

THI-SHOW TRANSCRIPT 2024-05-23

The Agenda:

This week's focus was mainly on what is gaining momentum with the various methods of promoting the blueprint and is it enough? and how do we push the blueprint further. The new activism group will aid this process on the social media stage, but it is only one avenue and perhaps we are relying too heavily on social media as being the thing that brings people forward to aid the blueprint. Other avenues were discussed which involved, community activism, where members that are not on social media would prefer to post flyers for example in shops, libraries, or community buildings, or attend political meetings during this election period and bring some blueprint flyers or calling cards and hand them out. Sometimes the more personal approach has more value and can be an avenue that puts political lobbyists on the spot. Talking to them or giving them information about what we do, could open doors to finally getting the blueprint onto some of these politician's tables. Many influencers may not open the pdf, so we cannot rely on that alone. Local community groups that align with the blueprint could also receive a calling card. We need to keep thinking different and not put all our eggs into the one basket. Other members have expressed an interest in making tee shirts to promote the blueprint, and possibly other forms of merchandise. This is a great idea and as it's summertime a great way to be a walking advertisement. It was suggested that those members that have expressed an interest, could form a group, and come up with a proposal of how this would look, coming up with costings, distribution methods and create a strategy to get this project off the ground. Any members that are interested in this project can contact anyone on the be. platform and get the ball rolling. Writing legislation for the blueprint was also an item on the Agenda, and while this is something we will need in the future, it was decided that it was not the priority at this time. This is also something that can be worked on in the background, with any members that have an interest or understanding of what is required to produce legislation that works for the people to come and lend suggestions. For all the above topics, if you have any interest in getting involved, as many hands make light work, please express your interest on the be.platform or main chat in mewe. Many thanks to all the teams for their hard work and dedication.

BOOK TEAM:

From His Story to Our Story Volume 4 is in final edit, with new material added thanks to our Bulgarian translator. We hope to be able to get a base translation for at least 3 languages by the end of the month. The From His Story to Our Story Volume 3 Bulgarian base translation has arrived and will soon be adjusted for publication. Once the European Blueprint is completed, the From His Story to Our Story Volume 2 Dutch translation will begin. The Romanian translator is working on the Consent and Divine Masculine and Divine Feminine booklets. The Spanish translation of the Blueprint is being proofread. The Swedish translation of the Blueprint is almost complete. The May Book Team meeting included a rousing discussion of odd English terms not easily understood much less translated, as well as the treatment of the legalese in the Guardians section. It was decided that simplifying that chapter to make it easier to read is more important than direct translation of legal terms, that do not all have equivalents in the various European languages. That said, it was agreed that the portions that deny consent to the confusing legal terms meant to disempower the people is essential. It was also mentioned that many people are triggered by the chapters that they mistakenly perceive to deny property rights. The need for a few revisions to the original English Blueprint was noted and members of the Blueprint and Book Teams will be collaborating on that. The European Blueprint team member reminded us that in Europe there are 50 countries, most with their own language, and as the Blueprint is for the benefit of all, we need to take this into consideration, to keep the text simple so all can understand it and are able to make their own translations.

RESEARCH TEAM:

The Research Team's May 5th meeting facilitated Phase Two of the strategic planning for the next four Blueprint Shows. As mentioned in the last show, the team leads have a heavy travel schedule in June, so advance action is required to organize four name sets of diversified influencers from the database prior to May 29th. The team would like to enlighten the new THI members on the process.

Currently there are 124 email addresses that include several of the same organization in different regions. An additional 51 have web contact forms. Mike handles most of them to relieve Mama Z who works on researching new names for the database, as well as splitting duties with MaryAnn to write brief bios for each of the 40 names selected for each show. Mike also maintains the database, inputs all new data information sets, and creates all reports detailing varying segments of that data. It takes him about six hours to fill out 20 influencers online forms. It can take the ladies a similar amount of time to research the biographic material. Todd handles sending the emails and prefers to get a big block of influencers to email all at once and has it down to a timed science. The team can divvy up the names in any manner desired to represent a chosen theme or focus; however, only successfully contacted individuals or groups are listed in these Blueprint Show episodes.

In the meantime, the Research Team garners continued input from other THI teams and members to grow the database. For example, in the last Action Meeting, Thomas stated that he wanted to contact bigger influencers with a focus beginning with Congress. The research team discussed how to approach that goal. Senators and Representatives have mailing addresses in Washington, D.C. which is good for mailing a hard copy of the book. Much of Congress is funded by Israel's AIPAC fund. Perhaps we could compile a list of who ISN'T? – we added that item to a task list, MaryAnn made the discoveries, and we will be reporting who they are in the next BP Show. Senators and Representatives also have mailing addresses for their District Offices in their home states for mailing hard copies of the Blueprint. We will research and add those as well. Otherwise, they have web forms usually requiring giving them personal phone, address and email. Our team does not divulge any members personal information and we understand in advance that the Congress and House members prefer to communicate with people considered their constituency; therefore, the forms contact is blocked unless we can find members in each state that would be willing to give out their information. To complicate matters, the web forms and bios are labor intensive. The Senators and Reps teams reply with a “no-reply” email, meaning that no good or useable email address is found to circumvent the protection layers. Most of their biographical information is campaign braggadocio. Mailers are expensive and you must get to the politician’s administrative aide to get the Blueprint in the hands of their boss. Finding an aide’s name online is time-consuming. Fortunately, thanks to THI member Kevin, we are still mining information from his terrific list of assigned / selected committee seats and prior testimonials guests. It will also be of interest to our members to know that out of the 110 Senators, less the 18 just mentioned, of the 92 remaining, three cowardly decided not to vote, and 89 voted to continue the foreign war aid package funding (thievery) in the amount of $95 billion of taxpayers hard earned wages. All US Representatives are up for reelection.

