Will start off with a special thank you to Matthew, it is very much appreciated.

Here we go with yet more bombshell reports, exposures and break down of the former control system and their lackeys. Two expose and a whole heap of mystery section tonight. A show that continues to give hints and warnings, that has been the theme of the last number of shows, but did you heed them?

NEWS:

Here is exactly what the Government, Pentagon and top brass US military thinks of the value of their soldiers. The Biden administration strongly opposes a proposal to raise the pay of junior enlisted service members in the military, even after nearly spending seven times the proposed amount on Ukraine and the broader region's security. The House Armed Services Committee's (HASC) draft of the 2025 National Defense Authorization Act (NDAA) would give all junior troops a pay raise, representing a rough total of $24.4 billion over five years, according to the Congressional Budget Office. The Biden administration said in a statement, that it does not support the proposed significant, permanent pay hike until it has had a chance to conduct a compensation review. The Biden administration has spent over $175 billion on aid to Ukraine and European security since 2022, roughly one-seventh of the proposed pay hike for the junior troops, according to the Committee for a Responsible Federal Budget. The $175 billion amount is broken into several packages over the course of two years, including the most recent aid package of $61 billion in April. No pay rise because we have to spend all our money pacifying the Israel war machine and the Jewish coup in Ukraine. I would love to see all military staff walk away from the Military and let them sink. It would not take much to tip the US Military over these days, since they have little to no defense and also a rapidly dwindling force and Americans now refusing to join the Military altogether. It is not a good combination for the clowns, but a great one to reform it in a much better, cohesive, strategic and responsible way.

In FHSTOS we covered the atrocities committed by the US Military at the request of the bankers in Tulsa, Oklahoma. Survivors of one of the biggest race massacres in US history have lost their historic legal bid for reparations over the attack. The Oklahoma Supreme Court dismissed the suit, filed in 2020 by a trio of survivors, on Wednesday. An estimated 300 black Americans were killed when a white mob razed the Greenwood neighborhood of Tulsa, Oklahoma, in 1921. Only two known survivors - Viola Fletcher, 110, and Lessie Benningfield Randle, 109 - remain. The third, Hughes Van Ellis, died last year at 102. The people of Tulsa, Oklahoma need to listen to the official story on that brought forward by Dane Calloway. No it was not a white mob at all, it was the US military and Federal agents who slaughtered the people there.

India returning to their roots again with Draconian policies and being frightened of the truth? This is beyond ridiculous and about as ridiculous as locking up that 95 year old woman in Germany, for talking the truth about WW2. Will one of India's most celebrated writers really face prosecution for things she said more than a decade ago? Last week, 14 years after the original complaint, Delhi's most senior official granted permission for the Booker Prize-winning author Arundhati Roy to be prosecuted under India's stringent anti-terror laws. The Unlawful Activities Prevention Act (UAPA) is notorious for making it exceptionally challenging to get bail, often resulting in years of detention until the completion of trial. The Modi government has been accused of using the law to silence critics, including activists, journalists and civil society members. Ms. Roy, 62, an outspoken writer and activist, is in the dock for comments on Kashmir, a perennial lightning rod in India. So, people telling the truth now are classed as terrorists? What type of society supports that? A corrupt and anti-human one only. Only people with something to hide create laws to stifle people's opinions and truth. Like the Holocaust law, like the Antisemitic law, like the National Security Act law and finally the Patriot Act law. All of which are covers for lies and distortion of facts. So what did Ms. Roy say that was so terrorist like? She said: Kashmir has never been an integral part of India. It is a historical fact. Even the Indian government has accepted this, at a stormy, day-long conference in Delhi, organized by the Committee for the Release of Political Prisoners, in October 2010. At the time, Indian-administered Kashmir was in turmoil, with locals describing it as a fierce uprising against India. Ms. Roy's remarks had followed the deaths of dozens of protesters since fresh pro-freedom demonstrations broke out earlier that year. Summing up, India is stealing land like their sub gray brethren the Jews in the Middle East.

This piece is extraordinary and supports what THI stated 4 years ago, of exactly who was responsible for the so-called January 6th Capitol Building riot. Former Speaker of the House Nancy Pelosi admitted that she was responsible for the National Guard not being ready to deal with the January 6 Capitol riot. That is some admission, but there is an omission in that statement, as she ordered the riot for pro pagan da purposes. The bombshell admission comes nearly 3.5 years after the riot. Republicans say that the never-seen-before video undermines Democrats' claims that Trump was solely responsible for the security failures on January 6. In a video shot by Pelosi's daughter, Alexandria, while the pair were escaping from the Capitol on January 6, 2021, the former speaker can be seen saying: Why weren't the National Guard there to begin with? They clearly didn't know, and I take responsibility for not having them just prepared for more, Pelosi said to her chief of staff Terri McCullough. According to findings from the now defunct January 6 select committee, Pelosi, Sens. Chuck Schumer, D-N.Y., and Mitch McConnell, R-Ky., and other lawmakers were all shepherded by security personnel to Fort McNair in southwest Washington, D.C., as the protest raged on. Pelosi's J6 Select Committee spent taxpayer's money chasing false political narratives and using Hollywood producers for their investigation, said the subcommittee's chairman Rep. Barry Loudermilk, R-Ga. Her admission of responsibility directly contradicts their own narrative.

Here is another of the top officials lies exposed and also it implicates the media in the cover up. The 51 former US intelligence officials who smeared The Post's bombshell reports on Hunter Biden's laptop as Russian disinformation in a 2020 letter, are standing by their decision with some referring to the move as patriotic, even after the FBI and Justice Department have confirmed the device's authenticity, according to a new report. Former Director of National Intelligence James Clapper, former Defense Secretary Leon Panetta, ex-intelligence heads of the CIA and other analysts and officers have all said they had no regrets about their involvement in the Spies Who Lie missive. The report comes as special counsel David Weiss' prosecution of Hunter Biden for alleged gun and tax crimes continues recently, after both the FBI and Department of Justice confirmed in court filings and proceedings this year, that the laptop's contents were authentic. That letter has other connotations and is even worse than the lying agents. The letter was organized nearly four years ago by former CIA acting director Michael Morell, he said, he wrote it after being triggered to do so, triggered? Interesting terminology I have to say. So, who did the triggering? Well he was triggered following a phone call with then-senior Biden campaign official Antony Blinken, now the secretary of state. Anthony fucking Blinken again, every week that clown appears on our show for being involved in skullduggery against this country and its people. When will some high officials take responsibility and be truly "patriotic" and arrest that clown and jail him?

Here is another poor example of the operations of the US Military and why it has to be disbanded from the top down and replaced with non-corrupt and non-psychopathic organic HU-mans. At the height of the Covid-19 pandemic, the U.S. military launched a secret campaign to counter what it perceived as China's growing influence in the Philippines, a nation hit especially hard by the deadly virus. The clandestine operation has not been previously reported. It aimed to sow doubt about the safety and efficacy of vaccines and other life-saving aid that was being supplied by China, a Reuters investigation found. Through phony internet accounts meant to impersonate Filipinos, the military's propaganda efforts morphed into an anti-vax campaign. Following on from the bot campaign of the Israelis on the internet recently, just how much of the internet is corrupted by bots and military and agency goons? Social media posts decried the quality of face masks, test kits and the first vaccine that would become available in the Philippines, China's Sinovac inoculation. Reuters identified at least 300 accounts on Twitter, that matched descriptions shared by former U.S. military officials familiar with the Philippines operation. Almost all were created in the summer of 2020 and centered on the slogan #Chinaangvirus – Tagalog for China is the virus. Covid came from China and the vaccine also came from China, don't trust China! one typical tweet from July 2020 read in Tagalog. The words were next to a photo of a syringe beside a Chinese flag and a soaring chart of infections. Another post read: From China – PPE, Face Mask, Vaccine: FAKE. But the Coronavirus is real. After Reuters asked X about the accounts, the social media company removed the profiles, determining they were part of a coordinated bot campaign based on activity patterns and internal data. The U.S. military's anti-vax effort began in the spring of 2020 and expanded beyond Southeast Asia before it was terminated in mid-2021. Tailoring the propaganda campaign to local audiences across Central Asia and the Middle East, the Pentagon used a combination of fake social media accounts on multiple platforms to spread fear of China's vaccines among Muslims, at a time when the virus was killing tens of thousands of people each day. A key part of the strategy: amplify the disputed contention that, because vaccines sometimes contain pork gelatin, China's shots could be considered forbidden under Islamic law. The military program started under former President Donald Trump and continued months into Joe Biden's presidency, even after alarmed social media executives warned the new administration that the Pentagon had been trafficking in Covid misinformation.

