

There are times when you have to take a step back and observe and also record what is unfolding here and now and this shorter show does all of that.

An impact show.

A deep shorter dive into not the past this time, but the present and our immediate future.

This is an extraordinary piece in many ways and highlights the dire issues all Americans are now facing.

The great question that should be on every Americans lips is, wtf is going on?

I wish to thank Laura Knight of SOTT.net for this article and as always I will add my input and insight into it.

But these are extraordinary times we are facing, almost unprecedented and so this is important to document and put into a wider perspective and audience.

This may have been the August event they were planning, but such is the panic now amongst the EL-ites, they acted with haste and has raised more questions than answers and raised more concerns of people lower down the chain of command.

This is something the top people I have spoken to recently need to be aware of and take corrective courses of action.

Behind all this skullduggery there have been and will be distraction events ongoing to deflect from the narrative.

The implications behind all this are enormous.

It covers the events around the time Biden stepped down or did he?

I was given personal information that there was an emergency incident on Air Force One just prior to Biden stepping down.

Was that incident significant and also indicative?

Here is the article:

The beltway is abuzz with some of the wildest rumors imaginable. Is Joe Biden even alive? is being whispered through the storied halls of the capitol.

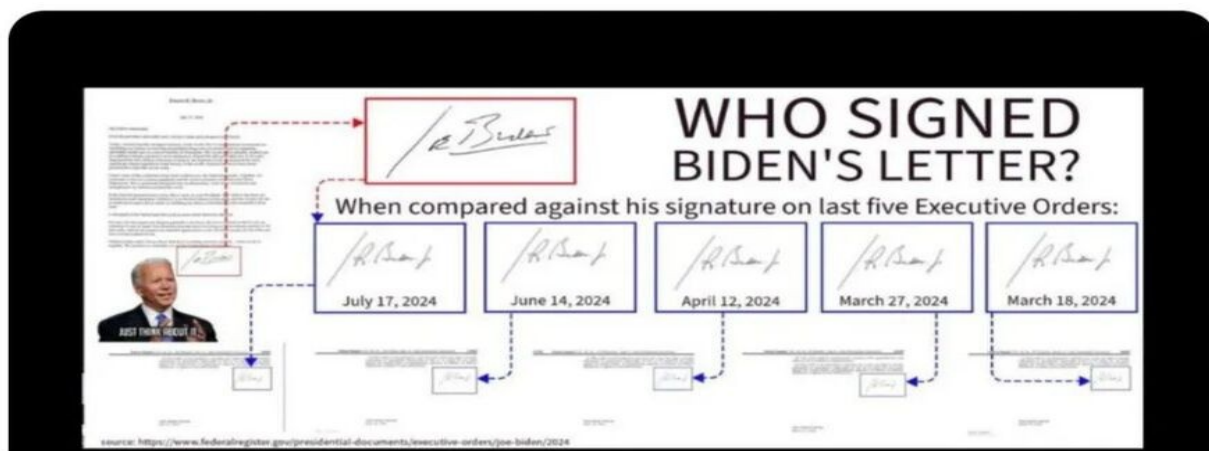

The unelected despot-in-chief seemingly renounced his election campaign via a suspicious Twitter note on a lazy Sunday afternoon, after which he hasn't been seen or heard from since. Many are now pointing out the strange idiosyncrasies surrounding the unprecedented event, including the lack of letterhead or that Biden's signature appeared to be doctored:

At first I didn't think much of this but upon further review, HOLY SH*T.

This was a legit coup today. It's not his signature. This is a blatant criminal forgery and a coup.

Why no word from Biden himself?

In the fog of the assassination attempt, the Democrats initiated a coup.

Recall that Pelosi had recently remarked Biden's forced exit would be done either the easy way, or the hard way, with this piece stating the following:

“Nancy made clear that they could do this the easy way or the hard way,” said one Democrat familiar with private conversations who was granted anonymity to speak candidly. “She gave them three weeks of the easy way. It was about to be the hard way.”

Now there are all kinds of rumors about Biden's health, including that he may have had two 'secret' medical episodes recently, which were hidden from the public and that's not counting the likely phony Covid diagnosis.

Most shocking was the fact that even Biden's closest aides didn't learn of his announcement of withdrawal until after the fact, and from social media at that.

That is not how things should happen as everything normally goes through official channels.

In particular something as important as this.

More so in light of Biden's campaign speeches, where he stated categorically to his followers he would not quit.

Is that suggestive he was pushed?

Furthermore, everything in-house has been managed by Jeff Zients.

Some may recall he's the White House Chief of Staff who was fingered as the second most powerful man in Washington and secret shadow hand, by a White House insider recorded undercover by James O'Keefe's crew.

Now there are all sorts of rumors flying:

Laura Loomer
@LauraLoomer

BREAKING:

At 10 am ET today, White House Chief of Staff Jeff Zients is holding a MANDATORY call from all White House staff, followed by a call for all political appointees in the Biden administration at 11 am.

We may be getting close to a full blown Resignation from @JoeBiden.

His medical condition is now terminal, from what sources have told me.

9:37 AM · Jul 22, 2024 · 2.6M Views

So who or what is Jeffery Zients?

Jeffrey Dunston Zients is an American business executive and a government official in the administration of U.S. president Joe Biden. Zients is currently serving as the 31st White House chief of staff.

