

The Blueprint Episode 28 Teams Report week ending 11th August 2024.

THE AGENDA:

The meeting began with a big congratulations to Allison on being appointed as the new Media Team leader. The teams wished her every success in her new role and will aid her by supporting her in her transition. Well done Allison, we all wish her well as she embarks on her new journey and know she will do a great job going forward.

The European Blueprint team have created a chat box on the be platform, so everyone can chat there to discuss any of topic related to working on the solutions.

This is a great addition to help communication flow.

The merchandising team have decided to meet once a month going forward, and they will update the coordinator when they have picked an appropriate date and time.

The web team have added a document search bar to the be platform, which will aid anyone that needs to retrieve any document quickly, thanks to the web team for that great addition also.

The teams discussed how to treat anyone independently sending links to influencers etc. and will formulate how to document this so as not to duplicate or overlook anyone on the list.

This will also be returned to us for an update in the next meeting.

Thanks to all the teams for their dedication and hard work as you can see there are many aspects to getting the blueprint solutions out into the public domain, working together cooperatively and not competitively brings with it a different purpose.

The main aim of this purpose is that there is no real leader, just an appointed member that feels they can represent the team and work with the team to maintain a structure and a flow.

We may still use the team leader but in essence it is more of a chance to grow as an individual in a service to others role.

Within this structure there is an equal opportunity for everyone to share opinions, put forward suggestions and be considered just as important as anyone else.

In other words, we are transgressing the Alpha work platform and creating a golden opportunity for everyone to rise and bring a more balanced way of being in the world.

A hand up and not a handout is how we pay it forward in THI, creating the spiral that has the potential to change everything in a grass roots movement.

If you feel you would like to join in with the process please contact any bp team member on mewe and the be platform or show up at the next Blueprint Action meeting, which will be held on Thursday 22nd of August at 12.30 pm Mt time.

The zoom link can be found in the BP Action Group on the Be platform.

BOOK TEAM:

The Swedish translation of From His Story to Our Story Volume 1 is in the proofreading stage.

From His Story to Our Story Volumes 2 and 3 Romanian translations are now available in the THI website bookstore.

From His Story to Our Story Volume 3 Bulgarian translation is underway.

And a Lulu Spotlight promotion called Hidden History Revealed has been created for the From His Story to Our Story books and is found through www.lulu.com/spotlight/HisStoryToOurStory.

From History to Our Story Volume 4 is now in final formatting stage and will be available for sale soon.

RESEARCH TEAM:

The cover letter for the e-mails and contact forms have been upgraded and more personalized.

The Research Team is excited to support the Activist Team.

We are choosing influencers to contact based on the desire and the ease of access for follow-up by the Activist Team.

We redesign the influencer data set to match the influencer with the BP Episode that presented their names.

This enhances the auditing and reporting between influencers contacted and when they are recognized on the show.

A further enhancement will be made to track the influences approached by the Activist Team.

The PDF of the Blueprint was sent to ten additional think tanks.

Felicia Wong:

The Roosevelt Institute is the nonprofit partner to the Franklin D. Roosevelt Presidential Library and Museum that, together, are learning from the past and working to redefine our collective future.

Focusing on corporate and public power, labor and wages and the economics of race and gender inequality.

Brenda Talent:

The Show-Me Institute is the only think tank in Missouri dedicated to promoting free markets and individual liberty.

Our vision is for Missouri to be a place where entrepreneurs are free to pursue their dreams, where parents are free to direct the education and upbringing of their children, where the principles that guide state policy are those which enhance freedom and where all Missourians are free from dependence on government.

On their website there is a section called Blueprint for Missouri.

David Lewis:

Tax Foundation's vision is a world where the tax code doesn't stand in the way of success.

Every day, our team of trusted experts strives towards that vision by remaining principled, insightful, and engaged and by advancing the principles of sound tax policy: simplicity, neutrality, transparency, and stability.

Kyle Stallings:

The Texas Public Policy Foundation is to promote and defend liberty, personal responsibility and free enterprise in Texas and the nation, by educating and affecting policymakers and the Texas public policy debate with academically sound research and outreach.

Mark Zuckerman:

The Century Foundation is a progressive, independent think tank that conducts research, develops solutions and drives policy change to make people's lives better.

We pursue economic, racial, gender and disability equity in education, health care and work, and promote U.S. foreign policy that fosters international cooperation, peace and security.

James Taylor:

The Heartland Institute addresses a wide range of public policy issues.

We have deep expertise on budget and tax issues, education policy, environmental protection, energy, health care policy and the rise of socialism.

We are the pipeline between the freedom movement's leading writers and thinkers and the nation's 8,400 national and state elected officials.

Kevin Roberts:

The Heritage Foundation's mission is to formulate and promote public policies based on the principles of free enterprise, limited government, individual freedom, traditional American values and a strong national defense.

Jonathan Cowan:

Third Way is a national think tank that champions modern center-left ideas.

Greg Porter:

Washington Policy Center improves the lives of Washingtonians by promoting high-quality, non-partisan, evidence-based research to advance policy solutions for a better Washington state.

Carol Platt Liebau:

Yankee Institute develops and advances free-market, limited-government solutions in Connecticut.

As one of America's oldest state-based think tanks, Yankee Institute is committed to empowering the people of Connecticut to forge a brighter future for themselves and their families.

An additional ten pdfs were sent using contact forms.

United Non-Compliance:

United Non-Compliance is about taking the message person to person, city to city and province to province to help wake people up to what is happening in Canada.

The first phase of United Non-Compliance was the awakening.

The second phase of United Non-Compliance is about taking action through organization and implementation.

