

THI-SHOW TRANSCRIPT 2024-02-20

This is our latest addition to the FHSTOS series, Plus 24 The Vedas part four. Another long and packed show ready to tingle your brain cells, spill them on the floor a bit. Keep the faith is often related to religion in their world, but we at THI know it is about the knowledge, but first we have to learn the knowledge to then keep it and spread it. From the world of energy, relationships and understanding the world of how it was and should be, we delve into the history of the countries and the peoples. The who is what and what is not, as the case maybe. It also highlights the solutions to the next stage of our and this planet's development. It also shows you how much the word meanings have changed and the overlays going on in all aspects of society, though in particular the role of the Cat-holic church. The Cat-holic church has done everything to delete, stifle, purge and malign everything Rus, Slavic or Aryan. This show will bring in the perspective of the Slavic peoples, their ways, rules and knowledge.

Return to your roots and you will open the gates to the Divine World, was the commandment of God Ramhat.

What is Russia and the State? the Slavic world.

The Slavic world in my opinion is referring to the community of people known as the Slavs, Rus and Aryans, who all come under the banner of the white race. Russia is a community of Slavs or the power of the Slavs, a holistic structure with its own foundations and concepts. Simply put, Russia is a people who speak the same language. The state is a social system that is based on traditions and the supreme law. There is no secular governing body and the main person in the country, because no one controls the power, it lives by the higher law. That is, there is not even management, but a combination of the highest heavenly laws, since each Slavic clan lives in accordance with the higher law and is guided by it. The highest law is RITA or Cosmic Law. At the heart of the State is the unity of the clans. The power of the Power rests on the power of each Clan: prosperity in the Clan is prosperity among the people, prosperity among the people is prosperity in the Power. Therefore, every Slav must work for the good of his family.

The decline of the state:

The Vorog's knew that the power of the Power rests on the power of the lineage, so they began to destroy the ancestral ties from the inside. After Christianization, religious states appeared: Kievan Rus and Vladimir-Suzdal became Christian. The Novgorod Rus, Polesie and Pomerania were all Slavic, the sovereign principle was preserved there, so the Novgorod land was a United Power. But then everything changed in the Novgorod land. The same thing happened in the West and before the Power was on the entire territory of the great Race, which is the entire Northern Hemisphere.

Revival of the State - Holy Russia:

For the revival of the Power, it is necessary to strengthen the family and unite. The power is held by the power of the Genera, who live according to the commandments of the Gods, according to conscience and in harmony with nature. The Spirit is strengthened by the right knowledge, which carries with it the right behavior and with it, the right life. That is, the revival of the Power cannot come from above at the behest of the Secretary General, the President or anyone else. At the heart of the Power is the power and unity of the lineage, therefore, the revival of the Power will go from the lineage. Each individual person who is trying to learn the ancient wisdom, creates a strong lineage and find those close to him in the Spirit, in order to preserve it all. All of which sounds like the frequency fence in the village. This reveals what I have said all along, the solution to fix everything is in the hands of the power of the people. The people are the power, the people are the savior and the people have a duty to self-correct themselves and work with each other to restore the Power. Dark forces don't have any power, only what we allowed or gave to them.

Types of powers: Tribal, communal-tribal, single, spiritual and the church or temple with the clan circle of the highest fathers.

The faith of Rus – Ingliism:

The spiritual basis of the State is the ancient faith of our first ancestors, which is called Ingliism, it explains and covers all aspects of the life of the Slavic and Aryan clans. Not only the organization of life, but also knowledge about the Universe, about Man, about the interaction of man with nature, about the influence of universal processes on humanity, etc. It is the source of ancient wisdom and spiritual power for being and creation. Ingliism is the oldest Solar cult, where conscience and reverence for one's wise gods and ancestors are at the forefront. Interesting they use the term cult back then, it seems yet another of the meanings, traits or characteristics of the white race has been turned into something bad. The worship of the solar being pre-dates the fake Ra and biblical Jesus which was Osiris/Horus story and was celebrated with famous symbols which was also twisted into something bad, the solar disk, which became the swastika. Ingliism carries the harmony of the existence of man and the heavenly gods, harmony with nature and harmony in the relationship between man and man.

The great purpose in the life of the white man, is life itself. Not to turn human life into hell in order to find the most pure svarga after death, but to live in joy and love in the present, creating and not destroying everything around you. The meaning of life is to create for the benefit of one's family, one's Fatherland, one's ancient faith and developing spiritually, to learn the ancient wisdom of one's gods and ancestors. But to do that one has to understand what is life. Our own piece of what is life, preceded me reading these transcripts and developing them into shows. Is that a coincidence, at this point I suspect not. Remember the original series was called From Russia with Love, why was I drawn to do that, when I have never even visited that country? These are the paths of life that are presented to each of us at alarming regularity, yet so many ignore the opportunities to change their path and life. In my early days I asked myself, why me? It eventually gave way to, why not me? After all it was something I wanted to do when I was a day dreaming teenager, to play a role in changing the world. But to do that, one has to change oneself first and that sadly is, where many people fall short. Something mentioned there, that in overview does not sit well with me, the term Father or Mother land. Where is the balance? Let us overview this aspect shall we. The solar being is a man, the planetary being is a woman, the countries are either named for man or woman? Why is that? And where is the balance on each level? Why can't we have a solar couple? A planetary couple? And a country couple? Surely that is more in balance and harmonic? Is that then, not defining the Divine Masculine and Feminine, all equal and all in balance? Life is given to man for a comprehensive study of himself, as an integral part of the Universe and for the knowledge of the Universe, as an integral part of himself. At the same time, a person must learn creative work in order to become a creator-creator, to match his great ancestors and heavenly gods. That I warn you takes great sacrifice of the self to accomplish, it requires you to be mainly service to others to then be able to walk the Golden Path towards the gods and ancestors. That again sadly is, where many people fall short, chasing fake dreams, shekel chasing, personal glorification of the self and status and vanity. None of them are on the Golden Path tick boxes for higher evolution. But ultimately that is your choice to make. But I will warn you, you have had more help this lifetime than any other, it may not be as helpful going forward on your path. The two greatest investments in life in my opinion are, the birth and teaching of children and the drive towards spiritual development. Too many will not do those two true investments, not shekel investments, as too few see them as investments is why. The two are the future of you, once you understand life.

This next section is all about the peoples, who are they? Where did they settle?

The Settlement of the West Slavs: Venea is the Slavic name of Europe, our ancestors upon settling this territory, did not say Europe, but said Venea, the land inhabited by tillers of the soil. The whole territory from the East, where Belovodye is located to Venea, was all called Rasea, the land of the Race, the land on which the great Race settled. Then the Slavic names Rassenia, Raseya when translated into not dead Latin, turned out to be Ruthenia, Rus'. Here are the names of the peoples or clans back then.

1. Skandy
2. Antes and Roses
3. Bozhya Rus
4. Pomorians and Dana
5. Bulgars

6. Mariitsy

7. Vans

Skands:

When Prince Skand returned from the second Kharian campaign (3rd millennium B.C.), the priest Odin blessed his Roda to move to the European part of the continent. Kharian is a city located within the Gujrat District of the Pakistani province of Punjab. They passed by the Urals and came to the Mutnaya River, here, near the Chud Lake, the sorcerer Moisius died and in his honor the lake was named Moisk. The river was called the Magus now the Volkhov River or the river near which the sorcerer died. Volkhov's were the ancient elders or wisemen of the Rus. After that, the Skandi went further to the north, there they built a new Asgard of Svitjod. It was one of the tribes of the Swedes who are and were a Slavic tribe and they built a new City of the Gods. But after a fire, when Byzantine and other merchants brought the plague, the city burned down and a new city of Uppsala was built in its place. How convenient another false flag fire that was prevalent even back then. It also confirms our earlier piece about the merchants bringing the plague, the merchants were Khazarians, subsequently the Jews. Before his death, Prince Skand said: my soul will protect this land from raids, so it was called Scandinavia. Skanda guarded by the soul as the Slavs call the soul, navia, from the World of Na'vi. Which is interesting it is called navia from Navi and related to the soul, with the power transferring from the land to the sea and Maritime Law, does that provide another of their overlays? Navi became Navy and had loads of soul diers in? The sorcerer Moisius has nothing to do with Judeo-Christianity. The Jews had Moshe or Moishe, but there was no Moses, this was a Russification of a foreign word. The sorcerer Moisius used to go to the territory of present-day Scandinavia, made sure that the glacier was gone and then brought the Skands to go there. So, the biblical Moses is a fake and like the Indian texts, an overlay of the Rus/Aryan story. Remember their Moses is depicted in a statue with horns on his head, meaning he was not our type of human.

Antes and Dews:

In the 16th millennium B.C., the Antes conquered a large island in the Atlantic Ocean, which they called Antlan, the land of the Antes the Greek Atlantis. After the sinking of Antlan, the Antes moved to the north of the African continent and created the Empire of Tekem. Tekem was known as the black land or the land of the blacks, or scorched earth under the scorching sun and established their cities there in the southern Mediterranean. The Greeks called these white people the Kemerians, the Antes living in Kemeria. After a great drought, when many crops were destroyed, the Antes moved to the northwest of the Black Sea and lived next to the Ros or Rus tribe. The land of the Roses was to the east, where Kiev and the Pereyaslavl were and the Antes lived to the west of the Danube. Then they had a joint state of Kievan Ros or Rus, but its territory was only up to Chernigov and then the territory of God's Rus began. The original Ukrainians are the descendants of the Ants and Roses. Ukraine was later taken over by the Sarmatians, known as the lizard people. These people the Antes are not to be mistaken with the ant people, they came from the insect realms but had added the more human genome to their DNA. Roses of course was something else overlaid by Anu, as that was said to be his symbol. Anu for those new was the reptile king of the Draco and more commonly known as the Lord in the bible.

