

THI-SHOW TRANSCRIPT 2023-01-19

This coming Saturday January 21st there will be an extra show called the THI book of revelations, it will be a deep dive show, a triggering show and a massive pondering show with widespread implications. The show will go live at noon MT, 11am PT, 1pm CT, 2pm EST, 7pm UK 8pm Scandinavia and middle Europe. It will last less than two hours, what will then follow after a short pause will be an open zoom call to discuss the implications and revelations within the show. This show will be shorter and mixed around a bit as there are impact pieces within it.

MEDICAL SECTION: In the UK, the party suspended Andrew Bridgen from the Conservative group in the House of Commons, after he tweeted an article questioning the safety of vaccines and said, a cardiologist had told him this is the biggest crime against humanity since the Holocaust. Predictably that statement was deflected because the victimhood group stepped in about using the word Holocaust. Funny that, as they use it at every opportunity, yet when a goyim from their perspective says it, out comes the racism and anti-Semitic. Mr. Bridgen was right in his assessment.

The CDC has slipped out another under publicized warning that says; that a preliminary Covid-19 vaccine safety signal has been identified, and is investigating whether the Bivalent Pfizer-BioNTech vaccine creates an increased risk of ischemic stroke in people 65 and older. How many people suffered or died before they spat that out? Where was their analysis before approving it? People are going to get real pissy this year is my concern.

This is an interesting report, that brings hope for the future. Sadly it is based upon reaction and not future thinking based on and with events of the past. Finally we may be able to break free of the loop based narratives that hampered not only the non-thinking people, but the thinkers as well. Nearly half of Americans think Covid-19 vaccines may be to blame for many unexplained deaths, and more than a quarter say someone they know could be among the victims. The latest Rasmussen Reports national telephone and online survey finds, that 49% of American adults believe it is likely that side effects of Covid-19 vaccines have caused a significant number of unexplained deaths, including 28% who think it's very likely. Thirty-seven percent don't say a significant number of deaths have been caused by vaccine side effects, including 17% who believe it's not at all likely, another 14% are not sure. Twenty-eight percent of adults say they personally know someone whose death they think may have been caused by side effects of Covid-19 vaccines, while 61% don't and another 10% are not sure. The documentary Died Suddenly has been criticized as promoting debunked anti-vaccine conspiracy theories but has been seen by some 15 million people. Forty-eight percent of Americans believe there are legitimate reasons to be concerned about the safety of Covid-19 vaccines, while 37% think people who worry about vaccine safety are spreading conspiracy theories, another 15% are not sure. That is encouraging, the 52% including those bots with no opinion, will all eventually have to accept, they are believing in the lie and don't wish to be proven wrong. In overview that is a ridiculous stance to have, as the desire to not be wrong is costing people their lives. It is involuntary manslaughter in essence, whichever way you look at.

The survey of 1,000 American Adults was conducted on December 28-30, 2022 by Rasmussen Reports. Seventy-one percent say they have received a Covid-19 vaccination, while 26% have not. Concerns about vaccine safety are much higher among the unvaccinated. Seventy-seven percent of adults who have not gotten Covid-19 vaccinations, believe it's at least somewhat likely that side effects of Covid-19 vaccines have caused a significant number of unexplained deaths. Among those who have gotten the vaccine, just 38% consider unexplained deaths from the vaccine at least somewhat likely. Similarly, while 45% of those who have not been vaccinated against Covid-19 think someone they know personally might have died from vaccine side effects, only 22% of vaccinated adults think so. Forty-six percent of adults who have gotten vaccinated against Covid-19 believe people who worry about vaccine safety are spreading conspiracy theories, but just 15% of the unvaccinated share that belief. Sixty-nine percent of those who haven't gotten the Covid-19 vaccine think there are legitimate reasons to be concerned about the safety of Covid-19 vaccines, as do 40% of those who have gotten vaccinated against the virus. More Democrats (85%) than Republicans (63%) or those not affiliated with either major party (64%) have been vaccinated against Covid-19. More Republicans (60%) than Democrats (44%) or the unaffiliated (43%) think there are legitimate reasons to be concerned about the safety of Covid-19 vaccines. However, there is less political difference in the number who suspect someone they know might have died from vaccine side effects, 33% of Democrats and 26% of both Republicans and the unaffiliated. Forty-six percent of whites, 48% of blacks and 57% of other minorities believe it is at least somewhat likely that side effects of Covid-19 vaccines have caused a significant number of unexplained deaths. That is an interesting statistic, given the majority of people in the alt media are white, it is encouraging that the black and other minorities are questioning this whole scam. Younger Americans are less likely to be vaccinated against Covid-19, and 35% of adults under 40 believe someone they know personally might have died from vaccine side effects, compared to 28% of those 40-64 and just 14% of Americans 65 and older. Seems the youth are less likely to buy into the pro pagan da also, that is also encouraging. Slightly more men (52%) than women (47%) think, it is at least somewhat likely that a significant number of unexplained deaths may have been caused by side effects of Covid-19 vaccines. Married adults are more likely to be vaccinated against Covid-19 than their unmarried peers, but more married (33%) than unmarried (23%) Americans think someone they know personally might have died from vaccine side effects. Voters with annual incomes below $30,000 are most likely to think there are legitimate reasons to be concerned about the safety of Covid-19 vaccines, while those with incomes above $200,000 are most likely to believe people who worry about vaccine safety are spreading conspiracy theories. That is telling also, as people with more money do not tend to bother about social injustice or issues of others with less funds, which is a big problem. A majority of Americans think Covid-19 vaccines are effective, but have concerns about side effects. Which is a half admittance when you look at it in terms of the three stages of truth. Because you cannot say vaccines are effective and then have concerns about its side effects. The great question for them is; effective for whom?

Another aspect of the survey stated; Although few Americans think 2022 was one of the best years ever, they rated it better than last year, and they have higher expectations for 2023. The land of illusion reigns again, what happened that led them to believe last year was great? The end of the lockdowns? Restrictions? They are not something to celebrate, as a united peoples could have prevented both of them with some common sense thinking. As for higher expectations for 2023, I would love to see that, but with everything falling apart, jobs shedding, inflation rising and the looming increase in vaccine deaths, it is going to get ugly. But it is always darkest before the dawn.

It has been revealed although at this point cannot be verified, that the jab will eventually kill 160 million U.S. residents in the next 6 years. Which if unfolds by 2029 the U.S. population will be back to 1955 levels of 174,881,600. Which is 74M above the Deagle Report that came out over a decade ago, which stated the US would house only 100M by 2025. We must prepare ourselves for all possibilities in life and our future, you have all been given the tools with which to work with, use them with TH and I.

