July 7th show *They tried to connect a system to jpm with assets and screwed it up

They tried to siphon everything out of JPM and allocate other currencies against it and failed

No luck in anything they tried And we caught it all and sent it to agencies *strong rumors Michael Aquino has been busted and his homes in BC have been raided *Huge ritual to call in demons sunday, Failed. They tried to open a portal or something to bring in "demons" to help them, it was a bit crazy last weekend But a lot of fighting *oh and in the other news the proposed rv/gcr failed again, and contrary to what is being told in CV , no the republic is not restored, general dunford will not be leading the country, et's will not be landing anytime soon, there is enough here already messing shit up without adding more to the mix, Drake was fed the exact same info at the exact same time in 2013, either he is stuck in the 2013 loop or someone is taking the piss out of him, if it is the latter, message to them we will have our day with you, mark my words.

Plagiarism, well I am not the first or only one it is happening to and wont be the last, we all use each others opinions, knowledge or material from time to time, but I can hold my hand up and state I have often on this show referenced other people's words or shows many times, and I think because of that, some of you feel strong that others should follow suit, it would be nice yes. *this is in response to more than a few members asking about the recent video Randy and Dani F'ing McKenny (call me old fashioned but I dont see the need to cuss all the way through any show or otherwise, least of all by a female - Spencer W. Kimball — 'Profanity is the effort of a feeble brain to express itself forcibly' discussion which appears to be in response to something I elaborated more on in a recent show, but have been chipping away with that narrative over a prolonged period of time, and was regarding the 4 year loop and I know many of you are asking why I wasn't involved in it, or the recent Corey Goode exposure saga and why I was ignored on that as well, and why lots of my theories and intel are being splattered here and there, with again no apparent reference or what's even worse distorted spins put on it. Those that know me know I always shun being over praised or seeking recognition, I don't self promote, as it is not what I am here for or what I am about, but I do understand the angst of more than a few members now not happy I have been overlooked, disregarded or even been given a minor reference, or had chunks of my show lifted and transported into other shows with no reference and in some cases with little to no understanding of what was being stated. Well there could be many reasons for me being ignored or overlooked, perhaps others feel that my input is not valid enough? bit it can also be seen as a confirmation of your work and so in essence a compliment. Some may feel they need to compete, some may feel they want to control the narrative and some may just like the idea of having no material themselves, cant be arsed researching and so just steal others ideas, theories, opinions and pass it off as their own, youtube is riddled with those people, none of them have any inside contacts or intel and just burble on, on what are their interpretations of what is going on, some will get some of it correct, but mostly it is like throwing shit onto a wall and hoping some of it sticks, they will all get exposed as the masks come down, but I will just keep on doing what I do which is to get information out and share intel, hidden stories and theories of which I have many, only a few of which I have revealed, as that is the way I choose to be. I believe the way I have chosen to do this show is what is best for all the listeners and members, a steady flow of disclosure that allows people of all stages of learning to get a grasp of and an understanding of what is being said, unlike others this host discounts nobody. Do I wish more would listen or have more members? in some aspects yes as I feel more would be in a better place and understanding within themselves now, the comparison between our groups and others is marked. Look at what is happening in other groups? all arguing, slating and hating on each other and in general projecting their own inner failings, THI is 13 months old and how much have we seen of that type of behavior on the FB or Mewe page.