God's Rus:

God's Rus was Smolensk, Minsk, Lithuania and Poland, all this belonged to God's Rus known as Borussia. Also in Latvia along the Daugava, the Volga and further to Pechora, was Slavia or the Novgorod land. Novgorod was called by the Scandinavian's Gardarika, meaning the country of cities or settlements with fortress walls. After that, the empty western lands began to be inhabited by the tribes of the Red Rus or Chervony Rus. The Red Rus when it appeared, reached the Vistula and the Neman and divided God's Rus into two, the eastern became White Rus now Belarus and the western became God's Rus or Borus. The Red Rus are the tribes of the Roses, a warrior class and therefore red, who separated and followed their prince to develop the desert lands. Slavia because the capital was the city of Slovensk, which was built by Prince Sloven. In the summer of 3113 the Grand Duke Slovene built a city and named it Slovensk, by his name on the Mutnaya River, now known as the Volkhov River and on the shore of the Moiskom River. Subsequently, in honor of Prince Sloven's sister Ilmer, the lake was renamed Ilmer, then changed to Ilmer and then to Ilmen Lake. The war of the Roses is a big story in Britain between the red and white rose groups, one wonders whether this was related to the Rus. All of which means the Rus where in Britain back then.

Pomeranian and Dana:

Along the shores of the Varangian and White Seas, the Russian tribes also settled. Which were called Pomor Rus or Pomorians, because our Ancestors abbreviated the names. Pomor Rus then turned into Prussia, it went along the Baltic and west to Denmark, where the Danes lived, they were also part of the Russian territories. This brings up an intriguing question based on information within a past show. Where we showed or questioned whether the Danes were the Dans, hence the tribe of Dan. We also questioned as to why Denmark owns Greenland. But with the piece stating the Danes were part of Russian territory called Dana, is the tribe of Dan a white race name and peoples? Or was the Jewish tribe of Dan an overlay of the Russian Danas or Danes? If it was the former Rus, it will explain the Greenland issue being owned by them. I am led to believe Greenland is two islands deliberately iced over to form a bridge and the northern part was once part of Da' Arya.

Bulgars:

To the east of God's Rus was the Volga Bulgaria and when Khazaria went east along the Volga to Bulgaria, part of the Bulgar clans did not want to submit to Khazaria. Presume Khazaria was named after the Khazarians. So,

Khan Asparukh took them and they moved to the Danube, built their cities there and still live there, this is Bulgaria. But note that modern historiography classifies the Danubian Bulgarians as Slavs and their eastern brothers, the Volga and Kazan Bulgarians, as Turks and as Tatars. Such a division was due to the fact that, Christianity was imposed on the Danube from Constantinople and Islam was imposed on the Volga. Since in ancient times Islam was accepted mainly by Turkic tribes, so the Volga Bulgarians began to be counted among the Turks. Although these are Slavic tribes, who at first did not accept Christianity, but then Islam was imposed on them. But not all the tribes of the Bulgars even recognized Islam, many, especially along the Vyatka and closer to the Caspian Sea did not accept Islam and remained faithful to the ancient faith of the ancestors and lived apart. That is why they still say that, they are White Bulgars or pure Bulgars, meaning those who have accepted neither Christ nor the teachings of Mohammed. Smart move if you ask me. So now we have two names who appeared to have been overlaid into the biblical narrative, the Danes or Dans and Khazans. But here is another name said to be biblical, but turns out to have been used by the Aryans long before, Mari.

Mari:

The Mari are small Aryans, many of their Clans have not yet accepted either Islam or Christianity, but profess their tribal faith. These are part of our Church of the Orthodox Old Believers the Ynglings, their faith is called either the Old Faith or the Chimari. Known as the pure Mari, who did not accept alien teachings and did not come under their influence. These pure Mari people exist to this day, as well as the pure Bulgars. Alien teachings? All of which confirms that all religions were an off-world creation, like I have said many times, it is their story and book, not ours. Notice of how they overlaid their Jesus and Mari story to eliminate the true version.

Vans:

Between the Caspian Sea and the Black Sea there was Great Scythia. This is the territory of the present Krasnodar Territory, the Stavropol Territory, Rostov-on-Don, along the Northern Donets to the Dnieper, this is Tauria now Crimea. Northern Donetsk, the Volga all of this region was Scythia, the country of sacred cities or sacred settlements. Since the cities had fortress walls, but here there was none, because they lived in friendship with everyone. Near Lake Van in Armenia, is where the Vans lived in the Kingdom of Van. But after a seven-year drought and the crops were dying, the Vans moved to the territory of the Netherlands. In order for their descendants to remember where they moved from, they left a prefix to their family name - VAN (Van Gogh, Van Baston, Ludwig van Beethoven, etc.). His story says there was no such thing, as they say now: the people multiplied and multiplied, then part of them moved to free territory. No, the people migrated completely, whilst leaving the cities intact. When the drought ended, tribes of other peoples moved here from the south. That is, at one point they come to the market and saw empty cities, or there are ancient elders who did not want to go anywhere, and those who come ask: Ara meaning respected, where is everyone? they answer: they have gone to better lands. The merchants began to move here with all their household and occupy already inhabited places.

Just like the modern-day term called settlements, same thing, same peoples, just a different time era. Then they began to rewrite all the history that had been preserved before them and since aria or ara meant respected, they began to call themselves respected people or elders. This is revealed in the name Ara men or Armenia. But the so-called 10 tribes of Israel, the lost tribes also began to move here. Then they began to move from here to the territory of the southern Black Sea coast, today's Turkey and Turkestan and to more southern regions to the territory of the Byzantine. Or as our ancestors used to say, the Roman Empire, since the capital was the city of Roma. We have mentioned the vans and vons in previous shows as having a title of nobility and or bloodline families. Whilst that is certainly the case in modern times, the example in the Alt Media of Anna Von Reitz, with her being a Hapsburg, clearly this was another overlay with this information. Yet again the dark forces have twisted the Rus, Aryan and Slav peoples words, names and titles and corrupted them for their own ends. Only now are we beginning to decode it all and rewrite our story.

Yerevan, the Kingdom of Van founded by the ancestors of the Dutch:

Today, when people talk about Yerevan, they believe that the ancestors of modern Armenians lived there. Which goes along with the principle: I live here, so everything that was here before me is mine, but it is nothing of the kind. The Kingdom of Van was founded by the ancestors of the Dutch, the Flemings, who migrated to the Northwest after a drought. In order for their descendants to remember where they came from, they added the prefix Van to the family name, which indicates they came from Lake Van or the Kingdom of Van. The examples like Van Gogh, Van Halen, Ludwig van Beethoven, etc. – they are all Vans. We read Slavic and Scandinavian legends: The Aesir lived together with the Vans. All of which means, there were no Armenians, Chechens or Georgians there, all of them came later and occupied empty cities. These are all our lands, which were inhabited by our ancestors RASA, who built cities and then for various reasons, moved to new territories.

Greece and Hellas:

The Hellins are Semites. A question was raised; of why are Plato's books published, but Socrates' are not? Because Socrates has a lot of clever sayings, that's why the Greeks poisoned him. Socrates even distinguished between the concepts of Greece and Hallas. The concept of hel was in the Old Slavic and Scandinavian languages, from Scandinavia the Vikings brought it to the English and Scottish languages: hel, hell, helle – hell, hell, meaning those who came from hell. There were two states: Hallas with its capital Athens, where there was a slave-owning system. Greece, with the capital of Sparta, where there was war communism, where the military ruled, no one had personal property, only sandals, a cloak and a sword, everything else was for the common cause. Athens was constantly at war with Sparta, but Sparta always won. Then the Hellyn adopted a different principle of war: if you can't win, you will lead. To do this, they gave their women as wives to the Spartans and they took their women as wives in return. That is, they degenerated the ancient Greeks and appropriated all their victories, achievements, culture, etc. All reminiscent of Cleopatra is it not, involved with Romans and Egyptians whilst being Greek.

The Hellins are a bandit people. Socrates said: The Hellins are the only people who have no culture, no heritage of their own, no tradition of their own, for they are an eternally young and eternally warring people. Eternally young suggests these were not our type of human and or they took part in what is now known as adrenochrome treatments. The other alternative is consuming the life essence obtained by extracting the life force from 100 children, which they referenced in the Jupiter Ascending movie. But they have one quality, they know how to appreciate the beautiful, so they drag everything beautiful to themselves, so Hallad has everything. Which could be seen as, more Cosmic or even Cosmetic Genetics. Today, this statement has been abbreviated and it is said: Greece has everything.

The Hellins were a robber people, a thief, a conqueror who plundered all other peoples. All of which sounds like the Jewish culture during this time. Are the Hellins, the Khazarians and or Ashkenazis? These people did not belong to the whites or the white tribe, they belonged to the Semites. Semites have by other researchers been stated as more white, than say Middle Eastern. All of which has become confusing as to which is the original and which is the overlay. Of course with the mixing culture ongoing, that also added to it and erased history, knowledge and peoples. Therefore, in the so-called Eastern Roman Empire, where the Greek Hellenic culture predominated, Christianity, which came from Judea, Israel, was quietly implanted there. At the same time, notice how the Hellins fought? They didn't just carry vases, gold cups, paintings and figurines. They also plundered libraries, kept everything they needed and destroyed the rest, then copied what they left for themselves, indicating themselves as rulers. They plundered the libraries? Is indicative of, the our story wipe, to replace with their story. This is a planetary wide sweep in essence, that in overview could only come from hostile invaders not native to our planet. The Hellins also tried to capture the Slavs, they went to Silver Rus (Serbia), that still included the province of Macedonia at that time. Macedonia meaning is the sons of the Don (Mack is the son), but the very first campaign ended with the fact that, the Hellenians lost their statehood. There was a mention earlier about tribes. But Tribes is not an Aryan/Rus word and needs to be understood and clarified, as we did with the tribe piece in our THI show on January 18th. Tribes are only the Hebrews and their biblical overwrite story. The Rus/Aryan/Slavs were all clans. Clans according to etymology started in the 1500's, no that was the overlay. The term village derives from the root word of clan. Hope is the avenue of the light, has a whole different meaning now.

