Web team update, March 2023 The web team and other THI members have been busy creating the new website for the new blueprint for humanity. There was an abundance of creativity, technical expertise, keen artistic eyes and ideas, sustained team working and of course a lot of heart work and desire to build a website worthy of our mission, and the solutions we created to make this world a better place. From feedback we have received and are receiving we can say that this mission has been accomplished. Heartfelt thank you's go out to all who contributed and made this possible, you all know who you are, there were no big or small contributions. Many contributed to the work because nobody on their own could have delivered the end result; it was a collective labor of love for the all, a 180 reversal of one of the aspects which were weaponized against us. A showcasing of how technology can be used for good and to spread love and solutions for the all. An important factor of success was the harmonious and cooperative way in which people from the project team engaged with each other; there was no my idea is better than your idea, no precious egos wanting to get their own way, but instead an open give and take of ideas and solutions. Realizations that we can find something better here, we can improve there, as well as people giving and being their best. With a humble realization of our worth and who we are, we can say that we made our new blueprint solutions proud. We hoped to also make a tiny proud, and for us to give something epic back and make it a milestone to remember. Indeed, you did and you paid it forward.

FHSTOS Book update: The translations are in progress, with the German two-thirds completed and the Bulgarian one-half completed. All versions of the Hebrew translation are expected to be complete within a week. Also, translators are starting work on the Blueprint, which editors and others have helped to proofread in preparation for publication. The books are available through THI-show.com and from Lulu.com.

Law Group update: Preparation is under way for the April 15 Intro to Law Series Part 12 - Fraud & Debt. Presented an overview of the True Rule of Law to the THI group in Farmington. It was a 3-hour presentation with lots of discussion and good questions. Everyone enjoyed the presentation; we got some good feedback from the group.

The School Curriculum group has taken a time-out while some of our members visited the village recently. With everyone safely back home we have resumed our work on a booklet for parents and teachers. It is geared toward the understanding that our children are adult souls in tiny bodies, and as such do not belong to anyone other than themselves. It is the job of parents to act as guardian and trustee, nurturing and protecting children while providing opportunities for them to grow, learn and develop in an organic, loving environment.

The Peoples Colors March 2023: The People's Colors is moving ahead by getting on the same page, in focusing on the causes of racial division and divide and conquer tactics, rather than the effects. It is very easy to get caught up in the click bait of current events depicting racial disparity and discrimination. We recognize that allowing our energy and ire to flow in that direction is serving the very forces we are exposing. This recognition gives us a powerful redirect. The trick of look over here, while the hidden hand is busy performing slick skullduggery is becoming more and more obvious. We see clearly the crafty hijacking of our incredible creative energy, being used against us. We say, no more to that wrong thinking. We are now working on creating our own music to emphasize unity in the races, with an emphasis on our marvelous New Blueprint for Humanity. We are also exploring a twitter account expressly for The Peoples Colors, that directs folks to our New Blueprint for Humanity website.

In March; The Gardening and Non-GMO Food Communal Gathering shared success stories about seedlings. Spring is the most important time for gardeners and farmers, it is planting time. The harder we work now, the more we harvest in the fall. It was suggested that the people in the village may benefit from sharing the cost and work to make garden boxes, one for each house. The cost of garden boxes could be reduced if the materials were bought in bulk and constructed by people in the village. A load of garden soil could be brought in from a local farm or garden center and shared out to fill each garden box. That would give the village members who want to learn, the opportunity to experiment with growing some of their own food. The importance of community composting in the village to start the process of amending the soil was discussed. We discovered that the New Mexico Compost Coalition is launching a statewide Community Composting Pilot with a grand opening on Saturday April 8th at an Agri-Nature Center, that is a three-hour drive from Farmington. This could be an excellent learning opportunity and a place to make connections with local growers. Details have been posted in the Gardening Forum Under the Topic Community Composting, New Mexico Resources. There is also a suggested idea for a TPC co-operative business providing community composting services. The Gardening Communal Gathering continue to meet by zoom every Saturday Morning at 9:00 am MST or 11:00 am EST The link can be found in the TPC Gardening and Non-GMO Food Communal Gathering under the Zooms Topic.

The media team are pleased to announce the launch of the Twitter Page for the THI-Show. mobile.twitter.com/THI_SHOW_COM We would love to see you interact with us there, and share it on with parties that you know. The Blueprint launch has been exciting for the team, preparing the memes and the videos and we plan to keep sharing and spreading the message for all to see. Telegram is growing weekly and we thank everyone for interacting and sharing the channel. We have many other projects that we are working on and our team is starting to grow, and we are enjoying working together co-operatively and with good intentions. We would love to hear from anyone with knowledge of social media or creating memes and videos, they can contact the media team or the TPC.

A Communal Gathering for the Blueprint is being set up, and I would like some discourse with the other Communal Gatherings as to how that can be best operated. Should we assemble teams doing specific tasks in the Blueprint CG? For example, media, posting or deliver, research, database of who was sent the document? Should they join forces with the Positive Action group or keep separate? Committees to discuss who to send the documents to, either a full printed document or a pdf; how to deliver? Can we post or have someone hand deliver? Reports to be made bi-weekly to go into the show, list of who was sent documents, any feedback or contacts made? Asking for peoples input on it.

NEWS: As Paris burns this message came in this morning. The workers and or protestors have now invaded the Black Rock headquarters in Paris. Oh my, seems they have worked out who the financial problem is. Tick tock on banks, they all need to go down so we can build new ones. Once again I will stress to protestors, no violence or destroying property please.

This is more evidence the clowns are starting to panic over their mocking bird media failing. They do surveys to see how far certain programs are going, this one isn't. They did a survey among 92,000 news consumers surveyed in 46 countries, a report released by Gallup and the Knight Foundation on Wednesday found the United States ranks dead last in media trust at just 29%. A worrying concern for them, as it proves their lies and distortions are not working anymore. For us who have suffered their tirade more than the masses, it is a happy and revealing time. As for the 29%, one would suggest they have had some sort of lobotomy, elderly or MK Ultra'd.

Another attack upon the world's largest harvesters, the Federal Reserve and their fiat dollar program. China and Brazil have reached a deal to trade in their own currencies, ditching the US dollar as an intermediary, the Brazilian government said on Wednesday, Beijing's latest salvo against the almighty greenback. The deal will enable China, the top rival to US economic hegemony, and Brazil the biggest economy in Latin America, to conduct their massive trade and financial transactions directly, exchanging yuan for reais and vice versa instead of going through the dollar. The expectation is that this will reduce costs and promote even greater bilateral trade and facilitate investment, the Brazilian Trade and Investment Promotion Agency (ApexBrasil) said in a statement. Which hopefully as stated in our blueprint, will lead to direct trade deals that does not involve weaponry or compromise the security or sovereignty of a country. China is Brazil's biggest trading partner, with a record US$150.5 billion ($200 billion) in bilateral trade last year. The deal, which follows a preliminary agreement in January, was announced after a high-level China-Brazil business forum in Beijing. Brazilian President Luiz Inacio Lula da Silva was originally scheduled to attend the forum as part of a high-profile China visit, but had to postpone his trip indefinitely on Sunday after he came down with pneumonia. This is the same President who threatened that poor families who don't vaccinate their children will not receive financial aid. The Industrial and Commercial Bank of China and Bank of Communications BBM will execute the transactions, officials said. China has similar currency deals with Russia, Pakistan and several other countries. Seems the rest of the world has no had enough of the financial destruction imposed upon all countries. This does not augur well for the US or U.S. in its current format, and why the blueprint has to be implemented to change direction and avoid a catastrophic country meltdown.

