NEWS: The last few weeks has seen and has now been shown to the world, just how corrupt the media is. The levels of biased based reporting in favor of one country is a sickening sight for all those who wish to hear the truth. The usual name calling for one side and the usual pity, sympathy and lies for the other. But this is not about Palestine or Israel, this is about the people. The people are being sacrificed and slain because of a system of control, nothing more and nothing less. Our book and show FHSTOS details it with great clarity, that with an open mind brings truth and our story to the fore. Repeatedly we appealed to the Jewish people, reminded them they are pawns in this insidious dark forces game. But much of the dark forces in many other countries are now rendered mute, the entities Israel, Britain and America remains, but even they are now being brought into the light. The world needs to turn on those 3 entities, not on the largely oblivious people contained within them. Those countries along with the Vatican are a blight on society and this planet. It requires an open mind and then courage to fight back against that anti-human system. The details of the war will be covered in an expose later, but I am asking all members to remember the people who are suffering are not just Palestinians and Jews, but globally due to this off world control system mired in evil and inhumane practices. We the people no matter which country are being sacrificed by psychopaths, that has to be the overall thought process. The labels they have given us and sadly too many have worn like a badge of honor, are the very things that creates division amongst us. Remember it is all about the people.

A Chinese faction of military was about to invade Taiwan more than a year ago. These militaries had a base close to Shanghai. The leaders base was underground. Just in time before the invasion, this base had an accident and it was flooded with water and no one could swim. Is that further evidence of nature fighting back? The pedo industry I am being informed, might have moved to Taiwan from Ukraine. That will be stopped as well.

For those of you who remember our water solution in the Blueprint, this story will be of immense interest. MIT researchers have created a solar-powered desalination device that can make seawater drinkable for less than the cost of US tap water. One hopes that is not put in the hands of Langley contractors, but is given to the people to run without shareholders or CEO's. This is a lifesaving device and should not be used for profiteering or racketeering in an advanced society. Maybe one of our members or a team, could compile and draft a letter to MIT, along with our Solution about water in the Blueprint and see what feedback we can get.

Americans do you want to know where all your money is going to, try this report. Data from U.S. Customs and Border Protection, part of DHS, reports that over 5 million illegal aliens were encountered at America's southern border, between the start of the Biden administration and this past March 31. Of those 5 million illegal aliens, at least 2.46 million had no confirmed departure from the United States, the report found. During the first 26 months of Biden's presidency, the DHS released at least 2,148,738 illegal aliens into the United States, according to the Judiciary Committee's report. The committee found that only 5,993 of those encountered at the southern border were placed in removal proceedings. In other words, of the at least 2.1 million aliens released into the United States since January 20, 2021, the Biden administration has failed to remove, through immigration court removal proceedings, roughly 99.7% of those illegal aliens. The report notes that an additional 1.7 million known gotaways successfully evaded Border Patrol agents and entered the United States, bringing the total estimated number of illegal aliens who arrived and stayed under the Biden administration to 3.8 million. That population exceeds the number of residents of 22 different states and the District of Columbia. There is now a massive lawsuit out of Florida, but involving 27 States suing the Biden Administration for border negligence. This has nothing to do with humanitarian support and everything to do with propping up the numbers for banksters. Their ouroboros policy against whites in this country has backfired on their financial inflows. The monetary system requires 2.1 children per family, but given the attacks on the white families here and in Europe, the birth rates have plummeted and so the finances fail. So, to counteract that, they flood the country with people's having more children, this is what is unfolding. Plus it creates additional perks of the mixing program, the division program and promoting racism that adds fuel to the division program. Plus I got direct intel 3 years back and was told each immigrant is being paid between $2-3K to come to this country and vote for the Democrats. Which constitutes misuse of the people's funds and election rigging. I have been in this country 21 years and not allowed to vote, despite paying my taxes and operating within the rules, yet curiously these people brought in, don't. They get licenses, jobs, benefits, health and allowed to vote, despite being "illegal". Personally I have issues with that term and the question remains, how can you be illegal on your own planet?

Biden is now playing backtracking games or perhaps he just doesn't remember? Recently, the Biden administration announced it would build an approximately 20-mile section of border wall in the area, an announcement that stood in stark contrast to then-candidate Joe Biden's 2020 declaration that, he would not build another foot of wall as president. He halted construction on his first day in office. While President Biden and administration officials have claimed that the new border wall section is being built begrudgingly, because of funds specifically appropriated by the Donald Trump administration in 2019, the announcement has once again sparked intense debate over the controversial border control measure. Trump ordered renovations and fortification of just under 460 miles of border wall, although only about 50 miles were new. Since he left office, Trump and some Republican lawmakers have called for additional border barriers to be built, amid rising migrant figures at the southern border. Whether or not border walls can be effective has become a hotly contested and intensely political debate. The Department of Homeland Security data released in late 2020 suggests that new walls reduced illegal entry in some sectors by nearly 90%, academic studies have suggested more modest returns. The American Economic Journal: Applied Economics, found that border barriers reduced migration by 35%. However, the study found no data to suggest that the barriers are more effective than using the funding to hire more border agents. The Biden administration, for its part, has repeatedly and unequivocally said it does not believe the barriers are effective. It is Biden himself who is not effective.

The faction war heats up it seems, with this extraordinary outburst. Former CIA Director Michael Hayden calls for the assassination of Sen. Tuberville. Why? because the senator is performing desperately needed oversight of the U.S. Military. Something we called for in the Blueprint, along with the agencies. So who is Hayden? a renowned civil liberties violator, who promoted the Biden laptop coverup and the Russia collusion scam. Hayden has also served as an adviser for NewsGuard, which is a left-wing fact-checking company. NewsGuard itself, has been caught repeatedly spreading misinformation regarding the origins of Covid-19 as well as Hunter Biden's notorious laptop. It used to be done in hushed tones and contract hit lists on the dark web for the agencies dirty work, now they are brazenly calling it out in public. How can a public figure issue assassination threats and not be arrested and jailed?

The Dutch government has confirmed the authenticity of a Nazi party card held by Prince Bernhard, prince consort for decades after World War Two. A former head of the palace archives, Flip Maarschalkerweerd, said he found the card while going through the prince's things after his death. Bernhard, a German aristocrat, repeatedly denied being a member of Adolf Hitler's NSDAP political party. Bernhard went to his grave swearing he had never been a paid-up member of Hitler's party. I can declare with my hand on the bible: I was never a Nazi, he said in an interview published (in Dutch) after his death in 2004. He had admitted being part of two Nazi organizations after 1933 - the Sturmabteilung security service and the Schutzstaffel which is the SS. But he argued in 1971 that at the start you had to take part a little in one way or another, because if they had found out he was opposed, it would have been tricky to pass exams. That was far different from being a voluntary, card-carrying member of Hitler's political party from 1933 to 1936 and holding on to the card until his death. As well as a copy of the card showing up in the US in the 1990s, in 2010 historian Annejet van der Zijl found the prince's student membership card in a German archive, that also noted he had been a party member since 27 April 1933. Hours after an image of the membership card appeared in Dutch media, the royal house confirmed the card's existence and published a picture of it. In a statement, it said King Willem-Alexander attached great importance to independent research and knowledge of the past. The king is aware of the role and position of the House of Orange-Nassau in the history of the kingdom, it added. Oh my, the Dutch Royals like the British Royals now getting exposed for the truth. This reveals what our show said back in the Factions show 8 years ago, the public royals are finished and will be thrown under the bus. Several political parties and Jewish groups called on caretaker Prime Minister Mark Rutte to launch an investigation. Naomi Mestrum, of the Israel Information and Documentation Centre (Cidi), said that proof of the prince's Nazi past added another black page to a painful part of recent Dutch history. The Nazi card owner is one thing, the desecration of Ireland under the House of Orange is another far worse. Mr. Rutte said that while it was an awful development, previous research had made it quite convincingly clear that the prince had been a Nazi party member.