Earlier in the Biden administration, he served as counselor to the president and White House coronavirus response coordinator from January 2021 to April 2022.

During the presidency of Barack Obama, Zients served as director of the National Economic Council from February 2014 to January 2017, served as acting director of the Office of Management and Budget in 2010 and from 2012 to 2013, and led the emergency effort to fix healthcare.gov, after the troubled launch of that critical component of the Affordable Care Act.

Before entering government, Zients was an executive at firms including the Advisory Board Company and CEB.

Zients joined the Biden administration after taking leave from his position as chief executive officer of Cranemere, an investment firm. He was a member of Facebook's board of directors from 2018 to 2020.

Zients was born in Washington, D.C., and raised in Kensington, Maryland. His family is Jewish.

Yet again highlighting the roles of Jewish in prominent positions again and interfering in the process.

People may ask why are Jews labeled that way by this show, because the evidence is overwhelming.

Jews are in every prominent position, either up front or hiding behind a spouse and influencing from there.

Jews are the head of every department or institute of society, yet the world is going to pot.

Why does no one ever blame them given the control they have over everything, from banking, media, film industry, porn industry, AI industry and social media to name but a few.

Where is the accountability?

Todd Starnes said: "Something smells.

Why would President Biden announce such a momentous and historic decision on a Sunday afternoon on a social media platform? The letter he posted was not written on White House stationery and his signature appeared to be photoshopped. Also, Biden's signature was underlined and typically he does not underline his name.

His staff only found out once the message had been posted on X and Cabinet members were notified by the Chief of Staff, not Biden."

The US chief of staff is Jeffery Zients, who we have just referenced.

Why is it always a Jew involved? Remember Kamala Harris' husband is also a Jew, Douglas Emhoff who THI has done an expose on in the past for skullduggery.

"The last time the public saw Biden he feebly walked down the stairs of Air Force One and had to be physically assisted into the presidential limo.

He has not been seen in public since.

How do we know Biden wrote that letter? And how do we know that Biden posted the letter on his X page? There wasn't even an official White House photograph of the moment.

His brother, Frank Biden, told CBS News that health absolutely was the deciding factor in the decision. And then he told CBS selfishly, I will have him back to enjoy whatever time he has left."

Whatever time he has left sounds very ominous to me.

"Is President Biden still alive? Is he awake and alert? Is he in command of his faculties? With respect, we need to see proof of life."

It's clear there is far more going on under the hood than meets the eye.

Firstly, it all ties into the Trump assassination attempt and ongoing Congressional testimony of Director of Secret Service Kimberly Cheatle. The testimony has revealed there are likely a lot of things being hidden from the public, about the would-be assassin Thomas Crooks and his potential dealings with the FBI.

Tellingly, Cheatle refused to answer if Crooks was acting alone.

In reality no lone gunman acts alone, when you have insidious programs like MK Ultra.

An investigation by the Heritage foundation, showed that a digital device visiting Crooks' home multiple times has been geo-located to the vicinity of an FBI office in Washington DC in late June.

The Heritage Foundation are the same people who came up with Project 2025, does that add an added layer of mystique behind it all?

Why again is the FBI connected to many of these people caught doing violent acts or false flag events?

We have reported the FBI involvement in many other incidents, like the Gretchen Whitmer potential kidnapping event and others.

At which point will the Justice Department take a long and hard look at these consistencies and anomalies?

The regime is being laid bare before our eyes. What are the chances that literally only a week or two after the failed assassination of his chief rival, the alleged most popular president in history with allegedly with 80+ million votes, unceremoniously drops out and now there's even talk of an imminent resignation from the presidency. Things are off the Richter scale of uncanniness.

Speaker Mike Johnson ✓

@SpeakerJohnson

At this unprecedented juncture in American history, we must be clear about what just happened. The Democrat Party forced the Democrat nominee off the ballot, just over 100 days before the election.

Having invalidated the votes of more than 14 million Americans who selected Joe Biden to be the Democrat nominee for president, the self-proclaimed 'party of democracy' has proven exactly the opposite.

The party's prospects are no better now with Vice President Kamala Harris, who co-owns the disastrous policy failures of the Biden Administration. As second in command and a completely inept border czar, Harris has been a gleeful accomplice — not only in the destruction of American sovereignty, security, and prosperity, but also in the largest political coverup in U.S. history. She has known for as long as anyone of his incapacity to serve.

Regardless of the chaos in the current White House, our adversaries around the globe should be reminded that the U.S. Congress, the U.S. military, and the American people are fully prepared and committed to defend our interests both at home and abroad.

If Joe Biden is not fit to run for President, he is not fit to serve as President. He must resign the office immediately. November 5 cannot arrive soon enough.

1:34 PM · Jul 21, 2024 · 56.1K Views

The speaker is right, they have just dismissed their own voters, not even officially but by social media.

It doesn't matter which party it is, as both are two sides of the same coin.

All those donations, time spent promoting Biden, all the purchases of stickers, flag and placards, all the campaigning and paying extortionate prices to attend rallies, all just dismissed despite Biden telling them all he was staying.

What it reveals is, they really don't give a shit about we the people, they will lie and cheat us at every opportunity.

Johnson's description of Harris is also true, another corrupt cheat and worse a failure at what she does, but that cheating and failure now places her as the front runner for the President! Do you not see how bad that looks America?

Johnson's depiction of the US is all fine and dandy is quite frankly, absurd.

