

THI-SHOW TRANSCRIPT 2022-11-24

NEWS: Wishing all the Americans a happy thanksgiving day, whilst wishing to give thanks to you all for all the days. A shorter show this evening to accommodate the thanksgiving festivities. As the village celebrates its first thanksgiving together after this show, after the EU gathering in London last week, it's great to see and people becoming friends together. Given this is the last show this month, I am requesting for all the communal gatherings to send in their reports by this coming Sunday please. Preparation is underway this week for the end of year review show, not certain I will be able to accommodate it all in one show yet, but we'll see.

Some sad news in the Alt Media is that Karen Hudes, she of World Bank fame died on October 22nd aged 72. On a business or work level I had no time for Karen Hudes, she was selling World Bank snake oil, like many others in the Alt Media. A symptom in many ways of the decline in the truth reporting in the Alt Media, in exchange for a steady diet of bs, distractions and savior programs.

Israel said it had summoned the Ukrainian ambassador for a dressing down on Tuesday, after Kyiv voted in favor of a resolution to open an international probe into Israel's prolonged occupation of the West Bank. Oh my, biting the hand that feeds? Is this more evidence of faction fighting? The resolution, approved at U.N. headquarters in New York last week, asks that the International Court of Justice (ICJ) urgently weigh in on Israel's prolonged occupation, settlement and annexation of the Palestinian territory, which it said were violating the Palestinians' right to self-determination. Israel expressed its dissatisfaction with Ukraine's decision to vote in favor of the resolution in a conversation with Ambassador Yevgen Korniyuchuk, according to a statement released by the Israeli foreign ministry on Tuesday. It was clarified to the ambassador that this behavior does not embody friendly behavior, the statement said. What has friendly got to do with it? This is a moral dilemma, should people ignore poor behavior, atrocities and apartheid regimes because they are friends? What does that say about society? The best thing one can do for a friend is tell them the truth, not mask over their failures, mistakes, poor behavior all because you are a friend. That has not worked out too well for us has it? And encourages back talking and back biting instead of addressing the issues. In a statement, the Ukrainian embassy in Israel wrote: The ambassador expressed disappointment with the position of Israel, whose representative abstained during the vote in the U.N. General Assembly on the issue of Russian reparation payments to Ukraine. It is nice to see now that Israel is in the news more now for bad publicity, than being shown as some false beacon of light. More people are now seeing the problem and more people are calling it out, that is fantastic for us all, including the average Jewish person. They need to see what they are being used as, and what they are supporting is neither right or morally righteous.

Amazon is planning to lay off some 10,000 employees in corporate and technology jobs, the New York Times reported on Monday, citing anonymous sources with knowledge of the matter. The job cuts could start as early as this week, and will likely include staff working on Amazon devices, such as its voice-assistant Alexa, as well as people in its retail and human resources divisions. The total number of layoffs remains fluid. I am glad it is in the Alexa department, people selling them are working against humanity in my opinion. Those machines are weapons against we the people, that secretly record everyone in range of that machine, I couldn't believe when I found out Kim had one in her home. The news would make Amazon the latest in a spate of tech companies that have announced significant layoffs in recent weeks, amid broader economic uncertainty and a sharp slowdown in the demand many tech giants saw during the pandemic that led them to quickly add staff. Last week, Facebook-parent Meta announced it is laying off 11,000 employees. Earlier this month, Amazon said it was freezing corporate hiring for the next few months, citing economic uncertainty and how many people we have hired in recent years. Shares in Amazon have fallen more than 40% in 2022 so far amid a broader market decline. News of potential layoffs comes at a crucial time for the retail industry, ahead of the holiday shopping season.

There is another meme to get people to buy, called shopping season, you do realize it is to boost or over inflate their sales at the end of the fiscal year. Black Friday is another mind meme, what black Friday shows is, not that you are getting bargains on that day, but you are being ripped off the other 364 days of the year. Because if you can sell goods for those prices that day, they can be sold at those prices the year round. Nice to see the tech companies struggling, this augurs well in avoiding the all-out techno world. Despite recession fears and inflationary pressures, the National Retail Federation is predicting a 6% to 8% sales increase from last year during the holiday shopping months. Less money available and people increase their spending? This is how and why we get ourselves into financial trouble. Like magic, extra spending comes with a price, and yes the two are linked as both are traps. We have to teach the youth in the curriculum proper spending habits and how the monetary system works against us due to our own ignorance. The classic example was people bought the ¼ pounder more than the 1/3 because 4 is higher than 3, no wonder so many of us get into debt with that low level of math understanding. Yet people do another thing when in debt, they hide it and carry on spending within their circle instead of cutting back, all to keep up with the Jones's again, whilst suffering in silence. There are methods of getting out of debt, and that is why we set up the Financial Communal Gathering, to help members with their finances, no one took up the service. I guess too much pride comes with a price as well.

Here is evidence of such financial mismanagement all of which plays into the hands of the shekel makers and their harvesting techniques. Due to significant increases in credit card usage and mortgage balances, American households increased their debt at the fastest rate in 15 years. Total debt increased by $351 billion for the period of July to September, the largest nominal quarterly increase in 2007, which coincides with the recession back then. This is suggesting that the excess savings the Fed believed Americans possess has already been spent. With this increase, the total household debt in the U.S. has reached a record high of $16.5 trillion, an increase of 2.2% from the previous quarter and up 8.3% from one year prior. Mortgage balances, which rose $1 trillion from a year ago to $11.7 trillion, and credit card debt, which increased to $930 billion, were the two biggest contributors to that debt load. In a sharp pivot from the Fed's October report, which estimated that Americans had excess savings of about $2.3 trillion, researchers from the New York Fed attributed the credit card growth to very robust consumption, rising prices and consumers using significant amounts of savings that are still in their accounts. There is the evidence of the pre-planned harvesting. This is what these people do, it is all created deliberately in what is known as boom and bust cycles, but the real deal is not boom and bust. It is to create false credit, which puts more people into debt, and that debt is then harvested by the bankers in record numbers. Essentially the debt they create, is given to the people to spend, and then they collect the interest on the fake created debt and money. A scam of enormous proportions and yet most of the populace can't see it, or remember the repeated cycles of it. This is what happens when the shekel people need even more money, and that is how it happens, yet we comply to it every single time. Credit card, mortgage, and auto loan balances continued to increase in the third quarter of 2022 reflecting a combination of robust consumer demand and higher prices, said Donghoon Lee, research advisor at the New York Fed. Mortgage debt, which has historically been the largest form of household debt, now accounts for 71% of all outstanding household debt, up from 69% in the fourth quarter of 2019. Our Mortgage plan will fix that problem.