A sign of the times and also the public fighting back against these liars. Ben Collins, NBC News' controversial disinformation reporter who was once suspended from covering Elon Musk, after mocking the mogul following his acquisition of Twitter. Collins took to social media declaring that he was irrevocably depressed and anxious, in the face of death threats he was receiving for his reporting. Collins posted several items on the Twitter-like micro-blogging app Bluesky on Wednesday and Thursday which shed light on his emotional state as he plans on winding down his journalism career. Whilst I do not condone death threats, it is high time the public called out personally these liars. Make them accountable for the untold damage these fake factcheckers have done. It seems now the public is getting onto it, this is proper activism in my opinion.

MEDICAL NEWS: As more fallout continues apace with the Covid lie and scamdemic. As a recent Lancet study shows that asymptomatic people are only responsible for a small fraction of SARS-CoV-2 viral emissions, thus exploding the myth of extensive asymptomatic transmission, which was one of the central tenets of the Covid-19 response. But what about the original asymptomatic spreader, whose case was widely reported in the medical literature and the international media? Well, it turns out she was precisely not asymptomatic at all, yes, she was sick and she took medication to correct it. On January 30th, 2020, the New England Journal of Medicine published a letter from a group of German doctors and scientist's, documenting the case of a Chinese businesswoman from Shanghai who had recently travelled to Germany. She was at the origin of Germany's first cluster of infections, despite the fact that she had not yet developed symptoms herself. A screen shot taken from the NEJM homepage circa the following day, in it, was the lead author of the letter a Camilla Rothe of the Munich University Hospital. One of the co-authors was none other than Christian Drosten, the Chair of the Department of Virology at the Charite teaching hospital in Berlin, whose famous PCR-protocol would become the gold standard for Covid-19 testing. The testing of which was found to be flawed and not fit for the purpose. Drosten's article laying out the PCR protocol was published just one week earlier, on January 23rd, by the EU-funded journal Eurosurveillance, following a peer-review in record-breaking time of roughly 24 hours. A peer review means taking the piss. But the problem with the German researchers' letter is that just four days later, on February 3rd, Science published an article revealing, based on official German sources, that the Chinese businesswoman did in fact have symptoms and had taken paracetamol to combat them. Tylenol is the American equivalent of paracetamol. In fact, none of the 17 authors of the NEJM letter had ever even spoken to the supposedly asymptomatic patient zero, merely relying on the input of the four Germans who fell ill and who, incidentally, very quickly got better. Afterwards, however, the Science article notes, officials at the Robert Koch Institute (RKI), Germany's federal public health agency and the Health and Food Safety Authority of the state of Bavaria, did talk to the Shanghai patient on the phone. It turned out she did have symptoms while in Germany. According to people familiar with the call, she felt tired, suffered from muscle pain and took paracetamol, a fever-lowering medication. An RKI spokesperson would only confirm to Science that the woman had symptoms. As will be seen momentarily, the authors have in the meanwhile themselves confirmed that the woman took paracetamol. Contacted by Science, Christian Drosten, who reportedly himself conducted the PCR-testing for the German group, was contrite. I feel bad about how this went, but I don't think anybody is at fault here, he said. Apparently, the woman could not be reached at first and people felt this had to be communicated quickly. So, a whole pandemic was created by one woman having a cold and curing herself? These are the people who said trust the science remember, I would sooner set fire to my own testicles than trust them. They are shekel making parasites, who need to be closed down and holistic medicines created and introduced. The last thing anyone needs is their poisons. The Swedish Public Health Agency, as cited by Science, was less charitable in its assessment, describing the NEJM letter as containing major flaws and errors. Nonetheless, despite the criticism and the apparent contrition of Drosten and one other author who was also contacted, the NEJM letter has not been retracted. All of which means it was not major flaws and errors, but direct lies to fulfill an agenda. It remains on the NEJM website here with the original full title: Transmission of 2019-nCoV Infection from an Asymptomatic Contact in Germany. According to the NEJM's own count, it has been cited in the scholarly literature no less than 2527 times. The article is not even accompanied by a correction. All of which proves scholars are part of the problem, literal jackasses who follow the main script. In the aftermath of the Science revelations, the authors merely added a supplementary appendix comprising a "timeline" of the evolution of the woman's illness. Apparently, in the meanwhile, they had resolved to speak with the woman themselves. The "timeline" concedes that she had experienced symptoms in Germany and that she had taken paracetamol, but insists that she only reported doing so once and somehow prophylactically. The German public health authority, the Robert Koch Institute, apparently being caught off-guard by the Science revelations, displayed similarly erratic behavior in response. Whereas a spokesperson initially told Science that the RKI itself, had sent a letter to the NEJM informing the journal of the authors' error, a different spokesperson, subsequently retracted this claim, saying that the letter had never been sent and that there had been an internal misunderstanding. Even if the asymptomatic patient zero turned out in fact to be symptomatic, the German Government has not wavered in its support for Rothe and her colleagues. Thus, on September 30th 2022, German President Frank-Walter Steinmeier awarded the German Order of Merit to none other than Claudia Rothe precisely for her NEJM article. This is what happens in their world a complete cover up and then they award the miscreant a medal. Just like the Oscar people and their red carpet symbolizing blood. The tribute read out at the ceremony explained: On January 27th, 2020, the doctor Rothe diagnosed the first corona infection in Germany. In doing so, she realized that the source of the infection was a person who at that time did not have any symptoms. She promptly published this discovery. The publication triggered a worldwide scientific dispute, at the end of which her findings were confirmed. Her early warning and her courage to stand by her finding, made an important contribution to containing the Corona pandemic in the first phase. What utter rubbish and lies that is. Remember I said the new search engines have cut vast swathes of entries into it? Upon entering Claudia Rothe zero pieces came forth, extraordinary for someone so famed within Germany or have they erased more German history again? It gets worse though as we will find out. As the identity of the Chinese patient zero and of her German colleagues is also of some interest. They were in fact all employees of the German auto parts manufacturer Webasto. although the Chinese employee was reported to be from Shanghai, Webasto had just recently, on September 7th, 2019, opened a production facility in Wuhan. But guess who turned up here as a coincidence? none other than then German Chancellor Angela Merkel was visiting Wuhan on that very day. In Wuhan, she stopped by the Tongji-Medical-College-affiliated Tongji Hospital: Tongji Medical College is the Chinese co-sponsor of a joint German-Chinese virology lab located in the city. Chancellor Merkel was also on hand for the ceremonial opening of Webasto's new facility. The CIA offered to pay off analysts in order to bury their findings that, Covid-19 most likely leaked from a lab in Wuhan, China, new whistleblower testimony to Congress alleges. A senior-level CIA officer told House committee leaders that, his agency tried to pay off six analysts who found SARS-CoV-2 likely originated in a Wuhan lab, if they changed their position and said the virus jumped from animals to humans, according to a letter sent recently to CIA Director William Burns. Select Subcommittee on the Coronavirus Pandemic Chairman Brad Wenstrup and Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence Chairman Mike Turner requested all documents, communications and pay info from the CIA's Covid Discovery Team by Sept. 26. According to the whistleblower, at the end of its review, six of the seven members of the Team believed the intelligence and science were sufficient to make a low confidence assessment that Covid-19 originated from a laboratory in Wuhan, China, the House panel chairmen wrote. The seventh member of the Team, who also happened to be the most senior, was the lone officer to believe Covid-19 originated through zoonosis. The whistleblower further contends that to come to the eventual public determination of uncertainty, the other six members were given a significant monetary incentive to change their position, they said, noting that the analysts were experienced officers with significant scientific expertise. Which is interesting given that the CIA houses around 90 strains of the Covid virus. Captain obvious question is; Why? And yet nobody asks or monitors it or them? Wenstrup and Turner also asked for documents and communications between the CIA and other federal agencies, including the State Department, the FBI, the Department of Health and Human Services and the Energy Department. In a separate letter, the House committee leaders identified former CIA chief operating officer Andrew Makridis as having played a central role in the Covid investigation and asked him to sit for a transcribed interview. At CIA we are committed to the highest standards of analytic rigor, integrity, and objectivity. (M) They seriously said that? I would give them a comedic award for that statement if their track record of crimes wasn't so heinously bad. We do not pay analysts to reach specific conclusions, CIA Director of Public Affairs Tammy Kupperman Thorp said in a statement. We take these allegations extremely seriously and are looking into them. We will keep our Congressional oversight committees appropriately informed. No you don't, you consistently cite National Security to deflect everything. But you can pay hitmen $27M to murder people, I know I have spoken to a number of them. Makridis did not immediately respond to a request for comment. The FBI was the first US intelligence agency to conclude the Covid-19 pandemic most likely originated with a lab leak. In February, the Energy Department also concluded a lab leak was likely, based on new intelligence. The US intelligence community declassified its 10-page report on Covid origins in June, which found biosafety concerns and genetic engineering taking place at the Wuhan Institute of Virology. Of course they would know because Dr. Fauci and the NIH plus USAID all funded it, but most of its agencies assess that SARS-CoV-2 was not genetically engineered. Several scientists at the