There is no evidence to support it and plenty of evidence against it.

America has never been fine and dandy, only a slush fund and play toy of the EL-ites, all added to by Disney and Hollywood who both deal in fantasy.

Why have Disney and Hollywood scaled back making movies? Because life and politics these days are one giant movie on a daily basis, all the world is a stage remember.

November 5th can't come soon enough he said, reminds me of a child's nursery rhyme in the UK, Do you remember the 5th of November, in relation to Guy Fawkes who tried to destroy the UK Parliament building.

Perhaps that will be indicative again for this year? Whether it is a false flag or an uprising.

Remember we reported 4 years back about Pelosi and gang planning an attack on the Capitol Building?

I said before: we're in uncharted territory.

Firstly, it must be said that the ensuing circumstances after the Trump shooting were bizarre and unprecedented: neither the FBI, DOJ, nor DHS even held an official press conference about the shooting. There were no loud bipartisan calls for investigation, or uproar in general; things simply went on as before, quietly settling down before being swept under the rug. The Democrats bided their time and even gradually rolled out conspiracy theories claiming Trump had staged the shooting.

But what if it was staged? And Trump was involved in it? These are the questions all must ask, not follow stupid party lines rhetoric. As I stated in a previous show, it all looked very staged to me.

The proceedings reeked of massive coverup as the FBI continued to stonewall all inquiries, denying FOIA requests, with Secret Service head Cheatle perjuring herself in front of Congress by refusing to answer key questions, including: how many shell casings were recovered on the roof by the shooter's body? She said she knows, but can't say, how convenient, as it would immediately determine the presence of a second shooter, given that we have expert audio analysis of each fired shot. Alternately, it could simply point to incompetence, deliberate or not, as it would confirm the vast amount of shots the shooter was allowed to fire off, before initiating a response.

This included the unprecedented CrowdStrike global 'system failure', which was clearly no 'coincidence'. Most likely, the event was used to wipe FBI servers of complicity in the Trump hit, particularly since CrowdStrike has powerful links to the FBI, the company's Chief Security Officer and President of Services is retired FBI Executive Assistant Director Shawn Henry:

So, the FBI are involved in another link to potential skullduggery, I see a pattern, but how many others do?

...eroded.

Yet again the example of law enforcement and agencies joining these rogue and all-encompassing corporations and acting as a contractor. But ultimately these companies like CrowdStrike are just fronts for the FBI and the Intelligence Services.

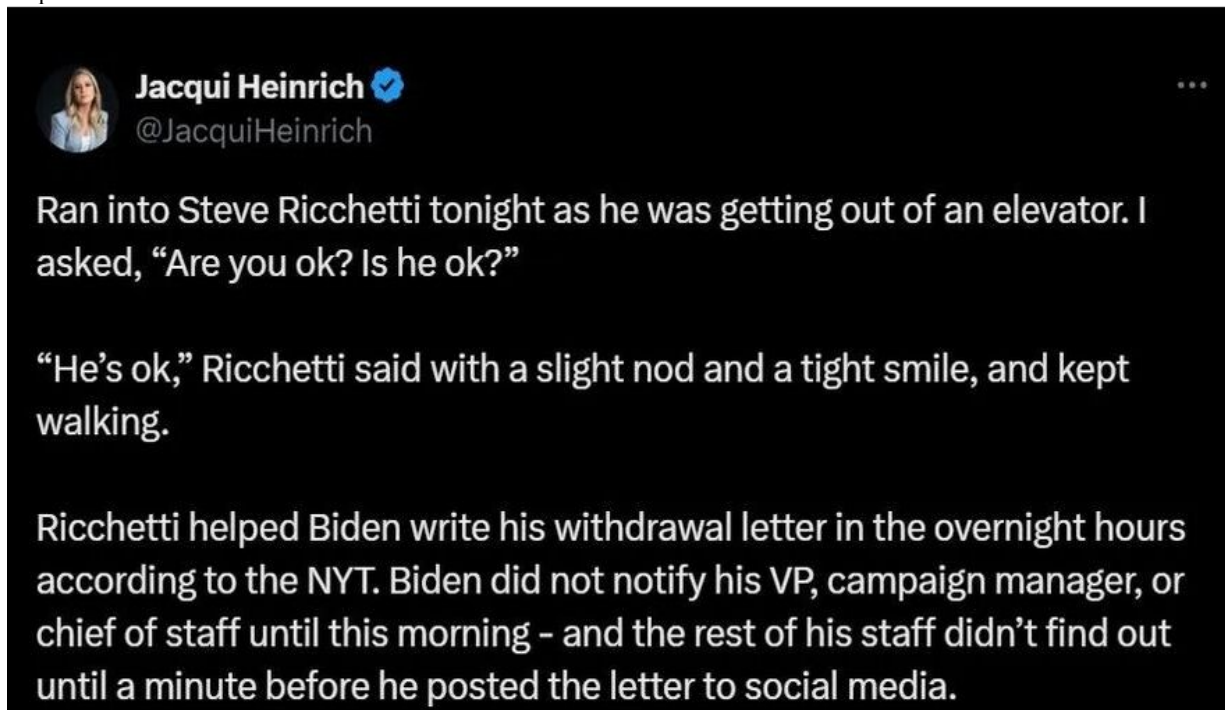

So, a big crash of the servers came just after the assassination attempt, when someone in the crowd was struck and killed. Perhaps it should be called strike the crowd?