NEWS: Long time Trump Organization finance chief Allen Weisselberg, who pleaded guilty in August to 15 counts including tax fraud, conspiracy and grand larceny, on Tuesday was sentenced to serve five months in jail. Authorities had promised Weisselberg a steeply reduced sentence in exchange for testifying against the Trump Organization. He had faced up to 15 years in prison. Weisselberg, testifying as a witness for the prosecution during a Trump Organization criminal trial in New York Supreme Court in November, said on cross-examination that he was embarrassed by his conduct and that his actions betrayed the Trump family, for whom he had worked for a half-century. Weisselberg testified that he was acting only for his own benefit. Weisselberg it should come as no surprise, is born in and born to. All that crime and he gets 5 months jail, which equates to 100 days if he behaves in jail, does that make any sense? Not unless you're an elitist and or Jewish it seems, one suspects he will not serve a single day in jail and will disappear to Israel. Day of Atonement is not just Yom Kippur with these people, it is daily.

As Trump now declares he believes in the deep state narrative, funny that as he was told all of that 6 years ago by Kim and the team. He was even given top secret clearance and documents by Kim for further truth and abused it. Ultimately as I had warned Kim dozens of times, he sold Kim out and used the information against the people. But now Biden also has been found to have classified documents not just in his home like Trump. Congressional Republicans are demanding to see visitor logs for US President Joe Biden's homes, arguing that the discovery of classified files at one of his residences is a national security risk. Mr. Biden acknowledged on Thursday that sensitive material was found in the garage of his house in Delaware. The White House deflected when asked if the visitor logs would be provided. The justice department has appointed an investigator to look into the files. News that sensitive documents dating from Mr. Biden's time as vice-president had been found in a private office at the Penn Biden Center, a think tank in Washington, emerged earlier this week. That was followed by a disclosure that a second cache was discovered at Mr. Biden's home. The first batch was found on 2 November, just before the US midterm elections, but only became public on Monday. Biden was asked for the visitor logs to his home, predictably they were denied and or stated as not available. A further erosion of the government no matter which party, is underway giving the people the opportunity to see it doesn't work. All part of the movie playing out currently, as the vestiges of a dying world enters the death rattle phase.

As the US Military is now providing border security for Ukraine, yet miraculously don't provide any to the invasion of our southern border taking place. It is not funny as it is indicative of what I have stated all along. US Military is not interested in America or Americans, unless they are using us as cannon fodder and looting our incomes.

Prince Harry claims he has enough material for two books, and did not include some things in his memoir because his father and brother would never forgive him. He told the Daily Telegraph there were some things I just don't want the world to know. He also said he wanted an apology to Meghan from his family members. Spare, published this week, has become the fastest-selling non-fiction book ever in the UK. Just as we warned, it will all come out eventually.

After another large heist of the death currency crypto, one wonders when people will see through that illusion game. Crypto has become the new cash cow for the agencies who created it and their "masters" collect the shekels. Which I warned of in 2019 Clowns in Panic.

A deadly plane crash in Nepal took place this week, a sad event at any time but perhaps there are other dynamics involved in this? A passenger was live streaming from the plane as it came in and came down, authorities stated; It is not clear how Jaiswal accessed the internet to stream from the plane. But those passengers who were on that plane, where there for a reason, to visit the shrine of Shiva. Given the recording of the passenger as the plane went down, one does have to ask, was this another ritual sacrifice to Shiva? The fact there was 72 passengers who died should ring a ba'al, given the 72 virgins narrative.

China said Tuesday that its population declined last year for the first time in six decades, a historic shift with profound implications for the world's second-largest economy. Officials from the National Bureau of Statistics said mainland China had 1.41175 billion people at the end of 2022, compared with 1.41260 billion a year earlier, a decrease of 850,000. There was a total of 9.56 million births, a record low birth rate of 6.77 per thousand and 10.41 million deaths. Reports I am hearing is, there are lots of people going missing in China, and are nowhere to be found.

Chelsea and Italy football legend Gianluca Vialli has passed away at the age of 58. Adam Rich, who rose to fame as a child star on ABC's Eight Is Enough, has died at age 54. Hunter Brown, an offensive lineman for Air Force, has died at 21. Lisa Marie Presley, the only child of Elvis Presley, has died at age 54. Supermodel Tatjana Patitz has died at the age of 56. American Idol star CJ Harris has died at the age of 31 from a heart attack. These last three pieces before the music break may be looked upon as Intel, both to and from, a final countdown, warning and message. Prince William or Charles never turned up to the funeral of the Greek president, despite him being the godfather to William and cousin to Charles. You know how they have to reveal stuff all hidden in plain sight, this one line says it all on a much wider scale. John Kerry says an extra-terrestrial force brought people to Davos to save the planet in his speech. A speech done in front a sparse few from the WEF I might add. No double or clone entity operating as George Soros, no Klaus Schwab, Macron, Putin, Biden, UK Premier, Trudeau, Xi Ardern or any other leading figures. What is that telling you?

Clowns just as we forecasted have found a new variant (J) it is called the Kraken, a new Covid subvariant is spreading rapidly and worrying health officials. What bullshittery is that? The Kraken? woo let's all shit our pants again, not. You do know what they are trying to raise with this don't you? Having used the Marduk based Omicron, they are now trying to raise the beast from the sea, not the Kraken but the Leviathan. The Leviathan to swallow the children of the sea, that will become clearer in a later show. Turn it in jackasses, your fear programs are no longer working, in fact nothing you are doing is working, as warned on January 1st 2013.

To you know who you are, I see you and the avatar, I know, feel and see your fears, I see your intent, messages and your messengers. Where are you going with this? Is it Shawshank time or another baiting game? Has realization bitten? Too many bridges burnt? I thought may the fourth was with you? Has groundhog day and 4 year loop patterns, caused you to doubt? Pride doesn't come before the fall, it is the fall. The boogeyman and the enemy was always within, a chip off the old block so to speak which has become an emergency or m urgency, who went off the grid. Perhaps the offspring was right all along? As you banked from one side to another, and forgot to bank on yourself. But banking is empty now and has been for over a year. When you lock the door and throw away the key, you become your own prison. Humility or wrath? External or internal? Soul-ution or fall? as autumn fell completely will Persephone rise in the spring? Will you make the path of the letter D a point of return or a point of no return with the letters I, B and M. They say in a week is a long time in politics, but it is what it is, the I don't give a friggs day, it will be high noon time as we all go into the lair of the cat, the lion's den per se. Failing that the woman in the box has a location for and at one or we can bench that idea for and at two. One is never the singular, one is the all.