This next piece is interesting as we have debated calendars within our shows several times. My belief is, they are off world calendars based upon the race of each humanoid or otherwise. In overview the calendar become a victory symbol of the oppressors, much like planting a flag today. Why did Peter the Great replace the calendar? Each nation had its own chronology from some eventful date, ruler, sage or phenomenon, but when a nation was captured, a foreign calendar, a foreign chronology was introduced. Why? To cut off all the Legacy. After all, Peter I, did not just replace the Russian calendar with the European one, he stole from the people 5508 years of the heritage of the ancestors, plus there was an opportunity to write in academic history books, that before Christianization, that the Rus did not exist. You may think the feminization of men started in this lifetime, no it began sometime back as this piece reveals. After Peter the Great's reform, the Heritage disappeared and in addition all the noble men known as the Bo-Yary, the ancient Clans, were massacred. Thus, a squishy new elite emerged, as in recent history: the Communists were removed from power and a new squishy, dead elite came in, the blue boys and pink girls. Peter I did the same: he forbade the wearing of beards, the wealth of the family and a connection with the Ancestors, forced men to wear tights, pantaloons, put on all sorts of hangings, ribbons, bows, like little girls. People called the new elite effeminate, fucking and the expression fucking face. In Slavonic, a whore is a chatterbox, a pussy; do not confuse it with the word fornication.

Forms of Chronology:

At the foundation of any Temple, the chronology from the creation of the Temple was introduced in this area. There could be several chronologies at the temple, in order not to use long records a new chronology was introduced, but at the same time the old one was preserved. This was not only the case in Russia, for example: in India there are more than 300 forms of chronology or 300 calendars. In 1948, the Scorched Camp (Palestine) was divided into two parts: Palestine and Israel and Israel regained its calendar. That is, in the whole world now it is the year 2024 from the birth of Christ and in Israel it is the year 5784 from Adam. By this, they seem to show the whole world that you have a culture, a heritage of only 2000 years and we have almost 6000 years, so we are the most important and you all descended from us, when applying biblical theory. For international treaties, they use the regular calendar and in their own country they live only according to their own calendar. The Slavs have their own chronology, Summer 7531 S.M.Z.H. Creation of the World in the Star Temple, but it's not like the Christians from the Creation of the World, as if God created the Earth. No, for the Slavs the Star Temple is the name of Summer, a certain year when our ancestors defeated the ancestors of the Chinese. The Creation of the World is the conclusion of a peace treaty between the nations, the World was created on the day of the autumn equinox. But there are other forms of chronology. After all, it does not happen that peace is made in the zero year. Let's say the Creation of the world in the Star Temple took place in the summer of 5500 from the great cold snap, so the next summer of 5501 from the great cold snap, also became the 1st summer of the S.M.Z.H. That is, the legacy is already increasing, in addition to our 7522 years, by another 5500 years. Therefore, the old forms of writing the chronologies are not rejected, but are read for the New Year: the Summer of 7522 from the S.M.Z.H. is also the Summer of 13022 from the great cold snap. This suggests that our heritage or history is not a thousand years old, as Christians or the late Academician Likhachev claim: Why dismantle what was before Christianity, this thousand years will be enough for us, it may be enough and the Slavs should preserve all our Heritage. Hopefully with this series we can in some way not only preserve the history, but restore the former glories of the original peoples and the infinitely better ways of operating as well, regardless of your color or race.

Joachim's Chronicle:

In the summer of 3099 Slovene and Rus with their clans departed from Exinopont, which is the Greek name for the Black Sea. The families and their brethren wandered through the countries of the world, like winged eagles flying over the desert, many seeking a place for their settlement. In many places Joachim threw them resting and nowhere did he find a dwelling. Is this the true story of the Exodus? With everything else overlaid, one does wonder. For 14 years the places and countries were desolate, until they came to a certain great one, Moiska. From the Black Sea to the south they reached Lake Moisk, after which Irmer was called in the name of their sister Irmer and later renamed Ilmen. Then the sorcerer commanded them to be heirs of the place of that existence. The eldest Sloven with his family and all others under his hand, sat on the river then called Mutnaya, in the midst of the Magi, named in the name of the eldest son of Sloven, the Volkhov called. So the Rus sorcerer was named Joachim, what a cohen-cidence the Masons, which is part of this Egyptian/Jewish cult, used that name with Boaz.

And note what happens next: In the summer of 3113 or 2396BC, the great prince Slovene built a city and called it Slovensk, which is now called Veliky Novgrad, from the mouth of the Ilmer along the Volkhov river. From that time on, the newcomers the Scythians, began to be called Slovenia after Prince Sloven. Scythian remained at Pontus Imiotis, they dwelt in the deserts, fed on cattle and this country was called Scythia the Great. It was the Greeks and Christians who rewrote our history, Scythia for them comes from Scythian and not from the fact that there were thousands of cities there. Scythia remained only to the east of the Black Sea. According to the construction of the great city, Slovene the prince died, his sons and grandsons were in harmony with him for hundreds of years. Prince Vandal ran along with the Slavs, going everywhere to the north, east and west by sea and land, conquering many lands from the edge of the sea and subjugating peoples to himself. He returned to the great city, Vandal had conquered all the lands from sea to sea. Prince Vandal sailed by sea and land, and now it is said that the first ships appeared only during the reign of Peter I. around 1682. It turns out that it was not the Varangians who came to us and taught us, but our own, in all these territories, all Scandinavia, all the islands. And here it is said that the descendants of Slovene were Novgorod princes, who traced their lineage from Sloven's son Vandal. Vandal is what the Christians called it, in Slavonic he is Vend. Let's calculate when the city of Slovensk (Veliky Novgorod) was founded. They left the Black Sea in the summer of 3099, and 14 years later the town of Slovensk was built. Now we have the Summer of 7533 – 3113 = 4420 years ago, the city was founded in 2396 BC. Or is Moscow 850 years old? At the same time, it is said that Slovene with his clans reached the lake called Mois, but before that, the Slavs had already passed there. It was the sorcerer Moisius and the prince Skand, whom the priest Odin from Asgard of Iria blessed for migration. In other words, it was even earlier. The history is already rich and there was a fleet, cities were built and yet we are told about wild barbarians who lived in dugouts. In reality land the barbarians were the very people who named the Rus and Slavs as such. This is what has unfolded here, the oppressors claim the lands, the people, the labels and names and then rewrite history in their image. Only now is it all beginning to unfold and peel back the layers of deception. Is it a coincidence that has increased since the Day of the Svarog in 2020? I suspect not.

The Lands of the Holy Race:

The categories for this section are:

1. Kievan Rus, Prussia, Slavia, Scandinavia
2. Map of Slavic Lands
3. Slavs – Northern, Southern, Western, Eastern
4. Scythia and Gardarika

Kievan Rus, Prussia, Slavia and Scandinavia:

According to Soviet and Christian history the Slavs occupied only a small area, which is called Kievan Rus, which is now modern-day Ukraine. Could it be a reason or reasoning behind the war there now, of the Rus re-inhabiting their own lands? Could it be a coincidence that it is coming at a time when the Rus gods are said to be returning? Remember Putin or whoever he is these days said, Ukraine is not the end only the beginning as we are pushing West. Kievan Rus only appeared in the times of Christianization, before that there were two principalities: Rus and Ros. Rus was inhabited by the Antes and the Ros was inhabited by the Roses, now they are called the Little Russians or Ukrainians, who lived on the edge of the Slavic lands. In other words, Christian and Soviet history limit the lands of the Slavs only to Kievan Rus and make the rest of our lands as if they were not ours, for example: are the Poles not Eastern Slavs? Ah the land of the Poles, where some inhabitants of that land including a member of our group, believes Poland invented everything and supersede even Russia! Coincidentally in relation to Poland, the next region to be covered is Prussia, is that Polish Russia? Prussia is Pomeranian Rus, the Pomors lived here and it went all the way to Pechora and further – isn't this our land? The name Slavia came from the city of Slovensk on the Volkhov River, which was built by Prince Sloven. In the Summer of 3113 the Grand Duke Sloven built a city and named it Slovensk which is now called Veliky Novgorod. Scandinavia is the land of Prince Skanda the soul of Skand, isn't it a Slavic land? When we were dissecting Prince Skandus: he went to Dravidia (India), put things in order there, returned and Pater Diy Odin blessed him to relocate. Interesting he went to India as well, it is also of interest that their Jesus story was of him going to India. Is the Jesus story to India another of their stolen overlays of information? He was led by a sorcerer named Moisk or as he is also called Moisei, when they reached the lake, the sorcerer died and the lake was named in his honor, so in the chronicles it is written: The river of the Magus flows into the Yezero of the Mois, in honor of the sorcerer Moses – Moisk. Prince Skand went further and they built Asgard of Svitjod, the name comes from Swii and bringing the light of Odin. When the prince was dying, he was asked: Shall we leave this cold land? he answered: No, my soul will guard this land. In Slavonic, the soul of the deceased is navia, so the land, which is patronized by the soul of the Slavic prince Skand, is called SkandiNavia. Let's find confirmation in the old maps.