A number of points come from this:

1. The very US Military where involved in the creation of the virus along with the CIA, in conjunction with the CDC, NIH and other fake government departments.
2. Dr. Fauci and his other clowns like Wellensky, another Jew in a prominent position at the CDC, did gain of function with Chinese medical labs.
3. The NIH sent funding to China for Dr. Fauci's plan.
4. The Pentagon had thousands of PPE kits delivered before the outbreak in 2019, as reported by THI.
5. The masks and other equipment from China was brought in an a secret deal by Jared Kushner.

He did a deal with China and India for PPE's, and then had people threaten American companies to not produce any American PPE's. He and Trump was then going to charge the American public $7 a mask, but those masks where only designated to people who worked in Government departments. The plan was no PPE's for the American people. Trump a man of the people? Turn it in. Have people forgot it was he that ordered the lockdowns, masks, social distancing and along with the Trustee, the jabs that has killed many and injured so many more.

Speaking of the snake in a skin suit, Jared Kushner is now being investigated 3-4 years after we at THI exposed this on our show. Senate Democrats are launching a new investigation into the foreign payments made to Jared Kushner's investment firm. Senate Finance Committee Chair Ron Wyden announced the probe, saying that the panel would investigate the billions of dollars that Affinity Partners manages from foreign sources. Kushner started Affinity in July 2021, less than six months after leaving the White House as a senior adviser to former President Donald Trump. It was going on prior to leaving the White House, where he operated a puppet called Donald Trump. The firm quickly attracted big-time investors from the Middle East and within weeks, landed $2 billion from the Saudi public investment fund. Affinity continues to overwhelmingly derive the majority of its funds from the Saudi Arabian government. It is deeply concerning that several Middle Eastern governments are using funds managed by Affinity, as a means to pay tens of millions of dollars in fees every year to former President Trump's son-in-law, Jared Kushner, creating significant conflicts of interest and potential counterintelligence risks, Wyden wrote to Affinity Partners Chief Financial Officer Lauren Key on Wednesday. Affinity has disclosed to regulators that 99 percent of the $3 billion of assets that the firm manages come from non-U.S. persons. The $1 billion not funded by Saudi Arabia is reportedly split between sovereign wealth funds owned by the governments of the United Arab Emirates and Qatar, Taiwanese billionaire and politician Terry Gou, and another investor whose identity has not yet been publicized. Terry Gou in 2012, a controversy arose after Gou compared his Foxconn's workforce to animals during a board meeting. The Xinhua News Agency reported that while speaking on the challenges of presiding over a workforce with over one million employees, Gou stated that as human beings are also animals, to manage one million animals gives me a headache. All sounding very Jewish to me. On Wednesday, Wyden raised concern that Kushner and others were using Affinity's foreign-funded private investment funds as a loophole, exploiting those accounts to avoid federal laws that require Americans to disclose payments from foreign governments. He estimated that Affinity receives at least $60 million in management fees annually from its exclusively foreign investor base and that from 2022 to 2023, the Saudi PIF alone paid the firm at least $80 million in management fees. As the founder and sole owner of Affinity, Kushner is the biggest beneficiary of the fees paid to Affinity by the Saudi PIF and other Gulf state clients, Wyden wrote. During his time at the White House, Kushner advised his father-in-law on foreign affairs, advocating for the Trump administration to embrace Saudi Arabia. Kushner never advised Trump, he told him what to do, Trump is another Israeli puppet. Remember the Hannukah party inside the White House? Would Israel celebrate an American holiday in their Knesset? Kushner, a staunch defender of Crown Prince Mohammed bin Salman, remained close with the royal even after U.S. officials found that he orchestrated the assassination of Jamal Khashoggi. The Saudi PIF's decision to invest $2 billion in Affinity so soon after Kushner's departure from the Trump White House, raises concerns that the investment was a reward for official actions Kushner took to benefit the Saudi government, including preventing accountability for the Saudi government ordering the brutal murder of journalist and American citizen Jamal Khashoggi, Wyden said. He continued, moreover, in the final two weeks of the Trump Administration, Mr. Kushner traveled to Saudi Arabia purportedly on official business, even though any reasonable window for meaningful foreign policy achievements would have closed with an upcoming inauguration of a new President. Wyden expressed concern that Kushner's limited track record as an investor, including his nonexistent experience in private equity or hedge funds, raise questions regarding the investment strategy behind the seeding investments and lucrative compensation that Affinity received from the Saudi PIF and other sovereign wealth funds. The Oregon Democrat asked Affinity to turn over records and information pertaining to the tens of millions in payments that the firm receives from foreign sources every year. He asked that the firm provide answers no later than June 26. I am glad that Kushner is finally being questioned, but I wish to know why no one questioned him in 2016 like THI did?

Another politician is now having the courage to expose the mess that Israel and its vast tentacles of minions impose upon countries. As British former politician Alan Duncan, who was Conservative MP for Rutland and Melton, says the time has come to flush out the extremists in the UK government, who are subservient to Israel. He goes on to name the Zionist lobby group Conservative Friends of Israel, a mini-AIPAC of sorts. As well as a laundry list of UK politicians who kowtow to the Jewish lobby against British parliamentary interests. This video is significant purely because this discussion has never been had in the British ZOGosphere before this day. Thanks to Al-Toufan and the resulting exposition of Jewish power, the conversation is changing and a noticing is taking place! Indeed it is and I expect to increase. Only problem I have with him is, Alan Duncan was a former member of the notorious, infamous and secretive Le Cercle group.

Why is no one questioning these tactics, operations and policies is the greatest mystery. Amos Hochstein, senior advisor to United States President Joe Biden, met with officials in Beirut. Cross-border attacks by Israel and the Lebanese militant group Hezbollah have been taking place almost daily since the war in Gaza began in October and escalated dramatically a week ago, after Israel killed a high-ranking Hezbollah commander in a strike on south Lebanon. Amos Hochstein, born in Israel and born to Jewish parents. Why are the US sending Jewish people to allegedly fix a problem they are involved in? Why are so many Jews the head of policy based departments? Is there a ban on Americans running their own country?

Robert F Kennedy Jr, who is running as an independent presidential candidate, was not included in CNN's debate, after failing to meet the network's criteria. So, let's get this into perspective shall we. The news media are deciding who is a candidate and who is not? What is the point of elections if the media decide for us? CNN has stipulated that participants need to have secured ballot access in enough states to capture the 270 electoral college votes necessary to win the presidency, while recording 15% support in at least four national polls. Kennedy only has 3 states at 15%. Who gave the media that level of control, over what is supposed to be the people's election? Which is just about the greatest joke ever, after the American dream. What a kangaroo court situation we have in this country, yet where are the American's complaining about their votes being over ruled by a news station? All candidates have to be given equal air time, otherwise not only is it bias, but it also comes under the banner of election interference, which is a felony. Why isn't the Justice Department dealing with this?

