

THI-SHOW TRANSCRIPT 2018-05-02

*Over the weekend #operationstupidity (RV for those unfamiliar) was attempted again, only with a new guy attempting to pull it off, Jesper Ellermann, he of Kingdom of Manna fame, a group that was once a part of going forward with MWHT, sadly he chose to go the other way and Kim and team removed him last October when the evidence against him mounted up, now according to KOM team they say the opposite happened and they fired Kim, and yet never bothered to inform me of their news for 4 months, odd behavior that, or the fact that for 18 months and despite promoting him and KOM, actually the only show promoting him or KOM, he Jesper never bothered to speak to me once, again I find that telling, so despite stating they fired Kim last year, please explain why the world watched Kim enter working codes, if she was fired? To accomplish their goals of carrying out the RV, they yet again hacked all through the night at the Quantum System housing the Trust funds, ya see they don't have any funds of their own and resort to what they have always done best - thievery. At which point do people who follow this type of behavior, see it for what it is? a continuation of old paradigm, and if you are involved in promoting or wanting RV's to go ahead, you are complicit in continuing the slavery program. RV was never for and by the people, but same rogue elements who have ran this planet for their own ends. So another failure but this then unleashed the trolls, shills and false believers from KOM, one of which who worked in a Steiner school and is friends with a Rockefeller oh my, and also entities known from the Tolec shows as Mr. M Matthew Schlueter who thinks he is Jesus's brother and Ms. M who was part of the Manna team and also part of the UPU show, she is reincarnation of Mary magdelene from her accounts, so why are they involved? for the very reason she was dropped from the team not long after the UPU show, because her partner is involved with the chinese elders and Rothschilds rogues, and is pushing the RV. I mean since when has the Rothschilds or Chinese Elders for that matter ever done anything for humanity, answers on a postage stamp for that. Remember it was the chinese elders who gave Rothschilds family $20M in 1520 to kick start their empire. But Jesper who is working directly on behalf of The Rothschilds, and so is knowingly or not along with his team Kingdom of Manna including Tzu Xander and Haydn Ellis who have appeared on AEWT shows, who sadly have gone along with the man with more titles than pete Sampras. I do hope the latter people see through Mr. Ellerman. Jesper Ellerman changed his name first to King Julius, all very Roman Empire that Jesper, but then went one step further and changed his name to 2 angels archon or otherwise, Michael and Uriel, I mean what type of nonsense is that, and what is that actually doing for the benefit of the people, more hierarchy is not what we need on this planet, it's old paradigm, surely that should have raised concerns within his own ranks, it did for me. Perhaps they also need to find out what the Papua New Guinea government and officials think of Jesper and his plans for Manus Island, lets just say it wont be complimentary or provide any validity to what he has planned, no contracts, no signatures - nothing. Don't believe me? fine, then go and check for yourself.

Jesper is now the head of the RV program after promising his team, the rothschilds and rv crew he had the codes to the trust, except as proven over the weekend and into Monday, he didnt, ya see the issue with the codes is anyone can say they have the codes, I actually have the codes for the trust, but can I use them, no, so they resorted to hacking again, which subsequently failed again, only this time the system fired back and fried all their servers. Of course this left a number of people in awkward and angry mode, then like magic they appeared the following day, and cue the people from down under bombing our page and trying to discredit the trustee, after no doubt Jesper telling them a bs story that it was Kim who prevented their promised funding programs, utter delusional, I wont name them but you know who they are, message to them ask Jesper where his codes are again? as like the chinese elders, roths, pindars before him they may have codes, but they dont have any working codes, as proven this week. I have sat on this information for a while and chose not to out it, as it is non productive, and out of respect for Tzu and Haydn, but unfortunately there are people within our group, more intent on find drama and division, digging here and chatting there than providing solutions to go forward.

