We start off this show with an exciting announcement from our book team. FHOSTOS volume 4 is now available to purchase from Lulu.com or the THI-show.com/bookstore. An amalgamation of several shows all compiled into one book that charts the rise of Rus/Aryan and Slavs and also our fall as well. But it is also an opportunity to climb back out of our malaise and reach for the skies again.

Also there is a change in schedule of the Common Sense zoom this month, it will be on Saturday at noon MT. That is this coming Saturday August 24th.

NEWS:

The headlines state that Democrats have spent the convention poking fun at Trump, with much hilarity about black jobs and describing him as an old boyfriend. Yet what is amiss from the children at the convention is, A: discussing policies and B: providing solutions. No they and the Trump crew attend debates to ridicule each other on a kindergarten level basis. The child level media then push it out to the masses in the form of entertainment. Yet still the people don't get it, disturbing, frustrating and deeply disappointing in equal measure. But ultimately it is deeply embarrassing, both domestically and globally.

Here we go again like an 8-year loop and the pathetic attempt by goons in the agencies and State department to justify war spending for the EL-ite contractors like Northrop Grumman and others of that ilk. The FBI has opened an investigation into allegations from the Trump campaign, that it was targeted by hackers working for the Iranian government. We can confirm the FBI is investigating the matter, the agency said in a short statement on Monday without specifically naming the former president or Iran. A Trump campaign spokesman said the documents were illegally obtained by foreign sources hostile to the United States. Iranian officials have denied any connection to the hack and the US government has not formally accused Iran. The FBI is also looking into whether Iranian hackers targeted the Joe Biden-Kamala Harris campaign, according to CBS News, the BBC's news partner, citing people familiar with the investigation. The Trump campaign statement came one day after Microsoft released a report indicating that Iranian hackers targeted the campaign of an unnamed US presidential candidate in June. Microsoft's Threat Analysis Center (MTAC) said that the campaign was sent a spear-phishing email – a message designed to look trustworthy in order to get the target to click on a malicious link. On Saturday, Trump said the hackers were only able to get publicly available information. All of which sounds like something and nothing to me and allows anti-humanity news groups to discredit their enemies. All of which is done at the public's expense. Funny they don't target the phishing and surveillance done against the public isn't it?

Meanwhile following a visit to Gaza earlier this week, the World Health Organization (WHO) found, severe levels of malnutrition, children dying of starvation, serious shortages of fuel, food and medical supplies, hospital buildings destroyed. Kamal Adwan Hospital is the only pediatric hospital in the north of Gaza and is overwhelmed with patients. The lack of food resulted in the deaths of 10 children. The lack of electricity poses a serious threat to patient care, especially in critical areas like the intensive care unit and the neonatal unit. This is completely unacceptable, the US/Israeli war machine just rolls on it seems. But where is accountability from the rest of the world? How can you have two countries essentially holding the world hostage and not think something is seriously amiss here. Where is the Hague, the UN or any other official body? In the absence of accountability, we the people should demand an end to this warmongering.

There has been many alarming financial reports and warnings since the last show. Chase closing 9 branches, Rite-Aid closing altogether, Stop & Shop 32 stores, JC Penney closing multiple stores, Cisco laying off 15K workers, Badcock Home Furniture will be closing all 380 locations of its stores, Lumber Liquidators, is closing 94 stores and the worst is Walgreens closing all of its 700 stores.

But here is a bank warning. In a recent video, finance expert John Williams issued a stark warning about the potential risks associated with $8 trillion in uninsured bank deposits in the United States. According to Williams, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) has raised a red alert over these deposits, highlighting a significant vulnerability in the financial system. The FDIC insures deposits up to $250,000 per account holder, but with only $128.2 billion in its insurance fund, the agency lacks the resources to cover the vast amount of uninsured deposits in the event of widespread bank failures. Williams explained that many Americans mistakenly believe their bank deposits are fully protected by the FDIC. While this is true up to a certain limit, the majority of the $8 trillion in deposits exceeds this threshold and is therefore uninsured. Williams pointed out that the FDIC's limited funds would be insufficient to cover a large-scale banking crisis, leaving a significant portion of these deposits at risk. Williams referenced a leaked FDIC video that suggested the possibility of bail-ins, where banks use consumer deposits to stabilize themselves during financial crises. Yes that was signed into law January 1st, 2015, and was announced on the Cosmic Voice show. He noted that this is a real concern, particularly if public confidence in the banking system were to waver, leading to bank runs. Such a scenario could be exacerbated by the current economic climate, which is marked by declining commercial real estate values, rising loan defaults and increasing bankruptcies. Grim times ahead as everything is collapsing now at a record pace. But remember for real change the old world has to collapse before a new way can be brought forward.

Just when you thought the US was bankrupt and no money is available, up pops the Jewish Treasury Secretary Janet Yellen's, who is pledging for the United States to dole out hundreds of millions of dollars to the World Bank's global bank's Pandemic Fund, is facing intense scrutiny by a Republican opponent. Sen. Eric Schmitt (R-MO), in a letter sent to Yellen on Wednesday and first viewed by the Washington Examiner, accused the Biden Cabinet official, of promulgating a proposal that is a blatant waste of taxpayer dollars and a slap in the face to Americans. Last month, during the G20 world finance leaders' meeting in Rio de Janeiro, Yellen committed that the U.S. will provide up to $667 million through 2026, as part of a broader $2 billion goal to raise money from developed nations for future pandemic prevention, preparedness and response in low and middle-income countries. Yellen's pledge would mean the U.S. would have to provide another $217 million by the target date, as the U.S. has already provided $450 million. Schmitt assailed the commitment as yet another brazen attempt to fund unaccountable entities from the American taxpayer's wallet. Correct but is this the funding required for the next plandemic? In essence making this funding a money laundering exercise?

Those reports were about shops and banks, but this next one is about a whole State. Financial expert Robert Kiyosaki is predicting a grim fate for the country's Golden State. The Rich Dad Company co-founder warned that California is going bust amid poor financial management and fleeing residents during his appearance on The Big Money Show last week. Kiyosaki, who predicted the 2008 Lehman Brothers collapse, said that California is the lead state and could potentially bring down other states who follow its progressive agenda. That cesspit State along with its corrupt twin New York needs to go down altogether, along with all the shekel cronies.

Just how bankrupt is America? This piece should confirm it. But remember the Fed stated in its 1933 charter that the US must always be in debt, yet no one in this country has challenged that in the past 91 years. Markus' post included a screenshot of a headline reading, Interest Payments on US National Debt Will Shatter $1,140,000,000,000 this Year, consuming 76% of all income taxes collected: Report. He added a comment expressing his dismay: I am glad 76% of the income tax I pay goes directly to important things like interest on past government incompetence. But just how severe is the financial situation? Let's take a closer look at the numbers. He pointed out a striking detail: in June 2024, the U.S. government spent $140.238 billion on interest for Treasury debt securities. For context, the government collected $184.910 billion in individual income taxes that same month. This means that an amount equivalent to 76% of June's individual income tax revenue was used solely for interest payments on the national debt, not including principal repayment. Antoni expressed his concern about America's fiscal challenge in a post on X, writing, Interest on the federal debt was equal to 76% of all personal income taxes collected in June - that's the Treasury's largest source of revenue and three-quarters of it gets consumed just by interest; does Congress know? Do they even care? To illustrate, U.S. federal government debt stood at $5.77 trillion at the start of 2000, more than doubled to $12.77 trillion by the beginning of 2010, and escalated to $23.22 trillion at the start of 2020. The most recent increase has been particularly startling, with the national debt reaching $34.94 trillion, per the latest figures from the Treasury Department. This escalation in debt has led to rising interest payments, exacerbated by the Federal Reserve's substantial interest rate hikes since March 2022. Consequently, interest costs are mounting.

