

THI-SHOW TRANSCRIPT 2023-12-26

I hope you all enjoyed your Christmas festivities and you all got what you wanted for Christmas. Not some cheap perfume and unwanted socks. Christmas they say is a time for family for those who have them close to you, but also a time for reflection and the materialistic nature of it all. All whilst tolerating the family in varying ways, it is what it is. The village celebrated a Christmas gathering together on Sunday and much fun was had by all. The end of year review show? Just where do you start with this year? A somewhat epic year in so many ways. A year in which many members came together and worked together, which is unique in many ways. A year of the programs of division collapsing in on themselves. A year when the news, medical and society section got progressively more positive. A year where the Expose parts got deeper and more connected to previous shows. We added a new section this year called the Mystery section, where you never quite knew what you were going to hear each week, but expected it to blow your brains out and or trigger you at the same time. Some literal mind boggling pieces in that section this year, as we danced the spiral dance as the year went on. A year where we introduced another section in the show, called the FHSTOS section. As more and more of our content was coming out in the Alt media and MSM. A year when several politicians globally referenced our material, without mentioning us which is fine, because it is all about the information. A year when members learned to trust each other more and some found THI member love partnerships. Last years ending had an epic recall of a trip of several members that went to Arizona with me. Who got to “see” things and experience a few things beyond extraordinary. But overall that event paled into the background when I and we took three trips this year, all of which had a major personal purpose and working purpose to boot. Some but nowhere near all the details of those trips came out, for safety and security reasons. But what was achieved within those trips will live long in the memory, for those who were there. Part 1 will focus on the shows and there have been many epic shows this past year, despite there being less of the Must Listen to shows overall. The content of the normal shows increased rapidly and the intensity of them. Deep ponderings, deep dot connectors and bundles of proof and confirmations of many shows in the past. Unlike other shows, I stand behind all of my words and there is a record for all that has been said. Those that have been going through the transcripts speak of consistency, they also speak of, omg you told us all of it years ago, but I didn’t get it. Pleasing to see many now do. The transcripts stand as a testimony of words and knowledge throughout the over 600 shows, I have done now as a show host. This year marked my tenth anniversary of being a radio show host, which was celebrated with a zoom call in July. Ten years of being pulled apart, abused, denigrated, projected at and targeted, all for caring and daring to tell the truth. The man who committed radio show suicide many times by blaming us for the issues. Although things have improved on that front since the split from the Trustee, which has been immensely beneficial in the long term for THI, the members and on a personal working level myself. But the joy I get back for that is as always, seeing you all improve yourselves on an inner and spiritual level. This year also saw a new show being created from July onwards called The New Blueprint for Humanity show, that has been very popular with the members. More on that in Part 2. A large theme of the shows this year has been around two things. First, going from the mindset to the heart set and secondly going away from fear into love. Tonight I will try and recapture the memory of those extra shows we did do and no doubt cause some re-triggers along the way. Our first must listen to show came early in January and I warned after the March Blueprint trilogy, that there may not be any more until the summer. That is what unfolded, as the next must listen to show did not occur until we had a two parter in June and July. That two parter has now extended into several more parts in classic THI style. The first must listen to show was a humdinger and a shock to the system, a major ass kicker and a warning of not paying attention, applying yourself or self-developing yourself. That show was called THI Book of Revelations.

THI BOOK OF REVELATIONS: It was a shorter show and only four songs and a first for THI as all the songs were sung by one artist, Ronnie James Dio. The songs were Neon Knights, Children of the Sea, Children of the Grave and The Last in Line. They set the themes for this show. It opened with a powerful statement and said as follows: This piece could well turn out to be one of the most controversial and yet powerful pieces of a THI show. Will it bring triggers within you? Absolutely, but those are your triggers to address within yourselves, not project at me, for I am just the messenger. You want the bigger picture truth? Then this delivers it in bucketloads, but can you handle it, is the great question? If this piece doesn't profoundly change you and alter your course of direction and thinking, then there is no hope for you or us. It spoke about us all learning to become adults and being personally responsible. Of developing on a higher frequency and with greater purpose. It spoke of us no longer being under developed children in Cosmic terms and developing into a higher evolved species and races. It spoke about us changing the whole system from within, if we learn to develop ourselves. The folly of worshipping fake gods, who are perpetual savior programs and a reminder of how child-like we are by following them. And how the god(s) you think you are praying to, are actually preying upon you. Following a deep chat with members in and connected to the village, I presented certain information that largely does not go in the shows. I then asked them a question of who do you think now is the main problem on this planet? Their answer was us. I spoke about you can't blame the 1% for a 100% of the issues, no more than you can't blame 540 American politicians for a country and 330M people being in a total mess either. We spoke about the low self-worth, esteem and personal value, the real epidemic and pandemic all rolled into one. Then I dropped a bombshell and said here comes the controversial part for some, in particular woke people who are offended by everything. A woke is expressing disingenuous concern for anyone you have no natural affiliation with. It is fake concern and more illusion, these people don't actually care for anyone bar themselves, if that wasn't the case, the world would have been a better place, its blatantly not. In the background of low self-worth, ponder on this overview fact. Why are the Africans always starving? Because that is all they feel they are worth. Because if the millions of Africans had more self-worth, they would rise up and demand an end to their plight. Demand not only food and clean water, but roads, homes, businesses and jobs. Live Aid was forty years ago, did it end the famine? No, because the people tolerated it. But they are not the only race of humanoids who tolerate poor conditions and lifestyles are they? The yellow, brown, Hispanic and native peoples tolerate it as well. The appalling conditions many Chinese have to live in, the squalid conditions the people of India have to live in. Vast swathes of Hispanic areas rendered as slum housing, that is not housing, they are temporary shelters, many in the west have better garden sheds than their housing. As for the Native reservations, they are just awful concrete jungles and scrub land, not a beautification in sight. Jews, Arabs and Muslim abodes exactly the same in many regions also. You know why they are all living like that? Because they tolerate it. If you are one of those labels, deep down you know it is true, because people with a low self-worth just accept their fate and reality. I am sorry that I have to burst your bubbles and false boogeymen, but we have been exposing the boogeymen on the internet for a ¼ of a century, and what has it changed? It hasn't changed because the people of all colors will just go along with tolerating the most awful conditions and shit thrown at them, rendering them as mere doormats for all of life's ills. It is not ill fortune either, it is because the races of color have negative anti life based tolerances that appear to have no limit or bottom. A recent example is Black Lives Matter, of course they do, except it doesn't appear to matter that, they kill large numbers of their own people. Again a harsh and brutal fact. We spoke about the white race and went back to FHSTOS Parts 1 & 2, of how they tried to help and teach all the other races. My message to the people of colors was, if you eliminate the white race, who will save you from yourselves? Look at the Alt Media, a plethora people wanting change for everyone, yet look around all of the Alt Media groups, 95% are white. Which means that only the whites seems to care about social injustice, in general terms anyway. People can rail at that fact as well, but where is your mass evidence stating the contrary? It is just not there. The people of colors have to raise their low self-worth and tolerance of poor living conditions, quit blaming the whites, because as the recent Avatar movie stated; they were brought back in the form of the enemy, that is the fake Jews. In the past all peoples of color where brought here as slaves and to defeat the white race, they are your ancestors. But the modern day man of any color is not and should never be responsible for the people of the past. The Universal Council made a statement once when I complained about conditions here, their response was; we don't see many unhappy people or people complaining, they look content. You know what? I couldn't argue against it because it is true. Happiness is the providence of sorrow for these people, they are victim/victimizers, running not only those programs on themselves, but each other as well. Leonardo Da Vinci said: there are three classes of people. Those who see, those who see when they are shown and those who don't see. I would add a fourth class to that, those who won't see. The non-reality people, who in terms of creation are a complete waste of a life-giving vessel. Remember my statement from Cosmic Voice time of: all of those who were here at the beginning are now here at the end. The great question is: is this the beginning of the end, the end of the beginning, the future of the past or past the past into the future? I warned of a new reality, called the Metaverse, the final blurring of existence between what is real and what is illusion. You wish to know who the maker is? You, you are the maker, the creator of the creation as your thought form through frequency and the subsequent vibration of that frequency, then created the energy to produce life. Grasp that inside your little me limitation program minded head, you are the maker of life. If you can create life with a thought form, what else will you create? Or are you just too lazy to contemplate it? We went through the lyrics of the song Children of the Grave, which was a warning to us all. Doing the demon dance and adapting to the Black Sun cult and ways. We ended the show with this piece, perhaps it is a reminder of what has unfolded here. A line of a song kept coming up recently stating; say life is what you make it and if you make it death well rest your soul away, but they are your choices. We spoke about why it is important for the colored races to support the white race in this monumental time and epoch, became clear with this ending piece. If not, we wish you well, enjoy the parallel world, for thy rod and thy staff will not comfort thee. The Seal of Palaidor would create a build-up of chaotic energies/identity fragments within the elemental, mental and astral planes, until the Fifth Root Race fulfilled its genetic imprint and assembled the fourth DNA strand through which these soul fragments could be released. The Paliadorian seal is something that has been inserted across the board into the planet globally. It has impacted the astral body primarily at the fourth dimensional level and impaired the Nadial

