colony located in what is now Tunisia. It operated from around 800 B.C. until 146 B.C., when it was destroyed by the Romans. Carthage itself was destroyed and 150,000 to 200,000 were put to the sword, the remaining 50,000 were sold into slavery. The Romans we revealed where the Dracos, so they were not saving the people, just enhancing their own power games. However, Rome had spared seven satellite cities of Carthage that had sided with Rome, and did little to interfere with sacrifice practices with its allies. Thus, from time immemorial, wicked and evil men, men whose minds, inclinations and consciences were perverted by corrupt and abominable mystery religions, have been very fond of secret societies. What if it was not men as we understand it, what is the thinking then? could the authors of some of these quotes handle that truth? Perhaps that is the greatest question and secret. Regardless of the high pretensions and laudable proclamations of the advocates of secret societies, that the Ancient Mysteries they practiced merely civilize mankind and promote proper, moral religion. In truth, they are schools of corruption and vice. Secrecy and the promise of power produce a very fertile environment in which evil prospers. This is the definition of ponerology, or rule by psychopaths. The classic seducement and dangling carrots game played out not just by secret societies, but within alt media too. Organized psychopaths figured out this game plan long ago. There's nothing new under the sun other than that they have today successfully captured and co-opted power. The pernicious character and influence of the secret societies, and their nexus to the aforementioned ancient mystery religions, were so evident throughout antiquity that the ancient prophets and early Christian writers universally condemned them as abominations. These counter forces in early Christianity recognized that the cult of evil has been a perennial presence in the history of mankind, and has worked ceaselessly to destroy God's moral order and rule on Earth. The cult of evil is the secretive hidden hand behind much of what is called history, and whose ultimate goal is world hegemony. What the religious don't get is, the church are involved in it up to their necks. 4.5B Religious people it is said all over the world, yet they can't in an overview cure the ills of the world? despite declaring themselves holy and divine. It doesn't add up does it? Christian is a derivative term for the Hebrew biblical cult, it came from them, the same cult running the secret societies. Indeed the largest secret society is, the church itself. The cult of evil is dedicated to the worship of evil and has gained almost total command over the secular affairs of the world because of organized, secretive and vast infiltration. Thomas Smith Webb (1771-1819), a Freemason and recognized authority on the cult he loyally served, describes in his book Freemason's Monitor 1797. This imperative and power of habitual secrecy, if the secrets of Masonry are replete with such advantages to mankind, it may be asked, why are they not divulged for the general good of society? To which it may be answered, were the privileges of Masonry to be indiscriminately bestowed, the design of the institution would be subverted, and, being familiar, like many other important matters, would soon lose their value and sink into disregard. All churches, religions, Governments, Militaries, Agencies, police and secret societies are run by evil programmers with off world support and interference, all of them. The key is to get people to accept it, because only then can their world be improved in any way shape or form. Some on this world already see it for what it is, a hostile off world invasion of our planet.

The Borgia family were a large and powerful family in Italy during the Middle Ages. The Borgias would add arsenic to their guests' wine. After the visitor died, the Borgias would lay claim to the now-unowned property. This allowed the family to expand their wealth and influence. A couple hundred years later, one of the most famous poisoners in history, Giulia Tofana, came into prominence. She created "Aqua Tofana," a mixture of various ingredients such as arsenic and lead. She marketed it as a cosmetic, allowing women who wished to be widows to purchase the poison and use it on their husbands openly. This eventually led to a long line of women poisoners following in Tofana's footsteps. Borgia or Bourgha? Makes whole heap of sense if correct. It is said much of modern medicine came out of Italy with the Medici's, which became medicine. A lot of the pharmaceutical knowledge came from China after a Marco Polo expedition there earlier. That included most of the drawings done by Da Vinci.

OTHER PIECES: The seedy and criminally misunderstood world of finance reared its head again this week with a hefty interest rate rise. All of which pleases the investor rather than the scrapper by in life people. The barely get people by are not interested in interest rises for savings or investments, they don't have any by and large. The interest rates going up impacts those that scrape by and the have nots the most, and always did. So, having deliberately caused inflation with a stupid control plan called Covid, which cost people their jobs and businesses, then the steady release of credit during the period of increased inflation, then they step in with the triple whammy and increase the interest rates on the fixed loans and credit cards. So, guess who loses out again? The lower money people. They are making the people who have little to no money, pay for the cost of the inflation they caused. Black Rock installed by the Trustee and Trump, new boss exactly the same as the old boss.

So having gone some way to proving electric cars are not cost effective and logistically currently cannot be supported. Having proven the clean energy markets is also not cost effective, logistically impossible without trillions of dollars of investment, which the Government will never do, plus the future cost of what to do with discarded batteries, which is something they didn't think of. Then we have the no cash only digital plan, and what happen when the system goes down due to power outage, cyber- attack or just clownery, they then say at the register it's now cash only. What happens if there is no cash? does anyone think in these terms anymore? We are allowing idiots to formulate plans with no future thinking, no legitimate costings in terms of producing, no following the pros and cons, in fact the latter doesn't appear to exist in their thinking at this point. It is just float a clickbait idea and run with it, it's no wonder so many people are in debt.