For the current fiscal year, the Treasury Department expects interest payments on treasury debt securities to total $1.14 trillion. For perspective, the interest payments alone are higher than the total GDP of all countries except 16. When is someone going to have the balls and take on the Fed once and for all.

A: Just stop paying the interest

B. Close down the Fed and seize all assets

C: Create an American National bank not affiliated to the Crown, any other bank, agency, military or anti=humanity group people.

D: Remove the 8 and or 9 rails in between the banking system.

E: Cancel all income tax payments until a restored Tax and Revenue is returned.

F: Replace the 7 existing Treasuries and restore the original.

G: Drop all references to the US or U.S. and rename the country America.

Here is one of the reasons America is in deep debt. Israel receives at least $10.1 million in U.S. military aid daily. The cumulative total of direct U.S. government payments to the Zionist state is around $140 billion. This amount does not include tax-privileged private subventions amounting to billions of dollars more each year. Most U.S. aid to the Palestinian victims of Israeli policies is also paid to Israel, which disburses these funds and the taxes it collects from Palestinians as it sees fit. Or not. $10M a day could feed all the homeless and likely provide shelter for our own people. But no the richest race on the planet harvests everyone else's funds.

Yet more so-called aid fraud was revealed here. Secretary of State Antony Blinken is being called on to freeze aid to Afghanistan following revelations that the assistance could be going to the Taliban. Newsflash: it was always going to the Taliban as reported in this show many years ago, courtesy of the CIA. A recent report from the Special Inspector General for Afghanistan Reconstruction (SIGAR), a government entity conducting oversight of U.S. aid to the country, determined that two of five bureaus within the Department of State (DOS) couldn't prove their compliance with counterterrorism vetting. Collectively, State could not demonstrate their compliance with its partner vetting requirements on awards that disbursed at least $293 million in Afghanistan, the report stated. The accounting in all Government departments is disturbing on a massive financial scale, not just the State department. Sen. Mike Braun, R-Ind., said the reported oversight was deeply alarming in a letter to Blinken and urged him to stop Afghanistan aid until the issue is addressed. The failure of the DOS to fully comply with counterterrorism vetting standards has strengthened and enriched the Taliban and its terrorist affiliates, he said. Further, when funds that are intended for humanitarian and development purposes end up supporting groups that perpetuate violence and instability, U.S. national security interests in the region are significantly undermined. It is imperative that State take immediate remedial and comprehensive action to rectify these issues to prevent similar occurrences in the future, wrote Braun. Good luck with that. Further, SIGAR found that $10.9 million in U.S. taxpayer money was paid to the Taliban-controlled government by 38 of the U.S.'s 65 implementing partners. However, the report said the amount was likely only a fraction of the total amount of U.S. assistance funds provided to the Taliban in taxes, fees, duties, and utilities, because UN agencies receiving U.S. funds did not collect data or provide relevant information about their sub awardees' payments. So, the UN also have no accountancy policies either, just amazing. According to SIGAR, more than $2.8 billion has been provided by the U.S. in both humanitarian and development aid to the country since the withdrawal. Notice they left out any mention of the National Security Act group, the CIA? As it was they who created the Taliban and funded them in the first place to fight Russia.

Here is another reason why everything is collapsing, particularly in finance. In their quest to put more things on top of other things than ever before, the lunatic socialist "Overclass" elites ruling over the West, have created a beyond all belief $315 trillion global dept bomb that's ready to explode, about which is documented: Since the onset of the pandemic, debt has surged by 21%, adding $54.1 trillion to the global total. Today, the largest share of debt is held by non-financial corporations, at $94.1 trillion, while government borrowings follow closely behind at $91.4 trillion. Meanwhile, the financial sector holds $70.4 trillion in debt and households carry $59.1 trillion. The great question remains to be answered if everybody is in debt, but to whom is it owed to?

The EU and the dangling carrot technique. The proposal to 11 eastern European countries, telling them that after you have entered into NATO, you will become members of the European Union, and thus you will become prosperous. As we know that did not happen, another illusion trick. After luring in Ukraine with the same carrot, never giving the RUS-Ukraine entrance into the EU, only wanting to grasp the 11 US-trillion of inground resources of the Territory. Plus being able to attack RUS itself through NA-tional ZI-onist proxies.

The US State Department approved potential weapons sales to Israel totaling roughly $20 billion on Tuesday 8/13, including an anticipated sale of up to 50 F-15 fighter jets valued at more than $18 billion. Which makes them complicit in crimes against humanity. I know there are good guys within the State Dept. I have spoken with them in the past, but they have to stand up against the leaders within their department who are promoting genocide in their name. The F-15 sale is believed to be the biggest weapons package for Israel and was announced alongside approved potential sales of medium tactical vehicles, medium-range air-to-air missiles, high-explosive mortar cartridges and tank cartridges. The notification of the State Department approval of those sales went to Congress on Tuesday, news releases from the Defense Security Cooperation Agency said. Weapons sales must be approved by Congress. In most circumstances, the administration formally informs Congress of the intended arms sales after informal discussions with the heads of the House Foreign Affairs and Senate Foreign Relations committees. Once the sales are formally notified, as they were on Tuesday, lawmakers have 30 days to block them. They can do that by passing a joint resolution of disapproval. The problem is most of those giving the approval to murder more children are leveraged by the anti-humanity group going by the name of AIPAC.

Seems Japan is the latest country to go against the anti-humanity group. After Japan didn't invite Israel to a Nagasaki ceremony over fears of possible protest disruptions, the U.S. ambassador Rahm Emanuel is joining with many of his counterparts in skipping the event, as well. Yet another high profile Jew representing America and acting as ambassadors, when they are everything but. He was once a member of the Irgun, a Zionist paramilitary organization that operated in Mandatory Palestine. A thug operating as an ambassador? Only in America it seems. Is the Israeli ambassador a different nationality? No chance he is Gilad Cohen. Cohen by name and by nature.

8/10 An Israeli airstrike hit a school-turned-shelter in Gaza early Saturday, killing at least 80 people and wounding nearly 50 others, Palestinian health authorities said, in one of the deadliest attacks of the 10-month Israel-Hamas war. A witness said it struck during prayers at a mosque in the building. It was the latest of what the U.N. human rights office called systematic attacks on schools by Israel, with at least 21 since July 4 leaving hundreds dead, including women and children. For many, schools are the last resort to find some shelter, it said after Saturday's attack. The Israeli military acknowledged it targeted the Tabeen school in central Gaza City, saying it hit a Hamas command center in a mosque in its compound and killed 19 Hamas and Islamic Jihad fighters. Izzat al-Rishq, a top Hamas official, denied there were militants in the school. Listen closely to this next line. The U.N. previously said that as of July 6, 477 out of 564 schools in Gaza had been directly hit or damaged in the war, adding that Israel has a duty under international law to provide safe shelter for the displaced. Confirming our piece recently is that anti-humanity group are deliberately killing all the children. Which equals no future fighters and no future offspring, so they have less to control or potentially none to control. Officially, some 40,000 Palestinians have been killed since October 7, although according to a Lancet study the true death toll could exceed 186,000. Israel's relentless war on Gaza has killed more than 40,000 Palestinians, at least 16,456 of them children. 16.5k children, all of whom were Hamas according to the anti-humanity ministry of lies. Gaza's Health Ministry on Thursday announced the grim milestone, a figure that is likely an undercount as most of the missing 10,000 Palestinians are believed to be buried under mountains of rubble. Other estimated figures suggest the death toll is around 180K. Shortly after the ministry's announcement, a new round of ceasefire talks aimed at stopping the war began in the Qatari capital Doha on Thursday afternoon. The United Nations says Israel's bombardment has damaged or destroyed two-thirds of buildings across the Strip. Today marks a grim milestone for the world, said UN High Commissioner for Human Rights Volker Turk. This unimaginable situation is overwhelmingly due to recurring failures by the Israeli military to comply with the rules of war. Two things wrong with that last statement, why do we have rules of war in the first place? Why don't we have rules of peace? Has the Israeli military or otherwise ever complied with rules? No chance their Talmudic law supersedes our laws. Their Day of Atonement takes care of the rest. The UN knew that fact yet continue to talk and talk, like NATO = No Action Talk Only.