Structure. What that means is, through the Paliadorian activation if there's a problem with nadial structure or astral body, these splits are going to start to heal because the Paliadorian activation is going to start to heal the heart complex, so these issues within the nadial structure are also going to start to heal. Now, on planet Earth, we have a problem with the Paliadorian Seal being genetically mutated into the Artificial intelligence net. That means, depending on where people are stationed, as was mentioned with the AI Assimilation Timeline, the inner earth, the median earth in earth and higher earth, the people in the AI in descending pockets are going to have more problem with this Paliadorian seal being released, because it's been genetically mutated and merged into the AI programs. A part of the Paliadorian seal mutation is what keeps the 666, what's known as a 666 Seal or the timekeeper running in the body, that means a 666 timeline. There is something called the 666 timekeeper and the Sextant Matrix that is related to the genetic mutation of the Paliadorian seal into the AI nets. The 666-timekeeper keeping you in time, the Time Matrix, in essence, the now public Metaverse with Chatgpt and those people will be lost in space and time. Much of that work has been completed by members of the 5th race, but it is not for the all. It is based on your own input, effort and understanding of it. So who is doing the bulk of this work you may ask? The Aeiran and Hibiru races, and their Aryan and Hibiru descendants would inherit this burden of cellular clearing. That is the white race, those nasty Aryans you have been told about from the non-ascending Hebrew Anunnaki cult, are the very ones to save you from yourself. It was they who took on the burden for the all, including the colors. White privilege? You must be joking. Cellular clearing you say? People of the village may connect that dot. Most humans of the present day have the fifth race coding, and many are subconsciously involved with this process of cellular clearing, integration of the emotional, mental and astral bodies. All but a few are carrying it consciously, even fewer understand the burden imposed on the few to carry the all. You will never find those people amongst the celebrities or famous some of you may follow or even worship, they are playing the role of the demi-gods to syphon your energy, they are parasites. Once the cellular clearing, integration of the emotional, astral and mental bodies is complete, then the assembling the fourth DNA strand, done by 5th strand DNA being(s), that is all done in order to release the Seal of Amenti and ascend. I am here to tell you, The Seal of Amenti is in place, awaiting yours and my input into it, which then creates our trinity of Earth, the Sun and Tara. The Seal of Amenti the EST, the EST not of eastern standard time, of their 12 space prison Merkaba Time Matrix, but our EST of eastern special transit of no time, matrix or otherwise and the 12+1 merkaba that opens the true tree of life. Work on that is progressing and this could be a key year, updates will be forthcoming when safe to do so. The final song is a reminder, it is all down to us, think wisely. A game changer?

The next must listen to show was called: ANGELS, DEMONS, CODES AND LINES PART 1: This show was created by my first flight since my flying ban ended in late April. I took a trip to be with a THI member that month, with two main purposes, love and work on a higher level. Sadly for me personally only the latter transpired, despite my efforts. But, in overview, where I operate, the work is the important aspect of it and to that end it was very successful. I was helped enormously by the THI member I might add and extraordinary things unfolded in Johannesburg, South Africa. The work aspect entailed one item, but as with all my trips other things just unfolded. Strange happenings, deep ponderings and visions came forth in that brief but highly pleasurable stay there. Everything was flowing and deep revelations came forth with the support of our member. I practically wrote the bulk of that show in one evening, as the thoughts were coming through like reading a book. The partner kept me in supply of coffee and cigars and I just kept writing. The first revelation after watching the Dan Brown movie was about the Rose Line, the question was, does it go all the way through to Johannesburg? Turns out it does, but the next question following finding out the line does not go through the Rosslyn Chapel in Scotland was. Does the line go through the northern continent, we now know was called Da Arya. That was also in the affirmative. The next pondering was, does the line go all the way round? Yes again. The next pondering was in relation to a timeline called the Greenwich Mean Time, which is where the world clock is based upon. But we found out that, that this line was selected by EL-ites based upon trade and not the passage of time or the line itself. The angle of that Rose Line is the same angle of the 11/5 Parallel world line, we covered in the Cosmic Genetics series. We spoke about the Louvre building and the glass pyramid containing the remains of Mary Magdalene. The Louvre is a glass built pyramid built on the Rose Line, which is said to be the path of illumination, which is the Luciferian path of endarkenment, not enlightenment. We spoke about the Occitan region which contains Montsegur, where the real Mary Magdalene was killed by the Rome church's knights. We did a piece on Greenwich mean time, or is it the green witch, who is mean in time? We covered the difference of the meanings of compass, from space, area, extent, circumference to the more sinister of, to surround, contain, envelop and enclose, all binding terms again. What are Parallels? The imaginary lines that run from east to west connecting all locations on a map are known as parallels or latitudes. Given we have spoken of the parallel world's or Matrices, perhaps the description of such makes things clearer? Parallel (adj.) 1540s, in geometry, of lines, lying in the same plane but never meeting, however far extended; in either direction; of planes, never meeting, from para allēlois beside one another. The parallel universe or world but it says; never meeting however far extended, but also beside one another. Which means no interaction, unless they created conduits of thought to get us to manifest it into existence in our reality. Either way, that no longer applies to us. We then discussed the Arago lines, gold or brass signs place along the path of enlightenment around the Louvre and many other places along the line. But, Arago is also the symbol for the dark spot in the middle of the sun, which if you are able to view it correctly, you are seeing the singularity point, due to the sun having a torus shape within it as well. The Arago like the sun is also the portal. We covered the words priory, sion and the changes of important names from an E to an A? The next word play comes from the term mer, which is the French word for the sea. Mer- idian, Mer-ovingians and Mer-kaba to name but a few. Mer-chant meaning trade, like mer-gers, which is heavily prevalent in terms of the off world programs. Mer-maids, Mer-cury and something they never showed to us, mercy. Or perhaps they did with mercy, but we didn't see or see sea as it were. Because Mer means sea, cy is pronounced sea, which is sisi, which is the mirror of Isis. The Sisters of Mercy perhaps now has a whole new meaning. We spoke about the distortion of things of looking at life through their lenses. But a lens is a distortion as well, it is convex which means curved. But vex means to bring trouble, distress or agitation to. Is the vex the con? Does the lens change with a c in front of it? Like the time piece the c lock? Is the lens cleansed? But who is doing the cleansing? A lens can magnify and bring things closer, but also it can make things seem out of reach. Like objects in a rear-view mirror may appear closer than they are. We tied that in with the eye affliction mentioned in the movie Angels and Demons called scotoma, which means impaired vision and darkness. It was mentioned that their mother and child story of Jesus and Mary was actually Isis and Horus. The taken over pentacle was actually the symbol for a female Venus, now it is a male and Lucifer, the morning star. The morning star was also a symbol of their Jesus remember. The code or ode in the movie of O Draconian devil is not only an anagram of Leonardo Da Vinci, but a pointer to the Draconian's running Rome 2000 years ago we mentioned in the Cosmic Genetics series. We spoke about the two versions of Mary Magdalene, her name changes and also the timeline changes. Their his story mentions the Templars, which were not around in 0AD and beyond, but where around when Radomir and Mary Magdalene was alive and subsequently murdered in the 1000-1100 time period. We reported that the DNA done on the alleged skull of Mary Magdalene, was of unearthly origin! Oops. We suggested that Mary Magdalene was originally in Rosslyn Chapel until a suspicious event at the chapel, which was likely a cover to move it to the main Templar Temple in London. Until she was moved to the purpose built chamber under the Louvre and on the Rose Line. We spoke for those new, why I say Cat-holic instead of Catholic as it is a play on words. It is linked to the worship of the cat or the sphinx, which are symbols of Ra and his consort Bastet. This is why there are cat memes everywhere, once you see. Cats are not native to this planet and indeed have been declared an invasive alien species by zoologists. They were brought here and only in one region, Egypt. The home of the fake off world gods, home of the Earth energy center and Heart, but not anymore it is not. The divine masculine and feminine has now returned to this planet, it belongs to us all, not Egypt and their fake gods and Lords. No more fallen man and 6 pointed stars that symbolized it, no more Solomon seals and Orion overlays. Just better frequencies and the divine masculine and feminine. Let's look at the word feminine, femi and nine. Nine is the spiritual and collective advancement as we have covered many times in our shows. But what does femi mean? It means love me. Love the power of nine, not loops of eight or the binary code of ten that surrounds it, the beacon on the nine and the true feminine shines again. Love has the power to change the all, it is part of your progress, to be in and of love. We then revealed that the Rose Line doesn't actually go through Rosslyn Chapel at all, but where it does go to is, Da'Arya. A final revealing is, maybe it was not the Rose Line at all? Maybe that was another of their overlay lines? The key is in the words, Ley lines. Ley meaning; line of a prehistoric track; alignment of natural and artificial features, 1922. So, ley lines per se where only named that since 1922, which reveals the overlay aspect. So, what is the real line? Given the links to Radomir, Da Arya, Mary Magdalene, maybe the real line was called the Rus line. Which was taken over by the Green witch who was mean in time and the Green Man, replete with his obelisks – Osiris. Whose wife and child Isis and Horus is his story's version of Jesus and Mary. When the real ones were Radomir and Mary. But, here is the final reveal, it is not a just line that goes all the way round the planet. Because, as above so below applies, as it turns out the line on the ground is replicated above. We spoke of clearing the ley and Rus Line and then setting the new intentions and frequencies, following the Johannesburg trip to then merge spirally with the Divine Masculine and Feminine energies. A typical mind and heart opening show, that led to a second part.