Map of Slavic lands:

Map of Russia and the Adjacent (fragment), 1594. Compiled by Gerardus Mercator, the map was first published in Duisberg in 1595 in the Mercator Atlas. See image “FHSTOS Plus 24 image 2.jpg” in Downloads section on the show page. On the map we see that even in the 16th century, the European Mercator recognized that the Russian lands were the whole of Scandinavia, Denmark, Poland, Ukraine, Bessarabia to Istanbul. Everything is ours, to the Ripaeen Mountains or the Urals, these are all Russian lands. There is the Ob, the Irtysh and the eastern side is the territory of Lukomorye. Also marked on this map in the southeast is a large area Asiae pars, meaning the territory of the Aesir, Aesir was also the name of the gods realm remember for Odin, Thor and company. Further on the Tartarjae pars meaning the territory of Tartary, plus the Germaniae pars or German territories. All beyond the Urals is the Great Tartary, but many people translate it incorrectly as Tatars. The Tat-Aryans are Aryan enemies, another overlay as they registered us as Tatars. Although in fact Tartary is a derivative of two names: the God Tarha and the Goddess Tara, symbolizing Tartary.

See image “FHSTOS Plus 24 image 3.jpg” in Downloads section on the show page. The next map is from 1754, a French one. Russia is not even indicated, but just a large area from the Urals the Grande Tartarie, meaning the Great Tartary. Not a surprise really since France has been ran by the Jewish El-ites since at least the 400’s. Two protectorates are indicated in pink: Arimia aka China or Chine and Persia where the sons of Perun lived, as well as northern, central and eastern India. Therefore, for Europeans, these lands were far away. A border was established for the Arim and they were forbidden to cross beyond this border, this is the Great Fence or the Great Wall of China or Kiytai, Kiy meaning fence, Tai meaning great. “A border was established for the Arim and they were forbidden to cross beyond this border” which means that wall was built by the Rus, not China and subsequently the real name is the Great Wall of the Rus. Other maps have been preserved, confirming that these are all our ancestral territories. In other words, the entire Northern Hemisphere belonged to the white peoples. Which is most of the world’s land mass, if you look at a map of the globe with an equator line you will see how little land is actually in the Southern Hemisphere, in comparison to the North. It is absolutely wrong to say that Kiev is the mother of Russian cities. It would be more correct to say that Kiev is the mother of the cities from which Christianization began. But Christianization in our country was only 1000 years old and the Slovenian and Slavic cities are many tens of thousands of years old. Kiev, Odessa and the surrounding areas remember from an earlier show was the land of the Sarmatians. Sarmatians means the lizard people, hence it is they who enforced the Christianization upon everyone. Christian worship becomes a worship of the lizard people, who operated as though they were our gods, they are not and never will be. Arimia or China got me thinking and a potential other biblical overlay in relation to Joseph of Arimathea, more so given it said that the historical location of Arimathea is uncertain. Joseph of Arimathea was according to all four canonical gospels, the man who assumed responsibility for the burial of Jesus after his crucifixion. A number of stories that developed during the Middle Ages connect him with Glastonbury, England and also with the Holy Grail legend. The thea on the end of Arima has an interesting connotation as well, as it means goddess or godly.

Which in theory could mean the goddess of China or Joseph was a walk in, as a male in a female body. Given the connection to Jesus, which was Horus, was Joseph actually Isis?

The Slavs – Northern, Southern, Western, Eastern:

Scandinavia, Prussia etc., are the North Slavs. Yugoslavia, Turkey – South Slavs. Europe up to the British Isles – West Slavs. Further to the east are the Eastern Slavs. Note that now the North Slavs are not mentioned at all. I would note further that the original white countries are not mentioned at all these days, now ask yourself why is that? Who gains from it and why? Who and why would you wish to erase the entire history of just one race? The obvious is, those who have and are doing so wants to eliminate all traces of that race. Whether its history, people, land or culture. The gain for those doing it is, they overlay those people, harvest them and their lands for a control based purpose only. The race they wish to eliminate which they have said in their own words, is the white race. Those doing it are the enemies of the white race, originally known as the Koshey's, now known as the Jews. But even their own book told us of an allegory, those that say they are Jews but they are not, they are the synagogue of Satan.

Italy was the territory of the Etruscans or the Russian ethnos, or as they called themselves, the Rasenes. But the Greeks and Hellenes called them in their own way tyrrhenians or tyrants, because as soon as they come to steal cattle, they will immediately get a slap on the neck, everything is tyrannical and offends. In addition, the Greeks liked to fight with another Slavic tribe, the Antes, or the Atlanteans as the Greeks called them. In Plato's Critias and others, with whom the Greeks are at war? With the Antes or Atlanteans. What is now written about the Atlanteans in books, that they were about a hundred meters tall, etc., is all fiction. The story is different.

Names of the seas:

The Black Sea was called the Russian Sea and it was not divided into the Sea of Azov. There was one sea, but now the coastline has changed. Where there is the White Sea, there we already have the frozen ocean. It is now cold because of the tilt of the Earth's axis, before these seas were warm. After the tilt and the flood, there was a cooling due to the fact that the atmosphere was closed and the water there cooled. Therefore, the water became cold. All this shows is, that the story was actually somewhat different from what it is presented to us. The atmosphere was closed intrigued me, how can the atmosphere close? Was it due to another moon getting close and dropping its ice, due to the friction of the moon coming into our atmosphere and melting? Hence the water and the flood. The Baltic Sea is recorded by our ancestors as the Slovenian Sea. But later the Greeks and Europeans called it the Baltic Scythian, because our fleet sailed there. Although the Caspian Sea was the Scythian Sea and later the Khvalynsk Sea.

Scythia and Gardarika:

Scythia (Hermitage is the country of sacred cities) occupies the Rostov region, the Krasnodar region, the Stavropol territory, Adygea, the entire Caucasus and the territory on the other side of the Caucasus. Scythia is where we have Lake Van, the so-called Kingdom of Van, note that in the south the Kingdom of Van (Scythia) bordered on the territory of the Aesir. Aesir is the realm of the Norse Gods. Scandinavian legends report that sometimes there were conflicts between the Aesir and the Vanir, but then they exchanged representatives. But some of them transferred over as they exchanged hostages, which is absolutely wrong. Imagine who will appoint hostages as princes, high priests, rulers? Could this be the case? No. In other words, it is the Christians who are trying to twist their conjectures into history. The Christian ideology, path and system has a lot to answer for over the next decade, as more and more of the truth will come out. The atrocities and control they have had over people for near two thousand years, will be looked back upon with revulsion when the full truth is revealed to the public. The Christian cult is a giant harvesting center on many levels, that the public will find it hard to stomach, just what they have been supporting.

Gardarika the country of hundreds of cities, this is how the inhabitants of Scandinavia, which are the northern Russian principalities, called the lands of Slavia and Pomerania, because all the cities there were fenced. A Gard is a fortress wall, because from other lands it is possible to penetrate by water along the Neva, Pechora, Ob, Nemunas, Daugava to other cities, so they were fenced with a wall. Caravans passed to the east of the Black Sea, so everyone was always on the alert and they did not put such a powerful fortress wall around the cities. So they lived here not as a city in the modern sense, but as a city-skete, hence the name Sketia the country of the Sacred Cities, because the Sacred Fire was constantly burning in them and there were all kinds of religious buildings next to the markets. A representative of any nation, no matter whether white, black, or yellow could come in any city to his Temple, to a Temple of his god and do what he was supposed to do. Let's say someone died on the road, then here, he could be buried according to the rite that exists in their lands. Therefore, when archaeologists excavate the ancient cities of Scythia, they begin to argue among themselves, some say that there was a Turkic culture here. Others say no it is Arabic or it is almost Ethiopian, because they do not know which culture to attribute it to. In fact, everything there is Slavic, it's just that they came to the markets and had their own religious buildings here. A case of catering for the all, all is one and one is all, not the divisive cultures that has been created since.

The Great Migration from Da'arya:

According to ancient chronicles, 300,000 years ago, the appearance of Midgard was completely different. Da' Arya was connected with the Eurasian continent by a mountain isthmus, which on the Eurasian continent turned into the Ripeian Mountains now known Ural Mountains, UR – AI means the UR gods. The Sahara Desert was a sea and the Indian Ocean was land, there was a continent. That continent was the Land of Mu. On the Russian Plain, where Moscow is now located, there was a sea. On the territory of Western Siberia there was a large island of Buyan, washed by the Eastern and Western Seas. Through the island of Buyan flowed the river Iriy the quietest Irtysh. The peninsulas of Sakhalin and Korea, as well as the Japanese islands, did not exist, because they were a continuation of the Eurasian continent. Which is interesting in the theory I put forward of America was 4 separate pieces and the continent of Lemuria was split in two. See image "FHSTOS Plus 24 image 4.jpg" in Downloads section on the show page. Map of Da'arya or Hyperborea) / Martin Behaim's Globe of 1492

The life of the genera of the great Race and the descendants of the heavenly Race on Midgard-Earth, radically changed as a result of catastrophes of cosmic scale, which in turn were often the result of the struggle of the light gods with the dark forces. The first great flood on Midgard-Earth occurred as a result of the destruction of the Moon Lelia, on which representatives of the hell world, the Koshey's concentrated their forces, to invade Midgard. The bright God Tarkh Perunovich, who arrived from Ingard-Earth, did not allow the Koshey to attack Midgard-Earth. Not too sure what Ingard Earth means, but perhaps it meant the inner Earth? He struck at Lelia and destroyed the forces of darkness, but at the same time Lelia collapsed. There were 50 sea's on it and salt waters and fragments of the destroyed moon fell on Midgard, Da' Arya disappeared under the waters of the great flood. The blows of the fragments shifted the axis of Midgard-Earth, which began pendulum-like movements. Da'Arya then descended into the ocean, then rose from the ocean, but in the end, the sacred ancestral home of the Slavic-Aryan peoples went under the waters of the Arctic Ocean. Some high-altitude parts of Da'Arya remained on the surface, these are modern day Greenland, Franz Josef Land and other islands. However, the descendants of the genera of the great Race did not die with Da'Arya, people were warned by the grand priest named Spas, about the upcoming heavenly battle and the death of Da'Arya. They had begun their resettlement to the Eurasian continent in advance and 15 evictions from Da'Arya were organized. For 15 years, our ancestors moved along the Ural Mountains between the East and West Seas to the Eurasian continent. At 111820 years ago there was a complete migration from Da'Arya. Some of the Rasich's escaped by climbing into low-Earth orbit on the Wightmans. Others moved through the Gate of the Interworlds to the Bear's abode into the possession of the Da'Aryans. I would suggest that was the crystal needles pathway to travel to Usra Major and Minor. The main part of our ancestors remained to settle in the new territory of Midgard-Earth around the Urals and Siberia, where there was then a subtropical climate. Our first ancestors recorded the events that took place during their life in Da'Arya and counted down the time from these events. Thus, the connection of times and events was preserved for many hundreds of thousands of years. After the resettlement, a new chronology began, from the Great Migration from Da'Arya. In honor of the salvation from the great flood, on the 16th summer the holiday of Easter was established, which in translation from the H'Aryan Karuna means: The path of the Ace walking Etim, which means the path along which the Gods walked. That walk is the Golden path.