Never underestimate the stupidity of tv pundits as this classic from another born in and born to just happened to pop in and not pass comment, but directives. The View co-host Joy Behar appeared upset that Americans didn't give Democrats a supermajority in the midterm elections. On the one had you have a party that tried to save health care, (M) that tries to save your right to vote, that tries to preserve a woman's right, that tries to save a planet, (M) and we still don't have a supermajority? Still, half of this country is not paying attention to their own needs, Behar said. No Joy, the whole country including you, except those who never voted are not paying attention to their needs or anything. Because if they were, no one would vote. As for the rest of her comments, she is deluded and operating in fantasy land.

Trump is back in the news like a bad penny it keeps turning up, after 4 failed years he wants to fail more it seems. What's more is, despite the 4 failed years is, some people want him to manage them for another 4 years, it beggars belief. Did Trump come out and discuss policies? Does any politician discuss how to improve policies? No, therein lies the problem. Politics should be only about policies, not drama. So, Trump didn't come to talk about policies, or Americans either, oh no, he came to talk about Jews and Israel, that alone should discount him from being voted into office. Donald Trump has criticized American Jews for not doing the right thing for Israel and voting Democratic in the recent midterm elections, in which Democrats have managed to retain control of the Senate. The United States and Israel are not only allies militarily, but also economically and politically. We are moral, cultural and spiritual allies and always will be, at least if it's up to me, excuse me while I vomit, have you ever heard such morally repugnant drivel as that? Where is the evidence that alliance is beneficial to, we the people? Spiritual allies? Turn it in Trump you are embarrassing yourself and as naïve as your sidekick, the Trustee. Who did Trump reveal all of this to, voters in Arizona, Florida or Georgia, the key States recently, no, Trump said this on Sunday at a racist event with the Zionist Organization of America. But you have people in this country who are Jews who are not doing the right thing for Israel, too many of them. That statement alone shows how out of touch politicians are, the Jews in America should be doing what is right for America, not Israel. What has Israel got to do with American policies, the running of the country or anything else? That is the greatest question yet to be answered. It is mind control on steroids, thrusting another country into the boundaries of our own, is not the remit of a stable and righteous government, moreso given that State is considered terrorists, racists, murderers, oppressors and running an apartheid regime. As you know, the Democrats got 75 percent of the vote and it's hard to believe. We can't let it go on like this, he added. Who is we? Mr. Trump. The Zionist Organization of America, which is celebrating its 125th year of existence, has awarded Trump with the Theodor Herzl Gold Medallion in recognition of his support for Israel and Jews, explained its president, David Schoen. Schoen has cited the Abraham Accords and the relocation of the Israeli Embassy to Jerusalem as major achievements of the Trump Administration. All of which reveals the real problem in this country, that is not just Donald Trump either, it is a cancer running through every Government department, as these people do more for Israel than their own country. A festering parasite feeding on the increasing carcass of a once powerful country, and reducing it to an embarrassing status globally, and turning us into pariahs around the world. And Mr. Trump was a part of that.

Let's balance that shall we with what he didn't do:

Implement the no income tax and set the basic taxes at 10%

Implement the $105B FEMA reform

Initiate the release of the Trust funds.

Remove rogue elements within the Military, Government and Agencies.

Implement the soldier return program

Refused to remove Kushner after he committed treason against the country.

Didn't reign in the Israeli stranglehold

What he did do:

Sent $10B to Astra Zeneca for vaccine funding

Launched lockdowns/martial law on the people for a virus he knew was fraud

Implemented immunity clauses for vaccine manufacturers

Cost millions of people their homes, businesses and livelihoods.

Then along with the Trustee funded the BlackRock takeover of the Fed, when he knew the Fed Charter was up in 2012.

Also, along with funding of the Trustee he launched death jabs on the populace, that has not only maimed many, but killed many and put a time limit on the rest of those injected.

How do I know all of this? because I spent hundreds of hours for no pay along with the Trustee giving him more tools and support than any other President in history.

And he sold out to the Black Sun elements, along with cosyng up to the Israeli lobbyists.

That is his legacy, and people still want him back? Some people are just not as awake as they thought they were. The issue with that is, peoples tendency to follow the Agency led alt media, who just spin your wheels all day, and provide a steady diet of distraction.

Here is interesting document forwarded by one of our members in the speaker chat, thanks. H. RES. 1243 [Report No. 117–495]

I do suspect Biden will follow Pelosi out of the door real soon, the mask man is causing too many issues for the Deep State. His behavior, demeanor, going off script and the repeated attempts by the White House to have to explain or backtrack on his comments has cause for concern. Our concern is not Biden, but whether a certain snake in law rises out of the pit.

This piece almost like a THI piece it has to be said, replete with THI words near the end. Former Russian President and current Deputy Chairman of the Security Council Dmitry Medvedev said Friday, that the United States will sooner or later abandon Ukraine and said that the issue of aid delivery to Kiev is a toxic issue in the US country. The United States has always abandoned its friends. It will do it sooner or later this time, before stressing that the US congressmen are asking about where all the huge amount of money given to Ukraine went? Where will the tens of billions claimed by that strange old man Biden, who was aptly described as Ukraine's vice president on Capitol Hill, go? the former Russian president has wondered. However, he has noted that this will be increasingly difficult because the feelings of ordinary Americans will gradually shift to reality. They have been fooled again. In a period of recession and rising prices of everything, huge funds were sent from the US Budget, in an unknown direction for the benefit of the military-industrial complex. The former Russian president argued that the aim was to benefit the interests of the Biden family, and thieves in the United States and other parts of the world. This effect will accumulate as long as the U.S. Congress does not suspend its reckless support for the nationalist regime in Ukraine. That's where the remnants of reality and the tearful tantrums of the clowns in Kiev come from, wiping their snot and frantically calling for more and more sanctions against Russia and more Western war money. Only that can prolong their sweet drug agony, he concluded. Clowns oh my! Sweet drug came up with cocaine, which may well reveal the CIA and links to the Afghanistan poppy fields. Sadly for Americans what he said was true, no matter how much we would like not to believe it.