The next must listen to show was: ANGELS, DEMONS, CODES AND LINES PART 2. This showed the great lengths they will go to, to cover up the original version of The Priory of Sion, despite large evidence to the contrary. The story runs around the life of Pierre Plantard, who brought forward much evidence of the Priory, but with a potential kickback with which to eventually discredit him. The question that arose from this; Was Plantard a plant, designed to tell the tale per se and then have it all debunked? Or was the recreation in 1956 a fake to cover up the original Priory of Sion? But then there were other documents prior to Plantard trying to recreate the chivalric order, the Dossiers Secrets of Henri Lobineau. Their argument was that, the Priory of Sion mysteries having been exhaustively debunked by journalists and scholars as France's greatest 20th-century literary hoax, many conspiracy theorists still persist in believing that the Priory of Sion was a millennium-old cabal concealing a religiously subversive secret. Since when have journalists and scholars been right? Two of the minions that always supports the lies. A bit like trust the science meme, yet again the “conspiracy theorists” were right to ignore their science, others were not so fortunate. According to their script the Priory of Sion was formed 1956, based upon a hill in France and not Israel. Between 1961 and 1984, Plantard's Priory of Sion claimed that it was the offshoot of a real Catholic religious order housed in the Abbey of Our Lady of Mount Zion, which had been founded in the Kingdom of Jerusalem during the First Crusade in 1099 and later absorbed by the Jesuits in 1617. The mistake is often made that this Abbey of Sion was a Priory of Sion, but there is a difference between an abbey and a priory, or to deflect from the original group and name in my opinion. One of the Latin texts in the parchments was copied from the Novum Testamentum, an attempted restoration of the Vulgate by John Wordsworth and Henry White. Novum Testamentum is the Greek version that was not translated in the bible, after the recent piece in a show where it details Jesus interfering with young boys, playing the strong man ritual whilst high on drugs, it is of little surprise it was not included. The whole narrative about Jesus, the relation to Marduk, Osiris, Isis and Horus, the more I think about it, that pondering about the name Jesus being a strong man ritual, the more it makes sense. In 1969, English scriptwriter, producer and researcher Henry Lincoln became intrigued and he is said to have discovered one of the encrypted messages, which read; To Dagobert II, King, and to Sion belongs this treasure and he is there dead. This was possibly an allusion to the tomb and shrine of Sigebert IV, a real or mythical son of Dagobert II which would not only prove that the Merovingian dynasty did not end with the death of the king, but that the Priory of Sion has been entrusted with the duty to protect his relics like a treasure. Which is interesting as, the thought was supposed to be about protecting the line of Jesus and wife Mary Magdalene, not Merovingian king lines. See how it crosses over and confuses? Just like we mentioned in the Angels, Demons, Codes and Lines show, of how scholars were deliberately misleading between Mary the mother and Mary the alleged wife of Jesus. In came the Catholic church into discrediting or muddying the waters sufficiently to make those interested in the subject, confused. The Dossiers Secrets at the Bibliothèque nationale de France, which though alleging to portray hundreds of years of medieval history, were actually all written by Plantard and de Chérissey under the pseudonym of Philippe Toscan du Plantier, according to their script. Yet why would the national archive house frauds to begin with? The authors also incorporated the antisemitic and anti-Masonic tract known as The Protocols of the Elders of Zion into their story, concluding that it was actually based on the master plan of the Priory of Sion. The Protocols of the Elders of Zion underwent similar scrutiny and they had governments declaring it as a hoax as well. It is all true though, as we discovered in our series FHSTOS, plus it shows the lengths the Jewish EL-ites will go to, to not discover their true purpose and to destroy our history. They blamed the Scottish Rite for the Protocols, so in came the Masonic cult into the picture. Remember the piece in the shows in FHSTOS part 6, The Illuminati, the Rothschild's clan and the Zidomasons? That is what that is referring to. Some occultists speculated that the emergence of the Priory of Sion and Plantard closely follows The Prophecies by M. Michel Nostradamus, unaware that Plantard was intentionally trying to fulfill them. Nostradamus was also born in France as well, which brings in the connections between France and the Rome church. France was practically ran by the Jewish EL-ite club since around the 400AD. What is lesser known and revealed is,

Nostradamus was Jewish. Funny no one questioned his predictions. In 1990, Plantard revised himself by claiming he was only descended from a cadet branch of the line of Dagobert II, while arguing that the direct descendant was really Otto von Habsburg. Ah the Habsburg's, well I never. Further adding to the mystery as it expanded out, added other familiar names to the list in this piece. Like the P2 Lodge, another Catholic church group, Opus Dei again linked to the church, Rosicrucian's and Red Cross, Knight Templar and Hospitallers plus the Knights of Malta, again all three corrupt groups linked to the Catholic church. Has anyone asked why that is the case? Plus you can add the mafia to that list as well. The narrative went onto listing 26 Grand Masters of the Priory of Sion from 1188 to 1963. Notable names were Leonardo Da Vinci, the Lorraine family, the St. Clair family and Sir Isaac Newton. The lengths they will go to keep their secret hidden world away from the light is extraordinary. Several books and paties later, it hasn't worked, what is more, it won't work any longer. Too many people are investigating and researching this type of material now, plus our own series has shed much light on these usurpers and their vast network. Much of that vast network has now crumbled, and yes all roads did lead to Rome and that insidious church. That has raped, pillaged, murdered, deceived and harvested the people of the world since its inception. Those days are coming to a close now, as more and more of our story is revealed.