US President Joe Biden has announced an additional $690 million in spending on what he described as efforts to support democracy around the world, as well as plans to secure a further $9.5 billion from Congress for the same purpose. Much of the money will go through a new bureau to be created within the US Agency for International Development, he said on Wednesday. The agency operates under the Department of State and is ostensibly responsible for humanitarian aid programs. What that really means is, they are adding a new expense for the American public, a select group of psychopaths out of the individual departments that already exists, all to mask what they are up to. Why? because it seems people from within their corrupt departments are starting to figure out and question what they are doing. In a fact sheet accompanying the announcement, Washington described several areas in which it says American taxpayers' money will help strengthen democracy abroad. The list of causes includes supporting free and independent media (M), that is hilarious given what type of media we have here. Essentially, he is saying all media should be run by the 5 eyes clowns, all of which is lies and pro pagan da. Strengthening information integrity, does Biden and his ilk know the meaning of integrity? This next one is classic irony, fighting corruption by having the US Treasury unmask shell companies (M). That is the second mention of mask by the mask man, is that revealing? The other irony is, the current US Treasury is a shell company, will they unmask themselves? Will they unmask the CIA contractors? Banks? Mining companies? Silicon Valley shell companies? And the many others. Bolstering human rights and democratic reformers, that should start at home Mr.Biden. It ended with another classic irony, and defending free and fair elections (M). To be fair, all of what he said is valid, if A: it applies to America only and B: if administered correctly is some of our proposal from the Blueprint. But, will it be administered correctly on behalf of the people or just more clown theater and financial harvesting of the American people and the country?

Finally people are talking now about the military budget, except it is not a budget, it is an outright theft of the people's money. This is another of the internal effects of the blueprint I spoke of last week. Most of the money the US Congress has designated for aiding the government in Kiev has actually gone to the military-industrial complex, the chairman of the House Foreign Affairs Committee admitted during an oversight hearing on Wednesday. Of the $113 billion appropriated, across four supplementals, approximately 60% is going to American troops, American workers and on modernizing American stockpiles, said Representative Michael McCaul, a Texas Republican. If 60% is going to American troops, then what is the $979B budget being spent on? In fact, only 20% of the funding is going directly to the Ukrainian government, in the form of direct budgetary assistance. Does anyone ask why the American people have to fund the Ukrainian government? McCaul is a staunch supporter of arming Ukraine, which means he is part of the problem and has been brainwashed with pro pagan da. He insisted that his oversight of the aid is not intended to undermine or question the importance of support for Kiev, but to let American taxpayers know how their money was being spent. He should have done that with our own Military budget then. The witnesses at the hearing on oversight, transparency, and accountability of Ukraine assistance, included the acting or permanent inspectors-general at the Pentagon, the State Department and the US Agency for International Development (USAID). Over a trillion a year spent on war and corruption, of which the American people get zero benefit from it. Most of which is spent on programs borne out of fear. Spying and espionage is fear, war is fear, worrying about other countries is fear, all ably supported by the main drivers of the fear, the MSM. Fear is for children, not adults.

A CDC team falls sick probing Ohio train derailment recently. Authorities say seven US health investigators fell ill while probing the impact of the 3 February train derailment in East Palestine, Ohio. According to the CDC, the investigator's symptoms included nausea and headaches and locals in East Palestine have reported similar illnesses. The train was carrying vinyl chloride and other potentially hazardous substances. The CDC investigators formed part of a team that was conducting house-to-house interviews in the area of the derailment last month, according to authorities. They immediately reported their symptoms to federal authorities after they fell ill. So, the very organization who has threatened all American's with their mandates and fear based pro pagan da, don't even send their own staff out with safety requirements? Like masks? Oh the irony of that.

More evidence of the harvesting of the wealthy, we warned of in Clowns in Panic show? British billionaire Sir Richard Branson's rocket company Virgin Orbit has filed for bankruptcy in the US after failing to secure new investment. The satellite launch company halted operations weeks ago but it hopes to find a buyer for the business. The company, based in California, announced last week that it would cut 85% of its 750-strong workforce. Earlier this year, a Virgin Orbit rocket failed to complete its first-ever satellite launch from UK soil. Virgin Orbit was founded in 2017 and is a spin-off from Sir Richard's space tourism company Virgin Galactic. It launches rockets from beneath modified Boeing 747 planes to send satellites into space. One has to ask is this a spin off from the Epstein story and his company is being wound down because of it. Branson owns the island right next to Epstein's called Necker island. It was a host to similar types of Epstein parties as well.

Slowly but surely now more of the alt media narrative is pervading the MSM. This will continue and increase over time, but what is also appearing is people fighting back against the programs being ran on us, as these next 3 pieces reveals. CBS News correspondent Lesley Stahl was almost speechless after Rep. Marjorie Taylor Greene compared President Joe Biden and Democrats with pedophiles, during the controversial 60 Minutes interview that aired on Sunday. It wasn't a comparison, it was a statement. The network's flagship news magazine took heavy fire over the weekend for interviewing the extremely controversial Republican congresswoman. Controversial in their world means talking truth. Chief among criticisms was that this was platforming and normalizing Greene's so-called extremism. It is only extreme now due to it only being covered in the blocked Go ogle algorithms systems. One example of the commentary described by such critics was when, almost exactly a year ago, Greene called Democrats the party of pedophiles in a Real America's Voice interview. Stahl brought that up in Sunday's interview. The Democrats are a party of pedophiles, she prompted. I would definitely say so, Greene replied, they support grooming children. Stahl objected, saying they are not pedophiles, why would you say that? Democrats even Joe Biden, supports children being sexualized and having transgender surgeries, said Greene. Sexualizing children is what pedophiles do to children. Stahl was quiet a moment before whispering, wow and added, okay. Stahl then asked if such attacks and name-calling are necessary to fight for what you believe in. Greene said she'd ask the same question of the other side. All they've done is call me names and insult me non-stop since I've been here, said Greene. The first moment from the interview shown on Sunday's show was Stahl reading some of those insults and names aloud to Greene. Two points from this is; Stahl who is born to maybe setting up politicians for the fall courtesy of her paymasters and secondly Greene has to provide evidence to back up statements. Should could have cited several examples to forward the case, but we were left with soundbites and statements that can be dismissed as the rantings of a lunatic. Provide the proof, there is plenty around. Greene it seems, like Boebert is the sacrificial lamb to be declared a lunatic by the media. The question is; is she playing an acting role? Or actually cares about exposing the criminals?