MEDICAL: Here comes the shekel making jabbing psychopaths again, again promising it is for our health, which is just about the world's greatest ever joke at this time. A team of researchers at the University of Houston may have developed a vaccine blocking the ability of the dangerous synthetic opioid fentanyl to enter the brain. Houston, they say, Houston we have a problem, too many fake experts in medical fields. Fentanyl is 50 times stronger than heroin and 100 times stronger than morphine. A dose of only 2 milligrams, the size of two grains of rice could potentially be fatal. The study's lead author, research associate professor Colin Haile, said the vaccine is able to generate anti-fentanyl antibodies that bind to the consumed fentanyl and prevent it from entering the brain, allowing it to be eliminated out of the body via the kidneys. Fentanyl enters the brain, should be enough to put off most people, sadly too many are just too stupid, hence the brain or mind can be controlled. Thus, the individual will not feel the euphoric effects and can get back on the wagon to sobriety," he said. He added that the anti-fentanyl antibodies were specific to that, and a fentanyl derivative did not cross-react with other opioids like morphine. This means that a person vaccinated for fentanyl could still be treated with other opioids. Though Opioid Use Disorder is treatable, around 80% of those dependent on opioids suffer a relapse, according to research. Clinical studies on the vaccine did not cause adverse side effects in the immunized rats involved. The research team will manufacture clinical-grade vaccines with clinical trials in humans in the coming months. Does anyone ask the cause of fentanyl? Yes, people discuss the effects of it, but what about the cause? Fentanyl did not originate amongst the average person, it was created in a lab by so called experts and scientists. This is what people overlook when discussing these matters. Yet the authorities tell us to trust the science? Why in the name of Satan's portion would we the people trust them? These are the same people who brought poisons into our bodies and told us they are for our health. (M) They just forget to tell you it was for our ill health, and the healthy benefits were restricted to healthy bank balances of the shekel makers. These are the people that brought us germ warfare, bio-warfare and the worst weapon of mass destruction, the nuclear bomb. Plus a plethora of other lab created diseases like Lyme, Aids, Covid, H1N1, Ebola, Spanish flu and many more. Trust the science? Turn it in, trust none of their vaccines, drugs, potions, pills or creams. They do not work, and many of our members encouraged to come off their drugs will attest to that as a fact. If you have to take something for months at a time, it does not work. A true drug would cure, not sustain the malady. Think different.

Last week I mentioned about the psychopath combining Covid and flu jabs, which in most cases was one and the same thing anyway. This is not about jabbing anymore, but getting more shekels based on putting the public in fear, with fake Johns Hopkins math. I said that flu jabs don't work, and here is the evidence. Cochrane is a global independent network of researchers in more than 130 countries who strive to produce credible, accessible health information that is free from commercial sponsorship and other conflicts of interest. They do not take Big Pharma money; therefore, their studies deserve attention when they are released. On February 1, 2018, the Cochrane group released its latest findings on the flu vaccine. The scientists studied randomized, controlled trials comparing the flu vaccine with placebo or no intervention. They included 52 clinical trials of over 80,000 people assessing the safety and effectiveness of flu vaccines in healthy adults. The studies were conducted between 1969 and 2009. The authors found that flu vaccines probably reduced influenzas in healthy adults from 2.3% without vaccination to 0.9% with. That means that the difference between the vaccinated and the unvaccinated is 1.4% or 0.014. Therefore, 71 people would need to be treated with the flu vaccine to prevent one case (1/1.4%). In other words, the flu vaccine did nothing for 70 out of 71 who received it. That means this study found the flu vaccine failed 99% (71/72). There was more bad news for the flu vaccine in this study. The flu vaccine is touted as decreasing the risk of hospitalizations from the flu. I'm not sure how that happens since the vaccine has never been shown to be very effective against preventing the flu. In this study they found the risk of hospitalization in those that received the flu vaccine declined from 14.7% to 14.1%, that is a 0.6% decline. That means the flu vaccine fails over 99% (165/166) in preventing hospitalizations. Furthermore, the independent researchers found the flu vaccine, may lead to little or no small reduction in days off work. To make matter worse, the flu vaccine was shown to cause an increase in fever from 1.5% to 2.3%. Why would anyone get a flu vaccine when it fails 99% who receive it? Why would any physician prescribe a therapy, which is associated with serious adverse effects, that fails 99% who receive it? Why are health care workers forced to receive a flu vaccine when it is consistently shown to fail nearly 99% who get them? And, there is not a single well-done study showing that vaccinating health care workers with the flu vaccine protects against the spread of flu. Another example of how the experts are not experts at all, because they are either unaware of these facts which is negligence in duty of care to the patient, or they are part of the whole scam. Neither are good for the patients themselves. Their jobs need to be outlawed altogether until a proper, fair and unbiased assessment is done on them all. And right on cue which is eerily like our Covid blueprint solution comes this piece.

Leading doctors have joined a call to suspend all Covid-19 mRNA vaccines until serious side-effects are fully investigated, and the raw trial data from Pfizer's Covid-19 vaccine trial are released for independent analysis, to help determine the true benefits and potential harms for different age groups. Writing in the peer-reviewed Journal of Insulin Resistance, one of the U.K.'s most eminent Consultant Cardiologists Dr. Aseem Malhotra, who was one of the first to take two doses of the vaccine and promote it on Good Morning Britain on TV, says that since the rollout of the vaccine the evidence of its effectiveness and true rates of adverse events has changed. In a two-part research paper entitled; Curing the pandemic of misinformation on Covid-19 mRNA vaccines through real evidence-based medicine. Real-world data reveals that in the non-elderly population, the number needed to vaccinate to prevent one death from Covid-19 runs into thousands, and that re-analysis of randomized controlled trial data, that first led to approval of the vaccines for Pfizer and Moderna suggests, a greater risk of suffering a serious adverse event from the vaccine than being hospitalized with Covid-19. Dr. Malhotra writes: Pharmacovigilance systems and real-world safety data, coupled with plausible mechanisms of harm, are deeply concerning, especially in relation to cardiovascular safety. Mirroring a potential signal from the Pfizer Phase 3 clinical trial, a significant rise in cardiac arrest calls to ambulances in England was seen in 2021, an extra 14,000 compared to 2020. Similar data emerging from Israel in the 16-39 year old age group where there was a 25% increase in heart attacks or cardiac arrests, associated with the Pfizer vaccine administration but not associated with Covid-19. Citing the FDA's own website he also highlights that testing positive for antibodies is an unreliable marker for immunity or protection against Covid post-vaccination. He writes: It cannot be said that the consent to receive these agents was fully informed, as is required ethically and legally. Authorities and sections of the medical profession have supported unethical, coercive and misinformed policies such as vaccine mandates and vaccine passports, undermining the principles of informed consent. These regrettable actions are a symptom of the medical misinformation mess: The tip of a mortality iceberg, where prescribed medications are estimated to be the third most common cause of death globally, after heart disease and cancer. Underlying causes for this failure include regulatory capture, guardians that are supposed to protect the public, are in fact funded by the very corporations that stand to gain from the sale of those medications. We have spoken of that often, the so-called authorities all working against us. A failure of public health messaging has also resulted in wanton waste of resources and a missed opportunity to help individuals lead healthier lives, with relatively simple and low cost lifestyle changes. The unprecedented rollout of an emergency use authorization vaccine without access to the raw data, with increasing evidence of significant harms, compounded by mandates that appear to serve no purpose other than to bolster the profits of the drug industry, have highlighted modern medicine's worst failings on an epic scale, with additional catastrophic harms to trust in public health. Exactly, after the fallout of this reaches a wider audience, the trust in government, health, news media, schools and other organization involved in this, will erode entirely. Which needs to happen as they are not operating like we thought they were, but it will be a long time before any of those organizations are trusted again. There is a strong scientific, ethical and moral case to be made that the current Covid vaccine administration must stop, until all the raw data has been subjected to fully independent scrutiny. Looking to the future, the medical and public health professionals must recognize these failings and eschew the tainted dollar of the medical-industrial complex. It will take a lot of time and effort to rebuild trust in these institutions, but the health of both humanity and the medical profession depend on it.