This is from a member and their input on the 9 veils piece we did recently. The purpose of the 7th veil is to see and understand, the architectural Source code and bring it into this reality. Creatively in ways that remind everyone of who they really are, where they truly come from, and how to find their way back home. Even if they cannot consciously fully perceive it yet. Build others a world that is a map back to where we all belong, their world is over, as the one built on that Source code is ahead. The 8th veil is the Source connection on a more pure level, it is an inexhaustible light within us we all share. The recognition of which on an experiential basis opens the love frequency in an agapic manner. The purpose then becomes to live within that on a mutual cooperative needs basis of balance. You then become the living embodiment of Source as a living temple. Mastery of the two above is the 9th veil. The top two are an incredibly tall order, but to my knowledge there is nowhere else to be in the cosmos right now and nothing more important than this. It's echoes through time space and you don't even truly open comprehension wise to someone, until the 7th and 8th begin to show themselves. That energizes the being into being able to push upward to take on such challenges. We are past explaining and into an operation based on internal faith. No map exists for this as we are writing or charting it presently.

So what can we expect in 2019 the words for 2019 is consolidation and validation, aligned with a steady but increase in awareness, progress, consciousness and vision, the latter will come in a variety of ways as the year unfolds. With many of the masks visible, and those now gone or eroding, our progress will increase again next year, with less obstacles to overcome as many were removed in this past year. The split of the two worlds will increase rapidly next year, partnerships will again be under pressure of those in relationships who are not frequency balanced. Ear buzzing will increase, your own awareness will increase, you will become more in tune with yourself, environment and nature. I suspect time will make less sense next year, glitches will increase as more is phased in and other parts phased out, dreams will get more vivid and more understandable, if you take note of them. His-story will unravel much next year as more people start to question our real history, I expect some more discoveries to be made next year, as the drip fed disclosure rises again. An understanding will develop more over this statement made, fact is fiction and fiction is fact. January could well be testing on financial and global levels for us all. February and May could well be interesting months and late November could be extraordinary, should the 4 year loop news continue. It turned out to be fairly accurate as things unfolded, but the extraordinary November event didn't unfold. The 4 year loop appears to be extended into an 8 year loop, two sets of 4 years, with this revealing from the teachings of the Guardian Alliance. The Krystal spiral time wave in November 2023 separates from the fallen Metatronic Fibonacci spiral wave, this is said to be the cut off point of not only the two worlds, but which world or reality you will experience going forward. Why 4 or 8 year loops? because the Beast machine which was dealt with in November 2015, and so I predicted a 4 year manifest event, which is often the case. But the machine and the system was of a mobius loop design, as well as the binded flower of life package and the Fibonacci sequence, so that then perhaps explains the 8 year gap.

ENDING PIECE: Two years on from the great split of myself and Kim, and oh how times have changed since then. One spent two years making lavish claims none of which unfolded. The other spent two years developing for the betterment of all. One spent two years taking personal level jabs at the other. The other took the higher ground and said nothing personal and only spoke of work related critique. May the fourth, became may the force was with me, and the dangling carrot club withered. Anyway enough of the comparative, that is not what we are about, lets focus on what we did. In two years the shows have gotten better, your words not mine, and on top of the Thursday shows, we have delivered a 10 part Expose series on all things Covid. The whole of the FRWL Plus series now standing at 16 parts, plus the completion 9 show. The 3 Events that changed the world shows about the Roswell and Aztec UFO crashes. The When two worlds become three, plus an extended version of that, is it technology or us, technology madness and the world of spying and leaks, and we did The Peoples Law show as well. 35 Must Listen to shows in two years, that is around 1.5 extra shows per month. In the past two years we have had our narrative proven in bucketloads, on every subject or topic matter we have covered. That is of great benefit to the listeners rather than myself, for once an alt media show delivers truth on behalf of the people, not for factions or agency based narratives, that leaves key elements of the truth away from their followers or listeners. Religion, experts, medical, politicians, the Jewish EL-ite problem, who the off world problems are, banking, bots, Militaries, Agencies, personalities, fake media MSM and the Alt media, all exposed. The websites have been revamped and we have added our own show page called THI-show.com. We created the Communal Gatherings and all the good things coming out of those. Including defining our own law, databasing of how to grow all vegetables, fruit, herbs and nuts. The female issues group, the self help group, the Positive Actions groups and much more to follow. We created our own promotional video for the TPC and the joy and pride that brought to us all. We have an increased the private help to people, including helping those of what was likely a world first on astral rape. We have helped many members and listeners overcome pharma drugs, psychedelic drugs, alcohol, demons, djinns, psychic attacks and some members to walk away from the dogma and externalization program, known as religion. The village idea two years ago has now unfolded with 11 lots owned by THI members, 2 homes now placed on the lots and 3 more to follow in the next two months. It has been two years of sustained growth and we must continue to do that for progression. Two years of members getting much closer together in a much more tightly knitted group. Yes, it was a sad event in many ways but, sometimes good things fall apart so better things can fall into place. The only surprise over the last two years was, which ones fell away. One was elevated only by the self, as the one and only, the other was raised by the people, and we all became one. Thanks to all of you.
