

THI-SHOW TRANSCRIPT 2024-12-23

This started out as an expose in the main show, but quickly developed to being too long for the show and so I switched it to a tiny show. This show could come under the Have you lost your mind shows, the Future World shows, the Covid Expose and even The Empowerment shows with a sprinkling of mystery sections in there as well. This is about the US Government Program called STARGATE. All about Mind-control and how Nano-Brain plus AI and plus frequencies equals brain hacking. This ties in neatly with the FHSTOS Plus 27 Part with Part 3 in the works.

I recently had come across this declassified CIA/ US Army Intelligence Document and was very intrigued to study more. My reasoning was to understand the potential weaponization of this research that has existed for 50 years. The research of all of this was outlined in the book Nanobrain, in which hydrogel and carbon nanotubes were programmed via resonant frequencies to create an artificial brain. This research has succeeded but it was noted that the results are classified. They are classified because they are in use. It was explained how this technology can build a parallel processing platform in the human brain, when the building blocks via self-assembly nanotechnology are injected. Not content to build clones and synths, they now want live subjects for control. Understanding Mind Control and brain hacking became more understandable, when a correlation was found between the diameter of carbon nanotubes and microtubules in the brain, which are known to be the processing place of human consciousness, they are the same and can be interchanged. The laws of quantum physics apply on this nanoscale, which is the same for the self-assembly nanotechnology. Self-assembly is the replicator entities in the Stargate series who were notoriously difficult to eradicate once it reached a certain stage. I remember the alt media screaming for replicator machines and said to exercise caution, they didn't and so that was potential another consent to their program.

Nanobrain – The Making of an Artificial Brain from a Time Crystal By Anirban Bandyopadhyay – Senior Scientist in the Advanced Key Technologies Division at the National Institute of Materials Science (NMS) in Ibraki, Japan. Robert Monroe left his body first in the 1950's and later created the Monroe Research Institute. He was in the sound business and developed Hemisync, a technology to synchronize brain waves by using binaural beats. In the research the brain EEG patterning of different deep states of consciousness related to theta, delta and other states were decoded and hence individuals could be put in a state of deep sleep of the body while their consciousness was fully alert. Is that explaining the sleepers? If true they essentially become a zombie like state.

Monroe collaborated with the Stanford , where beginning in 1972, three physicists at Stanford Research Institute (now known as SRI International)—Harold Puthoff, Edwin May and Russell Targ, who initiated free-response remote viewing experiments with psi gifted participants. The United States government sponsored Psi research from 1972-1995 with 20 Million Dollars. To all those closedminded people ready to attack any research in consciousness and maintain their religious or fossilized scientific doctrine, read that sentence again. Would it not be wise to investigate what exactly was researched and funded for that amount of money? And if it was just laughable nonsense why would our intelligence and military agencies pursue the subject over a span of 23 years before it supposedly was stopped? All of which generally means it went to a higher top secret level and reassigned somewhere else, like Project Bluebook and MK Ultra.

Originally the project was called Grillflame, then Sunstreak then renamed the Stargate program. These projects act almost Jewish with their constant name changes. There are four volumes with over 2100 pages of the declassified portion of the research, including letters in which Government officials like James Clapper, former Director of the Defense Intelligence Agency was routinely briefed regarding the results. There was a summary CIA/ INSCOM briefing and described it here: Declassified CIA/US ARMY Intelligence Analysis - Assessment Of Gateway Process - The Potential Of Human Consciousness And Mandatory Training Of Intelligence Officers - Was This Knowledge Weaponized? Everything to do with technology is weaponized against the people, if only the masses understood that. This has deeper connotations, as maybe the agents are not under their own control anymore, allowing the operators of the agents, to get the agents to do whatever they want with them. In overview this is MK Ultra now being employed on the agents themselves.

This sounds to me like another version of the Wingmaker's narrative. Where the off world entities get human's to build, research or produce certain technology said to be for the benefit of humanity, but is never the case as I have found out. They did this with a special group called Prometheus, gave them all tasks and they thought it was for humanity, turns out it was for off world groups only. Are the CIA agents being MK Ultra'd by potentially the greys or the Ciakarr? Did at some point the intelligence agencies come under an off world coup? Would this explain their psychopathy?