The key for me is this, Kim came to me in february 2016 offering to help, she provided a plethora of information, some of which very few people have ever seen. Was I skeptical at first absolutely, but I made it clear from the off I would not be sidetracked by promises of this and that, collectively or personally, my only interest is steered towards the benefit of all and saving this planet, and so on we continued. There were a few times when the foundation was on the brink of being launched and was blocked, which did raise doubts of those around me and I got that, is this another one of the nesaras, gcr or heaven forbid another RV program, that comes in in a blaze of noise and then fizzles out after a plethora of 2 weeks notices, but I asked the right questions and more importantly received the answers back, that were based in facts and not just fobbed off. Over time the foundation to me is not the be all and end all the initial contact and offer to fund it, became, why? because we both have a desire to clean up this planet and get rid of the total vermin that slithers amongst us, so the initial contact between Kim and I has taken on a new course, of co-operation on a number of points and a trust has been built up, which trust me in this game is not an easy thing to do or accept. We have had people within her original team jump ship to Rothschilds, because they fell to the instant short term gain trick of seducement, far too many fall for that trick. Then came in the details of Jesper and KOM and I was a bit skeptical of him after looking into his background, and did ask certain questions about him and was given satisfactory answers in return at the time. So on it rolled and things were going to plan, but I began privately to be rather curious as to why I had had no contact with Jesper, I thought it odd at the time, given we were the only outlet supporting KOM and Jesper. Then I was introduced to 2 of his people who I both think highly of and still do, and they told me of an arranged meeting of all the team and a 3 hour Q & A session with Jesper personally, which again I thought was odd that I wasnt included in it, anyway Tzu said he had recorded it and would send recording over, only to then change his mind after consultation presumably with Jesper. Which I then asked Tzu why would that be the case I thought this was a team effort and yet somehow I'm being left out, what is going on? so I was then suggested they will be doing documentaries with me in it and Jesper will arrange a show for you, neither materialized and I wasn't expecting them too, intuition is a funny thing, it helps so much and yet few of us take that offer of support. The key to all of this and can be settled very easily by those involved, that can spare all the hassle and save people falling out and making allegations and assumptions. So here is the challenge, Monday May 4th Jesper and Kim with observers on both sides can sit at the terminals and use their codes for all to see, then we will really find out who is who and who is not, so to KOM and Jesper team lets get it on this coming Monday May 4th and then we can end this nonsense and go forward with clarity and solutions, and not in current mode diversions and distractions.

*Files, pictures, evidence and documents of major criminality involving financial fraud and other crimes were sent to all major American, UK and Russia media outlets for them to cover, as of yet none have replied, if they are listening and I imagine many will be listening to this particular show, the fact you all now have real news and evidence as such hands of the responsibility of it onto your shoulders, should you all collectively fail to deliver that information to the public, you are then liable and party to the same criminal actions and the consequences. So to be clear if Mr X has committed treason and you have the proof of such and ignore it, you are complicit in treason as well.

*Last night from between 12.01 and 12.46am EST the whole financial system was shut down, this then allowed Kim and team full access to what had been going on and then find the evidence of criminality within the system and who perpetrated it. Various names familiar and not had their accounts frozen and criminal funds seized and removed to other accounts in ready for returning to the rightful owners of the funds. Whilst that was ongoing the system was completely overhauled and cleared of any backdoors, rogue software, all flags in the system on persons or groups (this plays into the targeted individuals theme, anyway all were removed from the system, rogue data storage also removed from the system as well. The Trust account which was off ledger due to being blocked, was then transferred and installed into the system as on ledger and subsequently live. Whilst ongoing the 5 eyes system known as Echelon was completely frozen.

*the next part of the operation involved no flagging of any person or group connected with the accounts that will be deposited from the trust into the project funds accounts, this will prevent fake FBI turning up at banks with fake badges issued by rogue agencies to attempt to block or cause issues with people connected to the accounts. An official warrant will be required with 2 types of ID of the individual acquiring the warrant, which then logs them as accountable if the warrant is based on rogue evidence or nefarious reasons, there will be no fake FBI calling in favors from DHS anymore to issue fake warrants.

*Attempts were made by the clowns and their legion of hackers to break in and steal a few test accounts set up and delivered by the trust this week, they tried to rename the accounts and steal them, they then tried to leverage the accounts to Hong Kong, this previously had no effects or consequences of actions, that has now changed as the system recognizes the person attempting to raid the accounts and what happens next will please everyone bar them, the system accesses their own personal accounts and shuts it down - oops Any further intrusions by the puppets of these clowns will face the same consequences, so go ahead and make our day punks, but no the consequences, it wont be your paymaster losing their accounts - you will, so please quit that stupidty you are involved in and step down or better still come and help us instead, we have a real plan for all. The same applies to any deciding to block our accounts being accessed, will subsequently have their own accounts blocked and unable to access - again oops.