Take Action Canada:

We're working to give Canadians the tools and information they need to recover and defend their rights. CBDCs, digital IDs, forced vaccinations, lockdowns, MAiD, censorship, the trans agenda and government and mainstream media lies all threaten our freedoms. We've been fighting for Canada since 2020, and with your help we'll keep fighting until Canada is free again.

Sarah Westall:

Is a journalist and author who covers topics such as mind control, 5th generation warfare and the WHO amendment. Her current focus is on free speech rights and raising awareness of crimes against humanity. She came together with fellow podcasters and journalists to sue Google for violating the 1st amendment, by serving as a government partner and actor to delete channels and silence speech. Subsequently, she formed the action oriented non-profit United for Free Speech.

Robby Starbuck:

His Cuban family fled Communism and because of that he never let the opportunity America offers slip through his fingers. Robby first set his sights on the film and music business despite having very little money and no family connections in the industry. He overcame and built one of the most successful production companies in the entertainment business while never taking a business loan or partner.

Carl Vernon:

Carl Vernon is a bestselling author, motivational speaker and entrepreneur. He is the creator of Direct Subconscious Awareness. It is an advanced approach that was developed to help people overcome anxiety and stress-related issues.

Mark Steel:

Founded the British political party Save Us Now to counter the collusion and crony institutions and systems undermining our freedom the rule of law, democracy and the peace of the United Kingdom. Our Emblem is the White and Red poppy. It's in honor of all of those who fight for our freedom, democracy, rule of law and peace.

Tony Sayers:

Is a media personality, author and healer. He created Transcending Times to inform people about the levels of corruption, lies, and the current condition of slavery taking place on this Planet.

Gemma Odoherty:

Is the editor of The Irish Light, which is a self-funded newspaper reporting honest independent news and information mainstream media ignores.

The Light Paper Australia:

Is a volunteer distributed newspaper that prints stories the mainstream media ignores.

MEDIA TEAM:

We have a short report this week. A new team leader has been chosen to take the place of the founder and guiding light of the Media Team, who is moving to a new level of responsibility. We will greatly miss her dedication, discernment and wisdom. Recent confusion has been clarified and team guidelines drawn up to help all, especially new members. Our assortment of memes and videos is being streamlined and our team is adjusting to new roles. Lastly, we are happy to report favorable response to our social media outreach, as revealed by Blueprint sales, as well as by increasing views of and comments on our posts.

THE ACTIVISM TEAM:

The Activist team's engagement, replies, followers and reposts are all up on Twitter and book sales for From History to Our Story are reportedly up on TikTok. We did a Twitter tutorial specifically at our last meeting and are progressing with ongoing tweaking from all our shared experiences.

Media clips spike engagement greatly, so we are working on new means of getting those 2- minute clips posted as well as tightening up our messaging for themed days and long posts where those platforms both allow for it and expect it in a particular cadence. For long posts we are feathering in the output of the Indexing Team and will be adding to these from the upcoming What Is Series as well. Although our Twitter (X) team is greater in number, the team is posting show links and beginning to post show archives on all accounts. We have Instagram, Facebook, YouTube, Tik Tok, Telegram, and more covered, but no doubt more recruits are welcome for the various platforms.

Live Events are being engaged, where we may place 20+ messages into a large audience in the space of five minutes.

It was suggested that hosting our own THI or BP Live Events with each solution may garner more interest for those who shy away from the lengthy shows or just don't have the time to take them in at the rate at which they are being put out.

We are very grateful for all those who engage with us, even if not officially on the Activism Team.

It helps our effort tremendously.

Finally, we have a strategy for the Johns Hopkins Pandemic 2.0 October event to derail its nefarious goals and will be finalizing that plan for launch over our next couple of team meetings.

Week 11 and 12 names contacted were:

IN OVERVIEW:

The road less travelled may be common among us at THI, we have spent much of our lives not fitting in, not towing the line, and in overview we were the non-consenters.

The rebels at times maybe without a cause, for we did not yet identify the root problem, but we were always on the outside. Many of us may have felt caged by the system and the structure within our families and our lives, which may have left us searching for a better way.

Our role models did little to help us as they too were just part of the shekel system, their rise as we know now, was indeed the making of their own trap that ultimately benefited the elites and the corrupt control system.

We have been left with no choice now but to become the role models that serve our future generations in a better way, ultimately passing on to them the new world and the new way of being in the world.

Their world left little time for us, keeping us busy chasing shekels to just pay the bills or in some cases we fell into the trap of keeping up with the Joneses.

A direct hit on the very foundation of the future, our children, as they got pawed off every day in below average schools and day care, disconnecting them from the very people that held a responsibility to teach them, love them and nurture them, so they could become the future we felt was missing.

The guardian's role became almost extinct in this pressure pot, and it created a ripe ground for the masters of deception to use mind control on the future generations, confusing them to the point of not knowing what sex they are anymore, never mind who and what they are.

The next manifestations of the future tainted beyond recognition as the crown of creation. What a sad mess that is.

Our energy was harvested in thankless jobs, and we came home too tired to tend to their needs creating an even more disconnected generation, that had no chance of becoming better adults, parents or an example or role model for a better society.

Maybe our biggest dereliction to the duty, we held to them, in our role of being their true guardian.

All the above is a breeding ground that sets up the guilt trap, another low frequency that steer you onto their path travelled by so many turning us into the sheep as they like to call us.

It's a million miles away from the road less travelled, the solitary inward journey that holds the key to all possibilities given to us by the creator. How long do we let the sins of the father show up in our most precious gift, our children.

Untangling from this mess takes effort, but it also needs a strength of character you may not yet believe you possess.

You may know what you want to achieve, but procrastinate on it for too long, and suddenly that bright idea you had is gone, your indecision lost you a golden opportunity, the miracle you craved felt a million miles away from you.

