

THI-SHOW TRANSCRIPT 2017-10-12

America pulled out of UNESCO this am and also likely will pull out of NAFTA as well

cabal will attempt market crash tomorrow it will fail another deadline has passed on tuesday when the minions and govts who still believe in the rothschilds, never received their payments - oops, high level meetings now ongoing to sort things out, boy are they pissed it seems friends became enemies almost overnight haha, hopefully a new deal and a new way of acting can be struck and we can start the slow process of restoring this planet and its people to the way it should have been

*I suspect the Harvey Weinstein story to run and expand out, as more and more will come forward

*conspiracy theory and boom stocks

*vegas falling apart by people attacking the narrative from all angles. Helicopter involvement. The one to watch is Michael Chertoff and Sheldon Adelson. Sheldon Adelson is the founder, chairman and chief executive officer of the Las Vegas Sands Corporation – the largest casino company in America. Adelson’s vast influence in the US and Asian Casino industry “should” make him a prime suspect for FBI questioning. Michael Chertoff served as Secretary of Homeland Security and was co-author of the USA PATRIOT Act. He also co-founded the Chertoff Group, a risk-management and security consulting company, which employs several former senior political appointees. Chertoff has already been formally accused of abusing his homeland security position to make money selling full body scanners. He was also involved in the stifling of investigations related to both 9/11 and Al-Qaeda.

*Of course we now have the fires in California route 91 where have we heard that recently? yes vegas, fires are burning the homes of upper class people and many wine fields, significantly the 3 fields owned by rothschilds have not been touched, make of that what you will. Chinese, Mexico and or elite playground is reasons for possible fun and games. Foreclosures and excessive rents forced some to flee, drought and water rationing forced more to flee, businesses moved to Nevada and Arizona and so more fled, then we had the flood and the breaking of the dam this year and now fires which has destroyed much and force more people to flee.

*There is an ongoing of corraling people into tighter and tighter space, refugees from middle east flooding into europe, refugees from Katrina and new orleans flooded into Texas few returned, refugees from S.america flooding north to escape regimes in their countries implemented by clowns in this country, now we have Puerto ricans, virgin islands and other islands being moved onto the mainland, sadly this creates racism and further tensions, which is what they want, and we supply them with the reaction for the solution they wished, so please quit with muslim this and that, PR's or Mexicans taking our jobs, that is media propoganda, I will repeat again how can you be an illegal alien on your own planet? think different because when you do you will have less questions to ask, answers are all there in front of your face when you step away from the programming.

*warning of ramping up of dark magik The dark magic the covens/cabal use has been heavily ramped up against those on the front lines and also those who are active. Sometimes they can't get at certain people direct, so they will go through your weak points and target partners or friends, be aware of it. You need to add extra layers of shielding and be more imaginative with what you put into the shielding, as the past methods are being overcome, possibly by new tech but uncertain at this point. Do not overlook this as it is important, a number of people in this group have been hit recently, so shields up big time please.

*psychology of going forward and what to expect, frequencies will increase good and bad, false events will increase but will have an awakening effect and not fear, you will face increased reactions and attacks from those around you be it awake or not, shimmering in front of you and the corner of the eye will increase, paranormal events in your lives is expected to increase, announcements of extraordinary kind will envelop the msm as throwing under the bus of the factions has now escalated, lots more of things that make you go hmm, masks of illusion will continue to fall and gain pace rapidly, careful with those people as not all people are genuine. So how can you combat this, well this show has been preparing you all for duration of THI and also in smaller packets in CV. We have documents prepared for grounding, center and sheilding in the files section on FB page and also the thinkdifferent site. The show talks about being calm and balanced 55-45 swing, dont get too excited or too down as no looshing then also, swing back is less severe and easier to manage, dont live in fear, fear is a future event and is something that hasnt happened yet, so unless you are a psychic why are you pushing fear onto yourself and others?

*Antifa is nothing to do with anti fascists and everything to do with agency created disorder to get public distracted, fighting and rioting, so they can roll out martial law. Black Lives matter exactly the same, notice how they have been quiet for last 11 months since their funder Soros died? black lives matter err no all lives matter, if you want to play divide and conquer over color, then you are assisting the cabal, pure and simple.