Two other stories that are revealing the continued denigration of our children in schools, but the people are fighting back against it. Pennsylvania school district faces a lawsuit from the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) for allegedly prohibiting an after-school Satan Club initially approved by school officials. The lawsuit, filed Thursday, alleges the Saucon Valley School District originally approved the club, citing that they could not discriminate against The Satanic Temple (TST), which sponsors the ASSC, for requesting access to district facilities. The district later rescinded the access after uproar from others, alleging the club sponsor had violated a policy requiring that outside groups' school facility use, should not interfere with the educational program of the schools. The ACLU of Pennsylvania claims the walk back violates the First Amendment's Free Speech Clause. The ACLU appears to be a driver of programs like the other society manipulator said to be for our benefit but it isn't, the Southern Law Poverty group. They just appear to be agitators of the system, as there are many things they do not address. Isn't it funny that they can protect Satanism under the first amendment rights, but not people right to choose to have a vaccine or wear a mask? The right to choose whether to lockdown or not, the freedom to travel shop and work, where were these people then?

Meanwhile in woke land North Carolina, a community college is looking to revise its campus policies, after coming under fire last week for a video, showing a drag queen straddling a female student sitting in a chair during an LGBTQ+ pride event on campus. What has straddling and pole dancing got to do with promoting LGBTQ? Parents must stop being frightened to call this behavior and programs out. Who cares whether you are called a racist, anti-Semite or homophobic? They are meddling with your child's wellbeing. This is what the political correctness brought us, a fear to speak out against wrong behaviors. Thankfully that is beginning to be challenged and their programs exposed.

Finally more evidence of common sense prevailing in relation to political correctness, which has been a blight upon all of our lives since the 1990's. This is what political correctness has brought us to. Political correctness must no longer prevent the police from using the ethnicity of suspects to identify grooming gangs, UK Premier Rishi Sunak will say on Monday. Asian grooming gangs will no longer be allowed to evade justice because of cultural sensitivity, a government spokesperson said ahead of the unveiling of a package of measures designed to crack down on organized networks of abusers. The Prime Minister will order police forces to improve the recording and analysis of ethnicity data, including sharing information throughout the country, in an attempt to prevent perpetrators of abuse from falling through the net. Ministers are understood to be concerned that currently, gangs are not being identified because police are afraid of drawing links between suspects of the same ethnicity, for fear of being accused of racism or bigotry. Police have been required to collect data on the ethnicity of those in child grooming gangs since last April, but the government is concerned that the information is not being used effectively enough to identify patterns and lead investigators to other perpetrators. Grooming will also be made an aggravated crime as part of the new measures, meaning those found guilty face longer in jail. Mr. Sunak will launch a new Grooming Gangs Taskforce on Monday morning and will visit survivors of abuse in Leeds and Greater Manchester. He said ahead of the visit: The safety of women and girls is paramount. For too long, political correctness has stopped us from weeding out vile criminals who prey on children and young women. We will stop at nothing to stamp out these dangerous gangs. Good stuff, the question is; why has it taken 30 years to recognize the problem? It comes after the Independent Inquiry into Child Sexual Abuse warned in October that, victims and survivors suggested that professionals feared allegations of racism and that this was prioritized over their safety. The inquiry found that despite the scandals of grooming gangs in Rotherham and Rochdale, the problem had not been tackled. Home Secretary Suella Braverman accused Labour councilors of failing to act against child sexual abuse by gangs of British Pakistani men because of fears of being called racist. Sir Keir Starmer, the Labour leader, was Director of Public Prosecutions, during a period when grooming gangs escaped justice in Rotherham. Starmer is Jewish is why, Talmudic law applies again. He has admitted that the CPS failed grooming victims, and told the Commons eight years ago that he had concerns when he led the service that there was a reluctance to take grooming gangs to court. Despite the unpleasant nature of the crimes, it is a positive to now see not only the crimes being dealt with, but the blocker for arrests caused by jackass civil servants bringing in political correctness. All of which as we have seen, has encouraged increased crime rates and made our streets far less safe.

MEDICAL NEWS: More evidence of the damage of vaccines is now coming forward, and it is important with our shows to document them. It then shows the progression, which will be helpful to new listeners when we implement an archive for all the shows. The rate of myocarditis spiked 130% in the U.S. military in 2021, newly disclosed data has shown. Diagnoses of myocarditis, a form of heart inflammation, jumped 130.5% in 2021 when compared to the average from the years 2016 to 2020, according to data from the Defense Medical Epidemiology Database. The data was downloaded by a whistleblower and presented to Sen. Ron Johnson (R-Wis.). Which shows some politicians are now up to exposing what is going on, this augurs well for the blueprint. Myocarditis is a serious condition that can lead to death. All four of the Covid-19 vaccines authorized in the United States can cause myocarditis, according to U.S. officials. They added a warning for Johnson & Johnson's shot this month. Covid-19 can also cause myocarditis, though some experts say the data on that front are weaker. Well, we can ignore their experts opinions, as all of them were wrong. The whistleblower downloaded the data from DMED in 2023, about a year after the Pentagon said it fixed a data corruption issue with the military health system. The data also showed spikes in diagnoses of pulmonary embolism (41.2%), ovarian dysfunction (38.2%), and complications and ill-defined descriptions of heart disease (37.7%). Senator Johnson called the spike in diagnoses concerning. Better late than never, but perhaps they should heed warnings from whistleblowers and Alt Media more in the future. The Pentagon and the Defense Health Agency, which manages the DMED, did not respond to requests for comment. Pentagon has shown to not give a shit about the soldiers for far too long, collateral damage they are called. The Pentagon must be made accountable everything in the future.

A warning about the medical clowns and their greed based shekel makers again. Until every research center is closed, fully assessed then revamped for the people's benefit only, these harbingers of evil will continue. Some of the world's leading makers of flu vaccines say; they could make hundreds of millions of bird flu shots for humans within months, if a new strain of avian influenza ever jumps across the species divide. All of which means it is in the planning again. Remember the created in a lab virus called H1N1? It appears it has jumped four strains since then. One current outbreak of avian flu known as H5N1 clade 2.3.4.4b, has killed a record number of birds and infected mammals. Human cases, however, remain very rare, and global health officials have said the risk of transmission between humans is still low. Executives at three vaccine manufacturers GSK, Moderna and CSL Seqirus, owned by CSL said; they are already developing or about to test sample human vaccines that better match the circulating subtype, as a precautionary measure against a future pandemic. Others, like Sanofi, said they stand ready to begin production if needed, with existing H5N1 vaccine strains in stock. All about the shekels you see, zero to do with our health. There has also been a push among companies to develop a bird flu vaccine for poultry, a market potentially far larger than that for humans. Which means they wish to meddle with our food some more, utter psychopaths that needs to be closed down immediately. Avian flu was first diagnosed in their world, invented against humans in our world in 1878. No wonder they call it quack medicine with all these bird-based strains, all very Thoth and Setian that to me. The bird flu or flew, bye bye Bennu bird, bye bye phoenix rising out of the ashes also. The people provided our own type of vaccines to prevent it, it's called collective consciousness.

