NEWS:

A very interesting show this evening, that is different in many ways. It will require deep pondering and thinking and in some ways is a preparation piece for us all. There is no mystery section tonight, yes I know that is the favorite for many of you, but other pieces had to be put in as you will see.

Further confirmation of the United States' dwindling power and yet more fear to generate more shekels. This report concludes, the United States Senate Armed Services Subcommittee on Strategic Forces went off the rails, after subcommittee Chairman Angus King took the floor and forced Department of Defense officials to reveal that North America is helpless against adversaries. Newsflash: they have been since day one, it was only an illusion presented by the media, tv and movies. America has always been helpless, as previous administrations had clauses in the military policies stating: they are not able to use troops to defend the homeland. Cited as a prevention of the military organizing coups, but in reality, it was to leave the country America, not the United States helpless. In what was described as explosive testimony, it saw top American military officials admitting they have no defense against Russian hypersonic missiles. When asked if the United States could even defend itself against a massive strike like the one Iran conducted against Israel, it saw United States Air Force General Gregory Guillot, the commander of Northern Command and North American Aerospace Defense Command (NORAD), grimly replying: No chairman. Is an American self-admitting it has no way to defend itself against Russia? The answer is stated earlier, no. Another fact is Russia has always had superior weapons, hence the US Military not attacking them directly.

UN soldiers are immigrants is the latest message going on in the background. After a picture was shown of Illegal Immigrants with UN Credit-Cards that have been filled up and supplied by the US. <https://youtu.be/2TyrPjTwVM?t=684> This all came about by George Soros or his Foundation bought off Politicians in country after country. Starting in 2015 to prop up the influx of immigrants. Soros' plan published in September 26, 2015, was about pushing aside National conservative Christian values and emptying Gaza into Europe. Hamas was weaponized by the US Corporation. Hamas and the UN are working together. The United Nations has a secret plan to invade America. More embarrassing input from the so-called West, which really means Jewish junta. The West has been complaining that China is overproducing goods and dumping them on the global markets. The comments have incurred the ire of Beijing, which has, as recently as Monday, denied the claims. But on Wednesday, China's Ministry of Industry and Information Technology issued a proposal that indicates Beijing may agree with some of the West's accusations. In its proposal, the ministry lays out plans to regulate the battery industry, which, alongside electric vehicles and solar cells, is a key pillar of growth in China's economic transformation. Perhaps if the West had focused more on their economies, they would be in a similar position? Slowly but surely China is dominating the world via the markets, why? Because they invested in them. The West on the other hand wanted to take over everything by thuggish force. I guess Tsun Zu is alive and well in China still.

There has been lots of stories surrounding issues on college campuses, in relation to the Israel/Palestine narrative and in particular at Columbia College in New York. Was this place pre-destined to be in the staged news arena? As in 2019, Columbia launched a dual-degree program with Tel Aviv University. Under the agreement, students could earn two undergraduate degrees by studying in Israel for two years, and then returning to the U.S. to finish their schooling at Columbia's School of General Studies in Manhattan. Remember these schools are a breeding ground for agencies and the question is, where these students used as paid actors to be provocateurs? Because it seems all so cohen-cidental to me.

The last piece rolls into this next piece as the anti-Israel genocide/pro-Palestinian saga has continued for several weeks across numerous college campuses. On April 30th, at where demonstrations first started at Columbia University, and also now at City College of New York (CCNY) in New York City, a large NYPD contingent cracked heads in its crackdown on protesters, arresting hundreds of students. Who are sick and tired of Bibi the Butcher's wholesale slaughter of an entire people, fully protected by the US and the globalist powerbrokers. NYPD is operated by the former Citadel group, now the Weiss group who is Jewish. Additionally, violence broke out at UCLA in Los Angeles on April 30th, when an armed pro-Israel mob of agitators assaulted assembled peaceful anti-Israel protesters. Funny the main incidents of staged criminality takes place in New York and California, is it not? The Mockingbird controlled Mainstream Press described the scene of the two opposing camps as clashing with each other, but predictably this was not true. Up to 100 pro-Israel agitators dressed in black fired fireworks projectiles into the crowd of protesters, reportedly injuring some. Law enforcement showed up late and appeared to allow the attack. The following night on Wednesday May 1st, in militarized police state riot gear a show of force army was dispatched including LAPD, California Highway Patrol, LA County Sheriffs and UCLA campus police. In their demands for immediate ceasefire to the Gaza genocide and divestment of all university funds to Israel, that support, enable and condone the Israeli genocide, in addition to the campus encampments, recently protesters are taking over university buildings, a flashback to the past anti-Vietnam War days. Just as the antiwar activists of over a half century ago were morally vindicated acting in protest on the right side of history, despite being beaten and abused by law enforcement for years, similarly, the vast majority of peaceful protesters today are also being manhandled and unlawfully arrested, and again they too are on the right side of history. Genocide is wrong and the perpetrating offender nation must be brought to justice. The federal police state in today's America, it must be remembered are largely trained in Israel by the Israeli Defense Force, is aggressively being mobilized to suppress this current wave of this peaceful protest movement. Too few asked why American police would be trained by the military of another country? Perhaps the simplest answer is, the Israelis think they own that country? They certainly ran it largely in stealth, but now that is coming to light. Student protesters are in some cases being beaten and falsely arrested, but also suspended and some expelled from school. Many college administrations are actually shooting themselves in the foot, since in recent times, colleges have seen significant drops in enrollment, and some of these higher educational institutions cannot afford to lose their high-cost tuition revenue stream. Ouroboros programs are running again is why.

How it all works:

1. Bring in foreign students.
2. Intelligence agencies profile and monitor them for potential programs.
3. Train them often under leverage or blackmail to work as an agent.
4. Send them to do the tasks required, e.g. protestor or protestor agitator.
5. Ensure this gets a public reaction.
6. Use Mockingbird media to lie, obfuscate and rewrite history.
7. In comes the solution from the start, more Stasi policing, less freedoms of speech or protest, more outlaws and more draconian measures.
8. The loop – repeat stages 1 through 7 again as too few see right through it all.
9. Which is our solution: Tell the media, authorities and politicians were humans not draconian playthings.

More Israeli skullduggery using Asshole Intelligence (AI) for crimes against humanity. When an aid convoy passes through 7 check-points to come into Gaza and every persons papers are checked 7 times. Ze papers please? All very Nazi I have to say. Then that aid convoy is still attacked along a 2 kilometer route by an AI that is taking orders from an algorithm, all of which means, that no Israeli General is then responsible for the attack. 5.500 ton of medicine and other supplies will go from Turkey to Gaza to replace what has been destroyed by Israelis. People have died in Gaza when they have gotten sore and wounded feet that do not heal, because many had no shoes after fleeing. All being done by advanced technology.

Another country has had enough of Israel and has acted in the best way possible, cut off the shekels. Turkey has suspended all trade with Israel over its offensive in Gaza, citing the worsening humanitarian tragedy in the strip. The Turkish trade ministry said the measures would be in place until Israel allowed an uninterrupted and sufficient flow of aid into Gaza. Trade between the two countries was worth almost $7bn (£5.6bn) last year. Israel's foreign minister accused Turkish President Recep Tayyip Erdogan of acting like a dictator. Now that's funny, an Israeli accuses others of being dictator, turn it in. Israel Katz said that Mr. Erdogan was disregarding the interests of the Turkish people and businessmen and ignoring international trade agreements. Turkish Trade Minister Omer Bolat criticized Israel's uncompromising attitude towards a ceasefire, as well as the humanitarian situation in the southern Gaza city of Rafah: Turkey has suspended all export and import with Israel until a permanent ceasefire is established and the aid into the Gaza is allowed without any interruption. In 1949, Turkey was the first Muslim-majority country to recognize Israel. But relations have worsened in recent decades

In 2010, Turkey broke off diplomatic ties with Israel after 10 pro-Palestinian Turkish activists were killed in clashes with Israeli commandos, who boarded a Turkish-owned ship trying to break Israel's maritime blockade of the Gaza Strip. Relations were restored in 2016, but both countries expelled each other's top diplomats two years later in a dispute over Israel's killing of Palestinians amid protests on the Gaza-Israel border. This move should be replicated by many countries, as nothing upsets the Israeli junta more than shekel removals.