According to Dr. Robert Duncan, STARGATE was a cover story for psychic spying , that used very advanced remote sensing and remote influencing technologies on human beings that has become global. Just like any other technology and discovery, dual purposes can be applied. The technologies and scientific discoveries alone are not evil, but all knowledge can be weaponized. It is evident, that Robert Monroe's intent was to enhance the freedom of humanity by taking away the fear of death, through experiencing that, we realize we are more than our physical body. But as we have found out over 100's of shows, all technology is released when it is weaponized against us. I found out something I didn't know recently, that you can dial into Alexa and hear everything that is going on inside the house. I knew it could and would be bugged, but that level of engagement was a surprise. The fact they have that technology means all electronic devices can be accessed that way, from phones to GPS devices, fridges to home security systems and so much more. All done without an ounce of investigation or oversight, that goes beyond government and is held in the hands of psychopaths to do whatever they wish. The public and indeed politicians are oblivious to the long tentacled arms and overreach of technology. Preferring to believe it only exists in the future, never the now or the past. The author was very curious to see what these Intelligence officers were trained in, so he signed up for the Gateway voyager program which still exists today and he completed it this past week.

As previously explained, I have studied for more than 18 years at Ramtha's School of Enlightenment, contrary to disinformation a premier academy of the mind. Hence I am very familiar with remote viewing and out of body states. I looked into this school of enlightenment with a name very close to the Rus creator Ram-ha to Ram t ha. The school is an American New Age spiritual sect near the city of Yelm, Washington, U.S.

The school was established in 1988 by J. Z. Knight, who claims to channel a 35,000-year-old being called Ramtha the Enlightened One. The school's teachings are based on channeling sessions and critics consider the organization to be a cult. Well some critics think THI is a cult, so that is not always the case, although I am highly suspicious of channeling. Channeling is often a grey based technology that almost operates like an AI machine, but is likely based on Virtual Intelligence technology used by the Draco and other races to communicate.

This is what they teach at the Monroe Institute. Learn to navigate the non-physical realm. During this transformational residential retreat, you'll gain the tools and techniques needed to navigate the nonphysical realm. We'll teach you to enter specific levels of expanded consciousness, like the state of no time. There you'll experience deep relaxation and find the guidance that leads to profound insight. You'll also explore the out-of-body state and other life-changing energy systems. Tap into expanded states of awareness. Gateway accelerates your ability to go farther, deeper and faster into different dimensions of consciousness—thanks in part to our use of binaural beat audio guidance technology. Shift your perspective on what's possible. With a more enlightened understanding of self and how you relate to others, you'll come to know your life's purpose. With that knowledge comes gratitude for all aspects of your life.

Learn from direct experience. For more than 50 years, the Monroe Institute has introduced thousands of people like you to the life-enhancing benefits of the Gateway Voyage program. As the world leader in consciousness exploration, we believe that direct experience is the most powerful teacher. After completing Gateway, you'll be prepared to participate in most of our advanced level programs. All of that costs $2500 or you can learn that for free at THI, providing you apply yourself without ego. Further courses each costing $1065 to $2495 for afterlife, consciousness advanced, time travel and out of body. Interesting stuff but if we wish to advance our species and not use this just for military and agency purposes, why can't we teach this to 15-16 year olds at school?

However, it takes a tremendous amount of discipline in focus to be able to sustain prolonged states of dimensional phasing. The Hemisync technology has the capacity to keep an individual in deep theta and delta states, these are the brainwaves of deep sleep, so the body is asleep but the mind fully awake and facilitate out of body states. Remote viewing and travel beyond the veil or beyond the dimension of time into no time and interactions with nonhuman intelligence. Exactly like the CIA/ ARMY document states, these levels of consciousness Focus 10, 12, 15, 21 allow a whole different level of exploration. Indeed, our human consciousness is the ultimate time machine. This has been well documented by former psychic spy, Army Intelligence officer and remote viewer Joe McMoneagle who provided intelligence support for the CIA, DIA, NSA, DEA, Secret Service, FBI, US Customs, NSC, major commands within the DoD. He acted as a direct consultant to the Commanding General, US Army Intelligence and Security Command (INSCOM) as well as Army Chief of Staff for Intelligence at the Pentagon.