He concludes:

We must use this as an opportunity to transform the system to produce better doctors, better decision making, healthier patients and restore trust in medicine and public health. Until all the raw data on the mRNA Covid-19 vaccines have been independently analyzed, any claims purporting that they confer a net benefit to humankind cannot be considered to be evidence based.

Professor of Vascular Surgery and President of the International Vascular Society Dr. Sherif Sultan said:

Doctor Aseem Malhotra's literature review and analysis is a cause for global concern. We fully believe that vaccines are one of the great discoveries in medicine that has improved life-expectancy dramatically. However, mRNA genetic vaccines are different, as long-term safety evaluation is lacking but mandatory to ensure public safety. These findings raise concerns regarding vaccine-induced undetected severe cardiovascular side-effects and underscore the established causal relationship between vaccines and myocarditis, a frequent cause of unexpected cardiac arrest in young individuals. Surveillance of potential vaccine side-effects and Covid-19 outcomes to identify public health trends, and promptly investigate potential underlying causes needs immediate attention.

Professor of Medicine and Epidemiology at the University of Stanford Jay Bhattacharya said:

Dr. Aseem Malhotra has written detailed narrative review of the literature on the uses and abuses of the mRNA Covid vaccines. Dr. Malhotra makes a good case that there is considerable heterogeneity across age groups, and other comorbid conditions in the expected benefits and expected side-effect profiles of the vaccine. He finds that while there may be a case for older people to take the vaccine because the benefits may outweigh expected harm, that may not be the case for younger people. Given the side effects no one should be taking it. Dr. Malhotra's paper calls for a pause in the use of the vaccine in younger people, such as the one recently adopted by Danish public health authorities and the Florida department of public health in the United States.

SOCIETY NEWS: During the pandemic, the unhoused population has soared all over California, but the increase in Sacramento has been particularly stunning. The region has seen an almost 70% rise in homelessness since 2019, now counting more unhoused people than San Francisco. At least 9,278 people are estimated to be without a home, the majority of whom sleep outdoors or in vehicles. Encampments can be seen on levees, near schools and next to busy roads. The primary force behind the dramatic rise, according to the 2022 point-in-time count, is the high cost of housing. The median home price in the county has surpassed $500,000 and the median monthly rent is $2,774, up more than 5% from last year. Some studios downtown rent for $2,000 a month, said Crystal Sanchez, the president of the Sacramento Homeless Union, while thousands of people sleep outside. Sacramento, the capital of the fifth largest economy in the world, lacks over 100,000 units of affordable housing, Sanchez said. We can't survive here, I've lived here my whole life. Yet again the ouroboros policies of forcing people out of their homes, yet neglecting the fact, that if all the poorer people who traditionally are the drivers of the economy, all leave, what happens next? Do you think the rich folk will clean homes or business, serve in fast food or restaurants, or do general menial work, the answer is no and subsequently it will collapse. I get people are reluctant to move, but it is the worn out old jacket syndrome again, nobody should have to struggle to live in basic necessities and if the cost of living where you are is prohibitive, the common sense solution is to move to a cheaper area. Because the rising tide of prices just puts you in more debt to hold onto that the place where you live. You are free to move to somewhere better, it will take some time adjusting, but your life will be so much simpler. You live and have less stress, yes you will have less money, but that money will go so much further and improve your health due to less stress.

More than 40% of Americans are unconvinced that systemic racism exists in the U.S., according to new survey findings from U.S. News & World Report and The Harris Poll. That is encouraging given the barrage of agenda driven diatribe the media have put out, I guess they are failing at that as well. Among thousands of people surveyed, nearly a quarter reported they did not believe there is systemic racism in America, while another 17% said they were unsure. At 47%, nearly half of white Americans remained unconvinced, while people of color were much more likely to affirm that systemic racism exists in the country. More than 80% of Black or African American respondents believe it does, as well as more than 70% of Asian or Pacific Islander respondents and nearly 70% of Hispanics. Most people will react to the 70 and 80% figures, as that is how they are conditioned. But let's look behind their meme shall we. Whilst those figures are high in the non-white communities, it still has 20% of Black and African who won't follow the agenda. Around 30% of Asian, Pacific and Hispanics who don't follow the agenda as well. Personally I am encouraged by those figures, rather than the 70-80% who are following a script. With the amount of pressure via mind control they have done to convince everyone of racism, those figures are showing an increase in those not believing it and turning against their narrative. That to me is encouraging and also indicative.

Following Candace Owens referencing our show narrative regarding our piece on the most oppressed, disadvantage and unsupported group being the white, heterosexual male. Another TV person has come out and repeated it in the past week, Bill Maher. Another example now of what we are putting out is now very quickly being thrust into their news fields and circles. Another example of how quickly the collective consciousness of more prevalent issues, concerns and debates are being installed into their realms, in essence now we are creating the news we wish to hear and cover. This then should be an encouragement for all of us who wish for better things, and develop along the lines of, what can my thoughts or opinions do to change the dynamics? It is a lesson and practice of manifestation abilities if you use it in the right way.

Here is a nice story and shows the tide is turning on those who wish to impose and enforce agendas and Draconian ideologies. An Arkansas federal judge ordered Kroger to pay two former employees $180,000. They were fired from the store after refusing to wear an apron with a multicolored heart, court documents show. Both have sincerely held religious beliefs that homosexuality is a sin and that they cannot support or promote it, the judge wrote. Personally I don't agree with that statement, and religion has a lot to answer for, by brain-washing people into agendas and division. The shooter in the Colorado Gay club is a member of the Mormon church, as a prime example. Kroger has to pay $180,000 to two former employees who were fired after they refused to wear a company apron with a phrase that they considered to be an LGBTQ+ symbol after a lawsuit. The Equal Employment Opportunity Commission filed a lawsuit on behalf of the two employees who were disciplined and ultimately fired from their jobs at a Kroger in Conway, Arkansas. The lawsuit was filed on behalf of Brenda Lawson and Trudy Rickerd on September 14, 2020, in Eastern Arkansas District court, according to court documents. Next stop the Covid firing of employees, it will get very ugly.