SOCIETY NEWS: Another damaging report of the deep division of people, the disconnection largely based on a lack of trust of the self and each other. Daniel de Visé, a writer for The Hill, recently discussed the United States' crisis of masculinity. More than 60 percent of young men are single, he noted, which is nearly twice the rate of unattached young women. This gap, he warned, signals a larger breakdown in the social, romantic and sexual life of the American male. Males make up 49% of the population but 80% of suicides, according to the CDC. In the U.S., every 13.7 minutes, a man takes his own life. Young men are four times more likely than young women to commit suicide. What can be done? Maybe more men should seek psychological help? But the problem with that is, men are told from a young age to toughen up and seeking so called expert help is not very manly. The same applies with grief, emotionality and sickness, men are told to suck it up at a young age and never speak about it for fear of being called a wimp or girly. This is a deep lying social problem, that impacts the all not just men. Men are expected to suffer in silence, unable to open their throat chakras and speak out and no one to turn to, hence the high suicide rates. Sadly, however, psychology is ill-equipped to address the country's masculinity crisis. That's because, in recent times, it has become increasingly popular to ignore evolutionary psychology, shun masculinity and reject sex differences entirely. Which is another program on top of a program, all leading to an ultimate breakdown of society. If in doubt of that statement, let's look in the direction of the American Psychological Association (APA). The APA Commission on Accreditation (APA-CoA) is the primary programmatic accreditor for professional education and training in psychology. In other words, when it comes to psychological theories and treatments, the APA calls the shots, that's bad news. Because the APA now insists that, no major psychological differences between men and women exist. But they do. Sex differences in brain anatomy exists, plus the male brain is 10 percent larger. Although that doesn't always transfer into being 10% smarter, sadly. On average, males and females show greater volume in different areas of the brain. These anatomical differences are largely explained by effects of sex hormones on cortex development. Neuroimaging studies clearly demonstrate that men and women experience certain emotions, like happiness and sadness, very differently. Females are more likely to suffer from depression, a mental health condition, than males, while males are more likely to struggle with autism spectrum disorder, a neurodevelopmental condition, than females. And when it comes to the darkside of human behavior, a female psychopath looks very different to a male psychopath. Profound sex differences in mate preferences and aggression also exist, and so to reject evolved psychological sex differences is, to reject reality. Jerome Barkow, a Canadian anthropologist who has dedicated years of his professional life to the study of evolution and human nature, believes evolutionary psychology is under attack for a number of reasons. One of these, he said, involves timing. The rise of evolutionary psychology, coincided with the growth of an articulate and generally respected feminism which mistook evolutionist's talk of a human nature, as meaning that they were claiming that sexist behaviors in men and maternal behavior in women were hard-wired and immutable. Because of this, a backlash was inevitable. Of course it was, that was why it was created. William C. Sanderson, a psychology professor at Hofstra University, believes that evolutionary psychology provides the strongest explanation for the ultimate causes of increases in mental (e.g., depression) and physical health (e.g., obesity, diabetes) problems in the U.S. Why? It is something referred to as Mismatch Theory. The basic idea is that our modern environment deviates from the environment our brain (and body) evolved in. As a result, added Sanderson, who regularly writes about evolutionary psychology for Psychology Today, it causes all types of problems. For example, we evolved in a food scarce environment, and as a result, we are programmed to overeat. The mismatch occurs in the modern environment, we have a food scarce programmed brain yet an abundance of food. That is because we the people keep repeating their divisive and fear-based program is why, a simple observe don't absorb solves those issues. Today, we appear to have a mismatch in psychology: a mismatch between the problems being experienced by males and the solutions being offered by the APA. Although the APA has refrained from using the word toxic to describe masculinity, the association now considers traditionally masculine characteristics to be psychologically harmful. Seriously do these people listen to themselves? Masculinity is toxic and characteristics harmful, you would think by their thinking all things male are wrong. These acronym-based puppet clown need to get a life and a proper job, instead of disseminating pro pagan da in favor of androgynous drones. Stoicism and competitiveness, two qualities that were, up until very recently, championed by both men and women are now considered dangerous. Last year, Christopher J. Ferguson, one of the country's leading psychologists, accused the APA of waging war on men and boys. The APA may or may not be waging war, but it's certainly not helping the men and boys of America. Thanks to the APA, psychology finds itself in the business of rejecting evidence. How can such willful ignorance help the country's men? It doesn't and won't. Psychology isn't just struggling with a replication crisis; it's struggling with a crisis of reputation. To make matters many times worse, the current batch of therapists being educated are being fed APA-approved narratives that will do little, if anything, to help address the current crisis of masculinity or any psychological problem for that matter. They are not psychologists, they are psycho the rapists, robbing people of money, intelligence and energy with their clown driven programs. Psychology does not come out of a book, it requires observation skills, intuitive skills and a degree of empathy, something it seems most of them lack, given their limited understanding of issues the people face.