But how many times in your life did you get an idea to try something new or different and let it slide?

It may have been about a new job, a business idea or a creative project, then you hear that someone else got the job, or began the same business project you pondered on and then suddenly you see your creation on social media, and you kick yourself for not following through.

So many missed opportunities another dereliction of duty you might say.

The universe sends out signals all the time, creative sparks to help us on our journey, the collective consciousness receives that signal, and soon it will be born or ignored.

We have always been given a choice you see, but the procrastination or low level of fear you hold, kept you out of that flow just long enough for someone else to rise to the challenge.

The new blueprint for humanity is in essence one of those creative sparks taken on by one person, Thomas Williams, who heard the call and began the process of birthing the new way forward, he took the golden opportunity not for himself, but for the betterment of all of humanity. I am sure if you ask him was it difficult to stay on that path or how many showed up to help him or even believed in him, he would have a long story to tell you.

Some may call this process a miracle a great gift for humanity, but that miracle had to be put into service by one man.

His service to others on a grand scale, one many would fear to behold.

A line from the Perun Santies: don't create miracles for the benefit of yourself but create miracles for the benefit of your Kin and the heavenly Kin.

They knew our potential as creators, but it comes with a warning.

If you believe that miracles exist in the world, then you must also hold the believe that you have the right within that to receive your own miracle.

For is it not simply the creator gifting the collective with an instantaneous change, that could go on to bring great change that can benefit the self and then the collective.

The perception you hold around a miracle coming into your life becomes the very reason why it will or won't happen.

Therefore, in order for something to exist we must embody it and be it.

Did the religious factions deliberately zone in on this gift of creation given to all and make it only accessible to the few?

Daring to make us believe that only the righteous or deserving were granted such a gift?

But it is not simply the unconscious becoming conscious within us, and it is born from one place and one place only, the original creator being, who knows that we too, can truly operate as a spark of that creator, for we are the crown of creation.

Then as above and so below and as within and so without, then we too can perform miracles, or more simply put we can manifest and create anything we want.

The difference between the creator and us is there was never a dereliction of duty, unlike us as the parents leaving the rearing of our offspring to others, the creator never turns their back on its prodigy.

In true creation there can be no procrastination, no doubt and no dereliction of duty, that only leads to a creation of an abandonment mentality and the absence of miracles.

The I am not worthy, so I will give this task to others, but in affect you received it because we are all worthy.

The blueprint is here because we are all worthy of it, we just have to believe that enough.

In the absence of trust of the self, there will always be born the creation of more doubters that view the world as tainted, and therefore not worthy of redemption and saving.

We must return to love where the spark of creation resides, and ignite it fully, to erase the doubts, fears and procrastination that holds us back. One key factor that holds truth is in our language and how we speak of ourselves in our own minds and then how we speak of and to others.

If we observe this we can then see and hear how little value we truly hold of ourselves, which we then project onto others.

Thomas speaks of trust and love as the key components within the graphic equaliser, used properly it becomes a measuring stick for overviewing your progress, your personal guide to self-mastery.

In essence if embodied the road less travelled becomes a joy and a release from partaking in their reality, its uniqueness is miraculous, for you have had a head start on those less fortunate to have been offered the chance to walk it.

Though in reality everyone was given the same chance as everyone is equal, but few recognised that opportunity and dismissed it abandoning their responsibility.

Your golden opportunity is also a chance to rise on that road onto the golden path, where you become a god, the one that potentially can manifest great miracles for the benefit of others.

We the people have a chance to change the fortune of the world, from one that raped the planet for shekels and personal fortune, to one that gives those less fortunate an equal opportunity to have what they need.

A place where the value of others is as important as the value, we hold in ourselves, where riches become joy and happiness instead of big homes and fancy cars.

Where our most precious resource our children become the focus of love and learn the value from the true teachings of how to be who they are and become what they truly are, the crown of creation.

We are one step away from turning the collective into a unified field full of such miracles, let us re make man in his true image and begin to reap the benefits of one man's vision, so that all may be the benefactors of a new world.

In overview believing in miracles can only happen if you have faith, faith in the self that all things are possible, and you can make all things possible.

The miracles that come from this faith will then come into existence in the future, because you embodied the seed that became the creation.

In the natural order of things, it has to.

The blueprint is a seed of creation and is seeded with the faith it will to become the reality it is meant to be.

The proof lies within all that has emerged since its inception, the return of the Santies and the Vedas into the collective the true teachings.

The decline of the dark forces is all part of the return of the original plan, to be who and what we are meant to be and act accordingly on this planet.

Let your road less travelled emerge now in you, as the Guardian, the creator and the manifestor of the new world.

See the miracle of that in its truest glory showing up in each other and let us reverse their spell bound traps and shine.

Light up as if you have a choice, for there is always someone less fortunate sitting in the dark searching for it.

Let the only thing you look back for is, to give a hand up to those that need it, become the new role model for the future and see this plan miraculously transform our planet Midgard back to her true glory.

I believe in miracles, do you?

NEWS:

Recently there was some emergency with Biden in Las Vegas with a code name of 421, which said to be a sick or injured person. Yet the national 421 police code means shots fired, is that why Biden is not around anymore? Two assassinations not one?

About 30 missiles were fired overnight from Lebanon toward northern Israel.

According to the army, several of them landed in open areas, causing no casualties.

Israel is striking the areas from which the rockets were launched.

The Hezbollah-affiliated site Al Mayadeen reported that Hezbollah claims responsibility for the attack, stating that its target was a military base.

Is this confirming their famous Iron Dome is no longer working?

Perhaps communications are down also? Perhaps they are working in the dark, metaphorically they have always worked in the dark.

But now the light strikes back.

All part of operation ghostdancing.