The next must listen to show documented the role of another of the secret clubs and its role in subverting the people. FHSTOS PLUS 19 – THE US DEEP STATE. The US Deep state in the 21st century, is a vital organ of the supranational deep state. It controls the US government, with its über-dominant role in the global trade in weapons, aligned with the CIA, which dominates the global illegal drugs trade. The NSA and Silicon Valley who carry out global surveillance, plus the businesses of Wall Street and it all interlocks closely with the UK Deep state and in doing so links both of them to The Crown. We have come to see, that today's Congress itself is dominated by the deep state powers, that profit the America's global war machine or the Military Industrial Complex as it is lesser known as. These so-called statesmen of America are as dedicated to the preservation of American dominance, as were their British predecessors a century ago. A collection of Israeli based sell outs at its core, I say that as, both Britain and America are ran by the Jewish EL-ites and the countries and their peoples harvested by this off world cult. A vast network based on rampant compartmentalization, fake acts and security clearances that even keeps Congress away from even questioning them. So, who were the main players in setting this all up? Private bankers started the ball rolling, Franklin Roosevelt added to it by introducing the forced school act, designed to make the populace uneducated and adapt to the authority doctrines and mind control. Elite Colleges and Secret Societies came in, like the Skull and Bones. The dining clubs and the Money Trust based largely around the JP Morgan family line. In came the Nazis, OSS and then the CIA. In the 20th Century it took a deep turn and unbeknown to many students of the shallow political history, the US government has undergone at least 5 attempted coups d'etat in the 20th century, all with connections to members of the Bush family. A key factor in all of this was the 1913 Federal Reserve Act, fake entry into WW1 and WW2 initiated by the same bankers. In the 1930's saw the rise of another in house group, who we have covered previously, the Suite 8F Group. The Suite 8F Group was a Texas-based deep state faction which coalesced around the interests of big oil. Texans were elected on December 7, 1931, not only to the Speakership of the House but to the chairmanship of five of its most influential committees. Lyndon Johnson's first day in the Capitol was the day Texas came to power in it, a power that the state was to hold, with only the briefest interruptions, for more than thirty years. The group was heavily involved in the assassination of JFK, who was moving against the interests of big oil. Something else that was ran by tyrannous Bush family. Next was, The Business Plot: That was an attempted coup d'etat by The Money Trust. After researching fascist governments in Europe, a group of bankers and businessmen approached the anti-war general Smedley Butler, seeking someone popular enough to lead a force of 500,000 men to take control of the government in Washington DC and force Franklin Roosevelt to resign. Butler played along, sounding interested and supportive, but was secretly horrified and exposed the plot to Congress. Operation Gladio which is ran by the P2 Lodge and the CIA, of subverting governments and installing their puppets. The CIA then played another central role in creating the fake Cold War, which syphoned hundreds of billions of dollars and put a whole country in fear with their pro pagan da of the Russians are coming. That program also launched in schools to put all children in fear, stating nuclear bombs were coming and all children underwent drills in class. The untold damage that did to children has barely been covered, no wonder 60% of American's have mental health problems. Again that is the effect, the cause are these psychopaths. It covered a new group to many people called The Georgetown Set, who were responsible for smoothing the path to the creation of the CIA and also the National Security Act. They are a private think tank group that influences many things, just outside DC. The 1950's brought in the tv and radio lies and mind control program called Operation Mockingbird, by the recently created CIA, which in essence was not new, as it operated in the UK previously and called the OSS. It was only new where it was stationed. It highlighted the first of several coup d'etat's down by the CIA called Operation Ajax. The 1950's also brought in the Bilderberger meetings again, but Operation Mockingbird would get its first real test early in the next decade, the 1960's. That first test was the JFK assassination that had CIA grubby fingers all over it, but the Mockingbird spin was in full mode and overdrive and the furor died down. Eisenhower warned against the military-industrial complex in the 1960's also and the CIA continued their murderous and subverting of many countries leaders throughout that decade, particularly in S. America. The Vietnam War that decade, was a large source of revenue for the US Deep state, both through arms and drugs. The CIA had controlled the South East Asian drug trade since 1956, and used the war to scale up the heroin trade and boost the US market through exposing young US soldiers to the drug. The CIA also developed the social destabilization tactics Operation Phoenix, which it would unleash in South America before scaling up the drugs trade there. They used the war to scale up heroin trade, fast forward 50 years and they did the same tactic in Afghanistan. Not to mention them poisoning their own alleged soldiers. The 1970's oversaw more skullduggery involving the CIA again, plus the FBI got in on the act with the Watergate Affair. That decade also saw the Pike and Church committees investigating the corruption within the agencies and the Mockingbird program. The cover up of the JFK assassination continued into this decade as 21 people destined to testify before the committee, all mysteriously died. Yet typically, no one investigated that and linked it to the original crime, probably all crushed with the threat of death or via blackmail and leveraging. The 1970's also heralded the sale of arms to Libya, again facilitated by the CIA to Saddam Hussein. US National Security Advisor Brzezinski's planned for regime change in Iran, including many methods and covert tactics that are familiar 40 years later. Brzezinski is a Polish Jew. It was around this time the CIA was offshoring many of its enterprises, offshoring is a fancy term for taking over other countries. In came a new group called The Safari club. The Safari Club was a covert alliance of intelligence services formed in 1976, that ran clandestine operations around Africa. The Safari Club was a resort in Kenya majority owned by arms dealer Adnan Khashoggi. Who is related to the former journalist Jamal Khashoggi, who was murdered by Israeli/Saudi royal family connections, but he is also related to Dodi Al Fayed, who was his nephew. The 1980's saw the US Deep State handing over money to the Iranian's in return for hostages, the hostages were prevented from coming home until after the elections though and Reagan got in. Word has it that, the original Reagan was killed in that attack and a double replaced him. That way the original Reagan couldn't talk, and this is likely what led to the factions within the CIA. Langley 1 are Reaganites, Langley 2 Bush, Langley 3 Obama and the Muslim brotherhood and an unknown Langley 4 was created around 2019. George H. W. Bush used his White House positions to engage in a vast criminal romp, including drug trafficking, financial fraud, savings and loan fraud and even the HUD fraud. The profit of these frauds was liberally shared both with friends and enemies, although most went to the CIA. A new group at this time called The Enterprise who moved weapons and money to the Taliban, which like the Saddam Hussein event, created a future war. The Enterprise ran at least two VIPaedophile operations which were later exposed, headed by Craig Spence and Larry King. Then after giving weapons to Libya, Iraq and Taliban all of which was a pre-cursor to war, the next stage was set of giving weapons and arms to Iran in the Iran Contra affair, which again was facilitated by the CIA. Selling weapons to Iran? According to the media that was unthinkable, but they did, but they were not the only ones setting up Iran for a future war, because the Israeli's gave nuclear weapons to Iran in 1990's. Iran is not Israel's enemy by and large as the top end there is ran by the Donmeh Jews. The 1990s saw the conclusion of Operation Hammer. The resulting political and economic changes provided vast opportunities for looting, which saw entire industries sold for a pittance, making a tiny number of people, the so-called Russian oligarchs into billionaires. Except they were not Russian by and large, they were mainly all Jewish. This has been the great con played out by the Mocking Bird media ran by the CIA, to discredit Russia when it was all for the benefit of the Jewish shekel makers. The 1990's also saw the rise of the Clinton's. Recruited in London as a CIA asset by Cord Meyer, Clinton was the Arkansas representative of The Cabal. A state of particular importance due to the fact that Mena, Arkansas was the main transshipment point for the CIA's cocaine. By 1991, preparations were being made for the 9/11 event. Alec Station, the CIA's super-secret get Bin Laden station was set up and charged with tracking Al Qaeda and Osama Bin Laden. This was to prove useful in protecting the 19 hijackers from honest law enforcement officials. Bin Laden remember was a CIA asset called Tim Osman. Next came the Oklahoma false flag bombing killing 168. This was done to end the investigations into the Enterprise group going on in that building. Echoing other suspicious events, the FBI quickly confiscated CCTV footage of the event, and later reportedly lost a crucial tape. Those tactics played out after 9/11 also. In the 21st Century: Clear evidence of suppression of an investigation into a child trafficking ring with blatantly obvious ties to US military and intelligence organizations. That was the Finders cult set up and ran by the CIA. September 11, 2001: Much has been written about this fateful day in American history, most know by now the official story was a complete fairy tale. Several Deep State operations were in full flow that day and several so-called protection units suddenly all stood down that day. The safest country in the world they said, yes, until some of their own decided it wasn't. Predictably the Bushes were involved, Kissinger also and like the Oklahoma bombing, was designed to cover up criminal investigations again. Around 3K were sacrificed and many more died later, due to what was in the detonation bombs installed within the building. Plus it launched the second war in Iraq within a decade to appease the shekel making bankers and divided the oil up between America, Israel and Iran. The irony next was America was to then have a Muslim President with a fake name. Next came a game show host to heap more embarrassment on the public, quickly followed by fake news rhetoric, alleged riots at the Capitol and Johns Hopkins math in the election. People forget Trump got in under fake circumstances as well, because Hillary Clinton was dead. Towards the end of the Trump reign came pandemic simulations that turned out to be real, ID 2020 and the bio-metric next level spying games, plus Zionist Fascism against the people again, in the form of Covid. Sadly too many covidiot fell for it and the end of the terminal decline of America was now entering its final stages. There was many deep exposure of the Deep State within that show, involving murder, coercion, blackmail, financial fraud, child pedophile rings and many others. We ended the show with an exclusive, a look at and the total naming of every worldwide US Military base, which also at the top levels comes under the banner of the Deep State. 900 bases, billions of dollars a year and what benefits do the people get from them? None. A common theme that it seems.