This story yet again proves telling the truth on this planet makes you a criminal, whilst the real criminals walk free amongst us with impunity. A whistleblower who helped expose allegations of Australian war crimes in Afghanistan has been sentenced to five years and eight months in jail. David McBride pleaded guilty to stealing and sharing military secrets on the eve of his trial last year, after legal rulings sunk his defense. An ex-military lawyer, McBride said he felt a moral duty to speak up. Morals and principals don't seem to apply anymore either. A landmark inquiry later found evidence that Australian forces had unlawfully killed 39 Afghans during the war. McBride's case has sparked uproar in Australia, putting a spotlight on what some say are flimsy whistleblower protections and slow progress towards prosecuting soldiers alleged to have killed with impunity under its flag. McBride, admits he gave troves of document to the Australian Broadcasting Corporation (ABC), saying he was concerned about the attitudes of commanders and what he then thought was the over-investigation of troops, the court heard. But instead, the information he provided underpinned a series of reports in 2017 called The Afghan Files, which gave unprecedented insight into the operations of Australia's elite special forces in Afghanistan, and contained allegations of war crimes. Prosecutors argued McBride was motivated by personal vindication, and the way he gathered, stored and then leaked the documents, endangered Australia's national security and foreign policy. Ah the 5 eyes National Security card thrown out again. But McBride's lawyers asked for leniency, saying he shared the information with honorable intentions and out of a sense of personal duty. But people with dishonorable intentions always win out it seems, that has to change. During sentencing in the nation's capital on Tuesday, Justice David Mossop agreed McBride was of good character, but said that he seemed to have become obsessed with the correctness of his own opinions. No, he was obsessed with applying justice. Sharing military secrets was a gross breach of trust for which he has shown no contrition, he added. No one asked why it is a military secret if soldiers commit criminal acts? McBride will be eligible for release on parole after 27 months. The Blueprint solves this issue with the full disclosure for full disclaimer act. Society has to protect the people telling the truth and doing the right thing. Every Australian should demand his release, but do enough care about the plight of others?

This is a report of what is essentially another one world government program, involving the WHO. Suddenly they are no longer just an authority on health, oh no, they wish to invade other aspects of society as this piece reveals. I'll give you the bottom line. A treaty needs the signature of the US President plus a 2/3 vote of approval in the Senate. An agreement only needs the President's signature, and America is committed to go along with the document. I've been communicating with a media person at the World Health Organization (WHO). It took several exchanges to clarify what's going on here. What we've been told is the WHO Pandemic Treaty is actually labeled an Agreement. All of which has echoes of the Paris Climate Treaty, which was then changed to agreement. This is dire. When Biden signs it, American sovereignty is suddenly placed under the WHO. The WHO can declare a global health emergency whenever they want to, for any reason, and all the rules and restrictions they lay down can be invoked, right here in America. For instance, lockdowns, mandated vaccines etc. America is suddenly a colony of the World Health Organization. No date has been set for WHO submitting the Agreement to the US and other countries, but it could be soon. A sword is hanging over our heads. We need massive refusal, despite Biden imminently signing our sovereignty away. We need Senators rebelling in large numbers. We need state governors pledging to ignore all WHO dictates. We need the American people refusing to go along with the WHO. There is the document the WHO media person sent me, showing that this so-called Treaty is actually an Agreement. With respect to international law, Treaties and Agreements are equivalent. In the United States, the term treaty refers to any International Agreement that was made with the advice and consent of the Senate. Agreements, on the other hand, do not go through the Senate for advice and consent requiring a 2/3rds majority to approve. The impression is this: the WHO Agreement is designed for collective unity among member nations. It's similar to the early stages of the European Union, whose message was, we're all in this together. But gradually, the consensus approach vanished, and the EU emerged as a super-government. In this case, the WHO wants input on pandemic measures from all member nations. The WHO even insists that the sovereignty of each nation will never be disturbed and encroached upon by the Pandemic Agreement. But the goal is making the WHO the leader of the pack. The WHO will say it's acting and running the show on behalf of its members, but that façade will vanish in due time. The WHO will turn into a global health government, issuing orders and driving tyranny. In the same way that US health agencies, the FDA, the CDC, the EPA etc. design sets of regulations that impose de facto laws no legislators have ever voted on. This is another de facto style government in essence, can you say it is an attempt at one world governance?

MEDICAL SECTION:

In 2022, 1 in 8 people in the world were living with obesity. Worldwide adult obesity has more than doubled since 1990, and adolescent obesity has quadrupled. In 2022, 2.5 billion adults (18 years and older) were overweight. Of these, 890 million were living with obesity. In 2022, 43% of adults aged 18 years and over were overweight and 16% were living with obesity. In 2022, 37 million children under the age of 5 were overweight. Over 390 million children and adolescents aged 5–19 years were overweight in 2022, including 160 million who were living with obesity. Yet half the world are starving or suffering malnutrition, the problem is greed and a lack of sharing. 427M children overweight is a staggering number and shows a neglect of the children by their parents. Yet often is the case, the parents themselves are overweight and it runs through the families. America was often labeled the fat nation, as far too many Americans were seriously overweight. Yet it is not just Americans anymore is it? The rise of fatness in Europe has taken hold also during this century. But the greatest rise in weight problems lies amongst what is known as the tribal peoples. Here in America, it is rare to see any natives who don't have a weight problem, often a massive weight problem. Now why is that? What is the cause of it? Why hasn't the Food and Drug Administration or the USDA addressed it, given they have full control of our food supply? Where is the study into the chemicals being placed into our food and water supply? If they have done studies, why has it not been linked to obesity? It could be linked to people not exercising, yet for the last 30 odd years we have seen a massive rise in health club, fitness clubs, cycling clubs and others of that ilk, yet why hasn't obesity dropped? A massive rise in people eating so-called healthier foods, yet why hasn't obesity dropped? But something else has changed radically over the past 30 odd years and mirrors the rise in obesity, yet is often overlooked due to the pro pagan da surrounding it. This then begs the question of, has the rise of the overweight been caused by the banning of smoking in most areas, the increase in prices forcing people to not smoke and the fake stigma done against smokers by the people themselves. Not to mention the medical bombardment pre Covid, that smoking causes every disease known to man. So the people stopped smoking, lived so-called healthier lives, yet the obesity, cancers and other maladies went up, not down. What does that tell you? In my opinion is that the so-called authorities and experts were lying all along.