Incidentally, has anyone seen or heard of any news on the person in the audience who was allegedly killed? No me either.

Because it was more important the acting demi god on the stage had a cut ear, than someone who was killed.

CrowdStrike strategy of one team and one fight, but which team and who are they fighting?

Now it's been admitted that Biden's Counselor Steve Ricchetti was the one that helped the president with the tweet, that wrote the fateful election drop-out tweet for Biden.

Ongoing events have peeled back the veil on the inner workings of the deep state, giving us an in-depth glimpse of just how little democracy there is to be found in the lurid bowels of America.

Newsflash for people who throw these cliched words around like democracy, we have never had a democracy as we understand it.

If we had a democracy then lockdowns and forced jabs would never have taken place.

We have to stop accepting their mind memery and the illusions we all have about their words and their definitions.

There is no left or right wing, it is two sides of the same coin arguing with each other to provide distraction and divide and conquer.

People say they are a Conservative, my reply would be ok then what are you conserving? I would imagine I will get numerous frowns and asked what am I talking about and therein lies the problem.

Because as a Conservative, if you cannot define what you are conserving, perhaps ultimately you are serving the con?

You have never had a democracy as you understand it, not now and not ever, democracy is a fancy word for a control system.

As is Socialism and Capitalism.

Communism by its definition offers the best hope, as it encourages community, but not when tyrants run it their own way.

America being operated by the US and the U.S. operates under Fascism, which is a thinly disguised veil from the real ism, Zionism.

Once most people understand that, then we can provide a solution, but repeating their labels without having a real understanding what they mean, ultimately is playing into us all being slaves.

The DNC forewent any real democratic nomination process in the primaries this year, using various tricks to keep real candidates off the ballot or suppressed, as in the case of Robert Kennedy, such as anomalously not allowing debates. This effectively took the democratic process of nominating a candidate out of the public's hands and strictly into the cartel-like mechanism of the DNC, which in effect chooses the candidate themselves. This is particularly the case given that the DNC delegate system itself, is an intentionally Byzantine webwork of lobbyists and corporate interests.

This is the same tried and true tactic used previously when Bernie Sanders was sabotaged out of the primaries; the fraudulent political parties merely appoint whomever they want as candidate, with assistance from the bought-and-paid-for regime media, which is able to suppress any candidate in a number of ways: such as simply giving them no air time, or most notably, using arcane rules to exclude the candidate from CNN-sponsored televised debates, as in the case of Kennedy.

But that has always been the reality, most people just didn't see it.

People are given their choices of voting only, never has there been a people's choice, because the system never allows it.

They only put forward the classic duality choice, case in point Robert Kennedy Jr. yet he is a candidate and the system and the media decides that he is not allowed in debates or air time.

All of which reveals it is a closed shop and the public are forced into their two candidates only, both of which are two sides of the same coin, both of which have been selected by AIPAC and so the status quo of the clowns remains.

It is time people stopped following the illusions and get real.

Also, recall how Biden was effectively couped by his donor class, which simply cut off funding, proving who has the true last say in American elections.

Stephen Miller   @StephenM · 16h

He didn't "give up power." Donors froze his bank accounts. It was a soft coup. One that invalidated an entire democratic primary process.

Fareed Zakaria  @FareedZakaria · 23h

History being made, a rare political leader who gives up power.
x.com/joebiden/statu...

Sean Davis  @seanmdav · 19h

The regime tried to imprison and assassinate the leading candidate for president. When that failed, the regime launched a coup against the other candidate. The regime calls this "democracy."

Is this really what the Founding Fathers envisioned as a thriving Democracy?

But the Founding Fathers is another illusion, that paid service to the Crown, not America.

In reality, the Founding Fathers initiated a coup on the land known as America and turned it into The United States, controlled by the Jewish led Crown of England.

The Founding Fathers is more illusionary mind memery, that we must let go of, to be able to move forward.

Of course this is an age old process, we've just never been witness to it in so unvarnished a manner.

Not true, we just haven't been paying enough attention.

Even Washington Post was forced to gag at the un-democratic nature of it all, and in a new piece today pushed for a return to a more elective rather than selective process for next month's national convention:

All of which is very interesting as the Washington Post and all the other MSM received our book.

Yet Mr. Biden's decision creates an opportunity for a reset, not only for his party but also for U.S. politics generally, through a competitive nomination process among future national leaders. Barack Obama was a stronger candidate in 2008, and maybe even a better president, because Hillary Clinton competed so fiercely with him during a marathon primary season. Though this sort of vetting process isn't replicable, there is time for Democrats to scrutinize the top of the ticket.

The logistics of a compressed nominating contest would not be hard. France just held snap elections without a hitch. All the delegates and superdelegates are already selected and set to convene in Chicago. Democrats would not even have to schedule primaries: Debates among the top contenders would do.

The problem seems to be the elites are revolting, and AOC has claimed that behind the scenes they're not happy with Harris as the pick: Then there is a video of that piece on Tik Tok from @davidvoxmullen, describing how Robert Kennedy Jr now has a pathway to victory.

It's quite interesting, the language she chooses.

And you know sometimes words have two meanings, the elites are revolting – indeed.

They are interested not only in removing the president, but removing the whole ticket, irrevocable proof that we're witnessing an ongoing coup.

