And so it begins, the beginning of a fun and exciting few weeks. Thanks to all of you who are involved in all of the THI and TPC ventures. The village entourage got a whole heap larger this week. Interesting times for us all on many levels, the curtain is being pulled back and how you and we perform comes under the microscope on many levels. Stay balanced, avoid chaos, make life and yourself simple not complicate things. 45-55 required as you will be tested by the fallen ones.

In the TPC Building Community group we discussed: Judging thoughts and actions, not people. Judgement is a common concept in the fraudulent constructs that have been created in the control system, and that we need to 180 everything shows the following: Penitus being shadow work has been turned into the sacrament of penance in the control system. Shadow work is an inner process, this has been distorted and externalized into how the law system and the church operate. In the legal system we have three persons: the accuser-the judge, the accused-the agent and the person, the thing-the inhabitant of a lunatic asylum with no competence, who needs to be taken care of. In church we have: the priest, the prosecutor and the sinner. While in shadow work we are all three persons: we are the observer, the observed and the witness (consciousness). In reality we are a fractal of source, the pure energy of love, which implies equality, each one being unique. Cooperation is required in order to grow. Their hierarchical system is ruled by fear, and requires competition to grow. For advancement we need to learn to judge: Through comparison we can come to a judgement. Compare: Com = together/with, par = equal, meaning: Treat as equal Judgement: Judge = examine, ment = mind, meaning: Examine the mind We can only examine our own mind, so an external judge is actually not possible, we cannot judge another person, it is everyone's own business to judge our own mind. The goal is finding truth through observation of thoughts and actions, comparing and adjusting our truth and releasing the binding energy of trauma. What we can do is: Respect the truth and uniqueness of another being. Discuss differences and discover alternatives. Set our boundaries. Collectively we must live mindfully through the heart.

NEWS: More exposure of the lies they used to devastating effect over the last three years, now beginning to seriously unravel, including with MSM circles. An undeniable example of news media distributing propaganda rather than reliable information, was their suppression of the now-vindicated lab leak theory of Covid's origin and the arrogant assertion that it was false. If you pondered this theory out loud on social media in 2020, you were likely to be banned and bizarrely called a racist by journalists too lazy or politically biased to seek the truth. Now that the lab leak hypothesis is considered the most likely explanation of Covid's origin, Fauci must be obliged to explain himself. He cannot be allowed to claim ignorance and walk away the way lazy pundits do. The deeper question is, why Fauci and the others were so eager to discredit the lab leak hypothesis that they would be so deceptive. What were they trying to hide? What secret motive did they have? The investigations must continue. As National and global public health communities have been proven they are rotten to the core. Now that the purported science of Covid's origin has been exposed as a fraud, remember the mind meme; trust the science? I would sooner set fire to my own testicles than trust them. The lawmakers must exercise their oversight role over the National Institutes of Health and get to the bottom of this, as taxpayers should not be misled by their employees. An awful lot of people are going to look really stupid over the next year, their guilt and shame will rise also and of course they will go external and project out to look for a scapegoat. There are no scapegoats, just a lack of people using critical thinking skills and a chronic lack of personal responsibility. Another positive news note is that Facebook is that desperate for funds now, they are considering monetizing the social media platform in the near future. That will gladly lead to a mass exodus and that indoctrination, truth denying and datamining platform can be erased once and for all. Bye bye project DARPA. Further warnings are being given and again we must heed the warnings of this technology. Artificial Intelligence is able to read your mind, if you are hooked up to an fMRI machine and it is trained on how you process visual information. Researchers at Osaka University in Japan have found that AI can be trained to reconstruct high resolution images from human brain activity, gathered from MRI scans, which bear a striking resemblance to the source image being shown to the participants. Does anybody ask why they would do that? Is that not a total invasion of privacy? A preprint of the study by Yu Takagi and Shinji Nishimoto describes how the researchers used the deep learning model Stable Diffusion, to translate the images in people's heads into AI reconstructions, using data from the fMRI. The study uses functional magnetic resonance imaging (fMRI) to map brain activity, looking at tiny changes in blood flow that indicate when certain parts of the brain are working, according to Joseph Early, a doctoral student in AI at the Alan Turing Institute. By showing people pictures while they're undergoing fMRI scans, the parts of the brain that light up in response to different images can be identified. The 2D mapping and mind memes again. These different responses are mapped to a format that is familiar to the existing generative image models, and can then be used to generate new images. To train the AI, each participant was shown 10,000 images while inside an fMRI scanner. This was repeated three times and the resulting MRI data was fed to a computer, so that it could learn how each participant's brain processed the images. Interestingly, the AI was better at reading some people's brain activity than others. This has no value for general society and will only be used for Military and Agency goons. The sheer amount of money going to waste globally by those two entities, needs to be addressed on a global scale.

The financial warning given in the end of year review is perhaps starting to unfold as I write this on Friday morning. With another of this type to follow this piece. What unfolds after this may get interesting and important members have some cash to hand just in case it all blows. The Silvergate Bank, which had been a cornerstone in the crypto world, announced its closing and returning deposits. In a press release, the bank's holding company, Silvergate Capital Corporation, said it made the decision to shut down, in light of recent industry and regulatory developments.

The second piece is of more concern in a near term effect, but long term all these banks have to go down. The concern is the knock-on effect. Financial regulators have closed Silicon Valley Bank and taken control of its deposits, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp. announced Friday, in what is the largest U.S. bank failure since the global financial crisis more than a decade ago. The collapse of SVB, a key player in the tech and venture capital community, leaves companies and wealthy individuals largely unsure of what will happen to their money. Tech and vulture capital groups going down? How interesting. According to press releases from regulators, the California Department of Financial Protection and Innovation closed SVB and named the FDIC as the receiver. The FDIC in turn has created the Deposit Insurance National Bank of Santa Clara, which now holds the insured deposits from SVB. The FDIC said in the announcement that insured depositors will have access to their deposits no later than Monday morning. SVB's branch offices will also reopen at that time, under the control of the regulator. According to the press release, SVB's official checks will continue to clear. The last U.S. bank failure of this size was Washington Mutual in 2008, which had $307 billion in assets. SVB was a major bank for venture-backed companies, which were already under pressure due to higher interest rates and a slowdown for initial public offerings that made it more difficult to raise additional cash. The closure of SVB would impact not only the deposits, but also credit facilities and other forms of financing. The FDIC said loan customers of SVB should continue to make their payments as normal. The move represents a rapid downfall for SVB. On Wednesday, the bank announced that it was looking to raise more than $2 billion in additional capital after suffering a $1.8 billion loss on asset sales. The shares of parent company SVB Financial Group fell 60% on Thursday, and dropped another 60% in premarket trading on Friday before being halted. While many Wall Street analysts have argued that the struggles for SVB are unlikely to spread to the broader banking system, shares of other mid-sized and regional banks were under pressure on Friday.