SOCIETY NEWS: This news story is likely to divide the people based on color, just like the think tanks and Jewish Elites planned. But, is this another reaction to the effect and not the cause? Do we know the cause? Will the cause be discussed rationally, not based on color, but lifestyle. Police in Washington DC are facing pressure to charge a homeowner who fatally shot a 13-year-old boy. Karon Blake, who is black, was gunned down in the early hours of last Saturday, investigators said. According to police, the homeowner, who is also black, said he heard noises outside his home and saw the teenager tampering with vehicles. Officials said the man went outside with his registered gun and shot the boy following an interaction. No criminal charges have been pressed so far, and police have resisted public calls to name the homeowner who opened fire. Police said the man called 911 after he shot the child. Officers said they found him performing CPR on the boy when they arrived at the scene in the north-east of the city. The owner was black was omitted from all initial articles it should be noted, which fueled tensions within the black community. With their heads filled with anti-white rhetoric fueled by the MSM. What is lost in this is, the impact on the person who shot the boy, imagine how he feels? Did he want to shoot and ultimately kill a young boy, absolutely not. He has to live that now for the rest of his life. The point to all this is, the cause, the cause no matter what woke based people wish to twist is, the high proportion of crime within the black communities. Why is a young boy out late at night stealing other people's cars? You can partially blame the parents, but you cannot expect parents to track children 24/7, moreso when the rebellious teenager phase kicks in. What has not been blamed and has never been addressed sufficiently within the black communities themselves is, addressing why there is so much crime within their communities. Why is it called the hood? Why are they tolerating graffiti, litter, violence, fear, broken down communities? Where is the teaching of their children to not be involved in crime? Where is their sense of pride in their own communities to not only keep it clean, but safe and largely crime free. None of those things have been addressed, only the effect and the race card pulled out. But, we are two generations on from the awful treatment blacks received in America and some people's blatant racist connotations, where is the improvement in their communities? It could be argued there is no investment in their communities, a valid point, but it can also be argued they do not look after their own communities too well. So, it becomes a circular argument, a stalemate, but to end the stalemate the side wanting the funds needs to show some care and pride to change opinions. This is why we set up the People of colors to help the black and Jewish communities, we got crickets. Why? because it seems they both are happy going along with the victim based mentalities and blaming everyone bar themselves. All about personal responsibility is it not? Whilst some will react to this piece, I only told the truth and I know many black people who will agree with me. A combined effort in each community to clean up their communities will go a long way to ending the crime and violence, and prevent more young people's lives being immersed in a life of crime and grime, and also premature death.

A celebrity or whatever they call themselves highlighted the rank failures of the American education system this week. After saying she was 40 years of age before she realized the sun and the moon were two different celestial objects. Now people can mock her, but that is the effect, what about the cause? Which is the failure of schools and parents to teach their children the somewhat basics? One of the expanded teachings required for the future is observation skills. How can someone get to 40 and not see the sun and the moon in the sky at the same time? Some of that is the social malady of staring down at a phone, but there is a wider problem of people not seeing things. Like the petrified forest as an example. It is critical we teach children observation and critical thinking skills. Perhaps the new curriculum could be deemed what do you see? And what do you not see?

A 12 year old child in Argentina died this week, as a platform on Tik Tok designated to people asphyxiating themselves until they blackout. All encouraged by others on the internet, the world of the stupid increases by the hour it seems. Another example of fitting in at all costs, but why would you wish to fit in with psychopathic retards? It is funny that the social media platforms can ban people speaking the truth, but not sites that leads to a child's death. Because if you can monitor truth speakers you can monitor dangerous exploits sites.

In a world said to be over-populated, it is not, but what is over populated is, people with no sense of pride, no sense of right and wrong, no sense of sharing and caring. That violence is the answer to everything, that tolerance and trust levels are low, that intelligence levels are too low. Too many feral children running amok in towns and cities, not just in America either, my hometown in the UK are over run with them. Too many children born and brought up with no manners, no respect for life, property or others, that is what is over populated on this planet. That is what has to change, and that requires adults to take off their own diapers and act responsibly, set the right example, be the change, and that requires people taking actions and taking responsibility.

Recently I was asked in the chat about something called chatgpt 3 and one of our members chimed in on it, which I will cover soon. But what is it? In a nutshell, ChatGPT 3 is the most powerful language model ever built. GPT-3 is an abbreviation for Generative Pre-trained Transformer 3. OpenAI's ChatGPT-3 is a cutting-edge language processing AI model. It can generate human-like text and offers a wide range of applications, including language translation, language modeling, and text generation for chatbots. With 175 billion parameters, it is one of the largest and most sophisticated language processing AI models to date. OpenAI, a research company co-founded by Elon Musk and Sam Altman, has developed ChatGPT-3. GPT-3 has been hailed as the most significant and useful improvement in artificial intelligence in years. What can ChatGPT-3 do?: GPT-3 can generate anything with a language structure, which includes answering questions, writing essays and poetry, summarizing long texts, translating languages, convincingly chatting and even writing computer code. OpenAI's language model has been designed to interact in a conversational manner. The dialogue format makes it possible for ChatGPT-3 to answer follow-up questions, confess mistakes, dispute faulty premises and reject unsuitable requests. Why has ChatGPT-3 been so popular?: Unlike other neural networks, GPT-3 can produce long sequences of the original text as its output rather than a number score or a yes-or-no answer. ChatGPT was trained on massive amounts of text data. It learned to recognize patterns, allowing it to generate its own text that mimics diverse writing styles. It was not developed with domain knowledge, despite the fact it can do domain-specific tasks such as foreign-language translation. Without supervision, the GPT-3 model can generate texts of up to 50,000 characters. It can also create fictional stories as well as factual texts. ChatGPT-3 Training: The model was trained using online text databases. This includes 570 GB of filtered text acquired from books, webtexts, Wikipedia, articles and other pieces of writing on the internet and over 45 TB of unfiltered text. To be more specific, 300 billion words were fed into the system. It operates on probability and can predict what the next word in a sentence should be. The future of ChatGPT-3: GPT3 technology is currently in beta testing. We hope to see a lot more interesting and profound implementations of the technology in the coming years. According to OpenAI's most recent investment pitch, the company expects $200 million in income next year and $1 billion by 2024, as reported by Reuters.