Wuhan lab also became sick in the fall of 2019 with symptoms consistent with but not diagnostic of Covid-19, the report states. What about the Covid reports in Italy from the September of 2019 we reported 2.5 years ago? The CIA and one other intelligence agency remain unable to determine the precise origin of the Covid-19 pandemic, as both hypotheses rely on significant assumptions or face challenges with conflicting reporting, it says. No, they were complicit in it as our Expose series revealed. But some former US intelligence officials have disagreed with the assessment. In April, former Director of National Intelligence John Ratcliffe told Congress that, the so-called lab leak theory was the only credible explanation for the pandemic, which has since claimed the lives of nearly 7 million people across the globe, according to the World Health Organization. The only credible explanation for the pandemic in my experience is, it was deliberately engineered by clowns of all levels. The Black Sun representative we spoke to revealed that back in early 2020, not to mention the Event 101 alleged simulation conference in September 2019 that proceeded the alleged pandemic. Ratcliffe told the House Select Subcommittee on the Coronavirus Pandemic in a hearing. If our intelligence and evidence supporting a lab leak was placed side by side with our intelligence and evidence pointing to a natural origins or spillover theory, the lab leak side of the ledger would be long, convincing, even overwhelming. While the spillover side would be nearly empty and tenuous, added Ratcliffe, a former Texas Republican congressman who served as President Donald Trump's second and last director of national intelligence. As the former number three official at the CIA during the pandemic, Makridis coordinated his agency's response to Covid before retiring in 2022. He now serves as a senior adviser at Beacon Global Strategies. Just like Fauci then, leaves the scene of the crimes, but atypical of that agency. The strategic advisory firm also says on its website that he spent over a decade in the Directorate of Intelligence working and then leading the technical analysis of Russian, Chinese, Iranian, and North Korean strategic weapons and space capabilities. Clown then, worrying about other countries whilst ignoring the bioweapons being deployed on his own people and the fact that America's space capabilities are miles behind other countries. Yet again this exposes the infrastructure of American government and its practices of ill intent. Like I have said there is not a single organization of their structure designed for the benefit of the people.

SOCIETY SECTION: The Nobel Prize in Physiology or Medicine has been awarded to a pair of scientists who developed the technology that led to the mRNA Covid vaccines. Professors Katalin Kariko and Drew Weissman will share the prize. The technology was experimental before the pandemic, but has now been given to millions of people around the world to protect them against serious Covid-19. The same mRNA technology is now being researched for other diseases, including cancer. The Nobel Prize committee said: The laureates contributed to the unprecedented rate of vaccine development during one of the greatest threats to human health in modern times. Both were told they had won by telephone this morning and were said to be overwhelmed. Weissman did a residency at Beth Israel Deaconess Medical Center, followed by a fellowship at the National Institutes of Health (NIH), under the supervision of Anthony Fauci, then director of the National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases. Yes Weissmann is Jewish, a case of well I never again. If people say that's anti-Semitic, my reply is twofold. 1. Learn some of our story because the Jewish are not Semites. 2. It is almost statistically impossible for a tiny minority of the global population to reach the upper echelons of virtually every department in almost every relevant country, just like these people have, without some form of coercion. It defies all belief, the question for the listener is why? Attaining positions of power in every facet of society, yet no one questions it. Why do I criticize these Jews in power positions? Not because they are Jewish despite the extraordinary statistical anomaly, but because they are all involved in skullduggery against, we the people. Like I said to the Trustee who twice asked me to stop criticizing Jews. I said I am not the problem, if they behaved themselves and looked after the people, I would have nothing to write or say about them. In fact our group is one of the few groups who have highlighted the abject poverty of the Jewish people in parts of New York and San Francisco, for having the audacity to be the wrong caste of Jew. Isn't that the very definition of racism amongst their own people? The other country who have a caste system is India, funny that, FHSTOS reveals why in greater detail. But, these pathetic clowns in every facet of society awarding each other fake medals and titles has to stop in a civilized society. These people are responsible for untold deaths, although I will exercise caution as to whether that was their full intention. Millions of deaths due to the jabs and you get a medal for that? on a par with the American sacrifice cult the US Military that to me. Badges and medals for killing people? Is the sign of a broken society, that ultimately needs to be radically overhauled. With leading Jews at the tops of every department and the whole world in disarray, who is to blame for that? And why are they immune from criticism? What's next in the award ceremony? Netanyahu the Time Magazine peace man of the century? Turn it in.