MEDICAL NEWS:

Interesting times in the law courts currently, as another exposure of the deleting and banning orders preventing the truth. Americans who already had a problem trusting the CDC got a new reason for it on Friday. A federal judge ruled that the huge federal agency has engaged in likely unlawful practices when it comes to retaining the emails of low-level employees, according to Politico. In fact, after 90 days, it wasn't retaining them at all. Judge Rudolph Contreras of the United States District Court for the District of Columbia, issued an injunction on Friday ordering the CDC to cease its practice of deleting the emails of former employees—and also ordered the National Archives to work with the Justice Department to attempt to retrieve emails that have been deleted. The injunction was issued in response to a lawsuit filed by the conservative group America First Legal. The group published a thread on the social media account X sharing the news: We just secured a preliminary injunction in our lawsuit against the Biden-Harris CDC for illegally deleting employees' emails.

The National Archives and Attorney General Garland must now work to recover illegally deleted records and make CDC comply with the law. American First Legal pulled no punches when it came to describing the behavior. The Biden-Harris Administration was actively destroying the records of federal employees at the CDC in blatant violation of the law, and we are pleased that the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia has ordered a stop to their illegal conduct, Gene Hamilton, the group's executive director, said in a statement. The Biden-Harris Administration's politicization of records management must end. That cannot just apply to the Biden team, the people need to know what the lockdown and job President knew and what he was involved in, in the cover up as well?

Here is the next stage for killing off or controlling the Palestinians. The World Health Organization (WHO) has announced plans to send 1.2 million polio vaccines to Gaza after the virus was detected in wastewater. The agency's chief, Dr Tedros Adhanom Ghebreyesus, outlined plans for two rounds of vaccination, targeting 600,000 children under the age of eight. The first round is due to start on 17 August. Polio is a serious infectious disease that causes a fever and, in some cases, can lead to paralysis or death. It is spread primarily through contact with fecal matter. Gaza remains the focus of a 10-month-long Israeli military operation which has left only 16 out of 36 of the territory's hospitals even partially functional. It will be a huge logistical challenge to ensure the 1.2 million vaccine doses are deployed successfully, said WHO official Andrea King. I guarantee that type of "aid" will not require 7 checkpoints for delivery.

The WHO called for a ceasefire and requested absolute freedom of movement during the rollout of the vaccine program. It said it was in the process of obtaining the necessary approvals to enter Gaza. However, previous calls for a ceasefire on humanitarian grounds have not been granted by Israel. The Israeli military said in July it had begun vaccinating its soldiers against the disease. Soldiers as guinea pigs again? The genetic nature of the samples indicated they had been circulating in Gaza for some time, maybe as early as since September of last year, WHO polio specialist Dr Hamed Jafari said in July. Which was before the war started, just in case people wish to blame Israel for it, when it is clear they have been involved in much hidden skullduggery. He added that Gaza offered ideal conditions for polio transmission, because of displacement, overcrowding, sewage contamination and lack of clean water. The WHO says immunization rates in Gaza and the occupied West Bank were optimal before the conflict. Polio vaccine coverage was estimated at 99% in 2022, although it had declined to 89% last year, according to the latest data. Last week, Gaza's Hamas-run health ministry said the territory had become a polio epidemic zone. It blamed the reappearance of the virus on Israel's military offensive and the resulting destruction of health facilities. Which maybe the case, but with full immunization before the attack, suggests that those vaccines don't work. It is called immunization for a reason, it is supposed to make you immune, I guess not. The WHO says that fewer than half of Gaza's primary healthcare facilities are operational. As many as 70% of sewage pumps in Gaza have been destroyed and not a single wastewater treatment plant is working, the agency said, presenting the perfect breeding ground for disease to spread. Testing run by WHO last month showed that sewage samples collected in two areas of Gaza were positive for polio.

Another damning Covid vaccine report is now out into the public. With this increasing it is more likely they will issue a new pandemic to counteract the first one. A new Japanese study published in the International Journal of Vaccine Theory Practice and Research, proves that Pfizer and Moderna vaccines contain unauthorized animated worm-like entities, invisible to the human eye, that swim, wriggle and assemble themselves into complex structures. Sounds like the symbiotes from the Stargate series to me. As the Dr. Young Mi Lee and Dr. Daniel Broudy from Okinawa Christian University explain, these worm-like entities are responsible for causing clots inside millions of human bodies around the world since the mRNA roll out. When these processes are replicated, the results are the same, as this deeply disturbing footage from Died Suddenly reveals.

But it gets even worse. Dr. Young Mi Lee and Dr. Daniel Broudy isolated vaccine vials for three weeks, then examined them under 400 times magnification and found what they describe as undisclosed additional engineered components, also known as nanotechnology. As Lee and Broudy observed, when the nanotechnology is energized it creates discs, chains, spirals, tubes, and right-angle structures. What are these nanorobots and why would Pfizer and Big Pharma want to secretly inject thousands of billions of them into unsuspecting human beings?

The questions that needs to be asked is where they aware of this prior? And what is the purpose of it? Lee and Broudy were astonished to find the additional engineered components energize when they are placed near cellphones or computers. These are nanobots that communicate with a central database, the IP of which cannot be traced to a location or a single computer. Are the vaccinated already walking, talking human cyborgs, fulfilling as yet unknown functions for the global elite, before they keel over and die at the flick of a switch? Bill Gates wasn't joking when he let slip that mRNA contains nanotechnology that is very self-assembling. Remember he also said it was a software upgrade, which reminds me of the 2018 movie Extinction. Evidence is now emerging that the elite have implemented their plan, without our consent, to turn the human race into a vast battery reserve to be harvested in secret. Unfortunately for the elite, this secret has been blown wide open by researchers in Japan and around the world.

The Japanese study concludes that the smart microscopic components are part of the global elite's long-planned well-funded Internet of Bodies, which was described as a kind of synthetic global central nervous system, turning humans into controllable Biohybrid Magnetic Robots. They also want you to know that graphene oxide is good for you. The mainstream media are desperate to convince you this is just a conspiracy theory, but we have the evidence for you in black and white. A patent granted to Bill Gates awarded the self-appointed world health czar the exclusive rights to computerize human bodies and use them as local wireless networks. Microsoft was awarded US Patent 6,754,472, which is titled: Method and apparatus for transmitting power and data using the human body. Did anybody consult you about whether you are willing to hand over to Bill Gates the exclusive rights to your body? The elite always tell us their plans, but nobody wants to take them at their word. It's called Revelation of the Method, a subliminal psychological warfare tool that serves as a clever and occult way of demoralizing the masses and increasing the powers of the elites who rule over us. It's time we start taking these totalitarian criminals and psychopaths at their word. THI warned of this in the Clowns in Panic show and also Expose series particularly Part 10 and FHSTOS Plus 10. What happens next is anyone's guess. But how Gates is still alive with millions of people dead or infected is beyond me.

SOCIETY NEWS:

Another example of the stupidity of following the divisive programs and how consequences of actions are now unfolding. The phrase go woke, go broke, has become a popular cautionary slogan among critics, who believe that companies paying too much attention to social justice or progressive causes risk alienating their customer base. As 20 major U.S. companies that faced backlash after taking stands on various issues, are all reporting major down turns in their trade and stock.