So for those that wish to know this is my story on this loop, It does involve CERN, project looking glass and also the galactic crossing. Back in around 2004 I read a document on project looking glass where it stated a few things but the main one that stuck with me was, on January 1st 2013 the screen goes blank, no more viewing, now some took this as a complete and total end of times, were all going to die etc, I took it as there end not ours. In early 2012 Bill Wood mentioned project looking glass and how at the end of that year the screen goes blank, so this was a further conformation. The Galactic alignment lasts 36 years it started in 1980 (ww3) and ended in 2016, CERN started being built at half way point of the 36 year alignment in 1998 and completed in 2008, it the alignment happens every 26K years, and basically this is what the Mayan long calendar is all about. It is in relation to the suns positions on the winter solstice, 3000 years ago we were in alignment with what is known in astrological terms as the dark rift, now on december 21st 2012 we were in the exact center line of the milky way on the galactic equator. In 2012 we had all the ascension bs'ery mainly from Wilcock, channelers, the bs pleaidians etc which was a distraction from other events ongoing globally, of course lots of those events put out in the alternative media never came to fruition, Wilcock himself forecast he was special than all the rest of us and guaranteed he would be ascending on that date, oops. On Jan 1st 2013 I did a post on Universal Voice as many people were disappointed that certain mass arrests, ascension, Rv's and NESARA had not taken place, my view was that lets also look at what hasn't taken place in a different way, the key one is we are all still here, no fema camps, no 90% population reduction, no WW3, no NWO, as those 4 I suspected then and since confirmed had to be done before the end of 2012, after that I felt at the time was our time not theirs, the screen was blank as we the people had yet to write the new chapter. In middle of 2013 I found out on a deeper level heard rumors previously about what they were planning with Cern and how they fired it all up for dec 21st and suddenly it all went boom and shut down a few days before and they were unable to get it fired up again in time for the solstice, this was offworld intervention. So what were they planning? as I understand they were trying to create an Einstein-Rosen bridge or better known as a wormhole or portal, at the precise point of the galactic alignment on December 21st 2012, this would have given them a way out of here, with the potential to leave behind earth blasted into dust via exotic weaponry and killshots, which would have been catastrophic for all of us here, but potentially catastrophic for the whole solar system as well, you have to remember galactic central sun is like all other suns - a portal, so if they successfully created the bridge and they disappeared through the galactic center, the danger of potentially ripping this solar system in on itself and totally collapsing it behind them, they of course would be in another universe and so unaffected, but like all their big plans it failed. So I felt getting to Jan 1st 2013 was a big win for us, but perhaps a giant slap for the egoic one during the summer of that year things became a lot clearer for my understanding via knowledge, I had people around me with a deeper understanding of things that helped me learn quickly, and also stuff I began to witness first hand, all of which I have had documented and logged in some volume. Things came to me during dream time I had little understanding of at the time, but knew it was important to document it as it would all become clearer at a later date. I witnessed this solar system inside a portal/wormhole/vacuum I did warn certain others but was overlooked, now my theory on this is they managed to create the bridge but were unable to create the opposing open end, but has left us in limbo in the tube as i call it. Inside the tube there is 3 portals 2 of which takes us into a bad region of space, those 2 events have now passed and things were prevented from being catastrophic, there is another portal yet to come across, this maybe where the new earth is operating at a different vibration. Back in 2013 it was being terraformed and fauna, flora and certain species not human were introduced to the surface, although a certain few humans are overseeing the progress of it and is ongoing today. A large hit on CERN took place in 2014 when they were close to opening it again, the parts hit were later reported on msm exactly how the hit took place, this set them back a bit more in their race to complete before 2016. In late August 2015 CERN was energetically hit for the final time and this ended their plans to complete their task, it was game over before Simon Parkes and group did their meditation session, Cern people lied to public of when it was firing back up, it was a week to 10 days prior to Simons meditation. It was suspected that no further intervention was required against CERN but certain on ground people would still monitor it, up until the end of 2016. In 2013 I suspected we were in a 4 year loop to 2016 it was a theory at the time and wasn't really taken on board by colleagues too much, but as time went on it became more and more obvious, by early 2015 it became obvious and predicted we would see certain things repeat or play out over again to mirror 2012, Wilcock and others started re-posting articles they had done in 2012, those that remember will recall me outing it on a show whilst still in CV. It was also predicted we may see a return of some of the bogus entities in alt media that suddenly all vanished or faded into the background after 2012 -13 and yes that has taken place. By May of 2015 the path to me became clearer and I did a piece on Cosmic Voice asking for you all to focus solely on the self and prepare for what is coming, I mentioned dealing with our shadow sides and doing our inner work, mentioned about finding the inner and real version of you via meditation all in that one show, this was to give you all a chance to prepare for these times. From the back end of 2015 the cabal have been in panic mode, no means of escaping via craft and now no bridge out either, so that ended their plans of blowing us all up and them fleeing justice. In a show November 2016 I was asked what should all be doing now? the answer was the we should all stay calm and balanced, and make sure we are all still intact by the end of 2016, this was in reference to the 4 year loop or as I like to call it the 4 year cheat in the game. The end of 2016 arrived and in a show I mentioned what would be taking place this year, called the unravelling, said everything would start to unravel and reveal the ugly truth, I think we can all safely say we have witnessed that, but here is the kicker. I have mentioned recently about the masks of illusion and how they would all come down, cabal are being exposed and exposing each other, alt media bs'ers being exposed and exposing each other. What are the masks of illusion? well we all have our own masks to cover various things inside and present ourselves in some case as being something we are not, acting rich to friends and showing off material wise when laboring in debt is a mask of illusion, others cry poverty when clearly they are not, another mask of illusion, others put on brave face to cover trauma but it is a mask, others say they are sto when they are of the self, others acting like freedom warriors when they are agents for the cabal, again all a mask and not the true version of the self, well. What If I told you all the masks of illusion of not only the cabal but also all of us is coming down, unravelling if you wish and it will be displayed for all to see? have you dealt with your shadow sides, dealt with your imbalanced ego, dealt with inner traumas, dealt with your anger, dealt with your hurt, dealt with your lies, dealt with your weakness, dealt with your fears, dealt with your insecurities and dealt with your inner demons? if you have then you are a well rounded transparent human being and a case of what you see is what you get, those that haven't will see it all brought to the fore in its full glory, it has to be that way as I see it. Progress of humanity has been stalled due to our collective inability to face the truth in and of the self and what is all around us, now we have no choice but to face it, will it be fun? depends how far along you are? will it be ugly? absolutely, but humanity can no longer go on with our masks of illusion and expect real change to take place here. How can we expect to absorb or demand the full truth and all knowing, when we can't face our own truths? This is what we are witnessing now people exposing themselves for who and what they really are, they cannot hide behind the masks anymore, as they are all dropping like flies, what will emerge eventually is a realignment of our true selves in a full transparency, a chance to correct our own behaviors and the facades we put up towards others, a chance for us all to look in the mirror and see our true selves, and subsequently were we are all able to be more honest and open with each other and to ourselves. Nothing ever changed by doing nothing, you all know that, change only comes if you put in the work, in whatever field that may be.