CNN went further this week after cutting a Trump spokeswoman off from an interview, for telling the truth.

Some fairly explosive meetings ongoing in Israel, as finally more Jewish people are seeing what we have been telling them all along. Now they are fighting back in very large numbers. A week of resistance, which began on Saturday night in Tel Aviv with tens of thousands attending one of the largest antigovernmental protests since the war began. It will continue over the next few days with demonstrations outside the Knesset and prime minister's residence. Yes sit outside of the fake Netanyahu's house and let him see what occupation feels like. Only one thing should be different, those standing outside should not resort to violence unlike those they are demonstrating against. On the rally frontlines is a group of mothers of troops who have denounced the government for playing politics with their children's lives. They have accused Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu of prolonging the war to appease hard-right and religious members of his fragile coalition to ensure its survival. We, the parents of active combat soldiers, blame you for sacrificing our children on the altar of politics, they wrote in a recent letter to the prime minister and his now disbanded war cabinet. We blame you for the senseless deaths of soldiers. We blame you for the numerous injuries to our children, both physically and mentally. A new poll by the Jewish People Policy Institute released on Monday finds that some 60 per cent want the country to accept the hostage-for-peace deal and almost three quarters expressed a very low or fairly low level of trust in the government. More and more people now are having a fairly low trust of their government, not just Israelis. That augurs well for true change. Israel's colorful and raucous demonstrations are generally peaceful affairs, although there have been violent clashes with the police on the fringes. While the large crowds may not directly trigger the downfall of the government, one of their causes the fate of a draft bill to address exemptions from mandatory military service for ultra-Orthodox, or Haredi, young men, has the potential to break Mr. Netanyahu's coalition apart. I think people would prefer to break Netanyahu apart, not just the coalition. The man is a genocidal war criminal and it beggars belief he is allowed to govern anything. He is a total psychopath and a blight on humanity.

MEDICAL SECTION:

Here is more incriminating exposures of the Covid scam. Japanese researchers warn of the risks of using blood from mRNA Covid vaccine recipients, highlighting potential deadly effects and the need for urgent action to secure the global blood supply. Blood contaminated with prion-like structures from the spike protein, raises the risk of inducing fatal neurodegenerative diseases in recipients. The potential transmission of harmful proteins through exosomes via shedding and the risk of autoimmune diseases due to the vaccines' mechanism and components like lipid nanoparticles (LNPs) are other major concerns. Proposals for managing blood collection include rigorous donor interviews, deferral periods and a suite of tests to ensure the safety of blood products. The researchers advocate for comprehensive testing of both jabbed and unjabbed individuals to assess the safety of blood products and suggest discarding blood products contaminated with spike proteins, or modified mRNA until effective removal methods have been developed. They call for suspending all gene-based vaccines and conducting a rigorous harm-benefit assessment in light of the serious health injuries reported. All of which sounds like our Covid and Medical Blueprint solutions, the full testing part. They also urge countries and organizations to take concrete steps to address and mitigate the already identified risks. More and more coming out now, shame more didn't heed our warning in the Expose series, around 9 of which were done before the Trump and Trustee vaccines came out.

More medical skullduggery and yet again involving New York, quite why people would live there is beyond me. The widespread but controversial drug-testing of mothers and newborns in hospitals is now under greater scrutiny in New York, with accusations of unfairness surfacing in multiple lawsuits and state Attorney General Letitia James investigating. Positive tests that lead to CPS calls have the potential to separate families during infants' earliest stage of life, a practice parents, legal advocates and activists say punishes women and children and drags too many people of color unfairly into the foster care system. In an ongoing upstate lawsuit, Laura Kuzdale of Dunkirk said all she did to incur the intrusion of child protective services was eat Everything Bagel Bites with poppy seeds before giving birth in 2020. Food Nazis as well. Unbeknownst to Kuzdale, staff at Oishei Children's Hospital later tested her for drugs, which came up positive for opiates. The mother of two said that's when the nightmare began: Child welfare workers barred her from critical bonding time and interrupted a smooth return home with her newest family member. Non-consensual medical testing is illegal and billing the patient for tests they weren't aware of is unethical, Kuzdale stated. Taking a newborn from a parent is immoral is inhuman. I agree, but living in New York certainly doesn't help that factor does it, it is a floating landmass of iniquity. In a lawsuit filed in Erie and Chautauqua counties, Kuzdale accuses the hospital's former president Allegra Jaros and its parent company, Kaleida Health, of allowing staff to conduct a toxicology test without her consent, and later reporting a false-positive result to the Statewide Central Registry for Child Abuse and Maltreatment. In court filings, lawyers for the $1.5 billion Kaleida Health stated that at the time of Kuzdale's hospital stay, staff did not need informed consent before conducting drug tests. Why didn't staff need informed consent? they are invading people's privacy. They also stated that the monitoring for opiate exposure did not result in any medical harm and there was no undisclosed risk of such harm. In reporting the test results to CPS, the defendants stated, they were just following legal standards. The law requires reporting and other protective action when there is reasonable cause to suspect maltreatment, and encourages mandated reporters to err on the side of reporting and protective action, court documents read. Whose law? The pedophiles and traffickers law? More on hospitals later.

SOCIETY SECTION:

As the cost of a home escalates to accommodate the greedy people amongst us and with rents skyrocketing, the fall out is taking hold. On top of that, there has been a massive increase in the US of underwater homes this year. Expect an almighty crash soon. More than 18 million Americans are living in homes that stretch their budgets far beyond what's considered financially healthy. That's the biggest takeaway from a LendingTree study released this week, that found that 18.3 million homeowners are what the housing industry calls cost-burdened, or house poor. That refers to homeowners who pay more than 30% of their monthly income on housing, including the mortgage, utilities and other costs. Anyone who spends more than half of their monthly income on housing is considered severely cost-burdened. All to keep up with the Jones' again! The high cost-of-living states California, Hawaii and New York have the largest share of house poor residents, while West Virginia, Indiana and Arkansas have the fewest, LendingTree said. No surprise California and New York are leading the way, they are both harvesting centers. California 2.2 million house poor and 1 million severely housing cost-burdened – that 3.2 million people struggling. Hawaii 88,000 house poor and 39,000 severely housing cost-burdened. New York 1.1 million house poor and 550,000 severely housing cost-burdened. The solution is The Blueprint again and people being taught finances in a proper way to avoid debt. This program must end, to then replace it with something better for the all.

Adding to the previous piece and the struggles of Californian's. During a press conference, California Governor Gavin Newsom faced scrutiny regarding the state's expenditure of $24 billion to address homelessness. Newsom, in a conference, disclosed that California is facing a budget deficit of at least $45 billion and proposed various cuts to state worker jobs, education programs and healthcare services. As part of the proposed measures, Newsom suggested reducing funding for homelessness and housing initiatives by almost $1.2 billion, with $474 million being taken from an anti-foreclosure program aimed at preserving affordable housing. Despite the significant budget announcements and austerity measures, a reporter at the conference pressed the governor on the issue of homelessness in the state. An audit released in early April highlighted that California had allocated $24 billion towards combating homelessness in the past five years. However, the audit revealed a lack of consistent tracking of how this substantial sum of money contributed to alleviating the homeless crisis. It didn't, as it was not meant for that. Clown money laundering again, maybe California officials are using that money to pay immigrants to come across the border? $24B would buy 100K modular homes at $200K each and potentially remove 1/2M who are on the streets or people struggling to keep a home due to rising costs. Or we can implement the Blueprint solution and fix all the housing issues in one sweep.