MaryAnn located all those Senators who are seeking reelection or seeking to fill vacated seats. (Diane Feinstein of California died) To illustrate our success streaks, please give a round of applause to these statistics: 66 books have been mailed, 328 pdfs sent, 1,239 emails successfully sent equaling a grand total to date of 1,633 Blueprint seeds planted. A bountiful harvest is ahoj! While rotational planting continues, we are green housing a Billionaire’s list per the suggestion of an Australian member willing to take on the contact information acquisition task. We are still tilling the field for the top elites. As a follow up to the recent Action Group meeting, MaryAnn had the impression from Thomas that the old guard is dying off and creating a void in the corrupt system. She noted that Influencers who have Social Media accounts standardly have an X/Twitter account, even if no others. She suggested targeting members of Congress who had about 1M or more X followers for follow up. For example: Sen. Ted Cruz (TX) who has 3.6M. His X-handle is @SenTedCruz; his 2nd account is Ted Cruz, has 6.3M followers. His handle there is: @tedcruz The BP was mailed to him. Let’s get him to act on it. Another is Sen. John Kennedy (LA) who has 1M followers. Find him on X @SenJohnKennedy.

A new multiteam coordination took place thanks to the new Coordinator, Kayoko. She and/or the Activist & Media Teams will be reporting on the cooperative outcome. We simply add our true delight at having the opportunity to expand the project legs for effective multitasking in harmonic concert, which widens the swath of outreach. The topic of social media follow-up continued as Steve of the Media team told us that, it cannot be overstated: people can target five influencers each week on social media, only spending a few minutes per day or week. Just a simple quick interaction posting your favorite Blueprint meme or asking if they have read the Blueprint, you sent them the link or pdf to. Our Research Team each plan to join the choir of teams finding those minutes in our days and/or week to echo the efforts. As the names list is read next, we encourage members to write down the names they recognize or find interesting and do a search for them on your favorite social media. It will be a great start for your follow-up 5 minutes this next week.

He has said that physical reality is an illusion, and that the world really is a holographic simulation, created by a non-human force to lockdown human perception in ongoing servitude. He has been subjected to decades of ridicule and dismissal over his theories. However, now his books are read all over the globe and his speaking events are watched by thousands. Why? Because what he foretold is playing out in world events and even some mainstream scientists are concluding that reality is indeed a simulation or Matrix.

You will have noticed the use of the word grassroots ten times in our report today. Wikipedia defines it as: A grassroots movement is one that uses the people in each district, region or community, as the basis for a political or economic movement. Grassroots movements and organizations use collective action from the local level to implement change at the local, regional, national or international levels. Grassroots movements are associated with bottom-up, rather than top-down decision-making, and are sometimes considered more natural or spontaneous than more traditional power structures. To follow our favorite etymologist's lead, the word was used as early as the 12th century, really trended in the mid,1950s, again in the 1980s, and has a Heinz 57 genealogy you can read all about online. Figurative use, source of a quality or condition is from late 12c. Of the base parts of teeth, hair, etc., from early 13c. Mathematical sense is from 1550s. Philological sense from 1520s. Slang meaning penis is recorded from 1846. In African, American vernacular use, a spell effected by magical properties of roots by 1935. The sense of person considered as the source or offspring of a family or clan is by early 14c., chiefly biblical. grass (n.) Old English herb, plant, grass from Proto Germanic. Grasan source also of Old Frisian gers meaning grass, turf, kind of grass. Old Norse, Old Saxon, Dutch, Old High German, German, Gothic gras, Swedish gräs, which according to Watkins, is from PIE ghros, a young shoot, sprout, from root ghre to grow, become green. Thus, related to grow and green, but not to Latin grāmen grass, plant, herb. But Boutkan considers grāmen the only reliable cognate and proposes a substrate origin. root (n.) Underground, downward, growing part of a plant, late Old English rot and in part from a Scandinavian cognate akin to Old Norse rot - root, figuratively cause, origin from Proto Germanic wrot. Source also of Old English wyrt root, herb, plant, Old High German wurz. The usual Old English words for root were wyrtruma and wyrtwala.