JAWS THEME SONG just when you thought it was safe for your kids to go back on the internet, up pops Corey not so good and David will cock you, whose real name is Eric L or EL meaning God. David thinks he is god. DW: Gather round kiddies time to be butt probed by the blue avians, only joking it is not harvest time yet, RA RA RA, but in the mean time tell your parents to come and buy our books, cd, magazines and this week's special, a full page pullout of david mastering his Nefertiti look by slanting his forehead, and next weeks watch the hilarious outtakes Corey did in a new movie with him starring as Batman, watch Corey attempting to get into an adam west Batman costume, I think Corey has ate too many pies, maybe the blue avians can take corey's weight back to 20 years ago and he might fit in the costume then, I nearly fell off my self loveseat in my 6 bedroom home watching that. DW: Hey Corey looks like we have a good crop of children here today, yes David but stop using harvesting terms like crop, otherwise people will get onto us, oops sorry about that, it's an insider joke Corey, sorry I know your not an insider yet, as you cant even get inside the Batman costume, one day you might reach my advanced level.

BATMAN SONG Now children did you all watch me on Ancient aliens? if you look closely you will see my eyes change color on different episodes, the blue avians taught me how to do that. Now children I will have to look after you today as Corey will be gone for 20 years again this week, where does the time go? so children "I am David a law of one self. Whilst Corey is away for 20 years doing IT work for rogue corporations, in the past he set up and trained internet trolls for the agencies and govt, he also is an FBI infragard informant, he also saves the world from nasty et's, works with the Nazis for the SSp, Corey is so multi cultural he has meetings with hispanic generals named Gonzalez in the kuiper belt, SPEEDY GONZALEZ SONG, he mindmelds with Agarthans like Karee, when he is not doing all that, he also finds the time to read old fiction books and then repeats the story's in my shows, we make lots of money doing that children, isn't it great kids, I get loads of money then I can spend all my time hob nobbing with the el-ites in Banff, and I also get to attend the el-ites costume parties like those portrayed in the eyes wide shut movie, I hope nobody on the internet has pics of me doing that, it is not good for my image.