The next must listen to show was the start of a multi part series that is still ongoing. Following a piece about the Rus in the main show, we started this one off with the story of the Aryans FHSTOS Plus 20. Like the Rus piece, the pieces that supported the show was written in a half-truth manner, this was no different given the Jewish EL-ites control over the media. But I corrected it and added to it in our usual THI way. One of the greatest conspiracies and indeed tricks played on humanity that came out of World War 2. Was the great cover up and subsequent denigration of a whole group of peoples, perpetrated by those who have plagued this world and many others for hundreds of thousands of years. It created a mind meme that lives on until this very day. For years the term went unchallenged and those who dared to speak out were jailed, silenced, killed or labeled in horrible ways, that stigmatized a whole race. Yet the world said nothing, due to the fear programs of anti-Semitism, religious fervor and the demonizing of these peoples. Those people are the Aryans, who have been vilified, labeled as white supremacists, had their history discounted and discredited and to what end? The end of the white race, the Elite Jewish elements all desire and have done for thousands of years. Using every trick known to man, via religion, finance, governance, bloodline families and Houses that took over every traditional white country with their special brand of filth, debauchery and death. Their countries whether it was Russia, Germany, France, England or all the Balkan and Slav countries all turned upside down and inside out by these usurpers. For almost three centuries, European linguists, anthropologists and geneticists have been searching for the true origins of the Indo-European or Aryan peoples. First off, Aryans are not Indo-European at all, they are Rus from Russia. Many will identify the term Aryan with the German National Socialism, while some Jewish and liberal academics propose that Aryans are non-existent people, invented by Hitler to enhance a feeling of Germanic supremacy. This is of course false. Why did the Jewish feel the need to comment? Unless they have something to hide? Aryan also is a series of religious or folk beliefs that also have a common denominator. The race which originally created the language, culture and religious roots of the descendants of the Aryans were of the Nordic race, based on both genetic, archaeological and living examples of peoples of Europe and the northern, more isolated regions of Iran, Afghanistan, Pakistan, Northern India, Kurdistan in Iraq, Asia Minor and many other similar Near Eastern and Asiatic regions. Notice they left out the one country they mainly originated from? Russia. The establishment have done everything to denigrate Russia and deny its role in our history. According to Hindu beliefs, the father of the Aryans was Manu, or in English man. Thus, in English the word Man more properly signifies Aryan. Which could possibly also mean hu-man is Higher Universal Aryan? The author kept saying the Aryans invaded this and that country, no they never, they colonized empty lands. He said we have no clue what the original language was spoken in the prehistoric Europe of 30,000 years ago. Not even linguistic reconstruction can give us a definite answer to that. Well we can, it was likely Rus or Sanskrit, but scholars are oblivious or prevented from ever mentioning Russia in a positive light. Various examples were given of strange European skulls being found in China, Georgia, Zimbabwe and many other places. The propensity to wrap the Aryan people's story into an Indian culture narrative was embarrassing. All because some people won't or can't face the truth, plus the Jewish agenda thrown in as well. We spoke of the origin of the swastika, another Rus/Aryan item overlaid by pro pagan da in WW2. Of how it is a solar disk of worship and signifies the flow of life within everything, connected to the Rus and UR's. Scholars have provided a considerable number of theories for the symbolic meaning of the swastika: that it represents the sun, moon, the yearly rotation of Ursa Major, cardinal points, eternity, Zeus, Baal and fire. The sun and Ursa Major are correct, add in Ursa Minor as well given the rotating around the Northern pole star is Polaris and it is in Ursa Minor. Or several Hindu deities, among them Agni, Indra, Vishnu, and Ganesh, light, forked lightning, water, the union of sexes, fertility and a fire-making apparatus known as the fire drill. Like science, law and math, add other things into the equation to make it confusing, when it is not. It spoke of the rise of Christianity, another program designed to damage the white race and also to take all races who followed it, away from the gods and Source. Christianity is a worship of the Draconian's. Of course the religions brought in by Lucifer around 22k BC, had their own solar leader at this time, Ra. Isis was the planetary mother Mary and Horus was Jesus, all of them usurpers and worshipped by the Jewish, Mormon and Egyptian cults, plus Freemasonry. In time, modern archaeologists found traces of their millennia-old corpses preserved in desert sands or frigid glaciers, even viable samples of their DNA would eventually be discovered. And yet was that DNA revelation not covered up? All to hide the main race here, long before the other races arrived, likely in slave ships. In addition to such physical remains, a wealth of historical and mythological evidence, both in written form and oral tradition, spoke of lost civilizations consisting of fair-skinned gods and light-eyed benefactors who helped establish new cultures. According to numerous North American Indian accounts, at the dawn of their society, they were visited by a great White god arriving from a far-away land located across the sea, established their new mode of life, then departed, promising to someday return. That is the Urs and the Rus. Indeed to our ancestors, those who inhabited the western part of Eurasia, we were not made in the image of the god's likeness, but rather the gods were a mirror reflection of ours. In Aryan culture, these gods are exemplified by the Greek Olympians and the Teutonic Aesir, among others. The Aesir are the Odin's and Thor group. The ancient Greek world was referred to by the Hellenes as a Land of Gods and Monsters. The monsters they speak of are the giants, who were destroyed by the Aesir's and the Olympians. Some of these were known as the Titans. We still see remarkably European-like faces in those areas to this day, because that is who they are. One of the most notable was featured on a famous cover of National Geographic, a young woman who years later was tracked down to her home with her husband and children, a face the photographer never forgot. Why? because that young girl had piercing blue eyes, native to the European culture not Middle Eastern origin. Many Iranians have blue eyes, because they are descendants of the white race. Among the Afghans, Northern Indians, Iranians and Kurds there are many peoples who strike out from the crowd as being quite out of place among the other swarthy inhabitants. The peoples of the regions are much lighter skinned than those of the south, but many defy separation from our European populations. This show revealed much evidence all over the world of Caucasian mummies being unearthed and covered up by the authorities. That action by the authorities reveals in stark clarity the cover up of the history, of not only the white race, but our planet's history as well. That tells you there is an anti-white program running right there and all people's should demand answers as to why the authorities would deny our history. These remains are ancient and have implications far beyond their apparent novelty and uniqueness. They are the physical remnants of a forgotten race. They are a lost series of human tribes whose descendants now only make up 8% of the world population, but continue to influence culture, technology, scientific and educational achievement. This race has far surpassed any other group of people in terms of the arts and in communication and are far different than anything present today. Their lineage goes back to a distant, forgotten epoch of humankind. Far back into antiquity, a lost race of men produced an advanced culture at a time, conventional scientists say no humans could have done so. They are a testament to their gods and way of life that is not, nor can be, equaled in the past or the present. This is a lost race of cultural and technological giants whose previous civilization has been lost forever. Their influence, however, has brought about the inception of human intelligence as we know it and given birth to the very first ancient civilization, indeed all of human culture. It spoke of India, the Middle East and Southern Russian peoples all potentially meeting the sky people of the past. In reality, we are all sky people, all came from different planets and solar systems away from our own, largely due to ridiculous wars lasting eons, one of which lasted 249.5B years. Indeed, an ancient legend regarding the birth of the world said that a giant being, Pan'Ku, who was described as having long blond hair which covered most of his body, created the world and its people from his own body and hair. This legend mirrors ancient European myths such as that of both Germanic and Keltic tribes. The fact that it was ancient Aryans who brought the Chinese the wheel, the domesticated horse, even iron weapons, has been preserved in their mythology as a racial memory of past events. The Chinese then mixed the horse and humans and created chimeras, which went onto slaughtering many humans in that region. The carvings of Boadingshan reveals that as a fact, worshipped as a Buddhist site, which says much for Buddhism. According to Chinese myth, some of their most ancient pyramids, including those near Mongolia and the Tarim Basin where the Caucasian mummies were found, were built by the Sun gods. These Chinese Sun gods were depicted as being tall, blond and blue-eyed, with a light, ruddy complexion. They were not Chinese; they were the Rus. This whole chapter spoke of the white race being all over the world, yet curiously never mentioned Russia in the overall picture. Now those with critical thinking skills and the fact they are trying to erase the white race history would say, perhaps the white race came from there after all. Indeed the very first man came from the North, not Africa, as that was the Enki, Enlil and Anu story. A massive cover up of our real history, for white and all other races. Negative mind memes created about white people, like Aryan, Nazi, White Supremacist all to denigrate one race. All this whole piece supposedly about the Aryans and the White Race, yet the article never mentioned Russia once. The great question is why? Why has the white race history been erased? Why are the likes of the Smithsonian and Egyptologists rewriting history in a false manner? Indeed, the much-revered Ancient Aliens crew are no different. It is the Egyptian river again, de-nial(nile). Who stands to gain from all of this? The answer in our own books and this series FHSTOS reveals that to be those connected to the Jewish culture, race and not religion, but law. It is they who control this planet in terms of finance, business, culture, education, media and governance. That control has allowed them over time to not only enslave and control us, but deny us all our true history.