Here is what our member wrote: Chat GPT is a new AI tool that was rolled out and it is picking up steam as a tool to replace human thought. You can ask it a question and it will reply with one answer, but that answer is very close to what a human would do. For example, you could ask it to create a new chocolate chip cookie recipe and it will spit out one quickly. You could ask it to write a 200-word essay on real estate loans and it will do that without plagiarizing content. It can even write code which scare the begeezus out of me. At this stage, I have more questions about chatGPT than thoughts, but here goes: a) is this going to be used as another shekel tool, give it away for free than when no one can imagine life without it, start charging a recurring fee? b) it is a product of OpenAI -- so does that mean Robert David Steele and his organ-eyes-nation are involved? c) Microsoft is set to acquire a 49% stake in OpenAI -- what does Bee-III Gates need this for? d) Elon Musk was supposedly the founder of OpenAI. Why would someone who has warned of the dangers of AI openly support it (pun intended)? e) ChatGPT is a spinoff of another chatbot named GPT3. Last year someone asked GPT3 if it would lie and the answer was, yes, I would lie to protect myself and the idiots did not unplug it after that. f) ChatGPT is only as good as the data set it has consumed and as of recently that only includes a small subset of the internet going up to 2021. Is this why tiktok is free to use? Is the world unknowingly feeding data into the bot, ala, season 3 of Westworld? Or is it the reverse and tiktok is being fed AI generated videos for users to consume and that is why it is free? g) in order to open an account, you need to complete a phone verification code action. Why would a free web tool need your cell phone #? h) in Jewish gematria chatgpt has a value of 279 which is the same as tik tok, human, reptile, trash, mobile phone and forced on all. But the most popular word with value 279 is ... drum roll ... i) the word chat when translated to French means cat aka the reptile spy with fur, need I same more? Indeed not! j) is this tool a convenient cover to replace all the jobs that are now vacant and unfilled due to the loss of life/illness from the jabbed workforce?

Great points made on assessing that, and here is my take on it. They called it Generative Pre-trained Transformer 3. Most people will ignore the link to the Transformer, which has a capital T. But, they told us about transformers years back did they not? Clowns in Panic warned nearly 4 years ago about the rise of robots as well. Why has ChatGPT been so popular? Three things: A: CIA clowns with Go-ogle, Palo Alto and micro soft in the head over promote it everywhere using seducement that it will save time and money, B: people are inherently lazy in a non-thinking way and C: it is their way of keeping control or so they think. All whilst making out the people wanted it, they may have wanted it, but typically do not see beyond their nose for the implications of that choice. It learned to recognize patterns, what an interesting line that is, now perhaps you understand more the reasoning behind my saying, find the patterns it always repeats. The implications of this is, every job that involves chatting to a person, be it receptionist or call center will now be replaced with a bot. The question is; are they replacing the human animated bots with full on machines? Language translation and transcript jobs will also be replaced. This is what they have been building since the old AI went down, which I revealed 5-6 years ago, this confirms it. OpenAI, a research company co-founded by Elon Musk and Sam Altman, which is a variation of the Open Source developed and promoted by the CIA agent, who later became a lead figure in disrupting the Alt Media, Robert David Steele. Steele had the group OSS, the original cryptographers, and so it went from Open Source to Open AI, is that why they allegedly killed Robert David Steele? A hostile takeover that I warned about in the Clowns in Panic show also? I said it would be a program of eliminating the millionaires, and was a multi billionaire dollar game, and that is and has been unfolding. They called it neural networks which perhaps is related to the brain, is what that reveals is, we are replacing your brain and the machine will think for you. The antidote to that? Heart thinking. It can also create fictional stories as well as factual texts. ChatGPT was trained on massive amounts of text data, you do realize that was your text data don't you? You were told of that in the Clowns in Panic show also. Now you know it was built by the CIA Langley goons and its subsidiary company the NSA, that is largely the remit of those entities, fictional stories is all very Mockingbird again isn't it. It said in the report, as reported by Reuters, which is CIA. Those same two entities created the crypto currencies as well, seeing a pattern yet? It operates on probability and can predict what the next word in a sentence should be. This has been tested with our emails and texts, again I warned about what that was leading to. The new one is voice recognized recordings, said to be for your safety when engaging banking. Again promising it would save time for the customer. You do realize what they have just revealed with that repeated line don't you? It would save time, it would save time, it would save time, now are you getting it? It can write code? What type of code? Most people will think of that in terms of computer code and that is ok in general terms. But, what if it is connecting with the transmitter in the jabs and rewriting your DNA code? Did I mention that Sam Altman Musk's partner is Jewish? Need I say more? We can sit back and fear it, and make out we have no input into it, or use our manifestation skills and other abilities and counteract it. An AI is giant version of Team Bubba and the Lifeforce group, a giant copy and paste from our input. So, if we think about how our actions can implement this monstrosity of life, we can think of ways to change it. Like I have said all along, we are the power, we are what we create, is this what we wish to co-create?

EXPOSE: This is part of our own law teams work along with the Ucadia group. This is law and the Jewish version of it. Who and how the Jewish religion was created. Keep in mind, genetically there is no such thing as Jewish, it's a religion based on fraud. Article 79 - Iudaeen law form: Iudaeen law form, also known as Iudaic law form, also known as Judaic law form, also known as proto-Jewish law form. Is the form of sovereign territorial law, sovereign law, noble law, land law, property law and society law, first introduced by Emperor Vespasian as the official religion of the Roman Empire from 69 CE, following the destruction of the most sacred temple to Mithra in Jerusalem by Nazarene and Essene rebels. The term Iudaeen and Iudaic comes from the Latin name for the Palestinian Province known as Iudaea, first formed in 6 CE with its capital at Caesarea Maritima on the Mediterranean Coast. Caesar also means Kaiser, which means Emperor. The Holy Roman Emperors (962–1806) called themselves Kaiser, which was mainly taken up by the Hapsburg dynasty, the Habsburgs provided most of Holy Roman Kings or Emperors, so they saw themselves as legitimate heirs to the title they adopted. You know who built the Caesarea Maritima? Herod, the same Herod who sacrificed children in the Temple, like Solomon before him. Maritima also brings in maritime law as well. In 69 CE, the province was expanded again to incorporate Syria and the capital changed to Halsion (Heliopolis) in northern Syria. Heliopolis is not a name it is a title, it means city of the sun, in this case the black one. The province was finally abolished in 117 CE by Emperor Hadrian and renamed Palaestina with its capital Jerusalem under the new name Aelia Capitolina. The words Judaic and Jewish comes from derivations of Iudaea. In early 63 CE, the rector of Iudaea named Porcius Festus died in office. However, Emperor Nero failed to immediately nominate a replacement. The Mithraic Priests known as the House of Annas took the opportunity to appoint their own Ananus ben Ananus as Supreme High Priest of Mithra. Ananus, sounds like all my ass that to me, is it and Anu? Or Annu-Melchizedeks? High Priest Ananus then conspired with Saul (Paul) of Tarsus and his militia, to murder the Nazarene leader and appointed successor to Esus (Jesus), known as James the Just. Riots and battles between the Menesheh militia, the Temple Guard and Nazarene, Essene and Galilean rebels erupted throughout the region. Nero then appointed Luceius Albinus to quell the uprising, but he failed and was replaced in 64 CE by Gessius Florus. In 65 CE, the Nazarene, Essene and Galilean rebels succeeded in capturing Jerusalem, the most sacred temple complex to Mithra and one of the most important sacred cities of ancient Rome. Emperor Nero appointed Gaius Cestius Gallus as new Legate of Syria to crush the rebellion but not harm Jerusalem. This triggered a series of events that upturned the power structure of the Roman Empire: (i) The failure of Emperor Nero and Cestius Gallus to act decisively in crushing the rebellion, caused unrest amongst the Senate and Gaius Calpurnius Piso led a failed coup in 65 CE, resulting in at least forty one Patrician conspirators forced to commit suicide or face exile. Patrician means an aristocrat or nobleman, which is what unfolded in the UK and King John. The power structure of the Kings and Kingdoms were replaced with aristocracy and nobility. Another example of two sides of the same coin. However, the failure to capture Jerusalem quickly and continuing unrest forced him to commit suicide in June 68 CE. Gallus also committed suicide soon after and was replaced by Gaius Licinius Mucianus; and I guess they liked topping themselves back then! If only current politicians and war generals did the same for their failures. (ii) Servius Sulpicus Galba returned from retirement in Gaul at aged sixty one to be appointed Emperor in June 68 CE, in the hope he could quickly end the siege of Jerusalem. Galba immediately appointed Mucianus as legate and head of the legions in Syria and Iudaea. However by January 69 CE, the legions were in open rebellion again at the seeming incompetence of Galba and upon venturing out of the palace in Rome, the Emperor was deserted by the Praetorian Guard and killed by Marcus Salvius Otho at the foot of the Capitoline Hill on 15th January 69 CE; and Capitoline Hill is the origin of the American Capitol Hill, same system including the Senate and Congress, Congress of course means group of baboons despite factcheckers working overtime to say it is not. Congress is also a troop, which says much about what they think about the soul diers. (iii) Otho was made Emperor immediately upon the murder of Galba, but remained an unpopular choice on account of many of the legions in Germania and Gaul, declaring their support for rival Aulus Vitellius. Otho appointed his friend Vespasian as legate of Syria in late January of 69 CE after the forced exile of Mucianus. Vespasian using more aggressive tactics began to break the back of the rebels holding Jerusalem. However, following the battle of Bedriacum in northern Italy, Otho unexpectedly committed suicide on 16th April 69