In his book The Ultimate Time Machine - A remote viewers perception of time and predictions for the new Millennium, he describes working with Bob Monroe and viewing spans of thousands of years in the past and future. Much of the information of course is completely contradictory to what humans believe history was like, since the perceptions of the masses have been boxed in with belief systems and false dogma that served those who want and misuse power. His accuracy has been laboratory tested and confirmed hundreds of times. The reason why this is important to my research is because the self-assembly nanotechnology and the EMF/5G/HAARP Mind Control Grid, uses the very principles developed by researchers like Bob Monroe in a weaponized way. Hemisync uses binaural beats of 100Hz in one ear, and 104 Hz in the other. The wave cancellation produces a 4 Hz wave. Where have we heard that before?

I have discussed it in the research findings done by Clifford Carnicom and I, when he exposed Covid-19 vaccinated and unvaccinated blood to frequencies from 0 to 25000Hz. The result showed that the one difference we found between vaccinated and unvaccinated blood, is that the Covid-19 vaccinated blood is extremely sensitive to 4 HZ. This is the ELF frequency are used by HAARP for mind control. 4 Hz also was specifically mentioned in the CIA/ Army Gateway declassified briefing. Yet again we must ask are the CIA a different race of beings? Because their numerous experiments of a heinous nature on humans, suggests otherwise.

Prospective difference between Covid-19 vaccinated and unvaccinated blood: Electromagnetic observations, ELF response and potassium metabolism - Ana Mihalcea, MD, PhD and Clifford Carnicom. I believe this connection, to be key to the mechanism of how the remote mind control is currently occurring on large parts of the world population. Yes and most of that is achieved through frequencies in the MK Ultra range and deposited through our tv's and phones and likely our computers as well. Again where is the oversight of government committees? Why are they allowed to do this to humans unhindered and unaccountable? This has serious issues for our wellbeing and mental health, yet where is the medical oversight of this? Are the mental health departments aware of this? If yes, why have they done nothing about it? And if no, how can they be experts?

The author says, my own view of reality has been much expanded in this past week. It was very easy for me to work with the technology due to my previous training and experiences. Recently I was asked by a Christian individual why God allows all of the bad things to happen in the world. Which is another oversight issue in my opinion, the church sets themselves up as messengers of god, what are the messages? of death, torture, programming, indoctrination, famines, war and pestilence? Do they or we ask or demand those answers from the so-called messengers of god – an emphatic no. Why? Because people deep down know it is all nonsense and they use religion as a fake crutch to prop themselves up, when in reality it doesn't, it hampers them.

The author said in my own out of body journeys, I experienced God as being the platform of all life. Every sentient being, wherever they are, in whatever dimension lives in their own holographic thoughtful universe that looks like a soap bubble. Yes I can confirm that all universes look like a soap bubble when I have experienced certain things in travel. Then each individual exists in infinite other quantum potentials, that are activated as the dominant reality by choice of their thought. The Void, the platform of all life, is the nothingness from which life springs forth and is aware of each thought of each being and allows it through love, to be. For those who have never experienced this and think God is a wrathful man in the sky that tells you to sacrifice your first born child and should be feared, none of this would make sense.

Bob Monroe spoke of a more intelligent understanding of life than the religious view. Again, I invite you to read the CIA briefing that speaks exactly of this platform of life, as the Army intelligence community who participated and investigated this aspect of human potential, found it to be. In that dimension beyond time, there is no judgement of good or bad, there is only being. Each entity creates its own reality, each thought is a manifestation and each action has a consequence. For example hostility, anger, hate, jealousy are very low vibratory frequencies, that create what people call thought forms, others call them demons. The demons are nothing else but the coagulated energy of their own thoughts, you meet what you are, like attracts like. That is a hard one for most people to accept, that they create their own demons and boogeymen. In reality the demons in the dream time, is the reflection of you. Which is why when running away from them in the astral dream time, the simplest solution is to stop and face the demon, because ultimately it is just you in the mirror. The reflection of the self, hidden in the dark corners of your mind, that ultimately only you can face and deal with. The first thing is facing, that you are the demon, then ask yourself as to why you view yourself in that way?

In states of consciousness phasing, also called out of body, one becomes aware of much more expanded states of awareness, that are specific to the vibratory rate of the being and their preconceived belief system. For example, religious mindsets are extremely limiting. I had heard of a plane where those are dead in Christ, who are waiting to be resurrected. I actually visited there, and saw millions and millions of souls believing they were dead, waiting for them to be resurrected by their savior. I could see their faces, eyes open waiting, wrapped in white linen and nothing could wake them up. Many had been there for many hundreds, even thousands of earth years. Such is the tremendous debilitating effect of religious indoctrination even after this life. You can only experience what you believe. If that doesn't make you reconsider your religious path, then I do not know what will. Religion is a spirit and spiritual trap, designed to harvest your energy and also take you away from who you are.