Here is a positive piece that goes against another of the programs imposed upon by us by fake government organizations. For those new who are fake government organizations? USDA, FDA, CDC, FEMA, the U.S. Treasury, in fact most acronym and 3 letter organizations are completely fake and operate outside of the biggest fake organization, USA Inc, who operate as the government but are not actually the government. But this is great news and begins the end of another of their programs against we the people. But in my opinion this needs to be taken much further. Alabama became the second U.S. state to ban lab-grown meat, joining Florida which earlier this month outlawed the alternative protein. Alternative protein? (M) if it wasn't so serious it would be amusing. Gov. Kay Ivey signed the Alabama Bill, which the prohibits the manufacture, sale, or distribution of food products made from cultured animal cells, into law on May 7. The legislation was sponsored by Republicans Sen. Jack Williams and Rep. Danny Crawford. Supporters for the bill argue that it protects cattle ranchers and farmers from lab-grown meat competitors and the measures also address the notion that a cabal of global elites are promoting unnatural food. Again a reference to the global elites doing harm to us, that rhetoric is now escalating big time. Hence the clowns are in utter panic as we will find out later. Cattlemen work hard every day to raise cattle and produce high-quality beef. The tireless efforts of Sen. Williams and Rep. Crawford this session will ensure Alabamians continue to purchase safe, wholesome, real beef, said Alabama Cattlemen's Association Vice President Erin Beasley. Lab-grown meat utilizes an emerging technology, that uses animal cells to produce and make in a laboratory that is meant for consumption. Emerging technology is the warning, that is why I keep reminding you all of the dangers of their technology. It is never designed for our benefit, ever. By the way, emerging is not the correct term, this technology has been used for millions of years, but just not here. Beef production a major climate change contributor: Critics call the move misguided for several reasons such as the fact that first cultivated meat regulatory approvals passed in the U.S. less than a year ago. Others also note that cell-based protein is an innovative alternative for advancing climate change, as the meat doesn't require land, crops and water needed to care for livestock. If that is the case, we should replace the globalist el-ites with an innovative alternative, as they own and take up far too much land. Beef production is also a major contributor to global methane emissions, with a single cow producing between 154 to 264 pounds of methane gas yearly, according to the Environmental Protection Agency. The EPA is another non-governmental clown group, so we can ignore their ramblings based upon faulty math and science. There are 1.5 billion beef cattle raised globally, at least 231 billion pounds of methane are expelled into the atmosphere are per year. There are an awful lot of politicians, media, globalists and agency people who expel a lot of shit into the atmosphere and subsequently the collective consciousness, why don't the EPA address that as an environmental concern? Legislation that bans cultivated meat is a reckless move that ignores food safety experts and science, stifles consumer choice and hinders American innovation. It makes politicians the food police, and it ignores the food safety experts at USDA and FDA who have deemed it safe, said Sean Edgett, Chief Legal Officer for food technology company Upside Foods. Florida Gov. Ron DeSantis on May 1 signed the into law a bill outlawing the manufacture, sale and distribution of lab-grown meat. The former presidential candidate said the law is meant to protect cattle ranchers and the integrity of American agriculture. Take your fake lab-grown meat elsewhere, DeSantis said. Florida is fighting back against the global elite's plan to force the world to eat meat grown in a petri dish or bugs to achieve their authoritarian goals. DeSantis made fun of liberals advocating for fake meat as a way to combat climate change and chided global leaders such as those at The World Economic Forum, which has advocated for insects as an alternative edible protein source because they are considered delicacies in certain cultures. Yes cultures that were not originally from here. The ban does not apply to Impossible meat, which is made from plant-based ingredients. Officials in other states including Kentucky, Arizona, West Virginia and Tennessee have similar measures cooking. About time the people started fighting back against these absurd programs. It's encouraging that more and more politicians are doing so.

We used to have a section in the show called Ukraine and highlighted all the issues when war broke out there in 2021. Over time the news filtered away to other topics, but tonight we are bringing it back to address and highlight deep and serious concerns regarding Ukraine and their puppets pulling the strings. It will not be pleasing on the ears or the heart, but these are the facts of the matter.

UKRAINE:

Big problems ongoing in Ukraine and even the Ukrainians are working out now who the real problem is. The RUS-ARYAN Foreign Intelligence Service (SVR) are revealing : Kiev's Western backers are seriously concerned by the rapidly decreasing public support for President Vladimir Zelensky. The level of support for Vladimir Zelensky has dropped to 17% and keeps decreasing. Over 70% of the public distrusts all Ukrainian media, while some 90% would like to leave the country. Even among the troops, who are being subjected to constant ideological conditioning, Zelensky's popularity stands below 20%. The Ukraine population is down from 90 million to 16.

Despite Slovakia being a member of NATO and the EU, Prime Minister Robert Fico has grown increasingly critical of Western support for Ukraine in its war with invading Russian forces, and expressed opposition to allowing Kyiv to join NATO in the future. Before his election in 2023, he promised to bring an end to Slovakia providing Ukraine with military support as it battled Russia's full-scale invasion. He also has argued that NATO and the United States provoked Moscow into war. After his election victory, the new government immediately halted arms deliveries to Ukraine. All sounds so positive, then this unfolds. Thousands of people repeatedly took to the streets across Slovakia to rally against Fico's pro-Russian and other policies, including plans to amend the penal code to eliminate a special anticorruption prosecutor and to take control of public media. The people being stupid and working for the enemy again. But then Robert Fico, Slovakia's prime minister, is undergoing surgery after being shot several times and is in a life-threatening condition. Local media say the 59-year-old leader was hit in the abdomen outside the House of Culture in the town of Handlova. Police have detained a suspect. There was no immediate information on the motive. Oh, MI was he shot 5 or 6 times? Any questions?

It has also been revealed that the same Jewish puppets have been targeting an advanced nuclear weapon detecting radar station Voronezh in the city of Armavir-Russia. That caused the Russian Senator Dmitry Rogozin to alarmingly warn: The United States should be seen as directly responsible for a Ukrainian strike on a key element of Russia's nuclear umbrella. Thus, we stand not on the precipice, but on the very edge. If such enemy actions are not stopped, an irreversible collapse of the strategic security of nuclear powers will begin. One has to ask as to why the Jewish led colonial powers have insanely begun targeting Russia's nuclear war early warning radar stations? Are they threatening a pre-emptive nuclear strike? The Serbian President Aleksandar Vucic just warningly revealed about his conversations with socialist European Union and NATO member leader Hungarian President Victor Orban: Orban said that in Brussels preparations are underway for Europe's entry into the war. He said Hungary should strengthen its defensive capabilities. I've talked about this with Victor twice, he has intelligence from NATO. According to my estimates, everything will be much more complicated and worse, and it may happen that we have a greater tragedy than in the Second World War. I wish I was wrong, but they are afraid that we are approaching a great world conflict. All of it caused by the Jews yet again and their largely hidden war against the white race and in particular the Rus. But our book revealed it all, From His story to our story, perhaps we should have changed the titled from his to hiss. As remember Ukraine was the home to the Sarmation's, which means the lizard people.

Here is a further damning report on the previous topic and who is responsible for it. Here is a series of quotes warning about it from several top experts in the field.

Steven Starr, Professor, University of Missouri, who is an expert on nuclear war. The U.S. has begun directing missile attacks on the Russian nuclear Early Warning System (EWS), which is made up of a series of ground-based radars and satellites. Any such attacks against these EWS systems could trigger the Russian nuclear response system. So this U.S.-directed attack is insanely dangerous, as it appears Washington is playing nuclear chicken with Russia. The site attacked was within range of the U.S. ATACMS; I don't know if any other similar Russian facilities are within range of the ATACMS, or possibly even the German Taurus missiles, which have a longer range than the ATACMS and the U.K. Storm Shadow missiles. Unfortunately, we may soon find out, as the madmen in Washington, Kyiv and Brussels seem determined to start World War 3. Notice they leave out the umbrella for also those madmen? Israel and the Jewish EL-ites, until they are directly linked to this issue, then solutions can never be found.

Colonel (ret.) Prof. Dr. Wilfried Schreiber, Senior Research Fellow at the WeltTrends Institute for International Politics, Potsdam, Germany. There are obviously forces in Ukraine and also in NATO that are prepared to take the risk of a direct military confrontation between NATO and Russia. German politicians would be well advised to take the Russians' warnings of a new world war seriously and ensure that the final red lines are not crossed. As a modern industrialized country at the heart of Europe, Germany is unfit for war in a major European conflict even without nuclear weapons. All courtesy of the previous world wars that again involved the Jewish El-ites and their Masonic brotherhood. German politicians must do everything in their power to de-escalate the increasing military confrontation and commit themselves to a diplomatic solution to the conflict.

