The Blueprint Episode 32 Teams Report week ending 6th October 2024.

THE AGENDA:

At our most recent Action Group Meeting we discussed supporting each other at many levels as we continue to seed the Blueprint Solutions. The “What Is” meeting led to final refinements underway on MP3 Files. Images are being reviewed by Thomas. The Be Forum and MewE changes to the new “social web” have caused a review of whether we continue with the original intent to migrate everyone to the Be Website. We can decide to spend more money to increase speed and data storage and as we continue to develop steady habits of using the Be Forum for work routines, we will do so. Most all work is done by volunteers, so work is done by priorities and this can sometimes cause delays. The team had an illuminating and clarifying discussion about the many things done to keep the flow going and the things we could all improve upon. The team will submit any problems or suggestions to the BP Coordinator with screenshots or documentation to assist with troubleshooting so she can discuss these with the web team. We also discussed making a New User Video for the be forum website specifically to help newcomers find everything they want quickly and to prevent unnecessary frustration with the design to all at this critical juncture.

BOOK TEAM:

The Swedish translation of The New Blueprint for Humanity is live on the Blueprint website, so the PDF can now be downloaded by site visitors. From His Story to Our Story Volume 5 is in the third phase of editing and work on the index has begun. The Romanian translator has expressed renewed enthusiasm to finish From His Story to Our Story Volume 4. From His Story to Our Story Volume 2 German translation is being proofread to ensure accuracy. Our Hebrew translator has set aside other projects to concentrate of the Consent booklet and the Divine Masculine and Feminine booklet. And the Curriculum introduction booklet for parents and teachers has been formatted for PDF and is being proofread.

RESEARCH TEAM:

The research team had a very efficient meeting on September 22nd, 2024. We evaluated our mission success and discussed ways to clarify our transitioning mission. The new support of the 5x5 team is leading to database additions and the Research team is adapting to the restructuring. Our member responsible for e-mailing the PDFs will be focusing on supporting the needs of the 5x5 team in their John Hopkins initiative and our database manager will assist by writing the 5x5 team letter to the International Court of Justice (ICJ) for their next project. In the category of U.S. Senators who did not take AIPAC money, the final successful contacts receiving the pdf were two from California: Alex Pailla and Laphonza Butler with the third one to Cynthia Lumis of West Virginia.

In addition, we have sent the Blueprint pdf to the following five persons using their website contact forms:

Jennifer Grossman, CEO of The Atlas Society: The Atlas Society is an American nonprofit organization that promotes the philosophy of the author Ayn Rand and her 1957 book Atlas Shrugged. The Society is part of the Objectivist movement that split off from the Ayn Rand Institute in 1990 due to disagreements over whether Objectivism was a "closed system" or an "open system". Their website highlights the 'Open System' of "Reason, Achievement and Ethical Self-Interest" as the "The pillars of a free, dynamic, and peaceful society." They feel Objectivism is designed as a guide to life, and believe it celebrates the remarkable potential and power of the individual. They also believe that Objectivism challenges the doctrines of irrationalism, self-sacrifice, brute force, and collectivism that have brought centuries of chaos and misery into the lives of millions of individuals. Did Ayn Rand have anything to do with the development of the Rand Corporation? No. That name was her author's "pen name" and she went by the name of Alice O'Connor. She was born Alisa Zinovyevna Rosenbaum, February 02, 1905, Saint Petersburg, Russian Empire. Her book came out in 1957. Project RAND was formed on May 14, 1948, adopting its name from a contraction of the term research and development.

Stephen Peck, CEO of U.S. Vets: He served as first lieutenant in the 1st Marine Division, as a forward observer outside of Danang in 1969, and received the Navy Commendation Medal. U.S. VETS is the nation's largest nonprofit provider of housing and other essential services for at-risk and homeless veterans and their families. Peck, who recently celebrated his 25th anniversary with U.S. VETS, advocates at state and national levels to bring attention to potential solutions for homeless veterans: He says, Our job at U.S. VETS is to engage the enemy at home, the enemy of homelessness, disillusionment and disappointment and to let these men and women know there is a path forward. U.S. VETS strives to empower each veteran to take responsibility for his or her success, guiding them toward independence in the community, developing their workforce skills and supporting recovery. Their mission is to prevent and end veteran homelessness, they empower veterans and families through housing, comprehensive services and advocacy. Their vision is for all veterans and their families to have their needs met to regain and maintain independence.

Reel American Heroes Foundation: Operates from Roseville, California. Their mission is to honor our nation by presenting films, documentaries, television series public service announcements of courage; stories about our veterans, active soldiers, first responders, Gold Star families, as well as past and present heroic figures. Their goal is to inspire, raise awareness, entertain, and educate. They are a nonprofit foundation with a unique group of creatives with over 100 years of collective experience in writing, producing, directing films, documentaries, television series, and public service announcements (PSA's) in efforts to strengthen our nation and better our communities nationwide. As traditional film/television studios are disengaging from making content about our nation's heroes they have created another platform to keep such stories alive. They proudly bring a channel for education and awareness to the public of what it means to be a Soldier, Veteran, Police Officer, Nurse, Gold Star Family, or a loved-one of a first responder, by helping tell all different types of stories of courage, in hopes of bringing awareness and remembrance of the tremendous sacrifice our heroes have made to our country. Their current President and Director is the former child actor, Ricky Schroder who later in life became a Producer, Writer, and Director. Schroder's work took him to the front lines in Afghanistan with the U.S. Army to document the longest-running war in U.S. history. The footage he and his team gathered became the 6-part documentary, The Fighting Season for DirecTV's Audience Channel. The success of the documentary led to a follow-up series, My Fighting Season and most recently, The Volunteers about the Syrian war. He has co-written two screenplays with Kevin Haskin. The first, Mile 0 the true-life story of Navy Seal Veteran, Chris Ring who became the first American to swim the entire distance of the Mississippi River in honor of our country's Gold Star Families, while facing the demons of his tour in Afghanistan. The second screenplay, Wanat, about the deadliest and bloodiest battle since the inception of Operation Enduring Freedom took place on July 13, 2008. The Operation Enduring Freedom began 7 October 2001 by President George Bush in response to the 9/11 attacks and ended on 28 December after 13 years by President Barack Obama. He created the thirty-five episode Reality Recruiting Program for the U.S. Army entitled Starting Strong, which Schroder premiered at the GI Film Festival in Washington, D.C. where he received the GI Spirit Award. It was seen on Fox, History, USA, RFD-TV, All Warrior Network and is now available on YouTube.com.