Treasury Secretary Janet Yellen said during testimony to the House Ways and Means Committee on Friday morning that she was, monitoring very carefully developments at a few banks. Yellen made her comments before the FDIC announcement. What is of interest in this is, this is a Langley CIA bank, are they now collapsing from within?

Reports of predictably that at Wells Fargo money is disappearing from peoples accounts. Then Signature bank in New York collapsed, another heavily invested in technology, in overview that is encouraging.

Joe Biden is once again proposing higher tax rates on billionaires, wealthy investors and companies, in his budget for the 2024 fiscal year. In his budget request to Congress scheduled to be released Thursday, Biden is calling for a minimum tax rate of 25% on billionaires. This will be a five percentage point jump over the minimum 20% tax rate that he called for previously. Biden is also proposing doubling the capital gains tax rate to 39.6% from 20%, per Bloomberg. Other changes Biden is proposing include an increase of the corporate tax rate to 28% from 21%, and increasing the top tax rate for Americans earning over $400,000 to 39.6% from 37%. All of which won't make a difference to billionaires, yet the other taxes of capital gains will hurt the vulture capitalists a bit. But increasing the corporate tax rate at a time when businesses are failing due to the policies of the last two governments, is pure folly. Unless of course you are running the country into the ground? All of which will aid the deliverance of our Blueprint. The simple solution of course we have proposed, and that is the flat tax rate. When you add in the inventor of the Sputnik vaccine was taken out recently, add it to the inventor of crypto currency was also taken out in mysterious circumstances. The question is; are the decks being cleared for something new? If so, who?

I have highlighted the born in and born to people, and also their links back to the Kali Ma based India. Where the Rus derelicts mixed with the Dravidian natives, or perhaps they were not native at all, but just resided there. A member decided to look into another avenue of a similar ilk and provide some dot connecting, and this is telling. Born to Indian Parents, works as a tech CEO. Shantanu Narayen – Adobe, Arvind Krishna – IBM, Satya Nadella – Microsoft. A Krishna and a Satya, interesting names, Satya is the golden age of the Yugas. Sundar Pichai - Google and Alphabet, Yamini Rangan – Hubspot, Neal Mohan – Youtube. Anjali Sud – Vimeo, Rangarajan Raghuram – Vmware, Sanjay Jha - Global Foundries/Motorola, Parag Agrawal - Twitter prior to Elon Musk purchase, Sanjay Mehrotra, Micron Technology. Nikesh Arora - Palo Alto Networks, Jayshree Ullal - Arista Networks, Revathi Advaiti - Flextronics and George Kurian – NetApp. Honorable mentions of non tech leaders; Ajaypal Singh Banga – Mastercard, Punit Renjen - Deloitte Vasant Narasimhan – Novartis and Niraj Shah – Wayfair. Given 6 of the top 10 richest are Indian, and the Jewish thinks everything is owned or belongs to them, how have they allowed so many Indian people at the top of these industries? Or to have so much wealth? Perhaps they are one and the same as our book revealed.

SOCIETY NEWS: Another sign the old system is collapsing in on itself. As a growing number of American high schoolers are taking a look at college and taking a pass. College enrollment for recent high school graduates rose for decades, peaking at 70.1 percent in 2009, according to the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, before fluctuating for a decade and plummeting 8 percent from 2019 to 2022. The slide in the college-going rate since 2018 is the steepest on record, especially for men. Complete and utter waste of money, saddles the young adult with huge debts and only educates people in, indoctrination programs. Schooling needs to be ripped up and started again, it is a complete mess. Florida is leading a national movement by Republicans to reshape how and what schoolchildren are taught about race. Governor Ron DeSantis is spearheading the crackdown on what he calls "woke" ideology. But teachers in the state said that the changes have had a chilling effect, with many fearing they may break the law if they discuss the realities of US history. What a load of fear based pro pagan da that is. These are the teachers and yet have zero common sense. How is it possible not teaching a woke distraction based course going to lead to law breaking and or violence? I wouldn't want them teaching my or any children, embarrassing.