The next must listen to show called The Vedas, Rus and UR's FHSTOS Plus 21 went into a deep dive about life around 40K years ago. This was THI's longest ever show in terms of time and words. It also detailed the past about the lost continent Da' Arya and predicted the future of the failure of the white race to heed the warnings, given to them by the gods and those with the ancient wisdom. They warned of the Koshey's, they warned about preaching to fake gods, they warned against the mixing of the races and many other things. Sadly those warnings fell onto deaf ears. This show was all about the Santies written approximately 40K years ago and is something that in my opinion, should be taught in every school around the world. Not because it comes from the white race, but because it teaches moral, manners, life, birth, the cycles and how to be and operate within life, as well as how not to be. To imagine what Santies look like, you should remember that every Santie consists of 4 plates. Each plate has 4 shlock's 2 on each side, every shlock has 9 lines. Every line has a single upper celestial line, under which are written 16 runes. 9 Santies on 36 plates make up One Circle, and these plates containing 144 shlock's are fastened together with 3 rings. Three rings resembles the atom shape and is also a soul development upgrade symbol. 9 Circles of Santies containing 1296 shlock's or 11664 lines or 186624 mutually controlled H'Aryan Runes, make up image-bearing collections which has been called since the most ancient times, Veda. The Norse word Edda probably originates from the word Veda, but that is not confirmed. It should be noted that: those figures all equal 9 or are derivatives of it. Content of the Book of Wisdom of Perun has a form of a dialog and was written nearly 40,000 years ago. This was at the time they were bringing in the color races to mix in with and bring down the white race. This is not the trigger for color races to react or feel shame or guilt, it is what it is and my belief is, they were all brought here as slaves. What happened in the past should not be reflected in the now. It spoke about the Asgard's and referenced 5 of them. 1. Asgard the Heavenly, the heavenly ancestral home of white humanity. 2. Asgard of Da'Arya, located on the North Continent on top of Mount Mira, known to other peoples as Mount Meru. The mainland was divided by rivers into 4 provinces - Swaga, Harra, Rae and Thule. While according to legend, the rivers did not flow out, but flowed in, as if rising up to the top, there was an inland sea or lake in the center of which, was the mountain of Peace and on its top Asgard. 3. Asgard of Iria was founded in Summer 5028 from the Great Migration from Da'Arya at the confluence of the Holy Rivers: Iry and Om. This city became the capital of Belovodye, the legendary country of freedom in Russian folk legends. Belovodye is defined as a legendary land, the spiritual center of the ancient faith and the White Brotherhood; a paradise located somewhere in the East. At present, many people place Belovodye now in Tibet, now in Shambhala, because there are mountain rivers that have a white color. Iry is mentioned as white, heavenly purity water, which sounds like the Milk Ocean which now lies below the Himalayas. The Great Temple was built of Ural-stone and was a thousand arshins or 2333ft in height from the base to the top of Alatyr Mountain, it was a huge pyramidal structure of four Temples one above the other, located in the center of the Circle of Temple buildings. Two Temples were above ground, two underground, as above and so below. 4. Asgard of Sogdian the power of Sogdiana, was built to protect the southern borders of Russenia the holding on which the Great Race settled. Asgard Sogdii was located in Asia Minor, many researchers believe that the capital was Ashgabat. 5. Asgard Svitiodski, Asgard illuminated by the light of Odin. It was located on the territory of Scandinavia, after the great fire the merchants brought some disease: cholera or typhus, plague, when Asgard burned down, a new city called Uppsala was built in its place. Next followed the 9 Santies with 144 reference points. In Santie 1: Was an introduction to the gods and explaining the worlds of Prav, Nav and Yav, the vitmanas and vitmaras. In Santie 2: Was all about striving to and accepting the wisdom, only achieved by purity, internalizing and spiritually developing oneself. In Santie 3: It brought us life lessons, observe don't absorb, caring and sharing plus need not greed. All valuable lessons for us all to embrace. In Santie 4: Taught us about truth, knowledge, wisdom, nature and serving a higher purpose. Life lessons of how to be and how not to be, service to others not just the self. This Santie should replace the bible for all children. In Santie 5: This section was warning of the future consequences of life here after they had departed. A warning about an alien predator coming and the penalty of mixing and not adhering to the great teachings. In Santie 6: This next passage speaks of even graver times for the Aryans, a great war, poisoned water and food plus a disconnect from the teachings and the ancient ways. The great fall began and we have yet to fully recover. In Santie 7: This next Santie was all about the re-teaching of the ancient ways, codes, morals and wisdom. In Santie 8: In this Santie they gave further warnings and also the hope it and they will return to change the dark forces ways. Forecasting to return around 40K from when this was recorded, all which means they are due back here soon, or perhaps in some ways they are already here? In Santie 9: This section explains the fall of that time period. A warning from the past to the future and housed here in the now. This may well cause triggers within you I said, find time beyond this show to work through them. In Theosophy, it is believed that the Seven Stars of the Pleiades focus the spiritual energy of the seven rays from the Galactic Logos, to the Seven Stars of the Great Bear, which is Ursa Major. Then onto Sirius, then to the Sun, then to the god of Earth Sanat Kumara and finally through the seven Masters of the Seven Rays to the human race. The master of the seven rays is the overviewer, remember the drawing I showed many of you of the single point of light or information? And how you only see from one point, but when you go behind it, it becomes 7 points or rays. Sanat Kumara is regarded as the Lord or Regent of Earth and of Humanity. He is thought to be the physical incarnation of the Planetary Logos, the living being that ensouls this planet. Except the planetary Logos is a female, not male. That is explaining the fall of the Divine Feminine and being replaced by dark force aliens. Sanat spawned from the words Santa and Satan. Helena Blavatsky asserted that Sanat Kumara belonged to a group of 30 beings called the Lords of the Flame, who were from the planet Venus. In the Judeo-Christian tradition, these same beings are presented as Lucifer and the angels who fell from the Godhead to Earth. The planet Venus is not the main planet of this solar system, it is Midgard. Venus was Lucifera and female, not Lucifer. Lucifer signifies the fall of the logos in this planetary system. During this time, the Lord of the Solar System or the Solar Logos is believed to release cosmic energy to Earth in order to keep our planet's cosmic energy in balance. The Lord by its name was an imposter, like the male god of Earth and also for many centuries the Solar Logos Ra, the serpent god. Thankfully much of those dark entities have now been replaced and the Solar Logos original has returned, as has the Divine Feminine energies. Is there any doubt at this point this has not unfolded here? It matters not which color skin or race you are listening or reading this piece, what matters is, will you adapt to the teachings of how to be and how to act in a much more adult-based way? Yes if you are black skinned in the modern day, the passage of non-mixing will come across as racist, but it is but mere geneticism. With the adult understanding of geneticism, those passages will make more sense. We assumed we were all the same, in essence as humanoids we are, but we were not from the same planet or even solar system. It is from that understanding and perspective the URS spoke. We are all not so different, when a black male or female brings a white partner into the fold, it is frowned upon in the community. The same applies with black and Hispanic and the Natives with other races, not to mention the Jewish race and their no mixing Talmudic Law. Why? Not because of racism, but it is genetic coded memory. Maybe the balancer in me at times reaches too far, of how I think we should all come and stick together? I fail to see why are differences cannot be set aside and became friends and working colleagues, whilst sticking to genetic boundaries. Perhaps that can only come when the all Jewish narrative falls and the truth is revealed on a wider scale, not just from THI. Our fall and decay was not from the mind, but the heart. We replaced understanding with illusion, mind memory and lies. We replaced abilities with technology and worst of all, replaced love with fear. Ancient knowledge and truth have become unbelievable to a mass of people, too lazy to not learn outside of a script given to them by their slave masters. Gods-teaching and helping people without idolatry, but with humility, truth, honor, integrity and respect, minus the anger management issues that imbued all the other gods. A god is a helper and service to others, the gods of the bible were service to self, big difference. The Vedas are the path to enlightenment for us all.

The next must listen to show called The Vedas Part 2 FHSTOS Plus 22. This show went deeper to the lives of the Rus/Aryan and Slavs and the 4 Kharatyas began the show. Kharatya 1 covered the beginning, of life after the migration from Da'Arya. It spoke of the creator called Ra-H-Ma, the light life giver from the stream of Ingliia. The great stream of Ingliia is the life-giving light and the primary fire of the Universe, in which the Universes and our Yarila-Sun system with Midgard-Earth appeared. It spoke about the Golden Path, the path of the gods, where with soul development we can all reside in and on. It spoke about the World of Trees, which is the Universal tree I have spoken about, that contains all the Universes or realities. As the branches of the tree were connected by the primordial living light of the leaves, reality with the mighty shining trunks and the trunks of the World Trees were rooted in the infinite new eternity generated in the new reality. The great Trees of the Worlds are Universal world structures. On Earth, these Universal world structures were embodied in the images of the sacred trees, which are still revered by white people: Igga (Iggadrasil), Oak, Birch, Ash, etc. Now you know why they cut down the giant trees, it was to take the energy away from Midgard. The memories of which was triggered in people around the world with the first Avatar movie, many left the theater crying. For those who doubt the genetic memory I put forward in relation to the created meme of racism, those emotions in and after that movie reveals it to be fact. The World of Spiritual Power is a multidimensional and diverse world located at higher levels of the Golden Path, compared to the manifest world of Midgard-Earth. The dark forces think they can cheat their way into the World of spiritual power by going more dark, they were lied to. The ultimate trick of seducement, by choosing the perceived easier path. There is no easier or harder path on the path of spiritually, by that I mean there are no shortcuts. You attain each level based upon what your efforts, lessons learned, interactions have garnered. There is no cheat code, there is no masking, there is no lying on that level, it is the ultimate truth of where each of you are at, based on your applications only. Then we found out about the difference between a sun and a star. A Star is a celestial body around which there is a system consisting of 1 to 7 Earths or Stars. That is, there are star systems where several small ones revolve around a large star; this central luminary is called the Star. The Sun is a celestial body around which more than 7

Earths revolve. Kharatya 2 spoke of the birth and the creation of realities and worlds. But many realities and the beings inhabiting the abode of life had the same number of feelings, but the feelings of the beings in these realities lying next to each other were different and for different thinking beings, different suns and stars shone. Adds a whole new meaning now to think different, does it not? In Kharatya 3 it spoke of the great battle and how Chernobog swayed onto the dark path. Chernobog decided with the help of cunning, to circumvent the Universal Laws of ascent along the Golden Path of spiritual development established by god Svarog. At that time, the call of Chernobog rang out to all the worlds, spaces and realities lying along the Golden Path. The dark Lehi, the dark Arlegs and the Koschey, the rulers of hell, flew to him uninvited and with them the whole army of hell flew to him. Belobog alone could not resist such great dark forces and Chernobog tore off the first security seal, the seal from the ancient knowledge of the world of Arlegs. Belobog called for help from the higher worlds and he turned to the Guardians of the world of knowledge. But the keepers of the secret ancient wisdom of the world of knowledge remained indifferent, since they did not want to fight with Chernobog, considering him free in the choice of his actions. A catastrophic mistake from such higher beings, you see we all make mistakes no matter which level you are at. In Kharatya 4 it spoke of how the worlds were arranged and the spiritual teaching. About Karma and the Goddess Karna and how priests were in caste based upon their development. A caste back then was about a union of 100 people. How stars or suns were all not just yellow like ours. It spoke of the senses, where we believe we only have 5 plus a possible extra one, when in reality with development we have twelve. The worlds along the Golden Path and how they all had a power number for each world. The world of People is four-dimensional, they said, so why are we stuck in 3D whilst devolving ourselves further into 2D? If you run life as a picture, tv or phone screen, then ultimately you are immersing yourself or conditioning yourself a 2D realm. Apply the depth. The path of spiritual development, is known as the Golden Path and there are also intermediate worlds: five, seven, nine, twelve and smaller in the number of dimensions. The peculiarity of the world structure is that all worlds, all realities, regardless of the number of dimensions that determine them, are in the same place, in relation to human understanding and to that Infinite closure, while filling our entire Universe. But there are barriers between the worlds and realities of different dimensions, which can be overcome and joined the life of another world or reality, only by receiving the number of feelings and those qualities that are characteristic of such a world or reality. The number of feelings is describing the right frequencies to enter, that is based upon your own soul development. Some worlds or Universes with the same number of dimensions exist next to each other, while realities penetrate one another. That is how some UFO's appear and disappear, they bleed through in and out of our reality. A bit like cloaking, that is done by crafts and also ourselves if we develop enough. The more complex the structure of the World or Reality in a certain area of the Golden Path, the greater the chances for the inhabitants of this area to be reflected in the consciousness of the Worlds or Realities of less complexity. Yet, what is about to be attempted between now and 2072 and beyond is, the ability to transcend in body for the first time. At the base of the Golden Path is the world of people and the ascent of a person to a higher world or higher reality is possible only, as a result of spiritual development. For this, the Gods came to the world of people and the teachers of mankind come. They are beings of a higher order of complexity, who come down to guide and transmit the higher knowledge and commandments. After all, not only he himself works on the development of the spiritual path and spiritual essence of a person, but also the Universal forces that elevate or delay his spiritual path and spiritual development. Throughout the