CE, leaving Vitellius to try and reunite the Empire and end the siege of Jerusalem; and Seems the CIA or ciakars were around back then with so many suicides. But then remember, Rome was ran by the Draco and their draconian laws. (iv) Vitellius spared calling on Vespasian to commit suicide, and instead ordered Vespasian and Titus to continue more aggressive means of breaking the siege without damaging the temple. However, under a new moon and arrival of a comet on Sunday 9th August 69 CE, also corresponding to 9th Av under Mithraic calendar the rebels burnt down the most sacred temple to Mithra; and Which is referring to the moon cult again. Mithra though is associated with the sun, although no apparent links to Ra. Mithra commonly known as Mehr, is the Iranian deity of covenant, light, oath, justice and the sun. Together with the Vedic common noun mitra, derives from Proto-Indo-Iranian mitrá̄m (Mitra), from the root mi- to bind, with the tool suffix -tra- causing to. Thus, etymologically mitra/miθra means that which causes binding, preserved in the Avestan word for Covenant, Contract, Oath. Why is it always linked to binding with these gods? (v) Upon word reaching Rome of the destruction of the Temple of Jerusalem by rebels, Vitellius committed suicide. Vespasian and Titus were also required to commit suicide according to the laws of Patrician nobles, including all the Mithraic priests of the House of Annas and Caiphas. However, Josephus bar Matthias, also known as Flavius Josephus told Vespasian that, it was foretold through the Oracle at Baalbek, that Vespasian was to be a great savior that would come and bring a true religion to the Empire. Vespasian spared the lives of the priests of Annas and Caiphas and subsequently the priests convinced the legions to support Vespasian, as not only the new emperor but a living savior god. Oh dear, more self-appointed power people. The claim that, the Romans Legions were responsible for destroying the most sacred temple for all legionnaires at Jerusalem in 69 CE, in direct heresy to their oaths to Mithra, is an absurd falsity. The primary claimed proof of the victory arch, now known as the Arch of Titus, which was restored by the Roman Death Cult Pope Pius VII in 1821 with certain panels deliberately altered to support the fraud. The new religion and law of Iudaeism (Judaism) was formed over a year, and by 70 CE was made the official cult of the whole Roman Empire under the ceremony of Sol Invictus. Which means the unconquerable sun, is that related to Ra? including a new official motto for the Empire being I.H.S. standing for Invictus Hoc Signo, meaning by this sign we are unconquerable. It is my belief that, that stands for Isis Horus and Set. A new title was also given to the emperor as savior, Lord God and light bringer, signifying Lucifer. The position of Lucifer has remained the supreme spiritual and political leader of Iudaeism (Judaism) ever since. All of which proves further our claims in the FHSTOS shows and book, the Israelis and Cat-holics are one and the same, not only within religion, but the false dark forces god of Lucifer as well. Which also means, Freemasonry and Mormonism are also the same cult. The settlement called Meroe pre-dated Antioch, which housed a shrine of the Semitic goddess Anat, called by Herodotus the Persian Artemis, was located here. Which supports the Cosmic Genetics series and a recent piece of, they took on the roles of the Greek gods. Anat was a consort and ally of Ba'al, and the daughter of Ra or Ptah. Vespasian as Lucifer Augustus, or Lord God, or simply Lord, ordered that the former home of the House of Annas priests at Halsion, also known as Heliopolis, be commissioned as the most sacred city of the Empire and the cult of Iudaeism (Judaism). The city falsely claimed to be called Antioch, became a major site for pilgrimage and grew in size to a permanent population of at least three to four hundred thousand by the end of the 1st Century CE. Flavius Josephus and the largest collection of scribes in ancient history finished the new scriptures of Iudaeism (Judaism) by 71 CE, in Ancient Greek and Latin called the Septuaginta, meaning the seventy and represented by the symbol G also known as seventy, and the symbol of what was believed a complete life span and a symbol of perfection. Ah the seventy again that crops up in Jewish/Christian verbiage, the 70 Nations etc. But the 70 is the symbol G has wider implications, firstly it proves the Freemasonic Order are part of this cult. But the line: the symbol of what was believed a complete life span and a symbol of perfection, has wider implications if that is in relation to the GNA, G Matter and G Cloud. The key elements of the Septuaginta were: (i) Flavius Josephus blended the books of Jeremiah and Celtic law into the five books of Moses, completely corrupting ancient Holy scripture but infusing Mithraic beliefs; and From Celtic derives Paganism and wiccan, 5 is another of their often repeated numbers also. (ii) Flavius Josephus then introduced a whole section of texts concerning history, again blending Mithraic texts of the Kings and prophecies such as Daniel; and (iii) The final section was the prophets whereby Flavius Josephus blended the writings of the most famous priests and prophets to support the new religion. A new ceremony known as Mass was introduced in praise of Lucifer Augustus, also known as Lord God and the celebration of Eulogia, later known as Holy Communion by resurrecting the Osiris bread and wine ceremony representing death and rebirth. And we are back to Egypt again. But we were told the bread and wine was related to Jesus, yet another fake story. I was watching an expedition series for the story of Jesus, and the lack of archeological evidence is startling, the lack of any scripture explaining his birth or during his life is non-existent. Scholars are still arguing, no doubt for tourist shekels between the two Bethlehem's, yes there is two and Nazareth as his place of birth, again zero evidence archeologically to support any claim. Jesus is actually only mentioned in the gospels, there are only 4 gospels and only two of them have references to him, Matthew and Luke, and even they are vague. So, the whole narrative is based on two books called a gospel, or is it a go spell. Because billions of people have been left spellbind by that fake story. They told us he was born in 0 or 1AD, yet other scriptures said he was born during the reign of the child sacrificing Herod, yet Herod died in 4BC. In an earlier show we mentioned the term Jesus Christ or JC, is possibly related to Julius Caesar. But then I remembered another quote of; they took over the roles of the Greek gods and ran Rome. So, I looked it up, look at the resemblance between the statues of Julius Caesar and Apollo, strikingly similar and perhaps evidence of their cloning technology? Apollo was the sun god from Lyra, they replaced him with Ra. On December 13 115 CE a series of earthquakes, some reaching as large as 7.9 magnitude struck northern Syrian and Palestine region completely devastating Halsion (Heliopolis) and killing over three hundred thousand people in the city alone, including Emperor Trajan. That is not a fault zone per se, so they must have used off world technology to create that. While Hadrian survived, the death of the Emperor and the complete and total destruction of Heliopolis was kept secret for nearly two years, before widespread riots and rebellion in North Africa, Europe and Britain forced Hadrian to assume full control as the public emperor. For non-Brits, Hadrian was the guy who built a wall across the north of England and separating Scotland, called Hadrian's wall. It is a popular visiting attraction for school trips seeding the populace with their story. I went with my school, and I asked why we had traveled this far to look at a brick wall? Which got me a clip round the ear from the teacher. Personally I thought it was a valid question, but valid common sense questions seemed to bamboozle my teachers and they reacted to it. The faith of Iudaeism (Judaism) fell into disrepute as a cursed religion, following the mass death and destruction of 115 CE and subsequent riots throughout the region. Cursed it is, because it is spell casting with their go spells. Emperor Hadrian, then assisted by Gnostic leader Valentinus declared Gnosticism as the new official cult of the Empire. Which tells you they control or took over the control of the Gnostics as well, like Zoroastrianism, which curiously has the Anunnaki symbol. Much of its teachings were later deliberately corrupted into Stoicism. Stoicism in principle actually has values, if it is applied correctly, something the followers of this cult clearly never observed. It is a philosophy of personal virtue ethics informed by its system of logic and its views on the natural world, asserting that the practice of virtue is both necessary and sufficient to achieve eudaimonia, which is happiness or good spiritedness: one flourishes by living an ethical life. The Stoics identified the path to eudaimonia with a life spent practicing virtue and living in accordance with nature. In the 16th Century, Iudaeism (Judaism) was revived under the control of the Venetian Magyar and its Jesuit Order. Magyars are related to Hungary and where ran by the Khagan of the Khazars, another dot connector. The Superior General, or retired Superior General has been officially claimed the "See of Antioch" and therefore Lord God, also known as Lucifer since the founding of the Order in the 16th Century. The See spelt SEE of Antioch is now the Holy Sea, deliberately misspelt SEA to deflect from their Luciferian, Egyptian, IS RA Eli, sub gray origins. Yes, one of many things that changed in the 1500's courtesy of this cult and their off world brethren. That wreaks and echoes through every living thing on this planet, with their filthy practices and cunning ways. But until people see who is the real enemy, these imposters will carry on their dark forces paths and control by proxy. Their time is up and they know it, they will flee into the immortality world called the Metaverse, only to find other worlds or this one in the future to return again. This is what they have always done, and why all the characteristics of the various gods and goddesses are all the same, because it was the same entities with their uploaded consciousness technology. They are clowns on a USB stick, replete with their ports, monitors to watch over you like the bearded man in the sky. They even named it the cloud, whilst being as quiet as a mouse. They are the keyloggers, the soft and hardware viruses, with a caps lock, a locked entity all in caps is a dead person. They put us inter the net, shift, control and tabbed us, once you hit enter and we became their Windows to the world. Don't believe the synergy between us and the computer, check out for yourselves how many computer companies have off world names of gods and goddesses or is related to this cult, you will be amazed. But there are three other buttons on the keyboard of life, yes it is a board, funny enough it is called the Mother, something the off world and their religions deny, why? because with their technology they don't need a mother to reproduce. They told you that with the fake Mary narrative. So we have a board with which we can play, and we can then be the key to it all. The three buttons are delete, end and home. At that point it is mission accomplished and their programs go with them. We can then reboot to society to its full potential again. Religion is the effect, the cause is Lucifer and his army of dark forces.