Green Beret Foundation: This group provides all generations of U.S. Army Special Forces Soldiers and their families with emergency, immediate, and ongoing support. They assist over 3,000 Special Forces families each year. Since its inception in 2009, GBF has invested 84 cents of every dollar into its programs and services, which has totaled over $16 million that has directly supported the Regiment and its families. GBF is the only nonprofit solely dedicated to supporting Green Berets and their families that has achieved a 4-Star Rating with Charity Navigator. Also, GBF is the sole special operations nonprofit accredited by the Department of Veterans Affairs for the purpose of preparing, filing, and appealing of disability claims.

Returned & Services League of Australia: Was founded on an ethos of compassion and service. The League was formed in 1916 in response to the lack of a unified approach to the organization of repatriation facilities and medical services for those returning from the Great War (World War I). The founding members of the League set out to lobby for better benefits, treatment and the welfare of veterans and serving members of the Defense Force and to preserve the health, wellbeing and security of Australia and the Australian way of life. Their purpose is to help veterans and their families by offering care, financial assistance and advocacy and by leading the nation in commemorative services that help all Australians to remember the fallen. Their values are commemoration, care, advocacy and camaraderie. Since its formation, RSL Australia has evolved into the nation's largest Ex-Service Organization with an ethos of mateship, compassion and service as their motivating influence. Their core mission has never changed and has continued to evolve to meet the needs of each generation of servicemen and women. At present they have 147,000+ members and 1,107 sub-branches throughout the continent of Australia.

MEDIA TEAM:

The Media team has been hard at work producing memes and videos, including many specifically themed for the 5x5 team. For that reason, a new system for naming and filing the memes and videos has been established to make identification of target themes easier. And a new social media posting process is being tried out in the Be Forum. Inspection and approval of new memes and videos has been discussed because of issues that have cropped up on Mewe, including significant slowdowns, difficulty accessing posts and images, and the controversy over the forced migration to the Social Web. Options were put forward, but for the time being, we will soldier on with Mewe as our primary platform for this task. However, we are keeping options open, and one member is exploring other social platforms. X has started censoring posts, restricting access to those to which its AI takes exception, whether or not a valid reason for such targeting exists. So, the team has come up with a new protocol to handle particularly controversial topics. In the meantime, THI members are free to post to their personal accounts anything they see fit.

5x5 TEAM:

The Media team created and the 5x5 team posted the memes for the Biodefense Bootcamp Fellowship & the ELBI contacts for the upcoming meeting this week on the 4&5th in Europe. For the Johns Hopkins initiative email blast, all Professors at JH School of Public Health and the ELBI Leadership will have received The Guardians letter by this weekend with the intent that their larger efforts flounder and fail. An excellent letter to the ICJ was produced by the teams, but the news from the UN suggests that Israel is being called out on illegal settlements by the international community with an indelible force, so the letter will not be sent out because the goals of the initiative are met. Pro Zionist Alt Media has given the 5x5 Team and team individuals some pushback, primarily on X where one of our anti-humanity memes was removed. Because of this, the overall Media team adopted and are testing the policy to generate specific memes with the information needed to find interviews with Thomas, but to judge the live links from the show hosts based on the images displayed on those links, especially if they use controversial anti-Zionist themes. This will require people to work a click or two harder to get to the interviews, but we can also direct them to THI-show.com once they are posted. Of course, media team posters will do whatever they wish on their personal accounts. One member was also blocked on The Council on Strategic Risks likely due to a reaction to the bioweapons memes posted there, so we know our message is hitting the last nerve of the controllers.

EUROPEAN BLUEPRINT TEAM:

We have continued discussing the European Government Solution. We started to discuss the solutions, which we divided in the European Union Solution and the European Country Governments Solution. In last meeting we went through the edits in the Banking and Financial Systems Solution. We spoke about the removal of the European Central Bank and to assign the supervising role to the Central Bank of each country. Also the current ECB policies and methodologies are made in such a way that it is difficult for the banks to comply. The policies need to be clear and measurable. Both solutions still need to be finalized and next on schedule to be discussed is the European Overhaul Solution, which has been edited and expanded upon with some of the Ucadia material.

LAW TEAM:

The Law and Web team have been working closely together to develop the new Rita/Universal Law webpage and are excited to announce the launch of the law.thenewblueprintforhumanity.org website. The site contains edited and easy to read articles on the True Rule of Law, the 13-part Intro to Law Series, the True History of America, Rita Law and the Santies of Perun, plus some power point presentations that can be downloaded and shared. There are links to books such Tara and Lebor Clann Glas for those who want to dive deeper into our true history from 10,000 BCE.