But if the Democrat elites don't want Kamala, then who is it even pushing her to begin with? It's hard to say, though there's whispers that she's the in-house Clinton family pick, while the Obama family, Dons of the Chicago political mafia are against her, evidenced by the fact that Barack's only official message thus far, prominently omitted mentioning Kamala and instead stated he looks forward to a newly chosen Democratic candidate.

In short, that would make it a House Clinton vs. House Obama internecine war.

Or there is a missing component the California political mafia running Harris, of Brown, Newsome and Pelosi.

Plus we are about 60% into this show and not one of these political commentators have mentioned the captain obvious choice, of AIPAC.

Is it fear? Or is it blindness? Either way, again it is time for people to call it out.

Someone said today that this coming election will in fact be the first since 1976 to not feature a dynastic Bush, Clinton, or Biden somewhere on the ticket; the only quibble is that in '76 Bush was not the final VP nominee, but was a candidate at the Republican National Convention, though he did officially run in '80.

48 years of 3 crime families, but Harris is connected to a new one and Trump is connected to the worst family of crime, the Jewish EL-ites.

All in all, we're witnessing extraordinary events taking place at extraordinary speeds, packaged in a veneer of normality, so as to keep us from lifting our snouts from the animal farm trough. Circumstances that once happened every few decades are now occurring days and weeks apart.

That is the time and so the events speeding up we revealed back in 2015.

After 2025 it will begin to slow down and be more spaced out again.

We've had a president be shot, only to be eclipsed by the first presidential withdrawal from reelection since Lyndon B. Johnson in 1968; and the fun's not even over yet.

Remember the Kent State incident around that time as well, is that a prophecy or will it be cohen-cidence?

Will there be a repeat event this year on a campus?

Speculation is now strong that Biden will end up outright resigning, particularly as that would give the unpopular Kamala the best chance at beating Trump, by wrapping her in a cloak of validation from having served a few months as acting president.

As of this writing, one of the most bizarre things I've seen has taken place: Kamala, landing in her Delaware campaign HQ, did a press conference from which she spoke with a disembodied Biden over the phone, the same Biden who's supposed to be somewhere in Delaware himself, but has not been seen in person or public in five whole days.

 Matt Walsh  @MattWalshBlog · 1h

This is the last time Joe Biden was seen. It was five days ago. Nobody knows where he is, what he's doing, if he's okay, or who is running the country at the moment.

© Matt Walsh/X

Oddly, Kamala almost slips up and calls Biden's voice a recording, before quickly catching herself and saying phone "call".

Daniel Stickle on X: "Kamala slips and says "Joe, I know you are still on the recor, the call". I thought it was recording even before this was brought to my attention by Sky News. https://t.co/vuenl05XDj" / X

And here's a second, longer video of Biden calling in to the HQ, offering his first 'live' words since yesterday's baffling withdrawal.

Lord Bebo on X: "us President Biden calls in to campaign staffers in Wilmington, Delaware: "I know yesterday's news was surprising and it was hard for you to hear but it was the right thing to do ... The name has changed at the top of the ticket, but the mission hasn't changed at all." https://t.co/ZIFxjx19Uj" / X

Meanwhile, regime media and its many shills and apparatchiks are already doing a cleanup job on Biden's historically disastrous presidency:

But great for whom, Mr. McFaul?

Because in reality land and not Disney and Hollywood, Biden has been a total disaster and embarrassment to America. We have lost our morals, principles, scruples and our standing with most people around the world.

How is that described as being great Mr. McFaul?

You are completely deluded like the masses.

But Biden was no worse than Trump, Obama, Bush, Clinton or all the others certainly since 1933 and possibly all the way back to the first President.

An unmitigated disaster and no amount of Disneyesque sugar coating will appease that.

I can only repeat, be prepared for events to continue spiraling into unexpected vectors, as it's clear that even the elites are undergoing a major crisis amongst themselves, with no clear consensus on a workable path forward.

They might not have one, but we do, it's called The New Blueprint for Humanity.

There only real option may be to target Trump again, as winning the election fairly is at this point a nonstarter.

No election has been fair, this is what these people need to understand, it is not a new phenomena, but very old.

For now, all eyes are on Kamala's VP picks, the pool of which allegedly includes such marquee headliners as:

Gavin Newsome, California Mafia and related to Pelosi.

Pete Buttigieg, is another disciple of Harvard and Oxford UK and heavily involved with his male partner in the LGBTQ program.

JB Pritzker, born in California and of Jewish descent.

Another candidate that is causing issues and people calling it out lies in relation to another pick Josh Shapiro, yet again another Jewish person promoted for the corridors of power.

With so many already in most corridors of power globally, at which point does their incompetence, never mind the fact they are all Jewish, come to the fore?

It stands to reason, if so many of the same nationality are running all the world's organizations and it fails, all of them are failing, perhaps those in charge should accept the fact they are the failure and step down.

Then we can try something different that hasn't failed yet, as they were never given an opportunity.

But of course the backdrop to all of this is, you cannot criticize the Jews for anything, even genocide, without the mind memory bots screaming antisemitic.