Here is another example of common sense starting to prevail. Kathy Barnette is a black politician running for the Senate. Fear and hate, when merged, create a potent political opium that is intoxicating to the ruling elites of our time and propels them to unprecedented heights of power. Ruling EL-ites? Oh my, but she is entirely correct. Remarkably cost-effective, this potent brew has been wielded to tremendous effect in recent times, specifically by generating fear and hate around the myth of ongoing race-based persecution. And though the alleged beneficiary of this opiate is the black community, we are in actual fact harmed by it, while the ruling class benefits. Now that line pleases me no end, that is what I warned of back in 1996, when they brought in political correctness. Which is ironic they use that phrase, given the political circles are hardly ever correct, about as correct as scientists, military or agency reports. I warned at the beginning of Black Lives Matter it would turn against them, it did and is continuing to do so. A frightening trend has emerged in which the word racist is wielded carelessly and ruthlessly, predominantly by those who use it to increase polarization. Once the allegation of racism was used to combat true bigotry and cultivate our nation's genuine empathy, the source of our power. Today, the Left uses the term against any idea they can't debate on the merits, or don't understand, or even just to mask their own failures. Correct again, it allows the stupid and ignorant a get out jail free card, whereby they throw out memes and labels and when asked to explain those – crickets. When asked to debate points – crickets again. Those people are a waste of a valuable vessel, they are bots repeating memes, the agitators created for them. And of course, it's used to smear the Left's political opponents, especially those willing to tell the truth about race in America. Sadly what most people think is the truth is nowhere near it, as you have all found out in bite sized chunks. Our understanding of race, is miles ahead of the alt media, never mind the masses, debating at this point becomes futile. This is why I wanted our differing race members to engage their own kind initially. The color races are not going to want to hear from a white guy, even though some of my material came from a black guy, Dane Calloway. And what happened to him? His own people turned on him for daring to tell the truth. Our own People of Colors ran into a stone wall also. We tried to help the blacks, but they appear to not want to help themselves. We tried to help the Jews, but they appear to not want to help themselves either. Republican presidential candidate Vivek Ramaswamy, whose campaign I am advising, is a case in point. There have been multiple attempts to brand Ramaswamy as racist, for speaking out on the severe challenges the black community is grappling with. But these smears are shallow and only hurt black individuals and communities. Just shameful I have to say and people wonder why politicians do nothing for them? Nobody helps them in inner or overview, people just want to criticize and label them. All of which is why the Blueprint is unique. It's no secret that our community faces a myriad of issues. We're often hesitant to bring our problems to the forefront, not wanting to air our dirty laundry in public, hoping that by ignoring them, they'll go unnoticed. But our problems are glaring. Exactly, in case nobody hasn't noticed, the issues never go away, only multiply like a cancerous cell. The black community needs to stand up and support each other, come up with working solutions to fix the long-lasting problems and correct their image they present to other races. It is not a good one in anyone's book, time to fix it is now, not keep ignoring it. We consistently vote in large numbers for a political party that hasn't reciprocated our loyalty with tangible benefits. Then take that loyalty away and stop voting, it is that simple, demand policies for and by the people only. Our neighborhoods are notorious for their high crime rates, our children are suffering in inadequate schools and we have an unacceptably high rate of abortions. Our children, our future, step off school buses daily with their pants sagging to their knees and too many fathers are nowhere to be found. Sadly all of that is correct. Our problems are visible for all to see. We must ask ourselves why too many of our precious babies are being raised in neighborhoods controlled by gangs, littered with drug paraphernalia and saturated with the putrid scent of sweat and urine? The blame can be attributed to various factors, including administrators, politicians, unions and powerbrokers. The one person who can't be blamed for any of our problems is Vivek Ramaswamy. He is simply a person unafraid to point them out. When someone like Vivek points out these issues, it's essential not to react with anger. Instead, let's channel that anger into demanding better, into fixing what's broken. Get angry, but not at those who shed light on our problems. Get mad at those who had the power to change the course of predominantly black communities and chose not to act. Barack Obama for one, Condoleezza Rice, Colin Powell all in prominent positions and all did nothing for the black community. In fact on that level it is not about doing things just for the black community, it is about doing things for all the people. We don't need to get angry or mad either, we just have to come up with sensible solutions and tell the politicians, this is what we want. Nonviolent and non-compliance is the way forward. They want you angry, mad and unbalanced, as then you don't think straight, let's stop giving them what they want and deliver what we want. It's time to stop tolerating the intolerable. It's time to stop allowing ourselves to be manipulated, so the ruling class can accrue power that benefits everyone but us. For our sake and for the generations yet to come, stop shooting the messenger when the message is righteous and necessary. The power lies within us to demand change, and we must exercise it. Hats off to her for calling it out, it is time the children who respond negatively to her and Vivek whilst coming up with no solutions, are drowned out and shut down.

EXPOSE: The most predominant news item over the past two weeks has been the Israeli/Palestinian war as it is called. These are the reports as they came in. At least 22 people have died and more than 500 people have been injured after rockets were fired from Gaza into Israel by Hamas militants. The Israeli Defense Forces have declared a state of alert for war, according to a statement issued by the IDF early Saturday morning. Over the past hour, the Hamas terrorist organization launched massive barrages of rockets from Gaza into Israel, and its terrorist operatives have infiltrated into Israel in a number of different locations in the south, according to the IDF. Recent figures shared by the Palestinian Health Ministry indicate a death toll of 161 and 931 injuries in Palestine. Israel, on the other hand, has reported at least 40 fatalities and 750 injuries. There are grave concerns that these numbers could rise as the situation continues to deteriorate. By Sunday the 8th More than 700 Israelis, most of them civilians, were killed in the attacks which erupted outside the Gaza Strip on Saturday morning. About 400 Palestinians have died in fighting and retaliatory attacks. By the 11th it had rose to over 1000 Israelis and other nationals, plus 850 Palestinians.

Those are the details published by the Jewish led media and I have no reason to doubt their figures during this piece, but what I will doubt is, the what, how and when as to why it unfolded. But here is the first point of doubt, but first a reminder of our show June 15th, when I gave a warning after the strange event that unfolded on a Swiss Lake, with Israeli and Italian agents plotting something. Until a freak storm unfolded on their boat, some died and others fled. Netanyahu denied the incident, which is atypical of Israeli policy. But I said this: What they were planning is anyone's guess, but people of Italy and those around Israel should be on high alert for events in the coming days, weeks and months. It could well be that a major disaster event was prevented or stalled by the consequences of actions issued there. Message to all others planning to disrupt the people or countries, the same will apply there as well. Do things or plan things with ill intent and you will suffer the consequences of your own actions. Then in the first weekend of the war this news piece came out. All Italians living in Israel or who are in the country on a temporary basis have been contacted said Deputy Premier and Foreign Minister Antonio Tajani, after the surprise rocket attack launched by Hamas from the Gaza Strip on Saturday morning. All the Italians in Israel have been contacted. Why just the Italians contacted? Why not your so-called allies the Americans, why wasn't they contacted and warned? I am suggesting the two news stories are linked and their agents were planning something back in June. All of which means, Israel were planning to sacrifice their own people. That may come as a shock outside of THI, but not within THI as you have all been told, they consider all peoples pawns to be used in their insidious power games.

Then we had a rather surprising rebuke from the Saudis, who essentially are another Jewish proxy state, as the House of Saud are Jewish. They said this statement: In a dramatic development that could further prolong the current conflict in the Middle East, the Saudi Ministry of Foreign Affairs has officially accused Israel of being the catalyst for the current crisis. As per their statement, The Kingdom of Saudi Arabia holds Israel responsible for what has transpired due to its repeated provocations and deprivation of the rights of Palestinians. This bold assertion diminishes hope for an imminent end to hostilities, potentially reshaping the dynamic established by the Abraham Accords and the path toward normalizing relations.