Golden Path, the only true and unconditional law of the Universe operates: Love for everything that exists and creation and the birth of love is preceded by wise knowledge. The birth of love is preceded by wise knowledge, I would add soul development to that, to then be able to experience the birth of love through the Music of the spheres. Through love and knowledge, each spiritual essence develops, rising to the Creator and gradually comprehending His creation, and having cognized, begins to create something of its own, filled with love. The highest manifestation of love is self-sacrifice to help the lower. This is what the Lehi do, who lead people and the highest bearers of the spiritual heritage, who bring to people the knowledge of the supreme, perfect love. Love teaches understanding, mercy and sacrifice. These qualities prepare a person for service to others and for creativity, which is seen as a struggle against evil, as complicity in the deeds of the transformation of the world. It is necessary to properly consider the fight against evil, as evil is not absolute. Evil is only a manifestation of underdevelopment and ignorance. We next covered the Book of Ingliism, which was intended to tell modern man the true truth, without any distortions and false interpretations, about the ancient faith of the Slavic and Aryan peoples - Ingliism. The Rus and Aryans were labeled as Pagans, but that was an overlay of the dark forces program, as Paganism involved more sacrifices to the fake gods. We covered most of the distortions of the countries and religions of Europe, all created by the dark forces, not us. We covered the real meaning and purpose behind Christianity and the other religions, to take people away from themselves, worship fake gods and deny the truth and your own power. The real faith, not religion was the Ynglings. How words were twisted, mistranslated and as the song says, and you know sometimes words have two meanings, sometimes there are more than two. For example, immortality and immortality both are spelt the same way, but the figurative meaning of the first word means the spirit (demon) of death, and the figurative meaning of the second is eternity. We ended that show with this. Another tale of confusion, diffusion, smoke and mirrors and to what end? To hide the truth of this planet's history in favor of the dark forces. A new day will dawn for those who stand long the last song said, yes that new day dawned of Svarog on March 21st 2020 and is here to stay for many lifetimes here. This is just the beginning, only the light decide the end, the how, what and when is determined by us. At the end of the day it is all about love, the attainment of love, aspiring to love, the embracing of love, to be in love means one has to first to love themselves. One then has to dance in love, envelop in love, rise in love and when mixed with another being of higher love, then the sparks of creation flies. It bristles with excitement, joy and happiness, happiness creates and operates along the Golden Path, do you care to join it? The question then remains: Will you become and be love, my love, our love and the become part of love for the all. The solution? Is we all rise in love and take the Golden path together and create and manifest our own future.

The next and final must listen to show of the year was FHSTOS Plus 23 The Vedas Part 3. This was a deep impact show on us all and much pondering and realignment of thoughts and thinking came from this show. We started off with the Laws of RITA and telegony. The system dismissed it as a pseudoscience, the irony is most of their theories come under the same allegation, yet the show went onto proving its legitimacy. It covered telegony in the middle ages and referenced Braveheart and their defense of Scotland by the English, who sought to denigrate them through sex with every bride. It then covered telegony in the bible, a sordid tale of how Judah departed from his brothers for the crime of marrying a non-Jew. Which under common sense terms is racist and supremacist, but as we have found out, that only applies to the white people and the Jewish culture and it's horrors goes untouched. Thankfully many are now beginning to see through that illusion. Purification of the image was next up, here it touched upon the image of the first man, the woman's first sexual encounter then creating images for future children born by the mother. The image was replaced by the I – mage, all done by dark magicians to impose their i-mage upon us. Ponder on this thought in relation to the baptism. What if the baptism is overlaying the image by pouring water over the baby's head. Remember water is reflective and so has the ability to mirror an image over us. Education and the bridegroom touched upon of how the potential new partners engage, all under the watchful and supportive eyes of both sets of parents. The Slavs brought up children in a special system: the girl was told: A boy is a future man, a future warrior, a master, the head of the family, the father of the family, the children and the god-protector of the family. Therefore, he must be loved, respected, revered as god. The girl was brought up in this vein. The boys were told: A girl is a future woman, a future mother, a mistress, a Goddess-guardian of the hearth, a future Lada-Mother of God. Therefore, she must be loved, respected and revered as a goddess and the children have perceived this since childhood. The next part tipped many of you upside the head, as the realizations of your sexual encounters without this knowledge brought collective gulps. It was called The image of the spirit and blood, which I will read the full piece out as it is important to remember. Rewarding his wife with his image of spirit and blood, giving the energy of one year of his life, he also gave her the gift of Motherhood, for the main goal was to have children and continuing the lineage. A man perceived his wife as the mother of his children, but if he did not see this image in his spouse, the child was born unwanted. This meant the mother of the child was not endowed with the gift of motherhood; she did not feel maternal love, care or affection for the child. That is an important point that has been lost, the internal damage to a child born out of love. Because if they or one of them doesn't have that affection for the other, the child knows through the mother and that impacts their living time. Maybe that is why so many of us have low self-worth? The man of the bride, he evaluated not just her appearance, but first of all subconsciously, he thought about whether she was worthy of being the mother of his children. In addition to the fact that she would be Lada (his wife), he also saw her as the mother of his children. Deep pondering with that section based on one saying, we will make man in our Image. The implications of that pondering is enormous. Did you know there is a difference between man and male, plus woman and female? Did you know that, when you got up in the morning and you knew that you had to do this and that. A woman on a subconscious level can know everything that she needs to do. But a man must awaken this memory. If he didn't wake me up, what kind of man is he? This is a male. A woman in whom the Female lot has not awakened is no longer a woman, but a female. And here they are: males and females having sex. But love can only be in a man and a woman. This is where the whole relationship issues falls down in my opinion, because we haven't defined it too well. There is a difference at the outset between love and sex and yet the lines between them have been blurred. In general the woman feels there must be love before sex with a partner, whereas the male wants to spread his seed, whether driven by lust or otherwise. But there are four components to a relationship and yet it is never conveyed in that way is it? Because the male and female aspect, not the man and woman aspect kicks in and we danced around each other playing mind games of cat and mouse. But what is wrong if single people can say what they really desire and not over complicate things? Ponder on this longer than a snap judgement, because the programs are designed to create such judgements and think on how much easier life would be for single people, if everyone was just honest with each other. This should not be a spontaneous engagement, only after at least getting to know each other should this type of discourse take place. I would like the following: Relationship 1: Engagement of sex acts between the two and no strings attached. Relationship 2: Engagement of sex acts and see how we get along with possibility of becoming a couple. Relationship 3: I want to make a partner with you and I would like to engage in sex acts now or I am prepared to wait for it. Relationship 4: I wish to not be a couple or have sex with you, but would desire your friendship. No guessing games, no mind games and no lying to each other, just a straight and honest discourse between two single people. No wasting energy trying to engage the person and no rollercoaster rides of emotions, will he or she or won't he or she. It also encourages people to be more forthright, instead of hiding behind nuances. This then gives everyone more confidence within themselves. Which then aids the community and wider afield. This also aids the fear program as well over time, as no longer will people have the fear of being rejected as this discourse becomes the new way. Imagine how many lost opportunities you have had, because the fear of being rejected took over. The placing of other people above you based on looks, earnings, societal status, religion and other comparative measures, all of which ended up you being the bridesmaid and never the bride or being the best man and never the groom. The next part spoke of the energy exchange of the sex act, something we have all overlooked and left all of us with hooks, cords and ex partners living rent free in our heads and deciding our future happiness or love. A woman receives from a man the energy of summer or a year of life and this energy in her activates certain forces. A woman radiating this force to a man, opens in him a channel for receiving energy from the lineage. That is, not only a man gives a woman the energy of life, but a woman also gives a man, opens channels of communication with the Cosmos in him, from where he receives additional energy. Therefore, they say: a man makes a girl a woman, and a woman makes a boy a man, everything is interconnected. Plus, when a child is born in the process of communicating with dad, he opens additional channels in dad and dad receives even more energy from the Cosmos. That is, the father does not receive energy from the child, but from the Cosmos, because the man himself is a radiating system, he radiates. A woman accumulates and accumulates, as if absorbs. The birth of a child was next and the benefits to the woman from it, also how the birth should always be done in a bath tub filled with water. The next part was about treason of the man or woman straying in their marriage and the consequences of it. Moreso for the woman, particularly if she had mixed race partners, as the image of the first man overlays the father of the child, particularly if one of the partners has not conceived the child in love. In parental responsibility it spoke of the first man in the life of a virgin leaves his image, a psychological and often physical portrait of the unborn child she will give birth to. The health and usefulness of the unborn child depends on the first man. The sexual revolution gave several warnings of the difference between sex and love. Children born in non-loving relationships, leads to dysfunctional children, we have all seen the rise of that since the feminist movement. Our ancestors knew that a girl's body was prepared for flourishing at the age of 16 and from the age of 16 she could get married. A young man could become a husband at the age of 21, because before starting a family, he must master weapons and learn how to protect the family. In the West, it has become the norm that children at the age of 10-13 are familiar with sex, all whilst 90% of people of color have blood diseases. It then spoke about raising the children until 12, at which point presumably puberty kicked in and the child is expected to be more personally responsible. How the children were familiar with nakedness even with their parents and it was more comfortable and natural for the children to understand the difference in the body shapes. Christianization was a genetic experiment was the next to be covered with this line. They carry out the rite of baptism, which destroys the energy connection with the parents, relieving them of all responsibility. To create a new connection between the child and the priest operating as a Christian god. I bet that statement raised a few eyebrows and angst, due to the lack of knowledge again. RITA and Generic laws were next and all about the responsibility of the parents. Raising other people's children, spoke to and about the community spirit within the clan. Next was about how the youngest son was always heir to the estate. If no youngest son, it goes to the husband of the youngest daughter, with the family having adopted the husband as a son. Living for the parents or clan spoke of duty, honor and a responsibility to work for the all, not the self. And how selfish people operating for the self only, are harvesters in essence. A child up to one year old was next and it revealed how more advanced children are at that age. Able to see entities and spirits and yet denied existence by parents who are largely oblivious. It spoke of not showing the baby in company outside of the immediate family for 3-12 months, to ward off potential viruses. A married woman is only kissed by her husband and some relatives, whilst a man should never kiss or even shake hands with another woman, as it carries their energy. Energy is not easily washed off and the process of personal hygiene was discussed. The next was a series of interesting questions and some interesting answers. If a woman has several men, is the child obtained from one or more? The main image is from the first and the images of others are superimposed on it. Can non-traditional sexual intercourse affect health and spectrum spiritually? What are non-traditional sexual acts? A married couple does not have such. In what case does a woman not receive the woman's share and the gift of motherhood? If the first man did not see her as the mother of his children, but saw her only as the object of satisfying his sexual needs. That is, he did not see her as a future mother and therefore did not reveal a woman in her. Therefore, she suffers, but then he will understand what needs to be revealed. He may try to do it, but it is much more difficult to do, although it is possible. But it will take more strength and it would take many years. If a man married a divorced woman, does this mean that at each sexual intercourse he will spend one summer of his life? If he does not change the image of the spirit and blood of her first man by the power of his love, then he will give her the energy of the year of his life every time. These are the laws of the universe; only mutual love can change the image. If the wedding was conducted by a monk in a monastery with the permission of Vladyka, what will happen to this marriage? A good thing will not be called a marriage. That is, if the Slavs came to get married in the Christian church, this will be a marriage for the glory of Israel. The priest says: For the glory of Israel I crown and not for the glory of Russia or the Slavic Family. The Rus clearly understand the higher purpose of two people coming together. Can all people love? Everyone can, but not everyone, does it. You can compare it with the Sun, as everyone can receive light from the Sun, but someone who lives in caves and does not come out of there. This has a much wider part to play and it goes back to our piece, What is love? Do we understand it? No, have we defined it? No. Are we embracing it? No. Do we run from it? Yes. Why? Because of fear. Fear is a low vibrational state, which means you cannot experience love, which is a higher vibrational state. Those in fear will run from love, make excuses to not accommodate it and ultimately end up dis-communicated and disconnected from Source due to their own fears. The light from the Sun comes with love, the avoidance of the Sun operates in darkness and fear. A fairly comprehensive and thought pondering show to wrap up the last of the must listen to shows over the year.