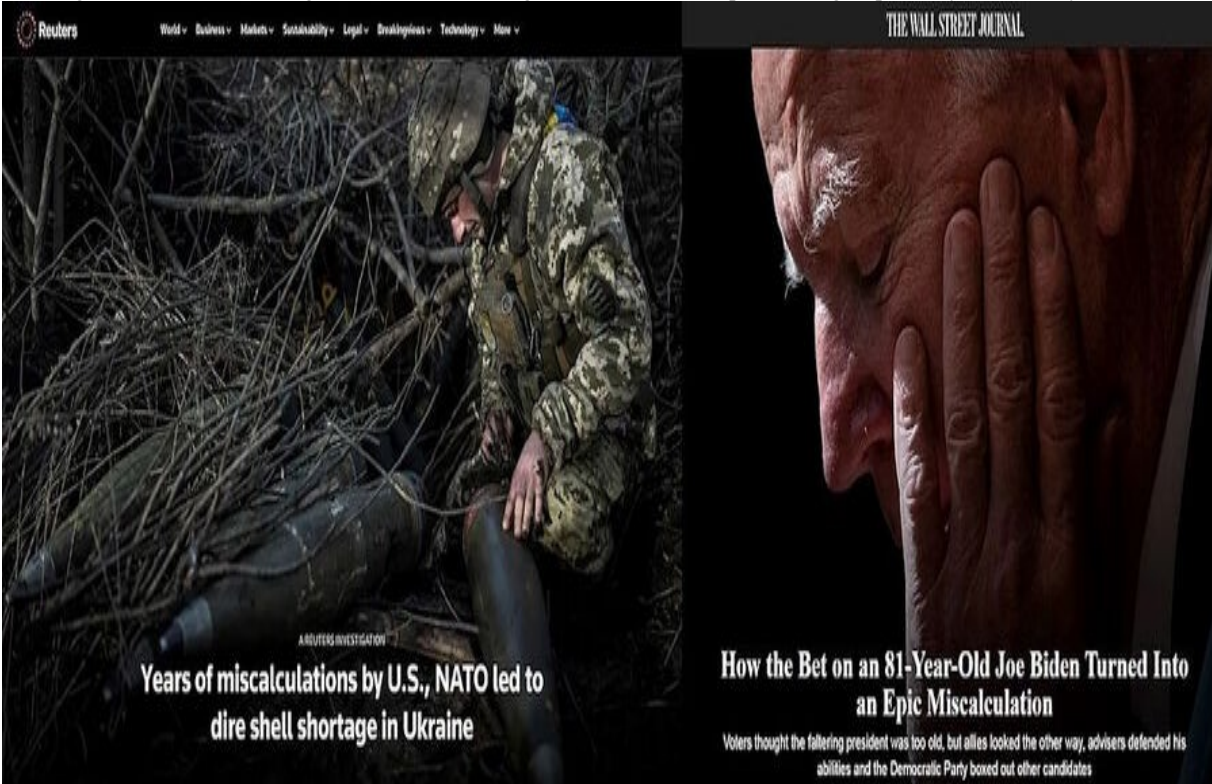

Those people need to grow up, all are equal in law.

A shortlist of Democrats who could be a vice presidential pick for Harris

© CNN

Things are only going to get more interesting from here. And might I mention how fitting it is that the Biden regime's late-hour collapse is being so perfectly mirrored by his Ukrainian project.

© Reuters/Wall Street Journal

Remember, it was Soros himself who said that no man has been more committed to the Ukrainian scheme than Biden.

Of course, none of this comes as a surprise, and in fact some of our earliest predictions here from last year, were that the Biden admin would try to dump Ukraine before the election, if it could not generate any battlefield success for this very reason: that Ukraine's devastating defeat would pose one of the gravest threats to Biden's reelection chances, tarnishing his legacy. And what do you know, Biden's sagging popularity has tracked accordingly with Ukraine's slowly-diminishing battlefield prospects, to become an inextricably fatal thorn in his hairy blond backside.

Now with fates entwined, like ancient star-crossed lovers, hand-in-hand they sink together into the grave of their own making.

But Biden is a symptom and the effect and was never the cause.

Trump is also the effect and not the cause either.

The cause is foreign interference on a massive scale, that too few will speak of, never mind take actions against.

Do we have to install a Nationalist Dictator to be able to get rid of this problem? Is that what it is going to take? Or can we formulate a plan for their step down and appoint people who are only interested in serving the people?

This is not rocket science, it is basic adult thinking.

Politicians in overview are the peasants in the Gladiatorial ring thrown in against the Lions of Judah.

They are sacrifice pawns who are paid well to do what their masters tell them to do.

But then there is the fear program, the blackmail and leverage program and the pedophile program, all of which delays the inevitable.

The reason I say inevitable is, the truth is going to come out about everyone, so eventually the blackmail and leveraging will break down anyway.

To deal with that I came up with a solution called full disclaimer for full disclosure.

Whereby the "punishment" would involve those people working for and by the people on a basic wage.

The pedophiles would be removed from society as that is not forgivable, particularly the more extreme elements of it.

We cannot fix the mess operating the same way as before, it needs a radical overhaul of how we have been operating on all levels.

The fraud and corruption has gone so far, it can never be fixed.

It requires a complete overhaul on all levels, none more so than the people themselves.

We have badly lost our way and descended into low vibration, lazy minded slaves, with poor and non-cooperative behaviors between us.

We have danced to the slave masters tune for too long and it is way past our time to rise.

KAMALA or is it the Kali Ma?

What was Netanyahu's role in the above proceedings?