Col. (ret.) Richard H. Black, former state senator from Virginia. This is a continuation of the pattern in which the NATO forces recognize they are losing the war in Ukraine, with the fragile lines of defense breaking, and the NATO response is to escalate it. This is not accidental, but very deliberate. It is not the first attack on the Russian nuclear triad. The ideological folks are seeing their world crumbling, after flying the rainbow flag over conservative countries and waging perpetual wars. They are frantic and could escalate to nuclear war to get out of the bind. They are taking a series of baby steps, and respond that they don't do anything in response, and so they keep taking baby steps until one of them lands on a land mine and we are into World War III. I've said it, Helga Zepp-LaRouche has said it. Putin is very aware of the disconnect in the West, who keep saying he is just saber rattling, but he is not, he is informing the West of the dangerous reality. Quite a common sense approach, all revealing the Clowns are in panic. Remember I warned of the cornered snake striking out? Now we are seeing it.

Gen. (ret.) Dominique Delawarde, Intelligence expert, France. I expect that the U.S. military, faced with a vital situation, are going to behave more reasonably and consciously than the civilians.

Graham Fuller, former diplomat, CIA officer and vice-chair of the National Intelligence Council. This clearly could not have happened without full U.S. support. I can't comment adequately until I learn more, but it is obviously escalatory and I will look into it. Funny the CIA guy says he doesn't know too much about it, when clearly he does. Yet again people in Langley frightened to speak up about what goes on within their clandestine organization. Now is not the time to be mute Mr. Fuller, we stand on the brink of a major war because of people and I use that term loosely within the CIA, pampering to the global el-ites and for the Jewish paymasters. Now is the time to speak out Mr. Fuller and many within your organization, to stop the psychopaths within our midst doing their blood ritual sacrifices again, that always seems to be against the white race.

Prof. Richard Sakwa, Emeritus Professor of Russian and European Politics, Kent University (U.K.), prolific author on Russia and Ukraine. They're on an escalating treadmill, especially after what Blinken told Ukraine. That they could do what they want with their missiles. It demonstrates the irresponsible American leadership. But Blinken is not American, he yet again is Jewish. So, Blinken was a puppet and goaded Ukraine to fire at Russia, that is completely psychotic behavior not just irresponsible. We're headed for the nuclear escalator. The West is facing defeat in Ukraine, and therefore they're escalating to avoid defeat.

As for nuclear weapon strikes, it is my understanding there are no working nuclear weapons globally, following the 1967 Malmstrom Air Base event, where an unknown craft turned off all of the missile systems. This event was repeated elsewhere also and hardly any nuclear tests have taken place since. It is also my understanding the codes to access the missiles were rendered null and void as well, providing some sort of back-up.

It has emerged that there is a considerable cloak and dagger military operation going on in Ukraine. Cloak and dagger generally means CIA involvement. Which conveniently is kept out of the Jewish mafia media narratives, all of which reveals A: who is involved in it and B: all media are puppets for warmongers and C: they don't report the news, they report pro pagan da only. As the former British Prime Minister Boris Johnson was meeting with avowed Nazi Azov Battalion commanders, to whom he proclaimed: Why on earth shouldn't the Ukrainians be able to attack Russian troops on their territory? Here is why Rishi Sunak the UK Prime Minister called an early election. As Johnson's proclamation was joined by British Parliament Member Andrew Bridgen, stating that current Prime Minister Rishi Sunak dissolved the government because he doesn't want to be a war leader, and revealed: Rishi wants out. All is not well in several governments now it should be noted, the government merry go round we predicted two years ago is unfolding heavily now. Many have stepped down and several have been killed or murdered, not a good time to be a countries leader currently. But until those country leaders stop pandering to the el-ites and the intelligence and military agencies, their lives will always be in jeopardy. Bridgen then stated this: We are actually at war with Russia now, they just haven't told you. I met with Andrey Kelen, the Russian ambassador in London a couple of months ago, and he said that we know that your people are firing those Stormshadow missiles at us out of Ukraine, because you couldn't train the Ukrainians to do it. We know you're doing it and also, everyone knows that there are lots of US, UK and French troops in Ukraine. They're determined to get us into a war with Russia, and thank God, we've got someone in Putin who at least has got some brains. What is the common denominator between the US, UK and France? All owned financially by the Rothschild's clan. All three are Jewish puppets and playing with fire and risking the lives of all of their people. The simple solution is this, let the Jewish war machine go and fight Russia as that is their issue, not ours. The Jewish installed their Jewish puppet Zelensky to stir up trouble and he has fulfilled that role. What beggars belief is, why the US, UK and France feel the need to attack Russia? Has Russia ever attacked them? Has Russia ever threatened them? No and no. But the same three who are aligned with another Rothschild's enterprise called NATO, have repeatedly threatened Russia, invaded their lands and went against an internation agreement laid out in 1991. So who are the real aggressors here? Clearly not Russia.

EXPOSE:

This is part 2 of our expose following on from the last THI show, highlighting the atrocities committed against the Vietnamese during that war. But like another war ongoing in Gaza, the Vietnam war was a genocide program. But it also set the stage for the same tactics to be done on home soil as well.

We spoke last time about an American, who was clearly a CIA undercover agent and the priest misleading the people with pro pagan da. It wasn't long before the Saigon political observer and the priest reported to the American, that they suspected that the patriarch was collaborating with the enemy. Suddenly the refugees had become the enemy and the Americans' word for enemy was Vietcong. The political leader had explained to the patriarch that collaboration with the Vietcong meant death for him, and removal of the village people to a Citizens' retraining camp or a strategic hamlet, as the Americans liked to call it. The retraining camp was Project Pheonix and the torture program. No matter what their benefactors chose to call these displacement centers, they were prisons to the natives. The more or less peaceful demands of the refugees became adamant orders as their needs increased. What had begun as a reluctant sharing of food became submission to force and banditry. The ranks of the refugees swelled, as the exodus from such areas as the no-man's land of the once-prosperous and fertile Mekong Delta area of the Camu Peninsula, turned into a vast and relentless human wave. A situation not unlike that of the Native American migrations westward took place. Each tribe, displaced from its ancestral homeland by the white man, became marauders and attackers in the territory of the next Indian nation. Thus it was that tens of thousands, even hundreds of thousands, of once-peaceful, docile and reasonably well-to-do rice farmers became the feared, terrorized bandits called the Vietcong. Several nights later, the village was raided. For the first time since the installation of the radio, the old man crept out of his hut and stood before the Magic Box. In the deep darkness of the forest night, the red glow of the buzzer filled the sky with its talismanic power. Knowing that he would be calling down the might of the Village Self-Defense Forces and that he would bring down the full wrath of the dread People's Arms of Brotherhood upon his village. Yet if he did not push that button, he and his people would suffer the fate of collaborators. He had no real choice.