Many of which are now going bust or running close to it. The days of ramming programs into people's faces and expecting them to absorb it, appears now to be over. I started off this section of the show highlighting the programs. Yet most of the reports in this section now is highlighting the failure of the programs. A sea of change is underway, as finally the people are fighting back and hurting these clowns where it bothers them the most, their pockets. Further evidence of people not supporting programs, comes with this fact. With Kennedy supporting Israel that has resulted in him losing support from young people. A poll is saying that he is down on votes from 10 % to 5 %. A 50% reduction on one stance.

Here is another example of a failing program as well. A major new study has debunked the narrative that increased carbon dioxide in the atmosphere from human activity is causing so-called global warming. Remember though the clowns changed the name in the classic anti-humanity group style to climate change. The study, published in Science Direct, confirms what climate scientists should have told the public a long time ago. The warming effect of carbon dioxide in the atmosphere is naturally limited, according to the new study. In fact, that limit has already been reached, decades ago. Oops. The study found that carbon dioxide emissions have zero impact on the Earth's global temperatures. Even if we dug up all the world's coal and extracted all the world's oil and burned it in one giant pyre, its CO2 emissions wouldn't heat the planet. The findings of this study directly conflict with the globalist climate crisis narrative being promoted by the United Nations-funded science community. Even the taxpayer-funded National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) continues to push these global warming claims. In a statement explaining climate change to children, NASA presents the greenhouse effect as a simple cause-and-effect: How are humans impacting the greenhouse effect? Human activities are changing Earth's natural greenhouse effect. Burning fossil fuels like coal and oil puts more carbon dioxide into our atmosphere. NASA has observed increases in the amount of carbon dioxide and some other greenhouse gases in our atmosphere. Too much of these greenhouse gases can cause Earth's atmosphere to trap more and more heat. This causes Earth to warm up. What NASA doesn't mention is that carbon dioxide doesn't cause Earth to warm up infinitely. I bet NASA didn't tell the children their group came from the Nazis, or their base in Florida houses greys, or the fact they punctured holes in the Ozone layer with their rockets, or the fact that is being established now, that no scientist is an expert. Like the Aztec crash EBE said, your science hasn't advanced in 500 years. The three Polish scientists at the Military University of Technology in Warsaw who authored this latest study, were following in the footsteps of other scientists who drew similar conclusions in their own research, published in the last few years.

And you know sometimes words have two meanings. Climate (n.) late 14c., horizontal zone of the earth's surface measured by lines parallel to the equator, from Old French climat region, part of the earth, from Latin clima region; slope of the earth, from Greek klima region, zone, literally an inclination, slope, thus slope of the earth from the equator to pole, from a suffixed form of PIE root *klei- to lean. And so has nothing to do with greenhouse gases or weather initially. Change of temperature gradually came to be considered more important, and by late 14c. the word was being used in the sense that a distinct region of the earth's surface is considered with respect to weather. The sense shift to combined results of weather associated with a region, characteristic condition of a country or region, with reference to the variation of heat, cold, rainfall, wind, etc., is attested by c. 1600. So, despite the change it was related to specific portions, not the overall planet itself. Figuratively, of mental or moral atmosphere, from 1660s. A change of climate means a change of zone, but these clowns want a climatic change, so they can acclimatize. Perhaps acclimatize gives you a deeper clue? Intransitive sense adapt to a new climate is from 1861. The extended form acclimatize is now more common in the older sense of this word and generally in reference to plants or animals. Would that be chimeric animals? Transforming the climate for a different species? Acclimatize (v.) 1824, modify a living thing to suit a foreign climate (transitive).

The anti-humanity group have committed many atrocities and their sheer arrogance of thinking they are untouchable is beginning to surface now. Here is what an anti-humanity rabbi stated on pedophilia. An adult man who has sexual intercourse with a toddler, it is nothing – there is no crime. What is a toddler for this matter? A child that is less than 3 years of age. The toddlers hymen or virginity grows back. So an adult man who comes sexually on the toddler, it is nothing. It is not considered to be sexual intercourse, since she was less than three years of age. It is as if he has just poked her in the eye with a finger. As we said earlier, if you poke an eye with a finger, a tear drops, but then the eye clears. Another tear appears and replaces the previous one, the same thing with the hymen of a toddler who is less than 3 years of age. So having stated it was ok in the Talmud to defile girls from aged three years and one day, now they declare it is ok to sexually abuse them before the age of three. Their arrogance will be their downfall and it is coming soon. #anti-humanity group do not belong here.

EXPOSE:

This is an interesting article and exposure of his story only now making the light of day. Yet again it shows up the nefarious intentions of the US Military and its role in the destruction of our planet. Yet no accountability is brought forth, neither then or now, nor is there any discussions of the long lasting implications of their wanton destruction. People speak about climate change like they know what they are talking about, but what about the planetary changes brought about by the US military and several other organizations of the control system? Where are the discussions on that? Following the two New York Times articles in April-1959, all news about the United States secretly exploding atomic bombs over Brazil was blacklisted, that is until September 2021, which was when the American military organization Defense Threat Reduction Agency (DTRA) released its document. Fact Sheet: Operation ARGUS, wherein it revealed:

Operation ARGUS was the designation given to the three high-altitude nuclear test shots conducted by the United States in the South Atlantic Ocean from August 27 to September 10, 1958. The ARGUS shots were conducted to test the Christofilos theory, which argued that high-altitude nuclear detonations would create a radiation belt in the upper regions of the Earth's atmosphere. So they were poisoning our atmosphere because of the obsession with Russia again. Utter lunatics, yet the public gives over a trillion dollars a year to these psychopaths with the banal idea they are protecting us, what an absurd illusion that is. It was theorized that the radiation belt would have military implications, including degradation of radio and radar transmissions, damage or destruction of the arming and fusing mechanisms of ICBM warheads, and endangering the crews of orbiting space vehicles that might enter the belt. The orbiting space craft is related to the launch of Sputnik, but it could just as well be about extraterrestrial craft as well. The above reminds me of the Van Allen belt, but is it true? Van Allen radiation belt is a zone of energetic charged particles, most of which originate from the solar wind, that are captured by and held around a planet by that planet's magnetosphere. Earth has two such belts, and sometimes others may be temporarily created. The belts are named after James Van Allen, who is often credited with their discovery.

But was he? Well it turns out there was others involved in the discovery, namely Kristian Birkeland, Carl Størmer, Enrico Medi and none other than Nicholas Christofilos. The Van Allen belt theory was set up to tell humans they could not escape this planet, which is total bs. Who was Nicholas Constantine Christofilos the inventor of the theory? He was a member of the notorious and infamous JASON society, more on them in a future show. He maintained an amateur interest in accelerator physics and high-energy particle physics, and studied German and American texts concerning the subjects extensively. Which was later applied to accelerators at Brookhaven National Laboratory (BNL), Cornell University and CERN. He was the principal researcher for Operation Argus, a series of high-altitude nuclear detonations intended to create a radiation belt in the upper regions of the Earth's atmosphere as a defense against Soviet ICBMs. Another scientist psychopath then it seems.