The introduction on the welcome page states: Rita Law and the True Rule of Law contain vital truths about what is law, what law is not, and the attributes that we as Guardians need to develop, in order to be fully competent and restore the Golden Rule of Law on this planet. The Golden Rule states that all law should be equal that no one is above it, all law is measured that all may learn and know it. All law is standard that it may always be applied the same, and a law is a rule that prohibits or permits certain acts. If any law contradicts these simple maxims and the Golden Rule, then there is no law. Without the formality of law, people possess by their very being the innate sense of what is right or wrong. Basic human dignity, moral integrity and moral courage to choose what is right from wrong are not a result of rule of law, but precedes and ensures its operation.

It is our hope that the information presented in a simple and easy to read format will encourage questions and the desire to learn more. Through the “I have a question” and “how can I contact your organization” links, we hope this page will become an interactive gateway to the THI and Blueprint community and help people come together in unity and common purpose to create a better world for humanity. The page can be accessed via the thenewblueprintforhumanity.org site and we will post links on Mewe and the Be Forum. The Law Team would like to express deep gratitude to the Web Team for their professionalism and creativity in this project, which could not have come together without them.

In closing, we would like to share the words spoken by the Celtic Queen Morgaine of Eire (Ireland) in 288 CE. Her words resonate through time, are profound and are especially meaningful in the 21st century.

Conquer the land of a man and his sons shall rise up in revenge. Slay the sons and daughters and the earth shall yield a far more potent and bitter fruit.

Conquer the spirits of men and they may yield for fear and sustenance for a time. Yet terror hardens the mind and heart until a force is spawned that fears nothing.

Thus, conquest by blood is futile, and fear the fuel of a nemesis that always destroys its host. This is the way of all civilizations since the beginning of time.

Yet give a man his freedom and dignity and the self-discipline to know right from wrong, and such a man shall defend to the death what he has been given, no matter how small.

To truly gain what has been lost, restore the trust of men in heaven, that each be guardian to his own conscience and custodian of his own soul.

IN OVERVIEW:

The Archetype: Archetypes have been used in psychology and psychiatry for many years to understand personality types and traits or characteristics. This theory was made popular by Carl Jung who used its premise throughout his works and teachings. So, what is an Archetype and how does it affect us. The Archetype are inborn models that identify distinctive aspects of our personality, and we become attached to that identity, or are they hooks? Jung claimed that these archetypes were archaic forms of innate human knowledge passed down from our ancestors, I would ask what ancestors, I would also ask why inborn? These traits are exhibited through our behaviour and tend to dominate our character, so we then play out the role of said archetype throughout our time here on this planet or this lifetime. Jung stated there are 12 main archetypes, here are a sample of four of these archetypes looking from the soul aspect traits. The explorer – The lover – The Rebel – The creator.

An example of traits contained within two of the above four: The explorer archetype traits typically are: they may also be known as the seeker, the wanderer, iconoclast, individualist: Their motto would be Don't fence me in. Their core desire is the freedom to find out who they are. Their goal is to experience a more authentic and fulfilling life. Their greatest fear is being trapped in conformity and inner emptiness. Their strategy is to journey, seeking out and experiencing life. Their shadow is being aimless, wandering through life, becoming a misfit. Their light is autonomy, ambition, fulfilling one's soul. The creator: Also known as the inventor, the artist, the innovator, musician, writer, or dreamer. Their motto would be, if you can imagine it, it can be done. Their core desire is to create things of enduring value. Their goal is to realize a vision. Their greatest fear is a mediocre vision or execution. Their light is to develop artistic control and skill, to create culture, and express their own vision. Their shadow is perfectionism, bad solutions. Their talent is creativity and imagination. There are four male archetypes: The king, the lover, the warrior and the magician, there are also four female archetypes, The lover, the queen, the huntress, and the mystic.

Here is a short explanation of these archetypes.

The king is the central archetype, here are a few of his traits, he that unites all others, the mantra is I am, he is the soul, the father, the chief and chosen leader. He embodies the light of the sun, the sacred mountain, divine law, and order. The Lover: He lives in the moment; he freely allows the flow of his emotions and through his open heart he allows oneness with all around him. His motto is I love. The warrior is a master of his will power, his life has purpose, discipline, and intention. Fear and death are his teachers. His motto is I want. The magician is a master of healing, ceremony, and intuition. He unites the intuitive and logical aspects of the mind. He knows how to direct and use the energies of body, psyche, and nature in beneficial ways. His motto is I know.

The Queen naturally confident, loyal, and a born leader, the Queen's energy finds ultimate fulfillment in marriage and devotion. She easily attracts powerful partnerships and usually connects with influential men. Her energy makes her shine in social contexts and makes a strong impression on people around her. Her light side is loyal confident and ambitious, her shadow side is easily jealous, too dominant, vindictive. The lover generous, heart-centered, and nurturing, the mother archetype is that of a giving woman who takes care of others around her. She embodies warm, loving energy, regardless of whether she has children or not. These women can be often seen as protective, down to earth, and with a natural sense of altruism. Her light side is compassionate, nurturing, grounded. Her shadow side is lack of boundaries, stubbornness, self-neglect. The Huntress: she is independent, courageous, self-sufficient, this archetype is also called the Wild Woman. She's goal-oriented, connected to nature, and athletic, and oftentimes she sympathizes with social causes, such as feminist movements. The Wild Woman shows an innate strength to protect, inspire, and pursue her dreams. Her light side is courageous, self-reliant, committed to her goals. Her shadow side is emotionally unavailable, afraid of vulnerability, manipulative. The Mystic characteristics are calmness, introspective, and peaceful, the Mystic archetype reveals a natural focus on her inner world and spiritual journey. This woman is private, enjoys solitude, and finds her truth and expression through her connection with a higher force. She can come off as mysterious, often being caught up in her own world of unusual creativity and ideas. Her light side is intuitive and introspective, peaceful, and spiritual, connected to the divine. Her shadow side is detached from the material world, very distant from others, extreme isolation from the world.