Do you think we are a grassroots movement? Does it or do they matter or make a difference? We believe YES and YES. They start from an idea and grow, as it is shared and formed to meet the collective need. For example:

Once upon a time, one of our group founders had an idea to write a book and look where we are today with that idea. Another upon a time, one of our members thought her little community needed an event to bring them together, so she got an idea to organize a parade. She rounded up local businesses to sponsor it, notified schools, organizations, fire departments, sheriff's horse-mounted posse, churches and politicians running for reelection. The dinky rural hamlet had only about 4,000 people. It seemed like they all wanted to be in the simple 1-mile parade, and no one would be there to watch it. From idea to parade took just 2 weeks. 6,000 people watched 500 entries with 2,285 people prancing the stretch to the vacant lot we hoped would one day become a park. This first year was turned into a school fair to raise funds to build the park with a veteran's memorial garden. That was back in 1986. By 1996 (10 years later) the park had grass, a playground, the longed-for Veteran's Memorial Garden, a gazebo, a sheriff's substation, community event building, tournament grade horseshoe pits and baseball field. The weekend before Mother's Day this year, May 4th, 2024, to be exact, was the 38th annual parade. The parade founder only chaired the event for the first 10 years, was grand marshal for the 25th, and her sons surprised her with this year's visit as a Mother's Day gift, because she no longer lives in the area. During this visit in her special Founder's Top Hat, she left the street curb to connect with each of the parading county and state politicians running for election. She asked for their contact information, which they gave her a flyer or business card of, and she told them she'd be emailing them The New Blueprint for Humanity that will help them make the changes they are promising and even better ones. She kept her promise. Her biggest regret though, was not having 100 of David Adams Blueprint handouts on hand in her purse, plus the fact she had to stop chatting at car windows when her sons came to haul her back to the curb, crying Mom! You're holding up the parade! Summer is ahead, lots of parades, fairs and events will be held in your communities. Please learn from our members tale of woe – have plenty handy so you'll be faster with trading info and not hold up the proceedings. And never underestimate the power of a Tiny idea. Next research meeting: May 19th, 2024.

EUROPEAN BLUEPRINT TEAM

We discussed The Covid Solution and The Health Care and Health Cost Solution together and we were happy with a new face in the group being a naturopath, we benefited from her knowledge about these topics. All made valuable contributions and it was good, there was space to have a laugh as well. It was noted that while working on adapting the solutions, it gives a feeling of having a say in the matter and also of being in training for taking on our role as a Guardian for the benefit of the people and the planet.

CANADIAN BLUEPRINT TEAM

The Blueprint Canada team has discussed the Government, Countries, Overhaul, Military and Tax solutions and adjusted them for Canadian circumstances and needs. Two more solutions require further study, and members who had been unable to attend the recent meeting will have an opportunity to read the adjustments to date and to add their perspective. We hope to have a finished document before Canada Day. Thanks to the THI flyer king, flyers that address Canadian concerns have been posted for members to print and distribute.

MEDIA TEAM

The team have had another strike on the you tube account, citing medical misinformation, a sure sign we have hit the target of their truth barrier and triggered some bot into action. We have also had copyright issues with a portion of the intro countdown at the beginning of the blueprint shows, as they deem this to be connected to a copyrighted version of Happy New Year, which is bizarre to say the least. Because of this we feel it is time to move away from you tube and concentrate on another platform for the podcasts. Spreaker automatically can be linked to several platforms such as Spotify, Odyssey and others. We have discovered that an Odyssey account has already been linked, so the team have decided to use this for now and begin to advertise this as the second platform, bypassing you tube altogether and hopefully we can amass a following there. We will also explore other platforms like bit chute and possibly Spotify to see if they are worth using. There is also a possibility to upload the shows to the Twitter accounts, this would mean purchasing a premium account to ensure we can upload a three-hour show. We already have the blue tick on Twitter, as this was kindly purchased last year on behalf of the media team. We are not a fan of paying for these platforms, but we are open to exploring the upgrade if it helps bring us further down the line. In the meantime, we will post the link to the show as this costs nothing. We ask that you all help us to get the blueprint out there, by liking and sharing the posts on Instagram, Twitter and Tik Tok. Changing the collective consciousness takes time, but the more that gets behind us, the quicker the change comes.

The media team recently met up with the research team and the activism team to tighten up our efforts on creating a flow between the three groups, to ensure we are all working together more effectively. As a result of this the activism team have now have a strategy in place and begun their task of targeting those people who have received the book or the pdf, who have to date have not responded. The media team will continue their efforts to provide support with this venture and push out the pdf's also on the blueprint twitter and Instagram platforms, and anything else they need for the project. We wish the new team much success and hope many more will join in the fun as they target 5 people each week. This means each month we have targeted 20 influencers with the blueprint name appearing in their comments constantly over that period. So come and join us and be part of a fun way to create change.

LAW TEAM

The Law Team met on May 15th to share how they are progressing. The transcript to define Divinity, the Divine Creator and Divine Mind plus the transcript to define Cognitive Law and how the Divine. Mind connects and operates through the Higher Mind, Lower Mind and human cognitive systems have been completed and uploaded. It is important to define these concepts first when it comes to understanding the law, because the controller's system is a mind influence system of voluntary servitude. As they cannot usurp free will, we must be tricked into voluntarily giving up our free will by choosing their system over truth. Our lower mind can be tricked. We live in a fictional world of memories that are often confused and inaccurate; hence, law and justice are at best a fictional story of events based on inaccurate memories, that may or may not resemble the truth. Our Divine Mind cannot be tricked, it knows what truth is. If we are convinced that Divine Mind does not exist, and we rely on our lower mind of intellect and ego (self-interest) then it becomes difficult to know who we are and discern truth; thus, we are easy to confuse and trick into believing false narratives. Knowing who we are, an unmeasurable spirit having an individual experience as a multi-dimensional soul connected through the higher mind, acting as an interface, to our lower mind and physical body, is the foundation of the law as their system relies on us not knowing who we are and identifying with the fake persona (person) they create at birth. Their rules apply to the fictional person, not to the spirit. Yet it is our spirit, our unmeasurable I, that is the driver of the vessel (the body).

