*There will be no martial law declared here, more internet bs'ery designed to distract people who cant or wont be able to deliver their famed RV

*blown out of the water

*lots of reports of booms around the world but particularly in SW America, given no evidence of EQ's or missiles, has anyone considered the booms may not be from our world?

*the concept of what we know as time has changed, things feel different, days drift into weeks very quickly currently, a strange feeling of being here and also not being here, sleep patterns all over the place, waking up around 3am, times you get tired are off, people maybe experiencing eating less and then wanting to eat at strange times.

*N. Korea latest firing missile it went the highest ever according to media figures, it travelled 4500km up and 1000km long, but lets just get some perspective here, lets reverse those figures it travelled 4500km, so yes Guam at 3400km is in range, but Pearl Harbor 7400km, San Francisco at 9000km and New York at 10800km, makes claims of reaching mainland pure folly and actually a conspiracy. A real conspiracy that has been played on the American public for all living Americans life, the fear program.

*Another example of playing the fear program, in Liverpool on a road I lived on when teenager motorcyclist mows down an elderly woman kills her and flees reported in local press only. Here NY national breaking news motorist in hit and run runs kills one and injures 3, other than the figures injured what is the difference?

*The term "communism" was first coined and defined in its modern definition by the French philosopher and writer Victor d'Hupay. In his 1777 book Projet de communauté philosophe, d'Hupay pushes the philosophy of the Enlightenment to principles which he lived up to during most of his life in his bastide of Fuveau (Provence). This book can be seen as the cornerstone of communist philosophy as d'Hupay defines this lifestyle as a

"commune" and advises to "share all economic and material products between inhabitants of the commune, so that all may benefit from everybody's work". According to Richard Pipes, the idea of a classless, egalitarian society first emerged in Ancient Greece. The 5th-century Mazdak movement in Persia (Iran) has been described as "communistic" for challenging the enormous privileges of the noble classes and the clergy, for criticizing the institution of private property and for striving to create an egalitarian society. In the early 19th century, various social reformers founded communities based on common ownership. However, unlike many previous communist communities, they replaced the religious emphasis with a rational and philanthropic basis. Want to know who formed the current version of communism that is so distrusted even though few have bothered to look at why, was The 1917 October Revolution in Russia set the conditions for the rise to state power of Vladimir Lenin's Bolsheviks, which was the first time any avowedly communist party reached that position. The revolution transferred power to the All-Russian Congress of Soviets, in which the Bolsheviks had a majority

*Two goons raised their heads again this week, I see Capt Irrelevant formerly known as Neil Keenan has piped up again with more bs'ery about me, has no facts so makes up stream of lies and hopes they stick, nice try Capt Irrelevant, failed last time and failed this time, question remains with it is the real NK or a clone, more likely a body double as he has certainly doubled his body weight and the size of his mouth over last 18 months. play irrelevant clip

*Capt Blue Chickens piped up again with begging bowl as the nazi space program spokesperson has decided to move home and asked for $12k, whats worse is some people gave him it, now asking $6k for his wife's teeth, I mean what are those expenses have to do with disclosure and freedom? answer none, a failed snake oil salesman still pulling wool over the sheeps eyes it seems. But the question of the day is why didnt the blue chicken group transport him and his home in their blue orbs, after all they take him 20 years back and return him in a second, I wish they would take him and Nefertiti head Wilcock 20 years back on another timeline and leave them there. one problem solved.

*Some people took umbrage at a post I did this week, disclosing all the speakers at the next Contact in the desert fake disclosure event, all of them have sold out to the covens and I dont particularly care which names are in there or not, whether they wrote or said relevant stuff in the past, I am more concerned of selling themselves into a non disclosure group, well actually it is a cult, sponsored by the covens. Glad Gilliland threw his hat into their ring as saves me outing him anymore, but as always you decide for yourself, who and what you believe, I just give my opinion on the matter. Those that still go a word of warning, it is called contact in the desert for a reason, no it wont be ET contacts more like black magic, djinns, mind control agents, govt agents, rogue program members and harvesting agents, many come away from these type of events with various maladies that takes specialist in that field to release them from, you wont be cured by a doctor or hospital from those types of infections. Again it is your choice what you believe or not.

*It seems that initial warnings about Q Anon are now confirmed as correct, largely bs, it will contain some truth to hook you in but most likely scripted straight out of one of the agencies, as one gets exposed another one pops up, this is how it works, Corey and his 20 year and back started to get exposed, so suddenly 2-3 others came forward with the same story to take heat off Corey, NK stepped down and RDS stepped in, and this time it has roped in agency and coven stooge David Wilcock into the mix, you see David is that important a complete unknown female calls him under the banner of Mega Anon and tells him more script, which is like his other scripts all bs.