This is a prime example of it is not just the super-rich who are frivolous with money, but even those amongst us with in my opinion too much money, yet still can't make ends meet. It is bizarre and embarrassing and also a slap in the face for the many who have very little. While you might expect wealthy Americans to weather the cost of living crisis better than most, data shows a staggering 36% of American consumers earning $200,000 per year or more say they're living paycheck to paycheck. Nearly half (48%) of those making over $100,000 a year are in the same boat. Around 22% of high-income earners reported family expenses as the main reason they live paycheck to paycheck, while 15% cite nonessential spending as their primary pain point. That tells me they are incapable of budgeting and or you live in a house that is over pricing your budget. They call that living beyond your means. $200K a year not enough, seriously! These people need to give their heads a wobble. Try not living to the standard of the super-rich for a start, buy a house that is manageable, keep a car longer than a year and why do you have to buy new? It's not rocket science. But those types of communities operate only to outdo each other, only serving to put each other into debt, sheer lunacy strikes again. The PYMNTS report also finds high earners' budgets can be as inflexible as low earners, simply because the former group tends to have more fixed expenses. There are about 7B people around the world who would love to have $200K+ a year problem. Having lots of money seems to make people lose their brain cells and out of touch with reality. It is not that $200K is not enough, it is because you have a spending problem.

ABC(IA) News did a hilarious opinion piece recently to cover Robert Kennedy and discredit his statements as conspiracy theories. One such statement was that the CIA runs the media, seems fairly straight forward to me, but not to the cover up news channels. They wrote approximately 2000 words on why that statement is wrong. Dismissed Project Mockingbird as an isolated incident and completely left out any mention of the Church committee meetings that revealed the news media had 400 CIA agents involved back in the 1960's. They did mention the meetings, but predictably left out the mention of Church committee in case people go and search it. Which of course reveals the media are lying. Personally I am pleased they are wasting their resources going to great lengths to try to keep a lid on their operations, as what it means is, too many people are getting near the truth of the matter. The alt media is clearly getting under their skin and getting to the root of the matter and that is great news. But with one caveat, most of the channels in the Alt Media are also CIA run, that is taking some time for them to realize what I knew 20 years ago. As for the media, me doth think you protest too much.

MINI EXPOSE:

Who or what is Joe Biden? Well this piece will reveal his connections, typically they are not good. One has to go back to 1972 for where Biden began his rise to power and also how he got there. To understand the dangerously deranged and deadly mindset of Socialist Leader Biden, the examination first begins during the United States Senate election in Delaware held in 1972. An election that saw Biden running against two-term Republican lawmaker United States Senator James Caleb Boggs, a World War II veteran who served two-terms as the Governor of Delaware, and whom everyone called J. Caleb Boggs. In the days just prior to the 7 November 1972 election, Senator Boggs prepared a full page newspaper advertisement linking Biden to organized crime. But no voter in Delaware ever got to see it, because as the New York Times revealed on 3 November 1972: The Morning News, struck by a union representing drivers who deliver the newspapers, did not publish a Friday edition in Wilmington, Delaware. Members of other unions, such as pressmen, printers and stereo typers, would not cross the picket lines set up at 6 P.M. today by the 21 drivers. How convenient and shows the power of politics and the influences it has over so many other aspects of society. They are members of Local 10, American Newspaper Guild of Greater Philadelphia, under dispute was the drivers first union contract with the News-Journal company. So who ordered the stopping of the newspaper delivery? The Irish Mafia stopped the newspaper delivery. This is why so many American Presidents link themselves back to Ireland, even Obama. Since 2014, one of Ireland's main highways has had a bizarre service station in County Tipperary dedicated to former US President Barack Obama. The justification for its existence is that Obama visited Moneygall, a nearby village, back in 2011 after learning that his great-great-great-grandfather was from there. Biden said his family was from there, so did the Kennedy's. But the Kennedy family line where part of the Irish Mafia.

Remember JF Kennedy's father Joseph, ran the alcohol racket during the Prohibition and made vast fortunes. They are all linked, same as the late Neil Keenan, his so-called security was the lead member of the IRA. The IRA are the mafia, in fact the lead mafia now. Also the name Keenan is a derivative of Kennedy. Neil regaled many stories of him as a child being on JFK's private plane and family gatherings with the Kennedy's. Organized crime, Frank Sheeran, Jimmy Hoffa's hitman. Ordering the strike at the only major newspaper in Delaware, so no one could see Senator Boggs full page advertisement linking Biden to organized crime in the days prior to the 1972 election, was high-ranking International Brotherhood of Teamsters official Frank Sheeran. Who was the hitman enforcer known as The Irishman for feared organized crime leader Jimmy Hoffa, who mysteriously disappeared on 30 July 1975. Though his body was never found, he was declared dead on 30 July 1982, and whom Sheeran confessed to killing on his deathbed. Notice the 7 year before declaring dead, dead at sea and maritime law again.

Neilia Hunter Biden, was called the brains of the operation that elected her husband Joe Biden to the United States Senate in 1972, and whose top aides in the operation were Bill Stevenson and his wife Jill. About whom history records: Jill Biden's ex-husband Bill Stevenson paid hitman Frank The Irishman Sheeran $3K, to set up a strike and stop the delivery of Delaware newspapers with anti-Biden ads before Joe's shock 1972 Senate win. Jill Biden's former husband says he raised $3000 to fund a union picket line organized by notorious mob hitman Frank The Irishman Sheeran, designed to help Joe Biden win election to the Senate in 1972. Joe Biden then married Jill Stevenson that was involved in the death of Joe Bidens wife Neilia Hunter Biden, after Joe Biden's trashing of Jill's husband Bill Stevenson. All very incestuous I have to say, should this be the true events as reported by the Daily Mail. It shows how power corrupts people on a massive scale, all for the desire for fame, more like infamy if you ask me. On 18 December 1972, barely a month after organized crime gained Joe Biden his election, the car Neilia Hunter Biden was driving in with her children was mysteriously pushed from behind into a major roadway where it was hit by a tractor trailer driven by Curtis C. Dunn, 43, of Kaolin-Pennsylvania. A horrific crash that killed Neilia Hunter Biden and her one-year-old daughter, Naomi, and whose two sons, Beau and Hunter, were critically injured but survived. The official investigation concluded: There was no evidence that Dunn was speeding, drinking or driving a truck with faulty brakes. In addition, witnesses to the crash provided no basis for a prosecution in numerous recorded episodes, however, Socialist Leader Biden lyingly proclaimed: A tractor-trailer, a guy who allegedly, and I never pursued it, drank his lunch instead of eating his lunch, broadsided my family and killed my wife instantly and killed my daughter instantly and hospitalized my two sons. Biden with lies and revised history still plays out today, with his bizarre anecdotes, most of which have been proven to be false. A lying proclamation that caused to now deceased Dunn's daughter Pamela Hamill to declare: I just burst into tears, the story already is tragic enough, why did he have to sensationalize it by saying my father was drunk? My family is outraged. With it long suspected, but never proven that the death of Neilia Hunter Biden was a hit job to cover up organized crime links to her husband Joe Biden, it is factually known that her top operation aide Bill Stevenson, who paid organized crime Jimmy Hoffa hit man Frank The Irishman Sheeran to rig the 1972 election, was shortly thereafter forced to divorce his wife Jill, who then married Joe Biden. The New York Post revealed in 2021: First lady Dr. Jill Biden's ex-husband Bill Stevenson slammed the so-called Biden crime family in a new interview and claimed the powerful brood is targeting former President Donald Trump, the same way they bullied him during his divorce almost 50 years ago. In what could be called an act of brutal revenge on the Biden Crime Family from the ghost of Jimmy Hoffa, whose own hit man Frank Sheeran murdered him after rigging the 1972 election for Joe Biden. Recently it saw Hunter Biden convicted of felony gun crimes at the J. Caleb Boggs Federal Building in Wilmington-Delaware, that's named after the same Senator Boggs whom Biden stole his first election from. The felony conviction of Hunter Biden swiftly followed by powerful House Republican Conference Chairwoman Elise Stefanik issuing the statement: Today is the first step in delivering accountability for the Biden Crime Family. We must and will continue to investigate the Biden Crime Family for corrupt influence peddling schemes, that generated over $18 million in foreign payments for the Biden Crime Family. The question is, who will be hit next? What is it with Democrat leaders and death trails? Following the Clinton death trail widely reported elsewhere. I guess crime pays in the world of politics and Biden is by no means the only one involved in mafia style corruption and death rings. Maybe cotton-eyed Joe will disappear next? Maybe he already has. What comes next? Who will replace him? Another weekend at Bernie's involving a certain female?