EXPOSE: Tonight we are going to delve into the world of occultism, the dark magicians and their ilk. Another of their secret societies or clubs that are or were no benefit for humanity. O.T.O or Ordo Templi Orientis, which translates to The Order of the Temple of the Orient. The Order is the very top clown's name, and temple means sacrifice. The Order of the Temple of the East was founded between 1895 and 1906 in either Austria or Germany. It is believed wealthy industrialist, Carl Kellner, began the religious movement, but it was famed occultist Aleister Crowley whose name and additions to the group shrouded it in curiosity and mystery. OTO was modeled somewhat after another secret society, Freemasonry. But Crowley added a layer, his own self-created belief system called Thelema. Thelema's practices and beliefs are written out in a book titled The Book of Law and its core belief is: Do what thou wilt shall be the whole of the Law. Which means this order and their adepts are Talmudic in origin. Ideas from occultism, Eastern and Western mysticism, found their way into Thelema and thus OTO. The religion is highly secretive and members move through the order in a series of rites and rituals, moving up levels in the forms of initiations. Levels have curious names such as Minerval, Master Magician, Illustrious Knight, Grandmaster of Light, and so on. There are two components at the core of OTO: magical rituals, which have been rumored to include tantric sex, the summoning of angels and demons and astral projection. As we have found out, all three are about dancing in the dark forces world that never ends well for the disciples. Then there is the gnostic mass, reminiscent of a Catholic mass only because it contains a host and wine toward the end. The gnostic mass includes elaborate costumes, and at the climax of the mass it's believed that the host turns into the Body of God and the wine the Blood of God. Does anyone ask whether that sounds holy, consuming the host and drinking the blood, symbolically or otherwise? There are multiple locations of worship called camps, oasis or lodges. The majority of them keep their locations secretive to the greater public. The relatively small location in Oakland is an oasis. They hold a weekly gnostic mass in a temple decorated in candles and Egyptian imagery. Always Egyptian it seems, what is wrong with these people? If Egypt is all so popular? Why isn't Egypt classed as the "Holy Land"? Because everything surrounding Israel is from Egypt originally anyway. It's unknown exactly what takes place during initiation ceremonies and what knowledge is shared during these events. According to Crowley's autobiography, The Confessions of Aleister Crowley: the OTO is in possession of one supreme secret. Yes the supreme secret is, anyone who follows this is a jackass. The whole of its system is directed towards communicating to its members, by progressively plain hints, this all-important instruction. But that is not the only Order of the Temple either, as you have the Order of the Temple of the Rosy cross, better known as Rosicrucianism. The structure of O.T.O., like that of Freemasonry and the ancient mystery schools, is based on a staged series of initiations or degrees. In the rituals of these degrees, O.T.O. seeks to instruct the individual by allegory and symbol in the profound mysteries of nature, and thereby to assist each initiate in discovering his or her own true identity. Initiation can be conferred only in a physical ceremony conducted by a properly chartered initiator. Initiate membership is subdivided by degree. There is a total of 21 initiate degrees in O.T.O., including thirteen numbered degrees and eight un-numbered, intermediate degrees or sub-degrees. Just like the Parents set up then, for those new the Draco created the Parents to oversee humanity on their behalf, they were called Humanity 1.0. They were not our type of humanity, but their creation of it. They were much taller than us and their ages were 70-140K years old. They also had 21 of them, 13 of them ran a Coven each and 8 were classed as the special ones per se. The degrees of O.T.O. are divided into three Grades or Triads: the Hermit, the Lover, and the Man of Earth, as follows: Triad is an interesting choice of words, as the description of it states almost THI descriptive terms, more on that next week. The Minerval Degree (0°) is an introductory Initiate degree in which the aspirant is considered an honored guest of O.T.O. rather than a full member. The Minerval degree is designed to allow the aspirant to decide whether or not to pursue full membership, and to allow potential sponsors the opportunity to decide whether to support the aspirant's application for full membership. Which is all very Freemasonic is it not? Minervals may begin preliminary novitiate training under an E.G.C. bishop towards ultimate ordination to the Diaconate and/or Priesthood in Ecclesia Gnostica Catholica, but they are not eligible for ordination or for service as an officer of a local body. Priesthood means they are Cohens. A gnostic Catholica organization? Neither group when split Gnostics or Cat-holics have served us too well either. There will be elements of truth and righteousness within it, but it contains the hidden hook on entrapment. The First Degree (I°) bestows full membership upon the initiate. A First-Degree initiate may retire from active participation in O.T.O., but the spiritual link forged between the initiate and the Order during the ceremony of the First Degree will remain throughout the initiate's life. That is concerning, one ponders what the initiate is actually signing up for? Are they host possessing? An initiate of the Second Degree is eligible for ordination as a deacon of Ecclesia Gnostica Catholica. Beyond the degree of PI, advancement is by invitation only. Just like after the 32nd degree of Freemasonry, those who attained the 33rd degree did so, by the request of clowns at the top of the order. And to some degree partook in some evil or malevolent practices to get there. Initiates of the intermediate degree of Knight of the East and West (K.E.W.) are eligible for formal ordination to the Priesthood in Ecclesia Gnostica Catholica. Episcopal consecration in Ecclesia Gnostica Catholica is conferred as part of the Seventh Degree. Episcopal? Is that the origin of the name of that branch of Cat-holicism? The Tenth Degree (X°) is held by the National Grand Master General of O.T.O. in a particular country. The Man of Earth degrees follow a pattern based on the symbolism of the chakras and the stages of Kundalini Yoga; and represent, in dramatic form, the individual's path in eternity. Kundalini Yoga mixing in with the chakras we have covered before, it is not mixing it is corrupting the chakras with the overlay of the serpent. These are the stages of initiation. In the 0°, the ego, a wandering god, is attracted to the solar system. In the I°, the child experiences birth. In the II°, the man or woman experiences life. The III° represents the death of the individual. The IV° represents the world beyond death, the glorified state of the initiate. In the PI Degree, the initiate symbolically achieves ultimate perfection or completion, and the entire cycle is withdrawn into annihilation. But, there is no perfection or completion of the life path or cycle, paths and life goes on with or without O.T.O. The entire cycle is withdrawn into annihilation? Sounds like the Black Sun again. Of these events or stations upon the path, all but the II° represent single critical experiences. We, however, are concerned mostly with the varied experiences of life. All subsequent degrees are therefore elaborations of the II°, a progressive instruction in how to live, since in a single ceremony it is hardly possible to sketch, even in the briefest outline, the teaching of initiates with regard to life. The V° – IX° rituals and teachings are therefore instructions to the initiate in the mastery of life; But it is nothing to do with self-mastery or life as the next line reveals. There is instruction in Hermetic Philosophy, Qabalah, Magick and Yoga, all aimed at preparing the initiate for the revelation and application of one supreme secret. The X° is conferred upon the Supreme and Holy King of each national Grand Lodge. The XI° is technical, and has no relation to the general plan of the Order. The XII° is held exclusively by the outer head of the Order. Every man and woman of full age, 18 or more years old, free and of good report, has an indefeasible right to the first three degrees of O.T.O. but not according to any particular time schedule. These first three degrees actually include all the degrees in the Man of Earth Triad the Minerval is considered a prologue to the First Degree, and the Fourth and PI Degrees are considered pendants to the Third Degree. Progress of the O.T.O. initiate toward the Fourth and PI Degrees is usually a matter of years. A certain amount of time is usually required to allow full maturation of the effects of the O.T.O. initiations, although under some circumstances the Minerval and First Degrees may be taken on the same occasion. Minerval is the tribute to another Roman goddess Minerva. Minerva is the Roman goddess of wisdom, justice, law, victory, and the sponsor of arts, trade, and strategy. Minerva is not a patron of violence such as Mars, but of strategic war. Except war is violence, strategic or otherwise. From the second century BC onward, the Romans equated her with the Greek goddess Athena. Minerva is one of the three Roman deities in the Capitoline Triad, along with Jupiter and Juno. All about the triads as we will find out. She was the virgin goddess of music, poetry, medicine, wisdom, commerce, weaving and the crafts. She is often depicted with her sacred creature, an owl usually named as the owl of Minerva, or was it symbolic of Moloch? The owl is said to have symbolized her association with wisdom and knowledge as well as, less frequently, the snake and the olive tree. The snake appears again, snakes everywhere it seems. The Seal of California depicts the Goddess Minerva. Her birth fully-grown parallels California becoming a state without first being a territory.