People hunger is the general of these armies, as hunger provides a terrible motivation of its own. It needs no ideological boost from Moscow or Peking. The blind, ignorant actions of General Hunger are all it takes to create a war. People will do desperate acts when faced with starvation or other lack thereof and why it is important to share everything. If everyone has what they need, the less the need for criminal acts. This explains why napalm, bombings and defoliation tactics created more instead of less war, and created it in a very short time. The victims were deprived of food and had to fight for it, without delay. The people who had raided the village were of this hunger, refugee populace. Yes, but they were guided by the American agent and the priest, classic problem, reaction and solution again. Create a problem, food shortage, let other people know they have more than you, sit back and wait for the reaction. The solution? The Vietcong people turn on each other. He knew that many other elders had resisted the refugees and had been slain by them out of the necessity for food. He knew that others who had sympathized with the refugees, had been brutally taken to retraining camps (prisons) by the political observers and had suffered cruelly there. He knew that there was no hope and no alternative. The good, the medicine and Operation Brotherhood from Saigon had sealed the fate of the villagers and doomed them to the dread final tactic called Pacification. He pushed the glowing red button and the Magic Box did the rest. A sleep-dulled South Vietnamese Special Forces elite trooper saw the flickering warning light on the situation map. Grid Code 1052 was hostile! There was no two-way capability with the village radio equipment, no way to discuss the attack or to evaluate the warning from the village chieftain. Any signal was hostile in the Village Defense Network, and hostile meant retaliate. The Viet trooper took one look at the American Green Beret soldier of the Special Forces 'A' Team who was sleeping in a native hammock nearby. He knew that after two minute the flickering red light would cease automatically. On so many other occasions when the American had been out in the village drinking beer with the other 'A' Team members and with the young girls of the White Dove Resistance Sisters, he had let other warning lights flicker out without sounding the alert. He realized that the Pandora's box problem caused many red-light or false alerts. They appeared to be enemy on both sides from an American point of view, and the general rule was to shoot at anyone who ran, regardless of who that person might be. Atypical of American soldiers in war time, just like Israeli soldiers now, just shoot everything.

From such a rescue the villagers had but one alternative, and that was to flee with the refugees and become Vietcong or enemy in their own homeland. Which was the solution the Americans wanted all along. The Green Beret veteran of Fort Bragg's stern indoctrination grabbed the single-sideband radio mike and called Division Alert. In minutes, sirens sounded and engines began to roar. Truckloads of South Vietnamese Special Forces, the elite civilian, CIA-trained troops of Ngo Dinh Nhu, roared off into the early-morning quiet of Ahn Lac Air Base. Funny how there is always CIA people on hand when war unveils, almost looks like they created it, his story revealed they always did. Helicopter maintenance crews readied the ungainly craft. Twenty pilots dashed to the briefing room; twenty crews were being assembled. This one was going to be all-out; it was the first attack reported from the Rhade zone. Intelligence had predicted a vast enemy buildup in the area, including a reportedly heavy preparatory movement on the trails of Laos. The dread border of Cambodia was seen to be a beehive of activity. Everything pointed to a massive National Liberation Front/North Vietnamese masterstroke against a new attack zone. The enemy must be stopped not with a resolute counterattack. As the semitropical dawn burst in all its pink brilliance over Ahn Lac, twenty helicopter stirred up a hurricane of dust as they prepared for the convoy flight to Thuc Dho. Six of the choppers were gun carriers; the remaining fourteen carried 140 armed troops. The Village Self-Defense Network helicopter force was an incredible organization. Each helicopter could carry ten armed men one hundred miles in one day. With a one-hundred-mile radius for the helicopter and a convoy speed of twenty-five knots, it would be four hours each way, for a total of eight hours in the air. Since army/civilian helicopter maintenance was operating at a commendable 49% in-commission rate, it took no fewer than forty choppers to assure the availability of twenty for the Thuc Dho mission. The forty helicopters were supported by two aviation companies of about two hundred men each, a total of four hundred men. These companies were in turn supported by a supply squadron and a maintenance squadron of two hundred men each. And all of these squadrons were supported by house-keeping units, transportation units, base-defense units, fuel-storage units, and fuel-delivery units. Never before in the history of warfare had so much been expended to accomplish so little, as was being demonstrated by sending 140 fighting men in response to the flashing red light of the Magic Box of Station #1052. So each helicopter needed a backup, what waste of money that is. Since then it is no wonder helicopters today are rarely ever used in war zones due to the poor performance, however, they have found a use patrolling within American cities. Why? Because the American people are the new Vietcong is why.

As Col. Fletcher Prouty also mentions in his book, The Secret Team: Few people realized how some of these operations got started, and how important some of these seemingly small things were in the escalation of Vietnam. The Agency brought a squadron of helicopters down from Laos, and immediately these complicated machines needed a great number of skilled men just to support them; then these vast agglomerations of men and machines created their own requirements for additional men to protect them and to feed, house and support them. The first helicopters came in under the wraps of secrecy. No one seemed to know how they got there; but once they were there, the great logistics tail that was essential to keep them operating had to be built in the open, without classification. It could not have been kept secret, even if anyone had tried. No one seemed to know how the helicopters got there? Just ask the CIA, as they like magic magnets appear in all war zones, most times before war has even started. In the direct sunlight of early afternoon, the airborne force arrived at Thuc Dho. The gunships hovered over the area, ready to suppress any movement below with direct machine-gun fire. I guess nobody told them the people they were hunting down were just refugees, the same refugees that they created by bombing and blitzing them out of their own homes and lands. Just like what is happening in Rafah, Palestine. Crewmen saw to it that the silent South Vietnamese Special Forces elite troops jumped out immediately. In the commotion and difficulty of this maneuver, the second and third choppers of the third wave had touched blades as they neared touch-down. Both machines had disintegrated. An all too common theme that with the US Military, so many Military helicopters and planes go down even outside of war time. All at a massive cost to the American taxpayer. But one has to question as to why so many do go down? Is it lack of training? Or pilots as high as a kite on pharma drugs and injections or military supplied pot and cocaine?

As the last wave settled on the field, two circling gunships opened fire into the high grass near the forest. This was the opening action. The troopers on the ground flattened out and fired rapidly and blindly, the circling unarmed Hueys began to back away. At that instant, two of them dropped back to the ground, the natives had learned that a crude bow held by the feet of a man lying on his back in the grass could be most effective against low-flying choppers. The arrow was a heavy stick that trailed wire, rope or even a vine. Since the rotor is the most vulnerable part of the helicopter, this crude weapon, fired to hang this hazard in the air, brought down many a chopper. Embarrassing and shows you don't have to have multimillion dollar machines and armory to strike blows in a war. First reports indicated engine or rotor failure, since there was no gunfire or other hostile action observed. Sixteen of the 120 were of a Green Beret "A" Team. The radio man was in contact with the spotter aircraft, which directed them to the village. Here in the smoldering ruin of grass huts there was not a sign of life. With only a few hours of daylight left, the "A" Team lieutenant placed his troops into defensive positions for the night. Thuc Dho had been regained. The Magic Box had proved its value. In the early morning hours when the first word about Thuc Dho had been relayed to the Division Combat Center, it was also relayed to USMACV (US Military Assistance Command - Vietnam) Headquarters in Saigon. Here all Village Self-Defense Forces information was collated into a report that was sent directly to the Pentagon. With the twelve-hour time differential, the Pentagon and the intelligence community were able to compile all data relayed from Southeast Asia into an early-morning briefing for the President and his immediate staff. The briefing explained that the Green Beret "A" Team troops established their base and sent out South Vietnamese Special Forces scouting teams to establish contact with the fake enemy. The efforts of these elite troops were ineffectual. The enemy had slipped away. A few elderly villagers, along with young children, were found cowering in holes and huddled in the forests. When interrogated concerning the attack and the whereabouts of the village patriarch and the able-bodied men, the captives stared in ignorance. Most of all, they were confused when asked about the 'enemy.' They kept referring to the Viet Kha the Vietnamese term for beggars meaning the refugees, but the overzealous interpreter translated this to mean the Vietcong. He was not overzealous at all, he reported fake news, the typical war pro pagan da. This confirmed for the eager lieutenant to present during the president's morning briefing, that he had stumbled upon a major Vietcong encampment, all the dead were Vietcong. They had to be. No all the villagers and refugees were dead, it was a set up all along. They sacrificed people to establish a base of operations and request more funds for another false boogeyman.