Perhaps their simple mind set needs adjusting?

Last week we highlighted Cory Bush and her calling out of AIPAC and she has since lost her seat.

But now she is coming out fighting and has vowed revenge on AIPAC after she lost the primary in her reelection campaign Tuesday.

The group boosted her opponent in a tightly contested race, knocking off a second member of the progressive squad this cycle. The American Israel Public Affairs Committee's (AIPAC) super PAC, United Democracy Project, was a top funder of Bush's opponent, St. Louis County District Attorney Wesley Bell.

So, AIPAC have changed their name now as well, appears it is catching amongst the Jewish organizations, just like the WHO. Bush was harshly criticized for her outspoken criticism of Israel's war in Gaza.

Bush said in a fiery speech after her loss that leaving Congress will only take some strings off.

Because now, there are some strings that I have attached and as much as I love my job, all they did was radicalize me, and now they should be afraid, she said.

And let me say this: AIPAC, I'm coming to tear your kingdom down! she added to cheers.

The squad member has called the ongoing Gaza war Israel's ethnic cleansing campaign, earlier this year introduced the Ceasefire Now Resolution.

Some of her rhetoric has been met with backlash from other congressional members, but also constituents in her own district.

I think her comments show a lack of understanding of the nuance and complexities of an issue that's literally hundreds of years in the making, Bell said when he announced his campaign.

Bell by name and bellend by nature it seems.

Because if he thinks slaughtering 16K children is a nuance and complexity, then he truly is a bellend of epic proportions.

According to Sludge, AIPAC helped raise two-thirds of the campaign funding for Bell.

The United Democracy Project spent more than $7 million to oust Bush.

Bush is the second squad member to lose a primary this cycle, after Rep. Jamaal Bowman was also defeated by an opponent that received significant support from AIPAC.

After his loss last month, some progressives sounded the alarm over the group's influence.

I think we need to have a real conversation about the AIPAC, Ocasio-Cortez said after Bowman's defeat.

Why do we need a conversation now? AIPAC should have been discussed and removed many decades ago.

It is blatant election interference and yet many refuse to see it as such, mindboggling.

Where is Jones', Rogan, Carlson and Musk on this topic, why are they not discussing it? Congress? The Justice Dept? The State Dept, the Oversight Committee why aren't they discussing it?

Here is the price of revealing the truth and in a civilized free society this would not happen.

But America is not free and that is what all people should be working towards.

We have been hijacked by an alien junta that has operated in disguise within this country and stripped the people of wealth, rights and freedoms.

On August 7, 2024 –the FBI executed a raid on the home of Scott Ritter, a former United Nations weapons inspector.

The operation carried out at Ritter's residence in upstate New York, involved multiple agents and was conducted without incident.

Details regarding the purpose of the raid remain sparse.

An FBI spokesperson confirmed the raid but declined to provide specifics, citing an ongoing investigation.

We can confirm that a lawful search was conducted at Mr. Ritter's home today.

This is part of an ongoing investigation, and we are not at liberty to discuss details at this time, the spokesperson said.

Scott Ritter is best known for his work as a UN weapons inspector in Iraq during the 1990s.

He has since been an outspoken critic of U.S. foreign policy, particularly regarding military interventions in the Middle East and the broader war on terror.

Ritter has also been a vocal commentator on issues of international security and has authored several books on the subject.

The raid has sparked a flurry of reactions from both supporters and critics of Ritter.

Advocates argue that Ritter has been targeted for his outspoken views, while detractors point to his controversial past, including previous legal troubles, as justification for the raid.

Ritter's attorney released a brief statement following the raid, stating, Mr. Ritter has cooperated fully with law enforcement and maintains his innocence.

We are confident that any allegations will be proven unfounded.

Ritter is a regular guest and analyst on Judge Napolitano's podcast, #JudgingFreedom.

He will have more to say at a later time.

This is the price you pay when you don't approve of their methods, what happened to free speech and democracy? Nothing, they were an illusion to begin with.

This is a high profile raid designed to put off people challenging or speaking against the system, they did the same in the UK to the alleged rioters, many of which were sabotage agents to begin with.

If only the FBI went after real trouble makers, like AIPAC, maybe then Mr. Ritter would not have the need to speak out?

This is the thinking pattern of a psychopath, that yet again permeates the corridors of power in Israel.

They have zero empathy, compassion or love in their bodies and a very sick and depraved mind of Set.

Israeli Finance Minister Bezalel Smotrich said it may be just and moral to starve 2 million Gaza residents until Israeli hostages are returned, but no one in the world would let us.

In a speech on Monday at the Katif Conference for National Responsibility in the town of Yad Binyamin, the far-right minister said Israel should take control of distributing aid inside Gaza and claimed that Hamas was in control of distribution channels within the strip.

But Hamas is an Israeli front group, paid for by Netanyahu and Qatar, so it makes no difference.

It is impossible in today's global reality to wage war, as no one in the world would let us starve and thirst two million citizens, even though it may be just and moral until they return our hostages, he said.

Adding that if Israel controlled aid distribution instead of Hamas, the war would have ended by now and the hostages would have returned.

You cannot fight Hamas with one hand and give them aid with the other.

It's his (Hamas') money, it's his fuel, it's his civilian control of the Gaza Strip, it just doesn't work, he said.

Echoing the US and the Jewish puppet Blinken when he said to the UN they would cut off aid supply to the Gazans if they continued to charge Israel with war crimes.

These people are beyond sick and need to be stopped in the near future.

Because these people do not understand or comprehend the sanctity of life and living beings beyond themselves.

Starve two million people over an alleged 100 hostages? Surreal, which if past record is to go by, it is the Israelis who are holding the hostages for leverage or they never existed in the first place and playing pro pagan da games.