Our challenge is that many people identify with their mind, body and persona thinking this is who they are. Our mind, body and persona are merely the clothes we put on so our spirit can experience physical life, through the soul and mind as the components that interface with the spirit. The purpose of life is to learn and experience. Information flows both ways, we arrive with some knowledge and operating systems. Our soul feeds back to our spirit what it learns through life experience, and our spirit then progresses along the light path as it grows, or it can choose to reincarnate and continue to learn the needed lessons to progress, based on consequence of actions (the law of karma). Dark forces need our energy to function in the physical dimensions, so they trick us into giving our life force energy through our free will, trapping us in their loop if we fall for their delusions.

We are also exploring the link from Ucadia and the law to Rita law and have purchased and are studying the Rodnover series of books by Dmitriy Kushnir. We have found many parallels to how the Rus define human and the divine in Book 1 – World of Humans. These books can be found on Amazon and are well worth reading. Work is also underway to summarize Lebor Clann Glas (the Book of the Green Race) which covers over 10,000 years of history, starting with the origins of the Cuilleain/Holly form what is known as Ireland today around 7,000BCE. These people descended from the giants who came from the north and lands of the south when the ice melted and sea levels rose 10,830BCE, a link to the Rus. It was the Cuilleain/Holly that restored civilization after cataclysms that occurred when a comet passed close by earth around 7000BCE. The link to the Rus can be found in their ancient heritage and the giants of the north. Their knowledge and wisdom has been the light in the dark many times over the last 12,000 years, forming what we now know as the True Rule of Law. In 288CE, Queen Morgaine of the Cuilleain/Holly Irish said, to conquer the land of a man, will ensure his sons rise up in revenge, and to conquer the spirits of men will cause them to yield in fear and sustenance for a time, until terror hardens their minds and hearts, and a force is spawned that fears nothing. Thus, conquest by blood is futile and fear the nemesis that always destroys its host. Yet give a man his freedom and dignity and the self-discipline to know right from wrong, and such a man will defend to the death what he has been given. To truly gain what has been lost, restore the trust men have in heaven, that each be guardian to his own conscience and custodian to his own soul. These words spoken almost 2000 years ago stand true today and help explain why the Law Team feels the study of law is so important to restoring our birthright as guardians of this planet.

ACTIVIST TEAM

Social Media Strategy Report.

The team adopted and dubbed a 5x5 strategy for all platforms that have people posting not only as the BP account but as individuals. That is, the activist team lead posts names and we all post to or message 5 influencers who have received the BP in either PDF or book form and who have been logged by the Research Team. The five-person 5x5 team has completed two weeks of postings. Week one we contacted from Saturday, May 4, 2024: AOC, Biden, Musk, Candace Owens, Bernie Sanders. Starting May 11, we contacted Ben Fulford, Jordan Peterson, Tucker Carlson, Kerry Cassidy, Peter Flaherty (NLPC).

The five days flow as follows:

Day 1- BP account sends the BP link/ asking them to take action and join us.

Individual accounts then send.

Day 2- the BP American Overhaul link - holding those in positions of power and influence accountable to a higher standard.

Day 3- Full Disclaimer for Disclosure link - truth will be a game changer.

Day 4- BP Be the Change link - asking them to join us and be the change.

Day 5- Guardians link - claiming our responsibility to bring the restoration forward.

Here is an example of what one member did in week two. Ben Fulford: sent the link for the health care solution in response to his post about the WHO. Jordan Peterson: sent the link for the Pedophilia solution in response to his interview with a young actress about the pedophilia in the movie industry. Tucker Carlson: sent a link to the Food and Soil Sustainability in response to an attack on the meat and dairy industry. Kerry Cassidy: sent the Military Solution in response to her piece on the ongoing wars. Peter Flaherty: sent the link to the blueprint in response to his arrest for speaking the truth, with the comment more truth than you can handle and common-sense solutions for humanity. In general, with two rounds completed, the feedback is as follows. No personal replies from any of the 5. One team member adds that she is seeing a few failed send errors on Instagram at times when she tries to post. New contact suggestions from the team on what they've seen so far are Mark Atwood, Jon Levi and Mikki Willis. Each of these people have large audiences and content in alignment with our BP mission. We welcome many more of you to join us on social media to create a wider impact; actually, to create the Blueprint.