Although it was no secret, it was not generally known that Ngo Dinh Nhu's elite Special Forces were under the absolute control of the CIA. Since they were, it was in the interest of the intelligence community to assure that the role of these elite troops be at least the equivalent of the US Army's. Saigon's CIA headquarters outdid itself building up all information available about Thuc Dho. The US Army Special Forces "A" Team, all Fort Bragg trained, were bona fide army soldiers, but their commander, a rather unorthodox major, was a CIA man on an army cover assignment. So what this reveals is, this whole episode was created by the CIA for the purpose of eliminating people who were not a threat to anyone. Billions of American taxpayer dollars and not to mention the ongoing cost of medical treatment for injuries and PTSD. A total of 58K dead Americans, plus 153K injured and 1584 reported as missing, but as we revealed with the program called Hotel California, many of those missing were not missing at all. They were transferred to America to undergo MK Ultra medical torture experiments. "You can check out but you can never leave". A larger meeting was organized to discuss the fake findings of the Thuc Dho situation. If, as reported by the captive villagers, the battalion had fled into the woods, and if, as reported by the Green Beret (CIA) major, the battalion was now surrounded in the woods by the elite South Vietnamese Special Forces troops, then why wasn't the Vietcong battalion being flushed out, then annihilated or captured? The secretary designate grasped the significance of what had been said and fired another question at the briefing officers and at the room in general, If we can create the capability to go to the aid of a beleaguered village, as we have done at Thuc Dho, but then having done this we find the village vacant and the enemy fled, how can we ever expect to win the war? We must destroy the enemy. But there was no enemy, they were villagers and refugees that they created. The enemy is the classic boogeyman run by American leaders since its inception. Every single war America has taken part in was fake in its origin. Wars done for shekel gains is bad enough, but these people did for ritual sacrifice purposes. It seems to all intents and purposes that the CIA and their ilk are the new Kali Ma program, as they continually sacrifice people including their so-called own for no apparent reason. If we cannot find an apparent reason, if it doesn't make any sense, then the only conclusion is, it was a program. That program I believe is based upon the narrative of an off world race or races for control of this planet, there can be no other conclusion. An acorn had been planted, and a vast oak grew. Immediately one of the CIA men half-raised a hand, Sir, he said, that is a most searching question. It gets to the root of our problem; you have seen the example of Thuc Dho. Fortunately, the village had been prepared by one of our agents and they had a transmitter that linked them to the Village Self-Defense Network. As a result we were able to strike back at once, but this is too little. Too little means in terms of expenditures and the time to eliminate everything and everyone, all whilst setting up further clandestine operations involving the likes of smuggling, trafficking, drug and gun running programs. The CIA agent went onto saying, no network is any good if it is full of holes. We must organize every hamlet, every village, every tribe. Then this Communist-supported enemy can be driven from this peaceful country. Oh the irony of that statement, from this peaceful country, yes it was until psychotic agency goons went in to destroy it for their own gains. Yet the secretary bought it, proving you can't teach stupid.

By January 1961, an Advanced Counterinsurgency Course, designed specifically to train thousands of Green Berets for Vietnam, had been hastily lifted from Civil Affairs and Military Government School at Fort Gordon, Georgia, and put at Fort Bragg. That is compartmentalizing, all to keep it in house, ultimately in the House of Israel. But a corner had been turned. Quietly and efficiently, the orders went out. One of the key items was the radio transmitter. The one at Thuc Dho had been a test unit. Within weeks a special order for thousands of these transmitters had been placed with the manufacturer and given the highest priority. If only it was within weeks children got proper classrooms not external cabins, if only in weeks all the homeless were given shelter, if only within weeks a government department addresses an issue, none of that applies. But for the war machine, everything is done and all the funding supplied. Shortly after the inauguration of President John F. Kennedy, these transmitters were being bolted to posts in village after village to augment and facilitate the Strategic Hamlet campaign. Not too many months later, the new secretary of defense, Robert McNamara who was part of the RAND Whiz kids, made his first visit to South Vietnam. The Rand whiz kids are part of the bloodline family, it was they who built the underground bases at Dulce, White Sands and Area 51 right on top of off world races bases. I suspect the Rands are not our race. By the time the secretary saw it, the South Vietnamese Special Forces elite troops, and the American Green Berets had worn paths through the area rehearsing and reenacting the famous attack for visiting dignitaries. All a theatrical parade you see, that is why they call it the theater of war. The once-lush hills had been dug up by bombs, seared by napalm, defoliated by chemical genocide. But the center of interest was always the black plastic box with the red eye, the famous Magic Box number 1052, the trigger of the expanded war in Vietnam. Col. Prouty's said There were many such villages as described in this story. Thuc Dho is a name created to represent a typical one. The story was compiled from the author's personal trips to Vietnam and liaison with the CIA between 1955 and 1964.

Comment: Last thoughts go out to Douglas Valentine in terms of our latter years in the ponerized West: Only five percent of the people need to be organized in this fashion to install a fascist dictator in the United States. That is the ultimate objective of the greatest covert operation ever, the one in which the oligarchs steal everything you own. Douglas Valentine, The CIA as Organized Crime: How Illegal Operations Corrupt America and the World. That is important to note, only 5% to install a fascist dictatorship, he would know given the CIA has organized at least 5 coups in the past 80 years. But this gives we the people a challenge also, because if it only takes 5% of the people to install their type of government, it would only take 5% of we the people to change the government to operate in a better way for all people. That should give you all encouragement with the Blueprint, as it now circles the world and is having an impact. There is something inherently wrong with this country, it is obsessed with wars. Celebrating war victories most of which were an illusion anyway, is the remit of people who have badly lost their way. War is not something to celebrate, militaries are not something to celebrate, both are symbols of a lack of adult based understanding of the preciousness of life. War is a last resort, not a celebration of a country. Trump did a national ceremony 5/6 years back and spoke of the history of America, the whole ceremony was about war. I found it distasteful and also disrespectful to the people, like the people have not done or achieved anything else other than war. Trump had an opportunity to present a better side to America, but wasted it with an embarrassing dick swinging style war parade. Going forward we have to change the narrative, people's perception of America and American's and away from the smaltzy Hollywood fake imagery that is currently the modus operandi. The Blueprint has that ability to do that, if implemented fully. As then America would then have something to be proud of and truly become the beacon of the world, in alliance with Russia.

FHSTOS SECTION:

Here is an interesting piece detailing the paths of the gods, which contains elements of the truth, but ultimately with a religious flavoring, it eventually distorts the picture and the truth. The following information allegedly has been given to people of earth from the realm of the angels, about what really happened here on earth and it will be up to you to decide what your feelings are about it. This story is centered around an entity that is known in the Bible as Jehovah.