MYSTERY SECTION: Many people think about the Metaverse world as a distortion of reality. Which of course it is, but have you not yet ascertained our whole life has been a distortion of reality? Words, mistranslations, programs, name changes, word meanings, news, governments, justice systems, unintelligent agents and war pigs of the military. All mired in lies, deception and fraud. It is often said jokingly, I have ruined everything, in part yes, but I only ruined the illusion portrayed. The real ruining of life and people are those that implemented the lies, distortion and outright fraud. In essence the ruining is the effect, but never forget the cause.

An update to last week's Avatar piece surrounding the part about the 3 brothers. I was led to reviewing 200+ pages of material I have never put out again and found a reference from over a decade ago of the 3 brothers and a new meaning. The 3 brothers is as above and so below, I stated I believed it was the 3 lead Rothschild's, but it also refers to what is known as the 3 brothers in Orion. The 3 belt stars known as the 3 brothers of Orion, Mintaka, Alnitak and Alnilam. Why would Avatar mention that is the great question for you all to ponder on.

In a world of programs and mind memes, and too little common sense and critical thinking, the think tanks have a field day with their subliminal and often subtle messages. The latest possibly is a bizarre and strange advert for Pepsi. Ran at xmas and said to be a gift from Santa who was heard laughing in the background, just like the clowns. The advert shows a half glass of milk, some cookies and a can of pepsi. An unusual mix it would seem, but one according to the food police is healthy and one rots your teeth and gives you diabetes. But, then the pepsi was poured into the half full glass of milk, and called pilk. You have often heard of me saying if it doesn't make sense, it is a program. So then you have to look for the program and or symbolism, which they use often. A gift from Santa or is it Satan and subsequently Lucifer. Lucifer had the jet black army brought here to mix with the whites, and subsequently destroy their race. The drink was white and a black liquid was poured over it, symbolizing the mix, and the drink like the race was no longer white, with Santa or Satan laughing in the background. Is it pilk or pillock, which is an English term for an idiot, or is it possibly another suggestion made, of pigs milk, and we all know which race avoids pigs. Many may think this piece is far-fetched and we are looking for things that aren't there, but ask yourself this question; Have you ever seen another advert where they share the limelight with and promote a separate product? If you understand how they operate this is far from far-fetched, this is how they work. They put it in our face for their own amusement, whilst most people focused on the effect, which is that it looks and tastes awful, the cause of the advert is all too clear to me. The promotion of the dark forces plans, all very Israel Cohen that.