An example of a reply from Elon Musk to Not the Bee that may be relevant to and resonant with our querying him as to whether he would join the BP effort is this tweet on May 14. Our team had more than one post response, just one is included here: The true battle is: Extinctionists who want a holocaust for all of humanity. Versus Expansionists who want to reach the stars and Understand the Universe. Our responses were: Yes. Are you on the side of the New Blueprint for Humanity? Some of us have already reached the stars, others are seeing the stars reaching for us and are embracing them to create change in the Universe. We need to understand all of the species on this planet and live in harmony with them before we can be expected to expand outward. That all starts from within. In Overview:

When you work with teams, there will always be many things to consider, things to address, and things that have to be done, it is the nature of the beast. There is always choices to be made along the way, with differing opinions on the how, the why and the who. But there is one thing that should never change no matter what presents itself, and that is the path you are now on. Which begs the question, do you really know where you are going to? This may seem obvious; we are promoting the blueprint and all the jobs that need to be done to do this are being undertaken. But do we ever ask, where will that lead me and what does it all entail? Is it really what I want to do? do I have what it takes to stay on that path? and not get thrown off with every distraction or every new challenge. The Blueprint is a challenge to all that choose to support it in any shape or form, as it takes dedication, perseverance, but most of all it takes commitment. We also may face push back from loved ones, causing us to waiver at times to keep the peace, or we take a step back from it while we tend to other interests and lifes varying issues that crop up. On a more external level we face shadow banning, deaf ears and targeting from those that want to keep us quiet, unseen and unheard. All of these things can take you off your true path, and the call you heard to step forward might begin to fade as the reality of what is involved takes a hold. The dawning of what real commitment entails like showing up for meetings, preparing reports, creating a list of influencers, a web page, a meme or commenting on posts, or whatever the commitments of your role are, may not always remain your priority. Big or small these things are part of what you signed up for, and while the blueprint is important to you, maybe you have not yet have made it a priority on any given day. Though at this juncture maybe it should be the number one priority, not just for the teams but for all THI members. Because in essence, all other paths you chose before are failing now, all the doors that were open to you and fitted your life before, are closing. There is nothing left of the old world that works anymore, it was never going to, because it was never meant to. Closed doors are avenues to new doors, some may appear like magic, others may need to be sought out and tugged open. We are leaving a world behind where things may have appeared to be simpler, but that was the illusion. It seemed like you just had to engage with that world, as it got you what you wanted, a new car, a house or a job. It was easier to make a decision, because you had lots of choices, now you are committed to something that needs to be created, developed and brought to life. Your path is not fully present in the external, for it is still in the embryonic stages of being born and like in pregnancy you await its birth with anticipation and excitement or even fear of what becoming a parent really entails, knowing your life will change forever. You also have an end date, and so it might be difficult becoming a parent, or buying a new home, but it will always be rewarding. Many of us may not have a true vision of what implementing the blueprint really means, what it might look like in the external, so we wax and wane and think we have all the time in the world to get it done. The reality is, we don't, we have an opportunity that we never had before to 180 this world, and a tabula rasa to do so. You have the opportunity to become the guardian of this new world, and the teacher by paying what you have learnt forward. You can and will become the director of your own dream come true. And maybe that is the thing that often is overlooked, you not only have a chance to be a part of something big, but you also have a chance to define what you want in it, what you would like to see manifest into life. What you may have always felt was missing in this world, it is now your prime opportunity to bring it to being. Assuming someone else will or can do it is foolhardy and in essence a reflection of your commitment to first yourself and second to humanity. Uncertainty of the self will show up when you are dealing with something that is not yet here, doubts will creep in, and a false sense of security that someone else has it all in hand can begin to show up. It's time to let all of that go and embrace this golden opportunity to step forward and create a role for yourself in this wonderful process of developing the blueprint, so it becomes the new collective consciousness, made flesh in the world. Today is a good day to truly ask yourself, do you know where you're going to, and are you doing enough to get there. The teams need your help, your vision and your commitment, it's time to get out of the head and into the heart. Let us pay forward the gift that was presented to us, the blueprint, and truly make a difference in this failing world. Let us begin anew and form a strong new path for others to follow. Let us come together now and take this planet back, become the Higher Universal man and women, and unite in heartfelt consciousness. Let us embody each solution and become it and let us shine our light in every corner of this planet, so our path becomes the way home for the all. And change the question, do you know where you're going to, I am going to be the person that helps change this world. Come together and be the Solution the world is waiting for.

Here is part 2 of the What is a guardian piece.

The reminder sparked many memories of when it was originally written down and then relayed in the shows. It must stir us all onto greater heights and effort with the working groups, more must join in to help and support them. With the old world collapsing, this is our big opportunity to make real change.