More child level banning's and blocking from Israel.

Israel has revoked the diplomatic status of eight Norwegian diplomats serving the occupied Palestinian territory.

There is a price for anti-Israel behavior, said Israeli Foreign Minister Israel Katz on Thursday.

Citing Norway's recognition of Palestinian statehood and its backing of an International Criminal Court (ICC) case, implicating Israeli leaders in alleged war crimes and crimes against humanity as reasons for the move.

The Israeli Foreign Ministry issued a statement on Thursday that mentioned serious statements by senior Norwegian officials that were viewed as anti-Israeli.

In case you hadn't noticed, that is outright Fascism and you all thoughts Fascism was just the Germans?

Wrong thinking it was them then and them now.

Previously to Fascism they went under the banner of Communism.

Both ism's are Zionism.

Not intent on just killing people with gay abandon in Gaza, as more atrocities are unveiled.

An Israeli military investigation that has roiled the country with allegations of sexual abuse by its own ranks, was set in motion by doctors who reported injuries to a Palestinian detainee that were so severe they required surgery; medical staffers familiar with the matter said.

Court hearings began last week to determine whether any of the 10 reservists initially detained by the military in a raid at the Sde Teiman detention center should face charges.

Five of the reservists have been released, and five remain in custody and are being questioned, the military said.

All of the suspects deny the allegations, said a lawyer representing one of the reservists.

Some of the detained reservists are being represented by the military, which declined to comment.

About three weeks before the raid, the Palestinian detainee who hasn't been identified arrived at a hospital outside Sde Teiman, the lawyer and medical staffers said.

He had life-threatening injuries including broken ribs, obvious signs of assault to the abdomen and chest, and a severe injury to the rectum most likely caused by the insertion of a foreign object, one of the medical staffers said.

There just is no limit of evil with these people.

Currently there are 9600 Palestinians in Israeli jails and 60 have died under their custody already.

Here is another example of deliberate Israeli genocide, this time reported by one of the soldiers themselves.

Every day for two months, Michael Ofer Ziv spent hours watching grainy, black-and-white footage of the Gaza Strip from a tiny room across the border.

As an operations commander, he was tracking Israeli forces inside Gaza and approving airstrikes.

Every day, he said, his unit had a certain quota to fill.

They will tell us, today you have seven, today you have nine, you sometimes argue for more, but you will never fire less than you're given.

Quotas for firing upon people? Have you ever heard such a lack of humanity as that?

MEDICAL:

Remember Johnson & Johnson and their role in the Covid scam?

Well now they are being called out on another of their products, Band-Aids.

Which has been found to contain cancer causing forever chemicals that go directly into the wound and is absorbed by the body. Johnson & Johnson have previous in the 1980-1990's after they were found putting gender bending chemicals into baby formulas. Ya still want to trust their science? Still want to trust the medical people? Well, more fool you.

More dodginess from the center for faulty math that started the Covid plandemic. Johns Hopkins Center for Health Security tweeted on 7/19 about hosting Emerging Leaders in Biosecurity Initiative (ELBI) symposium July 18-19. This is to be followed by UN ELBI meeting in Zurich on September 25, 2024. Activists really need to target and highlight that place before they invoke more tyranny.

SOCIETY NEWS:

We covered this topic in the FHOSTOS plus series and now it is making it into the public realm, via politics. A few years ago this topic would never have been brought up due to fear, but the fear is eroding daily now. An Idaho lawmaker wants to expand a law that bans cannibalism over fears about a rise in human composting. Rep. Heather Scott, R-Blanchard, told a legislative committee Thursday that she's worried about the possibility that people are eating other people. This is going to be normalized at some point, the way our society's going and the direction we're going, Scott said. Idaho is the only state to outlaw cannibalism, according to Encyclopedia Britannica. Other states have laws targeting abuse or desecration of a corpse, according to Cornell Law School. Scott's bill would add to Idaho's prohibition of cannibalism, a ban on giving someone else the flesh or blood of a human being without that person's knowledge or consent. That is clearly a reference to MacDonalds and others using human meat in burgers and other products. Like we said in the past shows, there is a reason they called it kiddies meals. For those that don't know, MacDonalds in Oklahoma and many other distribution plants contained human flesh for the production of burgers in the 1980's. Scott said she has been disturbed by the practice of human composting, which has been legalized in several states, as another option for dealing with remains that may be more sustainable than other burial methods and reduce a person's carbon footprint. But she said outlawing composting would require overhauling rules for morticians, and so instead focused on deliberately giving another person human flesh. I didn't want to see that in my Home Depot stores, Scott said. Well Home Depot is another front for the CIA, so I wouldn't rule it out given their previous antics. Human composting is the practice of decomposing human remains like any other organic matter and turning it into soil that can be returned to the family or used for land. Scott said she was on an airplane over the summer and watched a clip from a television show displaying a chef feeding human flesh in sausage to contestants, which inspired her to do something about it. A search on YouTube showed that, several years ago, TruTV had a prank show where they pretended to feed people flesh. Yes they always add it was a prank, but it has serious connotations for their programming. They didn't tell the people, they fed it to them, Scott told the Statesman. The very fact that this bill has to be brought forward should tell you how far humanity and its controllers have fallen.