These are just examples of the archetype, there are of course more in-depth explanations involved. I have attached a chart for further explanation on these archetypes. See images in Downloads section on the show page.

Carl Jung stated, "I must also have a dark side if I am to be whole" was his purpose to only show the duality in his main teachings, as he never applied the triality, and in doing so we only saw two versions of ourself, bypassing the triality of the one on one with the one. There are also twelve shadow Archetypes which are the sorcerer, the hermit, the hag, the shadow mother, the slave, the destroyer, the trickster, the idiot, the shadow witch, the addict, the victim, and the dictator. Within a duelling copy of a copy, how is it that what we mostly see of these archetypes is the shadow side being the most prevalent on this planet? when each had an opportunity to be more light or less dark, or even balanced and neutral? Thomas tells us that if it doesn't make sense then it has to be a program, he also tells us that all patterns that we exhibit have been developed over time. In previous discussions around baktuns Thomas had observed that it takes at least three baktuns to create a calendar. Three baktuns are 78 thousand years. Would the same apply to the archetype, maybe over a lesser or greater space of time, aiding the fall of man? The gods and goddesses are also Archetypes and many also fell, yet many here are still enamoured by the gods, or maybe it's the title that attracts us? Hollywood and royalty are the biggest example of this as we put them on a pedestal, and the masses became hooked into the fake worlds idolizing an image and not the reality. As with all other idols we now are watching the fall of the fake stars and royals, another example of the deep fake society crashing at this time.

There are also twelve God/goddesses' archetypes: Zeus the ruler, Poseidon the destroyer, Demeter the Innocent, Hera the caregiver, Aphrodite the lover, Ares the god of war, the warrior, Hephaestus the orphan, Hermes the fool, the jester, Dionysus the magician, Athena the sage, Artemis the seeker, Apollo the creator, once again we see the number twelve appear. But why are we discussing archetypes and what has it got to do with anything? The question is if all the world is a stage and we are the players in it, then have we at this time and in past history been so easily manipulated and woven into characters, that simply play out time and time again as these archetypes on this planet? And if that is true and history repeats, why did these archetypes all fall, including many of the gods and goddesses. The question is why are we replicating the fallen gods? And maybe even more important, how do we correct enough to overcome these archetypes and rise enough to correct and let go of the pattern of the copy of the copy? Has the copy of the copy become so integrated within us, that we have allowed the shadow aspects to counteract the light and so the Archetype was 180'd to disrupt the frequencies here, from the love and divine soul aspects to the lower control aspects of the shadow self. Has the divine feminine and masculine who also became more of the shadow, become so attached to the copies of the past, that we have forgotten that we can create better characteristics? That do not compete with each other, but rather enhance each other's traits, so that all the above combined create a better reality.

Has our attachments of the shadow projected the current movie screen that is playing out and is this the perfect time for us all to not only embrace the light side more but to elevate it by adding in the triality. Letting go of the copy to reinvent and return to the original version of who and what we truly are, the crown of creation. On the flip side was that the perfect environment created for us to finally learn and change it. Did the planetary descent from 12 to 7 play a part in this also, deliberately disrupting the balance for the shadow to dance in. Is the soul only capable of replicating the copy I think not. The release of the Santies and the Vedas gives us the perfect teachings to replace the old Archetypes and instead become the true soul aspects of us.

It is time for us to become the true creator, the guardian, the sovereign, the sigma male and female, the true divine feminine and masculine, the wizard/wise man and woman the Santies speak of. Let us be the true teacher, mother and father archetype now in our true original image, and in so doing, we may then go on to create better gods and goddesses for the betterment of the higher planes and cosmic and planetary development. Let us project that movie across Midgard and let us see the death of the old and embrace the real bloodless sacrifice of being better versions of ourselves. All it takes is one step for mankind from the duelling mind and into the heart, amazing things can happen when you simply follow your heart.

A Blueprint Assignment team update for those listening outside of THI. I have a full strategy in my head for carrying out the full implementation of Blueprint, but until people in power positions realize there is an unfixable problem, then it shall remain. The Blueprint book itself explains all the problems, then gives people a solution. But if people keep sticking to the old world and systems, then the problems will remain until it gets too far and too bad. People have to let go of the old world or they will go down with it. Once it does go down, there will be chaos and no one thinks very well within chaos. America is sleep walking into chaos, thinking Trump or Harris will fix things within an existing corrupt and wrong structure is foolhardy at best and idiotic at worst. It won't work, it has never worked. Until people realize the scale of the problem, then the issues will still remain, but the system they were propping up will no longer exist. I have a speech in my head for all people, should they be willing to listen. They all listen to people within their own rank and file, yet ignore the fact their own rank and file have been part of the problem. I come from the thinking pattern of the creation of a new world, not the old one. Until reality kicks in, I cannot force anyone to take a look at it and be open to the enormous possibilities the current environment presents.

NEWS:

The BBC's former director of television has compiled a 60-page report that concludes the broadcaster has serious questions to answer over its repeated misreporting of the Israel-Hamas war. Danny Cohen, who worked at the BBC for eight years, including as director of television from 2013 to 2015, compiled and edited the report based on research from CAMERA U.K. and CAMERA Arabic. The two organizations are local branches of U.S. media monitoring group Committee for Accuracy in Middle East Reporting and Analysis. Cohen co-wrote the forward to the report with former BBC governor and House of Lords member Baroness Ruth Deech. In it they write that while honest mistakes can happen while reporting, the mistakes are almost always in the anti-Israel direction. It would not be possible to compile a similar record of anti-Palestinian errors. Whenever the corporation is faced with the choice of whose account or narrative to believe, it seldom points in Israel's direction, they continue. For Hamas in this war, proof is rarely necessary. For the IDF and Israel, proof is rarely enough. The report, which catalogues dozens of errors made by the broadcaster in its reporting of Israel, accuses the BBC of making false and damaging claims about Israel's conduct of this war and producing misleading broadcasts and social media output among other criticisms. Yet more money wasted by what is clear to all by now is faction fighting within the two Jewish camps. Cohen and Deech are both Jewish and so it is they who are clearly biased, as I have yet to see a report from them stating the hundreds if not thousands of mistakes in the BBC's report on all topics. It is always about the one topic Israel, defend Israel, fund Israel, protect Israel etc, no call Israel out for what they are, anti-humanity. Perhaps the BBC should run the FHSTOS and see if the Israeli PR group like that level of truth.