Here is an overview of the clowns attempts to publicly declare and operate a New World Order, when in reality land it has always been in place. For three reasons, 1. The Draco have run things here for 16500 years and 2. The political public version was announced in the 1920's, as we covered in the FHSTOS book and 3. There is/was a world government of serpents operating under Canary Wharf in London. It is interesting this article is coming out now, as we have stated that the clowns are in panic and this reveals it even more. In the morning of Svarog and the light dawns upon us all, everyone will start to see the issues and the problems, we stated 4-9 years ago. But now the light is dawning for many others and now the warnings we gave is becoming a concern for them. Better late than never I suppose. But going forward once the balance is restored, we must ensure this scenario is never repeated again. This article is now being written in our style of understanding and I am seeing that more and more now. I know the clowns are in panic, but also the people as well. Something big is coming, everyone can feel it, remember whatever it is, it has to play out. The New World Order is a social engineering project aimed at reshaping human civilization on Planet Earth in its every aspect, to suit the selfish interests of a small group of billionaires obsessed by greed for power and profit. But also and no less so obsessed by their fear of violent hungry and deprived masses ransacking and destroying their properties. Yes their fear is palpable and rising exponentially. They are eager to display how superior they are to 99.99 % of their fellow humans and their ability to beat both nature, the Universe, and Divine Consciousness at the eternal game of Creation. Indeed and the only way they can accomplish that is, through technology.

The NWO idea grew out of John D. Rockefeller's business idea, hatched already around 1900, to take on health care and make a global monopoly of medical science. Just as he had already created a virtual global monopoly of the petroleum business. No Rockefeller did not start it as mentioned earlier. Rockefeller's brilliant but sneaky self-serving initiative took the guise of a non-profit institution in order to escape taxes and at the same time gain respect, if not popularity, instead of the anger and hate his ruthless business methods had earned him until then. And what better way of taking control of medical research, education and practice? All under the guise of generously donating fortunes for the benefit of the masses and of science, while tailoring it all to his own strictly-for-profit business model. Which has resulted in Big Pharma's secret mantra: Every cured patient is a lost customer, whilst becoming a fundamental principle of modern Western school medicine. It does not offer any cures, only life-long treatments by patented and high priced, synthetic pharmaceutical drugs and surgery, with a long list of potentially fatal side effects that need additional drugs. Nice to see others seeing it and then reporting it, their drugs do not work beyond a week. The body recognizes the reason as to why they are taken and creates its own drugs internally. All pills taken after a week do not work and creates a co-dependency to them, it then delivers other issues and creates more shekels. By creating the non-profit Rockefeller Foundation in 1913 to alleviate human suffering worldwide, (M) turn it in, alleviate human suffering? Yes by eliminating loads of people.

Remember the Rockefellers where involved one year earlier in the Federal Reserve scam that has caused suffering and death worldwide ever since. His oil billions became exempt of taxation, so much for environmentalism then and could be used to discretely control almost anything he wanted to take over. Through outright purchases or bribes, or through donations with specific conditions, or through influencing Boards of Directors and other decision makers. Scientists, research and publications were bought and politicians were funded and made to change legislations to favor Rockefeller business interests. One funding that Rockefeller did start off at this time was Margaret Sanger and Planned Parenthood. The Rockefeller family controls Chase Manhattan Bank and The First National City Bank. Chase Manhattan is the third largest banking establishment in the world and by far the most influential. This means they also own a major chunk of The Federal Reserve, the privately owned US central bank created through a coup in Congress on December 23, 1913, when the majority of congressmen and senators had already left for their Christmas holiday. To a great extent, therefore, Rockefeller interests control global finance, such as interest rates, and the printing of fiat dollars, which is counterfeit money on a massive scale. The Federal Reserve therefore has the power to cause stock market booms and busts, as well as financial crises leading to recessions and depressions at will. They have used that power several times.

The Rockefeller social engineering project was first documented in 1910 with the Flexner Report, 3 years before the creation of the Rockefeller Foundation. It was about reforming and controlling medical education in the US and Canada. Realizing that their plan would need support from public opinion to become successful, they began to focus on influencing and shaping the thoughts and opinions of the general population. On the one hand they targeted the educational system in general, from kindergarten and all the way through the Universities. This meant getting children into the hands of specially trained nurses and pre-school teachers, who would make sure all children were properly indoctrinated, practically from birth. Children would be properly indoctrinated, yet we as parents never worked it all out until the 2000's? The social engineering program has been far too successful, due to our own stupidity and laziness in my opinion. The way to get women to abandon their traditional role as first and foremost mothers, housewives and home-makers, was first to change people's perception of value and happiness. Traditional values favored nature, family bonds, motherhood and cooperation in agricultural communities. In pre-Rockefeller society most male full-time income earners could normally support a whole family, often with many children. Now, such an earner may not have had the privilege of working only 40 hours a week. Nor would the family have enjoyed all sorts of technical wonders, gadgets or games, nor cars or boats. Neither were they able to buy new fashionable clothes four times a year, or travel abroad on holidays. So, in order to shape children's minds as early as possible into accepting Rockefeller's industrial world model, and help create an expanded source of both workers and customers for the new industries of the wealthy elite, it was necessary from the Rockefeller point of view, to make women want to compete with men in the workplace and earn as much money as men. That's why they launched the Feminist movement. That program has been the most damaging of them all. In general, women have become like men and men like women, which is bad enough, but the damage that movement and new working lifestyles have done to the children, is far worse. The means to achieve this was to take control of news media, and also to use entertainment and games, including Hollywood movies, to reshape people's perception of what is important in life. All in subtle indirect ways over time, so that very few people have been aware of the programming and mind control they have been exposed to.