Historical Background:

The tests were conducted in complete secrecy and were not announced until the following year. The organization conducting these tests was Task Force 88, a naval organization consisting of 9 ships and approximately 4,500 men. A few specialists from the other services and the Atomic Energy Commission and their contractors were with the fleet. The first director of the Atomic Energy Commission was David Eli Lilienthal, born in Illinois and born to Jewish parents. Just amazing how many times that happens, but it is not a cohen-cidence at this point. Remember another lead Jew was involved in this as well, Oppenheimer. Coordinated measurement programs using satellite, rocket, aircraft, and surface stations were carried out by the services and other government agencies and contractors throughout the world. The latter two sounds like the CIA to me. The ships of Task Force 88 were the antisubmarine warfare support aircraft carrier USS TARAWA (CVS 40), the destroyers USS BEARSS (DD 654) and USS WARRINGTON (DD 843), the destroyer escorts USS COURTNEY (DE 1021) and USS HAMMERBERG (DE 1015), the fleet oilers USS NEOSHO (AO 143) and USS SALAMONIE (AO 26), the missile trials ship USS NORTON SOUND (AVM 1), and the seaplane tender USS ALBEMARLE (AV 5). The low-yield (1 to 2 kiloton) devices were lifted to about a 300-mile altitude by rockets fired from the ship, USS NORTON SOUND. The detonations occurred at such distances above the Earth that there was no possibility of exposure of task force personnel to ionizing radiation. That is a pure lie, they were exposing all the soldiers involved in this program, whether by consent or not. The results of the ARGUS operation proved the validity of the Christofilos theory. The establishment of an electron shell derived from neutron and beta decay of fission products and ionization of device materials in the upper fringe of the atmosphere was demonstrated. The operation not only provided data on military considerations but also produced a great mass of geophysical data, pure scientific material of great value. Did that data then get used to create the chemtrail program?

Radiation Doses at Operation ARGUS:

Records indicate that 4,000 film badges were procured and stowed on board task force ships, as were alpha radiation sensors. Only 264 of the film badges were actually used. They were mounted on the ships' superstructures, worn by the pilots of the four observer planes, and used by the individuals who handled the warhead on USS NORTON SOUND. The actual film badges and dose records were lost along with many of the other records of this secret operation, but a summary was found in a post-operation report. Amazing how many times that happens as well. The legendary cover up act in full force again, the National Security Act. Of the 264 film badges distributed to the task force, the highest reading was 0.010 rem, which was below the detection limit for the film type used. The highest recorded film reading, 0.025 rem, was by a control film packet placed in a radiation-free area within one of the ships. The dosimetry program confirmed that ARGUS personnel did not receive radiation doses from their participation in the operation. The 264 badges was the pro pagan da samples, the 3736 not covered for assessment told the real truth.

The release of the American military document Fact Sheet:

Operation ARGUS in September-2021, was ordered by President Donald Trump upon the urging of his close personal friend and ally Brazilian President Jair Bolsonaro, both of whom were thereafter ousted from power in elections rigged by demonic socialist forces. Sounds more like faction wars to me. The article stated, both of whom rightly feared the demonic legacy of American physicist Nicholas Christofilos, the creator of the Christofilos Effect theory, who worked with the CIA on Project Stargate to harness psychic energy. The anti-humanity puppets Langley are always involved in skullduggery. About whom the Newsweek article New History of DARPA Reveals Wacky, Terrifying Schemes revealed in 2017: A physicist named Nicholas Christofilos wanted to build a planetary force field to protect America from nuclear weapons. When that didn't prove feasible, he came up with Project Seesaw, which involved drilling tunnels under the continent through which particle beams could be accelerated and aimed at incoming missiles. He solved the problem of the colossal expense of drilling such tunnels by proposing to nuke the holes. Think of it like a suppository, Christofilos told skeptical fellow scientists. Perhaps some should have put a bullet sized suppository of the same material up his ass and detonated it. As it goes through the rock, it creates a perfect tube. An effective particle beam would also drain the entire U.S. electrical grid, so he proposed nuking another vast hole next to the Great Lakes and draining them in just 15 minutes to power vast generators. Perhaps that explains some of the mysteries of other lakes mysteriously draining, like Lake Powell? A scientist who was there for that presentation said it went over well. The scientists in the room all nodded their head and said, My God, Nick, that may work. Proving scientist are completely one track minded, deluded and have zero flow of understanding of what they are doing. Consequences of actions are lost on these people. Project Seesaw was never funded at the requested $300 million, but it was the longest-lasting project the agency ever planned, still on the table the mid-1970s. Where did the idea come from? The Earth defense system installed hundreds, if not thousands of years ago, demonstrated in the Tunguska event 1908 that blew up an incoming object above the Earth with lasers. As to why President Bolsonaro wanted all the information he could obtain about Operation ARGUS, is because of the strong belief among Brazilians that the exploding of American atomic bombs above them was done to create an interdimensional portal.

There is precedence to that theory in terms of what happened with the Philadelphia Experiment in 1943. Said to have been conducted by a scientist called Franklin Vincent Reno, who was later discredited and put in jail for 3 years for allegedly being a Soviet spy. All of which sounds like the perfect cover up story. Despite him having been given by the war department, a gold medal for devising a complicated bomb table seven years prior. The USS Eldridge not only became invisible, but disappeared from the area and teleported to Norfolk, Virginia, over 200 miles away. Which is not only linked to the US Navy, but the Majestic 12 group, The JASON group and Norfolk, Virginia is the main hub in America for the original SSP, the secret space force not ran by humans. The Brazilian portal theory was a belief held by messianic Brazil cult leader Aladino Félix, who wrote a book called My Contact with Flying Saucers and led a terrorist campaign lasting between December 1967 to August 1968—and today, mysterious groups abound in Brazil like Stargate Brazil, which says about itself: Stargate Brazil was literally born from nothing, a space where everything is possible. Unconformed with the status quo, our boldness allows us to overcome the limits of our own minds, becoming meta-humans in real life. We believe in the true value of each human being and enable the recognition of this preciousness. We are transformers of consciousness, and we challenge the current paradigm by providing our entire community with a unique experience, of what we believe to be the most important thing when becoming a remote viewer. Recognizing yourself and what you are capable of, using your own intrinsic power in your biomind structure.

Isn't it funny that telling people they are their own power and capable of more, is labeled a cult?

But psychotic scientists can come up with banal non flow ideas and are celebrated, strange world we co-created here it seems. But there is another element supporting the portal theory, as it was revealed that creating fission explosions punched ripples into the next dimension, which is why we ended up with greater off world visitations after Project Manhattan. Fully supporting the Brazilians strong belief in interdimensional portals, otherwise known as star gates, is world-renowned French computer scientist Jacques Vallée, the original inventor of the internet whose over six decades of investigating UFO's led to his supporting the Interdimensional UFO hypothesis, about which he documented in his book Dimensions: A Casebook Of Alien Contact. Brazilians are also fully supported by world-renowned American religious scholar Professor-Doctor Diana Pasulka, who, in her book American Cosmic: UFOs, Religion, Technology, meticulously documents that entities known as angels, demons and UFO's have been using star gate interdimensional portals since the most ancient times to interact with and influence humanity. The portals debate goes on and some believe they can still be opened, whilst others believe they are closed due to the quarantine. But the theory of invisibility lives on with cloaking technology, large associated with military operations, all whilst trying to deny they exist. But the greatest cloak of invisibility is done by the masses themselves, as they magically disappear when you ask people to do something or make them personally responsible for anything. But in overview the appearance of craft, whether UFO's with aliens or not are seen briefly in our skies, only for them to disappear just as fast. They didn't disappear at all, perhaps they just left our dimension and subsequently our perceived reality. Many people have seen them, but how many believe they are extra-dimensional craft? Too few. So, for many people, seeing is not believing, is it? Which is ironic in religious circles as they "blindly" believe what they don't or can't see. All of which proves that belief is created from a non-observational perspective only, hence the term blind faith, another case of can't see won't see.