* NATO head has been sending 75 to 78% of what is being collected from Allied Nations is being sent to Rothschild, all funds that were able to be recovered have been returned to the respective nations, criminal files have been sent to all nations involved.

*Also Rothschilds were found to be funnelling funds out of the UN also, the UN has a new temporary President and she doesnt take lightly or kindly to those actions and has returned the $50B membership fees to each country involved in the UN, under the original charter of the UN there was no membership fees for being a participant in the UN, so basically these fees were just another slush fund for Rothschilds et al, also refunded to the countries some of the recovered funds of their contributions made to the UN also

*A word about the codes for the new system, like I said earlier I have the codes having seen the documents, Tank also has the codes for an experiment done in January, but can we use them codes now? NO, many have the codes but only one validates it, all codes have a timespan of them, a date span on them and a transaction reason on me, once those dates, times and transactions have passed those codes are useless, ya see it is not only them who is clever. So, this is where all the RV people have been duped, Chinese elders along with a plethora of other alt media personalities saying they have the codes now and it is all going to happen, what they are useless numbers, that only work from direct contact and approval from the trust. So Jesper who did have codes to the system when he was part of the team, until his deception was fully revealed, and his working codes became null and void back in the autumn last year, he also boasted he could hack into the system, that didnt work either.

*So, what did all this bring about, well, now the trust account has gone from off ledger to on ledger, it means the trust funds for the projects and humanitarian programs can now go ahead. A number of test funds into certain accounts has now been made, and they are readying everything now for full delivery and transfer of the funds, and all being well we the people will be ready to roll.

*Courtesy of Leo Zagami who sent me a friend request at the weekend. The Illuminati is not a secret society, it is an open society that advocate for peace, companionship and bringing the society together irrespective of their colour, creed, race and class. Members of illuminati also receive immortality. The Illuminati Brotherhood was founded under the principles of love, peace, justice, unity and relief. The Illuminati brings together individuals of good will irrespective of their differences and ensure that, these good men become better people in the society. Immediately after the final initiation, new members are always given a financial benefit equivalent to $200,000USD, a brand new car, a residence in any country of their choice, appointment with four top celebrities of their choice, VIP treats in all international airports, and a monthly salary of $1000000USD to reorganize their Lives in order to fit the class and status of the club members who help them achieve all what they ever wanted in their life. Other monetary rewards are communicated immediately after the Initiation stage. Inbox The Grandmaster for your online initiation, seems like the catholic church their ranks are leaving in droves and have now decided to advertise for recruitment back, only this group offers seducement in it's lowest denomination form, lets look at their principles, since when has money brought love, peace or unity? the 2 categories left justice and relief, justice is not real justice if money and secret societies use it to counteract and overcome real justice, relief, its bring relief only to the select few, so again how is that justice? it is certainly not loving is it.

*So Ann, the aids patient and their hideous offspring Chelsea, want people to attend a $100K gathering to promote all things Clinton Foundation, $100K to sit and fawn over them and their depravity, are people that stupid? or just maybe the Clintons are short of money again, and no Bush family funds to bail them out this time. oops.