Another country with a fake Military that is said to protect American people, it doesn't, because it can't. Go check out the Military Solution of our Blueprint for further details of that. But in typical Hollywood style fanfare, the US Defense Secretary Lloyd Austin on Sunday announced the movement of the USS Gerald R. Ford Carrier Strike Group to the eastern Mediterranean. This collection of ships includes the aircraft carrier USS Gerald R. Ford, the guided missile cruiser USS Normandy and the guided missile destroyers USS Thomas Hudner, USS Ramage, USS Carney and USS Roosevelt. Additionally, US Central Command (CENTCOM) said the military has taken steps to augment US Air Force F-15, F-16 and A-10 fighter aircraft squadrons in the region. It said: the US maintains ready forces globally to further reinforce this posture if required. Yet maintains none to protect the country from invaders pouring through our own North and South borders, funny that. But the string puller says dance to our Fascist tune and they dance along merrily like puppets. Nothing like a war to generate more shekels after all, is there? For those new, please understand I am not criticizing the average soldier, it is the Pentagon and the fake badge Generals. The media went into full swing with its biased opinions, all whilst name calling people who had the audacity to not support Israel. What child-level actions are they? Embarrassing that so-called adults speak in that manner. Sadly this is par for the course, as too many speak and engage at the level of school children. Here is another example. A C-SPAN caller on Sunday said she was disappointed that Israelis did not kill every Palestinian when the country was founded in 1948. Following the weekend's terrorist attacks on Israel, a woman named Diane called in on C-SPAN's independent line. God gave Israel the land, she opined. It was called the promised land and when they got into Israel, they were supposed to kill every Palestinian. Why? Because the Palestinians did not worship God. They worshipped other gods. Just shocking levels of thinking or lack thereof. These people and their insane brainwashed thinking patterns are what gets people killed. They all have blood on their hands with that level of pure mind control and the expectation is, everyone should be and think like them. Someone needs to tell these people it is the year 2000 not the 200 hundreds. What type of god tells people to steal other people's land and kill them all? It is absolutely staggering, as well as downright dangerous. The amount of people killed in the name of their god is off the charts, yet curiously no one questions it. Why? They are children who know no better sadly. Easily brainwashed by the ritualistic cult who sacrifices them as well eventually, but the belief in the lie never dies with these people. Nothing waivers them it seems, too mind controlled is why. Which god gave Israel the land and where is the concrete proof of it? Which god promised land to a peoples, despite it being occupied for hundreds if not thousands of years previously and where is the proof again? Which god would tell you to kill all others on their own land and also all others who didn't believe in him? Is that godly? Or is that pure evil. Imagine this for one second in America, one day you are living peacefully in your State, let's say Texas. Then some god came down and told the people of Alabama and Louisiana, hey I have some new land for you all and I promise this is your land and oh by the way – you are my chosen people. Now go forth and reclaim the land they called Texas, take over their lands and kill them all. Can you imagine the uproar from Texans? And rightly so. Then why are Palestinian, Jordanian, Lebanon and Syria lands any different? They are not, a part from a fake book, who nobody knows who originally formulated it, all of which means there is no proof of its validity. Yet this book has gotten untold numbers of all races killed, butchered, slaughtered and maimed and still nobody questions it. Its gods way they say, fair enough, but to me that way is pure unadulterated evil. The harsh reality is, all religious people have blood on their hands, supporting that level of evil and the killings. The killings I might add are just another Kali Ma sacrifice cult. Most of which is done by unwitting soldiers, except they are not soldiers, they are soul diers in large numbers, who eventually get sacrificed by this evil cult. Typical murderous rhetoric from politicians, coming forth. This is sick, and we have to treat sick people the way they deserve to be treated and eliminate them, former U.N. Ambassador Nikki Haley, who's running for the 2024 GOP presidential nomination, heaven forbid. This is the same Haley who after the U.S. was pulling out of the United Nations Human Rights Council, accusing the council of being hypocritical and self-serving; in the past, Haley had accused it of chronic anti-Israel bias. But I thought Haley was an ambassador for the US not Israel? I guess I was wrong. When the Human Rights Council treats Israel worse than North Korea, Iran and Syria, it is the Council itself that is foolish and unworthy of its name. I don't recall N. Korea, Iran or Syria removing people from their own country Ms. Haley. Haley is the classic CIA deranged based puppet, parroting to people what they want them to hear. Devoid of any facts mind you, as that is not how they operate, make statements and never follow up on them.

The divisive rhetoric was out in its full glory with the actress Sara Foster even going as far as saying, if you don't support Israel, then you are not human. Just like the Covid jabbing rhetoric they spewed out, if you don't get jabbed you are a murderer. Other over the top headlines surrounding Hamas capturing people and doing poor actions, that remains to be seen whether true or not. But it is very awkward to get any true reporting on the ground, as to what is really going on. But as always with the media they write for headlines and sensationalism, and can virtually write their own scripts and people buy into it. With the whole of the media owned by the Israeli Junta, it becomes hard to discern what is really going on.

When you need calm heads and balance, you can always rely on America to not provide that. So, who did America send as the peace envoy from the Government? From the State Department they have sent Anthony Blinken to visit with the Israelis and the Palestinian's. Lest I remind you Blinken is Jewish, I am sure the Palestinian's are looking forward to Blinken being impartial – not. Typical American Government response, lets add fuel to the fire and zero common sense.

Addressing a roundtable with Jewish community leaders at the White House on Wednesday, Biden said Saturday's attack was a campaign of pure cruelty and the deadliest day for Jews since the Holocaust. Amazing how that remark can be used by some people and not others. A British MP was suspended for using that term earlier this year. In Biden's remarks, he referenced unsubstantiated reports that have circulated widely on social media that Hamas had beheaded babies during Saturday's attack. I've been doing this a long time, he said, I never really thought that I would see and have confirmed pictures of terrorists beheading children. A White House spokesperson later told The Washington Post that Biden and U.S. officials have not actually seen pictures or independently confirmed the reports. Which means he lied to the public and where is the rebuke for that? The classic media spiel, make statements and allegations and never provide any proof. The spokesperson said the president had based his comments on claims from a spokesperson for Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu and Israeli media reports. A spokesperson for the Israeli Defense Forces told The Intercept on Wednesday that they could not confirm that Hamas had beheaded babies. We cannot confirm it officially, but you can assume it happened and believe the report, they said. Oh so we are basing news on assumes and biased opinions now? Seriously? Democrats need to step up and hold Biden accountable for lying about this, Tariq Kenney-Shawa, U.S. policy fellow at Al-Shabaka, a Palestinian think tank, wrote in a post. I can't wait to hear why I should vote for a man that lied about seeing photo evidence of decapitated babies, in an effort to drum up hatred of my people and encourage their genocide, he wrote. The nonprofit Institute for Middle East Understanding wrote that Biden lied this afternoon during a speech, saying he'd seen photos of terrorists beheading children. The White House immediately walked it back, saying he in fact had not seen photos, only unverified claims. Disinformation has deadly consequences for Palestinians. Sulaiman Ahmed, a journalist, wrote: Fake news: Biden confirms that he did not see the pictures of beheaded children. His comments were based on Netanyahu, once again. Then both of them should be charged with inciting violence and murder. Maureen Murphy, a senior editor at The Electric Intifada, an online publication that says it focuses on Palestine, its people, politics, culture and place in the world, wrote: Biden lied about seeing images of beheaded children. Murphy added: This is all about manufacturing consent for genocide in Gaza. I cannot wrap my head around the profound implications of this. So, why would a President say something so obviously heinous? Because this is how the media work. All about soundbites and headlines that catches the lazy viewers' attention. This then creates a viral response on social media and off goes the story into proof. But it is a heinous lie and both Biden and Netanyahu should be charged with crimes and removed from their respective positions. The BBC along with their American counterparts and their reporting leaves much to be desired, in fact it is downright biased. Although the BBC did at least do a backtrack and an apology for lies about the Palestinian demonstrations. Let's overview the situation shall we. One group invades the land of another, one is labeled freedom fighters and the other are labeled terrorists? Who are the terrorists? Surely it is the original group who invaded the lands first? No, not according to the media, it was ok for Israeli forces to go into another countries land, decimate it and their people. All based upon some fake book, the validity of which has never been questioned in any purposeful way. In the 1948 war, 711K Palestinians displaced to accommodate an invader force. Thousands were murdered. Then came the UN mandate and the allocation figures were alarming. With only about 32% of the population, the Jews were allocated 56% of the territory. It contained 499,000 Jews and 438,000 Arabs and most of it was in the Negev desert. The Palestinian Arabs were allocated 42% of the land, which had a population of 818,000 Palestinian Arabs and 10,000 Jews. This week's violence is the effect, the cause was the 1947-48 time period, when the terrorists invaded another country and planted a fake flag. Not content with that land mass, they went onto another war in 1967 and claimed thousands of more square miles. Since then of course, we have the settlements, which expanded the Israeli borders further onto Palestinian land. Then we had the Trump mandate, whereby he declared parts of Syria as Israeli as well. All to appease his Jewish backers and the likes of his snake in law Kushner.