FHSTOS SECTION:

Our book covered many varieties of the takeover of countries and people's, particularly during the time period 1880 and 1925. This in part reveals other takeovers again initiated by the anti-humanity group on a much wider scale, under the radar of WW1 and the proceeding global treaties done in the early 1920's. The Jesuit Military Order have been working to subvert China since 1582 when Matteo Ricci first landed in Macau. By 1687 they had 200 schools dotted around China. The Chinese youth have been indoctrinated with Jesuit ideologies over many centuries, for the purpose of revolution which finally erupted in the early 20th century. Kaifeng Jew Mao Zedong was also indoctrinated by Jewish Communist ideology and was used by the Babylonian Jesuits to destroy the old traditional order in China. He was a disciple of the Jewish death and destruction policies of Marx and Lenin and they became part of the blood Red Army. Mao originally fought the Kuomintang but later went into league with them. It should be noted that the policies of the Kuomintang were also Marxist-Leninist. Incidentally the Kuomintang was not started in China, but Honolulu, Hawaii in 1894. Following their own death march, the Kuomintang retreated back to another island in 1949, the now disputed island of Taiwan. The old adage of we fund both sides and they then eliminate each other springs to mind. Carrying out a ruthless and scorched Earth policy, Kaifeng Jew Mao murdered generations of educated, civilized Chinese. Mao was also at a young age a supporter of the Jewish Bolsheviks takeover of Russia. Kaifeng Jew Mao was a willing tool of Babylonian Rome. Kaifeng Jew Mao's Cultural Revolution produced a mind controlled socially engineered population that follows the dictates of the Jewish Communist Party today. The Babylonian Jesuits and Babylonian Jews are in control of China. Mao's Jewish based policies were responsible for a vast number of deaths, with estimates ranging from 40 to 80 million victims due to starvation, persecution, prison labor and mass executions, and his government has been described as totalitarian. Just like what happened to Russia, Germany, Armenia, the EU with WW1 and 2, South and Central America with Operation Gladio same program and same beings. Next stop is North America, the final battlefield. Did you know if the FBI did a background investigation on Kamala Harris, she never would have passed? Why? because of her 40-year close ties with Marxists, Communists, Maoists and Communist China. The Indian and the sub gray meet again it seems, just like our book revealed. Perhaps the word Jesuit is another name change and given the evidence of the hidden campaign of the cat-holic order, perhaps Jesuit is the short form for Jew-suit?

So who are the Kaifeng Jews?

This has all the elements of assimilation via the Cosmic Genetics series of mixing in with the enemy and then taking over their land, wealth and culture. This is not a case of we came in the form of the enemy, but we became to look like the enemy and so over time they then presented themselves as something they are not. The origin of the Kaifeng Jews and the date of their arrival is one of the most intensely debated topics in the field of Chinese-Jewish relations. This article will reveal as to why China became a superpower and a financial powerhouse as well, because as you know by now, it is all about the shekels with this group. No surprise there, as they have an innate tendency to rewrite history. Though some scholars date their arrival to the Tang Dynasty (618–907), or even earlier, Steven Sharot, reflecting the majority view, considers that the most probable date for the formation of a Jewish community in Kaifeng was sometime during the Song dynasty (960–1279). That prior to the Song, Jewish merchants were active in China appears probable from the fact, that the Eastern Islamic Persian geographer Ibn Khordadbeh in his Book of Roads and Kingdoms ca. 870, describes the Jewish Radhanite merchants as operating over a wide arc from Western Europe to China. The Radhanite group were covered in Angels, Demons, codes and Lines, plus FHSTOS Part 5. That has been their most common form of infiltration and takeover, by the use of merchants. All about the shekels you see. Remember Russia banned Jewish merchants or allowed them and double taxed them. It has been conjectured that this group constituted the first of two waves of Jewish settlement in China, the second being associated with the Mongol conquest and the establishment of the Yuan dynasty. Which confirms our book and their connection to the Mongols and the Khan/Cohens.

According to a scholarly consensus, the Jewish community of Kaifeng primarily consisted of people of Persian Jewish origin. Persian Jewish where the Donmeh. Uncertainty persists as to whether they came overland through Chang'an, via either of the two Silk Roads, or whether they travelled inland after they reached coastal cities like Canton/Khānfū or Quanzhou/Zaitun by sea. I think most thought there was only one Silk Road not two, Ibn Khordadbeh's Rhadanites used both routes. I wonder how many "Silk Roads" were below the surface? Notice the Saudi connection with Ibn? House of Saud also dripping in wealth are Jewish as well. Some evidence has been interpreted to suggest, that their ancestors may have mostly hailed from the Bukharan Jewish branch of Persian Jews who had settled in Central Asia. No they were from Uzbekistan and part of the exodus from India to Egypt. In all likelihood, all of the founders of the community were male Jewish merchants: the arduous, dangerous nature of the route, and the length of time which they needed to spend in order to travel on it, would have probably forced them to rule out bringing their wives, and after they settled in Kaifeng, they married Chinese women. A common theme which makes one believe it was part of a coordinated plan of Cosmic Genetics.

With regard to this first wave, among the vast trove of documents which Aurel Stein discovered in Dunhuang in Gansu, northwestern China, was a bill of sale for sheep which dated back to 718 CE, written in Judeo-Persian with Hebrew characters. They wrote their documents on paper, something which was unavailable in the West, together with a fragment of a Selihoth which was probably composed in the eighth or ninth century. Selihoth was originally a prayer for the Day of Atonement. A century later, the Arab geographer Abū Zayd Ḥasan al-Sīrāfī mentioned in 910, a massacre which occurred in Canton in 878/9, in which not only Muslims and Christians but Jews were also killed, attesting to the latter group's presence in China. Trade with China was predominantly maritime, and dominated by Arabs, with many Jews also engaged in this network. But where the Arabs the owners or just they were slaves of the Jewish merchants? Just like the African slave ships. By the 11th century, more than a million Arabs lived in port enclaves, where they were allowed self-administration. At least 7 synagogue communities are attested for this period in all major Chinese port cities, such as Yangzhou, Ningbo and Hangzhou. Goods from these coastal centers were transported inland via the Grand Canal to the Yellow River and then by barge to Kaifeng. The Jewish community that was eventually established in Kaifeng survived the collapse of these sister communities on the eastern seaboard, all of which disappeared in the 15-16th centuries when the Ming dynasty's ability to protect its coast was crippled by constant raiding from Japanese pirates. Is that why the Jewish led Manhattan Project dropped bombs on Japan? Seems they have long memories in terms of retribution, yet short memories when the truth is presented. Kaifeng was a cosmopolitan industrial metropolis with 600,000 to a million inhabitants in Northern Song times, which formed an intense hub for overland trade via the Silk Road and the commercial riverine networks connecting it to the eastern seaboard. Through it vast amounts of grain tribute also passed. Its strategic importance and wealth were recognized by successive dynastic powers over the period 905–959, such as the Liang (who gave it its present name), Jin, later Han and Zhou who all made it their capital, as did the Northern Song when they unified the empire, until the city was conquered by the Jurchen in 1127. Under siege, it surrendered to the Mongols in 1233, it would have been attractive to Persian Jewish merchants. Again suggesting the Mongols and the Jewish were one and the same.

The founding colony's members may have specialized in the manufacturing, dyeing, or pattern printing of cotton fabrics. By the early 16th century, an inscription mentions not only craftsmen, farmers and traders among them, but also scholars, physicians and officials, political and administrative, as well as military men in important posts. A Ming emperor conferred eight surnames upon the Jews. Other evidence points to 70-73 surnames. The late 1672 inscription states that at the synagogue's inception in 1163, there were 73 clans and 500 families in the Kaifeng Jewish community.

The Hongzhi stele (1489) registers the names of 14 clans.