There have been many corrupt or tyrannical rulers, that use these systems to control people and amass wealth and power. There have also been many revolutions and changes in political regimes and rulers when this power is abused. Despite this, despite the many revolutions in the past, we find ourselves even more enslaved today, by regimes in the so-called free world becoming more tyrannical with power, and resources ever more centralized into fewer and fewer hands. Even when political structures change, the underlying ideas have not changed in over 1,000 years. It doesn't matter how much change occurs at the political level; until individuals change from the inside and develop better ideas, nothing will change. As an example, during the financial collapse in 2008, Henry Paulson said to the politicians "you may not like the banks, however, keeping the banks alive is the only choice you have, there is no alternative". This was and is the truth. To be sovereign, we have to change ourselves from within first; for when we change our mind, the whole world changes. We only get as much freedom as we take. We can only be sovereign by being, thinking and acting different. We must be sovereign, and we must then develop models and systems that enable us to self-sustain, to feed ourselves, maintain our health and create communities of trust that do not need the models and systems that enslave us. Why? Because we abdicate sovereignty through implied consent when we use the benefits of systems and models provided, as we must also accept the obligations and jurisdiction of these systems when we agree to use them. We use these systems out of necessity, but they are maintained by force and fraud. There is no consent when force and fraud are used. As we work towards being communities of sovereign individuals, we may need to use the current systems out of necessity, meaning we have not given our consent, implied or expressed, as we have been tricked into thinking there are no alternatives.

Sovereignty in the 21st century:

There is a long provenance of law, property rights, claims of title, ownership and possession that is required study to truly grasp how our sovereignty and rights have been enclosed, reducing us to voluntary servitude, known as common law. The brief synopsis in the following paragraphs has a foundation going back many centuries.

In the 21st century, despite all the apparent laws against slavery, land is still defined as any ground, soil or earth whatsoever, including everything attached to it, whether attached by the course of nature or by the hand of man; thus, this definition considers men and women as legally part of the land as creatures, just as a cow or sheep is. This then makes them property of the corporations because by the course of nature they were born upon the land. Land, therefore, defines not simply the soil, but all men and women claimed by private corporations registered in Delaware in the United States, as part of the global network that usurped constitutions and laws of most western nations using private international law. Despite these outrageous claims, they are still only claims and are only as valid as their provenance. By definition, the spirit/mind of all men and women is absolute sovereign over their body through a true trust, conveying divine rights of use by divine trust when a spirit chooses to incarnate on the planet; therefore, no person, entity, spirit or force may abrogate, nor interpose themselves into or above such a sacred and inviolable agreement.

All claims of the "EL-ite" (elite) are founded on their claim that "god" conveyed to the Pope, the Office of Trustee as the agent of god to administer all property on planet Earth. This claim rests on the false apostolic succession claiming bloodline descent from Jesus Christ and is fraud "ab initio" meaning from the beginning. These claims also rest on the false "Talmud" claiming the Israelites are the "chosen people" and all others are equivalent to animals with no soul or spirit; hence, no mind or will of their own, which is another false and fraudulent claim from the beginning. Any claim that is fraudulent is null and void, meaning any laws, statutes, decrees, orders, agreements, governments, crowns, basing their authority, their divine right to rule from a fraudulent claim, are also null and void. They had no valid authority from the beginning and cannot prove that their claim of highest right of use of property (real property) was conveyed to them through a divine and true trust. In order to defeat their claim, we have to make a higher claim. From around 10,000 BCE it has been an accepted fact that a man and woman have divine rights of ownership, conveyed directly from the divine creator at birth through a divine trust. This is because each spirit/soul is a single unit of the divine creator. Nothing can come between this, and every man and woman are the chosen people with absolute sovereignty of spirit/mind and body at birth, all entitled to the promised land, in order to build a home and use the resources of this planet. Under divine law, a spirit/soul cannot own another spirit/soul; hence, the need to create many legal fictions that can be owned by other fictions. These legal fictions enabled the el-ites to claim plausible deniability and the ethical high ground in their minds. Fictional entities have no spirit, mind or body and can be owned and their will can be managed for their benefit. As long as no one rebuts their claim and consent can be implied, it can be claimed as a free will choice.

By making the choice to use their systems and accept their authority, individuals demonstrate they are incompetent, have no mind and activate powers of attorney, thus giving the appearance of voluntarily abdicating their sovereignty. Sovereignty can be claimed along with our natural rights and the obligations that go along with these rights. We can become fully competent in law, can argue with logic and rhetoric, demonstrating we are of sound mind, so as not to be intimidated when challenged. We can respect the true rule of law and contribute to our community in positive ways. We can have better ideas and create better models and systems that benefit humanity, as this blueprint has laid out as an example. Ultimately being sovereign is about how we behave in Truth, Honor and Integrity, with evidence on public record that can be used to challenge any contrary claims, as we can demonstrate a track record of living as a sovereign. To be sovereign we must think and act different, and we must remember who we are. We are significant, we are powerful and we are eternal.

We the people operating under the banner of Truth, Honor and Integrity hereby claim our full sovereignty and the rights of claims that come with it, aligned with the full responsibility that we will take for it. Our plan The New blueprint for Humanity is in essence our manifesto for all guardians of the now and the future. We hereby declare our divine right to rule for the benefit of ourselves, on behalf of the collective and on behalf of the planet herself until a global referendum can be initiated. As of this date...March 25th 2023. Failure to recognize, interfere, block or abrogate our divine rights goes directly against Universal Law or Rita, and consequence of actions for doing so, will be administered by your own actions.

Disclaimer:

This is in no way designated as a coup or any other hostile takeover plan. Our fullest attention is to work with as many as possible, be it Governments, think tanks, agencies or militaries to improve all aspects of life and the various mechanism globally. This needs to be handled in an adult based way to ensure a smooth transition.