I was glad to see that Joe McMoneagle saw in the year 3000, no religions exist but a deep spiritual understanding and awareness of the interconnection of all life. Of note there are also a lot less people, because biological weapons that governments created wiped out much of the population. Note he published that book in 1998, so I would say he is right on target, only time is speeding up because knowledge explosion is quantum leaping our experiences. There is no linear time. I agree with those statements in particular related to time, we need the vertical path that goes through the time based Merkaba and eventually ascend into the no time zone. The biological weapons may well be Covid, or could be a future event. Now you are aware of it, one can stop it if sufficient act upon the knowledge.

What is the purpose of the self-assembly nanotechnology? Why is mind control so important for the enslavement of the human race? Because if the spin states of subatomic particles can be manipulated within the body, specifically the quantum computing brain, the electrical patterns of brain waves will change without the individual being aware that the change was not generated by them. What is the point of controlling a set of zombies? What possible purpose can it serve? One would have to become psychotic to understand the thinking patterns of these people and or beings.

Study suggests spins of brain water could mean our minds use Quantum computation: For the purposes of this research, the proton spins of brain water, the fluid that builds up in the brain, act as the known system, with custom magnetic resonance imaging (MRI) scans used to non-invasively measure the proton activity. Now you know why MRI scans are so prevalent in this country. The spin of a particle, which determines its magnetic and electrical properties, is a quantum-mechanical property. Through this technique, the researchers were able to see signals resembling heartbeat-evoked potentials, which are a type of electro-encephalography (EEG) signal. In the most extreme form this technology was implemented in the targeting program, where we know voice to skull technologies can implant thoughts. That took place in 2020 to the Trustee oblivious to her and was removed July 4th, 2020. It is suspected that the Trustee had quantum computation in some format to be able to access the quantum system.

However on a more subtle level we all have seen Covid-19 injected people, infected with mind viruses that keep even the most intelligent unable to process reasonable information. We know intelligence communities hack into people's dream states, and I know individuals in the MKULTRA or its evolution and targeting program, who's dreams are still being hacked. This is not conjecture, but is even researched in the public domain.

Here is an article from 2020: An MIT Lab is building devices to hack your dreams from improving your mood to focusing your creativity, scientists at MIT's Dream Lab want to prove the power of dreams. The technology of brain wave entrainment has existed for 50 years and phase shifted states can be induced easily through sound frequencies. In a few minutes, I was out of my body, flying through space, interacting with beings, seeing past and future like pages in a book. One can stop anywhere and see for yourself what happened. Most importantly, this is not a special skill, and there are no special people. Every human being has a soul and a spirit that lives in many dimensions. It does not matter who you are, you are loved more than any human understanding of love could ever fathom. You can meet deceased loved ones in that state, download any information you want. Where you go is up to your intent. The realization of oneness with all life and all beings is something that can be experienced. I concur, there is much magic, awe and wonder to be had once you develop the self on a soul level. It beats any experience you can have on this planet by far, even though this planet is a beautiful planet in and of itself.

Why is this so dangerous to the elites and puppet masters of the prison planet? Why is this the one thing they fear more than anything else, the most powerful weapon ever against them that needs to be hidden from the masses? And all you have to do is believe and trust in yourself, love yourself and all others, be of service to others and then dare to dream. Because they would lose their control and harvesting program over us, that is their greatest fear. They want us dumbed down, subservient, lazy, childlike and stuck in the astral, because they then have an army to self-control their control structure. I have said all along, the people are the problem, they run the tyranny, the programs and the control structure for the elites. The elites says jump and they all jump in unison, if you don't believe that at this point, then remember the Covid and self-imposed martial law events? The people went along with a request to self-imprisonment, mandates which are not law and volunteered for an experimental jab. All whilst telling those who didn't fall for it to go and away.

In the Covenant a secret document leaked from Illuminati that I had posted after Sean from SGT report shared it during our interview it states: Interview on SGT Report: Demons Of The MRNA VAX. We will keep them separated from the oneness by dogma and religion. We will control all aspects of their lives and tell them what to think and how. We will guide them kindly and gently letting them think they are guiding themselves. We will foment animosity between them through our factions. The hate will blind them totally, and never shall they see that from their conflicts we emerge as their rulers. They will be busy killing each other. They will bathe in their own blood and kill their neighbors for as long as we see fit. We will benefit greatly from this, for they will not see us, for they cannot see us. We will continue to prosper from their wars and their deaths. We shall repeat this over and over until our ultimate goal is accomplished. We will continue to make them live in fear and anger through images and sounds. We will use all the tools we have to accomplish this. The tools will be provided by their labor. We will make them hate themselves and their neighbors. We will always hide the divine truth from them, that we are all one. This they must never know!