EXPOSE: This is an interesting expose and exposes more of the corrupt nature of the usual suspects. A tale of greed, service to self, death, lies and corruption that is all too familiar. Did Richard Nixon secretly steal 36.5 tons of gold bullion from US Army base, while he was telling America, I am not a crook? New evidence suggests he did, and that Lyndon B. Johnson also stole gold from the same base in a separate criminal operation. On November 17, 1973, in the midst of the Watergate scandal that led to his resignation, President Richard Nixon famously told a group of newspaper editors at Walt Disney World in Florida, that he had never profited from public service. I've earned every cent. I am not a crook. The ability for these types of people to lie, is a prerequisite for their position, as we have all found out. According to John Clarence, author of The Noss Gold, days after Nixon made those remarks, he orchestrated a massive criminal scheme that resulted in the theft of 36.5 tons of gold from White Sands Missile Range in New Mexico. You all thought November 1963 was about once incident, this piece will prove otherwise. On Monday November 26, 1973, a Washington, D.C., lawyer David Austern, a former Assistant U.S. Attorney who taught as an adjunct at Georgetown and American University law schools, called George Brazier at the Office of the Assistant Secretary of the Army, to report on the theft of gold from White Sands, which was valued at around $118 million, worth around $2 billion in 2022. The theft was also reported by Army intelligence agents and in a heavily redacted Secret Service report, with evidence of dynamiting at the scene. In an interview before his death, Austern did not deny his involvement in the scheme which, that implied a confirmation by non-denial. Nixon's motive was very clear: He needed lots of money to pay off his blackmailers, the Watergate burglars in an attempt to defuse the Watergate scandal and save his political career. On the White House Watergate tapes, Nixon was heard telling White House Counsel John Dean, who had estimated that Nixon would need $1 million to pay off the Watergate burglars: If you need the money you can get that. You could get a million dollars. You could get it in cash. I know where it could be gotten. It is not easy, but it could be done. Nixon was allegedly told about a fortune in gold for the taking in New Mexico sometime in July 1970 by Keith Alexander, a geologist from Northern California and guest at his San Clemente home. Lilburn "Pat" Boggs, a deputy director of the Secret Service who worked with Nixon, had also allegedly been present at a secret operation on August 1, 1961, at Victorio Peak. Which is about 4 hours south of Albuquerque slap bang in the middle of the White Sands bases, how convenient. The operation was thought to have been led by White Sands Missile Range Commanding General John G. Shinkle, a West Point graduate from Boston who, according to Clarence, was up to his neck in the thefts, removing gold bars from the Victorio Peak site. Brent Bauer, an engineer from Palmdale California who ran gold mining operations in Alaska and Nevada, said that he knew of thirty-five people who were killed in connection with the gold thefts after 1965, including some right at White Sands. According to Bauer, one third of those involved in the conspiracy to remove gold and who received dividends were military personnel. Many political figures similarly benefited along with businessmen and organized crime. Brent Bauer, is Bayer is Rothschild's, funny how they always crop up as well. Doc Noss and the Origins of the Treasure: There are four theories surrounding the origins of the Victorio Peak treasure, which included silver coins, jewels and other rare artifacts: It was plundered from Mexico. It was stored by Spanish conquistadors, such as Juan de Oñate who founded the New Mexico colony in the 17th century, or possibly by a Jesuit missionary, Padre LaRue, who operated gold mines in the 18th century. They were not Spanish conquistadors, they were Sephardic Jews, funny how church based people all operate in mining or high finance is it not? Like the Mormons for example, who have the largest gold hoard in the Americas. The gold belonged to Maximilian I, the emperor of Mexico in the 1860s who feared an assassination plot. It belonged to an Apache war chief named Victorio whose band had raided California stagecoaches during the Gold Rush. The treasure was discovered in 1937 by Milton E. "Doc" Noss, a traveling medicine showman with a string of arrests for drunkenness, and his wife Ova "Babe" Noss, whom he had met in Tulsa, Oklahoma. The Nosses extracted some of the gold bars manually from Victorio Peak, but then caused it to cave in when they deployed dynamite in an attempt to make the extraction process easier. In March 1949, Noss was killed by Charlie Ryan of Alice, Texas who had offered to buy most of his existing bars. Ryan was acquitted of murder on the grounds of self-defense, and six years later, Doc's wife Ova Noss, was evicted from her legally held claim as the land where the treasure was buried, was taken over by the White Sands Missile Range. In other words, Ryan was bought off or leveraged, and was likely an agent to begin with. Then in 1958, the gold stash was rediscovered by a treasure hunting team led by Air Force Captain Leonard V. Fiege and Thomas Berlett who found a new passage into the peak. Evidence Against Tricky Dick: Strong evidence implicating Nixon comes from money-laundering documents that were provided to John Clarence by Betty Tucker, the widow of Lloyd G. Tucker, a Tulsa-based real-estate agent from Reno, Nevada, who worked for the CIA and as a courier for Lyndon B. Johnson. An expert in handling, mining, smelting and refining gold who worked in Nigeria probably for the CIA, Tucker knew "Doc" Noss personally, and had been in the caves of White Sands where the gold was stored and was a key part of Nixon's theft scheme. During a 1993 interview, Tucker, who held a Treasury Department license arranged for him by LBJ to move gold bullion around legally. He said that; the government had the pictures, the government knows it, they're people in the government that know it. I can tell you one right now, Richard Nixon knows it as well as about anybody. His brother knows it better than most, there were some pretty powerful people in that deal. Lyndon Johnson knew it as well as Nixon. Notice the CIA are central to it all again, just why were this group so central (pardon the pun) to everything illegal and underhanded? All whilst carrying, get out of free jail card, immunity on all levels, it is like a walking cesspool for all occupants of a darkened persuasion. Quite extraordinary really, that they do business in that way and the vast majority of Americans have no idea to their dastardly deeds. The Nixon Library in Yorba Linda, California, featured a document in one of its exhibits that mentioned an unexplained and unusually large amount of money in Nixon's Riggs bank account. The money-laundering documents mention an assortment of criminals who were allegedly involved in the 1973 gold theft, many of them were clients of David Austern and F.Lee Bailey, all of whom had connections to Nixon. They included: a) Bill Shriver, a Florida-based dealer in gold and precious metals who was murdered in May 1982, probably due to his connection with the 1973 gold theft; b) Keith Alexander, the geologist who told Nixon about Victorio Peak in July 1970; and c) Kenneth Meadows, a business partner of LBJ associated with Texas con man Billie Sol Estes who was part of Nixon's Committee to re-elect the President. Meadows owned a phony gold smelting company in Cerrillos, New Mexico, which was used as a front to move the looted gold through the banks. According to Phil Koury, Ova Noss's attorney, F.Lee Bailey was secretly involved with the Pentagon in an effort to allow his clients to enter the White Sands Missile Range and search for the gold. Off-the-record negotiations were carried out by Attorney General John Mitchell and H.R.Haldeman, Nixon's chief of staff. The most important Bailey gold hunter client was Fred Drolte, a Dallas importer-exporter and former one-armed airplane pilot and CIA contract employee, who served as the lead man in the Noss gold theft, according to John Clarence. Drolte called Nixon "Tricky Dick" and said ya gotta keep an eyeball open on him. Drolte himself had been named in a $1 million lawsuit involving stolen Colombian emeralds. He also spent three months in jail for smuggling 371 stolen M-2 automatic carbines and .30 caliber ammunition into Mexico to unidentified revolutionary Latin American factions. I suspect that was part of Operation Gladio, between the CIA and the P2 Lodge which we covered in our series and book. A trail of deaths, assassination and political heists across South and Central America. Prior to the November 1973 heist, "Pat" Boggs and another of Nixon's secret service agents, Robert Newbrand, met with Drolte in Arrey, New Mexico, to arrange a meeting between Drolte and President Nixon to discuss the Noss Gold at Victorio Peak. On November 18, Nixon flew from Key Biscayne in Florida and met with Drolte in a private jet in El Paso, Texas, next to the Biggs Army Air Field which is about 40 miles away from the White Sands Missile Range. At the meeting, about which Drolte told Richard Moyle, a heavy equipment operator and prospector who worked for Drolte, Nixon handed Drolte a key to the west gate near the rim of the Hembrillo Basin where the Noss Gold was hidden. That this meeting took place, is suggested by the fact that there was a gap in Nixon's diary on that day, and his whereabouts were not officially accounted for, which is odd since virtually every minute of a president's time and whereabouts are routinely memorialized in official records. Which is correct, as via Kim we were aware of where Trump was at any given time of the day. After the meeting Drolte told Moyle: I'm going to Victorio Peak, I've got it all arranged. On November 21, 1973, Drolte and his crew drove to the range and met with military personnel. During the next few days, 36.5 tons of the Noss gold was loaded onto trucks and stolen from the range. Dewey Millay, a doctor present during the theft, told John Clarence that he had witnessed a one-armed man at the site, and said that Bill Shriver and Edward F. Atkins, a Decatur Illinois oilman, who were both involved in the theft, told him that it was not the first time they had worked with the military to remove gold from Victorio Peak. Nixon at White Sands: 1 million 168k ounces, roughly $2.2B at today's rates all going to line their pockets, and given how the markets work, likely leveraged initially times ten, and then repeated at certain intervals. All of which made it worth initially around $22B. Joe Essary worked for his cousin Lonnie Boyd "Jock" Essary, who had a contract with White Sands Missile Range to remove downed aircraft scrap from the range. The question is; which type of downed aircraft? Joe claimed he saw Nixon get out of a helicopter in November 1974, a few months after his resignation at Fort Bliss, which is just north of El Paso and attached to White Sands. Just one and a half months later, President Ford made it legal for private citizens in the U.S. to hold, purchase, sell or deal gold. So, Ford was cut in on the deal as well. John Clarence wrote that; Nixon's unexplained appearance so close to the scene of the crime in time and distance is more compelling evidence he was deeply involved in the November 1973 gold theft. White Sands Whitewash: In March 1974, Major General Arthur H. Sweeney, Jr., the 11th Commander of White Sands Missile Range held an official military inquiry into the Thanksgiving gold theft. The military had been alerted about the heist when it was reported by Army intelligence, a heavily redacted Secret Service report, and David Austern's report to the Pentagon. During Sweeney's inquiry, military personnel who had been in on the heist and may have individually profited from it, gave false testimony while witnesses at the hearing were handpicked. The report, released on March 11, 1974, was named after U.S. Army Deputy General Counsel Bland West, who worked under Army General Counsel Robert W. Perry, a Nixon appointee, and the U.S. Army's Assistant Secretary for Real Property, Gordon B. Hobbs, who worked under Army Secretary Howard "Bo" Callaway, another Nixon appointee from the state of Georgia who served a term in Congress. FBI agent Herb Greathouse had had considerable evidence to pursue an investigation but instead suppressed it, according to Clarence. This cover-up may have been designed to protect not only Nixon but also high-ranking military and reportedly CIA officers who had stolen a considerable amount of the gold. Well I never. One Army captain, William Orby Swanner, whose son performed polygraph tests for the CIA at Abu Ghraib prison in Iraq, brazenly left proof he had been inside one of the treasure rooms by inscribing his name, date and serial number on the wall inside a cave called soldier's hole. Nazi Gold at White Sands: In September 1961, Michael Geesling was out poaching deer illegally on the White Sands Missile Range with a friend, when they witnessed several members of the U.S. Army removing boxes from an opening on the side of Victorio Peak into a large Dodge truck. One theory is that the boxes were looted Nazi gold worth $71.4 million. The Süddeutsche Zeitung, one of Germany's largest newspapers based in Bavaria, suggested that U.S. Army soldiers had stolen this gold, which disappeared from a hiding place in the Bavarian Alps. Some of the bars found at White Sands has shiny hallmark bars, a trademark of Nazi gold. Bavarian State Police Chief Michael Freiherr von Godin said that advancing American soldiers had found Nazi gold in Weilheim, 20 miles south of Munich, and took possession of it as the war was ending. It then allegedly made its way to White Sands, possibly with the assistance of Nazi scientists recruited under Operation Paperclip. Wernher von Braun, who had helped develop the German V-2 rocket, is in the White Sands Missile Range Hall of Fame, having served there from 1945 to 1950. Other Paperclip Germans reportedly worked at White Sands up until about 1958. Why until 1958? Because that was the year NASA was launched, most moved over to there. Was LBJ on it too?: John Clarence writes that Nixon was not alone when it came to presidential theft of the Noss gold; Lyndon B. Johnson also stole some of the gold from Victorio Peak. John Atkins, the son of gold-hunter Edward F. Atkins who died under suspicious circumstances because of his involvement in the 1973 theft, had the opportunity to listen to a recording of Johnson talking to Fred Drolte. Johnson discussed how he and John Connally, former Texas Governor appointed by Nixon as Treasury Secretary, went to Victorio Peak. The two were both spotted in a remote area near there in the late 1960s by a White Sands Missile Range security guard, who said that they headed a team which brought in sophisticated excavation equipment to remove gold from the peak. The most modern I've ever seen, he said, they even brought in their own security guards. Johnson further discussed in the recording how he had transported gold from White Sands to a landing strip, that had been constructed at his 108,724 acre ranch in the state of Chihuahua, Mexico near the towns of Camargo and Jimenez. Extending through his presidency, Johnson and his family and friends would fly every February to Acapulco and stay in Alemán's elegant villa. On June 5, 1963, President Kennedy and Johnson had visited White Sands to view several missile firings and later that day visited the Noss treasure site, which Johnson had allegedly learned about from a boyhood friend from Johnson City, Texas, Dick Richardson, who was a former U.S. Army officer. 1963 was the year of a major theft from Victorio's Peak, according to Major Raymond Burns, the assistant Provost Marshal under Provost Marshal Colonel Richard E. Wade, chief of security from 1963-1974. Burns described another incident during LBJ's presidency, when four men seeking access to the Noss gold arrived at the White Sands Provost Marshal's office in a Cadillac, including a Mr. Moon, who was from the White House Division of the Secret Service, and Dick Richardson, who claimed to have been in Victorio's Peak before. Tom Whittle interviewed a man spotted waiting in the Cadillac, who told him that he had helped mastermind the illegal removal of at least some of the gold on Johnson's behalf. Fern Hamill, LBJ's pilot, said that he flew gold bars from Johnson's Las Pampas ranch in Mexico to Vancouver, B.C., Canada. No surprise there, that is Canada's den of inequity, likely went to Kelowna region as it is populated with CIA agents. The clue is in the title, British Columbia, like the District of Columbia in the fake principality of Washington DC. Men from the White Sands Missile Range dressed in civilian clothes accompanied him, as did a U.S. Army General on one of the flights. A resident of Juarez, Mexico, told Charles Berg, managing editor of The Investigator, that he had been told that the gold was flown into Johnson's ranch at Las Pampas on a big four-engine airplane two months after Johnson ended his term as president. That the gold had been brought there was common knowledge among local residents in Camargo, in Chihuahua where LBJ's illegal ranch was located. This is why the US Government and CIA agents in particular have funded Mexican gangsters, in part to protect their assets, whether gold or other mining or the drugs and sexual trafficking activities. Remember Eric Holder and the Operation Fast and Furious ATF gunwalking scandal? Lloyd Tucker's wife Betty told John Clarence that her husband, who happened to have been at the Dallas airport on the day JFK died, had a close association with LBJ, who provided him with a license to handle and deal in gold bullion. No doubt an accomplice of the Bush family who were in attendance that day also. I find it curious that amongst this story, there is no mention of the Bushes. Curious really given that families involvement in everything illegal, one has to ask as to whether this book was written on behalf of the Bush family? Betty also told Clarence that, Lloyd had unfettered access to the west gate on the range with the permission of the Commanding General and claimed that Lloyd had been inside Victorio Peak on numerous occasions. Once, while Tucker was working there during one of his removal operations, he received a message that someone was waiting for him at the gate: it turned out to be Lyndon Johnson and his wife, Lady Bird. Johnson instructed Tucker to return to Victorio Peak and search at a certain location where Tucker uncovered two wooden crates, which he delivered to the Johnsons' back at the gate. When the Johnsons opened one of the boxes, Tucker said it contained Russian china. One also has to question, was it part of the Russian gold looted during the WW1 time period? A source who asked to remain unidentified told Tom Whittle, that he had interviewed several men who had brought a large load of the peak's gold to Johnson's ranch, where Tucker had witnessed the prevalence of underground bunkers. According to this same source, Victorio Peak was just like a private vault to certain high-ranking people, including evidently Johnson. A Political Criminal of Spectacular Proportions: That Johnson might have been involved should not be surprising in light of the assessment of Barr McClellan, who worked for the law firm that represented him, that Johnson was not just vulgar and disgusting, but a political criminal of spectacular proportions operating at the highest levels of the American government. According to McClellan, Attorney General Robert Kennedy was planning, right after his brother John's trip to Dallas in November 1963, to take the Noss gold into custody until its ownership could be resolved, a claim held firmly by the Noss family. Mrs.Noss was allegedly informed by Kennedy, that a meeting had been scheduled in Denver after the Dallas trip with Ova Noss and members of her family, to resolve the ownership of the gold. And so another potential reason for removing JFK, to add to the others of him knowing too much about ET's, agreeing with Russia to remove all the security clearance levels on ET information less than 2 weeks prior to the assassination. Another potential was the Mafia links and potential war, given Kennedy was connected to the IRA who it has been revealed to me, are the front runners of all Mafia activity, which means it is Black Sun related. The other reason was, the Bush Rothschilds group and the Kennedy Black Sun group, given the Bush related group eliminated his father earlier. Staggering Government Criminality: The saga of the Noss gold reveals staggering levels of governmental corruption, criminality and coverup involving high ranking members of the armed forces and executive branch. Many questions about the Noss gold remain of course unanswered. If both Nixon and Johnson got away with the theft, how much might each have gotten away with and where did the money go? Why did the government not ultimately pursue any of the culprits if it was known that gold had been stolen? If John Shinkle and other military officers took a large percentage of the gold, how much did they get away with and where did their money go? Another question centers on the CIA, to what extent were CIA-connected figures like Lloyd Tucker and Fred Drolte stealing the gold to fund covert operations? And why did the military permit CIA operations to be carried out on U.S.soil? The Government, Pentagon, CIA, US Military and Justice Department all involved in high level criminality, the dot connection that underlies it all? The off-world entities under White Sands, perhaps it was they who had the gold for trading? Gold for abductions and super soldiers? Super soldiers to fight their wars for them? Was that a question or a statement? All about the shekels again and gold.