Who are we?

Just a group of ordinary people from various backgrounds and walks of life, who have come together with a vision to not only change and improve ourselves, but to then go on and change the world for the better. No airs and graces here, just ordinary people with an extraordinary vision of the future.

Who or what is a Guardian?

Unlike what has gone previously, Guardians will not be based on hierarchy, wealth, status or any other comparative based mechanism. None of that worked for the all, this is for the benefit of the all.

What is not a Guardian?

Unbalanced egos, my idea is better than yours, inflexibility, uncooperative, service to self, uncaring, non-sharing, greed or wanting fame or wealth.

What skills are required to be a Guardian?

Whatever skills you bring with you, plus we will be looking for everyone to be able to expand their skill sets by learning. We are all capable of so much more, when we get out of the comparative and competitive mindset and get out of our own way. No limitation programs required, manifest and expansion of the self for the benefit of the all is required going forward. We are looking for a service to others people not service to the self, that never worked in the past either and so will not be repeated going forward. Everyone has ideas, visions, ideals and goals, let's combine them into what is best for us all.

What is the purpose of a Guardian?

- To raise the self and all others around you, to be the best version of you. - To work diligently for the greater good. - To raise all of humanity to being a caring, sharing and loving species. - To raise us all up, not keep each other in the gutter, a hand up not a fist or boot down approach. - To make this planet and it's various races into something we can all be proud of.

Who can be a Guardian?

Anyone who operates in the best intentions for all of humanity and the planet.

We as the Guardians are requesting all visa restrictions to be suspended globally to allow those Guardians to travel and live where their work takes them. We as the Guardians at the initial outset, request a fully vetted security team to protect those administering this blueprint until it is safe on a wider scale. We as the Guardians request a fully vetted lawful and legal team to protect the group, and also deal with any encumbrances that may develop during the course of our work. We as the Guardians request a fully vetted economics team to work on costing of all the projects. To be done in a frugal way, to deliver the best ways and projects with the most economical use of our funds. We as the Guardians are requesting a safe and secure compound to be built to house as many Guardians as possible, to enable them to carry out their work in a safe and secure environment. Free of interference, targeting or other malevolent actions.

To accommodate these plans, initially the few Guardians will all be in paid positions to carry out their work. The salaries will be based on what we need, not excessive greed based salaries of the past. This is a work of love, caring and sharing not personal riches. We as the Guardians are requesting an initial $100B to kick start and implement the Restoration plan designated to HUmans, and request full support of the current Trustee providing she is declared as competent within that role.

We are willing to work fully with all those who wish to implement this plan, and we are fully committed to engaging and encouraging people to expand and improve this plan. We have laid out the basic tenets of it, and wish to add improvements to all the solutions where possible. The key is cooperative discourse, flexibility and imagination, and the only thing we will not compromise upon is, anything that is detrimental overall to we the people.

Having ascertained and defined we are human, as in the Higher Universal man. Having ascertained we are not a legal fiction, nor are we declared dead or incompetent, we are a natural living beings endowed with full cognition of mind, body and spirit. We the people, defined hereonin as the Guardians, wish to make our claim as defined above, with exclusive rights as beneficiaries to the Trust.

As the Guardians and operating with and according to the 2016 Earth Restoration plan agreed with the Universal Council, we are prepared to take on the full responsibility of that plan. It will require a monumental transition period and we are asking many of you to support us in this endeavor to enable as smooth a transition as possible. We come in peace not of it, and wish to engage you all with the desire to improve life and this planet for the betterment of the all.

We the Guardians are claiming the rights and protection therein, of the six seats designated to the Trust on the U.N Council. Disband the current U.N. New York City based entity operating under fraud and fraudulent claims, and create a new version of a global sovereign-based entity, operating for and by the people with the Guardians only. We come in peace not of it, and wish to engage you all with the desire to improve life and this planet for the betterment of the all.

We the Guardians are claiming the rights to access and protection therein, of a seat or seats on the Family of Nations council, that is currently housed within the fake state and municipality of Washington D.C. It is fronted by H.E. HRH Royal Prime Minister Ernest Rauthschild. We the Guardians are aware that the real meaning of Nations means races, and as we are the designated race for this planet, we have the rights to have our say within those Council of races. The Family of Nations operates on behalf of the real Royals on this planet, none of which are known to the general public. There are two Royal systems just like the banks and the stock markets, one a front system and one a back or hidden system. The hidden system I am partially aware of having engaged one of them in my time with the Trustee. The Family of Nations are trying to implement a takeover of the Trust as they feel like all others that they are the keepers of it. We are here to declare all former keepers of the Trust have failed in their obligations to administer the Trust in a fair and balanced way. Your 70 year agreements are null and void as they were operated upon without full disclosure to the world, and so that becomes a fraud and hence null and void. The last major agreement for this 70 year keepers plan was done in 1944 under the Bretton Woods agreement. It ran out in 2014, was given an extension by the former Trustee and with the apparent complicity of the current Trustee, that is declared null and void as well. We come in peace not of it, and wish to engage you all with the desire to improve life and this planet for the betterment of the all.