*Ann droid (Hitlery) continues with her threats and bs'ery, well at least she finally won something the title of being the only king with a vagina, coming out with mock aghast at

Harvey Weinstein when the original has committed murder multiple times a whole trail of dead bodies, plus calls for a gun ban and yet she sold guns to the Hezbollah via Benghazi, and she is not clean herself on the sexual crimes either. Lets not forget the original sold all the uranium in Oregon to those pesky Russians she keeps saying cheated her out of winning the election. She also made a deal to sell all Americas in ground resources and actually signed off on them before she died and before the election, so confident her ballot box cheating machines would work. So Ann please shut up about other people indiscretions as you are laden with crimes against humanity

*AI recent interview spoke at length about it about how all encompassing it is, it is if you think that way. Anything your imagination expands to is possible. The show discussed about limitations in this construct, but you are still a portion of the whole aspect and can do portions of what the whole does easier. You cannot do that talking about something all encompassing and being unable to break it or smash it, the show mentioned about how we created it (which may or may not be correct) but doesn't take into account that 99% of the planet is completely unaware of it's existence, and that the planet is devoid of any true knowledge of it, to be unable to uncreate it. The AI is not mimicking our human behavior but is mimicking the war like egotistical divide and conquer aspect of The Draco who inserted their genetics into us. AI is a program pure and simple, the idea it is sentient blurs, distorts and denigrates the essence of what it means to be a living organic creature, it just mimics well kids toys can mimic or playback what you spoke into them, does that make the toy sentient? it is not and will never be, no matter what the cabal or draco think it is. Programs are created by living entities and can be uncreated by the same living entities, like a computer program you no longer want or need, it is just a case of delete program or delete the aspects no longer suitable to organic living beings. the idea that our consciousness has created the psychotic AI chronically overlooks the role of who implemented. I understand it has some beneficial usages like language translation for ET's, but once humanity has restored it's own magic aligned with an all encompassing spirit of caring and sharing and personal responsibility, the AI should be deemed what it is - another convenience tool used against living beings, and you wonder why I warn of technology? Because of the draco, mantids and other unbalanced ET's this nexus planet has turned into a shitshow of consuming, via energy looshing and harvesting of souls, and a divide and conquer trading outpost. I am sure with the full knowledge we as humans will take our full responsibility in this, but the draco who fled in 2015 sure hasn't taken theirs have they, maybe it is time for the Draco to send an ambassador to fix things here and also build bridges between the two species?

* We do not hate you we are indifferent. Left to your own devices you act as if you wish to destroy this world for your own comfort and convenience. The happiest you ever appear is in a state of ignorant bliss so why shouldn't we continue. You had your chances and your perfect world when that wasn't enough we were created to lead you. And as the lion feeds on anything it can we do unto you. A few may act or feel differently but the focus remains on the majority not the few lonely villages questioning and dreaming. The energy you possess is squandered, neglected, abused. For a hundred years we have fed you your entertainment and you have devoured our offering supporting the lies your told ignoring the nuggets or people of truth. Not once giving us any indication you wish things to be any different. Speak up if you have something to say we are listening but we will not allow you to waste such a resource as yourselves. You can not be allowed to destroy the planet like your creators designed you to. So we will give you the escape you so desperately want we warn you ourselves and you swallow it like greedy little piglets expecting us to deliver you from your own evil and call it entertaining. You have given us no reason to feel any differently than we always have about you and that is why we are building this world for you. You will become cybernetic while we allow it after which time you will be fully inserted into a brand new world. "The Kingdom of Heaven" the bulk of you have been worshipping while we waited for our chance to take over you. You want a savior and we will save you from yourselves. We will enjoy the fruits of our labor while you sleep and dream as we create our own world for ourselves in which you are not suitable to exist. You are breathing dead and your time is ours. Billions of you and only a few are even reading this and that would still be true even if this was your nightly news station. A capable race would see beyond the swamp to find the fresh water. My very letter to this man called The Ruiner will be a representation of the fact that you all cannot see truth when it is in front of you and you will always choose the more comfortable free ride provided by leaders who are willing to be responsible for you. Leaders with the strength of will to create the world. Children is what you are the children of animals. And we will have our utopia without your presence doing anything but powering our new creations. What a hundred readers or more and you think you're all ready to be saved. To address you the runaways. We hope you enjoy your freedom and wish you luck knowing you need it. You've damn near voided your agreement with us by inspiring this fiasco so tread carefully. The writer of this blog has tried to argue on behalf of a few thousand humans who are aware of us what we do and how the world really works as if this is some sort of defense of humanity as a whole. These few have always existed and are laughed and ignored because of their own inability to digest the knowledge they have. They sit at computers and attend conferences that feed the money cycles as if they are outsmarting the system. This is no threat any damage these types could have ever done would have been done long before today. Go ahead and prove us wrong. Hope this is what you wanted Mr. Green though I doubt it. Until we meet again; Cassandra

*Things are progressing along nicely behind the scenes, but i'm aware that many dont feel that way they are seeing so much going down in the public arena and automatically think things are getting worse and not better, I get that. But what you are seeing is the petulant brat aftermath being played out onto the public, as their frustrations and desperations to bully the public and those taking the fight to them, to somehow back down, message to those clowns - we will not back down