By Saturday evening these were the updated figures and report. Israel began its aerial bombardment of Gaza on Saturday immediately after Hamas militants launched a series of surprise terror attacks against the country, killing at least 1,300 people, mostly civilians and injuring over 3,200 more. The group also took an estimated 150 people hostage. By Thursday, the Israeli Air Force (IAF) said it had dropped about 6,000 bombs against Hamas targets in the densely populated coastal enclave. The relentless campaign, which was ongoing as of Friday evening local time, has reduced entire neighborhoods to rubble and sent people scrambling for shelter. At least 1,500 Palestinians have been killed and more than 6,600 injured, according to Gaza's health ministry. Averaged out, Israel's 6,000 bombs dropped on Gaza between October 7 and October 12 comes out to 1,000 per day, smashing the average of 164 bombs dropped per day by the US-led coalition in August 2017. That is not fighting back against the terrorists, that is total genocide. Which is what I expected at the beginning, sacrificial overkill against a group of people with minimal or no defenses. Just cowardly and inhumane actions. By Thursday the captain obvious solution that was wanted all along was unveiled. As Israel ordered 1.1M Palestinians out of their own homes and to move to the southern border.

The BBC went into its full Zionist mode, putting old memes, blaming Iran and spewing out a whole heap of guff. The BBC once the bastion of world news they told us, now operating with grubby MI5 & 6 plus the 5 eyes consortium, hands stuck up their asses and dancing like Punch and Judy puppets. Because heaven forbid, that some of god's chosen ones got killed, them and the majority of their puppet politicians in Britain and America, all dancing to the same Zionist tune. But this was no ordinary attack, it had all the classic hallmarks of 9/11. Military and other forces curiously not in post, a huge time lapse of no counteractions until Hamas had done so much damage. Israel was warned by Egypt of potential violence three days before Hamas' deadly cross-border raid, a US congressional panel chairman has said. House of Representatives Foreign Affairs Committee head Michael McCaul told reporters of the alleged warning. The stupid people who follow the news like bots may well believe that, but I and many others won't. This was a staged attack, even some of their own people are seeing that now. Intelligence failure some will call it, I agree, but not in the same way. An intelligence failure by too many of the people is the real problem. Blinded by religious fervor, fascist Rabbis and a law that tells them all other people are to be treated like animals. The other intelligence failure is Mossad, where were they when this was unfolding? Where was their intel? Hamas amassed 5K rockets right under their nose and you are trying to tell us, they didn't see it? Turn it in. The backdrop to all of this was, Netanyahu was in trouble for fraud and corruption and the Israeli people demonstrating continuously in large numbers. Israel losing sympathy across the world and so something had to be done to pull everyone onside again. It won't work, but they have played their hidden hand in full public view. And once the carefully selected hand puppets chosen for the media stages have tried to turn the tide and failed. What happens next? That is unfolding now, the Israelis have cut off food supply, water, gas/petrol and electricity into Gaza and once the backup generators fail, they are left with nothing. Israel is now telling them to move out of Gaza and move to the border of Egypt. The next plan anyone? An old plan I revealed 10 years ago in Universal Voice. The third temple will be attempted again and Rome will move to Jerusalem, or so they think. What else has unfolded on many streets in many countries is just like we warned would unfold, Arabs and Jews being attacked in the street just because of their religion. The reporting of which is again typically slanted, one is religious hatred, one is anti-Semitic. No both are the victims of a church and media system that stokes this hatred to appease military, agencies and bankers to prop up their shekel machines. But more importantly appeases the Jewish master race EL-ites to fulfill their sacrifice quota to their dark forces gods. As always what is left is, the suffering and loss taken by the people. At which point will the people of all races see through this illusion? This is a hostile takeover of the planet and it's varying human races, all of us have been used, abused and enslaved by these imposters. Don't believe me and what I am revealing, that's fine, but be aware more death and destruction will follow until you do see and act. Final word on this piece comes from the horse's mouth so to speak, just like Finkelstein, Rosenthal and Israel Cohen we covered in FHSTOS. I opened with a piece that mentioned an off world system of control, lets see if this next piece confirms it for you. Step forward former Israeli Prime Minister Menachem Begin, who famously refused a request from Hitler and Churchill to take all the Jewish prisoners out of the camps in WW2. Our race is the Master Race. We are divine gods on this planet. We are as different from the inferior races as they are from insects. In fact, compared to our race, other races are beasts and animals, cattle at best. Other races are considered as human excrement. Our destiny is to rule over the inferior races. Our earthly kingdom will be ruled with a rod of iron. The masses will lick our feet and serve us as our slaves.

MYSTERY SECTION: Quantum physics is part of our daily lives. The problem is that we have a tendency to put things into boxes, saying: this is relativistic physics, this is quantum physics, etc. But what we're really talking about is the physics of creation. How existence happens. And since we're part of existence, it's essential to understand what we're doing here. Science concerns us all. Nassim Haramein.

Imperial physicists have recreated the famous double-slit experiment, which showed light behaving as particles and a wave, in time rather than space. The experiment relies on materials that can change their optical properties in fractions of a second, which could be used in new technologies or to explore fundamental questions in physics. The original double-slit experiment, performed in 1801 by Thomas