Good news coming out of Bulgaria and maybe the beginning of the end of another of their divisive programs. Bulgaria's parliament passed changes to its education law last week, widening its scope to ban LGBTQ propaganda in schools, in what rights groups slammed as discriminatory. The amendment to the law, proposed by the country's pro-Russian Vazrazhdane party passed by a large majority, with 159 votes in favor, 22 against and 12 abstentions. The law now bans the propaganda, promotion or incitement in any way, directly or indirectly, in the education system of ideas and views related to non-traditional sexual orientation and/or gender identity other than the biological one. Lawmakers also voted on a separate text that defines non-traditional sexual orientation, as different from the generally accepted and established notions in the Bulgarian legal tradition of emotional, romantic, sexual or sensual attraction between persons of opposite sexes. Oh my! Some common sense at last, interesting that it was a pro-Russian party that proposed it. For those new I am not against the free will choice of being transgender, but object fiercely to it being rammed in people's faces, designed to cause confusion for the children and divisiveness amongst the people. What people really forget is, learning about transgenderism is not preparing the child for adult life, which was the original purpose of school.

MYSTERY SECTION:

Did you know the term Semite was not just related to Jews and Israel? Semite 1797, denoting the major language group that includes Hebrew, Arabic, Aramaic, Assyrian, etc., distinguished by trilateral verbal roots and vowel inflection; 1826 as of or pertaining to Semites.

So it was a Middle Eastern language that covered Arabs and Syrians as well.
Semites 1848, characteristic attributes of Semetic languages; then suddenly it changed.
1851, characteristic attributes of Semetic people, especially the ways, life, practices, etc., of Jewish people.
Then it changed again, something that is very familiar with this group of people and their name changes.
By 1870 in the specialized sense of Jewish influence in a society.
So in 80 years, they wrote out of the word, the Arabs, the Aramaeans and the Assyrians to claim the title for themselves.
On the spurious claim that Semite comes from Shem.
This is what this group has done for centuries take over everyone else and plagiarized much of the rest of the world's, knowledge, spirituality, achievements and more importantly their history.
The evidence now is overwhelming, yet the world continues to dance to the tune of these usurpers of everything, because of some fake story about an imaginary country situated in the Middle East two thousand years ago.
When will we ever grow up and see through the illusion of it all?

We at THI have created a number of memes and short quips that have permeated outside of THI, but upon pondering the other day I realized so much of the news is dominated by one subject in multiple countries with a common theme, Israel.
Now we do have the Isis-Ra-El meme, but with so much of a particular type of news, I was thinking a new meme should be brought forward to counter the now numerous Israeli claims of antisemitic.
Antisemitic is someone who questions any Jewish person or Israel's behavior, regardless of whether that behavior is poor or not.
Even using the terms that everyone can see is unfolding is now labeled antisemitic.
What is unfolding is genocide and apartheid practices, but in their child level heads that makes me and the many others antisemitic.
They have had near two hundred years of steering communications control of the world, but the minute people start to think for themselves in relation to Israel, you are antisemitic.
It is almost robotic in nature and has become the stock answer for any criticism.
But why is the world not allowed to criticize one race on this planet? Why aren't the laws equal for us all? Because labeling people antisemitic is actually hate speech.
That is the ironic thing about this, it is the same as only Black Lives Matter, which is a racist statement and echoes the Jewish with we are the chosen ones.
From hereonin I will be labeling Jewish and Israel who stifle people's free speech and the right to think for themselves as – anti- humanity.
Why? Because that is the behavior too many of them exhibit.
Their Talmud is anti-humanity and racist, their rabbis are too often anti-humanity with their dismissive statements, their government is anti-humanity with their policies and Mossad is anti-humanity full stop.
The numerous leaders of top positions have been proven to be anti-humanity, because if you are doing things for the benefit of Israel only, that is anti-humanity.
From hereonin they will be known as the anti-humanity group.

Well I have been pondering again, and this is a very deep and multi-faceted pondering, that just might change your life or at the least your thinking patterns.
Because you know sometimes words have two meanings.
Indeed they do, but what about where is the definition coming from? Has been a theme of THI during the 8.25 years of the shows.
The term word magic was used to describe endless differing meanings and definitions.
But this term is reasonably new in terms of mass consciousness, although for a while it remained hidden as other words were more prominent.
We have done whole shows on it, mainly Dutch and American, but we have covered other aspects of this group in Sweden and Germany.
The term is Deep State.
We are going to go deep and take you out of a state.
A deep state is a type of government made up of potentially secret and unauthorized networks of power, operating independently of a state's political leadership in pursuit of their own agenda and goals.
In popular usage, the term carries overwhelmingly negative connotations and is often associated with conspiracy theories.
All of which it is more often right or true.
Deep state is a calque of the Turkish word derin devlet meaning deep state.
The modern concept of a deep state is associated with Turkey, a presumed secret network of military officers and their civilian allies trying to preserve the secular order based on the ideas of Mustafa Kemal Atatürk from 1923.
Mr. Ataturk had several name changes during his reign and his ancestry questioned as it appeared to change regularly, reminiscent of the Jewish elements.
It comes as no surprise that some considered Ataturk as a Donmeh, which is a Jew hiding behind the Islamic religion.
There are also opinions that the deep state in Turkey and Counter-Guerrilla was established in the Cold War era as a part of Gladio Organization, to sway Turkey more into NATO against the threat of the expansion of Soviet communism.

The Gladio Organization is the CIA and the P2 Lodge.
Venezuela is another one in league with Bolivia and the Colombian FARC Guerrillas, known as the Cartel of the Sun.
Other elements we covered in other shows were The Safari Club and Le Circle, connected to the Rockefeller cult in America since 1968.
The term also derives in other regions like Chechnya, Chile, Egypt, Germany, Iran, Israel, Italy, Japan, Middle East, Pakistan, Turkey plus the two main ones promoting it, the UK under The Crown and America.
Yet the most common link that binds all of the above is, the CIA.
We also touched upon it within the FHSOS series as well.
But the Deep State became the new buzz word of this century to replace other words like the cabal and the Illuminati.
There are some who think the Deep State only become prominent during the Trump Presidency, that somehow he outed the Deep State into the public, but there was many researchers speaking of it for many decades prior.
So, the Deep State became the new meaning to describe the hidden element or governance globally.
But what if we all got it wrong and our understanding of it?