*Duality and the problems it creates, it appears when early man was in Lemuria, which contrary to popular belief was in Russia, and likely the area almost completely wiped from the map and history known as tartaria, and not in the Pacific as often mentioned, that is the land of MU not Lemuria. Those people didnt have 2 hemispheres of the brain only one, now whether it was a part of a grand experiment or not, time will tell, but I don't think it has helped this version of humanity too much. So much in life is about choosing one over the other, race, country, color, sexuality, politics and then you have the internal battle of left and right brain, well I'm left brain so I have this quality or that quality you often hear and vice versa for those of right brain thinking, and we all get immersed in it, in what is essentially a battle of the self, why would we want to battle ourselves? and instead progress ourselves. The battle of the self is a key component of world freedom imo, yes you can point with valid reasons to the role of the cabal, politicians, bankers and even ET's as interfering, and yes they have, but only to a large degree if we allow them to, and therein lies the problem, we have allowed them to run our lives far too much, we have too easily imo given over our own responsibility to others, to those with a heavy penchant of taking advantage of us. One could argue, well if they keep giving their energy away and refuse to learn the real truth, why shouldn't we take it, all very Cassandra thinking I think you would agree, but it shouldn't negate our own responsibility on these matters either. So what is the solution, simple in essence and what I have tried to do with these shows, is get us to think and act different, get centered and be balanced, that is the gist of it. So duality is left or right brain, and so they like an election only offer up those choices, and many just go along with those choices, but there is a 3rd choice and that comes down to you, not them, and so ultimately you have your own choice and subsequent freedom. Unlike the election of choose neither, in this aspect you choose both, so left and right merge into the center and become one, the triality which is the pineal gland region, the center, the balance, the fulcrum of human potential, use and choose wisely, and exercise your own free will, and not absorb just what they offer, is the key to humanity progressing forward as a species.

*Something to ponder on but not necessarily hold on tightly too until more definitive proof is garnered and clarified. Courtesy of Kim, her team and this show we have outed a whole heap of crimes by known entities around the world, including many current and former leaders, all of them have been exposed and their fulcrum files released and shown all around the world to the relevant authorities. Now what if, all the leaders called into the WH, think of who has visited recently, plus Zuckerberg and Bill Gates, and told they are about to be brought down and exposed but first you will help us carry out tasks, designed to clean up the swamp and mercenary style armies, of which there is many, perhaps those who refused where subsequently whisked into court and have been charged under the banner of fraud and corruption? time will tell on that. So, suddenly Nuttyasshole decides to help in Syria and Iran, could that be for his and zionist gain? yes absolutely and why i said dont hold onto to it too tightly at this point. America is perceived to have attacked Syria, and yet Russia never responded, is Putin in on it? Assad kept quiet and never responded either, little to no murmurings anywhere, which in itself is rather odd. So, we know there was a research facility doing bad human experiments and trafficking and another involved in nuclear research, that was bombed, but was not bombed with warheads, they were duds I hear, then we hear Iran is next and fears increase, but then we get to hear about the rogue nuclear deal Obama and his gang of mercenary armies known as Muslim Brotherhood, they are nothing to do with being Muslim and everything to do with causing chaos for financial compensation. Where large cash funds were delivered directly to the source, yes you Obama, since when as government ever done that, and why wasn't it investigated? So yet again the American people pay for something they get no gains from. Iran and Syria it appears we are not being told the full story of, and just maybe other leaders are helping drain the swamp before ultimately facing their own consequences of actions. Of course it could well all be a ruse and the caliphate program just rolls on, time will tell.

*So Kanye West has lost 10M followers for siding with Trump it seems, 2 things comes of this is 1. since when have people only followed people based on politics? it vacuous in its extreme forms, the rivalry of political parties in this country I find both disgusting and utter stupidity in equal measure, the day the masses see through that illusion will be the peoples day of freedom, all of them are self serving pratts, devoid of compassion, morals and integrity until they prove to us in real terms otherwise and 2. the thin line of being a personality which can be built up to a gigantic proportions not based on talent or otherwise, but on marketing ploys and scheming, a certain branding implement by the likes of Tavistock and CFR, but one stroke of a pen or one missed place word, action or deed can take away all your so called fame, and lead to an idiotic public devoid of their own sense of self, turning against you and stripping it all away, its all very shallow and an example to the rest of the so called stars of our world, how easily your so called higher status, can be removed. Time for the other people in Kanye's circle of false stardom to step down and step forward, your all pawns in their game. Stepping out and forward and joining us will gain you far more than bogus awards, that are all designed to keep you looking important, with it's wealth, fame and trappings, and regain something far more valuable truth, honor and integrity. Blacks are mentally imprisoned

*Last week in a piece I highlighted as part of an ongoing problem that ties in Parkland shooting and also Hitlery and Pizzagate issues by mentioning Broward County, Florida as something to pay attention to, this coming after one cop died suddenly with no health issues at aged 42, was it a coincidence that that cop was talking out of official line. Well now 2 other cops also have died in Broward County in their sleep, the other of cardiac arrest. Hazardous profession when real criminals are in the spotlight it seems. There was 2 cops in Florida killed in line of duty and every time I turn on local news there appears to be some sort of ceremony for those 2 cops, at least 4 I can remember, and yet 3 cops in 1 county dying in somewhat mysterious circumstances, renders no news, perhaps those cops only died in our world, and not on the portal people world.