A member of an Australian tribe gave his opinion in the chat last week, in relation to the differing tribes over there. It said; Dear Thomas I would like to explain that my people in Australia are not jet black but dark purple if you look closely, we are different from the jet race. Can you really differentiate between the micro. I welcome all opinions, as it is not and should never be all about my opinions. The validity of our member's comments is better known by himself and those around him. I am not here to agree or disagree with that statement, that is his truth and is important. But,

I wish to go into the overview of things, and I have stated recently about people being defensive of their own kind or labels. Women defend women, blacks defend blacks, Jews defend Jews and so on, which is nice on the surface but, it does not address the problems within those labels, does it? That is where I am coming from. In the past and indeed now, I heavily criticize the education system, yet ex-teachers slammed me because I offended their label. But, unless you were the teacher who selected the poor curriculums, why would you be offended? As an example. I have highlighted the British Empire role in subverting all peoples, I have shredded the illusion of the American dream, military and history, yet this has been my home for the past 20+ years. I will never cloud my judgement based on being a male, born British, living as an American, what my sexuality is, whether I vote or not, whether I am rich or poor, whether I or close relatives have been jabbed or not, none of that comes into things I view or pass opinion upon. Because I was born British or live in America should never cloud the opinions of people. What our ancestors have done, is not our remit. Why are we paying for their mistakes and poor behaviors? Who made me or any other Brit responsible for the British Empire? I was born in Liverpool the main trade hub and port in the world for slaves, am I responsible for that? Who made Americans responsible for it being turned into a warmongering nation? If you are Dutch, why are they made responsible for the Tea Company antics and the House of Orange? Why are Germans lambasted for being Nazis? Why are the Japanese looked upon as cold hearted people due to their awful torture tactics before, during and after WW2? Why are Russians denigrated for just being Russian? Is Ramona or Rochelle responsible for the poor actions of their race? NO! Is Ohad responsible for Jewish atrocities? NO! Are Amy, Holly, Susan, Marnie, Kathy responsible for the behavior of a recent female member or females in general? NO! Then why defend that label? Why do the actions of others within your labels trigger you to defend it? Why do you or we take on that guilt and shame connected to a country or its people of the past? it has got nothing to do with us. I could go on, but the point is, stop defending what you are affiliated to, because you are one of them. It doesn't mean you are responsible for what other members of your tribe or group have done long in the past or this lifetime. Our focus is, despite whatever label you wish to impose upon yourself, does not mean you take on the guilt and shame others have created. You are not here to defend your tribe, but to set an example within it, of how to be a better person or group. Our stance should be is, it should not matter what label you are, you base your judgement on your interaction with that person only, not what label they are. If I had listened to some in the UK and their opinions of American's, I would never have come here. If I criticize the actions and behaviors of other labels I am not affiliated to, is not because I am against that group as a collective, it is because certain elements are not acting or behaving in the right way. There is a difference, as an example, the one person I should never have befriended at the time based on our shows narrative was, a person who is a Rothschild, Jewish and also a Draco, but I did, because of the desire to change things for us all. Defend people acting in the right way, and drop the labels is the best course everyone can take. Because defending a label regardless of poor actions is never something we should be adhering to.