*In light of a recent event I feel I need to get people to look at another theory, that could tie into how we finally exit this construct and fake reality. Once an individual reaches a certain level of understanding on a personal evolutionary level and that is aligned with much shadow and inner work, this cannot be attained by just throwing your attention at it for a short time, it is a build up of the multi dimensional aspect of you, align with your higher self, aligning your golden light which requires all chakras to be clear, which means you must go beyond the 3 lower chakras currently most people operate from. After a period of time you are presented with an opportunity during your dream time. You will see a curved bridge with something at the end of it, I will not spoil what it is as it maybe different for each person, but once you see what is at the end you must leap blind, it may explain the term a leap of faith, this is where you have to be in full trust of the self, ignore 3D limitation and think possible, once you take that leap you will be surprised what is on the other side, a choice is then made of whether you go on or go back in to help others, only you can make that choice. If you don't make the leap you fall and your back where you started, you will not see the fall. So a leap of faith is required that transcends time and space, so it got me thinking again, twice a year tptb decide to change time, in Feb/March to clocks go forward and the term is leap forward, and Oct/Nov the clocks go back, as in fall back, so is it leap or fall, but what about what happens every 4th year as our planet moves 6 hours further away from the sun each year, which requires a leap year and a day is added. So here is the theory part, we had major warnings over Y2K, 2012 and 2016 and I suggested in a recent show that 2020 was a key date and will we may get 2020 vision, where we actually see stuff, but those 4 dates all have one thing in common, all fall on a leap year, so is it possible we get a chance to escape every 4 years, hence the 4 year loop cheat inserted into this timeline, another quirk or maybe it is not a coincidence, also with The Olympics being every 4 years, which also fall on every leap year, maybe the athletics event is a hint, long distance running with a leap, perhaps the saying made by Neil Armstrong, its one small step for man and one giant leap for mankind has a whole new meaning to it. - somehow I will find my way home.

 The UN General Assembly voted overwhelmingly to disavow Israeli ties to Jerusalem as part of six anti-Israel resolutions it approved on Thursday in New York. The vote was 151 in favor and six against, with nine abstentions. The resolution came as the Trump Administration was rumored to be actively considering relocating its embassy to Jerusalem. “The president has said that he has given serious consideration to the matter, and we’re looking at it with great care,” US State Department spokeswoman Heather Nauert said. She added that US President Donald Trump had until December 4th to make a decision on the embassy relocation or waive the matter for another six months. In New York, only six countries out of 193 UN member states fully supported Israel’s ties to Jerusalem: Canada, Marshall Islands, Micronesia, Nauru, the United States and Israel itself. The nine countries who abstained were: Australia, Cameroon, Central African Republic, Honduras, Panama, Papua New Guinea, Paraguay, South Sudan and Togo. The resolution stated that “any actions taken by Israel, the occupying Power, to impose its laws, jurisdiction and administration on the Holy City of Jerusalem are illegal and therefore null and void and have no validity whatsoever.” One of the issues is over the calling of the main part of Jerusalem and calling it Temple Mount,” using instead only the Arabic term for the site, “Haram al-Sharif. Except latest archeological evidence of temple mount by now deceased Dr Ernest T Martin had gleaned evidence from the writings of Josephus, the reports of early Christian pilgrims and maps dating from the crusades, that what we now call the ‘TempleMount’ is in fact the remnants of the old Herodian/Roman fortress that was called the Antonia. The Temple of Herod was so utterly destroyed by the Romans in 70 AD that even its location (somewhat to the south and west of the ‘TempleMount’) was forgotten. In part this was because the Jews were all expelled from Jerusalem by the Romans and apart from the Roman fortress, for half a century or more the city was no more than a heap of rubble. Their ongoing hostility erupted into civil war in 31 BC, as the Roman Senate, at Octavian's direction, declared war on Cleopatra and proclaimed Antony a traitor. With Antony dead, Octavian was the undisputed master of the Roman world. In 27 BC, Octavian was granted the title of Augustus, marking the final stage in the transformation of the Roman Republic into an empire, with himself as the first Roman emperor. The reconciliation came soon after Antony rejected an offer by Gaius Trebonius, one of Caesar's generals, to join a conspiracy to assassinate Caesar. Soon after assuming office together, the Lupercalia festival was held on 15 February 44 BC. The festival was held in honor of Lupa, the she-wolf who suckled the infant orphans Romulus and Remus, the founders of Rome.^[50] The political atmosphere of Rome at the time of the festival was deeply divided. Caesar had enacted a number of constitutional reforms which centralized effectively all political powers within his own hands. He was granted further honors, including a form of semi-official cult, with Antony as his high priest.^[51] Additionally, the day before the festival, Caesar had been named Dictator for Life, effectively granting unlimited power. Caesar's political rivals feared these reforms were his attempts at transforming the Republic into an open monarchy. all this comes after Israel decided in its infinite stupidity to launch an air bombing raid this week on Syria, based on nothing, the predictable outcry unfolded today when it is alleged 2 rockets were fired at Israel but failed to reach their target and landed in Palestinian territory, anyone else notice these rockets only go off when Israel decides to launch an offensive, or there is a state visit, or peace talks, happens far too often for it to be a coincidence and is damning evidence of false flag event designed to gain sympathy from the poodle people in America. Notwithstanding that the entity known as Donald Trump pours more fuel on the fire by announcing Jerusalem is Israel's capital,