Here is a piece the deep thinkers of THI will delve into or may have already pondered on to some extent. Given the deep injection into the collective narrative in the past three years about DNA and it's links to Covid, this brings up deeper and more meaningful connections and a warning of protecting your field and vessel. A scientific test has been carried out in Russia that for us can bring benefits in terms of deeper understanding. Russian scientists reprogram Human DNA using words and frequencies: Which can be beneficial and also nefarious depending on who is carrying it out. DNA science has finally explained previously mysterious phenomena such as clairvoyance, intuition, hands-free healing, supernatural light and auras and more. The discoveries are to the credit of Russian researchers, who ventured into DNA territory that Western researchers have failed to consider. Western scientists have limited their studies to the 10% of our DNA responsible for building proteins. That means they have dismissed the other 90% of DNA as junk. Junk? (M) you and they have no idea, the universes greatest joke that is. In contrast, an innovative Russian team, led by biophysicist and molecular biologist Pjotr Garjajev, refused to accept that such a huge majority of DNA could hold no research value. To probe the mysteries of this uncharted terrain, they paired linguists with geneticists in an unconventional study to test impact of vibration and language on human DNA. What they found was completely unexpected, our DNA stores data like a computer's memory system. Not only that, but our genetic code uses grammar rules and syntax in a way that closely mirrors human language. This of course is known by the dark forces but not so much by those they use it against. This brings in the word magic, phonetics of the word and even the structure of it. We at THI have done much to decode their word magic and how it plays and indeed plagues into our daily lives. Probably the biggest impact that came from the word magic is to pray, when actually you are being preyed upon. They also found that even the structuring of DNA-alkaline pairs follows a regular grammar and has set rules. It appears that all human languages are simply verbalizations of our DNA. Changing DNA With Spoken Words and Phrases: The most astounding of all, the team discovered that living human DNA can be changed and rearranged with spoken words and phrases. The key to changing DNA with words and phrases is in using the right frequency. Through the application of modulated radio and light frequencies, the Russians were able to influence cellular metabolism and even remedy genetic defects. The team achieved incredible results using vibration and language. For instance, they successfully transmitted information patterns from one set of DNA to another. Eventually, they were even able to reprogram cells to another genome, they transformed frog embryos into salamander embryos without lifting a single scalpel or making one incision. This is what I have been talking about in many of our shows, it is all about raising our frequency. Both in terms of our general wellbeing, but also to counteract the dark forces. Just that simple inner step is fighting against the dark forces and winning. They need everyone low vibration for their word magic to work and then to harvest our energy from it. The spoken word also plays into Dr.Emoto's work with water, and the vast difference in the structure of water just by writing two separate words on a frosted glass, love and hate. Given we are made up of around $\frac{3}{4}$ water, can you imagine what effects we are having upon ourselves by denigrating ourselves, running little me and limitation programs upon ourselves? Those thought processes are making us sick and or lowering our vibration. Our lack of self-love and appreciation is the greatest damage of all, that we have done to ourselves. This is why the dark forces have never had to appear or do much visibly, we do so much damage to ourselves, that they can hide in the shadows and just wait for us to ultimately destroy ourselves and each other. The Russians' work provides scientific proof of why affirmations and hypnosis have such powerful effects on human beings. In reality we didn't need an external hypnotizer, we often have hypnotized ourselves with illusions. Our DNA is inherently programmed to respond to language, esoteric and spiritual teachers have known this for ages. All forms of affirmations and thought power derive in part from this underlying principle. The power of thought is how we change the world back into something resembling civil. Individuals whose consciousness is more highly developed will have less need for any type of device, for example to apply radio or light frequencies. Scholars of this science believe that with consciousness, people can achieve results using only their own words and thoughts. A big thinking and pondering piece that one line, people can achieve results using only their own words and thoughts. But it also will bring regrets of how your life could have been with a simple 180 of thoughts. Accepting poor jobs, living conditions and relationships, all because the fear of change kicked in and you accepted your present unhappiness. Don't focus on the past or the regrets, focus on the now and how you can change things for the better in the future. DNA and Intuition: How hyper-communication works and why humans may now be able to reclaim it. The Russian scientists also found a DNA basis for the phenomenon of intuition or hyper-communication. Hyper-communication is the term used to describe situations when someone suddenly accesses information outside his or her personal knowledge base. This is what I call the library, a vast database of knowledge to be accessed when you develop yourself sufficiently. How much you access the library is determined upon your own development. At certain levels of development, the information, answers and the right questions for the answers then come to you, when you are ready. This saves vast quantities of time researching, it is all in the word, you are researching for something already accessible. In our times, this has become increasingly rare. That's most likely because the top three factors that prevent hyper-communication, stress, anxiety and a hyperactive brain have become so prevalent. Add distractions and over use of the mind and less operating in the heart to that list. For some creatures, like ants, hyper-communication is woven into daily existence. Did you know that when a queen ant is physically removed from her colony, her subjects continue to work and build according to plan? If she's killed, however, the ants become aimless and all work instantly halts. Apparently, as long as the queen ant is alive, she can access the group consciousness of her colony through hyper-communication. This is why the dark forces try everything to stop us engaging in this way, it would end all of their games. Now that the Russians are untangling the biological underpinnings of hyper communication, humans may be able to regain full use of this skill. We are untangling that ourselves, all it takes is some effort on everyone's part, a strong belief and trust of the self and the door opens for those wishing to walk through it. Is it radically different to normal life? You bet it is, then it is all about processing it, integrating it and embracing the new you. It is a new you entirely and takes a bit of getting used to. What the scientists found is that our DNA can produce magnetized wormholes. These magnetized wormholes are miniature versions of bridges that form near burned-out stars called Einstein-Rosen bridges. Einstein-Rosen bridges connect different areas of the universe, and allow the transmission of information outside of space and time. If we were able to consciously activate and control such connections, we could use our DNA to transmit and receive information from the universe's data network. We could also contact other participants in the network. All of which sounds like to me, somebody saying just open the blady portal, I digress. Portals are within as well as without, your own portal must be protected, whilst open and flowing. All in alignment with the chakras, they must be free and clear and not hampered by kundalini nonsense. The findings of Russian DNA science and research are so groundbreaking that they do truly sound incredible. Yet, we already have isolated examples of individuals who have mastered the necessary techniques, at least on some level. Those who have succeeded with remote healing and telepathy are examples to consider. According to many with an active interest in the Russian DNA research, these findings reflect the major changes occurring with our Earth, sun, and galaxy. These changes are affecting human DNA and elevating consciousness in ways we may not fully understand until well into the future. I disagree, we are finding out and using them now, hence the rise in the collective consciousness we have mentioned many times recently. Is it a coincidence this article is coming out now? No chance, it fits too neatly into what is currently playing out globally. Some on a recent zoom call might remember me repeating something a few times, there was a reason behind it. We are a work in progress, we are a work in progress, we are a work in progress and developing quite nicely I might add. The Russian research also helps explain why these esoteric techniques are not equally successful for all who use them. Since clear communication with DNA requires the correct frequency, individuals with more highly developed inner processes will be more able to create a conscious channel of communication with the DNA. This plays into your skill sets that you acquire when you develop the self-sufficiently and exhibit personal responsibility with them. It can play into cell regeneration within the body if you are highly developed enough. Imagine regenerating the old cells and not only looking younger, but feeling younger and healthier as well. The savings costs over a life time are enormous, no more pharmaceutical drugs, fake supplements and vitamins etc. No more wondering whether the food is organic or not, most of it isn't. Supplements, vitamins and organic are three programs designed to get you to spend more, based upon fears. All of which was created by the companies selling those products. Look in the mirror and say to the copy of the copy, you raise me up.