Long ago and far away from earth out in the heavens, a war broke out among a group of competitive entities which we will refer to as "Gods" because that is what they call themselves. At this time there were three main entities "Gods", battling it out with one another. They were known as Yahweh, Jehovah and Id. Yahweh and his group of brothers came to earth long ago and began experimenting and improving the creation of the physical body called man or the human being. Notice right away the "gods" are of a Hebrew flavoring. "Yahweh and his group of brothers came to earth long ago and began experimenting and improving the creation of the physical body called man or the human being". What was wrong with the original? Why did they feel they can operate on or meddle with a Source creation? After the last THI show's ending piece, the experimenting on humans should have a whole different meaning. What it reveals is, they were not improving man at all, but manipulating and abusing man. All of which early on into this story makes Yahweh and others complicit in Cosmic crimes. It was the wish of this group of "Gods" to create a costume to be worn by the energy and the conscious that each individual entity God is made of. It was the desire of the House of Yahweh to create a costume, the living body of man, capable of housing the consciousness, intelligence and energy of and individual entity God, so that entity could come to earth and experience in a tangible feeling all of the creations of the third dimensional mass on earth. This was not some creational magic done by the "god" at all, it was done because he and they fell into darkness. It was also done through Cosmic Genetics and bodily interference so they could come here and look like the enemy. Notice it said the House of Yahweh, which is the House of Israel. There never was a country or region called Israel, what we see now is, the House of Yahweh and Israel on our soil and wreaking utter havoc. These entities are host possession experts and are complete parasites to this planet. The "Gods" desired to be able to walk among the animals, plants and trees that they had help create here on earth. No they never, this planet to my understanding was built in Ursa Major and brought here. Ursa Major and Minor, known as the Urs are enemies to these entities. But in order for these gods to be able to occupy third dimensional mass they had to lower their high vibratory frequency or light frequency, from say, the seventh dimensional level of light (because they were pure light) to the third level because, if they did, the sudden onslaught of high energy they would explode the little human body. All very noble of them in that passage, except it is not true, they plunged due to dark intentions. The author says, this is where the term the fall of spirit, comes from. Except it isn't, the fall of the spirit is due to their own malfeasance. Because these gods, spirit, energy, had to be lowered in light frequency, in order to inhabit a flesh and blood body here on earth. The tragedy that occurred is that after these "gods" took a physical body here on earth and started coming back time after time into a new costume, on their playground for the gods. That is reincarnation because they didn't raise their frequency and soul to master the 3 dimensional level is why. They lost the memory of who and what they were. Because they went so far from Source is the real reason, although there is technology that can wipe memories following our death here. But I understand that memory technology has been deleted.

Jehovah played a big part in that. It all started out as a game and an experiment, confirming our piece on that in Cosmic Genetics. But Jehovah and his band of tyrants thought it would be great fun to destroy the instruction manual, as to how to get out of the third dimension and back to the seventh. There is no instruction manual per se, it is based upon your own development. Your development through the 7 planes is the manual. Jehovah for the first time found he could control his brothers and sisters while they were in mass, which he could not achieve before they took bodies and lost their memory through programming. Before they took bodies? remember the movie The invasion of the body snatchers? That applies here. So for thousands of years we have been running around on earth life time after life time, trying to find the instruction manual. We all instinctively know something is missing and are in hot pursuit of it. Then someone introduces you to a religion and you think you have found it for a while, because it relates to spirit, but your still miserable and searching for, you can't remember just what. It's the instruction manual. No it is not, religion was created by another of these fake gods going by the name of Lucifer around 22500BC. There is a group called Jehovah that doesn't want you to find the way home, back to a high light frequency, because he can't control you there and he wants to be worshiped. That doesn't just apply to Jehovah, there are many other names who are or were doing the same thing. Nearly all of whom are connected to the Jewish, Mormon, Masonic and Egyptian cults. People that are given the instructions to Apotheosis can't be controlled and that really upsets the Jehovah group because remember that the Jehovah wants you to stay ignorant. Apotheosis means the perfect form or example of something : quintessence, the highest or best part of something : the peak. Or elevation to divine status : deification. No one has been deified here for a long time, so not sure that applies. Remember the verse don't eat of the fruit of knowledge and the god that wants you to worship him. God is not a him or her, god is a isness, a knowingness, a consciousness. And any god that needs to be worshiped is insecure and that is an attitude of man. Why would god have an attitude, that needs a psychosocial adjustment?

The truth of the matter is that Jehovah is a group of ugly, ego crazed, psychopath, insecure, tyrannical anal retentive humanoids from another solar system. They have thousands of years brainwashed mankind and controlled him. By the way sheeple the Reptilian's who are Jehovahs' helpers, their favorite meal is nice tender human flesh. Why have they been here waging war on you for thousands of years? Because you have been brow beaten into giving not only your power away as a god yourself, but all of your memory and what you are capable of being has been systematically stripped from you. I guarantee you that the Zionist-Khazar and your government know how powerful a fully aware god is. That is exactly why they keep you enslaved and ignorant with their created religions. They have stripped your god out of you and put it outside of you. So now you worship something distant and separated from you, when in truth there is no separation you and the creator are one and the same. I agree with all of that last piece, but the piece is about to turn into a wrong path. When Jehovah and his band of tyrants came here thousands of years ago, their ships seemed to be on fire in the sky, known then as chariots of fire now known as UFO's. The peaceable group of "Gods" called "Yahweh" were here on earth working with their creation of " man". Yahweh and his small group called "the great white brotherhood" meet with Jehovah. Yahweh was not the great white brotherhood at all, just an imposter. Yahweh had just a small group, a brother hood of only thirteen. 13? Again notice the 12+1, just like the Jesus narrative 12 + 1, it all is an overlay of distorted facts. Which were scattered all over earth teaching righteousness and love. No, that was the URs the true white brotherhood, these were the usurpers that the Santies warned about. That was all that was left of the spirits, that had not lowered their frequency to become a man to participate in this drama on earth. When Jehovah decided that waging war with Yahweh and his brotherhood wasn't worth the effort, he went after the seed of Yahweh. This began the Jewish religions, remember the winner writes the history. In some shows I have mentioned there are 2 factions within the Jewish culture that are fighting each other. This where the factions of the Jewish people reside, one for Yahweh and one for Jehovah. Neither are for our benefit. Man at that time was of insignificant and ignorance and scared of his own shadow. That is not true at all, man was in fine fettle as the Santies reveal, until these manipulators came in and meddled with us. Jehovah led the peoples the seed of the loving Yahweh to a land called Babylonia. Babylonia is where Marduk and the Sumerians inhabited. Maybe Marduk was Jehovah? He forced the people to fight Yahweh, with this came the lineage of Abraham. Jehovah became known to all inhabitants of earth. He forced one group of people to fight against others waging war. Jehovah hated the black man, red man, the white man and most of all, he hated all females and he deemed them soulless. Soulless is what Jews believe today of all goyim as they call us. He did his best to despise them all. He brought one small seed, probably the ones that his group interbred with, that is how the Jewish got their prominent nose. This group became a nation of people to do battle against the people of Yahweh, particularly the Egyptians. That sounds like the Hyksos to me.

One of the greatest Egyptian leaders born after Yahweh people began to be was Rata-Ben. He was one of the first pharaohs of the Egyptian people. He left a lineage for his people, and of the pharaoh to love and of a humble and wonderful people, who built landmarks on this earth, in just 3 years total time, to remind mankind that Christ "God" is within every person, a landmark that eternity could not erode away. They are known as the pyramids. The triangle and the star of David both mean god is within. That sounds more like Solomon now and he was fallen also and again used human sacrifice for his cult. The Star of David is the Alpha Draconis battle flag and a symbol of the fall of man. What is unfolding with this piece is, picking the lesser of two evils again, when both are two sides of the same coin.