EXPOSE: The people of the world have been herded into manageable corrals. The ancient land of Canaan was occupied by the Philistines (today's Palestinians) before it was conquered by the Hebrews, who renamed the land Israel and divided it into 12 tribal districts. By 69AD, the Roman soldiers destroyed the Hebrew Temple of Solomon, burned Jerusalem to the ground, gave the land back to the Philistines and renamed Israel, Palestine. The 12 Hebrew tribes fled and dispersed from the land. What that reveals was, the war between the Draco and Hyksos groups of that time. And yet another example of war on this planet being nothing to do with the natural habitants. So many of the wars in the past have delivered bloodshed and mass casualties, courtesy of off world entities and their power and greed games. Where did the Hebrews go? In came the Vikings, operating under the power structure of the 6 kings, VI in Roman numerals is 6, and so the 6 Kings cult was born. The Hebrew tribe of Dan adopted the symbols of a dragon and a snake, and emblazoned them on their red and white flag together with the crest of an eagle. The carvings of snakes and dragons on their ships, the red and white stripes on their sails and archeological relics reveal that the tribe of Dan became the dreaded Vikings. The Tribe of Dan settled in Greece along the River DANube and became a ferocious force of brutal seafaring pirates. They named themselves after their ancestral Hyksos Kings (Habirus-Hebrews) who had ruled Egypt as the 15th Dynasty. They pirated their way along the Mediterranean and sailed up the coast of Europe marking their migration trail by naming mountains, towns and rivers after themselves. The river Danube and the Jordan River. This still plays out today about claiming all port cities for the shekel makers, like Jaffa and the West of Palestine. The war with Kuwait was also about controlling the port, Yemen as well, due to the portal just off the coast there. The one region of waters they don't control and has been a source of conflict ever since is, the Straits of Hormuz controlled by Iran. Coincidence? No chance. Denmark literally means, the mark of Dan. Since the original Hebrew language had interchangeable vowels, the name of Dan can also be spelled Din, Den, Dun or Don. Dun? Brings in Dun kirk, kirk means church and so Dunkirk means the church of Dan. Don? Lon -don springs to mind, which is a shortened version of Baby lon-don, the Babylon of Dan. ScanDINavia, LonDON, SweDEN and DENmark are all marked by Dan. Like rabid beasts, the Vikings plundered, robbed and slaughtered on their reign of terror throughout the British Isles accumulating massive amounts of wealth. The Denmark people remember are called Danish or is it DAN-ish. What is also interesting is, the world's strangest country that remains they say under ice most of the year round, despite half the country being quite further south. In fact there is more green to the north of the island than there is to the south. Given the hostile takeovers of so many countries, how has a tiny country like Denmark never been challenged over the ownership of that landmass called Greenland? It is curious on a wider scale.