We as the Guardians are claiming a minimum of 3 seats for all other meeting gatherings that decides the outcome of the people and the planet. As representatives we are entitled to have our say on all matters pertaining to this planet. Some of the meetings that will require our attendance is; The Bilderberg meeting, The Atlantic Council, the Trans Atlantic and Pacific Trade meetings, NATO, the BRICS meetings and all others meetings of that ilk. All expenses arising from our representative for these meetings, including accommodation, travel, meals and security measures required to come from the Trust. We come in peace not of it, and wish to engage you all with the desire to improve life and this planet for the betterment of the all.

We as the Guardians are claiming the right to our own private bank, banking rail and/or delivery system, that cannot be tampered with, it will require no backdoors and requires no special permissions. This rail will not be part of the back door banking system and will reside only within the front (public) system. To administer this, we are requesting one or more Guardians or appointees to be selected collectively by Kimberley Ann Goguen (Trustee) and the Truth, Honor & Integrity group, to be housed within the Federal Reserve, the Treasury and the White House to ensure the safety and security of the funds delivered from the Trust itself. This will continue on after the deletion of the fraudulent Federal Reserve to be replaced with an American-only central bank that does not include any people from the former Federal Reserve bank, which operates under The Crown (UK).

We as the Guardians seek a replacement of the current US or U.S. Treasury and the restoration of the original Treasury that was usurped after the Federal Reserve takeover in 1933. No current high office position from the current Treasury or leading bankers from the Federal Reserve accredited banks will be operating from within the new American Treasury. With representatives from the Trust to be placed as the main overseer of all operations of the Treasury.

We as the Guardians request a separate communication and computer systems, that is not connected to the former systems, all of which are corrupted. To be built privately with no backdoors, spyware programs, tracking or surveillance programs, AI-based or otherwise datamining collections, algorithm software, advertisement software or any other malignant hardware or software programs. No Microsoft, Palo Alto, Google, Twitter, Youtube, Facebook/Meta or Five Eyes components allowed.

We as the Guardians also seek a share of all mineral rights; be it oil, gold, silver, platinum, diamonds and all other inground metals and minerals. This is to be arranged on a percentage basis that would start off as a low percentage, but increase over time as the number of Guardians increases and can then shared equally via the Restoration plan. All revenues collected will go towards projects designed to enhance life, the people, the environment and the planet.

I am asking all who listen to this to open a space in your heart and embrace us and this plan. Under our declaration we abrogate all other false claims and rights are null and void from this date forward: March 25th 2023.

This is our message and declaration delivered by Thomas Williams as a representative of the Guardians, and agreed upon with the other designated Guardian members.

There you have it, a comprehensive overview of our life and struggles, stripped back and laid bare for all to see. Is our world ugly? You bet, is it a shambles? you bet, is it our responsibility? You bet it is again. We can all sit and point fingers and apportion blame away from us, but that hasn't worked either has it? We can in an individual capacity state well I am not responsible for the world's ills, you know what, everyone says that, and guess what, that hasn't worked either. If no one is to blame, why is it a mess? It is a mess because we allowed it to, but what is worse is, not only did we allow it, we have tolerated it. We can all complain about it, but how many actually do something to change it? Too few is the answer or things would have changed. We have produced a basic but comprehensive package to start the restoration of not only the people, but the planet as well. If you wish to pick faults in it, you are part of the problem, instead look at it with different eyes and thinking of, how can we improve or expand upon it. Solutions not critique is what is required going forward.

Only a few people or entities took over this whole planet and steered it onto a wrong and bad path, only the few will take it back at the start, but it will work better and quicker if the all got behind it. How long it takes to create a beautiful world where all can thrive is the great debate, the answer is, as long as it takes. That is the key to it all, the fact it gets done, not how long it will take for the self to see improvements. The key is how long it takes to improve life for the all, not the self. The Trust is a hand up not a hand out, we have to move on from the payback ideology and into a pay it forward project, where all receive not the few. Imagine a world where people operate in cooperation and not competition. Imagine a world where people operate in their own sovereignty. Imagine a world where people operate with service to others and not just the self. A world where me, myself and I is replaced by we, us and the all. Imagine a world where people operate in the heart not the head. Imagine a world where people operate in love not fear.

We the Guardians have built the foundation, these documents are the seeds, and it is up to you all to grow those seeds in to something far greater than us all. A new way, a new world, a new planet and a new people. It will require full participate, consideration, cooperation and a strong desire not only for change, but to become that change. The old world failed us all, and we as Guardians will strive to change that, ensure nothing from their world that did not work will be repeated and ensure the old world is never brought back into existence. The old world of special appointed peoples, none of which was endorsed by the people themselves, all operated under a fraud with their non-disclosure agreements. That must never be allowed again, we must strive for all peoples and races to be equals, as that is the remit of an advanced species and race. For too long humanity has remained as the kindergarten level race, and ran by kindergarten level people of perceived special status. Yet despite their special status, they failed on every level, that should be clear to all now. We don't need chosen ones, off world species, Cosmic Councils, Royals, Lords, bloodline families to baby sit us anymore. We are not slaves or any other lesser object either, we are all equal under the Divine Creator. So let's all come together under that objective and show the world we can all be better people and Guardians of this planet.