So let me tell you a bit about who we work for, which is Gaia tv, Gaia is an acronym for Gullible Assholes Inventing Aliens, but don't tell that to anyone as that is our little secret, otherwise that guy whose name Kerry forgets deliberately will come after us, erm what is his name again oh yes that's right Brandy maugans, he has the same sounding name, which is a sort of synchronicity as Jp as In JP morgan so he is illuminati as well, and that other guy who works for the illuminati Shane the Ruiner, people forget I used to have Shane as my intel guy and i called him Harry, but Harry started talking too much truth and was stifling my book sales, so Harry had to go, and then there is that other guy who I told my underling Neil Keenan and Drake to get rid of, Thomas Williams, my underling Neil Keenan did a piece I drafted for him to post, about Thomas being Illuminati, but I think Mr. Steele told Neil to retract it and so Neil went off to buy tequila and prostitutes with Drake's money. As Corey is gone for 20 years I can let you in on another secret, you know Corey meets Karee on these trips, well Karee wrote a song about her and Corey and gave it to the band Kansas back in 1976, here is that song CARRY ON OUR WAYWARD SON SONG

Any questions children? yes Jordan what is your question, hey children wasn't Jordans interview with the CIA agent who also worked with one of my underlings called Neil Keenan great, thanks David, my question is I think me and Teresa made a mistake and went too far in Joshua tree the other week, and I think Teresa is pregnant, will she have a blue avian baby? David ooh my Jordan way to go, my teachings have had a big impact on you already I see, but the conference was not that type of Contact in the Desert we had in mind, dont worry about the baby we will do a ritual for you at Rhapsody, Rhapsody David where is that, ah it is just another of my little insider jokes I have Jordan, the ritual is at the Bohemian and we call it Rhapsody, see how clever us insiders are Jordan? anyway we will remove the baby, then we can sell it to my contacts at Children Integrating Anu group CIA for short, and onto the advanced research center at Area 52.

Today Monday is a busy day for me as I draft up the article for Benjamin Fulford to put out in his name, I deliberately make mistakes on it, so I can chime in on his blog and correct him, then I can tell people to come and buy my books, wow there was a synchronicity there, as I hadn't mentioned buy my books for exactly 5 minutes, i mean how much is that not a coincidence, exactly 5 mins which is 300 seconds, these types of synchronicities happen to me all the time, in fact I think I invented synchronicity. In my past life of Edgar Cayce I made load of predictions, but there are some nasty people in New York claiming I'm not really Edgar Cayce, but I think Edgar Cayce will be more pleased that me David Wilcoque has honored him, by me turning up and looking like him. Cayce wrote books like me see there is another one of my synchronicities.

Hi Teresa you have a question for me, just let me just how say fantastic your show with Corey's wife was, it was perfect timing to re-affirm our message and have everybody follow us, like Hubbard, Parsons, Manson and Koresh before us, we will lead the people to our proposed promised land, so what is your question Teresa? Hi David, can I just say how great, marvellous and stupendous you are, everyone loves you and wants to be in your pants haha. well thanks Teresa I have been telling people that, on the come and buy my books and video blog called Divine Cosmos, I think my message is getting across now of how important I am. Yes David I agree, so david what would your advice be if mine and Jordans baby started crying too much, well I would take it to Auntie Kerry cassidy, look how she dealt with my wailing like a baby on her show, and uncle Jack Burns the Irish speaking off world ET will also help you like they helped me. Kerry will also help you to market the child by setting up a donations page, with a large percentage going to her as well, see how we all care and share in our group, as Corey said this is unity in the community. Just don't go to Uncle Sean david Morton for investment advice, the nasty people have objected to us making money for better causes, and poor Sean tried so hard to make money for better causes for himself and his wife. Ok now I want to introduce you to a member of my team his name is Emma Gold, his real name is Roger Richardhead ramsaur but he likes being called Emma, unlike pattie brassard, roger doesn't like dressing up in women's clothes, but he just likes to have a girl's name. DUDE LOOKS LIKE A LADY SONG Emma has many talents, like setting people up to do conferences and then stealing their ideas and time spent, you would think a nobody like Annette O'Toole would be greatful of the publicity we have given her, but no she is another of the nasties children who runs off to that talking eyebrows guy called The dark journalist, whose real name is Daniel Robillard, who patented and registered the name Dark journalist in 2013 and operates out of building housing shell companies in Mass, he also has an attorney called Henry S. Zak who works for the US govt, so he is very suspicious as well children and would advise you to stay away from his videos, he is just talking nasty about our Corey. Emma is the guy who looks after Corey, infact he is so nice he looks after many people including Aug Tellez. We have lots of friends who support us like the vegan Michael Salad, Michael started out on his career by stealing Alfred Weber's ideas and web page Expolitics.org, that type of ingenuity we admire, and glad to have him on board.