Next describes the takeover of the British Isles and the last remnants of Atlantis. Cnut or British Israel: By 1017 AD, the King of the Vikings, King Canute, was crowned King of England, Denmark, Norway and Sweden. King Canute was known as Knud in Denmark and Knut in Norway. Not the only time someone from that region was King of England in the past thousand years either, William of Orange was Dutch, or William of the House of Orange a more apt title. Something the Irish need to understand instead of blaming the British people. Irish annals and history describe this Tribe of Dan as the Tuatha de Danaan's, who in my opinion were reptilians. Ireland has a harp on its Coat of Arms associated with King David of Judah and Israel. England and Wales have a dragon on their flag. Cnut was a son of the Danish prince Sweyn Forkbeard, who was the son and heir to King Harald Bluetooth. What are the coincidences the same cult generates the name of technology a thousand years later, with the Bluetooth datamining and spying system. Knut was said to be exceptionally tall and strong, and the handsomest of men, all except for his nose, that was thin, high-set and rather hooked. The latter of which bears out the Jewish trait of the hooked nose, that I suspect is part of a previous genetic alteration with possibly the bird people, like Thoth and Set. Flags: The United States is symbolized by the eagle which symbolized the Hebrew Tribe of Dan. The U.S. flag imitates the 13 red and white stripes found on the sail of the Viking (Tribe of Dan) ships and also found on the British East India Company flag. The U.S. flag replaced the Union Jack (Union of Jacob) with sprinkled pentagrams. The British Empire's wealth was built on piracy, the black slave trade and opium (heroin) trafficking. Opium profits were sent to the Elector of Hesse via Mayer Amschel Rothschild to hire 16,800 Hessian troops to fight the American rebels. Drug traffic and the Rothschilds played a pivotal role in American history, but these facts have been deleted from the history books. Flag: The United Kingdom (of Israel) More than a thousand years after the Romans chased the Hebrew tribes out of 'Israel' (Canaan), the tribes reunited in a new land under a new flag called the "Union Jack". The Union Jack stands for the Union of Jacob (Jahuber) who is the patriarch of the Jews. The United Kingdom is the RE-UNITED Kingdom of the Hebrew tribes of Israel and their modern-day former monarch was Queen Elizabeth II. Gad (Goths), Dan (Danes), Naphtali (Norwegians) and Judah (Jutes) was symbolized by the lion. Or is it Jewish Utes hence the Mormon flavoring? It is now the emblem of today's British heraldry. The Viking days of the week: The English words for four of our days of the week are named for Viking gods or royal figures. Tuesday is named for the Viking god of war and justice, Tyr or Tiw, Tuesday being literally Tiw's day. Wednesday is named for Woden, the first great god-king of the Norse in ScanDINavia. Thursday is named for his son, Thor, and Friday after his wife and Queen, Frigg or Freyja. Sunday is named after the Egyptian sun god Ra. Monday or moon day is named after the Egyptian moon goddess ISIS. Saturday is named after the planet Saturn (Satan). The word Britain means land of the covenant, the word British means man of the covenant. A covenant is a promise and it is another binding like the biblical books or the Emerald Covenant, which was revealed in the Cosmic Genetics series. Why does an agreement have to have a binding? Where is the trust factor? Covenant, ignoring the word magic of coven and ant, the ant coven? is described in the Bible's Book of Genesis meaning the gene of ISIS. It is God's covenant with Abraham promising the land of Isis-Ra-El (ISRAEL) to the fake God's chosen race of people, the Hebrews. The British National Anthem: Anyone with an ounce of knowledge about British history, knows that the British Monarchs have beheaded, colonized, tortured and pillaged. They have built their wealth on drug and slave trafficking, the words gracious and noble do not apply. God save our gracious Queen, Long live our noble Queen, or was it nobility Queen? Long to reign over us; God save the Queen! Was the Queen just a public front for their real queen ISIS? Given the same red and white flag of the Viking's adorns in Switzerland, which means twins again, and Isis, and then they name a fake country with the same? ISisRA El. The question over god save is, what God? and who's God? Moloch, the god of War? Mammon, the god of Money? Israel's National Anthem: With eyes turned toward the East, looking toward Zion, the two-thousand-year-old hope, will not be lost: To be a free people in our (Palestinian) land, the land of Zion and Jerusalem. The British royal families are descendants of Israel's Tribe of Dan and Judah. Remember the so called British or B'rith(ish) family was German, Saxe, Coburg and Gotha and renamed the family during the Hebrew