I was wondering as to when this would rear its head again, as it is funny that no one believed me in December 2020 when I said access to the Trust is closed until further notice and I warned it will not be opening anytime soon.

Kim Goguen the Trustee in name only at this point, continued to spin tales to her sheep like followers the Trust funds were coming, knowing privately they wouldn't.

She knows full well as to why and it is high time she was honest about her role in why the Trust was closed down.

I was asked a few questions recently to do with the Trust, that I will answer here.

Some may ask why is there a reference to the Trust or Trustee within the show, what is the correlation, by the end you will see.

1) Global Collateral Asset Accounts = Accounts and Assets belonging to one of the 6.000 Trusts.

That are thrown into and under the formerly named Manna World Holding Trust?

Yes there was over 6000 individual trusts largely held by the EL-ite families and other secret clubs, housed within off shore accounts.

Those accounts were being used for nefarious purposes which goes against the principles of the Trust funds.

So, where and when possible many of those accounts were put back into the main Trust.

That angered the bloodline families and their fiduciary Anna Von Reitz, demanding the return of the funds.

Yet when she was requested to name the owner of the account, where the account was held, the account numbers to verify, she refused to answer.

2) Have some Elites tried to hijack the Manna World Holding Trust under the name of Global Collateral Asset Accounts?

All the EL-ites funds came from the Trust, even the Rothschild's started their world empire with a $20M credit from the Trust in the early 1500's.

But they were loans and under the Trust law they have to be returned, instead they used it with the previous Trustees approval, Marduk, to loot from it and build their empires.

But the debt and loans still remained as pledges to the Trust.

They never paid back their pledges and so the assets were confiscated and placed back into the Trust under the name of Manna World Holding Trust, which was later changed as Jesper Ellermann was playing double agent for the EL-ites.

3) Has some Elites had their access to the Global Collateral Asset Accounts under the banner of, and as the collateral for, the Bretton Woods Institutions?

Yes as revealed above and yes some of the Bretton Woods agreement was also about looting the Trust for their own personal gain. Until Marduk pulled the plug on them all in 2007, which then led immediately to the global financial crash. The ones with the most interest in the Trust are the same ones who looted it for their own personal empires. Anna Von Reitz as I have said is the fiduciary to the bloodline families and they want all their monies back. Except they all owe more in pledges than the assets that were sequestered. Even the Trustee herself stood to gain a personal fortune of $8-900B from the Romanov family line.

4) Who has the access codes to the Global Collateral Asset Accounts?

A good question but also not a right question to ask given the intensity surrounding that Trust. One thing for certain is, is that Kim Goguen no longer has the codes not since 2020, after her misuse of the funds towards rogue organizations and being the indirect cause of the lockdowns and the direct cause of the Covid jobs, through funding out of the Trust. After that, it was closed down permanently until the people themselves learn how to use it properly for the all and not their own personal gain.

Anyway back to the article and is related to one of the Trusts called Spiritual White Boy. This accounts had tens of zeroes on the end of it alone. Remarkably the Trustee had never heard of it until I revealed it.

This is the latest piece of Anna Von Reitz.

SPIRITUAL WHITE BOY

People keep wondering why nothing ever cuts loose. They hear all this intel about Great Resets and NESARA and God only knows what.

And nothing ever happens.

NESARA I personally checked out, there is no Trust named NESARA or GESARA either.

The original NESARA was to pay out farmers that had their land, stock and businesses seized by rogue policies and rogue organizations like Bureau of Land Management.

It's all supposed to happen tomorrow or next week or next month, and it never does.

All that actually happens in the real world is that inflation increases and the stock market wobbles around in a bizarre manner.

Everything else seems to be oddly paralyzed and in permanent stasis, while the government service providers peck away at people trying to steal as much as they can, via mortgage foreclosures and traffic fines and whatever else they can racketeer.

The Government service providers are SERCO, who perform the 19 services supposed to be done by the government, but the government hands over exorbitant amounts of our money to this private for profit companies and they do as little as possible.

The effect is akin to listening to fingernails being scraped across a blackboard very, very, very slowly. Severe damage is being done to the economy worldwide, but it is being done slowly and without fanfare, so that even the excitable commentators like Bravo, run out of steam and wind up just sitting, looking at the video screen.

Those who are paying attention to traditional economic indicators are convinced that, in the immortal words of Scotty, the Chief Engineer of the U.S.S. Enterprise, She's gonna blow, Captain, and there's not a blessed thing I can do about it.

Echoing what we have said and warned of, and here Anna gives a deeper look and opinions on the current state of affairs.

Please consider the implications of the following:

The Federal Reserve is completely shut down except for the New York Fed. The IMF is under investigation and not saying a word. A far cry from all the arrogant nasty World Economic Forum drivel coming out of their mouths a year ago. All the major insurance companies are shaking in their boots.

Last time I looked, the SEC hive was scrambling around like roaches with confused looks on their faces. The Treasury Secretary is nowhere to be found, and the Secretary of the Treasury is on vacation, too. Even Jerome Powell, my favorite non-entity in the mix, has not been heard from and probably won't be until the annual Bank Holiday in England is over.

I agree with all of the above.

Don't be fooled. Real bankers don't have holidays. Ever. Once a year they go to the mattresses with their brethren and hatch plans, do secret handshakes, indulge in a few quick orgies, and then it is back to work again.