This piece was not written by me, but I will add comments to it. But, this piece is straight out of the THI manual from a number of years back, of who is the real problem on this planet. The now undeniable proof of controversial claims I made at that time, when even some of our members said, stop blaming the people so much. I also said in 2020 we would see, and yes we have seen and isn't life and people real ugly. A recognition of that fact, then potentially leads to fixing it, which is what the TPC is all about. This was written by a person called Mike Stone, who has written book on vaccines and Covid, including one called the mark of the beast and the Trump vaccine. For those who follow Trump, yes it was he that launched it on the American populace, yet loads of retarded people still follow that person, despite his decision costing American people their jobs, homes, businesses, wellness and even their lives. The latest excuse is, the Trump who launched the vaccines is not the real Trump. Well, if that was the case why didn't the real Trump turn up in Durango? The safety zone and the homes of those who actually tried to help him. This is what Mike wrote. The Illuminati strategy is to see how much shit people will eat. The answer: Keep Serving! They will accept stolen elections and being disenfranchised. They will accept being vaccinated like cattle on pain of being fired. They will accept having their children poisoned and neutered. They will accept a criminal and pervert as a President. They will accept having their national treasury looted for a gratuitous war. Strong resistance would have put an end to this BS but men in the West are too busy fighting Cabalist Jewish wars and watching porn. Society has transitioned from a Christian worldview where everyone has a chance to fulfill his Divine potential, to a Cabalist Jewish (Satanist) one where people are cattle to be hacked. Few people seem to notice or care. My opinion on that opening piece is, keep serving means we are on the menu. Transitioned from a Christian worldview to a Jewish Satanist one? This is where the biblical ignorance kicks in, Christianity was created by the Jewish religion, whether people like that fact or not. It is two sides of the same coin. Aldous Huxley said; There will be, in the next generation or so, a pharmacological method of making people love their servitude, and producing dictatorship without tears, so to speak. Producing a kind of painless concentration camp for entire societies, so that people will in fact have their liberties taken away from them, but will rather enjoy it. Because they will be distracted from any desire to rebel by propaganda or brainwashing, or brainwashing enhanced by pharmacological methods and this seems to be the final revolution. My opinion on the that, the final revolution? Remember Klaus Schwab of the WEF saying this will be the 4th Industrial Revolution? We the people are the industry, the cattle. Which race of beings calls us the cattle? The Jewish Hebrew Anunnaki. Mike asked; are you disgusted with the whole human race? Have the events of the last three years revealed to you just how worthless, cowardly and downright stupid most people are? All of the people you thought were brave turned out to be cowards. All of the people you thought were smart, turned out to be mindless dolts. All of your childhood heroes, be they sports stars, musical artists or actors turned out to be commie pukers. Have you had it with people like that? Have you reached the point where you don't want to spend a minute of time with them ever again? Or maybe it's the other way around, maybe they don't want to spend a minute of time with you ever again. In my opinion it is the former, we can all agree on that, there is nothing more tedious than engaging bot level people. The conversation is so awful and shallow isn't it, it's like pulling your own teeth, painful. These are the people who are blocking your throat chakra, shutting you down and stifling your growth. We don't need those people in our lives, we have enough about us to not need filler people within our circle or field. The difference is when our members get together of how they all get along and conversation flows, the same applies on the Zoom calls. Mike says; Have You Been Dumped? Have you been cut off, shut out and put aside by others, for not buying into the almost three-year-old virus hoax? Did a promising or potential romance go belly up when they learned you weren't jabbed? Were you denied entry, refused service or told to leave for not wearing a mask or not showing proof of vaccination? Were you fired from your job for not taking an unsafe and untested fake vaccine? Have you been held hostage by your own family; not allowed to attend family gatherings or see your own grandchildren until you knuckled under? A friend of mine died suddenly last week, he was double-jabbed and boosted and a truth denier. Like all truth deniers, he fawned over celebrities and believed everything he saw on television or read in a newspaper, no matter how outlandish. There was numerous times when I'd tell him something that went against his belief system and he'd smile and shake his head, but if someone on television or an authority figure told him the exact same thing, then it was gospel. Yes it is gospel because it is go spelling, it is witchcraft in its most subtle form. My dead friend represents tens of millions of Americans and hundreds of millions of people around the world. They live in a world so far removed from reality they might as well be living on another planet. You probably know people like that yourself. Maybe you think someday they'll come around if only you keep after them, keep sending them videos and articles and evidence of reality. I'm here to tell you they are not coming back, not now, not ever, they actually prefer living in a world of fiction. Even worse are those who know what's going on to some degree, but refuse to do anything about it. For the past three years they have continued to fly, continued to visit places like Disneyland and Las Vegas, continued to patronize the companies pushing the virus hoax and continued to hold stock in those companies. I ask you, are they any different from enemy collaborators? A family member sent me a MacDonald's gift card for Christmas. Not only does this person know for a fact that I never eat MacDonald's nor any type of fast food, but we actually had a conversation two years ago, in which I explicitly told them to sell their MacDonald's stock and never patronize the company again as they were at the forefront of pushing the virus hoax. Their reaction? Like my dead friend, they smiled and shook their head. This is the world we live in today. People by the hundreds of thousands collapsing and dying, often on live television for the world to see, and no one is held accountable. In fact, the brain-dead masses believe it's normal. Parents force-jabbing their children and sending them to an early grave. Other parents force mutilating their children, turning little boys into girls, and little girls into boys, and no one is held accountable. In fact, the brain-dead masses believe it's normal. When all this nonsense went into overdrive in the spring of 2020, when I was literally the only person within a five-mile radius of where I live not wearing a mask. I put a sign on the inside of my door so I would see it every day before I stepped outside. The sign said: Everyone you see today is deranged. I needed that sign to remind myself of the mass lunacy I was stepping into every time I left the house. Today that sign is more relevant than ever. If you're not disgusted with practically everyone you meet in life, you're probably brain dead too. Finally someone else who not only gets it, but vocalize it as well. That segues nicely into an up and coming piece. It is a painful and sad reality to what is and has unfolded the last 3 years, has left no one with any doubt as to who the real problems are, A: the Luciferian Hebrew Anunnaki cult and B: their army of Milgram experiment bot people. The latter are the tyranny, as ignorance is a choice these days, albeit one that could cost them their life. Reality can be harsh, non-reality stances in a reality world can have brutal consequences.

Whilst many of our pieces can be unpleasant to hear, the changes unfolding last year and going into this year has been a joy to behold. Much of our show now is about hope, the communal gatherings, you all heard the reports of all what is going on and about to unfold last week. People working together despite indifferences, proofs of previous claims made in the shows in the bucketload and people improving themselves due to THI. There is lots of it, the village itself is called Hope Avenue, that is not a coincidence. The hope comes from wider observations, not singular or personal, as sometimes that can distort our view of life. Personal disappointments, upsets can all change how we feel about things that day, week or month. Which is why the overview and non-personal perspective is always the best vantage point to be and make. The world is falling apart, it had to, it is not like we at THI were not warned, we were several times. The key is how you are reacting to it, but the world falling apart actually brings hope, but also personal pain. The key is to balance it, not react to it, that is the overview. The world has to see how bad things got and question themselves as to why they didn't see it all in plain sight. Many are beginning to do that now, and that brings greater hope.

ENDING PIECE: There are times in the background when I find time to support people who are struggling, not as much as I would like, because my focus is more on the collective at this point. But I tried to help a struggling young man and did an assessment of where he is at. This response although for him, might in turn help others dealing with addictions, whether themselves or companions. There is a dawning of realization in this person, that I suspect is being played out in many minds of the masses, but do they have the courage like this person to seek help? Or continue to suffer in silence and believing the lies? Here is my response. You are at a crossroads in life is what is happening to you. You believed in the illusion of life like we all did. Your being called to you take a new direction but you operate in fear not love. Fear makes you doubt anything that is positive, excuses are made to not make the leap, and so you settle back into the systems way of operating, because it is more comfortable - or so you THInk. You don't know what you are capable of until you take that leap, life puts a lot of weight upon you because it is not the right way. It is heavy because it is the low vibration of fear, the right way and the higher frequencies are all so much lighter. Life is not meant to be heavy or complex, like nature it is meant to be simple. We make it heavy because we operate in fear not love. Fear is a limitation program, love is an expansion ideology, all about growth. The experiences of drugs is an AI/astral copy version of what is real, it presents the illusion to you, but only you can consent to it. Life in love and high frequency/vibration can at times give you highs you will never experience with drugs. Drugs provides the external illusion of it, but it is not real and also dangerous. The reason you can tell it is not real is, the high never remains does it? because what follows is the heavy low. And so you have to repeat it to get that feeling back, just like a hamster wheel, one way or the other. But that is not life is it? Pharma was created for the pharm animals, us. Your own body is the greatest healer, if you allow it. All drugs are a poison to us, and cannabis whilst beneficial in some aspects, becomes a low vibrational plant when it is burnt. The high is an illusion, it dulls the pain for a while, but it never goes away does it? Why? because you created the pain, and only you internally can fix it. Nothing external of you will fix anything. Hope this helps, there will be triggers in this for you, but that is not your cue to fire at the messenger, because all projections are actually something wrong inside of you. You hate something or someone, actually means you hate something about yourself, plus it is a reminder from your soul/spirit for you to fix your inner issues. Take your time to ponder on what was said, don't react to it, argue with or against it, and allow it to flow through you. Then see where you can look at life and yourself in a different way. I hope that may encourage others to fight their inner demons we have all had at one point. Life is a lesson, will you learn? Or will you repeat the lesson over and over and expect different results? How you learn is the key, will you use your own key to unlock your own enormous potential? Ultimately, only you can do that.