Our ancestors glorified the heavenly Race for salvation from the flood and in memory of this event there was a rite, to hit painted eggs against each other on the great spring Slavic-Aryan holiday of Easter. This rite reminds us of the victory of Dazhdbog Tarakh over Koschey. The broken egg is called the Koshcheev Egg, which reminds of the destroyed Moon Lelia and the whole egg is called the Power of Tarkh Dazhdbog. Easter was overlaid with Ostara and pagan worshipping. Paganism was Christianized and Christianity is from the Hebrew Anunnaki, like all other religions. It is the Lucifer program of darkness.

RACE – The White Brotherhood

After moving from Da'Arya, the RASA lived in the territory from the Ural Mountains, now the Riphean mountains to Lake Baikal. Lake Baikal is the world's largest freshwater lake by volume, containing 5,670 cu miles of water. It contains 22–23% of the world's fresh surface water, more than all of the North American Great Lakes combined. It is also the world's oldest lake at 25–30 million years and among the clearest. It is also home to many sightings of alleged mythological creatures as well. Lake Baikal was also known as the H'Aryan Sea or the Land of the Aces now Asia; inhabited the territory of the present Southern Urals, then the large island of Buyan in the East Sea, now the territory of Western and Eastern Siberia. The East Sea I suspect was the Milk Ocean we covered in an earlier episode. Both the Aryan peoples Da'Aryans and H'Aryans plus the Slavic peoples of Rasen and Svyatorus lived together on the same territory. They lived in peace, ennobling the land, planting gardens and forests, creating together majestic Temples and Cities. The clans of the great Race helped each other in a fraternal way, hence the concept of the White Brotherhood, because in all creative deeds, conscience and pure thoughts were the measure of everything. A concept badly lost and missing in the modern-day age, yet over time they say there are advancements, yes in technology, but clearly not amongst the people. This Brotherhood had not only pure thoughts, but also white skin and this is a philosophical unity of form and content. The RACE settled throughout the so-called now Eurasian space and our ancestors called this space Rassenia, the territory on which the RACE settled. The Latins wrote Rassenia also translated at times as Russenia, but then it went Ruthenia and then Rus. In everyday life appeared: Silver Russia (Serbia), Red Russia, Pomeranian Russia (Prussia), Bozhskaya Rus (Borus), but when Red Rus divided it into swamps, the eastern Borus is now called Belarus and the western one is called Borussia. Borussia is now the name of a German football teams of Dortmund and Monchengladbach, which came from the Latin name for Prussia.

Symbols of Russia – Swastika:

Solar or Swastika symbols are a cross with curved ends pointing clockwise or counterclockwise. Today, all such symbols are called swastika in one word, which is fundamentally wrong, since each Swastika symbol has its own name, amulet power and figurative meaning. Solar symbols were depicted on Slavic clothes, household utensils, banners, weapons, houses and temples, as a sign of light, sun, life and prosperity. Swastika signs were used not only in the form of single symbols, but also in an elm combination with other ornaments. Solar ligature symbolizes the rebirth of the ancient heavenly laws of the lineage among the people, reveals in a person the inner spiritual and spiritual Forces that bring him into a state of harmony with his ancient patron gods. Also with his family, with the surrounding mother nature, with his soul, spirit and conscience. That's quite a list and combinational package right there. Of being in harmony with the Sun, it then seems to bring you deeper connections with the Cosmos, than people generally see or understand. The sun is the life giver remember, without it, all living beings die and the planet itself. Each solar drawing on household items carried a huge deep meaning, revealing the foundations of the Universe. Children learned the great universal mystery of human existence, looking at the drawings depicted on dishes and other household items. They understood that they lived in the world of reality, as well as in kinship with their ancient gods and ancestors. It is interesting in a broader sense their children were taught the Universe and everything contained, yet our current world denies knowledge and treats us lesser than children. Secrecy acts, controlled science, controlled thinking almost to a level of an automated bot. There is a reason for all of that, to keep us from knowing who we are, where we came from, the fact we are not alone in this Universe, is to keep everyone here to the level of children on a cosmic level, so we stay as batteries on a 3D planetary level. After all their control book told us, eating the fruit of knowledge was a sin. Ironically the god of knowledge is called Sin, but sin has a differing meaning to the Roman cult church in another of their classic mistranslations, all designed to confuse the people. The simple solution for all who wish to not be used as batteries here is, deny the church and consume as much knowledge as you can, whilst developing on a soul level.

Gods of Russia:

Our gods are our fathers and we are their children. The Slavs call their earthly parents and ancestors gods, because they created us in their image: the father and mother gave the spirit and the body and the heavenly gods gave the soul and conscience. Notice they include the father and the mother, unlike the Cat-holic church. The Slavs call the almighty: Ra-M-Ha is the unknowable supreme essence. The world of the Gods is called Prav or the World of Pravi, this is not a separate Earth where all the Gods have gathered and live in one place, but spaces with many Earths that are under the control of the forces of light. The Gods support in the Universes the light side of the Universe, the light laws that are established above all other light worlds. We are Slavs, for we praise from our pure heart all the bright ancient gods and our holy wise ancestors.

RACE – Ace clans, ace country and white people:

Rasa the holy race or great race, are people with white skin color who come from four ancient clans: Da'Aryans, H'Aryans, Rasen and Svyatorus. The self-designation RASA means: Clans of the aces of the Land of the aces, since our ancestors were aces, lived as Genera and called their lands Asia, meaning the country of the Aces. So the term Euro-Asian has a whole different meaning now and is nothing to do with the modern term of Asia. In essence the term Asia now stands for people's who usurped the lands of the Rus, Slavs and Aryans.

Who or what are aces?

Aces are highly developed people or gods. That is, the Slavs call the heavenly inhabitants gods and those gods who live on Earth are called Aces, hence the image of the letter AZ means Ace and Earth, meaning a god living on Earth. For those new a "god" is any person who has developed themselves on a planetary soul level and beyond. Once you complete the 7 planetary soul development levels, means you are a god. That under no circumstances makes you into the god, that is ego and you will fall, like the fallen angels per se. Our country was called Asiya, as the Country of the Aces and since our ancestors lived in clans, the abbreviation RASA was obtained, the Genera of the Aces of the Country of Aces. Therefore, the name RACE refers only to people with white skin, there can be no black race, yellow race etc., as other peoples had their own names. When the clans of the Aces multiplied many times, multiplied on the Earth, they became the great Race, great in terms of large numerous people. With our modern language and interpretations some of these words and meanings have a more negative connotation, but that is how the system planned it to denigrate these teachings. An open mind will push past the modern interpretations and see it said in a balanced way.

Resettlement to Midgard-Earth:

The Aces flew to Midgard-Earth from space. During the Second Great Assa, a large intergalactic ship of the Vitmara type was damaged and stopped for repairs in the Yarila-Sun system. Two Earths (planets) were already inhabited here: Orea which is Mars and Dea the asteroid belt remained, space navigation and communication stations were located on them. But closer to the Vitmara was the unexplored Midgard-Earth, samples taken of air, earth and water showed its suitability for life and part of the crew landed on Midgard. After the repair, the Vitmara continued its journey and some of the settlers remained to settle on Midgard-Earth, at which time there were no people, but only plants and animals. The continent on which our first ancestors settled was located at the North Pole and was divided by rivers into 4 parts. They called the continent Da'Arya, meaning a gift to the Aryans, now it is better known under the Greek name Hyperborea. That is, our ancestors were the first to colonize Midgard-Earth and people with a different skin color of red, yellow, black, gray and green appeared here much later, only about 40,000 years ago. This is another piece that backs up our earlier claims of other races arriving here 40K years ago. The interesting aspect is the mention of gray and green, that will be the alien grays and or the sub grays now known as the Jews, the green will be one of the reptile races. As uncomfortable and groundbreaking as that may sound to all who hear or read this outside of THI, they are the facts. Why in so many Sci-Fi movies and shows are those two species shown the most? Because they are telling you is why. All sci-fi is fact, not fiction and is based on knowledge acquired or given to them by the off-world races. Sci-fi is not the future either, it is long in the past. White people have lived on Midgard for more than 600,000 years and lead the chronology from significant events.

RACE - Da'Aryans, H'Aryans, Rasen and Svyatorus.

The crew of Vitmara consisted of representatives of the four clans of the allied Lands: Da'Aryans, H'Aryans, Rasen and Svyatorus, these are people with white skin, pure thoughts and a pure soul. The difference between them is only in the color of the eyes their iris, since they originally lived in other star systems and depending on what spectrum the luminary had, this color of the iris was deposited in the DNA. Another feature is the blood type, initially white people had only 1 and 2 blood groups, this is like the northern types here. In the future, when moving to the south the RASA or clan increased and a new territory was needed. Due to changes in nutrition, climate, the Earth's magnetic field, gravitational states, there was a gradual change in the composition of the blood and mother nature improved, which increased immunity and protective functions of the body.