Except now their plans are more defensive than offensive, like how can we hold onto power and assets?

The answer is, they can't, it is over for them.

Whatever opening salvo they can come up with this year, only God can say.

There is an eerie stillness, like the quiet before the storm.

Yes I agree and it is being felt globally, and no one knows just what might happen next?

The people are feeling it, a subtle element of change, but can't put their finger on it.

But for the EL-ites they know and feel the change and it terrifies them, as this feeling and change has not happened in a very long time.

Their panic is palpable.

This next line if true should bring deep concern short term, but an opportunity longer term to bring true change.

USDs are not being accepted by the Bank of England and can't be used for money transfers and Postal Money Orders in Canada and Australia.

The question from that is, are the Crown pulling out of America?

This is probably predicated on the idea that the Petrodollar is worthless now that the Saudi's 50-year sole source contract hasn't been renewed. Or on the certain knowledge that Free Energy technologies are about to be released, so crude oil supplies are not an issue anymore.

Imagine the Whaling Fleets sailing over the horizon into the sunset.

For Americans who don't know, the rumor that our money was worthless and wasn't asset-backed was about Federal Reserve Notes, not the Petrodollar, which was, obviously, asset-backed by refined oil products that are definitely hard assets and commodities having value.

The Caution Flag being thrown might be as simple as, wondering if the Americans will develop their own staggering crude oil supplies and bring them to market, or not, but something has to be resolved during this Bank Holiday, to put the USD on a solid, known footing. There's a lot of nervous scratching as people wonder what that new asset-backing might be.

Perhaps that is why US markets dropped heavily on Thursday and Friday.

America has huge oil supplies but the clowns refuse to allow the country to use or sell much of it, why? To keep America in debt as the charter in the Unity – a pathway to redemption show last month revealed.

Either way, it's a cold day in the UK Privy Council when the Bank of England battens down. Their counterparts at the Vatican are already snug and hunkered, waiting.

Meanwhile, back at the Farm with Auntie Em and I, another day is almost gone.

The mammoth Global Collateral Asset Accounts remain locked down and inaccessible. All that the gifted programmers and engineers who designed the tracking system for the Global Collateral Asset Accounts can do is sit, like cats, in front of a fish bowl.

The codes to unlock the system's Grey Screens were spirited away years ago by a black man, a brilliant programmer code named "White Spiritual Boy" after the massive trust carrying the same name.

Be interesting to know who or what the black man was, given there are certain spiritual characteristics connected to those accounts.

Unless it was one Marduk's trained sidekicks, who maybe was one of the several sub trustees of the 6000+ accounts.

"Spiritual White Boy" got sick of being abused and knowing the bad character of the people left in charge, one day, he just disappeared with the Access Codes.

He locked everything down so that the account managers and other techies could see but not touch, and so it has remained. The situation has gone on so long that it is an open question whether or not these assets are actually usable for anything. They can't be accessed.

They can be accessed, but only when we the people reach a spiritual maturity.

The access to the codes comes from above to a person or people who have humanity at heart, have the right personal frequency to access the line of communication outside of here and implement it into a 3D paradigm.

Far too many people are operating in greed, far too many operate as service to the self and far too many have a low vibration, hence it is closed.

Kim Goguen, Marduk's protege, claimed that she had the codes, she didn't. Like all the others, all she could do was watch and stop transactions, not open the accounts.

The funds for Black Rock taking over the Fed, the funds sent to Santander Mexico that Black Rock hooked out of there and the funds for the jobs tells you otherwise, all provided by Kim Goguen.

Maybe it wasn't her who could access it? But she was the vehicle of which it run through?

Why are some people called potato head? Because they are chipped.

It must be embarrassing to admit that they lost the keys to one of the most advanced computer tracking systems ever built.

The keys were never lost, they just can't be seen, felt or used by low vibrational, greed based or service to self-people.

The Global Collateral Asset Accounts are presently still locked up tighter than a drum, and we are left to contemplate the pathos of the scene.

A little kindness and respect, a little time off, and no threats against his family, and the Spiritual White Boy would probably still be working and the assets needed to fund a new world economy would already be here.

Or maybe he fell in vibration as well, like Kim Goguen and so could no longer access them?

The gist of tonight's show is, things are very different going on now and for you all to be aware of it.

Different can be good or bad and even neutral, but the different is revealing the old world and the old ways are collapsing at an increased speed now.

All as predicted here on THI would unfold some time back.

If you had any doubts, this next sentence will dispel them all in a chilling manner.

So as it stands just listen to the length of this list: we have a banking crisis, market crisis, government crisis, migrant crisis, social disorder crisis, children crisis, looming medical crisis, jobs hiring crisis, border crisis, foreign policy crisis, genocide crisis, fear crisis and people crisis.

But who is addressing it outside of THI, sadly the answer is no one.

All of you should be ready now for what is to come, you have been given all the knowledge and should have prepared accordingly.

It will be ugly, can't be anything else.

You will be in demand around your own circles as coma people get their ultimate shock and realize the conspiracy theorists were right all along.

They will want answers, in fact demand answers from you all, be prepared and be understanding and humble in your address to those people.

We are swimming in uncharted waters now and many will drown, because they forgot they could save themselves.

A harsh reality and a very harsh check of reality is about to unfold.

Be prepared, be ready, be safe and never allow anyone to put you in fear, remember you have a and the choice of how to be, act and thrive.