All is not well in the corridors of political power, as cracks are now appearing as the coming storm prepares to hit everyone right between the eyes. Israeli Crime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu has criticized French President Emmanuel Macron over his call to halt arms deliveries to Israel for use in Gaza. Macron told France Inter radio, that the priority is that we return to a political solution, that we stop delivering weapons to fight in Gaza. At a summit in Paris on Saturday, the French president reiterated his concern over the conflict in Gaza continuing despite ceasefire calls, and he also criticized Israel's decision to send ground troops into Lebanon. Netanyahu responded: Shame on them, referring to Macron and other Western leaders who have called for what he described as an arms embargo on Israel.

The folly of following and bowing to that fake State is now being felt by everybody. A startling claim in a book called Unleashed the former Tory MP and Prime Minister Boris Johnson revealed, a bugging device was found in Boris Johnson's bathroom after a visit by Benjamin Netanyahu when he was foreign secretary. Mr. Johnson alleged that his security team had made the discovery when they did a sweep of the toilets after the Israeli premier had used them during a meeting in 2017. Mr. Netanyahu had excused himself during talks at his old office to use the washroom, described as a secret annex, a bit like the gents in a posh London club. That last line has many connotations, none of which are any good. But this is what these anti-humanity beings get up to, yet stupidly people of other countries keep inviting him and his espionage and assassin entourage.

A tik tok piece emerged to confirm what I have said all along about the alt media. Turns out Netanyahu's son Yair was a contractor of Parlement technologies or Parler, which was taken down after spreading conspiracy theories that fueled the January 6th so-called riot. The author stated that the January 6th riot an Israeli psy-op, perhaps people should ask Nancy Pelosi that under oath? Then he revealed that the Breitbart

News was created by Netanyahu also, after Andrew Breitbart met Bibi and then set it all up. THI has previously outed that Andrew Breitbart was Jewish. Now Breitbart did put out good pieces, but now you understand how it all works. They tell you faction truth only, it is an inner war news delivery, yet so-called awake people cannot see through it. They operate with the thought that if A exposes B, then A is good, that is a no. This is why THI stayed away from the alt media, it is mostly all corrupt. With Q also labeled as an Israeli psy-op, the great questions are: When will the people see through the illusion and when will the so-called authorities stop the blatant interference against the American people?

This should alarm every American and there should be an independent inquiry as to why a top US official was involved in genocide on behalf of the US State Department. What is not a surprise is, it was the Jew Anthony Blinken again. According to a report by Yaniv Cogan published on Drop Site News, Blinken was directly involved in October 2023 negotiations green lighting an Israeli government policy allowing the military to strike any humanitarian aid convoy it said was linked to Hamas. It was nothing to do with Hamas, it was aid for the people they had blown to smithereens. The Security Cabinet deliberated for hours over the precise wording of the decision, with each draft being passed between the Cabinet room and Blinken's room, a distance of a few meters away, inside the Kirya. Eventually, around 3 AM, they arrive at an agreed upon text that is read in the Cabinet room in English, Israel's Channel 12 reporter Yaron Avraham posted on X last October 17. A correspondent for Israel's Channel 13 News confirmed on X the reports of Blinken's direct involvement in the negotiations. They were not negotiations, that was a war cabinet meeting. Why is the US State Department involved in another countries war policies? You think that was bad, listen to this next piece.

It can now be reported that talks did go on and a ceasefire was agreed between Israel with Hamas, Hezbollah and Iranian leaders. The Hezbollah representative was Hassan Nasrallah and the negotiator was Amos Hochstein. During the negotiations details of the location of the negotiations was leaked to MI6, as the position was located all the peace keeping leaders were killed. This is what took out Hassan Nasrallah and caused much consternation and angst. Hamas, Hezbollah and Iran were set up by the Zionists who have no interest in peace, only war and destruction. Hochstein born in Jerusalem and to Jewish parents, who served time in the murderous IDF. He also sits on the Atlantic Council, conducts foreign affairs missions for Israel all whilst on the American taxpayers funds. The Iranian leader took responsibility on national TV for being fooled by the Zionists. Hochstein has closed down any form of peace deal now, I would suggest permanently. That sly assed move along with the walkie-talkies incident, means Israel will never and indeed it can be said, should never be trusted ever again on this planet. One should think back to Saddam Hussein, when they said he was lying about the brutal murder of 1/2M children. Yet the Jew Madeleine Albright gave her views on 1/2 M children being killed with this quote: but the price, we think, the price is worth it. This action is a full declaration of war against the people not Jews on this planet, by these Zionist off-world psychopath who have not a shred of an ounce of humanity inside of them. The world needs to respond accordingly and unite and fight this anti-humanity group. We never asked for war, not once, but these perpetrate every war on this planet and enough is enough.