Now you have heard that doctrine; to end it you just have to reverse the patterns they created for us. Why are we supposed to never know the divine truth that we are all one? Because as we think, we are. Our reality is created by the collective subconscious thought. The more people wake up and become conscious and heal within them the lower vibratory frequencies of hate, greed, insecurity, competition, dogmatic and religious belief systems etc. the collective reality can no longer be controlled by these elites. It phase changes to a new reality which is the awakening of humanity to their infinite potential. This realization is the ultimate antidote against the matrix domination. Game over, does not matter what nanotechnology robots swim in the blood, because the spirit is way more powerful. If your mind state can maintain the higher vibratory state and keep changing, keep releasing old belief systems, the collective one changes everything, not towards Armageddon but a brilliant new future. They cannot stop us evolving, only we can do that to ourselves. The question for you all is, why did you devolve yourself to accommodate their programs? Why did we swallow way more of the Luciferic agenda than 2%? In this earth plane light and dark, like Yin and Yang, are both needed for their existence because we live in a realm of polarity.

The bad side of self-assembly nanotechnology is the weaponization, mind control, destruction of our biosphere. The purposeful side is that many humans who are open-minded are learning about it, and ultimately this changes the paradigm of science for those who are open-minded. The conscious exploration of who am I, why am I here, am I more than my physical body? is directly related to this warfare. It is unfortunate that humans have to be brought to the brink of destruction to even consider the larger context of life itself. Yes, that has been the age old problem of not being proactive to stop the tyranny and onslaught and only reacting when it is often too late. Covid is a prime example of it, the whole thing from the beginning was a complete farce, yet how many bought into it? Millions of Milgram Experiment fools lining up for experimental jabs, that had not been properly tested, due to fear. In human history, those who have worked to give humanity new knowledge have been murdered, crucified or burned at the stake. These methods of silencing have now transformed into being cancelled, fact checked, attacked and in other words done away with. Why is there the development and implementation of thought police now? China's thought police may already be at work in America, Americans may discover tech they use every day is abused by China's thought police.

Advances in neuroscience, engineering and artificial intelligence have brought us a world of greater brain transparency. With consumer brain wearables coming of age, we can now monitor brain activity as easily as we track heart rate, blood oxygen levels and steps taken in a day; which will revolutionize our relationship with technology and understanding of ourselves and each other. Consumer brain wearables can empower us to take charge of our mental health and wellbeing, but they also threaten our last bastion of freedom. Robert Monroe did not use any terms that were in any way associated with spiritual or religious ideas, since those have been so abused and misused in human history and subconscious programming. However, since the technocrats want to be Godlike in the fusion with AI, the fact that we already are divine spiritual beings not in need of technological enslavement or enhancement is an important fact. We don't need to be merged with an AI quantum supercomputer because our brain is already a quantum supercomputer. You just have to know how to use the "machine" aka the human body you are wearing. That is correct given my time with the Trustee.

I wanted to share my thoughts and experiences with you, because a discussion about antidotes would not be complete without this very exploration. I am a scientist at heart and I do not have any preconceived dogma, I do not care about my social acceptability, peer respectability or any other form of social enslavement, in fact I actively work to expand my knowledge and experiential base outside of those realms, in order to catch up with what is already well known in clandestine programs that have been weaponized against us. Any mindful prisons that limit our acceptance of possibilities increase our chances of dying in these perilous times, for our foe is far advanced beyond the common understanding. Adaptability and evolution is required and these new cutting edges of explorations have the solutions to problems that seem insurmountable to a dogmatic mind. Never try to convince anyone of anything, it is futile. People will understand when they are ready to understand, they have the free will to think and believe as they wish. But for those who want to know freedom from AI enslavement, there are other vistas to explore.