Here is a run-down of their degrees, personally I feel they all need to get a life. Fancy titles and labels they all aspire to, yet none of them who are all so important, according to them, have done a single beneficial thing for humanity. The Man of Earth Triad: 0°—Minerval, I°—Man & Brother, II°—Magician, III°—Master Magician, IV°—Perfect Magician & Companion of the Holy Royal Arch of Enoch and P.I.—Perfect Initiate, or Prince of Jerusalem. Prince of Jerusalem is a tip to the not so holy knights of Jerusalem, the Crusade people. Enoch was one of the Hebrew Anunnaki. Outside all Triads: Knight of the East & West. The Lover Triad: V°— Sovereign Prince Rose-Croix, and Knight of the Pelican & Eagle. Knight of the Red Eagle, and Member of the Senate of Knight Hermetic Philosophers. The eagle coded program comes up there with red eagle, brown eagle was Hitler and the SS were black eagle and subsequently Black Sun adepts. VI°— Illustrious Knight (Templar) of the Order of Kadosch, and Companion of the Holy Graal. Kadosch is a Hebrew word meaning holy. Grand Inquisitor Commander, and Member of the Grand Tribunal. Prince of the Royal Secret. VII°— Theoreticus, and very illustrious Sovereign Grand Inspector General. Magus of Light, and Bishop of Ecclesia Gnostica Catholica. Grandmaster of Light, and Inspector of Rites & Degrees. They love to add the word light into their labels, but it is not the true light, it is the dark magick false light. In essence it is more worship of Lucifer. The Hermit Triad: VIII°— Perfect Pontiff of the Illuminati. Which brings in the cat-holic church again, as the former Illuminati base was stationed in Vatican City, and visited by the Pope. Probably for orders from the grey and black Pope. Epopt of the Illuminati. Epopt means an initiate in the highest grade of the Eleusinian mysteries and one instructed in a secret system. Greek epoptēs, literally, overseer or watcher. The great question is; what type of watcher? IX°—Initiate of the Sanctuary of the Gnosis. X°—Rex Summus Sanctissimus is said to mean peace, tolerance and truth; they can believe that all they like, but the Latin words don't describe that way. Rex means King, Summus highest or most high and Sanctissimus holiest. The holiest, highest King then or the high King is sanctimonious more like it. XI°—Initiate of the Eleventh Degree, this degree is technical, and has no relation to the general plan of the Order. Well we know how they like the eleven's number. XII°—Frater Superior, and outer head of the Order. Outer head or off their head?

OTHER PIECES: It may have gone un-noticed, but there are a lot of earthquakes being felt around the world in the past few weeks. Some in Texas but many other places, like this one. The USGS says the 5.4 magnitude earthquake was measured at a depth of 8.3 kilometers from the surface. Damage from the earthquake has not been reported. Two aftershocks between 3.0 and 3.8 magnitude were reported at 3:30 p.m. on Wednesday. This is the second earthquake to be felt in New Mexico in recent weeks. On October 26, the USGS reported a magnitude 3.0 earthquake in Otero County. USGS data shows the earthquake was felt in Alamogordo, Clovis, Roswell, Carlsbad and Hobbs. The earthquake was also felt in rural portions of Chaves, Lea, Otero, and Eddy counties. The question is what for? In world fighting, bases being destroyed or are these weapons used to open up mining fields? The reason I say mining is, wherever weapons of mass destruction have been used, there is an increase in mining for the chemicals and elements those weapons create. It is like printing your own money in essence. The same ones who benefit from war, also benefit from the mining. For evidence of that, look at the 4 corner States. Maybe this piece is indicative? Ponder on that. Expect more earthquakes natural or otherwise, a great shakedown is underway, no fear.

Remember the Indian spiritualist gurus we exposed in FHSTOS Part 8? More evidence now emerges of poor behavior and practices ongoing. More shameful and harrowing allegations continue to emerge against Shivamurthy Murugha Sharanaru, one of Karnataka's most influential seers who is accused of raping minor girls. The two minor girls aged 15 and 16, who have accused the seer of sexually assaulting them, alleged that he would give them chocolates laced with something. He'd make me sit, would drink alcohol and hurl abuses at me, alleged one of the girls, according to the police charge sheet. He made the warden send girls to his room, one of them claimed. These allegations emerged on Monday during the hearing by a local court which extended the seer's judicial custody by another week. Sharanaru, who has been accused of sexually assaulting at least two girls studying in a high school run by Jagadguru Murugarajendra Vidyapeetha Mutt, is currently lodged in Chitradurga jail after he was arrested under the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences (Pocso) Act on September 1. He disrobed me, and raped me.

The other girl told the magistrate that she was sexually assaulted multiple times and was threatened at knifepoint. Warden Rashmi sent me to Swami's room through a backdoor. When I entered, I saw he was drinking, he offered me fruits, after eating which I fell unconscious. When I regained consciousness, I had no clothes on me. He threatened me at knifepoint when I refused to cooperate. If any students refused to go to Swami's room, warden Rashmi would beat them up, the girl alleged. In the 694-page charge sheet submitted before the district's second additional and sessions court on October 27, police have provided a detailed account of the assault shared by the woman, who was 13 at the time of the incident. The survivor detailed how she was summoned by the seer to his room every night and sexually assaulted before being sent back to her hostel at 4.30am or 5am. On the allegation of rape and murder of a minor girl who resisted abuse in the mutt by the accused seer, the SP said that the victims of first case have stated that one girl was raped and murdered. The investigations so far have shown that the girl died after falling from the train in Hindupur Railway police station limits in Andhra Pradesh. The case is being closed as an accidental death. All of which reveals there is a cover-up by the judicial system as well, girl makes allegation then mysteriously falls off a train and dies, yeah right. These predators need to be exposed, so that children can be at peace, not used for some perverts power play and sexual toy. Just because they say they are spiritual or religious does not mean we should trust them, that has proven in all countries as pure folly. In fact all of the people should trust them less, given the systemic abuse they have perpetrated on the public. FHSTOS can and will play an important role in the future. Maybe a positive action group can see if we can spread the knowledge of that book further?