Some Jesuit reports inaccurately stated the Kaifeng Jews did not intermarry, covering up the program is why. The Ming dynasty (1368–1644), in reaction to the foreign dynasty it replaced, laid down a policy of discrimination against foreigners, such as the resident Mongols and Semu. Semu is the name of a caste established by the Yuan dynasty. The 31 Semu categories referred to people who came from Central and West Asia. They had come to serve the Yuan dynasty by enfranchising under the dominant Mongol caste. Semu is said to originate from colored eyes, suggesting their eyes were different from other cultures on Earth, scholars are trying to deny that. But Semu translates as pseudo, pseudo means false or not genuine. In other words, not real people, fitting if you ask me. As these “people” have acted anything but real and genuine humans. Laws regarding ethnic endogamy were issued that forbade members of such communities from marrying within their own groups. They were at liberty to marry only Han Chinese. Failure to do so would lead to enslavement. All of which confirms the program of assimilation into that culture and community and to hide their true origins. If you were a genuine all peaceful race, you would not require draconian laws to hide your entity or purpose and so pseudo does fit. To what degree these measures were applied is unknown, but is evident from their Memorial Book that intermarriage took place on a large scale among the Kaifeng Jews certainly from Ming and it may be assumed, in Qing times. From the 19th century onwards it became the norm.

They followed the Chinese custom of foot binding. An ancient practice to make feet smaller and one has to question whether this was to replicate the cloven foot beings? The custom of the levirate marriage was retained, and polygamy was practiced: one Kaifeng Jew, the Zhang clan’s Zhang Mei, is recorded in the Memorial Book as having six wives, while Jin Rong-Zhang from the Jin clan had five. All very Mormon I have to say. Levirate marriage is a type of marriage in which the brother of a deceased man is obliged to marry his brother’s widow. Levirate marriage has been practiced by societies with a strong clan structure in which exogamous marriage (i.e. marriage outside the clan) is forbidden. Breaking up the word into Levi-rate may point to the origins. But the multiple wives and offspring is a demographic program to boost their numbers. When Kaifeng Jews introduced themselves to the Jesuits in 1605, they called themselves members of the house of “Israel”. Yes the House of not the country of, something most scholars tend to miss. The Jesuits also noted that a Chinese exonym labelled them as Tiao jin jiao, the sect that plucks the sinews. Yes eventually they get on everyone’s nerves. This term arose from observing that, in memory of Jacob's wrestling with the angel, their butchers extracted the sciatic nerve as required in Nikkur, marking them as distinct from Muslims who otherwise, like them, also refrained from eating pork. Perhaps Muslims and Jews in part were originally one and the same race, and these Jews are in part a breakaway group? Cosmic Genetics was littered with examples over time of one group becoming two and then splitting again. The evidence on the stelae shows that they identified the emergence of Judaism as coinciding with the early Zhou Dynasty (ca. 1046–256 BCE, in modern reckoning). Abraham was recorded as wakening as from sleep to the 19th generation from Pangu, Adam and grasping profound mysteries, founded Judaism. Awakening from sleep? Is that describing the sleeping pods? This is said to have occurred in the 146th year of the Zhou Dynasty (i.e., 977 BCE). The floruit of Moses in turn is set in the 613th year of the same dynasty, namely around 510 BCE. In their prayers and liturgy, the traditional community followed Talmudic usage, celebrating all the Jewish festivals, observing the prayers, rituals and days of fasting variously associated with the Jewish Sabbath, Yom Kippur, Rosh Hashanah, Passover, Shavuot, Sukkot, Hanukkah, Purim and Tisha B'Av. Within a few centuries, nonetheless, practices regarding the coming of age ceremony, wedding and death and burial were acclimatized to the respective Chinese customs, though the text of the Kaddish in the Memorial Book suggests the prayer was recited at funerals. By sometime after the mid-19th century all of these practices appear to have been abandoned, including the observance of the Sabbath. Is that because they were about to move against Russia and assimilate and congregate there? From the 17th century, further assimilation had begun to erode these traditions as the rate of intermarriage between Jews and other ethnic groups such as the Han Chinese increased. With some Kaifeng families, Muslim men did marry their Jewish women, but the converse did not happen. In 1849, an observer who had contact with the Kaifeng Jewish community noted that the Jews are quite Chinese in appearance. So the assimilation was complete, Chinese appearance, Jewish customs, Jewish religions and Jewish trading. All setting the stage for a population growth based upon serfdom, low production costs, asset stripping and shekel domination of another country. It has been repeated many times. The Taiping Rebellion of the 1850s led to the dispersal of the community, but it later returned to Kaifeng. To avoid the threat of becoming defunct, the Kaifeng community dispatched members to Shanghai in order to seek help from Sephardic European Jewish merchants active there. The funds that were collected to this end were diverted to assist an influx of Russian Jews fleeing pogroms.

These pieces shows how it all unfolds over vast periods of time. What we think of as countries and people has become distorted the world over by these harvesting usurpers. They will stop at nothing to infiltrate everything to insure they have the power and wealth, all based upon sheer greed. China is another victim of, we came in the form of the enemy.

MYSTERY SECTION:

Here is a few questions from a member and my answers which I thought would be beneficial to a wider audience.

Q: Where did the grays come from and since they admit they are not from here and they get the calling from the mother ship is this still active?

A: They came from several places, the worst is the Orion greys - no they were cut off from comms as well if they reside here.

Q: Why have the grays not been dealt with by the council?

A: How many people accept an alien entity being amongst us? Too few and because there are too few accepting that reality and then even fewer humans complain about it and them, then they dance on the edge without crossing it - hence people have to recognize the problem and then to stop consenting. Which species operates a planet is not their overall concern, unless it becomes a threat to the planet itself. The point is, we were taught how to defend it, warned about the alien threats, actions and behaviors, yet chose to ignore them all.

Q: I have said it all along the real issue here is alien invasion always was and still is. If the council does not accept and help with this then are they not complacent in it? Just like the governments are complacent in genocide.

A: Council is more concerned with the planet not people's choice of what they accept or not. I am not an advocate or a detractor of the Council, but we have to stop making them responsible for our planet. It is time we grew up and learned to work together. A united humanity is all that is required to turn this thing around. If the people are not prepared to come together to solve our own issues, why should the Council? Here is an example of our own lack of effort and maybe something deeply profound. If someone steals your car, do you just ignore it or fight to get it back? Everyone will fight to get it back because that is a personal property. But in overview that is service to self, someone took what was mine. But how many think of the planet in the same way? The answer is very few. Remember we were tasked as the Guardians of this planet, and we have let clever, devious but inferior species take it off us. I will ask again, how many of you view the Earth as personal property to be looked after? Did it even cross your mind, never mind your heart? So, if you don't look after or care for something enough, someone with devious mindsets will.

Here is a pondering for you? Ancient geographers divided the earth into zones based on the angle of sun on the slope of the earth's surface and the length of daylight. Some reckoned 24 or 30 climates between Meroe on the upper Nile in Sudan and the mythical Rhiphaean Mountains which were supposed to bound the Arctic. The mythical Rhiphaean Mountains? If it was only mythical why was it designated as a zone for climates then? The denial of Da'Arya lives on it seems, plus anything to do with Russia being denied also, all to keep the Out of Africa conspiracy running. A change of climate took place, going north, at a place where the day was a half hour longer or shorter, according to season, than the starting point. Others counted 7, each dominated by a particular planet or 12 dominated by zodiac signs. But there was 12 planets prior and 12+1 zodiacs. But this got me pondering of whether the dark forces were destroying this solar system by removing planets? As a reminder from Vedas Part 2. A Star is a celestial body around which there is a system consisting of 1 to 7 Earths or Stars. That is, there are star systems where several small ones revolve around a large star; this central luminary is called the Star. The Sun is a celestial body around which more than 7 Earths revolve. That is, if up to 7 Earths revolve around the sun, it is a Star, and if 8 or more orbits, it is the Sun. That's why there are Star Systems and Solar Systems. So why would they reduce the planets from 12 to 7? Because then it is no longer a sun, but just a star. Why would they do that? Is it because it reduces the power of the sun? or is it because it changes the frequency of the sun? or it makes the sun darker towards a black sun? If it lowers the frequencies, does it then lower the vibrational output and lower the energies coming from the sun? Would this potentially lead to a fall in dimensions and subsequently lowering the frequency and vibration of not only the sun, but the planets and beings as well? Is this then explaining the fall? If it describes the fall of dimensions, it then lowers the speed of manifestation, which in turn increases the duration and the sustainability of time. Time ultimately then become a prison sentence. If that is the case at which point do we reverse the narrative?