We will have to wait and see what happens in the Trump Presidency, but there are significant concerns about further deregulation of AI, which could prove quite dangerous for humanity, as I have described in many previous articles. Think Donald Trump's AI policy plans are predictable? Prepare to be surprised he said. In general, Trump will likely pick up where his first administration left off in January 2020, when it issued guidance to federal agencies about AI. The memo called on the government to reduce barriers to AI development and adoption and avoid regulations that hamper innovation and growth, said Adam Thierer, a senior fellow at the R Street Institute, a center-right think tank in Washington, D.C. So, the author believes Trump will exacerbate the problem, why? The Israelis are what is driving this technological changes against humanity and Trump to date has shown no kickback or rebuke for them. I am always hopeful that it may change, but at this point all evidence points against it.

This next section is an important part of this show and must be taken on board for your own and our development. We are in a critical phase, whether in terms of a shift and or dynamics and more people must learn to pay attention to what is important. This now goes into the author's dream travel and I can attest personally to most of what he is saying, via my own observations. The author said in another journey, I phased to a place with many advanced beings, and they showed me the Earth that was enveloped in a dark cloud, made by the low vibratory thoughts of the masses. Every time one human wakes up and reaches for states of higher conscious awareness, the cloud lifts a little and that ripple effect influences others to have more open-minded thoughts. The thickest clouds are over large, populated cities. This confirms what I have been saying, if you change just you, you change the world, one ripple at a time.

The reason the technocratic guys and AI have to hurry up and get up the 5G towers and all the Satellites creating more and more toxic EMF interference via Radar, ELF, HAARP etc, is because the suffering of humanity on the earth has allowed many to awaken to whatever degree they have allowed themselves. So will there be Armageddon? Well for those who want it and who spend all their energy focusing that some Messiah is coming to make them the chosen race, their thoughts do have an outcome. Is that the earth that you will be on of all of the potential earths and potential you's that are out there? That is your experience to be seen. One of the important aspects of remote viewing is that nothing is absolute. We, the observers, are creating reality constantly. Hence the THI meme of observe, don't absorb. The observers have many roles, some go onto becoming the watchers, although they do interfere at times in our lives for varying reasons and also some are good, bad and neutral from an individual and collective perspective.

Imagine suddenly someone has an experience where they realize the interconnections of all life and the unconditional love of the platform called life. Does that person have the same future as the one who was hating, jealous, hopeless, depressed and gave the responsibility for their life to movie stars, governments or religions? Do they even inhabit the same version of our universe? Of course not. That change can happen in a moment. Once that moment arrives, everything about you changes, your perspective, your outlook on people and life, your outlook on the planet, solar system and the Cosmos, you learn patience, tolerance, humility, service to others, overview, love, trust and above all you learn to understand you. The sad fact is, most people have never defined, understood, embraced, loved or trusted themselves and that is all down to you and no one else. Yes you can blame the cabal, MSM, government, clowns, bloodline families and even me, your local projection screen, but ultimately life is what you make it and no one else.

Bob Monroe said it quite beautifully, the greatest gift for someone's life is to lose the fear of death, for that is freedom. Yes the fear of death is a by-product of the church and their insidious doctrines and control systems. You cannot tell someone about this experience, they must have their own. From my own experience, very few knew I had gone on my own journey of evolution and discovery, except a few in the Cosmic ET group and my girlfriend at the time, no one else needed to know. Too many get trapped by the ego of being and doing different, as what unfolded with the THI mystery school. People do not want to change because of their social status, their relationships, their fame, their prestige, their addiction to emotions, the money they make living the facade of being an automaton that tries to be like everyone else. Unless they stop, and explore the uniqueness of their own being, they will never find answers. When you phase out of your physical existence and you go visit there while still in the body, are you affected by self-assembly nanotechnology? No. So, that antidote to nanotechnology and other frequencies is to develop yourself and learn to travel away from the planet. Because healing can take place outside of here and there are some interesting healing centers available on your journey of discovery.

You are more than your body. It does not matter what is happening within the physical, your spirit is a completely sovereign being. But there are other dimensions that vibrate at a much different rate of speed. Do emotions exist there, can you touch and embrace a loved one? The emotion there is beyond anything in the earth life support system. I agree having experienced similar, you cannot compare love out there within the Earth based system. Love is not a place per se, so you don't just travel away and experience it, you have to develop your own frequency to be able to interact with it. If the love frequency resides on a planet, it is because the majority of people have developed themselves to a high level of frequency and soul development, that they become the beacon of love. We have a unique chance in this time to raise our vibratory rate and consciousness and affect magnificent futures. This does not mean we fight against those who desire to play the game of doomsday. Like the THI meme says, I didn't come here to play their game, I came here to change it. It means we ascend upwards from their frequency, speak and live our truth. We phase out of their realm to a different one.