Recently Utah's More Than a Flag Task Force unveiled the final state flag design that will be presented to the Utah Legislature during the 2023 general legislative session for a vote. Is the new flag symbolic and indicative? yes they didn't disappoint. The flag contains a hexagon, with a beehive inside of it and an eight pointed star. Does anyone from Utah ask, what has those symbols got to do with us? Beautiful scenery everywhere and they go with religious and off world connections? Utah is known as the Beehive State because beehives are synonymous with industry and perseverance, values which were praised by Utah's founders. Bees are famously hard workers, toiling tirelessly for the well-being of their hive. That equates to people giving their power and money away via tithes, to give their fake leaders massive amounts of wealth none of which they earned. In essence they are all queens, and act like insects. The hive via the tithe are all busy bees for the fake church, whose wealth is obscene. Beehive Symbolism: Utah's early settlers, who were primarily members of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, also known as the LDS Church or the Mormon Church, saw the beehive as the perfect metaphor for their industriousness and hard work. The beehive appears on the state flag of Utah, along with the state motto: Industry. Industry originally meant cleverness, skill, activity, aptitude, experience, diligence, activity and zeal, and nothing to do with working in mainly manufacturing. That came in 1840 with the Industrial Revolution, which was essentially the white countries starting slavery with its own people. Poor pay and conditions is slavery. Perhaps by industry they mean they will work us into dustery, whilst they collect all the shekels. The beehive symbolism dates back almost to the founding of the territory by early pioneers in the 1840s. What a coincidence the Mormons started at the same time as the Industrial Revolution. Following the death of Joseph Smith, the founder of the LDS Church, Brigham Young emerged as the new leader and wanted to find a new land where his followers could grow and develop. He led many church members west from Illinois, eventually settling in Utah, where he and thousands of pioneers established new towns. The image of the beehive and its association with industriousness, productivity, and self-sufficiency were synonymous with those pioneers and their efforts to build new lives for themselves. What a load of revisionist history that is, Smith and his disciples knew exactly where to go, where the temple was already built, long before the Mormons arrived. Around 60% of Utah's population is Mormon, making it the most religiously homogenous state in the country. Prior to its admission to the Union, Utah was provisionally known as the State of Deseret. The word Deseret is often seen in the names of Utah businesses, such as the Deseret News. The term Deseret is derived from a word in the Book of Mormon that means honey bee. According to the Book of Mormon, Deseret meant honeybee in the language of the Jaredites, a group in the Book of Mormon exiled to the Americas after the construction of the Tower of Babel. The Jaredites we covered in FHSTOS Part 5, interestingly they are related to the Tower of Babel. This makes more sense when it said the Lord came down during the building of the Tower of Babel and scattered all the people. The Lord also changed all of their languages, perhaps this explains why. If the Jaredites were involved in building the Tower of Babel they were slaves. When Utah was admitted to the Union in 1896, the beehive was included on the state seal, as a carryover from earlier territorial symbolism. Although the beehive was not designated as the official state emblem until 1959, Utah had already been nicknamed the Beehive State. Utah's association with bees and beehives was further cemented in 1983 when a fifth-grade class successfully lobbied for the honey bee to become the official state insect. The hard work of honey bees as they build and support a hive has become emblematic of the importance of industry and family in the appropriately-named Beehive State. Unsurprisingly, the state astronomical symbol of Utah is the Beehive Cluster, an open cluster of around 1,000 stars in the constellation Cancer. The Beehive Cluster also known as Praesepe which is Latin for manger or crib. Which adds a whole new meaning to the hymn away in a manger no crib for a bed, about the little Lord Jesus story. The state reptile of Utah is the Gila monster, the only venomous lizard native to the United States. Gila it should be noted is of Hebrew origin, and the name Gila means joy; pledge or hostage. Gila is also a river that rise in western New Mexico and flows westward through southern Arizona to become a tributary of the Colorado River. The river Gila connected with reptile, like the River Animus connected with off world species, it's all in the 4 corner states. A beehive all contained with the hexagon. A hexagon contains 6 pointed star hex 830, American English, from Pennsylvania German hexe, to practice witchcraft, from German hexen, to hex, related to Hexe, witch, from Middle High German hecse, hexse, from Old High German hagazussa (see hag). So a haggardly woman means a witch, a noun meaning magic spell is first recorded 1909, earlier it meant a witch (1856). Hex: a curse, a transcendent force or energy used for malevolent purposes, using an unseen channel to harm, in western tradition it is a self-fulfilling prophecy, a prediction of an event due to a strong belief in the outcome. Unseen and channel are interesting terms to look at, unseen are the Djinn, the channel is the connection, and brings in a once popular theme until some decided to reveal the truth on it, channeling. The second part of the word is agon, agon means a conflict. A cursed conflict with a gila which can mean hostage. The final tip as to whom they are representing is; the 8-point star which is a symbol of Babylonia goddess Ishtar and the star system Sirius, well I never.

We referenced the term R-6 the transmitting, DNA interfering compound used by the V's on the humans, and postulated it was all too close to the MRNA jabs. In fact, there was numerous medical references within that series that echoed the whole Covid sham. One of our members was pushed into researching for themselves and any correlations and came up with this. R6 was mentioned, and my ears perked up for some reason. Is that the same as Rainbow Six, as in the Tom Clancy nov-el. Plot: CIA operative John Clark forms a secret international counterterrorist organization known as Rainbow, consisting of two operational teams of elite soldiers from NATO countries. Clark and his colleagues become suspicious about the sudden rise in terrorist attacks. Unbeknownst to them, the first two attacks are part of an intricate plan to wipe out nearly all of humanity, codenamed the Project. Everything wrong about the CIA is the projects, and their tendency to operate in pure evil things against humanity, really does make them look more and more like Ciakars. No, empathy, compassion or emotions for humanity when doing endless projects of evil, harvesting and wanton destruction. Given it is they who provide the media with their lying scripts, and it is known the media is ran by Jewish EL-ites, that means they are part of that club. Dr. John Brightling, a staunch radical environmentalist who heads a biotechnology firm called the Horizon Corporation, ordered the attacks through ex-KGB officer Dmitriy Popov to raise global concern over terrorism, which would then allow co-conspirator Bill Henriksen's security firm Global Security to land a key contract for the Olympic Games in Sydney, Australia. Henriksen would then ensure the release of Shiva a manmade Ebola biological agent more deadly than the one that spread a year prior, developed by Horizon and tested on kidnapped human test subjects. Administered through the fog-cooling system of Stadium Australia, infecting almost everyone present, who would then return to their home countries, spreading Shiva across the world. Shiva is known as the destroyer of worlds, and why the statue of Shiva is placed outside of CERN. The resulting pandemic would kill millions; Horizon would distribute a vaccine, which is actually a slow-acting version of the virus itself, which would kill the rest of the world's population. The chosen few, having been provided with the real vaccine, would then inherit the emptied world, possibly echoing the now broken Georgia guide-stones with their 500M tally. Justifying their genocidal actions as saving the world from the environmentally-destructive nature of humanity. Everybody should be aware by now that the environmental destruction of this planet has been orchestrated by Jewish EL-ites operating as bankers, and their paid for armies the US Military, the Military Industrial Complex, Israel and NATO. Fact is fiction and fiction is fact?