 This particular hospital has previous stains on their operations also, it was reported in January 2001 that Alder Hey Hospital were retaining hearts and organs of babies. The organs were stripped without permission from babies who died at the hospital between 1988-1996. Hospital staff also kept and stored 400 fetuses collected from hospital around the north west of England. Here is some of the stuff revealed back then. 1. Bristol hospital 1998 found out they were keeping baby hearts after surgery. 2. Alder Hey scandal emerged accidentally when heart specialist Professor Robert Anderson revealed at a separate official inquiry into heart surgery at Bristol that a store of children's hearts was kept at Alder Hey. 3. September - Birmingham Diana Princess of Wales Children's Hospital and Alder Hey Liverpool found to be harvesting organs and tissues from babies that died at hospitals 4. Hospitals involved (September) found to have given Thymus glands that were removed during heart surgery from live children to a pharmaceutical company for research. 5. They then received cash donations from the company involved. 6. Organ harvesting at Alder Hey had been such an established practice that even parents whose children had died decades ago found that organs had been removed before the bodies were released to the families. even when the hospital told parents that organs were missing from the bodies of their dead children that some parents were still not given the whole truth. 7. In some cases parent had organs returned to them for burial only to face the agony of another funeral just months later when another organ or piece of tissue was returned.

In a week where there were numerous displays of a vacuous British public, celebrating the life of another royal child designed to drain more of the funds away and out of the people, The state, the govt and a hospital combined to take the life of a commoner child. Alfie Evans, who was born in May 2016, who was born a healthy child until he had vaccines, at which he started suffering seizures, he was first admitted to the hospital the following December after, and had been a patient ever since. The child then underwent large quantities of sedative and experimental drugs, also found on him were various mysterious puncture marks and evidence of invasive procedures, which the parents reported. This then lead to the parents being stripped as legal guardian rights of the child by a court, notice it says guardian rights not parental rights, it is the key to all of this. The court then orders the what was essentially the execution of the child via lethal injection using fentanyl. His parents, who live in Bootle, the couple heavily criticised medical staff, with Mr Evans suggesting his son was a "prisoner" at the hospital and had been misdiagnosed, and wanted to fly the toddler to an Italian hospital who offered treatment, and an emergency medical helicopter to fly him to Italy free of charge was laid on, but the police, courts and hospital blocked it, the sight of a row of cops blocking the entrance of the hospital to stop the parents removing their child, should live long in the memory for those who witnessed it. Alder Hey Hospital said scans showed "catastrophic degradation of his brain tissue" and that further treatment was not only "futile" but also "unkind and inhumane". The hospital then withholds food, water, oxygen and drugs from the child and he died last Saturday morning. The Italian and other hospitals offers were rejected by the doctors, who said continuing treatment was "not in Alfie's best interests", but where they acting in Alfie's interest or the state? Once he turned 2, which is this month, the vaccine injury which kept him on life support would have been claimable, and the British government would have to pay for lifelong care and social support. Is this really why they turned off his life support, and denied him food and water, and then detained him by force in the hospital, until death. This was murder by the state.