WW1 destroying Russia and many other European countries. The families name was changed to the name of the house they resided in, Windsor. The last Queen didn't even marry a Brit, he, Phillip was Greek. All very Cleopatra and Rome based that. Their ultimate goal is to reclaim the land of Israel, rebuild Solomon's temple and erect an eternal world throne in Jerusalem under their chosen World King, Prince William. That is your one world government right there, and why they built the wall. Solomon's temple is the same as every other temple around the world, like Herod and Angkor Wat, they were sacrifice centers for the native inhabitants. Those in doubt need only verify the hymn called Jerusalem, that was featured at the gathering of the Hebrew royals at Westminster Abbey for Prince William's wedding-of-the-century. The Hymn describes the war that is being fought to reclaim and rebuild Jerusalem. And was Jerusalem builded here, among those dark satanic mills? Bring me my bow of burning gold! Bring me my arrows of desire! Bring me my spear! O clouds, unfold! Bring me my chariot of fire! I will not cease from mental fight, Nor shall my sword sleep in my hand, Till we have built Jerusalem, In England's green and pleasant land. Let's take a closer look at that song shall we, written after the takeover or major changes in the UK and Europe with the fake Houses, all of which were Jewish. From Merovingian, to Carolingian, Franks, Orange, Hesse and many others. Among the dark satanic mills, what a curious line or words that is, satanic mills. Why would the mills be satanic? The satanic is more obvious the connections to these entities via their various cults, but why mills? Mills are places that grind or pulverize something, remember the piece we did of the chimera-based horse headed beings in China, in a place called Boadingshan? Where vast carvings were made and still exist today, of these chimeras killing humans and then grinding them up using a mill, a grinding stone on a wheel. Where the satanic mills of the middle ages used in Britain and elsewhere to feed the gods, the so called mythological beings and others? Mill was also a name for US currency in the 1700's. Bring me my bow? Bow or bow? That double pronunciation again. Bow could signify the weapon, or bow could mean to bend or arch, as in bow down to the higher person or entity. But bow is also the front of a ship, is that a reference to a spacecraft? Sprit from bowsprit, English spreot pole, Dutch spriet spear; a diagonal spar. Spar also means to fight, to strike or thrust. Of burning gold, those underground smelting caves, that consumed the life force of many humans here. Who were forced underground to mine for these off-world usurpers. Bring me my arrows of desire, again pointing the weapon the bow, or is stating the arrows are the choice of weapon from the bow of the ship? Bring me my spear oh clouds unfold, bring me my chariot of fire. Again this can be looked upon as a spacecraft, as some of the old scriptures called the aerial craft chariots. A spear looks like a dart or cigar shaped, just like certain reptilian craft. Was that craft cloaked in the background of the clouds? Because why else would they say oh clouds unfold? Going back to the previous line and the reference to a bow, which means to bend, what are they bending? Is or was it time and space? I will not cease from mental fight, isn't that is what is playing out now and the past? The mental fight they will not cease. Why? because it is a war of the minds, which they me(a)nt to do, and yes that was a pun, the latin ment, or perhaps the word meant with an a in the middle says something when split in two, me-ant. Nor shall my sword sleep in my hand, signifying no fear or they had other weapons of more potent destruction. The bow and arrow, the spear and the sword were pretty much what they were fighting against with their hostile takeover of the planet. Hence the references to them older technologies, to make it sound like the native weapons they were using, when it reveals spacecraft in the sky that could cloak and more advanced weaponry. All with the task of taking over the remaining portion of Atlantis, Britain. Till we have built Jerusalem, In England's green and pleasant land. Perhaps the Vedas that was usurped by the Hindus culture, the Kali Ma and the worship of the destroyers of worlds, reveals more about the bow and arrow concept. Perhaps the song Jerusalem was taken from a verse of the Vedas? Let's see the comparison. Taking as a bow the great weapon of the Upanishad, one should put upon it an arrow sharpened by meditation. Stretching it with a thought directed to the essence of That, penetrate that imperishable as the mark, my friend. Om is the bow, the arrow is the Self, Brahman the mark, by the undistracted man is it to be penetrated. One should come to be in It, as the arrow becomes one with the mark.—Mundaka Upanishad 2.2.2 – 2.2.4. Does that make more sense now? Maybe, maybe not. But it sure raises questions, thinking and pondering of what their riddles and codes all reveals. I suspect that version is closer than some people would like to think, it is all too uncomfortable of a fact that, this world has been ran by off world entities. An increasingly obvious fact ascribed to by members of our group and world, yet all too reluctant to hear in their world. That begs the question given the genetic interference of the past, just how many of the world's population is Higher Universal Man, our version of human? Does that explain the increase of the global population, despite natural birth figures going down globally? Remember the line in Avatar 2? We came back in the form of our enemy. Perhaps the line in our show now makes more sense, there is no racism, only geneticism.