MEDICAL SECTION:

Here is a member update on the Japanese jabbing scandal revealed last week. Many Japanese retailers are worried about customers who took the new cv vax. A well-known yoga center holds 500+ studios across Japan, is asking for vaxxed yogis not to come to the studio until the safety is evaluated and confirmed. One university has issued a statement to address the danger and concerns for the highly toxic spike protein, that will weakens the immune system and susceptible to various diseases including infections and cancer. Even a medical clinic is asking their patients not to take the vax, explaining it has no effect in preventing infection and it is rather counteractive. Many have been confirmed dead from the vax and it will possibly trigger serious illnesses. I assume the shedding is a hot topic discussed on tv and the internet. So there you have it and it is all unfolding now.

This is a message from a leading doctor who is a non-smoker. We now know that those that smoke, have had the least infection and death rates associated with the bioweapon released and also the subsequent death jabs. To be clear, that applies whether people got the jab or not. So, the science, medical communities as well as the governments have lied to you all for the past 35 years in regards to smoking. I kept warning of it since I was a show host, Laura Knight of SOTT.net also kept warning you with detailed nonscientific and only observational reports, yet the people believed the authorities again. Millions stopped smoking, millions more went all sanctimonious about it and the stage was set for the pre-planned events that have unfolded and no doubt more will unfold until the stupid people stop believing governments, scientists, medical and mainstream media clowns, who only deliver lies. Here is what the doctor had to say: Nicotine was the antidote to those spike proteins or venom proteins. For the rest of my life I will wear a 3mg nicotine patch because not only does nicotine cure those diseases, I've actually learnt over the last 2 years that every virus on earth is beaten with nicotine. Every virus on Earth is beaten by nicotine. Oh my, nicotine the non-magic cure potion, who would have thought that. Not many and therein lies the real problem. Too busy believing people you have never met. For those who stuck to smoking and suffered the abuse, I guess it is pay it forward time.

SOCIETY NEWS:

This is something for our activist team to get their teeth into. For too long now these writers have gotten away with saying what they like with no comeback. None more so than the weather people, it is all fear, fear, fear. This particular snake oil individual needs highlighting and also sent a direct reminder we are onto you. Just after the devastating storm that cost people their lives, homes and businesses to a bad storm that was clearly manipulated once over land. Rumored to be for lithium mining below Georgia, Tennessee and

N. Carolina. Is that the new asset backed mineral for the USD replacement, after the Venezuela petrodollar coup failed? Clearing the decks like they did in Paradise California for the mining there. This is part of Nathan's report. America is on alert for another 'major' superstorm as Hurricane Kirk gathers pace to join the assault. Just days after Hurricane Helene left a 100-billion-dollar dent across eastern states, the eleventh storm of the season is flexing its muscles in the Atlantic. Warm tropical waters that fed Helene up to a Category-4 monster will fuel Kirk as it hurtles along a similar collision course. Except Kirk is thousands of miles out in the middle of the Atlantic and Helene started in the middle of the Gulf of Mexico. Weather experts need to be reined in with this clear fearmongering program. Kirk is going nowhere near land, even Bermuda, but according to this jackass it is hurtling towards the same east coast just damaged. Well let's put him under the same microscope and call him out. Nathanrao.com You do realize the clown based weather people are in part manifesting storms? Whilst putting people in fear with the narrative, then increases the chances of storms. Why can't people step into their own power and prevent or lessen them?

This piece is interesting in light of our water solution for America and also solves the energy shortage crisis as well. Our plan was for desalination plants along all three coasts of America. One of the past mistakes by planners to generate electricity from water flow is the use of dams. This can have many consequences of actions and disturbed the natural ecosystem, cut off water to farmlands and also leave potentially millions of people in permanent jeopardy due to poor construction or the wear and tear of time. As with all modern structures they have a timespan before they fail, the question is when, not if. Leaving millions playing a Russian Roulette game with high powered water instead of bullets. But this new device could change all that, unless the ecosystem destroyers and shekel people come in and shut it down again, like many inventions before. Researchers have created a new energy harvester device that may be capable of continuously generating electricity from seawater. The Korea Institute of Machinery and Materials (KIMM) researchers developed this new harvester, that depends on the natural movement of sodium ions in seawater to produce electricity. This eco-friendly harvester has a wide range of potential applications, from powering sensors to monitoring environmental factors. The newly developed technology is an eco-friendly energy harvesting technology that allows continuous self-charging and can be used without external energy, said Seungmin Hyun, Principal Researcher of the KIMM. A harvester turns waste energy into electricity. This energy harvester consists of various components such as multi-walled carbon nanotubes and graphene oxide films. These two serve as the cathode and anode of the harvester. Nanotubes are made from carbon atoms, which are known for their high conductivity. Moreover, the graphene oxide films consist of oxygen-containing functional groups. Lastly, seawater is used as the electrolyte, or conductive medium, in the harvester. As the ions in the seawater move, a potential difference is created, generating electricity. Unlike traditional water-based energy harvesters, this new technology doesn't require external energy to recharge. This makes it ideal for use in remote, ocean-based applications. Standard water-based energy harvesters are thought to have low energy conversion efficiency. Furthermore, they rely on external energy sources to maintain the circulation of water for reuse. Therefore, these harvesters are impractical in places without a constant source of external energy for water movement. The new harvester could be used without requiring external energy by restoring its initial open circuit voltage. That is a great development, all we need now is, to remove the elites and the greedy shekel makers that will do anything to block advancements on this planet.

As a reminder, I've actually learnt over the last 2 years that every virus on earth is beaten with nicotine. Every virus on Earth is beaten by nicotine.

MYSTERY SECTION:

The parts you all love, and some of you only really listen to and pay attention to this section. Yet each section of the show is important to us all. How can you hope to be a guardian with selective hearing and understanding? Particularly when all pieces are now so interconnected, not only from show to show, but within each show as well. What it reveals is the selfishness of people, only caring to listen to what they wish to hear. The last Common Sense was about questions related to the shows. There was none about the children globally, none about Gaza, Lebanon or Yemen and none about the potential of an expanded war coming to your countries. The Mpox jabs, the AI issue, the deep state consciousness piece. More was spoken on the Mayan calendar piece than life and people in general. So this mystery section will be different this week.