Jehovah, being jealous, angry, insecure and full of hate, a real psycho, led his race of people against all other races. Refer in the Bible to Joshua 6: 21,24, Joshua 10: 40 and I Samuel 5: 6, 11-12, read about his reign of terror on the people. These wars were a slaughter. The races outside of Jehovah race were no match for his space ship, that stings like a scorpion which is termed as a chariot of Fire. Not all UFO's today are of Jehovah group. Yahweh now has an army here in great magnitude, on behalf of his seeds that has survived to today. No Yahweh does not have an army of ships here, most of the UFO's today are back engineered craft given by the original SSP group. Do not confuse the original SSP with the Trump overlay group. Jehovah ship could level a plane, part the sea and cook the earth. Yahweh' people didn't have much of a chance. Jehovah was trying to destroy all of Yahweh seeds. This also has echoes of the Ra and Apophis narrative, also the Enki and Enlil script, they were fighting for the control of humans not in benevolence. The first inquisition by Jehovah and his seeds. Jehovah reign here on earth for thousands of years and enslaved the people, fallen gods. He appointed scribes to write his words, remember the winner writes the history, his words were of threat and murder, separateness of people, of woman to man, husband to wife, of family to family and creed to creed. The whole world went to war against one another. And the high councils of angels upon this plane weep, and they would bring dreams upon both sides for peace and knowingness. Except in many cases the angels were demons in disguise, remember the royal Draco had white wings. Jehovah's favorite thing was serving up large helpings of fear. He scared his people into doing his bidding for him, as they still do even today. Yes today it is called the Jewish media. If they did not deliver the message he had told them to, he would make them eat their own dung off of the earth, or take their family from them. Jehovah's people were getting fed up with him and his outrageous ways, and they tried to go back to the way things were before he came and this really upset him. He got angry at his own people. Jehovah had his people build the Ark of the Covenant, so he could communicate with them through it. If any fool touched it they died. Just like the Magic Box described in the Vietnam expose piece prior to this. They would take it into war, while Jehovah sat in his space ship, and directed the battle through the covenant. The Ark was along the lines of a radio communicator, but it also had a radioactive beam or laser capability built into it. The Ark was almost as powerful as the weapons on Jehovah's ship. If you were in the path of the Ark and it didn't kill you, you would wish it had. Because its radiation power would cause the skin to peel off their bones, their eyes fell out of their sockets, their loins exploded, you get the picture I'm sure. All very nuclear if you ask me, may be it was them that needs the nuclear power stations here?

Jehovah could not destroy Yahweh, he could only get to him by destroying his seeds. More Cosmic Genetics games. Yahweh brotherhood watched this all taking place for eons. Jehovah would not allow the people to worship the creator god that is within all of us. Yes the creator god is within us all, that creator god is neither Jehovah or Yahweh. To all that slipped around and did, he promised hell to them all. Jehovah had his hay days here on earth. Yahweh' brotherhood and many others like his joined together against Jehovah. They created a space ship more powerful, and faster than anything Jehovah had; it looks like a sun. Probably because they were taking portions of the inner and outer suns and using it as weaponry. That is how several of the off world entities destroyed not only their own planets but many others as well. Jehovah realizing that he was out numbered and out equipped and out smarted. When Yahweh's group of thirteen began all splitting their souls and knowledge and created an entity' that would come to earth and start a change of this world. Jehovah packed up and left. Yahweh and his brotherhood and many more are still here, still loving us and trying to protect and up lift those that are awakening. They may still be here in the form of the Jewish EL-ites and the bloodline globalists EL-ites, but they are not loving at all, they exhibit no love, compassion or empathy. Even the children of these EL-ites undergo barbaric torture training to rid them of love, compassion and empathy towards us. Jehovah does not love you; he only came to start you waging war among yourselves. At one time before man was man when you were all spirit "God", Jehovah could not control you, because you were as powerful as he. But once you became a man of the human flesh you lose your power and memory and being the jerk Jehovah is, he could then keep you controlled, enslaved and ignorant. Jehovah left this galaxy for another to cause havoc elsewhere, but unfortunately not all of his henchman left with him. They have been here always pushing their seed the Zionist-Kharzars, to carry out their subservient planes on Yahweh people that have somehow survived. No they are mainly pushing it against the white race, whilst abusing all other races with their dastardly deeds. These people are the Caucasian, Gentiles and non-Jews in general and many Jewish people also have turned from the Zionist objective. Most orthodox Jewish people except for the hierarchy of Khazar's and Zionist, have no idea what the Talmud, Kabbalah or Zohar are based on. Which is correct, those books are the most evil and truly racist books ever written.

We are loving, beautiful people same as the so called gentile, so what is going to happen to them? Well, Jehovah promised hell to anyone that did not obey him. The sad thing is that when Jehovah left he promised to come back to raise hell with the people of earth again, and he is here now, just waiting out around Pluto somewhere getting geared up for another rampage on Yahweh seeds once again. No they are not around Pluto ready to strike at all, as all this solar system was largely cleared and or engaged to a point of non-interference. That non-interference has been abided by most species residing here, but the minions and their AI programs remain. So what will happen next? Well the author explains some of that next, but it is not as how described. There is a battle coming between Jehovah and Yahweh armies very soon. Think of it in terms of a faction war, where they destroy each other. It is the battle in the heavens that is talked about in the Revelations in the bible. It will be awesome with light beam space ships battling one another in the sky over the earth. What is the prize of the battle? It is the survivors left on earth. The war in the skies is likely Project Bluebeam, again using technology to trick the people and create fear. The battle in the heavens still plays out, but it is in the heavens not on this plane. Much change has unfolded away from here, even the Draco general populace have had enough of the wars and the programs. The war on this plane is a war for the minds and hearts, will the light triumph over the darkness? Again giant strides have been made on that front. The war for the minds being played out in the media circles, is being heavily lost by the dark forces as many now awake or not awake, are beginning to see through the illusion and are pointing fingers at Israel and the leading Jewish EL-ites as being the real problem. Jehovah created so much fear and disharmony here on earth, that we have never recovered. Yahweh's brotherhood knew that their brothers in man needed a hope to deliver. Yahweh and his brotherhood started a prophecy among the peoples of a great one that was to come. So it came to pass, that the great entity that the brotherhood had created by splitting their souls and knowledge, was to come to educate man and up lift his spirit. To give knowledge of who and what we are, that there is no hell and life is eternal and the only savior for you, is yourself. Worship the part of god that is within you, not outside of you. Do not live in fear, live in joy. No one can take your eternal life from you, because you can reincarnate anytime you wish. You always live in one level of frequency or another, it is either mass or light. This is the truth that Yesuah-Ben-Joseph told. Jesus as you know him brought to earth to share with his brothers and sisters. He did not bring the worshipping and fear and the enslaving message the church would have you believe. A very good description until the added Jesus who is again a part of their narrative not ours. I hope you all realize that the Yahweh story is a complete overlay of the URs. In the classic format of, we came in the form of the enemy. Don't be fooled.

ENDING PIECE:

This following on from the two guardians pieces and your role in life, is another reminder to you all how to be and act. It was something I wrote some time back and was stated at the end of the shows for a while. If you lead life in love and care you will prevail, if you lead life in fear and anger you will fail. Feel free for you to be the person you wish to be, not the person who conforms to what others want them to be. You are a multi-dimensional being operating simultaneously on many levels, you are not here to conform, you are not here to be stifled, you are not here to be enslaved, you are not here to be abused, or to compete with your friends, family or neighbors. You are here to be the best you can be and do so as a crown of creation, now go out with the confidence of who and what you are, and excel in yourself, and in doing so inspire others. THI has been responsible for many memes and cliches, although this particular one was first uttered when I was on Cosmic Voice. Since then it has appeared frequently on alt media, to even the mainstream media and also on the agencies algorithm's, quite an achievement for just one word. That word was clowns, to describe the varying names of the cabal, illuminati, agency people, military people, deep state and bloodline families. It also applied to politicians, seen as they like being in parties and the other variety of parties where clowns attend, it all seemed very fitting. Clowns performing stupid acts in front of the children, embarrassing themselves, making people laugh and regularly falling down, all very reminiscent one has to say of a politician. But, the key line of performing stupid acts in front of the children should not be overlooked either, because the majority of people on this planet are of childlike mentality. The EL-ites, the controllers just showed how child like they are in relation to this one word, clowns. They don't like the word clowns and are considering banning the emoji from social media. How embarrassing can the child level people get? Erm we don't like being called names, utterly pathetic. The simple solution to not being called that name is, to act like a bloody adult for once and come up with solutions to fix this broken planet, broken systems, broken financial centers, broken societies, broken cultures, broken countries and worst of all, broken people. The Blueprint tasks us all to do that, including the clowns. As for banning the emoji that's fine, we will do memes instead, just to jog your memory. Oh how the mighty have fallen.