EXPOSE: The expose tonight is a bit different, it is in two parts but both reveal the nature of the problems. The connection is, they are both ex-Presidents of USA Inc, both worked for others, both were involved in underhandedness, both have egos off the charts and both duped the people into believing they were working for them. The whole narrative surrounding Barack Hussein Obama has been touched on by many, including Trump. Yet like most things delving into the clown puppets, it seems to go nowhere and all is forgotten. A bit like Hillary and Bill Clinton, their death trails, the pizza parties, adrenochrome all buried by a plethora of Trump and Q based rhetoric. We need Columbo to return, with a plot line of find the missing Q. First point of call would be Langley Virginia, just saying. But here is a new name to most, that of Renee L. Abena Obama. The most shocking discovery about Barack Hussein Obama was hidden within a David Obama's relatives list, that casts a very dark occultic shadow on Barack Hussein Obama. The name Renee Abena Obama appeared on the relative list, but who is Renee Abena Obama? Actually, the proper question is, who was Renee L. Abena Obama? An exhaustive search revealed the birth of a baby girl named Renee L. Abena Obama on October 31, 2004. The infant died less than two months later on December 25, 2004. Young infants frequently die from congenital complications, though the death was not reported by any hospital in the State of Maryland, but by a funeral home indicated by the SSDI code 72, SSDI is Social Security Death Index. Barack Hussein Obama biographies do not report the death of an infant in 2004, yet here was a baby girl who bore his last name and the initial of his grandmothers middle name Madelyn "Lee" Dunham. A search of the Social Security Death Index produced no results, though a genealogical index at WorldVitalRecords.com produced a Social Security number: 215-71-0752. Entering the number directly into a search revealed its owner: Name: Renee L Abena Obama, Birth Date: 31 October 2004 and Death Date: 25 December 2004. Issuing State: Maryland and SSN: 215-71-0752. Born on Hallows Eve and the worship night of the dark occult of bringing in the demons, died on another dark occult day, known by the ignorant as Christmas day, to everyone else it is Saturnalia day. The worship of demons and the worship of Satan and or Lucifer, coincidence? Probably not, but it doesn't end there. As a subsequent review of birth and death dates of the Dunham family revealed a startling coincidence. Ralph Waldo Emerson Dunham, Barack Hussein Obama's maternal great-grandfather was born on December 25, 1894 exactly 110 years before Renee's death. Renee was born under strange circumstances, her death at age two months was strangely reported with almost no details memorialized in the public record. Therefore, we have the authority to speculate on the significance of Baby Renee L. Abena Obama's short life. The Illuminati has a penchant for Satanic rituals with numerological significance. The 110-year time period represents the number 11, a powerfully mystical number symbolizing one greater than God. In short, Dunham's birth December 25, 1894, marked the beginning and Renee's Dec. 25, 2004 death marked the end. Renee Obama also lived a total of 56 days, when added $5+6$ produces another 11. This baby's death has all the earmarks of a Satanic sacrifice. It is known in closed circles that the first born is often taken away from those in famous circles, designated for sacrifice, just like the Solomon and Herod temples. All the same cult is why. That day could have marked Barack Obama's full submission to the authority of the Illuminati. There were no significant worldwide events on October 31, 2004, other than the modern celebration of the pagan All Hallows Eve. Of course, December 25th represents the pagan birthdate celebration of the fake Christ, so that date, the number of days the baby lived and Dunham's birthday were all occultically significant. The following day, December 26, 2004, was a significant day for the whole world. A tsunami struck Indonesia, killing 146,000 people. Remember Obama was heavily linked to Indonesia as well due to family, and not just via the CIA obsession with Indonesia either. That is related to stolen gold, Sino, Soekarno and Keenan, all CIA agents. The numerology on this published death toll is, again, $11\ 1+4+6$. The 11:11 derived from the two sequential events, the ritual sacrifice of a 2-month-old baby and the 146,000 victims of the tsunami also symbolizes a new beginning. But, Renee L. Abena Obama's death should also mark the beginning of another event, a murder investigation. These theater playing numerology idiots will no longer prosper soon, their numbers game is receding fast. Numerology, Gematria and dark magicians played a huge role in many catastrophic events for we the people. But with their decoding, many of their ritual dates are now being counteracted by many around the world, and so their dark intentioned games no longer make the headlines as much. Particularly within the last decade or so. Abena unsurprisingly after our book FHSTOS is an Indian name, although has links with Ghana as well. Abena means born on a Tuesday, except she was born on a Sunday. The links with Ghana brings in the Ashanti Empire. They were best known for slavery. Slavery was historically a tradition in the Ashanti Empire, with slaves typically taken as captives from enemies in warfare. The Ashanti Empire was the largest slave owning and slave trading state in the territory of today's Ghana during the Atlantic slave trade. Again something that was mentioned in our book, slavery did not start or end with the white man. In fact the use of slaves by white man is a mere footnote in terms of history, compared to what went on before the so-called European slave boats, all of which were owned by Jewish El-ites.

Back in February of 2016 in an (s)election year, I met for the first time the Trustee and the conversation came around to the entity known as Trump. I told her then and several times later to avoid Trump, as I believed he was an Israeli agent. Publicly I supported Trump, as we were using his massive ego to drive certain things forward for the people and were hoping that tactic would work. As we found out later, he did nothing, except the request to not return the troops home due to the issues surrounding them, which we covered in the soldier return Blueprint solution. I felt he was playing the Trustee like a fiddle and told her so several times, alas that went unheeded until it was all too late for the people. Privately I spoke against Trump many times, occasionally in the show as well, particularly in his courting of all things Israel. Yet another American bowing down to the very people who have destroyed this country. So this story that was sent in by one of our members comes as no surprise to me. I am not pleased I was vindicated, I don't need vindication, but find it sad it has taken this long to expose another American being a proxy Israeli agent. Journalist James Bamford reveals that Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu, dispatched a secret Israeli agent to the United States in the spring of 2016 to help Donald Trump win the presidential election. The agent met with advisers to Trump and offered to share secret intelligence with the campaign against Hillary Clinton. Yet where were the media on this story? Election interference was the main go to distraction story, before the scandemic remember. It was everywhere, just like the current Trump indictment story, all designed to distract the masses from what is really going on. This was not the first election interference either, as previous shows have revealed. The story is based in part on a series of text messages sent by the Israeli secret agent to Trump adviser Roger Stone. James Bamford said, the documents I got are from the FBI, there are FBI affidavit's about this. There's documents, numerous quotes from the secret agent, the Israeli secret agent sent by Netanyahu, talking about the PM. Which the FBI agent indicates was the prime minister, and lays out a months-long plot, basically from May of 2016 'til the fall of 2016, right up to the election. This was investigated by the Mueller team. It was the Mueller team, the Mueller FBI agents who actually got a search warrant for the (Israel) secret agent's communications. That is what these documents are all about. But all this was redacted from the final Mueller report. Yet again showing Israeli complicity at the top levels of Government. The great question is; just how and why is that allowed in a so-called superpower nation? There was a secret meeting, or at least a private meeting, in the Trump penthouse in New York just between Netanyahu and Trump. And after it was over, Trump came out, and that's what he said. He said that If I'm elected president, I'm going to move the U.S.Embassy to Jerusalem and declare Jerusalem the capital of Israel. So, the Israelis got what they wanted. Did Trump ask the Israeli people if they approved that move or the Palestinians given it is their land? Of course not, the arrogance of him and them was astounding. Just amazed with his arrogance he didn't suggest moving the UK capital to his golf course in Scotland. Bamford said, the Israeli spy's name is redacted. All very CIA and the National Security Act that is. Again it begs the question; what are our intelligence agents for? It is certainly not America is it? A foreign spy interfering with our elections and it gets redacted, yet curiously, when talking of fake Russia interference all kinds of names fly out of the mocking bird press. Talmudic law seems to apply here. But there are a lot of similarities with one of Trump's closest associates, Isaac Molho. Isaac Molho, a Jerusalem attorney, has long been one of Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu's most trusted advisers. Molho, 72, is married to Netanyahu's cousin, the former Shlomit Shimron. Her brother David Shimron and Molcho are partners in the Jerusalem law firm that carries both their names. I think it would be very important for the U.S.government to identify this person who was trying to interfere and throw the election in favor of Trump. There has been an enormous eight month investigation by journalists which basically identified Israel as the world's center for election interference and or secret election interference. Allegedly there were some 13 countries it was involved in. What is clear from this and known to our members is, Trump is another fake actor with a stage production made in Israel. Now if only the rest of the alt media will see that as a fact, we might be able to move quicker to prevent these stage actors ever running the country again. The back story to all of this is; on September 11th 2016 at 10.45pm, I received a call from the Trustee notifying me that Hillary Clinton died at 9pm that evening, just two months before the election. They planned on having a double replace Hillary for the election, but one of the doubles in her campaign team got cancer and so that plan was ended. Trump was participating in an election that he was never meant to or going to win, indeed if true, according to the Trustee he was paid to not win the election. All of which allegedly the bung payment came out of a Chase bank account. With Hillary gone, the clowns had a problem, but then they had someone installed 7 years prior into the Trump family circle, by the name of Jared Kushner. Kushner's mentor is Henry Kissinger, which says everything you need to know about him. Trump was installed, but Kushner ran the whole show on behalf of the Israeli paymasters. The trustee was also mentored by a Jew, and also had a Jewish representative on her team. Whether she was a part of it or not, remains up for debate. But perhaps me being asked to not talk about the Jewish problem in the shows by the Trustee twice, had a deeper connection to things than originally thought. Either way I ignored those pleas, as it is my role to point out the wrong things in society, regardless of who is responsible for it. It just happens that at the front of most rogue elements, organizations and plans, there is a high Jewish presence as we have all found out. I report for and by the people, not special interests, always have and always will. If you don't like your name or group being called out, then stop being involved in it is the simple solution.