That work does not happen outside of us, but inside of us. The ultimate antidote against everything we have been facing is the realization within you. You contain universes, your universes and aspects of being that are much vaster than you can imagine. That cannot be hacked by any AI supercomputer because it is outside of its vibratory reach. Dimensions are like radio stations, when you turn the dial you can no longer perceive the station you just left. That is the phase shifting I have spoken about, your new vibration will not allow you to see what you would normally see. For those who can travel out at will, you may have noticed recently the planet you call Earth is no longer visible. It doesn't mean it is not there or something to fear either, it just means you have transcended that plane and existence. That doesn't mean either you cannot get back to Earth and experience it either, as those who develop themselves can operate in more than one world at any given time. Symptoms of such is constant day dreaming, naps at any time, a feeling of heaviness over the body, your legs are stiff and almost rigid, people not serving you or themselves will disappear into the background, convergence of all things, collective consciousness rise, synchronicities goes through the roof, numerical patterns will repeat, thinking patterns will change dramatically, added downloads, added G tones, you become more withdrawn and possibly reclusive.

You have to learn to embrace that new reality, remember that is what you have worked for and took this lifetime to develop to that new, yet much older reality. You have to learn to embrace the new you and not be tied to the old world, ways, manifestations as at that stage a new you is born. The author said: I understood in those journeys that me unfolding in the "there" has more impact than a million substacks, books, interviews I could have ever given. To perceive things differently is a key feature of phase shifting into parallel realities that are not somewhere in space, but right here. It does not matter what or who you leave behind, because what is ahead of you, yet unknown, is so fascinating, so beautiful. The higher the vibratory rate of our thoughts, the more the quality of time changes, it experientially speeds up. There is no information we cannot be viewed or downloaded. You can travel, for example in mind to the year 2500 and download any information you want. Zero point energy systems already exists, even now that have been suppressed as well as cures for diseases that have nothing to do with Big Pharma poisons. What else can be explored that no human in our time has ever thought of?

For the first time in history humans are maybe suffering enough under the ultimate threat of enslavement that many might awaken. Awaken to what? The part of you that cannot be controlled with any technology when you become self-aware - the spirit of your being. Why did Dr. Robert Duncan, the CIA/ DARPA developer of some of the most powerful mind control AI Algorithms say: An enlightened Mind cannot be hacked? Because they are in the heart. Right now there is a tremendous reveal going on for those who really are digging into the “why” of the self-assembly nanotechnology and its coverup. It leads to understanding our divinity within.

Each unique human being has to become an explorer for themselves, driven by their own understanding of the technocratic transhumanist advancements that continue to move forward unchecked and unregulated. The author said: It is my conviction, that before we have disclosure about prior and current extraterrestrial government contacts, which includes the current deep state puppet masters, the biggest disclosure that needs to happen is that of our human consciousness potential inside of each human. I agree, most are just not ready for that level of truth and would take that information into the fear mode, which will ultimately lower the vibration again.

In reality all people have already had ET disclosure, it is just that there are too many weak people unready to face the truth. They are the resister's of reality, they are the true resistance movement as they will not let go of dogmas, doctrines, religions and programs. Resistance, and you know sometimes words have two meanings. The people of Earth in the V Series fighting the lizard people were called The Resistance for a reason. But the true resistance is the people who will not face reality. Nobody in the V series believed the ET's where lizards underneath and did not come in peace, but to destroy us. Typically for humans on this planet within that series showed our stupidity and compliance. Humans embraced the oppressors, began to worship them, began to work, manipulate and contrive with them. Went against their fellow humans, created class systems, worshipped the Nazi symbolism, cozied up to the stormtroopers, accepted fake titles from them and even mated with them. All replete in their favorite satanic colors red and black. Symbolizing blood and death.

You have to have an evolved mind to understand, who our government has had contact with and what other civilizations are moving pieces on the world chessboard. The Government program was not called STARGATE for no specific reason. Stargate SG1, Stargate Atlantis or Stargate Universe? Your choice at the end of the day, where you go, where you reside, where you land. What you see and what you don't see. Depends upon what you create and what you manifest, does it not? THI members all have had a fairly unique opportunity to go beyond the limitations of man and this 3D planet, how many of you took it on board? I guess time will tell.