Therefore, 3 and 4 blood groups appeared. But we will still deal with blood, do not think that everything is simple as we will see the Blood energy system piece after this section, because blood is the energy of life. That is, when the Aces arrived at Midgard, each clan had only the 1st blood group and as they settled, adapted, someone's blood changed to the 2nd group, then 3 and 4. But let's say the Da'Aryans have immunity, the energy potential is so high that no matter where they move, they will still have the 1st group. Therefore, it is impossible to judge by one people. Now there are more than 500 types of blood groups in the world and the 1st group of a white person is completely different from the 1st group of yellow or gray, black, red. "Now there are more than 500 types of blood groups in the world" that sentence right there tells you of all the different races that were seeded here after the white race. That is off world disclosure right there, yet curiously missed by scientists and peoples alike. The rest of the blood groups are also different, for example, it is impossible for a person with the 1st blood group to infuse the second, but the 1st group of a white person is suitable for everyone.

THE BLOOD SYSTEM:

What is Energon? We have already discussed Youthism: the Three Elephants stand on the Tortoise, and the basis of the turtle is Yugism, the energy. So, energon is like an image of the smallest particle in the Universe, the first brick, it is neither a quark nor a quantum, but an energon. This particle contains information about the entire Universe and so energon is the largest and smallest particle. To put it simply, let's compare energon to a human. A person can imagine that the smallest particle energon is our Earth and that a person is on this Earth, he will be smaller than the smallest particle. At the same time, a person can imagine that all universes are like specks of dust in a room around a person, so that a person will be bigger than all the universes. All about the perspective again isn't it? So, the energon is the system of the image, the energon system of the blood is what conveys the figurative structure of a given living creature, whether that is a tree, a person or an animal. With information, energon is also a communication channel.

Energon Blood System:

Now we are going to look at the blood system, but we should not take it literally that blood consists of such and such or a number of balls, it is nothing of the kind.

This next piece will be deeply triggering in so many ways, I am asking people to not make snap judgements, but to ponder on it as this piece confirms an earlier piece I did, of where we all came from. This will be painful there is no getting away from it, but we must take in the information as it is delivered and then process it accordingly. To then go on to healing and the understanding of a new reality, no longer based in illusions. There is an overwhelming reason as to why they do not want the world to know what the Rus know, as it exposes too much of their origins, fake history and shenanigans is why. Here comes a bombshell and potential reality check, all I ask is, don't shoot the messenger. Before we go into this piece we are going to take a moment of silence, please use that moment to prepare yourself, be calming and open to all possibilities. Just because we are different, does not mean we have to be indifferent to each other.

It needs to be noted that the word Childbirth is written with a capital letter when it comes to all our Ancestors. But when it comes to the birth of children, with a small b in birth.

1. The energon blood system of the Black peoples has 6 channels, of which 3 channels are female and 3 are male. Therefore, during the reproduction of offspring, in order to obtain an informational similarity, 3 male and 3 female must be combined and a new black person is born. We know that they are natural beings and these three channels are enough for a person to live in harmony with nature, as if to fit into the natural environment, three channels are enough. There are 3 Rh-positive (Rh+) blood groups and 3 Rh-negative (Rh-) blood groups.

2. The gray has 10 channels, but they have the same system a triangle, as the black people, so the grays, when they arrived on Midgard began to mix with the blacks. The difference lies in the fact that in the gray, the female system seems to dominate the male system as it surrounds from two levels: above and below. Because the grays in most cases came from the insect gene people, where the female and the queen dominates. So in the gray, the gene pool is passed on through the mother and the blood groups of the grays are 5, with 5 Rh+ and 5 Rh-.

3. The yellow has 12 channels: 6 male and 6 female and the predominance of male from the top, bottom and middle restrains and indicates, that the gene pool is transmitted through the male line. It is believed that the varieties of the yellow peoples originally have 6 different blood types, of which 6 are Rh+ and 6 are Rh-. In addition, the Serpents who are the lizard people or snake people had approximately the same structure of energon channels. According to legends, dragons had the same blood type, so one of the patron symbols of the yellow peoples is a dragon. It is said that the dragon lives inside every person and everyone must defeat the dragon that is in them. It also has to do with the fact that the yellows from the constellation Draco have arrived. My understanding is the yellow race also came from Sirius.

4. The red has 9 channels and they are closely related in type to the white race, via the quadrature structure of the structure, not triangular or flower-shaped and it is stable. Quadrature means the process of constructing a square with an area equal to that of a circle, or of another figure bounded by a curve. The predominant number of the blood structure is male (5) and it seems to cover the female 4, which means the gene pool is passed on through the father. Notice that birthing pattern equals a 9, and the square or quadrature also has 9 parts. There is a kind of stabilizing channel via the male channels with the letter "P", the previous ones are kind of floating, but here it is stabilized. There is a predominance of blood groups 4 (4 Rh+ and 4 Rh-), but there is one huge to this, as all the legends of the redskins say, that the gods came and took local women as wives. Also the goddesses descended, who took husbands and gave birth to them and left them here. Given the red element to the skin color, that mating will have been with the Pleiadeans, as they had tomato red skin. That is, the central form which is the central circle or the fifth element has a kind of special structure, it stores information not only about the human Earth species, but also about others, therefore, in addition to 1,2,3,4, there is a kind of incomprehensible blood group or a rare one. Which is why the red race were hunted down here also, in particular in the Americas by the Indians. They are called Indians because they were part of the sub gray race that came from India.

5. White has 16 channels and are a completely harmonious system, but the gene pool is passed on through the father, via the appearance or the image. But here the feminine principle has also been derived and it also has its basis, plus the child, carrying the genome of the father, also supplements himself with something from the mother. It's considered like a complete system. This is more to do with being closer to the original founder races than other beings and must not be seen as racial superiority. The very fact that many races wishes to mix their genes with the white race, tells you it is an important marker for other races.

The next groups of people and their mixing is called: Incest.

6. Grey and black, at first the greys took only black women, which is the reference in the Bible: The sons of God saw the daughters of men and took them as their wives, but another system appeared of 8 channels 3 female and 5 male. Out of them came a people who began to dominate the other blacks, because they already had 8 channels and those had 6. In other words, they were no longer just naturalists, but had expanded the sphere of their perception. The Greys began to train priests from these children, their servants, or as they say now, the fifth column. The priests were the Cohens. This is where the term sub gray came from, that included Rus whites who were called the derelicts.

7. Greys and Yellows, then the Greys began to blend with the Yellow Women. A new species appeared with 11 channels of 6 female and 5 male, because yellow women were taken. This was one order of magnitude lower than the yellow ones, but 5 orders of magnitude higher than the black ones. But this system is unstable, so they started mixing with their own kind. Thus, in addition to the blacks called Dravidians and Nagas, there appeared the Nepalese and the Indians which are the modern names. That is, they are neither white, nor yellow, nor gray, nor black, but something in between and they are only among themselves. That's why we had the concept of caste professional, they had varnas, which is a social class and they forbade mixing, because it can turn out, that you don't know what you are creating and the branch stops. Both of these unstable systems 6 and 7 are called tsegane, meaning having no path. But note that they are as smart as yellow, smarter than black and turned out to be one order of magnitude higher than the gray ones. What gray will tolerate being pointed out by someone? the yellow/grey mix have 11 channels and the gray ones have 10, although there is a triangular base at the top that betrays their genotype, of gray and negroid. That is, they are similar in face and the lower part of the body is closer to yellow. That is why in India we can observe black, light, half-gray, half-black – tsegans. But before they began to be expelled, they learned all the mysteries, the knowledge that they then used for their own purposes. That was the Vedas and the ancient texts, which has been hijacked by these mixing races now connected to India. In fact most of history was hijacked by these off-world races. Only now are we beginning to get to the bottom of it.

8. Grey and red, they sometimes married Indians themselves in order to renew their blood, especially since there are 5 male and 5 female. Mestizos, mulattoes, etc., appeared and there are already some with a white admixture. In America, this genetic experiment has become very widespread. The red was also due to mixing of the races, as the red came from the Pleiadeans, whose skin was tomato red. There are a lot of Europeans, particularly the more Northern countries who have the red hair and pigment from this mix. It was that mix that went onto becoming the Basques and a certain group in Peru as well. It also produced a dynasty of pharaohs, as the mummies that have been dug up, all had red hair.