Let's look at the various words for state.
state (n.1) c. 1200, stat, circumstances, position in society, temporary attributes of a person or thing, conditions, from Old French estat meaning position, condition; status, stature, station.
And directly from Latin status a station, position, place; way of standing, posture; order, arrangement, condition, figuratively standing, rank; public order, community organization.
This is a noun of action from the past-participle stem of stare meaning to stand (from PIE root *sta- to stand, make or be firm).
Some Middle English senses are via Old French estat (French état; see estate).
The Latin word was adopted into other modern Germanic languages (German, Dutch staat) but chiefly in the political senses only.
The meanings physical condition as regards form or structure, particular condition or phase, and condition with reference to a norm are attested from c. 1300.
The meaning of mental or emotional condition is attested from 1530s (the phrase state of mind is attested by 1749); the specific colloquial sense of an agitated or perturbed condition is from 1837.
The meaning splendor of ceremony, etc., appropriate to high office; dignity and pomp befitting a person of high degree is from early 14c.
Hence to lie in state, be ceremoniously exposed to view before interment (1705) and keep state conduct oneself with pompous dignity (1590s).
state (n.2) political organization of a country; supreme civil power, the government; the whole people considered as a body politic, 1530s, from special use of state (n.1);
This sense grew out of the meaning condition of a country with regard to government, prosperity, etc. (late 13c.), from Latin phrases such as status rei publicæ condition or existence of the republic.
The sense of a semi-independent political entity under a federal authority, one of the bodies politic which together make up a federal republic is from 1774.
The British North American colonies occasionally were called states as far back as 1630s.
State was spelt with a lower-case s, 146 years before the corporation with a capital S formed by the United States and the Crown oriented founding fathers.
State rights in U.S. political sense is attested from 1798 (the form states' rights is recorded by 1824):
The doctrine that states retain all rights and privileges not delegated to the federal government in the Constitution, in its extreme form including the power and right of sovereignty.
Often contrasted with ecclesiastical power in phrase church and state (1580s).
State socialism attested from 1850 as a scheme of government favoring enlargement of state functions as the most direct way to achieve socialist goals.
state (v.) 1590s, to set in a position, fix (a date, etc.), from state (n.1) circumstances, position.
The sense of declare, recite, set down in detail in words is attested by 1640s from the notion of placing the words on the record.
stately (adj.) late 14c., statli, noble, splendid, befitting high rank, with -ly (1) + state (n.1).
Related to the sense in lie in state, be ceremoniously exposed to view before interment and stateroom, originally room reserved for ceremonial occasions.
But the real term covered in one or two of those descriptions perhaps has been overlooked?
The meaning mental or emotional condition is attested from 1530s (the phrase state of mind is attested by 1749); the specific colloquial sense of an agitated or perturbed condition is from 1837.
1590s, to set in a position, fix (a date, etc.), from state (n.1) circumstances, position.
The sense of declare, recite, set down in detail in words is attested by 1640s from the notion of placing the words on the record.
Add in stately for noble or nobility, then add in lie in state is the tradition in which the body of a deceased official, such as a head of state, is placed in a state building, either outside or inside a coffin, to allow the public to pay their respects.
But didn't the nobility force us all to lie in state with the capitalization of our names?
Do you lie in state or is the state in a lie?
Does the lying in state go deep?

deep (adj.)

Old English deop having considerable extension downward, especially as measured from the top or surface.

By c. 1200, of persons, sagacious, of penetrating mind.

Sagacious means having or showing keen mental discernment and good judgement; wise or shrewd:

deep (n.)

Old English deop deep water, especially the sea

deep (adv.)

far down, deeply

deep six (n.) place where something is discarded, by 1921 (in phrase give something the deep six), originally in motorboating slang, perhaps from earlier underworld noun sense of the grave (1929), which is perhaps a reference to the usual grave depth of six feet.

So the summary of those deep descriptions are, going down, under the sea (which is drowning) and death or depth of six feet.

The latter of which should remind you of the Covid deep state plot.

[Text by Thomas Williams is in bold]

It may appear with this next section I am going off topic, but it will all tie back in.

This is an excerpt from a science fiction book that just magically appeared on the chat as I was writing this piece.

The book is called Valis and the title is an acronym for Vast Active Living Intelligence System, Phillip J Dick's gnostic vision of God.

VALIS has been described as one node of an artificial satellite network originating from the star Sirius in the Canis Major constellation.

Was that the Black Knight object seen orbiting above our skies in the past?

It should be noted that Sirius is the realm of some of the EL-ite bloodline families.

According to Dick, the Earth satellite used pink laser beams to transfer information and project holograms on Earth and to facilitate communication between an extraterrestrial species and humanity.

Dick claimed that VALIS used disinhibiting stimuli to communicate, using symbols to trigger recollection of intrinsic knowledge through the loss of amnesia, achieving gnosis.

The above of which describes engaging within the collective consciousness or the library as I call it.

But what if that communication was reversed and it was inhibiting?

Disinhibition is a psychological term used to describe the reduction or loss of self-control and restraint in an individual's behavior, thoughts, or emotions.

It involves the weakening of inhibitory processes that typically moderate, govern, or suppress socially inappropriate, impulsive or risky actions.

Loss of self-control? Alters peoples behaviors, thinking and actions? Sound familiar?

Drawing directly from Platonism and Gnosticism, Dick wrote in his Exegesis: We appear to be memory coils (DNA carriers capable of experience) in a computer-like thinking system which, although we have correctly recorded and stored thousands of years of experiential information, and each of us possesses somewhat different deposits from all the other life forms, there is a malfunction, a failure of memory retrieval.