A fairly packed year for must listen to shows, despite there being less shows this year in that category. We had eight must listen to shows this year packed with a variety of topics, pondering and deeper dot connections. The less must listen to shows was largely down to the Blueprint, which received and aired its final draught in March and April this year. Three epic read out shows including some of the members reading out their individual solutions. Which then launched Blueprint groups and developed into Blueprint only shows, which stands at 12 episodes to date. We did 32 “normal” shows this year, which was a change from all other years as generally there was 52 episodes. But that too was affected by the Blueprint and also I took some time off this year. Which was technically not time off, only some time off from the shows, as my trips were of a working variety as well as we will find out in another review. The tiny show series also had to take a back seat and also the now legendary Empowerment show, which has been almost two years in the making. But then there are many empowerment pieces in each show now. The shows have morphed from intense sin eating, to our show and narrative being proven on a large scale. Plus the added bonus of seeing many programs being exposed and crashing this year. We had to shift many pieces or sections of the shows around this year, as what was in the society news section in the past, that covered the programs being ran on us, was now becoming the news. But with the convergence unfolding now, all is being blurred into one. The programs we highlighted in the past, are being thrust into the now and now being covered in MSM. That is evidence of planting the seeds working, for those who are impatient on the feedback of the Blueprint, should take stock of how things unfold in a flow. Society news is now the news, our book is now the FHSTOS section, our book is now the Expose section, the mystery section is now becoming mainstream as well. One past member warned us two years ago that THI was becoming the news, that has been borne out this year in many fields. The Expose series on Covid done mostly three years ago, became breaking news and world exclusives as advertised by other alt media. The FHSTOS book whilst not directly referenced reared its head in two spectacular ways this year. One, the US Congress discussed in a hearing about the Jews wanting to exterminate the Whites. A fairly extraordinary claim outside of THI, inside THI we knew all about it due to the volume of evidence within the series and now our books. Then a UN meeting took place and the topic of discussion was, are the Jews Khazarian’s? and did Jews come from the East Asia not the Middle East as they state. Again a fairly extraordinary claim that was stated within our series and books. Who would have thought those two contentious and controversial topics would be heard at their meetings. The impact of THI not only on the news but the collective consciousness and algorithms, has been a source of pride for our members this year. Two Clif High episodes early in the year confirmed the algorithm impacts, although Clif High went to Clif Low later in the year. Clif’s whole show is based solely upon the CIA algorithm database and his reports were riddled with THI themes and memes. Algorithms are based on what words, groups or people are having an impact and Clif High certainly confirmed THI’s role within it. July this year brought two events for THI, the first was my 10th year Anniversary mentioned earlier and a fun time was had by all, including my mother. The second one was more of a personal download, that tasked me to go deeper in my thinking, pondering and wisdom database. This has since then been borne out within the shows as the narrative shifted largely to us of how we be, act, love and engage. All of you have gotten much out of that and in essence it brought forward due to the increased frequencies surrounding that, the current episodes of all things Rus, Aryan, Slavs, UR’s, Santies and the Vedas. Saddest piece of the year? The passing of Angela Efken, but she is now back with Glenn Connon, weerrlll. Words of the year? out of the mind and into the heart, love not fear, anyone can be intelligent, but not all go onto wisdom, people focus on the effect but never the cause and Hope is the avenue of the light. Funny words of the year: tough titties, turn it in, pull the other one it's got balls on, trust science? Sooner set fire to my own testicles, who me? is he human? Members Ass kicking must listen to show of the year? THI Book of Revelations. Biggest piece of the year in THI shows? The love piece in the November 30th show. Biggest impact shows in terms of understanding, frequency and deep triggering? FHSTOS Plus 22 and 23. Songs of the year? Ode to Freedom, Follow your heart, Return to love, Hero of the day, One world and Love me like you do. A curious and interesting observation of mine I have watched unfold with alarming regularity within the zoom calls, mewe chats and discussions within the village. One member in the village stopped and recognized it, of how much their language and discourse has changed. The way they speak, how they speak, gone are the platitudes and clichés provided by the media and in comes THI speak and code. Barely a sentence goes by without referencing the extensive memes that have come out of this show, sometimes in multiples and it is fun to see and hear. So many meme sentences created for and by us, is in overview a rewriting of the spellcasting they did on us. We have developed our own language in essence, one that talks in higher tongues and common sense. You do realize the more this takes off and holds, we are counteracting their AI systems. Out with their spellcasting tags, labels and boxes and in with common sense memes. Out with their mind memes and in with heart centered memes that have an impact. If it doesn't make sense, it is a program is one of them, theirs never made sense, ours does. Clowns is being used throughout alt and MSM now. I am sure you all have your personal favorites. This is an example of changing things without noticing it, it is a subtle 180 away from their control over our words. Embrace it and expand it I say, as that change in language and delivery will be the way forward. Tighter bonds have been formed now and that is all it requires, togetherness. It is important you all take what you learned this year and carry forward into next year. What they do now is becoming not only embarrassing, but entirely irrelevant on a wider picture scale. What we do now is what counts and will be counted, albeit the few.