*This case has been a hot topic of debate in the UK, and shows further examples of how the system of control works against us and why it is essential that everybody takes an interest in it, it cannot be tolerated anymore just because it is not happening to your child, the reality is it is the system of birth certificates and who controls them, means it affects every single child on the planet. Because the vast majority of people are unaware of what happens when you register a child, you are signing it over for control to the state, you are responsible only when they don't interact or better worded interfere with your child's life. So where do they interact? schools, hospitals and doctors (remember me mentioning recently of the 8 institutions that work against us, there is 3 right there) schools dictate what they think for your child not you, hospitals, doctors and nurses are modern day gods deciding who lives and who doesn't depending on whether the recipient family has money, or they are a targeted family, and if you don't believe in certain families and children being targeted, you have no idea how far that program goes. We all hear often well the doctor knows best, says who? is there any proof they know better, we often get asked for proof and yet so many in society accept statements like that and just go along with it, same applies with teacher knows best, really? based on what? where is the evidence to support those statements? when you look at it and really analyse it, it has no basis of proof or evidence, none whatsoever, and this is why people have to relearn the ability to question everything. Doctors trained for 7 years and not a single minute spent on cures, look at the word doctor or doctoring, doctoring means to interfere with or falsifying evidence, real definition of a doctor? a glorified and systematic pill pushers, question for the doctors did you train for 7 years plus to become a drug pusher, because there are some on the streets who never trained for 7 seconds making similar money pushing different types of drugs. There is a pill that cures Hepatitis C that costs a nickel to make, is sold in India for $900 which is scandalous enough, but America pill pushers sell it for $84K, in an age of minimum wages who affords that cost? answer no one - and yet we trust these people with our lives, let's get real here, we owe it to ourselves. Dentists telling us fluoride is good for us, these people are hazmat sellers, i'm sorry fluoride is a genocide slow poison agenda, so I wouldn't be trusting them either. Teachers oh dear America is in its 3rd generation now of teaching stupidity courtesy of Ford group and Carnegie, so now we are well into the program of teachers who were taught stupidity themselves, then teaching it to next generation and so on, Doctors and Teachers per se are not the problem, it is the system that created them, but what I do have an issue with is how, so few cannot see through the obvious bs'ery and point blank refuse to look at issues, others with an outside view can see. They fiercely defend their professions and status, but look at the evidence, I don't need to I am the doctor or I am the teacher, yeah right and that gives you authority on the truth does it? in whose world and when did that ruling come in to play? The term they know what is best whether referring to doctors, nurses, hospitals, teachers, politicians, military, judges or lawyers and heaven forbid social workers my disdain for them half wits goes deep, saying they know best is NOT based on fact, facts dont support that statement, as it is all based on dissolving your own personal responsibility, pure and simple, and yet so many scream they want freedom, how can you have freedom when you keep handing over responsibility of your own lives, to others who know little of how real life should be, the very people who only know and accept the program. That program is and has been destructive for our development of the species. This case of the state deciding and telling you, they own all of your children until 18 should outrage everyone, not just the activist few, you have a child or grandchild it is important to you, in essence the most important issue. Life and progression of a species is all about producing and developing offspring, our role as humans and parents is to guide them to be better than our generation, it is how species progress. What we have instead is disturbing when done in an overview point of view, so listen closely. We have a system that from birth steals your child's trust fund, tricks you into registering them over too the state, injects 10-30 poisons via vaccines into them before they get to school, school then poisons their minds with endless drivel, spitting out propaganda, distorting truth and denying the child whose informative and most important years of development for soul growth ages 0-7 a chance to go forward. High school brings higher levels of indoctrination, stifling creativity, stifling critical thinking and producing in real terms bio bots who only follow orders. Then they decide to roll them into the adult world, using terms like you will not get on in life unless you go to college and or university and we will show you how to become a proper adult, and how do they do that? by then immersing you in a lifetime of debt called a student loan, you cant pay off student loans working in McDonalds or some other minimal pay per hour, you can barely live on that, never mind pay loans off, then they go into real adult world where they are stuck with helicopter parents because they cant afford homes or rents, they meet a partner and have a child to repeat the cycle all over again, except state has another hammer waiting for you upon delivery, a $20K fee for delivering your child, a $20K fee for bring a progression of our species into the world. I mean wells the fargo is that all about, it is utterly ridiculous and it is something every American should be ashamed of their role in it, just how and why did so many buy into that program, its beyond stupidity? How and why have we so readily and easily accepted those life choices for our children, how and why are so many still propagating it, it is beyond criminal on their part for setting it all up that way, but bad lord, how stupid have we been accepting it. Question remains what are we and I mean all of we, not just this group going to do about it, the next piece may well be a course of actions we can all do, is it comfortable, nope, but we cannot absorb all of the responsibility each and everyone listening to this show he absorbed, whilst others go about their lives like all is well, it's freaking not. Some may respond to this piece and say Thomas but who can we trust, you have just trashed every institution, good question, but answer is YOU, but perhaps put a little of trust in me as well, but ultimately it is about YOU.