A world showpiece got underway this week, something that should be celebrated the world over, but alas the woke based think tanks, clowns, media and their talking puppets have turned it into a charade. Why? because the whole thing has turned political, just like the Olympics and many other events now. Qatar was not universally a popular choice to pick for the soccer World Cup and the more established nations have jumped on it, whilst looking down their noses. Such arrogance is personified by their over inflated status as so called lesser nations cannot possibly be right to choose. This brings in the psychology of low self-worth again, the putting down of others who are not as fortunate, and yet as they found out Qatar has money and so they delivered the world cup in time. That was something the richer countries never thought would happen, and so it turned into a political attack instead. Out came the political discourse of the Qataris are anti-gay, as homosexuality is banned in Qatar based on religious doctrine. Fake footballers more interested in making headlines and a name for themselves, than actually supporting gay rights or any other rights. It has crept into the world of sport with alarming regularity, the sport has become a side show to whatever political think tanks can bring forward to cause more division. The world of soccer or football like music brings people together like nothing else, and should be free of political grandstanding and virtue signaling. That is the realm of politicians, not sport players who are increasingly being pushed into this political charade, when they should be focusing on the sport. Another of the debates is, about women's rights something I have criticized heavily throughout the Middle East and Asia, it is not right and should be corrected. But there is a massive hint of irony of western sports women complaining or campaigning about women's rights, whilst sporting a male hair-cut and look. And some people will not like me saying that, but that is because you are triggered because it is true. All about the perception you see, whilst it is true on one side that is a woman's right and I am glad they chose to exercise that right, but on the other side of it, far too many western women act or look in a masculine way. Don't shoot the messenger because I had the guts to speak it, when many others think the same way and are frightened to speak out. I am not sure that is what women having rights was about for the females, that has been shaped for them via fake cultures, fashion clowns and political posturing. That is where I am coming from, the females are being played and conditioned to suit the clowns ideologies, destroy the traditional family and promote a veritable free for all confusion of not only gender, but sexuality as well. This then becomes confusing on many levels, which is exactly what the divisive think tanks wanted. You don't think it is confusing? Look at the gay scene, why do the gay and lesbian people switch roles within their relationship? If two lesbians love each other as women, why does one of them go butch or male? Isn't that the antithesis of being lesbian? Whereby you love the same sex person, why would one of them play a male role and look? It makes no sense, and vice versa happens with the males homosexuality also. In overview it is not a good look or makes sense, and that is where I am coming from here. To be clear for those who question, this is nothing to do with people being gay, we have many within the group and I call one of them regularly and regard him as a friend. Indeed it is my opinion, we should not be focusing on the sexuality of another person with judgment, as what people do in their own bedrooms is their choice, who people sleep with is their choice and is not the remit of me or anybody else to decide their choices in life. What I am trying to outline here is, the controlling, manipulating and steering of the whole topic into something that only helps those that wish to divide us. The gender debate globally now takes up far too much time, that makes no sense and so it is a program. All of this piece to date has been to focus on the effect, something that is lost on most, and again it suits those who wish to cause confusion and distraction. But this show likes to focus on the cause, let's put the cause into the firing line shall we. The cause is the church again, it is they who promote divisive agendas on homosexuality, whilst most of them are practicing in it themselves, whether it is with those of age consent or as we have found out with alarming regularity, with children as well. It is the church who formulates the divisive opinions on this, for their herd like flock to follow the script. Their divisive books called bibles, scriptures etc. promote everything but the one on one with the one, and they wish it to be 1 with zero and zero, all very binary that. The program like the church is missing the mother, that is what people have to see through. That is the cause of it, I wonder how many will focus on that? Or will they continue to peddle the clown's versions of it? Because only when addressing the real cause, will a solution and harmony be found within the populace.

ENDING PIECE: Words cannot my gratitude and appreciation for last night's second-last piece on the bad-feeling thoughts vs. Good-feeling thoughts. I often awake in the middle of the night, and the mind begins its looping. Over and over, the thoughts churn, and then the biggie pops up that has me feeling regret, anger, and damnation for how things have turned out in my life. The bad thoughts come in, and a flood of bad feelings follows, and the loop goes around. Never lie in bed with those thoughts and feelings, often during the witching hours of midnight and four a.m., get up out of bed and write, read a book or do anything to not do word brain salad. This is a more subtle form of interference, counteract it by getting up and doing something positive, until you are tired enough to return to bed. Those situations cause stress, then you add more stress by worrying about going not going to sleep, just get up and do something different. Last night when this came up, I decided I'd give your method a try. The bad thought and feelings were ready to linger, so I introduced a good feeling thought. I went back and forth between the two, and it didn't take long for the good feeling thought to prevail. You do realize that is the dueling hemispheres, counteract the negative one by overlaying the positive side and you are on your way to developing the sword, out of the mind and into the heart. To my surprise, the good feeling thought triggered another good feeling thought, which triggered another good feeling thought. It's like my mind was filled with many fleeting, good-feeling memories of my life. And out of the blue, totally unexpected, I felt immense love for myself, it literally brought me to tears. It's become habit for me to criticize myself for all the bad decisions I've made. I've been residing in those dark shadows for over a decade without even realizing it. That moment of pure love I experienced in the middle of the night proved to me, beyond the "shadow" of a doubt, how powerful my thoughts really are. The shadow of a doubt? Or the shadow is the doubt? Without the shadow there is no doubt, remember that line. I feel so much more empowered now to face, accept and lay to rest the bad-feeling thoughts which keep me in a perpetual state of pain. Mental pain for making bad choices, emotional pain for what has been lost, and physical pain that is a constant reminder of so much gone wrong. Thank you for your words of wisdom, and your guidance in helping us all deal with the darkness. It was fleeting, but that moment of deep love and light ignited a spark that gives me hope for better days. This is what THI is all about, despite what the critics, critiques, game players and agents all think about me and the shows, it is all about us improving ourselves. Making us better versions of ourselves, to be better today than yesterday and better tomorrow than today. If just 10% of the world would do that, this world changes for the better within weeks. And what is more is, the clowns and oppressor's of society cannot do anything to stop it. As I said to Drake back in 2013, we don't have to campaign, complain, petition or protest to end the clown world, we just have to become better people. 10% of better people changes the whole world. Because 10% not playing division, judgment, harmonic, community based, loving, compassionate and caring people will change the world. And that starts with you, yes you.