9. Grey and white, the greys also kidnapped white women, as a result, from the grey $5 + 5 = 10$ with the white $8 + 8 = 16$, there were 13 channels which became the Star of David. Adds a whole new meaning to unlucky 13 and another reason why the $12+1$ has been hidden. This is an unstable form and there is a constant struggle with the divine determination within a given person, therefore it is said they are God-hating people, for example Israel, has a lot of their things that are hidden in symbols. Also, when mixing white with gray, you get a square of 13, which looks like white, but inside there is emptiness, a triangle of 3 elements and their spirit are missing. There is an emptiness which explains the lack of empathy, compassion or care for anyone but themselves, yet even then they ignore whole swathes of their own religious ilk, as they have a caste system as well. The spirit are missing is a big booming reveal out of that sentence, as it means the Jews who came from the grey and white mixing, have no souls. They are but empty meat suits and can never be connected to Source. This is why this group states you only live one life and no reincarnation, as they are essentially clones. It is this group that Avatar 2 warned of, we came in the form of the enemy. Because, unlike the whites, the grays do not assimilate, but mimic. Therefore, by definition, the result of incest is not us and this is also what the Greys themselves say, that when a Jewish man marries a non-Jew, his children are not considered Jews. They call a boy a baistryuk and a girl a shiksa, who are illegitimate children that do not correspond to their laws. But there is another important point, the power of the gene pool of the father who is white, to strive to restore the necessary structure, to add 3 missing elements in the firstborn child. So if a white man marries a Jewish woman and she bears him 10 children, the first child is considered Russian according to Jewish law and the other nine are Jews. That is why the Talmud says, kill the firstborn. Oh my what a bombshell that is, explains the Herod Temple sacrificing of the children, plus the Solomon sacrifice temple as well. This is why they want their third temple to continue to sacrifice the children. These are the only race it seems who have no compassion for children, as you can see with Gaza and many other genocidal attacks they have undertaken. This is also why they say you can defile a girl at 3 and a boy of 9 years of age. All done because a certain group of them are soulless entities. There are a lot of such systems of square 13, you can meet them on the street, he seems to be Russian, khokhol, which is also a word used to slander Ukrainians, how ironic given the war and Jewish connections to there. Also German, but when you talk to him, he somehow looks wrong, speaks, acts, the proportions of his body are violated, but then it turns out that his father is German and his mother is Jewish, it is clear that he is a mimic.

Mimic is to copy, hence we came in the form of the enemy. We have analyzed only the main systems, all are different, as there are a lot of options for mixing. We must preserve our egergon blood system. At the same time, there is no mixing within the Race, so, a Russian can marry a Ukrainian, Belarusian, Polish, French, Scottish, Irish, Norwegian, etc. and as a result, there will be a normal white blonde child and he will carry the power of the gene pool of the Race. A blonde child is called by the representatives of the greys a blonde beast. Hence the pop culture that created the anti-blonde jokes, of all blondes being stupid. Although the media who are in the hands of the greys, every day impose the idea that everyone has long been mixed up, this is a lie. Back in the 1940s, during World War II, labor was transported from the territory of Russia by trains and the Reich Chancellery received a report, that 80% of girls from 16 to 30 years old were virgins. It says: as long as there is such high morality and purity in the country, such a people cannot be defeated. Now do you understand the whole meaning of why the mixing is not wrong, as there is always a free will choice, providing everyone has the knowledge, but is not conducive to each of the separate human races. Like I said there is no racism, only geneticism.

Here is a pondering, one has to ask as to how they reproduce? Is the mixing of Jew and non-Jew a potential threat to their lineage? Is the birth natural? Are there observers to the actual birth? What is standard procedure of the birthing of Jewish babies? Do they reproduce or are they manufactured meat suits? By manufactured I mean clones or synthetics? This also falls in line with what I have said in a previous show, the soul/spirit only enters at birth, as you cannot have two souls in the one vessel. But given we have linked these offspring with the Draco and even the Rus/Slavic author stated the same, this takes me back to some earlier knowledge I received.

A long time back the group known as the Abraxan's told the Draco they had no souls and to pursue them from the white race, in particular here, which they did. But the Abraxan's lied as some Draco at the time did have souls, they just wanted to distract the warrior class species, the Draco, whilst they plundered the real estate as they called it. This was also mentioned in the Jupiter Ascending movie, about the real estate and how this planet was the crown jewel of the Universe. Could it be the case that the Draco over did the Cosmic Genetics games and ruined their gene pool, just like the greys? Or were these creations installed here as the fifth column to take over control of the planet, whilst their lords, gods and other leading figures hid away millions of miles away? Which main family has had most of the control over this planet, particularly since the 1800's when the Draco were instructed to step back and let the humans control the planet? The Rothschild's. Or the Rothtillian's as we used to call them. Why? Because they have more DNA and channels of the Draco beings, than any other family or tribe.

I asked earlier is the mixing of Jew and non-Jew a potential threat to their lineage? With the subsequent information relayed the conclusion would be that it is not necessarily a threat to their lineage via DNA, but potentially these mixed offspring may obtain soul/spirit packages, which then has the potential to develop into a caring and nurturing beings. They cannot have that type within their midst, they are darkness and coldness personified. Is there evidence of programs for these types of mixed children? yes, it's called the MK Ultra program. Whereby the children of the lead families all undergo barbaric training to overcome them being nearer in consciousness to a true human. It appears that all bloodline families go through this type of torture to eliminate compassion, caring, love and empathy out of them. Done by one of their own parents and a handler, which includes drowning their child to death and then bringing them back to life several times. Most of these children go on to attend the Waldorf training, not schooling, following the torture programs. They are highly educated and trained for all types of events, including speaking and the art of engaging people on an advanced psychological level for the purpose of manipulating them. Given these beings have no soul and the planetary frequency is rising, will they be able to sustain being here or will they just disappear?

The next section is about Rh Factor (Rh) and Blood Color:

1. Rh factor
2. The color of blood in different peoples
3. Blood transfusions are not allowed

Rh Factor - Birth of Children:

Our Ancestors understood rhesus as how many children a family can have. Let's say they want a 17th child, but they don't have to, Rh doesn't allow it. That is, if Rh- it means that the body is weakened and a woman can give birth to only 16 children, no more. In some, Rh is weakened to the point that they can give birth to only between 4 and 9 and someone can give birth to a maximum of 1 child. This became clear at the beginning of the 20th century at the Swedish Institute, where eugenics, the purity of the lineage, was studied. They came to the conclusion that if a family normally has 2 children, it is a dying nation. In order for a nation to survive within its population, there must be 5 children in the family. For the nation to prosper, there must be at least 9 children in the family. If it is Rh+, a woman can give birth to more than 16 children. In the Guinness Book of Records there is information about a Russian peasant woman who gave birth to 69 children. That was based on the population back then, the figure for an advanced nation now is, 2.1 children per family. But as we have found out that figure is not being reached by any white race countries currently. That is a deliberate policy by the dark forces.

Different Rh parents can have children:

When they say that different Rh in the father and mother can lead to miscarriage, don't listen to this nonsense. The umbilical cord is a filter, even if the mother is Rh negative and the baby is Rh positive, the umbilical cord will change the Rh to a +. There is no need to interfere in the process of childbirth. As our ancestors used to say: If you get tired of carrying a woman, she will give birth and she will give birth normally. Parents have different blood types. Let's say she has blood group 3 and is Rh negative and he has group 1 and Rh negative, the child can be with blood group 1, 3, and 2, because the blood group is responsible for immunity. Even if the parents are Rh negative, the child can be born Rh positive, as there is still genetic experience of generations. Maybe that was the case in the past, but there is a modern-day issue of RH- mothers bodies rejecting the child and requires some sort of injection to try to counteract it. Or that injection is genetically altering the child? Always a possibility.

The color of blood in different peoples:

Venous blood differs in color from one nation to another: The white man's blood is closer in color to dark cherry and thick. The yellow man's blood color is dark crimson and slightly thinner. The blood of greys can be pink in color and as if soft and transparent. Which reveals they are completely different to the other two races. Therefore, a good doctor, even in spite of the card, will determine who is of what nationality, or rather, with what color of skin. At the same time, the 1st blood group of a white person is suitable for absolutely everyone, but only the 1st white blood group can be infused into him.

Blood transfusions are not allowed:

If blood is transfused from a person whose family has hereditary diseases of the heart, kidneys, stomach, etc., all this will be mixed with the person to whom such blood was infused, and then at conception it can be passed on to the child. In other words, blood carries information of a certain kind. Now doctors have realized this and instead of blood they infuse plasma, which is chemically similar to blood, but does not carry information, unless of course, it is charged. Interesting, charged plasma? Charged with what?

This next section gives more details about the Race, their makeup, their responsibilities and their roles. The crew of Vitmara: The pilots were representatives of the Da'Aryans, the H'Aryans were responsible for space navigation calculations, the Rasen were responsible for the service systems on the ship and the Svyatorus were engaged in the life support systems of the ship, plus carried out repair and restoration work.

Differences in the genera of aces:

Da'Aryans - height 175-190 cm, lived in ancient times for more than 300 years, eye color silver (gray, steel), hair color light blond, almost whitish, blood group 1.

H'Aryans - height 180-260 cm, eye color green, hair color light brown, the 1st blood group predominates, the 2nd is rare.

Rasen or Russen (Latin Etruscans; Greek Tyrrhenians) - height 165-185 cm, fiery eye color (k'Ariy and light k'Aryan), dark blond hair, blood group 2 predominates, 1st is rare.

Svyatorus - height 155-195 cm, sometimes up to 220 cm, heavenly eye color (blue, lake, cornflower, black, etc.), hair color from white to dark blond, blood type can be 1 and 2.

It's like modern data and before the Ice Age, growth was higher. The tallest are the H'Aryans, their height is up to 360 cm, although archaeologists have found a skeleton of 4 meters, and at the time of Da' Arya, the height of the Race was even higher. This is due to the fact that there used to be a different ecology, the air was denser, our Earth had 3 Moons, which means that the gravitational component was somewhat different. For example, if dinosaurs appeared now, with the current force of gravity and the pressure of the air column, they would not be able to move and they would feel normal only in water, where there is a softening. Therefore, it should not be surprising that people were so tall. That explains the reduction of all living things on this planet, less density back then, which means less force. But that begs a great question and something I did a piece on earlier in the year. Are they or have they descended us into 2D? Because if our planet is now much denser than in the past, that would be the natural conclusion.

Symbol of the Race:

There is the Rune Inglija in the picture the central swastika, means the primordial fire of Creation. There is also a symbol of the preservation of wisdom, this is a sword with a point down. So, the symbol of the Race was depicted as the imposition of the primordial fire on wisdom and the preservation of wisdom. See image "FHSTOS Plus 24 image 5.jpg" in Downloads section on the show page. This is interesting given our description of the internal sword and the swastika as the sun. The sword is pointing down, which is the reverse of what the Cat-holic sign does, as the sign of the cross they do, is upside down. The sun is the primordial fire, but in as above so below and as within and so without, the sun symbol depicts the sun in the sky and also the sword penetrating the heart as the protector. With the poles from both sides the sword for the planet will be anchored to the inner sun at the center of the planet. Three suns one above, one within and one below, one on one with the one again.