We have all had to at some point get a taxi or a cab for transportation, that started off with the horse and developed into cars with horse power it is said. Cab 1826, light, two- or four-wheeled horse-drawn carriage, a colloquial London shortening of cabriolet, a type of covered horse-drawn carriage (1763), from French cabriolet (18c.), diminutive of cabriole a leap, a caper, earlier capriole (16c.) The carriages were noted for their springy suspensions. Originally a passenger-vehicle drawn by two or four horses; it was introduced into London from Paris in 1820. The name was extended to hansom and other types of carriages, then to similar-looking parts of locomotives (1851). It was applied especially to public horse carriages, then to automobiles-for-hire (1899) when these began to replace them. Taxicab, licensed motorcar fitted with a taximeter, 1907. Nothing particularly noteworthy from that section, but perhaps the next section will tweek your pondering? From Italian capriola a caper, frisk, leap, literally meaning a leap like that of a kid goat, from capriola a kid, a fawn, from Latin capreolus wild goat, roebuck. From caper, capri means he-goat, buck, from PIE *kap-ro- he-goat, buck. Source also of Old Irish gabor, Welsh gafr, Old English hæfr, Old Norse hafr he-goat. It also turns out that the word chevron, often seen as road markings is also a reference to the goat. Then we have two constellations referencing the goat, Capella known as the little she goat and Capricorn, with capri meaning he goat and deriving from cornu which means horn. From Latin Capricornus, literally horned like a goat. Hence the horned goat. Other versions of cab extended may provide deep evidence of the origin. Cabbala - Jewish mystic philosophy, 1520s, also quabbalah, etc., from Medieval Latin cabbala, from Mishnaic Hebrew qabbalah reception, received lore, tradition, especially tradition of mystical interpretation of the Old Testament, from qibbel to receive, admit, accept. Cable as in cable tv, from Latin capere to take, seize, from PIE root *kap- to grasp. What is cable tv taking? Seizing or grasping? Us. Who is the symbol of a he-goat? The Baphomet. Levi is a popular Jewish name said to be the tribe of Levites, but if ites means followers, who or what is Lev? Turns out that Lev is an old Bulgarian word meaning lion, another lion reference to the EL-ite bloodline families. Hence the term Lion of Judah. The Baphomet is also the symbol of the transgender agenda, as despite it being a he-goat, it has the appearance of breasts. Baphomet is a deity which the Knights Templar were accused of worshipping, that subsequently became incorporated into various occult and Western esoteric traditions. Since 1856 the name Baphomet has been associated with the Sabbatic Goat image drawn by Éliphas Lévi, who has probably of Jewish origin, composed of binary elements representing the symbolization of the equilibrium of opposites: half-human and half-animal, male and female, and good and evil. Lévi's intention was to symbolize his concept of balance, with Baphomet representing the goal of perfect social order. But whose order? Levi became a dark magician and was an influence for Crowley and Blavatsky. He also influenced the secret society of the Hermetic Order of the Golden Dawn cult. The depiction of the Baphomet is eerily similar of another horned being that sacrificed children, Moloch. What is it with the biblical and Egyptian scriptures and their fascination with chimeras? The reason being is, those chimeras represented themselves as our god. They replaced the inward non-physical spirituality god within an external physical religious god who was A: not part of us and B: fake or dare I say it – pseudo.

Finally is there a word that connects the children to a sacrificing goat? Yes, children are called kids, which is a baby goat. Billy the Kid has a whole new meaning now. The Orange Lodge King Billy maybe another reference to the goat. Remember goats are cloven footed, foot binding? Remember Bush on 9/11 reading a book upside down? It was called The Pet Goat. They use the term goat now in sport, it means allegedly Greatest Of All Time, ultimately it is a tribute to the Baphomet. Another of the deities worshipped in the past was half goat and half man, was Pan. As a final tip as to how these theater artists work, the Hebrew word for sacrifice is mlk, the Hebrew word for king is Melek. Mlk is spelt mlk and when you remove the vowels from Melek the king you are left with mlk again. So they sacrificed the King with mlk, Martin Luther King, see how it works? So why did we start with cab and end up with mlk? Cab-AL the minions and followers of the goat headed god. The latest version of the transgendered variety of the Baphomet is Taylor Swift. Taylor is a unisex name meaning to cut and swift means fast, so to cut fast. But what is being cut fast? Or perhaps it has another meaning as a swift is a bird. A swift was regarded as a bird of ill-omen, if not downright demonic, probably for its shrill cry. The name earlier had been given to several types of small, fast-moving lizards, oops. Perhaps if you see the swallow not a swift, it is the sign of new beginnings, good tidings, a change in your life. They represent hope and freedom and are said to bring in the life force energy, embrace them.

ENDING PIECE:

Here are some more ponderings, just in case, that guy gets around it seems, Justin Case, and just in case you get bored over the next week. A little bit of Q&A for you, I am sure there are a few memes that will be created from this piece.

You can't talk butterfly language to caterpillar people, but why? How can you operate in two places at once? How can something have happened – yet not happened? How can a solution be provided and unfold, yet hasn't taken place? What happened to the solution? What and where is time and space?

Next are observational ponderings.

If life is a four leafed clover, who planted the seeds? If life is a bed of roses, why are you a thorn to yourself? If nature is so special to you, why haven't you replicated its simplicity within your life? If illness makes you sick, why do so many gorge on it? How can a doctor be an expert over your body? If you don't give an F about life and you remove the f from life, it becomes the lie, is not giving an F, of value? If all you think about is yourself and it is all about you, why haven't you fixed your own planet? Why haven't you thought of the planet as a personal property? Why are so many people fish traders? Because all many seem to do, is sel-fish. If think different is just a meme and people are selfish and it is all about me-me, why haven't you followed it? If life is but a dream, who is the dreamer? If a politician is a representative, why aren't they resent-ative to Reps? If soul to soul sings back to life back to reality, then why haven't you followed it? If you are buying a stairway to heaven, do you realize that is being a shekel merchant? If the Golden path was the Olympics, where is the silver and bronze path? How many thought the deep state was external of them? If we can hypnotize ourselves externally, why can't we do it internally? If three worlds is going down to one, will you keep the copy of a copy? If truth doesn't cost anything, why do people avoid it at all costs? If you lie in state, are you dead to the truth? If people act in a calculated way, does that mean they went to Johns Hopkins school of math? If avocado is testes sauce, whose testes are you consuming? If the mind is a prison with no bars, why do so many go to bars to have their mind messed with? Do you realize that alpha and beta are fake copies of us? Has the Santies become your new bible yet? If the cab-al is a taxi god and the deep state has hypnotized you, how can know where you have been or where you are going? How is it you can miss me for a week, yet its ok to miss yourself for most of your life? If life or the golden path is an impossible dream, why haven't you 180'd it into the I'm possible reality? The first stage of which is to become better people, that does not include game playing, infiltrating, disrupting, trampling or manipulating other people for chasing personal beneficial or malevolent Earthly goals. It requires truth, honor and integrity, it requires you not being a pseudo being, it requires service to others, it requires working towards the love frequency and it requires a commitment to the self to be of service to others. Otherwise you will remain a Smith, a copy of a copy and ultimately in service to the Dark forces.