Women leaving their homes to work for industry was a mortal blow to the closely knit family structure, that was the traditional basis of society. We now take for granted that women should have the liberty to choose what they want to do with their lives. The problem is that, due to this social programming, they would now feel guilty or less worth, if they decide they want to dedicate themselves to children, home and family. We should not underestimate the importance for society of women's traditional role as educators of their children during the crucial first 7 years of life, no less so as wise influencers of their husbands. Absolutely, something the Rus stressed all too succinctly. But the problem is the role of motherhood is now almost deemed an inconvenience, when in the past it was a moral duty to children. But too many mothers are pre-occupied with themselves and their own image now, not to mention the vast spending problem too many of them have created. That suddenly changing diapers and wiping asses is not fitting their image and it might break their nails and spoil their lifestyle. It is a selfish attitude that has major ramifications for the future of our planet, race and species, yet can't let that get in the way of selfies, nail manicure, face overs, hair do's and extensions or botox injection to appease the fake fan club on social media, can you? I'm not being a baby factory the selfish cry, good job her own mother didn't think that way or those with that level of ignorance would no longer exist. What about the guardians of the wisdom and experiences of previous generations? passed down from mothers and grandmothers to their children during childhood. An invaluable source of knowledge and above all wisdom, is now largely lost in favor of kindergarten schooling and modern media's commercial propaganda and political indoctrination. The value system our society is built on was then slowly changed from patriot, emotional, moral, spiritual and communal, to focusing on maximum money and power through individual competition in a global setting. Yes all about the image and keeping up with the Jones'. Even so, the newly created materialists are expected to obey authority, not to question what they are taught and certainly not to think for themselves. If we don't think for ourselves, they think for us and they are retards with psychotic tendencies. Why would you allow that?

Is it a lunatic fringe or a full on asylum? The Rockefeller educational plan never intended them to be anything, other than a reliable and easily manageable cogs in the wheels of the global wealthy elite's industries and political power structures. Never mind hypnotic repetitions of the mantras Democracy and Equality, increasingly meaningless. David Rockefeller wrote in his autobiography: We are grateful to the Washington Post, the New York Times, Time Magazine and other great publications whose directors have attended our meetings and respected their promises of discretion for almost 40 years. It would have been impossible for us to develop our plan for the world, if we had been subjected to the lights of publicity during those years. But the world is now more sophisticated and prepared to march towards a world government. The supernational sovereignty of an intellectual elite and world bankers is surely preferable to the national auto-determination practiced in past centuries. A typical arrogant and cold response from a psychopath. Because we could just as easily teach people to be better people, than to reduce them to a level of a bot. But these power hungry and shekel greedy parasites are intimidated by our potential and require us all to be a lower vibration like them, to be their slaves. They think of themselves as advanced, but how can a parasite be advanced? It can cause a lot of damage, but will never advance them on a soul or spiritual level. All elite families and their offspring carry the same psychopathic genes, carry the same attitude that it is all about them only. Carry the same delusions of grandeur, yet will never rise anywhere of real importance. Controlling sheep and bot level people is all so easy, but where are their life tests? Where is their real development? Where is their plan beyond controlling low vibrational people? The answer is, they have none. All that education they go through, yet severely lacking in common sense, morals, principles, manners, righteousness, compassion, empathy and love. What a list to be proud of that is, not! But you carry on counting your shekels and creating an image, under the illusion of you will win out. The answer is you lost the second you started that path. If all was so great in their world, why are they all shitting themselves? If their lives were so great, why are they planning to become bio-bots?

The Rockefeller and Gates families have been close allies for several generations. The Carnegie, Mellon and Ford foundations have also cooperated closely with the Rockefeller projects. Among the various fundamentals of the New World Order is the ability to control access to both energy and food. Without energy the entire industrial and financial structure grinds to a halt, without food, the population becomes easy to control. Henry Kissinger, one of the staunchest propagators of the NWO project, and close collaborator with the Rockefellers, has famously remarked that who controls oil, then synonymous with energy controls the governments of the world, and who controls the food supply, controls the people. This is the way they think, harvesting only, a Rothschild said similar, give me control of your money supply and I care not who makes the rules or laws. I think it was also Kissinger who coined the term useless eaters referring to the broad masses, that will no longer be required as workforce and servants for the "Elite", when robots, computers and AI will do all productive work more cheaply and more reliably than humans. Who should therefore be eliminated by one means or another, before starving masses become a threat to the "Elite". Klaus Schwab said similar in a book written by Schwab called 'Covid-19: The Great Reset'. The excerpt reads: At least 4 billion 'useless eaters' shall be eliminated by the year 2050, by means of limited wars, organized epidemics of fatal rapid-acting diseases and starvation. Reuters and other CIA based clown factcheckers tried to deny it, just like they tried to deny the UN 2021 and 2030 Sustainable Development document. If we look closely, we'll find that the growth of the world population has slowed down in the last century for several reasons. If we look even closer, we shall find that it has slowed down much more in the economically developed countries than in the so called developing, previously under-developed, countries. Which is easily explained by people in developed countries choosing to have fewer children. All very FHSTOS rhetoric that and great to see other people thinking in that manner now. Which, in turn, is due to more education, increased awareness, more choices on how to spend their increased income. But also to less infant mortality and less need to depend on their children in old age. Looking closer still, we find culling of the population already active, even if we cannot know for sure how much of it has been done specifically with that intention.

The principal means by which it has been happening, are:

- 1) More or less constant warfare, estimated to have killed around 100 million people since 1914. It is way more than that, 90M where in Russia alone, with the Bolshevik rout.
- 2) Rockefeller Medicine's drugs, surgery and vaccinations estimated to have killed at least 50 million people since WW1, the vast majority of whom in the last 40 years. Way more than that also. America's third leading cause of death is medical malpractice.
- 3) Industrially produced food causing metabolic illness such as cancer, diabetes, stroke, heart attacks etc. is deemed to have caused incalculable millions of premature deaths during the last century. Yet the Johns Hopkins math clowns tell us the population has doubled in 70 years, turn it in.

One of the most insidious and dangerous of Rockefeller power plays to dominate the world and reduce population is the genetic manipulation of food (GMO). A global campaign has been going on since 1990 to lure farmers to use GMO seeds, that do not produce viable new seeds and therefore have to be bought from the manufacturers every year. The result have been disastrous and tragic for the farmers. GMO research on mice have shown that those fed GMO products develop cancer, and their second or third generation offspring becomes infertile. They have even produced a GMO maize (corn) with an anti-sperm ingredient that makes men sterile. Surprised, anyone? Why would anyone be allowed to produce those products? Stealing from men and women their birthright? Who the hell are these people? The sheer audacity of it all, but the saddest thing is people ignore it, which by ignorance is condoning it. Whilst they not value their lives, there are plenty of us who do. How is that a free will choice? What would happen if they announced prior to launch and let the people decide to use it or not. No, not these psychopaths, they have an arrogance that surpasses everything and seem to believe they are gods. When all of them combined would never produce a single god out of them. They are not gods, they are complete and utter parasites. The final execution plan for the NWO was launched in 1990 after the fall of the Berlin wall and the Soviet Empire. Once the US deep state, aka the globalist mafia, got rid of its only real opponent, the Soviet Union, they saw the way open to finally claim control of the entire planet. Personally I don't agree with that statement, the Soviet Union was ran by the same parasites running America, the Jewish. Cold War was an illusion and a giant money laundering exercise that also created NATO (Rothschilds private army) under false pretenses. NATO also filtered funding out of European countries and their own militaries, to a point where most European countries hardly have a military of note anymore, including the UK. So, on 9/11 of 1990, exactly to the day 11 years before their 9/11 false flag terrorist act in New York City, Papa Bush announced in a voice trembling with emotion the launch of the New World Order, that would make the world into a paradise of peace, affluence and the Rule of Law for everybody, under one benevolent world government. Their rule of Law is Talmudic. Papa Bush bit the dust in 2014 not 2018 for crimes against humanity. This was the starting signal for 30 years of preparation of the global coup that was finally set off with the Covid tale of the Emperor's New Virus, officially launched on March 11, 2020. Please observe the intentional choice of date for this announcement. March 11 is the polar opposite in the calendar of 9/11, and several other major state terrorist acts from the same source have also occurred on March 11. No coincidence or even cohen-cidence. Because of their occultic numbers game, but here are some dates they won't like March 21st and May 23rd. From New World Order to Now Without Order.