MYSTERY SECTION: Last week we mentioned Tavistock being involved in the gender re-alignment program. So I decided to look into the name and yet again when the word is broken down, it reveals a deeper and all too familiar picture. Tavi is a Hebrew name of Hebrew, English-American, and Aramaic origin, from Aramaic roots, its meaning is good. So, Tavi with stock means the good stock of Hebrew origin, does that make more sense now in the bigger picture? In addition, Tavi is a Hebrew pet form of David, hence King David of tavi stock. Tavi is also a pet form of the name Quantavius. From which derives qua and octavious, which is where Octavian comes from. When broken down means the eight birds, is that related to the number of off-world bird races? Octavian is better known by Caesar Augustus, which is a stage name as he was born or spawned Gaius Octavious. Oct of course means eight, and the stage name Augustus is linked to the eighth month August. But it is not just oct or eight in his stage name, the rest says avian. Is that a link to the origin of the race he came from? Just like Thoth and Set? Just like in the hieroglyphs? Makes me laugh when people ask about is their life elsewhere or ET Disclosure and yet ignore what is carved into the hieroglyphs. That is proof right there, yet insecure people still ask for proof. The true answer is; they are frightened of the truth. In The 100 shows and my favorite character of that series was Octavia. Interestingly enough she abandoned her people and went with another tribe called; trikru or is it the bird crew of the tree, hence oct – avai(n).

Last week we mentioned the term egregore, here are some details on it. Egregore; from French égrégore, from Ancient Greek egrēgoros meaning wakeful. Is an occult concept representing a non-physical entity that arises from the collective thoughts of a distinct group of people. Distinct group of people is a bit ambiguous; the real definition is dark magicians. Historically, the concept referred to angelic beings or watchers, and the specific rituals and practices associated with them, namely within Enochian traditions. I would take the angelic beings with a healthy dose of skepticism at this point. The watchers can work for both sides of the light and dark spectrum. Yes, they are real as most of those in the village and visitors to it will attest. In more recent times, the concept has referred to a psychic manifestation, or a thoughtform, which occurs when any group shares a common motivation, being made up of, and influencing, the thoughts of the group. Again that description kind of masks over the group aspect and the intentions. The his story of it, lies in the concept of egregorial powers has its roots in the Book of Enoch. As we found out in the Cosmic Genetics series, whilst the story reveals elements of the truth, Enoch was one of them, not one of us. And so, the story then becomes slanted in the favor of the oppressor, just like the Melchizedek narrative. Later the term and concept found its way into other languages. Manuscrit trouvé à Saragosse or The Manuscript Found in Saragossa, was a novel written in French by the Polish author Count Jan Potocki (1761–1815) in the Russian Empire in the early 19th century which features the term egregores, referring to the most illustrious of fallen angels. Like I mentioned earlier about angels, their description bears deeper scrutiny as there is slim to no evidence that, these beings called angelics, which has been fluffed up by scripture and the new age cult, have ever been as stated. The term fallen also, have we really defined what fallen actually means or entails? Has Australia fallen because it is called down under, is it not all about perspective again? As above so below means, there is no up or down, it just is. The term egregore was also used by the French author Victor Hugo, in La Légende des siècles (1859) or The Legend of the Ages, where he uses the word égrécore first as an adjective, then as a noun, while leaving the meaning obscure. That is called seeding the narrative, a case of they have to tell us what they are doing, but leave the interpretation of it, open ended. Éliphas Lévi, in Le Grand Arcane or The Great Secret, 1868 identifies egregors with the tradition concerning the Watchers, the fathers of the nephilim, describing them as terrible beings that crush us without pity because they are unaware of our existence. Interesting a revelation came from a Levi, accusing the watchers of being part of the Nephilim, more evidence of faction fighting. They crush us because they are unaware of our existence is an interesting pondering line. Is that in relation to corporeal and non-corporeal? Are they from another Universe? Differing dimension or plane of existence? Or are they created like a computer virus? Ponder on them thoughts deeply. Now we get a more concrete evidence of who is involved in this as, another concept of the egregore is the GOTOS meaning Gradus Ordinis Templi Orientis Saturni 33° of the Fraternitas Saturni. The Saturnalia group who have a public holiday named after them, called Christmas. Other references include a 1987 article by Gaetan Delaforge in Gnosis magazine defines an egregore as a kind of group mind, that is created when people consciously come together for a common purpose. Egregore is also used in relation to the Montreal Surrealists, best known as Les Automatistes, in Ray Ellenwood's Egregore: A History of the Montréal Automatist Movement. Gary Lachman identifies Pepe the Frog as an egregore in his book Dark Star Rising. Notice they all reference to it, but never define it, which is atypical of his story. These egregores are statues that can come alive and indeed attack you in the physical, and also when operating on a different plane of existence, such as bi-location and remote viewing. They guard mainly where there is wealth stored such as banks, Treasuries etc, but also the hidden wealth bunkers dotted all over the world. Those bunkers contain vast quantities of money, precious metals, diamonds and other priceless artefacts. Many have tried to enter them but will encounter the egregores that protect them at the gate or entrance. Only those of a certain frequency can enter the said bunkers, which can be achieved by bi-location skills. Those that do not have the frequency and attempt to enter, all die. The CIA have lost many of their sacrificial puppets attempting to enter where they will never gain access, their frequency is not conducive. Some of the bunkers below house vast quantities of gold only, and is stated to be the planet's ballast to hold it in place. It was revealed to me, if that particular gold is removed, the planet will spiral out of the solar system altogether and be lost in space. Summing up, egregores are a solid mass in the physical, but can animate in certain situations on the differing plains of existence. The EL-ites use them as guards to protect their shekels mainly, but they are used in many other places like CERN. Ninja egregores, in fact that is the origin of the word ninja. Entities from a different plane coming into existence on the physical plane. Exercise caution is my advice and be prepared to defend yourself heavily when encountered.