Young at the Royal Institution, showed that light acts as a wave. Further experiments, however, showed that light actually behaves as both a wave and as particles, revealing its quantum nature. These experiments had a profound impact on quantum physics, revealing the dual particle and wave nature of not just light, but other 'particles' including electrons, neutrons and whole atoms. Now, a team led by Imperial College London physicists has performed the experiment using slits in time rather than space. They achieved this by firing light through a material that changes its properties in femtoseconds (quadrillionths of a second), only allowing light to pass through at specific times in quick succession. Lead researcher Professor Riccardo Sapienza, from the Department of Physics at Imperial, said: Our experiment reveals more about the fundamental nature of light, while serving as a stepping-stone to creating the ultimate materials that can minutely control light in both space and time. Details of the experiment are published today in Nature Physics. That is all very well, but at some point they need to consider the light wave not just in terms of time and space. All light is a frequency wave, the absence of which is only determined by a lack of thought. The thought pattern then creates a vibration, which then forms the matter. But at certain junctures of what they call time, those experiments will not work due to the matter and non-matter particle cycles. For example if a giant pyramid was built in the matter space, when the cycle flips to the non-particle phase, that pyramid will not exist to the naked eye, but is still there in a physical sense. As when the matching cycle returns, that pyramid will re-appear again like magic. It is not magic, but just the difference between the two cycles of matter and particles. Particles are also a wave pattern, hence the term wave particle. Patterns of interference: The original double-slit setup involved directing light at an opaque screen with two thin parallel slits in it. Behind the screen was a detector for the light that passed through. To travel through the slits as a wave, light splits into two waves that go through each slit. When these waves cross over again on the other side, they 'interfere' with each other. Where peaks of the wave meet, they enhance each other, but where a peak and a trough meet, they cancel each other out. That is like the overlay wave I showed people in the two worlds show and also the presentation on the Common Sense zoom in January. This creates a striped pattern on the detector of regions of more light and less light. Light can also be parceled up into particles called photons, which can be recorded hitting the detector one at a time, gradually building up the striped interference pattern. Even when researchers fired just one photon at a time, the interference pattern still emerged, as if the photon split in two and travelled through both slits. In the classic version of the experiment, light emerging from the physical slits changes its direction, so the interference pattern is written in the angular profile of the light. Instead, the time slits in the new experiment change the frequency of the light, which alters its color. This created colors of light that interfere with each other, enhancing and cancelling out certain colors to produce an interference-type pattern. That is your light spectrum, but certain frequencies alter the pattern, because of the changes in the vibration of frequency and the subsequent wave. Metamaterials and time crystals: The material the team used was a thin film of indium-tin-oxide, which forms most mobile phone screens. The material had its reflectance changed by lasers on ultrafast timescales, creating the 'slits' for light. The material responded much quicker than the team expected to the laser control, varying its reflectivity in a few femtoseconds. The material is a metamaterial, one that is engineered to have properties not found in nature. Such fine control of light is one of the promises of metamaterials and when coupled with spatial control, could create new technologies and even analogues for studying fundamental physics phenomena like black holes. Co-author Professor Sir John Pendry said: The double time slits experiment opens the door to a whole new spectroscopy capable of resolving the temporal structure of a light pulse on the scale of one period of the radiation. The team next want to explore the phenomenon in a 'time crystal', which is analogous to an atomic crystal, but where the optical properties vary in time. Depends upon where and when in time the crystal originated, because that then will produce differing results. This is from a pondering from one of the members. Etymology is the study of how words and language morph over the years. Watchers or sky watchers became witcher's over time. Workshop became worship over the years. Also Witch or Witcher in Polish is synonymous with the word knowledge, from which the Vedas derived. Vedas means knowledge as does the Norse word Edda. Now consider for a moment how the Aryan vocabulary words were slandered, whereby a knowledgeable woman equals a witcher. Witch was made to mean cackling crone or menace to society. A schlock equals a tablet of knowledgeable done by rune writing. A schlock was made to be synonymous with low class or a waste of time. Arth of the Ur, King Arthur, descendant of the D'Aryan line. Then they named a villain character D'Arth Vader slanders Arthur, D'Aryan and Veda.

We mentioned the white dog and its relation to a calendar in the FHSTOS series. A member came up with this. According to the Da'Arian calendar this year (2023), until Sep 22, is the 11th year from the current life cycle of 144 years. Which means 2025 which is a 9, is also 12+1 as well. The year of the White Dog is 125th year, meaning that in the current life circle the year of the White Dog will be year 2137. The 125th year from the previous life circle is 1992. It is also interesting to note that from 2012 started the epoch of the White Dog, which lasts 1620 years (2012-3632 c.e.) with patron god Veles. This next piece is related to a song played in the last two months. And from time to time I like to pull songs out and provide a deeper meaning and understanding behind them. Many deep revelations have come out of the songs within this show. That is not a coincidence, that has largely been by design. Remember they have to tell us, our role is to spot it and decode it. For too long now we ignored their hidden messages, but then THI and others came along and began to unravel it. This is called Get free, that documents mind control, dark and sexual magick perpetuated on most if not all successful artists. And her own journey of discovery to walk away from it. It also has deeper implications for our own journey of discovery, as I will reveal. The song lyrics are as follows. Finally, I'm crossing the threshold, from the ordinary world to the reveal of my heart. That line reveals so much to us all in THI, I am crossing the threshold has much deeper meanings to us all. This plays into the leap of faith I speak of, there is not just one, but many. But there is a main leap of faith once you have crossed many thresholds. From the ordinary world to the reveal of my heart. The separation of the two worlds is what that is revealing and from the controlled and corrupted mind, into the heart. From mindset to heart-set, from head space to heart space, from head spinning to the heart spiraling. Undoubtedly, that will for certain take the dead out of the sea and the darkness from the arts. Taking the dead out of the sea in THI terms speaks to the Dunkirk piece I did some time back. Of how the system declared us all dead in the sea at 7 years of age, which is why they ask us all to Capitalize our name, so they can capitalize upon us and capitalize our trust funds. Take the darkness from the arts. This speaks to the leveraging and blackmail game they use on all successful artists. Whether stars of film, stage, music, sport or television. They also use it on all high profile people in media, business and politicians. They hook them into their programs of deceit and essentially those leveraged become minions of the dark forces. Placing them into several categories designed to manipulate and harvest the people. This is my commitment, my modern manifesto I'm doing it for all of us who never got the chance. There have been many who have been in the programs, I suspect she was used in the Monarch programs. Used as a spies and sex slaves designed to entrap people the system wants to control, malign or delete. Britney Spears is the most common version of that, farmed out as a sexual object for several top politicians and dignitaries against her will. But when she started to remember things, the system shut her down, shaved off her hair, took haunting pictures of her and told the public she has gone nuts. Sadly the stupid and ignorant public believed the media again. Because the media is the deliverer of people's opinions, it forms all the labels, it creates division and spews out total pro pagan da, yet so many fall for it. And people in the programs that none of them signed up for, are left isolated, withdrawn and depressed because the world won't believe them. All they wanted was someone to listen to their plight, yet the media told you not to and people believed and accepted their version. The great question is: why would you trust people you have never met, you don't even know whether they are real or not, operating from inside a box? This is a question everyone should ask themselves, because if you believe animated figures inside a box, who you have never met to gain a trust of, what does that say about you? Where is your research, input and opinion? Who decided only the media have the truth? And why have we allowed that? This is my commitment, my modern manifesto I'm doing it for all of us who never got the chance. Isn't that the Blueprint also, an opportunity for us all who never got the chance to have a say in things? The next part is saying who she is doing it for. For, and for (shut up, shut up) and all my birds of paradise (shut up, shut up) Who never got to fly at night (shut up, shut up) 'Cause they were caught up in the dance. Those lines revealed an alter, which is what the programs are all about. They split the mind sometimes in 12 different versions of the person, however many times they create the split personality it produces an alter. Isn't it interesting that the spell checker on word documents does not recognize the world alter, only altar which is a sacrifice table within churches. The most prominent of the alters in my opinion is, the child alter following a created trauma. It speaks also of the difference between the heart and the mind. The heart is telling her to leave and help others, the altered mind is telling her to shut up. Like I have said, they can control your mind, but not the heart. So, the antidote to all of this is, operate from the heart, it tells you how to go and operate, the mind argues with you and spits out negative thought patterns. 'Cause they were caught up in the dance. That is explaining the dance with the dark, once you get caught up in it, it becomes a fly trap and very difficult to escape. The key to that is observe the dark, but never absorb it. Sometimes it feels like I've got a war in my mind, I wanna get off, but I keep riding the ride I never really noticed that I had to decide to play someone's game, or live my own life and now I do. A war in the mind is exactly what it is, the mistake people make is, they fight that war within the mind. No, you fight the war in your mind with your heart, trust in your heart and never trust your head, particularly those who have gone through the programs. For those new, the programs are MK Ultra mind control. The heart is telling her to get off, but the mind keeps riding the ride. Finally she is realizing she is in someone else game, an insidious game of entrapment, abuse, torture and often leading to an early death. Those in the programs and many have no idea they are, are essentially host possessed. I have had personal experience with program people and yes they turned against me despite the help provided, because they didn't do enough heart work and operated in the head. Chloe and Kim are classic examples of it, two very lovely people in many ways, who turned in the blink of eye because they were triggered into poor behavior by trigger words implanted in their minds or by handlers they were unaware of. Shane the non ruiner is another example, although I suspect/believe he was a handler as well as a victim. I wanna move out of the black (out of the black) into the blue (into the blue) This is moving away from the dark recesses of the mind, isn't that an interesting term that has never been looked at or defined? Why is it called the dark recesses of the mind? Where is the light recesses of the mind? Is that telling? It should be as the light resides from the heart. She is moving the dark into the blue which can be seen as the clarity of the sky away from the black sun. Finally gone is the burden of the Crowley way of being, that comes from energies combined. The Crowley way of being is the dark magic, the sex magick and the dark arts. That comes from the energies combined, is explaining two things: 1. The dance with the dark and immersing yourself in their field and; 2. Combining energies via the sexual act. Having sex with a dark entity creates a conduit, like the strong man effect when they bugger young boys, you combine energies and they harvest you, that is the sexual magick. Hence the common program for the female is, the Monarch program. There has been hardly any discussion of what happens when you have penetrative sex with a partner. The combining of energies, the exchanges of fluids, the effects on the body or the cords it creates. This is deliberate on the dark forces part, to keep you in the dark, literally and figuratively. It is no coincidence that the porn industry is ran by the Jewish cult. Many women who have unwittingly been in the programs, largely done on Military bases, become hyper-sexualized. Which may please many men, but it is deeply damaging for the female with lasting implications. Hyper-sexualization leads to more partners and more cords. Like my part was, I was not discerning and you, as we found out, were not in your right mind. Yes, the discernment part is difficult, why? Because you operate in the mind, not the heart. Discern is to perceive or recognize something, ment means mind. Recognize the mind that is telling, it is mind memery being implanted. From the heart comes true discernment. There's no more chasing rainbows and hoping for an end to them their arches are illusions, solid at first glance But then you try to touch them (touch, touch) There's nothing to hold on to (hold, hold). Chasing rainbows is the illusionary world and the new age program. She speaks of the illusions, none of which are solid, but that was created as solid within the mind. But now she is beginning to see they are not solid and there is nothing to hold onto. She is breaking free of her mind that they controlled. The colors used to lure you in (shut up, shut up) and put you in a trance (ah, ah, ah, yeah) That line is directly telling you about the MK Ultra program. The colors used to lure you in and put you in a trance, that is the color-coded programs I have spoken about. But it also has an even more sinister side as the program uses Disney movies and all its colors to put children into a trance and then they alter and reprogram the child's mind into what they wish it to be. I covered the Disney movie program in greater depth in an earlier show, you can find it in the search engine from the transcripts on our website THI-show.com. Who would have thought there was so much details with one song? I hope you all got a greater understanding of what it was revealing. If you were triggered, don't shoot the messenger, work through it yourself and or seek help with it. You were not alone in this, you will find many have gone through the same thing but were frightened to speak out due to fear of not being heard or dismissed. This then plays into a private group call I did a few years back on astral rape. All the victims went in with trepidation, fear and haunted, all came out smiling and with tears of joy, because someone took the time to hear their story. We have not cared enough for each other, too pre-occupied with the self. But many are crying within and feel lost and abandoned, it is time we all endeavored to correct that. THI has helped many of you overcome your troubles and continues to do so, but you can all play a role in that as well. If you have been helped, go and pay it forward by helping someone else. That way we all lift each other up, not drag each other down. All rising up aids the light, all dragging each other down aids the dark.