MYSTERY SECTION:

Here is a bit of intel for ya. China is again on track to be the biggest millionaire loser globally, with an anticipated net exit of 15,200 millionaires this year, said a report published June 18 by British investment migration consultancy Henley & Partners (H&P). The interesting aspect is XI Jinping has made some interesting Blueprint style policies to China. This has coincided with Chinese President Xi Jinping's crackdown on open displays of wealth and tighter grip on the Chinese economy, with a focus on common prosperity to reduce wealth inequality and promotion of sustainable growth.

Did you know that 26 out of 32 2-and 3-star U. S. Generals that left the U.S. Military went into corporations, that are constructing death machines. Getting salaries of 2-3 million dollars per year. Perhaps the rats are abandoning ship = revolving doors for treason. Obama, aka Barry Soetero, former U.S.

President, had 34 persons with dual citizen-ship working close to him, guess from what country? Did you know that Mossad is working within the Pentagon, even without any Security Clearance, just like their agent Jared Kushner. Also = revolving doors for treason. With 48% of U.S. small companies could not pay their rent bills the previous month. They owe their money to the big corporations that celebrate their demise. = shutting the doors for treason. Remember the 4400 millionaires who left New York? similar numbers are leaving California as well. Remember the billionaire panic and Douglas Rushkoff report, they are all fleeing. Don't think being underground will save you, because it won't. But the clock is ticking down on these harvesters, nowhere to run and nowhere to hide.

Here is an interesting news piece that has much wider implications and ramifications. Think of it in terms of a New World Order must have item. As scientists have made a breakthrough in robotics: a shapeshifting robot that can switch between liquid and metal states to navigate tricky environments without compromising on strength. It is not a breakthrough, it is just introduce at key moments in time. Because they can be both soft and hard, the small, sea cucumber-inspired robots can overcome the limitations of robots that are only one or the other, and thus have the potential to provide greater utility in areas such as electronics assembly and even medical applications. Robot medical applications? Sounds like a lizard symbiote to me. Researchers made the robots navigate obstacle courses, remove or deliver objects to a model of the human stomach, and even liquefy to escape a cage before reforming back into its original humanoid shape. Before reforming back into its humanoid shape, hmm, why would it be shaped humanoid? Giving robots the ability to switch between liquid and solid states endows them with more functionality, says engineer Chengfeng Pan of The Chinese University of Hong Kong in China. There are many potential uses for small robots that can get around places too small or convoluted for humans to manage with typical tools, from finicky repair work to targeted drug delivery. The, we are doing it for humanity line again and it will help us save time, save time for what? But hard materials aren't the best for navigating confined spaces or tight angles, while soft, more flexible robots tend to be weak and more difficult to control. To find a compromise, a team of researchers led by Pan and his colleague, Qingyuan Wang of Sun Yat-sen University in China, turned to nature as a source of inspiration. Animals such as sea cucumbers can alter the stiffness of their tissues to improve load capacity and limit physical damage, while octopuses can alter the rigidity of their arms for camouflage, object manipulation and locomotion.

To design a robot that can do something similar, the researchers needed a non-toxic material that can easily shift between soft and rigid states in ambient temperature. They turned to gallium, a soft metal that has a melting point of 29.76 degrees Celsius (85.57 degrees Fahrenheit) at standard pressure - just a few degrees below the average human body temperature. You can melt gallium just by holding it in your hand. You can melt clowns also by the hand, just by recognizing the power is in our hands. The researchers embedded a gallium matrix with magnetic particles, creating what they call a magnetoactive solid-liquid phase transitional machine. The magnetic particles here have two roles, says mechanical engineer Carmel Majidi of Carnegie Mellon University, one of the senior authors on the team's paper. Carnegie and Mellon families now, someone needs to Chase them away from humanity interference. One is, that they make the material responsive to an alternating magnetic field, so you can, through induction, heat up the material and cause the phase change. But the magnetic particles also give the robots mobility and the ability to move in response to the magnetic field. Ah the magnetic field trick again, just like the veil. We have our own special field, we don't need their type of magnetism. Does anyone ask, what is the magnetic field attracting? Or repulsing? Why are you not repulsed by magnets? After testing to see whether the transition from solid to liquid was reversible, it was, the researchers ran their little robots through a gamut of tests. The robots could leap over small moats, climb over obstacles, and even split up to perform cooperative tasks moving objects around before recombining and resolidifying. Just like the replicator entities and people in the Alt Media were screaming for replicators a decade and a half back. Do you really think they would build anything for our benefit? They even had a little humanoid version shaped like a Lego figure, to melt to escape a little prison cell, seeping through the bars and re-forming on the other side in homage to a scene from the movie Terminator 2. Well I never, isn't Hollywood ever so special as to how they can prophesize the future? Remarkable – not.

When people understand their prophecies are plans, then we can move quicker to eliminate the problem. Same as the biblical people wanting Armageddon or Rapture, go and find a tiny island and destroy each other, then you can have your own Armageddon without bothering us with your lunacy. Next, the team investigated practical applications. They created a model of a human stomach and had the robot engulf and remove a small object contained within it. A useful way, one imagines, to extract swallowed batteries, for example and then perform the reverse operation, delivering an object the way the team hopes it might deliver drugs. What a load of nonsense, notice how they always state it is for medical advancement purposes, when in reality it is all for weaponizing purpose. How many kids swallow batteries each year? That it would require this level of investment and time? Why don't they fix something more common like flu, cancer, heart disease, no it is to prevent some kids swallowing batteries. Apparently 70K kids per year swallow batteries, the greater question is what where the 70K parents doing, whilst kids popped batteries like they are cheerios? For circuit repair, the robots could navigate to and melt onto circuits to act as a conductor and a solder; and even act as a fastener, oozing into threaded screw sockets and solidifying, performing the function of a screw without someone needing to fix it in place. For real-world applications, the phase-transitional machine would need some tweaking. For example, because the human body is higher than the melting point of pure gallium, a robot designed for biomedical purposes could have a gallium-based alloy matrix, that would raise the melting point while maintaining functionality. Future work should further explore how these robots could be used within a biomedical context, Majidi says. Biomedical or bio-bot? What we're showing are just one-off demonstrations, proofs of concept, but much more study will be required to delve into how this could actually be used for drug delivery or for removing foreign objects. What if the foreign objects were us?

Little facts that don't make any sense, hence it becomes a program of a large magnitude with implications still rumbling on today. A total 235,000 Jews were listed in Germany before WW2 and yet Hitler killed or rounded up all of them. Then went onto killing 6 million of them. The figure 6 million in reference to the Jews, was mentioned around 140 times in the world press, between 1880 and 1943. Wasn't that an amazing prophecy, fit to be recorded in a religious book, of how all the world's media were able to forecast the future. Despite all those Jewish deaths and horrible atrocities told to the world, 147,000 Jewish soldiers were listed in the German army after the war. Now that is a mystery.

Headline: Illegal immigrants being housed and trained at American Universities. All of which means they are being trained by intelligence agencies? The great question is, what are they training them for? The captain obvious answer is, civil war against the American people. The greater question then is, who or what are intelligence agents?

Headline 2: Illegal immigrants are being employed as cops in Seattle and other places. Extra layer of enforcement for what? See headline 1 for that answer. This is why there was so many young unattached men being brought through the border. Clearly clowns are planning on taking down America and they don't believe the military or cops will support it. Get ready and prepared for war on American soil.