Symbol of the Race - Inglija and the Sword with the point down means the preservation of Wisdom. Wisdom is intuition, which means it is inside of you. The four peoples are encrypted within the colors of the sword: the Da'Aryans (gray eyes), the H'Aryans (green eyes), the Svyatorus (heavenly eyes), the Rasen (fiery eyes). Note that in the picture in each of the rays there are two colors: red-green, gray-green, heavenly-green, green-red, i.e. as if two-colored. I would suggest they are the closely related kins, with H'Aryan and Da'Aryan the closest. Rasen and Svyatorus were more related as the Slavics, than the Aryans.

The Faith of the Race:

No matter what Earth white people live on, they have only one faith and according to this faith, having lived in the manifest world. A person goes to the world of glory the bright Nav, then to the world of Rule and so on, in constant perfection, development and creation. The purpose of the Aces is to pass on the wisdom from generation to generation. All foundations are built on the philosophy of the spirit, the highest degree of which is the creative potential. Aces are creators, they instill in their descendants diligence, namely hard work and not the ability to work, because work is a soulless mechanical process. Aces work by, putting their soul into the fruits of their labor.

The Spirit of different peoples:

White nations are creators, the creators. The philosophy of the spirit of the great Race has always been, based on the harmony of the spirit and its highest degree has been considered to be creative potential.

Yellow peoples, they are like conservatives, they use the achievements of other peoples for the good of their own people. They would take someone's teaching or invention and give it a certain complete form. Another version of piggy backing in essence. Let's say Popov created radio, but the Chinese, Koreans and Japanese gave it a marketable appearance and filled the world market. Whites invented the television; the computer and the yellows made it marketable and filled the market. That is, they do not create, but make various variations from what has already been created.

The red peoples are the guardians. They keep pure everything that their Ancestors have left them and everything that others have given them, but not necessarily given to them by humans. There are Indian tribes whose legends say that the Gods flew to them, gave them writing, tools, taught them sciences, but they did not look like people. The Indians call these creatures Katchens, they make Katchen doll toys and pass them on from generation to generation, because the Katchens promised to return. The toys are needed so that when they appear, the children will not be afraid of them. They are similar to the kachinas in Central America. Therefore, the first goal of the so-called colonizers of America was not even gold, but to take possession of the knowledge that the Indians kept. After that, the Indians were exterminated, 200 million Indians were exterminated in 200 years. Most of the extermination to my knowledge was done prior and long before the colonials arriving. The Indians who came across the Bearing Strait were slaughtering the native populace in their millions, then near the end they started to mate with them.

Black-skinned peoples are nature-creatures. Children of the wilderness or as our ancestors called them, people with dark-colored skin. Blacks have always lived in harmony with nature in the places where they originally lived. But when they were taken away from their native lands, torn from their ancestral roots, later these people became machines of destruction. Example: slave riots, when they could only kill, set fire and destroy. Contrary to modern day opinions, that removal was done by the grey peoples.

The green-skinned peoples were experimenters at all levels, down to genetics. They conducted experiments with animals and experiments with humans. What was obtained as a result of experiments and the green skins themselves, our ancestors called the undead. The green skins were not the color of a frog, but gray green in color, like the dead and the lungfish, they could live both on land and in water as amphibians. This sounds like some of the aquatic race of beings to me. They used to live beyond Sri Lanka on a continent in the Indian Ocean, which our ancestors called Ramtha, someone called it the continent of Mu. Now it is not known whether there are still green skins, although in various countries there were publications that a sea woman, although not a mermaid, but a woman who lived in the water was caught in Holland. In Australia in the 19th century, fishermen caught a man who could not stay in the air for a long time; He managed to escape, jump over the side and go into the ocean. So maybe there are still green skins left. If the same race of beings, there are some in the Atlantic also, housed in a crystal pyramid. The movie the Shape of Water revealed that species. Given they are green in color, this is one of them reptile species.

The Grey Peoples, they were called the imitators as that was the first thing they did. Subsequently, they began to be called parasites and so on. There is not a single creator among the gray peoples, although there are many restorers. Let's say that there is not a single watch master among them, they cannot make a watch completely, they can only repair or replace some spare parts. They don't have craftsmen to make a sewing machine, but they can fix it. Therefore, two terms have appeared in modern usage: for whites and for grays. A white person is called a professional and a gray person is called a specialist, so someone gets a profession and someone studies in his specialty. Interesting analogy revealed there, which means they are not creators, just copy merchants. Which is important to understand first, before this next sentence. You have already understood that the gray peoples are those who are usually called Jews, but in nationalist circles the word specialist is used, instead of the words Jew and whatever role. So, the goal of the Greys on Earth is to seize natural resources, control levers and the media in order to influence the brain, all to control public opinion and so on. It should be noted that they do not have an end in itself to come to open power, they prefer as imitators, to hide in the shadows. Yes the hidden hand, secret societies and orders, hidden religious cults and all operating in code. Like I have said, they have no power, only what we have allowed them to take and operate. They are the quintessential parasitic being, harvesting everything, riddled with greed, hate and death. Essentially they are a very weak species, which is why they fear us so much and desire to control us. How much of a parasitic nature are they? Read FHSTOS Plus 1 again as a reminder. Also they are not assimilated among another people, for example, a German can become a Russian, a Swede can become French, but the grays only mimic. They change outwardly, becoming similar to the people who surround them, but internally they remain the same gray. All very chameleon you have to say and also as we were reminded in Avatar 2, we came in the form of the enemy. That is why there are a lot of them in the system of imitation: theater, stage, i.e. humorists or umoril meaning killed and also the collection of energy. At the same time, their jokes are at the level of the 2nd and 3rd chakras, in other words guttural.

SUMMARY:

Some very intriguing points made in this show, some very controversial ones also. Where they triggering? Highly probable, but those are your triggers only and at this stage should not be used to project onto someone else. Why is it triggering? Because there was an inner truth revealed that you were just not ready to process in the now. But you all have been through many being in THI, you have overcome many ruinations, this is just another hurdle to overcome within the self. Another chance to process, forgive, heal and let go of. We can argue and debate over points of the narrative or learn to work and come together to fix things. The past is the past, let it go and let us not take it with us into the future. Most of what went before was a total failure, why do we have to keep dragging it into the now? Just because we are differing types of humanoids, from differing planetary systems, that should not mean we can't all get along. The reason we don't get along is because of the Greys and their insidious ways of operating. They are totally service to self, a harvesting race, that has consumed all other races with their brand of division, controlling nature, deceit, thievery, warring and lacking any sort of compassion, caring or love in their soul. The question is, do they have a soul at all? Are they bot-like machines devoid of any sort of empathy, which is indicative of how they operate. They are like a malignant cancer upon this planet, darkness personified. Using whites who they envy and copy, blacks, reds and yellows to do their dirty work for them. Why are we copying ourselves within their image? They are also a lazy race, you never or rarely see them doing manual labor, just creaming the profits off of the labor of others. Given the red race was wiped out by the Indians and the green race appears illusive, the restoration of this planet and varying people's rests upon the black, yellow and white races. The yellow industry is to be admired, but not their ability steal others ideas and make all the profits themselves. That in essence is no better than the imitating harvesting grey race. The black race need to return to their roots and nature, learn and carry out farming practices to sustain their people. Address the anger and violence traits that permeates throughout their culture. As for the white race, the embarrassment of being the creators and not being creative goes on. You may marvel at your ancestors and the mastery, then consider yourself as part of it and use it to happy clap and elevate yourself off of the back of the others. But this series has shown is, what an embarrassment the white race has become. Riddled with lazy traits and competitive and comparative programs of dragging each other down, instead of lifting each other up. As we have found out in this series the white race are the leaders, pioneers, developers and creators of so much, yet oh how far they have fallen from grace. So far removed from the original teachings of the Santies, the fall has been spectacular in its scope and depth. That has to be changed going forward, as without our creativity, will and drive the other races will fail also. That puts every member of the white race on notice, we have to change ourselves, be the change ourselves and promote the change ourselves. Remember in one of the early Santies, it said the gods are supporting those doing the self-sacrifice and working for the greater good. That should be a note to all who don't or can't engage them yet, it means you haven't done enough. Just how much of the bible has been overlaid into their story and stolen from the Rus, is a main takeaway from this show. Moses, Mari, Roses, Danes, Van and von names, Joachim, Tartarie into Tatars and so on. Is there any doubt their so called Holy book is at best fake and worst a complete erasure of our history and implanted with their history. Overlays of whole countries twisted into the dark forces playgrounds, their people, lands, resources and history denied. Mountains, seas and rivers all renamed to erase the history, so they can claim what is not theirs.

Being labeled as Nazis and white supremacists, when it has been proven the white race helped all the other races to improve themselves, including the jet-black race sent to destroy their DNA and lineage. The list goes on and also the finger pointing away from your label, but guess what? That didn't fix a single thing did it? With our Blueprint now circulating in very interesting circles around the world, the Santies being publicly broadcasted also, a new way of operating must now take hold of this planet, that will shake everyone to the core. We need shaking as the world and how it operates is embarrassing for us all, whether people on the street, fake celebrities, fake leaders, fake committees, fake Orders and Secret Societies, bloodline families or the oligarchs, all of us are an embarrassment. For allowing a beautiful planet to be tipped upside down by lunatic asylum level people, devoid of any personal responsibility and spend their lives harvesting others.

Enough is enough of this shit, fix you, help fix others and lets fix this planet once and for all.