Final piece tonight. Saturday October 14th at 10.35 am may not be recorded as a morning any different to any other. Few got to witness it on a wider scale, many didn't and many did not recognize the significance of it. Last Saturday marked a major turning point on many levels. It will go down as just a transit of a moon across the life giving sun in many circles, but this was different. The ring of fire as it was dubbed as our moon traversed across the fiery opening. The deeper question remains as to why we have never heard of the ring of fire previously? One look in the search engine, yields no historic or explanation results, only about the ring of fire of the Pacific rim. Why was the moon smaller and so it never covered the whole of the sun? Why was there no visible reduction in the sunlight, despite it covering 90% of the sun? These are the main ponderings for you all to consider. Here is something else to consider, it was not our moon, but their moon, the moon of the dark forces. Yet again there was no evidence of our moon in the sky, only a shadow dancing across the sun. Our celestial star that never rises nor sets, only emitting frequencies of a higher and higher nature. Why was this different? Did you notice the difference in the angle of the object traversing? Why did it come in at 12-1 o'clock when the last solar eclipse on the East coast 7 years back, came in at 3 o'clock. Is that evidence of the shift of the planet? This was different whereby a full solar eclipse blacks out the sky, this one didn't. This object was smaller and so did not cover the sun. At the maximum coverage an extraordinary thing happened, the object was swallowed by the sun, sent in a spiral and the sun consumed it. At that point Rahu, not the moon was transmuted into something entirely different. The portal had opened up and Rahu was swallowed and transmuted into an object of the light. The ultimate in the light overcoming the dark in spectacular view for all too see, particularly the dark forces. This was their event or so they thought, but what they will have witnessed was not the black sun, but their own moon being bathed in not only sun shine, but earth shine as well. The side facing us became a ball of light, not the dark non reflective world of previous years. Ketu will undergo the same transmutation within the southern hemisphere as well. The celestial dance between sun and the false moon, between light and dark was rendered null and void and a further reclamation unfolded within this solar system. Swathes of pure light burst forth and punctured the dark object and the transmutation began. The light enveloped it in its own special way, as the dimming effect was negated in a blaze of glory. No longer their night creep will hold fear over us, the dark again rendered mute and now bathed in the light and the heartshine. The download was the word Idalia which was the storm that breezed through Florida and particularly the stargate at Sarasota a few months back, although the media kept posting it as a future event, which was a sign to me. Idalia means behold the sun. Saturday October 14th became be and hold the sun. Embrace and integrate further the new frequencies generated from that event. The celestial dances and the music of the spheres increases now and that will bring deep change within you all. The energies and the higher frequencies also will and has brought much change within the past few months, embrace and integrate them as well. That event was a genetic altering DNA upgrade for those ready to receive. The sun projected the spirals all around it, which match the spiral wave they came from the Earth just over a week ago, like some celestial union. I said nature was fighting back as well, is that another example? The dark have lost another power and energy harvest mechanism and now they have to face their own maker and plight. Their dark overlords will not be saving them this time, they will not be able to save themselves, never mind you. October 14th was a gift from the heavens, the world of Prav and the celestial elevator that rises in vertical time and bypasses the astral harvesting realm. A merkaba altering path as well, as the trinity combined to show the path of redemption and an eventual return to our former selves and the path of the light. October 14th was designated a visual event, but it was much more than that. It was an internal event where and when the truth resides only, an opportunity for those on the Golden Path to feel and experience the change, the wonder and the awe of the power of the light.