Following watching a video of a girl noticing her mom was not the same person coming out of hospital. Her mums personality, face and height were all different. Is this another example of body switching that goes on in hospitals? Replaced by clones, synths or bots? Let's look at the word hospital, which they say originated from the word Hospice that came from the Knights Hospitallers. A murderous and looting rampage group employed by the church. But it was stated that it was a lodging center for travelers, not a hospice as now, which is essentially somewhere you go to die. So a hospital came out of some dodgy monastic order. But ponder on this next section, as the implications are enormous to your understanding of what hospitals potentially really are. Hospit means host or guest, Al means god. So are those going into hospital becoming hosts or guest of the gods? Is that why people go out of body within the hospital? Is that why the original cannot speak, because they are hosted by a fake god? Is this why we have similar names for other place to stay or rest, hotel and hostel? Hosted by El? Given the Gazan issue and the hostages situation, who is or who are the host of the ages? A hospital has an Intensive Care Unit section or better known as I C(see) U(you) – I see you, but the great question is: when are we going to see them?

This is an interesting and exciting story out of Russia and it's recent gathering in St. Petersburg. That has FHSTOS and the Blueprint littered through it, coincidence? You decide. Headline: The Western – Nazi International – hegemony is over. So what is the replacement? Well the Blueprint laid it all out of a shared world, resources and about becoming the collective. But here is the Russian plan laid out this week. Russia plans to fight for a new polycentric world, said Foreign Ministry spokeswoman Maria Zakharova. The concepts of hegemony and global dominance, to which the Collective West clings, have no place in the multipolar world order, which is already becoming a reality. During a panel discussion on new norms for international relations at the St. Petersburg International Economic Forum (SPIEF), Zakharova criticized Western governments for resisting the structural changes that have already begun, regarding the self-organization of nations and their interactions with other states. That means countries are starting to work together against the Jewish led coalition known as the West. We are talking about polycentrism, a departure from previous norms and we see the desperate resistance of Rome and the Collective West. All very FHSSTOS to our story. They see the norm differently, as their own dominance, as a world order based on one rule, that they must dominate as before, and that everyone should only do what the dominant allows them to do, she stated. This is why those clowns don't have a plan for Earth Restoration, because with restoration, they could not control it. She added by saying, that the drive for dominance has only led humanity to monstrous tragedies, including colonialism and Nazism. Colonialism and Nazism are both Jewish control systems. Today it is hegemonism, an obsession with domination, a painfully pseudo-messianic idea of the global mission of Rome and the West. But neither people nor states can declare themselves missionaries, only history can prove whether their mission was good or based on unsound ideas, Zakharova said. She added that the ideas of global dominance, of the exceptionalism of some nations amid the destruction of ethnic and cultural identities of others, have been repeatedly voiced by Western leaders. She went on to say that these ideas are not shared by the global majority, who have already embraced the concept of Multipolarity. We must not forget that they are a minority, the Collective West, their worldview is not shared by anyone but them, citing memoranda adopted by multinational blocs such as the Russia-led BRICS group, the Shanghai Cooperation Organization, the African Union and others, in which member states commit to forming a multipolar world order. The SCO covers 3 billion people or half of humanity. Is that revealing that 2 billion people have vanished? Because 3 is half of 6, unless you went to common core lessons or Johns Hopkins school of non-math. BRICS covers more than 30% of the Earth's land mass, 45% of the world's population and 33% of global GDP which 3% more than the GDP of the G7. Zakharova noted that even in the West, some analysts argue that the U.S. has not been world hegemony for a long time. That is correct, the illusion of a world super power is a created myth, it was just designated to play a dirty role by banksters and EL-ites, but in the 1980's into the 1990's the energy was being withdrawn, it was never returned. In preparation for the end of the Federal Reserve western based harvesting to the Eastern based version of harvesting called BRICS. But then in 2007-08 Marduk pulled the plug on them all, ultimately doing us all a favor. Yes he did it for his own ends, but in overview that was a tipping point for the people to rise and bring down the fake controllers. The West's actions in the international arena have led to the destabilization of world politics. However, until there are significant changes in policy and ideology, Russia and its global allies have a long battle ahead of them to form a truly polycentric world order, she said. Although our cause is not simple, it is dignified and noble. And we will walk this path as a global majority. However, we don't call it a mission, we call it our purpose and our objective. All very the Santies that last line. It is a mission and purpose we at THI are on, a bloodless sacrifice mission and purpose. But as I stated in other shows, BRICS the original was not fit for purpose and a new organization must unfold from within it. BRICS was originally Brazil, Russia, India, China and South Africa, but with more joining in now, it no longer should operate under that banner. Perhaps it needs to be called as is, The Polycentric Coalition, or the TPC.

ENDING PIECE:

All being well we should have another two-fer next week, with part 2 of The true horrors of this world. Not as graphic or shocking as the first but a sad and brutal story that has to be told. You often hear about people citing the progress has been made by the people over the last 100 years. It's remarkable they say, yet where is the evidence to support it? Have the people improved? Are people more intelligent? Are people healthier? Have diseases been eliminated? Have more drugs improved our health? Have cars, trains, motor cycles, boats or planes become more efficient? Has the global economy improved? Has the global starvation improved? Are we safer today than 100 years ago? Is the planet in better shape environmentally? Has science improved? Has our understanding life, living, freedom and liberty improved? Have governments and the services improved? Has the church improved? Have charities improved? Do people care, love or empathize more? Do people have a greater understanding of life and living? Have schools improved? Has any profession improved their understanding or knowledge of their jobs? Has spirituality improved? The answer to all those questions are NO! There has been zero improvements on behalf of the people or the interactions with things that affect their lives. Otherwise there would be a plethora of gods walking amongst us. There has only been progress of one thing in that time period, Machines and their technology. The rise of the machines, the rise of technology, the rise of the computer, the rise of the phones, the rise of microchips, the rise of bots and with it a whole series of pre-Orwellian surveillance technology. Technology will be our downfall I warned of years ago, with good reasoning. All their technology are external control mechanisms, when we have all the internal technology to improve everything about life and living here and elsewhere. Remember a pill, cream, medicine or a supplement are all external savior programs. That can be used rarely, but never long term and never for every event. As it negates your own ability to fix it. All technology is also external, that can be used for beneficial terms, but not on this world currently. As our Blueprint stated, we need a full overhaul of all technology and assessed it benefits for humanity, any not or is just for convenience, which is essentially a laziness program, needs to be stopped or pushed back. Excessive kitchen gadgets equals laziness, as a prime example. All of which denies the food the consciousness input of the consumer of it. So all we have had in advancements is technology and the rise of the machines. Where does that lead to? A robot world and the replicator technology? Living metal beings that transform into things. It is not like they never warned us, the Transformer series, the Terminator series, the Stargate series. Where a world becomes overran by machines and bots. In a world where certainly in the Western world has been formulated by materialism, but there is a requirement for materialism to flourish, shekels and credit. If hundreds of thousands of jobs are going to be eliminated, maybe millions, where is the shekels and credits coming from with no jobs? If Source was dead he would be turning in his grave, that the crown of creation is allowing technology to supersede us. Being operated, controlled and enslaved by inferior beings and entities, it is not a good look. All that can change in the blink of an eye, if you desire that change and working harder to change within and so then without. Without that concerted effort, we run the risk of our lives being dictated for us, that has and will never augur too well. If you are not prepared to change you, how do you expect others to change things for you? Is that not you operating as another version of slave master? Why would you not work on yourself? when you know the benefits of it, particularly in light of the Empowerment show. Why not go forward into the future with a new you and not be permanently stuck like an elastic band is attached to you and being pulled into the past. Laziness to a creative being is a disease, time to heal thyself and be creative within and without. Or you can sit back and wait for the real life War of the Worlds scenario, your choice.