Following the hurricane last week of Helene, I have compiled a few reports that gives out the details of what is unfolding. Thanks go out to many who have attempted to go to their aid, and yet were stopped or turned back by FEMA stormtroopers. An Asheville, North Carolina woman says the media is lying about the death toll from Hurricane Helene, says the real number is much higher than 200. She says cold trailers are overflowing with bodies. If you go to certain backroads, you will still find bodies hanging from trees they haven't gotten to yet, she posted. I don't think people understand that 500+ people are dead and thousands more are missing. There are reports that Mission Hospital in Asheville North Carolina, was told that they will be the morgue for body recovery. As of a few days ago, there were reports of 900+ bodies at the hospital that haven't been identified. There are also reports of babies and children washing up in the river, and more reports of bodies in trees. An insurance agent Hana's teammates went to drop off supplies in Asheville and set up relief tents yesterday. While setting up they saw four babies, three children as well as adult bodies that were recovered from the mud and trees. National guard member Breona Bryant has also mentioned that they are seeing dead children. Those doing rescue operations are traumatized and many survivors of the storm are suffering from survivors guilt. Please keep in mind that Asheville is just one of the cities that was absolutely devastated by this storm. There are hundreds of others that are dealing with dead bodies as well. It is going to take a very long time for emergency workers to recover all of the dead bodies.

Activist post author Michael Snyder said, as I shared with my core supporters on Friday, a group of FEMA executives were overheard discussing the fact that a couple zeros should be added to the current death toll that is being given to the public. In Tennessee, the town of Erwin is just gone. I do not know if there were any survivors. At this hour, there are millions of people living in parts of Florida, Georgia, South Carolina, North Carolina and Tennessee that are still waiting for help. In a part of North Carolina that was hit particularly hard, one woman says that she still has not seen a single person from either the state government or the federal government yet. The answer is, they are not coming to help or save you, something this show and others kept telling you, but didn't listen. FEMA, was allegedly created to aid survivors of disaster regions, when they unfold. But the reality of that has been thin on the ground, as the explanations of 9/11 and Hurricane Katrina. Remember that? When they were blocking supplies into the zone, shooting people crossing the bridge and how over a decade later only a very few have been able to or allowed to move back to their land? But that didn't matter too much did it? Because A: it was not happening to you and B: well, it was only the blacks. Is that harsh? Yes, but it is also the harsh truth of the matter. Will it be different this time because it is mainly the white sector? Not really, as people just do not care enough. I wish I was wrong, I really do, but I am not seeing the evidence to suggest I am.

My background and knowledge in relation to FEMA. The Trustee, myself and one other came up with a Trust plan to replace the inadequate and not fit for purpose entity known as FEMA. It was presented to Trump for a $105B project that not only cleaned up all the mess of the storms of 2018, which curiously went the very same path as Helene. But also to build 6 supercenters that was 100 miles inland from the coast. To overstock all items required for disaster recovery, all paid for by the Trust. Trump approved it, Treasury approved it, the Weiss group formerly Citadel stormed the Treasury and blocked it. Weiss/Citadel own the NYPD. It was further revealed to me that FEMA misappropriated our funds in league with rogue elements within the CIA. The disaster relief purchases acquired mainly from Home Depot, which is owned by the CIA, was sent out to the disaster zone for beleaguered residents, only for agents to pick it all up and sell it back to Home Depot at a reduced rate. If that is true, then that explains why nothing is available or fixed any time in the near future after an event.

The institute of lies the MSM have not focused hardly any coverage of the suffering of the people down the East Coast, only two-party clowns throwing barbs at each other and how great genocidal maniacs are. But they did chime in with this piece, when they applied the National Security Act card to cover up the lies of the collapsing old system, with this piece. False claims that federal emergency disaster money was given to migrants in the U.S. illegally have spread quickly in recent days, boosted by former President Donald Trump and some of his most high-profile supporters. Trump repeated one of the more extreme baseless allegations during a rally Thursday in Saginaw, Michigan, saying that the money had been stolen. They stole the FEMA money, just like they stole it from a bank, so they could give it to their illegal immigrants that they want to have vote for them this season, Trump said. Halfway down the report which most people don't bother to read that far and only focus on the headline, it said this. FEMA did administer $640 million in grants from Customs and Border Protection in 2024 and about $364 million in 2023 to cities and counties that serve migrants. However, that program called the Shelter and Services Program, or SSP, is separate from FEMA's disaster relief fund which is more than $20 billion. The SSP was created in 2022 when cities were struggling to deal with influxes of migrants. That same year, Congress directed Customs and Border Protection to transfer $800 million to FEMA to support cities sheltering migrants. The money was transferred to FEMA and, as with many other federal grant programs FEMA managed the distribution of the grants. So, the media lied again, no change there. But now they are contradicting their own contradictions like an old episode of Drake on the Cosmic Voice show. Funny how they can send $800M to migrants who haven't contributed to the fund, yet can't send supplies or funds to people immediately in a disaster event. Neither can they provide an extra $800M to house the homeless in this country. All about priorities you see, and we are not a priority despite them spending our money.

It didn't end there though as Homeland Security Secretary Alejandro Mayorkas set off outrage on Wednesday, when he told reporters that the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) does not have the funds to see Americans through the rest of this Atlantic hurricane season, after the agency spent more than $1.4 billion since the fall of 2022 to address the migrant crisis. We are meeting the immediate needs with the money that we have, Mayorkas said during a press gaggle on Air Force One en route to tour damage from Hurricane Helene in South and North Carolina. We are expecting another hurricane hitting, he added. We do not have the funds. FEMA does not have the funds to make it through the season and what is imminent. So now departments are calling each other out as well.