Here is a fascinating look into Ireland in the early 1900's, and it shows how much time has changed since then, in particular for women. It highlights the controlling nature of religion also, and even that has now changed quite a bit mainly in Western countries. The first Sunday in Lent was once known as Chalk Sunday in Ireland. It was a custom dating back to the 1900s, said Fiona Byrne, a curator of History at the Ulster Folk Museum. Young boys would have drawn Xs on the backs of single women's coats and dresses as they walked to and from Mass. They might have dusted them with chalk or touched them on the shoulder. It meant you didn't manage to get married and was a bit mean really. Was this a harmless prank by young boys, or was there a program attached to it by the church? Who wants their single status advertised? Well clearly back then there was a stigma to not being married or attached. Lent is an old English word meaning lengthen. Lent is observed in spring, when the days begin to get longer. Lent is also a money harvesting scheme as well, it means your debt lengthens. It allows Christians to remember Jesus's fasting in the desert, it is a time of giving things up and a test of self-discipline. If only the churches and their harvesting disciples did the same thing, things would be a lot better. But, they like the EL-ites operate under differing laws and belief systems than they pass on to their parishioners. Lent is a season of forty days, not counting Sundays, which begins on Ash Wednesday and ends on Holy Saturday. There is those 40 days or number again, prevalent in the Hebrew culture. Given Ramadan and Passover have similar fasting's at the same time, reveals the connectedness of the supposedly 3 separate religions, being all one privately. The old Irish tradition of Chalk Sunday ties in with the feast of Shrove or Pancake Tuesday, the last day before Lent began. When people celebrated and had weddings, in preparation for the period stretching over six weeks of fasting, penitence and denial. Meat, eggs, dairy, alcohol and even sex were off limits for strict Catholics in Ireland over Lent. Seriously? Another banal control system imposed upon the people, does anyone ask what for? Because of a two thousand-year-old book, that nobody knows who wrote it or whether the characters within it are real. It is utterly bizarre, yet considered "normal" by the oblivious followers. There was a tradition of musical instruments being put away for the six weeks of Lent, music and merrymaking was not enjoyed or allowed. All of which echoes the Jewish piece we did recently surrounding the death of a close relative, all very controlling. Shrove Tuesday was traditionally the last day to get married before Lent, said Ms.Byrne. There would have been a big rush for priests running up to Shrove Tuesday. People who were single were considered to have disregarded their social duty to marry and enjoyed a lesser social status. Really? Says who? All stated by the church, the reason they wanted people married is, to have more children to fiddle with and indoctrinate. A harsh but brutal fact, as this was still a time, when they were trying to become the dominant religion. It followed that Chalk Sunday was a focus on the single. Women's role at that time was about getting married, having children and keeping a house, said Ms. Byrne. Women did so much more than that, but as for marriage, for some women it just may not have worked out. The word spinster is a horrible term. Does that mean as a spinster she had a revolving head like Linda Blair in the Exorcist movie? Someone said they looked like Linda Blair recently, her head spins as well. Spinster mid-14c., a female spinner of thread. Unmarried women were supposed to occupy themselves with spinning, hence the word came to be the legal designation in England of all unmarried women. From a viscount's daughter downward, in documents from 1600s to early 1900s, and by 1719 the word was being used generically for woman still unmarried and beyond the usual age for it. All very controlling and judgmental if you ask me, all pushed by the church. Ster is the feminine agent suffix used as the equivalent of masculine. Also used in Middle English to form nouns of action, meaning a person who or without regard for gender. The female domination of weaving and baking trades, were represented in surnames such as Webster, Baxter, Brewster, etc. How does that explain a heapster if it is a feminine suffix? (M) The tradition of Chalk Sunday was not popular in Ulster. It was more common in the south western part of Ireland in the early part of the last century, she said. There might have been public jeering and cat/spy calls as well. Skellig Night was a feature of Shrove Tuesday in parts of the Republic of Ireland, especially Cork and Kerry. After sunset, noisy crowds went onto the streets of towns mocking the people who were single and telling them to go to the Skelligs. The Skellig islands off County Kerry were said to still run under the old calendar, therefore Ash Wednesday would arrive later there, so that there would be still time for the single to go there to marry before Lent began. Sometimes, people in disguise would call to the homes of the single and try to take them out onto the streets. Rough time for the single women it seemed back then. Next is called Pus Sunday: The word pus is Irish for scowl and the day was also called Pus Sunday, as those who were without a partner were said to wear a scowl reflecting their unhappiness at being single. The day after Chalk Sunday where people not married were chalked off it seems, was then followed by Salt Monday. Well I never, the salt word comes up again. Salt Monday was a day when girls who did not manage to get married, would have salt thrown at them to preserve them until Lent was over. It was saying that they would be kept still ripe, bad lord, they were treating them like the were some sort of fruit and veg, unreal. But this was a bit more light hearted rather than an X on your back as you were walking home from Mass. Salt Monday targeted women, she pointed out. It's a hint at women's fertile cycles, there was no need to preserve men as there's not a clock on them. She said that with the modern eye, looking back, it sounds mean. Sounds mean? No it was, period. Pressuring young girls into a control system of registration and births, all for certain ones including the Cat holic church to collect the shekels. The tradition of Salt Monday lives on in the village, except it moved to Salt Thursday by two members who feel they need to be preserved a lot it seems.(M) Salt Thursday involves a lot of this (Salt clip) replete with shifting eyes all in one direction, I wonder who is in that line of sight you may ask? Salt Thursday involves putting a copious amount of salt on a meal already salted, like this salt clip, too much sniggering and hilarity from the unpreserved. I am going to be heavily slated or is it salted after this show ends. The story in overview tells of the trials and tribulations the women of yesteryear had to endure, Thankfully many of those oppressive systems have been ended or reduced since then, but more needs to be done in all races, particularly the races of color and their controlling programs against their women. The women in the western world need to take stock of just how much things have improved for them and take comfort in that.

ENDING PIECE: A much shorter ending piece tonight, but nonetheless just as powerful as some of the other more longer ones. All it takes is, processing, embracing and integrating and suddenly a whole new world and you opens up. Much has been said about who you are and indeed the question of who are you? The answer is who are you going to be, rather than who you were. The full spectrum of who we can be has never been fully recognized or embraced, due to dark forces, limitation programs and low self-worth. I and we at THI endeavor to change all that in emphatic circumstances. Hoping this piece will help you all to remember. THE I AM PRAYER I AM a child of the original ONE, I AM a ray of the original Sun, I AM wholeness, I AM Love. I AM the truth that spans the sands of time, I AM the rainbow of the very first shine, I AM music, I AM light. Let the light descend upon me, guide the way with golden light, no other god will stand before me.... As I embrace the one true life I was born to live, by the will of the original ONE. I AM a face of the original god, I AM a voice of the original sound, I AM a wave upon the ocean of eternal light. I reach my arms up unto the heavens, and say, I AM THIS I AM. The presence of the ancient one springs forth at my command. I AM one with Source, I AM THIS I AM... and, as I decree it, so it is. It is all about recognizing the self for who you truly are and honoring it. We were never just little me's, if only people can see themselves for what they truly are. A magnificent specimen of life and living, with unlimited potential if you get out of your own way. Why do we play ourselves down so much? Why do we let inferior species run us a slaves? Why do we not stand in our own presence and be proud of what we have achieved? Instead of running ourselves into the gutter? We are all so powerful in our own right, and it can be more extraordinary if we all came together. Stop saying impossible and strive to be I'm possible, stop with the limitation programs and become the power you were born with. Stop with the low self-worth, insecurities and fear, and embrace who you really are. Who am I and who you are, are best left with just the title of the final song. WHEN YOU SAY NOTHING AT ALL