MYSTERY SECTION: Further evidence of volcanoes going off we reported a few months back. Scientists at the Volcano Observatory in Alaska have warned of an eruption in the coming days. The alert was prompted by a series of tremors beneath Tanaga Volcano earlier this week. Earthquake activity began to on March 9th, a few hours later, vibrations were recorded every three minutes. That was quickly followed by the El Salvador volcano going off as well. Like I said, no fear.

Yet another science piece has cropped up, the timing of which should not be lost on our listeners. But, theoretical physicists believe math shows the possibilities of a fourth dimension, but there's no actual evidence, yet. Yet? Well they can keep doing their JH math, not all space queries need to be dealt with by math, particularly math that has been corrupted by the off world. Albert Einstein believed space and time made up a fourth dimension. An example from a string theorist gives a view of what a fourth dimension could be. We move through three dimensions. Or do we? String theorists believe our world encompasses more than three dimensions. Without experiential evidence, the mathematical theory of space and time as a fourth dimension has remained just that since the days of Albert Einstein: a theory. But in a new video from Big Think, Brian Greene, a string theorist from Columbia University, offers up a relatively simple explanation of just what a fourth dimension could entail and where it could be. In the clip, Greene says that while math suggests a real possibility there may be more dimensions than the ones we directly experience, our minds have trouble comprehending just where they could be. Indeed, but the heart doesn't once you operate in it fully. Mind is and focuses on the effect, the heart is and gets to the cause. Already, we move through three dimensions left-right, back-forth, up-down, so how is there any room left? That's really the point, Greene says. Greene says; they are new places that our experience doesn't allow us to access directly, but according to these theoretical ideas, might be there. Greene offers up a garden hose as a good example of what the fourth dimension looks like. From far away, this garden hose may look one-dimensional to the naked eye. From a distance, we simply can't see the circular nature of the rubber. But if we use a pair of binoculars, Greene says, we can see the circular part, this example shows that dimensions can be big. They could be so big we see them with our eyes, or they could curl up and become tiny and more difficult to detect, as is the case with the garden hose. This idea might apply to space itself; Greene says. Maybe the left-right, back-forth, up-down dimensions are simply the big, easy dimensions for us to see. But just as the hose has a curled-up dimension, maybe space itself has curled up dimensions all around us, just curled up to such a fantastically small size we can't see them with our eyes, he says. We can't see them even with today's most powerful microscopes. A bit like the veil, until you a common-sense thinking process, apply it and then you "see." Already, we move through three dimensions left-right, back-forth, up-down, so how is there any room left? That's really the point, Greene says. But it is not is it? They are all directional, what about the mass or matter? what about through? What about manifest? What about de-materialize? In essence are we not the fourth dimensional aspect? That does the directional outputs? Ponder on that thinking.

What if for pondering only, Jeshewua 9 and Mary in 0ad where the real deal and returned as Radomir and Mary in 1000AD, will they return in the 2000's? The trigger for the Cosmic Genetics series was a 2002 video done by Ashayne, that I transcribed the whole video. Which caused me to replay it several times every few seconds to get the transcription down. I played a few pieces of it again as her voice sounded very familiar to me at times. Her voice and delivery sounded very like Kim's, and it intrigued me at the time, wondering whether they lived in a similar region and so would have a similar accent per se. Turned out to not be the case and so I forgot about it. But given the revelations ending piece last week, the Kim saying she was with Jesus or was Jesus in the past, I got pondering again and then remembered the similar voice patterns. Because if Kim was with or alongside Jesus, then Kim of today would have been with Ashayne of the past, as Ashayne said she was Miriam and the half-sister to Jesus or Jeshua 12. The plot thickens as they say, as both insist they were here 2k years ago and both linked to the entity known as Jesus. Both spoke of Solomon which was a Melchizedek line as well, both spoke of Marduk, Lyra, various dimensions Another question is; where they both in the programs together? And no I am not discounting all of Ashayne's work, only that it was delivered in a one way narrative on behalf of the Melchizedek line, which I don't believe was beneficial to us.

The land of Zion, which the Z and N reversable we are left with IO, or is it 10 and the decimal again, the technological based binary Matrix system again. Remember the ten golden triangles replacing the nine? Remember the tenth letter introduced 500 years ago not over 2000 years, was the letter J. Another fake letter and with so many of the famous names of the Bible beginning with J, the question remains why did they alter their names? John, Jacob, Job, Jeremiah, Jachin, James, Japheth, Jehovah, Jeshua, Jonah, Joseph and Judas, with at least 100 other unknown names beginning with J. Then we have the place names, ignoring there is two Bethlehem's, with Jordan, Jericho, Judah and Jerusalem. Then we come to the two famous names of Jesus and Julius, both around allegedly at 0AD, one described as the son of god, the other thought he was god. Finally the race name of Jew or Jewish, because that is not real either. How can the so called god's chosen ones change their names and alpha-beth to a fake letter? The IO in the middle of zion also brings up another moon, IO, a moon of Jupiter, that looks very planet like based on spacecraft pictures. Slightly larger than Earth's moon, Io is the fourth-largest moon in the Solar System, has the highest density of any moon, the strongest surface gravity of any moon, and the lowest amount of water by atomic ratio of any known astronomical object in the Solar System. It should also be noted that, Io is like our moon tidally locked as they call it, with Jupiter, which is related to Zeus. Which means only one side faces the planet, which means it is a satellite, just like ours. Slightly larger than our moon? Given our moon is oversized as well, perhaps Io was also a hollowed-out spacecraft. People will ask how they can get the rock to travel through space? A good question. But it is only the case of retro-fitting a propulsion system within the interior. Which is no different to the underground furnaces here, like Montauk was for one. The pyramids housed an energy device, a ship on the sea encases a furnace to make it move, well the retro fitting of rocks is the same principle on a bigger scale. Where did the energy come from? I would suspect all the mining of differing planets including this one, possibly creating cold fusion power. The other potential is, harnessing the power packs as I call it, or the inner suns of planets. A bit like a quasar star that condenses into a small ball of immense power and weight. If your technology is that advanced, these are methods of gaining sufficient power to operate these giant crafts. There is photographic evidence and a book about 26 mile length crafts orbiting the ring system of Saturn and harvesting the debris. So that reveals the advancements and the size of some of the crafts they are capable of building, most of which was achieved by slaves and replicator machine entities. Io has the strongest gravity of any moon? Is perhaps another clue. Another aspect of this involves a conversation I had with a leading Carnegie family member 8-9 years back, where he revealed many interesting details. One of which was to say, at some point soon we will fire up the Earth's engine and move Earth to the Sirius constellation. All of which is very revealing for this piece, but gives pointers and alignment to other shows we have done. Including the FHSTOS, as one of the early parts covered details about Sirius and the connection to here, heavily. Here is a ponder for you given the 3 moons 110K years ago back then were inhabited, as revealed by our book. What if Io is actually one of our moons that has been moved to accommodate the current space station, we call our moon? Io is not the original name adding further intrigue to it, as in the mid-1800s, the moon was renamed Io. In Greek mythology, Io was a priestess of Hera who was Zeus' wife and the daughter of Inachus, the king of Argos. Zeus the counterpart for the Roman god Jupiter fell in love with her, but turned her into a cow to avoid being caught with her by his wife, Hera or Juno. More of the anger management issues of these celebrated gods it seems. Disney we have highlighted as having and being run by these same Jewish/Hebrew entities. And many bad references has been brought up about the satanic and dark nature of that organization. The Disney parks themselves are a magical experience for young and old alike, it is the ultimate entertainment package for fantasy and illusion. All done in a wholesome public spirit, whilst hiding at times in plain sight, the seedy and sinister nature of it all. Disney of course is all about the children, figuratively and literally, but does it propose what we at THI have stated; that even the adults are children as well. But a popular movie song of Disney brings up Io as well in a pronunciation way, that could be determined as indicative. Given these off-worlders used mainly slaves to mine for them, is there references in one of the songs of slave miners, with a link to Io thrown in for good measure. Snow white and the seven dwarfs, I O, I O it's off to work we go, as the dwarfs head off into the mine. Given our height is a lot less than many of the off-worlders, is the reference to dwarves, us? Remember the dwarves were miners, and is likely a reference to the Emerald Tablets of how the Anunnaki came here to mine for gold, initially anyway. They used natives as slaves. The song Stargazer by Rainbow talks of the use of slaves to build the Tower of Babel.