Is there a Jewish connection to all of this, seems logical as it always appears when major issues arise. So let's see, DHS Secretary Alejandro Mayorkas just spoken about is Jewish. The lead media person for FEMA is Jaclyn Rothenburg is Jewish. The mayor for the main focus of this piece Asheville, North Carolina Esther Manheimer is also Jewish. It seems to me on social media large proportions of comments are now about exposing how many Jewish people are at the forefront of bad events. Their poor handling of events we covered a few months back, when I stated: If Jews are in all the prominent positions across the spectrum of society and Institutions and it is all going wrong, when will people hold them accountable for the collapse of the world? To the weak and stupid, that is antisemitic, to those who espouse to the truth, that is cathartic and basic common sense.

Since then, another devastating hurricane has hit Florida last night and early today, one hopes all our members are safe and didn't experience too much damage. We now have practically half of the East Coast under devastation, plus Texas from an earlier storm, yet people are still worried about a stupid election? A growing number of people now are saying, where these storms engineered in some way to sway the election? Maybe or maybe not, what does it really matter? Both are clowns operating for and by the global elites for a company US Inc that has hijacked the country known as America.

But where is the mystery section Thomas? No idea as it is all a mystery to me of how people can be so selective about the shows. So perhaps that is the real mystery, is it not? The mystery section is great and people have gotten much out of it, but most of it resides long within the past or pontification on theories. It reminds me of Cosmic Voice early on, we had two shows a week, one was on fixing all things planet based, the other was the ET show. Most were only interested in the ET show, which becomes indicative. One is sit back and talk about it, the other is asking people to physically do something to make their planet better. Eleven years on from those shows, has anything really changed in the thinking patterns of the people? Our total focus should be in the now and on integrating the Blueprint within society, so ultimately we can all look forward to a brighter future. It is all crumbling before your eyes, don't mourn its loss, celebrate its end as it never served anyone.

ENDING PIECE:

Earlier on with played this piece, Smokin that was from a movie in 1994 called The Mask. But 26 years later the medical mask came in again and the antidote to it all, was not the mask, but smoking. Another case of telling you what they were doing and also a sneaky way of revealing the antidote?

Here is just a tiny mystery piece to get you all pondering. A short mention of last Saturday's open zoom presentation done by Kevin, brought about many personal ponderings and perhaps deeply profound thoughts, ideas and solutions that could potentially be a game changer. I am sure you all got much out of it and for those that missed it, the presentation part only is available on THI-show.com via the archive section. One small pondering was this: On the piece about 7/11 that was spoken of, has another deeper meaning component for 9/11. 7/11 is a kosher store, meaning the taxes goes to the rabbis. Given the twin towers represents an 11, so where does the 7 come into it? Building 7 went down, so it was a 7/11 event, done on a 9/11 ritual sacrifice date to "payback" for the destruction of Solomon and Herod temples on the same date.

Here is a piece by one of our members who has overcome many hurdles in his life and then found THI and vowed to correct the past and be a part of a better future within himself and those around him. What does it mean to be a heart centered warrior? It has been 180° turn from the life I overcome growing up with a renegade spirit. I am but a simple man with a humble heart today. A true heart centered warrior does not take up his sword for vengeance, nor revenge, to cause harm or destroy and damage those things that he has love for. When situations in life are not right or toxic, he comes with love and compassion while standing in truth, honor, and integrity. To stand up in truth and not waiver for what is right and just to be firm and confident. To have honor, I must believe in myself and stand in sovereignty of truth and to honor all that may cross my path. Never condemn out of anger when others could possibly be wrong. Instead to share better solutions that benefit them all. Integrity is how I view myself and with much inner work and going with the heart instead of a poisoned mind, as all of our minds have been corrupted with various poisons of this broken world. Much work and clearing past traumas is the only path to become heart centered. I have been fortunate to have been around a few mentors that have taught from their heart the true value of what love and life really is. Clearing away the illusions that have blanketed Midgard. It is all left up to each and every one of us with our free will choice to use these invaluable tools of life, that have been shared with us or let them pass you by like water that flows in the rivers. For this, I will be eternally grateful and with a major blockage cleared in recent events that huge blockage, fear has been removed from my vessel. I shall forever stand in valour, and my beacon shall never flicker nor grow dim forevermore. Great stuff and although it is one man's journey and or truth, to others who struggle why not make it yours as well?

More than ever now is the fact that THI topics are being covered elsewhere and that is a good thing that the information is now being discussed further than the protected zone of THI. It has been a long time coming you will all say, but I warned of that in November 2017, that it was too late for the masses to have a softer truth landing. The brutal truths are coming to light now on a global, political, societal and media stages. Make no mistake this is judgement time for us all, as those who did their work and good deeds will be reaping the benefits. Those who didn't address their traumas via shadow and inner work, have and will have huge mirrors placed in front of them, events or reminders will come to you and reality will bite. Those immersed in fear and not love will also face the mirror as well, as events will play out to remind you of your failure to not address things. Those who ignored the truth, will face harsh consequences in the coming months and years. Those who operated in a wrong, egotistical, greedy and evil way will face even harsher times now and ahead. These are heady and testing times for us all, all of you who are regulars have been given the warnings, the understandings of what is playing out, who are the bad guys and even the solutions for correcting things. THI members have no excuse, we have to step up as guardians and do, not wait for others as they will sit there forever like boiling frogs. We have come a long way, lets not forget that, but we cannot sit back on our laurels, and we have to be continuously pushing forward.