That is the memory wipe and recycle technology they have employed here for many eons.

A rinse and repeat loop cycle that has had devastating consequences for all who came here, except the controllers.

High level discussions took place about this in 2014, the question was how many lifetime recalls do we give them back? I originally said all, but upon reflection and speaking to many who have past life recall, my opinion now is, just the current one.

Why? Because the only recall most people have are of death and wars, most of which created many shadows around them in this lifetime.

I am not sure that level of shadow and inner work is beneficial, considering how difficult many of you have doing just the shadow and inner work of this lifetime.

Some will argue that is against my free will and that would be correct, but the reluctance of most of you to go deep into your own psyche and shadows has played out even in THI, despite the support structure enabling you to overcome it.

Imagine how the masses will react?

Everyone states they have done all their shadow and inner work, yet the same traits pop up regularly within each individual.

Another example of lying to the self, yet you think you could handle multiple lifetime recalls? Turn it in.

In psychologist Robert Anton Wilson's autobiographical Cosmic Trigger, released shortly before Dick commenced work on VALIS, Wilson describes similar musings concerning the Sirius Connection, contemplating the idea that alien entities are sending out waves of information that we can tune in on.

Which is actually correct, like a Cosmic telepathy session, but how many of you tune into it?

The answer is very few and therein lies the problem.

Religious people ask many times for a message from God, yet never listen to it when it arrives.
But those messages became distorted through technology and people were given another belief structure to abide by with cryptic message open to interpretation, none of which were valid.
Like God, Jesus, Mohammad, Buddha, Krishna and many others are coming to save you, they didn't and never will.
The disasters that has unfolded just in the last 2000 years should tell you that.
2000 years of alleged torture, maligning, death and suffering for god's alleged chosen ones, yet where is their god helping them, never mind saving them?
You are meant to save you, no one else can do that for you.

VALIS specifically mentions the Dogon people, saying that they had encountered three-eyed people who had descended from Ikhnaton.
Ikhnaton is actually Akhenaton and the Egyptian off world rulers again.
The Dogon we have covered before in previous shows.

References are also made to numerous deities, including Yurugu who it associates with Yin and Nommo who it associates with Yang;
Yurugu in Africa is known as a trickster god who operates in chaos, mischief and mayhem.
Said to have shapeshifted into a fox or as they call it, a jackal.
Yurugu also means, it is also a regressive degenerative state of consciousness where the soul is cut off from itself.
Which is interesting in light of the technology discussed earlier.
Nommos is derived from a Dogon word meaning to make one drink.
Nommos are usually described as amphibious, hermaphroditic, fish-like creatures.
Hence the Vatican wearing fish shaped hats.
Nommo was switched into Nemo a fish character popular with children courtesy of Disney.
Is that another case of hidden in plain sight?
Nemo was based on a clownfish, is that indicative?
Interestingly it is claimed Disney stole the idea from a previous author, who called it Pierrot, the poisson clown, meaning the fish clown.
Is that describing the Dogon?

In Valis it also suggests a blind, mad creator deity called Yaldabaoth or Samael.
Yaldabaoth, is a malevolent God and demiurge said to be the creator of the material world in various Gnostic sects and movements, sometimes represented as a theriomorphic or chimeric, lion-headed serpent.
Hence the lion symbolism everywhere connected with the EL-ites.
Another of the false chimeric gods, lion and serpent.
Scholars identified Seth with Typhon, a snake-monster, which roars like a lion.
But Seth went by another more familiar Hebrew name, Yahweh.
Seth was depicted as having a donkey head or jackass and there are inscribed drawings of a donkey headed being, being crucified on a cross.
Is that where the Jesus narrative originated from?
Yaldabaoth is identified as the false god who keeps the souls trapped in physical bodies, imprisoned in the material universe.
Which sounds similar to Yurugu.
Hence the soul trap technology and the rinse and repeat memory wipes.
Yaldabaoth means the child of darkness, an element of chaos.
Hence order out of chaos of the Freemasonic cult.
Yaldabaoth is revered by the anti-humanity group.
Samael is a demon or fallen angel that is identified by the term Satan.
Samael and Lilith the child sacrificing moon goddess are also worshipped by the anti-humanity group.
The novel frequently references the 1945 discovery at Nag Hammadi.

The Nag Hammadi is best known for the Book of Thomas.
So back to the original and the deep state after I have taken you into and out of the deep state.
So, did they declare we all lied, as in a falsehood, in state or did we lie, as in a coma, in a state with a mental or emotional condition?
Let's throw in Tavistock, Think Tanks, Project's Paperclip and Mockingbird, Montauk and then the term MK Ultra.
Does that change the thinking pattern? Well, if it doesn't then that is the whole point of this piece.
Because you have been hypnotized into a Deep State.
Yet again you went external with the deep state, when it was within you all along.
And you know sometimes words have two meanings.
But we didn't think deep enough did we? We are in a state of mental or emotional conditions, comatose in essence.
What are those mental or emotional conditions we and they have created for us.

They may have created it, but we consented to it.

Those mental and emotional conditions are lies, false reality, illusion world, amnesia, lethargy and in overview zombie people.

Those that lie in state and declare themselves dead, yet are still living, albeit partially.

Those that prefer the lie and sadly that is most people, are designated to always lie in state.

Those who escape those maladies have to operate in truth, heart, reality, memory and active living beings.

As a reminder, the human being forms a link between Source and the world, uniting in themselves both the spiritual nature of divine beings and the corporeal nature of the material world.

To do that one must escape the greatest prison ever developed, your own mind.

Non deep state people need to switch on their inner sun and engage with the above and below sun in your own personal holy trinity, by becoming one on one with the one that starts by, following your heart.