An important time to quickly reflect upon where all of us are at. Recognize your own progress, how you have developed to then take that forward with you. Keep purging those cords, traumas and parts of you not serving you, holding onto them now or the future will not serve you. How have you loved, trusted, gave or taken, what is true value, will all raise their heads above the precipice in the coming months. Keep a close watch for targeting, observe it don't absorb it. Be aware of targeting by people or bots, it is all to take you off of your path. Watch out for energy vampirism, deflect it don't engage it. Stand in your own sovereignty and never allow anyone to manipulate, remove or push you from your path and choices in life. Tests in and of your life will be aplenty, as the army of bots will try everything to pull you back under their wings and the non-reality path. Family issues in particular, some are not and have not helped you on this journey, and will try anything and everything to get you to tow their line. That is their role and path, it is not yours. In overview they are the control system. In 2020 I said we would see, what we have seen is pretty much a confirm of all that has been revealed in THI shows, even the more controversial claims. Shielding and self-protection will be vital in this coming period, please don't neglect it. Messages in thoughts, dreams and songs will be important to you all, take note of them. Connecting with others in the group will be highly beneficial now and the future. Protecting and supporting each other essential as well. Where is this all leading to, many of you will ask. The return of the real version of you, so make it a good one. You are moving away from the reflection in the mirror, the copy of a copy and are finding the real version of you. Observe don't absorb is vitally important coming up, the observe aspect compared to the absorb aspect brings a new meme in for our group. Immersed becomes judgement, overview becomes truth. Dis -il - lusion - ment a common theme, Dis means wrong, ill means sick, lusion means a clear state, ment means mind, which means the condition of being disenchanted of the mind. Many have the feeling of being estranged these days, estranged from life, society, friends, family and loved ones, but the greatest estranged we all experienced, was being estranged from ourselves. The first words spoken were not those of one becoming estranged from this world, and already permitted to stray at times into realms foreign to the living. Charlotte Bronte said that, has more meaning now does it not? Many are now finding themselves again, and many are losing themselves, whether you have re-found yourself is your issue only, what people choose to do with their lives and their estranging is their remit only.

ENDING PIECE: Recognize the enormity of how far we have all come in this group, what has your role been in it, what will your role be in the near and far future? This coming week is an important one for us all at THI, as we launch into possibly the most important thing in our lives. Starting this coming the Tuesday 21st we will deliver Part 1 of the New blueprint for Humanity, using the same format in the practice run version we did in October last year. I will read out sections and then I will bring in members to read sections as well. This was suggested by me as a way of the blueprint being a collective idea and not just the show host. Many people collaborated on this project and it sends a message of unity amongst us all. I have repeatedly said two things throughout my time on these shows, never put anyone above your own heart and we are all equal. That aspect is important to me, I am just an ordinary guy wanting to see extraordinary changes upon and below this planet. We don't need a leader, we need leaders, people who will lead us onto better versions of ourselves and have the will and drive to change things for the betterment of the all. Next Thursday 23rd there will not be the normal show, as we will read out part 2 of the New blueprint for Humanity, which will then set the stage for the final parts not yet revealed in full within the shows. The parts 3 and 4 will be delivered Saturday 25th at noon MT to allow other parts of the world to tune in live. That show will be delivered by me, it will be an interesting show. Following that will be an open zoom call to discuss things, add ideas to the blueprint and people to step forward and help in any way possible. We will get resistance by the bots and the psychopaths at the top, I and we are ready to face that. The feedback in terms of the global news has been highly encouraging on many levels these past 5 months. The news as they call it is falling apart, in fact the four letters NEWS is a warning, Never Engage With Stupid, that is what the news brought to us, the stupid and stupidity that has never served us well. The acceleration of the collapse of the old world, systems and clowns has been quite prevalent since October. Their narrative and news organizations are failing at an increasing pace also. These were the markers I was looking for following our practice run in October, and all the boxes were ticked since. Now is the time, our time to stand up and be proud of what we have presented, and get it out as far and wide across the planet to let all the control system know, we have arrived. We are prepared to finally take responsibility for the mess we all created, and wish to rebuild not fix, all that is broken. A broken control system, a broken planet, broken eco-system, broken banking, broken food and supply, broken governments and so much more. But, the most important that requires rebuilding is us all, we were all broken as well. The lack of genuine love, care, sharing, being nice to each other, service to self only, has been the driver of the old world and system of control. A lack of trust between us all, allowed the system to deeply divide us on many levels, labels and boundaries. Understanding, heart and compassion must replace revenge, retribution and violence. Replace all the programs they gave to you and you consented to and with, and come up with better experiences, plans and ideas to fill that void. Replace all your fears with love, be loving, open your hearts in love not your minds with fear. Seize every opportunity to grow, love and develop in this key time, never be afraid to grow, love or develop, recognize your own value and power then embrace it. What happens next many of you will ask, wrong question and thinking, what will you do next is what is unfolding. What will you manifest? Are you a restaurant waiter or a doer, an achiever, a lover, a carer, a sharer and so much more. Is it an enormous task what we are taking on? Absolutely. The purpose of it is many fold, but the most important one is, it is the right thing to do. In a world of mistakes that stayed as mistakes because the lessons were never learned, we have an opportunity to reverse or 180 all of them in a defining way. A question has been repeated much to me recently, who are you? I am me and I am the tiny man, with big heart, big ideas, big goals and oodles of common sense. The final song is a message and a question for you all to ask yourselves.WHO ARE YOU?
